(a) the offense is committed either wholly or partly within the state;

(b) the conduct outside the state constitutes an attempt to commit an offense within the state;

(c) the conduct outside the state constitutes a conspiracy to commit an offense within the state and an act in furtherance of the conspiracy occurs in the state; or

(d) the conduct within the state constitutes an attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit in another jurisdiction an offense under the laws of both this state and the other jurisdiction.

(2) An offense is committed partly within this state if either the conduct which is any element of the offense, or the result which is an element, occurs within this state.

(3) In homicide offenses, the "result" is either the physical contact which causes death or the death itself.

(a) If the body of a homicide victim is found within the state, the death shall be presumed to have occurred within the state.

(b) If jurisdiction is based on this presumption, this state retains jurisdiction unless the defendant proves by clear and convincing evidence that:

(i) the result of the homicide did not occur in this state; and

(ii) the defendant did not engage in any conduct in this state which is any element of the offense.

(4) [~~(a)~~] An offense which is based on an omission to perform a duty imposed by the law of this state is committed within the state regardless of the location of the offender at the time of the omission.

(d) If after the prosecution has met its burden of proof under Subsection (5)(c) the defendant claims that the state is deprived of jurisdiction or may not exercise jurisdiction, the burden is upon the defendant to prove by a preponderance of the evidence:

(b) For purposes of Subsection (1)(a), an offense which is based on a violation of Chapter 6, Part 11, Identity Fraud Act, is committed partly within this state, regardless of the location of the offender at the time of the offense, if the victim of the identity fraud resides or is found in this state.

Section 59. Section 80-3-406 is amended to read:

80-3-406. Permanency plan -- Reunification services.

(1) If the juvenile court orders continued removal at the dispositional hearing under Section 80-3-402, and that the minor remain in the custody of the division, the juvenile court shall first:

(a) establish a primary permanency plan and a concurrent permanency plan for the minor in accordance with this section; and

(b) determine whether, in view of the primary permanency plan, reunification services are appropriate for the minor and the minor's family under Subsections (5) through (8).

(2) (a) The concurrent permanency plan shall include:

(i) a representative list of the conditions under which the primary permanency plan will be abandoned in favor of the concurrent permanency plan; and

(ii) an explanation of the effect of abandoning or modifying the primary permanency plan.

(b) In determining the primary permanency plan and concurrent permanency plan, the juvenile court shall consider:

(i) the preference for kinship placement over nonkinship placement, including the rebuttable presumption described in Subsection 80-3-302(7)(a);

(ii) the potential for a guardianship placement if parental rights are terminated and no appropriate adoption placement is available; and

(iii) the use of an individualized permanency plan, only as a last resort.

(3) (a) The juvenile court may amend a minor's primary permanency plan before the establishment of a final permanency plan under Section 80-3-409.

(b) The juvenile court is not limited to the terms of the concurrent permanency plan in the event that the primary permanency plan is abandoned.

(c) If, at any time, the juvenile court determines that reunification is no longer a minor's primary permanency plan, the juvenile court shall conduct a permanency hearing in accordance with Section 80-3-409 on or before the earlier of:

(i) 30 days after the day on which the juvenile court makes the determination described in this Subsection (3)(c); or

(ii) the day on which the provision of reunification services, described in Section 80-3-409, ends.

(4) (a) Because of the state's interest in and responsibility to protect and provide permanency for minors who are abused, neglected, or dependent, the Legislature finds that a parent's interest in receiving reunification services is limited.

(b) The juvenile court may determine that:

(i) efforts to reunify a minor with the minor's family are not reasonable or appropriate, based on the individual circumstances; and

(ii) reunification services should not be provided.

(c) In determining reasonable efforts to be made with respect to a minor, and in making reasonable efforts, the juvenile court and the division shall consider the minor's health, safety, and welfare as the paramount concern.

(5) There is a presumption that reunification services should not be provided to a parent if the juvenile court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that any of the following circumstances exist:

(a) the whereabouts of the parents are unknown, based on a verified affidavit indicating that a reasonably diligent search has failed to locate the parent;

(b) subject to Subsection (6)(a), the parent is suffering from a mental illness of such magnitude that the mental illness renders the parent incapable of utilizing reunification services;

(c) the minor was previously adjudicated as an abused child due to physical abuse, sexual abuse, or sexual exploitation, and following the adjudication the child:

(i) was removed from the custody of the minor's parent;

(ii) was subsequently returned to the custody of the parent; and

(iii) is being removed due to additional physical abuse, sexual abuse, or sexual exploitation;

(d) the parent:

(i) caused the death of another minor through abuse or neglect;

(ii) committed, aided, abetted, attempted, conspired, or solicited to commit:

(A) murder or manslaughter of a minor; or

(B) child abuse homicide;

(iii) committed sexual abuse against the minor;

(iv) is [~~a registered sex offender or required to register as a sex offender~~]a sex offender under Subsection 53-29-202(2)(b); or

(v) (A) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causes the death of another parent of the minor;

(B) is identified by a law enforcement agency as the primary suspect in an investigation for intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the minor; or

(C) is being prosecuted for or has been convicted of intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the minor;

(e) the minor suffered severe abuse by the parent or by any individual known by the parent if the parent knew or reasonably should have known that the individual was abusing the minor;

(f) the minor is adjudicated as an abused minor as a result of severe abuse by the parent, and the juvenile court finds that it would not benefit the minor to pursue reunification services with the offending parent;

(g) the parent's rights are terminated with regard to any other minor;

(h) the minor was removed from the minor's home on at least two previous occasions and reunification services were offered or provided to the family at those times;

(i) the parent has abandoned the minor for a period of six months or longer;

(j) the parent permitted the minor to reside, on a permanent or temporary basis, at a location where the parent knew or should have known that a clandestine laboratory operation was located;

(k) except as provided in Subsection (6)(b), with respect to a parent who is the minor's birth mother, the minor has fetal alcohol syndrome, fetal alcohol spectrum disorder, or was exposed to an illegal or prescription drug that was abused by the minor's mother while the minor was in utero, if the minor was taken into division custody for that reason, unless the mother agrees to enroll in, is currently enrolled in, or has recently and successfully completed a substance use disorder treatment program approved by the department; or

(l) any other circumstance that the juvenile court determines should preclude reunification efforts or services.

(6) (a) The juvenile court shall base the finding under Subsection (5)(b) on competent evidence from at least two medical or mental health professionals, who are not associates, establishing that, even with the provision of services, the parent is not likely to be capable of adequately caring for the minor within 12 months after the day on which the juvenile court finding is made.

(b) The juvenile court may disregard the provisions of Subsection (5)(k) if the juvenile court finds, under the circumstances of the case, that the substance use disorder treatment described in Subsection (5)(k) is not warranted.

(7) In determining whether reunification services are appropriate, the juvenile court shall take into consideration:

(a) failure of the parent to respond to previous services or comply with a previous child and family plan;

(b) the fact that the minor was abused while the parent was under the influence of drugs or alcohol;

(c) any history of violent behavior directed at the minor or an immediate family member;

(d) whether a parent continues to live with an individual who abused the minor;

(e) any patterns of the parent's behavior that have exposed the minor to repeated abuse;

(f) testimony by a competent professional that the parent's behavior is unlikely to be successful; and

(g) whether the parent has expressed an interest in reunification with the minor.

(8) If, under Subsections (5)(b) through (l), the juvenile court does not order reunification services, a permanency hearing shall be conducted within 30 days in accordance with Section 80-3-409.

(9) (a) Subject to Subsections (9)(b) through (e), if the juvenile court determines that reunification services are appropriate for the minor and the minor's family, the juvenile court shall provide for reasonable parent-time with the parent or parents from whose custody the minor was removed, unless parent-time is not in the best interest of the minor.

(b) Parent-time is in the best interests of a minor unless the juvenile court makes a finding that it is necessary to deny parent-time in order to:

(i) protect the physical safety of the minor;

(ii) protect the life of the minor; or

(iii) prevent the minor from being traumatized by contact with the parent due to the minor's fear of the parent in light of the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (9)(a), a juvenile court may not deny parent-time based solely on a parent's failure to:

(i) prove that the parent has not used legal or illegal substances; or

(ii) comply with an aspect of the child and family plan that is ordered by the juvenile court.

(d) Parent-time shall be under the least restrictive conditions necessary to:

(i) protect the physical safety of the child; or

(ii) prevent the child from being traumatized by contact with the parent due to the minor's fear of the parent in light of the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect.

(e) (i) The division or the person designated by the division or a court to supervise a parent-time session may deny parent-time for the session if the division or the supervising person determines that, based on the parent's condition, it is necessary to deny parent-time to:

(A) protect the physical safety of the child;

(B) protect the life of the child; or

(C) consistent with Subsection (9)(e)(ii), prevent the child from being traumatized by contact with the parent.

(ii) In determining whether the condition of the parent described in Subsection (9)(e)(i) will traumatize a child, the division or the person supervising the parent-time session shall consider the impact that the parent's condition will have on the child in light of:

(A) the child's fear of the parent; and

(B) the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect.

(10) (a) If the juvenile court determines that reunification services are appropriate, the juvenile court shall order that the division make reasonable efforts to provide services to the minor and the minor's parent for the purpose of facilitating reunification of the family, for a specified period of time.

(b) In providing the services described in Subsection (10)(a), the juvenile court and the division shall consider the minor's health, safety, and welfare as the paramount concern.

(11) In cases where sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, abandonment, severe abuse, or severe neglect are involved:

(a) the juvenile court does not have any duty to order reunification services; and

(b) the division does not have a duty to make reasonable efforts to or in any other way attempt to provide reunification services or attempt to rehabilitate the offending parent or parents.

(12) (a) The juvenile court shall:

(i) determine whether the services offered or provided by the division under the child and family plan constitute reasonable efforts on the part of the division;

(ii) determine and define the responsibilities of the parent under the child and family plan in accordance with Subsection 80-3-307(5)(g)(iii); and

(iii) identify verbally on the record, or in a written document provided to the parties, the responsibilities described in Subsection (12)(a)(ii), for the purpose of assisting in any future determination regarding the provision of reasonable efforts, in accordance with state and federal law.

(b) If the parent is in a substance use disorder treatment program, other than a certified drug court program, the juvenile court may order the parent:

(i) to submit to supplementary drug or alcohol testing, in accordance with Subsection 80-3-110(6), in addition to the testing recommended by the parent's substance use disorder program based on a finding of reasonable suspicion that the parent is abusing drugs or alcohol; and

(ii) to provide the results of drug or alcohol testing recommended by the substance use disorder program to the juvenile court or division.

(13) (a) The time period for reunification services may not exceed 12 months from the day on which the minor was initially removed from the minor's home, unless the time period is extended under Subsection 80-3-409(7).

(b) This section does not entitle any parent to an entire 12 months of reunification services.

(14) (a) If reunification services are ordered, the juvenile court may terminate those services at any time.

(b) If, at any time, continuation of reasonable efforts to reunify a minor is determined to be inconsistent with the final permanency plan for the minor established under Section 80-3-409, then measures shall be taken, in a timely manner, to:

(i) place the minor in accordance with the final permanency plan; and

(ii) complete whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the minor.

(15) Any physical custody of the minor by the parent or a relative during the period described in Subsections (10) through (14) does not interrupt the running of the period.

(16) (a) If reunification services are ordered, the juvenile court shall conduct a permanency hearing in accordance with Section 80-3-409 before the day on which the time period for reunification services expires.

(b) The permanency hearing shall be held no later than 12 months after the original removal of the minor.

(c) If reunification services are not ordered, a permanency hearing shall be conducted within 30 days in accordance with Section 80-3-409.

(17) With regard to a minor in the custody of the division whose parent or parents are ordered to receive reunification services but who have abandoned that minor for a period of six months from the day on which reunification services are ordered:

(a) the juvenile court shall terminate reunification services; and

(b) the division shall petition the juvenile court for termination of parental rights.

(18) When a minor is under the custody of the division and has been separated from a sibling due to foster care or adoptive placement, a juvenile court may order sibling visitation, subject to the division obtaining consent from the sibling's guardian, according to the juvenile court's determination of the best interests of the minor for whom the hearing is held.

(19) (a) If reunification services are not ordered under this section, and the whereabouts of a parent becomes known within six months after the day on which the out-of-home placement of the minor is made, the juvenile court may order the division to provide reunification services.

(b) The time limits described in this section are not tolled by the parent's absence.

(20) (a) If a parent is incarcerated or institutionalized, the juvenile court shall order reasonable services unless the juvenile court determines that those services would be detrimental to the minor.

(b) In making the determination described in Subsection (20)(a), the juvenile court shall consider:

(i) the age of the minor;

(ii) the degree of parent-child bonding;

(iii) the length of the sentence;

(iv) the nature of the treatment;

(v) the nature of the crime or illness;

(vi) the degree of detriment to the minor if services are not offered;

(vii) for a minor who is 10 years old or older, the minor's attitude toward the implementation of family reunification services; and

(viii) any other appropriate factors.

(c) Reunification services for an incarcerated parent are subject to the time limitations imposed in this section.

(d) Reunification services for an institutionalized parent are subject to the time limitations imposed in this section, unless the juvenile court determines that continued reunification services would be in the minor's best interest.

(17) (a) When one or both parents are servicemembers or contemplating joining a uniformed service, the parents should resolve issues of custodial responsibility in the event of deployment as soon as practicable through reaching a voluntary agreement pursuant to Section 78B-20-201 or through court order obtained pursuant to this part.

(a) resides with an individual or provides an individual with access to the minor child; and

(b) knows that the individual:

(i) is required to register as a sex offender [~~or~~], a kidnap offender, or a child abuse offender for an offense committed against a minor child under [~~Title 77, Chapter 41, Sex and Kidnap Offender Registry~~]Title 53, Chapter 29, Sex, Kidnap, and Child Abuse Offender Registry; or

(b) a modification of the terms and conditions of the order would be an improvement for and in the best interest of the minor child; and

(c) (i) both parents have complied in good faith with the dispute resolution procedure in accordance with Subsection 81-9-205(8); or

(ii) if no dispute resolution procedure is contained in the order that established joint legal custody or joint physical custody, the court orders the parents to participate in a dispute resolution procedure in accordance with Subsection 81-9-205(13) unless the parents certify that, in good faith, they have used a dispute resolution procedure to resolve their dispute.

(4) (a) In determining whether the best interest of a minor child will be served by either modifying or terminating the joint legal custody or joint physical custody order, the court shall, in addition to other factors the court considers relevant, consider the factors described in Sections 81-9-204 and 81-9-205.

(i) collect a tax on a transaction described in Subsection 59-12-103(1); and

(ii) remit the tax to the commission as provided in this part.

(e) The collection and remittance of a tax under this chapter by a seller that is registered under the agreement may not be used as a factor in determining whether that seller is required by this Subsection (2) to:

(i) pay a tax, fee, or charge under:

(A) Title 10, Chapter 1, Part 3, Municipal Energy Sales and Use Tax Act;

(B) Title 10, Chapter 1, Part 4, Municipal Telecommunications License Tax Act;

(f) A person shall pay a use tax imposed by this chapter on a transaction described in Subsection 59-12-103(1) if:

(3) (a) Except as provided in Section 59-12-107.1, a seller shall collect a tax under this chapter from a purchaser.

(b) A seller may not collect as tax an amount, without regard to fractional parts of one cent, in excess of the tax computed at the rates prescribed by this chapter.

(c) (i) Each seller shall:

(A) give the purchaser a receipt for the tax collected; or

(B) bill the tax as a separate item and declare the name of this state and the seller's sales and use tax license number on the invoice for the sale.

(ii) The receipt or invoice is prima facie evidence that the seller has collected the tax and relieves the purchaser of the liability for reporting the tax to the commission as a consumer.

(d) A seller is not required to maintain a separate account for the tax collected, but is considered to be a person charged with receipt, safekeeping, and transfer of public money.

(e) Taxes collected by a seller pursuant to this chapter shall be held in trust for the benefit of the state and for payment to the commission in the manner and at the time provided for in this chapter.

(f) If any seller, during any reporting period, collects as a tax an amount in excess of the lawful state and local percentage of total taxable sales allowed under this chapter, the seller shall remit to the commission the full amount of the tax imposed under this chapter, plus any excess.

(g) If the accounting methods regularly employed by the seller in the transaction of the seller's business are such that reports of sales made during a calendar month or quarterly period will impose unnecessary hardships, the commission may accept reports at intervals that, in the commission's opinion, will better suit the convenience of the taxpayer or seller and will not jeopardize collection of the tax.

(h) (i) For a purchase paid with specie legal tender as defined in Section 59-1-1501.1, and until such time as the commission accepts specie legal tender for the payment of a tax under this chapter, if the commission requires a seller to remit a tax under this chapter in legal tender other than specie legal tender, the seller shall state on the seller's books and records and on an invoice, bill of sale, or similar document provided to the purchaser:

(A) the purchase price in specie legal tender and in the legal tender the seller is required to remit to the commission;

(B) subject to Subsection (3)(h)(ii), the amount of tax due under this chapter in specie legal tender and in the legal tender the seller is required to remit to the commission;

(C) the tax rate under this chapter applicable to the purchase; and

(D) the date of the purchase.

(ii) (A) Subject to Subsection (3)(h)(ii)(B), for purposes of determining the amount of tax due under Subsection (3)(h)(i), a seller shall use the most recent London fixing price for the specie legal tender the purchaser paid.

(B) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commission may make rules for determining the amount of tax due under Subsection (3)(h)(i) if the London fixing price is not available for a particular day.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsections (5) through (7) and Section 59-12-108, the sales or use tax imposed by this chapter is due and payable to the commission quarterly on or before the last day of the month next succeeding each quarterly calendar period.

(b) (i) Each seller shall, on or before the last day of the month next succeeding each quarterly calendar period, file with the commission a return for the preceding quarterly period.

(ii) The seller shall remit with the return under Subsection (4)(b)(i) the amount of the tax required under this chapter to be collected or paid for the period covered by the return.

(c) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(c), a return shall contain information and be in a form the commission prescribes by rule.

(d) (i) Subject to Subsection (4)(d)(ii), the sales tax as computed in the return shall be based on the total nonexempt sales made during the period for which the return is filed, including both cash and charge sales.

(ii) For a sale that includes the delivery or installation of tangible personal property at a location other than a seller's place of business described in Subsection (2)(a)(i), if the delivery or installation is separately stated on an invoice or receipt, a seller may compute the tax due on the sale for purposes of Subsection (4)(d)(i) based on the amount the seller receives for that sale during each period for which the seller receives payment for the sale.

(e) (i) The use tax as computed in the return shall be based on the total amount of purchases for storage, use, or other consumption in this state made during the period for which the return is filed, including both cash and charge purchases.

(ii) (A) As used in this Subsection (4)(e)(ii), "qualifying purchaser" means a purchaser that is required to remit taxes under this chapter, but is not required to remit taxes monthly in accordance with Section 59-12-108, and that converts tangible personal property into real property.

(B) Subject to Subsections (4)(e)(ii)(C) and (D), a qualifying purchaser may remit the taxes due under this chapter on tangible personal property for which the qualifying purchaser claims an exemption as allowed under Subsection 59-12-104(23) or (25) based on the period in which the qualifying purchaser receives payment, in accordance with Subsection (4)(e)(ii)(C), for the conversion of the tangible personal property into real property.

(C) A qualifying purchaser remitting taxes due under this chapter in accordance with Subsection (4)(e)(ii)(B) shall remit an amount equal to the total amount of tax due on the qualifying purchaser's purchase of the tangible personal property that was converted into real property multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the payment received in the period for the qualifying purchaser's sale of the tangible personal property that was converted into real property and the denominator of which is the entire sales price for the qualifying purchaser's sale of the tangible personal property that was converted into real property.

(D) A qualifying purchaser may remit taxes due under this chapter in accordance with this Subsection (4)(e)(ii) only if the books and records that the qualifying purchaser keeps in the qualifying purchaser's regular course of business identify by reasonable and verifiable standards that the tangible personal property was converted into real property.

(f) (i) Subject to Subsection (4)(f)(ii) and in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commission may by rule extend the time for making returns and paying the taxes.

(ii) An extension under Subsection (4)(f)(i) may not be for more than 90 days.

(g) The commission may require returns and payment of the tax to be made for other than quarterly periods if the commission considers it necessary in order to ensure the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter.

(h) (i) The commission may require a seller that files a simplified electronic return with the commission to file an additional electronic report with the commission.

(ii) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commission may make rules providing:

(A) the information required to be included in the additional electronic report described in Subsection (4)(h)(i); and

(B) one or more due dates for filing the additional electronic report described in Subsection (4)(h)(i).

(5) (a) As used in this Subsection (5) and Subsection (6)(b), ["]"voluntary seller" means a seller that is:

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(b)(ii), a tax a voluntary seller collects in accordance with Subsection (2)(d) is due and payable:

(A) to the commission;

(B) annually; and

(C) on or before the last day of the month immediately following the last day of each calendar year.

(ii) The commission may require that a tax a voluntary seller collects in accordance with Subsection (2)(d) be due and payable:

(A) to the commission; and

(B) on the last day of the month immediately following any month in which the seller accumulates a total of at least $1,000 in agreement sales and use tax.

(c) (i) If a voluntary seller remits a tax to the commission in accordance with Subsection (5)(b), the voluntary seller shall file a return:

(A) with the commission;

(B) with respect to the tax;

(C) containing information prescribed by the commission; and

(D) on a form prescribed by the commission.

(ii) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commission shall make rules prescribing:

(A) the information required to be contained in a return described in Subsection (5)(c)(i); and

(B) the form described in Subsection (5)(c)(i)(D).

(d) A tax a voluntary seller collects in accordance with this Subsection (5) shall be calculated on the basis of the total amount of taxable transactions under Subsection 59-12-103(1) the voluntary seller completes, including:

(i) a cash transaction; and

(ii) a charge transaction.

(6) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (6)(b), a tax a seller that files a simplified electronic return collects in accordance with this chapter is due and payable:

(i) monthly on or before the last day of the month immediately following the month for which the seller collects a tax under this chapter; and

(ii) for the month for which the seller collects a tax under this chapter.

(b) A tax a voluntary seller that files a simplified electronic return collects in accordance with this chapter is due and payable as provided in Subsection (5).

(7) (a) On each vehicle sale made by other than a regular licensed vehicle dealer, the purchaser shall pay the sales or use tax directly to the commission if the vehicle is subject to titling or registration under the laws of this state.

(b) The commission shall collect the tax described in Subsection (7)(a) when the vehicle is titled or registered.

(8) If any sale of tangible personal property or any other taxable transaction under Subsection 59-12-103(1), is made by a wholesaler to a retailer:

(a) the wholesaler is not responsible for the collection or payment of the tax imposed on the sale; and

(b) the retailer is responsible for the collection or payment of the tax imposed on the sale if:

(i) the retailer represents that the tangible personal property, product transferred electronically, or service is purchased by the retailer for resale; and

(ii) the tangible personal property, product transferred electronically, or service is not subsequently resold.

(9) If any sale of property or service subject to the tax is made to a person prepaying sales or use tax in accordance with Title 63M, Chapter 5, Resource Development Act, or to a contractor or subcontractor of that person:

(a) the person to whom such payment or consideration is payable is not responsible for the collection or payment of the sales or use tax; and

(b) the person prepaying the sales or use tax is responsible for the collection or payment of the sales or use tax if the person prepaying the sales or use tax represents that the amount prepaid as sales or use tax has not been fully credited against sales or use tax due and payable under the rules promulgated by the commission.

(10) (a) For purposes of this Subsection (10):

(i) Except as provided in Subsection (10)(a)(ii), "bad debt" means the same as that term is defined in Section 166, Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) "Bad debt" does not include:

(A) an amount included in the purchase price of tangible personal property, a product transferred electronically, or a service that is:

(I) not a transaction described in Subsection 59-12-103(1); or

(B) a financing charge;

(C) interest;

(D) a tax imposed under this chapter on the purchase price of tangible personal property, a product transferred electronically, or a service;

(E) an uncollectible amount on tangible personal property or a product transferred electronically that:

(I) is subject to a tax under this chapter; and

(II) remains in the possession of a seller until the full purchase price is paid;

(F) an expense incurred in attempting to collect any debt; or

(G) an amount that a seller does not collect on repossessed property.

(b) (i) To the extent an amount remitted in accordance with Subsection (4)(d) later becomes bad debt, a seller may deduct the bad debt from the total amount from which a tax under this chapter is calculated on a return.

(ii) A qualifying purchaser, as defined in Subsection (4)(e)(ii)(A), may deduct from the total amount of taxes due under this chapter the amount of tax the qualifying purchaser paid on the qualifying purchaser's purchase of tangible personal property converted into real property to the extent that:

(A) tax was remitted in accordance with Subsection (4)(e) on that tangible personal property converted into real property;

(B) the qualifying purchaser's sale of that tangible personal property converted into real property later becomes bad debt; and

(C) the books and records that the qualifying purchaser keeps in the qualifying purchaser's regular course of business identify by reasonable and verifiable standards that the tangible personal property was converted into real property.

(c) A seller may file a refund claim with the commission if:

(i) the amount of bad debt for the time period described in Subsection (10)(e) exceeds the amount of the seller's sales that are subject to a tax under this chapter for that same time period; and

(ii) as provided in Section 59-1-1410.

(d) A bad debt deduction under this section may not include interest.

(e) A bad debt may be deducted under this Subsection (10) on a return for the time period during which the bad debt:

(i) is written off as uncollectible in the seller's books and records; and

(ii) would be eligible for a bad debt deduction:

(A) for federal income tax purposes; and

(B) if the seller were required to file a federal income tax return.

(f) If a seller recovers any portion of bad debt for which the seller makes a deduction or claims a refund under this Subsection (10), the seller shall report and remit a tax under this chapter:

(i) on the portion of the bad debt the seller recovers; and

(ii) on a return filed for the time period for which the portion of the bad debt is recovered.

(g) For purposes of reporting a recovery of a portion of bad debt under Subsection (10)(f), a seller shall apply amounts received on the bad debt in the following order:

(i) in a proportional amount:

(A) to the purchase price of the tangible personal property, product transferred electronically, or service; and

(B) to the tax due under this chapter on the tangible personal property, product transferred electronically, or service; and

(ii) to:

(A) interest charges;

(B) service charges; and

(C) other charges.

(h) A seller's certified service provider may make a deduction or claim a refund for bad debt on behalf of the seller:

(i) in accordance with this Subsection (10); and

(ii) if the certified service provider credits or refunds the entire amount of the bad debt deduction or refund to the seller.

(i) A seller may allocate bad debt among the states that are members of the agreement if the seller's books and records support that allocation.

(b) A violation of this section is punishable as provided in Section 59-1-401.

(d) For purposes of prosecution under this section, each quarterly tax period in which a seller, with intent to evade any tax, collects a tax and fails to timely remit the full amount of the tax required to be remitted constitutes a separate offense.

Section 2. Section 59-12-107.6 is amended to read:

59-12-107.6. Marketplace facilitator collection, remittance, and payment of sales tax obligation -- Marketplace seller collection, remittance, and payment of sales tax obligation -- Liability for collection.

(1) A marketplace facilitator shall pay or collect and remit taxes imposed by this chapter in accordance with Section 59-12-107:

(a) if the marketplace facilitator meets one or more of the criteria provided for in Subsection 59-12-107(2)(a) or (b); and

(b) on the sales the marketplace facilitator made on the marketplace facilitator's own behalf.

(2) (a) A marketplace facilitator shall pay or collect and remit taxes imposed by this chapter in accordance with Subsection (3) if the marketplace facilitator, in the previous calendar year or the current calendar year, makes sales of tangible personal property, products transferred electronically, or services on the marketplace facilitator's own behalf or facilitates sales on behalf of one or more marketplace sellers[~~:~~]

[~~(i)~~] that exceed $100,000[~~; or~~].

[~~(ii) in 200 or more separate transactions.~~]

(b) For purposes of determining if a marketplace facilitator [~~meets or exceeds one or both thresholds~~]exceeds the threshold described in this Subsection (2), a marketplace facilitator shall separately total:

(i) the marketplace facilitator's sales; and

(ii) any sales the marketplace facilitator makes or facilitates for a marketplace seller.

(c) A marketplace facilitator without a physical presence in this state shall begin collecting and remitting the taxes imposed by this chapter no later than the first day of the calendar quarter that is at least 60 days after the day on which the marketplace facilitator [~~meets or exceeds either~~]exceeds the threshold described in Subsection (2)(a).

(3) A marketplace facilitator described in Subsection (2) shall pay or collect and remit taxes imposed by this chapter for each sale that the marketplace facilitator:

(a) makes on the marketplace facilitator's own behalf; or

(b) makes or facilitates on behalf of a marketplace seller, regardless of:

(i) whether the marketplace seller has an obligation to pay or collect and remit taxes under Section 59-12-107;

(ii) whether the marketplace seller would have been required to pay or collect and remit taxes under Section 59-12-107 if the marketplace facilitator had not facilitated the sale; or

(iii) the amount of the sales price or the purchase price that accrues to or benefits the marketplace facilitator, the marketplace seller, or any other person.

(4) A marketplace facilitator shall comply with the procedures and requirements in this chapter and Chapter 1, General Taxation Policies, for sellers required to pay or collect and remit taxes except that the marketplace facilitator shall segregate, in the marketplace facilitator's books and records:

(a) the sales that the marketplace facilitator makes on the marketplace facilitator's own behalf; and

(b) the sales that the marketplace facilitator makes or facilitates on behalf of one or more marketplace sellers.

(5) (a) The commission may audit the marketplace facilitator for sales made or facilitated through the marketplace facilitator's marketplace on behalf of one or more marketplace sellers.

(b) The commission may not audit the marketplace seller for sales made or facilitated through the marketplace facilitator's marketplace on the marketplace seller's behalf.

(6) Nothing in this section prohibits a marketplace facilitator from providing in a marketplace facilitator's agreement with a marketplace seller for the recovery of taxes, and any related interest or penalties to the extent that a tax, interest, or penalty is assessed by the state in an audit of the marketplace facilitator on a retail sale:

(a) that a marketplace facilitator makes or facilitates on behalf of a marketplace seller; and

(b) for which the marketplace facilitator relied on incorrect or incomplete information provided by the marketplace seller.

[~~(7) (a) Subject to Subsections (7)(b) and (c), a marketplace facilitator is not liable for failing to collect the taxes under this chapter for a sale on which the marketplace facilitator failed to collect taxes if the marketplace facilitator demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the commission, that:~~]

[~~(i) the marketplace facilitator made or facilitated the sale through the marketplace facilitator's marketplace on or before December 31, 2022;~~]

[~~(ii) the marketplace facilitator made or facilitated the sale on behalf of a marketplace seller and not on behalf of the marketplace facilitator;~~]

[~~(iii) the marketplace facilitator and the marketplace seller are not affiliates; and~~]

[~~(iv) the failure to collect taxes was due to a good faith error other than an error in sourcing.~~]

[~~(b) For purposes of Subsection (7)(a):~~]

[~~(i) for sales made or facilitated during the 2019 or 2020 calendar year, the marketplace facilitator is not liable for the amount the marketplace facilitator fails to collect due to error that is equal to the error rate, but not to exceed a 7% error rate;~~]

[~~(ii) for sales made or facilitated during the 2021 calendar year, the marketplace facilitator is not liable for the amount the marketplace facilitator fails to collect due to error that is equal to the error rate, but not to exceed a 5% error rate; and~~]

[~~(iii) for sales made or facilitated during the 2022 calendar year, the marketplace facilitator is not liable for the amount the marketplace facilitator fails to collect due to error that is equal to the error rate, but not to exceed a 3% error rate.~~]

[~~(c) The commission shall calculate the percentages described in Subsection (7)(b):~~]

[~~(i) using the total taxes due on sales that:~~]

[~~(A) a marketplace facilitator made or facilitated in this state on behalf of one or more marketplace sellers during the calendar year that the sale for which the marketplace facilitator seeks relief was made or facilitated; and~~]

[~~(B) are sourced to the state; and~~]

[~~(ii) not including sales that the marketplace facilitator or the marketplace facilitator's affiliates directly made during the same calendar year.~~]

~~(8)~~ A marketplace seller shall pay or collect and remit taxes imposed by this chapter for a sale of tangible personal property, a product transferred electronically, or a service that the marketplace seller makes other than through a marketplace facilitator if:

(a) the sale is sourced to this state; and

(b) the marketplace seller's sales in this state, other than through a marketplace facilitator, in the previous calendar year or the current calendar year[~~:~~]

[~~(i)~~] exceed $100,000[~~; or~~].

[~~(ii) occur in 200 or more separate transactions.~~]

~~(9)~~ (a) A marketplace seller may not pay or collect and remit taxes imposed by this chapter for any sale for which a marketplace facilitator is required to pay or collect and remit.

(b) A marketplace seller is not liable for a marketplace facilitator's failure to pay or collect and remit, or the marketplace facilitator's underpayment of, taxes imposed by this chapter for any sale for which a marketplace facilitator is required to pay or collect and remit the taxes imposed by this chapter.

~~(10)~~ (a) A purchaser of tangible personal property, a product transferred electronically, or a service may file a claim for a refund with the marketplace facilitator if the purchaser overpaid taxes imposed under this chapter.

(b) No person may bring a class action against a marketplace facilitator in any court of the state on behalf of purchasers arising from or in any way related to an overpayment of taxes collected and remitted on sales made or facilitated by the marketplace facilitator on behalf of a marketplace seller, regardless of whether such claim is characterized as a tax refund claim.

~~(11)~~ Nothing in this section affects the obligation of a purchaser to remit the use tax described in Subsection 59-12-107(2)(f) on any sale for which a marketplace facilitator or marketplace seller failed to collect and remit a tax imposed by this chapter.

(g) If the accounting methods regularly employed by the seller in the transaction of the seller's business are such that reports of sales made during a calendar month or quarterly period will impose unnecessary hardships, the commission may accept reports at intervals that, in the commission's opinion, will better suit the convenience of the taxpayer or seller and will not jeopardize collection of the tax.

(h) (i) For a purchase paid with specie legal tender as defined in Section 59-1-1501.1, and until such time as the commission accepts specie legal tender for the payment of a tax under this chapter, if the commission requires a seller to remit a tax under this chapter in legal tender other than specie legal tender, the seller shall state on the seller's books and records and on an invoice, bill of sale, or similar document provided to the purchaser:

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsections (5) through (7) and Section 59-12-108, the sales or use tax imposed by this chapter is due and payable to the commission quarterly on or before the last day of the month next succeeding each quarterly calendar period.

(c) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(c), a return shall contain information and be in a form the commission prescribes by rule.

(d) (i) Subject to Subsection (4)(d)(ii), the sales tax as computed in the return shall be based on the total nonexempt sales made during the period for which the return is filed, including both cash and charge sales.

(ii) For a sale that includes the delivery or installation of tangible personal property at a location other than a seller's place of business described in Subsection (2)(a)(i), if the delivery or installation is separately stated on an invoice or receipt, a seller may compute the tax due on the sale for purposes of Subsection (4)(d)(i) based on the amount the seller receives for that sale during each period for which the seller receives payment for the sale.

(e) (i) The use tax as computed in the return shall be based on the total amount of purchases for storage, use, or other consumption in this state made during the period for which the return is filed, including both cash and charge purchases.

(ii) (A) As used in this Subsection (4)(e)(ii), "qualifying purchaser" means a purchaser that is required to remit taxes under this chapter, but is not required to remit taxes monthly in accordance with Section 59-12-108, and that converts tangible personal property into real property.

(B) Subject to Subsections (4)(e)(ii)(C) and (D), a qualifying purchaser may remit the taxes due under this chapter on tangible personal property for which the qualifying purchaser claims an exemption as allowed under Subsection 59-12-104(23) or (25) based on the period in which the qualifying purchaser receives payment, in accordance with Subsection (4)(e)(ii)(C), for the conversion of the tangible personal property into real property.

(C) A qualifying purchaser remitting taxes due under this chapter in accordance with Subsection (4)(e)(ii)(B) shall remit an amount equal to the total amount of tax due on the qualifying purchaser's purchase of the tangible personal property that was converted into real property multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the payment received in the period for the qualifying purchaser's sale of the tangible personal property that was converted into real property and the denominator of which is the entire sales price for the qualifying purchaser's sale of the tangible personal property that was converted into real property.

(D) A qualifying purchaser may remit taxes due under this chapter in accordance with this Subsection (4)(e)(ii) only if the books and records that the qualifying purchaser keeps in the qualifying purchaser's regular course of business identify by reasonable and verifiable standards that the tangible personal property was converted into real property.

(f) (i) Subject to Subsection (4)(f)(ii) and in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commission may by rule extend the time for making returns and paying the taxes.

(ii) An extension under Subsection (4)(f)(i) may not be for more than 90 days.

(g) The commission may require returns and payment of the tax to be made for other than quarterly periods if the commission considers it necessary in order to ensure the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter.

(h) (i) The commission may require a seller that files a simplified electronic return with the commission to file an additional electronic report with the commission.

(ii) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commission may make rules providing:

(1) By following the procedures in Title 63G, Chapter 4, Administrative Procedures Act, the division may deny, suspend, disqualify, or revoke the license or permit of any [~~person~~]individual without receiving a record of the [~~person's~~]individual's conviction of crime when the division has been notified or has reason to believe the [~~person~~]individual:

(a) has committed any offenses for which mandatory suspension or revocation of a license is required upon conviction under Section 53-3-220;

(b) has, by reckless or unlawful driving of a motor vehicle, caused or contributed to an accident resulting in death or injury to any other [~~person~~]individual, or serious property damage;

(c) is incompetent to drive a motor vehicle or mobility vehicle or has a mental or physical disability rendering it unsafe for the [~~person~~]individual to drive a motor vehicle or mobility vehicle upon the highways;

(f) has been convicted of serious offenses against traffic laws governing the movement of motor vehicles with a frequency that indicates a disrespect for traffic laws and a disregard for the safety of other [~~persons~~]individuals on the highways.

(2) (a) (i) Except as provided in Subsection 53-3-218(3), and subject to Subsection (2)(a)(ii), the division may suspend a license of [~~a person~~]an individual under Subsection (1):

(A) when the [~~person~~]individual has failed to comply with the terms stated on a traffic citation issued in this state; or

(B) if the division receives a notification from a court as described in Subsection 41-6a-509(11)(d) or 41-6a-517(13)(b).

(ii) This Subsection (2) does not apply to highway weight limit violations or violations of law governing the transportation of hazardous materials.

(b) (i) This Subsection (2) may not be exercised unless notice of the pending suspension of the driving privilege has been sent at least 30 days previously to the [~~person~~]individual at the address provided to the division.

(ii) After clearance by the division, a report authorized by Section 53-3-104 may not contain any evidence of a suspension that occurred as a result of failure to comply with the terms stated on a traffic citation.

(3) Except as provided in Subsection 53-3-218(3), the division may not revoke, deny, suspend, or disqualify an individual's driver license based solely on:

(a) the individual's failure to appear;

(b) the individual's failure to pay an outstanding penalty accounts receivable; or

(c) the issuance of a bench warrant as a result of an event described in Subsection (3)(a)or (b).

(4) (a) The division shall make rules establishing a point system as provided for in this Subsection (4).

(b) (i) The division shall assign a number of points to each type of moving traffic violation as a measure of its seriousness.

(ii) The points shall be based upon actual relationships between types of traffic violations and motor vehicle traffic accidents.

(iii) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b)(iv), the division may not assess points against [~~a person's~~]an individual's driving record for a conviction of a traffic violation:

(A) that occurred in another state; and

(B) that was committed on or after July 1, 2011.

(iv) The provisions of Subsection (4)(b)(iii) do not apply to:

(A) a reckless or impaired driving violation or a speeding violation for exceeding the posted speed limit by 21 or more miles per hour; or

(B) an offense committed in another state which, if committed within Utah, would result in the mandatory suspension or revocation of a license upon conviction under Section 53-3-220.

(c) Every [~~person~~]individual convicted of a traffic violation shall have assessed against the [~~person's~~]individual's driving record the number of points that the division has assigned to the type of violation of which the [~~person~~]individual has been convicted, except that the number of points assessed shall be decreased by 10% if on the abstract of the court record of the conviction the court has graded the severity of violation as minimum, and shall be increased by 10% if on the abstract the court has graded the severity of violation as maximum.

(d) (i) A separate procedure for assessing points for speeding offenses shall be established by the division based upon the severity of the offense.

(ii) The hearing shall be documented, and the division or its authorized agent may administer oaths, may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of relevant books and papers, and may require a reexamination of the licensee.

(iii) One or more members of the division may conduct the hearing, and any decision made after a hearing before any number of the members of the division is as valid as if made after a hearing before the full membership of the division.

(iv) After the hearing the division shall either rescind or affirm its decision to deny, suspend, disqualify, or revoke the license.

(b) The denial, suspension, disqualification, or revocation of the license remains in effect pending qualifications determined by the division regarding [~~a person~~]an individual:

(ii) The temporary limited driver license described in this section:

(A) shall provide that the [~~person~~]individual may operate a motor vehicle only for the purpose of driving to or from the [~~person's~~]individual's place of employment, education, or child visitation;

(3) Savings accounts shall be transferable only on the books of the depository institution and only upon written application. Acceptance by the institution of the transferee as an account holder may only be upon terms approved by its board of directors. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as prohibiting the transfer of part or all of the funds in a transaction account to a third party by means of checks, drafts, or other instruments or by electronic means.

(4) The institution may treat the holder of record of a savings account as the owner of the account for all purposes and may disregard any notice to the contrary, unless the institution has acknowledged, in writing, notice of a pledge of the savings account.

7-1-610. Attorney-in-fact as to savings account -- Institution immune from liability.

Any depository institution may continue to recognize the authority of an attorney-in-fact authorized in writing to manage or to make withdrawals either in whole or in part from the savings account of a holder, whether minor or adult, until it is on actual notice of the revocation of [~~his~~]the authority of the attorney-in-fact. However, if the institution has received no written notice and is not on actual notice that the savings account holder has been adjudicated incompetent, it may pay or deliver the funds to the holder in accordance with the provision of the savings account contract, and the receipt or acquittance of the holder therefor shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge of the institution for the payment or delivery so made.

Section 17. Section 7-1-803 is amended to read:

7-1-803. Conflicting interests of commissioner, supervisors, and examiners -- Loans and accounts -- Disclosure -- Penalty.

(1) Neither the commissioner nor any supervisor or examiner may do any of the following with respect to any institution under the supervision of the department:

(2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), the commissioner, any supervisor, or any examiner of the department may:

(a) have and maintain savings, transaction, share, time deposit, or other accounts, or certificates and deposits in any financial or depository institution in the state, or be a lessee of a safe deposit box on the same terms and conditions available to the public generally;

(i) a mortgage loan upon the mortgagor's own home;

(ii) an open or closed end consumer loan granted before the person became employed with the department or before the institution became subject to the jurisdiction of the department;

(iii) in the case of a supervisor or examiner, a consumer loan lawfully made prior to January 1, 1991, provided that while the debt is subject to the provisions of this chapter, the terms of the debt are not changed in favor of the debtor in a manner not offered and provided to other creditworthy borrowers or waived or extended as a result of delinquency or default; and

(iv) a debt fully secured at all times by deposits in the institution;

(c) be indebted on an installment debt transferred to an institution under the jurisdiction of the department in the regular course of business by a seller of consumer goods; and

(3) Full disclosure in writing of any indebtedness incurred under Subsection (2) shall be filed in the commissioner's office.

Section 18. Section 7-2-3 is amended to read:

7-2-3. Action for injunction against commissioner in possession -- Procedure -- Appeal.

(1) (a) Whenever any institution or other person of which the commissioner has taken possession considers itself aggrieved by the taking, it may within 10 days after the taking apply to the court to enjoin further proceedings.

(b) After ordering the commissioner to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined and after hearing the allegations and proofs of the parties and determining the facts, the court may:

(i) dismiss the application; or

(ii) enjoin the commissioner from further proceedings if the court finds the taking to be arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, or otherwise contrary to law.

(c) If the court enjoins further proceedings, it shall order the commissioner to surrender possession of the institution in a manner and on terms designated by the court in the public interest.

(d) Notice of any hearings shall be given to persons designated by the court in the manner designated by the court.

(2) An appeal may be taken by the commissioner, a receiver, or liquidator appointed by the commissioner under Section 7-2-9, or by the institution from the judgment of the court as provided by law. An appeal from the judgment does not stay any judgment in favor of the commissioner, or a receiver or liquidator appointed by [~~him~~]the commissioner. If the appeal is taken by the commissioner, or by a receiver or liquidator appointed by [~~him~~]the commissioner, no bond is required. If the appeal is taken by the institution, a bond is required as provided by the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

Section 19. Section 7-2-4 is amended to read:

7-2-4. Consent required for institution to resume business.

The institution or other person may resume business only with the consent of and upon conditions approved by the commissioner. The commissioner may give [~~his~~]the commissioner's consent to resumption of business if arrangements have been made by the institution or its stockholders, by reorganization or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the commissioner, to pay all creditors of the institution, aside from the stockholders, and to remedy the default or condition for which possession was taken and to pay the expenses of the proceeding.

Section 20. Section 7-2-8 is amended to read:

7-2-8. Special deputies or agents -- Appointment -- Bond.

The commissioner may appoint one or more special deputies or agents to assist [~~him~~]the commissioner in the proceedings. The commissioner may fix the compensation of any agent appointed to assist [~~him~~]the commissioner. The commissioner may require from agents security for the faithful discharge of their duties. All bonds given under this section shall be deposited with the commissioner and kept in [~~his~~]the commissioner's office.

Section 21. Section 7-2-11 is amended to read:

7-2-11. Special counsel -- Employment by attorney general.

Upon taking possession of any institution or other person subject to the jurisdiction of the department, the commissioner may request the attorney general to employ special counsel on [~~his~~]the commissioner's behalf to assist and advise [~~him~~]the commissioner in connection with a liquidation or reorganization proceeding and the prosecution or defense of any action or proceeding connected with it.

Section 22. Section 7-2-13 is amended to read:

7-2-13. Collections in liquidation -- Deposit -- Preference.

The money collected in process of a liquidation by the commissioner shall be from time to time deposited, subject to [~~his~~]the commissioner's order as herein provided, in one or more federally insured depository institutions organized under the laws of this state. In case of the suspension or insolvency of the depository institution, these deposits shall be preferred before all other deposits.

Section 23. Section 7-2-14 is amended to read:

7-2-14. Expenses during possession.

The expenses reimbursable to the commissioner during possession or in the course of proceedings under this chapter include the compensation of deputies, agents, clerks, and examiners employed by [~~him~~]the commissioner and reasonable fees for counsel, accountants or consultants employed by [~~him~~]the commissioner or on [~~his~~]the commissioner's behalf. The compensation shall be fixed by the commissioner subject to the approval of the court. The expenses of the proceedings shall be paid out of the property of the institution in the hands of the commissioner, shall be a valid charge against that property, and shall be paid first in order of priority. No expenses may be paid out of the property of the institution until an account of the expense has been filed with and approved by the court.

Section 24. Section 7-2-15 is amended to read:

7-2-15. Priority of obligations, expenses, and claims -- Distribution of balance of assets.

(1) The following obligations, expenses, and claims have the following priority:

(a) first, any obligation the commissioner may have under Subsection 7-2-6(3)(b) to be bound by the terms, covenants, and conditions of obligations secured by assets or property of the institution;

(b) second, administrative expenses, including those allowed under Section 7-2-14;

(c) third, unsecured claims for wages, salaries, or commissions, including vacation, severance, or sick leave pay, earned by an individual within 90 days before the date of the commissioner's possession, in an amount not exceeding $2,000 for each individual;

(d) fourth, claims of depositors. Any federal deposit insurance agency or other deposit insurer is subrogated to all rights of the depositors against the institution, its officers and directors, and its persons in control of the institution as control is defined in Section 7-1-103 to the extent of all payments made for the benefit of the depositors. "Payments," as used in this subsection, includes arrangements by a federal deposit insurance agency for the assumption or payment of the deposit liabilities by another institution whose deposits are insured by a federal deposit insurance agency. The right of any agency of the United States insuring deposits or savings obligations to be subrogated to the rights of depositors upon payment of their claims may not be less extensive than the law of the United States provides with respect to subrogation to the rights of depositors in national banks. For the purposes of this section, a contractual commitment to advance funds, including a standby letter of credit, may not be considered a deposit liability of the institution;

(e) fifth, all other unsecured claims in amounts allowed by the court, including claims of secured creditors to the extent the amount of their claims exceed the present fair market value of their collateral. The claim of a lessor for damages resulting from the termination of a lease of property may not be allowed in an amount in excess of the rent reserved by the lease, without acceleration, for 60 days after the lessor repossessed the leased property, or the leased property was surrendered to the lessor, whichever first occurs, whether before or after the commissioner took possession of the institution, plus any unpaid rent due under the lease, without acceleration, on the date of possession or surrender. A claim for damages resulting from the termination of an employment contract, may not be allowed in an amount in excess of the compensation provided by the contract, without acceleration, for 90 days after the employee was directed to terminate, or the employee terminated, performance under the contract, whichever first occurs, whether before or after the commissioner took possession of the institution, plus any unpaid compensation due under the contract, without acceleration, on the date the employee was directed to terminate or the employee terminated performance. Claims for damages resulting from the termination of employment contracts of persons who were in control of the institution, as control is defined in Section 7-1-103, are not entitled to priority under this subsection. Claims for damages for breach of a commitment to advance funds shall be limited to the amount due and owing by the institution on the date the commissioner took possession of the institution;

(f) sixth, claims for debt that are subordinated under the provisions of a subordination agreement or other instrument;

(g) seventh, claims of persons who were at any time in control of the institution as control is defined in Section 7-1-103; and

(h) eighth, all other claims.

(2) The commissioner shall classify each claim presented for priority purposes under Subsection (1) and shall indicate the classification on any certificate issued under the provisions of Subsection 7-2-6(11). This classification is final, subject to review by the court upon a timely objection filed under Subsection 7-2-6(9).

(3) When the commissioner has paid to each depositor and creditor of the institution whose claims have been proved and allowed the full amount of the claim, has made proper provision for unclaimed or unpaid deposits or dividends, and has paid all the expenses of the liquidation, [~~he~~]the commissioner shall distribute the balance of the assets of the institution in [~~his~~]the commissioner's possession among the shareholders of the institution in proportion to the holdings and classes of this stock. Unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise, the shareholders shall be determined by the books and records of the institution as of the date the commissioner took possession.

Section 25. Section 7-2-16 is amended to read:

7-2-16. Interim ratable dividends.

At any time after the expiration of the date fixed for the presentation of claims and prior to the declaration of a final dividend the commissioner may, out of the funds remaining in [~~his~~]the commissioner's hands after the payment of expenses, declare and pay, subject to their priorities established under Section 7-2-15, one or more interim ratable dividends to any person and in the amount and upon such notice as the court directs.

Section 26. Section 7-2-18 is amended to read:

7-2-18. Plan for reorganization or liquidation of institution -- Hearing -- Procedure -- Effect -- Appeals.

(1) If the commissioner has taken possession of any institution or other person under the jurisdiction of the department[~~he~~], the commissioner may propose to the court a plan for the reorganization or liquidation of the institution or the establishment of a new institution by filing a petition with the court, setting forth the details of the plan and requesting the court to set a day for hearing on the petition.

(2) The court shall make an order fixing a day for the hearing of the petition, prescribing the manner in which notice of the hearing is given, and may prescribe a deadline for filing written objections. The court may adjourn the hearing from time to time and no further notice is required. At the time of hearing or any adjournment of a hearing the court shall take testimony, and if it appears that it is in the best interests of the depositors and other creditors, the court shall approve the plan.

(3) A plan of reorganization or liquidation approved by the court shall be fully binding upon and constitute a final adjudication of all claims, rights, and interests of all depositors, creditors, shareholders, and members of the institution being reorganized or liquidated, and all other parties in interest with regard to the plan and with regard to any institution or other person receiving any assets or assuming any liabilities under the plan.

(4) Notice of an appeal of an order approving a plan of reorganization or liquidation shall be filed within 10 days after the date of entry of the order appealed from.

Section 27. Section 7-2-19 is amended to read:

7-2-19. Suspension of payments by institution -- Order of commissioner -- Approval of governor -- Period effective -- Exempt payments -- Operation during suspension -- Modification of orders -- Adoption of rules and regulations.

(1) The commissioner, whenever in [~~his~~]the commissioner's opinion the action is necessary in the public interest, may, if the governor approves, order such institutions as are subject to [~~his~~]the commissioner's supervision to suspend the payment in any manner of their respective liabilities to their depositors and other creditors, except as hereinafter provided.

(2) The order shall become effective upon notice, and shall continue in full force and effect until rescinded or modified by [~~him~~]the commissioner. No such order shall be issued for an initial period of more than 60 days, but any such order may, if the governor approves, be extended from time to time for further periods not exceeding 60 days each.

(3) Nothing contained in this chapter shall affect the right of the institutions to pay current operating expenses and other liabilities incurred during a period of suspension.

(4) Whenever in the opinion of the commissioner conditions warrant such action, [~~he~~]the commissioner may, if the governor approves, authorize the issuance of clearing house certificates, post notes or other evidences of indebtedness, either during a period of suspension, or during such longer period as [~~he~~]the commissioner may prescribe, and during a period of suspension, [~~he~~]the commissioner may permit the suspended institution to receive deposits and may authorize any such institution to pay any part of its liabilities, or of any class thereof, payment of which has been suspended.

(5) [~~He~~]The commissioner may, if the governor approves, at any time, by order, modify or rescind any or all previous orders made by [~~him~~]the commissioner under authority of this chapter.

(6) The commissioner may, if the governor approves, prescribe such rules and regulations as [~~he~~]the commissioner considers necessary in order to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and an order may be issued on such terms and conditions as may be incorporated in the order.

(4) Securities activities under this section, except those activities described in Subsections (2)(a) and (b), shall be conducted only through a subsidiary. Any such subsidiary shall be established pursuant to rules that the commissioner may adopt after notice and hearing. Any such rules shall further define the standards by which a securities subsidiary of a bank may be established and operated, including the requirement for registration, if required, as a broker-dealer with state, federal, and self-regulatory agencies. A partnership interest shall be treated as if it were shares in a corporation.

(2) If the commissioner has any beneficial interest or ownership in an organization outlined under Subsection (1)(b)(iii), or if it is known to the commissioner that [~~his~~]the commissioner's spouse, parent, sibling, or child has an interest in any organization that, if held by the commissioner, would disqualify [~~him~~]the commissioner from serving as commissioner, [~~he shall disqualify himself~~]the commissioner is disqualified and shall abstain from all actions respecting the particular organization. (4) (a) A copy of any foreign court decree authenticated under Utah statutes or court rules may be filed in the office of the clerk of the Third District Court for Salt Lake County. The clerk, upon verifying with the commissioner that the decree or order qualifies as a foreign court decree, shall treat it in the same manner and give it the same effect as a decree of a district court of Utah.

(b) (i) When filing the foreign decree, the filer shall deposit with the clerk of the court an affidavit setting forth the name and last-known post-office address of the defendant in Utah.

(ii) When the foreign decree and the affidavit are filed, the clerk shall immediately mail notice of the filing of the foreign decree to the defendant at the address given by the filer and to the commissioner, and shall note the mailing in the docket. In addition, the attorney general may mail a notice of the filing of the foreign decree to the defendant and to the commissioner. Alternatively, the commissioner may mail a notice of the filing of the foreign decree to the defendant, and either the attorney general or the commissioner may file proof of this mailing with the clerk. The clerk's failure to mail notice of the filing does not affect the enforcement proceedings if the attorney general or the commissioner has filed a proof of mailing.

(iii) No execution or other process for enforcement of a foreign decree may issue until 30 days after the foreign decree is filed.

(c) (i) If the defendant shows the court that an appeal from the foreign decree is pending or will be taken, or that a stay of execution has been granted, the court shall stay enforcement of the foreign decree until the appeal is concluded, the time for appeal expires, or the stay of execution expires or is vacated, upon proof by the defendant that [~~he~~]the defendant has furnished the security for the satisfaction of the decree required by the state in which it was rendered.

(ii) If the defendant shows the court any ground upon which enforcement of a similar decree of any district court of Utah would be stayed, the court shall stay enforcement of the foreign decree for an appropriate period, upon proof by the defendant that [~~he~~]the defendant has furnished the same security for satisfaction of the decree as is required in Utah.

The commissioner shall detail in writing the grounds for [~~his~~]the commissioner's order.

(2) The commissioner may by order free a new corporation from any or all of the restrictions generally applicable to new corporations under the provisions listed in Subsection (1), if [~~he~~]the commissioner is satisfied that the corporation's financial condition, management, and other circumstances give assurance that the interests of insureds and the public will not be endangered by doing so.

(c) expiration of one year after issuance, except that:

(i) filing with the commissioner a good-faith application for a certificate of authority tolls the running of the expiration period for 30 days or until the commissioner rejects the application, whichever is earlier; and

(ii) on application before expiration of the year the commissioner may grant a reasonable extension if [~~he~~]the commissioner states that [~~he~~]the commissioner expects the corporation to be able to satisfy the requirements for a certificate of authority within the extended period.

(2) The commissioner may revoke an organization permit if:

(a) he finds, after a hearing, that because of changes in circumstances, or because the facts are not as represented in the application, the conditions for issuance of a permit are not satisfied; or

(b) he denies an application for a certificate of authority and finds that the corporation cannot reasonably be expected to satisfy the requirements for a certificate of authority within the remaining term of the organization permit or extension allowable under Subsection (1)(c).

(3) (a) Except in cases under Subsections (3)(b) and (3)(c), if the organization permit is revoked or expires before a certificate of authority is granted, after payment of the expenses of the state and payments to creditors under Section 31A-5-205, incorporators who have advanced money for the reasonable and authorized expenses of organization, including underwriting expenses, may be reimbursed in cash from the proceeds of share, mutual bond, or contribution note subscriptions under the organization permit, on itemized receipts audited by the commissioner. The total reimbursement may not exceed 5% of the amount received from subscribers. The remainder in the escrow account shall then be distributed among the subscribers in proportion to their contributions, valued as of the time the contributions were made. The bond under Section 31A-5-205 shall be discharged or the deposits under Section 31A-5-205 shall be released to the extent they are not needed for other purposes.

(b) Reimbursement may be refused to any incorporator under Subsection (3), if the commissioner finds that in connection with the organization of the corporation, the incorporator has wilfully or negligently violated in a material way any provision of this chapter.

(c) No reimbursement may be made under Subsection (3)(a) to an incorporator of an assessable mutual until all advance premiums collected under Subsection 31A-5-211(5) have been repaid in full.

(4) The legal existence of the corporation terminates upon completion of the payments under Subsection (3).

(5) This section does not apply to stock or mutual insurance corporations already in existence on July 1, 1986.

Section 96. Section 31A-5-213 is amended to read:

31A-5-213. Accelerated organization procedure.

(1) The incorporators may apply for a certificate of authority without first obtaining an organization permit if:

(a) their number is not more than 15;

(b) no compensation is paid directly or indirectly for soliciting any of them;

(c) they purchase for their own accounts all the shares proposed to be issued in the case of a stock corporation, or in the case of a mutual, they supply all the minimum permanent surplus and initial expendable surplus by contribution notes or otherwise; and

(d) the shares are promotional securities and are subject to Subsections 31A-5-304(3) and (4).

(2) The application for a certificate of authority shall include:

(a) proof that the purchase price for the shares or the proceeds of contribution notes have been deposited on behalf of the proposed corporation;

(b) a statement concerning whether and what property other than money is held in trust for the proposed corporation; and

(c) the information which the commissioner reasonably requires under Subsection 31A-5-204(2).

(3) The commissioner shall issue a certificate of authority if [~~he~~]the commissioner finds that:

(a) all requirements of law have been met;

(b) all natural persons who are incorporators, the directors and principal officers of corporate incorporators, and the proposed directors and officers of the corporation being formed are trustworthy and collectively have the competence and experience to engage in the particular insurance business proposed; and

(c) the business plan is consistent with the interests of the corporation's potential insureds and of the public.

(4) The director of the Division of Corporations and Commercial Code shall issue a certificate of incorporation upon notice from the insurance commissioner that all the applicable requirements of law have been met, including the payment of fees.

(5) When the certificate of incorporation is issued, the corporation's legal existence begins, the articles and bylaws become effective, and the proposed directors and officers take office. The certificate is conclusive evidence of compliance with this section, except in a proceeding by the state against the corporation.

(6) This section does not apply to stock or mutual insurance corporations already in existence on July 1, 1986.

Section 97. Section 31A-5-216 is amended to read:

31A-5-216. Change of domicile.

(1) A foreign insurance corporation may become a Utah insurance corporation if it submits an application which evidences that the corporation complies with all of the requirements imposed on domestic Utah corporations. The commissioner may, by order after a hearing, relax the requirements of this chapter applicable to corporations in the process of organization that, because of the developed status of the insurer, [~~he~~]the commissioner finds unnecessary to protect policyholders and the public. The commissioner shall simultaneously issue a certificate of organization under Subsection 31A-5-204(3) and a certificate of authority under Subsection 31A-5-212(2) when the conditions for both have been satisfied.

(2) Upon approval by the commissioner, a domestic insurer may transfer its domicile to any other state in which it is admitted. The commissioner shall approve the transfer of domicile unless [~~he~~]the commissioner finds that the transfer will prejudice the interests of policyholders, creditors, or the public in Utah. The commissioner may require a special deposit, reinsurance, or other protective measures as an alternative to rejecting the insurer's application to move. After or simultaneous with the removal of the corporation, it may seek entry into this state as a foreign corporation under Chapter 14, Foreign Insurers.

(3) The transfer of domicile of an insurance corporation under either Subsection (1) or Subsection (2) does not affect the obligations of the corporation under its existing insurance contracts or any other existing contracts.

Section 98. Section 31A-5-303 is amended to read:

31A-5-303. Insider trading of securities.

(1) Every person who is directly or indirectly the beneficial owner of more than 10% of any class of any equity security of a domestic stock insurance corporation, or who is a director or officer of a domestic stock corporation, shall file with the commissioner within 10 days after [~~he~~]the person becomes a beneficial owner, director, or officer, and within 10 days after the close of any following calendar month in which there has been a change in [~~his~~]the person's ownership or office, a statement in a form prescribed by the commissioner, of [~~his~~]the person's office and of all the equity securities of the company which [~~he~~]the person beneficially owns, and of all the changes in either. The commissioner may accept a copy of a similar statement filed with another regulatory authority in satisfaction of this subsection's requirement.

(2) To prevent the unfair use of information which may have been obtained by a beneficial owner, director, or officer because of [~~his~~]the beneficial owner's, director's, or officer's relationship to the corporation, any profit realized by [~~him~~]the beneficial owner, director, or officer from the purchase and sale or sale and purchase of any equity security of the corporation within any period of less than six months, unless the security was acquired in good faith in connection with a debt previously contracted, is recoverable by the corporation. This recovery may be made in spite of any intention by the beneficial owner, director, or officer in entering into the transaction to hold the security purchased or not to repurchase the security sold for a period exceeding six months. A suit to recover the profit may be instituted in any court of competent jurisdiction by the corporation. If the corporation fails to bring suit within 60 days after request by the owner of a security of the corporation or if the corporation fails to prosecute it diligently, the owner of any security of the corporation may bring suit or prosecute the action in the name and on behalf of the corporation. This suit may not be brought more than two years after the date the profit was realized. This subsection does not apply to any transaction where the beneficial owner was not a beneficial owner both at the time of the purchase and sale, or the sale and purchase, of the security involved, nor does it apply to any transaction which the commissioner, by rule, exempts as not within the purpose of this subsection.

(3) (a) A dealer in the ordinary course of [~~his~~]the dealer's business and incident to [~~his~~]the dealer's establishment or maintenance of a primary or secondary market for the security other than on an exchange as defined in the federal Securities Exchange Act of 1934, is not governed by Subsection (2) regarding a purchase and sale or sale and purchase. The commissioner may by rule define terms and prescribe conditions regarding securities held in an investment account and transactions made in the ordinary course of business and incident to the establishment or maintenance of a primary or secondary market.

(b) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to foreign or domestic arbitrage transactions unless made in contravention of rules the commissioner adopts to carry out this section.

(c) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to equity securities of a corporation if:

(i) the securities are registered, or are required to be registered, under Section 12 of the federal Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; or

(ii) the corporation did not have any class of its equity securities held of record by 100 or more persons on the last business day of the year preceding the year in which equity securities of the corporation would otherwise be subject to Subsections (1) and (2).

(4) No person may, in contravention of rules the commissioner adopts for the protection of investors or the public, solicit or permit the use of [~~his~~]the person's name to solicit a proxy, consent, or authorization regarding an equity security of a domestic stock corporation having 100 or more shareholders of record.

(5) No provision of this section imposing liability applies to an act done or omitted in good faith in conformity with any rule of the commissioner. Liability does not apply even if the rule is amended, rescinded, or determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid after the act or omission.

(6) As used in this section, "equity security" means any stock or similar security; any security convertible, with or without consideration, into stock or a similar security; carrying any warrant or right to subscribe to or purchase stock or a similar security; any such warrant or right; or any other security which the commissioner considers to be of similar nature and designates as an equity security by rules promulgated in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

Section 99. Section 31A-5-304 is amended to read:

31A-5-304. Promoter stock.

(1) While the organization permit is effective, the incorporators, directors, and principal officers of a stock corporation shall in the aggregate subscribe and pay, at the public offering price, at least $150,000 in cash or in property of equivalent value approved by the commissioner under Subsection 31A-5-207(1)(a) or (2)(a), for shares offered by the corporation under the organization permit.

(2) (a) Certificates representing promotional securities and any stock received on those shares as the result of a stock dividend, stock split, or exercise of preemptive or conversion rights, shall be placed in escrow with a depository satisfactory to the commissioner under an agreement providing that the shares may not be transferred without the approval of the commissioner.

(b) If the corporation issues any life insurance policies, any shares subject to this section shall be released from escrow five years after issuance of the certificate of authority. In other cases, the shares shall be released from escrow three years after issuance of the certificate of authority.

(3) The commissioner's approval of the transfer of promoter stock under Subsection (2)(a):

(a) shall be granted upon request, if the corporation has made an addition to earned surplus in each of the two immediately preceding years of at least 15% of the capital and surplus raised by the sale of shares under the organization permit; and

(b) may be granted upon a showing of hardship by the shareholder or [~~his~~]the shareholder's estate or legatee, if the release from escrow of the shares or a portion of the shares would not, in the commissioner's opinion, endanger the interests of insureds or the public.

(4) For three years after the issuance of the certificate of authority, an option to purchase stock may be issued only under a plan approved by the commissioner.

(5) This section does not apply to promotional securities issued prior to July 1, 1986.

Section 100. Section 31A-5-307 is amended to read:

31A-5-307. Reduction in capital.

A stock corporation may reduce its capital by amendment of its articles of incorporation under Section 31A-5-219, if the commissioner is notified of the proposed reduction at least 60 days prior to the proposed effective date of the reduction. The commissioner may disapprove the reduction within 45 days after the notice if [~~he~~]the commissioner finds that it would violate the law or would be contrary to the interests of insureds. [~~His~~]The commissioner's order shall explain in detail why the distribution is disapproved.

Section 101. Section 31A-5-408 is amended to read:

31A-5-408. Election and removal of directors and officers of stock corporations.

(1) Sections 16-10a-721, 16-10a-724, and 16-10a-728 apply to the voting of shares of a stock corporation.

(2) At each annual meeting of shareholders, the shareholders shall elect directors to hold office until the next succeeding annual election, except as provided under Subsection (3) or (4). Each director shall hold office for the term for which [~~he~~]the director is elected and until [~~his~~]the director's successor is elected and qualified, if qualification is required.

(3) Sections 16-10a-808 and 16-10a-832 apply to removal of directors and officers of a stock corporation.

(4) Each director shall be subject to election at least once every three years.

(5) A vacancy in the board of directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors even though the number of remaining directors is less than a quorum. The director elected through this process shall serve only until the next regular shareholders meeting at which a director's election may be held.

Section 102. Section 31A-5-507 is amended to read:

31A-5-507. Conversion of assessable to nonassessable and nonassessable to assessable mutuals.

(1) When an assessable mutual accumulates enough surplus to satisfy the financial requirements for the operation of a nonassessable mutual, it may apply for a certificate of authority authorizing it to sell nonassessable policies. The commissioner shall issue a certificate of authority designating it a nonassessable mutual, if [~~he~~]the commissioner finds that the applicant satisfies the requirements of the law and that the issuance of nonassessable policies will not endanger the interests of its insureds or the public. Policies issued after the issuance of this certificate of authority are nonassessable. Existing policies remain in effect and are nonassessable.

(2) A nonassessable mutual may apply to the commissioner for a certificate of authority designating it an assessable mutual. The commissioner shall issue the certificate if the law permits the corporation to issue assessable policies and if [~~he~~]the commissioner finds that the conversion will not endanger the interests of insureds or the public. All policies issued after conversion are assessable, unless otherwise provided by contract.

Section 103. Section 31A-5-509 is amended to read:

31A-5-509. Conversion of a domestic mutual life insurance company into a fraternal.

A domestic mutual life insurance company may be converted into a fraternal under Chapter 9, Insurance Fraternals, in the following manner:

(1) The board of directors of the company shall adopt a plan of conversion stating:

(a) the basis for and the purposes of the proposed action;

(b) the proposed articles and bylaws for the new fraternal; and

(c) the proposed procedure and estimated expenses for implementing the conversion.

(2) The plan shall be filed with the commissioner for approval, together with the information under Subsection 31A-9-205(2) required by the commissioner. The commissioner shall approve the plan unless [~~he~~]the commissioner finds, after a hearing, that:

(a) the conversion would be contrary to the law;

(b) the new fraternal would not satisfy the requirements for a certificate of authority under Section 31A-5-212 as incorporated by Section 31A-9-210; or

(c) the plan would be contrary to the interests of the policyholders or the public.

(3) After being approved by the commissioner, the plan shall be submitted to the policyholders for their approval.

(4) A copy of the plan adopted by the policyholders shall be filed with the commissioner, with a statement indicating the number and percentages of policyholders voting, the method of voting, and the number of votes cast in favor of the plan.

(5) If all requirements of the law are met, the commissioner shall issue a certificate of authority for the new fraternal. Upon this issuance, the mutual ceases its legal existence and the corporate existence of the new fraternal begins. The new fraternal is considered as having been incorporated on the date the converted mutual was incorporated. The new fraternal has all of the assets and is liable for all of the obligations of the converted mutual. The commissioner may grant a fraternal an adjustment period, not to exceed one year, for compliance with the requirements of Chapter 9, Insurance Fraternals. The commissioner's extension shall specify the extent to which particular provisions of Chapter 9, Insurance Fraternals, do not apply.

Section 104. Section 31A-5-601 is amended to read:

31A-5-601. Duties of officers, directors, agents, and employees.

(1) Any officer, director, agent, attorney, or employee upon whom legal process is properly served or who receives notice of any legal action that may affect or involve the property or business of the insurer, shall promptly communicate the service or notice and detailed information about it to facilitate informed response to persons in the insurer's organization who have authority to take responsive action or to instigate responsive action by those in authority.

(2) A director of an insurer is assumed to have enough knowledge of its affairs to determine whether any act, proceeding, or omission of its directors is a violation of any provision of this chapter. If a director is present at a meeting of directors at which a violation of any provision of this chapter occurs, [~~he~~]the director is considered as concurring in the violation unless at the meeting [~~he~~]the director requires [~~his~~]the director's dissent to be entered on the minutes. If a director is absent from the meeting, [~~he~~]the director is considered as concurring in any violation if the facts of violation appear on the minutes of the meeting and [~~he~~]the director remains a director for six months after the violation without requiring that [~~his~~]the director's dissent from the violation be entered upon the record or the minutes.

Section 105. Section 31A-7-303 is amended to read:

31A-7-303. Board of directors.

(1) Subject to other provisions under this section, Sections 16-6a-801 through 16-6a-805, and Sections 16-6a-810, 16-6a-812, 16-6a-814, 16-6a-815, and 16-6a-816 apply to the board of directors of insurers organized or operating under this chapter.

(2) The property and lawful business of every corporation subject to this chapter shall be held and managed by a governing board of trustees or directors with the powers and authority as is necessary or incidental to the complete execution of the purposes of each corporation as limited by its articles of incorporation and bylaws. A board may not consist of less than five members. A majority of the directors shall be residents of Utah.

(3) Any person employed by or receiving more than 10% of [~~his~~]the person's income from a corporation licensed under this chapter, and any person related to that person within the second degree by blood or marriage, is an "insider." Insiders may not constitute a majority of the board of a corporation organized and operating under this chapter.

(4) The board shall manage the business and affairs of the corporation and may not delegate its power or responsibility to do so, except to the extent authorized by Section 31A-7-307.

(5) Section 16-6a-814 applies to the place and notice of directors' meetings.

(6) Any director may be removed from office for cause by an affirmative vote of a majority of the full board at a meeting of the board called for that purpose.

Section 106. Section 31A-7-403 is amended to read:

31A-7-403. Conversion to a Title 31A, Chapter 5, mutual insurer.

(1) An insurer organized and operating under this chapter may be converted into a mutual insurer under Chapter 5, Domestic Stock and Mutual Insurance Corporations, as provided in this section.

(2) (a) The board shall pass a resolution that the conversion is not contrary to the interests of the policyholders specifying the reasons for and the purposes of the proposed conversion, and the manner in which the conversion is expected to affect policyholders, particularly the policyholders that are members.

(b) The board's resolution shall also set forth a plan of conversion which shall include:

(i) the articles of incorporation of the new Chapter 5, Domestic Stock and Mutual Insurance Corporations, mutual insurer, including a description of the classes of policyholders who, by virtue of being policyholders, will have an interest in the converted insurer;

(ii) the bylaws of the new Chapter 5, Domestic Stock and Mutual Insurance Corporations, mutual insurer;

(iii) a description of any changes in the insurer's mode of operations after conversion to a Chapter 5, Domestic Stock and Mutual Insurance Corporations, mutual insurer; and

(iv) any other items specified by rule.

(3) The provisions of Chapter 16, Insurance Holding Companies, apply to the conversion of a Chapter 7, Nonprofit Health Service Insurance Corporations, insurer to a Chapter 5, Domestic Stock and Mutual Insurance Corporations, mutual insurance corporation.

(4) The plan of conversion shall be submitted to the commissioner for approval, together with a projection of the planned or anticipated financial condition of the insurer for two years after the conversion.

(5) The commissioner shall hold an adjudicative proceeding concerning the conversion application.

(6) The commissioner shall approve the plan of conversion, unless [~~he~~]the commissioner finds that the plan violates the law, is contrary to the interests of policyholders or the public, or would result in an unfair distribution of interest among the insurer's policyholders.

(7) (a) Upon the commissioner approving the conversion under Subsection (6), the commissioner shall issue a new certificate of authority.

(b) The issuance of the certificate is the conversion, and upon issuance of the certificate the Chapter 7, Nonprofit Health Service Insurance Corporations, insurer at once becomes a mutual insurance corporation organized under and fully subject to Chapter 5, Domestic Stock and Mutual Insurance Corporations.

(c) The mutual insurer is considered to have been organized at the time the converted Chapter 7, Nonprofit Health Service Insurance Corporations, insurer was organized.

(d) Unless otherwise provided in the plan of conversion, the directors, officers, agents, and employees of the Chapter 7, Nonprofit Health Service Insurance Corporations, insurer shall continue in like capacity with the mutual insurance corporation.

Section 107. Section 31A-9-103 is amended to read:

31A-9-103. Orders imposing and relaxing restrictions.

(1) The commissioner may subject any fraternal to some or all of the restrictions of Subsections 31A-5-305(2)(a)(i) and (ii), and Subsection 31A-5-410(1)(b), as such provisions are incorporated by Sections 31A-9-303 and 31A-9-407.

(2) The commissioner may free a fraternal from any of the restrictions applicable to fraternals under the provisions enumerated in Subsection (1), if [~~he~~]the commissioner is satisfied that the fraternal's financial condition, management, and other circumstances give assurance that the interests of insureds and the public will not be endangered by the waiver.

Section 108. Section 31A-11-106 is amended to read:

31A-11-106. Application for certificate of authority -- Deposit or bond.

(1) Any corporation may apply, in the form specified by the commissioner, for a certificate of authority to transact a motor club business. The applicant shall include with the application any documents the commissioner may reasonably require, the deposit described in Subsection (2), which may be waived if net worth exceeds the deposit requirements, and the fee provided for in Section 31A-3-103. No person may engage in the motor club business without complying with this section and receiving a certificate of authority under Section 31A-11-107.

(2) The deposit required under Subsection (1) shall comply with the requirements of Section 31A-2-206, and is $100,000. In lieu of the deposit, the applicant may supply a bond of a corporate surety authorized to do a surety business in this state, in the same sum and in a form prescribed by the commissioner, payable to the state. The deposit, or the bond, shall be conditioned upon the corporation's faithful performance in the sale or rendering of motor club service under the provisions of this chapter, and the payment of fines, fees, or penalties imposed on the motor club under this title. Any person with a claim against the deposit or bond arising from the motor club's breach of the conditions of the deposit or bond may bring suit in [~~his~~]the person's own name to make a claim against the deposit or bond, or the commissioner may bring suit on behalf of claimants. In no event shall the liability of the surety exceed the amount of the bond, regardless of the number of claimants or claims made on the bond. Regardless of the number of years the bond continues in force or the number of premiums payable or paid, the limit of the surety's liability, specified as the amount of liability of the bond, is not cumulative from year to year or from period to period. The bond shall be forfeited up to the amount of actual damages sustained by any claimant or claimants. No cause of action shall be filed against the bond after two years from the date of termination of the bond.

(3) If a motor club is a separate division of a corporation, the commissioner may increase the deposit or bond requirements to take into account the increased risk created by the other business of the corporation. However, the deposit or bond requirement may not be more than twice the amounts required under Subsection (2).

Section 109. Section 31A-11-108 is amended to read:

31A-11-108. Denial of certificate of authority.

If the commissioner declines or fails to issue a certificate of authority under Section 31A-11-107 within a reasonable time, [~~he~~]the commissioner shall issue an order giving a reasonably detailed explanation for the refusal or the delay.

Section 110. Section 31A-11-110 is amended to read:

31A-11-110. Registration of agents.

No person may execute, issue, or deliver any motor club service contract to any person or receive anything of value for the contract either before or after its execution, unless [~~he~~]the person executing, issuing, or delivering the contract is registered with the commissioner. A person is registered upon filing a statement including [~~his~~]the person's name, home and business address, telephone number, and motor club represented with the commissioner, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, and upon payment of all the fees due under Section 31A-3-103. Registered persons shall give the commissioner notice of any change in registration information.

Section 111. Section 31A-11-112 is amended to read:

31A-11-112. Bail for traffic violations.

(1) Any insurance company that is qualified to transact a surety business in Utah may contract to become surety for any guaranteed arrest bond certificates issued by it or by a motor club, by filing with the commissioner an undertaking to become surety. The undertaking shall be in a form prescribed by the commissioner and shall state the following:

(a) The name and address of the motor club or clubs issuing the guaranteed arrest bond certificates on which the company will be surety, and whether the motor club will issue the certificates itself.

(b) The unqualified obligation of the company to be surety to pay, up to a specified dollar amount, the fine or forfeiture of any person who fails to make an appearance to answer the charges for which the guaranteed arrest bond certificate is posted.

(2) Any guaranteed arrest bond certificate under Subsection (1), when posted by the signatory, shall be accepted in lieu of cash bail or other bond in an amount not exceeding the dollar amount specified under Subsection (1)(b), to guarantee the appearance of the person when required by any court in Utah when the person is arrested for violation of any Utah motor vehicle law, or any motor vehicle ordinance of any Utah municipality, except for driving under the influence of drugs or intoxicating liquors or for any felony. A law enforcement officer who issues a citation to an operator of a vehicle who has a valid guaranteed arrest bond certificate in [~~his~~]the operator's possession shall obtain the necessary information for the arrest citation, and if the guaranteed arrest bond certificate covers the fine for the violation, the officer shall release the vehicle and operator after serving the citation and receiving the guaranteed arrest bond from the operator. The officer shall deliver the guaranteed arrest bond to the appropriate court to be held as a bail bond.

(3) A guaranteed arrest bond certificate posted as a bail bond in a district court is subject to the forfeiture and enforcement provisions which govern bail bonds in criminal cases. A guaranteed arrest bond certificate posted as a bail bond in a justice court is subject to the forfeiture and enforcement provisions of the charter or ordinance of the particular municipality which pertains to bail bonds.

(4) A motor club may not agree to exonerate or indemnify an authorized surety issuing guaranteed arrest bonds under Subsection (1) for losses in connection with these bonds.

Section 112. Section 31A-14-202 is amended to read:

31A-14-202. Certificate of authority.

(1) The commissioner shall either issue a certificate of authority to an applicant under Section 31A-14-201 or issue an order refusing the certificate which explains why [~~he~~]the commissioner finds that:

(a) not all specific requirements of the law have been met, including the requirements of Section 31A-14-209 for an alien insurer;

(b) the applicant is not sound, reliable, entitled to public confidence, or cannot reasonably be expected to perform its obligations continuously in the future;

(c) the applicant's directors and officers or, in the case of an alien insurer, its United States manager, are not sufficiently trustworthy and competent to engage in the proposed business in this state and to comply with the laws of this state; or

(d) the applicant has not been in existence long enough to demonstrate its competence to engage in the proposed business in this state.

(2) If the commissioner finds that the applicant does not comply with all requirements of the law, the commissioner may, after a hearing under Section 31A-2-301, issue a certificate of authority if the purposes of each unsatisfied requirement and the protection of insureds, creditors, and the public in this state are otherwise achieved by:

(a) a deposit in trust to be established and maintained under Section 31A-2-206;

(b) a bond acceptable to the commissioner conditioned on the satisfaction of the purposes of the requirement;

(c) special limits on the applicant's business or methods of operation in this state or elsewhere; or

(d) other protective devices satisfactory to the commissioner.

(3) The certificate of authority shall specify the terms of any deposit or bond required as a condition for authorization, any limits placed on the insurer's business or methods of operation in this state, and any other conditions imposed under Subsection (2).

(4) An insurer may apply to the commissioner for a new certificate of authority, removing, altering, or adding limits on its business or methods of operation. The application shall be accompanied by the information specified in Section 31A-14-201 that the commissioner reasonably requires. The commissioner shall issue the new certificate as requested if [~~he~~]the commissioner would do so if an initial application were being made.

Section 113. Section 31A-14-216 is amended to read:

31A-14-216. Release from regulation.

(1) A foreign insurer authorized under this chapter is subject to regulation under the applicable provisions of the Insurance Code, unless it is released from regulation under this section.

(2) A foreign insurer may apply for release from regulation by filing with the commissioner:

(a) its certificate of authority;

(b) a schedule of its outstanding liabilities from policies issued in this state to residents of Utah or on risks located in Utah, and from other business transactions in Utah;

(c) a plan for securing the discharge of those outstanding liabilities; and

(d) any other information as reasonably required by the commissioner.

(3) The commissioner shall promptly release the insurer from regulation if [~~he~~]the commissioner finds all the following:

(a) The insurer has stopped doing any new business in Utah.

(b) The discharge of existing liabilities to creditors in Utah is sufficiently secured.

(c) The release would not otherwise be prejudicial to the interests of insureds or creditors in Utah or, if the insurer is an alien insurer and Utah is the state of entry into the United States, of all insureds and creditors in the United States.

(4) Before deciding on the release, the commissioner may require the insurer to notify, at its own expense, all agents or other classes of potentially interested persons in a manner the commissioner prescribes, including publication of its withdrawal from Utah. The notice shall advise affected persons to communicate to the commissioner any objections they may have to the insurer's release from regulation.

(5) As a prerequisite for releasing the insurer, the commissioner may require a deposit under Section 31A-2-206, a bond issued by a surety authorized in Utah, or other appropriate security or reinsurance in a sufficient amount to secure the proper discharge of the insurer's remaining liabilities in Utah. The commissioner may also require the insurer to sign an agreement to remain subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioner and the courts of Utah with respect to any matter arising out of business done in Utah prior to the release.

Section 114. Section 31A-15-107 is amended to read:

31A-15-107. Defense of action by unauthorized person.

(a) The unauthorized person deposits with the clerk of the court in which the action or proceeding is pending, or with the commissioner in administrative proceedings, cash, securities, or a bond with sureties in an amount fixed by the court or the commissioner, sufficient to secure the payment or performance of any probable final judgment or order.

(b) That person procures proper authorization to do an insurance business in Utah.

(c) The commissioner, after a hearing, issues an order stating that [~~he~~]the commissioner is satisfied the person has funds or securities, in a state of the United States, in trust or otherwise, which are readily available and adequate to satisfy any probable final judgment or to perform in accordance with any order.

(2) The court in any action or proceeding under this section, or the commissioner in any administrative proceeding under this section, may order any postponement [~~he~~]the commissioner considers necessary to give the unauthorized person a reasonable opportunity to comply with Subsection (1).

(2) Any insurer may distribute a portion of surplus attributable to policies other than life insurance or annuities, in amounts and with classifications the board of directors determines to be fair and reasonable. This distribution may not be contingent on the renewal of any policy or of premium payments unless the policy stated that limitation when it was written. A schedule explaining the basis for the distribution shall be filed with the commissioner prior to the distribution. The schedule shall be kept confidential by the commissioner unless [~~he~~]the commissioner finds that the interests of insureds and the public require that it be made public.

(3) Any insurer may distribute surplus to any class of policyholder, even if their policies do not provide for it. A schedule explaining the basis for the distribution shall be filed with the commissioner under Subsection (2) at least 30 days prior to the distribution. The commissioner shall disallow any distribution which is materially unfair to other policyholders or which would place the insurer in a financially hazardous condition.

An emergency license shall be applied for within a week of beginning claims adjustment. It may remain in force for not more than 90 days, unless extended by the commissioner before it expires for an additional period of not more than 90 additional days. The insurer who contracts with an independent adjuster who is so licensed is responsible for all [~~his~~]the independent adjuster's claims practices while so engaged, as if [~~he~~]the independent adjuster were a regular salaried employee. (5) Employment of the employee or the continuation of [~~his~~]the employee's employment is sufficient consideration to support the enforceability of an agreement under Subsection (2) whether or not the agreement recites such consideration.

(1) In addition to the administrative and criminal actions authorized by this chapter, an employee may bring a civil action to enforce [~~his~~]the employee's rights under this chapter.

Section 139. Section 35A-4-102 is amended to read:

35A-4-102. Public policy -- General welfare requires creation of unemployment reserves -- Employment offices.

As a guide to the interpretation and application of this chapter, the public policy of this state is declared to be as follows: Economic insecurity due to unemployment is a serious menace to the health, morals, and welfare of the people of this state. Unemployment is therefore a subject of general interest and concern that requires appropriate action by the Legislature to prevent its spread and to lighten its burden which now so often falls with crushing force upon the unemployed worker and [~~his~~]the unemployed worker's family. The achievement of social security requires protection against this greatest hazard of our economic life. This objective can be furthered by operating free public employment offices in affiliation with a nation-wide system of employment services, by devising appropriate methods for reducing the volume of unemployment and by the systematic accumulation of funds during periods of employment from which benefits may be paid for periods of unemployment, thus maintaining purchasing power and limiting the serious social consequences of unemployment. The Legislature, therefore, declares that in its considered judgment the public good, and the general welfare of the citizens of this state require the enactment of this measure, under the police power of the state, for the establishment and maintenance of free public employment offices and for the compulsory setting aside of unemployment reserves to be used for the benefit of unemployed persons.

Section 140. Section 35A-4-105 is amended to read:

35A-4-105. Department may be represented by attorneys in actions.

(1) In any civil action to enforce the provisions of this chapter the department may be represented by any qualified attorney who is employed by the department and is designated by it for this purpose, or at the department's request by the attorney general, or if the action is brought in the courts of any other state by any attorney qualified to appear in the courts of that state.

(2) All criminal actions for violation of any provision of this chapter, or of any rules or regulations issued pursuant thereto, shall be prosecuted by the attorney general of the state; or, at [~~his~~]the attorney general's request and under [~~his~~] direction, by the prosecuting attorney of any county in which the employing unit has a place of business or the violator resides.

Section 141. Section 35A-4-207 is amended to read:

35A-4-207. Unemployment.

(1) (a) An individual is "unemployed" in any week during which [~~he~~]the individual performs no services and with respect to which no wages are payable to [~~him~~]the individual, or in any week of less than full-time work if the wages payable to [~~him~~]the individual with respect to the week are less than [~~his~~]the individual's weekly benefit amount.

(b) The department shall prescribe rules applicable to unemployed individuals making distinctions in the procedure as to total unemployment, part-total unemployment, partial unemployment of individuals attached to their regular jobs, and other forms of short-time work, as the department considers necessary.

(2) The department may by rule prescribe in the case of individuals working on a regular attachment basis the existence of unemployment for periods longer than a week if:

(a) it is a period of less than full-time work;

(b) insofar as possible the loss of wages required as a condition of being considered unemployed in those periods shall be such as to allow comparable benefits, for comparable loss in wages, to those individuals working less than full-time in each week as would be payable on a weekly claim period basis to those individuals working full-time and not at all in alternate weeks.

(3) Unemployment shall in no case be measured on a basis of longer than a four-week period.

Section 142. Section 35A-4-402 is amended to read:

35A-4-402. Extended benefits.

(1) Except when the result would be inconsistent with the other provisions of this section or the rules of the department, the provisions of this chapter that apply to claims for or payments of regular benefits apply to claims for and payments of extended benefits.

(2) An individual is eligible to receive extended benefits with respect to any week of unemployment in [~~his~~]the individual's eligibility period only if the division finds that with respect to that week the individual:

(a) is an "exhaustee" as defined in this section;

(b) has satisfied the requirements of this chapter for the receipt of regular benefits that are applicable to individuals claiming extended benefits, including not being subject to a disqualification for the receipt of benefits; and

(c) has satisfied the federal requirements as adopted by state regulation for the receipt of extended benefits.

(3) The weekly extended benefit amount payable to an individual for a week of total unemployment in [~~his~~]the individual's eligibility period is an amount equal to the weekly benefit amount payable to [~~him~~]the individual during [~~his~~]the individual's applicable benefit year.

(4) The total extended benefit amount payable to any eligible individual with respect to [~~his~~]the individual's applicable benefit year is the lesser of the following amounts:

(a) 50% of the total amount of regular benefits which were payable to [~~him~~]the individual under this chapter in [~~his~~]the individual's applicable benefit year;

(b) 13 times [~~his~~]the individual's weekly benefit amount which was payable to [~~him~~]the individual under this chapter for a week of total unemployment in the applicable benefit year; or

(c) 39 times [~~his~~]the individual's weekly benefit amount which was payable to [~~him~~]the individual under this chapter for a week of total unemployment in the applicable benefit year, reduced by the total amount of regular benefits which were paid or deemed paid to [~~him~~]the individual under this chapter with respect to the benefit year.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, if the benefit year of any individual ends within an extended benefit period, the remaining balance of extended benefits that the individual would, but for this section, be entitled to receive in that extended benefit period, with respect to weeks of unemployment beginning after the end of the benefit year, shall be reduced, but not below zero, by the product of the number of weeks for which the individual received any amounts as trade adjustment allowances within that benefit year, multiplied by the individual's weekly benefit amount for extended benefits.

(6) (a) Whenever an extended benefit period is to become effective in this state as a result of a state "on" indicator, or an extended benefit period is to be terminated in this state as a result of a state "off" indicator, the division shall make an appropriate public announcement.

(b) Computations required by Subsection (7)(f) shall be made by the division, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the United States Secretary of Labor.

(7) As used in this section:

(a) "Extended benefit period" means a period that:

(i) begins with the third week after a week for which there is a state "on" indicator; and

(ii) ends with either:

(A) the third week after the first week for which there is a state "off" indicator; or

(B) after the 13th consecutive week of duration of that period, whichever occurs later; however, no extended benefit period may begin by reason of a state "on" indicator before the 14th week following the end of a prior extended benefit period which was in effect with respect to this state.

(b) There is a "state 'on' indicator" for this state for a week if the division determines, in accordance with the regulations of the Secretary of Labor, that for the period consisting of that week and the immediately preceding 12 weeks, the rate of insured unemployment, not seasonally adjusted, under this chapter equaled or exceeded 120% of the average of the rates for the corresponding 13-week period ending in each of the preceding two calendar years and that the rate equaled or exceeded 4% until the weeks beginning after September 25, 1982, at which time it will become 5%.

(c) There is a "state 'off' indicator" for this state for a week if the division determines, in accordance with the regulations of the Secretary of Labor, that for the period consisting of that week and the immediately preceding 12 weeks, the rate of insured unemployment, not seasonally adjusted, under this chapter was less than 120% of the average of the rates for the corresponding 13-week period ending in each of the preceding two calendar years or that the rate was less than 4% until the weeks beginning after September 25, 1982, at which time it will become 5%.

(d) "Rate of insured unemployment," for purposes of Subsections (7)(b) and (7)(c), means the percentage derived by dividing the average weekly number of individuals filing claims for regular compensation in this state for weeks of unemployment with respect to the most recent 13-consecutive-week period, as determined by the division on the basis of its reports to the Secretary of Labor, by the average monthly employment covered under this chapter for the first four of the most recent six completed calendar quarters ending before the end of the 13-week period.

(e) "Regular benefits" means benefits payable to an individual under this chapter or under any other state law, including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. Chapter 85, other than extended benefits.

(f) "Extended benefits" means benefits, including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. Chapter 85, payable to an individual under the provisions of this section for weeks of unemployment in [~~his~~]the individual's eligibility period.

(g) "Eligibility period" of an individual means the period consisting of the weeks in [~~his~~]the individual's benefit year which begin in an extended benefit period and, if [~~his~~]the individual's benefit year ends within the extended benefit period, any weeks thereafter which begin in that period.

(h) "Exhaustee" means an individual who, with respect to any week of unemployment in [~~his~~]the individual's eligibility period:

(i) has received, prior to that week, all of the regular benefits that were available to [~~him~~]the individual under this chapter or any other state law, including dependent's allowances and benefits payable to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. Chapter 85, in [~~his~~]the individual's current benefit year that includes such week. An individual, for the purposes of this subsection, shall be deemed to have received all of the regular benefits that were available to [~~him~~]the individual although, as a result of a pending appeal with respect to wages or employment, or both, that were not considered in the original monetary determination in [~~his~~]the individual's benefit year, [~~he~~]the individual may subsequently be determined to be entitled to added regular benefits; or

(ii) has no, or insufficient, wages or employment or both on the basis of which [~~he~~]the individual could establish a new benefit year that would include that week, [~~his~~]the individual's benefit year having expired prior to that week; and

(iii) has no right to unemployment benefits or allowances, as the case may be, under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, the Automotive Products Trade Act of 1965, or any other federal laws as are specified in regulations issued by the Secretary of Labor and has not received, and is not seeking, unemployment benefits under the unemployment compensation law of the Virgin Islands or of Canada. However, if that [~~person~~]individual is seeking such benefits and the appropriate agency finally determines that [~~he~~]the individual is not entitled to benefits under that law [~~he~~]the individual is considered an "exhaustee," provided that the reference in this subsection to the Virgin Islands shall be inapplicable effective on the day on which the U. S. Secretary of Labor approves under Section 3304 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 26 U.S.C. 3304(a), an unemployment compensation law submitted to the Secretary by the Virgin Islands for approval.

(i) "State law" means the unemployment insurance law of any state, approved by the Secretary of Labor under Section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 26 U.S.C. 3304(a).

(c) Each employer shall supply to individuals in [~~his~~]the employer's service copies of the printed statements or other materials relating to claims for benefits when and as the department may by rule prescribe. The printed statements and other materials shall be supplied by the division to each employer without cost to the employer.

(2) (a) Jurisdiction over benefits shall be continuous.

(b) Upon its own initiative or upon application of any party affected, the division may on the basis of change in conditions or because of a mistake as to facts, review a decision allowing or disallowing in whole or in part a claim for benefits.

(c) The review shall be conducted in accordance with rules adopted by the department and may result in a new decision that may award, terminate, continue, increase, or decrease benefits, or may result in a referral of the claim to an appeal tribunal.

(d) Notice of any redetermination shall be promptly given to the party applying for redetermination and to other parties entitled to notice of the original determination, in the manner prescribed in this section with respect to notice of an original determination.

(e) The new order shall be subject to review and appeal as provided in this section.

(f) A review may not be made after one year from the date of the original determination, except in cases of fraud or claimant fault as provided in Subsection (4).

(3) (a) The claimant or any other party entitled to notice of a determination as provided by department rule may file an appeal from the determination with the Division of Adjudication within 10 days after the date of mailing of the notice of determination or redetermination to the party's last-known address or, if the notice is not mailed, within 10 days after the date of delivery of the notice.

(b) Unless the appeal or referral is withdrawn with permission of the administrative law judge, after affording the parties reasonable opportunity for a fair hearing, the administrative law judge shall make findings and conclusions and on that basis affirm, modify, or reverse the determination or redetermination.

(c) The administrative law judge shall first give notice of the pendency of an appeal to the division, which may then be a party to the proceedings. The administrative law judge shall receive into the record of the appeal any documents or other records provided by the division, and may obtain or request any additional documents or records held by the division or any of the parties that the administrative law judge considers relevant to the proper determination of the appeal.

(d) The parties shall be promptly notified of the administrative law judge's decision and shall be furnished with a copy of the decision and the findings and conclusions in support of the decision.

(e) The decision is considered to be final unless, within 30 days after the date of mailing of notice and a copy of the decision to the party's last-known address, or in the absence of mailed notice, within 30 days after the delivery of the notice, further appeal is initiated in accordance with Section 35A-4-508 and Chapter 1, Part 3, Adjudicative Proceedings.

(4) (a) Any person who, by reason of [~~his~~]that person's fraud, has received any sum as benefits under this chapter to which [~~he~~]the person was not entitled shall repay the sum to the division for the fund.

(b) If any person, by reason of [~~his~~]that person's own fault, has received any sum as benefits under this chapter to which under a redetermination or decision pursuant to this section [~~he~~]the person has been found not entitled, [~~he~~]the person shall repay the sum, or shall, in the discretion of the division, have the sum deducted from any future benefits payable to [~~him~~]the person, or both.

(c) In any case in which under this subsection a claimant is liable to repay to the division any sum for the fund, the sum shall be collectible in the same manner as provided for contributions due under this chapter.

(5) (a) If any person has received any sum as benefits under this chapter to which under a redetermination or decision [~~he~~]that person was not entitled, and it has been found that [~~he~~]the person was without fault in the matter, [~~he~~]the person is not liable to repay the sum but shall be liable to have the sum deducted from any future benefits payable to [~~him~~]the person.

(b) The division may waive recovery of the overpayment if it is shown to the satisfaction of the division that the claimant has the inability to meet more than the basic needs of survival for an indefinite period lasting at least several months.

(b) The notice shall be sent by certified mail at least 30 days before the proposed or scheduled date of any sale and shall contain:

(i) a description of the property and its location;

(ii) the name and address of the owner of the property, the customer as indicated on the work order, and any person claiming an interest in or lien on the property;

(iii) the name, address, and telephone number of the lienor;

(iv) notice that the lienor claims a lien on the property for labor and services performed and interest and storage fees charged, if any, and the cash sum which, if paid to the lienor, would be sufficient to redeem the property from the lien claimed by the lienor;

(v) notice that the lien claimed by the lienor is subject to enforcement under this section and that the property may be sold to satisfy the lien;

(iii) If, through administrative or judicial review, it is determined that no violation occurred or that the amount of the penalty should be reduced, the division shall within 30 days remit the appropriate amount to the operator with interest accumulated.

(3) (a) A civil penalty assessed by the division shall be final only after the person charged with a violation described under Subsection (1) has been given an opportunity for a public hearing.

(b) If a public hearing is held, the board shall make findings of fact and shall issue a written decision as to the occurrence of the violation and the amount of the penalty which is warranted, incorporating, when appropriate, an order requiring that the penalty be paid.

(c) When appropriate, the board shall consolidate the hearings with other proceedings under Section 40-10-22.

(d) Any hearing under this section shall be of record and shall be conducted pursuant to board rules governing the proceedings.

(2) (a) The department may not consent to the cancellation of any bond or the return of any money or securities if any action for damages upon a liability covered by that proof is then pending, if:

(i) any judgment of liability is unsatisfied; or

In the event of default in the payment of any installment under such an agreement, upon receiving notice of the default, the department shall suspend the license and registration or nonresident's operating privilege of the person defaulting. This license, registration, or nonresident's operating privilege may not be restored until either:

41-12a-506. Application to persons without license or registration.

(2) Upon receipt of certification from the official of another state that the operating privilege of a Utah resident has been suspended in the other state for failure to deposit post-accident security for the payment of judgments arising out of a motor vehicle accident, under circumstances which would require the deposit in Utah, the department shall suspend the license of the resident if [~~he~~]the resident was the operator, and all of [~~his~~]the resident's registrations if [~~he~~]the resident was the owner of a motor vehicle involved in the accident. These suspensions continue until the Utah resident furnishes evidence of [~~his~~]the resident's compliance with the law of the other state relating to the deposit of post-accident security.

The deposit or any balance of it shall be returned to the depositor or [~~his~~]the depositor's personal representative when evidence satisfactory to the department has been provided that the conditions of either Subsection 41-12a-503(2) or (3) have been satisfied.

(2) The department, upon the receipt of a certified copy of a judgment, shall suspend the license and registration and any nonresident's operating privilege of any person against whom the judgment was rendered, except as provided in Subsection (5) and Section 41-12a-513.

(3) Except as provided under Subsection (5) and Section 41-12a-513, a license, registration, and nonresident's operating privilege suspended under Subsection (2) remains suspended and may not be renewed nor may that license or registration be thereafter issued in the name of the same person, including a person not previously licensed, unless every such judgment is stayed or satisfied in full within the meaning of Section 41-12a-512, and until the person files proof of owner's or operator's security.

(4) If the judgment debtor named in any certified copy of a judgment reported to the department is a nonresident, the department shall transmit a certified copy of the judgment to the official in charge of the issuance of licenses and registration certificates of the state of which the judgment debtor is a resident.

(5) If the judgment creditor consents in writing, in a form the department prescribes, that the judgment debtor be allowed license and registration or nonresident's operating privilege, they may be allowed by the department for six months from the date of the consent and thereafter until that consent is revoked in writing, notwithstanding the default in the payment of the judgment or of any installments thereof prescribed in Section 41-12a-513, if the judgment debtor furnishes proof of owner's security.

(2) Whenever any person is convicted of an offense for which this chapter mandates the suspension of [~~his~~]that person's license or the registration of [~~his~~]that person's motor vehicle, and that person does not produce proof of owner's or operator's security at the time of [~~his~~]that person's appearance, the court in which the conviction takes place shall require the surrender to it of all pertinent evidences of registration, including all registration cards, license plates, nonresident temporary permits, and other similar materials then held by the person so convicted. This court shall then forward the registration materials to the Motor Vehicle Division of the State Tax Commission and send the Driver License Division a record of the conviction. If the person so convicted secures a judgment of acquittal or reversal of this conviction in any appellate court, the department shall reinstate [~~his~~]that person's driver license or privilege and the Motor Vehicle Division shall reinstate the registration of [~~his~~]that person's motor vehicle immediately upon receipt of a certified copy of the judgment of acquittal or reversal.

In no event, however, shall any such person, firm, or corporation be liable for any damages for any defamatory statement or act published or uttered in or as a part of a visual or sound broadcast unless it shall be alleged and proved by the complaining party that such person, firm, or corporation has failed to exercise due care to prevent the publication or utterance of such statement or act in such broadcast. (ii) if it otherwise appears from the document that the person was married on the effective date of the document, the grantee was a bona fide purchaser and the grantor received adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth so that the joinder of the nonexecuting spouse was not required under Sections 75-2-201 through 75-2-207;

(i) if the document purports to be executed pursuant to or to be a final determination in a judicial or administrative proceeding, or to be executed pursuant to a power of eminent domain, the court, official body, or condemnor acted within its jurisdiction and all steps required for the execution of the document were taken; and

Each unit owner shall be entitled to the exclusive ownership and possession of [~~his~~]that unit owner's unit. The owner of a time period condominium unit shall be entitled to the exclusive ownership and possession of the physical unit to which [~~his~~]that owner's time period relates and shall be entitled to the use and enjoyment of the common areas and facilities during, but only during, such annually recurring part or parts of a year as describe and define the time period unit concerned in the declaration.

Section 221. Section 57-8-8 is amended to read:

57-8-8. Compliance with covenants, bylaws and/or house rules and administrative provisions.

Subject to reasonable compliance therewith by the manager and the management committee, each unit owner shall reasonably comply with the covenants, conditions, and restrictions as set forth in the declaration or in the deed to [~~his~~]that unit owner's unit, and with the bylaws and/or house rules and with the administrative rules and regulations drafted pursuant thereto, as either of the same may be lawfully amended from time to time, and failure to comply shall be ground for an action to recover sums due for damages or injunctive relief or both, maintainable by the manager or management committee on behalf of the unit owners, or in a proper case, by an aggrieved unit owner.

Section 222. Section 57-8-13.14 is amended to read:

57-8-13.14. Easement rights -- Sales offices and model units -- Damage to property.

(1) Subject to any restrictions and limitations the declaration may specify, the declarant shall have a transferable easement over and on the common areas and facilities for the purpose of making improvements on the land within the project or on any additional land under the declaration and this act, and for the purpose of doing all things reasonably necessary and proper in connection with the same.

(2) The declarant and [~~his~~]the declarant's duly authorized agents, representatives, and employees may maintain sales offices or model units on the land within the project if the declaration provides for the same and specifies the rights of the declarant about the number, size, location, and relocation of them. Any sales office or model unit which is not designated a unit by the declaration shall become a common area and facility as soon as the declarant ceases to be a unit owner, and the declarant shall cease to have any rights concerning it unless the sales office or model unit is removed immediately from the land included within the project in accordance with a right reserved in the declaration to make this removal.

(3) To the extent that damage is inflicted on any part of the condominium project by any person or persons utilizing the easements reserved by the declaration or created by Subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the declarant, together with the person or persons causing the same, shall be jointly and severally liable for the prompt repair of the damage and for the restoration of the same to a condition compatible with the remainder of the condominium project.

Section 223. Section 57-8-32.5 is amended to read:

57-8-32.5. Property taken by eminent domain -- Allocation of award -- Reallocation of interests.

(1) If any portion of the common areas and facilities is taken by eminent domain, the award for it shall be allocated to the unit owners in proportion to their respective undivided interests in the common areas and facilities.

(2) If any units are taken by eminent domain, the undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appertaining to these units shall thenceforth appertain to the remaining units, being allocated to them in proportion to their respective undivided interests in the common areas and facilities. The court shall enter a decree reflecting the reallocation of undivided interests so produced, and the award shall include, without limitation, just compensation to the unit owner of any unit taken for [~~his~~]the unit owner's undivided interest in the common areas and facilities as well as for [~~his~~]the unit owner's unit.

(3) If portions of any unit are taken by eminent domain, the court shall determine the fair market value of the portions of the unit not taken, and the undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appertaining to any such units shall be reduced, in the case of each unit, in proportion to the diminution in the fair market value of the unit resulting from the taking. The portions of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities thus divested from the unit owners of these units shall be reallocated among these units and the other units in the condominium project in proportion to their respective undivided interests in the common areas and facilities, with any units partially taken participating in the reallocation on the basis of their undivided interests as reduced in accordance with the preceding sentence. The court shall enter a decree reflecting the reallocation of undivided interests produced by this, and the award shall include, without limitation, just compensation to the unit owner of any unit partially taken for that portion of [~~his~~]the unit owner's undivided interest in the common areas and facilities divested from [~~him~~]the unit owner by operation of the first sentence of this Subsection (3), and not revested in [~~him~~]the unit owner by operation of the following sentence, as well as for that portion of [~~his~~]the unit owner's unit taken by eminent domain.

(4) The court shall enter a decree reflecting the reallocation of undivided interests produced by this, and the award shall include, without limitation, just compensation to the unit owner of any unit partially taken for that portion of [~~his~~]the unit owner's undivided interest in the common areas and facilities divested from [~~him~~]the unit owner and also not revested in [~~him~~]the unit owner under this Subsection (4), as well as for that portion of [~~his~~]the unit owner's unit taken by eminent domain.

(5) If, however, the taking of a portion of any unit makes it impractical to use the remaining portion of that unit for any lawful purpose permitted by the declaration, then the entire undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appertaining to that unit shall thenceforth appertain to the remaining units, being allocated to them in proportion to their respective undivided interest in the common areas and facilities, and the remaining portion of that unit shall thenceforth be a common area and facility. The court shall enter a decree reflecting the reallocation of undivided interests produced by this, and the award shall include, without limitation, just compensation to the unit owner of the unit for [~~his~~]the unit owner's entire undivided interest in the common areas and facilities and for [~~his~~]the unit owner's entire unit.

(2) For the purpose of determining the just compensation to be paid for any building, structure, or other improvement required to be acquired under Subsection (1), the building, structure, or other improvement shall be deemed to be a part of the real property to be acquired, notwithstanding the right or obligation of a tenant, as against the owner of any other interest in the real property, to remove the building, structure, or improvement at the expiration of [~~his~~]the tenant's term; and the fair market value which the building, structure, or improvement contributes to the fair market value of the property to be acquired, or the fair market value of the building, structure, or improvement for removal from the real property, whichever is the greater, shall be paid to the tenant therefor.

(3) Payment for the buildings, structures, or improvements as set forth in Subsection (2) shall not result in duplication of any payments otherwise authorized by state law. No payment shall be made unless the owner of the land involved disclaims all interest in the improvements of the tenant. In consideration for any payment, the tenant shall assign, transfer, and release all [~~his~~]the tenant's right, title and interest in and to the improvements. Nothing with regard to this acquisition of buildings, structures, or other improvements shall be construed to deprive the tenants of any rights to reject payment and to obtain payment for these property interests in accordance with other laws of this state.

Section 225. Section 57-12-7 is amended to read:

57-12-7. Replacement property.

(1) No person shall be required to move or be relocated from land used for [~~his~~]the person's residence and acquired under any of the condemnation or eminent domain laws of this state until [~~he~~]the person has been offered a comparable replacement dwelling, including the curtilage, which is a decent, safe, clean, and sanitary dwelling, including the curtilage, adequate to accommodate the occupants, available on the private market, and reasonably accessible to public services and places of employment.

(2) If a program or project cannot proceed to actual construction because comparable sale or rental housing is not available and cannot otherwise be made available, such action shall be taken as is necessary or appropriate to provide this housing by use of funds authorized for the project.

(3) No person shall be required to move from [~~his~~]the person's dwelling, including the curtilage, after the effective date of this act because of any project of the agency, unless replacement housing is available to, and offered to the property owner.

(4) The agency shall assist owners of small businesses and family farms in identifying replacement properties available on the private market, located within the jurisdiction of the agency.

In this manner the Legislature intends to promote the public interest and strengthen the faith and confidence of the people of Utah in the integrity of their government. It does not intend to deny any public officer or employee the opportunities available to all other citizens of the state to acquire private economic or other interests so long as this does not interfere with [~~his~~]the full and faithful discharge of [~~his~~]a public officer's or employee's public duties.

70C-2-207. Referral sales.

If a buyer is induced by a violation of this section to enter into a consumer credit sale, the agreement is unenforceable by the seller and the buyer may rescind the agreement and retain any goods delivered until all payments made by the debtor have been fully refunded to [~~him~~]the buyer. The buyer may retain the benefit of any services performed without any obligation to pay for them. This section does not apply if any goods delivered to the buyer are damaged while in the buyer's possession or are not delivered to the seller at the buyer's residence, or at any other place agreed on by the parties, within a reasonable time after the seller tenders or delivers a full refund of all payments to the buyer.

Section 281. Section 70C-5-101 is amended to read:

70C-5-101. Definition -- Home solicitation sale.

As used in this chapter, "home solicitation sale" means a consumer credit sale of goods or services in which the seller or a person acting for [~~him~~]the seller engages in a face-to-face solicitation of the sale at a residence or place of employment of the buyer and the buyer's agreement or offer to purchase is there given to the seller or a person acting for [~~him~~]the seller. It does not include a sale made pursuant to preexisting open-end accounts, or a sale made between the parties at a business establishment at a fixed location where goods or services are offered or exhibited for sale.

Section 282. Section 70C-5-103 is amended to read:

70C-5-103. Form of agreement or offer -- Statement of buyer's rights.

(1) In a home solicitation sale, unless the buyer requests the seller to provide goods or services without delay in an emergency, the seller shall present to the buyer and obtain [~~his~~]the buyer's signature to a written agreement or offer to purchase which designates as the date of the transaction the date on which the buyer actually signs and contains a statement of the buyer's rights which complies with Subsection (2).

(2) The statement shall:

(a) appear under the conspicuous caption: "BUYER'S RIGHT TO CANCEL"; and

(b) read as follows:

"If this agreement was solicited at your residence or place of employment and you do not want the goods or services, you may cancel this agreement by mailing a notice to the seller. The notice must say that you do not want the goods or services and must be mailed before midnight on the third business day after you sign this agreement. The notice must be mailed to: _____ (insert name and mailing address of seller)."

(3) Compliance with any notice of cancellation or similar requirement of any rule of the Federal Trade Commission which by its terms applies to a home solicitation sale covered by this title is deemed compliance with Subsection (2)(b) if compliance is totally consistent with this title.

(4) Until the seller has complied with this section the buyer may cancel the home solicitation sale by notifying the seller in any manner and by any means of [~~his~~]the buyer's intention to cancel.

Section 283. Section 70C-5-104 is amended to read:

70C-5-104. Restoration of down payment.

(1) Within 10 days after a home solicitation sale has been canceled or an offer to purchase revoked the seller shall tender to the buyer any payments made by the buyer and any note or other evidence of indebtedness.

(2) If the down payment includes goods traded in, the goods shall be tendered in substantially as good condition as when received by the seller. If the seller fails to tender the goods as provided by this section, the buyer may recover an amount equal to the trade-in allowance stated in the agreement.

(3) A provision permitting the seller to keep all or any part of any payment, note, or evidence of indebtedness is in violation of this section and unenforceable.

(4) Until the seller has complied with the obligations imposed by this section, the buyer may retain possession of goods delivered to [~~him~~]the buyer by the seller and has a lien on the goods in [~~his~~]the buyer's possession or control for any recovery to which [~~he~~]the buyer is entitled.

Section 284. Section 70C-5-105 is amended to read:

70C-5-105. Duty of buyer -- No compensation for services prior to cancellation.

(1) Except as provided by the provisions on retention of goods by the buyer under Subsection 70C-5-104(4), within a reasonable time after a home solicitation sale has been canceled or an offer to purchase revoked, the buyer upon demand shall tender to the seller any goods delivered by the seller pursuant to the sale, but [~~he~~]the buyer is not obligated to tender at any place other than [~~his~~]the buyer's residence or place of employment. If the seller fails to demand possession of goods within a reasonable period of time after cancellation or revocation, the goods become the property of the buyer without obligation to pay for them. For the purpose of this section, 40 days is a reasonable period of time.

(2) The buyer has a duty to take reasonable care of the goods in [~~his~~]the buyer's possession before cancellation or revocation and for a reasonable time thereafter, during which time the goods are otherwise at the seller's risk.

(3) If the seller has performed any services pursuant to a home solicitation sale prior to its cancellation, the seller is entitled to no compensation.

Section 285. Section 70C-6-104 is amended to read:

70C-6-104. Conditions applying to insurance to be provided by creditor.

(1) the insurance shall be evidenced by an individual policy or certificate of insurance delivered to the debtor, or sent to [~~him~~]the debtor at [~~his~~]the debtor's address as stated by [~~him~~]the debtor, within 30 days after the term of the insurance commences under the agreement between the creditor and debtor; or

(2) the creditor shall promptly notify the debtor of any failure or delay in providing the insurance.

Section 286. Section 70C-6-106 is amended to read:

70C-6-106. Refund or credit required -- Amount.

(1) A debtor or [~~his~~]a debtor's estate is entitled to any rebate or refund due from an insurer and to any unearned part of a separate charge for insurance previously paid by the debtor, resulting from the prepayment of a consumer credit debt, except when all refunds and credits due to the debtor under this title amount to less than $5.

(2) A creditor shall promptly make or cause to be made an appropriate refund or credit to the debtor with respect to any separate charge made to [~~him~~]the debtor for insurance if:

(a) the insurance is not provided or is provided for a shorter term than that for which the charge to a debtor for insurance was computed; or

(b) the insurance terminates prior to the end of the term for which it was written because of prepayment in full or otherwise.

(3) All refunds or credit required by this section shall be computed according to a method prescribed or approved by the Insurance Department or formula filed by the insurer with the Insurance Department at least 30 days before any debtor's right to a refund or credit becomes determinable, unless the method or formula is employed after the Insurance Department notifies the insurer that the method or formula has been disapproved.

(4) Except as provided in Subsection (1), a creditor is not obligated to account to a debtor for any portion of a separate charge for insurance when:

(a) the insurance is terminated by performance of the insurer's obligation;

(b) the creditor pays or accounts for premiums to the insurer in amounts and at times determined by the agreement between them; or

(c) the creditor receives directly or indirectly under any policy of insurance a gain or advantage not prohibited by law.

Section 287. Section 70C-6-304 is amended to read:

70C-6-304. Cancellation by creditor.

A creditor may not request cancellation of a policy of property or liability insurance except after the debtor's default or in accordance with a written authorization by the debtor, and in either case the cancellation does not take effect until written notice is delivered to the debtor or mailed to [~~him~~]the debtor at [~~his~~]the debtor's address as stated by [~~him~~]the debtor. The notice shall state that the policy may be cancelled on a date not less than 10 days after the notice is delivered, or, if the notice is mailed, not less than 13 days after it is mailed.

A refund may be made in whole or in part by reducing the debtor's obligation by the amount of the excess charge. If the debtor has paid an amount in excess of the lawful obligation under the agreement, the debtor may recover the excess amount from the party who made the excess charge or from an assignee of the creditor's rights who undertakes direct collection of payments from or enforcement of rights against the debtor with respect to the debt.

(2) If a debtor is entitled to a refund and a party liable to the debtor in bad faith refuses to make a refund within a reasonable time after demand, the debtor may recover from that party a penalty in an amount to be determined by a court not exceeding the greater of either the amount of the finance charge or 10 times the amount of the excess charge. (3) For purposes of this section, "final" means:

(a) all appeals have been exhausted;

(b) no judicial review is pending; and

(5) Notwithstanding any other limitation, a prosecution may be commenced for charges described in Subsection (4) within one year after a plea entered pursuant to a plea agreement has been determined to be invalid, and that determination becomes final.

Section 313. Section 76-1-402 is amended to read:

76-1-402. Separate offenses arising out of single criminal episode -- Included offenses.

(1) A defendant may be prosecuted in a single criminal action for all separate offenses arising out of a single criminal episode; however, when the same act of a defendant under a single criminal episode shall establish offenses which may be punished in different ways under different provisions of this code, the act shall be punishable under only one such provision; an acquittal or conviction and sentence under any such provision bars a prosecution under any other such provision.

(2) Whenever conduct may establish separate offenses under a single criminal episode, unless the court otherwise orders to promote justice, a defendant shall not be subject to separate trials for multiple offenses when:

(a) [~~The~~]the offenses are within the jurisdiction of a single court; and

(b) [~~The~~]the offenses are known to the prosecuting attorney at the time the defendant is arraigned on the first information or indictment.

(3) A defendant may be convicted of an offense included in the offense charged but may not be convicted of both the offense charged and the included offense. An offense is so included when:

(c) [~~It~~]it is specifically designated by a statute as a lesser included offense.

(4) The court shall not be obligated to charge the jury with respect to an included offense unless there is a rational basis for a verdict acquitting the defendant of the offense charged and convicting [~~him~~]the defendant of the included offense.

(5) If the district court on motion after verdict or judgment, or an appellate court on appeal or certiorari, shall determine that there is insufficient evidence to support a conviction for the offense charged but that there is sufficient evidence to support a conviction for an included offense and the trier of fact necessarily found every fact required for conviction of that included offense, the verdict or judgment of conviction may be set aside or reversed and a judgment of conviction entered for the included offense, without necessity of a new trial, if such relief is sought by the defendant.

(3) "Corporation" means all organizations required by the laws of this state or any other state to obtain a certificate of authority, a certificate of incorporation, or other form of registration to transact business as a corporation within this state or any other state and shall include domestic, foreign, profit and nonprofit corporations, but shall not include a corporation sole, as such term is used in Title 16, Chapter 7, Corporations Sole. Lack of an appropriate certificate of authority, incorporation, or other form of registration shall be no defense when such organization conducted its business in a manner as to appear to have lawful corporate existence.

Section 315. Section 76-2-204 is amended to read:

76-2-204. Criminal responsibility of corporation or association.

A corporation or association is guilty of an offense when:

(1) The conduct constituting the offense consists of an omission to discharge a specific duty of affirmative performance imposed on corporations or associations by law; or

(2) The conduct constituting the offense is authorized, solicited, requested, commanded, or undertaken, performed, or recklessly tolerated by the board of directors or by a high managerial agent acting within the scope of [~~his~~]employment and in behalf of the corporation or association.

Section 316. Section 76-2-205 is amended to read:

76-2-205. Criminal responsibility of person for conduct in name of corporation or association.

A person is criminally liable for conduct constituting an offense which [~~he~~]the person performs or causes to be performed in the name of or on behalf of a corporation or association to the same extent as if such conduct were performed in [~~his~~]the person's own name or behalf.

Section 317. Section 76-2-301 is amended to read:

76-2-301. Person under 14 years old not criminally responsible.

A person is not criminally responsible for conduct performed before [~~he~~]the person reaches [~~the age of~~]14 years old. This section shall in no way limit the jurisdiction of or proceedings before the juvenile courts of this state.

Section 318. Section 76-2-302 is amended to read:

(1) A person is not guilty of an offense when [~~he~~]the person engaged in the proscribed conduct because [~~he~~]the person was coerced to do so by the use or threatened imminent use of unlawful physical force upon [~~him~~]the person or a third person, which force or threatened force a person of reasonable firmness in [~~his~~]that situation would not have resisted.

(2) The defense of compulsion provided by this section shall be unavailable to a person who intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly places himself or herself in a situation in which it is probable that [~~he~~]the person will be subjected to duress.

(3) A married woman is not entitled, by reason of the presence of her husband, to any presumption of compulsion or to any defense of compulsion except as in Subsection (1) provided.

Section 319. Section 76-2-303 is amended to read:

76-2-303. Entrapment.

(1) It is a defense that the actor was entrapped into committing the offense. Entrapment occurs when a peace officer or a person directed by or acting in cooperation with the officer induces the commission of an offense in order to obtain evidence of the commission for prosecution by methods creating a substantial risk that the offense would be committed by one not otherwise ready to commit it. Conduct merely affording a person an opportunity to commit an offense does not constitute entrapment.

(2) The defense of entrapment shall be unavailable when causing or threatening bodily injury is an element of the offense charged and the prosecution is based on conduct causing or threatening the injury to a person other than the person perpetrating the entrapment.

(3) The defense provided by this section is available even though the actor denies commission of the conduct charged to constitute the offense.

(4) Upon written motion of the defendant, the court shall hear evidence on the issue and shall determine as a matter of fact and law whether the defendant was entrapped to commit the offense. Defendant's motion shall be made at least 10 days before trial except the court for good cause shown may permit a later filing.

(5) Should the court determine that the defendant was entrapped, it shall dismiss the case with prejudice, but if the court determines the defendant was not entrapped, such issue may be presented by the defendant to the jury at trial. Any order by the court dismissing a case based on entrapment shall be appealable by the state.

(6) In any hearing before a judge or jury where the defense of entrapment is an issue, past offenses of the defendant shall not be admitted, except that in a trial where the defendant testifies[~~he~~], the defendant may be asked [~~of his~~]about past convictions for felonies and any testimony given by the defendant at a hearing on entrapment may be used to impeach [~~his~~]the defendant's testimony at trial.

Section 320. Section 76-2-304 is amended to read:

76-2-304. Ignorance or mistake of fact or law.

(1) Unless otherwise provided, ignorance or mistake of fact which disproves the culpable mental state is a defense to any prosecution for that crime.

(2) Ignorance or mistake concerning the existence or meaning of a penal law is no defense to a crime unless:

(a) [~~Due~~]due to [~~his~~]an actor's ignorance or mistake, the actor reasonably believed [~~his~~]the actor's conduct did not constitute an offense[~~.~~];and

(b) [~~His~~]an actor's ignorance or mistake resulted from the actor's reasonable reliance upon:

(i) [~~An~~]an official statement of the law contained in a written order or grant of permission by an administrative agency charged by law with responsibility for interpreting the law in question; or

(ii) [~~A~~]a written interpretation of the law contained in an opinion of a court of record or made by a public servant charged by law with responsibility for interpreting the law in question.

(3) Although an actor's ignorance or mistake of fact or law may constitute a defense to the offense charged, [~~he~~]the actor may nevertheless be convicted of a lesser included offense of which [~~he~~]the actor would be guilty if the fact or law were as [~~he~~]the actor believed.

Section 321. Section 76-2-307 is amended to read:

76-2-307. Voluntary termination of efforts prior to offense.

It is an affirmative defense to a prosecution in which an actor's criminal responsibility arises from [~~his~~]the actor's own conduct or from being a party to an offense under Section 76-2-202 that prior to the commission of the offense, the actor voluntarily terminated [~~his~~]the actor's effort to promote or facilitate its commission and either:

(1) [~~Gave~~]gave timely warning to the proper law enforcement authorities or the intended victim; or

(2) [~~Wholly~~]wholly deprives [~~his~~]the actor's prior efforts of effectiveness in the commission.

Section 322. Section 76-2-403 is amended to read:

76-2-403. Force in arrest.

Any person is justified in using any force, except deadly force, which [~~he~~]the person reasonably believes to be necessary to effect an arrest or to defend himself or herself or another from bodily harm while making an arrest.

Section 323. Section 76-3-303 is amended to read:

76-3-303. Additional sanctions against corporation or association -- Advertising of conviction -- Disqualification of officer.

(1) When a corporation or association is convicted of an offense, the court may, in addition to or in lieu of imposing other authorized sanctions, require the corporation or association to give appropriate publicity of the conviction by notice to the class or classes of persons or section of the public interested in or affected by the conviction, by advertising in designated areas, or by designated media or otherwise.

(2) When an executive or high managerial officer of a corporation or association is convicted of an offense committed in furtherance of the affairs of the corporation or association, the court may include in the sentence an order disqualifying [~~him~~]the executive or high managerial officer from exercising similar functions in the same or other corporations or associations for a period of not exceeding five years if [~~it~~]the court finds the scope or willfulness of [~~his~~]the illegal actions make it dangerous or inadvisable for such functions to be entrusted to [~~him~~]the executive or high managerial officer.

Section 324. Section 76-3-405 is amended to read:

76-3-405. Limitation on sentence where conviction or prior sentence set aside.

(1) Where a conviction or sentence has been set aside on direct review or on collateral attack, the court shall not impose a new sentence for the same offense or for a different offense based on the same conduct which is more severe than the prior sentence less the portion of the prior sentence previously satisfied.

(2) This section does not apply when:

(a) the increased sentence is based on facts which were not known to the court at the time of the original sentence, and the court affirmatively places on the record the facts which provide the basis for the increased sentence; or

(b) a defendant enters into a plea agreement with the prosecution and later successfully moves to invalidate [~~his~~]the defendant's conviction, in which case the defendant and the prosecution stand in the same position as though the plea bargain, conviction, and sentence had never occurred.

Section 325. Section 76-3-409 is amended to read:

76-3-409. Child abuse or sex offense against child -- Treatment of offender or victim -- Payment of costs.

(1) Any person convicted in the district court of child abuse, or a sexual offense if the victim is under 18 years [~~of age~~]old, may be ordered to participate in treatment or therapy under the supervision of the adult probation and parole section of the Department of Corrections, in cooperation with the division of children, youth, and families until the court is satisfied that such treatment or therapy has been successful or that no further benefit to the convicted offender would result if such treatment or therapy were continued. The court may also order treatment of the victim if it believes the same would be beneficial under the circumstances. Nothing in this section shall preclude the court from imposing any additional sentence as provided by law.

(2) The convicted offender shall be ordered to pay, to the extent that [~~he or she~~]the convicted offender is able, the costs of [~~his or her~~]the convicted offender's treatment, together with treatment costs incurred by the victim and any administrative costs incurred by the appropriate state agency in the supervision of such treatment. If the convicted offender is unable to pay all or part of the costs of treatment, the court may order the appropriate state agency to pay such costs to the extent funding is provided by the Legislature for such purpose and shall order the convicted offender to perform public service work as compensation for the cost of treatment.

Section 326. Section 76-7-202 is amended to read:

76-7-202. Orders for support in criminal nonsupport proceedings.

(1) In any proceeding under Section 76-7-201, the court may, instead of imposing the punishments otherwise prescribed, issue an order directing the defendant to periodically pay a sum to the Office of Recovery Services, or otherwise as the court may direct, to be used for the support of the dependents who are the subject of the proceeding under Section 76-7-201.

(2) The order to periodically pay a sum for the support of the dependents:

(a) may be issued with the consent of the defendant prior to trial, or after conviction, having regard to the circumstances, financial ability, and earning capacity of the defendant;

(b) shall be subject to change from time to time as circumstances may require;

(c) may not require payments for a period exceeding the term of probation provided for the offense with which the defendant is charged, or of which [~~he~~]the defendant is found guilty; and

(2) (a) The managing judge may direct the clerk to draw additional names from the master list so alternate grand jurors may be designated at the time the grand jury is selected.

(b) Alternate grand jurors shall be drawn in the same manner and have the same qualifications as the regular grand jurors. If impanelled, they are subject to the same challenges, shall take the same oath, and have the same functions, powers, facilities, and privileges as the regular jurors.

(3) The clerk shall cause each person drawn for service on the grand jury or as an alternate to be notified of when and where to report for service. Notice may be given by telephone or by service of a summons, either personally or by first class mail addressed to the prospective juror's current residence, place of business, or post office box.

(4) The names of those drawn for service on the grand jury or as alternates and the contents of all grand juror questionnaires may not be made available to the public.

(5) (a) At the time and place specified for the appearance of the persons summoned to serve as grand jurors and alternates, the managing judge shall examine the prospective grand jurors and alternates. Before accepting any person as a grand juror or alternate, the managing judge shall be satisfied that the person has no bias or prejudice that would prevent [~~him~~]the person from fairly and dispassionately considering the matters presented to the grand jury.

(b) When drawn and qualified, the person shall be accepted for service unless[~~the managing judge in his~~], in the managing judge's discretion and on the application of the juror, the managing judge excuses [~~him~~]the person from service before [~~he~~]the person is sworn.

(6) The managing judge may dismiss the grand jury panel if [~~he~~]the managing judge finds there has been a material departure from the methods prescribed for the selecting, drawing, and return of the grand jury, or if there has been an intentional omission by the proper officer to summon one or more of the grand jurors drawn.

(7) When 15 of the persons summoned as grand jurors who are qualified and not excused remain, they are the grand jury. If more than 15 qualified persons remain, their names shall be written by the clerk on separate slips, folded to conceal the names, and placed in a box. The clerk shall then draw 15 slips, and the persons whose names are drawn are the grand jury.

(8) (a) When the number of persons to be designated as alternate grand jurors who are qualified and not excused remain, they are the alternate grand jurors.

(b) If more than the number of alternate grand jurors designated by the managing judge remain, their names shall be written by the clerk on separate slips, folded to conceal the names, and placed in a box. (2) Challenges shall be made before the administration of the oath to the jurors and shall be tried to the court managing the grand jury.

(3) A motion to dismiss the indictment may be based on objections to the array or on the lack of legal qualification of an individual juror, if not previously determined upon challenge.

(4) In criminal cases the defendant or attorney for the state may move to dismiss the indictment or stay the proceedings on the ground of substantial failure to comply with this chapter in selecting the grand jury. However, [~~he~~]the defendant or attorney for the state must do so before the voir dire examination begins or within seven days after the defendant or attorney for the state discovered or could have discovered the grounds by the exercise of diligence, whichever is earlier, or the motion is considered waived.

(5) (a) Any motion filed under Subsection (1), (3), or (4) must contain a sworn statement of facts which, if true, would constitute a substantial failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter. The moving party may present in support of the motion the testimony of the clerk if [~~he~~]the clerk is available, any relevant records and papers used by the clerk that were not made public or otherwise available, and any other relevant evidence.

(b) If the managing judge determines there has been a substantial failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter in selecting the grand jury, [~~he~~]the managing judge shall stay the proceedings pending the selection of a grand jury in conformity with this chapter or dismiss the indictment, whichever is appropriate.

(6) (a) The procedures prescribed by this section are the exclusive means by which a party accused of a crime or an attorney for the state may challenge any grand jury on the ground it was not selected in conformity with this chapter.

(b) An indictment may not be dismissed in any case on the ground that one or more members of the grand jury that returned the indictment were not legally qualified if it appears from the record kept by the grand jury that eight or more jurors, after deducting the number not qualified, concurred in finding the indictment.

(2) The judge to whom the report is submitted shall examine it and the minutes of the grand jury. The judge shall make an order accepting and filing the report as a public record, but only if the judge is satisfied that it complies with Subsection (1) and:

(a) the report is based on facts revealed during the grand jury's investigation and is supported by a preponderance of evidence; and

(b) each person named and any reasonable number of witnesses on [~~his~~]the named person's behalf as designated by [~~him~~]the named person to the foreman of the grand jury were afforded an opportunity to testify before the grand jury prior to the filing of the report.

(3) An order accepting a report made under this section and the report itself shall be sealed by the managing judge and may not be filed as a public record or be subject to subpoena or otherwise made public until:

(a) at least 31 days after a copy of the order and report are served on each public officer or employee named and an answer has been filed;

(b) the time for filing an answer has expired; or

(c) an appeal is taken or until all rights of review of the public officer or employee named have expired or terminated in an order accepting the report.

(b) The managing judge may issue orders it finds necessary and appropriate to prevent unauthorized publication of a report. Unauthorized publication of a report may be punished as contempt of court.

(5) (a) A public officer or employee named in a report may file with the clerk a verified answer to the report not later than 20 days after service of the order and report upon [~~him~~]the public officer or employee. Upon a showing of good cause, the managing judge may grant the public officer or employee an extension of time to file an answer and may authorize limited publication of the report as necessary to prepare an answer.

(b) The answer shall plainly and concisely state the facts and law constituting the defense of the public officer or employee to the charges in the report. Except for those parts the managing judge determines have been inserted scandalously, prejudiciously, or unnecessarily, the answer becomes an appendix to the report.

(6) Upon the submission of a report made under this section the managing judge shall order the report sealed if [~~he~~]the managing judge finds the filing of the report as a public record may prejudice fair consideration of a pending criminal matter. The report may not be subject to subpoena or public inspection during the pendency of the criminal matter except upon order of the managing judge.

(7) (a) When the managing judge to whom a report is submitted is not satisfied that the report complies with the provisions of this section, [~~he~~]the managing judge may direct that additional testimony be taken before the same grand jury or [~~he~~]the managing judge shall make an order sealing the report.

(b) If the report is sealed, it may not be filed as a public record or be subject to subpoena or otherwise made public until the provisions of this section are met.

(8) A grand jury's term may be extended by the managing judge so additional testimony may be taken or the provisions of this section met.

All proceedings shall be completed, and the motion or application decided, as soon as practicable after the filing of the governmental entity's response.

(d) If the court finds that the applicant is not the subscriber or customer for whom the communications sought by the governmental entity are maintained, or that there is a reason to believe that the law enforcement inquiry is legitimate and that the communications sought are relevant to that inquiry, it shall deny the motion or application and order the process enforced. If the court finds that the applicant is the subscriber or customer for whom the communications sought by the governmental entity are maintained, and that there is no reason to believe that the communications sought are relevant to a legitimate law enforcement inquiry, or that there has not been substantial compliance with this chapter, it shall order the process quashed.

(i) from a separate criminal episode than the current charge; and

(16) (a) It is an affirmative defense to an allegation of the commission of an offense listed in Subsection (16)(b) that the person or bystander:

(i) reasonably believes that the person or another person is experiencing an overdose event due to the ingestion, injection, inhalation, or other introduction into the human body of a controlled substance or other substance;

(17) If any provision of this chapter, or the application of any provision to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of this chapter shall be given effect without the invalid provision or application.

(18) A legislative body of a political subdivision may not enact an ordinance that is less restrictive than any provision of this chapter.

(19) If a minor who is under 18 years old is found by a court to have violated this section or Subsection 76-5-102.1(2)(b) or 76-5-207(2)(b), the court may order the minor to complete:

A trust company is not, however, precluded from filing an action in court to protect trust account property or as authorized under [~~Title 75, Utah Uniform Probate Code~~]Title 75B, Trusts.

Section 3. Section 7-5-7 is amended to read:

7-5-7. Management and investment of trust money.

(1) Money received or held by a trust company as agent or fiduciary, whether for investment or distribution, shall be invested or distributed as soon as practicable as authorized under the instrument creating the account and may not be held uninvested any longer than is reasonably necessary.

(2) If the instrument creating an agency or fiduciary account contains provisions authorizing the trust company, its officers, or its directors to exercise their discretion in the matter of investments, money held in the trust account under that instrument may be invested only in those classes of securities which are approved by the directors of the trust company or a committee of directors appointed for that purpose. If a trust company acts in any agency or fiduciary capacity under appointment by a court [~~of competent~~]with jurisdiction, it shall make and account for the investments according to [~~Title 75, Utah Uniform Probate Code~~]Title 75B, Trusts, unless the underlying instrument provides otherwise.

(3) (a) Money received or held as agent or fiduciary by any trust company which is also a depository institution, whether for investment or distribution, may be deposited in the commercial department or savings department of that trust company to the credit of its trust department. Whenever the money so deposited in a fiduciary or managing agency account exceed the amount of federal deposit insurance applicable to that account, the trust company shall deliver to the trust department or put under its control collateral security as outlined in Regulation 9.10 of the Comptroller of the Currency. However, if the instrument creating such a fiduciary or managing agency account expressly provides that money may be deposited to the commercial or savings department of the trust company, then the money may be so deposited without setting aside collateral securities as required under this section and the deposits in the event of insolvency of any such trust company shall be treated as other general deposits are treated. A trust company that deposits trust funds in its commercial or savings department shall be liable for interest on the deposits only at the rates, if any, paid by the trust company on deposits of like kind not made to the credit of its trust department.

(b) Money received or held as agent or fiduciary by a trust company, whether for investment or distribution, may be deposited in an affiliated depository institution. Whenever the money so deposited in a fiduciary or managing agency account exceed the amount of federal deposit insurance applicable to that account, the depository institution shall deliver to the trust company or put under its control collateral security as outlined in Regulation 9.10 of the Comptroller of the Currency. However, if the instrument creating the fiduciary or managing agency account expressly permits money to be deposited in the affiliated depository institution, the money may be so deposited without setting aside collateral securities as required under this section and deposits in the event of insolvency of the depository institution shall be treated as other general deposits are treated. A trust company that deposits trust money in an affiliated depository institution is liable for interest on the deposits only at the rates, if any, paid by the depository institution on deposits of like kind.

(4) In carrying out all aspects of its trust business, a trust company shall have all the powers, privileges, and duties as set forth in Sections [~~75-7-813 and 75-7-814~~]75B-2-813 and 75B-2-814 with respect to trustees, whether or not the trust company is acting as a trustee as defined in [~~Title 75, Utah Uniform Probate Code~~]Section 75B-1-101.

(5) Nothing in this section may alter, amend, or limit the powers of a trust company acting in a fiduciary capacity as specified in the particular instrument or order creating the fiduciary relationship.

Section 4. Section 7-5-10 is amended to read:

7-5-10. Lending trust funds to trust company, officer, director, or employee as felony.

Section 5. Section 7-5-11 is amended to read:

7-5-11. Self-dealing with trust property -- Own stock as trust property -- Policies for dealing with trust securities.

(1) Except as provided in Section 7-5-7, in [~~Title 75, Utah Uniform Probate Code~~]Title 75B, Trusts, or as authorized under the instrument creating the relationship, a trust company may not invest funds held as an agent or fiduciary in stock or obligations of, or with such funds acquire property from, the trust company or any of its directors, officers or employees, nor shall a trust company sell property held as an agent or fiduciary to the company or to any of its directors, officers, or employees.

(2) A trust company may retain and vote stock of the trust company or of any of its affiliates received by it as assets of any trust account or in any other fiduciary relationship of which it is appointed agent or fiduciary, unless the instrument creating the relationship otherwise provides.

(3) Every trust company shall adopt written policies and procedures regarding decisions or recommendations to purchase or sell any security to facilitate compliance with federal and state securities laws. These policies and procedures, in particular, shall prohibit the trust company from using material inside information in connection with any decision or recommendation to purchase or sell any security.

75-3-504. Powers of personal representative.

(1) Unless restricted by the court, a supervised personal representative has, without interim orders approving exercise of a power, all powers of personal representatives under this [~~code~~]title, but he shall not exercise his power to make any distribution of the estate without prior order of the court.

(2) Any other restriction on the power of a personal representative which may be ordered by the court must be endorsed on his letters of appointment and, unless so endorsed, is ineffective as to persons dealing in good faith with the personal representative.

Section 37. Section 75-3-608 is amended to read:

75-3-608. Termination of appointment -- General.

(1) Termination of appointment of a personal representative occurs as indicated in Sections 75-3-609 through 75-3-612.

(2) Termination ends the right and power pertaining to the office of personal representative as conferred by this [~~code~~]title or any will, except that a personal representative, at any time prior to distribution or until restrained or enjoined by court order, may perform acts necessary to protect the estate and may deliver the assets to a successor representative.

(3) Termination does not discharge a personal representative from liability for transactions or omissions occurring before termination or relieve him of the duty to preserve assets subject to his control, to account therefor, and to deliver the assets.

(4) Termination does not affect the jurisdiction of the court over the personal representative but terminates his authority to represent the estate in any pending or future proceeding.

Section 38. Section 75-3-616 is amended to read:

75-3-616. Special administrator -- Appointed informally -- Powers and duties.

(1) A special administrator appointed by the registrar in informal proceedings pursuant to Subsection 75-3-614(1)(a) has the duty to collect and manage the assets of the estate, to preserve them, to account therefor and to deliver them to the general personal representative upon [~~his~~]the special administrator's qualification.

(2) The special administrator has the power of a personal representative under the [~~code~~]title necessary to perform his duties.

(c) A personal representative shall use the authority conferred upon [~~him~~]the personal representative by this [~~code~~]title, the terms of the will, if any, and any order in proceedings to which [~~he~~]the personal representative is party for the best interests of successors to the estate.

(2) (a) A personal representative [~~shall not~~]may not be surcharged for acts of administration or distribution if the conduct in question was authorized at the time.

(b) Subject to other obligations of administration, an informally probated will is authority to administer and distribute the estate according to [~~its terms~~]the terms of the will.

(c) An order of appointment of a personal representative, whether issued in informal or formal proceedings, is authority to distribute apparently intestate assets to the heirs of the decedent if, at the time of distribution, the personal representative is not aware of a pending testacy proceeding, a proceeding to vacate an order entered in an earlier testacy proceeding, a formal proceeding questioning his appointment or fitness to continue, or a supervised administration proceeding.

(d) Nothing in this section affects the duty of the personal representative to administer and distribute the estate in accordance with the rights of claimants, the surviving spouse, any minor and dependent children, and any pretermitted child of the decedent as described elsewhere in this [~~code~~]title.

(3) Except as to proceedings which do not survive the death of the decedent, a personal representative of a decedent domiciled in this state at [~~his~~]the decedent's death has the same standing to sue and be sued in the courts of this state and courts of any other jurisdiction as [~~his~~]the decedent had immediately prior to death.

Section 41. Section 75-3-710 is amended to read:

75-3-710. Powers of personal representatives -- In general.

(1) Until termination of his appointment a personal representative has the same power over the title to property of the estate that an absolute owner would have, in trust, however, for the benefit of the creditors and others interested in the estate.

(2) This power may be exercised without notice, hearing, or order of court, unless otherwise specifically provided by this [~~code~~]title.

Section 42. Section 75-3-714 is amended to read:

75-3-714. Transactions authorized for personal representatives -- Exceptions.

(b) deliver a deed in escrow with directions that the proceeds, when paid in accordance with the escrow agreement, be paid to the successors of the decedent, as designated in the escrow agreement;

(16) borrow money with or without security to be repaid from the estate assets or otherwise; and advance money for the protection of the estate;

(17) effect a fair and reasonable compromise with any debtor or obligor, or extend, renew, or in any manner modify the terms of any obligation owing to the estate. If the personal representative holds a mortgage, pledge, or other lien upon property of another person, he may, in lieu of foreclosure, accept a conveyance or transfer of encumbered assets from the owner thereof in satisfaction of the indebtedness secured by lien;

(18) pay taxes, assessments, compensation of the personal representative, and other expenses incident to the administration of the estate;

(22) prosecute or defend claims or proceedings in any jurisdiction for the protection of the estate and of the personal representative in the performance of his duties;

(23) sell, mortgage, or lease any real or personal property of the estate or any interest in it for cash, credit, or for part cash and part credit, and with or without security for unpaid balances;

(24) continue any unincorporated business or venture in which the decedent was engaged at the time of his death:

(a) in the same business form for a period of not more than four months from the date of appointment of a general personal representative if continuation is a reasonable means of preserving the value of the business including good will;

(b) in the same business form for any additional period of time that may be approved by order of the court in a formal proceeding to which the persons interested in the estate are parties; or

(c) throughout the period of administration if the business is incorporated by the personal representative and if none of the probable distributees of the business who are competent adults object to its incorporation and retention in the estate;

(25) incorporate any business or venture in which the decedent was engaged at the time of his death;

(26) provide for exoneration of the personal representative from personal liability in any contract entered into on behalf of the estate;

(27) satisfy and settle claims and distribute the estate as provided in this [~~code~~]title.

Section 43. Section 75-3-913 is amended to read:

75-3-913. Distributions to trustee.

(1) Before distributing to a trustee, the personal representative may require that the trust be registered if the state in which [~~it~~]the trust is to be administered provides for registration and that the trustee inform the qualified beneficiaries [~~as provided in Section 75-7-811~~]as described in Section 75B-2-811.

(2) If the trust instrument does not excuse the trustee from giving bond, the personal representative may:

(a) petition the appropriate court to require that the trustee post bond if [~~he~~]the trustee apprehends that distribution might jeopardize the interests of persons who are not able to protect themselves[~~; and he may~~]; and

(b) withhold distribution until the court has acted.

(3) No inference of negligence on the part of the personal representative shall be drawn from [~~his~~]the personal representative's failure to exercise the authority conferred by Subsections (1) and (2).

Section 44. Section 75-3-915 is amended to read:

75-3-915. Distribution to person under disability.

A personal representative may discharge [~~his~~]the personal representative's obligation to distribute to any person under legal disability by distributing to [~~his~~]the person's conservator, or any other person authorized by this [~~code~~]title or otherwise to give a valid receipt and discharge for the distribution.

Section 45. Section 75-3-916 is amended to read:

75-3-916. Apportionment of estate taxes.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Estate" means the gross estate of a decedent as determined for the purpose of federal estate tax and the estate tax payable to this state;

(b) "Fiduciary" means personal representative, executor, administrator of any description, or trustee;

(c) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, joint stock company, corporation, government, political subdivision, governmental agency, or local governmental agency;

(d) "Person interested in the estate" means any person, including a personal representative, conservator, guardian, or trustee entitled to receive, or who has received, from a decedent while alive or by reason of the death of a decedent any property or interest in property included in the decedent's taxable estate;

(e) "State" means any state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; and

(f) "Tax" means the federal estate tax and the inheritance, estate, or other death tax payable to this state and interest and penalties imposed in addition to the tax but specifically does not include the federal generation skipping transfer tax.

(2) (a) Unless otherwise provided in the will or other dispositive instrument, the tax shall be apportioned among all persons interested in the estate.

(b) The apportionment shall be made in the proportion that the value of the interest of each person interested in the estate bears to the total value of the interests of all persons interested in the estate.

(c) The values used in determining the tax shall be used for that purpose.

(d) If the decedent's will or other dispositive instrument directs a method of apportionment of tax different from the method described in this [~~code~~]title, the method described in the will or other dispositive instrument controls.

(3) (a) The court having jurisdiction over the administration of the estate of a decedent shall determine the apportionment of the tax. If there are no probate proceedings, the court of the county in which the decedent was domiciled at death shall determine the apportionment of the tax upon the petition of the person required to pay the tax.

(b) If the court finds that it is inequitable to apportion interest and penalties in the manner provided in Subsection (2), because of special circumstances, it may direct the apportionment in the manner it finds equitable.

(c) (i) The expenses reasonably incurred by any fiduciary and by other persons interested in the estate concerning the determination of the amount and apportionment of the tax shall be apportioned as provided in Subsection (2) and charged and collected as a part of the tax apportioned.

(ii) If the court finds it is inequitable to apportion the expenses as provided in Subsection (2), it may direct the apportionment equitably.

(d) If the court finds that the assessment of penalties and interest assessed in relation to the tax is due to delay caused by the negligence of the fiduciary, the court may charge the fiduciary with the amount of the assessed penalties and interest.

(e) In any suit or judicial proceeding to recover from any person interested in the estate the amount of the tax apportioned to the person in accordance with this [~~code~~]title, the determination of the court in this regard is prima facie correct.

(4) (a) (i) The fiduciary or other person required to pay the tax may withhold from any property of the decedent in his possession and distributable to any person interested in the estate, the amount of tax attributable to his interest.

(ii) If the property in possession of the fiduciary or other person required to pay the tax and distributable to any person interested in the estate is insufficient to satisfy the proportionate amount of the tax determined to be due from the person, the fiduciary or other person required to pay the tax may recover the deficiency from the person interested in the estate.

(iii) If the property is not in the possession of the fiduciary or other person required to pay the tax, the fiduciary or the other person required to pay the tax may recover from any person interested in the estate the amount of the tax apportioned to the person in accordance with this section.

(b) If property held by the fiduciary or other person required to pay the tax is distributed prior to final apportionment of the tax, the fiduciary or other person may require the distributee to provide a bond or other security for the apportionment liability in the form and amount prescribed by the fiduciary, with the approval of the court having jurisdiction of the administration of the estate.

(5) (a) In making an apportionment, allowances shall be made for any exemptions granted, any classification made of persons interested in the estate, and any deductions and credits allowed by the law imposing the tax.

(b) (i) Any exemption or deduction allowed by reason of the relationship of any person to the decedent or by reason of the purposes of the gift inures to the benefit of the person bearing that relationship or receiving the gift.

(ii) When an interest is subject to a prior present interest which is not allowable as a deduction, the tax apportionable against the present interest shall be paid from principal.

(c) Any deduction for property previously taxed and any credit for gift taxes or death taxes of a foreign country paid by the decedent or his estate inures to the proportionate benefit of all persons liable to apportionment.

(d) Any credit for inheritance, succession, or estate taxes or taxes of this nature in respect to property or interests includable in the estate inures to the benefit of the persons or interests chargeable with the payment of the tax to the extent that, or in proportion as, the credit reduces the tax.

(e) (i) To the extent that property passing to or in trust for a surviving spouse or child or any charitable, public, or similar gift or bequest does not constitute an allowable deduction for purposes of the tax solely by reason of an inheritance tax or other death tax imposed upon and deductible from the property, the property shall not be included in the computation provided for in Subsection (2), and to that extent no apportionment shall be made against the property.

(ii) This does not apply in any instance where the result will be to deprive the estate of a deduction otherwise allowable under Section 2053(d)[~~of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 of the United States~~], Internal Revenue Code, relating to deduction for state death taxes on transfers for public, charitable, or religious uses.

(6) (a) No interest in income and no estate for years or for life or other temporary interest in any property or fund is subject to apportionment as between the temporary interest and the remainder.

(b) The tax on the temporary interest and the tax, if any, on the remainder is chargeable against the corpus of the property or funds subject to the temporary interest and remainder.

(7) (a) Neither the fiduciary nor other person required to pay the tax is under any duty to institute any suit or proceeding to recover from any person interested in the estate the amount of the tax apportioned to the person until the expiration of the three months next following final determination of the tax.

(b) A fiduciary or other person required to pay the tax who institutes the suit or proceeding within a reasonable time after the three months' period is not subject to any liability or surcharge because any portion of the tax apportioned to any person interested in the estate was collectible at a time following the death of the decedent but thereafter became uncollectible. If the fiduciary or other person required to pay the tax cannot collect from any person interested in the estate the amount of the tax apportioned to the person, the amount not recoverable shall be paid from the residuary estate.

(c) To the extent that the residuary estate is not adequate, the balance shall be equitably apportioned among the other persons interested in the estate who are subject to apportionment.

(8) (a) Subject to this section, a fiduciary acting in another state or a person required to pay the tax who is domiciled in another state may institute an action in the courts of this state and may recover a proportionate amount of the federal estate tax, of an estate tax payable to another state, or of a death duty due by a decedent's estate to another state, from a person interested in the estate who is either domiciled in this state or who owns property in this state subject to attachment or execution.

(b) For the purposes of the action the determination of apportionment by the court having jurisdiction of the administration of the decedent's estate in the other state is prima facie correct.

(c) The provisions of this section apply only if the state in which the determination of apportionment was made affords a substantially similar remedy.

(9) This section does not apply to the apportionment of expenses incurred in connection with the determination of the amount and apportionment of the taxes due on account of the death of decedents dying prior to July 1, 1983.

Section 46. Section 75-3-1008 is amended to read:

75-3-1008. Subsequent administration.

(1) If other property of the estate is discovered after an estate has been settled and the personal representative discharged or after one year after a closing statement has been filed, the court upon petition of any interested person and upon notice as it directs may appoint the same or a successor personal representative to administer the subsequently-discovered estate.

(2) If a new appointment is made, unless the court orders otherwise, the provisions of this [~~code~~]title apply as appropriate [~~:~~]but no claim previously barred may be asserted in the subsequent administration.

(c) If the court determines that the petition is without merit, the attorney fees and court costs shall be paid by the person filing the petition.

(d) If the court appoints the petitioner or the petitioner's nominee as guardian of the incapacitated person, regardless of whether the nominee is specified in the moving petition or nominated during the proceedings, the petitioner shall be entitled to receive from the incapacitated person reasonable attorney fees and court costs incurred in bringing, prosecuting, or defending the petition.

(3) The legal representation of the incapacitated person by an attorney shall terminate upon the appointment of a guardian, unless:

(a) there are separate conservatorship proceedings still pending before the court subsequent to the appointment of a guardian;

(b) there is a timely filed appeal of the appointment of the guardian or the determination of incapacity; or

(c) upon an express finding of good cause, the court orders otherwise.

(4) The person alleged to be incapacitated may be examined by a physician or physician assistant appointed by the court who shall submit a report in writing to the court and may be interviewed by a visitor sent by the court. The visitor also may interview the person seeking appointment as guardian, visit the present place of abode of the person alleged to be incapacitated and the place it is proposed that the person will be detained or reside if the requested appointment is made, conduct other investigations or observations as directed by the court, and submit a report in writing to the court.

(5) (a) The person alleged to be incapacitated shall be present at the hearing in person and see or hear all evidence bearing upon the person's condition. If the person seeking the guardianship requests a waiver of presence of the person alleged to be incapacitated, the court shall order an investigation by a court visitor, the costs of which shall be paid by the person seeking the guardianship.

(b) The investigation by a court visitor is not required if there is clear and convincing evidence from a physician that the person alleged to be incapacitated has:

(i) fourth stage Alzheimer's Disease;

(ii) extended comatosis; or

(iii) (A) an intellectual disability; and

(B) an intelligence quotient score under 25.

(c) The person alleged to be incapacitated is entitled to be represented by counsel, to present evidence, to cross-examine witnesses, including the court-appointed physician and the visitor, and to trial by jury. The issue may be determined at a closed hearing without a jury if the person alleged to be incapacitated or the person's counsel so requests.

(d) Counsel for the person alleged to be incapacitated[~~, as defined in Subsection 75-1-201(22),~~] is not required if:

(i) the person is the biological or adopted child of the petitioner;

(ii) the value of the person's entire estate does not exceed $20,000 as established by an affidavit of the petitioner in accordance with Section 75-3-1201;

(iii) the person appears in court with the petitioner;

(iv) the person is given the opportunity to communicate, to the extent possible, the person's acceptance of the appointment of petitioner;

(v) no attorney from the state court's list of attorneys who have volunteered to represent respondents in guardianship proceedings is able to provide counsel to the person within 60 days of the date of the appointment described in Subsection (2);

(vi) the court is satisfied that counsel is not necessary in order to protect the interests of the person; and

(vii) the court appoints a visitor under Subsection (4).

(1) If the settlor of an irrevocable trust is also a beneficiary of the trust, and if the requirements of Subsection (3) are satisfied, a creditor of the settlor may not:

(a) satisfy a claim or liability of the settlor in either law or equity out of the settlor's transfer to the trust or the settlor's beneficial interest in the trust;

(b) force or require the trustee to make a distribution to the settlor, as beneficiary; or

(c) require the trustee to pay any distribution directly to the creditor, or otherwise attach the distribution before it has been paid or delivered by the trustee to the settlor, as beneficiary.

(2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), nothing in this section:

(a) prohibits a creditor from satisfying a claim or liability from the distribution once it has been paid or delivered by the trustee to the settlor, as beneficiary; or

(b) nullifies or impairs a security interest that was granted by a settlor or a trustee with respect to property that is transferred to the trust.

(3) (a) In order for Subsection (1) to apply, the conditions in this Subsection (3) shall be satisfied.

(b) Where this Subsection (3) requires that a provision be included in the trust instrument, no particular language need be used in the trust instrument if the meaning of the trust provision otherwise complies with this Subsection (3).

(c) An agreement or understanding, express or implied, between the settlor and the trustee that attempts to grant or permit the retention by the settlor of greater rights or authority than is stated in the trust instrument is void.

(d) The trust instrument shall provide that the trust is governed by Utah law and is established pursuant to this section.

(e) The trust instrument shall require that at all times at least one trustee shall be a Utah resident or Utah trust company, as the term "trust company" is defined in Section 7-5-1.

(m) Assets transferred to the trust may not be derived from unlawful activities.

~~(nn)~~ With respect to each transfer of assets to the trust, the settlor shall sign a sworn affidavit stating that at the time of the transfer of the assets to the trust:

(i) satisfy a claim or liability in either law or equity out of the settlor's transfer to the trust or the settlor's beneficial interest in the trust; or

(ii) force or require the trustee to make a distribution to the settlor, as beneficiary.

(c) If any requirement described in Subsections (3)(i) through (l) is not satisfied, the property transferred to the trust that does not satisfy the requirement may not have the benefit of the protections described in Subsection (1).

(d) If the requirement described in Subsection (3)(h) is not satisfied, the property transferred to the trust that does not satisfy the requirement does not have the benefit of the protections described in Subsection (1) with respect to any person with a domestic support obligation.

(e) A creditor of the settlor has the burden of proving that the requirement in Subsection (3)(i) or (j) is not satisfied by clear and convincing evidence.

(5) The provisions of Subsection (1) may apply to a trust even if:

remove and appoint trustees and who can direct, consent to, or disapprove distributions;

(f) the trust instrument gives the settlor an inter vivos or a testamentary nongeneral power of appointment or similar power;

(vii) income from a trust intended to qualify for the federal estate tax or gift tax marital deduction under 26 U.S.C. Sec. 2056(b)(7) or 2523(f);

(h) the trust instrument authorizes the settlor to use real or personal property owned by the trust; or

(i) with respect to the property held in the trust, the settlor may:

(i) give a personal guarantee on a debt or obligation secured by the property;

(ii) make payments, directly or indirectly, on a debt or obligation secured by the property;

(iii) pay property taxes, casualty and liability insurance premiums, homeowner association dues, maintenance expenses, or other similar expenses on the property; or

(iv) pay income tax on income attributable to the portion of property held in the trust, of which the settlor is considered to be the owner under 26 U.S.C. Secs. 671 through 678, which payments will not be considered additional transfers to the trust for purposes of this section.

(6) (a) If a trust instrument contains the provisions described in Subsections (3)(b) through (g), the transfer restrictions prevent a creditor or other person from asserting any cause of action or claim for relief against a trustee of the trust or against others involved in the counseling, drafting, preparation, execution, or funding of the trust for conspiracy to commit fraudulent conveyance or another voidable transfer, aiding and abetting a fraudulent conveyance or another voidable transfer, participation in the trust transaction, or similar cause of action or claim for relief.

(b) For purposes of this Subsection (6), counseling, drafting, preparation, execution, or funding of the trust includes the preparation and funding of a limited partnership, a limited liability company, or other entity if interests in the entity are subsequently transferred to the trust.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 25-6-305, a cause of action or claim for relief regarding a fraudulent conveyance or other voidable transfer of a settlor's assets under this section is extinguished unless the action is brought by a creditor of the settlor who was a creditor of the settlor before the assets in question were transferred to the trust and the action is brought within the earlier of:

(i) the later of two years after the transfer is made, or one year after the transfer is or reasonably could have been discovered by the creditor if the creditor:

(A) can demonstrate, by clear and convincing evidence, that the creditor asserted a specific claim against the settlor before the transfer; or

(B) files another action, other than an action alleging a fraudulent conveyance or other voidable transfer against the settlor that asserts a claim based on an act or omission of the settlor that occurred before the transfer, and the action described in this Subsection (7)(c) is filed within two years after the transfer; or

(ii) (A) with respect to a creditor known to the settlor, 120 days after the date on which notice of the transfer is mailed to the creditor, which notice shall state the name and address of the settlor or the settlor's representative, the name and address of the trustee or the trustee's representative, and also describe the assets that were transferred, but does not need to state the value of those assets if the assets are other than cash, and which shall inform the creditor that the creditor is required to bring the creditor's cause of action or claim for relief against the settlor and the trustee within 120 days from the mailing of the notice or be forever barred; or

(B) with respect to a creditor not known to the settlor, 120 days after the date on which notice of the transfer is first published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the settlor then resides, or is published on a public legal notice website as defined in Section 45-1-101, which notice shall state the name of the settlor or the settlor's representative, the address of the settlor or the settlor's representative, the name of the trustee or the trustee's representative, the address of the trustee or the trustee's representative, and also describe the assets that were transferred, but does not need to state the value of those assets.

(b) Failure to give the notice required in Subsection (7)(c)(ii) to a creditor does not prevent the shortening of the limitations period under Subsection (7)(c)(ii) with respect to another creditor who properly received notice by mail or publication.

(9) (a) A trust is subject to this section if it is governed by Utah law, as provided in Section [~~75-7-107~~]75B-2-107, and if it otherwise meets the requirements of this section.

(5) A recipient of a certification of trust may require the trustee to furnish copies of those excerpts from the original trust instrument and later amendments which designate the trustee and confer upon the trustee the power to act in the pending transaction.

(6) (a) A person who acts in reliance upon a certification of trust without knowledge that the representations contained in it are incorrect is not liable to any person for acting and may assume without inquiry the existence of the facts contained in the certification.

(b) Knowledge of the terms of the trust may not be inferred solely from the fact that a copy of all or part of the trust instrument is held by the person relying upon the certification.

(7) A person who in good faith enters into a transaction in reliance upon a certification of trust may enforce the transaction against the trust property as if the representations contained in the certification were correct.

(8) A person making a demand for the trust instrument in addition to a certification of trust or excerpts is liable for costs, expenses, attorney fees, and damages if the court determines that the person did not act in good faith in demanding the trust instrument.
