ANNEXATION AMENDMENTS

Sponsor: Marda Dillree

This act modifies provisions of the Utah Municipal Code relating to municipal annexations. The act establishes an annexation procedure for counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, and sixth classes that is different from that for counties of the first class. The act requires municipalities within counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, and sixth classes to adopt an annexation policy plan before future annexations after a certain date may occur. The act eliminates the feasibility study requirement for annexations of areas in a county of the second, third, fourth, fifth, and sixth classes. The act allows an owner of nonfederal public property to file an annexation petition. The act restricts annexations from taking place in counties of the first class for a specified period, with certain exceptions. The act enacts uncodified material that requires first class counties and cities within first class counties to prepare a plan for annexations within the county and to submit the plan to the Legislative Management Committee. The act also makes technical changes.

This act affects sections of Utah Code Annotated 1953 as follows:

(8) An insurer may not impose requirements on a state agency which has been assigned the rights of an individual eligible for medical assistance under Medicaid and covered for disability benefits from the insurer that are different from requirements applicable to an agent or assignee of any other individual so covered.

(9) Insurers may not reduce their coverage of pediatric vaccines below the benefit level in effect on May 1, 1993.

(10) When a parent is required by a court or administrative order to provide health coverage, which is available through an employer doing business in this state, the employer shall:

(12) This section does not affect any insurer's ability to require as a precondition of any child being covered under any policy of insurance that:

(a) the parent continues to be eligible for coverage;

(b) the child shall be identified to the insurer with adequate information to comply with this section; and

(c) the premium shall be paid when due.

MANDATORY CHILD PROTECTIVE SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

Sponsor: Matt Throckmorton

This act requires the Division of Child and Family Services to follow the same investigative requirements for both preremoval and postremoval investigations of child abuse or neglect.

This act affects sections of Utah Code Annotated 1953 as follows:

AMENDS:
62A-4a-202.3, as last amended by Chapters 274 and 321, Laws of Utah 2000
62A-4a-409, as last amended by Chapters 274 and 321, Laws of Utah 2000

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 62A-4a-202.3 is amended to read:

62A-4a-202.3. Investigation -- Substantiation of reports -- Child in protective custody.

(1) When a child is taken into protective custody in accordance with Sections 62A-4a-202.1 and 78-3a-301, the Division of Child and Family Services shall immediately initiate [~~a post-removal~~] an investigation of the circumstances of the minor and the facts surrounding his being taken into protective custody.

(2) The division's [~~post-removal~~] investigation shall include, among other actions necessary to meet reasonable professional standards:

(a) a search for and review of any records of past reports of abuse or neglect involving the same child, any sibling or other child residing in that household, and the alleged perpetrator;

(b) with regard to a child who is five years of age or older, a personal interview with the child outside of the presence of the alleged perpetrator, conducted in accordance with the requirements of Subsection (7);

(c) an interview with the child's natural parents or other guardian, unless their whereabouts are unknown;

(d) an interview with the person who reported the abuse, unless anonymous;

(e) where possible and appropriate, interviews with other third parties who have had direct contact with the child, including school personnel and the child's health care provider;

(f) an unscheduled visit to the child's home, unless the division has reasonable cause to believe that the reported abuse was committed by a person who does not:

(i) live in the child's home; or

(ii) have access to the child; and

(g) if appropriate and indicated in any case alleging physical injury, sexual abuse, or failure to meet the child's medical needs, a medical examination. That examination shall be obtained no later than 24 hours after the child was placed in protective custody.

(3) The division may rely on a written report of a prior interview rather than conducting an additional interview, if:

(a) law enforcement has previously conducted a timely and thorough investigation regarding the alleged abuse or neglect and has produced a written report;

(b) that investigation included one or more of the interviews required by Subsection (2); and

(c) the division finds that an additional interview is not in the best interest of the child.

(4) (a) [~~With regard to both pre- and post-removal, the~~] The division's determination of whether a report is substantiated or unsubstantiated may be based on the child's statements alone.

(b) Inability to identify or locate the perpetrator may not be used by the division as a basis for determining that a report is unsubstantiated, or for closing the case.

(c) The division may not determine a case to be unsubstantiated or identify a case as unsubstantiated solely because the perpetrator was an out-of-home perpetrator.

(d) Decisions regarding whether a report is substantiated, unsubstantiated, or without merit shall be based on the facts of the case at the time the report was made.

(5) The division should maintain protective custody of the child if it finds that one or more of the following conditions exist:

(a) the minor has no natural parent, guardian, or responsible relative who is able and willing to provide safe and appropriate care for the minor;

(b) shelter of the minor is a matter of necessity for the protection of the minor and there are no reasonable means by which the minor can be protected in his home or the home of a responsible relative;

(c) there is substantial evidence that the parent or guardian is likely to flee the jurisdiction of the court; or

(d) the minor has left a previously court ordered placement.

(6) (a) Within 24 hours after receipt of a child into protective custody, excluding weekends and holidays, the Division of Child and Family Services shall convene a child protection team to review the circumstances regarding removal of the child from his home, and prepare the testimony and evidence that will be required of the division at the shelter hearing, in accordance with Section 78-3a-306.

(b) Members of that team shall include:

(i) the caseworker assigned to the case and the caseworker who made the decision to remove the child;

(ii) a representative of the school or school district in which the child attends school;

(iii) the peace officer who removed the child from the home;

(iv) a representative of the appropriate Children's Justice Center, if one is established within the county where the child resides;

(v) if appropriate, and known to the division, a therapist or counselor who is familiar with the child's circumstances; and

(vi) any other individuals as determined to be appropriate and necessary by the team coordinator and chair.

(c) At that 24-hour meeting, the division shall have available for review and consideration, the complete child protective services and foster care history of the child and the child's parents and siblings.

(7) After receipt of a child into protective custody and prior to the adjudication hearing, all investigative interviews with the child that are initiated by the division shall be audio or video taped, and the child shall be allowed to have a support person of the child's choice present. That support person may not be an alleged perpetrator.

(8) The division shall cooperate with law enforcement investigations regarding the alleged perpetrator.

(9) The division may not close an investigation solely on the grounds that the division investigator is unable to locate the child, until all reasonable efforts have been made to locate the child and family members. Those efforts include:

(a) visiting the home at times other than normal work hours;

(b) contacting local schools;

(c) contacting local, county, and state law enforcement agencies; and

(d) checking public assistance records.

Section 2. Section 62A-4a-409 is amended to read:

62A-4a-409. Investigation by division -- Temporary protective custody -- Preremoval interviews of children.

(1) The division shall make a thorough pre-removal investigation upon receiving either an oral or written report of alleged abuse, neglect, fetal alcohol syndrome, or fetal drug dependency, when there is reasonable cause to suspect a situation of abuse, neglect, fetal alcohol syndrome, or fetal drug dependency. The primary purpose of that investigation shall be protection of the child.

(2) The preremoval investigation [~~may include inquiry into the child's home environment, emotional, or mental health, nature and extent of injuries, and physical safety~~] shall include the same investigative requirements described in Section 62A-4a-202.3.

(3) The division shall make a written report of its investigation. The written report shall include a determination regarding whether the alleged abuse or neglect was substantiated, unsubstantiated, or without merit.

(4) (a) The division shall use an interdisciplinary approach whenever possible in dealing with reports made under this part.

(b) For this purpose, the division shall convene appropriate interdisciplinary "child protection teams" to assist it in its protective, diagnostic, assessment, treatment, and coordination services.

(c) A representative of the division shall serve as the team's coordinator and chair. Members of the team shall serve at the coordinator's invitation, and whenever possible, the team shall include representatives of health, mental health, education, law enforcement agencies, and other appropriate agencies or individuals.

(5) In any case where the division supervises, governs, or directs the affairs of any individual, institution, or facility that has been alleged to be involved in acts or omissions of child abuse or neglect, the investigation of the reported child abuse or neglect shall be conducted by an agency other than the division.

(6) If a report of neglect is based upon or includes an allegation of educational neglect the division shall immediately consult with school authorities to verify the child's status in accordance with Sections 53A-11-101 through 53A-11-103.

(7) When the division has completed its initial investigation under this part, it shall give notice of that completion to the person who made the initial report.

(8) Division workers or other child protection team members have authority to enter upon public or private premises, using appropriate legal processes, to investigate reports of alleged child abuse or neglect.

(9) With regard to any interview of a child prior to removal of that child from his home:

(a) except as provided in Subsection (9)(b) or (c), the division shall notify a parent of the child prior to the interview;

(b) if a child's parent or stepparent, or a parent's paramour has been identified as the alleged perpetrator, the division need not notify a parent of the child prior to an initial interview with the child;

(c) if the perpetrator is unknown, or if the perpetrator's relationship to the child's family is unknown, the division may conduct a minimal interview, not to exceed 15 minutes, with the child prior to notification of the child's parent;

(d) in all cases described in Subsection (9)(b) or (c), a parent of the child shall be notified as soon as practicable after the child has been interviewed, but in no case later than 24 hours after the interview has taken place;

(e) a child's parents shall be notified of the time and place of all subsequent interviews with the child; and

(f) the child shall be allowed to have a support person of the child's choice present. That support person:

(i) may include, but is not limited to, a school teacher or administrator, guidance counselor, or child care provider; and

(ii) may not be a person who is alleged to be, or potentially may be, the perpetrator.

(10) In accordance with the procedures and requirements of Sections 62A-4a-202.1 through 62A-4a-202.3 and 78-3a-301, a division worker or child protection team member may take a child into protective custody, and deliver the child to a law enforcement officer, or place the child in an emergency shelter facility approved by the juvenile court, at the earliest opportunity subsequent to the child's removal from its original environment. Control and jurisdiction over the child is determined by the provisions of Title 78, Chapter 3a, and as otherwise provided by law.

(11) With regard to cases in which law enforcement has or is conducting an investigation of alleged abuse or neglect of a child:

(a) the division shall coordinate with law enforcement to ensure that there is an adequate safety plan to protect the child from further abuse or neglect; and

(b) the division is not required to duplicate an aspect of the investigation that, in the division's determination, has been satisfactorily completed by law enforcement.

ENACTS:
76-3-203.6, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 76-3-201 is amended to read:

76-3-201. Definitions -- Sentences or combination of sentences allowed -- Civil penalties -- Restitution -- Hearing.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Conviction" includes a:

(i) judgment of guilt; and

(ii) plea of guilty.

(b) "Criminal activities" means any offense of which the defendant is convicted or any other criminal conduct for which the defendant admits responsibility to the sentencing court with or without an admission of committing the criminal conduct.

(c) "Pecuniary damages" means all special damages, but not general damages, which a person could recover against the defendant in a civil action arising out of the facts or events constituting the defendant's criminal activities and includes the money equivalent of property taken, destroyed, broken, or otherwise harmed, and losses including earnings and medical expenses.

(d) "Restitution" means full, partial, or nominal payment for pecuniary damages to a victim, including the accrual of interest from the time of sentencing, insured damages, and payment for expenses to a governmental entity for extradition or transportation and as further defined in Subsection (4)(c).

(e) (i) "Victim" means any person whom the court determines has suffered pecuniary damages as a result of the defendant's criminal activities.

(ii) "Victim" does not include any coparticipant in the defendant's criminal activities.

(2) Within the limits prescribed by this chapter, a court may sentence a person convicted of an offense to any one of the following sentences or combination of them:

(a) to pay a fine;

(b) to removal or disqualification from public or private office;

(c) to probation unless otherwise specifically provided by law;

(d) to imprisonment;

[~~(e) to life imprisonment;~~]

[~~(f)~~] (e) on or after April 27, 1992, to life in prison without parole; or [~~(g)~~] (f) to death.

(3) (a) This chapter does not deprive a court of authority conferred by law to:

(i) forfeit property;

(ii) dissolve a corporation;

(iii) suspend or cancel a license;

(iv) permit removal of a person from office;

(v) cite for contempt; or

(vi) impose any other civil penalty.

(b) A civil penalty may be included in a sentence.

(4) (a) (i) When a person is convicted of criminal activity that has resulted in pecuniary damages, in addition to any other sentence it may impose, the court shall order that the defendant make restitution to victims of crime as provided in this subsection, or for conduct for which the defendant has agreed to make restitution as part of a plea agreement. For purposes of restitution, a victim has the meaning as defined in Subsection (1)(e).

(ii) In determining whether restitution is appropriate, the court shall follow the criteria and procedures as provided in Subsections (4)(c) and (4)(d).

(iii) If the court finds the defendant owes restitution, the clerk of the court shall enter an order of complete restitution as defined in Subsection (8)(b) on the civil judgment docket and provide notice of the order to the parties.

(iv) The order is considered a legal judgment enforceable under the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, and the person in whose favor the restitution order is entered may seek enforcement of the restitution order in accordance with the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. In addition, the Department of Corrections may, on behalf of the person in whose favor the restitution order is entered, enforce the restitution order as judgment creditor under the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

(v) If the defendant fails to obey a court order for payment of restitution and the victim or department elects to pursue collection of the order by civil process, the victim shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees.

(vi) A judgment ordering restitution constitutes a lien when recorded in a judgment docket and shall have the same effect and is subject to the same rules as a judgment for money in a civil action. Interest shall accrue on the amount ordered from the time of sentencing.

(vii) The Department of Corrections shall make rules permitting the restitution payments to be credited to principal first and the remainder of payments credited to interest in accordance with Title 63, Chapter 46a, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(b) (i) If a defendant has been extradited to this state under Title 77, Chapter 30, Extradition, to resolve pending criminal charges and is convicted of criminal activity in the county to which he has been returned, the court may, in addition to any other sentence it may impose, order that the defendant make restitution for costs expended by any governmental entity for the extradition.

(ii) In determining whether restitution is appropriate, the court shall consider the criteria in Subsection (4)(c).

(c) In determining restitution, the court shall determine complete restitution and court-ordered restitution.

(i) Complete restitution means the restitution necessary to compensate a victim for all losses caused by the defendant.

(ii) Court-ordered restitution means the restitution the court having criminal jurisdiction orders the defendant to pay as a part of the criminal sentence at the time of sentencing.

(iii) Complete restitution and court-ordered restitution shall be determined as provided in Subsection (8).

(d) (i) If the court determines that restitution is appropriate or inappropriate under this subsection, the court shall make the reasons for the decision a part of the court record.

(ii) In any civil action brought by a victim to enforce the judgment, the defendant shall be entitled to offset any amounts that have been paid as part of court-ordered restitution to the victim.

(iii) A judgment ordering restitution constitutes a lien when recorded in a judgment docket and shall have the same effect and is subject to the same rules as a judgment for money in a civil action. Interest shall accrue on the amount ordered from the time of sentencing.

(iv) The Department of Corrections shall make rules permitting the restitution payments to be credited to principal first and the remainder of payments credited to interest in accordance with Title 63, Chapter 46a, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(e) If the defendant objects to the imposition, amount, or distribution of the restitution, the court shall at the time of sentencing allow the defendant a full hearing on the issue.

(5) (a) In addition to any other sentence the court may impose, the court shall order the defendant to pay restitution of governmental transportation expenses if the defendant was:

(i) transported pursuant to court order from one county to another within the state at governmental expense to resolve pending criminal charges;

(ii) charged with a felony or a class A, B, or C misdemeanor; and

(iii) convicted of a crime.

(b) The court may not order the defendant to pay restitution of governmental transportation expenses if any of the following apply:

(i) the defendant is charged with an infraction or on a subsequent failure to appear a warrant is issued for an infraction; or

(ii) the defendant was not transported pursuant to a court order.

(c) (i) Restitution of governmental transportation expenses under Subsection (5)(a)(i) shall be calculated according to the following schedule:

(A) $75 for up to 100 miles a defendant is transported;

(B) $125 for 100 up to 200 miles a defendant is transported; and

(C) $250 for 200 miles or more a defendant is transported.

(ii) The schedule of restitution under Subsection (5)(c)(i) applies to each defendant transported regardless of the number of defendants actually transported in a single trip.

(6) (a) If a statute under which the defendant was convicted mandates that one of three stated minimum terms shall be imposed, the court shall order imposition of the term of middle severity unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation of the crime.

(b) Prior to or at the time of sentencing, either party may submit a statement identifying circumstances in aggravation or mitigation or presenting additional facts. If the statement is in writing, it shall be filed with the court and served on the opposing party at least four days prior to the time set for sentencing.

(c) In determining whether there are circumstances that justify imposition of the highest or lowest term, the court may consider the record in the case, the probation officer's report, other reports, including reports received under Section 76-3-404, statements in aggravation or mitigation submitted by the prosecution or the defendant, and any further evidence introduced at the sentencing hearing.

(d) The court shall set forth on the record the facts supporting and reasons for imposing the upper or lower term.

(e) In determining a just sentence, the court shall consider sentencing guidelines regarding aggravating and mitigating circumstances promulgated by the Sentencing Commission.

(7) If during the commission of a crime described as child [~~kidnaping~~] kidnapping, rape of a child, object rape of a child, sodomy upon a child, or sexual abuse of a child, the defendant causes substantial bodily injury to the child, and if the charge is set forth in the information or indictment and admitted by the defendant, or found true by a judge or jury at trial, the defendant shall be sentenced to the highest minimum term in state prison. This subsection takes precedence over any conflicting provision of law.

(8) (a) For the purpose of determining restitution for an offense, the offense shall include any criminal conduct admitted by the defendant to the sentencing court or to which the defendant agrees to pay restitution. A victim of an offense, that involves as an element a scheme, a conspiracy, or a pattern of criminal activity, includes any person directly harmed by the defendant's criminal conduct in the course of the scheme, conspiracy, or pattern.

(b) In determining the monetary sum and other conditions for complete restitution, the court shall consider all relevant facts, including:

(i) the cost of the damage or loss if the offense resulted in damage to or loss or destruction of property of a victim of the offense;

(ii) the cost of necessary medical and related professional services and devices relating to physical, psychiatric, and psychological care, including nonmedical care and treatment rendered in accordance with a method of healing recognized by the law of the place of treatment; the cost of necessary physical and occupational therapy and rehabilitation; and the income lost by the victim as a result of the offense if the offense resulted in bodily injury to a victim; and

(iii) the cost of necessary funeral and related services if the offense resulted in the death of a victim.

(c) In determining the monetary sum and other conditions for court-ordered restitution, the court shall consider the factors listed in Subsection (8)(b) and:

(i) the financial resources of the defendant and the burden that payment of restitution will impose, with regard to the other obligations of the defendant;

(ii) the ability of the defendant to pay restitution on an installment basis or on other conditions to be fixed by the court;

(iii) the rehabilitative effect on the defendant of the payment of restitution and the method of payment; and

(iv) other circumstances which the court determines make restitution inappropriate.

(d) The court may decline to make an order or may defer entering an order of restitution if the court determines that the complication and prolongation of the sentencing process, as a result of considering an order of restitution under this subsection, substantially outweighs the need to provide restitution to the victim.

Section 2. Section 76-3-203.1 is amended to read:

76-3-203.1. Offenses committed in concert with two or more persons -- Notice -- Enhanced penalties.

(1) (a) A person who commits any offense listed in Subsection (4) is subject to an enhanced penalty for the offense as provided in Subsection (3) if the trier of fact finds beyond a reasonable doubt that the person acted in concert with two or more persons.

(b) "In concert with two or more persons" as used in this section means the defendant was aided or encouraged by at least two other persons in committing the offense and was aware that he was so aided or encouraged, and each of the other persons:

(i) was physically present; or

(ii) participated as a party to any offense listed in Subsection (4).

(c) For purposes of Subsection (1)(b)(ii):

(i) other persons participating as parties need not have the intent to engage in the same offense or degree of offense as the defendant; and

(ii) a minor is a party if the minor's actions would cause him to be a party if he were an adult.

(2) The prosecuting attorney, or grand jury if an indictment is returned, shall cause to be subscribed upon the information or indictment notice that the defendant is subject to the enhanced penalties provided under this section.

(3) The enhanced penalty for a:

(a) class B misdemeanor is a class A misdemeanor;

(b) class A misdemeanor is a third degree felony;

(c) third degree felony is a second degree felony;

(d) second degree felony is a first degree felony; and

(e) first degree felony is an [~~enhanced minimum~~] indeterminate prison term of not less than nine years [~~in prison; and~~] and which may be for life.

However, the court may sentence the defendant to an indeterminate prison term of not less than 20 years and which may be for life if the court finds that the interests of justice would best be served and states the specific circumstances justifying the disposition on the record.

That sentence shall be death, [~~life imprisonment~~] an indeterminate prison term of not less than 20 years and which may be for life, or, on or after April 27, 1992, life in prison without parole.

(2) (a) The judgment of conviction and sentence of death [~~shall be~~] is subject to automatic review by the Utah State Supreme Court within 60 days after certification by the sentencing court of the entire record unless time is extended an additional period not to exceed 30 days by the Utah State Supreme Court for good cause shown. [~~Such~~]

(b) The review by the Utah State Supreme Court [~~shall have~~] has priority over all other cases and shall be heard in accordance with rules promulgated by the Utah State Supreme Court.

Section 5. Section 76-3-207 is amended to read:

76-3-207. Capital felony -- Sentencing proceeding.

(1) (a) When a defendant has pled guilty to or been found guilty of a capital felony, there shall be further proceedings before the court or jury on the issue of sentence.

(b) In the case of a plea of guilty to a capital felony, the sentencing proceedings shall be conducted before a jury or, upon request of the defendant and with the approval of the court and the consent of the prosecution, by the court which accepted the plea.

(c) (i) When a defendant has been found guilty of a capital felony, the proceedings shall be conducted before the court or jury which found the defendant guilty, provided the defendant may waive hearing before the jury with the approval of the court and the consent of the prosecution, in which event the hearing shall be before the court.

(ii) If, however, circumstances make it impossible or impractical to reconvene the same jury for the sentencing proceedings, the court may dismiss that jury and convene a new jury for the proceedings.

(d) If a retrial of the sentencing proceedings is necessary as a consequence of a remand from an appellate court, the sentencing authority shall be determined as provided in Subsection (5).

(2) (a) In capital sentencing proceedings, evidence may be presented on:

(i) the nature and circumstances of the crime;

(ii) the defendant's character, background, history, mental and physical condition;

(iii) the victim and the impact of the crime on the victim's family and community without comparison to other persons or victims; and

(iv) any other facts in aggravation or mitigation of the penalty that the court considers relevant to the sentence.

(b) Any evidence the court considers to have probative force may be received regardless of its admissibility under the exclusionary rules of evidence. The state's attorney and the defendant shall be permitted to present argument for or against the sentence of death.

(3) Aggravating circumstances include those outlined in Section 76-5-202. Mitigating circumstances include:

(a) the defendant has no significant history of prior criminal activity;

(b) the homicide was committed while the defendant was under the influence of mental or emotional disturbance;

(c) the defendant acted under duress or under the domination of another person;

(d) at the time of the homicide, the capacity of the defendant to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirement of law was impaired as a result of mental disease, intoxication, or influence of drugs;

(e) the youth of the defendant at the time of the crime;

(f) the defendant was an accomplice in the homicide committed by another person and the defendant's participation was relatively minor; and

(g) any other fact in mitigation of the penalty.

(4) (a) The court or jury, as the case may be, shall retire to consider the penalty. Except as provided in Subsection 76-3-207.5(2), in all proceedings before a jury, under this section, it shall be instructed as to the punishment to be imposed upon a unanimous decision for death and that the penalty of either [~~life in prison~~] an indeterminate prison term of not less than 20 years and which may be for life or life in prison without parole, shall be imposed if a unanimous decision for death is not found.

(b) The death penalty shall only be imposed if, after considering the totality of the aggravating and mitigating circumstances, the jury is persuaded beyond a reasonable doubt that total aggravation outweighs total mitigation, and is further persuaded, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the imposition of the death penalty is justified and appropriate in the circumstances. If the jury reports unanimous agreement to impose the sentence of death, the court shall discharge the jury and shall impose the sentence of death.

(c) If the jury is unable to reach a unanimous decision imposing the sentence of death[~~, except as provided in Subsection 76-3-207.5(2)~~] or the state is not seeking the death penalty, the jury shall then determine whether the penalty of life in prison without parole shall be imposed, except as provided in Subsection 76-3-207.5(2). The penalty of life in prison without parole shall only be imposed if the jury determines that the sentence of life in prison without parole is appropriate. If the jury reports agreement by ten jurors or more to impose the sentence of life in prison without parole, the court shall discharge the jury and shall impose the sentence of life in prison without parole. If ten jurors or more do not agree upon a sentence of life in prison without parole, the court shall discharge the jury and impose [~~the sentence of life imprisonment with the possibility of parole~~] an indeterminate prison term of not less than 20 years and which may be for life.

(d) If the defendant waives hearing before the jury as to sentencing, with the approval of the court and the consent of the prosecution, the court shall determine the appropriate penalty according to the standards of this Subsection (4)(d).

(5) Upon any appeal by the defendant where the sentence is of death, the appellate court, if it finds prejudicial error in the sentencing proceeding only, may set aside the sentence of death and remand the case to the trial court for new sentencing proceedings to the extent necessary to correct the error or errors. No error in the sentencing proceedings shall result in the reversal of the conviction of a capital felony. In cases of remand for new sentencing proceedings, all exhibits and a transcript of all testimony and other evidence properly admitted in the prior trial and sentencing proceedings shall be admissible in the new sentencing proceedings, and if the sentencing proceeding was before a:

(a) jury, a new jury shall be impaneled for the new sentencing proceeding unless the defendant waives the hearing before the jury with the approval of the court and the consent of the prosecution, in which case the proceeding shall be held according to Subsection (5)(b) or (c), as applicable;

(b) judge, the original trial judge shall conduct the new sentencing proceeding; or

(c) judge, and the original trial judge is unable or unavailable to conduct a new sentencing proceeding, then another judge shall be designated to conduct the new sentencing proceeding, and the new proceeding will be before a jury unless the defendant waives the hearing before the jury with the approval of the court and the consent of the prosecution.

(6) In the event the death penalty is held to be unconstitutional by the Utah Supreme Court or the United States Supreme Court, the court having jurisdiction over a person previously sentenced to death for a capital felony shall cause the person to be brought before the court, and the court shall sentence the person to [~~life in prison~~] an indeterminate prison term of not less than 20 years and which may be for life, if the death penalty is held unconstitutional prior to April 27, 1992, or life in prison without parole if the death penalty is held unconstitutional on or after April 27, 1992, and any person who is thereafter convicted of a capital felony shall be sentenced to [~~life in prison~~] an indeterminate prison term of not less than 20 years and which may be for life or life in prison without parole.

This period may not exceed one year.

(h) (i) The distribution or transportation of natural gas for use as a motor vehicle fuel does not cause the distributor or transporter to be a "public utility," unless the commission, after notice and a public hearing, determines by rule that it is in the public interest to regulate the distributers or transporters, but the retail sale alone of compressed natural gas as a motor vehicle fuel may not cause the seller to be a "public utility."

(ii) In determining whether it is in the public interest to regulate the distributors or transporters, the commission shall consider, among other things, the impact of the regulation on the availability and price of natural gas for use as a motor fuel.

[~~(15)~~] (16) "Purchasing utility" means any electrical corporation that is required to purchase electricity from small power production or cogeneration facilities pursuant to the Public Utility Regulatory Policies Act, 16 U.S.C. Section 824a-3.

The individual, agency, or institution involved shall file the petition for that review hearing. Section 2. Section 16-10a-722 is amended to read:

16-10a-722. Proxies.

(1) A shareholder may vote his shares in person or by proxy.

[~~(2) Without limiting the manner in which a shareholder may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for that shareholder, the following constitute valid means of appointment:~~]

[~~(a)~~] (2) A shareholder, his agent, or attorney-in-fact, may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the shareholder by signing an appointment form[~~, either personally or by the shareholder's attorney-in-fact~~] or by an electronic transmission. An electronic transmission must contain or be accompanied by information that indicates that the shareholder, the shareholder's agent, or the shareholder's attorney-in-fact authorized the transmission.

[~~(b) A shareholder may appoint a proxy by transmitting or authorizing the transmission of a telegram, teletype, or other electronic transmission providing a written statement of the appointment to the proxy, to a proxy solicitor, proxy support service organization, or other person duly authorized by the proxy to receive appointments as agent for the proxy, or to the corporation, provided that the transmitted appointment shall set forth or be transmitted with written evidence from which it can be determined that the shareholder transmitted or authorized the transmission of the appointment.~~]

(3) An appointment of a proxy is effective when a signed appointment form or an electronic transmission of the appointment is received by the [~~corporation, including receipt by the corporation of an appointment transmitted pursuant to Subsection (2)(b)~~] inspector of election or the officer or agent of the corporation authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for 11 months unless a longer period is expressly provided in the appointment form.

[~~(4) Any complete copy, including an electronically transmitted facsimile, of an appointment of a proxy may be substituted for or used in lieu of the original appointment for any purpose for which the original appointment could be used.~~]

[~~(5)~~] (4) An appointment of a proxy is revocable [~~by the shareholder, and is revoked upon the death or incapacity of the shareholder upon receipt of notice of either event as provided in Subsection (6),~~] unless the appointment form [~~conspicuously~~] or electronic transmission states that it is irrevocable and the appointment is coupled with an interest. [~~(7)~~] (6) An appointment made irrevocable under Subsection [~~(5)~~] (4) is revoked when the interest with which it is coupled is extinguished but the revocation does not affect the right of the corporation to accept the proxy's authority unless:

[~~(8)~~] (7) The corporation is not required to recognize an appointment made irrevocable under Subsection [~~(5)~~] (4) if it has received a writing revoking the appointment signed by the shareholder either personally or by [~~such~~] the shareholder's attorney-in-fact, notwithstanding that the revocation may be a breach of an obligation of the shareholder to another person not to revoke the appointment. This provision shall not affect any claim [~~such~~] the other person may have against the shareholder with respect to the revocation.

[~~(9)~~] (8) A transferee for value of shares subject to an irrevocable appointment may revoke the appointment if [~~such~~] the transferee did not know of its existence when acquiring the shares and the existence of the irrevocable appointment was not noted conspicuously on the certificate representing the shares or on the information statement for shares without certificates.

[~~(10)~~] (9) Subject to Section 16-10a-724 and to any express limitation on the proxy's authority [~~appearing on the face of~~] stated in the appointment form or electronic transmission, a corporation is entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the shareholder making the appointment.

PROCEDURES FOR SMALL TELEPHONE COMPANY RATE CASES

Sponsor: Thomas V. Hatch

This act modifies the Public Utilities Code to increase the size of a telephone company that is allowed to follow an abbreviated rate increase process. This act makes technical changes. This act provides a coordination clause.

This act affects sections of Utah Code Annotated 1953 as follows:

AMENDS:
54-7-12 (Superseded 07/01/01), as last amended by Chapter 170, Laws of Utah 1996

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 54-7-12 (Superseded 07/01/01) is amended to read:

54-7-12 (Superseded 07/01/01). Rate increase or decrease -- Procedure -- Effective dates -- Electrical or telephone cooperative.

(1) As used in this section:

[~~(b)~~] (a) "Rate decrease" means:

(i) any direct decrease in a rate, fare, toll, rental, or other charge of a public utility; or

(ii) any modification of a classification, contract, practice, or rule that decreases a rate, fare, toll, rental, or other charge of a public utility.

[~~(a)~~] (b) "Rate increase" means:

(i) any direct increase in a rate, fare, toll, rental, or other charge of a public utility; or

(ii) any modification of a classification, contract, practice, or rule that increases a rate, fare, toll, rental, or other charge of a public utility.

(2) (a) Any public utility or other party that proposes to increase or decrease rates shall file appropriate schedules with the commission setting forth the proposed rate increase or decrease.

(b) The commission shall, after reasonable notice, hold a hearing to determine whether the proposed rate increase or decrease, or some other rate increase or decrease, is just and reasonable. If a rate decrease is proposed by a public utility, the commission may waive a hearing unless it seeks to suspend, alter, or modify the rate decrease.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in Subsections (3) and (4), [~~no~~] a proposed rate increase or decrease is not effective until after completion of the hearing and issuance of a final order by the commission concerning the proposed increase or decrease.

(3) The following rules apply to the implementation of any proposed rate increase or decrease filed by a utility or proposed by any other party and to the implementation of any other increase or decrease in lieu of that proposed by a utility or other party that is determined to be just and reasonable by the commission[~~:~~].

(a) On its own initiative or in response to an application by a public utility or other party, the commission, after a hearing, may allow any proposed rate increase or decrease, or a reasonable part of the rate increase or decrease, to take effect, subject to the commission's right to order a refund or surcharge, upon the filing of the utility's schedules or at any time during the pendency of [~~its~~] the commission's hearing proceedings. The evidence presented in the hearing held pursuant to this subsection need not encompass all issues that may be considered in a rate case hearing held pursuant to Subsection (2)(b), but shall establish an adequate prima facie showing that the interim rate increase or decrease is justified.

(b) (i) If the commission completes a hearing concerning a utility's revenue requirement before the expiration of 240 days from the date the rate increase or decrease proposal is filed, [~~it~~] the commission may issue a final order within that period establishing the utility's revenue requirement and fixing [~~its~~] the utility's interim allowable rates before [~~it~~] the commission determines the allocation of the increase or decrease among categories of customers and classes of service.

(ii) If the commission in [~~its~~] the commission's final order on a utility's revenue requirement finds that the interim increase order under Subsection (3)(a) exceeds the increase finally ordered, [~~it~~] the commission shall order the utility to refund the excess to customers. If the commission in [~~its~~] the commission's final order on a utility's revenue requirement finds that the interim decrease order under Subsection (3)(a) exceeds the decrease finally ordered, [~~it~~] the commission shall order a surcharge to customers to recover the excess decrease.

(c) If the commission fails to enter [~~its~~] the commission's order granting or revising a revenue increase within 240 days after the utility's schedules are filed, the rate increase proposed by the utility is final and the commission may not order a refund of any amount already collected by the utility under its filed rate increase.

(d) (i) When a public utility files a proposed rate increase based upon an increased cost to the utility for fuel or energy purchased or obtained from independent contractors, other independent suppliers, or any supplier whose prices are regulated by a governmental agency, the commission shall issue a tentative order with respect to the proposed increase within ten days after the proposal is filed, unless it issues a final order with respect to the rate increase within 20 days after the proposal is filed.

(ii) The commission shall hold a public hearing within 30 days after it issues the tentative order to determine if the proposed rate increase is just and reasonable.

(4) (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title, any schedule, classification, practice, or rule filed by a public utility with the commission that does not result in any rate increase shall take effect 30 days after the date of filing or within any lesser time the commission may grant, subject to its authority after a hearing to suspend, alter, or modify that schedule, classification, practice, or rule.

(b) When the commission suspends a schedule, classification, practice, or rule, [~~it~~] the commission shall hold a hearing on the schedule, classification, practice, or rule before issuing its final order.

(c) For purposes of this Subsection (4), any schedule, classification, practice, or rule that introduces a service or product not previously offered may not result in a rate increase.

(5) (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, whenever a public utility files with the commission any schedule, classification, practice, or rule that does not result in an increase in any rate, fare, toll, rental, or charge, the schedule, classification, practice, or rule shall take effect 30 days after the date of filing or at any earlier time the commission may grant, subject to the authority of the commission, after a hearing, to suspend, alter, or modify the schedule, classification, practice, or rule.

(b) (i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, whenever a public utility files with the commission a request for an increase in rates, fares, tolls, rentals, or charges based solely upon cost increases to the public utility of fuel supplied by an independent contractor or independent source of supply, the requested increase shall take effect ten days after the filing of the request with the commission or at any earlier time after the filing of the request as the commission may by order permit.

(ii) The commission shall order the increase to take effect only after a showing has been made by the public utility to the commission that the increase is justified.

(iii) The commission may, after a hearing, suspend, alter, or modify the increase.

(6) This section does not apply to any rate changes of an electrical or telephone cooperative that meets all of the [~~following~~] requirements[~~:~~] of this Subsection (6).

(a) (i) The cooperative is organized for the purpose of either distributing electricity or providing telecommunication services to its members and the public at cost.

(ii) "At cost" includes interest costs and a reasonable rate of return as determined by the cooperative's board of directors.

(b) The cooperative's board of directors and any appropriate agency of the federal government have approved the rate increase or other rate change and all necessary tariff revisions reflecting the increased rate or rate change.

(c) Before implementing any rate increases, the cooperative has held a public meeting for all its customers and members. The cooperative shall mail a notice of the meeting to all of the cooperative's customers and members not less than ten days prior to the date that the meeting is held.

(d) The cooperative has filed its tariff revisions reflecting the rate increase or other rate change with the commission, who shall make the tariffs available for public inspection.

(7) [~~Procedures~~] Notwithstanding Subsections (2) and (3), the procedures for [~~the implementation of~~] implementing a proposed rate increase by a telephone corporation having less than [~~5,000~~] 30,000 subscriber access lines in the state are [~~as follows:~~] provided in this Subsection (7).

(a) (i) The proposed rate increase [~~may become~~] by a telephone corporation subject to this Subsection (7) may become effective [~~upon the filing of~~] on the day the telephone corporation files with the commission the proposed tariff revisions and necessary information to support a determination by the commission that the proposed rate increase is just and reasonable.

(ii) The telephone corporation shall [~~provide 30 days' notice to~~] notify the commission and all potentially affected access line subscribers of the proposed rate increase 30 days before filing the proposed rate increase or change.

(b) (i) The commission may investigate whether the proposed rate increase is just and reasonable.

(ii) If the commission determines, after notice and hearing, that the rate increase is unjust or unreasonable in whole or in part, the commission may establish the rates, charges, or classifications that [~~it~~] the commission finds to be just and reasonable.

(c) The commission shall investigate and hold a hearing to determine whether any proposed rate increase is just and reasonable if 10% or more of the telephone corporation's potentially affected access line subscribers file a request for agency action requesting an investigation and hearing.

Section 2. Coordination clause.

If this bill and H.B. 184, Public Utilities Amendments - Repeal, both pass, it is the intent of the Legislature that Section 54-7-12 not be superseded and the amendments in this bill will continue in effect after July 1, 2001.

In that event, the sale shall be renoticed in the same manner as the original notice of sale is required to be given.

Section 10. Section 57-1-28 is amended to read:

57-1-28. Sale of trust property by trustee -- Payment of bid -- Trustee's deed delivered to purchaser -- Recitals -- Effect.

(1) The purchaser at the sale shall pay the price bid as directed by the trustee [~~and upon~~]. The beneficiary shall receive a credit on the beneficiary's bid in an amount not to exceed the amount representing the unpaid principal owed, accrued interest as of the date of the sale, advances for the payment of taxes, insurance, and maintenance and protection of the trust property and the beneficiary's lien on the trust property, and costs of sale, including reasonable trustee's and attorney's fees. Upon receipt of payment, the trustee shall execute and deliver [~~his~~] the trustee's deed to [~~such~~] the purchaser. The trustee's deed may contain recitals of compliance with the requirements of Sections 57-1-19 through 57-1-36 relating to the exercise of the power of sale and sale of the property described [~~therein~~] in the trustee's deed, including recitals concerning any mailing, personal delivery, and publication of the notice of default, any mailing and the publication and posting of the notice of sale, and the conduct of sale. These recitals constitute prima facie evidence of [~~such~~] compliance with Sections 57-1-19 through 57-1-36, and are conclusive evidence in favor of bona fide purchasers and encumbrancers for value and without notice.

(2) The trustee's deed shall operate to convey to the purchaser, without right of redemption, the trustee's title and all right, title, interest, and claim of the trustor and [~~his~~] the trustor's successors in interest and of all persons claiming by, through, or under them, in and to the property sold, including all [~~such~~] right, title, interest, and claim in and to [~~such~~] the property acquired by the trustor or [~~his~~] the trustor's successors in interest subsequent to the execution of the trust deed, which trustee's deed shall be considered effective and relate back to the time of the sale.

Section 11. Section 57-1-29 is amended to read:

57-1-29. Proceeds of trustee's sale -- Disposition.

(1) The trustee shall apply the proceeds of the trustee's sale, first, to the costs and expenses of exercising the power of sale and of the sale, including the payment of the trustee's and attorney's fees actually incurred not to exceed the amount which may be provided for in the trust deed, second, to payment of the obligation secured by the trust deed, and the balance, if any, to the person or persons legally entitled to the proceeds, or the trustee, in [~~his~~] the trustee's discretion, may deposit the balance of the proceeds with the clerk of the district court of the county in which the sale took place. If the proceeds are deposited with the clerk of the district court, the trustee shall file an affidavit with the clerk setting forth the facts of the deposit and a list of all known claimants, including known addresses. Upon depositing the balance and filing the affidavit, the trustee shall be discharged from all further responsibility and the clerk shall deposit the proceeds with the state treasurer subject to the order of the district court.

(2) The clerk shall give notice of the deposited funds to all claimants listed in the trustee's affidavits within 15 days of receiving the affidavit of deposit from the trustee.

(3) Any claimant may file a petition for adjudication of priority to the funds. The petitioner requesting the funds shall give notice of the petition to all claimants listed in the trustee's affidavit and to any other claimants known to the petitioner. The petitioner's notice must specify that all claimants have 20 days to contest the petition by affidavit or counter-petition. If no affidavit or counter-petition is filed within 20 days, the court shall, without a hearing, enter an order directing the clerk of the court or the county treasurer to disburse the funds to the petitioner according to the petition.

(4) If a petition for adjudication is contested by affidavit or counter-petition, the district court shall, within 20 days, conduct a hearing to establish the priorities of the parties to the deposited funds and give notice to all known claimants of the date and time of the hearing. At the hearing, the court will establish the priorities of the parties to the deposited funds and enter an order directing the clerk of the court or county treasurer to disburse the funds according to the court's determination.

(5) All persons having or claiming to have an interest in the disposition of funds deposited with the court under Subsection (1) who fail to appear and assert their claims are barred from any claim to the funds after the entry of the court's order under Subsection (4).

Section 12. Section 57-1-31 is amended to read:

57-1-31. Trust deeds -- Default in performance of obligations secured -- Reinstatement -- Cancellation of recorded notice of default.

(1) Whenever all or a portion of the principal sum of any obligation secured by a trust deed has, prior to the maturity date fixed in the obligation, become due or been declared due by reason of a breach or default in the performance of any obligation secured by the trust deed, including a default in the payment of interest or of any installment of principal, or by reason of failure of the trustor to pay, in accordance with the terms of the trust deed, taxes, assessments, premiums for insurance, or advances made by the beneficiary in accordance with terms of the obligation or of the trust deed, the trustor or [~~his~~] the trustor's successor in interest in the trust property or any part [~~thereof~~] of the trust property or any other person having a subordinate lien or encumbrance of record [~~thereon~~] on the trust property or any beneficiary under a subordinate trust deed, at any time within three months of the filing for record of notice of default under the trust deed, if the power of sale is to be exercised, may pay to the beneficiary or [~~his~~] the beneficiary's successor in interest the entire amount then due under the terms of the trust deed (including costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the terms of the obligation, or trust deed, and the trustee's and attorney's fees actually incurred) other than that portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred, and thereby cure the existing default [~~theretofore existing and, thereupon, all proceedings theretofore had or instituted shall be dismissed or discontinued and~~]. After the beneficiary or beneficiary's successor in interest has been paid and the default cured, the obligation and trust deed shall be reinstated [~~and shall be and remain in force and effect the same~~] as if no [~~such~~] acceleration had occurred.

(2) If the default is cured and the trust deed reinstated in the manner provided in Subsection (1), [~~the beneficiary, or his assignee, shall, on demand of any person having an interest in the trust property, execute and deliver to him a request to the~~] and a reasonable fee is paid for cancellation, including the cost of recording the cancellation of notice of default, the trustee [~~to~~] shall execute, acknowledge, and deliver a cancellation of the recorded notice of default under the trust deed; and any [~~beneficiary under a trust deed, or his assignee,~~] trustee who[~~, for a period of 30 days after such demand,~~] refuses to [~~request the trustee to~~] execute and [~~deliver~~] record this cancellation within 30 days is liable to the person [~~entitled to such request~~] curing the default for all actual damages resulting from this refusal. A [~~release and~~] reconveyance given by the trustee [~~or beneficiary, or both,~~] or the execution of a trustee's deed constitutes a cancellation of a notice of default. Otherwise, a cancellation of a recorded notice of default under a trust deed is, when acknowledged, entitled to be recorded and is sufficient if made and executed by the trustee in substantially the following form:

Cancellation of Notice of Default

The undersigned hereby cancels the notice of default filed for record _____(month\day\year), and recorded in Book ____, Page ____, Records of ____ County, (or filed of record _____(month\day\year), with recorder's entry No. ____, ____ County), Utah, which notice of default refers to the trust deed executed by ____ and _____ as [~~trustor~~] trustors, in which ____ is named as beneficiary and ____ as trustee, and filed for record _____(month\day\year), and recorded in Book ____, Page ____, Records of ____ County, (or filed of record _____(month\day\year), with recorder's entry No. ____, ____ County), Utah.

Section 13. Section 57-1-32 is amended to read:

57-1-32. Sale of trust property by trustee -- Action to recover balance due upon obligation for which trust deed was given as security -- Collection of costs and attorney's fees.

At any time within three months after any sale of property under a trust deed[~~,~~] as [~~hereinabove~~] provided in Sections 57-1-23, 57-1-24, and 57-1-27, an action may be commenced to recover the balance due upon the obligation for which the trust deed was given as security, and in [~~such~~] that action the complaint shall set forth the entire amount of the indebtedness [~~which~~] that was secured by [~~such~~] the trust deed, the amount for which [~~such~~] the property was sold, and the fair market value [~~thereof at the~~] of the property at the date of sale. Before rendering judgment, the court shall find the fair market value of the property at the date of sale [~~of the property sold~~]. The court may not render judgment for more than the amount by which the amount of the indebtedness with interest, costs, and expenses of sale, including trustee's and attorney's fees, exceeds the fair market value of the property as of the date of the sale. In any action brought under this section, the prevailing party shall be entitled to collect its costs and reasonable attorney fees incurred [~~in bringing an action under this section~~].

Section 14. Section 57-1-33.1 is amended to read:

57-1-33.1. Reconveyance of a trust deed -- Erroneous reconveyance.

(1) (a) When an obligation secured by a trust deed has been satisfied, the trustee shall, upon written request by the beneficiary, reconvey the trust property.

(b) At the time the beneficiary requests a reconveyance under Subsection (1)(a), the beneficiary shall deliver to the trustee or the trustee's successor in interest the trust deed and the note or other evidence that the obligation securing the trust deed has been satisfied.

(2) The reconveyance under Subsection (1) may designate the grantee as "the person or persons entitled thereto."

(3) If a reconveyance is erroneously recorded by a beneficiary, the effect of the reconveyance may be nullified and the trust deed reinstated by the recording of a corrective affidavit executed by the then current beneficiary describing the trust deed and setting forth the fact of the erroneous reconveyance. Upon the recording of a corrective affidavit or similar instrument, the trust deed has the same priority as it did prior to the erroneous reconveyance. However, any lien or interest that was recorded or attached to the trust deed property between the time of the recording of the erroneous reconveyance and the recording of the corrective affidavit or similar instrument has priority over the reinstated trust deed, unless the lien or interest was recorded or attached with actual knowledge that the trust deed had been reconveyed erroneously.

(c) "Insurer" means an admitted or authorized insurer, as defined in Section 31A-1-301, and includes:

(iii) the latter of Subsection (3)(a)(iii) or (iv), if Subsection (3)(a)(v) applies.

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(c), an insurer may send a follow-up request for additional information within the 20-day time period in Subsection (7)(a) if the previous response of the provider was not sufficient for the insurer to make a decision on the claim.

(A) the reason why the previous response was insufficient;

(B) the information that is necessary to comply with the request for information; and

(C) the reason why the requested information is necessary to process the claim.

(c) Unless an insurer has an extension for an investigation pursuant to Subsection (4) or (5), the insurer shall pay all sums it is obligated to pay on a claim and provide a written explanation of any part of the claim that is denied within 15 days of receiving a notice from the provider that the provider has submitted all requested information in the provider's possession that is related to the claim.

(8) (a) Whenever an insurer makes a payment to a provider on any part of a claim under this section, the insurer shall also send to the insured an explanation of benefits paid.

(b) Whenever an insurer denies any part of a claim under this section, the insurer shall also send to the insured a written explanation of the part of the claim that was denied and notice of the grievance review process established under Section 31A-22-629.

(c) This Subsection (8) does not apply to a person receiving benefits under the state Medicaid program as defined in Section 26-18-2, unless required by the Department of Health or federal law.

(c) Nothing in Subsection (12)(a) may be construed as limiting the ability of an insurer and a provider from including provisions in their contract that are more stringent than the provisions of this section.

(13) (a) Pursuant to Chapter 2, Part 2, Duties and Powers of Commissioner, and beginning January 1, 2002, the commissioner may conduct examinations to determine an insurer's level of compliance with this section and impose sanctions for each violation.

The act modifies county budget provisions, including the designation of the county budget officer. The act modifies county clerk and county recorder provisions, including provisions relating to the recording of documents. The act modifies county surveyor provisions and requires all survey work to be done by a licensed land surveyor and distinguishes those surveyor functions that may be performed by someone who is not a licensed land surveyor. The act shifts responsibility for approving plats in the county from the legislative body to the executive. The act repeals certain duties of a county treasurer and a county auditor and repeals penalties for a treasurer or auditor who does not fulfill certain duties. The act modifies certain duties of a county treasurer and repeals a provision authorizing the county legislative body to suspend a treasurer who is charged with official misconduct. The act modifies county career service council provisions, allows for the appointment of alternate members of the career service council, modifies the authority of the career service council with respect to appeals of personnel matters, contains provisions relating to district court review of a career service council decision, and allows the appointment of administrative law judges to hear appeals referred by the career service council. The act modifies provisions relating to the office of personnel management and makes the position of director a merit position. The act modifies the procedure for adopting an alternate form of county government, modifies the makeup of the appointment council, eliminates some alternate forms of government, requires an optional plan to be prepared by a study committee before being presented to voters, and replaces the county attorney for the attorney general with respect to a review of the optional plan for compliance with applicable law. The act authorizes the county executive and county legislative body to exercise limited direction and supervision over other county elected officers and modifies executive functions and powers. The act modifies the procedure for electing a county or district attorney under certain circumstances. The act provides for boundary agreements to act as quitclaim deeds under certain circumstances and eliminates a requirement for water right deeds to be transmitted by the county recorder to the state engineer. The act imposes a one-year limit on actions against a county legislative body or county executive for decisions they make. The act also makes technical changes.

(iii) court-ordered services are not achieving their purpose;

(iv) the division fails to hold administrative hearings or reviews as required by state and federal law and regulation; or

(v) any violation of orders, new developments, or changes have occurred that justify a review of the case.

(4) (a) An attorney guardian ad litem may use trained volunteers, in accordance with Title 67, Chapter 20, Volunteer Government Workers Act, trained paralegals, and other trained staff to assist in investigation and preparation of information regarding the cases of individual minors before the court. An attorney guardian ad litem may not, however, delegate his responsibilities described in Subsection (3).

(b) All volunteers, paralegals, and staff utilized pursuant to this section shall be trained in and follow, at a minimum, the guidelines established by the United States Department of Justice Court Appointed Special Advocate Association.

(c) The court may use volunteers trained in accordance with the requirements of Subsection (4)(b) to assist in investigation and preparation of information regarding the cases of individual minors within the jurisdiction.

(d) When possible and appropriate, the court may use a volunteer who is a peer of the minor appearing before the court, in order to provide assistance to that minor, under the supervision of an attorney guardian ad litem or trained volunteer, paralegal, or other trained staff.

(5) The attorney guardian ad litem shall continue to represent the best interest of the minor until released from his duties by the court.

(6) (a) The juvenile court is responsible for all costs resulting from the appointment of an attorney guardian ad litem and the costs of volunteer, paralegal, and other staff appointment and training, and shall use funds appropriated by the Legislature for the guardian ad litem program to cover those costs.

(b) (i) When the court appoints an attorney guardian ad litem under this section [~~or Section 78-7-9~~], the court may assess all or part of the attorney's fees, court costs, and paralegal, staff, and volunteer expenses against the minor's parents [~~or~~], parent, or legal guardian in a proportion that the court determines to be just and appropriate.

(ii) The court may not assess those fees or costs against a legal guardian, when that guardian is the state, or against a parent who is found to be impecunious. If a person claims to be impecunious, the court shall require of that person an affidavit of impecuniosity as provided in Section 21-7-3 and the court shall follow the procedures and make the determinations as provided in Section 21-7-4.

(7) An attorney guardian ad litem appointed under this section, when serving in the scope of his duties as guardian ad litem is considered an employee of the state for purposes of indemnification under Title 63, Chapter 30, Utah Governmental Immunity Act.

(8) (a) An attorney guardian ad litem shall represent the best interest of a minor. If the minor's wishes differ from the attorney's determination of the minor's best interest, the attorney guardian ad litem shall communicate the minor's wishes to the court in addition to presenting his determination of the minor's best interest. A difference between the minor's wishes and the attorney's determination of best interest may not be considered a conflict of interest for the attorney.

(b) The court may appoint one attorney guardian ad litem to represent the best interests of more than one minor child of a marriage.

[~~(b)~~] (c) An attorney guardian ad litem shall formulate an independent position, after considering all relevant evidence, in accordance with the requirements of Subsection (3). His recommendations to the court shall be a result of his independent investigation.

(9) An attorney guardian ad litem shall be provided access to all Division of Child and Family Services records regarding the minor at issue and his family.

(10) An attorney guardian ad litem shall maintain current and accurate records regarding the number of times he has had contact with each minor and the actions he has taken in representation of the minor's best interest.

(11) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (11)(b), all records of an attorney guardian ad litem are confidential and may not be released or made public upon subpoena, search warrant, discovery proceedings, or otherwise. This subsection supersedes Title 63, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act.

(b) All records of an attorney guardian ad litem are subject to legislative subpoena, under Title 36, Chapter 14, Legislative Subpoena Powers, and shall be released to the Legislature.

(c) Records released in accordance with Subsection (11)(b) shall be maintained as confidential by the Legislature. The Office of the Legislative Auditor General may, however, include summary data and nonidentifying information in its audits and reports to the Legislature.

(d) Because of the unique role of an attorney guardian ad litem described in Subsection (8), and the state's role and responsibility to provide a guardian ad litem program and, as parens patriae, to protect minors, Subsection (11)(b) constitutes an exception to Rules of Professional Conduct, Rule 1.6, as provided by Rule 1.6(b)(4). A claim of attorney-client privilege does not bar access to the records of an attorney guardian ad litem by the Legislature, through legislative subpoena.

Section 3. Section 78-7-9 is amended to read:

78-7-9. Appointment of attorney guardian ad litem in child abuse and neglect proceedings.

(1) If child abuse, child sexual abuse, or neglect is alleged in any proceeding in any state court, the court may upon its own motion or shall upon the motion of any party to the proceeding appoint an attorney guardian ad litem to represent the best interest of the child, in accordance with Sections 78-3a-911 and 78-3a-912.

(2) The court may appoint an attorney guardian ad litem, when it considers it necessary and appropriate, to represent the best interest of the child in all related proceedings conducted in any state court involving the alleged abuse, child sexual abuse, or neglect.

(3) The attorney guardian ad litem shall be appointed in accordance with and meet the requirements of Sections 78-3a-911 and 78-3a-912.

(4) If an attorney guardian ad litem has been appointed for the child by any court in the state in any prior proceeding or related matter, the court may continue that appointment or may reappoint that attorney guardian ad litem, if still available, to act on behalf of the child.

(5) The court is responsible for all costs resulting from the appointment of an attorney guardian ad litem and shall use funds appropriated by the Legislature for the guardian ad litem program to cover those costs.

(6) (a) If the court appoints [~~a guardian ad litem attorney~~] the Office of the Guardian Ad Litem in a civil case pursuant to this section [~~or Section 78-3a-912~~], the court may assess all or part of those attorney's fees, court costs, paralegal, staff, and volunteer expenses against the minor's parent [~~or~~], parents, or legal guardian in an amount that the court determines to be just and appropriate.

(b) The court may not assess those fees or costs against a legal guardian, when that guardian is the state, or against a parent, parents, or legal guardian who is found to be impecunious. If a person claims to be impecunious, the court shall require of that person an affidavit of impecuniosity as provided in Section 21-7-3 and the court shall follow the procedures and make the determinations as provided in Section 21-7-4.

(c) If the court appoints the Office of the Guardian Ad Litem in a criminal case pursuant to this section and if the defendant is convicted of a crime which includes child abuse or neglect, the court shall include as part of the defendant's sentence all or part of the attorney's fees, court costs, and paralegal, staff, and volunteer expenses of the Office of the Guardian Ad Litem.

(7) An attorney guardian ad litem appointed in accordance with the requirements of this section and Sections 78-3a-911 and 78-3a-912 is, when serving in the scope of duties of an attorney guardian ad litem, considered an employee of this state for purposes of indemnification under the Governmental Immunity Act.

Section 4. Section 78-7-36 is enacted to read:

78-7-36. (Codified as 78-7-45) Private attorney guardian ad litem -- Appointment -- Costs and fees -- Duties -- Conflicts of interest -- Pro bono obligation -- Indemnification -- Minimum qualifications.

(1) (a) The court may appoint a private attorney as guardian ad litem to represent the best interests of the minor in any district court action in which the custody of or visitation with a minor is at issue. The attorney guardian ad litem shall be certified by the Director of the Office of the Guardian Ad Litem as having met the minimum qualifications for appointment, but shall not be employed by or under contract with the Office of the Guardian Ad Litem.

(b) If an attorney guardian ad litem has been appointed for the minor in any prior or concurrent action and that attorney guardian ad litem is available, the court shall appoint that attorney guardian ad litem, unless good cause is shown why another attorney guardian ad litem should be appointed.

(c) If, after appointment of the attorney guardian ad litem, an allegation of abuse or neglect of the minor is made the court shall:

(i) determine whether it is in the best interests of the minor to continue the appointment; or

(ii) order the withdrawal of the attorney guardian ad litem and appoint the Office of the Guardian Ad Litem.

(2) (a) The court shall assess all or part of the attorney guardian ad litem fees, courts costs, and paralegal, staff, and volunteer expenses against the parties in a proportion the court determines to be just.

(b) If the court finds a party to be impecunious, under the provisions of Sections 21-7-3 and 21-7-4, the court may direct the impecunious party's share of the assessment to be covered by the attorney guardian ad litem pro bono obligation established in Subsection (6)(b).

(3) The attorney guardian ad litem appointed under the provisions of this section shall:

(a) represent the best interests of the minor from the date of the appointment until released by the court;

(b) conduct or supervise an independent investigation in order to obtain a clear understanding of the situation and needs of the minor;

(c) formulate an independent opinion of the best interests of the minor after considering all relevant evidence and make recommendations to the court concerning the best interest of the minor;

(d) interview witnesses and review relevant records pertaining to the minor and the minor's family, including medical, psychological, and school records;

(e) if the minor is old enough to communicate and unless it would be detrimental to the minor:

(i) meet with and interview the minor;

(ii) determine the minor's goals and concerns regarding custody or visitation; and

(iii) counsel the minor regarding the nature, purpose, status, and implications of the case, of hearings, of recommendations, and proposals by parties and of court orders;

(f) conduct discovery, file pleadings and other papers, prepare and review orders, and otherwise comply with the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure as necessary to protect the best interest of the minor;

(g) unless excused by the court, prepare for and attend all mediation hearings and all court conferences and hearings, and present witnesses and exhibits as necessary to protect the best interests of the minor;

(h) identify community resources to protect the best interests of the minor and advocate for those resources; and

(i) participate in all appeals unless excused by the court.

(4) (a) The attorney guardian ad litem shall represent the best interests of a minor. If the minor's wishes differ from the attorney's determination of the minor's best interests, the attorney guardian ad litem shall communicate to the court the minor's wishes and the attorney's determination of the minor's best interests. A difference between the minor's wishes and the attorney's determination of best interests is not sufficient to create a conflict of interest.

(b) The court may appoint one attorney guardian ad litem to represent the best interests of more than one minor child of a marriage.

(5) An attorney guardian ad litem appointed under this section is immune from any civil liability that might result by reason of acts performed within the scope of duties of the attorney guardian ad litem.

(6) (a) Upon the advice of the Director of the Office of the Guardian Ad Litem, the Judicial Council shall by rule establish the minimum qualifications and requirements for appointment by the court as an attorney guardian ad litem.

(b) An attorney guardian ad litem may be required to appear pro bono in one case for every five cases in which the attorney is appointed with compensation.

(7) This section shall be effective in the Second, Third, and Fourth Judicial Districts on July 1, 2001, and in the remaining judicial districts of the state on July 1, 2002.

This act also amends provisions regarding the surety's and the prosecutor's functions if a defendant fails to appear, procedures for exoneration of the bond, and procedures for transportation of the defendant.

This act affects sections of Utah Code Annotated 1953 as follows:

AMENDS:
77-20-8.5, as last amended by Chapters 1 and 259, Laws of Utah 2000
77-20b-101, as last amended by Chapter 259, Laws of Utah 2000
77-20b-104, as last amended by Chapter 259, Laws of Utah 2000

ENACTS:
31A-35-504, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 31A-35-504 is enacted to read:

31A-35-504. Failure to pay bail bond forfeiture - Grounds for suspension and revocation of bail bond surety license.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Company" means a bail bond surety company.

(b) "Judgment" means a judgment of bond forfeiture issued under Section 77-20b-104.

(2) (a) A company shall pay a judgment not later than 15 days following service of notice upon the company from a prosecutor of the entry of the judgment.

(b) A prosecutor who does not receive proof of or notice of payment of the judgment within 15 days after the service of notice to the company of a judgment shall notify the commissioner of the failure to pay the judgment.

(c) If notice of entry of judgment is served upon the company by mail, three additional days are added to the 15 days provided in Subsections (2)(a) and (2)(b).

(d) A prosecutor shall not proceed under Subsection (2)(b) if a company provides notice of a motion to set aside judgment or notice of an application for an extraordinary writ prior to the end of the payment period.

(3) (a) The commissioner shall suspend the license of the company not later than five days following receipt of notice from a prosecutor of the company's failure to pay the judgment.

(b) The suspension shall be for 60 days and shall be in accordance with Section 31A-35-502.

(4) (a) If the prosecutor receives proof of or notice of payment of the judgment during the suspension period under Subsection (3), the prosecutor shall immediately notify the commissioner of the payment. The notice shall be in writing and by the most expeditious means possible, which may be via facsimile or any other electronic means, followed by the prosecutor's mailing of the original written notification to the commissioner.

(b) The commissioner shall vacate any suspension of the company's license due solely to the failure to pay a judgment, which is then paid under Subsection (4)(a), not later than five days after the commissioner receives the original written notification from the prosecutor, regardless of whether the prosecutor also sent the notification via facsimile or other electronic means. However, any suspension under this Subsection (4) may not be for fewer than 14 days.

(c) The commissioner may not vacate any suspension under this section for fewer than 14 days after receiving notification under Subsection (2) of failure to pay a judgment, even if the suspension for 14 days causes the total suspension of a company's license to extend beyond 60 days because the company had failed to pay a prior judgment and the commissioner had suspended the company's license based on that prior failure to pay.

(5) The commissioner may not vacate a suspension under Subsection (3) if at the time the commissioner receives notification under Subsection (4)(a) of payment of a judgment:

(a) at least one other unpaid judgment against the company exists;

(b) the commissioner has received notice under Subsection (2) of the company's failure to pay that judgment; and

(c) the commissioner has not received notice under Subsection (4)(a) of the company's payment of that outstanding judgment.

(6) The commissioner shall commence an administrative proceeding to revoke the license of a company that fails to pay a judgment of bond forfeiture before the expiration date of the suspension period.

(7) This section does not restrict or otherwise affect the rights of a prosecutor to commence collection proceedings under Subsection 77-20b-104(5).

Section 2. Section 77-20-8.5 is amended to read:

77-20-8.5. Sureties -- Surrender of defendant -- Arrest of defendant.

(1) (a) Sureties may at any time prior to a [~~forfeiture of their bail~~] defendant's failure to appear surrender the defendant and obtain exoneration of bail, by notifying the clerk of the court in which the bail was posted of the defendant's surrender and requesting exoneration. Notification [~~will~~] shall be [~~done~~] made immediately following the surrender by surface mail, electronic mail, or fax.

(b) To effect surrender, a certified copy of the surety's undertaking from the court in which it was posted[~~,~~] or[~~,~~] a copy of the bail agreement with the defendant shall be delivered to the on-duty jailer, who [~~will~~] shall detain the defendant in the on-duty jailer's custody as upon a commitment, and shall in writing acknowledge the surrender upon the copy of the undertaking or bail agreement. The certified copy of the undertaking or copy of the bail agreement upon which the acknowledgment of surrender is endorsed shall be filed with the court. The court may then, upon proper application, order the undertaking exonerated and may order a refund of any paid premium, or part of a premium, as it finds just.

(2) For the purpose of surrendering the defendant, the sureties may:

(a) arrest the defendant:

(i) at any time before the defendant is finally exonerated; and

(ii) at any place within the state; and

(b) surrender the defendant to any [~~correctional facility~~] county jail booking facility in Utah.

(3) An arrest under this section is not a basis for exoneration of the bond under Section 77-20b-101.

[~~(3)~~] (4) A surety acting under this section is subject to Title 53, Chapter 11, Bail Bond Recovery Act.

Section 3. Section 77-20b-101 is amended to read:

77-20b-101. Entry of nonappearance -- Notice to surety -- Release of surety on failure of timely notice.

(1) If a defendant who has posted bail fails to appear before the appropriate court when required and the court issues a bench warrant or directs that the surety be given notice of the nonappearance, the clerk of the court shall:

(a) mail notice of nonappearance by certified mail, return receipt requested, within 30 days to the address of the surety who posted the bond; [~~and~~]

(b) notify the surety of the name, address, telephone number, and fax number of the prosecutor;

[~~(b)~~] (c) deliver a copy of the notice sent under Subsection (1)(a) to the prosecutor's office at the same time notice is sent under Subsection (1)(a)[~~,~~]; and

(d) ensure that the name, address, and telephone number of the surety is stated on the bench warrant.

(2) [~~If notice is not provided in accordance with Subsection (1)(a), the~~] The prosecutor may mail notice of nonappearance by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the address of the surety within [~~seven~~] 37 days after the [~~end of the 30-day period under Subsection (1)(a)~~] date of the defendant's failure to appear.

(3) If notice of nonappearance is not mailed to a surety, other than the defendant, in accordance with Subsection (1) or (2), the surety is relieved of further obligation under the bond if the surety's current name and address are on the bail bond in the court's file.

(4) (a) A bond ordered forfeited by the court may not be reinstated without the mutual agreement of the surety and the court.

(b) If the defendant is arrested and booked into a county jail booking facility pursuant to a warrant for failure to appear on the original charges [~~and then released for any reason, the original bond shall be exonerated.~~], the surety may file a motion with the court to exonerate the bond. The surety shall deliver a copy of the motion to the prosecutor.

(c) Unless the court makes a finding of good cause why the bond should not be exonerated, it shall exonerate the bond if:

(i) the surety has delivered the defendant to the county jail booking facility in the county where the original charge is pending;

(ii) the defendant has been released on a bond secured from a subsequent surety for the original charge and the failure to appear;

(iii) after an arrest, the defendant has escaped from jail or has been released on the defendant's own recognizance, pursuant to a pretrial release, under a court order regulating jail capacity, or by a sheriff's release under Section 17-22-5.5; or

(iv) the surety has transported or agreed to pay for the transportation of the defendant from a location outside of the county back to the county where the original charge is pending, and the payment is in an amount equal to government transportation expenses listed in Section 76-3-201.

(d) Under circumstances not otherwise provided for in this section, the court may exonerate the bond if it finds that the prosecutor has been given reasonable notice of a surety's motion and there is good cause for the bond to be exonerated.

(e) If a surety's bond has been exonerated under this section and the surety remains liable for the cost of transportation of the defendant, the surety may take custody of the defendant for the purpose of transporting the defendant to the jurisdiction where the charge is pending.

Section 4. Section 77-20b-104 is amended to read:

77-20b-104. Forfeiture of bail.

(1) If a surety fails to bring the defendant before the court within the time provided in Section 77-20b-102, the prosecuting attorney may request the forfeiture of the bail by:

(a) filing a motion for bail forfeiture with the court, supported by proof of notice to the surety of the defendant's nonappearance; and

(b) mailing a copy of the motion to the surety.

(2) A court shall enter judgment of bail forfeiture without further notice if it finds by a preponderance of the evidence:

(a) the defendant failed to appear as required;

(b) the surety was given notice of the defendant's nonappearance in accordance with Section 77-20b-101;

(c) the surety failed to bring the defendant to the court within the six-month period under Section 77-20b-102; and

(d) the prosecutor has complied with the notice requirements under Subsection (1).

(3) If the surety shows by a preponderance of the evidence that it has failed to bring the defendant before the court because the defendant is deceased through no act of the surety, the court may not enter judgment of bail forfeiture.

(4) The amount of bail forfeited is the face amount of the bail bond, but if the defendant is in the custody of another jurisdiction and the state extradites or intends to extradite the defendant, the court may reduce the amount forfeited to the actual or estimated costs of returning the defendant to the court's jurisdiction. A judgment under this Subsection (4) shall:

(a) identify the surety against whom judgment is granted;

(b) specify the amount of bail forfeited;

(c) grant the [~~forfeited bail to the prosecuting entity~~] forfeiture of the bail; and

(d) be docketed by the clerk of the court in the civil judgment docket.

(5) A prosecutor may immediately commence collection proceedings to execute a judgment of bond forfeiture against the assets of the surety.

KINSHIP PLACEMENT FOR FOSTER CHILDREN

Sponsor: Bill Wright

This act amends the Judicial Code and the Human Services Code to authorize the Division of Child and Family Services to place a child in an emergency kinship placement rather than shelter care prior to a shelter hearing. The act requires a shelter hearing after an emergency kinship placement, or after a parent has entered a domestic violence shelter at the request of the division. The act expands the circumstances in which the division must conduct a postremoval investigation.

This act affects sections of Utah Code Annotated 1953 as follows:

AMENDS:
62A-4a-202.3, as last amended by Chapters 274 and 321, Laws of Utah 2000
78-3a-301, as last amended by Chapter 274, Laws of Utah 2000
78-3a-306, as last amended by Chapter 274, Laws of Utah 2000

ENACTS:
62A-4a-209, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 62A-4a-202.3 is amended to read:

62A-4a-202.3. Investigation -- Substantiation of reports -- Child in protective custody.

(1) When a child is taken into protective custody in accordance with Sections 62A-4a-202.1 and 78-3a-301, or when the division takes any other action which would require a shelter hearing under Subsection 78-3a-306(1), the Division of Child and Family Services shall immediately initiate a postremoval investigation of the circumstances of the minor and the facts surrounding his being taken into protective custody.

(2) The division's postremoval investigation shall include, among other actions necessary to meet reasonable professional standards:

(a) a search for and review of any records of past reports of abuse or neglect involving the same child, any sibling or other child residing in that household, and the alleged perpetrator;

(b) with regard to a child who is five years of age or older, a personal interview with the child outside of the presence of the alleged perpetrator, conducted in accordance with the requirements of Subsection (7);

(c) an interview with the child's natural parents or other guardian, unless their whereabouts are unknown;

(d) an interview with the person who reported the abuse, unless anonymous;

(e) where possible and appropriate, interviews with other third parties who have had direct contact with the child, including school personnel and the child's health care provider;

(f) an unscheduled visit to the child's home, unless the division has reasonable cause to believe that the reported abuse was committed by a person who does not:

(i) live in the child's home; or

(ii) have access to the child; and

(g) if appropriate and indicated in any case alleging physical injury, sexual abuse, or failure to meet the child's medical needs, a medical examination. That examination shall be obtained no later than 24 hours after the child was placed in protective custody.

(3) The division may rely on a written report of a prior interview rather than conducting an additional interview, if:

(a) law enforcement has previously conducted a timely and thorough investigation regarding the alleged abuse or neglect and has produced a written report;

(b) that investigation included one or more of the interviews required by Subsection (2); and

(c) the division finds that an additional interview is not in the best interest of the child.

(4) (a) With regard to both pre and postremoval, the division's determination of whether a report is substantiated or unsubstantiated may be based on the child's statements alone.

(b) Inability to identify or locate the perpetrator may not be used by the division as a basis for determining that a report is unsubstantiated, or for closing the case.

(c) The division may not determine a case to be unsubstantiated or identify a case as unsubstantiated solely because the perpetrator was an out-of-home perpetrator.

(d) Decisions regarding whether a report is substantiated, unsubstantiated, or without merit shall be based on the facts of the case at the time the report was made.

(5) The division should maintain protective custody of the child if it finds that one or more of the following conditions exist:

(a) the minor has no natural parent, guardian, or responsible relative who is able and willing to provide safe and appropriate care for the minor;

(b) shelter of the minor is a matter of necessity for the protection of the minor and there are no reasonable means by which the minor can be protected in his home or the home of a responsible relative;

(c) there is substantial evidence that the parent or guardian is likely to flee the jurisdiction of the court; or

(d) the minor has left a previously court ordered placement.

(6) (a) Within 24 hours after receipt of a child into protective custody, excluding weekends and holidays, the Division of Child and Family Services shall convene a child protection team to review the circumstances regarding removal of the child from his home, and prepare the testimony and evidence that will be required of the division at the shelter hearing, in accordance with Section 78-3a-306.

(b) Members of that team shall include:

(i) the caseworker assigned to the case and the caseworker who made the decision to remove the child;

(ii) a representative of the school or school district in which the child attends school;

(iii) the peace officer who removed the child from the home;

(iv) a representative of the appropriate Children's Justice Center, if one is established within the county where the child resides;

(v) if appropriate, and known to the division, a therapist or counselor who is familiar with the child's circumstances; and

(vi) any other individuals as determined to be appropriate and necessary by the team coordinator and chair.

(c) At that 24-hour meeting, the division shall have available for review and consideration, the complete child protective services and foster care history of the child and the child's parents and siblings.

(7) After receipt of a child into protective custody and prior to the adjudication hearing, all investigative interviews with the child that are initiated by the division shall be audio or video taped, and the child shall be allowed to have a support person of the child's choice present. That support person may not be an alleged perpetrator.

(8) The division shall cooperate with law enforcement investigations regarding the alleged perpetrator.

(9) The division may not close an investigation solely on the grounds that the division investigator is unable to locate the child, until all reasonable efforts have been made to locate the child and family members. Those efforts include:

(a) visiting the home at times other than normal work hours;

(b) contacting local schools;

(c) contacting local, county, and state law enforcement agencies; and

(d) checking public assistance records.

Section 2. Section 62A-4a-209 is enacted to read:

62A-4a-209. Emergency kinship placement.

(1) The division may use an emergency kinship placement under Subsection 78-3a-301(4) when:

(a) the case worker has made the determination that:

(i) the child's home is unsafe;

(ii) removal is necessary under the provisions of Section 78-3a-301; and

(iii) the child's custodial parent or guardian will agree to not remove the child from the relative's home who serves as the kinship placement and not have any contact with the child until after the shelter hearing required by Section 78-3a-306;

(b) a relative, with preference being given to a noncustodial parent in accordance with Section 78-3a-307, can be identified who has the ability and is willing to provide care for the child who would otherwise be placed in shelter care, including:

(i) taking the child to medical, mental health, dental, and educational appointments at the request of the division; and

(ii) the relative has the ability to make the child available to division services and the guardian ad litem; and

(c) the relative agrees to care for the child on an emergency basis under the following conditions:

(i) the relative meets the criteria for an emergency kinship placement under Subsection (2);

(ii) the relative agrees to not allow the custodial parent or guardian to have any contact with the child until after the shelter hearing unless authorized by the division in writing;

(iii) the relative agrees to contact law enforcement and the division if the custodial parent or guardian attempts to make unauthorized contact with the child;

(iv) the relative agrees to allow the division and the child's guardian ad litem to have access to the child;

(v) the relative has been informed and understands that the division may continue to search for other possible kinship placements for long-term care, if needed;

(vi) the relative is willing to assist the custodial parent or guardian in reunification efforts at the request of the division, and to follow all court orders; and

(vii) the child is comfortable with the relative.

(2) Before the division places a child in an emergency kinship placement, the division must:

(a) request the name of a reference and when possible, contact the reference and determine the answer to the following questions:

(i) would the person identified as a reference place a child in the home of the emergency kinship placement; and

(ii) are there any other relatives to consider as a possible emergency or long-term placement for the child;

(b) have the custodial parent or guardian sign an emergency kinship placement agreement form during the investigation;

(c) complete a criminal background check described in Sections 62A-4a-202.4 and 78-3a-307.1 on all persons living in the relative's household;

(d) complete a home inspection of the relative's home; and

(e) have the emergency kinship placement approved by a family service specialist.

(3) As soon as possible after the emergency placement and prior to the shelter hearing required by Section 78-3a-306, the division shall convene a family unity meeting.

(4) After an emergency kinship placement, the division caseworker must:

(a) respond to the emergency kinship placement's calls within one hour if the custodial parents or guardians attempt to make unauthorized contact with the child or attempt to remove the child;

(b) complete all removal paperwork, including the notice provided to the custodial parents and guardians under Section 78-3a-306;

(c) contact the attorney general to schedule a shelter hearing;

(d) complete the kinship procedures required in Section 78-3a-307, including, within five days after placement, the criminal history record check described in Subsection (5); and

(e) continue to search for other relatives as a possible long-term placement, if needed.

(5) (a) In order to determine the suitability of the kinship placement and to conduct a background screening and investigation of individuals living in the household in which a child is placed, each individual living in the household in which the child is placed shall be fingerprinted. If no disqualifying record is identified at the state level, the fingerprints shall be forwarded by the division to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history record check.

(b) The cost of those investigations shall be borne by whomever received placement of the child, except that the division may pay all or part of the cost of those investigations if the person with whom the child is placed is unable to pay.

Section 3. Section 78-3a-301 is amended to read:

78-3a-301. Removing a child from his home -- Grounds for removal.

(1) The Division of Child and Family Services may not remove a child from the custody of his natural parent unless there is substantial cause to believe that any one of the following exist:

(a) there is a substantial danger to the physical health or safety of the minor and the minor's physical health or safety may not be protected without removing him from his parent's custody. If a minor has previously been adjudicated as abused, neglected, or dependent, and a subsequent incident of abuse, neglect, or dependency occurs, that fact constitutes prima facie evidence that the child cannot safely remain in the custody of his parent;

(b) the minor is suffering emotional damage, as may be indicated by, but not limited to, extreme anxiety, depression, withdrawal, or negative aggressive behavior toward self or others, and there are no reasonable means available by which the minor's emotional health may be protected without removing the minor from the custody of his parent;

(c) the minor or another minor residing in the same household has been physically or sexually abused, or is deemed to be at substantial risk of being physically or sexually abused, by a parent, a member of the parent's household, or other person known to the parent. If a parent has received actual notice that physical or sexual abuse by a person known to the parent has occurred, and there is evidence that the parent has allowed the child to be in the physical presence of the alleged abuser, that fact constitutes prima facie evidence that the child is at substantial risk of being physically or sexually abused;

(d) the parent is unwilling to have physical custody of the child;

(e) the minor has been left without any provision for his support;

(f) a parent who has been incarcerated or institutionalized has not or cannot arrange for safe and appropriate care for the minor;

(g) a relative or other adult custodian with whom the minor has been left by the parent is unwilling or unable to provide care or support for the minor, the whereabouts of the parent are unknown, and reasonable efforts to locate him have been unsuccessful;

(h) the minor is in immediate need of medical care;

(i) the physical environment or the fact that the child is left unattended poses a threat to the child's health or safety;

(j) the minor or another minor residing in the same household has been neglected;

(k) an infant has been abandoned, as defined in Section 78-3a-313.5;

(l) the parent, or an adult residing in the same household as the parent, has been charged or arrested pursuant to Title 58, Chapter 37d, Clandestine Drug Lab Act, and any clandestine laboratory operation, as defined in Section

58-37d-3, was located in the residence or on the property where the child resided; or

(m) the child's welfare is otherwise endangered, as documented by the caseworker.

(2) The Division of Child and Family Services may not remove a minor from the custody of his natural parent solely on the basis of educational neglect.

(3) The Division of Child and Family Services shall comply with the provisions of Section 62A-4a-202.1 in effecting removal of a child pursuant to this section.

(4) (a) A minor removed from the custody of his natural parent under this section may not be placed or kept in a secure detention facility pending court proceedings unless the minor is detainable based on guidelines promulgated by the Division of Youth Corrections.

(b) A minor removed from the custody of his natural parent but who does not require physical restriction shall be given temporary care in:

(i) a shelter facility[.]; or

(ii) an emergency kinship placement in accordance with Section 62A-4a-209.

Section 4. Section 78-3a-306 is amended to read:

(c) emergency kinship placement under Subsection 78-3a-301(4)(b)(ii); or

(d) as an alternative to removal of the child, a parent has entered a domestic violence shelter at the request of the Division of Child and Family Services.

(b) the date, time, and place of the shelter hearing;

(c) the name of the minor on whose behalf a petition is being brought;

(d) the child's guardian ad litem;

(e) the caseworker from the Division of Child and Family Services who has been assigned to the case; and

(f) the attorney from the attorney general's office who is representing the division.

(5) (a) At the shelter hearing, the court shall provide an opportunity for the minor's parent or guardian, if present, and any other person having relevant knowledge, to provide relevant testimony. The court may also provide an opportunity for the minor to testify.

(b) The court may consider all relevant evidence, in accordance with the Utah Rules of Juvenile Procedure. The court shall hear relevant evidence presented by the minor, his parent or guardian, the requesting party, or their counsel, but may in its discretion limit testimony and evidence to only that which goes to the issues of removal and the child's need for continued protection.

(6) If the child is in the protective custody of the division, the division shall report to the court:

(a) the reasons why the minor was removed from the parent's or guardian's custody;

(b) any services provided to the child and his family in an effort to prevent removal;

(9) [~~The~~] If the child is in the protective custody of the division, the court shall order that the minor be released from the protective custody of the division unless it finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that any one of the following exist:

(a) there is a substantial danger to the physical health or safety of the minor and the minor's physical health or safety may not be protected without removing him from his parent's custody. If a minor has previously been adjudicated as abused, neglected, or dependent and a subsequent incident of abuse, neglect, or dependency occurs, that fact constitutes prima facie evidence that the child cannot safely remain in the custody of his parent;

(b) the minor is suffering emotional damage, as may be indicated by, but is not limited to, extreme anxiety, depression, withdrawal, or negative aggressive behavior toward self or others, and there are no reasonable means available by which the minor's emotional health may be protected without removing the minor from the custody of his parent;

(c) the minor or another minor residing in the same household has been physically or sexually abused, or is deemed to be at substantial risk of being physically or sexually abused, by a parent, a member of the parent's household, or other person known to the parent. If a parent has received actual notice that physical or sexual abuse by a person known to the parent has occurred, and there is evidence that the parent has allowed the child to be in the physical presence of the alleged abuser, that fact constitutes prima facie evidence that the child is at substantial risk of being physically or sexually abused;

(d) the parent is unwilling to have physical custody of the child;

(e) the minor has been left without any provision for his support;

(f) a parent who has been incarcerated or institutionalized has not or cannot arrange for safe and appropriate care for the minor;

(g) a relative or other adult custodian with whom the minor has been left by the parent is unwilling or unable to provide care or support for the minor, the whereabouts of the parent are unknown, and reasonable efforts to locate him have been unsuccessful;

(h) the minor is in immediate need of medical care;

(i) the physical environment or the fact that the child is left unattended poses a threat to the child's health or safety;

(j) the minor or another minor residing in the same household has been neglected;

(k) the parent, or an adult residing in the same household as the parent, has been charged or arrested pursuant to Title 58, Chapter 37d, Clandestine Drug Lab Act, and any clandestine laboratory operation, as defined in Section 58-37d-3, was located in the residence or on the property where the child resided; or

(l) the child's welfare is otherwise endangered.

(10) (a) The court shall also make a determination on the record as to whether reasonable efforts were made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the minor from his home and whether there are available services that would prevent the need for continued removal. If the court finds that the minor can be safely returned to the custody of his parent or guardian through the provision of those services, it shall place the minor with his parent or guardian and order that those services be provided by the division.

(b) In making that determination, and in ordering and providing services, the child's health, safety, and welfare shall be the paramount concern, in accordance with federal law.

(11) Where the division's first contact with the family occurred during an emergency situation in which the child could not safely remain at home, the court shall make a finding that any lack of preplacement preventive efforts was appropriate.

(12) In cases where actual sexual abuse or abandonment, or serious physical abuse or neglect are involved, neither the division nor the court has any duty to make "reasonable efforts" or to, in any other way, attempt to maintain a child in his home, return a child to his home, provide reunification services, or attempt to rehabilitate the offending parent or parents.

(13) The court may not order continued removal of a minor solely on the basis of educational neglect as described in Subsection 78-3a-103(1)(r)(ii).

(14) (a) Whenever a court orders continued removal of a minor under this section, it shall state the facts on which that decision is based.

(b) If no continued removal is ordered and the minor is returned home, the court shall state the facts on which that decision is based.

(15) If the court finds that continued removal and temporary custody are necessary for the protection of a child because harm may result to the child if he were returned home, it shall order continued removal regardless of any error in the initial removal of the child, or the failure of a party to comply with notice provisions, or any other procedural requirement of this chapter or Title 62A, Chapter 4a, Child and Family Services.

(b) If the county or municipality responsible for providing indigent legal defense, including counsel and defense resources, has contracted to provide those services through individual attorneys, individual defense resources, or associations providing defense resources, and the court has received notice or a copy of the contracts, the court shall assign a contracting attorney as the legal counsel to represent an indigent and a contracted defense resource to provide defense-related services.

[~~(b)~~] (2) makes a finding that there is a compelling reason to authorize or designate a noncontracting attorney or resources for the indigent defendant.

(1) (a) The vital records shall be open to inspection, but only in compliance with the provisions of this chapter, department rules, and Section 78-30-18. It is unlawful for any state or local officer or employee to disclose data contained in vital records contrary to this chapter or department rule.

(b) A custodian of vital records may permit inspection of a vital record or issue a certified copy of a record or a part of it when the custodian is satisfied the applicant has demonstrated a direct, tangible, and legitimate interest.

(2) A direct, tangible, and legitimate interest in a vital record is present only if:

(a) the request is from the subject, a member of the subject's immediate family, the guardian of the subject, or a designated legal representative;

(b) the request involves a personal or property right of the subject of the record;

(c) the request is for official purposes of a state, local, or federal governmental agency;

(d) the request is for a statistical or medical research program and prior consent has been obtained from the state registrar; or

(e) the request is a certified copy of an order of a court of record specifying the record to be examined or copied.

(3) For purposes of Subsection (2):

(a) "immediate family member" means a spouse, child, parent, sibling, grandparent, or grandchild;

(b) a designated legal representative means an attorney, physician, funeral director, genealogist, or other agent of the subject or the subject's immediate family who has been delegated the authority to access vital records;

(c) except as provided in Title 78, Chapter 30, Adoption, a parent, or the immediate family member of a parent, who does not have legal or physical custody of or visitation or parent-time rights for a child because of the termination of parental rights pursuant to Title 78, Chapter 3a, Juvenile Courts, or by virtue of consenting to or relinquishing a child for adoption pursuant to Title 78, Chapter 30, Adoption, may not be considered as having a direct, tangible, and legitimate interest; and

(d) a commercial firm or agency requesting names, addresses, or similar information may not be considered as having a direct, tangible, and legitimate interest.

(4) Upon payment of a fee established in accordance with Section 63-38-3.2, the following records shall be available to the public:

(b) a death record if 50 years or more have passed since the date of death; and

(c) a vital record not subject to Subsection (4)(a) or (b) if 75 years or more have passed since the date of the event upon which the record is based.

Section 2. Section 30-1-17.2 is amended to read:

30-1-17.2. Action to determine validity of marriage -- Orders relating to parties, property, and children -- Legitimacy of children.

(1) If the parties have accumulated any property or acquired any obligations subsequent to the marriage, if there is a genuine need arising from an economic change of circumstances due to the marriage, or if there are children born or expected, the court may make temporary and final orders, and subsequently modify the orders, relating to the parties, their property and obligations, the children and their custody and [~~visitation~~] parent-time, and the support and maintenance of the parties and children, as may be equitable.

(2) Except as provided in Section 78-45a-1, children born to the parties after the date of their marriage shall be deemed the legitimate children of both of the parties.

Section 3. Section 30-3-3 is amended to read:

30-3-3. Award of costs, attorney and witness fees -- Temporary alimony.

(1) In any action filed under Title 30, Chapter 3, 4, or 6, and in any action to establish an order of custody, [~~visitation~~] parent-time, child support, alimony, or division of property in a domestic case, the court may order a party to pay the costs, attorney fees, and witness fees, including expert witness fees, of the other party to enable the other party to prosecute or defend the action. The order may include provision for costs of the action.

(2) In any action to enforce an order of custody, [~~visitation~~] parent-time, child support, alimony, or division of property in a domestic case, the court may award costs and attorney fees upon determining that the party substantially prevailed upon the claim or defense. The court, in its discretion, may award no fees or limited fees against a party if the court finds the party is impecunious or enters in the record the reason for not awarding fees.

(3) In any action listed in Subsection (1), the court may order a party to provide money, during the pendency of the action, for the separate support and maintenance of the other party and of any children in the custody of the other party.

(4) Orders entered under this section prior to entry of the final order or judgment may be amended during the course of the action or in the final order or judgment.

Section 4. Section 30-3-5 is amended to read:

30-3-5. Disposition of property -- Maintenance and health care of parties and children -- Division of debts -- Court to have continuing jurisdiction -- Custody and parent-time -- Determination of alimony -- Nonmeritorious petition for modification.

(1) When a decree of divorce is rendered, the court may include in it equitable orders relating to the children, property, debts or obligations, and parties. The court shall include the following in every decree of divorce:

(a) an order assigning responsibility for the payment of reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses of the dependent children;

(b) if coverage is or becomes available at a reasonable cost, an order requiring the purchase and maintenance of appropriate health, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children;

(c) pursuant to Section 15-4-6.5:

(i) an order specifying which party is responsible for the payment of joint debts, obligations, or liabilities of the parties contracted or incurred during marriage;

(ii) an order requiring the parties to notify respective creditors or obligees, regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities and regarding the parties' separate, current addresses; and

(iii) provisions for the enforcement of these orders; and

(d) provisions for income withholding in accordance with Title 62A, Chapter 11, Recovery Services.

(2) The court may include, in an order determining child support, an order assigning financial responsibility for all or a portion of child care expenses incurred on behalf of the dependent children, necessitated by the employment or training of the custodial parent. If the court determines that the circumstances are appropriate and that the dependent children would be adequately cared for, it may include an order allowing the noncustodial parent to provide child care for the dependent children, necessitated by the employment or training of the custodial parent.

(3) The court has continuing jurisdiction to make subsequent changes or new orders for the custody of the children and their support, maintenance, health, and dental care, and for distribution of the property and obligations for debts as is reasonable and necessary.

(4) (a) In determining [~~visitation~~] parent-time rights of parents[,] and visitation rights of grandparents[,] and other members of the immediate family, the court shall consider the best interest of the child.

(b) Upon a specific finding by the court of the need for peace officer enforcement, the court may include in an order establishing a parent-time or visitation schedule a provision, among other things, authorizing any peace officer to enforce a court-ordered parent-time or visitation schedule entered under this chapter.

(5) If a petition for modification of child custody or [~~visitation~~] parent-time provisions of a court order is made and denied, the court shall order the petitioner to pay the reasonable attorneys' fees expended by the prevailing party in that action, if the court determines that the petition was without merit and not asserted or defended against in good faith.

(6) If a petition alleges substantial noncompliance with a [~~visitation~~] parent-time order by a parent, or a visitation order by a grandparent[,] or other member of the immediate family pursuant to Section 78-32-12.2 where a visitation or parent-time right has been previously granted by the court, the court may award to the prevailing party costs, including actual attorney fees and court costs incurred by the prevailing party because of the other party's failure to provide or exercise court-ordered visitation or parent-time.

(7) (a) The court shall consider at least the following factors in determining alimony:

(i) the financial condition and needs of the recipient spouse;

(ii) the recipient's earning capacity or ability to produce income;

(iii) the ability of the payor spouse to provide support;

(iv) the length of the marriage;

(v) whether the recipient spouse has custody of minor children requiring support;

(vi) whether the recipient spouse worked in a business owned or operated by the payor spouse; and

(vii) whether the recipient spouse directly contributed to any increase in the payor spouse's skill by paying for education received by the payor spouse or allowing the payor spouse to attend school during the marriage.

(b) The court may consider the fault of the parties in determining alimony.

(c) As a general rule, the court should look to the standard of living, existing at the time of separation, in determining alimony in accordance with Subsection (7)(a). However, the court shall consider all relevant facts and equitable principles and may, in its discretion, base alimony on the standard of living that existed at the time of trial. In marriages of short duration, when no children have been conceived or born during the marriage, the court may consider the standard of living that existed at the time of the marriage.

(d) The court may, under appropriate circumstances, attempt to equalize the parties' respective standards of living.

(e) When a marriage of long duration dissolves on the threshold of a major change in the income of one of the spouses due to the collective efforts of both, that change shall be considered in dividing the marital property and in determining the amount of alimony. If one spouse's earning capacity has been greatly enhanced through the efforts of both spouses during the marriage, the court may make a compensating adjustment in dividing the marital property and awarding alimony.

(f) In determining alimony when a marriage of short duration dissolves, and no children have been conceived or born during the marriage, the court may consider restoring each party to the condition which existed at the time of the marriage.

(g) (i) The court has continuing jurisdiction to make substantive changes and new orders regarding alimony based on a substantial material change in circumstances not foreseeable at the time of the divorce.

(ii) The court may not modify alimony or issue a new order for alimony to address needs of the recipient that did not exist at the time the decree was entered, unless the court finds extenuating circumstances that justify that action.

(iii) In determining alimony, the income of any subsequent spouse of the payor may not be considered, except as provided in this Subsection (7).

(A) The court may consider the subsequent spouse's financial ability to share living expenses.

(B) The court may consider the income of a subsequent spouse if the court finds that the payor's improper conduct justifies that consideration.

(h) Alimony may not be ordered for a duration longer than the number of years that the marriage existed unless, at any time prior to termination of alimony, the court finds extenuating circumstances that justify the payment of alimony for a longer period of time.

(8) Unless a decree of divorce specifically provides otherwise, any order of the court that a party pay alimony to a former spouse automatically terminates upon the remarriage or death of that former spouse. However, if the remarriage is annulled and found to be void ab initio, payment of alimony shall resume if the party paying alimony is made a party to the action of annulment and his rights are determined.

(9) Any order of the court that a party pay alimony to a former spouse terminates upon establishment by the party paying alimony that the former spouse is cohabitating with another person.

Section 5. Section 30-3-5.2 is amended to read:

30-3-5.2. Allegations of child abuse or child sexual abuse -- Investigation.

When, in any divorce proceeding or upon a request for modification of a divorce decree, an allegation of child abuse or child sexual abuse is made, implicating either party, the court, after making an inquiry, may order that an investigation be conducted by the Division of Child and Family Services within the Department of Human Services in accordance with Title 62A, Chapter 4a. A final award of custody or [~~visitation~~] parent-time may not be rendered until a report on that investigation, consistent with Section 62A-4a-412, is received by the court. That investigation shall be conducted by the Division of Child and Family Services within 30 days of the court's notice and request for an investigation. In reviewing this report, the court shall comply with Section 78-7-9.

Section 6. Section 30-3-10 is amended to read:

30-3-10. Custody of children in case of separation or divorce -- Custody consideration.

(1) If a husband and wife having minor children are separated, or their marriage is declared void or dissolved, the court shall make an order for the future care and custody of the minor children as it considers appropriate. In determining custody, the court shall consider the best interests of the child and the past conduct and demonstrated moral standards of each of the parties. The court may inquire of the children and take into consideration the children's desires regarding future custody or [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedules, but the expressed desires are not controlling and the court may determine the children's custody or [~~visitation~~] parent-time otherwise. Interviews with the children may be conducted by the judge in camera only with the prior consent of the parties.

(2) In awarding custody, the court shall consider, among other factors the court finds relevant, which parent is most likely to act in the best interests of the child, including allowing the child frequent and continuing contact with the noncustodial parent as the court finds appropriate.

(3) If the court finds that one parent does not desire custody of the child, or has attempted to permanently relinquish custody to a third party, it shall take that evidence into consideration in determining whether to award custody to the other parent.

(4) (a) A court may not discriminate against a parent due to a disability, as defined in Section 57-21-2, in awarding custody or determining whether a substantial change has occurred for the purpose of modifying an award of custody.

(b) If a court takes a parent's disability into account in awarding custody or determining whether a substantial change has occurred for the purpose of modifying an award of custody, the parent with a disability may rebut any evidence, presumption, or inference arising therefrom by showing that:

(i) the disability does not significantly or substantially inhibit the parent's ability to provide for the physical and emotional needs of the child at issue; or

(ii) the parent with a disability has sufficient human, monetary, or other resources available to supplement the parent's ability to provide for the physical and emotional needs of the child at issue.

(c) Nothing in this section may be construed to apply to:

(i) abuse, neglect, or dependency proceedings under Title 62A, Chapter 4a, Child and Family Services, or Title 78, Chapter 3a, Juvenile Courts; or

(ii) adoption proceedings under Title 78, Chapter 30, Adoption.

Section 7. Section 30-3-10.4 is amended to read:

30-3-10.4. Modification or termination of order.

(1) On the motion of one or both of the joint legal custodians the court may, after a hearing, modify an order that established joint legal custody if:

(a) the circumstances of the child or one or both custodians have materially and substantially changed since the entry of the order to be modified, or the order has become unworkable or inappropriate under existing circumstances; and

(b) a modification of the terms and conditions of the decree would be an improvement for and in the best interest of the child.

(2) The order of joint legal custody shall be terminated by order of the court if both parents file a motion for termination. At the time of entry of an order terminating joint legal custody, the court shall enter an order of sole legal custody under Section 30-3-10. All related issues, including [~~visitation~~] parent-time and child support, shall also be determined and ordered by the court.

(3) If the court finds that an action under this section is filed or answered frivolously and in a manner designed to harass the other party, the court shall assess attorney's fees as costs against the offending party.

Section 8. Section 30-3-32 is amended to read:

30-3-32. Parent-time -- Intent -- Policy -- Definitions.

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature to promote [~~visitation~~] parent-time at a level consistent with all parties' interests.

(2) Absent a showing by a preponderance of evidence of real harm or substantiated potential harm to the child:

(a) it is in the best interests of the child of divorcing, divorced, or adjudicated parents to have frequent, meaningful, and continuing access to each parent following separation or divorce;

(b) each divorcing, separating, or adjudicated parent is entitled to and responsible for frequent, meaningful, and continuing access with his child consistent with the child's best interests; and

(c) it is in the best interests of the child to have both parents actively involved in parenting the child.

(3) For purposes of Sections 30-3-32 through 30-3-37:

(a) "Child" means the child or children of divorcing, separating, or adjudicated parents.

(b) "Christmas school vacation" means the time period beginning on the evening the child gets out of school for the Christmas or winter school break until the evening before the child returns to school, except for Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, and New Year's Day.

(c) "Extended [~~visitation~~] parent-time" means a period of [~~visitation~~] parent-time other than a weekend, holiday as provided in Subsections 30-3-35(2)(f) and (2)(g), religious holidays as provided in Subsections 30-3-33(4) and (16), and "Christmas school vacation."

Section 9. Section 30-3-33 is amended to read:

30-3-33. Advisory guidelines.

In addition to the [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedules provided in [~~Section~~] Sections 30-3-35 and [~~Section~~] 30-3-35.5, advisory guidelines are suggested to govern all [~~visitation~~] parent-time arrangements between parents. These advisory guidelines include:

(1) [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedules mutually agreed upon by both parents are preferable to a court-imposed solution;

(2) the [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule shall be utilized to maximize the continuity and stability of the child's life;

(3) special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule;

(4) the noncustodial parent shall pick up the child at the times specified and return the child at the times specified, and the child's regular school hours shall not be interrupted;

(5) the custodial parent shall have the child ready for [~~visitation~~] parent-time at the time he is to be picked up and shall be present at the custodial home or shall make reasonable alternate arrangements to receive the child at the time he is returned;

(6) the court may make alterations in the [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule to reasonably accommodate the work schedule of both parents and may increase the [~~visitation~~] parent-time allowed to the noncustodial parent but shall not diminish the standardized [~~visitation~~] parent-time provided in [~~Section~~] Sections 30-3-35 and [~~Section~~] 30-3-35.5;

(7) the court may make alterations in the [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule to reasonably accommodate the distance between the parties and the expense of exercising [~~visitation~~] parent-time;

(8) neither [~~visitation~~] parent-time nor child support is to be withheld due to either parent's failure to comply with a court-ordered [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule;

(9) the custodial parent shall notify the noncustodial parent within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the child is participating or being honored, and the noncustodial parent shall be entitled to attend and participate fully;

(10) the noncustodial parent shall have access directly to all school reports including preschool and daycare reports and medical records and shall be notified immediately by the custodial parent in the event of a medical emergency;

(11) each parent shall provide the other with his current address and telephone number within 24 hours of any change;

(12) each parent shall permit and encourage liberal telephone contact during reasonable hours and uncensored mail privileges with the child;

(13) parental care shall be presumed to be better care for the child than surrogate care and the court shall encourage the parties to cooperate in allowing the noncustodial parent, if willing and able, to provide child care;

(14) each parent shall provide all surrogate care providers with the name, current address, and telephone number of the other parent and shall provide the noncustodial parent with the name, current address, and telephone number of all surrogate care providers unless the court for good cause orders otherwise; and

(15) each parent shall be entitled to an equal division of major religious holidays celebrated by the parents, and the parent who celebrates a religious holiday that the other parent does not celebrate shall have the right to be together with the child on the religious holiday.

Section 10. Section 30-3-34 is amended to read:

30-3-34. Best interests -- Rebuttable presumption.

(1) If the parties are unable to agree on a [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule, the court may establish a [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule consistent with the best interests of the child.

(2) The advisory guidelines as provided in Section 30-3-33 and the [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule as provided in [~~Section~~] Sections 30-3-35 and [~~Section~~] 30-3-35.5 shall be presumed to be in the best interests of the child. The [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule shall be considered the minimum [~~visitation~~] parent-time to which the noncustodial parent and the child shall be entitled unless a parent can establish otherwise by a preponderance of the evidence that more or less [~~visitation~~] parent-time should be awarded based upon any of the following criteria:

(a) [~~visitation~~] parent-time would endanger the child's physical health or significantly impair the child's emotional development;

(b) the distance between the residency of the child and the noncustodial parent;

(c) a substantiated or unfounded allegation of child abuse has been made;

(d) the lack of demonstrated parenting skills without safeguards to ensure the child's well-being during [~~visitation~~] parent-time;

(e) the financial inability of the noncustodial parent to provide adequate food and shelter for the child during periods of [~~visitation~~] parent-time;

(f) the preference of the child if the court determines the child to be of sufficient maturity;

(g) the incarceration of the noncustodial parent in a county jail, secure youth corrections facility, or an adult corrections facility;

(h) shared interests between the child and the noncustodial parent;

(i) the involvement of the noncustodial parent in the school, community, religious, or other related activities of the child;

(j) the availability of the noncustodial parent to care for the child when the custodial parent is unavailable to do so because of work or other circumstances;

(k) a substantial and chronic pattern of missing, canceling, or denying regularly scheduled [~~visitation~~] parent-time;

(l) the minimal duration of and lack of significant bonding in the parents' relationship prior to the conception of the child;

(m) the [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule of siblings;

(n) the lack of reasonable alternatives to the needs of a nursing child; and

(o) any other criteria the court determines relevant to the best interests of the child.

(3) The court shall enter the reasons underlying its order for [~~visitation~~] parent-time that:

(a) incorporates a [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule provided in Section 30-3-35 or [~~Section~~] 30-3-35.5; or

(b) provides more or less [~~visitation~~] parent-time than a [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule provided in Section 30-3-35 or [~~Section~~] 30-3-35.5.

(4) Once the [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule has been established, the parties may not alter the schedule except by mutual consent of the parties or a court order.

Section 11. Section 30-3-35 is amended to read:

30-3-35. Minimum schedule for parent-time for children 5 to 18 years of age.

(1) The [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule in this section applies to children 5 to 18 years of age.

(2) If the parties do not agree to a [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule, the following schedule shall be considered the minimum [~~visitation~~] parent-time to which the noncustodial parent and the child shall be entitled:

(a) (i) one weekday evening to be specified by the noncustodial parent or the court from 5:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.; or

(c) holidays take precedence over the weekend [~~visitation~~] parent-time, and changes shall not be made to the regular rotation of the alternating weekend [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule;

(d) if a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the noncustodial parent shall be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day;

(e) (i) if a holiday falls on a weekend or on a Friday or Monday and the total holiday period extends beyond that time so that the child is free from school and the parent is free from work, the noncustodial parent shall be entitled to this lengthier holiday period; or

(2) The juvenile court has jurisdiction over petitions to modify a minor's birth certificate if the court otherwise has jurisdiction over the minor.

(3) (a) This section does not deprive the district court of jurisdiction to appoint a guardian for a minor, or to determine the support, custody, and [~~visitation~~] parent-time of a minor upon writ of habeas corpus or when the question of support, custody, and [~~visitation~~] parent-time is incidental to the determination of a cause in the district court.

(b) However, if a petition involving the same minor is pending in the juvenile court or the juvenile court has previously acquired continuing jurisdiction over the same minor, the district court shall certify the question of support, custody, and [~~visitation~~] parent-time to the juvenile court for determination.

(4) When a question is certified to the juvenile court under Subsection (3), the findings and order of the juvenile court judge are the order of the district court.

(5) (a) Where a support, custody, or [~~visitation~~] parent-time award has been made by a district court in a divorce action or other proceeding, and the jurisdiction of the district court in the case is continuing, the juvenile court may acquire jurisdiction in a case involving the same minor if the minor is dependent, abused, neglected, or otherwise comes within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court under Section 78-3a-104.

(b) The juvenile court may, by order, change the custody, support, parent-time, and visitation rights previously ordered in the district court as necessary to implement the order of the juvenile court for the safety and welfare of the minor. The juvenile court order remains in effect so long as the jurisdiction of the juvenile court continues.

(6) When a copy of the findings and order of the juvenile court has been filed with the district court, the findings and order of the juvenile court are binding on the parties to the divorce action as though entered in the district court.

Section 24. Section 78-3a-118 is amended to read:

78-3a-118. Adjudication of jurisdiction of juvenile court -- Disposition of cases -- Enumeration of possible court orders -- Considerations of court.

(1) (a) When a minor is found to come within the provisions of Section 78-3a-104, the court shall so adjudicate. The court shall make a finding of the facts upon which it bases its jurisdiction over the minor. However, in cases within the provisions of Subsection 78-3a-104(1), findings of fact are not necessary.

(b) If the court adjudicates a minor for a crime of violence or an offense in violation of Title 76, Chapter 10, Part 5, Weapons, it shall order that notice of the adjudication be provided to the school superintendent of the district in which the minor resides or attends school. Notice shall be made to the district superintendent within three days and shall include the specific offenses for which the minor was adjudicated.

(2) Upon adjudication the court may make the following dispositions by court order:

(a) (i) The court may place the minor on probation or under protective supervision in the minor's own home and upon conditions determined by the court, including compensatory service as provided in Section 78-11-20.7.

(ii) The court may place the minor in state supervision with the probation department of the court, under the legal custody of his parent or guardian, the Division of Youth Corrections, or the Division of Child and Family Services.

(iii) If the court orders probation or state supervision, the court shall direct that notice of its order be provided to designated persons in the local law enforcement agency and the school or transferee school, if applicable, which the minor attends. The designated persons may receive the information for purposes of the minor's supervision and student safety.

(iv) Any employee of the local law enforcement agency and the school which the minor attends who discloses the court's order of probation is not:

(A) civilly liable except when the disclosure constitutes fraud or malice as provided in Section 63-30-4; and

(B) civilly or criminally liable except when the disclosure constitutes a knowing violation of Section 63-2-801.

(b) The court may place the minor in the legal custody of a relative or other suitable person, with or without probation or protective supervision, but the juvenile court may not assume the function of developing foster home services.

(c) (i) The court may vest legal custody of the minor in the Division of Child and Family Services, Division of Youth Corrections, or the Division of Mental Health, and may order the Department of Human Services to provide dispositional recommendations and services.

(ii) For minors who may qualify for services from two or more divisions within the Department of Human Services, the court may vest legal custody with the department.

(iii) Minors who are committed to the custody of the Division of Child and Family Services on grounds other than abuse or neglect are subject to the provisions of Title 78, Chapter 3a, Part 3A, Minors in Custody on Grounds Other Than Abuse or Neglect, and Title 62A, Chapter 4a, Part 2A, Minors in Custody on Grounds Other Than Abuse or Neglect. Prior to making a recommendation that the court place a minor in the custody of the Division of Child and Family Services on grounds other than abuse or neglect, the probation department shall provide the division adequate with notice for the division to attend the hearing.

(d) (i) The court may commit the minor to the Division of Youth Corrections for secure confinement.

(ii) A minor under the jurisdiction of the court solely on the ground of abuse, neglect, or dependency under Subsection 78-3a-104(1)(c) may not be committed to the Division of Youth Corrections.

(e) The court may commit the minor, subject to the court retaining continuing jurisdiction over him, to the temporary custody of the Division of Youth Corrections for observation and evaluation for a period not to exceed 45 days, which may be extended up to 15 days at the request of the director.

(f) (i) The court may commit the minor to a place of detention or an alternative to detention for a period not to exceed 30 days subject to the court retaining continuing jurisdiction over the minor.

(ii) Subsection (2)(f) applies only to those minors adjudicated for an act which if committed by an adult would be a criminal offense or for contempt of court under Section 78-3a-901. This commitment may be stayed or suspended upon conditions ordered by the court.

(g) The court may vest legal custody of an abused, neglected, or dependent minor in the Division of Child and Family Services or any other appropriate person in accordance with the requirements and procedures of Title 78, Chapter 3a, Part 3, Abuse, Neglect, and Dependency Proceedings.

(h) The court may place the minor on a ranch or forestry camp, or similar facility for care and also for work, if possible, if the person, agency, or association operating the facility has been approved or has otherwise complied with all applicable state and local laws. A minor placed in a forestry camp or similar facility may be required to work on fire prevention, forestation and reforestation, recreational works, forest roads, and on other works on or off the grounds of the facility and may be paid wages, subject to the approval of and under conditions set by the court.

(i) The court may order that the minor be required to repair, replace, or otherwise make restitution for damage or loss caused by the minor's wrongful act, including costs of treatment as stated in Section 78-3a-318, and may impose fines in limited amounts.

(j) The court may issue orders necessary for the collection of restitution and fines ordered by the court, including garnishments, wage withholdings, and executions.

(k) (i) The court may through its probation department encourage the development of employment or work programs to enable minors to fulfill their obligations under Subsection (2)(i) and for other purposes considered desirable by the court.

(ii) Consistent with the order of the court, the probation officer may permit the minor found to be within the jurisdiction of the court to participate in a program of work restitution or compensatory service in lieu of paying part or all of the fine imposed by the court.

(l) In violations of traffic laws within the court's jurisdiction, the court may, in addition to any other disposition, restrain the minor from driving for periods of time the court considers necessary and take possession of the minor's driver license. However, proceedings involving an offense under Section 78-3a-506 are governed by that section regarding suspension of driving privileges.

(m) (i) When a minor is found within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court under Section

78-3a-104 because of violating Section 58-37-8, Title 58, Chapter 37a, Utah Drug Paraphernalia Act, or Title 58, Chapter 37b, Imitation Controlled Substances Act, the court shall, in addition to any fines or fees otherwise imposed, order that the minor perform a minimum of 20 hours, but no more than 100 hours, of compensatory service. Satisfactory completion of an approved substance abuse prevention or treatment program may be credited by the court as compensatory service hours.

(ii) When a minor is found within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court under Section 78-3a-104 because of a violation of Section 32A-12-209 or Subsection 76-9-701(1), the court may, upon the first adjudication, and shall, upon a second or subsequent adjudication, order that the minor perform a minimum of 20 hours, but no more than 100 hours of compensatory service, in addition to any fines or fees otherwise imposed. Satisfactory completion of an approved substance abuse prevention or treatment program may be credited by the court as compensatory service hours.

(n) The court may order that the minor be examined or treated by a physician, surgeon, psychiatrist, or psychologist or that he receive other special care. For these purposes the court may place the minor in a hospital or other suitable facility.

(o) (i) The court may appoint a guardian for the minor if it appears necessary in the interest of the minor, and may appoint a public or private institution or agency as guardian in which legal custody of the minor is vested.

(ii) In placing a minor under the guardianship or legal custody of an individual or of a private agency or institution, the court shall give primary consideration to the welfare of the minor. When practicable, the court may take into consideration the religious preferences of the minor and of the minor's parents.

(p) (i) In support of a decree under Section 78-3a-104, the court may order reasonable conditions to be complied with by the parents or guardian, the minor, the minor's custodian, or any other person who has been made a party to the proceedings. Conditions may include:

(A) [~~visitation~~] parent-time by the parents or one parent;

(B) restrictions on the minor's associates;

(C) restrictions on the minor's occupation and other activities; and

(D) requirements to be observed by the parents or custodian.

(ii) A minor whose parents or guardians successfully complete a family or other counseling program may be credited by the court for detention, confinement, or probation time.

(r) The court may make an order committing a minor within its jurisdiction to the Utah State Developmental Center if the minor has been found mentally retarded in accordance with the provisions of Title 62A, Chapter 5, Part 3, Admission to Mental Retardation Facility. The procedure applicable in the district courts with respect to judicial commitments to the Utah State Developmental Center shall be followed by the juvenile court in these cases.

(s) The court may terminate all parental rights upon a finding of compliance with the provisions of Title 78, Chapter 3a, Part 4, Termination of Parental Rights Act.

(t) The court may make any other reasonable orders for the best interest of the minor or as required for the protection of the public, except that a person younger than 18 years of age may not be committed to jail or prison, and offenses under Section 78-3a-506 are governed by that section regarding suspension of driving privileges.

(u) The court may combine several of the above-listed modes of disposition if they are compatible.

(v) Before depriving any parent of custody, the court shall give due consideration to the rights of parents concerning their minors. The court may transfer custody of a minor to another person, agency, or institution in accordance with the requirements and procedures of Title 78, Chapter 3a, Part 3, Abuse, Neglect, and Dependency Proceedings.

(w) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(y)(i), an order under this section for probation or placement of a minor with an individual or an agency shall include a date certain for a review of the case by the court. A new date shall be set upon each review.

(x) In reviewing foster home placements, special attention shall be given to making adoptable minors available for adoption without delay.

(y) (i) The juvenile court may enter an order of permanent custody and guardianship with a relative or individual of a minor where the court has previously acquired jurisdiction as a result of an adjudication of abuse, neglect, or dependency, excluding cases arising under Subsection 78-3a-105(4).

(ii) Such orders remain in effect until the minor reaches majority and are not subject to review under Section 78-3a-119, but may be modified by petition or motion as provided in Section 78-3a-903.

(iii) Orders permanently terminating the rights of a parent, guardian, or custodian and permanent orders of custody and guardianship do not expire with a termination of jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

(3) In addition to the dispositions described above, when a minor comes within the court's

(a) the minor meets the current entrance qualifications for service in the National Guard as determined by a recruiter, whose determination is final;

(b) the minor is not under the jurisdiction of the court for any act that:

(i) would be a felony if committed by an adult;

(ii) is a violation of Title 58, Chapter 37, Controlled Substances; or

(c) the court retains jurisdiction over the minor under conditions set by the juvenile court judge and agreed upon by the recruiter or the unit the minor is eventually assigned to.

Section 25. Section 78-3a-307 is amended to read:

78-3a-307. Shelter hearing -- Placement with a noncustodial parent or relative -- DCFS custody.

(1) (a) At the shelter hearing, when the court orders that a child be removed from the custody of his parent in accordance with the requirements of Section 78-3a-306, the court shall first determine whether there is another natural parent as defined in Subsection (1)(b), with whom the child was not residing at the time the events or conditions that brought him within the court's jurisdiction occurred, who desires to assume custody of the child. If that parent requests custody, the court shall place the minor with that parent unless it finds that the placement would be unsafe or otherwise detrimental to the child. The provisions of this Subsection (1) are limited by the provisions of Subsection (8)(b).

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 78-3a-103, for purposes of this section "natural parent" includes only a biological or adoptive mother, an adoptive father, or a biological father who was married to the child's biological mother at the time the child was conceived or born, or who has strictly complied with the provisions of Section 78-30-4.14 prior to removal of the child or voluntary surrender of the child by the custodial parent. This definition applies regardless of whether the child has been or will be placed with adoptive parents or whether adoption has been or will be considered as a long-term goal for the child.

(c) (i) The court shall make a specific finding regarding the fitness of that parent to assume custody, and the safety and appropriateness of the placement.

(ii) The court shall, at a minimum, order the division to visit the parent's home, perform criminal background checks described in Sections 78-3a-307.1 and 62A-4a-202.4, and check the division's management information system for any previous reports of abuse or neglect received by the division regarding the parent at issue.

(iii) The court may order the Division of Child and Family Services to conduct any further investigation regarding the safety and appropriateness of the placement.

(iv) The division shall report its findings in writing to the court.

(v) The court may place the child in the temporary custody of the division, pending its determination regarding that placement.

(2) If the court orders placement with a parent under Subsection (1), the child and the parent are under the continuing jurisdiction of the court. The court may order that the parent assume custody subject to the supervision of the court, and order that services be provided to the parent from whose custody the child was removed, the parent who has assumed custody, or both. The court may also provide for reasonable [~~visitation~~] parent-time with the parent from whose custody the child was removed, if that is in the best interest of the child. The court's order shall be periodically reviewed to determine whether:

(a) placement with the parent continues to be in the child's best interest;

(b) the child should be returned to the original custodial parent;

(c) the child should be placed with a relative, pursuant to Subsection (5); or

(d) the child should be placed in the custody of the division.

(3) The time limitations described in Section 78-3a-311 with regard to reunification efforts, apply to children placed with a previously noncustodial parent in accordance with Subsection (1).

(4) Legal custody of the child is not affected by an order entered under Subsection (1) or (2). In order to affect a previous court order regarding legal custody, the party must petition that court for modification of the order.

(5) (a) If, at the time of the shelter hearing, a child is removed from the custody of his parent and is not placed in the custody of his other parent, the court shall, at that time, determine whether there is a relative who is able and willing to care for the child. The court may order the Division of Child and Family Services to conduct a reasonable search to determine whether there are relatives of the child who are willing and appropriate, in accordance with the requirements of this part and Title 62A, Chapter 4a, Part 2, Child Welfare Services, for placement of the child. The court shall order the parents to cooperate with the division, within five working days, to provide information regarding relatives who may be able and willing to care for the child. The child may be placed in the temporary custody of the division pending that determination. This section may not be construed as a guarantee that an identified relative will receive custody of the child. However, preferential consideration may be given to a relative's request for placement of the child, if it is in the best interest of the child, and the provisions of this section are satisfied.

(b) (i) If a willing relative is identified pursuant to Subsection (5)(a), the court shall make a specific finding regarding the fitness of that relative to assume custody, and the safety and appropriateness of placement with that relative. In order to be considered a "willing relative" under this section, the relative shall be willing to cooperate if the child's permanency goal is reunification with his parent or parents, and be willing to adopt or take permanent custody of the child if that is determined to be in the best interest of the child.

(ii) The court shall, at a minimum, order the division to conduct criminal background checks described in Sections 78-3a-307.1 and 62A-4a-202.4, visit the relative's home, check the division's management information system for any previous reports of abuse or neglect regarding the relative at issue, report its findings in writing to the court, and provide sufficient information so that the court may determine whether:

(A) the relative has any history of abusive or neglectful behavior toward other children that may indicate or present a danger to this child;

(B) the child is comfortable with the relative;

(C) the relative recognizes the parent's history of abuse and is determined to protect the child;

(D) the relative is strong enough to resist inappropriate requests by the parent for access to the child, in accordance with court orders;

(E) the relative is committed to caring for the child as long as necessary; and

(F) the relative can provide a secure and stable environment for the child.

(iii) The court may order the Division of Child and Family Services to conduct any further investigation regarding the safety and appropriateness of the placement.

(iv) The division shall complete and file its assessment regarding placement with a relative as soon as practicable, in an effort to facilitate placement of the child with a relative.

(c) The court may place the child in the temporary custody of the division, pending the division's investigation pursuant to Subsection (5)(b), and the court's determination regarding that placement. The court shall ultimately base its determination regarding placement with a relative on the best interest of the child.

(d) For purposes of this section, "relative" means an adult who is a grandparent, great grandparent, aunt, great aunt, uncle, great uncle, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, stepparent, first cousin, stepsibling, or sibling of the child. In the case of a child defined as an "Indian" under the Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. Section 1903, "relative" also means an "extended family member" as defined by that statute.

(6) (a) When the court vests physical custody of a child with a relative pursuant to Subsection (5), it shall order that the relative assume custody subject to the continuing supervision of the court, and shall order that any necessary services be provided to the minor and the relative. That child is not within the temporary custody or custody of the Division of Child and Family Services. The child and any relative with whom the child is placed are under the continuing jurisdiction of the court. The court may enter any order that it considers necessary for the protection and best interest of the child.

(b) (i) Placement with a relative pursuant to Subsection (5) shall be periodically reviewed by the court, no less often than every six months, to determine whether:

(A) placement with the relative continues to be in the child's best interest;

(B) the child should be returned home; or

(C) the child should be placed in the custody of the division.

(ii) No later than 12 months after placement with a relative the court shall schedule a hearing for the purpose of entering a permanent order in accordance with the best interest of the child.

(iii) The time limitations described in Section 78-3a-311, with regard to reunification efforts, apply to children placed with a relative pursuant to Subsection (5).

(7) When the court orders that a child be removed from the custody of his parent and does not vest custody in another parent or relative under this section, the court shall order that the child be placed in the temporary custody of the Division of Child and Family Services, to proceed to adjudication and disposition and to be provided with care and services in accordance with this chapter and Title 62A, Chapter 4a, Child and Family Services.

(8) (a) Any preferential consideration that a relative may be initially granted pursuant to Subsection (5) expires 120 days from the date of the shelter hearing. After that time period has expired, a relative who has not obtained custody or asserted an interest in a child, may not be granted preferential consideration by the division or the court.

(b) When the time period described in Subsection (8)(a) has expired, the preferential consideration which may initially be granted to a natural parent in accordance with Subsection (1), is limited. After that time the court shall base its custody decision on the best interest of the child.

Section 26. Section 78-3a-409 is amended to read:

78-3a-409. Specific considerations where child is not in physical custody of parent.

(1) If a child is not in the physical custody of the parent or parents, the court, in determining whether parental rights should be terminated shall consider, but is not limited to, the following:

(a) the physical, mental, or emotional condition and needs of the child and his desires regarding the termination, if the court determines he is of sufficient capacity to express his desires; and

(b) the effort the parent or parents have made to adjust their circumstances, conduct, or conditions to make it in the child's best interest to return him to his home after a reasonable length of time, including but not limited to:

(i) payment of a reasonable portion of substitute physical care and maintenance, if financially able;

(ii) maintenance of regular [~~visitation~~] parent-time or other contact with the child that was designed and carried out in a plan to reunite the child with the parent or parents; and

(iii) maintenance of regular contact and communication with the custodian of the child.

(2) For purposes of this section, the court shall disregard incidental conduct, contributions, contacts, and communications.

Section 27. Section 78-7-32 is amended to read:

78-7-32. Domestic relations cases -- Party designation.

Parties in domestic relations cases, including divorce, annulment, property division, child custody, support, [~~visitation~~] parent-time, adoption, and paternity, shall be designated as petitioner and respondent.

Section 28. Section 78-30-4.16 is amended to read:

78-30-4.16. Contested adoptions -- Rights of parties -- Determination of custody.

(1) Whenever any party contests an adoption, the court shall first determine whether the provisions of this chapter have been complied with. If a party who was entitled to notice and consent under the provisions of this chapter, was denied that right, and did not otherwise waive or forfeit that right under the terms of this chapter, the court may:

(a) enjoin the adoption, or dismiss the adoption petition, and proceed in accordance with Subsection (2); or

(b) determine whether proper grounds for termination of that parent's rights exist and, if so, order that the parent's rights be terminated in accordance with the provisions of this chapter or Title 78, Chapter 3a, Part 4, Termination of Parental Rights Act.

(2) (a) In any case, and under any circumstance, if a court determines that a petition for adoption may not be granted, the court may not automatically grant custody of a child to a challenging biological parent, but shall conduct an evidentiary hearing in each case, in order to determine who should have custody of the child, in accordance with the child's best interest.

(b) Evidence considered at that hearing may include, but is not limited to, evidence of psychological or emotional bonds that the child had formed with third parties and any detriment that a change in custody may cause to the child. The fact that a person relinquished a child to a licensed child placing agency or executed a consent for adoption may not be considered by the court as evidence of neglect or abandonment.

(c) Any custody order entered pursuant to this section may also include provisions for [~~visitation~~] parent-time by a biological parent or visitation by an interested third party, and provide for the financial support of the child.

(3) An adoption may not be contested after the final decree of adoption is entered.

Section 29. Section 78-32-12.1 is amended to read:

78-32-12.1. Compensatory service for violation of parent-time order or failure to pay child support.

(1) If a court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that a parent has refused to comply with the minimum amount of [~~visitation~~] parent-time ordered in a decree of divorce, the court shall order the parent to:

(a) perform a minimum of ten hours of compensatory service; and

(b) participate in workshops, classes, or individual counseling to educate the parent about the importance of complying with the court order and providing a child a continuing relationship with both parents.

(2) If a custodial parent is ordered to perform compensatory service or undergo court-ordered education, there is a rebuttable presumption that the noncustodial parent be granted [~~visitation~~] parent-time by the court to provide child care during the time the custodial parent is complying with compensatory service or education in order to recompense him for [~~visitation time~~] parent-time wrongfully denied by the custodial parent under the divorce decree.

(3) If a noncustodial parent is ordered to perform compensatory service or undergo court-ordered education, the court shall attempt to schedule the compensatory service or education at times that will not interfere with the noncustodial parent's [~~visitation~~] parent-time with the child.

(4) The person ordered to participate in court-ordered education is responsible for expenses of workshops, classes, and individual counseling.

(5) If a court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that an obligor, as defined in Section 78-45-2, has refused to pay child support as ordered by a court in accordance with Title 78, Chapter 45, Uniform Civil Liability for Support Act, the court shall order the obligor to:

(a) perform a minimum of ten hours of compensatory service; and

(b) participate in workshops, classes, or individual counseling to educate the obligor about the importance of complying with the court order and providing the children with a regular and stable source of support.

(6) The obligor is responsible for the expenses of workshops, classes, and individual counseling ordered by the court.

(7) If a court orders an obligor to perform compensatory service or undergo court-ordered education, the court shall attempt to schedule the compensatory service or education at times that will not interfere with the obligor's [~~visitation~~] parent-time with the child.

(8) The sanctions that the court shall impose under this section do not prevent the court from imposing other sanctions as provided in Section 78-32-12.2 or other provisions in this chapter, or prevent any person from bringing a cause of action allowed under state or federal law.

(9) The Legislature shall allocate the money from the Children's Legal Defense Account to the judiciary to defray the cost of enforcing and administering this section.

Section 30. Section 78-32-12.2 is amended to read:

78-32-12.2. Definitions -- Sanctions.

(1) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Make up [~~visitation~~] parent-time" means [~~visitation~~] parent-time which is:

(i) of the same type and duration of [~~visitation~~] parent-time as that which was denied, including [~~visitation~~] parent-time during weekdays, weekends, holidays, and during extended [~~visitation~~] parent-time periods;

(ii) to be made up within one year after the court has entered its order of make up [~~visitation~~] parent-time; and

[~~(d)~~] (b) "[~~Visitation~~] Parent-time enforcement order" means an order to enforce compliance with an original [~~visitation~~] parent-time order through the use of sanctions.

[~~(b)~~] (c) "Petition" means a petition brought by a parent, a grandparent as provided in Section 30-5-2, by other immediate family members, or upon the court's own motion alleging that a parent is not complying with a [~~visitation~~] parent-time order in a decree of divorce or a subsequent [~~visitation~~] parent-time enforcement order which may be brought at different stages in the alleged pattern of noncompliance:

(i) a first petition is a petition to enforce an original order of [~~visitation~~] parent-time or a petition filed after three years from the last [~~visitation~~] parent-time enforcement order;

(ii) a second petition is a petition filed within three years following entry of the first [~~visitation~~] parent-time enforcement order; and

(iii) a third petition is a petition filed within three years following entry of the second [~~visitation~~] parent-time enforcement order.

[~~(c)~~] (d) "Substantial noncompliance" means conduct which:

(i) substantially interferes with a court-ordered [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule; or

(ii) interferes with parent's right to frequent, meaningful, and continuing access with his child and which substantially impairs that parent-child relationship.

(2) Upon a first petition, the court shall order:

(a) if the first petition is uncontested, by default:

(i) a permanent injunction enjoining the noncompliance with the court's [~~visitation~~] parent-time order;

(ii) make up [~~visitation~~] parent-time for the aggrieved parent and child; and

(iii) participation in workshops, classes, or individual counseling to educate the parent about the importance of complying with the court order and providing the child with a continuing relationship with both parents as provided in Subsection 78-32-12.1(1)(b); or

(b) if the first petition is contested, the court shall hold a hearing to determine by a preponderance of the evidence whether there has been a substantial noncompliance with the [~~visitation~~] parent-time order.

(3) Upon a finding of substantial noncompliance, the court shall order:

(a) actual costs including actual attorney fees and court costs to the prevailing party;

(b) make up [~~visitation~~] parent-time for the aggrieved parent and child;

(c) a minimum of ten hours of compensatory service as provided in Subsection 78-32-12.1(1)(a); and

(d) a permanent injunction enjoining the noncompliance with the court's [~~visitation~~] parent-time order.

(4) Upon a finding of substantial noncompliance, the court may order:

(a) mediation with the requirement to report back to the court on the results of mediation within 30 days;

(b) participation in workshops, classes, or individual counseling to educate the parent about the importance of complying with the court order and providing the child with a continuing relationship with both parents as provided in Subsection 78-32-12.1(1)(b); or

(c) a fine or jail sentence or other appropriate sanctions as provided under contempt of court in Section 78-32-10.

(5) Upon a second petition, the court shall order:

(a) if the second petition is uncontested, by default:

(i) actual costs including actual attorney fees and court costs;

(ii) make up [~~visitation~~] parent-time to be provided for the aggrieved parent and child;

(iii) a minimum of ten hours of compensatory service as provided in Subsection 78-32-12.1(1)(a); and

(iv) impose a fine or jail sentence or other appropriate sanctions as provided under contempt of court in Section 78-32-10; or

(b) if the second petition is contested, the court shall hold a hearing to determine by a preponderance of the evidence whether there has been a substantial noncompliance with the [~~visitation~~] parent-time orders.

(6) Upon a finding of a substantial noncompliance, the court shall order:

(a) actual costs including actual attorney fees and court costs to the prevailing party;

(b) make up [~~visitation~~] parent-time to be provided for the aggrieved party and child at twice the amount of time previously wrongfully denied and under the same conditions as provided in Subsections 78-32-12.2(3)(a) through (c);

(c) a minimum of 20 hours of compensatory service as provided in Subsection 78-32-12.1(1)(a);

(d) a contempt order which imposes a fine or jail sentence as provided in Section 78-32-10; and

(e) the violator to post bond or security in the amount determined by the court to insure future compliance.

(7) The court may impose additional sanctions which may include any additional remedies, terms, or conditions which are consistent with the court's previous order.

(8) Upon a third petition, the court shall order:

(a) if the third petition is uncontested, by default:

(i) actual costs including actual attorney fees and court costs;

(ii) make up [~~visitation~~] parent-time to be provided for the aggrieved party and child at twice the amount of time previously denied and under the same conditions as provided in Subsections 78-32-12.2(3)(a) through (c);

(iii) a minimum of ten hours of compensatory service as provided in Subsection 78-32-12.1(1)(a); and

(iv) impose a fine or jail sentence or other appropriate sanctions as provided under contempt of court in Section 78-32-10; or

(b) if the third petition is contested, the court shall hold a hearing to determine by a preponderance of the evidence whether there has been a substantial noncompliance with the [~~visitation~~] parent-time orders.

(9) Upon a finding of substantial noncompliance, the court shall order:

(a) actual costs including actual attorney fees and court costs to the prevailing party;

(b) a finding that there has been a prima facie showing of a substantial change of circumstances which is against the best interest of the child for purposes of modification of custody and order a temporary change of custody for a duration to be determined by the court; and

(c) a finding that there has been a probable cause showing of custodial interference as provided in Section 76-5-303 and order the case to be referred to the county attorney for prosecution.

(10) The court may decline to issue an order with the alternative sanctions as provided in Subsections 78-32-12.2(2) through (9) although the petitioner has met his burden of proof if the court provides findings on the record explaining why a sanction or sanctions were not imposed.

(11) The noncustodial parent shall give the court and the custodial parent written notice of his intention to exercise the make up [~~visitation~~] parent-time at least seven days before the proposed visit if it is to be on a weekday or weekend, and at least 30 days before the proposed visit if it is to be on a holiday or an extended [~~visitation~~] parent-time period.

(12) The court shall suspend any proceedings under Section 78-32-12.2 if substantial allegations of child abuse or child sexual abuse are under investigation or a case is pending in the courts on the allegations.

(13) The filing of any petition under this section which is found to be without merit and not asserted or defended against in good faith shall be subject to sanctions as determined by the court.

(14) This section shall be implemented only as a pilot program in the first judicial district as provided in Section 78-32-12.3.

Section 31. Section 78-32-17 is amended to read:

78-32-17. Noncompliance with child support order.

(1) When a court of competent jurisdiction, or the Office of Recovery Services pursuant to an action under Title 63, Chapter 46b, Administrative Procedures Act, makes an order requiring a parent to furnish support or necessary food, clothing, shelter, medical care, or other remedial care for his child, and the parent fails to do so, proof of noncompliance shall be prima facie evidence of contempt of court.

(2) Proof of noncompliance may be demonstrated by showing that:

(a) the order was made, and filed with the district court; and

(b) the parent knew of the order because:

(i) the order was mailed to the parent at his last-known address as shown on the court records;

(ii) the parent was present in court at the time the order was pronounced;

(iii) the parent entered into a written stipulation and the parent or counsel for the parent was sent a copy of the order;

(iv) counsel was present in court and entered into a stipulation which was accepted and the order based upon the stipulation was then sent to counsel for the parent; or

(v) the parent was properly served and failed to answer.

(3) Upon establishment of a prima facie case of contempt under Subsection (2), the obligor under the child support order has the burden of proving inability to comply with the child support order.

(4) A court may, in addition to other available sanctions, withhold, suspend, or restrict the use of driver's licenses, professional and occupational licenses, and recreational licenses and impose conditions for reinstatement upon a finding that:

(a) an obligor has:

(i) made no payment for 60 days on a current obligation of support as set forth in an administrative or court order and, thereafter, has failed to make a good faith effort under the circumstances to make payment on the support obligation in accordance with the order; or

(ii) made no payment for 60 days on an arrearage obligation of support as set forth in a payment schedule, written agreement with the Office of Recovery Services, or an administrative or judicial order and, thereafter, has failed to make a good faith effort under the circumstances to make payment on the arrearage obligation in accordance with the payment schedule, agreement, or order; and

(iii) not obtained a judicial order staying enforcement of the support or arrearage obligation for which the obligor would be otherwise delinquent;

(b) a custodial parent has:

(i) violated a [~~child visitation~~] parent-time order by denying contact for 60 days between a noncustodial parent and a child and, thereafter, has failed to make a good faith effort under the circumstances to comply with a [~~visitation~~] parent-time order; and

(ii) not obtained a judicial order staying enforcement of the [~~visitation~~] parent-time order; or

(c) an obligor or obligee, after receiving appropriate notice, has failed to comply with a subpoena or order relating to a paternity or child support proceeding.

Section 32. Section 78-45-7.7 is amended to read:

78-45-7.7. Calculation of obligations.

(1) Each parent's child support obligation shall be established in proportion to their adjusted gross incomes, unless the low income table is applicable. Except during periods of court-ordered [~~visitation~~] parent-time as set forth in Section 78-45-7.11, the parents are obligated to pay their proportionate shares of the base combined child support obligation. If physical custody of the child changes from that assumed in the original order, modification of the order is not necessary, even if only one parent is specifically ordered to pay in the order.

(2) Except in cases of joint physical custody and split custody as defined in Section 78-45-2 and in cases where the obligor's adjusted gross income is $1,050 or less monthly, the base child support award shall be determined as follows:

(a) combine the adjusted gross incomes of the parents and determine the base combined child support obligation using the base combined child support obligation table; and

(b) calculate each parent's proportionate share of the base combined child support obligation by multiplying the combined child support obligation by each parent's percentage of combined adjusted gross income.

(3) In the case of an incapacitated adult child, any amount that the incapacitated adult child can contribute to his or her support may be considered in the determination of child support and may be used to justify a reduction in the amount of support ordered, except that in the case of orders involving multiple children, the reduction shall not be greater than the effect of reducing the total number of children by one in the child support table calculation.

(4) In cases where the monthly adjusted gross income of the obligor is between $650 and $1,050, the base child support award shall be the lesser of the amount calculated in accordance with Subsection (2) and the amount calculated using the low income table. If the income and number of children is found in an area of the low income table in which no amount is shown, the base combined child support obligation table is to be used.

(5) The base combined child support obligation table provides combined child support obligations for up to six children. For more than six children, additional amounts may be added to the base child support obligation shown. Unless rebutted by Subsection 78-45-7.2(3), the amount ordered shall not be less than the amount which would be ordered for up to six children.

(6) If the monthly adjusted gross income of the obligor is $649 or less, the tribunal shall determine the amount of the child support obligation on a case-by-case basis, but the base child support award shall not be less than $20.

(7) The amount shown on the table is the support amount for the total number of children, not an amount per child.

Section 33. Section 78-45-7.11 is amended to read:

78-45-7.11. Reduction for extended parent-time.

(1) The child support order shall provide that the base child support award be reduced by 50% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. If the dependent child is a client of cash assistance provided under Title 35A, Chapter 3, Part 3, Family Employment Program, any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended [~~visitation~~] parent-time shall be approved by the administrative agency. However, normal [~~visitation~~] parent-time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

(2) For purposes of this section the per child amount to which the abatement applies shall be calculated by dividing the base child support award by the number of children included in the award.

(3) The reduction in this section does not apply to parents with joint physical custody obligations calculated in accordance with Section 78-45-7.9.

Section 34. Section 78-45-7.17 is amended to read:

78-45-7.17. Child care costs.

(1) The need to include child care costs in the child support order is presumed, if the custodial parent or the noncustodial parent, during extended [~~visitation~~] parent-time, is working and actually incurring the child care costs.

(2) The need to include child care costs is not presumed, but may be awarded on a case-by-case basis, if the costs are related to the career or occupational training of the custodial parent, or if otherwise ordered by the court in the interest of justice.

Section 35. Section 78-45a-10.5 is amended to read:

78-45a-10.5. Parent-time rights of father.

(1) If the court determines that the alleged father is the father, it may upon its own motion or upon motion of the father, order [~~visitation~~] parent-time rights in accordance with Sections 30-3-32 through 30-3-37 as it considers appropriate under the circumstances.

(2) [~~Visitation~~] Parent-time rights may not be granted to a father if the child has been subsequently adopted.

(1) In a child custody proceeding, each party, in its first pleading or in an attached affidavit, shall give information, if reasonably ascertainable, under oath as to the child's present address, the places where the child has lived during the last five years, and the names and present addresses of the persons with whom the child has lived during that period. The pleading or affidavit shall state whether the party:

(a) has participated, as a party or witness or in any other capacity, in any other proceeding concerning the custody of or [~~visitation~~] parent-time with the child and, if so, identify the court, the case number of the proceeding, and the date of the child custody determination, if any;

(3) If the declaration as to any of the items described in Subsection (1) is in the affirmative, the declarant shall give additional information under oath as required by the court. The court may examine the parties under oath as to details of the information furnished and other matters pertinent to the court's jurisdiction and the disposition of the case.

(4) Each party has a continuing duty to inform the court of any proceeding in this or any other state that could affect the current proceeding.

(5) If a party alleges in an affidavit or a pleading under oath that the health, safety, or liberty of a party or child would be put at risk by the disclosure of identifying information, that information shall be sealed and not disclosed to the other party or the public unless the court orders the disclosure to be made after a hearing in which the court takes into consideration the health, safety, or liberty of the party or child and determines that the disclosure is in the interest of justice.

Section 38. Section 78-45c-304 is amended to read:

78-45c-304. Temporary parent-time.

(1) A court of this state which does not have jurisdiction to modify a child custody determination may issue a temporary order enforcing:

(a) a [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule made by a court of another state; or

(b) the [~~visitation~~] parent-time provisions of a child custody determination of another state that does not provide for a specific [~~visitation~~] parent-time schedule.

(2) If a court of this state makes an order under Subsection (1)(b), it shall specify in the order a period that it considers adequate to allow the petitioner to obtain an order from a court having jurisdiction under the criteria specified in Part 2, Jurisdiction. The order remains in effect until an order is obtained from the other court or the period expires.

Section 39. Section 78-45c-305 is amended to read:

78-45c-305. Registration of child custody determination.

(1) A child custody determination issued by a court of another state may be registered in this state, with or without a simultaneous request for enforcement, by sending to the district court in this state:

(a) a letter or other document requesting registration;

(b) two copies, including one certified copy, of the determination sought to be registered, and a statement under penalty of perjury that to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person seeking registration the order has not been modified; and

(c) except as otherwise provided in Section 78-45c-209, the name and address of the person seeking registration and any parent or person acting as a parent who has been awarded custody or [~~visitation~~] parent-time in the child custody determination sought to be registered.

(2) On receipt of the documents required by Subsection (1), the registering court shall:

(a) cause the determination to be filed as a foreign judgment, together with one copy of any accompanying documents and information, regardless of their form; and

(b) serve notice upon the persons named pursuant to Subsection (1)(c) and provide them with an opportunity to contest the registration in accordance with this section.

(3) The notice required by Subsection (2)(b) shall state:

(a) that a registered determination is enforceable as of the date of the registration in the same manner as a determination issued by a court of this state;

(b) that a hearing to contest the validity of the registered determination shall be requested within 20 days after service of notice; and

(c) that failure to contest the registration will result in confirmation of the child custody determination and preclude further contest of that determination with respect to any matter that could have been asserted.

(4) A person seeking to contest the validity of a registered order shall request a hearing within 20 days after service of the notice. At that hearing, the court shall confirm the registered order unless the person contesting registration establishes that:

(a) the issuing court did not have jurisdiction under Part 2, Jurisdiction;

(b) the child custody determination sought to be registered has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court of a state having jurisdiction to do so under Part 2, Jurisdiction; or

(c) the person contesting registration was entitled to notice, but notice was not given in accordance with the standards of Section 78-45c-108 in the proceedings before the court that issued the order for which registration is sought.

(5) If a timely request for a hearing to contest the validity of the registration is not made, the registration is confirmed as a matter of law and the person requesting registration and all persons served shall be notified of the confirmation.

(6) Confirmation of a registered order, whether by operation of law or after notice and hearing, precludes further contest of the order with respect to any matter which could have been asserted at the time of registration.

Section 40. Section 78-45f-305 is amended to read:

78-45f-305. Duties and powers of responding tribunal.

(1) When a responding tribunal of this state receives a petition or comparable pleading from an initiating tribunal or directly pursuant to Subsection 78-45f-301(2)(c), it shall cause the petition or pleading to be filed and notify the petitioner where and when it was filed.

(2) A responding tribunal of this state, to the extent otherwise authorized by law, may do one or more of the following:

(a) issue or enforce a support order, modify a child support order, or render a judgment to determine parentage;

(b) order an obligor to comply with a support order, specifying the amount and the manner of compliance;

(c) order income withholding;

(d) determine the amount of any arrearages and specify a method of payment;

(e) enforce orders by civil or criminal contempt, or both;

(f) set aside property for satisfaction of the support order;

(g) place liens and order execution on the obligor's property;

(h) order an obligor to keep the tribunal informed of the obligor's current residential address, telephone number, employer, address of employment, and telephone number at the place of employment;

The act modifies provisions related to changes in service charges to residents of mobile home parks. The act modifies provisions related to eviction proceedings. The act amends provisions related to lienholder and owner of a mobile home's rights and liabilities after receipt of a notice of abandonment or issuance of a writ or restitution. The act defines abandonment of a mobile home space or mobile home, and designates park procedure in the event of abandonment. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 41-1a-116 is amended to read:

41-1a-116. Records -- Telephone requests for records.

(1) (a) All motor vehicle title and registration records of the division are protected unless the division determines based upon a written request by the subject of the record that the record is public.

(b) In addition to the provisions of this section, access to all division records shall be in accordance with the federal Driver's Privacy Protection Act of 1994, 18 U.S.C. Chapter 123.

(2) (a) Access to public records is determined by Section 63-2-201.

(b) A record designated as public under Subsection (1)(a) may be used for advertising or solicitation purposes.

(3) Access to protected records, except as provided in Subsection (4), is determined by Section 63-2-202.

(4) In addition to those persons granted access to protected records under Section 63-2-202, the division may disclose a protected record to a licensed private investigator with a legitimate business need, a person with a bona fide security interest, the owner of a mobile home park subject to Subsection (5), or for purposes of safety, product recall, advisory notices, or statistical reports only upon receipt of a signed acknowledgment that the person receiving that protected record may not:

(a) disclose information from that record to any other person; or

(b) use information from that record for advertising or solicitation purposes.

(5) The division may disclose the name or address, or both, of the lienholder or mobile home owner of record, or both of them, to the owner of a mobile home park, if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) a mobile home located within the mobile home park owner's park has been abandoned under Section 57-16-13 or the resident is in default under the resident's lease;

(b) the mobile home park owner has conducted a reasonable search, but is unable to determine the name or address, or both, of the lienholder or mobile home owner of record; and

(c) the mobile home park owner has submitted a written statement to the division explaining the mobile home park owner's efforts to determine the name or address, or both, of the lienholder or mobile home owner of record before the mobile home park owner contacted the division.

[~~(5)~~] (6) The division may provide protected information to a statistic gathering entity under Subsection (4) only in summary form.

[~~(6)~~] (7) A person allowed access to protected records under Subsection (4) may request motor vehicle title or registration information from the division regarding any person, entity, or motor vehicle by submitting a written application on a form provided by the division.

[~~(7)~~] (8) If a person regularly requests information for business purposes, the division may by rule allow the information requests to be made by telephone and fees as required under Subsection [~~(8)~~] (9) charged to a division billing account to facilitate division service. The rules shall require that the:

(a) division determine if the nature of the business and the volume of requests merit the dissemination of the information by telephone;

(b) division determine if the credit rating of the requesting party justifies providing a billing account; and

(c) the requestor submit to the division an application that includes names and signatures of persons authorized to request information by telephone and charge the fees to the billing account.

[~~(8)~~] (9) (a) The division shall charge a reasonable search fee determined under Section 63-38-3.2 for the research of each record requested.

(b) Fees may not be charged for furnishing information to persons necessary for their compliance with this chapter.

(c) Law enforcement agencies have access to division records free of charge.

Section 2. Section 57-16-4 is amended to read:

57-16-4. Termination of lease or rental agreement -- Required contents of lease -- Increases in rents or fees -- Sale of homes.

(1) A mobile home park or its agents may not terminate a lease or rental agreement upon any ground other than as specified in this chapter.

(2) Each agreement for the lease of mobile home space shall be written and signed by the parties. Each lease shall contain at least the following information:

(a) the name and address of the mobile home park owner and any persons authorized to act for the owner, upon whom notice and service of process may be served;

(b) the type of the leasehold, and whether it be term or periodic;

(c) a full disclosure of all rent, service charges, and other fees presently being charged on a periodic basis;

(d) the date or dates on which the payment of rent, fees, and service charges are due; and

(e) all rules that pertain to the mobile home park which, if broken, may constitute grounds for eviction.

(3) (a) Increases in rent or fees for periodic tenancies shall be unenforceable until 60 days after notice of the increase is mailed to the resident. If service charges are not included in the rent, service charges may be increased during the leasehold period after notice to the resident is given, and increases or decreases in electricity rates shall be passed through to the resident. [~~Increases or decreases in the total cost of other service charges shall be passed through to the resident.~~] Annual income to the park for service charges may not exceed the actual cost to the park of providing the services on an annual basis. In determining the costs of the services, the park may include maintenance costs related to those utilities which are part of the service charges.

(b) The mobile home park may not alter the date or dates on which rent, fees, and service charges are due unless a 60-day written notice precedes the alteration.

(4) Any rule or condition of a lease purporting to prevent or unreasonably limit the sale of a mobile home belonging to a resident is void and unenforceable. The mobile home park may, however, reserve the right to approve the prospective purchaser of a mobile home who intends to become a resident, but the approval may not be unreasonably withheld. The mobile home park may require proof of ownership as a condition of approval. The mobile home park may unconditionally refuse to approve any purchaser of a mobile home who does not register prior to purchase.

(5) If all of the conditions of Section 41-1a-116 are met, a mobile home park may request from the Motor Vehicle Division the names and addresses of the lienholder or owner of any mobile home located in the park.

[~~(5)~~] (6) A mobile home park may not restrict a resident's right to advertise for sale or to sell his mobile home. However, the park may limit the size of a "for sale" sign affixed to the mobile home to not more than 144 square inches.

[~~(6)~~] (7) A mobile home park may not compel a resident who desires to sell his mobile home, either directly or indirectly, to sell it through an agent designated by the mobile home park.

[~~(7)~~] (8) In order to upgrade the quality of a mobile home park, it may require that a mobile home be removed from the park upon sale if:

(a) the mobile home does not meet minimum size specifications; or

(b) the mobile home is in rundown condition or in disrepair.

Section 3. Section 57-16-5 is amended to read:

57-16-5. Cause required for terminating lease -- Causes -- Cure periods -- Notice.

(1) An agreement for the lease of mobile home space in a mobile home park may be terminated by mutual agreement or for any one or more of the following causes:

(a) failure of a resident to comply with a mobile home park rule:

(i) relating to repair, maintenance, or construction of awnings, skirting, decks, or sheds for a period of 60 days after receipt of a notice of noncompliance from the mobile home park; or

(ii) relating to any other park rule for a period of seven days after receipt of notice of noncompliance from the mobile home park, except relating to maintenance of a resident's yard and space, the mobile home park may elect not to proceed with the seven-day cure period and may provide the resident with written notice as provided in Subsection (2);

(b) repeated failure of a resident to abide by a mobile home park rule, if the original notice of noncompliance states that another violation of the same or a different rule might result in forfeiture without any further period of cure;

(c) behavior by a resident [~~which~~], any other person who resides with a resident, or who is an invited guest or visitor of a resident, that threatens or substantially endangers the security [~~and~~], safety, well-being, or health of [~~the~~] other [~~residents~~] persons in the park or threatens [~~the~~] or damages property in the park;

(d) nonpayment of rent, fees, or service charges; or

(e) a change in the land use or condemnation of the mobile home park or any part of it.

(2) If the mobile home park elects not to proceed with the seven-day cure period in Subsection (1)(a)(ii), a 15-day notice shall:

(a) state that if the resident does not perform [~~his~~] the resident's duties or obligations under the lease agreement or rules of the mobile home park within 15 days, the mobile home park may enter onto the resident's space and cure any default;

(b) state the expected reasonable cost of curing the default;

(c) require the resident to pay all costs incurred by the mobile home park to cure the default by the first day of the month following receipt of a billing statement from the mobile home park;

(d) state that the payment required under Subsection (2)(b) shall be considered additional rent; and

(e) state that the resident's failure to make the payment required by Subsection (2)(b) in a timely manner shall be a default of the resident's lease and shall subject the resident to all other remedies available to the mobile home park for a default, including remedies available for failure to pay rent.

Section 4. Section 57-16-6 is amended to read:

57-16-6. Action for lease termination -- Prerequisite procedure.

A legal action to terminate a lease based upon a cause set forth in Section 57-16-5 may not be commenced except in accordance with the following procedure:

(1) Before issuance of any summons and complaint, the mobile home park shall send or serve written notice to the resident or [~~subtenant~~] person:

(a) by delivering a copy of the notice personally;

(b) by sending a copy of the notice through registered or certified mail addressed to the resident or [~~subtenant~~] person at [~~his~~] the person's place of residence;

(c) if the resident or [~~subtenant~~] person is absent from [~~his~~] the person's place of residence, by leaving a copy of the notice with some person of suitable age and discretion at [~~his~~] the individual's residence and sending a copy through [~~the~~] registered or certified mail addressed to the resident or [~~subtenant~~] person at [~~his~~] the person's place of residence; or

(d) if a person of suitable age or discretion cannot be found, by affixing a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the resident's or [~~subtenant's~~] person's mobile home and also sending a copy through [~~the~~] registered or certified mail addressed to the resident or [~~subtenant~~] person at [~~his~~] the person's place of residence.

(2) The notice shall set forth the cause for the notice and, if the cause is one which can be cured, the time within which the resident or person has to cure. The notice shall also set forth the time after which the mobile home park may commence legal action against the resident or person if cure is not effected, as follows:

(a) In the event of failure to abide by a mobile home park rule, the notice shall provide for a cure period as provided in Subsections 57-16-5(1)(a) and (2), except in the case of repeated violations and, shall state that if a cure is not timely effected, or a written agreement made between the mobile home park and the resident allowing for a variation in the rule or cure period, eviction proceedings may be initiated immediately.

(b) If [~~the~~] a resident, a member, or invited guest or visitor of the resident's household commits repeated violations of a rule, a summons and complaint may be issued three days after a notice is served.

(c) If a resident, a member, or invited guest or visitor of the resident's household behaves in a manner that threatens or substantially endangers the well-being, security, safety, or health of other persons in the park or threatens or damages property [~~of other residents~~] in the park, eviction proceedings may commence immediately.

(d) If a resident does not pay rent, fees, or service charges, the notice shall provide a five-day cure period and, that if cure is not timely effected, or a written agreement made between the mobile home park and the resident allowing for a variation in the rule or cure period, eviction proceedings may be initiated immediately.

(e) If there is a planned change in land use or condemnation of the park, the notice shall provide that the resident has 90 days after receipt of the notice to vacate the mobile home park if no governmental approval or permits incident to the planned change are required, and if governmental approval and permits are required, that the resident has 90 days to vacate the mobile home park after all permits or approvals incident to the planned change are obtained.

(3) If the planned change in land use or condemnation requires the approval of a governmental agency, the mobile home park, in addition to the notice required by Subsection (2)(e), shall send written notice of the date set for the initial hearing to each resident at least seven days before the date scheduled for the initial hearing.

(4) Regardless of whether the change of use requires the approval of any governmental agency, if the resident was not a resident of the mobile home park at the time the initial change of use notice was issued to residents the owner shall give notice of the change of use to the resident before he occupies the mobile home space.

(5) (a) Eviction proceedings commenced under this chapter and based on causes set forth in Subsections 57-16-5(1)(a), (b), and (e) shall be brought in accordance with the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure and shall not be treated as unlawful detainer actions under Title 78, Chapter 36, Forcible Entry and Detainer. Eviction proceedings commenced under this chapter and based on causes of action set forth in Subsections 57-16-5(1)(c) and (d) may, at the election of the mobile home park, be treated as actions brought under this chapter and the unlawful detainer provisions of Title 78, Chapter 36, Forcible Entry and Detainer.

(b) If unlawful detainer is charged, the court shall endorse on the summons the number of days within which the defendant is required to appear and defend the action, which shall not be less than five days or more than 20 days from the date of service.

Section 5. Section 57-16-9 (Effective 07/01/01) is amended to read:

57-16-9 (Effective 07/01/01). Lienholder's liability for rent and fees.

(1) Notwithstanding [~~Section~~] Sections 38-3-2 and [~~Section~~] 70A-9a-402, the lienholder of record of a mobile home, or if there is no lienholder, the owner of a mobile home, is primarily liable to the mobile home park owner or operator for rent and service charges if a mobile home is not removed within ten days after receipt of written notice that a mobile home has been abandoned, as defined in Section 57-16-13, or that a writ of restitution has been issued. The lienholder[~~,~~] or owner of a mobile home, however, is only liable for rent that accrues [~~after receipt of such~~] from the day the lienholder or owner of a mobile home receives notice. Rent shall be paid on a monthly basis on the due date established in the lease agreement. The lienholder or owner of a mobile home is not responsible for any rent if the mobile home is removed within ten days after receipt of the notice.

(2) If the lienholder pays rent and service charges as provided by this section, the lienholder shall have the unconditional right to resell the mobile home within the park, subject to the purchaser being approved for residency by the park, which approval cannot be unreasonably withheld, and subject to Subsection (4). If the lienholder or owner of a mobile home does not commence paying rent and service charges to the mobile home park within 30 days after receipt of a written notice provided by Subsection (1), the mobile home park may require the lienholder or owner of a mobile home to remove the mobile home from the park and the lienholder or owner of a mobile home shall be liable for all rent which accrues from the date of the notice to the date the mobile home is removed from the park.

(3) The notice required under Subsection (1) shall be sent to the lienholder or owner of a mobile home by certified mail, return receipt requested, and shall inform the lienholder or owner of a mobile home that the mobile home park may require the lienholder or owner of a mobile home to remove the mobile home from the park if the lienholder or owner of a mobile home has not commenced paying rent and service charges to the park within 30 days after receipt of the notice.

(4) The mobile home park may require the lienholder to remove a mobile home covered by this section from the park if the mobile home, at the time of sale, is in rundown condition or disrepair, if the mobile home does not meet the park's minimum size specifications, or if the mobile home does not comply with reasonable park rules. The lienholder shall have 60 days to make repairs and comply with park rules after notice of required repairs and rule violations is given to the lienholder by the park owner or its agent.

(5) If a lienholder or owner of a mobile home does not commence paying rent and service charges to the park within 30 days after receipt of a written notice provided under Subsection (1), and if the lienholder or owner of a mobile home does not remove the mobile home from the park within the 30-day period, the park has the right to immediately remove the mobile home from the park and store it on behalf of the lienholder or owner of a mobile home. The mobile home park has the right to recover moving and storage costs from the lienholder or owner of a mobile home.

(6) The prevailing party is entitled to court costs and reasonable attorney fees for any action commenced to enforce any rights under this section.

(7) If a lienholder pays rent and service charges as provided in Subsection (2), the mobile home is not considered abandoned under Section 57-16-13; however, the personal property in the mobile home is considered abandoned.

Section 6. Section 57-16-13 is enacted to read:

57-16-13. Abandonment.

Abandonment of a mobile home space and a mobile home within a mobile home park is presumed in either of the following situations:

(1) The resident or occupant of the mobile home has:

(a) not notified the park that the resident or occupant will be absent from the mobile home space or mobile home, and the resident or occupant fails to pay rent within 45 days after the due date; and

(b) there is no reasonable evidence, other than the presence of the resident's or occupant's personal property, that the resident or occupant is continuing to occupy the mobile home space and the mobile home.

(2) The resident or occupant of the mobile home has:

(a) not notified the park that the resident or occupant will be absent from the mobile home space where the mobile home is located, and the resident or occupant fails to pay rent when due; and

(b) the resident's or occupant's personal property has been removed from the mobile home, and there is no reasonable evidence that the resident or occupant is occupying the mobile home space or mobile home.

Section 7. Section 57-16-14 is enacted to read:

57-16-14. Abandoned premises -- Retaking by owner -- Liability of resident or occupant -- Personal property of resident or occupant left on mobile home space.

(1) In the event of abandonment under Section 57-16-13, the park may retake the mobile home space and attempt to relet the space at a fair rental value. The resident or occupant who abandoned the premises is liable:

(a) for the entire rent, service charges, and fees that would otherwise be due until the premise is relet or for a period not to exceed 90 days, whichever comes first; and

(b) any costs incurred by the park necessary to relet the mobile home space at fair market value, including the costs of:

(i) moving the mobile home from the mobile home space;

(ii) storing the mobile home; and

(iii) restoring the mobile home space to a reasonable condition, including the cost of replacing or repairing landscaping that was damaged by the resident or occupant.

(2) (a) If the resident or occupant has abandoned the mobile home space, the mobile home, or both, and has left personal property, including the mobile home, on the mobile home space, the park is entitled to remove the property from the mobile home space, store it for the resident or occupant, and recover actual moving and storage costs from the resident, the occupant, or both. With respect to the mobile home, however, the park may elect to contact the lienholder under Section 57-16-9, or to store the mobile home on the mobile home space, while attempting to notify the resident or occupant under Subsection (2)(b)(i).

(b) (i) The park shall make reasonable efforts to notify the resident or occupant of the location of the personal property, and that the personal property will be sold at the expiration of 30 days if not redeemed and removed by the resident or occupant. Reasonable efforts require that the park send written notice by regular mail to the resident or occupant at the last-known address within the park if the park is unaware of any subsequent address. To redeem the personal property, the resident or occupant is required to pay the reasonable storage and moving charges.

(ii) If the personal property has been in storage for over 30 days, notice has been given as required by Subsection (2)(b)(i), and the resident or occupant has made no reasonable effort to recover the personal property, the park may:

(A) sell the personal property and apply the proceeds toward any amount the resident or occupant owes; or

(B) donate the personal property to charity or dispose of the property.

(c) Any excess money from the sale of the personal property, including the mobile home, shall be handled as specified in Title 67, Chapter 4a, Part 2, Standards for Determining When Property is Abandoned or Unclaimed.

(d) Nothing contained in this chapter shall be in derogation of or alter the owner's rights under Title 38, Chapter 3, Lessors' Liens.

Section 8. Section 57-16-15.1 is amended to read:

57-16-15.1. Eviction proceeding.

(1) Eviction proceedings commenced under this chapter and based on causes of action set forth in Subsections 57-16-5(1)[~~, (2), and (5)~~] (a), (b), and (e), and eviction proceedings commenced under this chapter based on causes of action set forth in Subsections 57-16-5[~~(3) and (4), where~~] (1)(c) and (d), in which a landlord elects to bring an action under this chapter and not under the unlawful detainer provisions of Title 78, Chapter 36, Forcible Entry and Detainer, shall comply with the following:

(i) waste of the premises during the resident's tenancy, if waste is alleged in the complaint and proved; and

(ii) the amount of rent due.

(c) If the lease or agreement provides for reasonable attorneys' fees, the court shall order reasonable attorneys' fees to the prevailing party.

(d) Whether or not the lease or agreement provides for court costs and attorneys' fees, if the proceeding is contested, the court shall order court costs and attorneys' fees to the prevailing party.

(e) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(f), after judgment has been entered under this section, judgment and restitution may be enforced no sooner than 15 days from the date the judgment is entered. The person who commences the action shall mail through registered or certified mail a copy of the judgment to the [~~lease premises by registered mail within five days of the date the judgment is entered~~] resident or the resident's agent or attorney as required by the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

(f) If a resident tenders to the mobile home park postjudgment rent, in the form of cash, cashier's check, or certified funds, then restitution may be delayed for the period of time covered by the postjudgment rent, which time period shall not exceed 15 days from the date of the judgment unless a longer period is agreed to in writing by the mobile home park.

(2) Eviction proceedings commenced under this chapter and based on causes of action set forth in Subsections 57-16-5[~~(3) and (4)~~] (1)(c) and (d), in which the mobile home park has elected to treat as actions also brought under the unlawful detainer provisions of Title 78, Chapter 36, Forcible Entry and Detainer, shall be governed by Sections 78-36-10 and 78-36-10.5 with respect to judgment for restitution, damages, rent, enforcement of the judgment and restitution.

(3) The provisions in Section 78-36-10.5 shall apply to this section except the enforcement time limits in Subsections (1)(e) and (f) shall govern.

Section 9. Section 57-16-16 is enacted to read:

57-16-16. Mobile home park residents' associations.

(1) Residents in mobile home parks shall have the right to form associations comprised of residents of the mobile home park in which they reside.

(3) Except in emergency situations, there shall be seven days' notice of an association meeting to all residents of the park. All residents of the park, even if not members of the association, may attend association meetings. The park operator and non-resident employees shall not:

(a) be members of the association;

(c) unlawfully interfere with the operation of the association; or

(d) interfere with a resident's right to contact a state or local heath department, a municipality, or other group to complain about the health and safety conditions of the mobile home park.

(4) A resident association may not impose fees, dues, or assessments, upon its members unless a majority of the members agree to the assessment of fees, dues, or assessments.

(5) The park operator shall permit meetings by any resident association located within the park relating to manufactured home living or social or education purposes, including forums for or speeches by public officials or candidates for public office.

(6) Resident associations may schedule with the park operator the use of the common facilities of the park, if any, free of charge. However, the resident association shall be responsible for any damage to the common facilities caused by a member of the resident association while a common facility is in use by the resident association.

(d) to the extent the record is properly classified private, controlled, or protected, the interests favoring access, considering limitations thereon, outweigh the interests favoring restriction of access; and

(e) where access is restricted by a rule, statute, or regulation referred to in Subsection 63-2-201(3)(b), the court has authority independent of this chapter to order disclosure.

(8) (a) A governmental entity may disclose or authorize disclosure of private or controlled records for research purposes if the governmental entity:

(i) determines that the research purpose cannot reasonably be accomplished without use or disclosure of the information to the researcher in individually identifiable form;

(ii) determines that the proposed research is bona fide, and that the value of the research outweighs the infringement upon personal privacy;

(iii) requires the researcher to assure the integrity, confidentiality, and security of the records and requires the removal or destruction of the individual identifiers associated with the records as soon as the purpose of the research project has been accomplished;

(iv) prohibits the researcher from disclosing the record in individually identifiable form, except as provided in Subsection (8)(b), or from using the record for purposes other than the research approved by the governmental entity; and

(v) secures from the researcher a written statement of his understanding of and agreement to the conditions of this subsection and his understanding that violation of the terms of this subsection may subject him to criminal prosecution under Section 63-2-801.

(b) A researcher may disclose a record in individually identifiable form if the record is disclosed for the purpose of auditing or evaluating the research program and no subsequent use or disclosure of the record in individually identifiable form will be made by the auditor or evaluator except as provided by this section.

(c) A governmental entity may require indemnification as a condition of permitting research under this Subsection (8).

(9) (a) Under Subsections 63-2-201(5)(b) and 63-2-401(6) a governmental entity may disclose records that are private under Section 63-2-302, or protected under Section 63-2-304 to persons other than those specified in this section.

(b) Under Subsection 63-2-403(11)(b) the Records Committee may require the disclosure of records that are private under Section 63-2-302, controlled under Section 63-2-303, or protected under Section 63-2-304 to persons other than those specified in this section.

(c) Under Subsection 63-2-404(8) the court may require the disclosure of records that are private under Section 63-2-302, controlled under Section 63-2-303, or protected under Section 63-2-304 to persons other than those specified in this section.

CERTAIN MUNICIPAL SERVICES IN FIRST CLASS COUNTIES

Sponsor: Leonard M. Blackham

This act modifies provisions relating to Counties and to Revenue and Taxation to require counties of the first class to provide detective investigative services in their unincorporated area. The act requires those counties to decrease their countywide tax levy by a specified amount. The act authorizes cities and towns located within those counties to increase their tax levy to generate within the city or town the same amount of revenue as the county would have collected from within the city or town. The act modifies notice and hearing requirements for cities and towns that increase their levy and expands an exemption from notice and hearing requirements for cities and towns that increase their tax rate to offset a countywide reduction relating to advanced life support and paramedic services. The act also makes technical changes.

This act affects sections of Utah Code Annotated 1953 as follows:

AMENDS:
17-34-1, as repealed and reenacted by Chapter 199, Laws of Utah 2000
17-34-3, as last amended by Chapter 199, Laws of Utah 2000
59-2-924, as last amended by Chapters 22, 61, 141 and 199, Laws of Utah 2000

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 17-34-1 is amended to read:

17-34-1. Counties may provide municipal services -- First class counties required to provide paramedic and detective investigative services.

(1) For purposes of this chapter, "municipal-type services" means:

(a) fire protection service;

(b) waste and garbage collection and disposal;

(c) planning and zoning;

(d) street lighting;

(e) in a county of the first class[~~,~~]:

(i) advanced life support and paramedic services; and

(ii) detective investigative services; and

(f) all other services and functions that are required by law to be budgeted, appropriated, and accounted for from a municipal services fund or a municipal capital projects fund as defined under Chapter 36, Uniform Fiscal Procedures Act for Counties.

(2) A county may:

(a) provide municipal-type services to areas of the county outside the limits of cities and towns without providing the same services to cities or towns;

(b) fund those services by:

(i) levying a tax on taxable property in the county outside the limits of cities and towns; or

(ii) charging a service charge or fee to persons benefitting from the municipal-type services.

(3) Each county of the first class shall provide [~~advanced life support and paramedic services~~] to the area of the county outside the limits of cities and towns[~~.~~]:

(a) advanced life support and paramedic services; and

(b) detective investigative services.

Section 2. Section 17-34-3 is amended to read:

17-34-3. Taxes or service charges.

(1) (a) If a county furnishes the municipal-type services and functions described in Section 17-34-1 to areas of the county outside the limits of incorporated cities or towns, the entire cost of the services or functions so furnished shall be defrayed from funds that the county has derived from [~~either~~]:

(i) taxes [~~which~~] that the county may lawfully levy or impose outside the limits of incorporated towns or cities;

(ii) service charges or fees the county may impose upon the persons benefited in any way by the services or functions; or

(iii) a combination of these sources.

(b) As the taxes or service charges or fees are levied and collected, they shall be placed in a special revenue fund of the county and shall be disbursed only for the rendering of the services or functions established in Section 17-34-1 within the unincorporated areas of the county.

(2) For the purpose of levying taxes, service charges, or fees provided in this section, the county legislative body may establish a district or districts in the unincorporated areas of the county.

(3) Nothing contained in this chapter may be construed to authorize counties to impose or levy taxes not otherwise allowed by law.

(4) (a) A county required under Subsection 17-34-1(3) to provide advanced life support and paramedic services to the unincorporated area of the county and that previously paid for those services through a countywide levy may increase its levy under Subsection (1)(a)(i) to generate in the unincorporated area of the county the same amount of revenue as the county loses from that area due to the required decrease in the countywide certified tax rate under Subsection 59-2-924(2)~~(h)~~(i).

(b) An increase in tax rate under Subsection (4)(a) is exempt from the notice and hearing requirements of Sections 59-2-918 and 59-2-919.

Section 3. Section 59-2-924 is amended to read:

59-2-924. Report of valuation of property to county auditor and commission -- Transmittal by auditor to governing bodies -- Certified tax rate -- Adoption of tentative budget.

(ii) a statement containing the taxable value of any additional personal property estimated by the county assessor to be subject to taxation in the current year.

(b) The county auditor shall, on or before June 8, transmit to the governing body of each taxing entity:

(i) the statements described in Subsections (1)(a)(i) and (ii);

(ii) an estimate of the revenue from personal property;

(iii) the certified tax rate; and

(iv) all forms necessary to submit a tax levy request.

(2) (a) (i) The "certified tax rate" means a tax rate that will provide the same ad valorem property tax revenues for a taxing entity as were collected by that taxing entity for the prior year.

(ii) For purposes of this Subsection (2), "ad valorem property tax revenues" do not include:

(A) collections from redemptions;

(B) interest; and

(C) penalties.

(iii) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(a)(iv), the certified tax rate shall be calculated by dividing the ad valorem property tax revenues collected for the prior year by the taxing entity by the taxable value established in accordance with Section 59-2-913.

(iv) The certified tax rates for the taxing entities described in this Subsection (2)(a)(iv) shall be calculated as follows:

(A) except as provided in Subsection (2)(a)(iv)(B), for new taxing entities the certified tax rate is zero;

(B) for each municipality incorporated on or after July 1, 1996, the certified tax rate is:

(I) in a county of the first, second, or third class, the levy imposed for municipal-type services under Sections 17-34-1 and 17-36-9; and

(II) in a county of the fourth, fifth, or sixth class, the levy imposed for general county purposes and such other levies imposed solely for the municipal-type services identified in Section 17-34-1 and Subsection 17-36-3(22);

(C) for debt service voted on by the public, the certified tax rate shall be the actual levy imposed by that section, except that the certified tax rates for the following levies shall be calculated in accordance with Section 59-2-913 and this section:

(I) school leeways provided for under Sections 11-2-7, 53A-16-110, 53A-17a-125, 53A-17a-127, 53A-17a-134, 53A-17a-143, 53A-17a-145, and 53A-21-103; and

(II) levies to pay for the costs of state legislative mandates or judicial or administrative orders under Section 59-2-906.3.

(v) (A) A judgment levy imposed under Section 59-2-1328 or Section 59-2-1330 shall be established at that rate which is sufficient to generate only the revenue required to satisfy one or more eligible judgments, as defined in Section 59-2-102.

(B) The ad valorem property tax revenue generated by the judgment levy shall not be considered in establishing the taxing entity's aggregate certified tax rate.

(b) (i) For the purpose of calculating the certified tax rate, the county auditor shall use the taxable value of property on the assessment roll.

(ii) For purposes of Subsection (2)(b)(i), the taxable value of property on the assessment roll does not include new growth as defined in Subsection (2)(b)(iii).

(iii) "New growth" means:

(A) the difference between the increase in taxable value of the taxing entity from the previous calendar year to the current year; minus

(B) the amount of an increase in taxable value described in Subsection (2)(b)(iv).

(iv) Subsection (2)(b)(iii)(B) applies to the following increases in taxable value:

(A) the amount of increase to locally assessed real property taxable values resulting from factoring, reappraisal, or any other adjustments; or

(B) the amount of an increase in the taxable value of property assessed by the commission under Section 59-2-201 resulting from a change in the method of apportioning the taxable value prescribed by:

(I) the Legislature;

(II) a court;

(III) the commission in an administrative rule; or

(IV) the commission in an administrative order.

(c) Beginning January 1, 1997, if a taxing entity receives increased revenues from uniform fees on tangible personal property under Section 59-2-404, 59-2-405, or 59-2-405.1 as a result of any county imposing a sales and use tax under Chapter 12, Part 11, County Option Sales and Use Tax, the taxing entity shall decrease its certified tax rate to offset the increased revenues.

(d) (i) Beginning July 1, 1997, if a county has imposed a sales and use tax under Chapter 12, Part 11, County Option Sales and Use Tax, the county's certified tax rate shall be:

(A) decreased on a one-time basis by the amount of the estimated sales tax revenue to be distributed to the county under Subsection 59-12-1102(3); and

(B) increased by the amount necessary to offset the county's reduction in revenue from uniform fees on tangible personal property under Section 59-2-404, 59-2-405, or 59-2-405.1 as a result of the decrease in the certified tax rate under Subsection (2)(d)(i)(A).

(ii) The commission shall determine estimates of sales tax distributions for purposes of Subsection (2)(d)(i).

(e) Beginning January 1, 1998, if a municipality has imposed an additional resort communities sales tax under Section 59-12-402, the municipality's certified tax rate shall be decreased on a one-time basis by the amount necessary to offset the first 12 months of estimated revenue from the additional resort communities sales tax imposed under Section 59-12-402.

(f) For the calendar year beginning on January 1, 1999, and ending on December 31, 1999, a taxing entity's certified tax rate shall be adjusted by the amount necessary to offset the adjustment in revenues from uniform fees on tangible personal property under Section 59-2-405.1 as a result of the adjustment in uniform fees on tangible personal property under Section 59-2-405.1 enacted by the Legislature during the 1998 Annual General Session.

(g) For purposes of Subsections (2)(h) through (j):

(i) "1998 actual collections" means the amount of revenues a taxing entity actually collected for the calendar year beginning on January 1, 1998, under Section 59-2-405 for:

(A) motor vehicles required to be registered with the state that weigh 12,000 pounds or less; and

(B) state-assessed commercial vehicles required to be registered with the state that weigh 12,000 pounds or less.

(ii) "1999 actual collections" means the amount of revenues a taxing entity actually collected for the calendar year beginning on January 1, 1999, under Section 59-2-405.1.

(h) For the calendar year beginning on January 1, 2000, the commission shall make the following adjustments:

(i) the commission shall make the adjustment described in Subsection (2)(i)(i) if, for the calendar year beginning on January 1, 1999, a taxing entity's 1998 actual collections were greater than the sum of:

(A) the taxing entity's 1999 actual collections; and

(B) any adjustments the commission made under Subsection (2)(f);

(ii) the commission shall make the adjustment described in Subsection (2)(i)(ii) if, for the calendar year beginning on January 1, 1999, a taxing entity's 1998 actual collections were greater than the taxing entity's 1999 actual collections, but the taxing entity's 1998 actual collections were less than the sum of:

(A) the taxing entity's 1999 actual collections; and

(B) any adjustments the commission made under Subsection (2)(f); and

(iii) the commission shall make the adjustment described in Subsection (2)(i)(iii) if, for the calendar year beginning on January 1, 1999, a taxing entity's 1998 actual collections were less than the taxing entity's 1999 actual collections.

(i) (i) For purposes of Subsection (2)(h)(i), the commission shall increase a taxing entity's certified tax rate under this section and a taxing entity's certified revenue levy under Section 59-2-906.1 by the amount necessary to offset the difference between:

(A) the taxing entity's 1998 actual collections; and

(B) the sum of:

(I) the taxing entity's 1999 actual collections; and

(II) any adjustments the commission made under Subsection (2)(f).

(ii) For purposes of Subsection (2)(h)(ii), the commission shall decrease a taxing entity's certified tax rate under this section and a taxing entity's certified revenue levy under Section 59-2-906.1 by the amount necessary to offset the difference between:

(I) the taxing entity's 1999 actual collections; and

(II) any adjustments the commission made under Subsection (2)(f); and

(B) the taxing entity's 1998 actual collections.

(iii) For purposes of Subsection (2)(h)(iii), the commission shall decrease a taxing entity's certified tax rate under this section and a taxing entity's certified revenue levy under Section 59-2-906.1 by the amount of any adjustments the commission made under Subsection (2)(f).

(j) In accordance with Title 63, Chapter 46a, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, for purposes of Subsections (2)(f) through (i), the commission may make rules establishing the method for determining a taxing entity's 1998 actual collections and 1999 actual collections.

(k) (i) (A) For fiscal year 2000, the certified tax rate of each county [~~to which~~] required under Subsection [~~17-34-3(4)(a) applies~~] 17-34-1(3)(a) to provide advanced life support and paramedic services to the unincorporated area of the county shall be decreased by the amount necessary to reduce revenues in that fiscal year by an amount equal to the difference between the amount the county budgeted in its 2000 fiscal year budget for advanced life support and paramedic services countywide and the amount the county spent during fiscal year 2000 for those services, excluding amounts spent from a municipal services fund for those services.

(B) For fiscal year 2001, the certified tax rate of each county to which Subsection [~~17-34-3(4)(a)~~] (2)(k)(i)(A) applies shall be decreased by the amount necessary to reduce revenues in that fiscal year by the amount that the county spent during fiscal year 2000 for advanced life support and paramedic services countywide, excluding amounts spent from a municipal services fund for those services.

(ii) (A) [~~For fiscal year 2001, a~~] A city or town located within a county of the first class to which Subsection [~~17-34-3(4)(a)~~] (2)(k)(i) applies may increase its certified tax rate by the amount necessary to generate within the city or town the same amount of revenues as the county would collect from that city or town if the decrease under Subsection (2)(k)(i) did not occur.

(B) An increase under Subsection (2)(k)(ii)(A), whether occurring in a single fiscal year or spread over multiple fiscal years, is not subject to the notice and hearing requirements of Sections 59-2-918 and 59-2-919.

(l) (i) The certified tax rate of each county required under Subsection 17-34-1(3)(b) to provide detective investigative services to the unincorporated area of the county shall be decreased:

(B) in fiscal year 2002 by the amount necessary to reduce revenues in that fiscal year by an amount equal to the difference between $9,258,412 and the amount of the reduction in revenues under Subsection (2)(l)(i)(A).

(ii) (A) (I) Beginning with municipal fiscal year 2002, a city or town located within a county to which Subsection (2)(l)(i) applies may increase its certified tax rate to generate within the city or town the same amount of revenue as the county would have collected during county fiscal year 2001 from within the city or town except for Subsection (2)(l)(i)(A).

(II) Beginning with municipal fiscal year 2003, a city or town located within a county to which Subsection (2)(l)(i) applies may increase its certified tax rate to generate within the city or town the same amount of revenue as the county would have collected during county fiscal year 2002 from within the city or town except for Subsection (2)(l)(i)(B).

(B) (I) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(l)(ii)(B)(II), an increase in the city or town's certified tax rate under Subsection (2)(l)(ii)(A), whether occurring in a single fiscal year or spread over multiple fiscal years, is subject to the notice and hearing requirements of Sections 59-2-918 and 59-2-919.

(II) For an increase under this Subsection (2)(l)(ii) that generates revenue that does not exceed the same amount of revenue as the county would have collected except for Subsection (2)(l)(i), the requirements of Sections 59-2-918 and 59-2-919 do not apply if the city or town:

(aa) publishes a notice that meets the size, type, placement, and frequency requirements of Section 59-2-919, reflects that the increase is a shift of a tax from one imposed by the county to one imposed by the city or town, and explains how the revenues from the tax increase will be used; and

(bb) holds a public hearing on the tax shift that may be held in conjunction with the city or town's regular budget hearing.

(3) (a) On or before June 22, each taxing entity shall annually adopt a tentative budget.

(b) If the taxing entity intends to exceed the certified tax rate, it shall notify the county auditor of:

(c) The county auditor shall notify all property owners of any intent to exceed the certified tax rate in accordance with Subsection 59-2-919(2).

(4) (a) The taxable value for the base year under Subsection 17A-2-1247(2)(a) or 17A-2-1202(2), as the case may be, shall be reduced for any year to the extent necessary to provide a redevelopment agency established under Title 17A, Chapter 2, Part 12, Utah Neighborhood Development Act, with approximately the same amount of money the agency would have received without a reduction in the county's certified tax rate if:

(i) in that year there is a decrease in the certified tax rate under Subsection (2)(c) or (2)(d)(i);

(ii) the amount of the decrease is more than 20% of the county's certified tax rate of the previous year; and

(iii) the decrease results in a reduction of the amount to be paid to the agency under Section 17A-2-1247 or 17A-2-1247.5.

(b) The taxable value of the base year under Subsection 17A-2-1247(2)(a) or 17A-2-1202(2), as the case may be, shall be increased in any year to the extent necessary to provide a redevelopment agency with approximately the same amount of money as the agency would have received without an increase in the certified tax rate that year if:

(i) in that year the taxable value for the base year under Subsection 17A-2-1247(2) or 17A-2-1202(2) is reduced due to a decrease in the certified tax rate under Subsection (2)(c) or (2)(d)(i); and

(ii) The certified tax rate of a city, school district, or special district increases independent of the adjustment to the taxable value of the base year.

(c) Notwithstanding a decrease in the certified tax rate under Subsection (2)(c) or (2)(d)(i), the amount of money allocated and, when collected, paid each year to a redevelopment agency established under Title 17A, Chapter 2, Part 12, Utah Neighborhood Development Act, for the payment of bonds or other contract indebtedness, but not for administrative costs, may not be less than that amount would have been without a decrease in the certified tax rate under Subsection (2)(c) or (2)(d)(i).

(3) (a) An existing public school that converts to charter status may:

(i) continue to receive the same services from the school district that it received prior to its conversion; or

(b) (i) Any other charter school sponsored by a local school board shall receive funding as provided under Subsection (4)(a), except as otherwise provided in Subsection (4)(b)(ii).

(5) (a) A local school board that receives an application for a charter school under this section shall, within 45 days, either accept or reject the application.

(b) If the board rejects the application, it shall notify the applicant in writing of the reason for the rejection.

(e) The local board's action under Subsection (5)(d) is final action subject to judicial review.

(6) A local school board is limited in the number of charter schools it may sponsor under this section as follows:

(a) there is no limitation on the number of existing public schools within a school district that may convert to charter status under this section; and

(b) the number of charter schools not converted from existing public schools is limited to an enrollment equal to 4% of the school district's student population as reported in the most recent annual statistical report required under Section 53A-3-403.

Any subject entity may convert to a limited partnership under this chapter by complying with Section 48-2a-111 and filing with the division:

(1) articles of conversion that satisfy the requirements of Section 48-2a-109; and

(2) a certificate of limited partnership that satisfies the requirements of Section 48-2a-201.

Section 3. Section 48-2a-109 is enacted to read:

48-2a-110. Effect of conversion.

(1) Upon the filing with the division of the articles of conversion and the certificate of limited partnership or, if applicable, upon the future effective date or time of the articles of conversion and the certificate of limited partnership, the subject entity shall be converted into a domestic limited partnership and the limited partnership shall thereafter be subject to all of the provisions of this chapter, except that, notwithstanding Section 48-2a-201, the existence of the limited partnership shall be considered to have commenced on the date the subject entity commenced its existence in the jurisdiction in which the subject entity was first created, formed, incorporated, or otherwise came into being.

(2) The conversion of any subject entity into a domestic limited partnership shall not affect any obligations or liabilities of the subject entity incurred prior to its conversion to a domestic limited partnership or the personal liability of any person incurred prior to the conversion.

(3) When a conversion becomes effective under this section, for all purposes of the laws of this state, all of the rights, privileges, and powers of the subject entity that has converted, and all property, real, personal, and mixed, and all debts due to the subject entity, as well as all other things and causes of action belonging to the subject entity remain vested in the domestic limited partnership to which the subject entity has converted and shall be the property of the domestic limited partnership and the title to any real property vested by deed or otherwise in the subject entity shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of this chapter or of the conversion, but all rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of the subject entity shall be preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities, and duties of the subject entity that has converted shall remain attached to the domestic limited partnership to which the subject entity has converted and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if those debts, liabilities, and duties had been incurred or contracted by it in its capacity as a domestic limited partnership.

(4) Unless otherwise agreed, or as required under applicable law of another jurisdiction, the converting subject entity shall not be required to wind up its affairs or pay its liabilities or distribute its assets, and the conversion shall not constitute a dissolution of the subject entity but shall constitute a continuation of the existence of the converting subject entity in the form of a domestic limited partnership. When any subject entity has been converted to a domestic limited partnership pursuant to this part, the domestic limited partnership shall thereafter, for all purposes of the laws of this state, be considered to be the same entity as the converting subject entity.

Section 5. Section 48-2a-111 is enacted to read:

48-2a-111. Approval of conversion.

Prior to filing articles of conversion with the division, the conversion must first be approved in the manner provided for by applicable law or by the document, instrument, agreement, or other writing, as the case may be, that governs the internal affairs of the subject entity, as appropriate, and the new partnership agreement, if any, for the domestic limited partnership must be approved by the same authorization required to approve the conversion. If applicable law, or the document, instrument, agreement, or other writing, as the case may be, that governs the internal affairs of the subject entity, does not provide for the manner of approving such conversion, then unanimous consent of the owners of the subject entity shall be required to approve the conversion and the new partnership agreement.

Section 6. Section 48-2a-112 is enacted to read:

48-2a-112. No limitation on other changes.

The provisions of Sections 48-2a-108 and 48-2a-111 shall not be construed to limit the accomplishment of a change in the law governing, or the domicile of, any other entity in this state by any other means provided for in a partnership agreement or other agreement or as otherwise permitted by law.

Section 7. Section 48-2a-113 is enacted to read:

48-2a-113. Approval of limited partnership conversion to subject entity.

(1) A domestic limited partnership may convert to any subject entity upon the authorization of the conversion in accordance with this section.

(a) If the partnership agreement specifies the manner of authorizing a conversion of the limited partnership, the conversion shall be authorized as specified in the partnership agreement.

(b) If the partnership agreement does not specify the manner of authorizing a conversion of the limited partnership and does not prohibit a conversion of the limited partnership, the conversion shall be authorized in the same manner as specified in the partnership agreement for authorizing a merger that involves the partnership as a constituent party to the merger.

(c) If the partnership agreement does not specify the manner of authorizing a conversion of the limited partnership or a merger that involves the limited partnership as a constituent party and does not prohibit a conversion of the limited partnership, the conversion must be authorized by unanimous consent of all partners.

(2) A converted domestic limited partnership shall, upon conversion to a subject entity, be considered the same entity as the subject entity and the rights, privileges, powers, and interests in property of the domestic limited partnership, as well as the debts, liabilities, and duties of the domestic limited partnership, shall not, for any purpose of the laws of this state, be considered, as a consequence of the conversion, to have been transferred to the subject entity to which the domestic limited partnership has converted.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed, the conversion of a domestic limited partnership to another entity, pursuant to this section, shall not require the domestic limited partnership to wind up its affairs or to pay its liabilities or distribute its assets under this chapter. In connection with conversion of a domestic limited partnership to a subject entity under this section, all interests in, or securities of or rights in the domestic limited partnership which is to be converted may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, interests in, or securities of or rights in the entity into which the domestic limited partnership is converted or, in addition to or in lieu thereof, may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, interests in, or securities of or rights in another entity.

(a) impose reasonable restrictions on the use or distribution of the records by the person demanding inspection;

(b) order the company to pay the member or manager for reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred and for any damages incurred as a result of the company's denial if the court determines that the company did not act in good faith in refusing to allow the inspection or copying; and 48-2c-1002. Timing of distributions.

Distributions to members shall be made at the times or upon the happening of the events specified in the operating agreement. If the operating agreement does not otherwise provide, each current distribution shall be made to all members concurrently, or at other times determined by the members in a member-managed company, or by the managers in a manager-managed company.

Section 104. Section 48-2c-1003 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1003. Liquidating distributions.

Distributions to the members in connection with the dissolution and winding up of a company shall be made in accordance with Section 48-2c-1308.

Section 105. Section 48-2c-1004 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1004. Right to distributions.

At the time a member becomes entitled to receive a distribution from the company, the member has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the company with respect to the distribution.

Section 106. Section 48-2c-1005 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1005. Limitations on distributions.

(1) No distribution may be made by a company if, after giving effect to the distribution:

(a) the company would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual and regular course of its business; or

(b) the value of the company's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus, unless the articles of organization or the operating agreement permits otherwise, the amount that would be needed, if the company were to be dissolved and wound up at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution and winding up of members whose preferential rights are superior to the rights of members receiving the distribution.

(2) The company may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under Subsection (1) either on:

(a) financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances; or

(b) a fair valuation or other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.

(3) The effect of a distribution under Subsection (1) is measured as of:

(a) the date the distribution is authorized if the payment occurs within 30 days after the date of authorization; or

(b) the date the payment is made if it occurs more than 30 days after the date of authorization.

Section 107. Section 48-2c-1006 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1006. Duty to return wrongful distributions.

If a member receives a distribution by mistake or in violation of the articles of organization, the operating agreement, or Section 48-2c-1005, that member is obligated to return the wrongful distribution to the company and shall remain liable to the company for a period of five years thereafter for the amount of the distribution wrongfully made provided a proceeding to recover the distribution from the member is commenced prior to the expiration of the five-year period.

Section 108. Section 48-2c-1007 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1007. Distribution in kind.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement, a member, regardless of the nature of the member's contribution, has no right to demand and receive any distribution from the company in any form other than cash.

(2) Except for an asset contributed by the member or as otherwise provided in the articles or organization or operating agreement, a member may not be compelled to accept a distribution of any asset in kind from a company to the extent that the percentage of the asset distributed to the member exceeds a percentage of that asset which is equal to the percentage in which the member shares in distributions from the company.

Section 109. Section 48-2c-1008 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1008. Unclaimed distributions.

If a company has mailed three successive distributions to a member addressed to the member's address shown on the company's current record of members and the distributions have been returned as undeliverable, no further attempt to deliver distributions to that member need be made until another address for the member is made known to the company, at which time all distributions accumulated by reason of this section shall, except as otherwise provided by law, be mailed to the member at the other address.

Section 110. Section 48-2c-1101 is enacted to read:

Part 11. Assignment of Interests

48-2c-1101. Assignment of interests.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement, a member's interest in a company is assignable in whole or in part. An assignment of an interest in a company does not of itself dissolve the company.

Section 111. Section 48-2c-1102 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1102. Rights of assignee.

An assignment of an interest in a company does not entitle the assignee to participate in the management and affairs of the company or to vote or to become a member or to exercise any rights of a member or manager. An assignment only entitles the assignee to receive, to the extent assigned, any share of profits and losses and distributions to which the assignor would be entitled.

Section 112. Section 48-2c-1103 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1103. Rights of creditor of member.

(1) On application to a court of competent jurisdiction by any judgment creditor of a member or of a member's assignee, the court may charge the interest in the company of the member or assignee with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment plus interest. The court may then or later appoint a receiver of the share of distributions due or to become due to the judgment debtor in respect of the interest in the company. The judgment creditor and receiver shall have only the rights of an assignee. The court may make all other orders, directions, accounts, and inquiries the judgment debtor might have made or which the circumstances of the case may require.

(2) A charging order constitutes a lien on the judgment debtor's interest in the company. The court may order a foreclosure of the interest subject to the charging order at any time. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale has only the rights of an assignee.

(3) Unless otherwise provided in the articles or organization or operating agreement for the company, at any time before foreclosure an interest charged may be redeemed:

(a) by the judgment debtor;

(b) with property other than company property, by one or more of the other members; or

(c) by the company with the consent of all of the members whose interests are not so charged.

(4) This section does not deprive a member of a right under exemption laws with respect to the member's interest in a company.

(5) This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a judgment creditor of a member or a member's assignee may satisfy a judgment out of the judgment debtor's interest in a company.

(6) No creditor of a member shall have any right to obtain possession of, or otherwise exercise legal or equitable remedies with respect to, the property of the company.

Section 113. Section 48-2c-1104 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1104. Right of assignee to become member.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement, an assignee of an interest in a company may become a member only upon the consent of all members and upon signing the operating agreement or other writing by which the assignee agrees to be bound by the operating agreement.

(2) An assignee who has become a member has, with respect to the interest assigned, the rights and powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a member under the articles of organization, the operating agreement, and this chapter.

(3) An assignee who becomes a member is liable for any obligations of his assignor to make contributions and to return distributions as provided in this chapter. However, an assignee who becomes a member is not obligated for liabilities of the assignor unknown to the assignee at the time the assignee became a member but has constructive notice of any obligations described in the articles of organization or operating agreement of the company.

Section 114. Section 48-2c-1105 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1105. Liability of assignor continues.

An assignor of an interest in a company is not released from liability to the company by reason of the assignment or by reason of the assignee's becoming a member.

Section 115. Section 48-2c-1106 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1106. Invalid transfers.

Any transfer or assignment of a member's interest in a company in violation of this part is void.

Section 116. Section 48-2c-1201 is enacted to read:

Part 12. Dissolution

48-2c-1201. Events of dissolution.

A company organized under this chapter shall be dissolved upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(1) when the period fixed for the duration of the company, pursuant to Subsection 48-2c-403(4)(c), expires;

(2) at such times as the company fails to have at least one member;

Section 117. Section 48-2c-1202 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1202. Voluntary cancellation of certificate.

Articles of organization may be canceled voluntarily at any time by consent of all members or their successors in interest by submitting to the division for filing a certificate of cancellation that sets forth:

(1) the name of the company;

(2) the date of filing of its articles of organization;

(3) the effective date of cancellation, which shall be a date certain, if the cancellation is not to be effective upon the filing of the certificate; and

(4) any other information the person filing the certificate determines to be appropriate.

Section 118. Section 48-2c-1203 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1203. Effect of dissolution.

(1) A dissolved company continues its existence but may not carry on any business or activities except as appropriate to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs, as provided in Part 13 of this chapter.

(2) Dissolution of a company does not:

(a) transfer title to the company's property;

(b) prevent transfer of an interest in the company;

(c) subject its members or managers to standards of conduct different from those prescribed in Part 8;

(d) change:

(i) limited liability provided under Part 6 of this chapter;

(ii) voting requirements for its members or managers;

(iii) provisions for selection, resignation, or removal of its managers; or

(iv) provisions for amending its articles of organization or operating agreement;

(e) prevent commencement of a proceeding by or against the company in its company name;

(a) the name of the company;

(b) the address of the company's designated office or, if none is to be maintained, a statement that the company will not maintain a designated office, and, if different from the address of the designated office or if no designated office is to be maintained, the address to which service of process may be mailed pursuant to Section 48-2c-308;

(c) the effective date of the dissolution;

(d) the event causing the dissolution;

(e) if dissolution occurred by written agreement of the members, a statement to that effect; and

Section 120. Section 48-2c-1205 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1205. Revocation of voluntary dissolution.

(1) Where the event of dissolution is the written agreement of the members, a company may revoke its dissolution within 120 days after the effective date of the dissolution.

(2) Revocation of the voluntary dissolution must be approved by all of the members.

(3) After the revocation of voluntary dissolution is approved by all of the members, the company may revoke the dissolution by delivering to the division for filing articles of revocation of dissolution, together with a copy of its articles of dissolution, that set forth:

(a) the name of the company;

(b) the effective date of the dissolution that was revoked; and

(c) the date that the revocation of dissolution was authorized by the members.

(4) Revocation of the voluntary dissolution is effective when the articles of revocation of dissolution are filed with the division. A provision may not be made for a delayed effective date for revocation of voluntary dissolution.

(5) When the revocation of voluntary dissolution is effective, it relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date of the dissolution and the company may carry on its business as if the dissolution had never occurred.

Section 121. Section 48-2c-1206 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1206. Grounds for administrative dissolution.

The division may dissolve a company under Section 48-2c-1207 if:

(a) the division's determination that one or more grounds exist for dissolving the company; and

(b) the grounds for dissolving the company.

(b) If a company is dissolved under Subsection (2)(a), the division shall mail written notice of the administrative dissolution to the dissolved company at its designated office, stating the date of dissolution specified in Subsection (2)(d).

(d) A company's effective date of administrative dissolution is five days after the date the division mails the written notice of dissolution under Subsection (2)(b).

(e) On the effective date of dissolution, any assumed names filed on behalf of the dissolved company under Title 42, Chapter 2, Conducting Business Under Assumed Name, are canceled.

(f) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(e), the name of the company that is dissolved and any assumed names filed on its behalf are not available for two years from the effective date of dissolution for use by any other person:

(ii) to give notice to claimants in the manner provided in Sections 48-2c-1305 and 48-2c-1306.

(b) If the company is reinstated in accordance with Section 48-2c-1208, business conducted by the company during a period of administrative dissolution is unaffected by the dissolution.

(4) The administrative dissolution of a company does not terminate the authority of its registered agent.

(5) (a) Upon the administrative dissolution of a company, the division shall be an additional agent of the dissolved company for purposes of service of process.

(b) Service of process on the division under this Subsection (5) is service on the dissolved company.

(f) failed to amend its articles of organization as required by Section 48-2c-405.

(2) A company may be dissolved in a proceeding filed by any member if it is established that:

(a) the managers are deadlocked in management of company affairs and the members are unable to break the deadlock, irreparable injury to the company is threatened or being suffered, or the business and affairs of the company can no longer be conducted to the advantage of the members generally, because of the deadlock;

(b) the managers or those in control of the company have acted, are acting, or will act in a manner that is illegal, oppressive, or fraudulent;

(c) the members are deadlocked in voting power and the deadlock has continued for a period of at least six months;

(d) the company assets are being misapplied or wasted; or

A proceeding brought by any other party named in Section 48-2c-1210 shall be brought in the district court of the county in this state where the company's designated office or, if it has no designated office in this state, its registered office is or was last located.

(2) It is not necessary to make any member or manager a party to a proceeding to dissolve a company unless relief is sought against them individually.

(3) A court in a proceeding brought to dissolve a company may issue injunctions, appoint a receiver or custodian pendente lite with all powers and duties the court directs, take other action required to preserve the company's assets wherever located, and carry on the business of the company until a full hearing can be held.

Section 127. Section 48-2c-1212 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1212. Receivership or custodianship.

(1) A court in a judicial proceeding brought to dissolve a company may, at any time before entering a decree of dissolution, appoint one or more custodians to manage the business and affairs of the company until further order of the court and may, upon or after entering a decree dissolving the company, appoint one or more receivers to wind up and liquidate the business and affairs of the company. The court shall hold a hearing, after giving notice to all parties to the proceeding and any interested persons designated by the court, before appointing a receiver or a custodian. The court appointing a receiver or custodian has exclusive jurisdiction over the company and all of its property wherever located.

(2) The court may appoint any person or the court may require the receiver or custodian to post bond, with or without sureties, in an amount the court directs.

(3) The court shall describe the powers and duties of the receiver or custodian in its appointing order, which may be amended from time to time. Among other powers:

(a) the receiver:

(i) may dispose of all or any part of the assets of the company wherever located, at a public or private sale, if authorized by the court; and

(ii) may sue and defend in its own name as receiver of the company in all courts of this state; or

(b) the custodian may exercise all of the powers of the company, through or in place of its members or managers, to the extent necessary to manage the affairs of the company in the best interests of its members and creditors.

(4) The court during a receivership may redesignate the receiver a custodian, and during a custodianship may redesignate the custodian a receiver, if doing so is in the best interests of the company, its members, and its creditors.

(5) The court from time to time during the receivership or custodianship may order compensation paid and expense disbursements or reimbursements made to the receiver or custodian and the custodian's or receiver's counsel from the assets of the company or proceeds from the sale of the assets.

Section 128. Section 48-2c-1213 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1213. Decree of dissolution.

(1) If after a hearing the court determines that one or more grounds for judicial dissolution described in Section 48-2c-1210 exist, it may enter a decree dissolving the company and specifying the effective date of the dissolution. The clerk of the court shall deliver a certified copy of the decree to the division for filing and shall mail a copy of the decree to the registered agent of the company or to the division if it has no registered agent of record.

(2) After entering the decree of dissolution, the court shall direct the winding up and liquidation of the company's business and affairs in accordance with Part 13.

(3) The court's order may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

Section 129. Section 48-2c-1214 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1214. Election to purchase in lieu of dissolution.

(1) In a proceeding under Subsection 48-2c-1210(2) to dissolve a company, the company may elect, or if it fails to elect, one of more members may elect to purchase the interest in the company owned by the petitioning member at the fair market value of the interest, determined as provided in this section. An election pursuant to this section is irrevocable unless the court determines that it is equitable to set aside or modify the election.

(2) (a) An election to purchase pursuant to this section may be filed with the court at any time within 90 days after the filing of the petition in a proceeding under Subsection 48-2c-1210(2) or at any later time as the court in its discretion may allow. If the company files an election with the court within the 90-day period, or at any later time allowed by the court, to purchase the interest in the company owned by the petitioning member, the company shall purchase the interest in the manner provided in this section.

(b) If the company does not file an election with the court within the time period, but an election to purchase the interest in the company owned by the petitioning member is filed by one or more members within the time period, the company shall, within ten days after the later of the end of the time period allowed for the filing of elections to purchase under this section or notification from the court of an election by members to purchase the interest in the company owned by the petitioning member as provided in this section, give written notice of the election to purchase to all members of the company, other than the petitioning member. The notice shall state the name and the percentage interest in the company owned by the petitioning member and the name and the percentage interest in the company owned by each electing member. The notice shall advise any recipients who have not participated in the election of their right to join in the election to purchase the interest in the company in accordance with this section, and of the date by which any notice of intent to participate must be filed with the court.

(c) Members who wish to participate in the purchase of the interest in the company of the petitioning member must file notice of their intention to join in the purchase by electing members, no later than 30 days after the effective date of the company's notice of their right to join in the election to purchase.

(d) All members who have filed with the court an election or notice of their intention to participate in the election to purchase the interest in the company of the petitioning member thereby become irrevocably obligated to participate in the purchase of the interest from the petitioning member upon the terms and conditions of this section, unless the court otherwise directs.

(e) After an election has been filed by the company or one or more members, the proceedings under Subsection 48-2c-1210(2) may not be discontinued or settled, nor may the petitioning member sell or otherwise dispose of his interest in the company, unless the court determines that it would be equitable to the company and the members, other than the petitioning member, to permit any discontinuance, settlement, sale, or other disposition.

(3) If, within 60 days after the earlier of the company filing of an election to purchase the interest in the company of the petitioning member or the company's mailing of a notice to its members of the filing of an election by the members to purchase the interest in the company of the petitioning member, the petitioning member and electing company or members reach agreement as to the fair market value and terms of the purchase of the petitioning member's interest, the court shall enter an order directing the purchase of the petitioning member's interest, upon the terms and conditions agreed to by the parties.

(4) If the parties are unable to reach an agreement as provided for in Subsection (3), upon application of any party, the court shall stay the proceedings under Subsection 48-2c-1210(2) and determine the fair market value of the petitioning member's interest in the company as of the day before the date on which the petition under Subsection 48-2c-1210(2) was filed or as of any other date the court determines to be appropriate under the circumstances and based on the factors the court determines to be appropriate.

(5) (a) Upon determining the fair market value of the interest in the company of the petitioning member, the court shall enter an order directing the purchase of the interest in the company upon terms and conditions the court determines to be appropriate. The terms and conditions may include payment of the purchase price in installments, where necessary in the interest of equity, provision for security to assure payment of the purchase price and any additional costs, fees, and expenses awarded by the court, and an allocation of the interest in the company among members if the interest in the company is to be purchased by members.

(b) In allocating the petitioning member's interest in the company among holders of different classes of members, the court shall attempt to preserve the existing distribution of voting rights among member classes to the extent practicable. The court may direct that holders of a specific class or classes shall not participate in the purchase. The court may not require any electing member to purchase more of the interest in the company owned by the petitioning member than the percentage interest that the purchasing member may have set forth in his election or notice of intent to participate filed with the court.

(c) Interest may be allowed at the rate and from the date determined by the court to be equitable. However, if the court finds that the refusal of the petitioning member to accept an offer of payment was arbitrary or otherwise not in good faith, interest may not be allowed.

(d) If the court finds that the petitioning member had probable ground for relief under Subsection 48-2c-1210(2)(b) or (2)(d), it may award to the petitioning member reasonable fees and expenses of counsel and experts employed by the petitioning member.

(6) Upon entry of an order under Subsection (3) or (5), the court shall dismiss the petition to dissolve the company under Subsection 48-2c-1210(2) and the petitioning member shall no longer have any rights or status as a member of the company, except the right to receive the amounts awarded to him by the court. (b) articles of organization that satisfy the requirements of Part 4.

Section 140. Section 48-2c-1402 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1402. Articles of conversion.

The articles of conversion shall state:

(1) the date on which and jurisdiction where the subject entity was first created, formed, incorporated, or otherwise came into being and, if it has changed, its jurisdiction immediately prior to its conversion to a domestic company;

(2) the name of the subject entity immediately prior to the filing of the articles of conversion;

(3) the name of the company as set forth in its articles of organization filed in accordance with Subsection 48-2c-1401(2)(b);

(4) the future effective date or time, which shall be a date or time certain, of the conversion to a domestic company if it is not to be effective upon the filing of the articles of conversion and the articles of organization; and

Section 141. Section 48-2c-1403 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1403. Effect of conversion.

(1) Upon filing with the division of the articles of conversion and the articles of organization or, if applicable, upon the future effective date or time of the articles of conversion and the articles of organization, the subject entity shall be converted into a domestic company and the company shall thereafter be subject to all of the provisions of this chapter, except that, notwithstanding Section 48-2c-402, the existence of the company shall be considered to have commenced on the date the subject entity commenced its existence in the jurisdiction in which the subject entity was first created, formed, incorporated, or otherwise came into being.

(2) The conversion of any subject entity into a domestic company shall not be considered to affect any obligations or liabilities of the subject entity incurred prior to its conversion to a domestic company or the personal liability of any person incurred prior to the conversion.

(3) When any conversion shall have become effective under this section, for all purposes of the laws of this state, all of the rights, privileges, and powers of the subject entity that has converted, and all property, real, personal, and mixed, and all debts due to the subject entity, as well as all other things and causes of action belonging to the subject entity, shall remain vested in the domestic company to which the subject entity has converted and shall be the property of the domestic company, and the title to any real property vested by deed or otherwise in the subject entity shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of this chapter or of the conversion, but all rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of the subject entity shall be preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities, and duties of the subject entity that has converted shall remain attached to the domestic company to which the subject entity has converted and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if the debts, liabilities, and duties had been incurred or contracted by it in its capacity as a domestic company.

(4) A converted subject entity shall, upon conversion to a domestic company pursuant to this part, be considered the same entity as the domestic company and the rights, privileges, powers, and interests in property of the subject entity, as well as the debts, liabilities, and duties of the subject entity, shall not, for any purpose of the laws of this state, be considered, as a consequence of the conversion, to have been transferred to the domestic company to which the subject entity has converted.

(5) In connection with conversion of a subject entity to a domestic company under this part, all interests in, or securities of or rights in the subject entity which is to be converted may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, interests in, or securities of or rights in the domestic company to which it is converted or, in addition to or in lieu thereof, may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, interests in, or securities of or rights in another entity.

(6) Unless otherwise agreed, or as required under applicable non-Utah law of another jurisdiction, the converting subject entity shall not be required to wind up its affairs or pay its liabilities or distribute its assets, and the conversion shall not be considered to constitute a dissolution of the other entity but shall constitute a continuation of the existence of the converting other entity in the form of a domestic company.

Section 142. Section 48-2c-1404 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1404. Approval of conversion.

Prior to filing articles of conversion with the division, the conversion must first be approved in the manner provided for by applicable law or by the document, instrument, agreement, or other writing, as the case may be, that governs the internal affairs of the subject entity, as appropriate, and the new operating agreement, if any, for the domestic company must be approved by the same authorization required to approve the conversion. If applicable law, or the document, instrument, agreement, or other writing, as the case may be, that governs the internal affairs of the subject entity, does not provide for the manner of approving the conversion, then unanimous consent of the owners of the subject entity shall be required to approve the conversion and the new operating agreement.

Section 144. Section 48-2c-1406 is enacted to read:

If the operating agreement specifies the manner of authorizing a conversion of the company, the conversion shall be authorized as specified in the operating agreement. If the operating agreement does not specify the manner of authorizing a conversion of the company and does not prohibit a conversion of the company, the conversion shall be authorized in the same manner as specified in the operating agreement for authorizing a merger that involves the company as a constituent party to the merger. If the operating agreement does not specify the manner of authorizing a conversion of the company or a merger that involves the company as a constituent party and does not prohibit a conversion of the company, the conversion must be authorized by unanimous consent of all members.

(2) A converted domestic company shall, upon conversion to a subject entity, be considered the same entity as the subject entity and the rights, privileges, powers, and interests in property of the domestic company, as well as the debts, liabilities, and duties of the domestic company, shall not, for any purpose of the laws of this state, be considered, as a consequence of the conversion, to have been transferred to the subject entity to which the domestic company has converted.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed, the conversion of a domestic company to another entity, pursuant to this section, shall not require the domestic company to wind up its affairs or to pay its liabilities or distribute its assets under this chapter. In connection with conversion of a domestic company to another entity under this section, all interests in, or securities of or rights in the domestic company which is to be converted may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, interests in, or securities of or rights in the entity into which the domestic company is converted or, in addition to or in lieu thereof, may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, interests in, or securities of or rights in another entity.

(ii) as to liabilities incurred by the entity after the merger, according to the laws applicable after the merger, except as provided in Subsection (1)(h);

(h) if prior to the merger an owner of an entity was a partner of a partnership or general partner of a limited partnership and was personally liable for the entity's liabilities, and after the merger is an owner normally protected from personal liability, then the owner shall continue to be personally liable for the entity's liabilities incurred during the 12 months following the merger, if the other party or parties to the transaction reasonably believed that the owner would be personally liable and had not received notice of the merger; and

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection (1)(c), a professional services company may hold itself out to the public under a name that does not contain the words "professional limited liability company" or the abbreviations "P.L.L.C." or "PLLC" so long as that name meets the requirements of Subsection 48-2c-106(1)(a).

(3) Sections 48-2c-106, 48-2c-1607, and 48-2c-1608 do not prevent the use of a name otherwise prohibited by those sections if it is the personal name of an individual member or individual former member of the professional services company or the name of an individual who was associated with a predecessor of the professional services company.

Section 154. Section 48-2c-1506 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1506. Activity limitations.

No professional services company may do anything that is prohibited to be done by individuals licensed to practice the profession that the company is organized to render.

Section 155. Section 48-2c-1507 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1507. Limit of one profession.

A company organized to render professional services under this chapter may render only one specific type of professional services, and services ancillary to them, and may not engage in any business other than rendering the professional services which it was organized to render, and services ancillary to them; provided, however, that a professional services company may own real and personal property necessary or appropriate for rendering the type of professional service it was organized to render and may invest its funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds, and any other type of investments.

Section 156. Section 48-2c-1508 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1508. Members and managers restricted to professionals.

A company organized to render professional services:

(1) may include members, managers, and employees authorized under the laws of the jurisdiction where they reside to provide similar services;

(2) may include members who are not licensed or registered by the state to render those professional services to the extent allowed by the applicable licensing act relating to those professional services;

(3) may render professional services in this state only through its members, managers, and employees who are licensed or registered by this state to render those professional services; and

(4) shall have all of the other powers provided under Section 48-2c-110.

Section 157. Section 48-2c-1509 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1509. Additional requirements for articles of organization.

The articles of organization of a professional services company shall satisfy the requirements of Section 48-2c-403 and, in addition thereto, shall contain the following:

(1) a name consistent with Section 48-2c-1505;

(2) a description of the profession to be practiced through the company; and

(3) notwithstanding Subsection 48-2c-403(2), the names and street addresses of all members and managers of the company.

Section 158. Section 48-2c-1510 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1510. Restrictions on transfers by members.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), a member of a professional services company may sell or transfer the member's interest in the company only to the company or to an individual who is licensed or registered by this state to render the same type of professional services as those for which the company was organized.

(2) Upon the death or incapacity of a member of a professional services company, the member's interest in the company may be transferred to the personal representative or estate of the deceased or incapacitated member who may continue to hold that interest for a reasonable period but shall not be authorized to participate in any decision concerning the rendering of professional services.

Section 159. Section 48-2c-1511 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1511. Purchase of interest upon death, incapacity, or disqualification of members.

The articles of organization may provide for the purchase of any member's interest in a professional services company subject to this part upon the death, incapacity, or disqualification of that member, or the same may be provided in the operating agreement or by other private agreement. In the absence of such a provision in the articles of organization, the operating agreement, or other private agreement, the professional services company shall purchase the interest of a deceased member or an incapacitated member or a member no longer qualified to own an interest in that professional services company within 90 days after the company is notified of the death, incapacity, or disqualification, as the case may be. The price for the interest shall be its reasonable fair market value as of the date of death, incapacity, or disqualification. If the professional services company fails to purchase said interest by the end of said 90 days, then the personal representative of a deceased member or the guardian or conservator of an incapacitated member or the disqualified member may bring an action in the district court of the county in which the designated office or place of practice of the professional services company is located for the enforcement of this provision. The court shall have power to award the plaintiff the reasonable fair market value of the interest, or within its jurisdiction, may order the liquidation of the professional services company. Further, if the plaintiff is successful in the action, the plaintiff shall be entitled to recover a reasonable attorney's fee and costs.

Section 160. Section 48-2c-1512 is enacted to read:

Whenever all members of a professional services company subject to this part cease at any one time and for any reason to be licensed for the professional services for which the company was organized, or by vote of members holding at least 2/3 interest in the profits of the company, the company shall thereupon be treated as converted into, and shall operate thereafter solely as, a company subject to this chapter but not subject to this part, but may be reconverted to a professional services company upon removal of the disability or by the vote of members holding at least 2/3 interests in the profits of the company. Upon any such conversion or reconversion, a certificate of amendment to the articles of organization shall be filed with the division within a reasonable time thereafter to reflect the changes.

Section 161. Section 48-2c-1513 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1513. Application of Part 15.

Where a conflict arises between the provisions of this part and the other provisions of this chapter, the provisions of this part shall control.

Part 16. Foreign Limited Liability Companies.

48-2c-1601. Law governing foreign companies.

(1) This chapter does not authorize this state to regulate the organization or internal affairs of a foreign company. The laws of the state or other jurisdiction under which a foreign company is organized govern its organization and internal affairs and the liability of its managers, members, and assignees of members.

(2) A foreign company may not be denied authority to transact business in this state by reason of any difference between the laws of another jurisdiction under which the foreign company is organized and the laws of this state.

Section 163. Section 48-2c-1602 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1602. Authority to transact business required.

(1) A foreign company may not transact business in this state until its application for authority to transact business is filed with the division. This applies to foreign companies that conduct a business governed by other statutes of this state only to the extent this part is not inconsistent with those other statutes.

(2) The following is a nonexhaustive list of activities that do not constitute "transacting business" within the meaning of Subsection (1):

(a) maintaining, defending, or settling in its own behalf any proceeding;

(b) holding meetings of the managers or members or otherwise carrying on activities concerning internal company affairs;

(c) maintaining bank accounts;

(d) selling through independent contractors;

(e) soliciting or obtaining orders, whether by mail or through employees or agents or otherwise, if the orders require acceptance outside this state before they become contracts;

(f) creating as borrower or lender or acquiring indebtedness, mortgages, or security interests in real or personal property;

(g) securing or collecting debts in its own behalf or enforcing mortgages or security interests in property securing those debts;

(h) owning, without more, real or personal property;

(i) conducting an isolated transaction that is completed within 30 days and that is not one in the course of repeated transactions of a like nature;

(j) transacting business in interstate commerce;

(k) acquiring, in transactions outside this state or in interstate commerce, of conditional sales contracts or of debts secured by mortgages or liens on real or personal property in this state, collecting or adjusting of principal or interest payments on the contracts, mortgages, or liens, enforcing or adjusting any rights provided for in conditional sales contracts or securing the described debts, taking any actions necessary to preserve and protect the interest of the conditional vendor in the property covered by a conditional sales contract or the interest of the mortgagee or holder of the lien in the security, or any combination of such transactions; and

(l) any other activities not considered to constitute transacting business in this state as determined in the discretion of the director of the division.

(3) Nothing in this section limits or affects the right to subject a foreign company which does not, or is not required to, have authority to transact business in this state to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state or to serve upon any foreign company any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a company pursuant to any applicable provision of law or pursuant to any applicable rules of civil procedure.

Section 164. Section 48-2c-1603 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1603. Consequences of transacting business without authority.

(1) A foreign company transacting business in this state without authority, or anyone in its behalf, may not maintain a proceeding in any court in this state until an application for authority to transact business is filed with the division.

(2) The successor to a foreign company that transacted business in this state without authority and the assignee of a cause of action arising out of that business may not maintain a proceeding based on that cause of action in any court in this state until an application for authority to transact business is filed on behalf of the foreign company or its successor.

(3) A court may stay a proceeding commenced by a foreign company, its successor, or assignee until it determines whether the foreign company, its successor, or assignee is required to file an application for authority to transact business. If it so determines, the court may further stay the proceeding until the required application for authority to transact business has been filed with the division.

(4) A foreign company that transacts business in this state without authority is subject to a civil penalty, payable to this state, of $100 for each day in which it transacts business in this state without authority. However, the penalty may not exceed a total of $5,000 for each year. Each manager or member of a foreign company who authorizes, directs, or participates in the transaction of business in this state without authority and each agent of a foreign company who transacts business in this state on behalf of a foreign company that is not authorized is subject to a civil penalty, payable to this state, not exceeding $1,000 for each year.

(5) The civil penalties set forth in Subsection (4) may be recovered in an action brought in the district court for Salt Lake County or in any other county in this state in which the foreign company has a registered office or in which it has transacted business. Upon a finding by the court that a foreign company or any of its managers, members, or agents has transacted business in this state in violation of this part, the court shall issue, in addition to or instead of a civil penalty, an injunction restraining the further transaction of the business of the foreign company and the further exercise of any rights and privileges in this state. Upon issuance of the injunction, the foreign company shall be enjoined from transacting business in this state until all civil penalties have been paid, plus any interest and court costs assessed by the court, and until the foreign company has otherwise complied with the provisions of this part.

(6) Notwithstanding Subsections (1) and (2), the failure of a foreign company to have authority to transact business in this state does not impair the validity of its acts, nor does the failure prevent the foreign company from defending any proceeding in this state.

Section 165. Section 48-2c-1604 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1604. Application for authority to transact business.

(1) A foreign company may apply for authority to transact business in this state by delivering to the division for filing an application for authority to transact business setting forth:

(a) its name and its assumed name, if any;

(b) the name of the state or country under whose law it is formed or organized;

(c) the nature of the business or purposes to be conducted or promoted in this state;

(f) the address of its registered office in this state and the name of its registered agent at that office;

(g) the names and street addresses of its current managers, if it is a manager-managed company, or of its members, if it is a member-managed company;

(h) the date it commenced or expects to commence transacting business in this state; and

(i) any additional information the division may determine is necessary or appropriate to determine whether the application for authority to transact business should be filed.

(2) The foreign company shall deliver with the completed application for authority to transact business a certificate of existence, or a document of similar import, duly authorized by the secretary of state or other official having custody of records in the state or country under whose law it is formed or organized. The certificate of existence shall be dated within 90 days prior to the filing of the application for authority to transact business by the division.

(3) The foreign company shall include in the application for authority to transact business, or in an accompanying document, the written consent to appointment by the designated registered agent in this state.

Section 166. Section 48-2c-1605 is enacted to read:

(a) its name or its assumed name;

(b) the period of its duration; or

(c) the state or country of its formation or organization.

(2) The requirements of Section 48-2c-1604 for obtaining an original application for authority to transact business apply to filing an amended application for authority to transact business under this section.

Section 167. Section 48-2c-1606 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1606. Effect of filing an application for authority to transact business.

(1) Filing an application for authority to transact business authorizes the foreign company to transact business in this state subject, however, to the right of this state to revoke the certificate as provided in this part.

(2) A foreign company authorized to transact business in this state has the same rights and privileges as, but no greater rights or privileges than, a domestic company of like character. Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, a foreign company authorized to transact business in this state is subject to the same duties, restrictions, penalties, and liabilities now or later imposed on a domestic company of like character.

Section 168. Section 48-2c-1607 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1607. Company name and assumed company name of foreign company.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), if the name of a foreign company does not satisfy the requirements of Section 48-2c-106 which applies to domestic companies, the foreign company in order to obtain authority to transact business in this state, must assume for use in this state a name that satisfies the requirements of Section 48-2c-106.

(2) A foreign company may obtain authority to transact business in this state with a name that does not meet the requirements of Subsection (1) because it is not distinguishable as required under Subsection 48-2c-106(2), if the foreign company delivers to the division for filing either:

(a) a written consent to the foreign company's use of the name, given and signed by the other person entitled to the use of the name together with a written undertaking by the other person, in a form satisfactory to the division, to change its name to a name that is distinguishable from the name of the applicant; or

(b) a certified copy of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the prior right of the foreign company to use the requested name in this state.

(3) A foreign company may use in this state the name, including the assumed name, of another domestic or foreign company or other entity that is used or registered in this state if the other company is formed or organized or authorized to transact business in this state and the foreign company:

(a) has merged with the other company; or

(b) has been formed by conversion of the other entity.

(4) If a foreign company authorized to transact business in this state, whether under its name or an assumed name, changes its name to one that does not satisfy the requirements of Subsections (1) through (3), or the requirements of Section 48-2c-106, it may not transact business in this state under the changed name but must use an assumed name that does meet the requirements of this section and must deliver to the division for filing an amended application for authority to transact business pursuant to Section 48-2c-1605.

Section 169. Section 48-2c-1608 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1608. Registered name of foreign company.

(1) A foreign company may register its name as provided in this section if the name would be available for use as a name for a domestic company under Section 48-2c-106. If the foreign company's name would not be available for such use, then the foreign company may register its name modified by the addition of any of the following words or abbreviations, if the modified name would be available for use under Section 48-2c-106: "limited liability company", "limited company", "L.L.C.", "L.C.", "LLC", or "LC".

(2) A foreign company registers its name, or its name with any addition permitted by Subsection (1), by delivering to the division for filing an application for registration:

(b) accompanied by a certificate of existence, or a document of similar import from the state or country of formation or organization as evidence that the foreign company is in existence or has authority to transact business under the laws of the state or country in which it is formed or organized.

(3) The name is registered for the applicant upon the effective date of the application, and the initial registration is effective until the end of the calendar year in which it became effective.

(4) A foreign company that has in effect a registration of its name as permitted by Subsection (1) may renew the registration for the following year by delivering to the division for filing a renewal application for registration, which complies with the requirements of Subsection (2) between October 1 and December 31 of the preceding year. When filed, the renewal application for registration renews the registration for the following calendar year.

(5) A foreign company that has in effect registration of its name may apply for authority to transact business in this state under the registered name in accordance with the procedure set forth in this part or it may assign the registration to another foreign company by delivering to the division for filing an assignment of the registration that states the registered name, the name of the assigning foreign corporation, and the name of the assignee, concurrently with the delivery to the division for filing of the assignee's application for registration of the name. The assignee's application must meet the requirements of this part.

(6) (a) A foreign company that has in effect registration of its name may terminate the registration at any time by delivering to the division for filing a statement of termination setting forth the name and stating that the registration is terminated.

(b) A registration of name automatically terminates upon the filing of an application for authority to transact business in this state under the registered name.

(7) The registration of a name under Subsection (1) constitutes authority by the division to file an application meeting the requirements of this part for authority to transact business in this state under the registered name, but the authorization is subject to the limitations applicable to company names as set forth in Section 48-2c-106.

Section 170. Section 48-2c-1609 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1609. Amendment of articles of organization of foreign company.

Whenever the articles of organization of a foreign company authorized to transact business in this state are amended, it shall not be necessary for the foreign company to file a copy of the amendments with the division; but amending the articles of organization shall not of itself enlarge or alter the purpose or purposes which the foreign company is authorized to pursue in transacting its business in this state, nor authorize the foreign company to transact business in this state under any other name than the name set forth in its application for authority filed with the division.

Section 171. Section 48-2c-1610 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1610. Merger of foreign company authorized to transact business in this state.

Section 172. Section 48-2c-1611 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1611. Withdrawal of foreign company.

(d) that the foreign company is not transacting business in this state and that it surrenders its authority to transact business in this state;

(e) whether its registered agent will continue to be authorized to accept service on its behalf in any proceeding based on a cause of action arising during the time it was authorized to transact business in this state; and

(f) any additional information that the division determines is necessary or appropriate to determine whether the foreign company is entitled to withdraw, and to determine and assess any unpaid taxes, fees, and penalties payable by it as prescribed by this chapter.

(3) A foreign company's application for withdrawal may not be filed by the division until all outstanding fees and state tax obligations of the foreign company have been paid and the division has received a tax clearance certificate from the State Tax Commission.

(a) the division's determination that one or more grounds exist for revocation; and

(b) the grounds for revocation.

(2) (a) If the foreign company does not correct each ground for revocation or demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the division that each ground determined by the division does not exist, within 60 days after mailing the notice under Subsection (1), the division shall revoke the foreign company's authority to transact business in this state.

(b) If a foreign company's authority to transact business in this state is revoked under Subsection (2)(a), the division shall mail to the foreign company written notice of:

(i) revocation; and

(3) The authority of a foreign company to transact business in this state ceases on the date shown on the division's certificate revoking the company's certificate of authority.

(4) Revocation of a foreign company's authority to transact business in this state does not terminate the authority of the registered agent of the foreign company.

(5) (a) Upon the revocation of a foreign company's authority to transact business in this state, the division becomes an agent for the foreign company for service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action that arose during the time the foreign company:

The foreign company appeals by petitioning the court to set aside the revocation and attaching to the petition a copy of the company's application for authority to transact business, and any amended applications, each as filed with the division, and the division's notice of revocation.

(2) The court may summarily order the division to reinstate the authority of the foreign company to transact business in this state or it may take any other action it considers appropriate.

Section 177. Section 48-2c-1701 is enacted to read:

Part 17. Derivative Actions

48-2c-1701. Right of action.

A member may bring an action in the right of a company to recover a judgment in its favor:

(1) if the managers or, if no managers, the members with authority to do so have refused to bring the action and the decision of the managers or members not to sue constitutes an abuse of discretion or involves a conflict of interest that prevents an unbiased exercise of judgment; or

(2) if an effort to cause those managers or members to bring the action is not likely to succeed.

Section 178. Section 48-2c-1702 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1702. Proper plaintiff.

In an action under Section 48-2c-1701, the plaintiff must be a member at the time of bringing the action and:

(1) must have been a member at the time of the transaction of which the member complains; or

(2) the member's status as a member must have devolved upon him by transfer or by operation of law or pursuant to the terms of the operating agreement from a person who was a member at the time of the transaction.

If an action under Section 48-2c-1701 is successful, in whole or in part, or if anything is received by the plaintiff as a result of a judgment, compromise, or settlement of any such action or claim, the court may award the plaintiff reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees. The court shall order that any such award be paid out of the proceeds received by the plaintiff, if any, in which case the plaintiff shall remit to the company the remainder of the proceeds. If those proceeds are insufficient to reimburse the plaintiff's reasonable expenses, the court may direct that any such award of the plaintiff's expenses or a portion of the expenses be paid by the company.

Section 182. Section 48-2c-1706 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1706. Security and costs.

(1) In any action instituted in the right of any company or foreign company, unless the fair market value of the plaintiff's interest in the company as a member exceeds the greater of $25,000 or 5% of the fair market value of the company, the company in whose right the action is brought shall be entitled, at any time before final judgment, to require the plaintiff to give security for the costs and reasonable expenses which may be directly attributable to and incurred by it in the defense of the action or may be incurred by other parties named as defendant for which the company may become legally liable, but not including attorney's fees.

(2) Fair market value shall be determined as of the date that the plaintiff institutes the action, or, in the case of an intervener as of the date that he becomes a party to the action.

(3) The amount and nature of the security shall be determined by the court, and the amount of the security may from time to time be increased or decreased by the court, upon showing that the security provided has or may become inadequate or is excessive.

(4) The company shall have recourse to the security in the amount as the court having jurisdiction shall determine upon the termination of the action if the court finds the action was brought without reasonable cause.

(1) "Company" includes any domestic company and any domestic or foreign entity that is a predecessor of a company by reason of a merger or other transaction in which the predecessor's existence ceased upon consummation of the transaction.

(2) "Manager" means an individual who is or was a manager of a company or an individual who, while a manager of a company, is or was serving at the company's request as a manager, member, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, fiduciary, or agent of another domestic or foreign company or other person or of an employee benefit plan. A manager is considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the company's request if his duties to the company also impose duties on, or otherwise involve services by him to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. "Manager" includes, unless the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal representative of a manager.

(3) "Expenses" include attorney's fees.

(4) "Liability" means the obligation incurred with respect to a proceeding to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine, including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan, or reasonable expenses.

(5) "Member," "employee," "fiduciary," and "agent" include any person who, while serving the indicated relationship to the company, is or was serving at the company's request as a manager, member, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, fiduciary, or agent of another domestic or foreign company or other person or of an employee benefit plan. A member, employee, fiduciary, or agent is considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the company's request if that person's duties to the company also impose duties on, or otherwise involve services by, that person to the plan or participants in, or beneficiaries of the plan. Unless the context requires otherwise, the terms include the estates or personal representatives of such persons.

(6) (a) "Official capacity" means:

(i) when used with respect to a manager, the office of manager in a manager-managed company;

(ii) when used with respect to a member, the position of member in a member-managed company; and

(iii) when used with respect to a person other than a manager under Subsection (6)(a)(i) or a member under Subsection (6)(a)(ii), as contemplated in Section 48-2c-1807, the office in a company held by the person, or the employment, fiduciary, or agency relationship undertaken by the person on behalf of the company.

(b) "Official capacity" does not include service for any other foreign or domestic limited liability company, other person, or employee benefit plan.

(8) "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal.

Section 184. Section 48-2c-1802 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1802. Authority to indemnify.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (4), a company may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because he is or was a manager, against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

(a) his conduct was in good faith;

(b) he reasonably believed that his conduct was in, or not opposed to, the company's best interests; and

(c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

(2) A manager's conduct with respect to any employee benefit plan for a purpose he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the interests of the participants in and beneficiaries of the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirement of Subsection (1)(b).

(3) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, determinative that the manager did not meet the standard of conduct described in this section.

(4) A company may not indemnify a manager under this section:

(a) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the company in which the manager was adjudged liable to the company; or

(b) in connection with any other proceeding charging that the manager derived an improper personal benefit, whether or not involving action in his official capacity, in which proceeding he was adjudged liable on the basis that he derived an improper personal benefit.

Section 185. Section 48-2c-1803 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1803. Mandatory indemnification of managers.

Unless limited by its articles of organization, a company shall indemnify a manager who was successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding, or in the defense of any claim, issue, or matter in the proceeding, to which he was a party because he is or was a manager of the company, against reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by him in connection with the proceeding or claim with respect to which he has been successful.

Section 186. Section 48-2c-1804 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1804. Advancement of expenses.

(1) A company may pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a manager who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if:

(a) the manager furnishes the company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the applicable standard of conduct described in Section 48-2c-1802;

(b) the manager furnishes to the company a written undertaking, executed personally or on his behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that he did not meet the standard of conduct; and

(c) a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under this part.

(2) The undertaking required by Subsection (1)(b) must be an unlimited general obligation of the manager but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

(3) Determinations and authorizations of payments under this section shall be made in the manner specified in Section 48-2c-1806.

Section 187. Section 48-2c-1805 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1805. Court-ordered indemnification.

Unless a company's articles of organization provide otherwise, a manager of the company who is or was a party to a proceeding may apply for indemnification to the court or other decision-maker conducting the proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction. On receipt of an application, the court, after giving any notice the court considers necessary, may order indemnification in the following manner:

(1) if the court determines that the manager is entitled to mandatory indemnification under Section 48-2c-1803, the court shall order indemnification, in which case the court shall also order the company to pay the manager's reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred to obtain court-ordered indemnification; and

(2) if the court determines that the manager is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not the manager met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 48-2c-1802 or was adjudged liable as described in Subsection 48-2c-1802(4), the court may order indemnification as the court determines to be proper, except that the indemnification with respect to any proceeding in which liability has been adjudged in the circumstances described in Subsection 48-2c-1802(4) is limited to reasonable expenses incurred.

Section 188. Section 48-2c-1806 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1806. Determination and authorization of indemnification.

(1) A company may not indemnify a manager under Section 48-2c-1802 unless authorized and a determination has been made in the specific case that indemnification of the manager is permissible in the circumstances because the manager has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 48-2c-1802. A company may not advance expenses to a manager under Section 48-2c-1804 unless authorized in the specific case after the written affirmation and undertaking required by Subsections 48-2c-1804(1)(a) and (b) are received and the determination required by Subsection 48-2c-1804(1)(c) has been made.

(2) The determinations required by Subsection (1) shall be made:

(a) by the managers by a majority vote and only those managers not parties to the proceeding shall be counted;

(b) by special legal counsel selected by a majority vote of the managers of the company who are not parties to the proceeding or, if none, by members holding a majority interest in the profits of the company not counting any interest held by the manager who is a party to the proceeding; or

(c) by the members holding more than 50% interest in the profits of the company not counting any interest held by the manager who is a party to the proceeding.

(3) Unless authorization is required by the operating agreement, authorization of indemnification and advance of expenses shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification or advance of expenses is permissible. However, if the determination that indemnification or advance of expenses is permissible is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and advance of expenses shall be made by those entitled under Subsection (2)(b) to select legal counsel.

Section 189. Section 48-2c-1807 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1807. Indemnification of members, employees, fiduciaries, and agents.

Unless a company's articles of organization provide otherwise:

(1) a member of a company is entitled to mandatory indemnification under Section 48-2c-1803 and is entitled to apply for court-ordered indemnification under Section 48-2c-1805 in each case to the same extent as a manager;

(2) the company may indemnify and advance expenses to a member, employee, fiduciary, or agent of the company to the same extent as to a manager; and

(3) a company may also indemnify and advance expenses to a member, employee, fiduciary, or agent who is not a manager to a greater extent, if not inconsistent with public policy, and if provided for by its articles of organization, operating agreement, general or specific action of its managers or members, or contract.

Section 190. Section 48-2c-1808 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1808. Insurance.

A company may purchase and maintain liability insurance on behalf of a person who is or was a manager, member, employee, fiduciary, or agent of the company, or who, while serving as a manager, member, employee, fiduciary, or agent of the company, is or was serving at the request of the company as a manager, member, director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, fiduciary, or agent of another foreign or domestic limited liability company or other person, or of an employee benefit plan, against liability asserted against or incurred by him in that capacity or arising from his status as a manager, member, employee, fiduciary, or agent, whether or not the company would have power to indemnify him against the same liability under Sections 48-2c-1802, 48-2c-1803, and 48-2c-1807. Insurance may be procured from any insurance company designated by the company, whether the insurance company is formed under the laws of this state or any other jurisdiction of the United States or elsewhere, including any insurance company in which the company has an equity or any other interest through stock ownership or otherwise.

Section 191. Section 48-2c-1809 is enacted to read:

48-2c-1809. Limitations on indemnification.

(1) A provision treating a company's indemnification of, or advance for expenses to, managers or members that is contained in its articles of organization or operating agreement or in a resolution of its members or in a contract, except an insurance policy, or otherwise, is valid only if and to the extent the provision is not inconsistent with this part. If the articles of organization limit indemnification or advancement of expenses, indemnification and advancement of expenses are valid only to the extent not inconsistent with the articles of organization.

(2) This part does not limit a company's power to pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a manager or member in connection with the manager's or member's appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the manager or member has not been made a named defendant or respondent in the proceeding.

Section 192. Section 48-2c-1901 is enacted to read:

Part 19. Miscellaneous

48-2c-1901. Legislative intent -- Freedom of contract.

It is the intent of the Legislature that this chapter be interpreted so as to give the maximum effect to the principle of freedom of contract and to the enforceability of operating agreements of companies.

(a) shall continue in existence with all rights and privileges applicable to limited liability companies formed under this chapter;

(3) Each foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in this state as of July 1, 2001, is subject to the provisions of this chapter, but is not required by reason of enactment of this chapter to obtain a new certificate of authority to transact business in this state.

POSTCONVICTION DNA TESTING

Sponsor: Lyle W. Hillyard

This act amends the Judicial Code to provide for postconviction DNA testing of a person, and provides for procedures, if the test is favorable, to declare the person actually innocent. The act also provides procedures if the result is unfavorable.

This act affects sections of Utah Code Annotated 1953 as follows:

ENACTS:
78-35a-301, Utah Code Annotated 1953
78-35a-302, Utah Code Annotated 1953
78-35a-303, Utah Code Annotated 1953
78-35a-304, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 78-35a-301 is enacted to read:
Part 3. Postconviction Testing of DNA

78-35a-301. Postconviction testing of DNA -- Petition -- Sufficient allegations -- Notification of victim.

(1) As used in this part, "DNA" means deoxyribonucleic acid.

(2) A person convicted of a felony offense may at any time file a petition for postconviction DNA testing in the trial court that entered the judgment of conviction against him if the person asserts his actual innocence under oath and the petition alleges:

(a) evidence has been obtained regarding the person's case which is still in existence and is in a condition that allows DNA testing to be conducted;

(b) the chain of custody is sufficient to establish that the evidence has not been altered in any material aspect;

(c) the person identifies the specific evidence to be tested and states a theory of defense, not inconsistent with theories previously asserted at trial, that the requested DNA testing would support;

(d) the evidence was not previously subjected to DNA testing, or if the evidence was tested previously, the evidence was not subjected to the testing that is now requested, and the new testing may resolve an issue not resolved by the prior testing;

(e) the evidence that is the subject of the request for testing has the potential to produce new, noncumulative evidence that will establish the person's actual innocence; and

(f) the person is aware of the consequences of filing the petition, including those specified in Sections 78-35a-302 and 78-35a-304, and that the person is waiving any statute of limitations in all jurisdictions as to any felony offense he has committed which is identified through DNA database comparison.

(3) The petition under Subsection (2) shall be in compliance with Rule 65C, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, including providing the underlying criminal case number.

(4) The court may not order DNA testing in cases in which DNA testing was available at the time of trial and the person did not request DNA testing or present DNA evidence for tactical reasons.

(5) After a petition is filed under this section, prosecutors, law enforcement officers, and crime laboratory personnel have a duty to cooperate in preserving evidence and in determining the sufficiency of the chain of custody of the evidence which may be subject to DNA testing.

(6) (a) A person who files a petition under this section shall serve notice upon the office of the prosecutor who obtained the conviction, and upon the state attorney general. The attorney general shall, within 30 days after receipt of service of a copy of the petition, or within any additional period of time the court allows, answer or otherwise respond to all proceedings initiated under this part.

(b) After the attorney general is given an opportunity to respond to a petition for postconviction DNA testing, the court shall order DNA testing if it finds by a preponderance of the evidence that all criteria of Subsection (2) have been met.

(7) (a) If the court grants the petition for testing, the DNA test shall be performed by the Utah State Crime Laboratory within the Criminal Investigations and Technical Services Division created in Section 53-10-103, unless the person establishes that the state crime laboratory has a conflict of interest or does not have the capability to perform the necessary testing.

(b) If the court orders that the testing be conducted by any laboratory other than the state crime laboratory, the court shall require that the testing be performed under reasonable conditions designed to protect the state's interests in the integrity of the evidence, and that the testing be performed according to accepted scientific standards and procedures.

(8) If the person is serving a sentence of imprisonment and is indigent, the state shall pay for the costs of the testing under this part, but if the result is not favorable to the person the court may order the person to reimburse the state for the costs of the testing, pursuant to the provisions of Subsections 78-35a-302(4) and 78-35a-304(1)(b).

(9) Any victim of the crime regarding which the person petitions for DNA testing, who has elected to receive notice under Section 77-38-3 shall be notified by the state's attorney of any hearing regarding the petition and testing, even though the hearing is a civil proceeding.

Section 2. Section 78-35a-302 is enacted to read:

78-35a-302. Effect of petition for postconviction DNA testing -- Requests for appointment of counsel -- Appeals -- Subsequent postconviction petitions.

(1) The filing of a petition for DNA testing constitutes the person's consent to provide samples of body fluids for use in the DNA testing.

(2) The data from any DNA samples or test results obtained as a result of the petition may be entered into law enforcement DNA databases.

(3) The filing of a petition for DNA testing constitutes the person's waiver of any statute of limitations in all jurisdictions as to any felony offense the person has committed which is identified through DNA database comparison.

(4) The person filing the petition for postconviction DNA testing bears the cost of the testing unless:

(a) the person is serving a sentence of imprisonment;

(b) the person is indigent; and

(c) the DNA test is favorable to the petitioner.

(5) (a) Subsections 78-35a-109(1) and (2), regarding the appointment of pro bono counsel, apply to any request for the appointment of counsel under this part.

(b) Subsection 78-35a-109(3), regarding effectiveness of counsel, applies to subsequent postconviction petitions and to appeals under this part.

Section 3. Section 78-35a-303 is enacted to read:

78-35a-303. Consequences of postconviction DNA testing when result is favorable to person -- Procedures.

(1) (a) If the result of postconviction DNA testing is favorable to the person, the person may file a motion to vacate his conviction. The court shall give the state 30 days to respond in writing, to present evidence, and to be heard in oral argument prior to issuing an order to vacate the conviction. The state may by motion request an extension of the 30 days, which the court may grant upon good cause shown.

(b) The state may stipulate to the conviction being vacated, or may request a hearing and attempt to demonstrate through evidence and argument that, despite the DNA test results, the state possesses sufficient evidence of the person's guilt so that he is unable to demonstrate by clear and convincing evidence that he is actually innocent of one or more offenses of which he was convicted, and all the lesser included offenses related to those offenses.

(2) (a) If the result of postconviction DNA testing is favorable to the person and the state opposes vacating the conviction, the court shall consider all the evidence presented at the original trial and at the hearing under Subsection (1)(b), including the new DNA test result. Evidence that would otherwise have been suppressed at criminal trial is admissible, unless the evidence is an unconstitutionally coerced statement from the person.

(c) If the court, after considering all the evidence presented at the original trial and at the hearing under Subsection (1)(b), including the new DNA test result, finds by clear and convincing evidence that the person is actually innocent of one or more offenses of which the person was convicted, but the court does not find by clear and convincing evidence that the person is actually innocent of all lesser included offenses relating to those offenses, the court shall modify the original conviction and sentence of the person as appropriate for the lesser included offense, whether or not the lesser included offense was originally submitted to the trier of fact.

(d) If the court, after considering all the evidence presented at the original trial and at the hearing under Subsection (1)(b), including the new DNA test result, does not find by clear and convincing evidence that the person is actually innocent of the offense or offenses the person is challenging, the court shall deny the person's petition regarding the offense or offenses.

(e) Any party may appeal from the trial court's final ruling on the petition under this part.

Section 4. Section 78-35a-304 is enacted to read:

(a) If benefits paid to an individual are based on wages paid by one or more employers who are liable for payments in lieu of contributions and on wages paid by one or more employers who are liable for contributions, the amount of benefits payable by each employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions shall be an amount that bears the same ratio to the total benefits paid to the individual as the total base-period wages paid to the individual by such employer bear to the total base-period wages paid to the individual by all of his base-period employers.

(b) If benefits paid to an individual are based on wages paid by two or more employers who are liable for payments in lieu of contributions, the amount of benefits payable by each such employer shall be an amount that bears the same ratio to the total benefits paid to the individual as the total base-period wages paid to the individual by such employer bear to the total base-period wages paid to the individual by all of his base-period employers.

(5) (a) Two or more Indian tribe or tribal unit employers who have become liable for payments in lieu of contributions, in accordance with the provisions of this section and Subsection 35A-4-204(2)(d), may file a joint application to the division for the establishment of a group account for the purpose of sharing the cost of benefits paid that are attributable to service in the employ of these employers. (c) Upon establishment of the account, each member of the group shall be liable for payments in lieu of contributions with respect to each calendar quarter in the amount that bears the same ratio to the total benefits paid in the quarter attributable to service performed in the employ of all members of the group as the total wages paid for service in employment by such member in the quarter bear to the total wages paid during the quarter for service performed in the employ of all members of the group.

This act provides for a petition, hearing requirements for both parties, and allows for renewal of the injunction under certain conditions. This act takes effect on July 1, 2001.

This act affects sections of Utah Code Annotated 1953 as follows:

AMENDS:

77-3a-103, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 76-5-106.5 is amended to read:

76-5-106.5. Definitions -- Stalking -- Injunction -- Hearing.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Course of conduct" means repeatedly maintaining a visual or physical proximity to a person or repeatedly conveying verbal or written threats or threats implied by conduct or a combination thereof directed at or toward a person.

(b) "Immediate family" means a spouse, parent, child, sibling, or any other person who regularly resides in the household or who regularly resided in the household within the prior six months.

(c) "Repeatedly" means on two or more occasions.

(2) A person is guilty of stalking who:

(a) intentionally or knowingly engages in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person:

(i) to fear bodily injury to himself or a member of his immediate family; or

(ii) to suffer emotional distress to himself or a member of his immediate family;

(b) has knowledge or should have knowledge that the specific person:

(i) will be placed in reasonable fear of bodily injury to himself or a member of his immediate family; or

(c) whose conduct:

(i) induces fear in the specific person of bodily injury to himself or a member of his immediate family; or

(3) A person is also guilty of stalking who intentionally or knowingly violates a stalking injunction issued pursuant to Title 77, Chapter 3a, Stalking Injunctions, or intentionally or knowingly violates a permanent criminal stalking injunction issued pursuant to this section.

(4) Stalking is a class A misdemeanor:

(a) upon the offender's first violation of Subsection (2); or

(b) if the offender violated a stalking injunction issued pursuant to Title 77, Chapter 3a, Stalking Injunctions.

(5) Stalking is a third degree felony if the offender:

(a) has been previously convicted of an offense of stalking;

(b) has been convicted in another jurisdiction of an offense that is substantially similar to the offense of stalking;

(c) has been previously convicted of any felony offense in Utah or of any crime in another jurisdiction which if committed in Utah would be a felony, in which the victim of the stalking or a member of the victim's immediate family was also a victim of the previous felony offense; or

(d) violated a permanent criminal stalking injunction issued pursuant to Subsection (7).

(6) Stalking is a felony of the second degree if the offender:

(a) used a dangerous weapon as defined in Section 76-1-601 or used other means or force likely to produce death or serious bodily injury, in the commission of the crime of stalking;

(d) has been convicted two or more times, in any combination, of offenses under Subsection (5); or

(e) has been previously convicted two or more times of felony offenses in Utah or of crimes in another jurisdiction or jurisdictions which, if committed in Utah, would be felonies, in which the victim of the stalking was also a victim of the previous felony offenses.

(7) A conviction for stalking or a plea accepted by the court and held in abeyance for a period of time shall operate as an application for a permanent criminal stalking injunction limiting the contact of the defendant and the victim.

(a) A permanent criminal stalking injunction shall be issued without a hearing unless the defendant requests a hearing at the time of the verdict, finding, or plea of guilty, guilty and mentally ill, plea of no contest, or acceptance of plea in abeyance. The court shall give the defendant notice of his right to request a hearing.

(i) If the defendant requests a hearing, it shall be held at the time of the verdict, finding, or plea of guilty, guilty and mentally ill, plea of no contest, or acceptance of plea in abeyance unless the victim requests otherwise, or for good cause.

(ii) If the verdict, finding, or plea of guilty, guilty and mentally ill, plea of no contest, or acceptance of plea in abeyance was entered in a justice court, a certified copy of the judgment and conviction or a certified copy of the court's order holding the plea in abeyance must be filed by the victim in the district court as an application and request for hearing for a permanent criminal stalking injunction.

(b) A permanent criminal stalking injunction may grant the following relief:

(i) an order restraining the defendant from entering the residence, property, school, or place of employment of the victim and requiring the defendant to stay away from the victim and members of the victim's immediate family or household and to stay away from any specified place that is named in the order and is frequented regularly by the victim; and

(ii) an order restraining the defendant from making contact with the victim, including an order forbidding the defendant from personally or through an agent initiating any communication likely to cause annoyance or alarm, including personal, written, or telephone contact with the victim, the victim's employers, employees, fellow workers, or others with whom communication would be likely to cause annoyance or alarm to the victim.

(c) A permanent criminal stalking injunction may be dissolved upon application of the victim to the court which granted the order.

(d) Notice of permanent criminal stalking injunctions issued pursuant to this section shall be sent by the court to the statewide warrants network or similar system.

(e) A permanent criminal stalking injunction issued pursuant to this section shall be effective statewide.

(f) Violation of an injunction issued pursuant to this section shall constitute an offense of stalking. Violations may be enforced in a civil action initiated by the stalking victim, a criminal action initiated by a prosecuting attorney, or both.

(g) Nothing in this section shall preclude the filing of a criminal information for stalking based on the same act which is the basis for the violation of the stalking injunction issued pursuant to Title 77, Chapter 3a, Stalking Injunctions, or permanent criminal stalking injunction.

Section 2. Section 77-3-1 is amended to read:

77-3-1. Threatened offense -- Complaint.

A complaint that a person has threatened to commit an offense against the person or property of another, except in the case of stalking, may be made before any magistrate. Petitions alleging the commission of stalking shall be handled pursuant to Title 77, Chapter 3a, Stalking Injunctions.

Section 3. Section 77-3a-101 is enacted to read:

CHAPTER 3A. STALKING INJUNCTIONS

77-3a-101. Civil stalking injunction -- Petition -- Ex parte injunction.

(1) As used in this chapter, "stalking" means the crime of stalking as defined in Section 76-5-106.5. Stalking injunctions may not be obtained against law enforcement officers, governmental investigators, or licensed private investigators, acting in their official capacity.

(2) Any person who believes that he or she is the victim of stalking may file a verified written petition for a civil stalking injunction against the alleged stalker with the district court in the district in which the petitioner or respondent resides or in which any of the events occurred. A minor with his or her parent or guardian may file a petition on his or her own behalf, or a parent, guardian, or custodian may file a petition on the minor's behalf.

(3) The Administrative Office of the Courts shall develop and adopt uniform forms for petitions, ex parte civil stalking injunctions, civil stalking injunctions, service and any other necessary forms in accordance with the provisions of this chapter on or before July 1, 2001. The office shall provide the forms to the clerk of each district court.

(a) All petitions, injunctions, ex parte injunctions, and any other necessary forms shall be issued in the form adopted by the Administrative Office of the Courts.

(b) The offices of the court clerk shall provide the forms to persons seeking to proceed under this chapter.

(4) The petition for a civil stalking injunction shall include:

(a) the name of the petitioner; however, the petitioner's address shall be disclosed to the court for purposes of service, but, on request of the petitioner, the address may not be listed on the petition, and shall be protected and maintained in a separate document or automated database, not subject to release, disclosure, or any form of public access except as ordered by the court for good cause shown;

(b) the name and address, if known, of the respondent;

(c) specific events and dates of the actions constituting the alleged stalking;

(d) if there is a prior court order concerning the same conduct, the name of the court in which the order was rendered; and

(e) corroborating evidence of stalking, which may be in the form of a police report, affidavit, record, statement, item, letter, or any other evidence which tends to prove the allegation of stalking.

(5) If the court determines that there is reason to believe that an offense of stalking has occurred, an ex parte civil stalking injunction may be issued by the court that includes any of the following:

(a) respondent may be enjoined from committing stalking;

(b) respondent may be restrained from coming near the residence, place of employment, or school of the other party or specifically designated locations or persons;

(c) respondent may be restrained from contacting, directly or indirectly, the other party, including personal, written or telephone contact with the other party, the other party's employers, employees, fellow workers or others with whom communication would be likely to cause annoyance or alarm to the other party; or

(d) any other relief necessary or convenient for the protection of the petitioner and other specifically designated persons under the circumstances.

(6) Within ten days of service of the ex parte civil stalking injunction, the respondent is entitled to request, in writing, an evidentiary hearing on the civil stalking injunction.

(a) A hearing requested by the respondent shall be held within ten days from the date the request is filed with the court unless the court finds compelling reasons to continue the hearing. The hearing shall then be held at the earliest possible time. The burden is on the petitioner to show by a preponderance of the evidence that stalking of the petitioner by the respondent has occurred.

(b) An ex parte civil stalking injunction issued under this section shall state on its face:

(i) that the respondent is entitled to a hearing, upon written request within ten days of the service of the order;

(ii) the name and address of the district court where the request may be filed;

(iii) that if the respondent fails to request a hearing within ten days of service, the ex parte civil stalking injunction is automatically modified to a civil stalking injunction without further notice to the respondent and that the civil stalking injunction expires three years after service of the ex parte civil stalking injunction; and

(iv) that if the respondent requests, in writing, a hearing after the ten-day period after service, the court shall set a hearing within a reasonable time from the date requested.

(7) At the hearing, the court may modify, revoke, or continue the injunction. The burden is on the petitioner to show by a preponderance of the evidence that stalking of the petitioner by the respondent has occurred.

(8) The ex parte civil stalking injunction and civil stalking injunction shall include the following statement: "Attention. This is an official court order. If you disobey this order, the court may find you in contempt. You may also be arrested and prosecuted for the crime of stalking and any other crime you may have committed in disobeying this order."

(9) The ex parte civil stalking injunction shall be served on the respondent within 90 days from the date it is signed. An ex parte civil stalking injunction is effective upon service. If no hearing is requested in writing by the respondent within ten days of service of the ex parte civil stalking injunction, the ex parte civil stalking injunction automatically becomes a civil stalking injunction without further notice to the respondent and expires three years from the date of service of the ex parte civil stalking injunction.

(10) If the respondent requests a hearing after the ten-day period after service, the court shall set a hearing within a reasonable time from the date requested. At the hearing, the burden is on the respondent to show good cause why the civil stalking injunction should be dissolved or modified.

(11) Within 24 hours after the affidavit or acceptance of service has been returned, excluding weekends and holidays, the clerk of the court from which the ex parte civil stalking injunction was issued shall enter a copy of the ex parte civil stalking injunction and proof of service or acceptance of service in the statewide network for warrants or a similar system.

(a) The effectiveness of an ex parte civil stalking injunction or civil stalking injunction shall not depend upon its entry in the statewide system and, for enforcement purposes, a certified copy of an ex parte civil stalking injunction or civil stalking injunction is presumed to be a valid existing order of the court for a period of three years from the date of service of the ex parte civil stalking injunction on the respondent.

(b) Any changes or modifications of the ex parte civil stalking injunction are effective upon service on the respondent. The original ex parte civil stalking injunction continues in effect until service of the changed or modified civil stalking injunction on the respondent.

(12) Within 24 hours after the affidavit or acceptance of service has been returned, excluding weekends and holidays, the clerk of the court shall enter a copy of the changed or modified civil stalking injunction and proof of service or acceptance of service in the statewide network for warrants or a similar system.

(13) The ex parte civil stalking injunction or civil stalking injunction may be dissolved at any time upon application of the petitioner to the court which granted it.

(14) The court clerk shall provide, without charge, to the petitioner one certified copy of the injunction issued by the court and one certified copy of the proof of service of the injunction on the respondent. Charges may be imposed by the clerk's office for any additional copies, certified or not certified in accordance with Rule 4-202.08 of the Code of Judicial Administration.

(15) The remedies provided in this chapter for enforcement of the orders of the court are in addition to any other civil and criminal remedies available. The district court shall hear and decide all matters arising pursuant to this section.

(16) After a hearing with notice to the affected party, the court may enter an order requiring any party to pay the costs of the action, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(17) This chapter does not apply to protective orders or ex parte protective orders issued pursuant to Title 30, Chapter 6, Cohabitant Abuse Act, or to preliminary injunctions issued pursuant to an action for dissolution of marriage or legal separation.

Section 4. Section 77-3a-102 is enacted to read:

77-3a-102. Fees -- Service of process.

(1) Ex parte civil stalking injunctions and civil stalking injunctions shall be served by a sheriff or constable.

(2) All service shall be in accordance with applicable law.

(3) Fees may not be imposed by a court clerk, constable, or law enforcement agency for:

(a) filing a petition under this chapter;

(b) obtaining an ex parte civil stalking injunction; or

(c) service of a civil stalking injunction, ex parte or otherwise.

Section 5. Section 77-3a-103 is enacted to read:

77-3a-103. Enforcement.

(1) A peace or law enforcement officer shall, without a warrant, arrest a person if the peace or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the person has violated an ex parte civil stalking injunction or civil stalking injunction issued pursuant to this chapter or has violated a permanent criminal stalking injunction issued pursuant to Section 76-5-106.5, whether or not the violation occurred in the presence of the officer.

(2) A violation of an ex parte civil stalking injunction or of a civil stalking injunction issued pursuant to this chapter constitutes the criminal offense of stalking as defined in Section 76-5-106.5 and is also a violation of the civil stalking injunction. Violations may be enforced by a civil action initiated by the petitioner, a criminal action initiated by a prosecuting attorney, or both.

Section 6. Effective date.

This act takes effect on July 1, 2001.

Sponsor: Judy Ann Buffmire

This act amends the Division of Occupational and Professional Licensing Act to place mental health professionals who are undergoing clinical training under the supervision of the division. The act authorizes the division to issue certifications of mental health interns and residents. The act establishes requirements for certification as a marriage and family therapy intern, a professional counselor intern and a psychology resident. The act limits a certified resident or intern practice to supervised employed practice, and limits the certification to the period of time necessary to complete training. The act clarifies the elements of unprofessional conduct by specifically including practice by a certified intern or resident without supervision or employment. The act amends the definition of unlawful conduct to include false representations of certification as a mental health professional intern or resident. This act makes technical amendments.

(b) If a person convicted of violating Section 41-6-44 was under the age of 21 when the violation occurred, the court shall order the installation of the ignition interlock system as a condition of probation.

(c) (i) If a person is convicted of a violation of Section 41-6-44 within [~~six~~] ten years of a prior conviction of that section, the court shall order the installation of the ignition interlock system, at the person's expense, for all motor vehicles registered to that person and all motor vehicles operated by that person for three years from the date of conviction.

(ii) The division shall post the ignition interlock restriction on the electronic record available to law enforcement.

(3) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(c), if the court imposes the use of an ignition interlock system as a condition of probation, the court shall:

(c) For failure to comply under Subsection (4)(a) or upon receiving the notification under Subsection (4)(b), the court shall order the Driver License Division to suspend the probationer's driving privileges for the remaining period during which the compliance was imposed.

(d) Cause for failure to comply means any reason the court finds sufficiently justifiable to excuse the probationer's failure to comply with the court's order.

(5) (a) If use of an ignition interlock system is required under this section, the division may not issue, reinstate, or renew the driver license of that person unless that requirement is coded on the person's driver license.

(b) (i) If the division receives a notice that a person with a valid driver license that does not require a driver license withdrawal is required to use an ignition interlock system, the division shall notify the person that he has ten calendar days to apply to the division for an ignition interlock system requirement coded on the license.

(ii) The division shall suspend the driver license of the person after the ten-day period until the person applies to the division for an ignition interlock system requirement coded on the license.

(ii) The report shall be issued within 14 days following each monitoring.

(7) (a) If an ignition interlock system is ordered installed, the probationer shall pay the reasonable costs of leasing or buying and installing and maintaining the system.

(i) the probationer files an affidavit of impecuniosity; and

(ii) the court enters a finding that the probationer is impecunious.

(c) In lieu of waiver of the entire amount of the cost, the court may direct the probationer to make partial or installment payments of costs when appropriate.

(d) Subject to appropriation, the department shall lease or purchase the ignition interlock system and reimburse each installer maintaining the system provided to probationers for whom payment of costs has been waived or deferred on the grounds of indigency.

(8) (a) An additional fee of $100 shall be paid to the court by each probationer ordered to purchase, install, use, and maintain an ignition interlock system under this section.

(b) The fee shall be deposited with the department as a dedicated credit for the support costs incurred for indigent individuals under Subsection (7)(d).

(c) Failure to pay the fees required under this section shall, unless excused, constitute sufficient basis for a finding by the court at a hearing that the probationer has failed to comply with the terms of probation.

(9) (a) If a probationer is required in the course and scope of employment to operate a motor vehicle owned by the probationer's employer, the probationer may operate that motor vehicle in the course and scope of employment without installation of an ignition interlock system only if the employer has been notified that the employee is restricted and the employee has proof of the notification in his possession while operating the employer's motor vehicle.

(b) (i) To the extent that an employer-owned motor vehicle is made available to a probationer subject to this section for personal use, no exemption under this section shall apply.

(c) A motor vehicle owned by a business entity that is all or partly owned or controlled by a probationer subject to this section is not a motor vehicle owned by the employer and does not qualify for an exemption under this Subsection (9).

(10) Upon conviction for violation of this section, the court shall notify the Driver License Division to immediately suspend the probationer's license to operate a motor vehicle for the remainder of the period of probation.

(11) (a) It is a class B misdemeanor for a person to:

(iii) rent, lease, or borrow a motor vehicle without an ignition interlock system if a driving restriction is imposed under this section;

(b) This Subsection (11) does not apply if the starting of a motor vehicle, or the request to start a motor vehicle, equipped with an ignition interlock system is done for the purpose of safety or mechanical repair of the system or the motor vehicle and the person subject to the court order does not drive the motor vehicle.

(12) (a) In accordance with Title 63, Chapter 46a, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commissioner shall make rules setting standards for the certification of ignition interlock systems.

(iii) require a deep lung breath sample as a measure of breath alcohol concentration;

(iv) prevent the motor vehicle from being started if the driver's breath alcohol concentration exceeds an ordered level;

(v) work accurately and reliably in an unsupervised environment;

(vi) resist tampering and give evidence if tampering is attempted;

(vii) operate reliably over the range of motor vehicle environments; and

(viii) be manufactured by a party who will provide liability insurance.

(c) The commissioner may adopt in whole or in part, the guidelines, rules, studies, or independent laboratory tests relied upon in certification of ignition interlock systems by other states.

(d) A list of certified systems shall be published by the commissioner and the cost of certification shall be borne by the manufacturers or dealers of ignition interlock systems seeking to sell, offer for sale, or lease the systems.

(e) In accordance with Section 63-38-3.2, the commissioner may establish an annual dollar assessment against the manufacturers of ignition interlock systems distributed in the state for the costs incurred in certifying. The assessment shall be apportioned among the manufacturers on a fair and reasonable basis.

(13) There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against, the state or its employees in connection with the installation, use, operation, maintenance, or supervision of an interlock ignition system as required under this section.
