(B) comes from circumstances peculiar to the property, not from conditions that are general to the neighborhood.

(ii) In determining whether or not enforcement of the land use ordinance would cause unreasonable hardship under Subsection (2)(a), the appeal authority may not find an unreasonable hardship if the hardship is self-imposed or economic.

(c) In determining whether or not there are special circumstances attached to the property under Subsection (2)(a), the appeal authority may find that special circumstances exist only if the special circumstances:

(B) provides no scale of operations weighting described in Subsection (2)(b)(i) for school districts enrolling greater than seven times the full-weight cutoff; and

(iv) based on the cost function analysis, establishing a gradually reduced weighted pupil unit for each school district above the percentile cutoff established;

. Exoneration of a bail bond.

(1) The court shall exonerate a bail bond if:

(a) (i) a defendant, who has posted monetary bail by a bail bond, fails to appear before the appropriate court as required;

(ii) notice of the defendant's failure to appear is not emailed to the surety as listed on the bail bond as described in Subsection 77-20-501(2) or (3); and

(iii) the surety's current name and email address, or the bail bond agency's current name and email address, are listed on the bail bond in the court's file;

(b) the defendant is arrested and booked into a county jail booking facility pursuant to a warrant for failure to appear on the original charges for which the bail bond was issued and the surety provides written proof of the arrest and booking to the court and the prosecuting attorney;

(c) the court recalls a warrant for failure to appear due to the defendant's having paid the fine and before entry of a judgment of forfeiture of the bail bond;

(d) the surety provides written proof to the court and the prosecuting attorney that the defendant is in custody and the surety has served the defendant's bail bond revocation on the custodial authority; or

(e) unless the court makes a finding of good cause why the bail bond should not be exonerated:

(i) the surety has delivered the defendant to the county jail booking facility in the county where the original charge or charges are pending;

(ii) the defendant has been released on a bail bond secured from a subsequent surety for the original charge and the failure to appear;

(iii) after an arrest, the defendant has escaped from jail or has been released on the defendant's own recognizance under a court order regulating jail capacity or by a sheriff's release under Section [~~17-22-5.5~~]17-72-402;

(iv) the surety has transported or agreed to pay for the transportation of the defendant from a location outside of the county back to the county where the original charge is pending and the payment is in an amount equal to the cost of government transportation under Section 76-3-201; or

(v) the surety demonstrates, by a preponderance of the evidence, that:

(A) at the time the surety issued the bail bond, the surety made reasonable efforts to determine that the defendant was legally present in the United States;

(B) a reasonable person would have concluded, based on the surety's determination, that the defendant was legally present in the United States; and

(C) the surety has failed to bring the defendant before the court because the defendant is in federal custody or has been deported.

(2) Under circumstances not otherwise provided for in Subsection (1), the court may exonerate the bail bond if the court finds:

(a) that the prosecuting attorney has been given reasonable notice of a surety's motion to exonerate the bail bond; and

(b) there is good cause for the bail bond to be exonerated.

(3) If a surety's bail bond has been exonerated under Subsection (1) or (2) and the surety remains liable for the cost of transportation of the defendant, the surety may take custody of the defendant for the purpose of transporting the defendant to the jurisdiction where the charge is pending.

(4) If the defendant is subject to extradition or other means by which the state can return the defendant to law enforcement custody within the court's jurisdiction, and the surety gives notice under Subsection 77-20-502(4)(a), the surety's bail bond shall be exonerated:

(a) if the prosecuting attorney elects in writing not to extradite the defendant immediately; and

(b) if the prosecuting attorney elects in writing to extradite the defendant, to the extent the bail bond exceeds the reasonable, actual, or estimated costs to extradite and return the defendant to law enforcement custody within the court's jurisdiction, upon the occurrence of the earlier of:

(i) the prosecuting attorney's lodging a detainer on the defendant; or

(ii) 60 days after the day on which the surety gives notice to the prosecuting attorney under Subsection 77-20-502(4)(a) if the defendant remains in custody of the same authority during that 60-day time period.

(5) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (6), the court shall exonerate the bail bond, without motion, upon sentencing the defendant.

(b) If the defendant's sentence includes commitment to a jail or prison, the court shall exonerate the bail bond when the defendant appears at the appropriate jail or prison, unless the judge does not require the defendant to begin the commitment within seven days, in which case the bail bond is exonerated upon sentencing.

(c) For purposes of this Subsection (5), an order of the court accepting a plea in abeyance agreement and holding that plea in abeyance in accordance with Title 77, Chapter 2a, Pleas in Abeyance, is considered to be the same as a sentencing upon a guilty plea.

(d) Any suspended or deferred sentencing is not the responsibility of the surety and the bail bond is exonerated without any motion, upon acceptance of the court and the defendant of a plea in abeyance, probation, fine payments, post sentencing reviews, or any other deferred sentencing reviews or any other deferred sentencing agreement.

(6) If a surety issues a bail bond after sentencing, the surety is liable on the bail bond during all proceedings and for all court appearances required of the defendant up to and including the defendant's appearance to commence serving the sentence imposed under Subsection (5).

Each application shall include:

(a) the identity of the investigative or law enforcement officer making the application, and the officer authorizing the application;

(b) a full and complete statement of the facts and circumstances relied upon by the applicant to justify the applicant's belief that an order should be issued, including:

(e) a full and complete statement of the facts concerning all previous applications known to the individual authorizing and the individual making the application, made to any judge for authorization to intercept, or for approval of interceptions of wire, electronic, or oral communications involving any of the same persons, facilities, or places specified in the application, and the action taken by the judge on each application;

(f) when the application is for the extension of an order, a statement setting forth the results so far obtained from the interception, or a reasonable explanation of the failure to obtain results; and

(g) additional testimony or documentary evidence in support of the application as the judge may require.

(2) Upon application the judge may enter an ex parte order, as requested or as modified, authorizing or approving interception of wire, electronic, or oral communications within the territorial jurisdiction of the state if the judge determines on the basis of the facts submitted by the applicant that:

(a) there is probable cause for belief that an individual is committing, has committed, or is about to commit a particular offense under Section 77-23a-8;

(b) there is probable cause for belief that particular communications concerning that offense will be obtained through the interception;

(c) normal investigative procedures have been tried and have failed or reasonably appear to be either unlikely to succeed if tried or too dangerous; and

(d) except as provided in Subsection (12), there is probable cause for belief that the facilities from which or the place where the wire, electronic, or oral communications are to be intercepted are being used, or are about to be used, in connection with the commission of the offense, or are leased to, listed in the name of, or commonly used by that person.

(3) Each order authorizing or approving the interception of any wire, electronic, or oral communications shall specify:

(b) Any provider of wire or electronic communications service, landlord, custodian, or other person furnishing the facilities or technical assistance shall be compensated by the applicant for reasonable expenses involved in providing the facilities or systems.

(5) (a) (i) An order entered under this chapter may not authorize or approve the interception of any wire, electronic, or oral communications for any period longer than is necessary to achieve the objective of the authorization, but in any event for no longer than 30 days.

(ii) The 30-day period described in Subsection (5)(a)(i) begins on the day the investigative or law enforcement officer first begins to conduct an interception under the order, or 10 days after the order is entered, whichever is earlier.

(b) Extensions of an order may be granted, but only upon application for an extension made under Subsection (1) and if the court makes the findings required by Subsection (2). The period of extension may be no longer than the authorizing judge considers necessary to achieve the purposes for which it was granted, but in no event for longer than 30 days.

(c) Every order and extension shall contain a provision that the authorization to intercept shall be executed as soon as practicable, shall be conducted so as to minimize the interception of communications not otherwise subject to interception under this chapter, and must terminate upon attainment of the authorized objective, or in any event within 30 days.

(d) If the intercepted communication is in a code or foreign language, and an expert in that foreign language or code is not reasonably available during the interception period, the minimizing of the interception may be accomplished as soon as practicable after the interception.

(e) An interception under this chapter may be conducted in whole or in part by government personnel or by an individual under contract with the government and acting under supervision of an investigative or law enforcement officer authorized to conduct the interception.

(6) (a) When an order authorizing interception is entered under this chapter, the order may require reports to be made to the judge who issued the order, showing what progress has been made toward achievement of the authorized objective and the need for continued interception.

(b) [~~These~~]The reports described in Subsection (6)(a) shall be made at intervals the judge may require.

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any investigative or law enforcement officer who is specially designated by either the attorney general or a county attorney or district attorney, as provided under Sections [~~17-18a-202~~]17-68-302 and [~~17-18a-203~~]17-68-303, may intercept wire, electronic, or oral communications if an application for an order approving the interception is made in accordance with this section and within 48 hours after the interception has occurred or begins to occur, when the investigative or law enforcement officer reasonably determines that:

(a) an emergency situation exists that involves:

(i) immediate danger of death or serious physical injury to any person;

(ii) conspiratorial activities threatening the national security interest; or

(iii) conspiratorial activities characteristic of organized crime, that require a wire, electronic, or oral communications to be intercepted before an order authorizing interception can, with diligence, be obtained; and

(b) there are grounds upon which an order could be entered under this chapter to authorize the interception.

(8) (a) In the absence of an order under Subsection (7), the interception immediately terminates when the communication sought is obtained or when the application for the order is denied, whichever is earlier.

(b) If the application for approval is denied, or in any other case where the interception is terminated without an order having been issued, the contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communications intercepted shall be treated as having been obtained in violation of this chapter, and an inventory shall be served as provided for in Subsection (9)(d) on the person named in the application.

(9) (a) (i) The contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communications intercepted by any means authorized by this chapter shall, if possible, be recorded on tape or wire or other comparable device.

(ii) The recording of the contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communications under this Subsection (9)(a) shall be done so as to protect the recording from editing or other alterations.

(iii) Immediately upon the expiration of the period of an order or extension, the recordings shall be made available to the judge issuing the order and sealed under his directions.

(iv) Custody of the recordings shall be where the judge orders.

(v) The recordings:

(A) may not be destroyed, except upon an order of the issuing or denying judge[~~. In any event, it~~]; and

(B) shall be kept for 10 years.

(vi) Duplicate recordings may be made for use or disclosure under Subsections 77-23a-9(1) and (2) for investigations.

(vii) The presence of the seal provided by this Subsection (9)(a), or a satisfactory explanation for the absence of one, is a prerequisite for the use or disclosure of the contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communications or evidence derived from it under Subsection 77-23a-9(3).

(b) Applications made and orders granted under this chapter shall be sealed by the judge. Custody of the applications and orders shall be where the judge directs. The applications and orders shall be disclosed only upon a showing of good cause before a judge of competent jurisdiction and may not be destroyed, except on order of the issuing or denying judge. But in any event they shall be kept for 10 years.

(c) Any violation of any provision of this Subsection (9) may be punished as contempt of the issuing or denying judge.

(d) Within a reasonable time, but not later than 90 days after the filing of an application for an order of approval under Subsection 77-23a-10(7) that is denied or the termination of the period of an order or extensions, the issuing or denying judge shall cause to be served on the persons named in the order or the application, and other parties to the intercepted communications as the judge determines in his discretion is in the interest of justice, an inventory, which shall include notice:

(i) of the entry of the order or application;

(ii) of the date of the entry and the period of authorization, approved or disapproved interception, or the denial of the application; and

(iii) that during the period, wire, electronic, or oral communications were or were not intercepted.

(e) (i) The judge, upon filing of a motion, may in the judge's discretion, make available to the person or the person's counsel for inspection the portions of the intercepted communications, applications, and orders the judge determines to be in the interest of justice.

(ii) On an ex parte showing of good cause to a judge of competent jurisdiction, the serving of the inventory required by this Subsection (9)(e) may be postponed.

(10) (a) The contents of any intercepted wire, electronic, or oral communications, or evidence derived from any of these, may not be received in evidence or otherwise disclosed in any trial, hearing, or other proceeding in a federal or state court unless each party, not less than 10 days before the trial, hearing, or proceeding, has been furnished with a copy of the court order, and accompanying application, under which the interception was authorized or approved.

(b) [~~This~~]The ten-day period described in Subsection (10)(a) may be waived by the judge if the judge finds that:

(i) it was not possible to furnish the party with the [~~above~~]information 10 days before the trial, hearing, or proceeding; and

(ii) [~~that~~]the party will not be prejudiced by the delay in receiving the information.

(11) (a) Any aggrieved person in any trial, hearing, or proceeding in or before any court, department, officer, agency, regulatory body, or other authority of the United States, the state, or a political subdivision may move to suppress the contents of any intercepted wire, electronic, or oral communications, or evidence derived from any of them, on the grounds that:

(i) the communication was unlawfully intercepted;

(ii) the order of authorization or approval under which it was intercepted is insufficient on its face; or

(iii) the interception was not made in conformity with the order of authorization or approval.

(b) (i) The motion described in Subsection (11)(a) shall be made before the trial, hearing, or proceeding, unless there was no opportunity to make the motion or the person was not aware of the grounds of the motion.

(ii) If the motion is granted, the contents of the intercepted wire, electronic, or oral communications, or evidence derived from any of these, shall be treated as having been obtained in violation of this chapter.

(iii) The judge, upon the filing of the motion by the aggrieved person, may in the judge's discretion make available to the aggrieved person or the aggrieved person's counsel for inspection portions of the intercepted communication or evidence derived from the intercepted communication as the judge determines to be in the interests of justice.

(c) (i) In addition to any other right to appeal, the state or its political subdivision may appeal from an order granting a motion to suppress made under Subsection (11)(a), or the denial of an application for an order of approval, if the attorney bringing the appeal certifies to the judge or other official granting the motion or denying the application that the appeal is not taken for the purposes of delay.

(ii) The appeal described in Subsection (11)(c)(i) shall be taken within 30 days after the date the order was entered and shall be diligently prosecuted.

(12) The requirements of Subsections (1)(b)(ii), (2)(d), and (3)(b) relating to the specification of the facilities from which, or the place where, the wire, electronic, or oral communications are to be intercepted do not apply if:

(a) in the case of an applicant regarding the interception of oral communications:

(i) the application is by a law enforcement officer and is approved by the state attorney general, a deputy attorney general, a county attorney or district attorney, or a deputy county attorney or deputy district attorney;

(ii) the application contains a full and complete statement of why the specification is not practical, and identifies the person committing the offense and whose communications are to be intercepted; or

(iii) the judge finds that the specification is not practical; and

(b) in the case of an application regarding wire or electronic communications:

(i) the application is by a law enforcement officer and is approved by the state attorney general, a deputy attorney general, a county attorney or district attorney, or a deputy county attorney or deputy district attorney;

(ii) the application identifies the person believed to be committing the offense and whose communications are to be intercepted, and the applicant makes a showing of a purpose, on the part of that person, to thwart interception by changing facilities; and

(iii) the judge finds that the purpose has been adequately shown.

(13) (a) An interception of a communication under an order regarding which the requirements of Subsections (1)(b)(ii), (2)(d), and (3)(b) do not apply by reason of Subsection (12) does not begin until the facilities from which, or the place where, the communications are to be intercepted is ascertained by the person implementing the interception order.

(b) (i) A provider of wire or electronic communications service that has received an order under Subsection (12)(b) may move the court to modify or quash the order on the ground that its assistance with respect to the interception cannot be performed in a timely or reasonable fashion.

(ii) The court, upon notice to the government, shall decide [~~the~~]a motion filed under Subsection (13)(b)(i) expeditiously.

JOINT RESOLUTION REGARDING CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY

Chief Sponsor: Casey Snider
Senate Sponsor: Chris H. Wilson

LONG TITLE

General Description:

This resolution reaffirms the constitutional and statutory role of the Legislature in redistricting.

Highlighted Provisions:

This resolution:

- ► reaffirms the constitutional and statutory role of the Legislature in redistricting;
- ► condemns actions that ignore the Utah Constitution and Proposition 4;
- ► rejects the unconstitutional use of the special interest groups' congressional map; and
- ► urges the judicial branch to safeguard the text of the Utah Constitution.

Money Appropriated in this Bill:

None

Other Special Clauses:

None

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

WHEREAS, Article VI, Section 1, of the Utah Constitution vests the power to enact laws in the Legislature and the people of the state of Utah;

WHEREAS, Article V, Section 1, of the Utah Constitution prohibits any branch of government from exercising the constitutional power of another branch and protects Utahns from government by judicial decree;

WHEREAS, Article IX, Section 1, of the Utah Constitution and Article I, Section 4, of the United States Constitution (the Elections Clause) both vest the power of redistricting solely in the Legislature;

WHEREAS, Proposition 4, approved narrowly in 2018, created procedural expectations for redistricting but did not and could not strip the Legislature of its constitutional authority to adopt or reject a congressional map;

WHEREAS, in 2020, the Legislature worked with the sponsors of Proposition 4 to make necessary statutory changes to ensure that redistricting remained constitutional, transparent, and accountable to voters;

WHEREAS, in the first appeal in League of Women Voters of Utah, et al v. Utah State Legislature, et al (litigation), the Utah Supreme Court contrived a novel and unfounded concept of initiated super laws, preventing future legislatures from amending those laws unless a judge agrees that a policy change is necessary, despite no such restriction appearing in the Utah Constitution;

WHEREAS, this super law doctrine contradicts over a century of Utah constitutional interpretation and, if unchecked, threatens the foundation of representative democracy by allowing courts to elevate ordinary statutes and personal preferences of unelected judges above the authority of the people's elected legislators;

WHEREAS, in the remedial phase of the litigation, the district court disregarded the Proposition 4 requirements that would have provided an independent commission, transparency, and robust legislative and public involvement;

WHEREAS, after still providing some level of legislative hearings and public engagement, the Legislature adopted a congressional map on October 6, 2025, that complied with the Proposition 4 redistricting criteria and was validated using objective, scientific, and statistically based standards without the Legislature using any partisan data or political considerations;

WHEREAS, although the Lieutenant Governor informed the court that her office needed to receive a final map no later than November 10, 2025, the court:

issued its decision rejecting the Legislature's map at 11:41 PM on November 10, well after the Lieutenant Governor's elections office had closed;

did not provide operable map files until well after the final deadline; and has yet to provide map files that do not contain serious errors, including obvious errors with district lines cutting through homes;

WHEREAS, the court's late-night decision threw out the Legislature's newly-adopted map and unconstitutionally ordered the Lieutenant Governor to use a map drawn by private special interest groups, which never underwent the Proposition 4 process, never received public scrutiny, and never received legislative approval;

WHEREAS, the special interest groups' map heavily favors one political party, eliminates electoral competitiveness, and reflects political goals rather than constitutional fidelity or judicial neutrality;

WHEREAS, the actions of the court undermine the separation of powers, disregard the Legislature's constitutional role, erode public confidence in the courts, and insert judicial policymaking into an area explicitly reserved to the Legislature by both the Utah Constitution and the United States Constitution;

WHEREAS, the court's repeated delays and last-minute rulings manufactured an arbitrary and artificial sense of emergency that has limited meaningful appellate review before the 2026 general election; and

WHEREAS, the people of Utah deserve a redistricting process grounded in constitutional text, transparent public input, and democratic accountability, not a process dictated by unelected judges or private special interest groups:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of the state of Utah condemns the Utah Supreme Court's activist rewriting of the Utah Constitution and its creation of the unfounded doctrine of super laws.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature condemns the district court's disregard for the Utah Constitution, for Proposition 4 as enacted by the people, and for the separation of powers that protects Utah's democratic institutions.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature condemns the court's delays and errors that created an arbitrary and artificial emergency, allowing special interest groups to impose a politically-driven map on the people of Utah.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature condemns the implementation of a map that violates Article IX of the Utah Constitution, Proposition 4, and the Elections Clause of the United States Constitution.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature rejects the court-ordered, special interest groups' map and any map that does not reflect the will of the people through their elected legislators.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature urges the judicial branch to safeguard and follow the text of the Utah Constitution.

(1) [~~If~~]Except as provided in paragraph (b)(3), if a party timely files in the trial court any of the following, the time for all parties to appeal from the judgment runs from the entry of the dispositive order:

(A) [~~A~~]a motion for judgment under Rule 50(b) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure;

(B) [~~A~~]a motion to amend or make additional findings of fact, whether or not an alteration of the judgment would be required if the motion is granted, under Rule 52(b) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure;

(C) [~~A~~]a motion to alter or amend the judgment under Rule 59 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure;

(D) [~~A~~]a motion for a new trial under Rule 59 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure;

(E) [~~A~~]a motion for relief under Rule 60(b) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure if the motion is filed no later than 28 days after the judgment is entered;

(F) [~~A~~]a motion or claim for attorney fees under Rule 73 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure; or

(G) [~~A~~]a motion for a new trial under Rule 24 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure.

(2) [~~A~~]Except as provided in paragraph (b)(3), a notice of appeal filed after announcement or entry of judgment, but before entry of an order disposing of any motion listed in paragraph (b) (1), will be treated as filed after entry of the order and on the day thereof, except that such a notice of appeal is effective to appeal only from the underlying judgment. To appeal from a final order disposing of any motion listed in paragraph (b) (1), a party must file a notice of appeal or an amended notice of appeal within the prescribed time measured from the entry of the order. If multiple motions in paragraph (b) (1) are timely filed and the court decides any motion by separate order, the time to file a notice of appeal runs from the entry of the last order.

(3) In a case relating to a voting contest, an election, or the establishment of boundaries of political districts for purposes of an election:

(A) the time for all parties to appeal from the judgment runs from the date of entry of the judgment regardless of whether a party files any motion described in paragraph (b)(1); and

(B) a notice of appeal will be treated as filed on the day the notice of appeal is filed.

(c) Filing prior to entry of judgment or order. A notice of appeal filed after the announcement of a decision, judgment, or order but before entry of the judgment or order will be treated as filed after such entry and on the day thereof.

(d) Additional or cross-appeal. If a timely notice of appeal is filed by a party, any other party may file a notice of appeal within 14 days after the date on which the first notice of appeal was filed, or within the time otherwise prescribed by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this rule, whichever period last expires.

(e) Motion for extension of time.

(1) The trial court, upon a showing of good cause, may extend the time for filing a notice of appeal upon motion filed before the expiration of the time prescribed by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this rule. Responses to such motions for an extension of time are disfavored and the court may rule at any time after the filing of the motion. No extension can exceed 30 days beyond the prescribed time or 14 days beyond the date of entry of the order granting the motion, whichever occurs later.

(2) The trial court, upon a showing of good cause or excusable neglect, may extend the time for filing a notice of appeal upon motion filed not later than 30 days after the expiration of the time prescribed by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this rule. The court may rule at any time after the filing of the motion. That a movant did not file a notice of appeal to which paragraph (c) would apply is not relevant to the determination of good cause or excusable neglect. An extension may not exceed 30 days beyond the prescribed time or 14 days beyond the date of entry of the order granting the motion, whichever occurs later.

(f) Motion to reinstate period for filing a direct appeal in criminal cases.

(1) The trial court will reinstate the 30 day period for filing a direct appeal in a criminal case if a defendant demonstrates by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant was deprived of the right to appeal through no fault of the defendant.

(2) The motion must be filed within one year, or within a reasonable time, whichever is later, from the day on which the defendant personally knew, or should have known in the exercise of reasonable diligence, of evidentiary facts forming the basis of the claim that the defendant was deprived of the right to appeal.

(A) The motion must state:

(i) the date the defendant learned that the defendant was denied the right to an appeal [~~-~~]; and

(ii) how the defendant learned that the defendant was denied the right to an appeal.

(B) If the motion is filed more than one year after the defendant learned that the defendant was denied the right to an appeal, the defendant must allege all of the grounds that support the allegation that the delay in filing the motion was reasonable.

(3) If the defendant is not represented by counsel and is indigent, the trial court will appoint counsel.

(4) The motion must be served on the prosecuting entity. The prosecutor may file a response to the motion within 28 days after being served.

(5) If the motion to reinstate the time to appeal is opposed, the trial court will set a hearing at which the parties may present evidence.

(6) If the prosecutor opposes the motion on the ground that the defendant filed it beyond the time limit in paragraph (f)(2), the prosecutor must prove, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the defendant's delay was unreasonable. The court may deny the motion as untimely only if the court finds that the prosecutor has carried this burden.

(7) If the trial court enters an order reinstating the time for filing a direct appeal, the defendant's notice of appeal must be filed with the clerk of the trial court within 30 days after the date the order is entered.

(g) Motion to reinstate period for filing a direct appeal in civil cases.

(1) The trial court will reinstate the 30 day period for filing a direct appeal if the trial court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that:

(A) [~~The~~]the party seeking to appeal lacked actual notice of the entry of judgment at a time that would have allowed the party to file a timely motion under paragraph (e) of this rule;

(B) [~~The~~]the party seeking to appeal exercised reasonable diligence in monitoring the proceedings; and

(C) [~~The~~]the party, if any, responsible for serving the judgment under Rule 58A(d) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure did not promptly serve a copy of the signed judgment on the party seeking to appeal.

(2) A party seeking such reinstatement must file a written motion in the trial court within one year from the entry of judgment. The party must comply with Rule 7 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure and must serve each of the parties in accordance with Rule 5 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

(3) If the trial court enters an order reinstating the time for filing a direct appeal, a notice of appeal must be filed within 30 days after the date of entry of the order.

Section 2. Rule 6, Utah Rules of Appellate Procedure is amended to read:

Rule 6. Bond for costs on appeal.

(a) Definitions. As used in this rule:

(1) "Government officer" means the same as that term is defined in Utah Code section 63G-2-210.

(2) "Governmental entity" means the same as that term is defined in Utah Code section 63G-2-103.

(b)[~~Except in a criminal case,~~]Cost bond. Except as provided in paragraph (c), at the time of filing the notice of appeal, the appellant shall file with the notice a bond for costs on appeal [~~, unless the bond is waived in writing by the adverse party, or unless an affidavit as provided for in Utah Code Section 78A-2-302 is filed~~]. The bond shall be in the sum of at least $300.00 or such greater amount as the trial court may order on motion of the appellee to ensure payment of costs on appeal. No separate bond for costs on appeal is required when a supersedeas bond is filed. The bond on appeal shall be with sufficient sureties and shall be conditioned to secure payment of costs if the appeal is dismissed or the judgment affirmed, or of such costs as the appellate court may award if the judgment is modified. The adverse party may except to the sufficiency of the sureties in accordance with the provisions of Rule 62, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

(c) Exceptions. An appellant is not required to post a bond for the appeal:

(1) in a criminal case;

(2) if the bond is waived in writing by the adverse party;

(3) if the appellant's fees are waived under Utah Code section 78A-2-302; or

(4) if the appellant is a government officer or governmental entity.

Section 3. Rule 30, Utah Rules of Appellate Procedure is amended to read:

Rule 30. Decision of the court; notice of decision.

(a) Decision in civil cases. The court may reverse, affirm, modify, or otherwise dispose of any appealed order or judgment. If the findings of fact in a case are incomplete, the court may order the trial court or agency to supplement, modify, or complete the findings to make them conform to the issues presented and the facts as found from the evidence and may direct the trial court or agency to enter judgment in accordance with the findings as revised. The court may also order a new trial or further proceedings to be conducted. If a new trial is granted, the court may pass upon and determine all questions of law involved in the case presented upon the appeal and necessary to the final determination of the case.

(b) Decision in election cases. In a case relating to a voting contest, an election, or the establishment of boundaries of political districts for purposes of an election, the court will establish a briefing schedule, hold oral argument, and issue a decision with sufficient promptness to, as much as possible, avoid prejudicing any candidate or voter or delaying an election deadline or election.

~~(b)~~ Decision in criminal cases. If a judgment of conviction is reversed, a new trial will be held unless the court specifies otherwise. If a judgment of conviction or other order is affirmed or modified, the judgment or order affirmed or modified will be executed.

~~(c)~~ Decision and opinion in writing. When a judgment, decree, or order is reversed, modified, or affirmed, the reasons will be stated concisely in writing and filed with the clerk. Any justice or judge concurring or dissenting may likewise give reasons in writing and file the same with the clerk. The clerk's entry in the court's records constitutes the entry of the judgment of the court.

~~(d)~~ Form of decision. An appellate court's decision may be entered by order, opinion, or per curiam decision. An order will not stand as precedent but will otherwise have the same force and effect as other court decisions.

~~(e)~~ Entry and notice of decision. The entry of the decision in the court's records constitutes the entry of the court's judgment. Immediately upon entering the decision, the clerk must give notice to the respective parties and make the decision public in accordance with the court's direction.

(1) If the court's decision is by order, the appellate clerk will transmit the order to the parties and to the lower court or agency.

(2) If the court's decision is by opinion or per curiam decision, the decision will be published on the courts' website at utcourts.gov.

~~(f)~~ Citation of decisions. Published decisions of the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals, and unpublished decisions of the Court of Appeals issued between October 1, 1998, and December 31, 2010, may be cited as precedent in all courts of the State. Other unpublished decisions may also be cited, so long as all parties and the court are supplied with accurate copies at the time all such decisions are first cited.

Section 4. Rule 58A, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

Rule 58A. Entry of judgment; abstract of judgment.

(a) Separate document required. Every judgment and amended judgment must be set out in a separate document ordinarily titled "Judgment"-or, as appropriate, "Decree."

If the prevailing party or party directed by the court fails to timely serve a proposed judgment, any other party may prepare a proposed judgment and serve it on the other parties for review and approval as to form.

~~(c)~~ Effect of approval as to form. A party's approval as to form of a proposed judgment certifies that the proposed judgment accurately reflects the verdict or the court's decision. Approval as to form does not waive objections to the substance of the judgment.

~~(c)~~ Objecting to a proposed judgment. A party may object to the form of the proposed judgment by filing an objection within 7 days after the judgment is served.

~~(c)~~ Filing proposed judgment. The party preparing a proposed judgment must file it:

~~(c)(4)~~ after all other parties have approved the form of the judgment; (The party preparing the proposed judgment must indicate the means by which approval was received: in person; by telephone; by signature; by email; etc.)

~~(c)(4)~~ after the time to object to the form of the judgment has expired; (The party preparing the proposed judgment must also file a certificate of service of the proposed judgment.) or

~~(c)(4)~~ within 7 days after a party has objected to the form of the judgment. (The party preparing the proposed judgment may also file a response to the objection.)

(e) Time of entry of judgment.

~~(e)~~ If a separate document is not required, a judgment is complete and is entered when it is signed by the judge and recorded in the docket.

~~(e)~~ If a separate document is required, a judgment is complete and is entered at the earlier of these events:

~~(e)(2)~~ the judgment is set out in a separate document signed by the judge and recorded in the docket; or

~~(e)(2)~~ 150 days have run from the clerk recording the decision, however designated, that provides the basis for the entry of judgment.

(f) Award of attorney fees. A motion or claim for attorney fees does not affect the finality of a judgment for any purpose [~~, but under Rule of Appellate Procedure 4,~~]. Except as provided in Rule 73(g), the time in which to file the notice of appeal runs from the disposition of the motion or claim as described in Rule of Appellate Procedure 4.

(g) Notice of judgment. The party preparing the judgment shall promptly serve a copy of the signed judgment on the other parties in the manner provided in Rule 5 and promptly file proof of service with the court. Except as provided in Rule of Appellate Procedure 4(g), the time for filing a notice of appeal is not affected by this requirement.

(h) Judgment after death of a party. If a party dies after a verdict or decision upon any issue of fact and before judgment, judgment may nevertheless be entered.

(i) Judgment by confession. If a judgment by confession is authorized by statute, the party seeking the judgment must file with the clerk a statement, verified by the defendant, as follows:

~~(i)~~ If the judgment is for money due or to become due, the statement must concisely state the claim and that the specified sum is due or to become due.

~~(i)~~ If the judgment is for the purpose of securing the plaintiff against a contingent liability, the statement must state concisely the claim and that the specified sum does not exceed the liability.

~~(i)~~ The statement must authorize the entry of judgment for the specified sum.

The clerk must sign the judgment for the specified sum.

(j) Abstract of judgment. The clerk may abstract a judgment by a signed writing under seal of the court that:

~~(j)~~ identifies the court, the case name, the case number, the judge or clerk that signed the judgment, the date the judgment was signed, and the date the judgment was recorded in the registry of actions and the registry of judgments;

~~(j)~~ states whether the time for appeal has passed and whether an appeal has been filed;

~~(j)~~ states whether the judgment has been stayed and when the stay will expire; and

~~(j)~~ if the language of the judgment is known to the clerk, quotes verbatim the operative language of the judgment or attaches a copy of the judgment.

Section 5. Rule 73, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

(d) Liability for fees. The court may decide issues of liability for fees before receiving submissions on the value of services. If the court has established liability for fees, the party claiming them may file an affidavit and a proposed order. The court will enter an order for the claimed amount unless another party objects within 7 days after the affidavit and proposed order are filed.

(e) Fees claimed in complaint. If a party claims attorney fees under paragraph (f), the complaint must state the basis for attorney fees, cite the law or attach a copy of the contract authorizing the award, and state that the attorney will not share the fee in violation of Rule of Professional Conduct 5.4.

~~(f)~~ Fees upon entry of uncontested judgment. When a party seeks a judgment, the responding party does not contest entry of judgment by presenting at a hearing either evidence or argument, and the party seeking the judgment has complied with paragraph (e) of this rule, the request for judgment may include a request for attorney fees, and the clerk or the court shall allow any amount requested up to $350.00 for such attorney fees without a supporting affidavit.
