(7) A forensic evaluator shall provide an initial report to the court and the prosecuting and defense attorneys within 30 days of the receipt of the court’s order. The report shall inform the court of the examiner’s opinion concerning the competency of the defendant to stand trial; or, in the alternative, the examiner may inform the court in writing that additional time is needed to complete the report. If the examiner informs the court that additional time is needed, the examiner shall have up to an additional 30 days to provide the report to the court and counsel. The examiner shall provide the report within 60 days from the receipt of the court’s order unless, for good cause shown, the court authorizes an additional period of time to complete the examination and provide the report.

(b) If the forensic evaluator is unable to complete the report in the time specified in Subsection (7)(a), the forensic evaluator shall give written notice to the court.

(ii) A forensic evaluator who provides the notice described in Subsection (7)(b)(i) shall receive a 15-day extension, giving the forensic evaluator a total of 45 days after the day on which the forensic evaluator received the court’s order to conduct a competency evaluation and file a report.

(iii) The court may further extend the deadline for completion of the evaluation and report if the court determines that there is good cause for the extension.

(9) (a) Any statement made by the defendant in the course of any competency examination, whether the examination is with or without the consent of the defendant, any testimony by a forensic evaluator based upon the statement, and any other fruits of the statement may not be admitted in evidence against the defendant in any criminal proceeding except on an issue respecting mental condition on which the defendant has introduced evidence. The evidence may be admitted, however, where relevant to a determination of the defendant’s competency.

(c) The court may call any [examiner] forensic evaluator to testify at the hearing who is not called by the parties. If the court calls an examiner a forensic evaluator, counsel for the parties may cross-examine the examiner.

(d) If the forensic evaluators are in conflict as to the competency of the defendant, all forensic evaluators should be called to testify at the hearing if reasonably available. A conflict in the opinions of the forensic evaluators does not require the appointment of an additional forensic evaluator unless the court determines the appointment to be necessary.

[(10)] (11) (a) A person defendant shall be presumed competent to stand trial unless the court, by a preponderance of the evidence, finds the defendant incompetent to proceed. The burden of proof is upon the proponent of incompetency at the hearing.

(b) An adjudication of [incompetency] incompetent to proceed does not operate as an adjudication of incompetency to give informed consent for medical treatment or for any other purpose, unless specifically set forth in the court order.

[(12)] (12) In determining the defendant’s competency to stand trial, the court shall consider the totality of the circumstances, which may include the testimony of lay witnesses, in addition to the [expert testimony, studies, and reports provided under this section] forensic evaluator’s report, testimony, and studies.

(4) [Upon receipt of the full report, the court shall hold a hearing to determine the defendant's current status.] Within 15 days after the day on which the court receives the forensic evaluator's report of the progress toward competency evaluation, the court shall hold a hearing to review the defendant's competency. At the hearing, the burden of proving that the defendant is competent to stand trial is on the proponent of competency. Following the hearing, the court shall determine by a preponderance of evidence whether the defendant is:

(a) competent to stand trial;

(b) incompetent to [stand trial] proceed, with a substantial probability that the defendant may become competent in the foreseeable future; or

(c) incompetent to [stand trial] proceed, without a substantial probability that the defendant may become competent in the foreseeable future.

(5) (a) If the court [enters a finding pursuant to Subsection (4)(a)] determines that the defendant is competent to stand trial, the court shall:

(i) proceed with the trial or other procedures as may be necessary to adjudicate the charges; and

(ii) order that the defendant be returned to the placement and status that the defendant was in at the time when the petition for the adjudication of competency was filed, unless the court determines that a different placement is more appropriate.

(c) [If the court enters a finding pursuant to Subsection (4)(c)] determines that the defendant is incompetent to proceed and that there is not a substantial probability that the defendant may become competent in the foreseeable future, the court shall order the defendant released from [the custody of the director] commitment to the department, unless the prosecutor informs the court that commitment proceedings pursuant to Title 62A, Chapter 5, Services for People with Disabilities, or Title 62A, Chapter 15, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Act, will be initiated. These commitment proceedings must be initiated within seven days [after the court’s order entering the finding in Subsection (4)(c), unless the court enlarges the time for good cause shown. The defendant may be ordered to remain in the custody of the director until commitment proceedings have been concluded,] after the day on which the court makes the determination described in Subsection (4)(c), unless the court finds that there is good cause to delay the initiation of the civil commitment proceedings. The court may order the defendant to remain in the commitment of the department until the civil commitment proceedings conclude. If the defendant is civilly committed, [the court, which entered the order pursuant to Subsection (4)(c), shall be notified by the director] the department shall notify the court that adjudicated the defendant incompetent to proceed at least 10 days prior to before any release of the committed [person] individual.

(6) If the defendant is recommitted to the department pursuant to Subsection (5)(b), the court shall hold a hearing one year following the recommittal.

(7) At the hearing held pursuant to Subsection (6), except for defendants charged with the crimes listed in Subsection (8), a defendant who has not been restored to competency shall be ordered released or temporarily detained pending civil commitment proceedings under the same terms as provided in Subsection (5)(c).

(8) If a court, under Subsection (5)(b), extends a defendant’s commitment, the court shall schedule a competency review hearing for the earlier of:

(a) the department’s best estimate of when the defendant may be restored to competency; or

(b) three months after the day on which the court determined under Subsection (5)(b) to extend the defendant’s commitment.

(9) Except for defendants charged with aggravated murder or murder, a defendant who has not been restored to competency at the time of the hearing held pursuant to Subsection (6), the court may [order the defendant recommitted] extend the commitment for a period not to exceed 18 months for the purpose of [treatment to restore the defendant to competency] restoration treatment, with a mandatory review hearing at the end of the 18-month 9-month period.

(10) If at the 9-month review hearing described in Subsection (8), the court determines that the defendant is not competent to proceed, the court shall:

(a) order the defendant, except for a defendant charged with aggravated murder or murder, to be:

(i) released; or
(ii) temporarily detained pending civil commitment proceedings under the same terms as provided in Subsection (5)(c); and

(b) terminate the defendant’s commitment to the department for restoration treatment.

(10) If the defendant has been charged with aggravated murder or murder and the court determines that the defendant is making reasonable progress towards restoration of competency at the time of the mandatory review hearing held pursuant to 9-month review hearing described in Subsection (8), the court may order the defendant recommitted extend the commitment for a period not to exceed [36] 24 months for the purpose of treatment to restore competency restoration treatment.

(11) If the defendant is recommitted to the court extends the defendant’s commitment term under Subsection (10), the court shall hold a hearing no later than at 18-month intervals following the [recommitment] extension for the purpose of determining the defendant’s competency status.

[12] A defendant who has not been restored to competency at the expiration of the additional 36-month commitment period ordered pursuant to Subsection (10) shall be ordered released or temporarily detained pending civil commitment proceedings under the same terms as provided in Subsection (5)(c).

(12) If, at the end of the 24-month commitment period described in Subsection (10), the court determines that the defendant is not competent to proceed, the court shall:

(a) order the defendant to be:

(i) released; or

(ii) temporarily detained pending civil commitment proceedings under the same terms as provided in Subsection (5)(c); and

(b) terminate the defendant’s commitment to the department for restoration treatment.

[13] (a) In no event may the maximum period of detention under this section exceed the maximum period of incarceration which the defendant could receive if the defendant were convicted of the charged offense.

(b) This Subsection (13) does not preclude pursuing involuntary civil commitment nor does it place any time limit on civil commitments.

[14] Neither release from a pretrial incompetency commitment under the provisions of this section nor civil commitment requires dismissal of criminal charges. The court may retain jurisdiction over the criminal case and may order periodic reviews to assess the defendant’s competency to stand trial.

[15] A defendant who is civilly committed pursuant to Title 62A, Chapter 5, Services for People with Disabilities, or Title 62A, Chapter 15, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Act, may still be adjudicated competent to stand trial under this chapter.

(16) (a) The remedy for a violation of the time periods specified in this section, other than those specified in Subsection (5)(c), (7), (9), or (12), or (13) is a motion to compel the hearing, or mandamus, but not release from detention or dismissal of the criminal charges.

(b) The remedy for a violation of the time periods specified in Subsection (5)(c), (7), (9), or (12), or (13) is dismissal of the criminal charges.

(17) (a) At any time that the defendant becomes competent to stand trial, the clinical director of the hospital or other facility or the executive director of the Department of Human Services, the department, or the department’s designee shall certify that fact to the court.

(b) The court shall conduct a competency review hearing:

(i) within 15 working days of the receipt of the clinical director’s or executive director’s report, unless the court enlarges the time for good cause,

(ii) within 30 working days after the day on which the court receives the certification described in Subsection (17)(a); or

(18) The court may order a hearing or rehearing at any time on its own motion or upon recommendations of the clinical director of the hospital or other facility or the executive director of the Department of Human Services department.

(19) Notice of a hearing on competency to stand trial shall be given to the prosecuting attorney. If the hearing is held in the county where the defendant is confined, notice shall also be given to the prosecuting attorney for that county.

Section 10. Section 77-15-6.5 is amended to read:

77-15-6.5. Petition for involuntary medication of incompetent defendant.

(a) As used in this section:

(1) “Executive director” means the executive director of the Department of Human Services or the executive director’s designee.

(2) (a) At any time after a defendant has been found incompetent to proceed and has been committed to the [Department of Human Services] department under Section 77-15-6 for [treatment to restore competency]; the executive director. If the department determines that the defendant is not responding to restoration treatment and is unlikely to be restored to competency without the involuntary administration of antipsychotic medication.

(b) The [executive director] department shall provide the notification under Subsection (2)(a) only if there is no basis for involuntarily medicating the defendant for reasons other than to restore the defendant’s competency.

(3) In the notice under Subsection (2)(a), the [executive director] department shall state whether [the executive director believes]:

(a) medication is necessary to render the defendant competent;
(b) medication is substantially likely to render the defendant competent;
(c) medication is substantially unlikely to produce side effects which would significantly interfere with the defendant’s ability to assist in [his] the defendant’s defense;
(d) no less intrusive means are available, and whether any of those means have been attempted to render the defendant competent; and

(e) medication is medically appropriate and is in the defendant’s best medical interest in light of [his] the defendant’s medical condition.

(4) (a) [Upon receipt of the notice under Subsection (2)(a), the] The court shall conduct a hearing within [30 days, unless the court extends the time for good cause, to determine whether the court should convene a hearing] 15 days, or, for good cause, within 30 days after the day on which the court receives the notice described in Subsection (2)(a), regarding the involuntary medication of the defendant.

(b) The prosecuting attorney shall represent the state at any hearing under this section.

(c) The court shall consider whether the following factors apply in determining whether the defendant should be involuntarily medicated:

(i) important state interests are at stake in restoring the defendant’s competency;
(ii) involuntary medication will significantly further the important state interests, in that the medication proposed:
   (A) is substantially likely to render the defendant competent to stand trial; and
   (B) is substantially unlikely to produce side effects which would significantly interfere with the defendant’s ability to assist [the defense counsel in conducting his] in the defendant’s defense;

(iii) involuntary medication is necessary to further important state interests, because any [alternate] less intrusive treatments are unlikely to achieve substantially the same results; and

(iv) the administration of the proposed medication is medically appropriate, as it is in the defendant’s best medical interest in light of [his] the defendant’s medical condition.

(5) In determining whether the proposed treatment is medically appropriate and is in the defendant’s best medical interest, the potential penalty the defendant may be subject to, if the defendant is convicted of any charged offense, is not a relevant consideration.

(6) (a) If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the involuntary administration of antipsychotic medication is appropriate, it shall make findings addressing each of the factors in Subsection (4)(c) and shall issue an order authorizing the [Department of Human Services] department to involuntarily administer antipsychotic medication to the defendant in order to restore [his] the defendant’s competency, subject to the periodic reviews and other procedures provided in Section 77-15-6.

(b) When issuing an order under Subsection (6)(a), the court shall consider ordering less intrusive means for administering the drugs, such as a court order to the defendant enforceable by the contempt power, before ordering more intrusive methods of involuntary medication.

(7) The provisions in Section 77-15-6 establishing time limitations for treatment of incompetent defendants before they must be either released or civilly committed are tolled from the time the [executive director] department gives notice to the court and the parties under Subsection (2) until:

(a) the court has issued a final order for the involuntary medication of the defendant, and the defendant has been medicated under that order; or
(b) the court has issued a final order that the defendant will not be involuntarily medicated.

(8) This section applies only when [the prosecution seeks] an order of involuntary medication is sought solely for the purpose of rendering a defendant competent to [proceed stand trial].

Section 11. Section 77-15-7 is amended to read:

(1) The statute of limitations is tolled during any period in which the defendant is adjudicated incompetent to proceed.

(2) Any period of time during which the defendant has been adjudicated incompetent to proceed and any period during which [he] the defendant is being evaluated for competency may not be computed in determining the defendant’s speedy trial rights.
Section 12. Section 77-15-9 is amended to read:

(1) In determining the competence of a defendant to proceed, expenses of examination, observation, or treatment, excluding travel to and from any mental health facility, shall be charged to the Department of Human Services department when the offense is a state offense. Travel expenses incurred by the defendant shall be charged to the county where prosecution is commenced. Examination of a defendant on local ordinance violations shall be charged by the department to the municipality or county commencing the prosecution.

(2) When examination is initiated by the court or on motion of the prosecutor, expenses of commitment and treatment of the defendant, if the defendant is determined to be incompetent to proceed, shall also be charged to the department.

(3) Expenses of examination, treatment, or confinement in a mental health facility for any individual who has been convicted of a crime and placed in a state correctional facility shall be charged to the Department of Corrections.

(4) If the defendant, after examination, is found to be competent by the court, if, after evaluation, the court determines that a defendant is competent to stand trial, all subsequent costs are charged to the county commencing prosecution. If the defendant requested the examination and is found to be competent to stand trial by the court, the department may recover the expenses of the examination from the defendant.

(b) The period for corrective action does not begin to run until entry of a final order by the commission.

(c) If the employer fails to notify the Division of Adjudication, in writing, within 30 days from the receipt of notification issued by the division, that the employer intends to contest the notification or proposed assessment, the notification and assessment, as proposed, is final and not subject to review by any court or agency.

(3) (a) If an employer notifies the Division of Adjudication that the employer intends to contest a citation issued under Subsection 34A-6-302(1), or notification issued under Subsection (1) or (2), or if, within 30 days of the issuance of a citation under Subsection 34A-6-302(1), any employee or representative of employees files a notice with the division alleging that the period of time fixed in the citation for the abatement of the violation is unreasonable, the division shall advise the commissioner of the notification, and the commissioner shall provide an opportunity for a hearing.

(b) Upon a showing by an employer of a good faith effort to comply with the abatement requirements of a citation, and that the abatement has not been completed because of factors beyond the employer's reasonable control, the division, after an opportunity for discussion and consideration, shall issue an order affirming or modifying the abatement requirements in any citation.

78B-2-308. Legislative findings -- Civil actions for sexual abuse of a child -- Window for revival of time barred claims.

(1) The Legislature finds that:

(a) child sexual abuse is a crime that hurts the most vulnerable in our society and destroys lives;

(b) research over the last 30 years has shown that it takes decades for children and adults to pull their lives back together and find the strength to face what happened to them;

(c) often the abuse is compounded by the fact that the perpetrator is a member of the victim's family and when such abuse comes out, the victim is further stymied by the family's wish to avoid public embarrassment;

(d) even when the abuse is not committed by a family member, the perpetrator is rarely a stranger and, if in a position of authority, often brings pressure to bear on the victim to ensure silence;

(e) in 1992, when the Legislature enacted the statute of limitations requiring victims to sue within four years of majority, society did not understand the long-lasting effects of abuse on the victim and that it takes decades for the healing necessary for a victim to seek redress;

(f) the Legislature, as the policy-maker for the state, may take into consideration advances in medical science and understanding in revisiting policies and laws shown to be harmful to the citizens of this state rather than beneficial; and

(g) the Legislature has the authority to change old laws in the face of new information, and set new policies within the limits of due process, fairness, and justice.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) “Child” means an individual under 18 years of age.

(b) “Discovery” means when a victim knows or reasonably should know that the injury or illness was caused by the intentional or negligent sexual abuse.

(d) “Molestation” means that an individual, with the intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any individual, touches the anus, buttocks, pubic area, or genitalia of any child, or the breast of a female child, or takes indecent liberties with a child as defined in Section 76-5-416.

(e) “Negligently” means a failure to act to prevent the child sexual abuse from further occurring or to report the child sexual abuse to law enforcement when the adult who could act knows or reasonably should know of the child sexual abuse and is the victim’s parent, stepparent, adoptive parent, foster parent, legal guardian, ancestor, descendant, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, first cousin, nephew, niece, grandparent, stepgrandparent, or any individual cohabiting in the child’s home.

(f) “Perpetrator” means an individual who has committed an act of sexual abuse.

(g) “Sexual abuse” means acts or attempted acts of sexual intercourse, sodomy, or molestation by an adult directed towards a child.

(h) “Victim” means an individual who was intentionally or negligently sexually abused. It does not include individuals whose claims are derived through another individual who was sexually abused.

(3) (a) A victim may file a civil action against a perpetrator for intentional or negligent sexual abuse suffered as a child at any time.

(b) A victim may file a civil action against a non-perpetrator for intentional or negligent sexual abuse suffered as a child:

(i) within four years after the individual attains the age of 18 years; or

(ii) if a victim discovers sexual abuse only after attaining the age of 18 years, that individual may bring a civil action for such sexual abuse within four years after discovery of the sexual abuse, whichever period expires later.

(4) The victim need not establish which act in a series of continuing sexual abuse incidents caused the injury complained of, but may compute the date of discovery from the date of discovery of the last act by the same perpetrator which is part of a common scheme or plan of sexual abuse.

(5) The knowledge of a custodial parent or guardian may not be imputed to an individual under the age of 18 years.

(6) A civil action may be brought only against a living individual who:

(a) intentionally perpetrated the sexual abuse;

(b) would be criminally responsible for the sexual abuse in accordance with Section 76-2-202; or

(c) negligently permitted the sexual abuse to occur.

(7) A civil action against an individual described in Subsection (6)(a) or (b) for sexual abuse that was time barred as of July 1, 2016, may be brought within 35 years of the victim’s 18th birthday, or within three years of the effective date of this Subsection (7), whichever is longer.

(8) A civil action may not be brought as provided in Subsection (7) for:

(a) any claim that has been litigated to finality on the merits in a court of competent jurisdiction prior to July 1, 2016, however termination of a prior civil action on the basis of the expiration of the statute of limitations does not constitute a claim that has been litigated to finality on the merits; and

(b) any claim where a written settlement agreement was entered into between a victim and a defendant or perpetrator, unless the settlement agreement was the result of fraud, duress, or unconscionability. There is a rebuttable presumption that a settlement agreement signed by the victim when the victim was not represented by an attorney admitted to practice law in this state at the time of the settlement was the result of fraud, duress, or unconscionability.

(ii) A local entity's failure to certify an amount in accordance with Subsection (1)(a)(i) or a county treasurer's failure to include the certified amount on the property tax notice is not a defense to and does not delay, prohibit, or diminish a local entity's lien rights or authority to pursue any enforcement remedy, other than a delay in the local entity's ability to collect the delinquent energy assessment as described in Subsection (1)(c)(i)(B).

(d) Nothing in Subsection (1)(a)(i) or in Title 11, Chapter 58, Political Subdivision Lien Authority, prohibits or diminishes a local entity's authority to pursue any remedy in Subsection (1)(a)(ii).

(2) If the local entity has assigned the local entity's rights to a third-party lender under Section 11-42a-302, the local entity shall provide written instructions to the third-party lender as to which method of enforcement the third-party lender shall pursue.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, each tax sale under Subsection (1)(a)(ii)(B) is governed by Title 59, Chapter 2, Part 13, Collection of Taxes, to the same extent as if the sale were for the sale of property for delinquent general property taxes.

(4) (a) In a foreclosure under Subsection (1)(a)(ii)(C):

(i) the local entity may bid at the sale;

(ii) if no one bids at the sale and pays the local entity the amount due on the assessment, plus interest and costs, the property is considered sold to the local entity for those amounts; and

(iii) the local entity's chief financial officer may substitute and appoint one or more successor trustees, as provided in Section 57-1-22.

(b) (i) The local entity shall disclose the designation of a trustee under Subsection (4)(a)(ii) in the notice of default that the trustee gives to commence the foreclosure.

(ii) The local entity is not required to disclose the designation of a trustee under Subsection (4)(a)(ii) in an instrument separate from the notice described in Subsection (4)(b)(i).

(5) (a) The redemption of property that is the subject of a tax sale under Subsection (1)(b) is governed by Title 59, Chapter 2, Part 13, Collection of Taxes.

(b) The redemption of property that is the subject of a foreclosure proceeding under Subsection (1)(a)(ii)(C) is governed by Title 57, Chapter 1, Conveyances.

(6) The remedies described in this part for the collection of an assessment and the enforcement of an energy assessment lien are cumulative, and the use of one or more of those remedies does not deprive the local entity of any other available remedy, means of collecting the assessment, or means of enforcing the energy assessment lien.

This chapter is known as “Political Subdivision Lien Authority.”

allows the treasurer to place the charge on the property tax notice described in Section 59-2-1317.

(4) “Political subdivision” means:

(a) a service that the political subdivision renders; or

(b) a product, an item, or goods that the political subdivision delivers.

(2) A political subdivision lien other than a lien described in Subsection (3):

(a) (i) is not equivalent to and does not have the same priority as property tax; and

(ii) is not subject to the same collection and tax sale procedures as a property tax;

(b) is effective as of the date on which the lienholder records the lien in the office of the recorder of the county in which the property is located;

(c) is subordinate in priority to all encumbrances on the property existing on the date on which the municipality records the lien; and

(d) is invalid and does not attach to the property if:

(i) the lienholder does not record the lien; or

(ii) a subsequent bona fide purchaser purchases the liened property for value before the lienholder records the lien.

(3) (a) A political subdivision lien that is included on the property tax notice in accordance with Section 59-2-1317 or another express statutory provision:

(B) statute does not require the lienholder to record the lien or a resolution, notice, ordinance, or order; and

(ii) except as provided in Subsection (3)(b):

(A) attaches to the property; and

(B) is valid against a subsequent bona fide purchaser of the property.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a)(ii), a nonrecurring tax notice charge does not attach to the property and is invalid against a subsequent bona fide purchaser if the recording of a document conveying title to the subsequent bona fide purchaser occurs before the earlier of:

(i) the recording of the lien or a notice of lien in the office of the recorder of the county in which the liened property is located; or

(ii) the mailing of the property tax notice that includes the nonrecurring tax notice charge.

(4) If the holder of a political subdivision lien records the lien or a notice of lien, upon payment of the amount that constitutes the lien:

(a) the lien is released from the property; and

(b) the lienholder shall record a release of the lien or the notice of lien in the same recorder’s office in which the lienholder recorded the lien or the notice of the lien.

(5) Unless otherwise expressly stated in statute, a partial payment of an amount constituting a political subdivision lien, including all costs, charges, interest, and amounts accrued since the unpaid amount was certified to the county treasurer, is not a release of any assessment to be paid in accordance with Title 11, Chapter 42, Assessment Area Act, or Title 11, Chapter 42a, Commercial Property Assessed Clean Energy Act.

(6) Nothing in this section limits a political subdivision’s lien authority, lien rights, or remedies otherwise provided in statute, a contract, a judgment, or another property interest.

(3) (a) If a local district certifies [past due fees under] an unpaid amount in accordance with Subsection (1)(a), the county treasurer shall include the unpaid amount on a property tax notice issued in accordance with Section 59-2-1317 [an unpaid fee, administrative cost, or interest described in Subsection (1)(a)].

(4) A lien under Subsection (1) is not valid if the local district makes certification under Subsection (1)(b) or (c) after the filing for record of a document conveying title of the customer’s property to a new owner.

(5) Nothing in this section may be construed to:

(a) waive or release the customer’s obligation to pay fees that the district has imposed;

(b) preclude the certification of a lien under Subsection (1) with respect to past due fees for commodities, services, or facilities provided after the date that title to the property is transferred to a new owner; or

(c) The county executive, with the approval of the county legislative body, may enter into leasehold terms for asphalt, oil, or gas that the county considers to be in the best interest of the county as long as:

(i) the mineral, asphalt, oil, or gas is produced from, or attributable to, the property leased; and

Section 41. Section 59-2-1352 is amended to read:

(1) Every person who has purchased or purchases any invalid tax title to any real property in this state shall, from the effective date of this part, have a lien against the property for the recovery of the amount of the purchase price paid to the county to the extent that the county would have a lien prior to the sale by the county, but in no event may the lien be greater than the amount of taxes, tax notice charges, interest, and penalties, or the amount actually paid, whichever is smaller.

(2) Taxes and tax notice charges paid by the purchaser for subsequent years after the purchase from the county shall be included in the amount secured by the lien which has not already been recovered.

(3) The lien shall have the same priority against the property as the lien for the delinquent taxes and tax notice charges which were liquidated by the purchase except that it may not have preference over any right, title, interest in, or lien against, the property acquired since the purchase of the tax title for value and without notice, and the lien shall bear interest at the legal rate for a period of not to exceed four years.

(4) The lien shall be foreclosed in any action in which the invalidity of the tax title is determined.

(5) If the lien is not foreclosed at the time of the determination of the invalidity of the tax title, any later action to foreclose the lien shall be barred.

Section 42. Section 59-2-1353 is amended to read:

(1) In all cases where any county claims a lien on real estate for delinquent general taxes or tax notice charges which have not been paid for a period of four years, the county may foreclose the lien by an action in the district court of the county in which the real estate is located.

(2) In this action all persons owning, having, or claiming an interest in or lien upon the real estate or any part of the real estate may be joined as defendants, and the complaint shall contain a description of the property, together with the amount claimed to be due on the property, including interest, penalties, and administrative costs.

(3) If the name of the owner of any real estate cannot be ascertained from the records of the county, the complaint shall state that the owner is unknown to the plaintiff.

(4) It is sufficient to allege in the complaint that a general tax has been duly levied upon or a tax notice charge has been listed for the described real estate, without stating any of the proceedings or steps leading up to the levy of the tax or the listing of the tax notice charge.

Section 43. Section 59-2-1355 is amended to read:

59-2-1355. Trial -- Findings -- Decree.

(1) The action described in Section 59-2-1353 shall be tried and determined as actions to foreclose mortgage liens, and the court shall determine and adjudge the amount of taxes, tax notice charges, interest, penalties, and costs on each parcel of property which has been separately assessed, and shall enter its decree determining the rights, and priorities of liens, of all parties to the action.

(2) The court shall also in its decree direct the sheriff to advertise and sell, as in the case of sales on execution, each parcel of property, or so much as may be necessary for the payment of the total amount of the general taxes and tax notice charges due, with interest, penalties, and costs, unless the amount is paid within a time named in the decree, but not to exceed 30 days from the entry of the decree.

(3) The decree shall provide that any of the parties to the action may become purchasers at any sale, that if less than an entire parcel of property is sold, it shall be sold at foreclosure sale in such a manner as not to convey to the purchaser a strip of property around the entire perimeter of the parcel, or a strip of the parcel which, if conveyed, would prevent access to the remainder of the parcel by the redemptive owner or otherwise unreasonably diminish the value of that remainder, as determined by the county executive.

(4) The decree shall also provide that if all delinquent taxes and tax notice charges, together with interest, respectively levied on or listed for the parcel of property, and all penalties and costs, are paid within the time fixed in the decree for payment, then no sale may be made.

(5) After the time for redemption has expired, if no redemption has been made, the sheriff shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed conveying to the purchaser all the right, title, and interest of each and all the parties, subject to the lien of any general or special taxes or tax notice charges which may have been respectively levied on or listed for the property conveyed, other than those for the payment of which the sale has been made.

Section 44. Section 59-2-1358 is amended to read:

59-2-1358. Foreclosure deemed a cumulative remedy.

The foreclosure may not deprive any county of any other method or means provided for the collection or enforcement of any taxes or tax notice charges, but is construed as providing an additional or cumulative remedy for the collection of general taxes levied and assessed and tax notice charges listed against the real estate in the county.

Section 45. Section 59-2-1359 is amended to read:

59-2-1359. Collection of taxes and tax notice charges -- Removal or destruction of property.

The tax commission may, under the conditions existing in this section, declare the taxes and tax notice charges to be immediately due and payable if it finds:

(1) that the owner or lessee of any real property, including improvements, subject to taxation within the state is removing, destroying, or is about to remove or destroy the property to such an extent as to render doubtful the payment of delinquent taxes, tax notice charges, penalty, and interest, if any, and the payment of current taxes and tax notice charges; or

(2) that the continued operation and extraction of ores and minerals from mine or mining claims, or the method employed by the owner or lessee, contractor, or other person working upon or operating any mine or mining claim will render doubtful the payment of delinquent taxes, tax notice charges, penalty, and interest, if any, for past years or the current year.

Section 46. Section 59-2-1360 is amended to read:

Proceedings to make findings under Section 59-2-1359 may be commenced before the commission upon its own initiative, the request of any taxing entity, the request of any tax notice charge entities, or the request of any taxpayer.

Section 47. Section 59-2-1361 is amended to read:

(1) (a) Notice that the commission has made a finding and declaration under Section 59-2-1359 shall be given to the owner of the property in the same manner as is provided by law for the giving of the notice of assessment by the commission.

(b) The notice required by this section shall include a notice of the location and time of the hearing in which the findings of the commission may be protested.

(c) (i) The hearing must be scheduled at least 10 days after the mailing of the notice.

(ii) The owner, lessee, contractor, or operator of the property shall be afforded the opportunity to protest the commission’s findings at the hearing.

(2) After the scheduled hearing, the taxes shall become immediately due and payable if any of the following occur:

(a) the owner, contractor, lessee, or operator of the property fails to appear at the hearing; or

(b) the commission sustains the findings.

(3) If the taxes and tax notice charges are not paid within 10 days from the date due, the commission may commence a proceeding in court in its name, but for the benefit of the state and the taxing entities interested in the taxes, and the tax notice charge entities for the property, in the district court of the county in which the property is located to determine the liens of the taxes and tax notice charges and to foreclose the liens.

(4) In any proceeding the court may order any of the following:

(a) enjoin and restrain the destruction or removal of the property or any part of the property;

(b) appoint a receiver to operate the property; and

(c) order and direct that the proceeds from the property, or so much of it as may be necessary to pay the amount of the taxes and tax notice charges, be withheld and impounded or paid on account of the taxes and tax notice charges from time to time as the court may direct.

(5) In determining the amount of taxes due for any year for which the levy has not been fixed and for the purposes of the proceeding in court, the commission shall use the levy prevailing within the taxing entity where the property is located for the last preceding year.

(6) In any court proceeding brought to enforce the payment of taxes and tax notice charges made due and payable under this section, the findings of the commission shall be for all purposes presumptive evidence of the necessity for the action for the protection of the public revenues and of the amount of taxes and tax notice charges to be paid.

(7) (a) Payment of taxes and tax notice charges due under this section will not be enforced through the proceedings authorized by this section prior to the expiration of the time otherwise allowed for payment of taxes if the owner, lessee, contractor, or other person operating the property furnishes security approved by the commission that the person will timely submit all required returns and payment of taxes and tax notice charges.

(b) The commission may, from time to time, require additional security for the payment of taxes and tax notice charges.

(8) The commission may promulgate rules to implement this section.

Section 48. Section 59-2-1362 is amended to read:

(1) A copy of the record of any tax sale duly certified by the official custodian of the record at the time of the certificate under the seal of office as a true copy of the entry in the official record showing the sale is prima facie evidence of the facts shown in the record.

(2) The regularity of all proceedings connected with the assessment, valuation, notice, equalization, levies, tax notices, advertisement, and sale of property described in the record is presumed, and the burden of showing any irregularity in any of the proceedings resulting in the sale of property for the nonpayment of delinquent taxes and tax notice charges shall be on the person who asserts it.

Section 49. Section 59-2-1363 is amended to read:

59-2-1363. Misnomer or mistake as to ownership does not affect sale.
If property is sold for correctly imposed taxes and tax notice charges as the property of a particular person, no misnomer of the owner or supposed owner, or other mistake relating to ownership, affects the sale or renders it void or voidable.

Section 50. Section 59-2-1365 is amended to read:

(iii) treasurer’s relief;

(iv) redemptions;

(v) penalties;

(viii) miscellaneous collections;

(c) the balance shall be paid to the county.

(3) Notwithstanding Subsections (1) and (2), a county may:

(b) establish a date other than the tenth day of each month for the county treasurer to make payments required under Subsection (1).

(4) This section does not invalidate an existing contract between a county and a taxing entity or tax notice charge entity relating to the apportionment and payment of money or interest.

Section 51. Section 59-2-1366 is amended to read:

59-2-1366. Apportionment of redemption or assignment money.

Section 52. Section 59-2-1372 is amended to read:

(1) The auditor shall audit the books and records of the treasurer and make a final settlement with the treasurer.

(2) In making the settlement the auditor shall credit the treasurer with the amount of taxes and tax notice charges for the previous year which are found to be still unpaid and shall then charge the treasurer upon the books of the county in an account which shall be called the Delinquent Tax Control

ENACTS:
26–21a–206, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 26-21a-203 is amended to read:
26-21a-203. Department rulemaking authority.

The department shall make rules under Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act:
(1) establishing quality assurance standards for all facilities performing screening or diagnostic mammography and developing mammogram x-ray films, including notification and procedures for clinical follow-up of abnormal mammograms;
(2) providing for:
(a) collection and periodic reporting of mammography examinations and clinical follow-up data to the department;
(b) certification and revocation of certification of mammogram facilities;
(c) inspection of mammogram facilities, including entry of agents of the department into the facilities for inspections;
(d) setting fees for certification; and
(e) an appeal process regarding department certification decisions; and
[(3) the following information may be included in mammography results sent to a patient with dense breast tissue:]

Mammography is the only breast cancer screening examination which has been shown in multiple randomized clinical trials to reduce death rate from breast cancer. However, it is not a perfect test, specifically in women with dense breast tissue. Because your mammogram demonstrates that you have dense breast tissue, you may benefit from supplementary screening tests, depending on your personal risk factors and family history. Although other screening tests may find additional cancers, they may not necessarily increase survival. Nevertheless, you should discuss your mammography results with your health care provider. A copy of your mammography report has been sent to your health care provider's office. Please contact your health care provider if you have any questions or concerns about this notice.]

Section 2. Section 26-21a-205 is amended to read:
26-21a-205. Department duties.
The department shall:

(1) enforce rules established under this part;

(2) implement and enforce the notice requirement in Section 26-21a-206;

(3) authorize qualified department agents to conduct inspections of mammogram facilities under department rules;

(4) collect and credit fees for certification established by the department in accordance with Section 63J-1-504; and

(5) provide necessary administrative and staff support to the committee.

Section 3. Section 26-21a-206 is enacted to read:

26-21a-206. Women's cancer screening notification requirement.

(1) As used in this section, “dense breast tissue” means heterogeneously dense tissue or extremely dense tissue as defined in the Breast Imaging and Reporting Data System established by the American College of Radiology.

(2) A facility that is certified under Section 26-21a-204 shall include the following notification and information with a mammography result provided to a patient with dense breast tissue:

“Your mammogram indicates that you have dense breast tissue. Dense breast tissue is common and is found in as many as half of all women. However, dense breast tissue can make it more difficult to fully and accurately evaluate your mammogram and detect early signs of possible cancer in the breast. This information is being provided to inform and encourage you to discuss your dense breast tissue and other breast cancer risk factors with your health care provider. Together, you can decide what may be best for you. A copy of your mammography report has been sent to your health care provider. Please contact them if you have any questions or concerns about this notice.”
Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 54-17-807 is enacted to read:

54-17-807. Solar photovoltaic or thermal solar energy facilities.

(1) As used in this section, “acquire” means to purchase, construct, or purchase the output from a photovoltaic or thermal solar energy resource.

(2) (a) In accordance with this section, a qualified utility may file an application with the commission for approval to acquire a photovoltaic or thermal solar energy resource using rate recovery based on a competitive market price, except as provided in Subsection (2)(b).

(b) A qualified utility may not, under this section, acquire a photovoltaic or thermal solar energy resource with a generating capacity that is two megawatts or less per meter if that resource is located on the customer’s side of the meter.

(3) The energy resource acquired pursuant to this section may be owned solely or jointly by a qualified utility or another entity:

(a) to provide renewable energy to a contract customer as provided in Section 54-17-803;

(b) to serve energy to a qualified utility customer as provided in Section 54-17-806;

(c) to serve energy to any customers of the qualified utility if the proposed energy resource’s nameplate capacity does not exceed 300 megawatts or, if applicable, the quantity of capacity that is the subject of a contract for the purchase of electricity does not exceed 300 megawatts, so long as the qualified utility proceeds under and complies with Part 4, Voluntary Request for Resource Decision Review; or

(d) to serve energy to any customers of the qualified utility if the proposed energy resource’s nameplate capacity exceeds 300 megawatts or, if applicable, the quantity of capacity that is the subject of a contract for the purchase of electricity exceeds 300 megawatts, so long as the qualified utility complies with this chapter.

(4) Except as provided in Subsections (3)(c) and (d), the following do not apply to an application submitted under Subsection (2):

(a) Part 1, General Provisions;

(b) Part 2, Solicitation Process;

(c) Part 3, Resource Plans and Significant Energy Resource Approval;

(d) Part 4, Voluntary Request for Resource Decision Review; and

(e) Section 54-17-502.

(5) The application described in Subsection (2) shall include:

(a) a proposed solicitation process for the energy resource;

(b) the criteria proposed to be used to evaluate the responses to the solicitation:

(i) as determined by the customer, if the energy resource is sought to serve a customer pursuant to Subsection (3)(a) or (b); or

(ii) as proposed by the qualified utility, if the energy resource is sought to serve the customers of the qualified utility pursuant to Subsection (3)(c) or (d); and

(c) any other information the commission may require.

(6) (a) Before approving a solicitation process under this section for an energy resource to serve customers of the qualified utility pursuant to Subsection (3)(c) or (d), the commission shall:

(i) hold a public hearing; and

(ii) provide an opportunity for public comment.

(b) The commission may approve a solicitation process under this section only if the commission determines that the solicitation and evaluation processes to be used will create a level playing field in which the qualified utility and other bidders can compete fairly, including with respect to interconnection and transmission requirements imposed on bidders by the solicitation within the control of the commission and the qualified utility, excluding its federally regulated transmission function, and will otherwise serve the public interest.

(7) (a) Upon completion of the solicitation process approved under Subsection (6), the qualified utility may seek approval from the commission to acquire the energy resource identified through the solicitation process as the winning bid.

(b) Before approving acquisition of an energy resource acquired pursuant to this section, the commission shall:

(i) hold a public hearing;

(ii) provide an opportunity for public comment;

(iii) determine whether the solicitation and evaluation processes complied with this section, commission rules, and the commission’s order approving the solicitation process; and

(iv) determine whether the acquisition of the energy resource is just and reasonable, and in the public interest.

(c) The commission may approve a qualified utility’s ownership of an energy resource or a power purchase agreement containing a purchase option under Subsection (3)(c) or (d) with rate recovery based on a competitive market price only if the commission determines that the qualified utility’s bid is the lowest cost ownership option for the qualified utility.

(d) If the commission approves a qualified utility’s acquisition of an energy resource under Subsection (3), including entering into a power purchase agreement containing a purchase option, using rate recovery based on a competitive market price:

(i) the prices approved by the commission shall constitute competitive market prices for purposes of this section; and

(ii) assets owned by the qualified utility and used to provide service as approved under this section are not public utility property.

(8) If upon completion of a solicitation process approved under Subsection (6) the qualified utility proposes not to acquire an energy resource, the qualified utility shall file with the commission a report explaining its reasons for not acquiring the lowest cost resource bid into the solicitation, along with any other information the commission requires.

(9) Within six months after a competitive market price for a solar energy resource acquired under Subsection (3)(c) or (d) has been identified pursuant to this section, or for such longer period as the commission may determine to be in the public interest, a qualified utility may file an application with the commission seeking approval to acquire another energy resource similar to the energy resource for which a competitive market price was established without going through a new solicitation process. The commission may approve the application if the qualified utility demonstrates a need to acquire the energy resource, that the competitive market price remains reasonable, and that the acquisition is in the public interest.

(10) No later than 180 days before the end of the term approved by the commission for an energy resource acquired under this section and owned by the qualifying utility, the qualified utility shall file with the commission a request for determination of an appropriate disposition of the energy resource asset, except that the qualified utility is permitted to retain the benefits or proceeds and shall be required to assume the costs and risks of ownership of the energy resource.

(11) The commission shall adopt rules, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act:

(a) addressing the content and filing of an application under this section;

(b) to establish the solicitation process and criteria to be used to identify the competitive market price and select an energy resource; and

(c) addressing other factors determined by the commission to be relevant to protect the public interest and to implement this section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:
Section 1. Section 54-21-101 is enacted to read:

CHAPTER 21. STRAY CURRENT OR VOLTAGE REMEDIATION ACT

54-21-101. Title -- Legislative findings.
(1) This chapter is known as the “Stray Current or Voltage Remediation Act.”

(2) The Legislature finds that:
(a) to protect livestock and livestock operations, it is necessary and appropriate to establish an actionable level of stray current and voltage that is safely below any level that is capable of harming livestock or adversely affecting the behavior, health, or productivity of livestock;
(b) the efficient, effective, and safe generation, transmission, and distribution of electrical energy by electric entities is critical to the well-being of the citizens and the economy of the state;
(c) permitting an electric entity to face liability based on a level of stray current or voltage that is incapable of adversely affecting livestock seriously threatens the efficient, effective, and safe generation, transmission, and distribution of electrical energy in the state, as well as the continuing viability of economic activity that depends on electrical energy;
(d) to guarantee the sufficient availability of efficient, effective, and safe electrical energy in the state, which requires the continuing operation of electric entities, it is necessary and appropriate for the Legislature to establish a uniform actionable level for an electric entity with respect to stray current and voltage and livestock; and
(e) because the actionable level is set sufficiently below any level that is capable of adversely affecting the behavior, health, or productivity of livestock, any potential of harm to livestock from stray current or voltage below this level is highly remote and unexpected.

Section 2. Section 54-21-102 is enacted to read:
54-21-102. Definitions.
(1) “Actionable level” means stray current or voltage that is:
   (a) a steady-state, root mean square, alternating current (AC) of 2.0 milliamps or more through a 500 ohm resistor connected between livestock contact points, as measured by a digital true root mean square meter;
   (b) a steady-state, root mean square AC voltage of 1.0 volt or more across, in parallel with, a 500 ohm resistor connected between livestock contact points, as measured by a true root mean square meter;
   (c) a steady-state direct current (DC) of 2.8 milliamps or more through a 500 ohm resistor connected between livestock contact points, as measured by a digital meter; or
   (d) a steady-state DC voltage of 1.4 volts or more across a 500 ohm resistor connected between livestock contact points, as measured by a digital meter.
(2) “Electric entity” means:
   (a) an electrical corporation, independent energy producer, qualifying power producer, interlocal entity, public agency, or person engaged in generating, furnishing, transmitting, distributing, or marketing electrical power for public or private use; and
   (b) an agent, affiliate, employee, or independent contractor of a person described in Subsection (2)(a).
(3) “Interlocal entity” means the same as that term is defined in Section 11-13-103.
“Livestock” means cattle, swine, sheep, equine, or poultry.

“Livestock contact points” means two electrically conductive points that livestock may simultaneously contact.

“Livestock operator” means a person who through an agreement with the owner of livestock has authority and is responsible to oversee the care and well being of the livestock.

“Public agency” means the same as that term is defined in Section 11-13-103.

“Qualified testing professional” means an electrical engineer who has:

(a) graduated with an engineering degree from an accredited university;

(b) completed no fewer than 40 hours of relevant stray current or voltage training, with electric utility experience; and

(c) been involved in at least one prior investigation involving the measurement or testing of stray current or voltage.

“Root mean square” means:

(a) a measure of the effective energy value of a wave or cycle; and

(b) for regularly shaped alternating current sine waves, a value of 0.707 multiplied by the peak value of the sine wave.

“Steady-state” means:

(a) for alternating current and AC voltage, a one minute average of root mean square amperage or voltage values, excluding transients; and

(b) for direct current and DC voltage, a one minute average of amperage or voltage values excluding transients.

“Transient” means a current or voltage impulse:

(a) lasting less than five thousandths of a second; and

(b) found on all types of electrical, data, and communications circuits.

Section 3. Section 54-21-103 is enacted to read:

54-21-103. Scope of chapter.

This chapter does not expand or affect the jurisdiction of the commission. An electric entity is not subject to the jurisdiction of the commission unless made subject to the jurisdiction of the commission under a statute other than this chapter.

Section 4. Section 54-21-201 is enacted to read:

Part 2. Notice and Remedies

(1) A livestock owner or livestock operator shall file a notice with an electric entity as provided in Subsection (2) if the livestock owner or livestock operator believes that the livestock owner’s or livestock operator’s livestock is affected by stray current or voltage that may be attributable to an electric entity and is seeking a remedy from the electric entity.

(2) To file a notice, a livestock owner or livestock operator shall provide written notice to the electric entity that documents:

(a) the address of the livestock owner or livestock operator and the location of the potential stray current or voltage; and

(b) a description of the claimed impacts of the potential stray current or voltage.

(3) Within 30 days of receipt of notice under Subsection (1), the electric entity shall provide for testing for stray current or voltage at the location that is the subject of the notice required by Subsection (2) by a qualified testing professional.

(4) (a) Within 60 days after completion of the tests required to be performed under this chapter, a qualified testing professional shall prepare a written report. The written report shall include:

(i) a summary of the tests performed; and

(ii) the data and results from the tests.

(b) The electric entity shall provide a copy of the written report to the livestock owner or livestock operator who provided notice under Subsection (2).

(5) A livestock owner or livestock operator who provides written notice under Subsection (2) shall provide reasonable access for remediation.

Section 5. Section 54-21-202 is enacted to read:

54-21-202. Plan to reduce or eliminate stray current or voltage.

(1) The procedure described in Subsection (2) shall be followed if, through testing by a qualified testing professional as described in Section 54-21-201, it is determined that the electric entity’s contribution to any stray current or voltage is 50% or more of the actionable level.

(2) If the conditions of Subsection (1) are met, the electric entity shall diligently pursue remediation to the electric entity’s contribution to any stray current or voltage to less than 50% of the actionable level within 90 days.

(3) The livestock owner or livestock operator who provides written notice under Subsection 54-21-201(2) shall provide reasonable access for remediation.

Section 6. Section 54-21-203 is enacted to read:

54-21-203. Liability limitations.

(1) An electric entity may not be held liable for damages or other relief if the claim for damages or... other relief is based on livestock contact with any kind of stray current or voltage contributed by the electric entity below the actionable level.

(2) There is no presumption of liability if the stray current or voltage is equal to or greater than the actionable level.

(3) A claim for nuisance may not be asserted against an electric entity for damages due to stray current or voltage. Claims for stray current or voltage shall be limited to claims of negligence. The electric entity’s conduct shall be evaluated using a standard of ordinary care under the circumstances.

Section 7. Section 54-21-204 is enacted to read:

54-21-204. Committee review requirements.

By November 2020 and in three year intervals thereafter, the Public Utilities, Energy, and Technology Interim Committee shall review industry standards and peer reviewed research regarding levels of stray current and voltage and impacts to livestock.

Section 8. Section 54-21-205 is enacted to read:

54-21-205. Disputes.

A dispute under this chapter involving an electric entity shall be resolved as follows:

(1) if the electric entity is a public utility, in accordance with Section 54-7-9; and

(2) if the electric entity is not a public utility, by filing an action with the district court.

(b) When the time period described in Subsection (18)(a) has expired, the preferential consideration, which is initially granted to a natural parent in accordance with Subsection (2), is limited. After that time the court shall base its custody decision on the best interest of the child.

(i) the department shall fully cooperate to expedite the licensing process for the friend; and

(ii) if the friend becomes licensed as a foster parent within the time frame described in Subsection (18)(a), the court shall determine whether it is in the best interests of the child to place the child with the friend.

(19) If, following the shelter hearing, the child is placed with a person who is not a parent [of the child], a relative [of the child], a friend [of a parent of the child], or a former foster parent of the child, priority shall be given to a foster placement with a man and a woman who are married to each other, unless it is in the best interests of the child to place the child with a single foster parent.

(20) In determining the placement of a child, neither the court, nor the division, may take into account, or discriminate against, the religion of a person with whom the child may be placed, unless the purpose of taking religion into account is to place the child with a person or family of the same religion as the child.

(c) the billboard owner fails to remedy the condition or conditions within:

(i) [except as provided in Subsection (3)(c)(ii), 90 days following the billboard owner's receipt of] 180 days after the day on which the billboard owner receives written notice under Subsection (3)(b); or

(ii) if the condition forming the basis of the county's intention to remove the billboard is that it is structurally unsafe, 10 business days, or a longer period if necessary because of a natural disaster, [following the] after the day on which the billboard owner receives written notice under Subsection (3)(b); and

(d) following the expiration of the applicable period under Subsection (3)(c) and after providing the billboard owner with reasonable notice of proceedings and an opportunity for a hearing, the county finds:

(i) by clear and convincing evidence, that the applicant for a permit intentionally made a false or misleading statement in the application regarding the placement or erection of the billboard; or

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 75-3-107 is amended to read:

75-3-107. Probate and testacy proceedings -- Ultimate time limit -- Presumption and order of intestacy.
(1) An informal probate proceeding or formal testacy proceeding, other than a proceeding to probate a will previously probated at the testator's domicile, may not be commenced more than three years after the decedent's death, except:

(a) if a previous proceeding was dismissed because of doubt about the fact of the decedent's death, appropriate probate or testacy proceedings may be maintained at any time thereafter upon a finding that the decedent's death occurred prior to the initiation of the previous proceeding and the applicant or petitioner has not delayed unduly in initiating the subsequent proceeding;

(b) appropriate probate or testacy proceedings may be maintained in relation to the estate of an absent, disappeared, or missing person for whose estate a conservator has been appointed, at any time within three years after the conservator becomes able to establish the death of the protected person; or

(c) a proceeding to contest an informally probated will and to secure appointment of the person with legal priority for appointment in the event the contest is successful, may be commenced within the later of 12 months from the informal probate or three years from the decedent's death.

(2) The limitations provided in Subsection (1) do not apply to proceedings to construe probated wills or determine heirs of an intestate. In cases under Subsection (1)(a) or (b), the date on which a testacy proceeding is properly commenced shall be considered to be the date of the decedent's death for purposes of other limitations provisions of this title which relate to the date of death.

(3) If no will is probated within three years from death, the presumption of intestacy is final and the court shall upon filing a proper petition enter an order to that effect.

(4) Notwithstanding the time restriction in Subsection (1), the court has continuing jurisdiction to:

(a) determine what property was owned by the decedent at the time of death; and

(b) appoint, formally or informally, a personal representative or special administrator to administer the decedent's estate, except the following may not be presented against the estate:

(i) a homestead allowance;

(ii) exempt property;

(iii) a family allowance;

(iv) a support allowance;

(v) an elective share of the surviving spouse; and

(vi) a claim other than expenses of administration.

Section 2. Section 75-5-312 is amended to read:

75-5-312. General powers and duties of guardian -- Penalties.

(1) A guardian of an incapacitated person has only the powers, rights, and duties respecting the ward granted in the order of appointment under Section 75-5-304.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection (4), a guardian has the same powers, rights, and duties respecting the ward that a parent has respecting the parent's unemancipated minor child.

(3) In particular, and without qualifying the foregoing Subsections (1) and (2), a guardian has the following powers and duties, except as modified by order of the court:

(a) To the extent that it is consistent with the terms of any order by a court of competent jurisdiction relating to detention or commitment of the ward, the guardian is entitled to custody of the person of the ward and may establish the ward's place of abode within or without this state.

(b) If entitled to custody of the ward the guardian shall provide for the care, comfort, and maintenance of the ward and, whenever appropriate, arrange for the ward's training and education. Without regard to custodial rights of the ward's person, the guardian shall take reasonable care of the ward's clothing, furniture, vehicles, and other personal effects and commence protective proceedings if other property of the ward is in need of protection.

(c) A guardian may give any consents or approvals that may be necessary to enable the ward to receive medical or other professional care, counsel, treatment, or service.

(d) A guardian may not unreasonably restrict visitation with the ward by family, relatives, or friends.

(e) If no conservator for the estate of the ward has been appointed, the guardian may:

(i) institute proceedings to compel any person under a duty to support the ward or to pay sums for the welfare of the ward to perform that duty;

(ii) compel the production of the ward's estate documents, including the ward's will, trust, power of attorney, and any advance health care directive; and

(iii) receive money and tangible property deliverable to the ward and apply the money and property for support, care, and education of the ward,

(A) but the guardian may not use funds from the ward's estate for room and board which the guardian, the guardian's spouse, parent, or child have furnished the ward unless a charge for the service is approved by order of the court made upon notice to at least one adult relative in the nearest degree of kinship to the ward in which there is an adult;

(B) the guardian shall exercise care to conserve any excess for the ward's needs.

(f) (i) A guardian is required to report the condition of the ward and of the estate which has been subject to the guardian's possession or control, as required by the court or court rule.

(ii) A guardian is required to immediately notify all interested persons if the guardian reasonably believes that the ward's death is likely to occur within the next 30 days, based on:

(A) the guardian's own observations; or

(B) information from the ward's physician or other medical care providers.

(iii) A guardian is required to immediately notify all interested persons of the ward's death.

(iv) Unless emergency conditions exist, a guardian is required to file with the court a notice of the guardian's intent to move the ward and to serve the notice on all interested persons at least 10 days before the move. The guardian shall take reasonable steps to notify all interested persons and to file the notice with the court as soon as practicable following the earlier of the move or the date when the guardian's intention to move the ward is made known to the ward, the ward's care giver, or any other third party.

(v) (A) If no conservator for the estate of the ward has been appointed, the guardian shall, for all estates in excess of $50,000, excluding the residence owned by the ward, send a report with a full accounting to the court on an annual basis.

(B) For estates less than $50,000, excluding the residence owned by the ward, the guardian shall fill out an informal annual report and mail the report to the court.

(C) A report under Subsection (3)(f)(v)(A) or (B) shall include a statement of assets at the beginning and end of the reporting year, income received during the year, disbursements for the support of the ward, and other expenses incurred by the estate. The guardian shall also report the physical conditions of the ward, the place of residence, and a list of others living in the same household. The court may require additional information.

(D) The forms for both the informal report for estates under $50,000, excluding the residence owned by the ward, and the full accounting report for larger estates shall be approved by the Judicial Council.

(E) An annual report shall be examined and approved by the court.

(F) If the ward's income is limited to a federal or state program requiring an annual accounting report, a copy of that report may be submitted to the court in lieu of the required annual report.

(vi) Corporate fiduciaries are not required to petition the court, but shall submit their internal report annually to the court. The report shall be examined and approved by the court.

(vii) The guardian shall also render an annual accounting of the status of the person to the court which shall be included in the petition or the informal annual report as required under this Subsection (3)(f). If a fee is paid for an accounting of an estate, a fee may not be charged for an accounting of the status of a person.

(viii) If a guardian:

(A) makes a substantial misstatement on filings of annual reports;

(B) is guilty of gross impropriety in handling the property of the ward; or

(C) willfully fails to file the report required by this Subsection, after receiving written notice from the court of the failure to file and after a grace period of two months has elapsed, the court may impose a penalty in an amount not to exceed $5,000.
(ix) The court may also order restitution of funds misappropriated from the estate of a ward. The penalty shall be paid by the guardian and may not be paid by the estate.

(xi) For the purposes of Subsections (3)(f)(i), (ii), (iii), and (iv), “interested persons” means those persons required to receive notice in guardianship proceedings as set forth in Section 75-5-309.

(g) If a conservator has been appointed:

(i) all of the ward’s estate received by the guardian in excess of those funds expended to meet current expenses for support, care, and education of the ward shall be paid to the conservator for management as provided in this code; and

(ii) the guardian shall account to the conservator for funds expended.

(4) (a) A court may, in the order of appointment, place specific limitations on the guardian’s power.

(b) A guardian may not prohibit or place restrictions on association with a relative or qualified acquaintance of an adult ward, unless permitted by court order under Section 75-5-312.5.

(c) A guardian is not liable to a third person for acts of the guardian’s ward solely by reason of the relationship described in Subsection (2).

(5) Any guardian of one for whom a conservator also has been appointed shall control the custody and care of the ward and is entitled to receive reasonable sums for services and for room and board furnished to the ward as agreed upon between the guardian and the conservator, if the amounts agreed upon are reasonable under the circumstances. The guardian may request the conservator to expend the ward’s estate by payment to third persons or institutions for the ward’s care and maintenance.

(6) A person who refuses to accept the authority of a guardian to transact business with the assets of the protected person after receiving a certified copy of letters of guardianship is liable for costs, expenses, attorney fees, and damages if the court determines that the person did not act in good faith in refusing to accept the authority of the guardian.

Section 3. Section 75-5-312.5 is amended to read:

(b) If an adult ward is unable to express consent to visitation by a relative or a qualified acquaintance of the adult ward, the consent of the adult ward is presumed based on evidence of a prior relationship between the adult ward and the relative or qualified acquaintance of the adult ward.

(c) A guardian may not permit a relative or qualified acquaintance of an adult ward to associate with the adult ward:

(i) if a court order prohibits the association;

(ii) in a manner prohibited by court order; or

(iii) if the adult ward expresses a desire to not associate with the relative or qualified acquaintance.

(3) A guardian may, as part of the initial guardianship proceeding, petition the court to issue an order:

(a) prohibiting or placing conditions on association between an adult ward and a relative or qualified acquaintance of the adult ward; or

(b) granting the guardian the authority to prohibit or place conditions on association between an adult ward and a relative or qualified acquaintance of the adult ward.

(4) A guardian may, at any time after the initial guardianship proceeding, petition the court to issue an order:

(a) petition the court to issue an order described in Subsection (3) or to rescind or modify an order described in Subsection (3); or 40-6-6.5. Pooling of interests for the development and operation of a drilling unit -- Board may order pooling of interests -- Payment of costs and royalty interests -- Monthly accounting.

(1) Two or more owners within a drilling unit may bring together their interests for the development and operation of the drilling unit.

(2) (a) In the absence of a written agreement for pooling, including a joint operating agreement, the board may enter an order pooling all interests in the drilling unit for the development and operation of the drilling unit.

(b) The order shall be made upon terms and conditions that are just and reasonable.

(c) The board may adopt terms appearing in a joint operating agreement:

(i) for the drilling unit that is in effect between the consenting owners;

(ii) submitted by any party to the proceeding; or

(iii) submitted by its own motion.

(3) (a) Operations incident to the drilling of a well upon any portion of a drilling unit covered by a pooling order shall be deemed for all purposes to be the conduct of the operations upon each separately owned tract in the drilling unit by the several owners.

(b) The portion of the production allocated or applicable to a separately owned tract included in a drilling unit covered by a pooling order shall, when produced, be deemed for all purposes to have been produced from that tract by a well drilled on it.

(4) (a) (i) Each pooling order shall provide for the payment of just and reasonable costs incurred in the drilling and operating of the drilling unit, including:

(A) the costs of drilling, completing, equipping, producing, gathering, transporting, processing, marketing, and storage facilities;

(B) reasonable charges for the administration and supervision of operations; and

(C) other costs customarily incurred in the industry.

(ii) An owner is not liable under a pooling order for costs or losses resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the operator.

(b) Each pooling order shall provide for reimbursement to the consenting owners for any nonconsenting owner’s share of the costs out of production from the drilling unit attributable to the nonconsenting owner’s tract.

(c) Each pooling order shall provide that each consenting owner shall own and be entitled to receive, subject to royalty or similar obligations:

(i) the share of the production of the well applicable to the consenting owner’s interest in the drilling unit; and

(ii) unless the consenting owner has agreed otherwise, the consenting owner’s proportionate part of the nonconsenting owner’s share of the production until costs are recovered as provided in Subsection (4)(d).

(d) (i) Each pooling order shall provide that each nonconsenting owner shall be entitled to receive, subject to royalty or similar obligations, the share of the production of the well applicable to the nonconsenting owner’s interest in the drilling unit after the consenting owners have recovered from the nonconsenting owner’s share of production the following amounts less any cash contributions made by the nonconsenting owner:

(A) 100% of the nonconsenting owner’s share of the cost of surface equipment beyond the wellhead connections, including stock tanks, separators, treaters, pumping equipment, and piping;

(B) 100% of the nonconsenting owner’s share of the estimated cost to plug and abandon the well as determined by the board;

(e) If there is any dispute about costs, the board shall determine the proper costs.

(5) If a nonconsenting owner’s tract in the drilling unit is subject to a lease or other contract for the development of oil and gas, the pooling order shall provide that the consenting owners shall pay any royalty interest or other interest in the tract not subject to the deduction of the costs of production from the production attributable to that tract.

(6) (a) If a nonconsenting owner’s tract in the drilling unit is not subject to a lease or other contract for the development of oil and gas, the pooling order shall provide that the nonconsenting owner shall receive as a royalty:

(i) the acreage weighted average landowner’s royalty based on each leased fee and privately owned tract within the drilling unit, proportionately reduced by the percentage of the nonconsenting owner’s interest in the drilling unit; or

(ii) if there is no leased fee or privately owned tract within the drilling unit other than the one owned by the nonconsenting owner, 16-2/3% proportionately reduced by the percentage of the nonconsenting owner’s interest in the drilling unit.

(b) The royalty shall be:

(i) determined prior to the commencement of drilling; and

(ii) paid from production attributable to each tract until the consenting owners have recovered the costs specified in Subsection (4)(d).

(c) costs are payable out of production unless otherwise agreed between the nonconsenting owner and the operator.

(10) Each pooling order shall provide that in any circumstance where the nonconsenting owner has relinquished his share of production to consenting owners or at any time fails to take his share of production in-kind when he is entitled to do so, the nonconsenting owner is entitled to:

(a) an accounting of the oil and gas proceeds applicable to his relinquished share of production; and

(b) payment of the oil and gas proceeds applicable to that share of production not taken in-kind, net of costs.

(11) (a) A pooling order may be made effective retroactively to the date of first production of a well to which (i) the pooling order applies, if it is subject to Subsection (11)(b).

(b) If the retroactive date predates the board’s order establishing the drilling unit, the retroactive date is authorized only if:

(i) no party to the board’s proceeding objects to the retroactive application; or

(ii) an objection is received by the board and the board finds a party has engaged in inequitable conduct prejudicing another party’s correlative right.

(c) A pooling order made retroactive under this section is binding upon a party owning an interest in the drilling unit who receives proper notice of the board’s proceeding.

(12) Except as otherwise provided by a rule made by the board in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the terms and conditions of the board’s initial order pooling all interests in a drilling unit, including the terms and conditions of a joint operating agreement as adopted by the board, shall apply to all subsequently drilled wells in the drilling unit, except as modified by:
