30–3–17.1, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2011, Chapter 297

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 30-3-4 is amended to read:

(1) (a) The complaint shall be in writing and signed by the petitioner or petitioner’s attorney.

(b) A decree of divorce may not be granted upon default or otherwise except upon legal evidence taken in the cause. If the decree is to be entered upon the default of the respondent, evidence to support the decree may be submitted upon the affidavit of the petitioner with the approval of the court.

(c) If the petitioner and the respondent have a child or children, a decree of divorce may not be granted until both parties have attended the mandatory course described in Section 30–3–11.3 or 30–3–11.4, and have presented a certificate of course completion to the court. The court may waive this requirement, on its own motion or on the motion of one of the parties, if it determines course attendance and completion are not necessary, appropriate, feasible, or in the best interest of the parties.

(d) All hearings and trials for divorce shall be held before the court or the court commissioner as provided by Section 78A–5–107 and rules of the Judicial Council. The court or the commissioner in all divorce cases shall enter the decree upon the evidence or, in the case of a decree after default of the respondent, upon the petitioner’s affidavit.

(2) (a) A party to an action brought under this title or to an action under Title 78B, Chapter 12, Utah Child Support Act, Title 78B, Chapter 13, Utah Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, Title 78B, Chapter 14, Utah Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, Title 78B, Chapter 15, Utah Uniform Parentage Act, or to an action to modify or enforce a judgment in the action may file a motion to have the file other than the final order, judgment, or decree classified as private.

(b) If the court finds that there are substantial interests favoring restricting access that clearly outweigh the interests favoring access, the court may classify the file, or any part thereof other than the final order, judgment, or decree, as private. An order classifying part of the file as private does not apply to subsequent filings.

(c) The record is private until the judge determines it is possible to release the record without prejudice to the interests that justified the closure. Any interested person may petition the court to permit access to a record classified as private under this section. The petition shall be served on the parties to the closure order.
Section 2. Section 30-3-11.3 is amended to read:

30-3-11.3. Mandatory educational course for divorcing parents -- Purpose -- Curriculum -- Reporting.

(1) The Judicial Council shall approve and implement a mandatory course for divorcing parents in all judicial districts. The mandatory course is designed to educate and sensitize divorcing parties to their children’s needs both during and after the divorce process.

(2) The Judicial Council shall adopt rules to implement and administer this program.

(3) (a) As a prerequisite to receiving a divorce decree, both parties are required to attend a mandatory course on their children’s needs after filing a complaint for divorce and receiving a docket number, unless waived under Section 30-3-4. If that requirement is waived, the court may permit the divorce action to proceed.

(b) With the exception of a temporary restraining order pursuant to Rule 65, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, a party may file, but the court may not hear, a motion for an order related to the divorce until the moving party completes the mandatory educational course for divorcing parents required by this section.

(4) The court may require unmarried parents to attend this educational course when those parents are involved in a visitation or custody proceeding before the court.

(5) The mandatory course shall instruct both parties:

(a) about divorce and its impacts on:

(ii) their family relationship; and

(iii) their financial responsibilities for their child or children; and

(7) The Administrative Office of the Courts shall administer the course pursuant to Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Utah Procurement Code, through private or public contracts and organize the program in each of Utah’s judicial districts. The contracts shall provide for the recoupment of administrative expenses through the costs charged to individual parties, pursuant to Subsection (9).

(8) A certificate of completion constitutes evidence to the court of course completion by the parties.

(9) (a) Each party shall pay the costs of the course to the independent contractor providing the course at the time and place of the course. A fee of $8 shall be collected, as part of the course fee paid by each participant, and deposited in the Children’s Legal Defense Account, described in Section 51-9-408.

(b) Each party who is unable to pay the costs of the course may attend the course without payment upon a prima facie showing of impecuniosity as evidenced by an affidavit of impecuniosity filed in the district court. In those situations, the independent contractor shall be reimbursed for its costs from the appropriation to the Administrative Office of the Courts for “Mandatory Educational Course for Divorcing Parents Program.” Before a decree of divorce may be entered, the court shall make a final review and determination of impecuniosity and may order the payment of the costs if so determined.

(10) Appropriations from the General Fund to the Administrative Office of the Courts for the “Mandatory Educational Course for Divorcing Parents Program” shall be used to pay the costs of an indigent parent who makes a showing as provided in Subsection (9)(b).

30-3-11.4. Mandatory orientation course for divorcing parties -- Purpose -- Curriculum -- Reporting.

(1) There is established a mandatory divorce orientation course for all parties with minor children who file a petition for temporary separation or for a divorce. A couple with no minor children [are] is not required, but may choose to attend the course. The purpose of the course [shall be] is to educate parties about the divorce process and reasonable alternatives.

(2) A petitioner shall attend a divorce orientation course no more than 60 days after filing a petition for divorce.

(3) (a) With the exception of a temporary restraining order pursuant to Rule 65, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, a party may file, but the court may not hear, a motion for an order related to the divorce or petition for temporary separation, until the moving party completes the divorce orientation course.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), both parties shall attend a divorce orientation course before a divorce decree may be entered, unless waived by the court under Section 30-3-4.

(4) The respondent shall attend the divorce orientation course no more than 30 days after being served with a petition for divorce.

(5) The clerk of the court shall provide notice to a petitioner of the requirement for the course, and information regarding the course shall be included with the petition or motion, when served on the respondent.

(6) The divorce orientation course shall be neutral, unbiased, at least one hour in duration, and include:

   (b) A petitioner who attends a live instruction course within 30 days of filing may not be charged more than $15 for the course.
   (c) A respondent who attends a live instruction course within 30 days of being served with a petition for divorce may not be charged more than $15 for the course.

(d) A fee of $5 shall be collected, as part of the course fee paid by each participant, and deposited in the Children’s Legal Defense Account described in Section 51-9-408.

(e) A participant who is unable to pay the costs of the course may attend without payment and request an Affidavit of Impecuniosity from the provider to be filed with the petition or motion. The provider shall be reimbursed for its costs by the Administrative Office of the Courts. A petitioner who is later determined not to meet the qualifications for impecuniosity may be ordered to pay the costs of the course.

(11) Appropriations from the General Fund to the Administrative Office of the Courts for the divorce orientation course shall be used to pay the costs of an indigent petitioner who is determined to be impecunious as provided in Subsection (10)(d)(e).

(12) The Online Court Assistance Program shall include instructions with the forms for divorce which inform the petitioner of the requirement of this section.

(d) establish a budget account for interim committee day as designated by Legislative Management Committee and for all other legislative committees of its house and allocate to that account sufficient funds to adequately provide for the work of the committee; and

(e) designate the time and place for periodic meetings of the interim committees.

(2) To maximize the use of legislators' available time, the Senate and House Management Committees should attempt to schedule the committee meetings of their respective houses during the same one or two-day period each month. This does not preclude an interim committee from meeting at any time it determines necessary to complete its business.

(3) The Legislative Management Committee shall:

Appointments to these positions shall be for terms of six years subject to renewal under the same procedure as the original appointment. A person may be removed from any of these offices before the expiration of the person's term only by a majority vote of both houses of the Legislature or by a two-thirds vote of the management committee for such causes as inefficiency, incompetency, failure to maintain skills or adequate performance levels, insubordination, misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance in office. If a vacancy occurs in any of these offices after adjournment of the Legislature, the committee shall appoint an individual to fill the vacancy until such time as the person is approved or rejected by majority vote of the next session of the Legislature;

(4) (a) The Legislature delegates to the Legislative Management Committee the authority, by means of a majority vote of the committee, to direct the legislative general counsel in matters involving the Legislature's participation in litigation.
(b) The Legislature has an unconditional right to intervene in a state court action and may provide evidence or argument, written or oral, if a party to that court action challenges:

(i) the constitutionality of a state statute;

(ii) the validity of legislation; or

(iii) any action of the Legislature.

(c) In a federal court action that challenges the constitutionality of a state statute, the validity of legislation, or any action of the Legislature, the Legislature may seek to intervene, to file an amicus brief, or to present argument in accordance with federal rules of procedure.

(d) Intervention by the Legislature pursuant to Subsection (4)(b) or (c) does not limit the duty of the attorney general to appear and prosecute legal actions or defend state agencies, officers or employees as otherwise provided by law.

(e) In any action in which the Legislature intervenes or participates, legislative counsel and the attorney general shall function independently from each other in the representation of their respective clients.

(4) account for, and pay over to the proper officer, all money that comes into the attorney general's possession that belongs to the state;

(5) keep a file of all cases in which the attorney general is required to appear, including any documents and papers showing the court in which the cases have been instituted and tried, and whether they are civil or criminal, and:

(b) if criminal, the nature of the crime, the mode of prosecution, the stage of proceedings, and, when prosecuted to sentence, a memorandum of the sentence and of the execution, if the sentence has been executed, and, if not executed, the reason for the delay or prevention; and

Honorable Gregory H. Hughes
Speaker of the House
and
Honorable Wayne L. Niederhauser
President of the Senate

Dear Speaker Hughes and President Niederhauser,

I have vetoed HB 198, Attorney General Responsibility Amendments because it poses a significant threat to the ability of the Executive Branch to receive legal counsel from the Attorney General and because it interferes with the Office of the Attorney General’s (OAG) responsibilities to determine for itself whether legal conflicts of interest exist.

Pursuant to the Utah Constitution, the Attorney General is the “legal adviser of the State officers.” Art. VII, Section 16. The Utah Supreme Court declared in Hansen v. Utah Retirement Board, 652 P.2d 1332 (1982), that “State officers” means only the executive officers mentioned in Article VII of the Utah Constitution and their respective departments. Notably, the Attorney General has no constitutional duty to provide legal counsel to the Legislature. Instead, the Utah Constitution authorizes the Legislature to appoint its own legal counsel. Art. VI, Section 32(2).

Under that authority, the Legislature has established the Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel, which consists of about two dozen attorneys who serve the Legislative Branch—including by preparing legal opinions. The Attorney General’s constitutional mandate to be the legal adviser of the Executive cannot be limited by statute, nor can the attorney-client relationship between the Attorney General and the State officers be limited or defined by statute. HB 198 attempts to do just that by stating “[t]he attorney general may not invoke the potential conflict of interest or attorney-client privilege as grounds to withhold or refuse to provide the legal opinion required in Subsection 67-5-1(7) and this section.”
Like all attorneys, the OAG has professional responsibilities to carefully evaluate representation of clients to ensure that conflicts of interest do not exist and that its actions will not harm an existing client. Evaluation of those issues is governed by the Rules of Professional Conduct. Specifically, evaluation of whether the OAG may provide an opinion to the Legislature on a matter affecting the OAG’s relationship with an Executive officer or department is governed by Rule 2.3 of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

Under that rule’s guidance, the OAG may do so only if it determines that providing the opinion is compatible with its representation of the Executive officer or department. If the OAG concludes that providing an opinion to the Legislature “is likely to affect the [Executive officer’s] interests materially and adversely, the [AOG] shall not provide the [opinion] unless the [Executive officer] gives informed consent.” Rule 2.3(b). The Legislature may not change this requirement by statute.

HB 198 inappropriately interferes with the OAG’s ability to analyze under Rules of Professional Conduct whether it can provide an opinion to the Legislature. If the OAG concludes that providing a certain opinion to the Legislature will materially and adversely affect the interests of the Executive, the OAG must decline to issue the opinion unless the Executive consents. By imposing a rule of decision contrary to Rule 2.3, HB 198 provides a second standard, one that differs from that articulated by the Utah Supreme Court which has constitutional authority to govern the practice of law.

For these reasons, I have vetoed HB 198.

Sincerely,

Gary R. Herbert
Governor
Honorable Wayne L. Niederhauser

and

Honorable Gregory H. Hughes
Speaker of the House

Dear President Niederhauser and Speaker Hughes,

I have vetoed SB 171, Intervention Amendments because it intrudes on a function that is inherently and exclusively in the domain of the Executive Branch. When plaintiffs challenge the constitutionality of a state statute they have judicial standing because they can demonstrate a real or potential harm caused by the execution of the law. In defending these suits, the Office of the Attorney General (OAG) is not only defending the statute itself but current or future execution of the statute. That is why the defendant is the Governor or another Executive officer. Defending these legal challenges is inherently part of the Executive’s role of executing the law.

Intervention by the Legislature would only disrupt judicial proceedings. Presumably, the Legislature would intervene because it disagrees with the approach taken by the OAG. Differing positions of the Legislature and the OAG would unnecessarily complicate the proceedings and interfere with the ability of the OAG to pursue legal strategies and to present the state’s case.

Some have suggested that an additional review of a case by the Legislature cannot hurt anything and serves only to strengthen the state’s position. This is contrary to fundamental notions of separation of powers. The Utah Constitution’s explicit separation of powers clause means that even if one branch believes that “two eyes are better than one” that branch still cannot exercise the functions belonging to another branch. Additionally, the Legislature may not exercise Executive authority even when the Legislature believes the Executive is not performing its role properly.
Others have suggested that intervention by the Legislature will not hurt the Executive because the Legislature would present its case in a way that does not detract from the Executive's case. They have argued that SB 171 simply provides an additional track for a state actor to present arguments to the court. This argument is akin to the Governor filing his own bills, under his own name during a legislative session. It would not impede the ability of the Legislature to file bills; it would simply provide another track.

Additionally, SB 171 is worded so broadly that the Legislature would be able to intervene in thousands of cases. Many legislators have provided assurances that this bill would rarely be used. However, the Legislature appropriated $700,000 to implement SB 171, suggesting that the Legislature sees enough work for three attorneys, a paralegal, and a legal secretary.

I look forward to further dialogue about how the Executive Branch may properly seek input from the Legislature in defending the type of challenges at issue in SB 171.

Sincerely,

Gary R. Herbert

Section 5. Effective date.

This bill takes effect on November 30, 2018.

Dear Speaker Hughes and President Niederhauser:

Although I understand the important policies addressed by HB 322, Non-Emergency Patient Transportation Safety Amendments, I have vetoed it at the request of Representative Ed Redd, the bill’s chief sponsor.

On the last day of the General Session, the Legislature passed an amendment that inadvertently omitted 10 words. The omission of the following phrase: “or a non-emergency secure medical transport designated by the department,” will actually eliminate the ability of current providers to make such transports, and will greatly increase costs associated with non-emergency facility-to-facility patient transports.

Because of the significance of these unintended consequences, I have vetoed the bill and look forward to working with the sponsor and members of the Legislature to address the underlying policies in a future special session or general session of the Legislature.

Sincerely,

Dear Speaker Hughes and President Niederhauser,

I am allowing HB 475, Dedicated Credits and Nonlapsing Authority Revisions to become law without signature. I chose to allow the bill to become law because I recognize the important policy changes regarding nonlapsing funds, dedicated credits, and budget oversight. I did not sign the bill because of my concerns about the definition of “item of appropriation” in lines 588 through 598.

While I am willing to allow the definition of “item of appropriation” to become law as used in Title 63J, Chapter 1 of the Utah Code, I emphasize that this definition does not apply to “item of appropriation” as used in the Utah Constitution. My interpretation of the governor’s authority to veto “any item of appropriation contained in any bill while approving other portions of the bill” is not limited by HB 475 (Utah Constitution, Art. VII, Section 4).

Sincerely,

Gary R. Herbert

Dear President Niederhauser and Speaker Hughes,

I will allow SB 25, Divorce Process Amendment to become law without my signature.

Stable marriage provides immeasurable benefits to society, especially to children. Conversely, family dissolution is incredibly costly to society, especially to children. Helping to keep families intact is good public policy because it reduces reliance on social services.

The academic literature on parental divorce shows that a substantial number of parents who have filed for divorce are still open to reconciliation. I believe that our current 90-day waiting period provides a reasonable period for individuals to reconsider their decision. And because our current policy allows exceptions to the 90-day waiting period where there is abuse or other extenuating circumstances, I see no need to hasten family dissolution.

If our reasonable waiting period can help even a few families with low levels of conflict to reconcile, I think it strikes an appropriate balance with the desire of adults to pursue their individual self-fulfillment by ending their marriage. Because I do not believe it is prudent to shorten the waiting period for dissolving marriages, I am not comfortable attaching my name to this bill as it goes into law.

Sincerely,

Gary R. Herbert

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION CALLING UPON CONGRESS TO ASSURE A COMPLETE AND ACCURATE 2020 CENSUS
Chief Sponsor: Rebecca Chavez-Houck
Senate Sponsor: Kevin T. Van Tassell

LONG TITLE
General Description:
This concurrent resolution urges Congress to assure a complete and accurate 2020 Census.

Highlighted Provisions:
This resolution:
► acknowledges Utah’s reliance upon census data for political, business, and social welfare purposes;
► expresses concern that Congress has underfunded the 2020 Census;
► expresses concern that rural residents and marginalized communities are at risk of being undercounted by the 2020 Census; and ► urges Congress to adequately fund the 2020 Census to ensure a complete and accurate count.

Special Clauses:
None

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein:

WHEREAS, the United States Constitution requires a non-biased, non-political count every 10 years of where and how the country’s population has grown;

WHEREAS, the 10-year census not only counts population, but also:

• is the basis upon which federal funding is allocated for programs such as Medicare, Medicaid, and the National School Lunch Program; and
• guides business decisions regarding labor pools and investment choices;

WHEREAS, Congress has underfunded the U.S. Commerce Department’s budget to conduct the 2020 Census, causing the Census Bureau to cancel certain preparations that would test the Census Bureau’s new digital tools;

WHEREAS, the Census Bureau plans for 80% of the country to receive communications that urge a response to the census via the Internet;

WHEREAS, the Census Bureau’s reliance on the Internet is worrisome because 21% of rural households do not currently have Internet access at home, putting rural residents at risk of being undercounted;

WHEREAS, ethnic and immigrant communities are also at risk of being undercounted;

WHEREAS, a geographic area is considered hard-to-count (HTC) if the area’s self-response rate in the 2010 decennial census was 73% or less;

WHEREAS, according to the Census 2020 HTC map application developed by the City University of New York Mapping Service, a number of rural Utah counties are hard-to-count and face a high likelihood of being undercounted;

WHEREAS, according to the George Washington University Institute for Public Policy, in fiscal year 2015, Utah received $3,253,452,654, or approximately $1,086 per capita, for 16 major federal assistance programs that distribute funds based on decennial census-derived statistics; and

WHEREAS, because census data are used in political, business, and social welfare contexts, the accuracy of the count is critical:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein, calls upon Congress to adequately fund the 2020 Census to assure a complete and accurate count of all people.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor urge the members of Utah’s congressional delegation to support H.R. 4013, 2020 American Census Investment Act.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REGARDING THE IMPACT OF FEDERAL LANDS ON THE STATE EDUCATION SYSTEM

Chief Sponsor: Ken Ivory
Senate Sponsor: Jim Dabakis

LONG TITLE
General Description:
This concurrent resolution of the Legislature and the Governor urges the President of the United States, the United States Congress, and Utah’s congressional delegation to propose and secure the passage of legislation that requires PILT payments to be a fair and steady source of revenue that would otherwise be generated but for the federal control of Utah lands.

Highlighted Provisions:
This resolution:
- urges the President of the United States, the United States Congress, and Utah's congressional delegation to propose and secure the passage of legislation that requires PILT payments to be equivalent to the tax revenue the state, subdivisions, and school districts would otherwise be able to generate but for the federal control of Utah lands;
- urges the President and Congress to timely and faithfully pay PILT payments; and
- urges the President and Congress to refrain from holding PILT payments hostage to secure legislative votes.

Special Clauses:
None

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein:

WHEREAS, the power to tax is the fuel of self-governance;

WHEREAS, the right and authority of state and local governments to promote the highest value and use of land is fundamental to funding education and other essential government services;

WHEREAS, the federal government still controls more than 66% of all land in the state of Utah, which is not subject to state or local taxes;

WHEREAS, under the Federal Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA) of 1976, federal land policy changed from one of disposal, where it would enter the state tax rolls, to permanent federal retention as untaxable public land;

WHEREAS, this policy change deprives Utah of the right and ability to tax more than 66% of all land within our state;

WHEREAS, recognizing the substantial burden this policy change imposed on the ability of state and local governments to fund education and other essential government services, Congress established the Payment In Lieu of Taxes, or PILT, program to compensate for the tax revenue denied;

WHEREAS, the definition of “in lieu” means a substitute of equal value and importance, something that is just as good as what was given up;

WHEREAS, by any objective measure, federal PILT payments to Utah are not “just as good as” the tax revenue the state, subdivisions, and school districts would otherwise generate but for federal control of Utah lands;

WHEREAS, in actuality, PILT amounts are little more than Pennies In Lieu of Taxes;

WHEREAS, this reflects a tax break to the federal government on the backs of Utah’s children and communities to the tune of several billion dollars each year;

WHEREAS, without regard to the long-standing debate over whether or not the federal government should ever relinquish control of Utah lands, so long as the federal government does withhold lands from being subject to tax, the federal government should pay the full amount in lieu of tax revenue denied our taxing entities;

WHEREAS, Utah contributes the highest percentage of income tax revenue of any state to public and higher education, we remain the lowest in per-pupil spending by more than $2.5 billion a year, and our state, subdivisions, and school districts struggle to provide other essential government services and proper payment of PILT will help this imbalance;

WHEREAS, over more than the past decade, Congress has been erratic in the amount and timeliness of PILT payments to Utah counties;

WHEREAS, in 2014, for example, Congress did not authorize PILT payments until more than halfway into the fiscal year for our state and subdivisions, placing essential government services in jeopardy; and

WHEREAS, several Utah counties that have only a small percentage of taxable land are facing the exodus of families with young children due to diminishing education funding and depleting employment opportunities:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah, the Governor concurring therein, in solemn awareness of our duty to the rising generation, urge the President of the United States and the United States Congress in the most strenuous terms to establish and codify, in coordination with the state, an objective standard for calculating the value of PILT payments, which are equivalent to the tax revenue the state, subdivisions, and school districts would otherwise be able to generate.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor urge the President and Congress, on behalf of our children and communities, to timely and faithfully pay PILT payments to the state and subdivisions, as mandatory and nondiscretionary payments.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor urge the President and Congress to treat PILT payments to fund education for our children and essential services for our communities and refrain evermore from withholding PILT payments.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature and the Governor urge Utah’s congressional delegation to propose and secure the passage of legislation that requires PILT payments to be a fair and steady source of revenue the state, subdivisions, and school districts would otherwise be able to generate but for the federal control.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the President of the United States, the Majority Leader of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, each member of Utah’s congressional delegation, governors and state legislative leaders of western states, and organizations that serve state governors and legislatures.

Highlighted Provisions:
This resolution:

- encourages Utah’s congressional delegation to pursue legislation exempting Utah from the Antiquities Act.

Special Clauses:
None

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

WHEREAS, the Antiquities Act of 1906 was signed into law by President Theodore Roosevelt;

WHEREAS, the Antiquities Act was intended to allow the President of the United States to set aside certain natural areas for “the protection of objects of historic and scientific interest” for their preservation;

WHEREAS, areas set aside by a president pursuant to the Antiquities Act are given the title of “national monuments”;

WHEREAS, the Antiquities Act stemmed from concerns that artifacts from First Nations peoples were being looted or destroyed and was supported by an exhaustive report on the archeological resources of the southwest;

WHEREAS, the Antiquities Act states that national monuments should be confined to the smallest possible area that is compatible with the proper care and management of the objects to be protected;

WHEREAS, although the Antiquities Act has been used to protect a great many of the United States’ natural wonders and archeological artifacts, the act has been used in a progressively expansive way by presidents since its 1906 enactment;

WHEREAS, the scope of unilateral executive power under the Antiquities Act has been reduced twice;

WHEREAS, Wyoming was exempted from further executive use of the Antiquities Act following an unpopular designation of the Jackson Hole National Monument and Alaska was exempted from further executive use of the act following the designation of 56 million acres of national monuments in that state;

WHEREAS, the two most recent national monuments designated in Utah, Grand Staircase-Escalante and Bears Ears, total a combined 3.2 million acres in size; and

- authorizes the governing board to approve the sale or long-term lease of land associated with the USDC for the purpose of building an east-west connector road.

Special Clauses:
None

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

WHEREAS, Utah Code Subsection 62A-5-206.6(5) requires that the Utah State Developmental Center Board (governing board) obtain the approval of the Legislature before offering real property or water rights associated with the Utah State Developmental Center (USDC) for sale, long-term lease, or other disposition;

WHEREAS, in 1929 the Legislature established the Utah State Training Center, later known as the USDC, to assist with the care, protection, treatment, and education of individuals with intellectual disabilities;

WHEREAS, like other states, Utah built the public institution in a remote location and within a broad perimeter of land that provided a physical barrier between the institution and the nearest rural homes and communities;

WHEREAS, since state governments first acknowledged a public interest in, and accepted some fiscal responsibility for, citizens with intellectual disabilities, states have made sweeping changes in the philosophy and practice of providing public services to those citizens;

WHEREAS, these paradigm shifts have resulted from a growing knowledge about intellectual disabilities, including their causes, prevention, interventions, and accommodations;

WHEREAS, each year individuals from the local community provide over 16,000 hours of volunteer service to the USDC;

WHEREAS, according to a 2017 Department of Transportation managed study, by the year 2040, an east-west connector road is projected to save up to 44,000 hours of driving time each year and reduce miles traveled each year by 1.8 million;

WHEREAS, the improved access that an east-west connector road will provide will benefit USDC volunteers, visitors, and staff members; and

WHEREAS, the improved access that an east-west connector road will provide will reduce response time for public safety personnel who serve the USDC, thus improving safety and security for USDC residents:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature, in accordance with Utah Code Subsection 62A-5-206.6(5), authorizes the governing board to approve the sale or long-term lease of land associated with the USDC for the purpose of building an east-west connector road, according to specifications provided by the Department of Transportation in collaboration with the governing board, and in consideration of the resolution passed by the governing board on May 17, 2017.

LONG TITLE
General Description:
This resolution recognizes the impact Utah’s sportsmen and sportswomen have on our state’s natural resources and economy.

Highlighted Provisions:
This resolution:
▶ urges Congress to protect and enhance public lands for Utah’s sportsmen and sportswomen to advance the goals of hunters, anglers, recreational shooters, and others; and ▶ urges Congress to respect the historic and current use of Utah’s public land by sportsmen and sportswomen, support the time-honored Utah traditions of hunting and angling, the very backbone of conservation, and respect the administration of wildlife conservation through the sound science delivered by the Utah Division of Wildlife Resources and science-based policies developed by the Utah Wildlife Board.

Special Clauses:
None

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah:
WHEREAS, Utah has a rich and storied culture of hunting, fishing, trapping, and recreational shooting that dates back further than the state itself and carries forward to this day;

WHEREAS, Utah’s sportsmen and sportswomen were among the first conservationists to support the establishment of a wildlife management agency, now referred to as the Utah Division of Wildlife Resources, to conserve fish, wildlife, and their habitats;

WHEREAS, through their license fees, Utah’s sportsmen and sportswomen helped fund state efforts to provide for multiple uses of healthy and sustainable natural resources;

WHEREAS, upon realizing that license fees alone were insufficient to restore and sustain healthy fish and wildlife populations, sportsmen and sportswomen supported self-imposed excise taxes on hunting, fishing, and boating equipment, as well as firearms and ammunition, to raise additional conservation funds;

WHEREAS, to this day, the Utah Division of Wildlife Resources is funded primarily by sportsmen and sportswomen, through this American System of Conservation Funding - a "user pays, public benefits" approach that is widely recognized as the most successful model of fish and wildlife management in the world;

WHEREAS, last year alone, Utah's sportsmen and sportswomen generated $44.94 million through this system to support the conservation efforts of the Utah Division of Wildlife Resources and partners;

- calls upon the attorney general to sue prescription opioid manufacturers.

Special Clauses:
None

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

WHEREAS, serious allegations have been raised that prescription opioid manufacturers have systematically engaged in deceptive marketing practices and fraudulent coverups to advance the sale of prescription opioids by:

(3) claiming that opioid dependence and withdrawal are easily managed; and

(4) denying the risks of higher opioid dosages;

WHEREAS, serious allegations have been raised that prescription opioid manufacturers spread, and continue to spread, misinformation about the risks of their products:

(1) through false and deceptive direct marketing;

(2) by using a diverse group of seemingly independent third parties to spread false and deceptive statements about the risks and benefits of opioids; and

(3) by using a diverse group of false organizations, that purport to be neutral, independent, and trusted third parties, to publish false information regarding the risks and benefits of opioids in order to deceive doctors and health care providers;

WHEREAS, this behavior occurred as the North American prescription opioid market grew to a value of $12.4 billion in 2015 with an expected annual growth rate of 4.6%;

WHEREAS, prescription opioid manufacturers realized these profits as thousands of individuals lost their lives, having fallen victim to prescription opioid addictions;

WHEREAS, 91 Americans die each day from opioid-related drug overdose deaths according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention;

WHEREAS, drug overdoses kill more Americans under age 50 than anything else;

WHEREAS, conservative estimates show that 500,000 people will die in the United States over the next decade due to opioid overdose, which is more than HIV/AIDS has killed since that epidemic began in the early 1980s;

WHEREAS, from 2000 to 2015, the state experienced a nearly 400% increase in deaths from the misuse and abuse of prescription drugs;

WHEREAS, drug overdoses kill more people in Utah than motor vehicle crashes;

WHEREAS, in 2014, 32% of Utah adults aged 18 years and older were prescribed an opioid pain medication;

WHEREAS, the Council of Economic Advisers estimates that in 2015, the economic cost of the opioid crisis was $504 billion, or 2.8% of the nation’s gross domestic product that year;

WHEREAS, the state and its political subdivisions’ law enforcement, criminal justice, drug treatment, and other social service programs have incurred enormous costs because of the opioid crisis;

WHEREAS, President Donald Trump declared the opioid epidemic a public health emergency in October 2017;

WHEREAS, 16 states have already filed suit against opioid manufacturers seeking damages for the public cost of the opioid crisis: Alaska, Arizona, Delaware, Illinois, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, New Hampshire, New Mexico, New Jersey, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Carolina, West Virginia, and Washington;

WHEREAS, dozens of local jurisdictions have also filed suit against opioid manufacturers; and

(1) the highly evident costs of the opioid crisis to the state;
(2) opioid manufacturers’ clear and reckless role in perpetuating the crisis;
(3) opioid manufacturers’ apparent indifference toward the problems they are accused of causing;
(4) the clear path other states have laid for Utah to follow; and
(5) consistent requests from civic and political leaders and the citizens of the state:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature calls upon the attorney general to:

(1) immediately and publicly commit to directly filing suit against prescription opioid manufacturers, instead of joining a suit with other plaintiffs, in order to seek the maximum award for damages from prescription opioid manufacturers for the citizens of the state; and
(2) proceed with haste to file suit against prescription opioid manufacturers in order to hold them accountable for the destruction and devastation they have inflicted upon the citizens of the state.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the attorney general immediately after the Legislature passes this resolution.

Highlighted Provisions:
This resolution:
• encourages the State Board of Education and Utah’s school districts to implement restorative justice practices in Utah’s public primary and secondary schools as a way to help Utah’s students stay in school and deal with their challenges in a healthier and more constructive way.

Special Clauses:
None

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the state of Utah:

WHEREAS, the pressure to do well in school and to comply with the expectations of parents and teachers can create great challenges and increased stress in a student’s life;

WHEREAS, the necessity and challenge of forging meaningful relationships can add to the difficulties students face;

WHEREAS, a student’s struggles can be further aggravated by the death of a parent, a divorce, abuse, or other traumatic circumstances and can sometimes lead to problematic behavior in school;

WHEREAS, studies show that suspension and expulsion, traditional methods of addressing disciplinary issues in schools, do not make schools safer and result in lower graduation rates and increased rates of involvement in the juvenile justice system, contributing to the school to prison pipeline;

WHEREAS, restorative justice is a values-based approach to community building, problem solving, and conflict resolution that is used in schools to build and restore relationships, create opportunities for dialogue, repair harm and transform conflict, and create just and equitable learning environments;

WHEREAS, restorative justice enhances school communities by incorporating values of respect, dignity, mutual concern, collaboration, and accountability into the school culture;

WHEREAS, restorative justice encourages students to engage in collaborative problem solving, which empowers students and gives them tools to effectively communicate beyond the school setting;

WHEREAS, restorative justice, in a school setting, shifts the emphasis from managing behavior to focusing on building, nurturing, and repairing relationships, while retaining the ability to hold students accountable;

WHEREAS, restorative justice focuses on the impact of students’ behavior on other members of the school community, rather than only on rule breaking, and allows those impacted to find ways to repair the harm and restore damaged relationships, rather than imposing punishment;

WHEREAS, studies have shown that restorative justice practices can lead to reductions in problem behavior, improvements in school climate, and increases in student achievement, attendance, and graduation rates; and

WHEREAS, there is a continuum of proactive to responsive restorative practices, ranging from community-building circles to restorative conferencing, which are accessible to educators to successfully implement school-wide restorative justice practices:

WHEREAS, President Donald J. Trump has declared the nation’s opioid crisis to be a public health emergency;

WHEREAS, the people of the state of Utah continue to be devastated by addiction and deaths resulting from the use of opioids;

WHEREAS, in 1929 the Legislature established the Utah State Training Center to assist with the care, protection, treatment, and education of individuals with intellectual disabilities;

(ii) deficient with respect to a specific, objective, ordinance-based application requirement.

(c) Within 30 days of receipt of an applicant’s request under this section, the municipality shall either:

(ii) accept the application as complete for the purposes of further substantive processing by the land use authority.

(d) If the notice required by Subsection (1)(c)(i) is not timely mailed, the application shall be considered complete, for purposes of further substantive land use authority review.

(ii) The appeal authority shall issue a written decision for any appeal requested under this Subsection (1)(e).

(f) (i) The applicant may appeal to district court the decision of the appeal authority made under Subsection (1)(e).

(ii) Each appeal under Subsection (1)(f)(i) shall be made within 30 days of the date of the written decision.

(2) (a) Each land use authority shall substantively review a complete application and an application considered complete under Subsection (1)(d), and shall approve or deny each application with reasonable diligence, subject to the time limit under Subsection 11-58-402.5(2) for an inland port use application, as defined in Section 11-58-401.

(c) The land use authority shall take final action, approving or denying the application within 45 days of the written request.

(4) Subject to Section 10-9a-509, nothing in this section and no action or inaction of the land use authority relieves an applicant’s duty to comply with all applicable substantive ordinances and regulations.
