(i) market and publicize the plan and the plan's products to existing and prospective account owners; and

(ii) encourage economically challenged populations to save for post-secondary education;

(m) adopt, trademark, and copyright names and materials for use in marketing and publicizing the plan and the plan's products;

(n) administer the funds of the plan;

(o) sue and be sued in the plan's own name;

(p) own institutional accounts in the plan to establish and administer:

(i) scholarship programs; or

(ii) other college savings incentive programs, including programs designed to enhance the savings of low income account owners investing in the plan; and

(q) have and exercise any other powers or duties that are necessary or appropriate to carry out and effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), the plan is exempt from the provisions of Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act.

(b) (i) The annual audited financial statements of the plan described in Section 53B-8a-111 are public records.

(ii) Financial information that is provided by the plan to the state auditor and posted on the public finance website established by the state auditor in accordance with Section 67-3-12 is a public record.

(5) The plan is subject to:

(a) Title 52, Chapter 4, Open and Public Meetings Act; and

(b) Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Utah Procurement Code.

Section 10. Section 53B-8a-106 is amended to read:

53B-8a-106

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Account agreements.

The plan may enter into account agreements with account owners on behalf of beneficiaries under the following terms and agreements:

(1) (a) An account agreement may require an account owner to agree to invest a specific amount of money in the plan for a specific period of time for the benefit of a specific beneficiary, not to exceed an amount determined by the executive director.

(b) Account agreements may be amended to provide for adjusted levels of payments based upon changed circumstances or changes in educational plans.

(c) An account owner may make additional optional payments as long as the total payments for a specific beneficiary do not exceed the total estimated higher education costs as determined by the executive director.

(d) Subject to Subsections (1)(f) and (g), the maximum amount of a qualified investment that a corporation that is an account owner may subtract from unadjusted income for a taxable year in accordance with Title 59, Chapter 7, Corporate Franchise and Income Taxes, is $1,710 for each individual beneficiary for the taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2010, but beginning on or before December 31, 2010.

(e) Subject to Subsections (1)(f) and (g), the maximum amount of a qualified investment that may be used as the basis for claiming a tax credit in accordance with Section 59-10-1017, is:

(i) subject to Subsection (1)(e)(iv), for a resident or nonresident estate or trust that is an account owner, $1,710 for each individual beneficiary for the taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2010, but beginning on or before December 31, 2010;

(ii) subject to Subsection (1)(e)(iv), for a resident or nonresident individual that is an account owner, other than a husband and wife who are account owners and file a single return jointly under Title 59, Chapter 10, Individual Income Tax Act, $1,710 for each individual beneficiary for the taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2010, but beginning on or before December 31, 2010;

(iii) subject to Subsection (1)(e)(iv), for a husband and wife who are account owners and file a single return jointly under Title 59, Chapter 10, Individual Income Tax Act, $3,420 for each individual beneficiary:

(A) for the taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2010, but beginning on or before December 31, 2010; and

(B) regardless of whether the plan has entered into:

(I) a separate account agreement with each spouse; or

(II) a single account agreement with both spouses jointly; or

(iv) for a grantor trust:

(A) if the owner of the grantor trust has a single filing status or head of household filing status as defined in Section 59-10-1018, the amount described in Subsection (1)(e)(ii); or

(B) if the owner of the grantor trust has a joint filing status as defined in Section 59-10-1018, the amount described in Subsection (1)(e)(iii).

(f) (i) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2011, the executive director shall annually increase the maximum amount of a qualified investment described in Subsections (1)(d) and (1)(e)(i) and (ii), by a percentage equal to the increase in the consumer price index for the preceding calendar year.

(ii) After making an increase required by Subsection (1)(f)(i), the executive director shall:

(A) round the maximum amount of the qualified investments described in Subsections (1)(d) and (1)(e)(i) and (ii) increased under Subsection (1)(f)(i) to the nearest 10 dollar increment; and

(B) increase the maximum amount of the qualified investment described in Subsection (1)(e)(iii) so that the maximum amount of the qualified investment described in Subsection (1)(e)(iii) is equal to the product of:

(I) the maximum amount of the qualified investment described in Subsection (1)(e)(ii) as rounded under Subsection (1)(f)(ii)(A); and

(II) two.

(iii) For purposes of Subsections (1)(f)(i) and (ii), the executive director shall calculate the consumer price index as provided in Sections 1(f)(4) and 1(f)(5), Internal Revenue Code.

(g) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2011, the executive director shall keep the previous year's maximum amount of a qualified investment described in Subsections (1)(d) and (1)(e)(i) and (ii) if the consumer price index for the preceding calendar year decreases.

(2) (a) Beneficiaries designated in account agreements must be designated after birth and before age 19 for an account owner to:

(i) subtract a qualified investment from income under Title 59, Chapter 7, Corporate Franchise and Income Taxes; or

(ii) use a qualified investment as the basis for claiming a tax credit in accordance with Section 59-10-1017.

(b) Account owners may designate a beneficiary age 19 or older, but investments for that beneficiary are not eligible to be:

(i) subtracted from income under Title 59, Chapter 7, Corporate Franchise and Income Taxes; or

(ii) used as the basis for claiming a tax credit in accordance with Section 59-10-1017.

(3) Each account agreement shall state clearly that there are no guarantees regarding money in the plan as to the return of principal and that losses could occur.

(4) Each account agreement shall provide that:

(a) a contributor to, or designated beneficiary under, an account agreement may not direct the investment of any contributions or earnings on contributions;

(b) any part of the money in any account may not be used as security for a loan; and

(c) an account owner may not borrow from the plan.

(5) The execution of an account agreement by the plan may not guarantee in any way that higher education costs will be equal to projections and estimates provided by the plan or that the beneficiary named in any account agreement will:

(a) be admitted to an [~~institution of higher education~~]eligible educational institution;

(b) if admitted, be determined a resident for tuition purposes by the [~~institution of higher education~~]eligible educational institution;

(c) be allowed to continue attendance at the [~~institution of higher education~~]eligible educational institution following admission; or

(d) graduate from the [~~institution of higher education~~]eligible educational institution.

(6) A beneficiary may be changed as permitted by the rules and regulations of the board upon written request of the account owner prior to the date of admission of any beneficiary under an account agreement by an [~~institution of higher education~~]eligible educational institution so long as the substitute beneficiary is eligible for participation.

(7) An account agreement may be freely amended throughout the term of the account agreement in order to enable an account owner to increase or decrease the level of participation, change the designation of beneficiaries, and carry out similar matters as authorized by rule.

(8) Each account agreement shall provide that:

(a) the account agreement may be canceled upon the terms and conditions, and upon payment of the fees and costs set forth and contained in the board's rules and regulations; and

(b) the executive director may amend the agreement unilaterally and retroactively, if necessary, to maintain the plan as a qualified tuition program under Section 529, Internal Revenue Code.

Section 11. Section 53B-8a-107 is amended to read:

53B-8a-107

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Program, administrative, and endowment funds -- Investment and payments from funds -- Proxy voting -- State treasurer access.

(1) The plan shall segregate money received by the plan into three funds, the program fund, the administrative fund, and the endowment fund.

(2) The board shall:

(a) invest the plan in a manner that is consistent with the prudent investor rule for trustees established in Title 75, Chapter 7, Part 9, Utah Uniform Prudent Investor Act;

(b) in accordance with the board's fiduciary responsibilities, make investment decisions with the sole purpose of maximizing the risk-adjusted return on the investments; and

(c) to the extent practicable:

(i) (A) retain the right to vote investor proxies; or

(B) if the investments are commingled with another investor's funds, request the right to vote investor proxies; and

(ii) ensure proxy voting is exercised to maximize risk-adjusted returns for the exclusive benefit of beneficiaries.

(3) Transfers may be made from the program fund to the administrative fund to pay operating costs:

(a) associated with administering the plan and as required under Sections 53B-8a-103through 53B-8a-105; and

(b) as included in the budget approved by the board.

(4) (a) All money paid by account owners in connection with account agreements shall be deposited as received into separate accounts within the program fund which shall be invested and accounted for separately.

(b) Money accrued by account owners in the program fund may be used for:

(i) payments to any [~~institution of higher education~~]eligible educational institution;

(ii) payments to the account owner or beneficiary;

(iii) transfers to another 529 plan; or

(iv) other expenditures or transfers made in accordance with the account agreement.

(5) (a) All money received by the plan from the proceeds of gifts and other endowments for the purposes of the plan shall be:

(i) deposited, according to the nature of the donation, as received into the endowment fund or the administrative fund; and

(ii) invested and accounted for separately.

(b) Any gifts, grants, or donations made by any governmental unit or any person, firm, partnership, or corporation to the plan for deposit to the endowment fund or the administrative fund is a grant, gift, or donation to the state for the accomplishment of a valid public eleemosynary, charitable, and educational purpose and is not included in the income of the donor for Utah tax purposes.

(c) The endowment fund or the administrative fund may be used to enhance the savings of low income account owners investing in the plan, for scholarships, or for other college savings incentive programs as approved by the board.

(d) Transfers may be made between the endowment fund and the administrative fund upon approval by the board.

(e) Endowment fund earnings not accruing to a beneficiary under an account agreement, not transferred to the administrative fund, or not otherwise approved by the board for expenditure, shall be reinvested in the endowment fund.

(6) Subsection (2) does not prohibit the board from offering individual account owners a variety of voluntary investment options that have different risk profiles and investment objectives.

(7) (a) The board shall make proxy voting records available to the state treasurer upon the state treasurer's request.

(b) The state treasurer is subject to the same restrictions on disclosure of the proxy voting records as the board.

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Distribution of program money -- Application process -- Prioritization -- Account agreements.

(1) The plan shall distribute money in the program by creating a 529 savings account for an eligible individual identified by a community partner.

(2) (a) (i) The plan shall carry out the responsibility described in Subsection (1) by establishing a process in which a community partner may apply for an allocation of program money to designate for eligible individuals.

(ii) The Utah Board of Higher Education shall establish the application process for a community partner to apply for an allocation of program money.

(iii) The application process described in Subsection (2)(a)(ii) shall include:

(A) the criteria for a community partner to apply for an allocation of program money;

(B) the criteria that the plan will use to prioritize applications if the dollar amounts requested in the applications exceed the dollar amount available;

(C) the requirements for establishing a 529 savings account in the name of an eligible individual; and

(D) the roles and responsibilities of a community partner that makes a successful application for an allocation of program money.

(b) (i) A community partner that receives an allocation of program money shall enter into a contract with the plan.

(ii) The contract described in Subsection (2)(b)(i) shall:

(A) define the roles and responsibilities of the community partner and the plan with regard to the community partner's allocation of program money; and

(B) specify that the individual the community partner identifies to receive a portion of the community partner's allocation is an eligible individual.

(3) If the plan approves a community partner's application for an allocation of program money, the plan may not promise or otherwise encumber the allocation to any other person unless the allocation is forfeited under Subsection (5)(b)(ii).

(4) (a) A community partner shall identify each eligible individual who will receive a portion of the community partner's allocation of program money.

(b) After a community partner identifies an eligible individual to receive a portion of the community partner's allocation, the community partner shall notify the plan of:

(i) the amount of the community partner's allocation that shall transfer to a 529 savings account in the name of the identified eligible individual; and

(ii) the amount, if any, that the community partner will be contributing in accordance with Part 1, Utah Educational Savings Plan, to the 529 savings account on behalf of the identified eligible individual.

(5) (a) Upon receiving the information described in Subsection (4)(b), the plan shall establish a 529 savings account for the identified eligible individual, with the community partner as the account owner.

(b) The community partner shall inform the beneficiary that:

(i) within three years after the day on which the beneficiary graduates from high school, the beneficiary shall enroll in:

(A) a credit-granting [~~institution of higher education~~]eligible educational institution within the state system of higher education;

(B) a [~~private, nonprofit college or university in the state that is accredited by the Northwestern Association of Schools and Colleges~~]private postsecondary educational institution; or

(C) a technical college; and

(ii) if the beneficiary fails to enroll within three years after the day on which the beneficiary graduates from high school, any money that remains in the 529 savings account shall be returned to the program.

(c) After entering into the account agreement described in Subsection (5)(a), the plan shall deposit into the beneficiary's 529 savings account the amount of the allocation described in Subsection (4)(b)(i).

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Terrel H. Bell Teaching Incentive Loans program -- Eligible students -- Cancellation of incentive loans -- Repayment by recipient who fails to meet requirements -- Duration of incentive loans.

(1) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the board may not award an incentive loan described in this section on or after July 1, 2019.

(b) The provisions of this section apply to an incentive loan described in this section that was awarded before July 1, 2019.

(2) (a) A Terrel H. Bell Teaching Incentive Loans program is established to recruit and train superior candidates for teaching in Utah's public school system as a component of the teacher quality continuum referred to in Subsections 53E-2-302(7) and 53E-6-103(2)(a).

(b) Under the program, the incentive loans may be used in any of Utah's state-operated institutions of higher education or at a [~~private institution of higher education~~]private postsecondary educational institution in Utah that offers a state-approved teacher education program.

(3) (a) The board shall award the incentive loans to college students who have been admitted to, or have made application to and are prepared to enter into, a program preparing students for licensure and who declare an intent to complete the prescribed course of instruction and to teach in this state in accordance with the priorities described under Subsection (6)(c).

(b) The incentive loan may be canceled at any time by the institution of attendance if:

(i) the student fails to make reasonable progress toward completion of licensing requirements; or

(ii) it appears to be a reasonable certainty that the student does not intend to teach in Utah.

(c) The board may grant leaves of absence to incentive loan holders.

(d) The board may establish by rule made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, criteria and procedures under which the board may forgive a loan made under this section.

(4) The board may require an incentive loan recipient who fails to complete the requirements for licensing without good cause to repay all tuition and fees provided by the loan, together with appropriate interest.

(5) (a) The board may require an incentive loan recipient who does not work in the state's public school system or a private school within the state within two years after graduation to repay all tuition and fees provided by the loan, together with appropriate interest, unless waived for good cause.

(b) (i) A recipient who does not teach for a term equal to the number of years of the incentive loan within a reasonable period of time after graduation shall repay a graduated portion of the tuition and fees based upon the uncompleted term.

(ii) One year of teaching is credit for one year's tuition and fees.

(c) All repayments made under this Subsection (5) are for use in the Terrel H. Bell Education Scholarship Program described in Section 53B-8-116.

(6) (a) Each incentive loan is valid for up to four years of full-time equivalent enrollment, or until requirements for licensing or advanced licensing have been met, whichever is less.

(b) (i) Incentive loans apply to both tuition and fees in amounts and are subject to conditions approved by the board, based upon criteria developed to ensure that all recipients of the loans will pursue an education career within the state.

(ii) An incentive loan for tuition and fees at a [~~private institution~~]private postsecondary educational institution may not exceed the average scholarship amounts granted for tuition and fees at public institutions of higher education within the state.

(c) Incentive loans shall be awarded in accordance with prioritized critical areas of need for teaching expertise within the state, as determined by the State Board of Education's criticality index and school district priorities based upon data provided by the school district, and may include preparing persons as:

(i) a special education teacher;

(ii) a speech or language pathologist; or

(iii) another licensed professional providing services in the public schools to pupils with disabilities.

Section 15. Section 53B-13-111 is amended to read:

53B-13-111

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Loans or purchase of obligations -- Rules -- Options -- Repayment of federally insured loans.

(1) The board may purchase obligations from lenders or make loans to eligible borrowers, out of money available to the board for loans. The board shall promulgate rules for determining the needs of the respective borrowers for loans and for the purpose of making loans or purchasing obligations. The amount of an obligation purchased by the board or of a loan made by the board to an eligible borrower, whether enrolled or to be enrolled in a [~~private institution~~]private postsecondary educational institution or a tax-supported public institution, is determined by the board upon the basis of substantially similar standards and guides set forth in the board's rules. The board, in determining the needs of eligible borrowers for guaranteed loans, may consider the amount of assistance available to the students.

(2) When the board purchases an obligation or makes a loan, and again immediately before a repayment schedule on the loan or obligation is signed by the borrower, the board shall cause a written statement to be delivered to the borrower describing in detail whether an option exists and, if so, who may exercise the option, under what conditions the option may be exercised, and what options are available relating to the following:

(a) the term of the loan;

(b) the repayment period on the loan;

(c) an extension of the term or repayment period on the loan and the conditions of repayment under the extension;

(d) a deferment or forbearance on the repayment of the loan or on interest accruing on the loan, whether interest is to be paid during the deferment or forbearance, and the terms of repayment after the deferment or forbearance;

(e) the period of time between installment payments on the loan and whether graduated or unequal installment payments may be made;

(f) the minimum annual payment on the loan, and if more than one loan is taken from the board or if the borrower takes or has taken an educational loan from another source, the availability of consolidation, transfer, or assignment of the loans and the minimum annual payment on the aggregate of the loans;

(g) the granting of an interview before or at the time the borrower signs a repayment schedule; and

(h) the revision or renegotiation of the repayment schedule on the loan after repayment has commenced, or if other educational loans from the board or another source are taken after the repayment has commenced.

(3) On obligations purchased or loans made by the board which are federally insured loans, the board may establish variable repayment schedules conforming to the need and documented income levels of borrowers, if the schedules are not inconsistent with federal laws, rules, or regulations governing the insured loans. A borrower making payments on a loan may request and be granted a revised repayment term or schedule based upon the established variable repayment schedules.

Section 19. Section 53B-16-105 is amended to read:

53B-16-105

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Common course numbering -- Transferability of credits -- Agreement with competency-based general education provider -- Policies.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Accredited institution" means an institution that:

(i) offers a competency-based postsecondary general education course online or in person; and

(ii) is accredited by an organization that the United States Department of Education recognizes.

(b) "Articulation agreement" means an agreement between the board and a provider that allows a student to transfer credit awarded by the provider for a general education course to any institution of higher education.

(c) "Competency-based" means a system where a student advances to higher levels of learning when the student demonstrates competency of concepts and skills regardless of time, place, or pace.

(d) "Competency-based general education provider" or "provider" means a [~~private institution~~]private postsecondary educational institution that:

(i) offers a postsecondary competency-based general education course online or in person;

(ii) awards academic credit; and

(iii) does not award degrees, including associates degrees or baccalaureate degrees.

(e) "Credit for prior learning" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53B-16-110.

(f) "Institution of higher education" means an institution described in Section 53B-1-102.

(2) The board shall:

(a) facilitate articulation and the seamless transfer of courses, programs, and credit for prior learning within the Utah System of Higher Education;

(b) provide for the efficient and effective progression and transfer of students within the Utah System of Higher Education;

(c) avoid the unnecessary duplication of courses;

(d) communicate ways in which a student may earn credit for prior learning; and

(e) allow a student to proceed toward the student's educational objectives as rapidly as the student's circumstances permit.

(3) The board shall develop, coordinate, and maintain a transfer and articulation system that:

(a) maintains a course numbering system that assigns common numbers to specified courses of similar level with similar curricular content, rigor, and standards;

(b) allows a student to track courses that transfer among institutions of higher education;

(c) allows a student to transfer courses from a provider with which the board has an articulation agreement to any institution of higher education;

(d) allows a student to transfer competency-based general education courses from an accredited institution to an institution of higher education;

(e) improves program planning;

(f) increases communication and coordination between institutions of higher education;

(g) facilitates student acceleration and the transfer of students and credits between institutions of higher education; and

(h) if the system includes a software or data tool:

(i) provides predictive analysis that models probabilities of student success; and

(ii) develops tailored strategies to best support students.

(4) (a) The board shall identify general education courses in the humanities, social sciences, arts, physical sciences, and life sciences with uniform prefixes and common course numbers.

(b) A degree-granting institution shall annually identify institution courses that satisfy requirements of courses described in Subsection (4)(a).

(c) A degree-granting institution shall accept a course described in Subsection (3)(c), (3)(d), or (4)(a) toward filling specific area requirements for general education or lower division courses that transfer to baccalaureate majors.

(5) (a) The board shall:

(i) identify technical education programs with common names, descriptions, lengths, and objectives; and

(ii) within technical education programs, common course names, descriptions, length, and objectives allowing for customization of electives to meet regional industry demand.

(b) The commissioner shall appoint committees of faculty members from technical education committees to recommend aligned programs and courses that will satisfy graduation requirements.

(6) (a) The board shall identify common prerequisite courses and course substitutions for degree programs across degree-granting institutions.

(b) The commissioner shall appoint committees of faculty members from the degree-granting institutions to recommend appropriate courses of similar content and numbering that will satisfy requirements for lower division courses that transfer to baccalaureate majors.

(c) A degree-granting institution shall annually identify institution courses that satisfy requirements of courses described in Subsection (6)(a).

(d) A degree-granting institution shall accept a course described in Subsection (3)(c), (3)(d), or (6)(a) toward filling graduation requirements.

(7) (a) (i) The board shall seek proposals from providers to enter into articulation agreements.

(ii) A proposal described in Subsection (7)(a)(i) shall include the general education courses that the provider intends to include in an articulation agreement.

(b) The board shall:

(i) evaluate each general education course included in a proposal described in Subsection (7)(a) to determine whether the course is equally rigorous and includes the same subject matter as the equivalent course offered by any institution of higher education; and

(ii) if the board determines that a course included in a provider's proposal is equally rigorous and includes the same subject matter as the equivalent course offered by any institution of higher education, enter into an articulation agreement with the provider.

(8) The board shall establish policies to administer the policies and requirements described in this section.

(9) The board shall include information demonstrating that institutions of higher education are complying with the provisions of this section and the policies established in accordance with Subsection (8) in the annual report described in Section 53B-1-402.

Section 20. Section 53B-16-401 is amended to read:

53B-16-401

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Definitions.

As used in this part:

(1) (a) "Cooperating employer" means a public or private entity which, as part of a work experience and career exploration program offered through an institution of higher education, provides interns with training and work experience in activities related to the entity's ongoing business activities.

(b) "Cooperating employer" also means an institution of higher education that provides the work experience segment of an intern's work experience and career exploration program.

(2) "Institution of higher education" means any:

(a) component of the state system of higher education, as defined under Section 53B-1-102, that is authorized by the board to offer internship programs; and

53B-17-904

(Effective upon governor's approval)

. Agreement for out-of-state students.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, the University of Utah School of Medicine may, to teach a medical student from another state or an institution outside the state, enter into an agreement with:

(1) a state entity from the other state; or

(2) the institution of higher education outside the state.

Section 23. Section 53B-20-107 is amended to read:

53B-20-107

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Powers of chief administrative officer to order individuals off an institution of higher education's property.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Chief administrative officer" means the president of an institution or an individual designated by the president.

(b) "Institution of higher education" means:

(i) a state institution of higher education as defined in Section 53B-3-102; or

(ii) a [~~private institution of higher education in the state accredited by a regional or national accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education~~]private postsecondary educational institution.

(2) It is the purpose of this section to:

(a) supplement and clarify the power vested in the governing board of each institution of higher education; and

(b) regulate, conduct, and enforce law and order on property owned, operated, or controlled by each institution of higher education.

(3) A chief administrative officer may order an individual to leave property that is owned, operated, or controlled by an institution of higher education if:

(a) the individual acts, or if the chief administrative officer has reasonable cause to believe that the individual intends to act, to:

(i) cause injury to an individual;

(ii) cause damage to property;

(iii) commit a crime;

(iv) interfere with the peaceful conduct of the activities of the institution of higher education;

(v) violate a rule or regulation of the institution of higher education if that rule or regulation is not in conflict with state law; or

(vi) disrupt the institution of higher education, the institution's pupils, or the institution of higher education's activities; or

(b) the individual is reckless as to whether the individual's actions will cause fear for the safety of another individual.

(4) (a) If a law enforcement agency or security department of an institution of higher education lacks sufficient manpower to deal effectively with a condition of unrest existing or developing on a campus or related facility of the institution of higher education in the judgment of the chief administrative officer, the chief administrative officer may call for assistance from the county sheriff of the county, a city law enforcement agency, or the Department of Public Safety.

(b) Upon receipt of the request under Subsection (4)(a), the county sheriff, a city law enforcement agency, or the Department of Public Safety must render all necessary assistance without expense to the institution of higher education.

(c) All personnel while rendering assistance to the institution of higher education shall serve under the general direction of the chief administrative officer.

(5) Nothing in this section shall limit:

(a) the right or duty of a local law enforcement agency to enforce the law which the local law enforcement agency had prior to this enactment; or

(b) the right of a state or local law enforcement agency to enforce the laws of this state.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 10-2a-201.5 is amended to read:
10-2a-201.5. Qualifications for incorporation.

(1) (a) An area may incorporate as a town in accordance with this part if the area:

(i) (A) is contiguous; or

(B) is a community council area;

(ii) has a population of at least [~~100~~]75 people, but fewer than 1,000 people; and

(iii) is not already part of a municipality.

(b) A preliminary municipality may transition to, and incorporate as, a town, in accordance with Section 10-2a-510.

(c) An area may incorporate as a city in accordance with this part if the area:

(i) (A) is contiguous; or

(B) is a community council area;

(ii) has a population of 1,000 people or more; and

(iii) is not already part of a municipality.

(2) (a) An area may not incorporate under this part if:

(i) the area has a population of fewer than 100 people; or

(ii) except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), the area has an average population density of fewer than seven people per square mile.

(b) Subsection (2)(a)(ii) does not prohibit incorporation of an area if:

(i) noncompliance with Subsection (2)(a)(ii) is necessary to connect separate areas that share a demonstrable community interest; and

(ii) the area is contiguous.

(3) An area incorporating under this part may not include land owned by the United States federal government unless:

(a) the area, including the land owned by the United States federal government, is contiguous; and

(b) (i) incorporating the land is necessary to connect separate areas that share a demonstrable community interest; or

(ii) excluding the land from the incorporating area would create an unincorporated island within the proposed municipality.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), an area incorporating under this part may not include some or all of an area proposed for annexation in an annexation petition under Section 10-2-403 that:

(i) was filed before the filing of the request for a feasibility study, described in Section 10-2a-202, relating to the incorporating area; and

(ii) is still pending on the date the request for the feasibility study described in Subsection (4)(a)(i) is filed.

(b) A feasibility request may propose for incorporation an area that includes some or all of an area proposed for annexation in an annexation petition described in Subsection (4)(a) if:

(i) the proposed annexation area that is part of the area proposed for incorporation does not exceed 20% of the area proposed for incorporation;

(ii) the feasibility request complies with Subsections 10-2a-202(1), (3), (4), and (5) with respect to excluding the proposed annexation area from the area proposed for incorporation; and

(iii) excluding the area proposed for annexation from the area proposed for incorporation would not cause the area proposed for incorporation to not be contiguous.

(c) Except as provided in Section 10-2a-206, the lieutenant governor shall consider each feasibility request to which Subsection (4)(b) applies as not proposing the incorporation of an area proposed for annexation.

(5) (a) An area incorporating under this part may not include part of a parcel of real property and exclude part of that same parcel unless the owner of the parcel gives written consent to exclude part of the parcel.

(b) A piece of real property that has more than one parcel number is considered to be a single parcel for purposes of Subsection (5)(a) if owned by the same owner.

Section 2. Section 10-9a-102 is amended to read:

10-9a-102. Purposes -- General land use authority.

(1) The purposes of this chapter are to:

(a) provide for the health, safety, and welfare;

(b) promote the prosperity;

(c) improve the morals, peace, good order, comfort, convenience, and aesthetics of each municipality and each municipality's present and future inhabitants and businesses;

(d) protect the tax base;

(e) secure economy in governmental expenditures;

(f) foster the state's agricultural and other industries;

(g) protect both urban and nonurban development;

(h) protect and ensure access to sunlight for solar energy devices;

(i) provide fundamental fairness in land use regulation;

(j) facilitate orderly growth,[~~and~~]allow growth in a variety of housing types, and contribute toward housing affordability; and

(k) protect property values.

(2) To accomplish the purposes of this chapter, a municipality may enact all ordinances, resolutions, and rules and may enter into other forms of land use controls and development agreements that the municipality considers necessary or appropriate for the use and development of land within the municipality, including ordinances, resolutions, rules, restrictive covenants, easements, and development agreements governing:

(a) uses;

(b) density;

(c) open spaces;

(d) structures;

(e) buildings;

(f) energy efficiency;

(g) light and air;

(h) air quality;

(i) transportation and public or alternative transportation;

(j) infrastructure;

(k) street and building orientation;

(l) width requirements;

(m) public facilities;

(n) fundamental fairness in land use regulation; and

(o) considerations of surrounding land uses to balance the foregoing purposes with a landowner's private property interests and associated statutory and constitutional protections.

(3) (a) Any ordinance, resolution, or rule enacted by a municipality pursuant to its authority under this chapter shall comply with the state's exclusive jurisdiction to regulate oil and gas activity, as described in Section 40-6-2.5.

(b) A municipality may enact an ordinance, resolution, or rule that regulates surface activity incident to an oil and gas activity if the municipality demonstrates that the regulation:

(i) is necessary for the purposes of this chapter;

(ii) does not effectively or unduly limit, ban, or prohibit an oil and gas activity; and

(iii) does not interfere with the state's exclusive jurisdiction to regulate oil and gas activity, as described in Section 40-6-2.5.

Section 3. Section 10-9a-403 is amended to read:

10-9a-403. General plan preparation.

(1) (a) The planning commission shall provide notice, as provided in Section 10-9a-203, of the planning commission's intent to make a recommendation to the municipal legislative body for a general plan or a comprehensive general plan amendment when the planning commission initiates the process of preparing the planning commission's recommendation.

(b) The planning commission shall make and recommend to the legislative body a proposed general plan for the area within the municipality.

(c) The plan may include areas outside the boundaries of the municipality if, in the planning commission's judgment, those areas are related to the planning of the municipality's territory.

(d) Except as otherwise provided by law or with respect to a municipality's power of eminent domain, when the plan of a municipality involves territory outside the boundaries of the municipality, the municipality may not take action affecting that territory without the concurrence of the county or other municipalities affected.

(2) (a) At a minimum, the proposed general plan, with the accompanying maps, charts, and descriptive and explanatory matter, shall include the planning commission's recommendations for the following plan elements:

(i) a land use element that:

(A) designates the long-term goals and the proposed extent, general distribution, and location of land for housing for residents of various income levels, business, industry, agriculture, recreation, education, public buildings and grounds, open space, and other categories of public and private uses of land as appropriate;

(B) includes a statement of the projections for and standards of population density and building intensity recommended for the various land use categories covered by the plan;

(C) except for a city of the fifth class or a town, is coordinated to integrate the land use element with the water use and preservation element; and

(D) except for a city of the fifth class or a town, accounts for the effect of land use categories and land uses on water demand;

(ii) a transportation and traffic circulation element that:

(A) provides the general location and extent of existing and proposed freeways, arterial and collector streets, public transit, active transportation facilities, and other modes of transportation that the planning commission considers appropriate;

(B) for a municipality that has access to a major transit investment corridor, addresses the municipality's plan for residential and commercial development around major transit investment corridors to maintain and improve the connections between housing, employment, education, recreation, and commerce;

(C) for a municipality that does not have access to a major transit investment corridor, addresses the municipality's plan for residential and commercial development in areas that will maintain and improve the connections between housing, transportation, employment, education, recreation, and commerce; and

(D) correlates with the population projections, the employment projections, and the proposed land use element of the general plan;

(iii) a moderate income housing element that:

(A) provides a realistic opportunity to meet the need for additional moderate income housing within the municipality during the next five years;

(B) for a [~~town~~]municipality that is not a specified municipality, may include a recommendation to implement three or more of the moderate income housing strategies described in Subsection (2)(b)(iii);

(C) for a specified municipality, as defined in Section 10-9a-408, that does not have a fixed guideway public transit station, shall include a recommendation to implement three or more of the moderate income housing strategies described in Subsection (2)(b)(iii) or at least one of the moderate income housing strategies described in Subsections (2)(b)(iii)(X) through (CC);

(D) for a specified municipality, as defined in Section 10-9a-408, that has a fixed guideway public transit station, shall include:

(I) []a recommendation to implement five or more of the moderate income housing strategies described in Subsection (2)(b)(iii), of which one shall be the moderate income housing strategy described in Subsection ~~(2)(b)(iii)(W),~~(b)(iii)(U) and one shall be a moderate income housing strategy described in Subsection (2)(b)(iii)(G) [~~,~~]or (H)[~~, or (Q),~~]; or

(II) a recommendation to implement the moderate income housing strategy described in Subsection (2)(b)(iii)(U), one of the moderate income housing strategies described in Subsections (2)(b)(iii)(X) through (CC), and one moderate income housing strategy described in Subsection (2)(b)(iii); and

(E) for a specified municipality, as defined in Section 10-9a-408, shall include an implementation plan as provided in Subsection (2)(c); and

(iv) except for a city of the fifth class or a town, a water use and preservation element that addresses:

(A) the effect of permitted development or patterns of development on water demand and water infrastructure;

(B) methods of reducing water demand and per capita consumption for future development;

(C) methods of reducing water demand and per capita consumption for existing development; and

(D) opportunities for the municipality to modify the municipality's operations to eliminate practices or conditions that waste water.

(b) In drafting the moderate income housing element, the planning commission:

(i) shall consider the Legislature's determination that municipalities shall facilitate a reasonable opportunity for a variety of housing, including moderate income housing:

(A) to meet the needs of people of various income levels living, working, or desiring to live or work in the community; and

(B) to allow people with various incomes to benefit from and fully participate in all aspects of neighborhood and community life;

(ii) for a [~~town~~]municipality that is not a specified municipality, may include, and for a specified municipality as defined in Section 10-9a-408, shall include, an analysis of how the municipality will provide a realistic opportunity for the development of moderate income housing within the next five years;

(iii) for a [~~town~~]municipality that is not a specified municipality, may include, and for a specified municipality as defined in Section 10-9a-408, shall include a recommendation to implement the required number of any of the following moderate income housing strategies as specified in Subsection (2)(a)(iii):

(A) rezone for densities necessary to facilitate the production of moderate income housing;

(B) demonstrate investment in the rehabilitation or expansion of infrastructure that facilitates the construction of moderate income housing;

(C) demonstrate investment in the rehabilitation of existing uninhabitable housing stock into moderate income housing;

(D) identify and utilize general fund subsidies or other sources of revenue to waive construction related fees that are otherwise generally imposed by the municipality for the construction or rehabilitation of moderate income housing;

(E) create or allow for, and reduce regulations related to, internal or detached accessory dwelling units in residential zones;

(F) zone or rezone for higher density or moderate income residential development in commercial or mixed-use zones near major transit investment corridors, commercial centers, or employment centers;

(G) amend land use regulations to allow for higher density or new moderate income residential development in commercial or mixed-use zones near major transit investment corridors;

(H) amend land use regulations to eliminate or reduce parking requirements for residential development where a resident is less likely to rely on the resident's own vehicle, such as residential development near major transit investment corridors or senior living facilities;

(I) amend land use regulations to allow for single room occupancy developments;

(J) implement zoning incentives for moderate income units in new developments;

(K) preserve existing and new moderate income housing and subsidized units by utilizing a landlord incentive program, providing for deed restricted units through a grant program, or, notwithstanding Section 10-9a-535, establishing a housing loss mitigation fund;

(L) reduce, waive, or eliminate impact fees related to moderate income housing;

(M) demonstrate creation of, or participation in, a community land trust program for moderate income housing;

(N) implement a mortgage assistance program for employees of the municipality, an employer that provides contracted services to the municipality, or any other public employer that operates within the municipality;

(O) apply for or partner with an entity that applies for state or federal funds or tax incentives to promote the construction of moderate income housing, an entity that applies for programs offered by the Utah Housing Corporation within that agency's funding capacity, an entity that applies for affordable housing programs administered by the Department of Workforce Services, an entity that applies for affordable housing programs administered by an association of governments established by an interlocal agreement under Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act, an entity that applies for services provided by a public housing authority to preserve and create moderate income housing, or any other entity that applies for programs or services that promote the construction or preservation of moderate income housing;

(P) demonstrate utilization of a moderate income housing set aside from a community reinvestment agency, redevelopment agency, or community development and renewal agency to create or subsidize moderate income housing;

[~~(R) create a home ownership promotion zone pursuant to Part 10, Home Ownership Promotion Zone for Municipalities;~~]

~~(S)~~ eliminate impact fees for any accessory dwelling unit that is not an internal accessory dwelling unit as defined in Section 10-9a-530;

~~(T)~~ create a program to transfer development rights for moderate income housing;

~~(U)~~ ratify a joint acquisition agreement with another local political subdivision for the purpose of combining resources to acquire property for moderate income housing;

~~(V)~~ develop a moderate income housing project for residents who are disabled or 55 years old or older;

~~(W)~~ develop and adopt a station area plan in accordance with Section 10-9a-403.1;

~~(X)~~ create or allow for, and reduce regulations related to, multifamily residential dwellings compatible in scale and form with detached single-family residential dwellings and located in walkable communities within residential or mixed-use zones;

[~~(Y) create a first home investment zone in accordance with Title 63N, Chapter 3, Part 16, First Home Investment Zone Act; and~~]

~~(Z)~~ demonstrate implementation of any other program or strategy to address the housing needs of residents of the municipality who earn less than 80% of the area median income, including the dedication of a local funding source to moderate income housing or the adoption of a land use ordinance that requires 10% or more of new residential development in a residential zone be dedicated to moderate income housing; [~~and~~]

(X) create a housing and transit reinvestment zone pursuant to Title 63N, Chapter 3, Part 6, Housing and Transit Reinvestment Zone Act;

(Y) create a home ownership promotion zone pursuant to Part 10, Home Ownership Promotion Zone for Municipalities;

(Z) create a first home investment zone in accordance with Title 63N, Chapter 3, Part 16, First Home Investment Zone Act;

(AA) approve a project that receives funding from, or qualifies to receive funding from, the Utah Homes Investment Program created in Title 51, Chapter 12, Utah Homes Investment Program;

(BB) adopt or approve a qualifying affordable home ownership density bonus for single-family residential units, as described in

Section 10-9a-403.2; and

(CC) adopt or approve a qualifying affordable home ownership density bonus for multi-family residential units, as described in Section 10-9a-403.3; and

(iv) shall identify each moderate income housing strategy recommended to the legislative body for implementation by restating the exact language used to describe the strategy in Subsection (2)(b)(iii).

(c) (i) In drafting the implementation plan portion of the moderate income housing element as described in Subsection (2)(a)(iii)(C), the planning commission shall recommend to the legislative body the establishment of a five-year timeline for implementing each of the moderate income housing strategies selected by the municipality for implementation.

(ii) The timeline described in Subsection (2)(c)(i) shall:

(A) identify specific measures and benchmarks for implementing each moderate income housing strategy selected by the municipality, whether one-time or ongoing; and

(B) provide flexibility for the municipality to make adjustments as needed.

(d) In drafting the land use element, the planning commission shall:

(i) identify and consider each agriculture protection area within the municipality;

(ii) avoid proposing a use of land within an agriculture protection area that is inconsistent with or detrimental to the use of the land for agriculture; and

(iii) consider and coordinate with any station area plans adopted by the municipality if required under Section 10-9a-403.1.

(e) In drafting the transportation and traffic circulation element, the planning commission shall:

(i) (A) consider and coordinate with the regional transportation plan developed by the municipality's region's metropolitan planning organization, if the municipality is within the boundaries of a metropolitan planning organization; or

(B) consider and coordinate with the long-range transportation plan developed by the Department of Transportation, if the municipality is not within the boundaries of a metropolitan planning organization; and

(ii) consider and coordinate with any station area plans adopted by the municipality if required under Section 10-9a-403.1.

(f) In drafting the water use and preservation element, the planning commission:

(i) shall consider:

(A) applicable regional water conservation goals recommended by the Division of Water Resources; and

(B) if Section 73-10-32 requires the municipality to adopt a water conservation plan pursuant to Section 73-10-32, the municipality's water conservation plan;

(ii) shall include a recommendation for:

(A) water conservation policies to be determined by the municipality; and

(B) landscaping options within a public street for current and future development that do not require the use of lawn or turf in a parkstrip;

(iii) shall review the municipality's land use ordinances and include a recommendation for changes to an ordinance that promotes the inefficient use of water;

(iv) shall consider principles of sustainable landscaping, including the:

(A) reduction or limitation of the use of lawn or turf;

(B) promotion of site-specific landscape design that decreases stormwater runoff or runoff of water used for irrigation;

(C) preservation and use of healthy trees that have a reasonable water requirement or are resistant to dry soil conditions;

(D) elimination or regulation of ponds, pools, and other features that promote unnecessary water evaporation;

(E) reduction of yard waste; and

(F) use of an irrigation system, including drip irrigation, best adapted to provide the optimal amount of water to the plants being irrigated;

(v) shall consult with the public water system or systems serving the municipality with drinking water regarding how implementation of the land use element and water use and preservation element may affect:

(A) water supply planning, including drinking water source and storage capacity consistent with Section 19-4-114; and

(B) water distribution planning, including master plans, infrastructure asset management programs and plans, infrastructure replacement plans, and impact fee facilities plans;

(vi) shall consult with the Division of Water Resources for information and technical resources regarding regional water conservation goals, including how implementation of the land use element and the water use and preservation element may affect the Great Salt Lake;

(vii) may include recommendations for additional water demand reduction strategies, including:

(A) creating a water budget associated with a particular type of development;

(B) adopting new or modified lot size, configuration, and landscaping standards that will reduce water demand for new single family development;

(C) providing one or more water reduction incentives for existing development such as modification of existing landscapes and irrigation systems and installation of water fixtures or systems that minimize water demand;

(D) discouraging incentives for economic development activities that do not adequately account for water use or do not include strategies for reducing water demand; and

(E) adopting water concurrency standards requiring that adequate water supplies and facilities are or will be in place for new development; and

(viii) for a town, may include, and for another municipality, shall include, a recommendation for low water use landscaping standards for a new:

(A) commercial, industrial, or institutional development;

(B) common interest community, as defined in Section 57-25-102; or

(C) multifamily housing project.

(3) The proposed general plan may include:

(a) an environmental element that addresses:

(i) the protection, conservation, development, and use of natural resources, including the quality of:

(A) air;

(B) forests;

(C) soils;

(D) rivers;

(E) groundwater and other waters;

(F) harbors;

(G) fisheries;

(H) wildlife;

(I) minerals; and

(J) other natural resources; and

(ii) (A) the reclamation of land, flood control, prevention and control of the pollution of streams and other waters;

(B) the regulation of the use of land on hillsides, stream channels and other environmentally sensitive areas;

(C) the prevention, control, and correction of the erosion of soils;

(D) the preservation and enhancement of watersheds and wetlands; and

(E) the mapping of known geologic hazards;

(b) a public services and facilities element showing general plans for sewage, water, waste disposal, drainage, public utilities, rights-of-way, easements, and facilities for them, police and fire protection, and other public services;

(c) a rehabilitation, redevelopment, and conservation element consisting of plans and programs for:

(i) historic preservation;

(ii) the diminution or elimination of a development impediment as defined in Section 17C-1-102; and

(iii) redevelopment of land, including housing sites, business and industrial sites, and public building sites;

(d) an economic element composed of appropriate studies and forecasts, as well as an economic development plan, which may include review of existing and projected municipal revenue and expenditures, revenue sources, identification of basic and secondary industry, primary and secondary market areas, employment, and retail sales activity;

(e) recommendations for implementing all or any portion of the general plan, including the adoption of land and water use ordinances, capital improvement plans, community development and promotion, and any other appropriate action;

(f) provisions addressing any of the matters listed in Subsection 10-9a-401(2) or (3); and

(g) any other element the municipality considers appropriate.

Section 4. Section 10-9a-403.2 is enacted to read:

10-9a-403.2. Affordable home ownership density bonus for single-family residential units.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Affordable housing" means a dwelling:

(i) offered for sale to an owner-occupier at a purchase price affordable to a household with a gross income of no more than 120% of area median income for the county in which the residential unit is offered for sale; or

(ii) offered for rent at a rental price affordable to a household with a gross income of no more than 80% of area median income for the county in which the residential unit is offered for rent.

(b) "Owner-occupier" means an individual who owns, solely or jointly, a housing unit in which the individual lives as the individual's primary residence.

(c) "Qualifying affordable home ownership single-family density bonus" means:

(i) for an area with an underlying zoning density of less than six residential units per acre, municipal approval of a density at least six residential units per acre; or

(ii) for an area with an underlying zoning density of six residential units per acre or more, municipal approval of a density at least 0.5 residential units per acre greater than the underlying zoning density for the area.

(2) If a municipality approves a qualifying affordable home ownership single-family density bonus, either through a zoning ordinance or a development agreement, the municipality may adopt requirements for the qualifying affordable home ownership single-family density bonus area to ensure:

(a) at least 60% of the total single-family residential units be deed-restricted to owner-occupancy for at least five years;

(b) at least 25% of the total single-family residential units qualify as affordable housing;

(c) at least 25% of the single-family residential units per acre to be no larger than 1,600 square feet; or

(d) the applicant creates a preferential qualifying buyer program in which a single-family residential unit is initially offered for sale, for up to 30 days, to a category of preferred qualifying buyers established by the municipality, in accordance with provisions of the Fair Housing Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 3601.

(3) A municipality may offer additional incentives in a qualifying affordable home ownership single-family density bonus area approved for single-family residential units to promote owner-occupied, affordable housing.

Section 5. Section 10-9a-403.3 is enacted to read:

10-9a-403.3. Affordable home ownership density bonus for multi-family residential units.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Affordable housing" means the same as that term is defined in Section 10-9a-403.2.

(b) "Owner-occupier" means the same as that term is defined in Section 10-9a-403.2.

(c) "Qualifying affordable home ownership multi-family density bonus" means municipal approval of a density of at least 20 residential units per acre.

(2) If a municipality approves a qualifying affordable home ownership multi-family density bonus, either through a zoning ordinance or a development agreement, the municipality may adopt requirements for the qualifying affordable home ownership multi-family density bonus area to ensure:

(a) at least 20% more residential units per acre than are otherwise allowed in the area;

(b) at least 60% of the total units in the multi-family residential building be deed-restricted to owner-occupancy for at least five years;

(c) at least 25% of the total units in the multi-family residential building qualify as affordable housing;

(d) at least 25% of the total units in a multi-family residential building to be no larger than 1,600 square feet; or

(e) the applicant creates a preferential qualifying buyer program in which a unit in a multi-family residential building is initially offered for sale, for up to 30 days, to a category of preferred qualifying buyers established by the municipality, in accordance with provisions of the Fair Housing Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 3601.

(3) A municipality may offer additional incentives in a qualifying affordable home ownership multi-family density bonus area for multi-family residential units to promote owner-occupied, affordable housing.

Section 6. Section 10-9a-408 is amended to read:

10-9a-408. Moderate income housing report -- Contents -- Prioritization for funds or projects -- Ineligibility for funds after noncompliance -- Civil actions.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Division" means the Housing and Community Development Division within the Department of Workforce Services.

(b) "Implementation plan" means the implementation plan adopted as part of the moderate income housing element of a specified municipality's general plan as provided in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(c).

(c) "Initial report" or "initial moderate income housing report" means the one-time report described in Subsection (2).

(d) "Moderate income housing strategy" means a strategy described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii).

(e) "Report" means an initial report or a subsequent progress report.

(f) "Specified municipality" means:

(i) a city of the first, second, third, or fourth class; or

(ii) a city of the fifth class with a population of 5,000 or more, if the city is located within a county of the first, second, or third class.

(g) "Subsequent progress report" means the annual report described in Subsection (3).

(2) (a) The legislative body of a specified municipality shall submit an initial report to the division.

(b) (i) This Subsection (2)(b) applies to a municipality that is not a specified municipality as of January 1, 2023.

(ii) As of January 1, if a municipality described in Subsection (2)(b)(i) changes from one class to another or grows in population to qualify as a specified municipality, the municipality shall submit an initial plan to the division on or before August 1 of the first calendar year beginning on January 1 in which the municipality qualifies as a specified municipality.

(c) The initial report shall:

(i) identify each moderate income housing strategy selected by the specified municipality for continued, ongoing, or one-time implementation, restating the exact language used to describe the moderate income housing strategy in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii); and

(ii) include an implementation plan.

(3) (a) After the division approves a specified municipality's initial report under this section, the specified municipality shall, as an administrative act, annually submit to the division a subsequent progress report on or before August 1 of each year after the year in which the specified municipality is required to submit the initial report.

(b) The subsequent progress report shall include:

(i) subject to Subsection (3)(c), a description of each action, whether one-time or ongoing, taken by the specified municipality during the previous 12-month period to implement the moderate income housing strategies identified in the initial report for implementation;

(ii) a description of each land use regulation or land use decision made by the specified municipality during the previous 12-month period to implement the moderate income housing strategies, including an explanation of how the land use regulation or land use decision supports the specified municipality's efforts to implement the moderate income housing strategies;

(iii) a description of any barriers encountered by the specified municipality in the previous 12-month period in implementing the moderate income housing strategies;

(iv) information regarding the number of internal and external or detached accessory dwelling units located within the specified municipality for which the specified municipality:

(A) issued a building permit to construct; or

(B) issued a business license or comparable license or permit to rent;

(v) the number of residential dwelling units that have been entitled that have not received a building permit as of the submission date of the progress report;

(vi) shapefiles, or website links if shapefiles are not available, to current maps and tables related to zoning;

(vii) a description of how the market has responded to the selected moderate income housing strategies, including the number of entitled moderate income housing units or other relevant data; and

(viii) any recommendations on how the state can support the specified municipality in implementing the moderate income housing strategies.

(c) For purposes of describing actions taken by a specified municipality under Subsection (3)(b)(i), the specified municipality may include an ongoing action taken by the specified municipality prior to the 12-month reporting period applicable to the subsequent progress report if the specified municipality:

(i) has already adopted an ordinance, approved a land use application, made an investment, or approved an agreement or financing that substantially promotes the implementation of a moderate income housing strategy identified in the initial report; and

(ii) demonstrates in the subsequent progress report that the action taken under Subsection (3)(c)(i) is relevant to making meaningful progress towards the specified municipality's implementation plan.

(d) A specified municipality's report shall be in a form:

(i) approved by the division; and

(ii) made available by the division on or before May 1 of the year in which the report is required.

(4) Within 90 days after the day on which the division receives a specified municipality's report, the division shall:

(a) post the report on the division's website;

(b) send a copy of the report to the Department of Transportation, the Governor's Office of Planning and Budget, the association of governments in which the specified municipality is located, and, if the specified municipality is located within the boundaries of a metropolitan planning organization, the appropriate metropolitan planning organization; and

(c) subject to Subsection (5), review the report to determine compliance with this section.

(5) (a) An initial report [~~does not comply~~]complies with this section [~~unless~~]if the report:

(i) includes the information required under Subsection (2)(c);

(ii) demonstrates to the division that the specified municipality made plans to implement:

(A) three or more moderate income housing strategies if the specified municipality does not have a fixed guideway public transit station; or

(B) [~~subject to Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iv), five or more moderate income housing strategies~~]if the specified municipality has a fixed guideway public transit station:

(I) five or more of the moderate income housing strategies described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii), of which one shall be the moderate income housing strategy described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii)(U) and one shall be a moderate income housing strategy described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii)(G) or (H); or

(II) the moderate income housing strategy described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii)(U), one of the moderate income housing strategies described in Subsections 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii)(X) through (CC), and one moderate income strategy described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii);and

(iii) is in a form approved by the division.

(b) A subsequent progress report [~~does not comply~~]complies with this section [~~unless~~]if the report:

(i) demonstrates to the division that the specified municipality made plans to implement:

(A) three or more moderate income housing strategies if the specified municipality does not have a fixed guideway public transit station; or

(B) [~~subject to the requirements of Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(a)(iii)(D), five or more moderate income housing strategies~~]if the specified municipality has a fixed guideway public transit station[~~;~~]:

(I) five or more of the moderate income housing strategies described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii), of which one shall be the moderate income housing strategy described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii)(U) and one shall be a moderate income housing strategy described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii)(G) or (H); or

(II) the moderate income housing strategy described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii)(U), one of the moderate income housing strategies described in Subsections 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii)(X) through (CC), and one moderate income housing strategy described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii);

(ii) is in a form approved by the division; and

(iii) provides sufficient information for the division to:

(A) assess the specified municipality's progress in implementing the moderate income housing strategies;

(B) monitor compliance with the specified municipality's implementation plan;

(C) identify a clear correlation between the specified municipality's land use regulations and land use decisions and the specified municipality's efforts to implement the moderate income housing strategies;

(D) identify how the market has responded to the specified municipality's selected moderate income housing strategies; and

(E) identify any barriers encountered by the specified municipality in implementing the selected moderate income housing strategies.

(c) (i) Notwithstanding the requirements of Subsection (5)(a)(ii)(A) or (b)(i)(A), if a specified municipality without a fixed guideway public transit station implements or is implementing, by ordinance or development agreement, one of the following moderate income housing strategies, the division shall consider that one moderate income housing strategy to be the equivalent of three moderate income housing strategies:

(A) a housing and transit reinvestment zone, as described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii)(X);

(B) a home ownership promotion zone, as described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii)(Y);

(C) a first home investment zone, described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii)(Z);

(D) the approval of a project described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii)(AA);

(E) a qualifying affordable home ownership density bonus for single-family residential units, as described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii)(BB); or

(F) a qualifying affordable home ownership density bonus for multi-family residential units, as described in Subsection 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii)(CC).

(ii) If the division considers one moderate income housing strategy described in Subsection (5)(c)(i) as the equivalent of three moderate income housing strategies, the division shall also consider the specified municipality compliant with the reporting requirement described in this section for:

(A) the year in which the specified municipality submits the initial report or subsequent report; and

(B) two subsequent reporting years.

(6) (a) A specified municipality qualifies for priority consideration under this Subsection (6) if the specified municipality's report:

(i) complies with this section; and

(ii) demonstrates to the division that the specified municipality made plans to implement:

(A) five or more moderate income housing strategies if the specified municipality does not have a fixed guideway public transit station; or

(B) six or more moderate income housing strategies if the specified municipality has a fixed guideway public transit station.

(b) The Transportation Commission may, in accordance with Subsection 72-1-304(3)(c), give priority consideration to transportation projects located within the boundaries of a specified municipality described in Subsection (6)(a) until the Department of Transportation receives notice from the division under Subsection (6)(e).

(c) Upon determining that a specified municipality qualifies for priority consideration under this Subsection (6), the division shall send a notice of prioritization to the legislative body of the specified municipality and the Department of Transportation.

(d) The notice described in Subsection (6)(c) shall:

(i) name the specified municipality that qualifies for priority consideration;

(ii) describe the funds or projects for which the specified municipality qualifies to receive priority consideration; and

(iii) state the basis for the division's determination that the specified municipality qualifies for priority consideration.

(e) The division shall notify the legislative body of a specified municipality and the Department of Transportation in writing if the division determines that the specified municipality no longer qualifies for priority consideration under this Subsection (6).

(7) (a) If the division, after reviewing a specified municipality's report, determines that the report does not comply with this section, the division shall send a notice of noncompliance to the legislative body of the specified municipality.

(b) A specified municipality that receives a notice of noncompliance may:

(i) cure each deficiency in the report within 90 days after the day on which the notice of noncompliance is sent; or

(ii) request an appeal of the division's determination of noncompliance within 10 days after the day on which the notice of noncompliance is sent.

(c) The notice described in Subsection (7)(a) shall:

(i) describe each deficiency in the report and the actions needed to cure each deficiency;

(ii) state that the specified municipality has an opportunity to:

(A) submit to the division a corrected report that cures each deficiency in the report within 90 days after the day on which the notice of compliance is sent; or

(B) submit to the division a request for an appeal of the division's determination of noncompliance within 10 days after the day on which the notice of noncompliance is sent; and

(iii) state that failure to take action under Subsection (7)(c)(ii) will result in the specified municipality's ineligibility for funds under Subsection (9).

(d) For purposes of curing the deficiencies in a report under this Subsection (7), if the action needed to cure the deficiency as described by the division requires the specified municipality to make a legislative change, the specified municipality may cure the deficiency by making that legislative change within the 90-day cure period.

(e) (i) If a specified municipality submits to the division a corrected report in accordance with Subsection (7)(b)(i) and the division determines that the corrected report does not comply with this section, the division shall send a second notice of noncompliance to the legislative body of the specified municipality within 30 days after the day on which the corrected report is submitted.

(ii) A specified municipality that receives a second notice of noncompliance may submit to the division a request for an appeal of the division's determination of noncompliance within 10 days after the day on which the second notice of noncompliance is sent.

(iii) The notice described in Subsection (7)(e)(i) shall:

(A) state that the specified municipality has an opportunity to submit to the division a request for an appeal of the division's determination of noncompliance within 10 days after the day on which the second notice of noncompliance is sent; and

(B) state that failure to take action under Subsection (7)(e)(iii)(A) will result in the specified municipality's ineligibility for funds under Subsection (9).

(8) (a) A specified municipality that receives a notice of noncompliance under Subsection (7)(a) or (7)(e)(i) may request an appeal of the division's determination of noncompliance within 10 days after the day on which the notice of noncompliance is sent.

(b) Within 90 days after the day on which the division receives a request for an appeal, an appeal board consisting of the following three members shall review and issue a written decision on the appeal:

(i) one individual appointed by the Utah League of Cities and Towns;

(ii) one individual appointed by the Utah Homebuilders Association; and

(iii) one individual appointed by the presiding member of the association of governments, established pursuant to an interlocal agreement under Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act, of which the specified municipality is a member.

(c) The written decision of the appeal board shall either uphold or reverse the division's determination of noncompliance.

(d) The appeal board's written decision on the appeal is final.

(9) (a) A specified municipality is ineligible for funds under this Subsection (9) if:

(i) the specified municipality fails to submit a report to the division;

(ii) after submitting a report to the division, the division determines that the report does not comply with this section and the specified municipality fails to:

(A) cure each deficiency in the report within 90 days after the day on which the notice of noncompliance is sent; or

(B) request an appeal of the division's determination of noncompliance within 10 days after the day on which the notice of noncompliance is sent;

(iii) after submitting to the division a corrected report to cure the deficiencies in a previously submitted report, the division determines that the corrected report does not comply with this section and the specified municipality fails to request an appeal of the division's determination of noncompliance within 10 days after the day on which the second notice of noncompliance is sent; or

(iv) after submitting a request for an appeal under Subsection (8), the appeal board issues a written decision upholding the division's determination of noncompliance.

(b) The following apply to a specified municipality described in Subsection (9)(a) until the division provides notice under Subsection (9)(e):

(i) the executive director of the Department of Transportation may not program funds from the Transportation Investment Fund of 2005, including the Transit Transportation Investment Fund, to projects located within the boundaries of the specified municipality in accordance with Subsection 72-2-124(5);

(ii) beginning with a report submitted in 2024, the specified municipality shall pay a fee to the Olene Walker Housing Loan Fund in the amount of $250 per day that the specified municipality:

(A) fails to submit the report to the division in accordance with this section, beginning the day after the day on which the report was due; or

(B) fails to cure the deficiencies in the report, beginning the day after the day by which the cure was required to occur as described in the notice of noncompliance under Subsection (7); and

(iii) beginning with the report submitted in 2025, the specified municipality shall pay a fee to the Olene Walker Housing Loan Fund in the amount of $500 per day that the specified municipality, in a consecutive year:

(A) fails to submit the report to the division in accordance with this section, beginning the day after the day on which the report was due; or

(B) fails to cure the deficiencies in the report, beginning the day after the day by which the cure was required to occur as described in the notice of noncompliance under Subsection (7).

(c) Upon determining that a specified municipality is ineligible for funds under this Subsection (9), and is required to pay a fee under Subsection (9)(b), if applicable, the division shall send a notice of ineligibility to the legislative body of the specified municipality, the Department of Transportation, the State Tax Commission, and the Governor's Office of Planning and Budget.

(d) The notice described in Subsection (9)(c) shall:

(i) name the specified municipality that is ineligible for funds;

(ii) describe the funds for which the specified municipality is ineligible to receive;

(iii) describe the fee the specified municipality is required to pay under Subsection (9)(b), if applicable; and

(iv) state the basis for the division's determination that the specified municipality is ineligible for funds.

(e) The division shall notify the legislative body of a specified municipality and the Department of Transportation in writing if the division determines that the provisions of this Subsection (9) no longer apply to the specified municipality.

(f) The division may not determine that a specified municipality that is required to pay a fee under Subsection (9)(b) is in compliance with the reporting requirements of this section until the specified municipality pays all outstanding fees required under Subsection (9)(b) to the Olene Walker Housing Loan Fund, created under Title 35A, Chapter 8, Part 5, Olene Walker Housing Loan Fund.

(10) In a civil action seeking enforcement or claiming a violation of this section or of Subsection 10-9a-404(4)(c), a plaintiff may not recover damages but may be awarded only injunctive or other equitable relief.

Section 7. Section 10-9a-535 is amended to read:

10-9a-535. Moderate income housing.

(1) A municipality may only require the development of a certain number of moderate income housing units as a condition of approval of a land use application if:

(a) the municipality and the applicant enter into a written agreement regarding the number of moderate income housing units; [~~or~~]

(b) the municipality provides incentives for an applicant who agrees to include moderate income housing units in a development[~~.~~]; or

(c) the municipality offers or approves, and an applicant accepts, an incentive described in Section 10-9a-403.2 or 10-9a-403.3.

(2) If an applicant does not agree to participate in the development of moderate income housing units under Subsection (1)(a) or (b), a municipality may not take into consideration the applicant's decision in the municipality's determination of whether to approve or deny a land use application.

(3) Notwithstanding Subsections (1) and (2), a municipality that imposes a resort community sales and use tax as described in Section 59-12-401, may require the development of a certain number of moderate income housing units as a condition of approval of a land use application if the requirement is in accordance with an ordinance enacted by the municipality before January 1, 2022.

Section 8. Section 17-27a-102 is amended to read:

17-27a-102. Purposes -- General land use authority -- Limitations.

(1) (a) The purposes of this chapter are to:

(i) provide for the health, safety, and welfare;

(ii) promote the prosperity;

(iii) improve the morals, peace, good order, comfort, convenience, and aesthetics of each county and each county's present and future inhabitants and businesses;

(iv) protect the tax base;

(v) secure economy in governmental expenditures;

(vi) foster the state's agricultural and other industries;

(vii) protect both urban and nonurban development;

(viii) protect and ensure access to sunlight for solar energy devices;

(ix) provide fundamental fairness in land use regulation;

(x) facilitate orderly growth, [~~and~~]allow growth in a variety of housing types, and contribute toward housing affordability; and

(xi) protect property values.

(b) Subject to Subsection (4) and Section 11-41-103, to accomplish the purposes of this chapter, a county may enact all ordinances, resolutions, and rules and may enter into other forms of land use controls and development agreements that the county considers necessary or appropriate for the use and development of land within the unincorporated area of the county or a designated mountainous planning district, including ordinances, resolutions, rules, restrictive covenants, easements, and development agreements governing:

(i) uses;

(ii) density;

(iii) open spaces;

(iv) structures;

(v) buildings;

(vi) energy-efficiency;

(vii) light and air;

(viii) air quality;

(ix) transportation and public or alternative transportation;

(x) infrastructure;

(xi) street and building orientation and width requirements;

(xii) public facilities;

(xiii) fundamental fairness in land use regulation; and

(xiv) considerations of surrounding land uses to balance the foregoing purposes with a landowner's private property interests and associated statutory and constitutional protections.

(2) Each county shall comply with the mandatory provisions of this part before any agreement or contract to provide goods, services, or municipal-type services to any storage facility or transfer facility for high-level nuclear waste, or greater than class C radioactive waste, may be executed or implemented.

(3) (a) Any ordinance, resolution, or rule enacted by a county pursuant to its authority under this chapter shall comply with the state's exclusive jurisdiction to regulate oil and gas activity, as described in Section 40-6-2.5.

(b) A county may enact an ordinance, resolution, or rule that regulates surface activity incident to an oil and gas activity if the county demonstrates that the regulation:

(i) is necessary for the purposes of this chapter;

(ii) does not effectively or unduly limit, ban, or prohibit an oil and gas activity; and

(iii) does not interfere with the state's exclusive jurisdiction to regulate oil and gas activity, as described in Section 40-6-2.5.

(4) (a) This Subsection (4) applies to development agreements entered into on or after May 5, 2021.

(b) A provision in a county development agreement is unenforceable if the provision requires an individual or an entity, as a condition for issuing building permits or otherwise regulating development activities within an unincorporated area of the county, to initiate a process for a municipality to annex the unincorporated area in accordance with Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 4, Annexation.

(c) Subsection (4)(b) does not affect or impair the enforceability of any other provision in the development agreement.

Section 9. Section 17-27a-403 is amended to read:

17-27a-403. General plan preparation.

(1) (a) The planning commission shall provide notice, as provided in Section 17-27a-203, of the planning commission's intent to make a recommendation to the county legislative body for a general plan or a comprehensive general plan amendment when the planning commission initiates the process of preparing the planning commission's recommendation.

(b) The planning commission shall make and recommend to the legislative body a proposed general plan for:

(i) the unincorporated area within the county; or

(ii) if the planning commission is a planning commission for a mountainous planning district, the mountainous planning district.

(c) (i) The plan may include planning for incorporated areas if, in the planning commission's judgment, they are related to the planning of the unincorporated territory or of the county as a whole.

(ii) Elements of the county plan that address incorporated areas are not an official plan or part of a municipal plan for any municipality, unless the county plan is recommended by the municipal planning commission and adopted by the governing body of the municipality.

(2) (a) At a minimum, the proposed general plan, with the accompanying maps, charts, and descriptive and explanatory matter, shall include the planning commission's recommendations for the following plan elements:

(i) a land use element that:

(A) designates the long-term goals and the proposed extent, general distribution, and location of land for housing for residents of various income levels, business, industry, agriculture, recreation, education, public buildings and grounds, open space, and other categories of public and private uses of land as appropriate;

(B) includes a statement of the projections for and standards of population density and building intensity recommended for the various land use categories covered by the plan;

(C) is coordinated to integrate the land use element with the water use and preservation element; and

(D) accounts for the effect of land use categories and land uses on water demand;

(ii) a transportation and traffic circulation element that:

(A) provides the general location and extent of existing and proposed freeways, arterial and collector streets, public transit, active transportation facilities, and other modes of transportation that the planning commission considers appropriate;

(B) addresses the county's plan for residential and commercial development around major transit investment corridors to maintain and improve the connections between housing, employment, education, recreation, and commerce; and

(C) correlates with the population projections, the employment projections, and the proposed land use element of the general plan;

(iii) for a specified county as defined in Section 17-27a-408, a moderate income housing element that:

(A) provides a realistic opportunity to meet the need for additional moderate income housing within the next five years;

(B) selects three or more moderate income housing strategies described in [~~Subsection(2)(b)(ii)~~]Subsections (2)(b)(ii)(A) through (V), or one moderate income housing strategy described in Subsections (2)(b)(ii)(W) through (BB), for implementation; and

(C) includes an implementation plan as provided in Subsection ~~(2)(c)~~(g);

(iv) a resource management plan detailing the findings, objectives, and policies required by Subsection 17-27a-401(3); and

(v) a water use and preservation element that addresses:

(A) the effect of permitted development or patterns of development on water demand and water infrastructure;

(B) methods of reducing water demand and per capita consumption for future development;

(C) methods of reducing water demand and per capita consumption for existing development; and

(D) opportunities for the county to modify the county's operations to eliminate practices or conditions that waste water.

(b) In drafting the moderate income housing element, the planning commission:

(i) shall consider the Legislature's determination that counties should facilitate a reasonable opportunity for a variety of housing, including moderate income housing:

(A) to meet the needs of people of various income levels living, working, or desiring to live or work in the community; and

(B) to allow people with various incomes to benefit from and fully participate in all aspects of neighborhood and community life; and

(ii) shall include an analysis of how the county will provide a realistic opportunity for the development of moderate income housing within the planning horizon, including a recommendation to implement three or more of the following moderate income housing strategies:

(A) rezone for densities necessary to facilitate the production of moderate income housing;

(B) demonstrate investment in the rehabilitation or expansion of infrastructure that facilitates the construction of moderate income housing;

(C) demonstrate investment in the rehabilitation of existing uninhabitable housing stock into moderate income housing;

(D) identify and utilize county general fund subsidies or other sources of revenue to waive construction related fees that are otherwise generally imposed by the county for the construction or rehabilitation of moderate income housing;

(E) create or allow for, and reduce regulations related to, internal or detached accessory dwelling units in residential zones;

(F) zone or rezone for higher density or moderate income residential development in commercial or mixed-use zones, commercial centers, or employment centers;

(G) amend land use regulations to allow for higher density or new moderate income residential development in commercial or mixed-use zones near major transit investment corridors;

(H) amend land use regulations to eliminate or reduce parking requirements for residential development where a resident is less likely to rely on the resident's own vehicle, such as residential development near major transit investment corridors or senior living facilities;

(I) amend land use regulations to allow for single room occupancy developments;

(J) implement zoning incentives for moderate income units in new developments;

(K) preserve existing and new moderate income housing and subsidized units by utilizing a landlord incentive program, providing for deed restricted units through a grant program, or establishing a housing loss mitigation fund;

(L) reduce, waive, or eliminate impact fees related to moderate income housing;

(M) demonstrate creation of, or participation in, a community land trust program for moderate income housing;

(N) implement a mortgage assistance program for employees of the county, an employer that provides contracted services for the county, or any other public employer that operates within the county;

(O) apply for or partner with an entity that applies for state or federal funds or tax incentives to promote the construction of moderate income housing, an entity that applies for programs offered by the Utah Housing Corporation within that agency's funding capacity, an entity that applies for affordable housing programs administered by the Department of Workforce Services, an entity that applies for services provided by a public housing authority to preserve and create moderate income housing, or any other entity that applies for programs or services that promote the construction or preservation of moderate income housing;

(P) demonstrate utilization of a moderate income housing set aside from a community reinvestment agency, redevelopment agency, or community development and renewal agency to create or subsidize moderate income housing;

[~~(R) create a home ownership promotion zone pursuant to Part 12, Home Ownership Promotion Zone for Counties;~~]

~~(S)~~ eliminate impact fees for any accessory dwelling unit that is not an internal accessory dwelling unit as defined in Section 10-9a-530;

~~(T)~~ create a program to transfer development rights for moderate income housing;

~~(U)~~ ratify a joint acquisition agreement with another local political subdivision for the purpose of combining resources to acquire property for moderate income housing;

~~(V)~~ develop a moderate income housing project for residents who are disabled or 55 years old or older;

~~(W)~~ create or allow for, and reduce regulations related to, multifamily residential dwellings compatible in scale and form with detached single-family residential dwellings and located in walkable communities within residential or mixed-use zones; [~~and~~]

~~(X)~~ demonstrate implementation of any other program or strategy to address the housing needs of residents of the county who earn less than 80% of the area median income, including the dedication of a local funding source to moderate income housing or the adoption of a land use ordinance that requires 10% or more of new residential development in a residential zone be dedicated to moderate income housing[~~.~~];

(W) create a housing and transit reinvestment zone pursuant to Title 63N, Chapter 3, Part 6, Housing and Transit Reinvestment Zone Act;

(X) create a home ownership investment zone in accordance with Part 12, Home Ownership Promotion Zone for Counties;

(Y) create a first home investment zone in accordance with Title 63N, Chapter 3, Part 16, First Home Investment Zone Act;

(Z) approve a project that receives funding from, or qualifies to receive funding from, the Utah Homes Investment Program created in Title 51, Chapter 12, Utah Homes Investment Program;

(AA) adopt or approve an affordable home ownership density bonus for single-family residential units, as described in Section 17-27a-403.1; and

(BB) adopt or approve an affordable home ownership density bonus for multi-family residential units, as described in Section 17-27a-403.2.

(c) If a specified county, as defined in Section 17-27a-408, has created a small public transit district, as defined in Section 17B-2a-802, on or before January 1, 2022, the specified county shall include as part of the specified county's recommended strategies under Subsection (2)(b)(ii) a recommendation to implement the strategy described in Subsection ~~(2)(b)(ii)(Q)~~(b)(ii)(W).

(d) The planning commission shall identify each moderate income housing strategy recommended to the legislative body for implementation by restating the exact language used to describe the strategy in Subsection (2)(b)(ii).

(e) In drafting the land use element, the planning commission shall:

(i) identify and consider each agriculture protection area within the unincorporated area of the county or mountainous planning district;

(ii) avoid proposing a use of land within an agriculture protection area that is inconsistent with or detrimental to the use of the land for agriculture; and

(iii) consider and coordinate with any station area plans adopted by municipalities located within the county under Section 10-9a-403.1.

(f) In drafting the transportation and traffic circulation element, the planning commission shall:

(i) (A) consider and coordinate with the regional transportation plan developed by the county's region's metropolitan planning organization, if the relevant areas of the county are within the boundaries of a metropolitan planning organization; or

(B) consider and coordinate with the long-range transportation plan developed by the Department of Transportation, if the relevant areas of the county are not within the boundaries of a metropolitan planning organization; and

(ii) consider and coordinate with any station area plans adopted by municipalities located within the county under Section 10-9a-403.1.

(g) (i) In drafting the implementation plan portion of the moderate income housing element as described in Subsection (2)(a)(iii)(C), the planning commission shall recommend to the legislative body the establishment of a five-year timeline for implementing each of the moderate income housing strategies selected by the county for implementation.

(ii) The timeline described in Subsection (2)(g)(i) shall:

(A) identify specific measures and benchmarks for implementing each moderate income housing strategy selected by the county; and

(B) provide flexibility for the county to make adjustments as needed.

(h) In drafting the water use and preservation element, the planning commission:

(i) shall consider applicable regional water conservation goals recommended by the Division of Water Resources;

(ii) shall consult with the Division of Water Resources for information and technical resources regarding regional water conservation goals, including how implementation of the land use element and water use and preservation element may affect the Great Salt Lake;

(iii) shall notify the community water systems serving drinking water within the unincorporated portion of the county and request feedback from the community water systems about how implementation of the land use element and water use and preservation element may affect:

(A) water supply planning, including drinking water source and storage capacity consistent with Section 19-4-114; and

(B) water distribution planning, including master plans, infrastructure asset management programs and plans, infrastructure replacement plans, and impact fee facilities plans;

(iv) shall consider the potential opportunities and benefits of planning for regionalization of public water systems;

(v) shall consult with the Department of Agriculture and Food for information and technical resources regarding the potential benefits of agriculture conservation easements and potential implementation of agriculture water optimization projects that would support regional water conservation goals;

(vi) shall notify an irrigation or canal company located in the county so that the irrigation or canal company can be involved in the protection and integrity of the irrigation or canal company's delivery systems;

(vii) shall include a recommendation for:

(A) water conservation policies to be determined by the county; and

(B) landscaping options within a public street for current and future development that do not require the use of lawn or turf in a parkstrip;

(viii) shall review the county's land use ordinances and include a recommendation for changes to an ordinance that promotes the inefficient use of water;

(ix) shall consider principles of sustainable landscaping, including the:

(A) reduction or limitation of the use of lawn or turf;

(B) promotion of site-specific landscape design that decreases stormwater runoff or runoff of water used for irrigation;

(C) preservation and use of healthy trees that have a reasonable water requirement or are resistant to dry soil conditions;

(D) elimination or regulation of ponds, pools, and other features that promote unnecessary water evaporation;

(E) reduction of yard waste; and

(F) use of an irrigation system, including drip irrigation, best adapted to provide the optimal amount of water to the plants being irrigated;

(x) may include recommendations for additional water demand reduction strategies, including:

(A) creating a water budget associated with a particular type of development;

(B) adopting new or modified lot size, configuration, and landscaping standards that will reduce water demand for new single family development;

(C) providing one or more water reduction incentives for existing landscapes and irrigation systems and installation of water fixtures or systems that minimize water demand;

(D) discouraging incentives for economic development activities that do not adequately account for water use or do not include strategies for reducing water demand; and

(E) adopting water concurrency standards requiring that adequate water supplies and facilities are or will be in place for new development; and

(xi) shall include a recommendation for low water use landscaping standards for a new:

(A) commercial, industrial, or institutional development;

(B) common interest community, as defined in Section 57-25-102; or

(C) multifamily housing project.

(3) The proposed general plan may include:

(a) an environmental element that addresses:

(i) to the extent not covered by the county's resource management plan, the protection, conservation, development, and use of natural resources, including the quality of:

(A) air;

(B) forests;

(C) soils;

(D) rivers;

(E) groundwater and other waters;

(F) harbors;

(G) fisheries;

(H) wildlife;

(I) minerals; and

(J) other natural resources; and

(ii) (A) the reclamation of land, flood control, prevention and control of the pollution of streams and other waters;

(B) the regulation of the use of land on hillsides, stream channels and other environmentally sensitive areas;

(C) the prevention, control, and correction of the erosion of soils;

(D) the preservation and enhancement of watersheds and wetlands; and

(E) the mapping of known geologic hazards;

(b) a public services and facilities element showing general plans for sewage, water, waste disposal, drainage, public utilities, rights-of-way, easements, and facilities for them, police and fire protection, and other public services;

(c) a rehabilitation, redevelopment, and conservation element consisting of plans and programs for:

(i) historic preservation;

(ii) the diminution or elimination of a development impediment as defined in Section 17C-1-102; and

(iii) redevelopment of land, including housing sites, business and industrial sites, and public building sites;

(d) an economic element composed of appropriate studies and forecasts, as well as an economic development plan, which may include review of existing and projected county revenue and expenditures, revenue sources, identification of basic and secondary industry, primary and secondary market areas, employment, and retail sales activity;

(e) recommendations for implementing all or any portion of the general plan, including the adoption of land and water use ordinances, capital improvement plans, community development and promotion, and any other appropriate action;

(f) provisions addressing any of the matters listed in Subsection 17-27a-401(2) or (3)(a)(i); and

(g) any other element the county considers appropriate.

Section 10. Section 17-27a-403.1 is enacted to read:

17-27a-403.1. Affordable home ownership density bonus for single-family residential units.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Affordable housing" means the same as that term is defined in Section 10-9a-403.2.

(b) "Owner-occupier" means the same as that term is defined in Section 10-9a-403.2.

(c) "Qualifying affordable home ownership single-family density bonus" means:

(i) for an area with an underlying zoning density of less than six residential units per acre, county approval of a density at least six residential units per acre; or

(ii) for an area with an underlying zoning density of six residential units per acre or more, county approval of a density at least 0.5 residential units per acre greater than the underlying zoning density for the area.

(2) If a county approves a qualifying affordable home ownership single-family density bonus, either through a zoning ordinance or a development agreement, the county may adopt requirements for the qualifying affordable home ownership single-family density bonus area to ensure:

(a) at least 60% of the total single-family residential units be deed-restricted to owner-occupancy for at least five years;

(b) at least 25% of the total single-family residential units qualify as affordable housing;

(c) at least 25% of the single-family residential units per acre to be no larger than 1,600 square feet; or

(d) the applicant creates a preferential qualifying buyer program in which a single-family residential unit is initially offered for sale, for up to 30 days, to a category of preferred qualifying buyers established by the county, in accordance with provisions of the Fair Housing Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 3601.

(3) A county may offer additional incentives in a qualifying affordable home ownership single-family density bonus area approved for single-family residential units to promote owner-occupied, affordable housing.

Section 11. Section 17-27a-403.2 is enacted to read:

17-27a-403.2. Affordable home ownership density bonus for multi-family residential units.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Affordable housing" means the same as that term is defined in Section 10-9a-403.2.

(b) "Owner-occupier" means the same as that term is defined in Section 10-9a-403.2.

(c) "Qualifying affordable home ownership multi-family density bonus" means county approval of a density of at least 20 residential units per acre.

(2) If a county approves a qualifying affordable home ownership multi-family density bonus, either through a zoning ordinance or a development agreement, the county may adopt requirements for the qualifying affordable home ownership multi-family density bonus area to ensure:

(a) at least 20% more residential units per acre than are otherwise allowed in the area;

(b) at least 60% of the total units in the multi-family residential building be deed-restricted to owner-occupancy for at least five years;

(c) at least 25% of the total units in the multi-family residential building qualify as affordable housing;

(d) at least 25% of the total units in a multi-family residential building to be no larger than 1,600 square feet; or

(e) the applicant creates a preferential qualifying buyer program in which a unit in a multi-family residential building is initially offered for sale, for up to 30 days, to a category of preferred qualifying buyers established by the county, in accordance with provisions of the Fair Housing Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 3601.

(3) A county may offer additional incentives in a qualifying affordable home ownership multi-family density bonus area for multi-family residential units to promote owner-occupied, affordable housing.

Section 12. Section 17-27a-408 is amended to read:

17-27a-408. Moderate income housing report -- Contents -- Prioritization for funds or projects -- Ineligibility for funds after noncompliance -- Civil actions.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Division" means the Housing and Community Development Division within the Department of Workforce Services.

(b) "Implementation plan" means the implementation plan adopted as part of the moderate income housing element of a specified county's general plan as provided in Subsection 17-27a-403(2)(g).

(c) "Initial report" means the one-time moderate income housing report described in Subsection (2).

(d) "Moderate income housing strategy" means a strategy described in Subsection 17-27a-403(2)(b)(ii).

(e) "Report" means an initial report or a subsequent report.

(f) "Specified county" means a county of the first, second, or third class, which has a population of more than 5,000 in the county's unincorporated areas.

(g) "Subsequent progress report" means the annual moderate income housing report described in Subsection (3).

(2) (a) The legislative body of a specified county shall annually submit an initial report to the division.

(b) (i) This Subsection (2)(b) applies to a county that is not a specified county as of January 1, 2023.

(ii) As of January 1, if a county described in Subsection (2)(b)(i) changes from one class to another or grows in population to qualify as a specified county, the county shall submit an initial plan to the division on or before August 1 of the first calendar year beginning on January 1 in which the county qualifies as a specified county.

(c) The initial report shall:

(i) identify each moderate income housing strategy selected by the specified county for continued, ongoing, or one-time implementation, using the exact language used to describe the moderate income housing strategy in Subsection 17-27a-403(2)(b)(ii); and

(ii) include an implementation plan.

(3) (a) After the division approves a specified county's initial report under this section, the specified county shall, as an administrative act, annually submit to the division a subsequent progress report on or before August 1 of each year after the year in which the specified county is required to submit the initial report.

(b) The subsequent progress report shall include:

(i) subject to Subsection (3)(c), a description of each action, whether one-time or ongoing, taken by the specified county during the previous 12-month period to implement the moderate income housing strategies identified in the initial report for implementation;

(ii) a description of each land use regulation or land use decision made by the specified county during the previous 12-month period to implement the moderate income housing strategies, including an explanation of how the land use regulation or land use decision supports the specified county's efforts to implement the moderate income housing strategies;

(iii) a description of any barriers encountered by the specified county in the previous 12-month period in implementing the moderate income housing strategies;

(iv) the number of residential dwelling units that have been entitled that have not received a building permit as of the submission date of the progress report;

(v) shapefiles, or website links if shapefiles are not available, to current maps and tables related to zoning;

(vi) information regarding the number of internal and external or detached accessory dwelling units located within the specified county for which the specified county:

(A) issued a building permit to construct; or

(B) issued a business license or comparable license or permit to rent;

(vii) a description of how the market has responded to the selected moderate income housing strategies, including the number of entitled moderate income housing units or other relevant data; and

(viii) any recommendations on how the state can support the specified county in implementing the moderate income housing strategies.

(c) For purposes of describing actions taken by a specified county under Subsection (3)(b)(i), the specified county may include an ongoing action taken by the specified county prior to the 12-month reporting period applicable to the subsequent progress report if the specified county:

(i) has already adopted an ordinance, approved a land use application, made an investment, or approved an agreement or financing that substantially promotes the implementation of a moderate income housing strategy identified in the initial report; and

(ii) demonstrates in the subsequent progress report that the action taken under Subsection (3)(c)(i) is relevant to making meaningful progress towards the specified county's implementation plan.

(d) A specified county's report shall be in a form:

(i) approved by the division; and

(ii) made available by the division on or before May 1 of the year in which the report is required.

(4) Within 90 days after the day on which the division receives a specified county's report, the division shall:

(a) post the report on the division's website;

(b) send a copy of the report to the Department of Transportation, the Governor's Office of Planning and Budget, the association of governments in which the specified county is located, and, if the unincorporated area of the specified county is located within the boundaries of a metropolitan planning organization, the appropriate metropolitan planning organization; and

(c) subject to Subsection (5), review the report to determine compliance with this section.

(5) (a) An initial report [~~does not comply~~]complies with this section [~~unless~~]if the report:

(i) includes the information required under Subsection (2)(c);

(ii) subject to Subsection (5)(c), demonstrates to the division that the specified county made plans to implement three or more moderate income housing strategies described in Subsection 17-27a-403(2)(b)(ii)(A) though (V) or at least one moderate income housing strategy described in Subsections 17-27a-403(2)(b)(ii)(W) through (BB); and

(iii) is in a form approved by the division.

(b) A subsequent progress report [~~does not comply~~]complies with this section [~~unless~~]if the report:

(i) subject to Subsection (5)(c), demonstrates to the division that the specified county made plans to implement or is implementing three or more moderate income housing strategies described in Subsection 17-27a-403(2)(b)(ii)(A) though (V) or at least one moderate income housing strategy described in Subsections 17-27a-403(2)(b)(ii)(W) through (BB);

(ii) is in a form approved by the division; and

(iii) provides sufficient information for the division to:

(A) assess the specified county's progress in implementing the moderate income housing strategies;

(B) monitor compliance with the specified county's implementation plan;

(C) identify a clear correlation between the specified county's land use decisions and efforts to implement the moderate income housing strategies;

(D) identify how the market has responded to the specified county's selected moderate income housing strategies; and

(E) identify any barriers encountered by the specified county in implementing the selected moderate income housing strategies.

(c) (i) This Subsection (5)(c) applies to a specified county that has created a small public transit district, as defined in Section 17B-2a-802, on or before January 1, 2022.

(ii) [~~In addition to the requirements of Subsections (5)(a) and (b), a~~]A report for a specified county described in Subsection (5)(c)(i) [~~does not comply~~]complies with this section [~~unless~~]if the report demonstrates to the division that the specified county:

(A) made plans to implement the moderate income housing strategy described in Subsection [~~17-27a-403(2)(b)(ii)(Q)~~]17-27a-403(2)(b)(ii)(W); [~~and~~]

(B) made plans to implement or is implementing three or more moderate income housing strategies described in Subsection 17-27a-403(2)(b)(ii)(A) though (V) or at least one moderate income housing strategy described in Subsections 17-27a-403(2)(b)(ii)(W) through (BB); and

~~(B)~~ is in compliance with Subsection 63N-3-603(8).

(d) If a specified county initial report or subsequent progress report demonstrates the county plans to implement or is implementing at least one moderate income housing strategy described in Subsections 17-27a-403(2)(b)(ii)(W) through (BB), the division shall also consider the specified county compliant with the reporting requirement described in this section for:

(i) the year in which the specified county submits the report; and

(ii) two subsequent reporting years.

(6) (a) A specified county qualifies for priority consideration under this Subsection (6) if the specified county's report:

(i) complies with this section; and

(ii) demonstrates to the division that the specified county made plans to implement five or more moderate income housing strategies.

(b) The Transportation Commission may, in accordance with Subsection 72-1-304(3)(c), give priority consideration to transportation projects located within the unincorporated areas of a specified county described in Subsection (6)(a) until the Department of Transportation receives notice from the division under Subsection (6)(e).

(c) Upon determining that a specified county qualifies for priority consideration under this Subsection (6), the division shall send a notice of prioritization to the legislative body of the specified county and the Department of Transportation.

(d) The notice described in Subsection (6)(c) shall:

(i) name the specified county that qualifies for priority consideration;

(ii) describe the funds or projects for which the specified county qualifies to receive priority consideration; and

(iii) state the basis for the division's determination that the specified county qualifies for priority consideration.

(e) The division shall notify the legislative body of a specified county and the Department of Transportation in writing if the division determines that the specified county no longer qualifies for priority consideration under this Subsection (6).

(7) (a) If the division, after reviewing a specified county's report, determines that the report does not comply with this section, the division shall send a notice of noncompliance to the legislative body of the specified county.

(b) A specified county that receives a notice of noncompliance may:

(i) cure each deficiency in the report within 90 days after the day on which the notice of noncompliance is sent; or

(ii) request an appeal of the division's determination of noncompliance within 10 days after the day on which the notice of noncompliance is sent.

(c) The notice described in Subsection (7)(a) shall:

(i) describe each deficiency in the report and the actions needed to cure each deficiency;

(ii) state that the specified county has an opportunity to:

(A) submit to the division a corrected report that cures each deficiency in the report within 90 days after the day on which the notice of noncompliance is sent; or

(B) submit to the division a request for an appeal of the division's determination of noncompliance within 10 days after the day on which the notice of noncompliance is sent; and

(iii) state that failure to take action under Subsection (7)(c)(ii) will result in the specified county's ineligibility for funds and fees owed under Subsection (9).

(d) For purposes of curing the deficiencies in a report under this Subsection (7), if the action needed to cure the deficiency as described by the division requires the specified county to make a legislative change, the specified county may cure the deficiency by making that legislative change within the 90-day cure period.

(e) (i) If a specified county submits to the division a corrected report in accordance with Subsection (7)(b)(i), and the division determines that the corrected report does not comply with this section, the division shall send a second notice of noncompliance to the legislative body of the specified county.

(ii) A specified county that receives a second notice of noncompliance may request an appeal of the division's determination of noncompliance within 10 days after the day on which the second notice of noncompliance is sent.

(iii) The notice described in Subsection (7)(e)(i) shall:

(A) state that the specified county has an opportunity to submit to the division a request for an appeal of the division's determination of noncompliance within 10 days after the day on which the second notice of noncompliance is sent; and

(B) state that failure to take action under Subsection (7)(e)(iii)(A) will result in the specified county's ineligibility for funds under Subsection (9).

(8) (a) A specified county that receives a notice of noncompliance under Subsection (7)(a) or (7)(e)(i) may request an appeal of the division's determination of noncompliance within 10 days after the day on which the notice of noncompliance is sent.

(b) Within 90 days after the day on which the division receives a request for an appeal, an appeal board consisting of the following three members shall review and issue a written decision on the appeal:

(i) one individual appointed by the Utah Association of Counties;

(ii) one individual appointed by the Utah Homebuilders Association; and

(iii) one individual appointed by the presiding member of the association of governments, established pursuant to an interlocal agreement under Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act, of which the specified county is a member.

(c) The written decision of the appeal board shall either uphold or reverse the division's determination of noncompliance.

(d) The appeal board's written decision on the appeal is final.

(9) (a) A specified county is ineligible for funds and owes a fee under this Subsection (9) if:

(i) the specified county fails to submit a report to the division;

(ii) after submitting a report to the division, the division determines that the report does not comply with this section and the specified county fails to:

(A) cure each deficiency in the report within 90 days after the day on which the notice of noncompliance is sent; or

(B) request an appeal of the division's determination of noncompliance within 10 days after the day on which the notice of noncompliance is sent;

(iii) after submitting to the division a corrected report to cure the deficiencies in a previously submitted report, the division determines that the corrected report does not comply with this section and the specified county fails to request an appeal of the division's determination of noncompliance within 10 days after the day on which the second notice of noncompliance is sent; or

(iv) after submitting a request for an appeal under Subsection (8), the appeal board issues a written decision upholding the division's determination of noncompliance.

(b) The following apply to a specified county described in Subsection (9)(a) until the division provides notice under Subsection (9)(e):

(i) the executive director of the Department of Transportation may not program funds from the Transportation Investment Fund of 2005, including the Transit Transportation Investment Fund, to projects located within the unincorporated areas of the specified county in accordance with Subsection 72-2-124(6);

(ii) beginning with the report submitted in 2024, the specified county shall pay a fee to the Olene Walker Housing Loan Fund in the amount of $250 per day that the specified county:

(A) fails to submit the report to the division in accordance with this section, beginning the day after the day on which the report was due; or

(B) fails to cure the deficiencies in the report, beginning the day after the day by which the cure was required to occur as described in the notice of noncompliance under Subsection (7); and

(iii) beginning with the report submitted in 2025, the specified county shall pay a fee to the Olene Walker Housing Loan Fund in the amount of $500 per day that the specified county, for a consecutive year:

(A) fails to submit the report to the division in accordance with this section, beginning the day after the day on which the report was due; or

(B) fails to cure the deficiencies in the report, beginning the day after the day by which the cure was required to occur as described in the notice of noncompliance under Subsection (7).

(c) Upon determining that a specified county is ineligible for funds under this Subsection (9), and is required to pay a fee under Subsection (9)(b), if applicable, the division shall send a notice of ineligibility to the legislative body of the specified county, the Department of Transportation, the State Tax Commission, and the Governor's Office of Planning and Budget.

(d) The notice described in Subsection (9)(c) shall:

(i) name the specified county that is ineligible for funds;

(ii) describe the funds for which the specified county is ineligible to receive;

(iii) describe the fee the specified county is required to pay under Subsection (9)(b), if applicable; and

(iv) state the basis for the division's determination that the specified county is ineligible for funds.

(e) The division shall notify the legislative body of a specified county and the Department of Transportation in writing if the division determines that the provisions of this Subsection (9) no longer apply to the specified county.

(f) The division may not determine that a specified county that is required to pay a fee under Subsection (9)(b) is in compliance with the reporting requirements of this section until the specified county pays all outstanding fees required under Subsection (9)(b) to the Olene Walker Housing Loan Fund, created under Title 35A, Chapter 8, Part 5, Olene Walker Housing Loan Fund.

(10) In a civil action seeking enforcement or claiming a violation of this section or of Subsection 17-27a-404(5)(c), a plaintiff may not recover damages but may be awarded only injunctive or other equitable relief.

Section 13. Section 17-27a-531 is amended to read:

17-27a-531. Moderate income housing.

(1) A county may only require the development of a certain number of moderate income housing units as a condition of approval of a land use application if:

(a) the county and the applicant enter into a written agreement regarding the number of moderate income housing units; [~~or~~]

(b) the county provides incentives for an applicant who agrees to include moderate income housing units in a development[~~-~~]; or

(c) the county offers or approves, and an applicant accepts, an incentive described in Section 17-27a-403.1 or 17-27a-403.2.

(2) If an applicant does not agree to participate in the development of moderate income housing units under Subsection (1)(a) or (b), a county may not take into consideration the applicant's decision in the county's determination of whether to approve or deny a land use application.

(3) Notwithstanding Subsections (1) and (2), a county of the third class, which has a ski resort located within the unincorporated area of the county, may require the development of a certain number of moderate income housing units as a condition of approval of a land use application if the requirement is in accordance with an ordinance enacted by the county before January 1, 2022.

Section 14. Section 17B-1-202 is amended to read:

17B-1-202. Special district may be created -- Services that may be provided -- Limitations.

(1) (a) A special district may be created as provided in this part to provide within its boundaries service consisting of:

(i) the operation of an airport;

(ii) the operation of a cemetery;

(iii) fire protection, paramedic, and emergency services, including consolidated 911 and emergency dispatch services;

(iv) garbage collection and disposal;

(v) health care, including health department or hospital service;

(vi) the operation of a library;

(vii) abatement or control of mosquitos and other insects;

(viii) the operation of parks or recreation facilities or services;

(ix) the operation of a sewage system;

(x) the operation of a propane system;

~~(x)~~ the construction and maintenance of a right-of-way, including:

(A) a curb;

(B) a gutter;

(C) a sidewalk;

(D) a street;

(E) a road;

(F) a water line;

(G) a sewage line;

(H) a storm drain;

(I) an electricity line;

(J) a communications line;

(K) a natural gas line; or

(L) street lighting;

~~(xi)~~ transportation, including public transit and providing streets and roads;

~~(xii)~~ the operation of a system, or one or more components of a system, for the collection, storage, retention, control, conservation, treatment, supplying, distribution, or reclamation of water, including storm, flood, sewage, irrigation, and culinary water, whether the system is operated on a wholesale or retail level or both;

~~(xiii)~~ in accordance with Subsection (1)(c), the acquisition or assessment of a groundwater right for the development and execution of a groundwater management plan in cooperation with and approved by the state engineer in accordance with Section 73-5-15;

~~(xiv)~~ law enforcement service;

~~(xv)~~ subject to Subsection (1)(b), the underground installation of an electric utility line or the conversion to underground of an existing electric utility line;

~~(xvi)~~ the control or abatement of earth movement or a landslide;

~~(xvii)~~ the operation of animal control services and facilities;

~~(xviii)~~ an energy efficiency upgrade, a clean energy system, or electric vehicle charging infrastructure as defined in Section 11-42a-102, in accordance with Title 11, Chapter 42a, Commercial Property Assessed Clean Energy Act; or ~~(xix)~~ the financing of infrastructure, as provided in Chapter 2a, Part 13, Infrastructure Financing Districts.

(b) Each special district that provides the service of the underground installation of an electric utility line or the conversion to underground of an existing electric utility line shall, in installing or converting the line, provide advance notice to and coordinate with the utility that owns the line.

(c) A groundwater management plan described in Subsection ~~(1)(a)(xiii)~~(a)(xiv) may include the banking of groundwater rights by a special district in a critical management area as defined in Section 73-5-15 following the adoption of a groundwater management plan by the state engineer under Section 73-5-15.

(i) A special district may manage the groundwater rights it acquires under Subsection 17B-1-103(2)(a) or (b) consistent with the provisions of a groundwater management plan described in this Subsection (1)(c).

(ii) A groundwater right held by a special district to satisfy the provisions of a groundwater management plan is not subject to the forfeiture provisions of Section 73-1-4.

(iii) (A) A special district may divest itself of a groundwater right subject to a determination that the groundwater right is not required to facilitate the groundwater management plan described in this Subsection (1)(c).

(B) The groundwater right described in Subsection (1)(c)(iii)(A) is subject to Section 73-1-4 beginning on the date of divestiture.

(iv) Upon a determination by the state engineer that an area is no longer a critical management area as defined in Section 73-5-15, a groundwater right held by the special district is subject to Section 73-1-4.

(v) A special district created in accordance with Subsection ~~(1)(a)(xiii)~~(a)(xiv) to develop and execute a groundwater management plan may hold or acquire a right to surface waters that are naturally tributary to the groundwater basin subject to the groundwater management plan if the surface waters are appropriated in accordance with Title 73, Water and Irrigation, and used in accordance with Title 73, Chapter 3b, Groundwater Recharge and Recovery Act.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) "Operation" means all activities involved in providing the indicated service including acquisition and ownership of property reasonably necessary to provide the indicated service and acquisition, construction, and maintenance of facilities and equipment reasonably necessary to provide the indicated service.

(b) "System" means the aggregate of interrelated components that combine together to provide the indicated service including, for a sewage system, collection and treatment.

(3) (a) A special district may not be created to provide and may not after its creation provide more than four of the services listed in Subsection (1).

(b) Subsection (3)(a) may not be construed to prohibit a special district from providing more than four services if, before April 30, 2007, the special district was authorized to provide those services.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), a special district may not be created to provide and may not after its creation provide to an area the same service that may already be provided to that area by another political subdivision, unless the other political subdivision gives its written consent.

(b) For purposes of Subsection (4)(a), a special district does not provide the same service as another political subdivision if it operates a component of a system that is different from a component operated by another political subdivision but within the same:

(i) sewage system; or

(ii) water system.

(5) (a) Except for a special district in the creation of which an election is not required under Subsection 17B-1-214(3)(d), the area of a special district may include all or part of the unincorporated area of one or more counties and all or part of one or more municipalities.

(b) The area of a special district need not be contiguous.

(6) For a special district created before May 5, 2008, the authority to provide fire protection service also includes the authority to provide:

(a) paramedic service; and

(b) emergency service, including hazardous materials response service.

(7) A special district created before May 11, 2010, authorized to provide the construction and maintenance of curb, gutter, or sidewalk may provide a service described in Subsection ~~(1)(a)(x)~~(a)(xi) on or after May 11, 2010.

(8) A special district created before May 10, 2011, authorized to provide culinary, irrigation, sewage, or storm water services may provide a service described in Subsection ~~(1)(a)(xii)~~(a)(xiii) on or after May 10, 2011.

(9) A special district may not be created under this chapter for two years after the date on which a special district is dissolved as provided in Section 17B-1-217 if the special district proposed for creation:

(a) provides the same or a substantially similar service as the dissolved special district; and

(b) is located in substantially the same area as the dissolved special district.

(10) An infrastructure financing district may not be created unless the estimated cost of the public infrastructure and improvements to be constructed within the boundary of the proposed infrastructure financing district exceeds $1,000,000, as certified under Subsection 17B-1-208(1)(c).

(11) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (11)(b), the inclusion of an area within an infrastructure financing district does not affect whether the area may be included within another special district.

(b) An infrastructure financing district may not include an area included within another infrastructure financing district.

Section 15. Section 35A-8-202 is amended to read:

35A-8-202. Powers and duties of division.

(1) The division shall:

(a) assist local governments and citizens in the planning, development, and maintenance of necessary public infrastructure and services;

(b) cooperate with, and provide technical assistance to, counties, cities, towns, regional planning commissions, area-wide clearinghouses, zoning commissions, parks or recreation boards, community development groups, community action agencies, and other agencies created for the purpose of aiding and encouraging an orderly, productive, and coordinated development of the state and its political subdivisions;

(c) assist the governor in coordinating the activities of state agencies which have an impact on the solution of community development problems and the implementation of community plans;

(d) serve as a clearinghouse for information, data, and other materials which may be helpful to local governments in discharging their responsibilities and provide information on available federal and state financial and technical assistance;

(e) carry out continuing studies and analyses of the problems faced by communities within the state and develop such recommendations for administrative or legislative action as appear necessary;

(f) assist in funding affordable housing;

(g) support economic development activities through grants, loans, and direct programs financial assistance;

(h) certify project funding at the local level in conformance with federal, state, and other requirements;

(i) utilize the capabilities and facilities of public and private universities and colleges within the state in carrying out its functions; and

(j) assist and support local governments, community action agencies, and citizens in the planning, development, and maintenance of home weatherization, energy efficiency, and antipoverty activities.

(2) The division may:

(a) by following the procedures and requirements of Title 63J, Chapter 5, Federal Funds Procedures Act, seek federal grants, loans, or participation in federal programs;

(b) if any federal program requires the expenditure of state funds as a condition to participation by the state in any fund, property, or service, with the governor's approval, expend whatever funds are necessary out of the money provided by the Legislature for the use of the department;

(c) in accordance with Part 9, Domestic Violence Shelters, assist in developing, constructing, and improving shelters for victims of domestic violence, as described in Section 77-36-1, through loans and grants to nonprofit and governmental entities; [~~and~~]

(d) assist, when requested by a county or municipality, in the development of accessible housing[~~.~~]; and

(e) make rules, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, regarding the form and content of a moderate income housing report, as described in Sections 10-9a-408 and 17-27a-408, to:

(i) ensure consistency across reporting political subdivisions; and

(ii) promote better potential analysis of report data.

Section 16. Section 63J-4-402 is enacted to read:

63J-4-402. State housing plan.

(1) The office shall develop a state housing plan by December 31, 2025.

(2) (a) The office shall partner with the Legislature, municipal and county governments, the home building industry and related stakeholders, and the general public in the development of the state housing plan described in Subsection (1).

(b) In developing the state housing plan, the office may develop regional housing plans within the state housing plan.

(3) The state housing plan shall:

(a) prioritize collaboration over preemption and collaboration across private and public sectors;

(b) promote a holistic and regional approach to housing;

(c) enable connected communities and center-based development;

(d) acknowledge cross-issue policy alignment;

(e) maintain a long-range vision;

(f) promote opportunity and inclusivity;

(g) recognize complex market forces; and

(h) consider rural and urban contexts.

(4) The state housing plan shall include data and metrics:

(a) about actual and potential housing production;

(b) about actual and potential infrastructure capacity, maintenance, and development; and

(c) allowing the office to measure success of the state housing plan over time.

(5) In gathering data and developing metrics, the office may analyze moderate income housing reports received by the Division of Housing and Community Development and:

(a) determine which, if any, of the moderate income housing strategies described in Subsections 10-9a-403(2)(b)(iii) and 17-27a-403(2)(b)(ii) are correlated with an increase in the supply of moderate income housing, either built or entitled to be built, in the political subdivision that implements the moderate income housing strategy; and

(b) draw conclusions regarding any data trends identified by the office as meaningful or significant.

(6) By no later than October 1 of each year, the office shall provide a written report on the development and implementation of the state housing plan to the Political Subdivisions Interim Committee.

Section 17. Section 72-1-304 is amended to read:

72-1-304. Written project prioritization process for new transportation capacity projects -- Rulemaking.

(1) (a) The Transportation Commission, in consultation with the department and the metropolitan planning organizations as defined in Section 72-1-208.5, shall develop a written prioritization process for the prioritization of:

(i) new transportation capacity projects that are or will be part of the state highway system under Chapter 4, Part 1, State Highways;

(ii) paved pedestrian or paved nonmotorized transportation projects described in Section 72-2-124;

(iii) public transit projects that directly add capacity to the public transit systems within the state, not including facilities ancillary to the public transit system; and

(iv) pedestrian or nonmotorized transportation projects that provide connection to a public transit system.

(b) (i) A local government or public transit district may nominate a project for prioritization in accordance with the process established by the commission in rule.

(ii) If a local government or public transit district nominates a project for prioritization by the commission, the local government or public transit district shall provide data and evidence to show that:

(A) the project will advance the purposes and goals described in Section 72-1-211;

(B) for a public transit project, the local government or public transit district has an ongoing funding source for operations and maintenance of the proposed development; and

(C) the local government or public transit district will provide the percentage of the costs for the project as required by Subsection 72-2-124(4)(a)(viii) or 72-2-124(9)(e).

(2) The following shall be included in the written prioritization process under Subsection (1):

(a) a description of how the strategic initiatives of the department adopted under Section 72-1-211 are advanced by the written prioritization process;

(b) a definition of the type of projects to which the written prioritization process applies;

(c) specification of a weighted criteria system that is used to rank proposed projects and how it will be used to determine which projects will be prioritized;

(d) specification of the data that is necessary to apply the weighted ranking criteria; and

(e) any other provisions the commission considers appropriate, which may include consideration of:

(i) regional and statewide economic development impacts, including improved local access to:

(A) employment;

(B) educational facilities;

(C) recreation;

(D) commerce; and

(E) residential areas, including moderate income housing as demonstrated in the local government's or public transit district's general plan pursuant to Section 10-9a-403 or 17-27a-403;

(ii) the extent to which local land use plans relevant to a project support and accomplish the strategic initiatives adopted under Section 72-1-211; and

(iii) any matching funds provided by a political subdivision or public transit district in addition to the percentage of costs required by Subsections 72-2-124(4)(a)(viii) and 72-2-124(9)(e).

(3) (a) When prioritizing a public transit project that increases capacity, the commission:

(i) may give priority consideration to projects that are part of a transit-oriented development or transit-supportive development as defined in Section 17B-2a-802; and

(ii) shall give priority consideration to projects that are within the boundaries of a housing and transit reinvestment zone created pursuant to Title 63N, Chapter 3, Part 6, Housing and Transit Reinvestment Zone Act.

(b) When prioritizing a transportation project that increases capacity, the commission may give priority consideration to projects that are:

(i) part of a transportation reinvestment zone created under Section 11-13-227 if:

(A) the state is a participant in the transportation reinvestment zone; or

(B) the commission finds that the transportation reinvestment zone provides a benefit to the state transportation system; or

(ii) within the boundaries of a housing and transit reinvestment zone created pursuant to Title 63N, Chapter 3, Part 6, Housing and Transit Reinvestment Zone Act.

(c) If the department receives a notice of prioritization for a municipality as described in Subsection [~~10-9a-408(5)~~]10-9a-408(6), or a notice of prioritization for a county as described in Subsection [~~17-27a-408(5)~~]17-27a-408(6), the commission may give priority consideration to transportation projects that are within the boundaries of the municipality or the unincorporated areas of the county until the department receives notification from the Housing and Community Development Division within the Department of Workforce Services that the municipality or county no longer qualifies for prioritization under this Subsection (3)(c).

(4) In developing the written prioritization process, the commission:

(a) shall seek and consider public comment by holding public meetings at locations throughout the state; and

(b) may not consider local matching dollars as provided under Section 72-2-123 unless the state provides an equal opportunity to raise local matching dollars for state highway improvements within each county.

(5) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the Transportation Commission, in consultation with the department, shall make rules establishing the written prioritization process under Subsection (1).

(6) The commission shall submit the proposed rules under this section to a committee or task force designated by the Legislative Management Committee for review prior to taking final action on the proposed rules or any proposed amendment to the rules described in Subsection (5).

Section 18. Section 72-2-124 is amended to read:

72-2-124. Transportation Investment Fund of 2005.

(1) There is created a capital projects fund entitled the Transportation Investment Fund of 2005.

(2) The fund consists of money generated from the following sources:

(a) any voluntary contributions received for the maintenance, construction, reconstruction, or renovation of state and federal highways;

(b) appropriations made to the fund by the Legislature;

(c) registration fees designated under Section 41-1a-1201;

(d) the sales and use tax revenues deposited into the fund in accordance with Section 59-12-103; and

(e) revenues transferred to the fund in accordance with Section 72-2-106.

(3) (a) The fund shall earn interest.

(b) All interest earned on fund money shall be deposited into the fund.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), the executive director may only use fund money to pay:

(i) the costs of maintenance, construction, reconstruction, or renovation to state and federal highways prioritized by the Transportation Commission through the prioritization process for new transportation capacity projects adopted under Section 72-1-304;

(ii) the costs of maintenance, construction, reconstruction, or renovation to the highway projects described in Subsections 63B-18-401(2), (3), and (4);

(iii) principal, interest, and issuance costs of bonds authorized by Section 63B-18-401 minus the costs paid from the County of the First Class Highway Projects Fund in accordance with Subsection 72-2-121(4)(e);

(iv) for a fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 2013, to transfer to the 2010 Salt Lake County Revenue Bond Sinking Fund created by Section 72-2-121.3 the amount certified by Salt Lake County in accordance with Subsection 72-2-121.3(4)(c) as necessary to pay the debt service on $30,000,000 of the revenue bonds issued by Salt Lake County;

(v) principal, interest, and issuance costs of bonds authorized by Section 63B-16-101 for projects prioritized in accordance with Section 72-2-125;

(vi) all highway general obligation bonds that are intended to be paid from revenues in the Centennial Highway Fund created by Section 72-2-118;

(vii) for fiscal year 2015-16 only, to transfer $25,000,000 to the County of the First Class Highway Projects Fund created in Section 72-2-121 to be used for the purposes described in Section 72-2-121;

(viii) if a political subdivision provides a contribution equal to or greater than 40% of the costs needed for construction, reconstruction, or renovation of paved pedestrian or paved nonmotorized transportation for projects that:

(A) mitigate traffic congestion on the state highway system;

(B) are part of an active transportation plan approved by the department; and

(C) are prioritized by the commission through the prioritization process for new transportation capacity projects adopted under Section 72-1-304;

(ix) $705,000,000 for the costs of right-of-way acquisition, construction, reconstruction, or renovation of or improvement to the following projects:

(A) the connector road between Main Street and 1600 North in the city of Vineyard;

(B) Geneva Road from University Parkway to 1800 South;

(C) the SR-97 interchange at 5600 South on I-15;

(D) subject to Subsection (4)(c), two lanes on U-111 from Herriman Parkway to South Jordan Parkway;

(E) widening I-15 between mileposts 10 and 13 and the interchange at milepost 11;

(F) improvements to 1600 North in Orem from 1200 West to State Street;

(G) widening I-15 between mileposts 6 and 8;

(H) widening 1600 South from Main Street in the city of Spanish Fork to SR-51;

(I) widening US 6 from Sheep Creek to Mill Fork between mileposts 195 and 197 in Spanish Fork Canyon;

(J) I-15 northbound between mileposts 43 and 56;

(K) a passing lane on SR-132 between mileposts 41.1 and 43.7 between mileposts 43 and 45.1;

(L) east Zion SR-9 improvements;

(M) Toquerville Parkway;

(N) an environmental study on Foothill Boulevard in the city of Saratoga Springs;

(O) using funds allocated in this Subsection (4)(a)(ix), and other sources of funds, for construction of an interchange on Bangerter Highway at 13400 South; and

(P) an environmental impact study for Kimball Junction in Summit County; and

(x) $28,000,000 as pass-through funds, to be distributed as necessary to pay project costs based upon a statement of cash flow that the local jurisdiction where the project is located provides to the department demonstrating the need for money for the project, for the following projects in the following amounts:

(A) $5,000,000 for Payson Main Street repair and replacement;

(B) $8,000,000 for a Bluffdale 14600 South railroad bypass;

(C) $5,000,000 for improvements to 4700 South in Taylorsville; and

(D) $10,000,000 for improvements to the west side frontage roads adjacent to U.S. 40 between mile markers 7 and 10.

(b) The executive director may use fund money to exchange for an equal or greater amount of federal transportation funds to be used as provided in Subsection (4)(a).

(c) (i) Construction related to the project described in Subsection (4)(a)(ix)(D) may not commence until a right-of-way not owned by a federal agency that is required for the realignment and extension of U-111, as described in the department's 2023 environmental study related to the project, is dedicated to the department.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (4)(c)(i), if a right-of-way is not dedicated for the project as described in Subsection (4)(c)(i) on or before October 1, 2024, the department may proceed with the project, except that the project will be limited to two lanes on U-111 from Herriman Parkway to 11800 South.

(5) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(b), if the department receives a notice of ineligibility for a municipality as described in Subsection [~~10-9a-408(7)~~]10-9a-408(9), the executive director may not program fund money to a project prioritized by the commission under Section 72-1-304, including fund money from the Transit Transportation Investment Fund, within the boundaries of the municipality until the department receives notification from the Housing and Community Development Division within the Department of Workforce Services that ineligibility under this Subsection (5) no longer applies to the municipality.

(b) Within the boundaries of a municipality described in Subsection (5)(a), the executive director:

(i) may program fund money in accordance with Subsection (4)(a) for a limited-access facility or interchange connecting limited-access facilities;

(ii) may not program fund money for the construction, reconstruction, or renovation of an interchange on a limited-access facility;

(iii) may program Transit Transportation Investment Fund money for a multi-community fixed guideway public transportation project; and

(iv) may not program Transit Transportation Investment Fund money for the construction, reconstruction, or renovation of a station that is part of a fixed guideway public transportation project.

(c) Subsections (5)(a) and (b) do not apply to a project programmed by the executive director before July 1, 2022, for projects prioritized by the commission under Section 72-1-304.

(6) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (6)(b), if the department receives a notice of ineligibility for a county as described in Subsection [~~17-27a-408(7)~~]17-27a-408(9), the executive director may not program fund money to a project prioritized by the commission under Section 72-1-304, including fund money from the Transit Transportation Investment Fund, within the boundaries of the unincorporated area of the county until the department receives notification from the Housing and Community Development Division within the Department of Workforce Services that ineligibility under this Subsection (6) no longer applies to the county.

(b) Within the boundaries of the unincorporated area of a county described in Subsection (6)(a), the executive director:

(i) may program fund money in accordance with Subsection (4)(a) for a limited-access facility to a project prioritized by the commission under Section 72-1-304;

(ii) may not program fund money for the construction, reconstruction, or renovation of an interchange on a limited-access facility;

(iii) may program Transit Transportation Investment Fund money for a multi-community fixed guideway public transportation project; and

(iv) may not program Transit Transportation Investment Fund money for the construction, reconstruction, or renovation of a station that is part of a fixed guideway public transportation project.

(c) Subsections (6)(a) and (b) do not apply to a project programmed by the executive director before July 1, 2022, for projects prioritized by the commission under Section 72-1-304.

(7) (a) Before bonds authorized by Section 63B-18-401 or 63B-27-101 may be issued in any fiscal year, the department and the commission shall appear before the Executive Appropriations Committee of the Legislature and present the amount of bond proceeds that the department needs to provide funding for the projects identified in Subsections 63B-18-401(2), (3), and (4) or Subsection 63B-27-101(2) for the current or next fiscal year.

(b) The Executive Appropriations Committee of the Legislature shall review and comment on the amount of bond proceeds needed to fund the projects.

(8) The Division of Finance shall, from money deposited into the fund, transfer the amount of funds necessary to pay principal, interest, and issuance costs of bonds authorized by Section 63B-18-401 or 63B-27-101 in the current fiscal year to the appropriate debt service or sinking fund.

(9) (a) There is created in the Transportation Investment Fund of 2005 the Transit Transportation Investment Fund.

(b) The fund shall be funded by:

(i) contributions deposited into the fund in accordance with Section 59-12-103;

(ii) appropriations into the account by the Legislature;

(iii) deposits of sales and use tax increment related to a housing and transit reinvestment zone as described in Section 63N-3-610;

(iv) transfers of local option sales and use tax revenue as described in Subsection 59-12-2220(11)(b) or (c);

(v) private contributions; and

(vi) donations or grants from public or private entities.

(c) (i) The fund shall earn interest.

(ii) All interest earned on fund money shall be deposited into the fund.

(d) Subject to Subsection (9)(e), the commission may prioritize money from the fund:

(i) for public transit capital development of new capacity projects and fixed guideway capital development projects to be used as prioritized by the commission through the prioritization process adopted under Section 72-1-304;

(ii) to the department for oversight of a fixed guideway capital development project for which the department has responsibility; or

(iii) up to $500,000 per year, to be used for a public transit study.

(e) (i) Subject to Subsections (9)(g), (h), and (i), the commission may only prioritize money from the fund for a public transit capital development project or pedestrian or nonmotorized transportation project that provides connection to the public transit system if the public transit district or political subdivision provides funds of equal to or greater than 30% of the costs needed for the project.

(ii) A public transit district or political subdivision may use money derived from a loan granted pursuant to Title 72, Chapter 2, Part 2, State Infrastructure Bank Fund, to provide all or part of the 30% requirement described in Subsection (9)(e)(i) if:

(A) the loan is approved by the commission as required in Title 72, Chapter 2, Part 2, State Infrastructure Bank Fund; and

(B) the proposed capital project has been prioritized by the commission pursuant to Section 72-1-303.

(f) Before July 1, 2022, the department and a large public transit district shall enter into an agreement for a large public transit district to pay the department $5,000,000 per year for 15 years to be used to facilitate the purchase of zero emissions or low emissions rail engines and trainsets for regional public transit rail systems.

(g) For any revenue transferred into the fund pursuant to Subsection 59-12-2220(11)(b):

(i) the commission may prioritize money from the fund for public transit projects, operations, or maintenance within the county of the first class; and

(ii) Subsection (9)(e) does not apply.

(h) For any revenue transferred into the fund pursuant to Subsection 59-12-2220(11)(c):

(i) the commission may prioritize public transit projects, operations, or maintenance in the county from which the revenue was generated; and

(ii) Subsection (9)(e) does not apply.

(i) The requirement to provide funds equal to or greater than 30% of the costs needed for the project described in Subsection (9)(e) does not apply to a public transit capital development project or pedestrian or nonmotorized transportation project that the department proposes.

(j) In accordance with Part 3, Public Transit Innovation Grants, the commission may prioritize money from the fund for public transit innovation grants, as defined in Section 72-2-401, for public transit capital development projects requested by a political subdivision within a public transit district.

(10) (a) There is created in the Transportation Investment Fund of 2005 the Cottonwood Canyons Transportation Investment Fund.

(b) The fund shall be funded by:

(i) money deposited into the fund in accordance with Section 59-12-103;

(ii) appropriations into the account by the Legislature;

(iii) private contributions; and

(iv) donations or grants from public or private entities.

(c) (i) The fund shall earn interest.

(ii) All interest earned on fund money shall be deposited into the fund.

(d) The Legislature may appropriate money from the fund for public transit or transportation projects in the Cottonwood Canyons of Salt Lake County.

(e) The department may use up to 2% of the revenue deposited into the account under Subsection 59-12-103(7)(b) to contract with local governments as necessary for public safety enforcement related to the Cottonwood Canyons of Salt Lake County.

(11) (a) There is created in the Transportation Investment Fund of 2005 the Active Transportation Investment Fund.

(b) The fund shall be funded by:

(i) money deposited into the fund in accordance with Section 59-12-103;

(ii) appropriations into the account by the Legislature; and

(iii) donations or grants from public or private entities.

(c) (i) The fund shall earn interest.

(ii) All interest earned on fund money shall be deposited into the fund.

(d) The executive director may only use fund money to pay the costs needed for:

(i) the planning, design, construction, maintenance, reconstruction, or renovation of paved pedestrian or paved nonmotorized trail projects that:

(A) are prioritized by the commission through the prioritization process for new transportation capacity projects adopted under Section 72-1-304;

(B) serve a regional purpose; and

(C) are part of an active transportation plan approved by the department or the plan described in Subsection (11)(d)(ii);

(ii) the development of a plan for a statewide network of paved pedestrian or paved nonmotorized trails that serve a regional purpose; and

(iii) the administration of the fund, including staff and overhead costs.

(12) (a) As used in this Subsection (12), "commuter rail" means the same as that term is defined in Section 63N-3-602.

(b) There is created in the Transit Transportation Investment Fund the Commuter Rail Subaccount.

(c) The subaccount shall be funded by:

(i) contributions deposited into the subaccount in accordance with Section 59-12-103;

(ii) appropriations into the subaccount by the Legislature;

(iii) private contributions; and

(iv) donations or grants from public or private entities.

(d) (i) The subaccount shall earn interest.

(ii) All interest earned on money in the subaccount shall be deposited into the subaccount.

(e) As prioritized by the commission through the prioritization process adopted under Section 72-1-304 or as directed by the Legislature, the department may only use money from the subaccount for projects that improve the state's commuter rail infrastructure, including the building or improvement of grade-separated crossings between commuter rail lines and public highways.

(f) Appropriations made in accordance with this section are nonlapsing in accordance with Section 63J-1-602.1.

Section 19. Effective Date.

REPEALS:

17-41-102, as enacted by Laws of Utah 2024, Chapter 87

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 10-9a-901 is amended to read:

10-9a-901. Definitions.

As used in this part:

(1) "Commercial quantities," for purposes of this section, means critical infrastructure materials:

(a) extracted or processed by a commercial enterprise in the ordinary course of business; and

(b) in a sufficient amount that the critical infrastructure materials introduction into commerce would create a reasonable expectation of profit.

(2) "Contiguous land" means surface or subsurface land that shares a common boundary and is not separated by a highway as defined in Section 41-6a-102.

(3) "Critical infrastructure materials" means sand, gravel, or rock aggregate.

~~(2)~~ "Critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use" means the extraction, excavation, processing, or reprocessing of critical infrastructure materials.

~~(3)~~ "Critical infrastructure materials operator" means a natural person, corporation, association, partnership, receiver, trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, fiduciary, agent, or other organization or representative, either public or private, including a successor, assign, affiliate, subsidiary, and related parent company, that:

(a) owns, controls, or manages a critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use; and

(b) has produced commercial quantities of critical infrastructure materials from the critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use.

(6) "Existing legal use" means a critical infrastructure materials use that has operated in accordance with:

(a) a legal nonconforming use that has not been abandoned for more than 24 consecutive months; or

(b) a permit issued by the applicable political subdivision.

(7) "New land" means surface or subsurface land that a critical infrastructure materials operator gains ownership or control of on or before January 1, 2026, regardless of whether that land is included in any applicable permit issued by a political subdivision or a legal nonconforming use.

~~(4)~~ "Vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use" means a critical infrastructure materials [~~operations operating in accordance with a legal nonconforming use or a permit issued by the municipality that existed or was conducted or otherwise engaged in before.~~]use by a critical infrastructure materials operator that is an existing legal use.

[~~(a) a political subdivision prohibits, restricts, or otherwise limits the critical infrastructure materials operations; and~~]

[~~(b) January 1, 2019.~~]

Section 2. Section 10-9a-902 is amended to read:

10-9a-902. Vested critical infrastructure materials use -- Presumption.

(1) (a) [~~Critical~~]A critical infrastructure materials [~~operations operating in accordance with a legal nonconforming use or a permit issued by the municipality are conclusively~~]use is presumed to be a vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use if the critical infrastructure materials [~~operations permitted by the municipality, existed or was conducted or otherwise engaged in before January 1, 2019 and before when a political subdivision prohibits, restricts, or otherwise limits the critical infrastructure materials operations.~~]use meets the definition of vested critical infrastructure materials use in Section 10-9a-901.

(b) A person claiming that a vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations has been~~]use has not been established has the burden of proof to show by the preponderance of the evidence that the vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use has not been established.

(2) A vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use:

(a) runs with the land; and

(b) may be changed to another critical infrastructure materials [~~operations conducted within the scope of a legal nonconforming use or the permit for the vested critical infrastructure materials operations~~]use without losing its status as a vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use.

(3) The present or future boundary of the critical infrastructure materials use of a critical infrastructure materials operator with a vested critical infrastructure materials use does not limit:

(a) the scope of rights of a critical infrastructure materials operator with a vested critical infrastructure material use; or

(b) the protection for a critical infrastructure materials protection area.

(4) (a) A critical infrastructure operator with a vested critical infrastructure materials use shall file a declaration for recording in the office of the recorder of the county in which the vested critical infrastructure materials use is located.

(b) A declaration under Subsection (4)(a) shall:

(i) contain a legal description of the land included within the vested critical infrastructure materials use; and

(ii) provide notice of the vested critical infrastructure materials use.

Section 3. Section 10-9a-903 is amended to read:

10-9a-903. Rights of a critical infrastructure materials operator with a vested critical infrastructure materials use.

(1) Notwithstanding a political subdivision's prohibition, restriction, or other limitation on a critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use adopted after the establishment of the critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use, the rights of a critical infrastructure materials operator with a vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use include with respect to that existing legal use the right to:

(a) progress, extend, enlarge, grow, or expand the vested critical infrastructure materials use to any contiguous land that the critical infrastructure materials operator owns or controls before May 7, 2025;

(b) expand the vested critical infrastructure materials use to new land that is contiguous land to the surface or subsurface land on which the critical infrastructure materials operator has a vested critical infrastructure materials use, including the surface or subsurface land under Subsection (1)(a);

~~(1)~~ use, operate, construct, reconstruct, restore, extend, expand, maintain, repair, alter, substitute, modernize, upgrade, and replace equipment, processes, facilities, and buildings [~~; and~~]on any surface or subsurface land that the critical infrastructure materials operator owns or controls before May 7, 2025;

(d) on any surface or subsurface land that the critical infrastructure materials operator owns or controls before May 7, 2025:

(i) increase production or volume;

(ii) alter the method of extracting or processing, including with respect to the vested use, the right to stockpile or hold in reserve critical infrastructure materials, to recycle, and to batch and mix concrete and asphalt; and

(iii) extract or process a different or additional critical infrastructure material than previously extracted or processed on the surface or subsurface land; and

~~(2)~~ discontinue, suspend, terminate, deactivate, or continue and reactivate, temporarily or permanently, all or any part of the critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use.

(2) (a) As used in this Subsection (2), "applicable legislative body" means the legislative body of each:

(i) county in whose unincorporated area the new land to be included in the vested critical infrastructure materials use is located; or

(ii) municipality in which the new land to be included in the critical infrastructure materials use is located.

(b) A critical infrastructure materials operator with a vested critical infrastructure materials use is presumed to have a right to expand the vested critical infrastructure materials use to new land.

(c) Before expanding a vested critical infrastructure materials use to new land, a critical infrastructure materials operator shall provide written notice:

(i) of the critical infrastructure materials operator's intent to expand the vested critical infrastructure materials use; and

(ii) to each applicable legislative body.

(d) (i) An applicable legislative body shall:

(A) hold a public meeting or hearing at the applicable legislative body's next available meeting that is no later than 30 days after receiving the notice under Subsection (2)(c); and

(B) provide reasonable, advance, written notice of the intended expansion of the vested critical infrastructure materials use and the public meeting or hearing to each owner of the surface estate of the new land.

(ii) A public meeting or hearing under Subsection (2)(d)(i) serves to provide sufficient public notice of the critical infrastructure materials operator's intent to expand the vested critical infrastructure materials use to the new land.

(e) After the public meeting or hearing under Subsection (2)(d)(i), a critical infrastructure materials operator may expand a vested critical infrastructure materials use to new land without any action by an applicable legislative body, unless the applicable legislative body finds by the preponderance of the evidence on the record that the expansion to new land will endanger the public health, safety, and welfare. If the applicable legislative body makes the finding of endangerment described in this Subsection (2)(e), Subsection (4) applies.

(3) If a critical infrastructure materials operator expands a vested critical infrastructure materials use to new land, as authorized under this section:

(a) the critical infrastructure materials operator's rights under the vested critical infrastructure materials use with respect to land on which the vested critical infrastructure materials use occurs apply with equal force after the expansion to the new land; and

(b) the critical infrastructure materials protection area that includes land on which the vested critical infrastructure materials use occurs is expanded to include the new land.

(4) (a) If the applicable legislative body makes the finding of endangerment described in Subsection (2)(e):

(i) the critical infrastructure materials operator shall submit to the applicable legislative body the critical infrastructure materials operator's plan for expansion under this section;

(ii) by no later than 90 days after receipt of the plan for expansion described in Subsection (4)(a)(i), the applicable legislative body shall notify the operator of:

(A) evidence that the expansion to new land will endanger the public health, safety, and welfare; and

(B) proposed measures to mitigate the endangerment of the public health, safety, and welfare; and

(iii) the applicable legislative body shall hold a public hearing by no later than 30 days after the date the applicable legislative body complies with Subsection (4)(a)(ii) to present mitigation measures proposed under Subsection (4)(a)(ii).

(b) The applicable legislative body may impose mitigation measures under this Subsection (4) that are reasonable and do not exceed requirements imposed by permits issued by a state agency such as an air quality permit.

(c) A political subdivision may not prohibit the expansion of a vested critical infrastructure materials use if the critical infrastructure materials operator agrees to comply with the mitigation measures described in Subsection (4)(b).

(d) The process under this Subsection (4) is not a land use application or conditional use application under this chapter.

Section 4. Section 10-9a-905 is amended to read:

10-9a-905. Abandonment of a vested critical infrastructure materials use.

(1) A critical infrastructure materials operator may abandon some or all of a vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use only as provided in this section.

(2) To abandon some or all of a vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use, a critical infrastructure materials operator shall record a written declaration of abandonment with the recorder of the county in which the vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use being abandoned is located.

(3) The written declaration of abandonment under Subsection (2) shall specify the vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use or the portion of the vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use being abandoned.

Section 5. Section 17-27a-1001 is amended to read:

17-27a-1001. Definitions.

As used in this part:

(1) "Commercial quantities," for purposes of this section, means critical infrastructure materials:

(a) extracted or processed by a commercial enterprise in the ordinary course of business; and

(b) in a sufficient amount that the critical infrastructure materials introduction into commerce would create a reasonable expectation of profit.

(2) "Contiguous land" means surface or subsurface land that shares a common boundary and is not separated by a highway as defined in Section 41-6a-102.

(3) "Critical infrastructure materials" means sand, gravel, or rock aggregate.

~~(2)~~ "Critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use" means the extraction, excavation, processing, or reprocessing of critical infrastructure materials.

~~(3)~~ "Critical infrastructure materials operator" means a natural person, corporation, association, partnership, receiver, trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, fiduciary, agent, or other organization or representative, either public or private, including a successor, assign, affiliate, subsidiary, and related parent company, that:

(a) owns, controls, or manages a critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use; and

(b) has produced commercial quantities of critical infrastructure materials from the critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use.

(6) "Existing legal use" means a critical infrastructure materials use that has operated in accordance with:

(a) a legal nonconforming use that has not been abandoned for more than 24 consecutive months; or

(b) a permit issued by the applicable political subdivision.

(7) "New land" means surface or subsurface land that a critical infrastructure materials operator gains ownership or control of on or before January 1, 2026, regardless of whether that land is included in any applicable permit issued by a political subdivision or a legal nonconforming use.

~~(4)~~ "Vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use" means a critical infrastructure materials operations [~~operating in~~

~~accordance with a legal nonconforming use or a permit issued by the county that existed or was conducted or otherwise engaged in before:~~]

[~~(a) a political subdivision prohibits, restricts, or otherwise limits the critical infrastructure materials operations; and~~]

[~~(b) January 1, 2019~~]use by a critical infrastructure materials operator that is an existing legal use.

Section 6. Section 17-27a-1002 is amended to read:

17-27a-1002. Vested critical infrastructure materials use-- Presumption.

(1) (a) [~~Critical~~]A critical infrastructure materials [~~operations operating in accordance with a legal nonconforming use or a permit issued by the county are conclusively~~]use is presumed to be a vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use if the critical infrastructure materials [~~operations permitted by the county, existed or was conducted or otherwise engaged in before January 1, 2019 and before when a political subdivision prohibits, restricts, or otherwise limits the critical infrastructure materials operations.~~]use meets the definition of vested critical infrastructure materials use as defined in Section 17-27a-1001.

(b) A person claiming that a vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations has been~~]use has not been established has the burden of proof to show by the preponderance of the evidence that the vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations has been~~]use has not been established.

(2) A vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use:

(a) runs with the land; and

(b) may be changed to another critical infrastructure materials [~~operations conducted within the scope of a legal nonconforming use or the permit for the vested critical infrastructure materials operations~~]use without losing its status as a vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use.

(3) The present or future boundary of the critical infrastructure materials use of a critical infrastructure materials operator with a vested critical infrastructure materials use does not limit:

(a) the scope of rights of a critical infrastructure materials operator with a vested critical infrastructure material use; or

(b) the protection for a critical infrastructure materials protection area.

(4) (a) A critical infrastructure operator with a vested critical infrastructure materials use shall file a declaration for recording in the office of the recorder of the county in which the vested critical infrastructure materials use is located.

(b) A declaration under Subsection (4)(a) shall:

(i) contain a legal description of the land included within the vested critical infrastructure materials use; and

(ii) provide notice of the vested critical infrastructure materials use.

Section 7. Section 17-27a-1003 is amended to read:

17-27a-1003. Rights of a critical infrastructure materials operator with a vested critical infrastructure materials use.

(1) Notwithstanding a political subdivision's prohibition, restriction, or other limitation on a critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use adopted after the establishment of the critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use, the rights of a critical infrastructure materials operator with a vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use include with respect to that existing legal use the right to:

(a) progress, extend, enlarge, grow, or expand the vested critical infrastructure materials use to any contiguous land that the critical infrastructure materials operator owns or controls before May 7, 2025;

(b) expand the vested critical infrastructure materials use to new land that is contiguous land to the surface or subsurface land on which the critical infrastructure materials operator has a vested critical infrastructure materials use, including the surface or subsurface land under Subsection (1)(a);

~~(1)~~ use, operate, construct, reconstruct, restore, extend, expand, maintain, repair, alter, substitute, modernize, upgrade, and replace equipment, processes, facilities, and buildings[~~; and~~], on any surface or subsurface land that the critical infrastructure materials operator owns or controls before May 7, 2025;

(d) on any surface or subsurface land that the critical infrastructure materials operator owns or controls before May 7, 2025:

(i) increase production or volume;

(ii) alter the method of extracting or processing, including with respect to the vested use, the right to stockpile or hold in reserve critical infrastructure materials, to recycle, and to batch and mix concrete and asphalt; and

(iii) extract or process a different or additional critical infrastructure material than previously extracted or processed on the surface or subsurface land; and

~~(2)~~ discontinue, suspend, terminate, deactivate, or continue and reactivate, temporarily or permanently, all or any part of the critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use.

(2) (a) As used in this Subsection (2), "applicable legislative body" means the legislative body of each:

(i) county in whose unincorporated area the new land to be included in the vested critical infrastructure materials use is located; or

(ii) municipality in which the new land to be included in the critical infrastructure use is located.

(b) A critical infrastructure materials operator with a vested critical infrastructure materials use is presumed to have a right to expand the vested critical infrastructure materials use to new land.

(c) Before expanding a vested critical infrastructure materials use to new land, a critical infrastructure materials operator shall provide written notice:

(i) of the critical infrastructure materials operator's intent to expand the vested critical infrastructure materials use; and

(ii) to each applicable legislative body.

(d) (i) An applicable legislative body shall:

(A) hold a public meeting or hearing at the applicable legislative body's next available meeting that is no later than 30 days after receiving the notice under Subsection (2)(c); and

(B) provide reasonable, advance, written notice of the intended expansion of the vested critical infrastructure materials use and the public meeting or hearing to each owner of the surface estate of the new land.

(ii) A public meeting or hearing under Subsection (2)(d)(i) serves to provide sufficient public notice of the critical infrastructure materials operator's intent to expand the vested critical infrastructure materials use to the new land.

(e) After the public meeting or hearing under Subsection (2)(d)(i), a critical infrastructure materials operator may expand a vested critical infrastructure materials use to new land without any action by an applicable legislative body, unless the applicable legislative body finds by the preponderance of the evidence on the record that the expansion to new land will endanger the public health, safety, and welfare. If the applicable legislative body makes the finding of endangerment described in this Subsection (2)(e), Subsection (4) applies.

(3) If a critical infrastructure materials operator expands a vested critical infrastructure materials use to new land, as authorized under this section:

(a) the critical infrastructure materials operator's rights under the vested critical infrastructure materials use with respect to land on which the vested critical infrastructure materials use occurs apply with equal force after the expansion to the new land; and

(b) the critical infrastructure materials protection area that includes land on which the vested critical infrastructure materials use occurs is expanded to include the new land.

(4) (a) If the applicable legislative body makes the finding of endangerment described in Subsection (2)(e):

(i) the critical infrastructure materials operator shall submit to the applicable legislative body the critical infrastructure materials operator's plan for expansion under this section;

(ii) by no later than 90 days after receipt of the plan for expansion described in Subsection (4)(a)(i), the applicable legislative body shall notify the operator of:

(A) evidence that the expansion to new land will endanger the public health, safety, and welfare; and

(B) proposed measures to mitigate the endangerment of the public health, safety, and welfare; and

(iii) the applicable legislative body shall hold a public hearing by no later than 30 days after the date the applicable legislative body complies with Subsection (4)(a)(ii) to present mitigation measures proposed under Subsection (4)(a)(ii).

(b) The applicable legislative body may impose mitigation measures under this Subsection (4) that are reasonable and do not exceed requirements imposed by permits issued by a state agency such as an air quality permit.

(c) A political subdivision may not prohibit the expansion of a vested critical infrastructure materials use if the critical infrastructure materials operator agrees to comply with the mitigation measures described in Subsection (4)(b).

(d) The process under this Subsection (4) is not a land use application or conditional use application under this chapter.

Section 8. Section 17-27a-1005 is amended to read:

17-27a-1005. Abandonment of a vested critical infrastructure materials use.

(1) A critical infrastructure materials operator may abandon some or all of a vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use only as provided in this section.

(2) To abandon some or all of a vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use, a critical infrastructure materials operator shall record a written declaration of abandonment with the recorder of the county in which the vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use being abandoned is located.

(3) The written declaration of abandonment under Subsection (2) shall specify the vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use or the portion of the vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use being abandoned.

Section 9. Section 17-41-101 is amended to read:

17-41-101. Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Advisory board" means:

(a) for an agriculture protection area, the agriculture protection area advisory board created as provided in Section 17-41-201;

(b) for an industrial protection area, the industrial protection area advisory board created as provided in Section 17-41-201; and

(c) for a critical infrastructure materials protection area, the critical infrastructure materials protection area advisory board created as provided in Section 17-41-201.

(2) (a) "Agriculture production" means production for commercial purposes of crops, livestock, and livestock products.

(b) "Agriculture production" includes the processing or retail marketing of any crops, livestock, and livestock products when more than 50% of the processed or merchandised products are produced by the farm operator.

(3) "Agriculture protection area" means a geographic area created under the authority of this chapter that is granted the specific legal protections contained in this chapter.

(4) "Applicable legislative body" means:

(a) with respect to a proposed agriculture protection area, industrial protection area, or critical infrastructure materials protection area:

(i) the legislative body of the county in which the land proposed to be included in the relevant protection area is located, if the land is within the unincorporated part of the county; or

(ii) the legislative body of the city or town in which the land proposed to be included in the relevant protection area is located; and

(b) with respect to an existing agriculture protection area, industrial protection area, or critical infrastructure materials protection area:

(i) the legislative body of the county in which the relevant protection area is located, if the relevant protection area is within the unincorporated part of the county; or

(ii) the legislative body of the city or town in which the relevant protection area is located.

(5) "Board" means the Board of Oil, Gas, and Mining created in Section 40-6-4.

(6) "Critical infrastructure materials" means sand, gravel, or rock aggregate.

(7) "Critical infrastructure materials operations" means the extraction, excavation, processing, or reprocessing of critical infrastructure materials.

(8) "Critical infrastructure materials operator" means a natural person, corporation, association, partnership, receiver, trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, fiduciary, agent, or other organization or representative, either public or private, including a successor, assign, affiliate, subsidiary, and related parent company, that:

(a) owns, controls, or manages a critical infrastructure materials operation; and

(b) has produced commercial quantities of critical infrastructure materials from the critical infrastructure materials operations.

(9) "Critical infrastructure materials protection area" means a geographic area created under the authority of this chapter on or after

May 14, 2019, that is granted the specific legal protections contained in this chapter.

(10) "Crops, livestock, and livestock products" includes:

(a) land devoted to the raising of useful plants and animals with a reasonable expectation of profit, including:

(i) forages and sod crops;

(ii) grains and feed crops;

(iii) livestock as defined in Section 59-2-102;

(iv) trees and fruits; or

(v) vegetables, nursery, floral, and ornamental stock; or

(b) land devoted to and meeting the requirements and qualifications for payments or other compensation under a crop-land retirement program with an agency of the state or federal government.

(11) "Division" means the Division of Oil, Gas, and Mining created in Section 40-6-15.

(12) "Industrial protection area" means a geographic area created under the authority of this chapter that is granted the specific legal protections contained in this chapter.

(13) "Mine operator" means a natural person, corporation, association, partnership, receiver, trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, fiduciary, agent, or other organization or representative, either public or private, including a successor, assign, affiliate, subsidiary, and related parent company, that, [~~as of~~]before January 1, 2019:

(a) owns, controls, or manages a mining use under a large mine permit issued by the division or the board; and

(b) has produced commercial quantities of a mineral deposit from the mining use.

(14) "Mineral deposit" means the same as that term is defined in Section 40-8-4.

(15) "Mining protection area" means land where a vested mining use occurs, including each surface or subsurface land or mineral estate that a mine operator with a vested mining use owns or controls on January 1, 2026.

(16) "Mining use":

(a) means:

(i) the full range of activities, from prospecting and exploration to reclamation and closure, associated with the exploitation of a mineral deposit; and

(ii) the use of the surface and subsurface and groundwater and surface water of an area in connection with the activities described in Subsection (16)(a)(i) that have been, are being, or will be conducted; and

(b) includes, whether conducted on-site or off-site:

(i) any sampling, staking, surveying, exploration, or development activity;

(ii) any drilling, blasting, excavating, or tunneling;

(iii) the removal, transport, treatment, deposition, and reclamation of overburden, development rock, tailings, and other waste material;

(iv) any removal, transportation, extraction, beneficiation, or processing of ore;

(v) any smelting, refining, autoclaving, or other primary or secondary processing operation;

(vi) the recovery of any mineral left in residue from a previous extraction or processing operation;

(vii) a mining activity that is identified in a work plan or permitting document;

(viii) the use, operation, maintenance, repair, replacement, or alteration of a building, structure, facility, equipment, machine, tool, or other material or property that results from or is used in a surface or subsurface mining operation or activity;

(ix) any accessory, incidental, or ancillary activity or use, both active and passive, including a utility, private way or road, pipeline, land excavation, working, embankment, pond, gravel excavation, mining waste, conveyor, power line, trackage, storage, reserve, passive use area, buffer zone, and power production facility;

(x) the construction of a storage, factory, processing, or maintenance facility; and

(xi) an activity described in Subsection 40-8-4(19)(a).

(17) (a) "Municipal" means of or relating to a city or town.

(b) "Municipality" means a city or town.

(18) "New land" means surface or subsurface land or mineral estate that a mine operator gains ownership or control of, whether that land or mineral estate is included in the mine operator's large mine permit.

(19) "Off-site" means the same as that term is defined in Section 40-8-4.

(20) "On-site" means the same as that term is defined in Section 40-8-4.

(21) "Planning commission" means:

(a) a countywide planning commission if the land proposed to be included in the agriculture protection area, industrial protection area, or critical infrastructure materials protection area is within the unincorporated part of the county and not within a planning advisory area;

(b) a planning advisory area planning commission if the land proposed to be included in the agriculture protection area, industrial protection area, or critical infrastructure materials protection area is within a planning advisory area; or

(c) a planning commission of a city or town if the land proposed to be included in the agriculture protection area, industrial protection area, or critical infrastructure materials protection area is within a city or town.

(22) "Political subdivision" means a county, city, town, school district, special district, or special service district.

(23) "Proposal sponsors" means the owners of land in agricultural production, industrial use, or critical infrastructure materials operations who are sponsoring the proposal for creating an agriculture protection area, industrial protection area, or critical infrastructure materials protection area.

(24) "State agency" means each department, commission, board, council, agency, institution, officer, corporation, fund, division, office, committee, authority, laboratory, library, unit, bureau, panel, or other administrative unit of the state.

(25) "Unincorporated" means not within a city or town.

(26) "Vested mining use" means a mining use:

(a) by a mine operator; and

(b) that existed or was conducted or otherwise engaged in before a political subdivision prohibits, restricts, or otherwise limits a mining use.

Section 10. Section 17-41-402 is amended to read:

17-41-402. Limitations on local regulations.

(1) A political subdivision within which an agriculture protection area, industrial protection area, or critical infrastructure materials protection area is created or with a mining protection area within its boundary shall encourage the continuity, development, and viability of agriculture use, industrial use, critical infrastructure materials operations, or mining use, within the relevant protection area by not enacting a local law, ordinance, or regulation that, unless the law, ordinance, or regulation bears a direct relationship to public health or safety, would unreasonably restrict:

(a) in the case of an agriculture protection area, a farm structure or farm practice;

(b) in the case of an industrial protection area, an industrial use of the land within the area;

(c) in the case of a critical infrastructure materials protection area, critical infrastructure materials operations; or

(d) in the case of a mining protection area, a mining use within the protection area.

(2) A political subdivision may not change the zoning designation of or a zoning regulation affecting land within an agriculture protection area unless the political subdivision receives written approval for the change from all the landowners within the agriculture protection area affected by the change.

(3) Except as provided by Section 19-4-113, a political subdivision may not change the zoning designation of or a zoning regulation affecting land within an industrial protection area unless the political subdivision receives written approval for the change from all the landowners within the industrial protection area affected by the change.

(4) A political subdivision may not change the zoning designation of or a zoning regulation affecting land within a critical infrastructure materials protection area unless the political subdivision receives written approval for the change from each critical infrastructure materials operator within the relevant area.

(5) A political subdivision may not change the zoning designation of or a zoning regulation affecting land within a mining protection area unless the political subdivision receives written approval for the change from each mine operator within the area.

(6) A county, city, or town may not:

(a) adopt, enact, or amend an existing land use regulation, ordinance, or regulation that would prohibit, restrict, regulate, or otherwise limit critical infrastructure materials operations [~~, including~~]with a vested critical infrastructure materials [~~operations~~]use as defined in Section 10-9a-901 or 17-27a-1001; or

(b) initiate proceedings to amend the county's, city's, or town's land use ordinances as described in Subsection 10-9a-509(1)(a)(ii) or 17-27a-508(1)(a)(ii) as it regards the rights of a critical infrastructure materials operator with a vested critical infrastructure materials use.

Section 11. Section 17-41-502 is amended to read:

17-41-502. Rights of a mine operator with a vested mining use -- Expanding vested mining use.

(1) Notwithstanding a political subdivision's prohibition, restriction, or other limitation on a mining use adopted after the establishment of the mining use, the rights of a mine operator with a vested mining use include the rights to:

(a) progress, extend, enlarge, grow, or expand the vested mining use to any surface or subsurface land or mineral estate that the mine operator owns or controls;

(b) expand the vested mining use to any new land that:

(i) is contiguous and related in mineralization to surface or subsurface land or a mineral estate that the mine operator already owns or controls;

(ii) contains minerals that are part of the same mineral trend as the minerals that the mine operator already owns or controls; or

(iii) is a geologic offshoot to surface or subsurface land or a mineral estate that the mine operator already owns or controls;

(c) use, operate, construct, reconstruct, restore, extend, expand, maintain, repair, alter, substitute, modernize, upgrade, and replace equipment, processes, facilities, and buildings on any surface or subsurface land or mineral estate that the mine operator owns or controls;

(d) increase production or volume, alter the method of mining or processing, and mine or process a different or additional mineral than previously mined or owned on any surface or subsurface land or mineral estate that the mine operator owns or controls; and

(e) discontinue, suspend, terminate, deactivate, or continue and reactivate, temporarily or permanently, all or any part of the mining use.

(2) (a) As used in this Subsection (2), "applicable legislative body" means the legislative body of each:

(i) county in whose unincorporated area the new land to be included in the vested mining use is located; and

(ii) municipality in which the new land to be included in the vested mining use is located.

(b) A mine operator with a vested mining use is presumed to have a right to expand the vested mining use to new land.

(c) Before expanding a vested mining use to new land, a mine operator shall provide written notice:

(i) of the mine operator's intent to expand the vested mining use; and

(ii) to each applicable legislative body.

(d) (i) An applicable legislative body shall:

(A) hold a public meeting or hearing at its next available meeting that is more than 10 days after receiving the notice under Subsection (2)(c); and

(B) provide reasonable, advance, written notice:

(I) of:

(Aa) the intended expansion of the vested mining use; and

(Bb) the public meeting or hearing; and

(II) to each owner of the surface estate of the new land.

(ii) A public meeting or hearing under Subsection (2)(d)(i) serves to provide sufficient public notice of the mine operator's intent to expand the vested mining use to the new land.

(e) After the public meeting or hearing under Subsection (2)(d)(ii), a mine operator may expand a vested mining use to new land without any action by an applicable legislative body, unless the applicable legislative body finds that there is clear and convincing evidence in the record that the expansion to new land will imminently endanger the public health, safety, and welfare. If the applicable legislative body makes the finding of endangerment described in this Subsection (2)(e), Subsection (4) applies.

(3) If a mine operator expands a vested mining use to new land, as authorized under this section:

(a) the mine operator's rights under the vested mining use with respect to land on which the vested mining use occurs apply with equal force after the expansion to the new land; and

(b) the mining protection area that includes land on which the vested mining use occurs is expanded to include the new land.

(4) (a) If the applicable legislative body makes the finding of endangerment described in Subsection (2)(e):

(i) the mining operator shall submit to the applicable legislative body the mining operator's plan for expansion under this section;

(ii) by no later than 30 days after receipt of the plan for expansion described in Subsection (4)(a)(i), the applicable legislative body shall notify the operator of:

(A) evidence that the expansion to new land will endanger the public health, safety, and welfare; and

(B) proposed measures to mitigate the endangerment of the public health, safety, and welfare; and

(iii) the applicable legislative body shall hold a public hearing by no later than 30 days after the date the applicable legislative body complies with Subsection (4)(a)(ii) to present mitigation measures proposed under Subsection (4)(a)(ii).

(b) The applicable legislative body may impose mitigation measures under this Subsection (4) that are reasonable and do not exceed requirements imposed by permits issued by a state agency such as an air quality permit.

(c) A political subdivision may not prohibit the expansion of a vested mining use if the mining operator agrees to comply with the mitigation measures described in Subsection (4)(b).

(d) The process under this Subsection (4) is not a land use application or conditional use application under Title 10, Chapter 9a, Municipal Land Use, Development, and Management Act, or Chapter 27a, County Land Use, Development, and Management Act.

Section 12. Section 78B-6-1101 is amended to read:

78B-6-1101. Definitions -- Nuisance -- Right of action -- Agriculture operations.

(1) A nuisance is anything that is injurious to health, indecent, offensive to the senses, or an obstruction to the free use of property, so as to interfere with the comfortable enjoyment of life or property. A nuisance may be the subject of an action.

(2) A nuisance may include the following:

(a) drug houses and drug dealing as provided in Section 78B-6-1107;

(b) gambling as provided in Title 76, Chapter 10, Part 11, Gambling;

(c) criminal activity committed in concert with three or more persons as provided in Section 76-3-203.1;

(d) criminal activity committed for the benefit of, at the direction of, or in association with any criminal street gang as defined in Section 76-9-802;

(e) criminal activity committed to gain recognition, acceptance, membership, or increased status with a criminal street gang as defined in Section 76-9-802;

(f) party houses that frequently create conditions defined in Subsection (1); and

(g) prostitution as provided in Title 76, Chapter 10, Part 13, Prostitution.

(3) A nuisance under this part includes tobacco smoke that drifts into a residential unit a person rents, leases, or owns, from another residential or commercial unit and the smoke:

(a) drifts in more than once in each of two or more consecutive seven-day periods; and

(b) creates any of the conditions under Subsection (1).

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to:

(a) a residential rental unit available for temporary rental, such as for a vacation, or available for only 30 or fewer days at a time; or

(b) a hotel or motel room.

(5) Subsection (3) does not apply to a unit that is part of a timeshare development, as defined in Section 57-19-2, or subject to a timeshare interest as defined in Section 57-19-2.

(6) An action may be brought by a person whose property is injuriously affected, or whose personal enjoyment is lessened by the nuisance.

(7) An action for nuisance against an agricultural operation is governed by Title 4, Chapter 44, Agricultural Operations Nuisances Act.

(8) "Critical infrastructure materials operations" means the same as [~~that term~~]the term "critical infrastructure materials use" is defined in Section 10-9a-901.

(9) "Manufacturing facility" means a factory, plant, or other facility including its appurtenances, where the form of raw materials, processed materials, commodities, or other physical objects is converted or otherwise changed into other materials, commodities, or physical objects or where such materials, commodities, or physical objects are combined to form a new material, commodity, or physical object.

Section 13. Repealer.

This bill repeals:

Section 17-41-102, Study of critical infrastructure materials operations and related mining.

Section 14. Effective Date.

This bill takes effect on May 7, 2025.

SCHOOL SAFETY AMENDMENTS

Chief Sponsor: Ryan D. Wilcox
Senate Sponsor: Ann Millner

LONG TITLE

General Description:

This bill modifies school safety provisions.

Highlighted Provisions:

This bill:

- ► defines terms;
- ► modifies communication device requirements for new construction to post-completion determination;
- ► revises screening and training requirements for school safety personnel;
- ► adjusts school safety personnel provisions;
- ► changes safety assessment deadlines and frequency;
- ► establishes a school safety foundation for certain purposes;
- ► creates compliance supports;
- ► modifies certain administrative structures within the school safety program; and
- ► makes technical changes.

Money Appropriated in this Bill:

This bill appropriates $25,000,000 in operating and capital budgets for fiscal year 2026, all of which is from the various sources as detailed in this bill.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 15A-5-203 is amended to read:

15A-5-203. Amendments and additions to IFC related to fire safety, building, and site requirements.

(1) For IFC, Chapter 5, Fire Service Features:

(a) In IFC, Chapter 5, a new Section 501.5, Access grade and fire flow, is added as follows:" An authority having jurisdiction over a structure built in accordance with the requirements of the International Residential Code as adopted in the State Construction Code, may require an automatic fire sprinkler system for the structure only by ordinance and only if any of the following conditions exist:

(i) the structure:

(A) is located in an urban-wildland interface area as provided in the Utah Wildland Urban Interface Code adopted as a construction code under the State Construction Code; and

(B) does not meet the requirements described in Utah Code, Subsection 65A-8-203(4)(a) and Utah Administrative Code, R652-122-1300, Minimum Standards for County Wildland Fire Ordinance;

(ii) the structure is in an area where a public water distribution system with fire hydrants does not exist as required in Utah Administrative Code, R309-550-5, Water Main Design;

(iii) the only fire apparatus access road has a grade greater than 10% for more than 500 continual feet;

(iv) the total floor area of all floor levels within the exterior walls of the dwelling unit exceeds 10,000 square feet; or

(v) the total floor area of all floor levels within the exterior walls of the dwelling unit is double the average of the total floor area of all floor levels of unsprinkled homes in the subdivision that are no larger than 10,000 square feet.

(vi) Exception: A single family dwelling does not require a fire sprinkler system if the dwelling:

(A) is located outside the wildland urban interface;

(B) is built in a one-lot subdivision; and

(C) has 50 feet of defensible space on all sides that limits the propensity of fire spreading from the dwelling to another property."

(b) In IFC, Chapter 5, Section 506.1, Where Required, is deleted and rewritten as follows: "Where access to or within a structure or an area is restricted because of secured openings or where immediate access is necessary for life-saving or fire-fighting purposes, the fire code official, after consultation with the building owner, may require a key box to be installed in an approved location. The key box shall contain keys to gain necessary access as required by the fire code official. For each fire jurisdiction that has at least one building with a required key box, the fire jurisdiction shall adopt an ordinance, resolution, or other operating rule or policy that creates a process to ensure that each key to each key box is properly accounted for and secure."

(c) In IFC, Chapter 5, a new Section 507.1.1, Isolated one- and two-family dwellings, is added as follows: "Fire flow may be reduced for an isolated one- and two-family dwelling when the authority having jurisdiction over the dwelling determines that the development of a full fire-flow requirement is impractical."

(d) In IFC, Chapter 5, a new Section 507.1.2, Pre-existing subdivision lots, is added as follows:

"507.1.2 Pre-existing subdivision lots.

The requirements for a pre-existing subdivision lot shall not exceed the requirements described in Section 501.5."

(e) In IFC, Chapter 5, Section 507.5.1, here required, a new exception is added: "3. One interior and one detached accessory dwelling unit on a single residential lot."

(f) (i) IFC, Chapter 5, Section 510.1, Emergency responder communication coverage in new buildings, is amended by adding: "When required by the fire code official, unless the new building is a public school as that term is defined in Section 53G-9-205.1 or a private school, [~~then~~]if determined by the fire code official to be necessary after construction of the new building is completed, then the fire code official shall require," at the beginning of the first paragraph.

(ii) For public and private schools, an initial radio coverage test must be conducted by a qualified professional using appropriate testing equipment, and a report of the results must be submitted to the fire code official. Subsequent routine testing may be conducted by the fire code official using basic equipment. The fire code official may require additional professional testing if routine testing indicates potential issues with radio coverage.

(2) For IFC, Chapter 6, Building Services and Systems:

(a) IFC, Chapter 6, Section 604.6.1, Elevator key location, is deleted and rewritten as follows: "Firefighter service keys shall be kept in a "Supra-Stor-a-key" elevator key box or similar box with corresponding key system that is adjacent to the elevator for immediate use by the fire department. The key box shall contain one key for each elevator, one key for lobby control, and any other keys necessary for emergency service. The elevator key box shall be accessed using a 6049 numbered key."

(b) IFC, Chapter 6, Section 606.1, General, is amended as follows: On line three, after the word "Code", add the words "and NFPA 96".

(c) IFC, Chapter 6, Section 607.2, a new exception 5 is added as follows: "5. A Type 1 hood is not required for a cooking appliance in a microenterprise home kitchen, as that term is defined in Utah Code, Section 26B-7-401, for which the operator obtains a permit in accordance with Section 26B-7-416."

(3) IFC, Chapter 7, Fire and Smoke Protection Features, Section 702.5, is deleted.

Section 2. Section 53-22-102 is amended to read:

53-22-102. State security chief -- Creation -- Appointment.

(1) There is created within the department a state security chief.

(2) The state security chief:

(a) is appointed by the commissioner with the approval of the governor;

(b) is subject to the supervision and control of the commissioner;

(c) may be removed at the will of the commissioner;

(d) shall be qualified by experience and education to:

(i) enforce the laws of this state relating to school safety;

(D) internal classroom door locks;

(E) bleed kits and first aid kits;

(F) exterior cameras on entrances, parking areas, and campus grounds; and

(G) fencing around playgrounds or supervised parameters using existing and adequate staffing to monitor in consultation with the county security chief;

(ii) establishing a schedule or timeline for existing buildings to come into compliance with this section;

(iii) creating a process to examine plans and specifications for construction or remodeling of a school building, in accordance with Section 53E-3-706;

(iv) recommending to the commissioner the denial or revocation a public or private school's occupancy permit for a building if:

(A) the building does not meet the standards established in this section; and

(B) after consultation with the local governing board, the building remains non-compliant with the standards established in this section;

(v) creating minimum standards for radio communication equipment in every school; and

(vi) establishing a process to approve the safety and security criteria the state superintendent of public instruction establishes for building inspectors described in Section 53E-3-706;

(b) oversee the implementation of the school safety personnel requirements described in Section 53G-8-701.5, including:

(i) in consultation with a county security chief, overseeing the school guardian program described in Section 53-22-105, including approving and coordinating the relevant training programs;

(ii) establishing an application process for approved alternatives to the school safety personnel requirements described in Section 53G-8-701.5;

(iii) selecting training requirements for school safety and security specialists in consultation with the State Board of Education as described in Section 53G-8-701.6;

(iv) as required by Section 53G-8-701.8, tracking each school safety and security director for a local education agency and ensuring that the contact information for the school safety and security directors is readily available to the local law enforcement agency of relevant jurisdiction; and

(v) reviewing and approving the State Board of Education's school resource officer training program as described in Section 53G-8-702;

(c) oversee the creation of school safety trainings, protocols, and incident responses, including:

(i) in consultation with the State Board of Education, defining what constitutes an "active threat" and "developmentally appropriate" for purposes of the emergency response training described in Section 53G-8-803;

(ii) in consultation with the Office of Substance Abuse and Mental Health, establishing or selecting an adolescent mental health and de-escalation training for school safety personnel;

(iii) consulting with the School Safety Center to develop the model critical incident response that all schools and law enforcement will use during a threat, including:

(A) standardized response protocol terminology for use throughout the state, including what constitutes a threat;

(B) protocols for planning and safety drills, including drills required in a school before the school year begins;

(C) integration and appropriate use of a panic alert device described in Subsection 53G-8-805;

(D) the establishment of incident command for a threat or safety incident, including which entity and individual runs the incident command;

(E) the required components for a communication plan to be followed during an incident or threat;

(F) reunification plan protocols, including the appropriate design and use of an incident command by others responding to or involved in an incident; and

(G) recommendations for safety equipment for schools, including amounts and types of first aid supplies;

(iv) reviewing and suggesting any changes to the response plans and training under Section 53G-8-803;

(v) creating the official standard response protocol described in Section 53G-8-803 for use by schools and law enforcement for school safety incidents; and

(vi) establishing a manner for any security personnel described in Section 53G-8-701.5 to be quickly identified by law enforcement during an incident;

(d) in consultation with the School Safety Center established in Section 53G-8-802:

(i) create a process to receive and analyze the school safety needs assessments described in Section 53G-8-701.5; and

(ii) establish a required data reporting system for public schools to report serious and non-serious threats and other data related to threat assessment that the state security chief determines to be necessary; and

(e) fulfill any other duties and responsibilities determined by the commissioner.

(4) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the department, in consultation with the state security chief, shall make rules to fulfill the duties described in this section.

(5) The state security chief may delegate duties under this section to a sworn department member with the approval of the commissioner.

(6) (a) A school building shall come into compliance with window protection requirements in Subsection (3)(a) by:

(i) for schools located in a county of the first or second class, secure exterior windows surrounding only the immediate entryways by July 1, 2035;

(ii) for schools located in a county of the third, fourth, fifth, or sixth class, secure exterior windows surrounding only the immediate entryways by July 1, 2040; and

(iii) for all schools, secure only interior windows of a classroom entrance or instructional area from the floor, by July 1, 2040.

(b) The state security chief may grant an extension to the timelines in this Subsection (6) if requested by a local education agency.

Section 3. Section 53-22-103 is amended to read:

53-22-103. County sheriff responsibilities -- Coordination.

(1) Each county sheriff shall identify an individual as a county security chief within the sheriff's office to coordinate security responsibilities, protocols, and required trainings between the state security chief, the county sheriff's office, and the corresponding police chiefs whose jurisdiction includes a public school within the county.

(2) The county security chief shall:

(a) in collaboration with the school safety and security specialist described in Section 53G-8-701.6 and a member of the local law enforcement agency of relevant jurisdiction as described in Section 53-25-601:

(i) [~~conduct, or coordinate~~]administer or coordinate with a designee from the local law enforcement agency of relevant jurisdiction to [~~conduct~~]participate in, by any appropriate means the county security chief determines, the school safety needs assessment described in Section 53G-8-701.5; and

(ii) [~~conduct a building safety evaluation at least annually using~~]review the results of the school safety needs assessment to recommend and implement improvements to school facilities, policies, procedures, protocols, rules, and regulations relating to school safety and security;

(b) collaborate and maintain effective communications regarding school safety with each:

(i) school safety and security specialist in the county security chief's county, as described in Section 53G-8-701.6;

(ii) school safety and security director in the county security chief's county, as described in Section 53G-8-701.8; and

(iii) local law enforcement agency within the county;

(c) administer with the corresponding police chiefs whose jurisdiction includes a public school, the trainings described in Sections 53-22-105 and 53G-8-704, including:

(i) assessing if an individual is capable of the duties and responsibilities that the trainings cover; and

(ii) denying an individual the ability to be a school safety personnel described in Section 53G-8-701.5 if the county security chief finds the individual is not capable of the duties and responsibilities that the trainings cover; and

(d) in conjunction with the state security chief, administer the school guardian program established in Section 53-22-105 at any school participating in the program in the county security chief's county.

Section 4. Section 53-22-104.1 is amended to read:

Section 6. Section 53-22-105 is amended to read:

53-22-105. School guardian program.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Annual training" means an annual four-hour training that:

(i) a county security chief or a designee administers in coordination with personnel from local law enforcement of relevant jurisdiction as described in Section 53-25-601(2)(b);

(ii) the state security chief approves;

(iii) can be tailored to local needs;

(iv) allows an individual to practice and demonstrate firearms proficiency at a firearms range using the firearm the individual carries for self defense and defense of others;

(v) includes the following components:

(A) firearm safety, including safe storage of a firearm;

(B) de-escalation tactics;

(C) the role of mental health in incidents; and

(D) disability awareness and interactions; and

(vi) contains other training needs as determined by the state security chief.

(b) "Biannual training" means a twice-yearly training that:

(i) is at least four hours, unless otherwise approved by the state security chief;

(ii) a county security chief or a designee administers in coordination with personnel from local law enforcement of relevant jurisdiction as described in Section 53-25-601(2)(b);

(iii) the state security chief approves;

(iv) can be tailored to local needs; and

(v) through which a school guardian at a school or simulated school environment:

(A) receives training on the specifics of the building or buildings of the school, including the location of emergency supplies and security infrastructure; and

(B) participates in a live-action practice plan with school administrators in responding to active threats at the school; and

(vi) shall be taken with at least three months in between the two trainings.

(c) "Firearm" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-10-501.

(d) "Initial training" means an in-person training that:

(i) a county security chief or a designee administers in coordination with personnel from local law enforcement of relevant jurisdiction as described in Section 53-25-601(2)(b);

(ii) the state security chief approves;

(iii) can be tailored to local needs; and

(iv) provides:

(A) training on general familiarity with the types of firearms that can be concealed for self-defense and defense of others;

(B) training on the safe loading, unloading, storage, and carrying of firearms in a school setting;

(C) training at a firearms range with instruction regarding firearms fundamentals, marksmanship, the demonstration and explanation of the difference between sight picture, sight alignment, and trigger control, and a recognized pistol course;

(D) current laws dealing with the lawful use of a firearm by a private citizen, including laws on self-defense, defense of others, transportation of firearms, and concealment of firearms;

(E) coordination with law enforcement officers in the event of an active threat;

(F) basic trauma first aid;

(G) the appropriate use of force, emphasizing the de-escalation of force and alternatives to using force;

(H) situational response evaluations, including:

(I) protecting and securing a crime or accident scene;

(II) notifying law enforcement;

(III) controlling information; and

(IV) other training that the county sheriff, designee, or department deems appropriate.

(e) "Program" means the school guardian program created in this section.

(f) (i) "School employee" means an employee of a school whose duties and responsibilities require the employee to be physically present at a school's campus while school is in session.

(ii) "School employee" does not include a principal, teacher, or individual whose primary responsibilities require the employee to be primarily present in a classroom to teach, care for, or interact with students, unless:

(A) the principal, teacher, or individual is employed at a school with [~~100~~]350 or fewer students;

(B) the principal, teacher, or individual is employed at a school with adjacent campuses as determined by the state security chief; or

(C) as provided in Subsection 53G-8-701.5(3).

(g) "School guardian" means a school employee who meets the requirements of Subsection (3).

(2) (a) (i) There is created within the department the school guardian program[~~:~~].

(ii) [~~the~~]The state security chief shall oversee the school guardian program[~~:~~].

(iii) [~~the~~]The applicable county security chief shall administer the school guardian program in each county.

(b) The state security chief shall ensure that the school guardian program includes:

(i) initial training;

(ii) biannual training; and

(iii) annual training.

(c) A county sheriff may partner or contract with:

(i) another county sheriff to support the respective county security chiefs in jointly administering the school guardian program in the relevant counties; and

(ii) a local law enforcement agency of relevant jurisdiction to provide the:

(A) initial training;

(B) biannual training; and

(C) annual training.

(3) (a) A school employee that volunteers to participate is eligible to join the program as a school guardian if:

(i) the school administrator approves the volunteer school employee to be designated as a school guardian;

(ii) the school employee satisfactorily completes initial training within six months before the day on which the school employee joins the program;

(iii) the school employee holds a valid concealed carry permit issued under [~~Title 53,~~]Chapter 5, Part 7, Concealed Firearm Act;

(iv) the school employee certifies to the sheriff of the county where the school is located that the school employee has undergone the training in accordance with Subsection (3)(a)(ii) and intends to serve as a school guardian; and

(v) the school employee[~~successfully completes a mental health screening selected by the state security chief in collaboration with the Office of Substance Abuse and Mental Health established in Section 26B-5-102.~~]:

(A) completes an initial "fit to carry" assessment the Department of Health and Human Services approves and a provider administers; and

(B) maintains compliance with mental health screening requirements consistent with law enforcement standards.

(b) After joining the program a school guardian shall complete annual training and biannual training to retain the designation of a school guardian in the program.

(4) The state security chief shall:

(a) for each school that participates in the program, track each school guardian at the school by collecting the photograph and the name and contact information for each guardian;

(b) make the information described in Subsection (4)(a) readily available to each law enforcement agency in the state categorized by school; and

(c) provide each school guardian with a one-time stipend of $500.

(5) A school guardian:

(a) may store the school guardian's firearm on the grounds of a school only if:

(i) the firearm is stored in a biometric gun safe;

(ii) the biometric gun safe is located in the school guardian's office; and

(iii) the school guardian is physically present on the grounds of the school while the firearm is stored in the safe;

(b) shall carry the school guardian's firearm in a concealed manner; and

(c) may not, unless during an active threat, display or open carry a firearm while on school grounds.

(6) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(c), this section does not prohibit an individual who has a valid concealed carry permit but is not participating in the program from carrying a firearm on the grounds of a public school or charter school under Subsection 76-10-505.5(4).

(7) A school guardian:

(a) does not have authority to act in a law enforcement capacity; and

(b) may, at the school where the school guardian is employed:

(i) take actions necessary to prevent or abate an active threat; and

(ii) temporarily detain an individual when the school guardian has reasonable cause to believe the individual has committed or is about to commit a forcible felony, as that term is defined in Section 76-2-402.

(8) A school may designate a single volunteer or multiple volunteers to participate in the school guardian program to satisfy the school safety personnel requirements of Section 53G-8-701.5.

(9) The department may adopt, according to Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, rules to administer this section.

(10) A school guardian who has active status in the guardian program is not liable for any civil damages or penalties if the school guardian:

(a) when carrying or storing a firearm:

(i) is acting in good faith; and

(ii) is not grossly negligent; or

(b) threatens, draws, or otherwise uses a firearm reasonably believing the action to be necessary in compliance with Section 76-2-402.

(11) A school guardian shall file a report described in Subsection (12) if, during the performance of the school guardian's duties, the school guardian points a firearm at an individual.

(12) (a) A report described in Subsection (11) shall include:

(i) a description of the incident;

(ii) the identification of the individuals involved in the incident; and

(iii) any other information required by the state security chief.

(b) A school guardian shall submit a report required under Subsection (11) to the school administrator, school safety and security director, and the state security chief within 48 hours after the incident.

(c) The school administrator, school safety and security director, and the state security chief shall consult and review the report submitted under Subsection (12)(b).

(13) The requirements of Subsections (11) and (12) do not apply to a training exercise.

(14) A school guardian may have the designation of school guardian revoked at any time by the school principal, county sheriff, or state security chief.

(15) (a) Any information or record created detailing a school guardian's participation in the program is:

(i) a private, controlled, or protected record under Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act; and

(ii) available only to:

(A) the state security chief;

(B) administrators at the school guardian's school;

(C) if applicable, other school safety personnel described in Section 53G-8-701.5;

(D) a local law enforcement agency that would respond to the school in case of an emergency; and

(E) the individual designated by the county sheriff in accordance with Section 53-22-103 of the county of the school where the school guardian in the program is located.

(b) The information or record described in Subsection (15)(a) includes information related to the school guardian's identity and activity within the program as described in this section and any personal identifying information of a school guardian participating in the program collected or obtained during initial training, annual training, and biannual training.

(c) An individual who intentionally or knowingly provides the information described in Subsection (15)(a) to an individual or entity not listed in Subsection (15)(a)(ii) is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

Section 7. Section 53-22-106 is amended to read:

53-22-106. Substantial threats against a school reporting requirements -- Exceptions.

(1) As used in this section, "substantial threat" means a threat made with serious intent to cause harm.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection (3), if a state employee or person in a position of special trust as defined in Section 76-5-404.1, including an individual licensed under Title 58, Chapter 31b, Nurse Practice Act, or Title 58, Chapter 67, Utah Medical Practice Act, has reason to believe a substantial threat against a school, school employee, or student attending a school or is aware of circumstances that would reasonably result in a substantial threat against a school, school employee, or student attending a school, the state employee or person in a position of special trust shall immediately report the suspected substantial threat to:

[~~(a) the state security chief;~~]

~~(b)~~ the local education agency that the substantial threat would impact; [~~or~~]

~~(c)~~ [~~to~~]the nearest peace officer or law enforcement agency[~~.~~]; and

(c) the state security chief.

(3) (a) (i) If the state security chief, a peace officer, or law enforcement agency receives a report under Subsection (2), the state security chief, peace officer, or law enforcement agency shall immediately notify the local education agency that the substantial threat would impact.

(ii) If the local education agency that the substantial threat would impact receives a report under Subsection (2), the local education agency that the substantial threat would impact shall immediately notify the appropriate local law enforcement agency and the state security chief.

(b) (i) A local education agency that the substantial threat would impact shall coordinate with the law enforcement agency on the law enforcement agency's investigation of the report described in Subsection (1).

(ii) If a law enforcement agency undertakes an investigation of a report under Subsection (2), the law enforcement agency shall provide a final investigatory report to the local education agency that the substantial threat would impact upon request.

(4) Subject to Subsection (5), the reporting requirement described in Subsection (2) does not apply to:

(a) a member of the clergy with regard to any confession an individual makes to the member of the clergy while functioning in the ministerial capacity of the member of the clergy if:

(i) the individual made the confession directly to the member of the clergy;

(ii) the member of the clergy is, under canon law or church doctrine or practice, bound to maintain the confidentiality of the confession; and

(iii) the member of the clergy does not have the consent of the individual making the confession to disclose the content of the confession; or

(b) an attorney, or an individual whom the attorney employs, if:

(i) the knowledge or belief of the substantial threat arises from the representation of a client; and

(ii) if disclosure of the substantial threat would not reveal the substantial threat to prevent reasonably certain death or substantial bodily harm in accordance with Utah Rules of Professional Conduct, Rule 1.6.

(5) (a) When a member of the clergy receives information about the substantial threat from any source other than a confession, the member of the clergy shall report the information even if the member of the clergy also received information about the substantial threat from the confession of the perpetrator.

(b) Exemption of the reporting requirement for an individual described in Subsection (4) does not exempt the individual from any other actions required by law to prevent further substantial threats or actual harm related to the substantial threat.

(6) The physician-patient privilege does not:

(a) excuse an individual who is licensed under Title 58, Chapter 67, Utah Medical Practice Act, or Title 58, Chapter 68, Utah Osteopathic Medical Practice Act, from reporting under this section; or

(b) constitute grounds for excluding evidence in a judicial or administrative proceeding resulting from a report under this section.

Section 8. Section 53-22-108 is enacted to read:

53-22-108. School safety foundation.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Authorized foundation" means a nonprofit foundation that:

(i) meets the requirements of this section; and

(ii) the state security chief authorizes in consultation with the School Safety Center created in Section 53G-8-802.

(b) "School safety product" means equipment, technology, service, or material that enhances school safety and security.

(2) The state security chief may approve a nonprofit foundation to be an authorized foundation if the foundation:

(a) maintains status as a nonprofit organization under 26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3);

(b) has operated continuously in the state for three or more years;

(c) maintains a primary mission focused on school safety;

(d) operates under a board of directors that includes:

(i) a law enforcement representative;

(ii) an educator or school administrator; and

(iii) an emergency management professional;

(e) demonstrates financial stability through:

(i) an annual independent audit;

(ii) maintained reserves; and

(iii) a clean financial record; and

(f) provides evidence of:

(i) successful project management;

(ii) an existing relationship with an educational institution; and

(iii) knowledge of school safety requirements described in federal and state law.

(3) A foundation seeking authorization shall submit to the state security chief:
(a) a written application that demonstrates compliance with Subsection (2);
(b) a financial record for the previous three years;
(c) a current board member qualification;
(d) a proposed school safety initiative; and
(e) an internal procurement policy for purchases not made from a state cooperative contract.
(4) The state security chief shall:
(a) review an application within 60 days;
(b) request additional information if needed;
(c) issue a written decision; and
(d) maintain a public record of an authorized foundation, including records related to the approval process of an authorized foundation.
(5) An authorized foundation may:
(a) use a state cooperative contract in accordance with Section 63G-6a-2105;
(b) make a bulk purchase of a school safety product; and
(c) in coordination with the state security chief and the School Safety Center:
(i) facilitate a donation of a school safety product; and
(ii) distribute a product to a school.
(6) An authorized foundation shall:
(a) follow Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Utah Procurement Code, when utilizing a state cooperative contract;
(b) maintain separate accounting for a school safety purchase;
(c) by August 1 of each year, submit an annual report to the state security chief that includes:
(i) any product procured through a state cooperative contract;
(ii) the annual independent audit required in Subsection (2)(e);
(iii) all schools served;
(iv) the total value of a donation facilitated; and
(v) a compliance certification; and
(d) renew authorization every three years.
(7) The state security chief:
(a) may revoke authorization if the authorized foundation:
(i) fails to maintain a requirement of this section;
(ii) engages in financial mismanagement; or
(iii) submits false information in a report required by this section; and
(b) shall, before revoking authorization:
(i) provide written notice to the foundation;
(ii) allow a 30-day period to remedy the violation;
(iii) provide an opportunity for a hearing; and
(iv) issue a final written decision.
(8) Authorization under this section does not:
(a) create state liability;
(b) imply state endorsement;
(c) override a local procurement requirement; and
(d) exempt the foundation from an applicable law.

Section 9. Section 53-22-109 is enacted to read:
53-22-109. School safety -- Compliance.

(1) As used in this section:
(a) "Compliance issue" means a violation of a school safety requirement under:
(i) this chapter; or
(ii) rules established in accordance with this chapter.
(b) "Tiered system of support" means an escalating system of:
(i) technical assistance;
(ii) intervention; and
(iii) corrective action.
(2) The state security chief shall, in collaboration with the School Safety Center:
(a) establish a tiered system of support for a compliance issue;
(b) develop implementation procedures for the system; and
(c) define criteria for:
(i) evaluating a compliance issue;
(ii) assigning an appropriate tier; and

(iii) monitoring progress.

(3) In establishing the system under Subsection (2), the state security chief and School Safety Center shall consider:

(a) severity of the compliance issue;

(b) risk to student and staff safety;

(c) available technical assistance resources;

(d) local education agency capacity; and

(e) required corrective action timelines.

Section 10. Section 53-25-601 is enacted to read:

PART 6. Requirements for School Safety

53-25-601. Requirements for school safety.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Local law enforcement agency" means the law enforcement agency with primary jurisdiction over a school's physical location.

(b) "School safety needs assessment" means the assessment required under Section 53G-8-701.5.

(c) "Security camera system" means the system described in Section 53G-8-805.

(2) Each local law enforcement agency shall:

(a) as coordinated with the county security chief described in Section 53-22-103, allocate adequate personnel to participate in the school safety needs assessments with a school's school safety and security specialist as required by Section 53G-8-701.5 for each school within the local law enforcement's jurisdiction;

(b) if a school within the local law enforcement agency's jurisdiction elects to satisfy the requirements described in Subsection 53G-8-701.5(2)(a)(ii) by employing school guardians, assign adequate personnel time as the county security chief determines to assist the county security chief in administering the trainings required under Section 53-22-105;

(c) ensure the school safety and security specialist for each school has all relevant information collected by the county security chief or the local law enforcement agency to submit the completed assessments to the School Safety Center created in Section 53G-8-802 by October 15 of each year;

(d) coordinate with each school within the local law enforcement's jurisdiction to obtain and maintain access to school security camera systems as described in Section 53G-8-805; and

(e) coordinate with the relevant county security chiefs as specified in Sections 53-22-103and 53-22-105.

Section 11. Section 53B-28-401 is amended to read:

53B-28-401. Campus safety plans and training -- Institution duties -- Governing board duties.

(B) a school guardian; or

(C) an armed school security guard.

(b) In addition to the school safety personnel described in Subsection (2)(a), an LEA shall designate a school safety and security director described in Section 53G-8-701.8.

(c) [~~If a school has more than 350 students enrolled at the school, the~~]The same individual may [~~not~~]serve in more than one of the roles listed in Subsections (2)(a) and (b) if the school notifies the School Safety Center and the state security chief of the decision to have the same individual serve in multiple roles as described in this Subsection (2).

(d) An LEA may implement the requirements of Subsection (2)(a)(ii) before the LEA has completed the school safety needs assessment described in Subsection (1).

(e) The state security chief in consultation with the School Safety Center shall establish a timeline for an LEA to comply with the school safety personnel requirements of this Subsection (2).

(3) (a) An LEA, school administrator, or private school may apply to the state security chief for an approved alternative to the requirements described in:

(i) Section 53-22-105;

(ii) this section;

(iii) Section 53G-8-701.6;

(iv) Section 53G-8-701.8; and

(v) Section 53G-8-704.

(b) In approving or denying an application described in Subsection (3)(a), the state security chief may consider factors that impact a school or LEA's ability to adhere to the requirements of this section, including the school or LEA's:

(i) population size;

(ii) staffing needs or capacity;

(iii) geographic location;

(iv) available funding; or

(v) general demonstration of need for an alternative to the requirements of this section.

(4) A private school shall identify an individual at the private school to serve as the safety liaison with the local law enforcement of relevant jurisdiction and the state security chief.

Section 19. Section 53G-8-701.6 is amended to read:

(g) regularly monitor and report to the principal, local law enforcement, and, if applicable, the LEA superintendent or designee, security risks for the school resulting from:

(i) issues with school facilities; or

(ii) the implementation of practices, policies, procedures, and protocols relating to school safety and security;

(h) coordinate with local first responder agencies to implement and monitor safety and security drills in accordance with policy and applicable procedures and protocols;

(i) ensure that school staff, and, when appropriate, students, receive training on and remain current on the school's safety and security procedures and protocols;

(j) following an event where security of the school has been significantly compromised, organize a debriefing with the individuals listed in Subsection (3)(c) following the recommendations from the state security chief, in collaboration with the School Safety Center, regarding strengthening school safety and security practices, policies, procedures, and protocols;

(k) abide by any LEA, school, or law enforcement agency policy outlining the chain of command;

(l) during an emergency, coordinate with the following individuals as applicable, the:

(i) school resource officer;

(ii) school guardians;

(iii) armed school security guards;

(iv) school administrators; and

(v) responding law enforcement officers;

(m) follow any LEA, school, or law enforcement agency student privacy policies, including state and federal privacy laws;

(n) participate in an annual training the state security chief selects in consultation with the School Safety Center; and

(o) remain current on:

(i) a comprehensive school guideline the state security chief selects;

(ii) the duties of a school safety and security specialist described in this Subsection (3); and

(iii) the school's emergency response plan.

(4) During an active emergency at the school, the school safety and security specialist is subordinate to any responding law enforcement officers.

Section 20. Section 53G-8-701.8 is amended to read:

53G-8-701.8. School safety and security director.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection 53G-8-701.5(3), an LEA shall designate a school safety and security director as the LEA point of contact for the county security chief, local law enforcement, and the state security chief.

(2) A school safety and security director shall:

(a) participate in and satisfy the training requirements [~~, including the annual and biannual requirements, described in~~]as follows:

(i) only once, the training requirements described in Section 53-22-105 for school guardians;

(ii) [~~Section 53G-8-702 for~~]the school resource [~~officers~~]officer and administrator training the state security chief approves in consultation with the School Safety Center; and

[~~(iii) Section 53G-8-704 for armed school security guards;~~]

[~~(b) have a valid concealed carry permit issued under Title 53, Chapter 5, Part 7, Concealed Firearm Act;~~]

~~(c)~~ if serving as a backup school guardian, satisfy all requirements described in 53-22-105;

(c) if the designee is an employee of an LEA, participate on the multidisciplinary team the LEA establishes;

(d) coordinate security responses among, if applicable, the following individuals in the LEA that employs the school safety and security director:

(i) school safety and security specialists;

(ii) school resource officers;

(iii) armed school security guards; and

(iv) school guardians; and

(e) collaborate and maintain effective communications with local law enforcement, a county security chief, the LEA, and school-based behavioral and mental health professionals to ensure adherence with all policies, procedures, protocols, rules, and regulations relating to school safety and security.

(3) A school safety and security director:

(a) does not have authority to act in a law enforcement capacity; and

(b) may, at the LEA that employs the director:

(i) take actions necessary to prevent or abate an active threat; and

(ii) temporarily detain an individual when the school safety and security director has reasonable cause to believe the individual has committed or is about to commit a forcible felony, as that term is defined in Section 76-2-402[~~;~~].

(4) Notwithstanding Subsection 76-10-505.5(4), if a school safety and security director is carrying a firearm, the school safety and security director shall carry the school safety and security director's firearm in a concealed manner and may not, unless during an active threat, display or open carry a firearm while on school grounds.

(5) A school may use the services of the school safety and security director on a temporary basis to satisfy the school safety personnel requirement of Subsection 53G-8-701.5(2).

(6) The state security chief shall:

(a) for each school safety and security director, track each school safety and security director by collecting the photograph and the name and contact information for each school safety and security director; and

(b) make the information described in Subsection (6)(a) readily available to each law enforcement agency in the state categorized by LEA.

Section 21. Section 53G-8-704 is amended to read:

53G-8-704. Contracts between an LEA and a contract security company for armed school security guards.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Armed private security officer" means the same as that term is defined in Section 58-63-102.

(b) "Armed school security guard" means an armed private security officer who[~~is~~]:

(i) is licensed as an armed private security officer under Title 58, Chapter 63, Security Personnel Licensing Act; and

(ii) has met the requirements described in Subsection (4)(a).

(c) "Contract security company" means the same as that term is defined in Section 58-63-102.

(d) "State security chief" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53-22-102.

(2) (a) An LEA may use an armed school security guard to satisfy the school safety personnel requirements of Section 53G-8-701.5.

(b) An LEA that uses an armed school security guard under Subsection (2)(a) shall contract with a contract security company to provide armed school security guards at each school within the LEA.

(3) The contract described in Subsection (2)(b) shall include a detailed description of:

(a) the rights of a student under state and federal law with regard to:

(i) searches;

(ii) questioning;

(iii) arrests; and

(iv) information privacy;

(b) job assignment and duties of an armed school security guard, including:

(i) the school to which an armed school security guard will be assigned;

(ii) the hours an armed school security guard is present at the school;

(iii) the point of contact at the school that an armed school security guard will contact in case of an emergency;

(iv) specific responsibilities for providing and receiving information;

(v) types of records to be kept, and by whom; and

(vi) training requirements; and

(c) other expectations of the contract security company in relation to school security at the LEA.

(4) (a) In addition to the requirements for licensure under Title 58, Chapter 63, Security Personnel Licensing Act, an armed private security officer may only serve as an armed school security guard under a contract described in Subsection (2)(b) if the armed private security officer:

(i) has a valid concealed carry permit issued under Title 53, Chapter 5, Part 7, Concealed Firearm Act; [~~and~~]

(ii) has undergone training from a county security chief or local law enforcement agency regarding:

(A) the safe loading, unloading, storage, and carrying of firearms in a school setting;

(B) the role of armed security guards in a school setting; and

(C) coordination with law enforcement and school officials during an active threat[~~.~~];

(iii) completes an initial "fit to carry" assessment the Department of Health and Human Services approves and a provider administers; and

(iv) maintains compliance with mental health screening requirements consistent with law enforcement standards.

(b) An armed school security guard that meets the requirements of Subsection (4)(a) shall, in order to remain eligible to be assigned as an armed school security guard at any school under a contract described in Subsection (2)(b), participate in and satisfy the training requirements of the initial, annual, and biannual trainings as defined in Section 53-22-105.

(5) An armed school security guard may conceal or openly carry a firearm at the school at which the armed school security guard is employed under the contract described in Subsection (2)(b).

(6) An LEA that enters a contract under this section shall inform the state security chief and the relevant county security chief of the contract and provide the contact information of the contract security company employing the armed security guard for use during an emergency.

(7) The state security chief shall:

(a) for each LEA that contracts with a contract security company under this section, track each contract security company providing armed school security guards by name and the contact information for use in case of an emergency; and

(b) make the information described in Subsection (7)(a) readily available to each law enforcement agency in the state by school.

(8) An armed school security guard shall file a report described in Subsection (9) if, during the performance of the armed school security guard's duties, the armed school security guard:

(a) points a firearm at an individual; or

(b) aims a conductive energy device at an individual and displays the electrical current.

(9) (a) A report described in Subsection (8) shall include:

(i) a description of the incident;

(ii) the identification of the individuals involved in the incident; and

(iii) any other information required by the state security chief.

(b) An armed school security guard shall submit a report required under Subsection (8) to the school administrator, school safety and security director, and the state security chief within 48 hours after the incident.

(c) The school administrator, school safety and security director, and the state security chief shall consult and review the report submitted under Subsection (9)(b).

Section 22. Section 53G-8-802 is amended to read:

53G-8-802. State Safety and Support Program -- State board duties -- LEA duties.

(1) There is created the School Safety Center.

(2) The School Safety Center shall:

(a) develop in conjunction with the Office of Substance Use and Mental Health and the state security chief model student safety and support policies for an LEA, including:

(i) requiring an evidence-based behavior threat assessment that includes [~~:~~]

[~~(A)~~] recommended interventions with an individual whose behavior poses a threat to school safety; [~~and~~]

[~~(B) establishes defined roles for a multidisciplinary team and school safety personnel described in Title 53G, Chapter 8, Part 7, School Safety Personnel, including:~~]

(ii) procedures for referrals to law enforcement; and

(iii) procedures for referrals to a community services entity, a family support organization, or a health care provider for evaluation or treatment;

(b) provide training in consultation with the state security chief:

(i) in school safety;

(ii) in evidence-based approaches to improve school climate and address and correct bullying behavior;

(iii) in evidence-based approaches in identifying an individual who may pose a threat to the school community;

(iv) in evidence-based approaches in identifying an individual who may be showing signs or symptoms of mental illness;

(v) on permitted disclosures of student data to law enforcement and other support services under the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act, 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1232g;

(vi) on permitted collection of student data under 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1232h and Sections 53E-9-203 and 53E-9-305; and

(vii) for administrators on rights and prohibited acts under:

(A) Chapter 9, Part 6, Bullying and Hazing;

(B) Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 2000d et seq.;

(C) Title IX of Education Amendments of 1972, 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1681 et seq.;

(D) Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, 29 U.S.C. Sec. 701 et seq.; and

(E) the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1400 et seq.;

(c) conduct and disseminate evidence-based research on school safety concerns;

(d) disseminate information on effective school safety initiatives;

(e) encourage partnerships between public and private sectors to promote school safety;

(f) provide technical assistance to an LEA in the development and implementation of school safety initiatives;

(g) in conjunction with the state security chief, make available to an LEA the model critical incident response training program a school and law enforcement agency shall use during a threat;

(h) provide space for the public safety liaison described in Section 53-1-106 and the school-based mental health specialist described in Section 26B-5-102;

(i) collaborate with the state security chief to determine appropriate application of school safety requirements in Utah Code to an online school;

(j) create a model school climate survey that may be used by an LEA to assess stakeholder perception of a school environment;

(k) in accordance with Section 53G-5-202, establish a charter school liaison including defined responsibilities for charter school communication and coordination with the School Safety Center; and

(l) assist a foundation described in Section 53-22-108 in distributing school safety products if a foundation seeks assistance;

(m) [~~and~~]establishes defined roles for a multidisciplinary team and school safety personnel described in Chapter 8, Part 7, School Safety Personnel;

~~(k)~~ assist LEAs in implementing and maintaining universal access key box requirements under Section 53G-8-805;

(o) in consultation with the state security chief, select a system to track relevant data, including the tracking required in Sections 53-22-105, 53G-8-701.5, 53G-8-701.8, and 53G-8-704; and

(p) collect aggregate data and school climate survey results from an LEA that administers the model school climate survey described in Subsection ~~(2)(i)~~(j).

(3) Nothing in this section requires:

(a) an individual to respond to a school climate survey; or

(b) an LEA to use the model school climate survey or any specified questions in the model school climate survey described in Subsection ~~(2)(i)~~(j).

(4) The state board shall require an LEA to:

(a) (i) if an LEA administers a school climate survey, review school climate data for each school within the LEA; and

(ii) based on the review described in Subsection (4)(a)(i):

(A) revise practices, policies, and training to eliminate harassment and discrimination in each school within the LEA;

(B) adopt a plan for harassment- and discrimination-free learning; and

(C) host outreach events or assemblies to inform students and parents of the plan adopted under Subsection (4)(a)(ii)(B);

(b) no later than September 1 of each school year, send a notice to each student, parent, and LEA staff member stating the LEA's commitment to maintaining a school climate that is free of harassment and discrimination; and

(c) report to the state board annually on the LEA's implementation of the plan under Subsection (4)(a)(ii)(B) and progress.

Section 23. Section 53G-8-803 is amended to read:

53G-8-803. Standard response protocol to active threats in schools.

The state security chief described in Section 53-22-102, in consultation with the School Safety Center, shall make rules, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, to:

(1) in accordance with the standard response protocol established by the state security chief, require an LEA or school to develop emergency preparedness plans and emergency response plans for use during an emergency that include developmentally appropriate training for students and adults regarding:

(a) active threats;

(b) emergency preparedness;

(c) cardiac emergency preparedness;

~~(c)~~ drills as required under Subsection 15A-5-202.5 and by the state security chief; and

~~(d)~~ standard response protocols coordinated with community stakeholders; and

(2) identify the necessary components of emergency preparedness and response plans, including underlying standard response protocols and emerging best practices for an emergency.

Section 24. Section 53G-8-805 is amended to read:

53G-8-805. Panic alert device -- Security cameras -- Key box.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Universal access key box" means a UL Standard 1037 compliant secure container designed to store and protect emergency access keys and devices.

(b) "Emergency responder" means law enforcement, fire service, or emergency medical personnel authorized by local authorities to respond to school emergencies.

~~(1)~~ In accordance with the results of the school safety needs assessment described in Section 53G-8-701.5, an LEA shall provide [~~a staff person~~]the lead teacher in each classroom with a wearable panic alert device that [~~allows for immediate contact with emergency services or emergency services agencies, law enforcement agencies, health departments, and fire departments~~]shall communicate directly with public safety answering points.

~~(2)~~ An LEA shall ensure, before the school year begins, all school building personnel receive training on the protocol and appropriate use of the panic alert device described in Subsection ~~(1)~~.

~~(3)~~ An LEA shall:

(a) ensure all security cameras within a school building are accessible by:

(i) a local law enforcement agency; and

(ii) public safety answering points;

(b) coordinate with a local law enforcement agency to establish appropriate access protocols[~~.~~]; and

(c) physically mark all hallways and doorways consistent with the incident response method or system the state security chief creates.

[~~(4)~~]

(5) A school building shall include universal access key boxes that:

(a) are installed at main entry points;

(b) contain master keys and access devices providing complete access to all areas of the school;

(c) are accessible only to authorized emergency responders;

(d) are electronically monitored for tampering; and

(e) are weather-resistant and vandal-resistant.

(6) An LEA shall:

(a) maintain universal access key boxes by:

(i) conducting quarterly inspections;

(ii) updating contents within 24 hours of any lock or access control changes;

(iii) maintaining current key and access device inventories;

(iv) documenting all inspections and updates; and

(v) immediately replacing any damaged or malfunctioning boxes;

(b) coordinate with local emergency responders to:

(i) determine optimal box placement;

(ii) establish access protocols;

(iii) maintain current emergency contact information; and

(iv) conduct annual reviews of box usage and effectiveness;

(c) include universal access key box locations and protocols in:

(i) school emergency response plans;

(ii) building schematic diagrams provided to emergency responders; and

(iii) school safety and security training materials.

(7) The state board shall:

(a) establish standards for:

(i) box installation and placement;

(ii) access control and monitoring;

(iii) maintenance schedules; and

(iv) compliance verification;

(b) in direct coordination with the state security chief, ensure new construction or major remodeling of a school building shall include the installation of automated external defibrillators in appropriate locations as the state board determines; and

(c) provide technical assistance to LEAs implementing this section.

(8) Nothing in this section:

(a) affects requirements for fire department key boxes under applicable building or fire codes; or

(b) restricts additional security measures implemented by LEAs that exceed these requirements.

(9) This section is not subject to the restrictions in Section 41-6a-2003.

Section 25. Section 53G-9-207 is amended to read:

53G-9-207. Child sexual abuse prevention.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) (i) "Age-appropriate instructional material" means materials that provide instruction on:

(A) the responsibility of adults for the safety of children;

(B) how to recognize uncomfortable inner feelings;

(C) how to say no and leave an uncomfortable situation;

(D) how to set clear boundaries;

(E) the risks of sharing intimate images or personal information through electronic means; and

~~(E)~~ the importance of discussing uncomfortable situations with parents and other trusted adults.

(ii) "Age-appropriate instructional material" does not include materials that:

(A) invites a student to share personal experiences about abuse during instruction;

(B) gives instruction regarding consent as described in Section 76-5-406; or

(C) includes sexually explicit language or depictions.

(b) "Alternative provider" means a provider other than the provider selected by the state board under Subsection (8) that provides the training and instruction described in Subsection (4) with instructional materials approved under Subsection (2).

(c) "School personnel" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53G-9-203.

(d) "Sexual extortion" means the criminal offense described in Section 76-5b-204.

(2) The state board shall approve, in partnership with the Department of Health and Human Services, age-appropriate instructional materials for the training and instruction described in Subsections (3)(a) and (4).

(3) (a) An LEA shall provide, once every three years, training and instruction on child sexual abuse and human trafficking prevention and awareness to:

(i) school personnel in elementary and secondary schools on:

(A) responding to a disclosure of child sexual abuse in a supportive, appropriate manner;

(B) identifying children who are victims or may be at risk of becoming victims of human trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation; and

(C) the mandatory reporting requirements described in Sections 53E-6-701 and 80-2-602;

(D) appropriate responses to incidents of sexual extortion, including connecting victims with support services; and

(ii) parents of elementary school students on:

(A) recognizing warning signs of a child who is being sexually abused or who is a victim or may be at risk of becoming a victim of human trafficking or commercial sexual exploitation; [~~and~~]

(B) effective, age-appropriate methods for discussing the topic of child sexual abuse with a child[~~.~~]; and

(C) resources available for victims of sexual extortion.

(b) An LEA:

(i) shall use the instructional materials approved by the state board under Subsection (2) to provide the training and instruction under Subsections (3)(a) and (4); or

(ii) may use instructional materials the LEA creates to provide the instruction and training described in Subsections (3)(a) and (4), if the LEA's instructional materials are approved by the state board under Subsection (2).

(4) (a) In accordance with Subsections (4)(b) and (5), an LEA may provide instruction on child sexual abuse and human trafficking prevention and awareness to elementary school students using age-appropriate curriculum.

(b) An LEA that provides the instruction described in Subsection (4)(a) shall use the instructional materials approved by the state board under Subsection (2) to provide the instruction.

(5) (a) An elementary school student may not be given the instruction described in Subsection (4) unless the parent of the student is:

(i) notified in advance of the:

(A) instruction and the content of the instruction; and

(B) parent's right to have the student excused from the instruction;

(ii) given an opportunity to review the instructional materials before the instruction occurs; and

(iii) allowed to be present when the instruction is delivered.

(b) Upon the written request of the parent of an elementary school student, the student shall be excused from the instruction described in Subsection (4).

(c) Participation of a student requires compliance with Sections 53E-9-202 and 53E-9-203.

(6) An LEA may determine the mode of delivery for the training and instruction described in Subsections (3) and (4).

(7) Upon request of the state board, an LEA shall provide evidence of compliance with this section.

(8) The state board shall select a provider to provide the training and instruction described in Subsection (4), including requiring the provider selected to:

(a) engage in outreach efforts to support more schools to participate in the training and instruction;

(b) provide materials for the instruction involving students in accordance with Subsection (4);

(c) provide an outline of how many LEAs, schools, and students the provider could service; and

(d) submit a report to the state board that includes:

(i) information on the LEAs the provider engaged with in the outreach efforts, including:

(A) how many schools within an LEA increased instructional offerings for training and instruction; and

(B) the reasons why an LEA chose to participate or not in the offered training or instruction;

(ii) the number of schools and students that received the training and instruction;

(iii) budgetary information regarding how the provider utilized any funds the state board allocated; and

(iv) additional information the state board requests.

(9) Subject to legislative appropriation, there is created a grant program to support an LEA that chooses to use an alternative provider other than the provider selected by the state board under Subsection (8) to provide the training and instruction described in Subsection (4).

(10) The state board shall:

(a) establish a process to select alternative providers for an LEA to use, including:

(i) an application process for a provider to become an alternative provider;

(ii) required criteria for a provider to become an alternative provider; and

(iii) relevant timelines;

(b) create a process for an LEA to receive a grant award described in Subsection (9), including:

(i) an application process;

(ii) relevant timelines; and

(iii) a scoring rubric and corresponding formula for determining a grant amount; and

(c) make grant awards on a first come first served basis until the state board distributes all appropriated funds.

(11) An LEA that receives a grant award described in Subsection (10)(b) shall:

(a) use the grant award to cover the costs needed for implementation of the training or instruction described in Subsection (4); and

(b) upon request of the state board, provide an itemized list of the uses of the grant award.

Section 26. Section 53G-9-703 is amended to read:

53G-9-703. Parent education -- Mental health -- Bullying -- Safety.

(1) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (3), a school district shall offer a seminar for parents of students who attend school in the school district that:

(i) is offered at no cost to parents;

(ii) (A) if in person, begins at or after 6 p.m.; [~~or~~]

(B) if in person, takes place on a Saturday; or

(C) may be conducted at anytime online and recorded if the recording is made available on the school district's website, including the parent portal created in Section 53G-6-806.

(iii) (A) is held in at least one school located in the school district; or

(B) is provided through a virtual platform; and

(iv) covers the topics described in Subsection (2).

(b) (i) A school district shall annually offer one parent seminar for each 11,000 students enrolled in the school district.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(b)(i), a school district may not be required to offer more than three seminars.

(c) A school district may:

(i) develop the district school's own curriculum for the seminar described in Subsection (1)(a); or

(ii) use the curriculum developed by the state board under Subsection (2).

(d) A school district shall notify each charter school located in the attendance boundaries of the school district of the date and time of a parent seminar, so the charter school may inform parents of the seminar.

(2) The state board shall:

(a) develop a curriculum for the parent seminar described in Subsection (1) that includes information on:

(i) substance abuse, including illegal drugs and prescription drugs and prevention;

(ii) bullying;

Utah Code Sections Affected:

AMENDS:

53F-2-314, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2022, Chapter 409

ENACTS:

53F-2-315, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 53F-2-314 is amended to read:

53F-2-314. Weighted pupil units for students who are at-risk.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "At risk" means that a public education student:

(i) scores below proficient on a state board or LEA approved assessment; or

(ii) meets an LEA governing board's approved definition of an at-risk student.

(b) "Limited English proficiency" means that an English learner student received a score of 1-4 on an English language proficiency assessment.

(2) (a) Additional weighted pupil units for students who are at-risk are computed based on the number of students within each LEA on October 1 of the previous school year as follows, added to a base of five WPUs for each LEA:

(i) for the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 2021:

(A) for each student who is eligible to receive free or reduced price lunch, .05 additional weighted pupil units; and

(B) for each student with limited English proficiency, .025 additional weighted pupil units; and

(ii) for each fiscal year after the fiscal year described in Subsection (2)(a)(i), the additional weighed pupil units shall increase, subject to the approval of the Executive Appropriations Committee, by amounts that the Public Education Appropriations Subcommittee recommends in the subcommittee's evaluation and recommendations described in Section 53E-1-202.2, up to:

(A) for each student who is eligible to receive free or reduced price lunch, .3 total weighted pupil units; and

(B) for each student with limited English proficiency, up to .1 total weighted pupil units.

(b) Funding for a student who falls within both Subsections (2)(a)(i)(A) and (B) shall be computed under both weighting factors.

(3) An LEA governing board shall use money distributed under this section to improve the academic achievement of students who are at-risk.

(4) The state board may use nonlapsing funds remaining under this section from a prior school year to provide the emergency funding described in Section 53F-2-315.

~~(4)~~ (a) Annually, an LEA shall provide the following information to the state board:

(i) a report of the LEA's use of funds allocated under this section through the annual financial reporting process; and

(ii) the LEA's outcome data or a report of intervention effectiveness related to the use of the LEA's use of funds allocated under this section.

(b) The state board shall monitor the learning outcomes resulting from the LEA's use of funds under this section.

Section 2. Section 53F-2-315 is enacted to read:

53F-2-315. Emergency funding for schools with increased enrollment of students learning English.

(1) As used in this section, "student learning English" means a student, currently enrolled at a public elementary or secondary educational institution, whose most recent score on an English language proficiency assessment is the lowest score available under the given assessment.

(2) (a) An LEA may receive emergency funding from the state board if enrollment, at a school within the LEA, of students learning English increases by:

(i) 75% or more above the previous three-year average enrollment for students learning English in the school; and

(ii) 30 or more students above the previous three-year average enrollment for students learning English in the school.

(b) An LEA shall ensure that an application the LEA submits under Subsection (3)(a):

(i) demonstrates substantial need for the emergency funding;

(ii) includes the percentage by which the school's student learning English enrollment exceeds the previous three-year average for the school; and

(iii) demonstrates that the school has insufficient existing funds to adequately support the increased student learning English enrollment.

(3) The state board shall:

(a) establish and oversee the application process to award emergency funding;

(b) in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, create rules to:

(i) determine a method for measuring an increase in enrollment at a school; and

(ii) identify a school that meets the threshold requirement described in Subsection (2)(a); and

(c) subject to the availability of funds or legislative appropriations, prioritize applications and distribute funding based on:

(i) the greatest percentage increase in students learning English enrollment in the school; and

(ii) the severity of the financial need of the school.

(4) An LEA shall use emergency funds received under this section to:

(a) provide training or certification to teachers on the instruction of a student learning English;

(b) reduce the number of students learning English in a class;

(c) hire an aide to assist with students learning English in the classroom; or

(d) provide other resources specific to the needs of a student learning English.

(5) An LEA may not use emergency funding received under this section for administrative expenses.

(6) (a) The state board shall draw the emergency funding described in Subsection (2)(a) from nonlapsing funds remaining in the at-risk weighted pupil unit described in Section 53F-2-314.

(b) The state board may not draw, from the at-risk weighted pupil unit, more than $500,000, per fiscal year, for the emergency funding described in this section.

Section 3. Effective Date.

This bill takes effect on July 1, 2025.

(a) the municipality in which the attainable home is located; or

(b) the county, if the attainable home is located in an unincorporated portion of the county.

~~(4)~~ "Qualified depository" means:

(a) the same as that term is defined in Section 51-7-3[~~.~~]; or

(b) the Utah Housing Corporation as described in Title 63H, Chapter 8, Utah Housing Corporation Act.

~~(5)~~ (a) "Qualified project" means a new construction housing development project in the state for which the developer:

(i) commits to:

(A) offering for sale no fewer than 60% of the total units within the project as attainable homes;

(B) including in the deed of sale for an attainable home a restriction, in favor of the political subdivision, that the attainable home be [~~owner occupied~~]owner-occupied for no fewer than five years; and

(C) having a plan to provide information to potential buyers of attainable homes about the First-Time Homebuyer Assistance Program created in Section 63H-8-502; and

(ii) executes a valid agreement with the political subdivision or the Utah Housing Corporation to develop housing meeting the requirements of Subsections ~~(5)(a)(i)(A) and (B).~~(a)(i)(A) and (B).

(b) "Qualified project" includes infrastructure within the housing development project.

(c) "Qualified project" includes a project by a city of the first or second class that commits to:

(i) receiving no more than $10,000,000 in deposits within one year from the day on which the city of the first or second class enters into a loan agreement with the qualified depository described in Subsection (6)(b) for a project as an attainable home;

(ii) using the deposit to acquire and rehabilitate single-family homes within the city limits of the city of the first or second class boundaries;

(iii) offering for sale the rehabilitated single-family home as an attainable home, including in the deed of sale for an attainable home a restriction, in favor of the city of the first or second class, that the attainable home be owner-occupied for no fewer than five years; and

(iv) expanding an existing effort to acquire and rehabilitate single-family homes as described in Subsections (7)(c)(ii) and (iii).

Section 2. Section 51-12-201 is amended to read:

51-12-201. Investment opportunities.

(1) A qualified depository may request the state treasurer to make a deposit in the qualified depository if the qualified depository:

(a) has identified and approved for financing a qualified project; and

(b) requests no more than 100% of the financing for a qualified project.

(2) Subject to Subsection (3), the state treasurer shall approve the qualified depository's request for deposit:

(a) unless the state treasurer determines the qualified depository does not merit deposit under fiduciary duties and prudent investment practices within the parameters of this chapter;

(b) in an amount that is equal to the lesser of:

(i) the deposit amount requested;

(ii) $60,000,000; or

(iii) 50% of the qualified depository's maximum amount of public deposits determined in accordance with Section 51-7-18.1; and

(c) as sufficient money becomes available in the fund and in accordance with Subsection 72-2-134(4)(a).

(3) The state treasurer may not approve a request for deposit after December 31, [~~2025~~]2027.

(4) The state treasurer shall notify Utah Housing Corporation of any qualified projects for which the state treasurer makes a deposit in a qualified depository.

Section 3. Section 51-12-202 is amended to read:

51-12-202. Terms of deposit.

(1) The state treasurer shall enter into a deposit agreement with an approved qualified depository in accordance with Section 51-12-201.

(2) The deposit agreement shall provide that the qualified depository:

(a) shall offer loan financing to a developer or city of the first or second class of a qualified project at a rate no higher than 150 basis points above the federal funds effective rate at the time of the deposit;

(b) shall return the amount of deposit:

(i) with interest at a rate equal to the greater of:

(A) the federal funds effective rate at the time of the deposit minus 200 basis points; or

(B) 0.5%; and

(ii) at the earlier of:

(n) the purpose of considering information that is designated as a trade secret, as defined in Section 13-24-2, if the public body's consideration of the information is necessary to properly conduct a procurement under Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Utah Procurement Code;

(o) the purpose of discussing information provided to the public body during the procurement process under Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Utah Procurement Code, if, at the time of the meeting:

(i) the information may not, under Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Utah Procurement Code, be disclosed to a member of the public or to a participant in the procurement process; and

(ii) the public body needs to review or discuss the information to properly fulfill its role and responsibilities in the procurement process;

(p) as relates to the governing board of a governmental nonprofit corporation, as that term is defined in Section 11-13a-102, the purpose of discussing information that is designated as a trade secret, as that term is defined in Section 13-24-2, if:

(i) public knowledge of the discussion would reasonably be expected to result in injury to the owner of the trade secret; and

(ii) discussion of the information is necessary for the governing board to properly discharge the board's duties and conduct the board's business;

(q) as it relates to the Cannabis Production Establishment Licensing Advisory Board, to review confidential information regarding violations and security requirements in relation to the operation of cannabis production establishments;

(r) considering a loan application, if public discussion of the loan application would disclose:

(i) nonpublic personal financial information; or

(ii) a nonpublic trade secret, as defined in Section 13-24-2, or nonpublic business financial information the disclosure of which would reasonably be expected to result in unfair competitive injury to the person submitting the information;

(s) a discussion of the board of the Point of the Mountain State Land Authority, created in Section 11-59-201, regarding a potential tenant of point of the mountain state land, as defined in Section 11-59-102; or

(t) a purpose for which a meeting is required to be closed under Subsection (2).

(2) The following meetings shall be closed:

(a) a meeting of the Health and Human Services Interim Committee to review a report described in Subsection 26B-1-506(1)(a), and a response to the report described in Subsection 26B-1-506(2);

(b) a meeting of the Child Welfare Legislative Oversight Panel to:

(i) review a report described in Subsection 26B-1-506(1)(a), and a response to the report described in Subsection 26B-1-506(2); or

(ii) review and discuss an individual case, as described in [~~Subsection 36-33-103(2)~~]Section 36-33-103;

(c) a meeting of a conservation district as defined in Section 17D-3-102 for the purpose of advising the Natural Resource Conservation Service of the United States Department of Agriculture on a farm improvement project if the discussed information is protected information under federal law;

(d) a meeting of the Compassionate Use Board established in Section 26B-1-421 for the purpose of reviewing petitions for a medical cannabis card in accordance with Section 26B-1-421;

(e) a meeting of the Colorado River Authority of Utah if:

(i) the purpose of the meeting is to discuss an interstate claim to the use of the water in the Colorado River system; and

(ii) failing to close the meeting would:

(A) reveal the contents of a record classified as protected under Subsection 63G-2-305(81);

(B) reveal a legal strategy relating to the state's claim to the use of the water in the Colorado River system;

(C) harm the ability of the Colorado River Authority of Utah or river commissioner to negotiate the best terms and conditions regarding the use of water in the Colorado River system; or

(D) give an advantage to another state or to the federal government in negotiations regarding the use of water in the Colorado River system;

(f) a meeting of the General Regulatory Sandbox Program Advisory Committee if:

(i) the purpose of the meeting is to discuss an application for participation in the regulatory sandbox as defined in Section 63N-16-102; and

(ii) failing to close the meeting would reveal the contents of a record classified as protected under Subsection 63G-2-305(82); and

(g) a meeting of a project entity if:

(i) the purpose of the meeting is to conduct a strategy session to discuss market conditions relevant to a business decision regarding the value of a project entity asset if the terms of the business decision are publicly disclosed before the decision is finalized and a public discussion would:

(A) disclose the appraisal or estimated value of the project entity asset under consideration; or

(B) prevent the project entity from completing on the best possible terms a contemplated transaction concerning the project entity asset;

(ii) the purpose of the meeting is to discuss a record, the disclosure of which could cause commercial injury to, or confer a competitive advantage upon a potential or actual competitor of, the project entity;

(iii) the purpose of the meeting is to discuss a business decision, the disclosure of which could cause commercial injury to, or confer a competitive advantage upon a potential or actual competitor of, the project entity; or

(iv) failing to close the meeting would prevent the project entity from getting the best price on the market.

(3) In a closed meeting, a public body may not:

(a) interview a person applying to fill an elected position;

(b) discuss filling a midterm vacancy or temporary absence governed by Title 20A, Chapter 1, Part 5, Candidate Vacancy and Vacancy and Temporary Absence in Elected Office; or

(c) discuss the character, professional competence, or physical or mental health of the person whose name was submitted for consideration to fill a midterm vacancy or temporary absence governed by Title 20A, Chapter 1, Part 5, Candidate Vacancy and Vacancy and Temporary Absence in Elected Office.

Section 7. Section 53G-4-902 is amended to read:

53G-4-902. Purchase of surplus property.

(1) An eligible entity may purchase, and each school district shall sell, surplus property as provided in this section.

(2) (a) Upon declaring land to be surplus property, each school district shall give written notice to each eligible entity in which the surplus property is located.

(b) Each notice under Subsection (2)(a) shall:

(i) state that the school district has declared the land to be surplus property; and

(ii) describe the surplus property.

(3) Subject to Subsection (4), an eligible entity may purchase the surplus property by paying the school district the purchase price.

(4) (a) The legislative body of each eligible entity desiring to purchase surplus property under this section shall:

(i) within 90 days after the eligible entity receives notice under Subsection (2), adopt a resolution declaring the intent to purchase the surplus property and deliver a copy of the resolution to the school district; and

(ii) within 90 days after delivering a copy of the resolution under Subsection (4)(a)(i) to the school district, deliver to the school district an earnest money offer to purchase the surplus property at the purchase price.

(b) If an eligible entity fails to comply with either of the requirements under Subsection (4)(a) within the applicable time period, the eligible entity forfeits the right to purchase the surplus property.

(5) (a) An eligible entity may waive [~~its~~]the eligible entity's right to purchase surplus property under this part by submitting a written waiver to the school district.

(b) If an eligible entity submits a waiver under Subsection (5)(a), the school district has no further obligation under this part to sell the surplus property to the eligible entity.

(6) Surplus property acquired by an eligible entity may not be used for any purpose other than:

(a) a county, city, or town hall;

(b) a park or other open space;

(c) a cultural center or community center;

(d) a facility for the promotion, creation, or retention of public or private jobs within the state through planning, design, development, construction, rehabilitation, business relocation, or any combination of these, within a county, city, or town;

(e) office, industrial, manufacturing, warehousing, distribution, parking, or other public or private facilities, or other improvements that benefit the state or a county, city, or town; [~~or~~]

(f) a facility for a charter school under Chapter 5, Charter Schools[~~.~~]; or

(g) the sale, use, or lease for moderate income housing, as defined in Section 63L-12-101.

(7) (a) A school district that sells surplus property under this part may use proceeds from the sale only for bond debt reduction or school district capital facilities.

(b) Each school district that sells surplus property under this part shall place all proceeds from the sale that are not used for bond debt reduction in a capital facilities fund of the school district for use for school district capital facilities.

Section 8. Section 63H-8-201 is amended to read:

63H-8-201. Creation -- Trustees -- Terms -- Vacancies -- Chair -- Powers -- Quorum -- Per diem and expenses -- Annual conflict of interest disclosure statement -- Penalties.

(1) (a) There is created an independent body politic and corporate, constituting a public corporation, known as the "Utah Housing Corporation."

(b) The corporation may also be known and do business as the:

(i) Utah Housing Finance Association; and

(ii) Utah Housing Finance Agency in connection with a contract entered into when that was the corporation's legal name.

(c) No other entity may use the names described in Subsections (1)(a) and (b) without the express approval of the corporation.

(2) The corporation is governed by a board of trustees composed of the following nine trustees:

(a) the executive director of the Department of Workforce Services or the executive director's designee;

(b) the commissioner of the Department of Financial Institutions or the commissioner's designee;

(c) the state treasurer or the treasurer's designee; and

(d) six public trustees, who are private citizens of the state, as follows:

(i) two people who represent the mortgage lending industry;

(ii) two people who represent the home building and real estate industry; and

(iii) two people who represent the public at large.

(3) The governor shall:

(a) appoint the six public trustees of the corporation with the advice and consent of the Senate in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 24, Part 2, Vacancies; and

(b) ensure that [~~:~~]

[~~(i)~~] among the six public trustees[~~are from different counties~~], no more than two are from the same county and all are residents of the state[~~; and~~].

[~~(ii) not more than three of the public trustees are members of the same political party.~~]

(4) (a) Except as required by Subsection (4)(b), the governor shall appoint the six public trustees to terms of office of four years each.

(b) Notwithstanding the requirements of Subsection (4)(a), the governor shall, at the time of appointment or reappointment, adjust the length of terms to ensure that the terms of corporation trustees are staggered so that approximately half of the board is appointed every two years.

(5) (a) A public trustee of the corporation may be removed from office for cause either by the governor or by an affirmative vote of six trustees of the corporation.

(b) When a vacancy occurs in the board of trustees for any reason, the replacement shall be appointed for the unexpired term.

(c) A public trustee shall hold office for the term of appointment and until the trustee's successor has been appointed and qualified.

(d) A public trustee is eligible for reappointment but may not serve more than two full consecutive terms.

(6) (a) The governor shall select the chair of the corporation.

(b) The trustees shall elect from among their number a vice chair and other officers they may determine.

(7) (a) Five trustees of the corporation constitute a quorum for transaction of business.

(b) An affirmative vote of at least five trustees is necessary for any action to be taken by the corporation.

(c) A vacancy in the board of trustees does not impair the right of a quorum to exercise all rights and perform all duties of the corporation.

(8) A trustee may not receive compensation or benefits for the trustee's service, but may receive per diem and travel expenses in accordance with:

(a) Section 63A-3-106;

(b) Section 63A-3-107; and

(c) rules made by the Division of Finance according to Sections 63A-3-106 and 63A-3-107.

(9) A trustee shall, no sooner than January 1 and no later than January 31 of each year during which the trustee holds office on the board of trustees:

(a) prepare a written conflict of interest disclosure statement that contains a response to each item of information described in Subsection 20A-11-1604(6); and

(b) submit the written disclosure statement to the administrator or clerk of the board of trustees.

(10) (a) No later than 10 business days after the date on which the trustee submits the written disclosure statement described in Subsection (9) to the administrator or clerk of the board of trustees, the administrator or clerk shall:

(i) post a copy of the written disclosure statement on the corporation's website; and

(ii) provide the lieutenant governor with a link to the electronic posting described in Subsection (10)(a)(i).

(b) The administrator or clerk shall ensure that the trustee's written disclosure statement remains posted on the corporation's website until the trustee leaves office.

(11) The administrator or clerk of the board of trustees shall take the action described in Subsection (12) if:

(a) a trustee fails to timely file the written disclosure statement described in Subsection (9); or

(b) a submitted written disclosure statement does not comply with the requirements of Subsection 20A-11-1604(6).

(12) If a circumstance described in Subsection (11) occurs, the administrator or clerk of the board of trustees shall, within five days after the day on which the administrator or clerk determines that a violation occurred, notify the trustee of the violation and direct the trustee to submit an amended written disclosure statement correcting the problem.

(13) (a) It is unlawful for a trustee to fail to submit or amend a written disclosure statement within seven days after the day on which the trustee receives the notice described in Subsection (12).

(b) A trustee who violates Subsection (13)(a) is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

(c) The administrator or clerk of the board of trustees shall report a violation of Subsection (13)(a) to the attorney general.

(d) In addition to the criminal penalty described in Subsection (13)(b), the administrator or clerk of the board of trustees shall impose a civil fine of $100 against a member who violates Subsection (13)(a).

(14) The administrator or clerk of the board shall deposit a fine collected under this section into the corporation's account to pay for the costs of administering this section.

(15) In addition to the written disclosure statement described in Subsection (9), a trustee described in Subsection (2)(d) shall also comply with the conflict of interest provisions described in Section 63G-24-301.

Section 12. Section 63L-12-101 is amended to read:

63L-12-101. Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Governmental entity" means:

(a) an agency, as that term is defined in Section 63G-10-102;

(b) the School and Institutional Trust Lands Administration created in Section 53C-1-201;

(c) the School and Institutional Trust Lands Board of Trustees created in Section 53C-1-202; or

(d) a political subdivision, as that term is defined in Section 63L-11-102.

(2) "Grant" means:

(a) to convey, in whole or in part, with or without consideration; and

(b) to contract or partner with an entity for the development of moderate income housing.

~~(2)~~ [~~"Moderate income housing" means housing occupied or reserved for occupancy by households with a gross household income equal to or less than 80% of the median gross income for households of the same size in the county in which the housing is located.~~]"Moderate income housing" means a dwelling that is:

(a) offered for sale to an owner-occupier at a purchase price affordable to a household with a gross income of no more than 120% of the area median income for the county in which the residential unit is offered for sale and is deed restricted for no fewer than five years; or

(b) offered for rent at a rental price affordable to a household with a gross income of no more than 80% of the area median income for the county in which the residential unit is offered for rent.

~~(3)~~ "Municipality" means the same as that term is defined in Section 10-1-104.

(5) "Owner-occupier" means an individual who owns, solely or jointly, a housing unit in which the individual lives as the individual's primary residence.

Section 13. Section 72-2-134 is amended to read:

72-2-134. Transportation Infrastructure General Fund Support Subfund.

(1) There is created within the Transportation Investment Fund of 2005 a subfund known as the "Transportation Infrastructure General Fund Support Subfund."

(2) The subfund consists of:

(a) appropriations by the Legislature;

(b) interest earned on the subfund; and

(c) returns of the amounts of deposit with accrued interest made in accordance with Section 51-12-202.

(3) (a) The subfund shall earn interest.

(b) Interest earned on money in the subfund shall be deposited into the subfund.

(4) (a) The state treasurer shall deposit up to $300,000,000 from the subfund in accordance with Title 51, Chapter 12, Utah Homes Investment Program.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (4)(a), the state treasurer may otherwise invest funds described in Subsection (4)(a) if funds are available after qualified projects are approved under Section 51-12-201.

(5) On June 30, [~~2027~~]2028, the Division of Finance shall transfer any balance in the subfund into the Transportation Investment Fund of 2005.

Section 14. Section 72-5-117 is amended to read:

72-5-117. Rulemaking for sale of real property -- Licensed or certified appraisers -- Exceptions.

(1) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, if the department buys, sells, or exchanges real property, the department shall make rules to ensure that the value of the real property is congruent with the proposed price and other terms of the purchase, sale, or exchange.

(2) The rules:

(a) shall establish procedures for determining the value of the real property;

(b) may provide that an appraisal, as defined under Section 61-2g-102, demonstrates the real property's value;

(c) may require that the appraisal be completed by a state-certified general appraiser, as defined under Section 61-2g-102; [~~and~~]

(d) may provide for the sale or exchange of real property, with or without charge, to a large public transit district if the executive director enters into an agreement with the large public transit district and determines that the real property:

(i) is within the boundaries of a station area that has a station area plan certified by a metropolitan planning organization in accordance with Section 10-9a-403.1;

(ii) is part of a transit-oriented development or transit-supportive development as defined in Section 17B-2a-802;

(iii) is adjacent to a completed fixed guideway capital development that was overseen by the department; or

(iv) will only be used by the large public transit district in a manner that the executive director determines will provide a benefit to the state transportation system[~~.~~]; and

(e) may provide for a sale of surplus real property to a state agency or an independent entity, as defined in Section 63E-1-102, that administers public interests in housing for a pre-entitlement appraised value the payment of which may be deferred until after the development of owner-occupied housing.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to the purchase, sale, or exchange of real property, or to an interest in real property:

(a) that is under a contract or other written agreement before May 5, 2008; or

(b) with a value of less than $100,000, as estimated by the state agency.

Section 15. Effective Date.

This bill takes effect on July 1, 2025.

Section 16. Coordinating H.B. 360 with H.B. 412.

If H.B. 360, Housing Attainability Amendments, and H.B. 412, Boards and Commissions Revisions, both pass and become law, the Legislature intends that, on July 1, 2025, the amendments to Subsection 63H-8-201(3)(b) in H.B. 360 supersede the amendments to Subsection 63H-8-201(3)(b) in H.B. 412.

ENACTS:

58-1-513, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 4-41a-102 is amended to read:

4-41a-102. Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Adulterant" means any poisonous or deleterious substance in a quantity that may be injurious to health, including:

(a) pesticides;

(b) heavy metals;

(c) solvents;

(d) microbial life;

(e) artificially derived cannabinoid;

(f) toxins; or

(g) foreign matter.

(2) "Advertise" or "advertising" means information provided by a person in any medium:

(a) to the public; and

(b) that is not age restricted to an individual who is at least 21 years old.

(3) "Advisory board" means the Medical Cannabis Policy Advisory Board created in Section 26B-1-435.

(4) (a) "Anticompetitive business practice" means any practice that reduces the amount of competition in the medical cannabis market that would be considered an attempt to monopolize, as defined in Section 76-10-3103.

(b) "Anticompetitive business practice" may include:

(i) agreements that may be considered unreasonable when competitors interact to the extent that they are:

(A) no longer acting independently; or

(B) when collaborating are able to wield market power together;

(ii) monopolizing or attempting to monopolize trade by:

(A) acting to maintain or acquire a dominant position in the market; or

(B) preventing new entry into the market; or

(iii) other conduct outlined in rule.

(5) (a) "Artificially derived cannabinoid" means a chemical substance that is created by a chemical reaction that changes the molecular structure of any chemical substance derived from the cannabis plant.

(b) "Artificially derived cannabinoid" does not include:

(i) a naturally occurring chemical substance that is separated from the cannabis plant by a chemical or mechanical extraction process; or

(ii) a cannabinoid that is produced by decarboxylation from a naturally occurring cannabinoid acid without the use of a chemical catalyst.

(6) "Cannabis Research Review Board" means the Cannabis Research Review Board created in Section 26B-1-420.

(7) "Cannabis" means the same as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201.

(8) "Cannabis concentrate" means:

(a) the product of any chemical or physical process applied to naturally occurring biomass that concentrates or isolates the cannabinoids contained in the biomass; and

(b) any amount of a natural cannabinoid or artificially derived cannabinoid in an artificially derived cannabinoid's purified state.

(9) "Cannabis cultivation byproduct" means any portion of a cannabis plant that is not intended to be sold as a cannabis plant product.

(10) "Cannabis cultivation facility" means a person that:

(a) possesses cannabis;

(b) grows or intends to grow cannabis; and

~~(52)~~ "THC analog" means the same as that term is defined in Section 4-41-102.

~~(53)~~ "Total composite tetrahydrocannabinol" means all detectable forms of tetrahydrocannabinol.

~~(54)~~ "Total tetrahydrocannabinol" or "total THC" means the same as that term is defined in Section 4-41-102.

Section 2. Section 4-41a-301 is amended to read:

4-41a-301. Cannabis production establishment agent -- Registration.

(1) An individual may not act as a cannabis production establishment agent unless the department registers the individual as a cannabis production establishment agent, regardless of whether the individual is a seasonal, temporary, or permanent employee.

(2) The following individuals, regardless of the individual's status as a [~~qualified medical provider~~]recommending medical provider, may not serve as a cannabis production establishment agent, have a financial or voting interest of 2% or greater in a cannabis production establishment, or have the power to direct or cause the management or control of a cannabis production establishment:

(a) a pharmacist licensed under Title 58, Chapter 17b, Pharmacy Practice Act;

(b) an advanced practice registered nurse licensed under Title 58, Chapter 31b, Nurse Practice Act;

(c) a physician licensed under Title 58, Chapter 67, Utah Medical Practice Act, or Title 58, Chapter 68, Utah Osteopathic Medical Practice Act; or

(d) a physician assistant licensed under Title 58, Chapter 70a, Utah Physician Assistant Act.

(3) An independent cannabis testing laboratory agent may not act as an agent for a medical cannabis pharmacy, a medical cannabis courier, a cannabis processing facility, or a cannabis cultivation facility.

(4) (a) The department shall, within 15 business days after the day on which the department receives a complete application from a prospective cannabis production establishment agent, register and issue a cannabis production establishment agent registration card to the prospective agent if the prospective agent:

(i) provides to the department:

(A) the prospective agent's name and address;

(B) which cannabis production establishment agent designations the applicant desires; and

(C) the submission required under Subsection (4)(b); and

(ii) pays a fee to the department in an amount that, subject to Subsection 4-41a-104(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504.

(b) Each prospective agent described in Subsection (4)(a) shall:

(i) submit to the department:

(A) a fingerprint card in a form acceptable to the Department of Public Safety; and

(B) a signed waiver in accordance with Subsection 53-10-108(4) acknowledging the registration of the prospective agent's fingerprints in the Federal Bureau of Investigation Next Generation Identification System's Rap Back Service; and

(ii) consent to a fingerprint background check by:

(A) the Bureau of Criminal Identification; and

(B) the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(c) The Bureau of Criminal Identification shall:

(i) check the fingerprints the prospective agent submits under Subsection (4)(b) against the applicable state, regional, and national criminal records databases, including the Federal Bureau of Investigation Next Generation Identification System;

(ii) report the results of the background check to the department;

(iii) maintain a separate file of fingerprints that prospective agents submit under Subsection (4)(b) for search by future submissions to the local and regional criminal records databases, including latent prints;

(iv) request that the fingerprints be retained in the Federal Bureau of Investigation Next Generation Identification System's Rap Back Service for search by future submissions to national criminal records databases, including the Next Generation Identification System and latent prints; and

(v) establish a privacy risk mitigation strategy to ensure that the department only receives notifications for an individual with whom the department maintains an authorizing relationship.

(d) The department shall:

(i) assess an individual who submits fingerprints under Subsection (4)(b) a fee in an amount that the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504 for the services that the Bureau of Criminal Identification or another authorized agency provides under this section; and

(ii) remit the fee described in Subsection (4)(d)(i) to the Bureau of Criminal Identification.

(5) (a) The department shall designate, on an individual's cannabis production establishment agent registration card the type of cannabis production establishment for which the individual is authorized to act as an agent.

(b) When issuing a card under Subsection (5)(a) the department:

(i) may issue a cannabis production establishment agent registration card that contains both a cannabis processing facility designation and a cannabis cultivator facility designation; and

(ii) if the cannabis production establishment agent registration card will contain an independent cannabis testing laboratory designation, may not include any other designations.

(6) A cannabis production establishment agent shall comply with:

(a) a certification standard that the department develops; or

(b) a certification standard that the department has reviewed and approved.

(7) (a) The department shall ensure that the certification standard described in Subsection (6) includes training:

(i) in Utah medical cannabis law;

(ii) for a cannabis cultivation facility agent, in cannabis cultivation best practices;

(iii) for a cannabis processing facility agent, in cannabis processing, manufacturing safety procedures for items for human consumption, and sanitation best practices; and

(iv) for an independent cannabis testing laboratory agent, in cannabis testing best practices.

(b) The department shall review the training described in Subsection (7)(a) annually or as often as necessary to ensure compliance with this section.

(8) For an individual who holds or applies for a cannabis production establishment agent registration card:

(a) the department may revoke or refuse to issue the card if the individual violates the requirements of this chapter; and

(b) the department shall revoke or refuse to issue the card if the individual is convicted under state or federal law of:

(i) a felony in the preceding 10 years; or

(ii) after December 3, 2018, a misdemeanor for drug distribution.

(9) (a) A cannabis production establishment agent registration card expires two years after the day on which the department issues the card.

(b) A cannabis production establishment agent may renew the agent's registration card if the agent:

(i) is eligible for a cannabis production establishment registration card under this section;

(ii) certifies to the department in a renewal application that the information in Subsection (4)(a) is accurate or updates the information; and

(iii) pays to the department a renewal fee in an amount that:

(A) subject to Subsection 4-41a-104(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504; and

(B) may not exceed the cost of the relatively lower administrative burden of renewal in comparison to the original application process.

(10) A cannabis production establishment shall:

(a) maintain a list of each employee that holds a cannabis production establishment agent registration card; and

(b) provide the list to the department upon request.

Section 3. Section 4-41a-602 is amended to read:

4-41a-602. Cannabis product -- Labeling and child-resistant packaging.

(1) For any cannabis product that a cannabis processing facility processes or produces and for any raw cannabis that the facility packages, the facility shall:

(a) label the cannabis or cannabis product with a label that:

(i) clearly and unambiguously states that the cannabis product or package contains cannabis;

(ii) clearly displays the amount of total composite tetrahydrocannabinol, cannabidiol, and any known cannabinoid that is greater than 1% of the total cannabinoids contained in the cannabis or cannabis product as determined under Subsection 4-41a-701(4);

(iii) has a unique identification number that:

(A) is connected to the inventory control system; and

(B) identifies the unique cannabis product manufacturing process the cannabis processing facility used to manufacture the cannabis product;

(iv) identifies the cannabinoid extraction process that the cannabis processing facility used to create the cannabis product;

(v) does not display an image, word, or phrase that the facility knows or should know appeals to children; and

(vi) discloses each active or potentially active ingredient, in order of prominence, and possible allergen; and

(b) package the raw cannabis or cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form in a container that:

(i) is tamper evident and tamper resistant;

(ii) does not appeal to children;

(iii) does not mimic a candy container;

(iv) complies with child-resistant effectiveness standards that the United States Consumer Product Safety Commission establishes;

(v) includes a warning label that states:

[~~(A) for a container labeled before July 1, 2021, "WARNING: Cannabis has intoxicating effects and may be addictive. Do not operate a vehicle or machinery under its influence. KEEP OUT OF REACH OF CHILDREN. This product is for medical use only. Use only as directed by a qualified medical provider.";~~]

[~~(B) for a container labeled on or after July 1, 2021, "WARNING: Cannabis has intoxicating effects and may be addictive. Do not operate a vehicle or machinery under its influence. KEEP OUT OF REACH OF CHILDREN. This product is for medical use only. Use only as directed by a recommending medical provider."; or~~]

~~(C)~~ for a container labeled on or after January 1, 2024, "WARNING: Cannabis has intoxicating effects, may be addictive, and may increase risk of mental illness. Do not operate a vehicle or machinery under its influence. KEEP OUT OF REACH OF CHILDREN. This product is for medical use only. Use only as directed by a recommending medical provider."; [~~and~~]or

(B) for a container labeled on or after January 1, 2026, "WARNING: Cannabis use by pregnant or breastfeeding women, may result in fetal injury, preterm birth, or developmental problems for the child. Cannabis may be addictive and may increase risk of mental illness. Do not operate a vehicle or machinery under its influence. KEEP OUT OF REACH OF CHILDREN. This product is for medical use only. Use only as directed by a recommending medical provider."; and

(vi) for raw cannabis or a cannabis product sold in a vaporizer cartridge labeled on or after May 3, 2023, includes a warning label that states:

(A) "WARNING: Vaping of cannabis-derived products has been associated with lung injury."; and

(B) "WARNING: Inhalation of cannabis smoke has been associated with lung injury.".

(2) To ensure that a cannabis product that a cannabis processing facility processes or produces has a medical rather than recreational disposition, the facility may not produce or process a product whose logo, product name, or brand name includes terms related to recreational marijuana, including "weed," "pot," "reefer," "grass," "hash," "ganja," "Mary Jane," "high," "haze," "stoned," "joint," "bud," "smoke," "euphoria," "dank," "doobie," "kush," "frost," "cookies," "rec," "bake," "blunt," "combust," "bong," "budtender," "dab," "blaze," "toke," or "420."

(3) For any cannabis or cannabis product that the cannabis processing facility processes into a gelatinous cube, gelatinous rectangular cuboid, or lozenge in a cube or rectangular cuboid shape, the facility shall:

(a) ensure that the label described in Subsection (1)(a) does not contain a photograph or other image of the content of the container; and

(b) include on the label described in Subsection (1)(a) a warning about the risks of over-consumption.

(4) For any cannabis product that contains an artificially derived cannabinoid, the cannabis processing facility shall ensure that the label clearly:

(a) identifies each artificially derived cannabinoid; and

(b) identifies that each artificially derived cannabinoid is an artificially derived cannabinoid.

(5) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the department:

(a) shall make rules to establish:

(i) a standard labeling format that:

(A) complies with the requirements of this section; and

(B) ensures inclusion of a pharmacy label; and

(ii) additional requirements on packaging for cannabis and cannabis products to ensure safety and product quality; and

(b) may make rules to further define standards regarding images, words, phrases, or containers that may appeal to children under Subsection (1)(a)(v) or (1)(b)(ii).

Section 4. Section 4-41a-1101 is amended to read:

4-41a-1101. Operating requirements -- General.

(1) (a) A medical cannabis pharmacy shall operate:

(i) at the physical address provided to the department under Section 4-41a-1001; and

(ii) in accordance with the operating plan provided to the department under Section 4-41a-1001 and, if applicable, Section 4-41a-1004.

(b) A medical cannabis pharmacy shall notify the department before a change in the medical cannabis pharmacy's physical address or operating plan.

(2) An individual may not enter a medical cannabis pharmacy unless the individual:

(a) is at least 18 years old or is an emancipated minor under Section 80-7-105; and

(b) except as provided in Subsection (4):

(i) possesses a valid:

(A) medical cannabis pharmacy agent registration card;

(B) pharmacy medical provider registration card; or

(C) medical cannabis card;

(ii) is an employee of the department performing an inspection under Section 4-41a-1103; or

(iii) is another individual as the department provides.

(3) A medical cannabis pharmacy may not employ an individual who is younger than 21 years old.

(4) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(a), a medical cannabis pharmacy may authorize an individual who is not a medical cannabis pharmacy agent or pharmacy medical provider to access the medical cannabis pharmacy if the medical cannabis pharmacy tracks and monitors the individual at all times while the individual is at the medical cannabis pharmacy and maintains a record of the individual's access.

(5) A medical cannabis pharmacy shall operate in a facility that has:

(a) a single, secure public entrance;

(b) a security system with a backup power source that:

(i) detects and records entry into the medical cannabis pharmacy; and

(ii) provides notice of an unauthorized entry to law enforcement when the medical cannabis pharmacy is closed; and

(c) a lock on each area where the medical cannabis pharmacy stores cannabis or a cannabis product.

(6) A medical cannabis pharmacy shall post, both clearly and conspicuously in the medical cannabis pharmacy, the limit on the purchase of cannabis described in Subsection 4-41a-1102(2).

(7) Except for an emergency situation described in Subsection 26B-4-213(3)(c), a medical cannabis pharmacy may not allow any individual to consume cannabis on the property or premises of the medical cannabis pharmacy.

(8) A medical cannabis pharmacy may not sell cannabis or a cannabis product without first indicating on the cannabis or cannabis product label the name of the medical cannabis pharmacy.

(9) (a) Each medical cannabis pharmacy shall retain in the pharmacy's records the following information regarding each recommendation underlying a transaction:

(i) the recommending medical provider's name, address, and telephone number;

(ii) the patient's name and address;

(iii) the date of issuance;

(iv) directions of use and dosing guidelines or an indication that the recommending medical provider did not recommend specific directions of use or dosing guidelines; and

(v) if the patient did not complete the transaction, the name of the medical cannabis cardholder who completed the transaction.

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (9)(b)(iii), a medical cannabis pharmacy may not sell medical cannabis unless the medical cannabis has a label securely affixed to the container indicating the following minimum information:

(A) the name, address, and telephone number of the medical cannabis pharmacy;

(B) the unique identification number that the medical cannabis pharmacy assigns;

(C) the date of the sale;

(D) the name of the patient;

(E) the name of the recommending medical provider who recommended the medical cannabis treatment;

(F) directions for use and cautionary statements, if any;

(G) the amount dispensed and the cannabinoid content;

(H) the suggested use date;

(I) for unprocessed cannabis flower, the legal use termination date; and

(J) any other requirements that the department determines, in consultation with the Division of Professional Licensing and the Board of Pharmacy.

(ii) A medical cannabis pharmacy is exempt from the requirement to provide the following information under Subsection (9)(b)(i) if the information is already provided on the product label that a cannabis production establishment affixes:

(A) a unique identification number;

(B) directions for use and cautionary statements;

(C) amount and cannabinoid content; and

(D) a suggested use date.

(iii) If the size of a medical cannabis container does not allow sufficient space to include the labeling requirements described in Subsection (9)(b)(i), the medical cannabis pharmacy may provide the following information described in Subsection (9)(b)(i) on a supplemental label attached to the container or an informational enclosure that accompanies the container:

(A) the cannabinoid content;

(B) the suggested use date; and

(C) any other requirements that the department determines.

(iv) A medical cannabis pharmacy may sell medical cannabis to another medical cannabis pharmacy without a label described in Subsection (9)(b)(i).

(10) A pharmacy medical provider or medical cannabis pharmacy agent shall:

(a) upon receipt of an order from a [~~limited medical provider~~]recommending medical provider in accordance with Subsections 26B-4-204(1)(b) [~~through (d)~~]and (c):

(i) for a written order or an electronic order under circumstances that the department determines, contact the [~~limited medical provider~~]recommending medical provider or the [~~limited medical provider's~~]recommending medical provider's office to verify the validity of the recommendation; and

(ii) for an order that the pharmacy medical provider or medical cannabis pharmacy agent verifies under Subsection (10)(a)(i) or an electronic order that is not subject to verification under Subsection (10)(a)(i), enter the [~~limited medical provider's~~]recommending medical provider's recommendation or renewal, including any associated directions of use, dosing guidelines, or caregiver indication, in the state electronic verification system;

(b) in processing an order for a holder of a conditional medical cannabis card described in Subsection 26B-4-213(1)(b) that appears irregular or suspicious in the judgment of the pharmacy medical provider or medical cannabis pharmacy agent, contact the recommending medical provider or the recommending medical provider's office to verify the validity of the recommendation before processing the cardholder's order;

(c) unless the medical cannabis cardholder has had a consultation under Subsection 26B-4-231(5), verbally offer to a medical cannabis cardholder at the time of a purchase of cannabis, a cannabis product, or a medical cannabis device, personal counseling with the pharmacy medical provider; and

(d) provide a telephone number or website by which the cardholder may contact a pharmacy medical provider for counseling.

(11) (a) A medical cannabis pharmacy may create a medical cannabis disposal program that allows an individual to deposit unused or excess medical cannabis or cannabis residue from a medical cannabis device in a locked box or other secure receptacle within the medical cannabis pharmacy.

(b) A medical cannabis pharmacy with a disposal program described in Subsection (11)(a) shall ensure that only a medical cannabis pharmacy agent or pharmacy medical provider can access deposited medical cannabis.

(c) A medical cannabis pharmacy shall dispose of any deposited medical cannabis by:

(i) rendering the deposited medical cannabis unusable and unrecognizable before transporting deposited medical cannabis from the medical cannabis pharmacy; and

(ii) disposing of the deposited medical cannabis in accordance with:

(A) federal and state law, rules, and regulations related to hazardous waste;

(B) the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 6991 et seq.;

(C) Title 19, Chapter 6, Part 5, Solid Waste Management Act; and

(D) other regulations that the department makes in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(12) A medical cannabis pharmacy:

(ii) subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $5,000.

(c) A law enforcement officer who uses the database used by law enforcement to access information in the electronic verification system for a reason that is not the administration of criminal justice is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

(d) The department shall determine a civil violation of this Subsection (9) in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 4, Administrative Procedures Act.

(e) Civil penalties assessed under this Subsection (9) shall be deposited into the General Fund.

(f) This Subsection (9) does not prohibit a person who obtains information from the state electronic verification system under Subsection (2)(a), (c), or (f) from:

(i) including the information in the person's medical chart or file for access by a person authorized to review the medical chart or file;

(ii) providing the information to a person in accordance with the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996; or

(iii) discussing or sharing that information about the patient with the patient.

Section 9. Section 26B-4-203 is amended to read:

26B-4-203. Qualifying condition.

(1) By designating a particular condition under Subsection (2) for which the use of medical cannabis to treat symptoms is decriminalized, the Legislature does not conclusively state that:

(a) current scientific evidence clearly supports the efficacy of a medical cannabis treatment for the condition; or

(b) a medical cannabis treatment will treat, cure, or positively affect the condition.

(2) For the purposes of this part, each of the following conditions is a qualifying condition:

(a) HIV or acquired immune deficiency syndrome;

(b) Alzheimer's disease;

(c) amyotrophic lateral sclerosis;

(d) cancer;

(e) cachexia;

(f) persistent nausea that is not significantly responsive to traditional treatment, except for nausea related to:

(i) pregnancy;

(ii) cannabis-induced cyclical vomiting syndrome; or

(iii) cannabinoid hyperemesis syndrome;

(g) Crohn's disease or ulcerative colitis;

(h) epilepsy or debilitating seizures;

(i) multiple sclerosis or persistent and debilitating muscle spasms;

(j) post-traumatic stress disorder that is being treated and monitored by a licensed mental health therapist, as that term is defined in Section 58-60-102, and that:

(i) has been diagnosed by a healthcare provider or mental health provider employed or contracted by the United States Veterans Administration, evidenced by copies of medical records from the United States Veterans Administration that are included as part of the [~~qualified medical provider's~~]recommending medical provider's pre-treatment assessment and medical record documentation; or

(ii) has been diagnosed or confirmed, through face-to-face or telehealth evaluation of the patient, by a provider who is:

(A) a licensed board-eligible or board-certified psychiatrist;

(B) a licensed psychologist with a master's-level degree;

(C) a licensed clinical social worker with a master's-level degree;

(D) a licensed advanced practice registered nurse who is qualified to practice within the psychiatric mental health nursing specialty and who has completed the clinical practice requirements in psychiatric mental health nursing, including in psychotherapy, in accordance with Subsection 58-31b-302(5)(g); or

(E) a licensed physician assistant who is qualified to specialize in mental health care under Section 58-70a-501.1;

(k) autism;

(l) a terminal illness when the patient's remaining life expectancy is less than six months;

(m) a condition resulting in the individual receiving hospice care;

(n) a rare condition or disease that:

(i) affects less than 200,000 individuals in the United States, as defined in Section 526 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act; and

(ii) is not adequately managed despite treatment attempts using:

(A) conventional medications other than opioids or opiates; or

(B) physical interventions;

(o) pain lasting longer than two weeks that is not adequately managed, in the [~~qualified medical provider's~~]recommending medical provider's opinion, despite treatment attempts using:

(i) conventional medications other than opioids or opiates; or

(ii) physical interventions;

(p) pain that is expected to last for two weeks or longer for an acute condition, including a surgical procedure, for which a medical professional may generally prescribe opioids for a limited duration, subject to Subsection 26B-4-213(5)(c); and

(q) a condition that the Compassionate Use Board approves under Section 26B-1-421, on an individual, case-by-case basis.

Section 10. Section 26B-4-204 is amended to read:

26B-4-204. Treatment recommendation.

(1) (a) (i) [~~Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), an individual may not recommend a medical cannabis treatment unless the department registers the individual as a qualified medical provider in accordance with this section.~~]A recommending medical provider may recommend medical cannabis.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(a)(i), a [~~qualified medical provider~~]recommending medical provider who is a podiatrist licensed under Title 58, Chapter 5a, Podiatric Physician Licensing Act, may not recommend a medical cannabis treatment except within the course and scope of a practice of podiatry, as that term is defined in Section 58-5a-102.

[~~(b) An individual who meets the recommending qualifications may recommend a medical cannabis treatment as a limited medical provider without registering under Subsection (1)(a) if:~~]

[~~(i) the individual recommends the use of medical cannabis to the patient through an order described in Subsection (1)(c) after:~~]

[~~(A) a face-to-face visit for an initial recommendation or the renewal of a recommendation for a patient for whom the limited medical provider did not make the patient's original recommendation; or~~]

[~~(B) a visit using telehealth services for a renewal of a recommendation for a patient for whom the limited medical provider made the patient's original recommendation; and~~]

[~~(ii) the individual's recommendation or renewal would not cause the total number of the individual's patients who have a valid medical cannabis patient card or provisional patient card resulting from the individual's recommendation to exceed 15.~~]

~~(c)~~ [~~The individual described in Subsection (1)(b) shall~~]A recommending medical provider may communicate the individual's recommendation through an order for the medical cannabis pharmacy to record the individual's recommendation or renewal in the state electronic verification system under the individual's recommendation that:

(i) (A) the individual or the individual's employee sends electronically to a medical cannabis pharmacy; or

(B) the individual gives to the patient in writing for the patient to deliver to a medical cannabis pharmacy; and

(ii) may include:

(A) directions of use or dosing guidelines; and

(B) an indication of a need for a caregiver in accordance with Subsection 26B-4-213(3)(c).

~~(d)~~ If the [~~limited medical provider~~]recommending medical provider gives the patient a written recommendation to deliver to a medical cannabis pharmacy under Subsection ~~(1)(c)(i)(B), the limited medical provider~~(b)(i)(B), the recommending medical provider shall ensure that the document includes all of the information that is included on a prescription the provider would issue for a controlled substance, including:

(i) the date of issuance;

(ii) the provider's name, address and contact information, controlled substance license information, and signature; and

(iii) the patient's name, address and contact information, age, and diagnosed qualifying condition.

~~(e)~~ In considering making a recommendation as a [~~limited medical provider~~]recommending medical provider, an individual may consult information that the department makes available on the department's website for recommending providers.

[~~(2) (a) The department shall, within 15 days after the day on which the department receives an application from an individual, register and issue a qualified medical provider registration card to the individual if the individual:~~]

[~~(i) provides to the department the individual's name and address;~~]

[~~(ii) provides to the department an acknowledgment that the individual has completed four hours of continuing education related to medical cannabis;~~]

[~~(iii) provides to the department evidence that the individual meets the recommending qualifications;~~]

[~~(iv) for an applicant on or after November 1, 2021, provides to the department the information described in Subsection (10)(a); and~~]

[~~(v) pays the department a fee in an amount that:~~]

[~~(A) the department sets, in accordance with Section 63J-1-504; and~~]

[~~(B) does not exceed $300 for an initial registration.~~]

[~~(b) The department may not register an individual as a qualified medical provider if the individual is:~~]

[~~(i) a pharmacy medical provider; or~~]

[~~(ii) an owner, officer, director, board member, employee, or agent of a cannabis production establishment, a medical cannabis pharmacy, or a medical cannabis courier.~~]

[~~(3) (a) An individual shall complete the continuing education related to medical cannabis in the following amounts:~~]

[~~(i) for an individual as a condition precedent to registration, four hours; and~~]

[~~(ii) for a qualified medical provider as a condition precedent to renewal, four hours every two years.~~]

~~(b)~~ (a) The department may, in consultation with the Division of Professional Licensing, develop continuing education related to medical cannabis.

~~(c)~~ The continuing education described in this Subsection ~~(3)~~ may discuss:

(i) the provisions of this part;

(ii) general information about medical cannabis under federal and state law;

(iii) the latest scientific research on the endocannabinoid system and medical cannabis, including risks and benefits;

(iv) recommendations for medical cannabis as it relates to the continuing care of a patient in pain management, risk management, potential addiction, or palliative care; and

(v) best practices for recommending the form and dosage of medical cannabis based on the qualifying condition underlying a medical cannabis recommendation.

~~(4)~~ (a) Except as provided in Subsection ~~(4)(b)~~(b), a [~~qualified medical provider~~]recommending medical provider may not recommend a medical cannabis treatment to more than 1.5% of the total amount of medical cannabis patient cardholders.

(b) If a [~~qualified medical provider~~]recommending medical provider receives payment from an insurance plan for services provided under this chapter, then the patient whose insurance plan was billed does not count toward the 1.5% patient cap described in Subsection ~~(4)(a)~~(a).

~~(5)~~ A recommending medical provider may recommend medical cannabis to an individual under this part only in the course of a provider-patient relationship after the recommending medical provider has completed and documented in the patient's medical record a thorough assessment of the patient's condition and medical history based on the appropriate standard of care for the patient's condition.

[~~(6) (a) Except as provided in Subsections (6)(b) and (c), a person may not advertise that the person or the person's employee recommends a medical cannabis treatment.~~]

[~~(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (6)(a) and Section 4-41a-109, a qualified medical provider, medical clinic, or medical office that employs a qualified medical provider may advertise only the following:~~]

[~~(i) a green cross;~~]

[~~(ii) the provider's or clinic's name and logo;~~]

[~~(iii) a qualifying condition that the individual treats;~~]

[~~(iv) that the qualified medical provider, medical clinic, or medical office evaluates patients for medical cannabis recommendations;~~]

[~~(v) a scientific study regarding medical cannabis use; or~~]

[~~(vi) contact information.~~]

[~~(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (6)(a) and Section 4-41a-109, qualified medical provider, medical clinic, or medical office that employs a qualified medical provider may engage in targeted marketing, as determined by the department through rule, for advertising medical cannabis recommendation services.~~]

[~~(7) (a) A qualified medical provider registration card expires two years after the day on which the department issues the card.~~]

[~~(b) The department shall renew a qualified medical provider's registration card if the provider:~~]

[~~(i) applies for renewal;~~]

[~~(ii) is eligible for a qualified medical provider registration card under this section, including maintaining an unrestricted license under the recommending qualifications;~~]

[~~(iii) certifies to the department in a renewal application that the information in Subsection (2)(a) is accurate or updates the information;~~]

[~~(iv) submits a report detailing the completion of the continuing education requirement described in Subsection (3); and~~]

[~~(v) pays the department a fee in an amount that:~~]

[~~(A) the department sets, in accordance with Section 63J-1-504; and~~]

[~~(B) does not exceed $50 for a registration renewal.~~]

[~~(8) The department may revoke the registration of a qualified medical provider who fails to maintain compliance with the requirements of this section.~~]

[~~(9) A recommending medical provider may not:~~]

[~~(a) receive any compensation or benefit for the qualified medical provider's medical cannabis treatment recommendation from:~~]

[~~(i) a cannabis production establishment or an owner, officer, director, board member, employee, or agent of a cannabis production establishment;~~]

[~~(ii) a medical cannabis pharmacy or an owner, officer, director, board member, employee, or agent of a medical cannabis pharmacy; or~~]

[~~(iii) a recommending medical provider or pharmacy medical provider; or~~]

[~~(b) provide a medical cannabis recommendation at a medical clinic or medical office that is violating the advertising limitations described in Subsection (6).~~]

~~(10)~~ (a) [~~Each quarter, a qualified medical provider shall report to the department, in a manner designated by the department:~~]The department shall host a recommending provider contact list on the department's website that contains the information described in Subsection (5)(b).

[~~(i) if applicable, that the qualified medical provider or the entity that employs the qualified medical provider represents online or on printed material that the qualified medical provider is a qualified medical provider or offers medical cannabis recommendations to patients; and~~]

[~~(ii) (A) for cash payment without insurance, the fee amount that the qualified medical provider or the entity that employs the qualified medical provider charges a patient for a medical cannabis recommendation as an actual cash rate; and~~]

[~~(B) whether the qualified medical provider or the entity that employs the qualified medical provider bills insurance.~~]

(b) [~~The department shall:~~]A recommending medical provider that elects to be included on the contact list shall provide the department the following:

[~~(i) ensure that the following information related to qualified medical providers and entities described in Subsection (10)(a)(i) is available on the department's website or on the health care price transparency tool under Subsection (10)(b)(ii):~~]

~~(A)~~ the name of the [~~qualified medical provider~~]recommending medical provider and, if applicable, the name of the entity that employs the [~~qualified medical provider~~]recommending medical provider;

~~(B)~~ the address of the [~~qualified medical provider's~~]recommending medical provider's office or, if applicable, the entity that employs the [~~qualified medical provider~~]recommending medical provider; and

~~(C)~~ (A) the fee amount [~~described in Subsection (10)(a)(ii)(A); and~~]charged by the recommending medical provider; or

(B) whether the recommending medical provider or entity that employs the recommending medical provider bills insurance.

~~(ii)~~ The department shall share data collected under this Subsection ~~(10)~~ with the state auditor for use in the health care price transparency tool[~~described in Section 67-3-11~~].

Section 11. Section 26B-4-205 is amended to read:

26B-4-205. Standard of care -- Physicians and pharmacists not liable -- No private right of action.

(1) An individual described in Subsection (2) is not subject to the following solely for violating a federal law or regulation that would otherwise prohibit recommending, prescribing, or dispensing medical cannabis, a medical cannabis product, or a cannabis-based drug that the United States Food and Drug Administration has not approved:

(a) civil or criminal liability; or

(b) licensure sanctions under Title 58, Chapter 17b, Pharmacy Practice Act, Title 58, Chapter 31b, Nurse Practice Act, Title 58, Chapter 67, Utah Medical Practice Act, Title 58, Chapter 68, Utah Osteopathic Medical Practice Act, or Title 58, Chapter 70a, Utah Physician Assistant Act.

(2) The limitations of liability described in Subsection (1) apply to:

[~~(a) a podiatrist licensed under Title 58, Chapter 5a, Podiatric Physician Licensing Act, an advanced practice registered nurse licensed under Title 58, Chapter 31b, Nurse Practice Act, a physician licensed under Title 58, Chapter 67, Utah Medical Practice Act, or Title 58, Chapter 68, Utah Osteopathic Medical Practice Act, or a physician assistant licensed under Title 58, Chapter 70a, Utah Physician Assistant Act:~~]

[~~(i) (A) whom the department has registered as a qualified medical provider; or~~]

[~~(B) who makes a recommendation as a limited medical provider; and~~]

~~(ii)~~ a recommending medical provider who recommends treatment with cannabis in a medicinal dosage form or a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form to a patient in accordance with this part; and

(b) a pharmacist licensed under Title 58, Chapter 17b, Pharmacy Practice Act:

(i) whom the department has registered as a pharmacy medical provider; and

(ii) who dispenses, in a medical cannabis pharmacy, treatment with cannabis in a medicinal dosage form or a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form to a medical cannabis cardholder in accordance with this part.

(3) Nothing in this section or part reduces or in any way negates the duty of an individual described in Subsection (2) to use reasonable and ordinary care in the treatment of a patient:

(a) who may have a qualifying condition; and

(b) (i) for whom the individual described in Subsection ~~(2)(a)(i) or (ii)~~(a) has recommended or might consider recommending a treatment with cannabis or a cannabis product; or

(ii) with whom the pharmacist described in Subsection (2)(b) has interacted in the dosing or dispensing of cannabis or a cannabis product.

(4) (a) As used in this Subsection (4), "healthcare facility" means a health care facility as defined in Section 26B-2-201.

(b) A healthcare facility may adopt restrictions on the possession, use, and storage of medical cannabis on the premises of the healthcare facility by a medical cannabis cardholder who resides at or is actively receiving treatment or care at the healthcare facility.

(c) An employee or agent of a healthcare facility described in this Subsection (4) is not subject to civil or criminal liability for carrying out employment duties, including:

(i) providing or supervising care to a medical cannabis cardholder; or

(ii) in accordance with a caregiver designation under Section 26B-4-214 for a medical cannabis cardholder residing at the healthcare facility, purchasing, transporting, or possessing medical cannabis for the relevant patient and in accordance with the designation.

(d) Nothing in this section requires a healthcare facility to adopt a restriction under Subsection (4)(b).

Section 12. Section 26B-4-213 is amended to read:

26B-4-213. Medical cannabis patient card -- Medical cannabis guardian card -- Conditional medical cannabis card -- Application -- Fees -- Studies.

(1) (a) Subject to Section 26B-4-246, within 15 days after the day on which an individual who satisfies the eligibility criteria in this section or Section 26B-4-214 submits an application in accordance with this section or Section 26B-4-214, the department shall:

(i) issue a medical cannabis patient card to an individual described in Subsection (2)(a);

(ii) issue a medical cannabis guardian card to an individual described in Subsection (2)(b);

(iii) issue a provisional patient card to a minor described in Subsection (2)(c); and

(iv) issue a medical cannabis caregiver card to an individual described in Subsection 26B-4-214(4).

(b) (i) Upon the entry of a recommending medical provider's medical cannabis recommendation for a patient in the state electronic verification system, either by the provider or the provider's employee or by a medical cannabis pharmacy medical provider or medical cannabis pharmacy in accordance with Subsection 4-41a-1101(10)(a), the department shall issue to the patient an electronic conditional medical cannabis card, in accordance with this Subsection (1)(b).

(ii) A conditional medical cannabis card is valid for the lesser of:

(A) 60 days; or

(B) the day on which the department completes the department's review and issues a medical cannabis card under Subsection (1)(a), denies the patient's medical cannabis card application, or revokes the conditional medical cannabis card under Subsection (8).

(iii) The department may issue a conditional medical cannabis card to an individual applying for a medical cannabis patient card for which approval of the Compassionate Use Board is not required.

(iv) An individual described in Subsection (1)(b)(iii) has the rights, restrictions, and obligations under law applicable to a holder of the medical cannabis card for which the individual applies and for which the department issues the conditional medical cannabis card.

(2) (a) An individual is eligible for a medical cannabis patient card if:

(i) (A) the individual is at least 21 years old; or

(B) the individual is 18, 19, or 20 years old, the individual petitions the Compassionate Use Board under Section 26B-1-421, and the Compassionate Use Board recommends department approval of the petition;

(ii) the individual is a Utah resident;

(iii) the individual's recommending medical provider recommends treatment with medical cannabis in accordance with Subsection (4);

(iv) the individual signs an acknowledgment stating that the individual received the information described in Subsection (9); and

(v) the individual pays to the department a fee in an amount that, subject to Subsection 26B-1-310(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504.

(b) (i) An individual is eligible for a medical cannabis guardian card if the individual:

(A) is at least 18 years old;

(B) is a Utah resident;

(C) is the parent or legal guardian of a minor for whom the minor's recommending medical provider recommends a medical cannabis

treatment, the individual petitions the Compassionate Use Board under Section 26B-1-421, and the Compassionate Use Board recommends department approval of the petition;

(D) the individual signs an acknowledgment stating that the individual received the information described in Subsection (9); and

(E) pays to the department a fee in an amount that, subject to Subsection 26B-1-310(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504, plus the cost of the criminal background check described in Section 26B-4-215.

(ii) The department shall notify the Department of Public Safety of each individual that the department registers for a medical cannabis guardian card.

(c) (i) A minor is eligible for a provisional patient card if:

(A) the minor has a qualifying condition;

(B) the minor's recommending medical provider recommends a medical cannabis treatment to address the minor's qualifying condition;

(C) one of the minor's parents or legal guardians petitions the Compassionate Use Board under Section 26B-1-421, and the Compassionate Use Board recommends department approval of the petition; and

(D) the minor's parent or legal guardian is eligible for a medical cannabis guardian card under Subsection (2)(b) or designates a caregiver under Subsection (2)(d) who is eligible for a medical cannabis caregiver card under Section 26B-4-214.

(ii) The department shall automatically issue a provisional patient card to the minor described in Subsection (2)(c)(i) at the same time the department issues a medical cannabis guardian card to the minor's parent or legal guardian.

(d) If the parent or legal guardian of a minor described in Subsections (2)(c)(i)(A) through (C) does not qualify for a medical cannabis guardian card under Subsection (2)(b), the parent or legal guardian may designate up to two caregivers in accordance with Subsection 26B-4-214(1)(c) to ensure that the minor has adequate and safe access to the recommended medical cannabis treatment.

(3) (a) An individual who is eligible for a medical cannabis card described in Subsection (2)(a) or (b) shall submit an application for a medical cannabis card to the department:

(i) through an electronic application connected to the state electronic verification system;

(ii) with the recommending medical provider; and

(iii) with information including:

(A) the applicant's name, gender, age, and address;

(B) the number of the applicant's government issued photo identification;

(C) for a medical cannabis guardian card, the name, gender, and age of the minor receiving a medical cannabis treatment under the cardholder's medical cannabis guardian card; and

(D) for a provisional patient card, the name of the minor's parent or legal guardian who holds the associated medical cannabis guardian card.

(b) The department shall ensure that a medical cannabis card the department issues under this section contains the information described in Subsection (3)(a)(iii).

(c) (i) If a recommending medical provider determines that, because of age, illness, or disability, a medical cannabis patient cardholder requires assistance in administering the medical cannabis treatment that the recommending medical provider recommends, the recommending medical provider may indicate the cardholder's need in the state electronic verification system, either directly or [~~, for a limited medical provider,~~]through the order described in Subsections [~~26B-4-204(1)(c) and (d)~~]26B-4-204(1)(b) and (c).

(ii) If a recommending medical provider makes the indication described in Subsection (3)(c)(i):

(A) the department shall add a label to the relevant medical cannabis patient card indicating the cardholder's need for assistance;

(B) any adult who is 18 years old or older and who is physically present with the cardholder at the time the cardholder needs to use the recommended medical cannabis treatment may handle the medical cannabis treatment and any associated medical cannabis device as needed to assist the cardholder in administering the recommended medical cannabis treatment; and

(C) an individual of any age who is physically present with the cardholder in the event of an emergency medical condition, as that term is defined in Section 31A-1-301, may handle the medical cannabis treatment and any associated medical cannabis device as needed to assist the cardholder in administering the recommended medical cannabis treatment.

(iii) A non-cardholding individual acting under Subsection (3)(c)(ii)(B) or (C) may not:

(A) ingest or inhale medical cannabis;

(B) possess, transport, or handle medical cannabis or a medical cannabis device outside of the immediate area where the cardholder is present or with an intent other than to provide assistance to the cardholder; or

(C) possess, transport, or handle medical cannabis or a medical cannabis device when the cardholder is not in the process of being dosed with medical cannabis.

[~~(4) To recommend a medical cannabis treatment to a patient or to renew a recommendation, a recommending medical provider shall:~~]

[~~(a) visit with the patient face-to-face for an initial recommendation unless the patient:~~]

[~~(i) prefers a virtual visit; and~~]

[~~(ii) (A) is on hospice or has a terminal illness according to the patient's medical provider; or~~]

[~~(B) is a resident of an assisted living facility, as defined in Section 26B-2-201, or a nursing care facility, as defined in Section 26B-2-201;~~]

~~(b)~~ (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), a recommending medical provider may not recommend medical cannabis to a patient through a virtual visit.

(b) A recommending medical provider may recommend medical cannabis to a patient through a virtual visit if the patient:

(i) is on hospice or has a terminal illness according to the patient's medical provider;

(ii) is a resident of an assisted living facility, as defined in Section 26B-2-201, or a nursing care facility, as defined in Section 26B-2-201;

(iii) has previously received a medical cannabis recommendation from the recommending medical provider through a face-to-face visit; or

(iv) is a current patient of the recommending medical provider and has met with the recommending medical provider face-to-face previously.

(c) A recommending medical provider shall:

(i) before recommending or renewing a recommendation for medical cannabis in a medicinal dosage form or a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form:

~~(i)~~ verify the patient's and, for a minor patient, the minor patient's parent or legal guardian's government issued photo identification described in Subsection (3)(a);

~~(ii)~~ review any record related to the patient and, for a minor patient, the patient's parent or legal guardian [~~in:~~]accessible to the recommending medical provider including in the controlled substance database created in Section 58-37f-201; and

[~~(A) for a qualified medical provider, the state electronic verification system; and~~]

[~~(B) the controlled substance database created in Section 58-37f-201; and~~]

~~(iii)~~ consider the recommendation in light of the patient's qualifying condition, history of substance use or opioid use disorder, and history of medical cannabis and controlled substance use during a visit with the patient; and

~~(c)~~ state in the recommending medical provider's recommendation that the patient:

~~(i)~~ suffers from a qualifying condition, including the type of qualifying condition; and

~~(ii)~~ may benefit from treatment with cannabis in a medicinal dosage form or a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form.

(5) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(b) or (c), a medical cannabis card that the department issues under this section is valid for the lesser of:

(i) an amount of time that the recommending medical provider determines; or

(ii) one year from the day the card is issued.

(b) (i) A medical cannabis card that the department issues in relation to a terminal illness described in Section 26B-4-203 expires after one year.

(ii) The recommending medical provider may revoke a recommendation that the provider made in relation to a terminal illness described in Section 26B-4-203 if the medical cannabis cardholder no longer has the terminal illness.

(c) A medical cannabis card that the department issues in relation to acute pain as described in Section 26B-4-203 expires 30 days after the day on which the department first issues a conditional or full medical cannabis card.

(6) (a) A medical cannabis patient card or a medical cannabis guardian card is renewable if:

(i) at the time of renewal, the cardholder meets the requirements of Subsection (2)(a) or (b); or

(ii) the cardholder received the medical cannabis card through the recommendation of the Compassionate Use Board under Section 26B-1-421.

(b) The recommending medical provider who made the underlying recommendation for the card of a cardholder described in Subsection (6)(a) may renew the cardholder's card through phone or video conference with the cardholder, at the recommending medical provider's discretion.

(c) Before having access to a renewed card, a cardholder under Subsection (2)(a) or (b) shall pay to the department a renewal fee in an amount that:

(i) subject to Subsection 26B-1-310(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504; and

(ii) may not exceed the cost of the relatively lower administrative burden of renewal in comparison to the original application process.

(d) If a minor meets the requirements of Subsection (2)(c), the minor's provisional patient card renews automatically at the time the minor's parent or legal guardian renews the parent or legal guardian's associated medical cannabis guardian card.

(7) (a) A cardholder under this section shall carry the cardholder's valid medical cannabis card with the patient's name.

(b) (i) A medical cannabis patient cardholder or a provisional patient cardholder may purchase, in accordance with this part and the recommendation underlying the card, cannabis in a medicinal dosage form, a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form, or a medical cannabis device.

(ii) A cardholder under this section may possess or transport, in accordance with this part and the recommendation underlying the card, cannabis in a medicinal dosage form, a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form, or a medical cannabis device.

(iii) To address the qualifying condition underlying the medical cannabis treatment recommendation:

(A) a medical cannabis patient cardholder or a provisional patient cardholder may use medical cannabis or a medical cannabis device; and

(B) a medical cannabis guardian cardholder may assist the associated provisional patient cardholder with the use of medical cannabis or a medical cannabis device.

(8) (a) The department may revoke a medical cannabis card that the department issues under this section if:

(i) the recommending medical provider withdraws the medical provider's recommendation for medical cannabis; or

(ii) the cardholder:

(A) violates this part; or

(B) is convicted under state or federal law of, after March 17, 2021, a drug distribution offense.

(b) The department may not refuse to issue a medical cannabis card to a patient solely based on a prior revocation under Subsection (8)(a)(i).

(9) The department shall establish by rule, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, a process to provide information regarding the following to an individual receiving a medical cannabis card:

(a) risks associated with medical cannabis treatment;

(b) the fact that a condition's listing as a qualifying condition does not suggest that medical cannabis treatment is an effective treatment or cure for that condition, as described in Subsection 26B-4-203(1); and

(c) other relevant warnings and safety information that the department determines.

(10) The department may establish procedures by rule, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, to implement the application and issuance provisions of this section.

(11) (a) The department shall establish by rule, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, a process to allow an individual from another state to register with the department in order to purchase medical cannabis or a medical cannabis device from a medical cannabis pharmacy while the individual is visiting the state.

(b) The department may only provide the registration process described in Subsection (11)(a):

(i) to a nonresident patient; and

(ii) for no more than two visitation periods per calendar year of up to 21 calendar days per visitation period.

(12) (a) A person may submit to the department a request to conduct a research study using medical cannabis cardholder data that the state electronic verification system contains.

(b) The department shall review a request described in Subsection (12)(a) to determine whether an institutional review board, as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201, could approve the research study.

(c) At the time an individual applies for a medical cannabis card, the department shall notify the individual:

(i) of how the individual's information will be used as a cardholder;

(ii) that by applying for a medical cannabis card, unless the individual withdraws consent under Subsection (12)(d), the individual consents to the use of the individual's information for external research; and

(iii) that the individual may withdraw consent for the use of the individual's information for external research at any time, including at the time of application.

(d) An applicant may, through the medical cannabis card application, and a medical cannabis cardholder may, through the state central patient portal, withdraw the applicant's or cardholder's consent to participate in external research at any time.

(e) The department may release, for the purposes of a study described in this Subsection (12), information about a cardholder under this section who consents to participate under Subsection (12)(c).

(f) If an individual withdraws consent under Subsection (12)(d), the withdrawal of consent:

(i) applies to external research that is initiated after the withdrawal of consent; and

(ii) does not apply to research that was initiated before the withdrawal of consent.

(g) The department may establish standards for a medical research study's validity, by rule made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(13) The department shall record the issuance or revocation of a medical cannabis card under this section in the controlled substance database.

Section 13. Section 26B-4-214 is amended to read:

26B-4-214. Medical cannabis caregiver card -- Registration -- Renewal -- Revocation.

(1) (a) A cardholder described in Section 26B-4-213 may designate, through the state central patient portal, up to two individuals, or an individual and a facility in accordance with Subsection (1)(b), to serve as a designated caregiver for the cardholder.

(b) (i) A cardholder described in Section 26B-4-213 may designate one of the following types of facilities as one of the caregivers described in Subsection (1)(a):

(A) for a patient or resident, an assisted living facility, as that term is defined in Section 26B-2-201;

(B) for a patient or resident, a nursing care facility, as that term is defined in Section 26B-2-201; or

(C) for a patient, a general acute hospital, as that term is defined in Section 26B-2-201.

(ii) A facility may:

(A) assign one or more employees to assist patients with medical cannabis treatment under the caregiver designation described in this Subsection (1)(b); and

(B) receive a medical cannabis shipment from a medical cannabis pharmacy or a medical cannabis courier on behalf of the medical cannabis cardholder within the facility who designated the facility as a caregiver.

(iii) The department shall make rules to regulate the practice of facilities and facility employees serving as designated caregivers under this Subsection (1)(b).

(c) A parent or legal guardian described in Subsection 26B-4-213(2)(d), in consultation with the minor and the minor's [~~qualified medical provider~~]recommending medical provider, may designate, through the state central patient portal, up to two individuals to serve as a designated caregiver for the minor, if the department determines that the parent or legal guardian is not eligible for a medical cannabis guardian card under Section 26B-4-213.

(d) (i) Upon the entry of a caregiver designation under Subsection (1)(c) by a patient with a terminal illness described in Section 26B-4-203, the department shall issue to the designated caregiver an electronic conditional medical cannabis caregiver card, in accordance with this Subsection (1)(d).

(ii) A conditional medical cannabis caregiver card is valid for the lesser of:

(A) 60 days; or

(B) the day on which the department completes the department's review and issues a medical cannabis caregiver card under Subsection (1)(a), denies the patient's medical cannabis caregiver card application, or revokes the conditional medical cannabis caregiver card under 26B-4-246.

(iii) The department may issue a conditional medical cannabis card to an individual applying for a medical cannabis patient card for which approval of the Compassionate Use Board is not required.

(iv) An individual described in Subsection (1)(b)(iii) has the rights, restrictions, and obligations under law applicable to a holder of the medical cannabis card for which the individual applies and for which the department issues the conditional medical cannabis card.

(2) An individual that the department registers as a designated caregiver under this section and a facility described in Subsection (1)(b):

(a) for an individual designated caregiver, may carry a valid medical cannabis caregiver card;

(b) in accordance with this part, may purchase, possess, transport, or assist the patient in the use of cannabis in a medicinal dosage form, a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form, or a medical cannabis device on behalf of the designating medical cannabis cardholder;

(c) may not charge a fee to an individual to act as the individual's designated caregiver or for a service that the designated caregiver provides in relation to the role as a designated caregiver; and

(d) may accept reimbursement from the designating medical cannabis cardholder for direct costs the designated caregiver incurs for assisting with the designating cardholder's medicinal use of cannabis.

(3) (a) The department shall:

(i) within 15 days after the day on which an individual submits an application in compliance with this section, issue a medical cannabis card to the applicant if the applicant:

(A) is designated as a caregiver under Subsection (1);

(B) is eligible for a medical cannabis caregiver card under Subsection (4); and

(C) complies with this section; and

(ii) notify the Department of Public Safety of each individual that the department registers as a designated caregiver.

(b) The department shall ensure that a medical cannabis caregiver card contains the information described in Subsections (5)(b) and (3)(c)(i).

(c) If a cardholder described in Section 26B-4-213 designates an individual as a caregiver who already holds a medical cannabis caregiver card, the individual with the medical cannabis caregiver card:

(i) shall report to the department the information required of applicants under Subsection (5)(b) regarding the new designation;

(ii) if the individual makes the report described in Subsection (3)(c)(i), is not required to file an application for another medical cannabis caregiver card;

(iii) may receive an additional medical cannabis caregiver card in relation to each additional medical cannabis patient who designates the caregiver; and

(iv) is not subject to an additional background check.

(4) An individual is eligible for a medical cannabis caregiver card if the individual:

(a) is at least 21 years old;

(b) is a Utah resident;

(c) pays to the department a fee in an amount that, subject to Subsection 26B-1-310(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504, plus the cost of the criminal background check described in Section 26B-4-215;

(d) signs an acknowledgment stating that the applicant received the information described in Subsection 26B-4-213(9).

(5) An eligible applicant for a medical cannabis caregiver card shall:

(a) submit an application for a medical cannabis caregiver card to the department through an electronic application connected to the state electronic verification system; and

(b) submit the following information in the application described in Subsection (5)(a):

(i) the applicant's name, gender, age, and address;

(ii) the name, gender, age, and address of the cardholder described in Section 26B-4-213 who designated the applicant;

(iii) if a medical cannabis guardian cardholder designated the caregiver, the name, gender, and age of the minor receiving a medical cannabis treatment in relation to the medical cannabis guardian cardholder; and

(iv) any additional information that the department requests to assist in matching the application with the designating medical cannabis patient.

(6) Except as provided in Subsection (6)(b), a medical cannabis caregiver card that the department issues under this section is valid for the lesser of:

(a) an amount of time that the cardholder described in Section 26B-4-213 who designated the caregiver determines; or

(b) the amount of time remaining before the card of the cardholder described in Section 26B-4-213 expires.

(7) (a) If a designated caregiver meets the requirements of Subsection (4), the designated caregiver's medical cannabis caregiver card renews automatically at the time the cardholder described in Section 26B-4-213 who designated the caregiver:

(i) renews the cardholder's card; and

(ii) renews the caregiver's designation, in accordance with Subsection (7)(b).

(b) The department shall provide a method in the card renewal process to allow a cardholder described in Section 26B-4-213 who has designated a caregiver to:

(i) signify that the cardholder renews the caregiver's designation;

(ii) remove a caregiver's designation; or

(iii) designate a new caregiver.

(8) The department shall record the issuance or revocation of a medical cannabis card under this section in the controlled substance database.

Section 14. Section 26B-4-231 is amended to read:

26B-4-231. Partial filling -- Pharmacy medical provider directions of use.

(1) As used in this section, "partially fill" means to provide less than the full amount of cannabis or cannabis product that the recommending medical provider recommends, if the recommending medical provider recommended specific dosing guidelines.

(2) A pharmacy medical provider may partially fill a recommendation for a medical cannabis treatment at the request of the recommending medical provider who issued the medical cannabis treatment recommendation or the medical cannabis cardholder.

(3) The department shall make rules, in collaboration with the Division of Professional Licensing and the Board of Pharmacy and in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, specifying how to record the date, quantity supplied, and quantity remaining of a partially filled medical cannabis treatment recommendation.

(4) A pharmacy medical provider who is a pharmacist may, upon the request of a medical cannabis cardholder, determine different dosing guidelines, subject to the dosing limits in Subsection 4-41a-1102(2), to fill the quantity remaining of a partially filled medical cannabis treatment recommendation if:

(a) the pharmacy medical provider determined dosing guidelines for the partial fill under Subsection 4-41a-1102(5) or (6); and

(b) the medical cannabis cardholder reports that:

(i) the partial fill did not substantially affect the qualifying condition underlying the medical cannabis recommendation; or

(ii) the patient experienced an adverse reaction to the partial fill or was otherwise unable to successfully use the partial fill.

(5) If a recommending medical provider recommends treatment with medical cannabis but wishes for the pharmacy medical provider to determine directions of use and dosing guidelines:

(a) the recommending medical provider shall provide to the pharmacy medical provider, either through the state electronic verification system or through a medical cannabis pharmacy's recording of a recommendation under the order of a [~~limited medical~~

~~provider~~]recommending medical provider, any of the following information that the recommending medical provider feels would be needed to provide appropriate directions of use and dosing guidelines:

(i) information regarding the qualifying condition underlying the recommendation;

(ii) information regarding prior treatment attempts with medical cannabis; and

(iii) portions of the patient's current medication list; and

(b) before the relevant medical cannabis cardholder may obtain medical cannabis, the pharmacy medical provider shall:

(i) review pertinent medical records, including the recommending medical provider documentation described in Subsection (5)(a); and

(ii) after completing the review described in Subsection (5)(b)(i) and consulting with the recommending medical provider as needed, determine the best course of treatment through consultation with the cardholder regarding:

(A) the patient's qualifying condition underlying the recommendation from the recommending medical provider;

(B) indications for available treatments;

(C) directions of use and dosing guidelines; and

(D) potential adverse reactions.

Section 15. Section 26B-4-245 is amended to read:

26B-4-245. Purchasing and use limitations.

(1) An individual with a medical cannabis card:

(a) may purchase, in any one 28-day period, up to the legal dosage limit of:

(i) unprocessed cannabis in a medicinal dosage form; and

(ii) a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form;

(b) may not purchase:

(i) except as provided in Subsection (2), more medical cannabis than described in Subsection (1)(a); or

(ii) if the relevant recommending medical provider did not recommend directions of use and dosing guidelines, until the individual consults with the pharmacy medical provider in accordance with Subsection 26B-4-231(5), any medical cannabis; and

(c) may not use a route of administration that the relevant recommending medical provider or the pharmacy medical provider, in accordance with Subsection 26B-4-231(5), has not recommended.

(2) (a) A [~~qualified medical provider~~]recommending medical provider may petition the department to waive the 28-day period limit described in Subsection (1)(a) for a medical cannabis cardholder if the medical cannabis cardholder:

(i) has been diagnosed with a terminal illness;

(ii) has a life expectancy of six months or less; and

(iii) needs the waiver for palliative purposes.

(b) The department shall:

(i) consult with the Compassionate Use Board to determine whether the waiver should be granted;

(ii) issue a response to the petition within 10 days from the day on which the petition is received.

(c) The department may waive the 28-day period limit for no more than 180 days.

(d) A petition described in this Subsection (2) may be combined with the petition described in Subsection 26B-1-421(6).

Section 16. Section 53B-17-903 is amended to read:

53B-17-903. Education in pain treatment.

The University of Utah School of Medicine shall ensure that any licensed physicians who oversee fellowship training to specialize in pain treatment are [~~qualified medical providers~~]recommending medical providers, as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201.

Section 17. Section 58-1-513 is enacted to read:

58-1-513. Recommending medical provider cannabis advertisement -- Payment restriction -- Unprofessional conduct.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Recommending medical provider" means the same as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201.

(b) "Targeted marketing" means the same as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201.

(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsections (2)(b) and (c), a person may not advertise that the person or the person's employee recommends a medical cannabis treatment.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(a) and Section 4-41a-109, a recommending medical provider, medical clinic, or medical office that employs a recommending medical provider may advertise only the following:

(i) a green cross;

(ii) the provider's or clinic's name and logo;

(iii) a qualifying condition that the individual treats;

(iv) that the recommending medical provider, medical clinic, or medical office evaluates patients for medical cannabis recommendations;

(v) a scientific study regarding medical cannabis use; or

(vi) contact information.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(a) and Section 4-41a-109, a recommending medical provider, medical clinic, or medical office that employs a recommending medical provider may engage in targeted marketing, as determined by the Department of Health and Human Services through rule, for advertising medical cannabis recommendation services.

(3) (a) A recommending medical provider may not:

(i) receive any compensation or benefit for the recommending medical provider's medical cannabis treatment recommendation from:

(A) a cannabis production establishment or an owner, officer, director, board member, employee, or agent of a cannabis production establishment;

(B) a medical cannabis pharmacy or an owner, officer, director, board member, employee, or agent of a medical cannabis pharmacy; or

(C) a recommending medical provider or pharmacy medical provider; or

(ii) provide a medical cannabis recommendation at a medical clinic or medical office that is violating the advertising limitations described in Subsection (2).

(b) A violation of Subsection (3)(a) is unprofessional conduct.

Section 18. Section 58-5a-102 is amended to read:

58-5a-102. Definitions.

In addition to the definitions under Section 58-1-102, as used in this chapter:

(1) "Assisted living facility" means the same as that term is defined in Section 26B-2-201.

(2) "Board" means the Podiatric Physician Board created in Section 58-5a-201.

(3) "Indirect supervision" means the same as that term is defined by the division by rule made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(4) "Medical assistant" means an unlicensed individual working under the indirect supervision of a licensed podiatric physician and engaging in specific tasks assigned by the licensed podiatric physician in accordance with the standards and ethics of the podiatry profession.

(5) "Practice of podiatry" means, subject to Section 58-5a-103, the diagnosis and treatment of conditions affecting the human foot and ankle and their manifestations of systemic conditions, and wound debridement on the limbs and torso, by all appropriate and lawful means.

(6) "Unlawful conduct" includes:

(a) the conduct that constitutes unlawful conduct under Section 58-1-501; and

(b) for an individual who is not licensed under this chapter:

(i) using the title or name podiatric physician, podiatrist, podiatric surgeon, foot doctor, foot specialist, or D.P.M.; or

(ii) implying or representing that the individual is qualified to practice podiatry.

(7) (a) "Unprofessional conduct" includes, for an individual licensed under this chapter:

(i) the conduct that constitutes unprofessional conduct under Section 58-1-501;

(ii) communicating to a third party, without the consent of the patient, information the individual acquires in treating the patient, except as necessary for professional consultation regarding treatment of the patient;

(iii) allowing the individual's name or license to be used by an individual who is not licensed to practice podiatry under this chapter;

(iv) except as described in Section 58-5a-306, employing, directly or indirectly, any unlicensed individual to practice podiatry;

(v) using alcohol or drugs, to the extent the individual's use of alcohol or drugs impairs the individual's ability to practice podiatry;

(vi) unlawfully prescribing, selling, or giving away any prescription drug, including controlled substances, as defined in Section 58-37-2;

(vii) gross incompetency in the practice of podiatry;

(viii) willfully and intentionally making a false statement or entry in hospital records, medical records, or reports;

(ix) willfully making a false statement in reports or claim forms to governmental agencies or insurance companies with the intent to secure payment not rightfully due;

(x) willfully using false or fraudulent advertising;

(xi) conduct the division defines as unprofessional conduct by rule made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act;

(xii) falsely making an entry in, or altering, a medical record with the intent to conceal:

(A) a wrongful or negligent act or omission of an individual licensed under this chapter or an individual under the direction or control of an individual licensed under this chapter; or

(B) conduct described in Subsections (7)(a)(i) through (xi) or Subsection 58-1-501(1); or (xiii) violating the requirements of Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis.

(b) "Unprofessional conduct" does not include, in accordance with Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis, when [~~registered as a qualified medical provider or acting as a limited medical provider, as those terms are~~]acting as a recommending medical provider, as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201, recommending the use of medical cannabis within the scope of [~~a~~]practice of podiatry.

Section 19. Section 58-31b-305 is amended to read:

58-31b-305. Term of license -- Expiration -- Renewal.

(1) (a) The division shall issue each license or certification under this chapter in accordance with a two-year renewal cycle established by rule.

(b) The division may by rule extend or shorten a renewal period by as much as one year to stagger the renewal cycles the division administers.

(2) The division shall renew the license of a licensee who, at the time of renewal:

(a) completes and submits an application for renewal in a form prescribed by the division;

(b) pays a renewal fee established by the division under Section 63J-1-504;

(c) views a suicide prevention video described in Section 58-1-601 and submits proof in the form required by the division; and

(d) meets continuing competency requirements as established by rule.

(3) In addition to the renewal requirements under Subsection (2), a person licensed as an advanced practice registered nurse shall be currently certified by a program approved by the division in collaboration with the board and submit evidence satisfactory to the division of that qualification or if licensed prior to July 1, 1992, meet the requirements established by rule.

(4) In addition to the requirements described in Subsections (2) and (3), an advanced practice registered nurse licensee specializing in psychiatric mental health nursing who, as of the day on which the division originally issued the licensee's license had not completed the division's clinical practice requirements in psychiatric and mental health nursing, shall, to qualify for renewal:

(a) if renewing less than two years after the day on which the division originally issued the license, demonstrate satisfactory progress toward completing the clinical practice requirements; or

(b) have completed the clinical practice requirements.

(5) Each license or certification automatically expires on the expiration date shown on the license or certification unless renewed in accordance with Section 58-1-308.

[~~(6) The division shall accept and apply toward an hour requirement that the division establishes under Subsection (2)(d)continuingeducation that an advanced practice registered nurse completes in accordance with Section 26B-4-204.~~]

Section 20. Section 58-31b-502 is amended to read:

58-31b-502. Unprofessional conduct.

(1) "Unprofessional conduct" includes:

(a) failure to safeguard a patient's right to privacy as to the patient's person, condition, diagnosis, personal effects, or any other matter about which the licensee is privileged to know because of the licensee's or person with a certification's position or practice as a nurse or practice as a medication aide certified;

(b) failure to provide nursing service or service as a medication aide certified in a manner that demonstrates respect for the patient's human dignity and unique personal character and needs without regard to the patient's race, religion, ethnic background, socioeconomic status, age, sex, or the nature of the patient's health problem;

(c) engaging in sexual relations with a patient during any:

(i) period when a generally recognized professional relationship exists between the person licensed or certified under this chapter and the patient; or

(ii) extended period when a patient has reasonable cause to believe a professional relationship exists between the person licensed or certified under the provisions of this chapter and the patient;

(d) (i) as a result of any circumstance under Subsection (1)(c), exploiting or using information about a patient or exploiting the licensee's or the person with a certification's professional relationship between the licensee or holder of a certification under this chapter and the patient; or

(ii) exploiting the patient by use of the licensee's or person with a certification's knowledge of the patient obtained while acting as a nurse or a medication aide certified;

(e) unlawfully obtaining, possessing, or using any prescription drug or illicit drug;

(f) unauthorized taking or personal use of nursing supplies from an employer;

(g) unauthorized taking or personal use of a patient's personal property;

(h) unlawful or inappropriate delegation of nursing care;

(i) failure to exercise appropriate supervision of persons providing patient care services under supervision of the licensed nurse;

(j) employing or aiding and abetting the employment of an unqualified or unlicensed person to practice as a nurse;

(k) failure to file or record any medical report as required by law, impeding or obstructing the filing or recording of such a report, or inducing another to fail to file or record such a report;

(l) breach of a statutory, common law, regulatory, or ethical requirement of confidentiality with respect to a person who is a patient, unless ordered by a court;

(m) failure to pay a penalty imposed by the division;

(n) violating Section 58-31b-801;

(o) violating the dispensing requirements of Section 58-17b-309 or Chapter 17b, Part 8, Dispensing Medical Practitioner and Dispensing Medical Practitioner Clinic Pharmacy, if applicable;

(p) performing or inducing an abortion in violation of the requirements of Section 76-7-302 or Section 76-7a-201, regardless of whether the person licensed or certified under the provisions of this chapter is found guilty of a crime in connection with the violation;

(q) falsely making an entry in, or altering, a medical record with the intent to conceal:

(i) a wrongful or negligent act or omission of an individual licensed under this chapter or an individual under the direction or control of an individual licensed under this chapter; or

(ii) conduct described in Subsections (1)(a) through (n) or Subsection 58-1-501(1);

(r) violating the requirements of Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis; or

(s) for an advance practice registered nurse, designating a child as do not resuscitate without parental consent.

(2) "Unprofessional conduct" does not include, in accordance with Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis, when [~~registered as aqualified medical provider, or acting as a limited medical provider, as those terms are~~]acting as a recommending medical provider, as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201, recommending the use of medical cannabis.

(3) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the division, in consultation with the board and in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, shall define unprofessional conduct for an advanced practice registered nurse described in Subsection (2).

Section 21. Section 58-67-304 is amended to read:

58-67-304. License renewal requirements.

(1) As a condition precedent for license renewal, each licensee shall, during each two-year licensure cycle or other cycle defined by division rule:

(a) complete qualified continuing professional education requirements in accordance with the number of hours and standards defined by division rule made in collaboration with the board;

(b) appoint a contact person for access to medical records and an alternate contact person for access to medical records in accordance with Subsection 58-67-302(1)(i);

(c) if the licensee practices medicine in a location with no other persons licensed under this chapter, provide some method of notice to the licensee's patients of the identity and location of the contact person and alternate contact person for the licensee; and

(d) if the licensee is an associate physician licensed under Section 58-67-302.8, successfully complete the educational methods and programs described in Subsection 58-67-807(4).

(2) If a renewal period is extended or shortened under Section 58-67-303, the continuing education hours required for license renewal under this section are increased or decreased proportionally.

(3) (a) An application to renew a license under this chapter shall:

(i) require a physician to answer the following question: "Do you perform elective abortions in Utah in a location other than a hospital?"; and

(ii) immediately following the question, contain the following statement: "For purposes of the immediately preceding question, elective abortion means an abortion other than one of the following: removal of a dead fetus, removal of an ectopic pregnancy, an abortion that is necessary to avert the death of a woman, an abortion that is necessary to avert a serious physical risk of substantial impairment of a major bodily function of a woman, an abortion of a fetus that has a defect that is uniformly diagnosable and uniformly lethal, or an abortion where the woman is pregnant as a result of rape or incest."

(b) The statement in Subsection (3)(a)(ii) shall be modified, if necessary, to ensure compliance with the definitions and requirements of Title 76, Chapter 7, Part 3, Abortion, and Title 76, Chapter 7a, Abortion Prohibition.

(4) In order to assist the Department of Health and Human Services in fulfilling the department's responsibilities relating to the licensing of a health care facility and the enforcement of Title 76, Chapter 7, Part 3, Abortion, and Title 76, Chapter 7a, Abortion Prohibition, if a physician responds positively to the question described in Subsection (3)(a)(i) the division shall, within 30 days after the day on which the division renews the physician's license under this chapter, inform the Department of Health and Human Services in writing:

(a) of the name and business address of the physician; and

(b) that the physician responded positively to the question described in Subsection (3)(a)(i).

(5) The division shall accept and apply toward the hour requirement in Subsection (1)(a) any continuing education that a physician completes in accordance with [~~Sections 26B-4-204 and~~]Section 26B-4-219.

Section 22. Section 58-67-502 is amended to read:

58-67-502. Unprofessional conduct.

(1) "Unprofessional conduct" includes, in addition to the definition in Section 58-1-501:

(a) using or employing the services of any individual to assist a licensee in any manner not in accordance with the generally recognized practices, standards, or ethics of the profession, state law, or division rule;

(b) making a material misrepresentation regarding the qualifications for licensure under Section 58-67-302.7 or 58-67-302.8;

(c) violating the dispensing requirements of Chapter 17b, Part 8, Dispensing Medical Practitioner and Dispensing Medical Practitioner Clinic Pharmacy, if applicable;

(d) violating the requirements of Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis;

(e) performing or inducing an abortion in violation of the requirements of Section 76-7-302 or Section 76-7a-201, regardless of whether the individual licensed under this chapter is found guilty of a crime in connection with the violation;

(f) falsely making an entry in, or altering, a medical record with the intent to conceal:

(i) a wrongful or negligent act or omission of an individual licensed under this chapter or an individual under the direction or control of an individual licensed under this chapter; or

(ii) conduct described in Subsections (1)(a) through (e) or Subsection 58-1-501(1);

(g) performing, or causing to be performed, upon an individual who is less than 18 years old:

(i) a primary sex characteristic surgical procedure; or

(ii) a secondary sex characteristic surgical procedure; or

(h) designating a child as do not resuscitate without parental consent.

(2) "Unprofessional conduct" does not include:

(a) in compliance with Section 58-85-103:

(i) obtaining an investigational drug or investigational device;

(ii) administering the investigational drug to an eligible patient; or

(iii) treating an eligible patient with the investigational drug or investigational device; or

(b) in accordance with Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis:

(i) when [~~registered as a qualified medical provider or acting as a limited medical provider, as those terms are~~]acting as a recommending medical provider, as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201, recommending the use of medical cannabis; or

(ii) when registered as a pharmacy medical provider, as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201, providing pharmacy medical provider services in a medical cannabis pharmacy.

(3) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(b), the division, in consultation with the board and in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, shall define unprofessional conduct for a physician described in Subsection (2)(b).

Section 23. Section 58-68-304 is amended to read:

58-68-304. License renewal requirements.

(1) As a condition precedent for license renewal, each licensee shall, during each two-year licensure cycle or other cycle defined by division rule:

(a) complete qualified continuing professional education requirements in accordance with the number of hours and standards defined by division rule in collaboration with the board;

(b) appoint a contact person for access to medical records and an alternate contact person for access to medical records in accordance with Subsection 58-68-302(1)(i);

(c) if the licensee practices osteopathic medicine in a location with no other persons licensed under this chapter, provide some method of notice to the licensee's patients of the identity and location of the contact person and alternate contact person for access to medical records for the licensee in accordance with Subsection 58-68-302(1)(j); and

(d) if the licensee is an associate physician licensed under Section 58-68-302.5, successfully complete the educational methods and programs described in Subsection 58-68-807(4).

(2) If a renewal period is extended or shortened under Section 58-68-303, the continuing education hours required for license renewal under this section are increased or decreased proportionally.

(3) (a) An application to renew a license under this chapter shall:

(i) require a physician to answer the following question: "Do you perform elective abortions in Utah in a location other than a hospital?"; and

(ii) immediately following the question, contain the following statement: "For purposes of the immediately preceding question, elective abortion means an abortion other than one of the following: removal of a dead fetus, removal of an ectopic pregnancy, an abortion that is necessary to avert the death of a woman, an abortion that is necessary to avert a serious physical risk of substantial impairment of a major bodily function of a woman, an abortion of a fetus that has a defect that is uniformly diagnosable and uniformly lethal, or an abortion where the woman is pregnant as a result of rape or incest."

(b) The statement in Subsection (3)(a)(ii) shall be modified, if necessary, to ensure compliance with the definitions and requirements of Title 76, Chapter 7, Part 3, Abortion, and Title 76, Chapter 7a, Abortion Prohibition.

(4) In order to assist the Department of Health and Human Services in fulfilling the department's responsibilities relating to the licensing of a health care facility and the enforcement of Title 76, Chapter 7, Part 3, Abortion, and Title 76, Chapter 7a, Abortion Prohibition, if a physician responds positively to the question described in Subsection (3)(a)(i), the division shall, within 30 days after the day on which it renews the physician's license under this chapter, inform the Department of Health and Human Services in writing:

(a) of the name and business address of the physician; and

(b) that the physician responded positively to the question described in Subsection (3)(a)(i).

(5) The division shall accept and apply toward the hour requirement in Subsection (1)(a) any continuing education that a physician completes in accordance with [~~Sections 26B-4-204 and~~]Section 26B-4-219.

Section 24. Section 58-68-502 is amended to read:

58-68-502. Unprofessional conduct.

(1) "Unprofessional conduct" includes, in addition to the definition in Section 58-1-501:

(a) using or employing the services of any individual to assist a licensee in any manner not in accordance with the generally recognized practices, standards, or ethics of the profession, state law, or division rule;

(b) violating the dispensing requirements of Chapter 17b, Part 8, Dispensing Medical Practitioner and Dispensing Medical Practitioner Clinic Pharmacy, if applicable;

(c) making a material misrepresentation regarding the qualifications for licensure under Section 58-68-302.5;

(d) violating the requirements of Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis;

(e) performing or inducing an abortion in violation of the requirements of Section 76-7-302 or Section 76-7a-201, regardless of whether the individual licensed under this chapter is found guilty of a crime in connection with the violation;

(f) falsely making an entry in, or altering, a medical record with the intent to conceal:

(i) a wrongful or negligent act or omission of an individual licensed under this chapter or an individual under the direction or control of an individual licensed under this chapter; or

(ii) conduct described in Subsections (1)(a) through (e) or Subsection 58-1-501(1);

(g) performing or causing to be performed, upon an individual who is less than 18 years old:

(i) a primary sex characteristic surgical procedure; or

(ii) a secondary sex characteristic surgical procedure; or

(h) designating a child as do not resuscitate without parental consent.

(2) "Unprofessional conduct" does not include:

(a) in compliance with Section 58-85-103:

(i) obtaining an investigational drug or investigational device;

(ii) administering the investigational drug to an eligible patient; or

(iii) treating an eligible patient with the investigational drug or investigational device; or

(b) in accordance with Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis:

(i) when [~~registered as aqualified medical provideror acting as a limited medical provider, as those terms are~~]acting as a recommending medical provider, as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201, recommending the use of medical cannabis; or

(ii) when registered as a pharmacy medical provider, as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201, providing pharmacy medical provider services in a medical cannabis pharmacy.

(3) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(b), the division, in consultation with the board and in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, shall define unprofessional conduct for a physician described in Subsection (2)(b).

Section 25. Section 58-70a-303 is amended to read:

58-70a-303. Term of license -- Expiration -- Renewal.

(1) (a) The division shall issue each license under this chapter in accordance with a two-year renewal cycle established by division rule.

(b) The division may by rule extend or shorten a renewal period by as much as one year to stagger the renewal cycles it administers.

(2) At the time of renewal, the licensee shall show compliance with continuing education renewal requirements.

(3) Each license issued under this chapter expires on the expiration date shown on the license unless renewed in accordance with Section 58-1-308.

[~~(4) The division shall accept and apply toward an hour requirement that the division establishes under Subsection (2)continuingeducation that a physician assistant completes in accordance with Section 26B-4-204.~~]

Section 26. Section 58-70a-503 is amended to read:

58-70a-503. Unprofessional conduct.

(1) "Unprofessional conduct" includes:

(a) violation of a patient confidence to any person who does not have a legal right and a professional need to know the information concerning the patient;

(b) knowingly prescribing, selling, giving away, or directly or indirectly administering, or offering to prescribe, sell, furnish, give away, or administer any prescription drug except for a legitimate medical purpose upon a proper diagnosis indicating use of that drug in the amounts prescribed or provided;

(c) prescribing prescription drugs for oneself or administering prescription drugs to oneself, except those that have been legally prescribed for the physician assistant by a licensed practitioner and that are used in accordance with the prescription order for the condition diagnosed;

(d) in a practice that has physician assistant ownership interests, failure to allow a physician the independent final decision making authority on treatment decisions for the physician's patient;

(e) violating the dispensing requirements of Chapter 17b, Part 8, Dispensing Medical Practitioner and Dispensing Medical Practitioner Clinic Pharmacy, if applicable;

(f) falsely making an entry in, or altering, a medical record with the intent to conceal:

(i) a wrongful or negligent act or omission of an individual licensed under this chapter or an individual under the direction or control of an individual licensed under this chapter; or

(ii) conduct described in Subsections (1)(a) through (e) or Subsection 58-1-501(1);

(g) violating the requirements of Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis; or

(h) designating a child as do not resuscitate without parental consent.

(2) (a) "Unprofessional conduct" does not include, in accordance with Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis, when [~~registered as aqualified medical provideror acting as a limited medical provider, as those terms are~~]acting as a recommending medical provider, as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201, recommending the use of medical cannabis.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(a), the division, in consultation with the board and in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, shall define unprofessional conduct for a physician assistant described in Subsection (2)(a).

Section 27. Section 80-4-109 is amended to read:

80-4-109. Consideration of cannabis during proceedings.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Cannabis" means the same as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201.

(b) "Cannabis product" means the same as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201.

(c) (i) "Chronic" means repeated or patterned.

(ii) "Chronic" does not mean an isolated incident.

(d) "Directions of use" means the same as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201.

(e) "Dosing guidelines" means the same as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201.

(f) "Medical cannabis" means the same as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201.

(g) "Medical cannabis cardholder" means the same as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201.

(h) " [~~Qualified~~]Recommending medical provider" means the same as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201.

(2) In a proceeding under this chapter in which the juvenile court makes a finding, determination, or otherwise considers an individual's possession or use of medical cannabis, a cannabis product, or a medical cannabis device, the juvenile court may not consider or treat the individual's possession or use any differently than the lawful possession or use of any prescribed controlled substance if:

(a) the individual's possession or use complies with Title 4, Chapter 41a, Cannabis Production Establishments and Pharmacies;

(b) the individual's possession or use complies with Subsection 58-37-3.7(2) or (3); or

(c) (i) the individual's possession or use complies with Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis; and

(ii) the individual reasonably complies with the directions of use and dosing guidelines determined by the individual's [~~qualified medical provider~~]recommending medical provider or through a consultation described in Subsection [~~26B-4-230(5)~~]26B-4-231(5).

(3) In a proceeding under this chapter, a parent's or guardian's use of cannabis or a cannabis product is not abuse or neglect of a child unless there is evidence showing that:

(a) the child is harmed because of the child's inhalation or ingestion of cannabis, or because of cannabis being introduced to the child's body in another manner; or

(b) the child is at an unreasonable risk of harm because of chronic inhalation or ingestion of cannabis or chronic introduction of cannabis to the child's body in another manner.

(4) Unless there is harm or an unreasonable risk of harm to the child as described in Subsection (3), a parent's or guardian's use of medical cannabis or a cannabis product is not contrary to the best interests of a child if:

(a) for a medical cannabis cardholder after January 1, 2021, the parent's or guardian's possession or use complies with Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis, and there is no evidence that the parent's or guardian's use of medical cannabis unreasonably deviates from the directions of use and dosing guidelines determined by the parent's or guardian's [~~qualified medical provider~~]recommending medical provider or through a consultation described in Subsection [~~26B-4-230(5)~~]26B-4-231(5); or

(b) before January 1, 2021, the parent's or guardian's possession or use complies with Subsection 58-37-3.7(2) or (3).

(5) Subsection (3) does not prohibit a finding of abuse or neglect of a child and Subsection (3) does not prohibit a finding that a parent's or guardian's use of medical cannabis or a cannabis product is contrary to the best interests of a child, if there is evidence showing a nexus between the parent's or guardian's use of cannabis or a cannabis product and behavior that would separately constitute abuse or neglect of the child.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 41-6a-1712 is amended to read:

41-6a-1712. Destructive or injurious materials on highways -- Throwing lighted material from moving vehicle -- Enforcement officers.

(1) As used in this section, "lighted material" means an item that is flaming, burning, or smoking, including lighted charcoal, fireworks, matches, tobacco, cigars, or cigarettes.

(2) A person may not throw, deposit, or discard, or permit to be dropped, thrown, deposited, or discarded on any public road or highway in the state, whether under state, county, municipal, or federal ownership, any plastic container, glass bottle, glass, nails, tacks, wire, cans, barbed wire, boards, trash or garbage, paper or paper products, or any other substance which would or could:

(a) create a safety or health hazard on the public road or highway; or

(b) mar or impair the scenic aspect or beauty of the public road or highway.

~~(2)~~ A person who drops, throws, deposits, or discards, or permits to be dropped, thrown, deposited, or discarded, on any public road or highway any destructive, injurious, or unsightly material shall:

(a) immediately remove the material or cause it to be removed; and

(b) deposit the material in a receptacle designed to receive the material.

~~(3)~~ A person distributing commercial handbills, leaflets, or other advertising shall take whatever measures are reasonably necessary to keep the material from littering public roadways or highways.

~~(4)~~ A person removing a wrecked or damaged vehicle from a public road or highway shall remove any glass or other injurious substance dropped from the vehicle on the road or highway.

~~(5)~~ A person may not throw any lighted material from a moving vehicle.

~~(6)~~ Except as provided in Section 72-7-409, any person transporting loose cargo by truck, trailer, or other motor vehicle shall secure the cargo in a reasonable manner to prevent the cargo from littering or spilling on both public and private property or public roadways.

~~(7)~~ A law enforcement officer as defined in Section 53-13-103, within the law enforcement officer's jurisdiction:

(a) shall enforce the provisions of this section;

(b) may issue citations to a person who violates any of the provisions of this section; and

(c) may serve and execute all warrants, citations, and other process issued by any court in enforcing this section.

~~(8)~~ A municipality within its corporate limits and a county outside of incorporated municipalities may enact local ordinances to carry out the provisions of this section.

Section 2. Section 41-6a-1713 is amended to read:

41-6a-1713. Penalty for littering on a highway.

(1) [~~A person~~]Except as provided in Subsection (3), an individual who violates any of the provisions of Section 41-6a-1712 is guilty of an infraction and shall be fined:

(a) not less than $200 for a violation; or

(b) not less than $500 for a second or subsequent violation within three years of a previous violation of this section.

(2) The sentencing judge may require that the offender devote at least eight hours in cleaning up:

(a) litter caused by the offender; and

(b) existing litter from a safe area designated by the sentencing judge.

(3) An individual who violates Subsection 41-6a-1712(6) is guilty of a class C misdemeanor.

Section 3. Section 53-8-105 is amended to read:

53-8-105. Duties of Highway Patrol.

(1) In addition to the duties in this chapter, the Highway Patrol shall:

(a) enforce the state laws and rules governing use of the state highways;

(b) regulate traffic on all highways and roads of the state;

(c) assist the governor in an emergency or at other times at his discretion;

(d) in cooperation with federal, state, and local agencies, enforce and assist in the enforcement of all state and federal laws related to the operation of a motor carrier on a highway, including all state and federal rules and regulations;

(e) inspect certain vehicles to determine road worthiness and safe condition as provided in Section 41-6a-1630;

(f) upon request, assist with any condition of unrest existing or developing on a campus or related facility of an institution of higher education;

(g) assist the Alcoholic Beverage Services Commission in an emergency to enforce the state liquor laws;

(h) provide security and protection for both houses of the Legislature while in session as the speaker of the House of Representatives and the president of the Senate find necessary;

(i) enforce the state laws and rules governing use of capitol hill; and

(j) carry out the following for the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals:

(i) provide security and protection to those courts when in session in the capital city of the state;

(ii) execute orders issued by the courts; and

(iii) carry out duties as directed by the courts.

(2) (a) The division and the department shall annually:

(i) evaluate the inventory of new and existing state highways, in coordination with relevant local law enforcement agencies, to determine which law enforcement agency is best suited to patrol and enforce state laws and regulate traffic on each state highway; and

(ii) before October 1 of each year, report to the Transportation Interim Committee and the Executive Offices and Criminal Justice Appropriations Subcommittee regarding:

(A) significant changes to the patrol and enforcement responsibilities resulting from the evaluation described in Subsection (2)(a)(i); and

(B) any budget request necessary to accommodate additional patrol and enforcement responsibilities.

(b) The division and the department shall, before July 1 of each year, coordinate with the Department of Transportation created in Section 72-1-201 regarding patrol and enforcement responsibilities described in Subsection (2)(a) and incident management services on state highways.

(3) (a) A district court and a justice court shall collect and maintain data regarding violations in Sections 41-6a-1712, 41-6a-1713, and 72-7-409.

(b) Each court shall transmit dispositions described in Subsection (3)(a) electronically to the department.

Section 4. Section 72-1-201 is amended to read:

72-1-201. Creation of Department of Transportation -- Functions, powers, duties, rights, and responsibilities.

(1) There is created the Department of Transportation which shall:

(a) have the general responsibility for planning, research, design, construction, maintenance, security, and safety of state transportation systems;

(b) provide administration for state transportation systems and programs;

(c) implement the transportation policies of the state;

(d) plan, develop, construct, and maintain state transportation systems that are safe, reliable, environmentally sensitive, and serve the needs of the traveling public, commerce, and industry;

(e) establish standards and procedures regarding the technical details of administration of the state transportation systems as established by statute and administrative rule;

(f) advise the governor and the Legislature about state transportation systems needs;

(g) coordinate with utility companies for the reasonable, efficient, and cost-effective installation, maintenance, operation, relocation, and upgrade of utilities within state highway rights-of-way;

(h) in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, make rules for the administration of the department, state transportation systems, and programs;

(i) jointly with the commission annually report to the Transportation Interim Committee, by November 30 of each year, as to the operation, maintenance, condition, mobility, safety needs, and wildlife and livestock mitigation for state transportation systems;

(j) ensure that any training or certification required of a public official or public employee, as those terms are defined in Section 63G-22-102, complies with Title 63G, Chapter 22, State Training and Certification Requirements, if the training or certification is required:

(i) under this title;

(ii) by the department; or

(iii) by an agency or division within the department;

(k) study and make recommendations to the Legislature on potential managed lane use and implementation on selected transportation systems within the state;

(l) before July 1 of each year, coordinate with the Utah Highway Patrol Division created in Section 53-8-103 regarding:

(i) future highway projects that will add additional capacity to the state transportation system;

(ii) potential changes in law enforcement responsibilities due to future highway projects; and

(iii) incident management services on state highways; [~~and~~]

(m) provide public transit services, in consultation with any relevant public transit provider[~~.~~]; and

(n) implement a public service campaign as described in Section 72-2-135, in coordination with relevant stakeholders including permitted landfills and transfer stations, to generate public awareness regarding the importance of proper transportation and disposal of waste and maintaining clean roads and highways.

(2) (a) The department shall exercise reasonable care in designing, constructing, and maintaining a state highway in a reasonably safe condition for travel.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed as:

(i) creating a private right of action; or

(ii) expanding or changing the department's common law duty as described in Subsection (2)(a) for liability purposes.

Section 5. Section 72-2-135 is enacted to read:

72-2-135. Litter Abatement Expendable Special Revenue Fund.

(1) There is created an expendable special revenue fund, known as the "Litter Abatement Expendable Special Revenue Fund."

(2) The fund shall consist of:

(a) the landfill minimum fine for an unsecured load as described in Section 72-7-410; and

(b) interest earnings on cash balances.

(3) The department shall use money in the fund:

(a) for litter cleanup efforts on or near highways, including highways near waste management facilities and other high-litter areas the department identifies;

(b) for a public service campaign to generate awareness regarding the importance of proper transportation and disposal of waste, the negative impact of littering, and the need to maintain clean highways;

(c) for increased enforcement of Sections 41-6a-1712, 41-6a-1713, and 72-7-410; and

(d) for the department's costs in administering the account.

Section 6. Section 72-7-409 is amended to read:

72-7-409. Loads on vehicles -- Limitations -- Confining, securing, and fastening load required -- Penalty.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Agricultural product" means any raw product which is derived from agriculture, including silage, hay, straw, grain, manure, and other similar product.

(b) (i) "Unsecured load" means the contents of a vehicle, operated on a highway, not sufficiently covered, confined, fastened, or otherwise secured in a way to prevent the contents from escaping the vehicle.

(ii) "Unsecured load" includes materials such as dirt, sand, gravel, rock fragments, pebbles, crushed base, aggregate, any other similar material, or scrap metal or other loose material on any portion of the vehicle not designed to carry the material.

(c) "Vehicle" means the same as that term is defined in Section 41-1a-102.

(2) Except as provided in Subsections (3) through (5), a person may not:

(a) operate a vehicle with an unsecured load on any highway; or

(b) operate a vehicle carrying trash or garbage without a covering over the entire load.

(3) (a) A vehicle carrying dirt, sand, gravel, rock fragments, pebbles, crushed base, aggregate, any other similar material, or scrap metal shall have a covering over the entire load unless:

(i) the highest point of the load does not extend above the top of any exterior wall or sideboard of the cargo compartment of the vehicle; and

(ii) the outer edges of the load are at least six inches below the top inside edges of the exterior walls or sideboards of the cargo compartment of the vehicle.

(b) The following material is exempt from the provisions of Subsection (3)(a):

(i) hot mix asphalt;

(ii) construction debris or scrap metal if the debris or scrap metal is a size and in a form not susceptible to being blown out of the vehicle;

(iii) material being transported across a highway between two parcels of property that would be contiguous but for the highway that is being crossed; and

(iv) material listed under Subsection (3)(a) that is enclosed on all sides by containers, bags, or packaging.

(c) A chemical substance capable of coating or bonding a load so that the load is confined on a vehicle, may be considered a covering for purposes of Subsection (3)(a) so long as the chemical substance remains effective at confining the load.

(4) Subsection (2) does not apply to a vehicle or implement of husbandry carrying an agricultural product, if the agricultural product is:

(a) being transported in a manner which is not a hazard or a potential hazard to the safe operation of the vehicle or to other highway users; and

(b) loaded in a manner that only allows minimal spillage.

(5) (a) An authorized vehicle performing snow removal services on a highway is exempt from the requirements of this section.

(b) This section does not prohibit the necessary spreading of any substance connected with highway maintenance, construction, securing traction, or snow removal.

(6) (a) Any person suspected of operating a vehicle with an unsecured load on a highway may be issued a warning.

(b) Any person who violates this section is guilty of:

(i) an infraction, if the violation creates a hazard but does not lead to a motor vehicle accident;

(ii) a class B misdemeanor, if the violation creates a hazard that leads to a motor vehicle accident; or

(iii) a class A misdemeanor, if the violation creates a hazard that leads to a motor vehicle accident that results in the serious bodily injury or death of a person.

(c) A person who violates a provision of this section shall be fined not less than:

(i) $200 for a violation; or

(ii) $500 for a second or subsequent violation within six years of a previous violation of this section.

(d) A person who violates a provision of this section while operating a commercial vehicle as defined in Section 72-9-102 shall be fined:

(i) not less than $500 for a violation; or

(ii) $1,000 for a second or subsequent violation within six years of a previous violation of this section.

(7) As resources and opportunities allow, the department shall implement programs or activities that increase public awareness on the importance of properly securing loads.

Section 7. Section 72-7-410 is enacted to read:

72-7-410. Public landfill litter abatement fine.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Landfill" means a landfill or transfer station that is permitted by the Department of Environmental Quality.

(b) "Securely covered" means that the content of a load is completely covered by a solid barrier which will prevent the load from blowing, spilling, or falling from the vehicle.

(2) A driver utilizing a landfill shall ensure that the vehicle's load is securely covered from the destination of origin until the driver deposits the load at the landfill.

(3) (a) A landfill shall collect a $10 minimum fine for a vehicle in violation of Subsection (2), beginning no later than July 1, 2026.

(b) Five dollars of the fine described in Subsection (3)(a) shall be collected by the Department of Environmental Quality and deposited into the Litter Abatement Expendable Special Revenue Fund created in Section 72-2-135.

(c) The remainder of the fine described in Subsection (3)(a) shall be retained by the collecting landfill.

(d) The minimum fine described in Subsection (3)(a) does not preclude a landfill from imposing an additional or higher fine or fee for an unsecured load.

(e) A landfill may impose an additional penalty for a driver who repeatedly violates Subsection (2).

(4) The Department of Environmental Quality may retain its associated administrative costs from the funds described in Subsection (3)(b).

(5) A landfill shall provide an annual report to the Department of Environmental Quality on or before March 1 regarding violations of Subsection (2).

Section 8. Effective Date.

This bill takes effect on May 7, 2025.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 53E-2-304 is amended to read:

53E-2-304

(Effective 05/07/25)

. School district and individual school powers -- Plan for college and career readiness definition.

(1) In order to acquire and develop the characteristics listed in Section 53E-2-302, each school district and each public school within its respective district shall implement a comprehensive system of accountability in which students advance through public schools by demonstrating competency in the core standards for Utah public schools through the use of diverse assessment instruments such as authentic assessments, projects, and portfolios.

(2) (a) Each school district and public school shall:

(i) develop and implement programs integrating technology into the curriculum, instruction, and student assessment;

(ii) in accordance with Subsection (5) and beginning July 1, 2025:

(A) provide an environment to all educators, school staff, and students that does not pose a predictable threat of serious bodily injury to the educators, school staff, or students;

(B) provide an education to all students in which the students' classroom is not disrupted by a pattern of behavior that interferes substantially and materially with classroom instruction; and

(C) provide an environment to all educators, school staff, and students that is free from repeated verbal or physical sexual harassment or sexual assault;

(iii) provide for teacher and parent involvement in policymaking at the school site;

(iv) implement a public school choice program to give parents, students, and teachers greater flexibility in designing and choosing among programs with different focuses through schools within the same district and other districts, subject to space availability, demographics, and legal and performance criteria;

(v) establish strategic planning at both the district and school level and site-based decision making programs at the school level;

(vi) provide opportunities for each student to acquire and develop academic and occupational knowledge, skills, and abilities;

(vii) participate in ongoing research and development projects primarily at the school level aimed at improving the quality of education within the system; and

(viii) involve business and industry in the education process through the establishment of partnerships with the business community at the district and school level.

(b) (i) As used in this section, "plan for college and career readiness" means a plan developed by a student and the student's parent, in consultation with school counselors, teachers, and administrators that:

(A) is initiated at the beginning of grade 7;

(B) identifies a student's skills and objectives;

(C) maps out a strategy to guide a student's course selection; and

(D) links a student to post-secondary options, including higher education and careers.

(ii) Each local school board, in consultation with school personnel, parents, and school community councils or similar entities shall establish policies to provide for the effective implementation of [~~an individual learning plan or~~]a plan for college and career readiness for each student at the school site.

(iii) The policies shall include guidelines and expectations for:

(A) recognizing the student's accomplishments, strengths, and progress toward meeting student achievement standards as defined in the core standards for Utah public schools;

(B) planning, monitoring, and managing education and career development; and

(C) involving students, parents, and school personnel in preparing and implementing an individual learning plan and a plan for college and career readiness.

(iv) A parent may request a conference with school personnel in addition to an individual learning plan or a plan for college and career readiness conference established by local school board policy.

(v) Time spent during the school day to implement an individual learning plan or a plan for college and career readiness is considered part of the school term described in Section 53F-2-102.

(3) A school district or public school may submit proposals to modify or waive rules or policies of a supervisory authority within the public education system in order to acquire or develop the characteristics listed in Section 53E-2-302.

(4) (a) Each school district and public school shall make an annual report to its patrons on its activities under this section.

(b) The reporting process shall involve participation from teachers, parents, and the community at large in determining how well the district or school is performing.

(5) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the state board shall make rules to ensure implementation of the requirements described in Subsection (2)(a)(ii).

(6) Nothing in this section creates a private right of action or constitutes a waiver of immunity under Section 63G-7-301.

Section 2. Section 53F-2-504 is amended to read:

53F-2-504

(Effective 05/07/25) (Superseded 07/01/25)

. Teacher Salary Supplement Program.

(a) "Eligible teacher" means a teacher who:

(i) has a qualifying educational background or qualifying teaching background;

(ii) has a supplement-approved assignment that corresponds to the teacher's qualifying educational background or qualifying teaching background;

(iii) qualifies for the teacher's supplement-approved assignment in accordance with state board rule; and

(iv) (A) is a new employee; or

(B) has not received an unsatisfactory rating on the teacher's three most recent evaluations.

(b) "Field of computer science" means:

(i) computer science; or

(ii) computer information technology.

(c) "Field of science" means:

(i) integrated science;

(ii) chemistry;

(iii) physics;

(iv) physical science; or

(v) general science.

(d) "Qualifying educational background" means:

(i) for a teacher who is assigned a secondary school level mathematics course:

(A) a bachelor's degree major, master's degree, or doctoral degree in mathematics; or

(B) a bachelor's degree major, master's degree, or doctoral degree that has course requirements that are substantially equivalent to the course requirements for a bachelor's degree major, master's degree, or doctoral degree in mathematics;

(ii) for a teacher who is assigned a grade 7 or 8 integrated science course, chemistry course, or physics course:

(A) a bachelor's degree major, master's degree, or doctoral degree in a field of science; or

(B) a bachelor's degree major, master's degree, or doctoral degree that has course requirements that are substantially equivalent to the course requirements of those required for a bachelor's degree major, master's degree, or doctoral degree in a field of science;

(iii) for a teacher who is assigned a computer science course:

(A) a bachelor's degree major, master's degree, or doctoral degree in a field of computer science; or

(B) a bachelor's degree major, master's degree, or doctoral degree that has course requirements that are substantially equivalent to the course requirements of those required for a bachelor's degree major, master's degree, or doctoral degree in a field of computer science; or

(iv) for a teacher who is assigned to teach special education, a bachelor's degree major, master's degree, or doctoral degree in special education.

(e) "Qualifying teaching background" means:

(i) the teacher has been teaching the same supplement-approved assignment in Utah public schools for at least 10 years; or

(ii) the teacher has a professional deaf education license issued by the state board.

(f) "Supplement-approved assignment" means an assignment to teach:

(i) a secondary school level mathematics course;

(ii) integrated science in grade 7 or 8;

(iii) chemistry;

(iv) physics;

(v) computer science;

(vi) special education; or

(vii) deaf education.

(2) (a) Subject to future budget constraints, the Legislature shall:

(i) annually appropriate money to the Teacher Salary Supplement Program to maintain annual salary supplements for eligible teachers provided in previous years; and

(ii) provide salary supplements to new recipients.

(b) Money appropriated for the Teacher Salary Supplement Program shall include money for the following employer-paid benefits:

(i) retirement;

(ii) workers' compensation;

(iii) Social Security; and

(iv) Medicare.

(3) (a) The annual salary supplement for an eligible teacher who is assigned full-time to a supplement-approved assignment is:

(i) for a fiscal year beginning before July 1, 2023, $4,100 and funded through an appropriation described in Subsection (2); and

(ii) for a fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 2023, the amount equal to:

(A) the amount of the annual salary supplement in the preceding fiscal year; and

(B) a percentage increase that is equal to the percentage increase in the value of the WPU in the preceding fiscal year.

(b) An eligible teacher who is assigned part-time to a supplement-approved assignment shall receive a partial salary supplement based on the number of hours worked in the supplement-approved assignment.

(4) The state board shall:

(a) create an online application system for a teacher to apply to receive a salary supplement through the Teacher Salary Supplement Program;

(b) determine if a teacher is an eligible teacher;

(c) verify, as needed, the determinations made under Subsection (4)(b) with school district and school administrators; and

(d) certify a list of eligible teachers.

(5) An eligible teacher shall apply to the state board, as provided by the board to receive the salary supplement authorized in this section in accordance with state board rule made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(6) (a) The state board shall establish and administer an appeal process for a teacher to follow if the teacher applies for a salary supplement and does not receive a salary supplement under Subsection (8).

(b) (i) The appeal process established in Subsection (6)(a) shall allow a teacher to appeal eligibility as an eligible teacher with a qualifying educational background on the basis that the teacher has a degree or degree major with course requirements that are substantially equivalent to the qualifying educational background associated with the teacher's supplement-approved assignment.

(ii) A teacher shall provide transcripts and other documentation to the state board in order for the state board to determine if the teacher has a degree or degree major with course requirements that are substantially equivalent to the qualifying educational background associated with the teacher's supplement-approved assignment.

(c) (i) The appeal process established under Subsection (6)(a) shall allow a teacher to appeal eligibility as an eligible teacher with a qualifying teaching background on the basis that the teacher has a qualifying teaching background.

(ii) The teacher shall provide to the state board evidence to verify that the teacher has a qualifying teaching background.

(7) (a) The state board shall distribute money appropriated to the Teacher Salary Supplement Program to school districts, charter schools, and regional education service agencies for the Teacher Salary Supplement Program in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(b) The state board shall include the employer-paid benefits described under Subsection (2)(b) in the amount of each salary supplement.

(c) The employer-paid benefits described under Subsection (2)(b) are an addition to the salary supplement limits described under Subsection (3).

(8) (a) Money received from the Teacher Salary Supplement Program shall be used by a school district, charter school, or regional education service agencies to provide a salary supplement equal to the amount specified in Subsection (3) for each eligible teacher.

(b) The salary supplement is part of an eligible teacher's base pay, subject to eligible teacher's qualification as an eligible teacher every year, semester, or trimester.

(9) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, if the appropriation for the program is insufficient to cover the costs associated with salary supplements, the state board may distribute the funds in the Teacher Salary Supplement Program on a pro rata basis.

(10) An LEA may increase the amount of funds the LEA provides to the LEA's teachers under the program if the LEA:

(a) first ensures proper distribution of funds the LEA receives under the program to the LEA's teachers; and

(b) experiences a carry forward or leftover balance.

Section 3. Section 53F-2-504 is amended to read:

53F-2-504

(Effective 07/01/25)

. Salary Supplement for Highly Needed Educators.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Eligible teacher" means a teacher who:

(i) has a qualifying assignment;

(ii) qualifies for the teacher's assignment in accordance with an LEA's policy described in Subsection (2); and

(iii) (A) is a new employee; or

(B) has not received an unsatisfactory rating on the teacher's three most recent evaluations.

(b) "High-needs area" means at least two and up to five teaching assignments that an LEA designates in a policy as challenging to fill or retain.

(c) "Program" means the Salary Supplement for Highly Needed Educators program.

(d) "Qualifying assignment" means a teacher who is assigned to a high-needs area.

(2) (a) An LEA shall create a policy describing the administration of the Salary Supplement for Highly Needed Educators program within the LEA, including:

(i) identifying the LEA's high-needs areas;

(ii) the amount of the salary supplement;

(iii) establishing an appeals process for a teacher to follow if the teacher does not receive a salary supplement, including:

(A) allowing a teacher to appeal eligibility as an eligible teacher with a qualifying assignment on the basis that the teacher has a teaching assignment that is substantially equivalent to a high-needs area; and

(B) requiring a teacher to provide transcripts and other documentation to the LEA governing board in order for the LEA governing board to determine if the teacher is an eligible teacher with a qualifying teaching background;

(iv) a process for determining if a teacher is an eligible teacher, including a verification process; and

(v) a process for certifying a list of eligible teachers to be awarded a salary supplement under this section.

(b) An LEA shall update the policy described in Subsection (2)(a) annually and provide notice of any changes to teachers within the LEA.

(3) Subject to legislative appropriations and an LEA having the policy described in Subsection (2), the state board shall allocate funding appropriated for the Salary Supplements for Highly Needed Educators program in accordance with this section by:

(a) for charter schools:

(i) distributing an amount that is equal to the product of:

(A) charter school enrollment on October 1 in the prior year, or, for a new charter school, projected enrollment for a charter school in the charter school's first year of operations, divided by enrollment on October 1 in public schools statewide in the prior year; and

(B) the total amount available for distribution; and

(ii) allocating to each charter school:

(A) an equally divided portion of 20% of the amount described in Subsection (3)(a)(i); and

(B) 80% of the amount described in Subsection (3)(a)(i) on a per-student basis; and

(b) for school districts and the Utah Schools for the Deaf and the Blind:

(i) distributing the remainder of funds available for distribution after the distribution to charter schools under Subsection (3)(a)(i) by allocating to each school district:

(A) an equally divided portion of 20% of the amount described in Subsection (3)(b)(i); and

(B) 80% of the amount described in Subsection (3)(b)(i) on a per-student basis.

(c) An LEA shall use funds described in Subsections (3)(a) and (3)(b) to pay the LEA's proportional part of an eligible teacher's salary supplement if:

(i) the eligible teacher is an employee of a regional education service agency, as defined in Section 53G-4-410; and

(ii) the LEA is a member of the regional education service agency that employs the eligible teacher.

(4) (a) An LEA shall include employer-paid benefits in the amount of each salary supplement.

(b) Employer-paid benefits are an addition to the salary supplement amount established by an LEA under Subsection (2).

(5) The salary supplement is part of an eligible teacher's base pay, subject to eligible teacher's qualification as an eligible teacher every year, semester, or quarter.

(6) The state board shall annually report to the Education Interim Committee:

(a) which teaching assignments LEAs have designated as high-needs; and

(b) the number of eligible teachers.

(7) An LEA may increase the amount of funds the LEA provides to the LEA's teachers under the program if the LEA:

(a) first ensures proper distribution of funds the LEA receives under the program to the LEA's teachers; and

(b) experiences a carry forward or leftover balance.

Section 4. Section 53F-4-203 is amended to read:

53F-4-203

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Early interactive reading software -- Independent evaluator.

(1) Subject to legislative appropriations, the state board shall distribute funds to public schools based on enrollment for students in kindergarten through grade 3 to purchase personalized interactive reading software.

(2) A public school that receives funds described in Subsection (1) shall use the funds for a student in kindergarten or grade 1, 2, or 3:

(a) for intervention for the student if the student is reading below grade level; or

(b) for advancement beyond grade level for the student if the student is reading at or above grade level.

(3) (a) On or before August 1 of each year, the state board shall select and contract with an independent evaluator, through a request for proposals process, to act as an independent contractor to evaluate early interactive reading software provided under this section.

(b) The state board shall ensure that a contract with an independent evaluator requires the independent evaluator to:

(i) evaluate a student's learning gains as a result of using early interactive reading software provided under Subsection (1);

(ii) for the evaluation under Subsection (3)(b)(i), use an assessment that is not developed by a provider of early interactive reading software; and

(iii) determine the extent to which a public school uses the early interactive reading software.

(c) The state board and the independent evaluator selected under Subsection (3)(a) shall submit a report on the results of the evaluation in accordance with Section 53E-1-201.

(4) An LEA may acquire an analytical software program that:

(a) monitors, for an individual school, early intervention interactive reading software use and the associated impact on student performance; and

(b) analyzes the information gathered under Subsection (4)(a) to prescribe individual school usage time to maximize the beneficial impact on student performance.

(5) The state board:

(a) may use up to [~~4%~~]6% of the appropriation provided under Subsection (1):

(i) to contract with an independent evaluator selected under Subsection (3)(a); and

(ii) for administrative costs associated with this section; and

(b) shall distribute at least [~~96%~~]94% of funds under this section to LEAs in accordance with Subsection (1).

(6) Nothing in this section or in Section 53E-4-307 or 53G-11-303 requires a reading software product to demonstrate the statistically significant effect size described in Subsection 53G-11-303(1)(a) in order to be used as an instructional material.

Section 5. Section 53G-4-402 is amended to read:

53G-4-402

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Powers and duties generally.

(1) A local school board shall:

(a) implement the core standards for Utah public schools using instructional materials that best correlate to the core standards for Utah public schools and graduation requirements;

(b) administer tests, required by the state board, which measure the progress of each student, and coordinate with the state superintendent and state board to assess results and create plans to improve the student's progress, which shall be submitted to the state board for approval;

(c) use progress-based assessments as part of a plan to identify schools, teachers, and students that need remediation and determine the type and amount of federal, state, and local resources to implement remediation;

(d) for each grading period and for each course in which a student is enrolled, issue a grade or performance report to the student:

(i) that reflects the student's work, including the student's progress based on mastery, for the grading period; and

(ii) in accordance with the local school board's adopted grading or performance standards and criteria;

(e) develop early warning systems for students or classes failing to make progress;

(f) work with the state board to establish a library of documented best practices, consistent with state and federal regulations, for use by the special districts;

(g) implement training programs for school administrators, including basic management training, best practices in instructional methods, budget training, staff management, managing for learning results and continuous improvement, and how to help every student achieve optimal learning in basic academic subjects; and

(h) ensure that the local school board meets the data collection and reporting standards described in Section 53E-3-501.

(2) Local school boards shall spend Minimum School Program funds for programs and activities for which the state board has established minimum standards or rules under Section 53E-3-501.

(3) (a) A local school board may purchase, sell, and make improvements on school sites, buildings, and equipment, and construct, erect, and furnish school buildings.

(b) School sites or buildings may only be conveyed or sold on local school board resolution affirmed by at least two-thirds of the school board members.

(4) (a) A local school board may participate in the joint construction or operation of a school attended by students residing within the district and students residing in other districts either within or outside the state.

(b) Any agreement for the joint operation or construction of a school shall:

(i) be signed by the president of the local school board of each participating district;

(ii) include a mutually agreed upon pro rata cost; and

(iii) be filed with the state board.

(5) A local school board may establish, locate, and maintain elementary, secondary, and applied technology schools.

(6) A local school board may enter into cooperative agreements with other local school boards to provide educational services that best utilize resources for the overall operation of the school districts, including shared transportation services.

(7) A local school board shall ensure that an agreement under Subsection (6):

(a) is signed by the president of the local school board of each participating district;

(b) specifies the resource being shared;

(c) includes a mutually agreed upon pro rata cost;

(d) includes the duration of the agreement; and

(e) is filed with the state board.

(8) (a) Except as provided in Section 53E-3-905 and Subsection (8)(b), a local school board may enroll children in school who are at least five years old before September 2 of the year in which admission is sought.

(b) A local school board may enroll a child in kindergarten who does not meet the age requirement described in Subsection (8)(a) if the child:

(i) moves to Utah from a different state in which the child, during the relevant school year:

(A) was a resident; and

(B) was enrolled in kindergarten in accordance with the previous state's age requirements for kindergarten enrollment; and

(ii) transfers to the enrolling school after the beginning of the same school year.

(9) A local school board:

(a) may establish and support school libraries; and

(b) shall provide an online platform:

(i) through which a parent is able to view the title, author, and a description of any material the parent's child borrows from the school library, including a history of borrowed materials, either using an existing online platform that the LEA uses or through a separate platform; and

(ii) (A) for a school district with 1,000 or more enrolled students, no later than August 1, 2024; and

(B) for a school district with fewer than 1,000 enrolled students, no later than August 1, 2026.

(10) A local school board may collect damages for the loss, injury, or destruction of school property.

(11) A local school board may authorize guidance and counseling services for students and the student's parents before, during, or following school enrollment.

(12) (a) A local school board shall administer and implement federal educational programs in accordance with Title 53E, Chapter 3, Part 8, Implementing Federal or National Education Programs.

(b) Federal funds are not considered funds within the school district budget under Chapter 7, Part 3, Budgets.

(13) (a) A local school board may organize school safety patrols and adopt policies under which the patrols promote student safety.

(b) A student appointed to a safety patrol shall be at least 10 years old and have written parental consent for the appointment.

(c) Safety patrol members may not direct vehicular traffic or be stationed in a portion of a highway intended for vehicular traffic use.

(d) Liability may not attach to a school district, its employees, officers, or agents, or to a safety patrol member, a parent of a safety patrol member, or an authorized volunteer assisting the program by virtue of the organization, maintenance, or operation of a school safety patrol.

(14) (a) A local school board may on its own behalf, or on behalf of an educational institution for which the local school board is the direct governing body, accept private grants, loans, gifts, endowments, devises, or bequests that are made for educational purposes.

(b) The contributions made under Subsection (14)(a) are not subject to appropriation by the Legislature.

(15) (a) A local school board may appoint and fix the compensation of a compliance officer to issue citations for violations of Subsection 76-10-105(2)(b).

(b) A person may not be appointed to serve as a compliance officer without the person's consent.

(c) A teacher or student may not be appointed as a compliance officer.

(16) A local school board shall adopt bylaws and policies for the local school board's own procedures.

(17) (a) A local school board shall make and enforce policies necessary for the control and management of the district schools.

(b) Local school board policies shall be in writing, filed, and referenced for public access.

(18) A local school board may hold school on legal holidays other than Sundays.

(19) (a) A local school board shall establish for each school year a school traffic safety committee to implement this Subsection (19).

(b) The committee shall be composed of one representative of:

(i) the schools within the district;

(ii) the Parent Teachers' Association of the schools within the district;

(iii) the municipality or county;

(iv) state or local law enforcement; and

(v) state or local traffic safety engineering.

(c) The committee shall:

(i) receive suggestions from school community councils, parents, teachers, and others, and recommend school traffic safety improvements, boundary changes to enhance safety, and school traffic safety program measures;

(ii) review and submit annually to the Department of Transportation and affected municipalities and counties a child access routing plan for each elementary, middle, and junior high school within the district;

(iii) in consultation with the Utah Safety Council and the Division of Family Health [~~Services~~], provide training to all students in kindergarten through grade 6, within the district, on school crossing safety and use; and

(iv) help ensure the district's compliance with rules made by the Department of Transportation under Section 41-6a-303.

(d) The committee may establish subcommittees as needed to assist in accomplishing the committee's duties under Subsection (19)(c).

(20) (a) A local school board shall adopt and implement a comprehensive emergency response plan to prevent and combat violence in the local school board's public schools, on school grounds, on school vehicles, and in connection with school-related activities or events.

(b) The local school board shall ensure that the plan:

(i) includes prevention, intervention, and response components;

(ii) is consistent with the school discipline and conduct policies required for school districts under Chapter 8, Part 2, School Discipline and Conduct Plans;

(iii) requires professional learning for all district and school building staff on the staff's roles in the emergency response plan;

(iv) provides for coordination with local law enforcement and other public safety representatives in preventing, intervening, and responding to violence in the areas and activities referred to in Subsection (20)(a); and

(v) includes procedures to notify a student who is off campus at the time of a school violence emergency because the student is:

(A) participating in a school-related activity; or

(B) excused from school for a period of time during the regular school day to participate in religious instruction at the request of the student's parent.

(c) The state board, through the state superintendent, shall develop comprehensive emergency response plan models that local school boards may use, where appropriate, to comply with Subsection (20)(a).

(d) A local school board shall, by July 1 of each year, certify to the state board that its plan has been practiced at the school level and presented to and reviewed by its teachers, administrators, students, and the student's parents and local law enforcement and public safety representatives.

(21) (a) A local school board may adopt an emergency response plan for the treatment of sports-related injuries that occur during school sports practices and events.

(b) The plan may be implemented by each secondary school in the district that has a sports program for students.

(c) The plan may:

(i) include emergency personnel, emergency communication, and emergency equipment components;

(ii) require professional learning on the emergency response plan for school personnel who are involved in sports programs in the district's secondary schools; and

(iii) provide for coordination with individuals and agency representatives who:

(A) are not employees of the school district; and

(B) would be involved in providing emergency services to students injured while participating in sports events.

(d) The local school board, in collaboration with the schools referred to in Subsection (21)(b), may review the plan each year and make revisions when required to improve or enhance the plan.

(e) The state board, through the state superintendent, shall provide local school boards with an emergency plan response model that local school boards may use to comply with the requirements of this Subsection (21).

(22) (a) A local school board shall approve an LEA's policies and procedures that an LEA develops to ensure that students have non-electronic notification of and access to:

(i) school activities and events, including:

(A) schedule changes;

(B) extracurricular activities; and

(C) sporting events; and

(ii) the emergency response plans described in Subsections (20) and (21).

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (22)(a), an LEA may provide electronic notification of and access to school activities and events as described in Subsections (22)(a)(i) and (ii) if:

(i) (A) the school provides each student with an electronic device; and

(B) the electronic device is capable of receiving electronic notification of and access to school activities and events as described in Subsections (22)(a)(i) and (ii); or

(ii) an emergency, unforeseen circumstance, or other incident arises and an LEA cannot reasonably provide timely non-electronic notification.

(c) An LEA may not require the use of a privately owned electronic device to complete course work.

(23) A local school board shall do all other things necessary for the maintenance, prosperity, and success of the schools and the promotion of education.

(24) (a) As used in this subsection, "special enrollment program" means a full-day academic program in which a parent opts to enroll the parent's student and that is offered at a specifically designated school within an LEA, including:

(i) gifted or advanced learning programs; or

(ii) dual language immersion programs.

(b) Before closing a school, changing the boundaries of a school, or changing or closing the location of a special enrollment program, a local school board shall:

(i) at a local school board meeting, make and approve a motion to initiate the notification required under Subsections (24)(b)(ii) through (iv);

(ii) on or before 90 days before the day on which the local school board approves the school closure or at least 30 days before the day on which the local school board approves a school boundary change, provide notice that the local school board is considering the closure or boundary change to:

(A) parents of students enrolled in the school, using the same form of communication the local school board regularly uses to communicate with parents and also by mail, using the United States Postal Service, to the parents at each known address;

(B) parents of students enrolled in other schools within the school district that may be affected by the closure or boundary change, using the same form of communication the local school board regularly uses to communicate with parents and also by mail, using the United States Postal Service, to the parents at each known address; and

(C) the governing council and the mayor of the municipality in which the school is located;

(iii) provide an opportunity for public comment on the proposed school closure during at least two public local school board meetings;

(iv) provide an opportunity for public comment on the proposed school boundary change during one public local school board meeting; and

(v) hold a public hearing as defined in Section 10-9a-103 and provide public notice of the public hearing in accordance with Subsection (24)(c).

(c) A local school board shall:

(i) ensure that the notice of a public hearing required under Subsection (24)(b)(v)indicates the:

(A) name of the school or schools under consideration for closure or boundary change; and

(B) the date, time, and location of the public hearing;

(ii) if feasible, hold the public hearing at the location of the school that is under consideration for closure;

(iii) for at least 10 days before the day on which the public hearing occurs, publish the notice of public hearing occurs, publish the notice of the public hearing for the school district in which the school is located, as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102; and

(iv) at least 30 days before the day on which the public hearing occurs, provide notice of the public hearing in the same manner as the notice of consideration under Subsection (24)(b)(ii).

(d) A motion made under Subsection (24)(b) shall name each school under consideration for closure in a separate motion.

(e) For a school closure, a local school board shall complete the process described in this Subsection (24) on or before December 31 of the calendar year preceding the beginning of the school year in which a school closure takes effect.

(f) (i) For a school boundary change, a local school board shall complete the process described in this Subsection (24) no more than 60 days after the day on which the local school board votes to approve a school closure.

(ii) Parents of students enrolled in a school affected by a boundary change shall have at least 30 days after the day on which the local school board votes to approve a school boundary change to request an out of area enrollment request in accordance with Chapter 6, Part 4, School District Enrollment.

(25) A local school board may implement a facility energy efficiency program established under Title 11, Chapter 44, Performance Efficiency Act.

(26) A local school board may establish or partner with a certified youth court in accordance with Section 80-6-902 or establish or partner with a comparable restorative justice program, in coordination with schools in that district. A school may refer a student to a youth court or a comparable restorative justice program in accordance with Section 53G-8-211.

(27) (a) As used in this Subsection (27):

(i) "Learning material" means any learning material or resource used to deliver or support a student's learning, including textbooks, reading materials, videos, digital materials, websites, and other online applications.

(ii) (A) "Instructional material" means learning material that a local school board adopts and approves for use within the LEA.

(B) "Instructional material" does not include learning material used in a concurrent enrollment, advanced placement, or international baccalaureate program or class or another class with required instructional material that is not subject to selection by the local school board.

(iii) "Supplemental material" means learning material that:

(A) an educator selects for classroom use; and

(B) a local school board has not considered and adopted, approved, or prohibited for classroom use within the LEA.

(b) A local school board shall:

(i) make instructional material that the school district uses readily accessible and available for a parent to view;

(ii) annually notify a parent of a student enrolled in the school district of how to access the information described in Subsection (27)(b)(i); and

(iii) include on the school district's website information about how to access the information described in Subsection (27)(b)(i).

(c) In selecting and approving instructional materials for use in the classroom, a local school board shall:

(i) establish an open process, involving educators and parents of students enrolled in the LEA, to review and recommend instructional materials for board approval; and

(ii) ensure that under the process described in Subsection (27)(c)(i), the board:

(A) before the meetings described in Subsection (27)(c)(ii)(B), posts the recommended learning material online to allow for public review or, for copyrighted material, makes the recommended learning material available at the LEA for public review;

(B) before adopting or approving the recommended instructional materials, holds at least two public meetings on the recommendation that provides an opportunity for educators whom the LEA employs and parents of students enrolled in the LEA to express views and opinions on the recommendation; and

(C) adopts or approves the recommended instructional materials in an open and regular board meeting.

(d) A local school board shall adopt a supplemental materials policy that provides flexible guidance to educators on the selection of supplemental materials or resources that an educator reviews and selects for classroom use using the educator's professional judgment, including whether any process or permission is required before classroom use of the materials or resources.

(e) If an LEA contracts with another party to provide online or digital materials, the LEA shall include in the contract a requirement that the provider give notice to the LEA any time that the provider makes a material change to the content of the online or digital materials, excluding regular informational updates on current events.

(f) Nothing in this Subsection (27) requires a local school board to review all learning materials used within the LEA.

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Kindergartens -- Establishment -- Funding -- Assessment.

(1) Kindergartens are an integral part of the state's public education system.

(2) (a) Each LEA governing board shall provide kindergarten classes free of charge for kindergarten children residing within the district or attending the charter school.

(b) Each LEA governing board shall:

(i) provide a half-day kindergarten option for a student that comprises the minimum standards for half-day kindergarten that the state board establishes, in accordance with Subsection (4)(a)(iii), if the student's parent requests a half-day option; and

(ii) (A) inform parents of the availability of the option to register for a designated full-curriculum half-day kindergarten option at the time of all kindergarten registration, by email, posters, or other announcements when a parent requests kindergarten registration; and

(B) provide the option to register for a designated half-day kindergarten option at the time of registration;

(iii) provide a dedicated kindergarten class specifically designated as a half-day kindergarten class when enrollment of half-day kindergarten students at an individual school or a regional school exceeds a minimum of 18 students;

(iv) when enrollment of half-day kindergarten students at an individual school exceeds a minimum of 18 students, designate the school as a half-day kindergarten provider for the improvement of recruiting teachers that prefer half-day teaching;

(v) inform parents regarding the additional educational resources and opportunities available to parents who select the half-day kindergarten option; and

(vi) ensure that a half-day kindergarten student who is registered in a class that includes full-day kindergarten students receives instruction that at least meets the minimum standards for half-day kindergarten that the state board establishes, in accordance with Subsection (4)(a)(iii).

(c) Nothing in this Subsection (2):

(i) allows an LEA governing board to require a student to participate in a full-day kindergarten program;

(ii) modifies the non-compulsory status of kindergarten under [~~Title 53G,~~]Chapter 6, Part 2, Compulsory Education; or

(iii) requires a student who only attends a half day of kindergarten to participate in dual enrollment under Section 53G-6-702.

(3) Kindergartens established under Subsection (2) shall receive state money under Title 53F, Public Education System -- Funding.

(4) (a) The state board shall:

(i) develop and collect data from a kindergarten assessment that the board selects by rule;

(ii) make rules, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, regarding the administration of and reporting regarding the assessment described in Subsection (4)(a)(i); and

(iii) establish minimum standards for half-day kindergarten.

(b) An LEA shall:

(i) administer the assessment described in Subsection (4)(a) to each kindergarten student; and

(ii) report to the state board the results of the assessment described in Subsection (4)(b)(i) in relation to each kindergarten student in the LEA.

(5) The state board shall require LEAs to report average daily membership for all kindergarten students who attend kindergarten on a schedule that is equivalent in length to the schedule for grades 1 through 3 with the October 1 data described in Section 53F-2-302.

(6) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the state board shall make rules to:

(a) beginning with the [~~2024-2025~~]2025-2026 school year, require a student to be toilet trained before being enrolled in [~~kindergarten~~]public school;

(b) establish requirements for an LEA's [~~kindergarten~~]enrollment process to include assurances from a parent that the parent's student is toilet trained; and

[~~(c) create a process for an LEA to follow when an enrolled student in kindergarten is found to not be toilet trained, including:~~]

Section 8. Section 53G-7-503 is amended to read:

53G-7-503

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Fees -- Prohibitions -- Voluntary supplies -- Enforcement -- Penalties.

(1) An LEA may only charge a fee if the fee is:

(a) authorized under this part; and

(b) noticed by the LEA governing board in accordance with Section 53G-7-505.

(2) (a) An LEA may not require a fee for elementary school activities that are part of the regular school day or for supplies used during the regular school day.

(b) An elementary school or elementary school teacher may compile and provide to an elementary school student's parent a suggested list of supplies for use during the regular school day so that a parent may furnish, only on a voluntary basis, those supplies for student use.

(c) A list provided to an elementary school student's parent in accordance with Subsection (2)(b) shall include and be preceded by the following language:

"NOTICE: THE ITEMS ON THIS LIST WILL BE USED DURING THE REGULAR SCHOOL DAY. THEY MAY BE BROUGHT FROM HOME ON A VOLUNTARY BASIS, OTHERWISE, THEY WILL BE FURNISHED BY THE SCHOOL."

(3) Beginning with the 2025-2026 school year:

(a) an LEA may not charge a secondary student a fee for a curricular activity or a co-curricular activity [~~that~~]if the activity is expressly required for the instruction of established core standards as described in Section 53E-4-202 or 53E-4-204, [~~and that is not an elective,~~] except for the following:

(i) an elective, including a course for which a student earns credit toward a fine arts requirement under the standards described in Subsection 53E-4-204(2);

~~(i)~~ instructional equipment or supplies;

~~(ii)~~ a driver education course described in Section 53G-10-503;

~~(iii)~~ a payment for a fee for:

(A) open enrollment application processing in accordance with Section 53G-6-402;

(B) charter school application processing in accordance with Section 53G-6-503; or

~~(iv)~~ a fee described in Subsection ~~(5)~~;

~~(v)~~ a music instrument rental; or

~~(vi)~~ school activity clothing;

(b) for that portion of a co-curricular activity that is during regular school hours, an LEA may only charge a secondary student for the fees described in Subsection (3)(a); and

(c) an LEA may charge a secondary student a fee for a co-curricular activity or extracurricular activity, including the life-cycle replacement costs for school equipment directly related to the co-curricular or extracurricular activity.

(4) An LEA may charge a secondary student:

(a) or an individual, a fee for an adult education course in accordance with Section 53E-10-202; or

(b) a fee for tuition, college credit, an exam, or a textbook, as described in Section 53G-7-506, for:

(i) an Advanced Placement course;

(ii) an International Baccalaureate course; or

(iii) a concurrent enrollment course, as described in Section 53E-10-302.

(5) An LEA may not charge a fee, except as provided in Subsection (3)(c):

(a) for school equipment; or

(b) that is general in nature and for a service or good that does not have a direct benefit to the student paying the fee.

(6) An LEA governing board shall authorize each fee individually.

(7) (a) If an LEA imposes a fee under this part, the fee shall be equal to or less than the expense incurred by the LEA in providing for a student the activity, course, or program for which the LEA imposes the fee.

(b) An LEA may not impose an additional fee or increase a fee to supplant or subsidize another fee, including a fee to supplant or subsidize an expense that the LEA incurs for:

(i) a curricular activity; or

(ii) an expense for the portion of a co-curricular activity that occurs during regular school hours.

(8) Notwithstanding Section 53E-3-401, if the state board finds that an LEA has violated a provision of this part, the state board shall impose corrective action against the LEA, which may include:

(a) requiring an LEA to repay improperly charged fees;

(b) withholding state funds; or

(c) suspending the LEA's authority to charge fees for an amount of time specified by the state board.

(9) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the state board shall make rules:

(a) that require notice and an opportunity to be heard for an LEA affected by a state board action described in this Subsection (9); and

(b) to administer this Subsection (9).

Section 9. Effective Date.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), this bill takes effect on May 7, 2025.

(2) The actions affecting Section 53F-2-504 (Effective 7/1/2025) take effect on July 1, 2025.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 26B-5-102 is amended to read:

26B-5-102. Division of Integrated Healthcare -- Office of Substance Use and Mental Health -- Creation -- Responsibilities.

(1) (a) The Division of Integrated Healthcare shall exercise responsibility over the policymaking functions, regulatory and enforcement powers, rights, duties, and responsibilities outlined in state law that were previously vested in the Division of Substance Abuse and Mental Health within the department, under the administration and general supervision of the executive director.

(b) The division is the substance abuse authority and the mental health authority for this state.

(c) There is created the Office of Substance Use and Mental Health within the division.

(d) The office shall exercise the responsibilities, powers, rights, duties, and responsibilities assigned to the office by the executive director.

(2) The division shall:

(a) (i) educate the general public regarding the nature and consequences of substance use by promoting school and community-based prevention programs;

(ii) render support and assistance to public schools through approved school-based substance abuse education programs aimed at prevention of substance use;

(iii) promote or establish programs for the prevention of substance use within the community setting through community-based prevention programs;

(iv) cooperate with and assist treatment centers, recovery residences, and other organizations that provide services to individuals recovering from a substance use disorder, by identifying and disseminating information about effective practices and programs;

(v) promote integrated programs that address an individual's substance use, mental health, and physical health;

(vi) establish and promote an evidence-based continuum of screening, assessment, prevention, treatment, and recovery support services in the community for individuals with a substance use disorder or mental illness;

(vii) evaluate the effectiveness of programs described in this Subsection (2);

(viii) consider the impact of the programs described in this Subsection (2) on:

(A) emergency department utilization;

(B) jail and prison populations;

(C) the homeless population; and

(D) the child welfare system; and

(ix) promote or establish programs for education and certification of instructors to educate individuals convicted of driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs or driving with any measurable controlled substance in the body;

(b) (i) collect and disseminate information pertaining to mental health;

(ii) provide direction over the state hospital including approval of the state hospital's budget, administrative policy, and coordination of services with local service plans;

(iii) make rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, to educate families concerning mental illness and promote family involvement, when appropriate, and with patient consent, in the treatment program of a family member;

(iv) make rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, to direct that an individual receiving services through a local mental health authority or the Utah State Hospital be informed about and, if desired by the individual, provided assistance in the completion of a declaration for mental health treatment in accordance with Section 26B-5-313; and

(v) to the extent authorized and in accordance with statute, make rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, that:

(A) create a certification for targeted case management;

(B) establish training and certification requirements;

(C) specify the types of services each certificate holder is qualified to provide;

(D) specify the type of supervision under which a certificate holder is required to operate; and

(E) specify continuing education and other requirements for maintaining or renewing certification;

(c) (i) consult and coordinate with local substance abuse authorities and local mental health authorities regarding programs and services;

(ii) provide consultation and other assistance to public and private agencies and groups working on substance use and mental health issues;

(iii) promote and establish cooperative relationships with courts, hospitals, clinics, medical and social agencies, public health authorities, law enforcement agencies, education and research organizations, and other related groups;

(iv) promote or conduct research on substance use and mental health issues, and submit to the governor and the Legislature recommendations for changes in policy and legislation;

(v) receive, distribute, and provide direction over public funds for substance use and mental health services;

(vi) monitor and evaluate programs provided by local substance abuse authorities and local mental health authorities;

(vii) examine expenditures of local, state, and federal funds;

(viii) monitor the expenditure of public funds by:

(A) local substance abuse authorities;

(B) local mental health authorities; and

(C) in counties where they exist, a private contract provider that has an annual or otherwise ongoing contract to provide comprehensive substance abuse or mental health programs or services for the local substance abuse authority or local mental health authority;

(ix) contract with local substance abuse authorities and local mental health authorities to provide a comprehensive continuum of services that include community-based services for individuals involved in the criminal justice system, in accordance with division policy, contract provisions, and the local plan;

(x) contract with private and public entities for special statewide or nonclinical services, or services for individuals involved in the criminal justice system, according to division rules;

(xi) review and approve each local substance abuse authority's plan and each local mental health authority's plan in order to ensure:

(A) a statewide comprehensive continuum of substance use services;

(B) a statewide comprehensive continuum of mental health services;

(C) services result in improved overall health and functioning;

(D) a statewide comprehensive continuum of community-based services designed to reduce criminal risk factors for individuals who are determined to have substance use or mental illness conditions or both, and who are involved in the criminal justice system;

(E) compliance, where appropriate, with the certification requirements in Subsection (2)(h); and

(F) appropriate expenditure of public funds;

(xii) review and make recommendations regarding each local substance abuse authority's contract with the local substance abuse authority's provider of substance use programs and services and each local mental health authority's contract with the local mental health authority's provider of mental health programs and services to ensure compliance with state and federal law and policy;

(xiii) monitor and ensure compliance with division rules and contract requirements; and

(xiv) withhold funds from local substance abuse authorities, local mental health authorities, and public and private providers for contract noncompliance, failure to comply with division directives regarding the use of public funds, or for misuse of public funds or money;

(d) ensure that the requirements of this part are met and applied uniformly by local substance abuse authorities and local mental health authorities across the state;

(e) require each local substance abuse authority and each local mental health authority, in accordance with Subsections 17-43-201(5)(b) and 17-43-301(6)(a)(ii), to submit a plan to the division on or before May 15 of each year;

(f) conduct an annual program audit and review of each local substance abuse authority and each local substance abuse authority's contract provider, and each local mental health authority and each local mental health authority's contract provider, including:

(i) a review and determination regarding whether:

(A) public funds allocated to the local substance abuse authority or the local mental health authorities are consistent with services rendered by the authority or the authority's contract provider, and with outcomes reported by the authority's contract provider; and

(B) each local substance abuse authority and each local mental health authority is exercising sufficient oversight and control over public funds allocated for substance use disorder and mental health programs and services; and

(ii) items determined by the division to be necessary and appropriate;

(g) define "prevention" by rule as required under Title 32B, Chapter 2, Part 4, Alcoholic Beverage and Substance Abuse Enforcement and Treatment Restricted Account Act;

(h) (i) train and certify an adult as a peer support specialist, qualified to provide peer supports services to an individual with:

(A) a substance use disorder;

(B) a mental health disorder; or

(C) a substance use disorder and a mental health disorder;

(ii) certify a person to carry out, as needed, the division's duty to train and certify an adult as a peer support specialist;

(iii) make rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, that:

(A) establish training and certification requirements for a peer support specialist;

(B) specify the types of services a peer support specialist is qualified to provide;

(C) specify the type of supervision under which a peer support specialist is required to operate; and

(D) specify continuing education and other requirements for maintaining or renewing certification as a peer support specialist; and

(iv) make rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, that:

(A) establish the requirements for a person to be certified to carry out, as needed, the division's duty to train and certify an adult as a peer support specialist; and

(B) specify how the division shall provide oversight of a person certified to train and certify a peer support specialist;

(i) collaborate with the State Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice to analyze and provide recommendations to the Legislature regarding:

(i) pretrial services and the resources needed to reduce recidivism;

(ii) county jail and county behavioral health early-assessment resources needed for an individual convicted of a class A or class B misdemeanor; and

(iii) the replacement of federal dollars associated with drug interdiction law enforcement task forces that are reduced;

(j) establish performance goals and outcome measurements for a mental health or substance use treatment program that is licensed under Chapter 2, Part 1, Human Services Programs and Facilities, and contracts with the department, including goals and measurements related to employment and reducing recidivism of individuals receiving mental health or substance use treatment who are involved with the criminal justice system;

(k) annually, on or before November 30, submit a written report to the Judiciary Interim Committee, the Health and Human Services Interim Committee, and the Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice Interim Committee, that includes:

(i) a description of the performance goals and outcome measurements described in Subsection (2)(j); and

(ii) information on the effectiveness of the goals and measurements in ensuring appropriate and adequate mental health or substance use treatment is provided in a treatment program described in Subsection (2)(j);

(l) collaborate with the Administrative Office of the Courts, the Department of Corrections, the Department of Workforce Services, and the Board of Pardons and Parole to collect data on recidivism in accordance with the metrics and requirements described in Section 63M-7-102;

(m) at the division's discretion, use the data described in Subsection (2)(l) to make decisions regarding the use of funds allocated to the division to provide treatment;

(n) annually, on or before August 31, submit the data collected under Subsection (2)(l) and any recommendations to improve the data collection to the State Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice to be included in the report described in Subsection 63M-7-204(1)(x);

(o) publish the following on the division's website:

(i) the performance goals and outcome measurements described in Subsection (2)(j); and

(ii) a description of the services provided and the contact information for the mental health and substance use treatment programs described in Subsection (2)(j) and residential, vocational and life skills programs, as defined in Section 13-53-102; [~~and~~]

(p) consult and coordinate with the Division of Child and Family Services to develop and manage the operation of a program designed to reduce substance use during pregnancy and by parents of a newborn child that includes:

(i) providing education and resources to health care providers and individuals in the state regarding prevention of substance use during pregnancy;

(ii) providing training to health care providers in the state regarding screening of a pregnant woman or pregnant minor to identify a substance use disorder; and

(iii) providing referrals to pregnant women, pregnant minors, or parents of a newborn child in need of substance use treatment services to a facility that has the capacity to provide the treatment services[~~.~~]; and

(q) create training and educational materials regarding recognizing a drug overdose.

(3) In addition to the responsibilities described in Subsection (2), the division shall, within funds appropriated by the Legislature for this purpose, implement and manage the operation of a firearm safety and suicide prevention program, in consultation with the Bureau of Criminal Identification created in Section 53-10-201, including:

(a) coordinating with local mental health and substance abuse authorities, a nonprofit behavioral health advocacy group, and a representative from a Utah-based nonprofit organization with expertise in the field of firearm use and safety that represents firearm owners, to:

(i) produce and periodically review and update a firearm safety brochure and other educational materials with information about the safe handling and use of firearms that includes:

(A) information on safe handling, storage, and use of firearms in a home environment;

(B) information about at-risk individuals and individuals who are legally prohibited from possessing firearms;

(C) information about suicide prevention awareness; and

(D) information about the availability of firearm safety packets;

(ii) procure cable-style gun locks for distribution under this section;

(iii) produce a firearm safety packet that includes the firearm safety brochure and the cable-style gun lock described in this Subsection (3); and

(iv) create a suicide prevention education course that:

(A) provides information for distribution regarding firearm safety education;

(B) incorporates current information on how to recognize suicidal behaviors and identify individuals who may be suicidal; and

(C) provides information regarding crisis intervention resources;

(b) distributing, free of charge, the firearm safety packet to the following persons, who shall make the firearm safety packet available free of charge:

(i) health care providers, including emergency rooms;

(ii) mobile crisis outreach teams;

(iii) mental health practitioners;

(iv) other public health suicide prevention organizations;

(v) entities that teach firearm safety courses;

(vi) school districts for use in the seminar, described in Section 53G-9-702, for parents of students in the school district; and

(vii) firearm dealers to be distributed in accordance with Section 76-10-526;

(c) creating and administering a rebate program that includes a rebate that offers between $10 and $200 off the purchase price of a firearm safe from a participating firearms dealer or a person engaged in the business of selling firearm safes in Utah, by a Utah resident; and

(d) in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, making rules that establish procedures for:

(i) producing and distributing the suicide prevention education course and the firearm safety brochures and packets;

(ii) procuring the cable-style gun locks for distribution; and

(iii) administering the rebate program.

(4) (a) The division may refuse to contract with and may pursue legal remedies against any local substance abuse authority or local mental health authority that fails, or has failed, to expend public funds in accordance with state law, division policy, contract provisions, or directives issued in accordance with state law.

(b) The division may withhold funds from a local substance abuse authority or local mental health authority if the authority's contract provider of substance use or mental health programs or services fails to comply with state and federal law or policy.

(5) (a) Before reissuing or renewing a contract with any local substance abuse authority or local mental health authority, the division shall review and determine whether the local substance abuse authority or local mental health authority is complying with the oversight and management responsibilities described in Sections 17-43-201, 17-43-203, 17-43-303, and 17-43-309.

(b) Nothing in this Subsection (5) may be used as a defense to the responsibility and liability described in Section 17-43-303 and to the responsibility and liability described in Section 17-43-203.

(6) In carrying out the division's duties and responsibilities, the division may not duplicate treatment or educational facilities that exist in other divisions or departments of the state, but shall work in conjunction with those divisions and departments in rendering the treatment or educational services that those divisions and departments are competent and able to provide.

(7) The division may accept in the name of and on behalf of the state donations, gifts, devises, or bequests of real or personal property or services to be used as specified by the donor.

(8) The division shall annually review with each local substance abuse authority and each local mental health authority the authority's statutory and contract responsibilities regarding:

(a) use of public funds;

(b) oversight of public funds; and

(c) governance of substance use disorder and mental health programs and services.

(9) The Legislature may refuse to appropriate funds to the division upon the division's failure to comply with the provisions of this part.

(10) If a local substance abuse authority contacts the division under Subsection 17-43-201(10) for assistance in providing treatment services to a pregnant woman or pregnant minor, the division shall:

(a) refer the pregnant woman or pregnant minor to a treatment facility that has the capacity to provide the treatment services; or

(b) otherwise ensure that treatment services are made available to the pregnant woman or pregnant minor.

(11) The division shall employ a school-based mental health specialist to be housed at the State Board of Education who shall work with the State Board of Education to:

(a) provide coordination between a local education agency and local mental health authority;

(b) recommend evidence-based and evidence informed mental health screenings and intervention assessments for a local education agency; and

(c) coordinate with the local community, including local departments of health, to enhance and expand mental health related resources for a local education agency.

Section 2. Section 26B-5-205 is amended to read:

26B-5-205. Alcohol training and education seminar.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Instructor" means a person that directly provides the instruction during an alcohol training and education seminar for a seminar provider.

(b) "Licensee" means a person who is:

(i) (A) a new or renewing licensee under Title 32B, Alcoholic Beverage Control Act; and

(d) "Off-premise beer retailer" is as defined in Section 32B-1-102.

(e) "Off-premise retail manager" means the same as that term is defined in Section 32B-1-701.

(f) "Off-premise retail staff" means the same as that term is defined in Section 32B-1-701.

(g) "Retail manager" means the same as that term is defined in Section 32B-1-701.

(h) "Retail staff" means the same as that term is defined in Section 32B-1-701.

(i) "Seminar provider" means a person other than the division who provides an alcohol training and education seminar meeting the requirements of this section.

(2) (a) This section applies to licensee staff.

(b) An individual who does not have a valid record that the individual has completed an alcohol training and education seminar shall:

(i) complete an alcohol training and education seminar before the day on which the individual begins work as licensee staff of a licensee; and

(ii) pay a fee []to the seminar provider that is equal to or greater than the amount established under Subsection (4)(h).

(c) An individual shall have a valid record that the individual completed an alcohol training and education seminar within the time period provided in this Subsection (2)to act as licensee staff.

(d) A record that licensee staff has completed an alcohol training and education seminar is valid for three years after the day on which the record is issued.

(e) To be considered as having completed an alcohol training and education seminar, an individual shall:

(i) attend the alcohol training and education seminar and take any test required to demonstrate completion of the alcohol training and education seminar in the physical presence of an instructor of the seminar provider; or

(ii) complete the alcohol training and education seminar and take any test required to demonstrate completion of the alcohol training and education seminar through an online course or testing program that meets the requirements described in Subsection (2)(f).

(f) (i) The division shall by rule made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, establish one or more requirements for an online course or testing program described in Subsection (2)(e) that are designed to inhibit fraud in the use of the online course or testing program.

(ii) In developing the requirements by rule the division shall consider whether to require:

(A) authentication that the an individual accurately identifies the individual as taking the online course or test;

(B) measures to ensure that an individual taking the online course or test is focused on training material throughout the entire training period;

(C) measures to track the actual time an individual taking the online course or test is actively engaged online;

(D) a seminar provider to provide technical support, such as requiring a telephone number, email, or other method of communication that allows an individual taking the online course or test to receive assistance if the individual is unable to participate online because of technical difficulties;

(E) a test to meet quality standards, including randomization of test questions and maximum time limits to take a test;

(F) a seminar provider to have a system to reduce fraud as to who completes an online course or test, such as requiring a distinct online certificate with information printed on the certificate that identifies the person taking the online course or test, or requiring measures to inhibit duplication of a certificate;

(G) measures for the division to audit online courses or tests;

(H) measures to allow an individual taking an online course or test to provide an evaluation of the online course or test;

(I) a seminar provider to track the Internet protocol address or similar electronic location of an individual who takes an online course or test;

(J) an individual who takes an online course or test to use an e-signature; or

(K) a seminar provider to invalidate a certificate if the seminar provider learns that the certificate does not accurately reflect the individual who took the online course or test.

(3) (a) A licensee may not permit an individual who is not in compliance with Subsection (2) to:

(i) serve or supervise the serving of an alcoholic product to a customer for consumption on the premises of the licensee;

(ii) engage in any activity that would constitute managing operations at the premises of a licensee that engages in the retail sale of an alcoholic product for consumption on the premises of the licensee;

(iii) directly supervise the sale of beer to a customer for consumption off the premises of an off-premise beer retailer; or

(iv) sell beer to a customer for consumption off the premises of an off-premise beer retailer.

(b) A licensee that violates Subsection (3)(a) is subject to Section 32B-1-702.

(4) The division shall:

(a) (i) provide alcohol training and education seminars; or

(ii) certify one or more seminar providers;

(b) establish the curriculum for an alcohol training and education seminar that includes the following subjects:

(i) (A) alcohol as a drug; and

(B) alcohol's effect on the body and behavior;

(ii) recognizing the problem drinker or signs of intoxication;

(iii) an overview of state alcohol laws related to responsible beverage sale or service, as determined in consultation with the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Services;

(iv) dealing with the problem customer, including ways to terminate sale or service; and

(v) for those supervising or engaging in the retail sale of an alcoholic product for consumption on the premises of a licensee[~~,~~]:

(A) alternative means of transportation to get the customer safely home; and

(B) the drug overdose training and educational materials created pursuant to Subsection 26B-5-102(2)(q);

(c) recertify each seminar provider every three years;

(d) monitor compliance with the curriculum described in Subsection (4)(b);

(e) maintain for at least five years a record of every person who has completed an alcohol training and education seminar;

(f) provide the information described in Subsection (4)(e) on request to:

(i) the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Services;

(ii) law enforcement; or

(iii) a person licensed by the state or a local government to sell an alcoholic product;

(g) provide the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Services on request a list of any seminar provider certified by the division; and

(h) establish a fee amount for each person attending an alcohol training and education seminar that is sufficient to offset the division's cost of administering this section.

(5) The division shall by rule made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act:

(a) establish criteria for certifying and recertifying a seminar provider; and

(b) establish guidelines for the manner in which an instructor provides an alcohol education and training seminar.

(6) A seminar provider shall:

(a) obtain recertification by the division every three years;

(b) ensure that an instructor used by the seminar provider:

(i) follows the curriculum established under this section; and

(ii) conducts an alcohol training and education seminar in accordance with the guidelines established by rule;

(c) ensure that any information provided by the seminar provider or instructor of a seminar provider is consistent with:

(i) the curriculum established under this section; and

(ii) this section;

(d) provide the division with the names of all persons who complete an alcohol training and education seminar provided by the seminar provider;

(e) (i) collect a fee for each person attending an alcohol training and education seminar in accordance with Subsection (2); and

(ii) forward to the division the portion of the fee that is equal to the amount described in Subsection (4)(h); and

(f) issue a record to an individual that completes an alcohol training and education seminar provided by the seminar provider.

(7) (a) If after a hearing conducted in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 4, Administrative Procedures Act, the division finds that a seminar provider violates this section or that an instructor of the seminar provider violates this section, the division may:

(i) suspend the certification of the seminar provider for a period not to exceed 90 days after the day on which the suspension begins;

(ii) revoke the certification of the seminar provider;

(iii) require the seminar provider to take corrective action regarding an instructor; or

(iv) prohibit the seminar provider from using an instructor until such time that the seminar provider establishes to the satisfaction of the division that the instructor is in compliance with Subsection (6)(b).

(b) The division may certify a seminar provider whose certification is revoked:

(i) no sooner than 90 days after the day on which the certification is revoked; and

(ii) if the seminar provider establishes to the satisfaction of the division that the seminar provider will comply with this section.

(8) An individual's receipt of the training and educational materials described in Subsection (4)(b)(v)(B) does not place any additional responsibility or liability on the individual or the individual's employer, and shall not be construed to increase or create liability or responsibility for the individual or the individual's employer.

AMENDS:

26B-7-108, as renumbered and amended by Laws of Utah 2023, Chapter 308
58-37-2, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2024, Chapter 35

ENACTS:

4-5-107, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 4-5-107 is enacted to read:

4-5-107. Food containing vaccine.

(1) As used in this section, "vaccine or vaccine material" means a substance that is:

(a) intended for use in humans to stimulate the production of antibodies and provide immunity against disease;

(b) prepared from the causative agent of a disease, the disease's products, or a synthetic substitute treated to act as an antigen without including the disease; and

(c) authorized or approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration.

(2) A food intended for human consumption that intentionally contains a vaccine or vaccine material is considered a drug for purposes of this chapter, Section 26B-7-108, and Title 58, Chapter 37, Utah Controlled Substances Act.

Section 2. Section 26B-7-108 is amended to read:

26B-7-108. Rules for sale of drugs, cosmetics, and medical devices.

(1) The department shall [~~establish~~]make rules, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, and enforce the rules for the sale or distribution of human drugs, cosmetics, and medical devices.

(2) Food intended for human consumption that intentionally contains a vaccine or vaccine material is considered a human drug for purposes of this section as provided in Section 4-5-107.

(3) The rules adopted under this section shall be no more stringent than those established by federal law.

Section 3. Section 58-37-2 is amended to read:

58-37-2. Definitions.

(1) As used in this chapter:

(a) "Administer" means the direct application of a controlled substance, whether by injection, inhalation, ingestion, or any other means, to the body of a patient or research subject by:

(i) a practitioner or, in the practitioner's presence, by the practitioner's authorized agent; or

(ii) the patient or research subject at the direction and in the presence of the practitioner.

(b) "Agent" means an authorized person who acts on behalf of or at the direction of a manufacturer, distributor, or practitioner but does not include a motor carrier, public warehouseman, or employee of any of them.

(c) "Consumption" means ingesting or having any measurable amount of a controlled substance in a person's body, but this Subsection (1)(c) does not include the metabolite of a controlled substance.

(d) "Continuing criminal enterprise" means any individual, sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, business trust, association, or other legal entity, and any union or groups of individuals associated in fact although not a legal entity, and includes illicit as well as licit entities created or maintained for the purpose of engaging in conduct which constitutes the commission of episodes of activity made unlawful by [~~Chapter 37, Utah Controlled Substances Act~~]this chapter, Chapter 37a, Utah Drug Paraphernalia Act, Chapter 37b, Imitation Controlled Substances Act, Chapter 37c, Utah Controlled Substance Precursor Act, or Chapter 37d, Clandestine Drug Lab Act, which episodes are not isolated, but have the same or similar purposes, results, participants, victims, methods of commission, or otherwise are interrelated by distinguishing characteristics. Taken together, the episodes shall demonstrate continuing unlawful conduct and be related either to each other or to the enterprise.

(e) "Control" means to add, remove, or change the placement of a drug, substance, or immediate precursor under Section 58-37-3.

(f) (i) "Controlled substance" means a drug or substance:

(A) included in Schedules I, II, III, IV, or V of Section 58-37-4;

(B) included in Schedules I, II, III, IV, or V of the federal Controlled Substances Act, Title II, P.L. 91-513;

(C) that is a controlled substance analog; or

(D) listed in Section 58-37-4.2.

(ii) "Controlled substance" does not include:

(A) distilled spirits, wine, or malt beverages, as those terms are defined in Title 32B, Alcoholic Beverage Control Act;

(B) any drug intended for lawful use in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease in human or other animals, which contains ephedrine, pseudoephedrine, norpseudoephedrine, or phenylpropanolamine if the drug is lawfully purchased, sold, transferred, or furnished as an over-the-counter medication without prescription; or

(C) dietary supplements, vitamins, minerals, herbs, or other similar substances including concentrates or extracts, which:

(I) are not otherwise regulated by law; and

(II) may contain naturally occurring amounts of chemical or substances listed in this chapter, or in rules adopted pursuant to Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(g) (i) "Controlled substance analog" means:

(A) a substance the chemical structure of which is substantially similar to the chemical structure of a controlled substance listed in Schedules I and II of Section 58-37-4, a substance listed in Section 58-37-4.2, or in Schedules I and II of the federal Controlled Substances Act, Title II, P.L. 91-513;

(B) a substance [~~which~~]that has a stimulant, depressant, or hallucinogenic effect on the central nervous system substantially similar to the stimulant, depressant, or hallucinogenic effect on the central nervous system of controlled substances listed in Schedules I and II of Section 58-37-4, substances listed in Section 58-37-4.2, or substances listed in Schedules I and II of the federal Controlled Substances Act, Title II, P.L. 91-513; or

(C) A substance [~~which~~]that, with respect to a particular individual, is represented or intended to have a stimulant, depressant, or hallucinogenic effect on the central nervous system substantially similar to the stimulant, depressant, or hallucinogenic effect on the central nervous system of controlled substances listed in Schedules I and II of Section 58-37-4, substances listed in Section 58-37-4.2, or substances listed in Schedules I and II of the federal Controlled Substances Act, Title II, P.L. 91-513.

(ii) "Controlled substance analog" does not include:

(A) a controlled substance currently scheduled in Schedules I through V of Section 58-37-4;

(B) a substance for which there is an approved new drug application;

(C) a substance with respect to which an exemption is in effect for investigational use by a particular person under Section 505 of the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, 21 U.S.C. 355, to the extent the conduct with respect to the substance is permitted by the exemption;

(D) any substance to the extent not intended for human consumption before an exemption takes effect with respect to the substance;

(E) any drug intended for lawful use in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease in man or other animals, which contains ephedrine, pseudoephedrine, norpseudoephedrine, or phenylpropanolamine if the drug is lawfully purchased, sold, transferred, or furnished as an over-the-counter medication without prescription; or

(F) dietary supplements, vitamins, minerals, herbs, or other similar substances including concentrates or extracts, which are not otherwise regulated by law, which may contain naturally occurring amounts of chemical or substances listed in this chapter, or in rules adopted pursuant to Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(h) (i) "Conviction" means a determination of guilt by verdict, whether jury or bench, or plea, whether guilty or no contest, for any offense proscribed by:

(A) [~~Chapter 37, Utah Controlled Substances Act~~]this chapter;

(B) Chapter 37a, Utah Drug Paraphernalia Act;

(C) Chapter 37b, Imitation Controlled Substances Act;

(D) Chapter 37c, Utah Controlled Substance Precursor Act; or

(E) Chapter 37d, Clandestine Drug Lab Act; or

(ii) for any offense under the laws of the United States and any other state which, if committed in this state, would be an offense under:

(A) [~~Chapter 37, Utah Controlled Substances Act~~]this chapter;

(B) Chapter 37a, Utah Drug Paraphernalia Act;

(C) Chapter 37b, Imitation Controlled Substances Act;

(D) Chapter 37c, Utah Controlled Substance Precursor Act; or

(E) Chapter 37d, Clandestine Drug Lab Act.

(i) "Counterfeit substance" means:

(i) any controlled substance or container or labeling of any controlled substance that:

(A) without authorization bears the trademark, trade name, or other identifying mark, imprint, number, device, or any likeness of them, of a manufacturer, distributor, or dispenser other than the person or persons who in fact manufactured, distributed, or dispensed the substance which falsely purports to be a controlled substance distributed by any other manufacturer, distributor, or dispenser; and

(B) a reasonable person would believe to be a controlled substance distributed by an authorized manufacturer, distributor, or dispenser based on the appearance of the substance as described under Subsection (1)(i)(i)(A) or the appearance of the container of that controlled substance; or

(ii) any substance other than under Subsection (1)(i)(i) that:

(A) is falsely represented to be any legally or illegally manufactured controlled substance; and

(B) a reasonable person would believe to be a legal or illegal controlled substance.

(j) "Deliver" or "delivery" means the actual, constructive, or attempted transfer of a controlled substance or a listed chemical, whether or not an agency relationship exists.

(k) "Department" means the Department of Commerce.

(l) "Depressant or stimulant substance" means:

(i) a drug which contains any quantity of barbituric acid or any of the salts of barbituric acid;

(ii) a drug which contains any quantity of:

(A) amphetamine or any of its optical isomers;

(B) any salt of amphetamine or any salt of an optical isomer of amphetamine; or

(C) any substance which the Secretary of Health and Human Services or the Attorney General of the United States after investigation has found and by regulation designated habit-forming because of its stimulant effect on the central nervous system;

(iii) lysergic acid diethylamide; or

(iv) any drug which contains any quantity of a substance which the Secretary of Health and Human Services or the Attorney General of the United States after investigation has found to have, and by regulation designated as having, a potential for abuse because of its depressant or stimulant effect on the central nervous system or its hallucinogenic effect.

(m) "Dispense" means the delivery of a controlled substance by a pharmacist to an ultimate user pursuant to the lawful order or prescription of a practitioner, and includes distributing to, leaving with, giving away, or disposing of that substance as well as the packaging, labeling, or compounding necessary to prepare the substance for delivery.

(n) "Dispenser" means a pharmacist who dispenses a controlled substance.

(o) "Distribute" means to deliver other than by administering or dispensing a controlled substance or a listed chemical.

(p) "Distributor" means a person who distributes controlled substances.

(q) "Division" means the Division of Professional Licensing created in Section 58-1-103.

(r) (i) "Drug" means:

(A) a substance recognized in the official United States Pharmacopoeia, Official Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, or Official National Formulary, or any supplement to any of them, intended for use in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease in humans or animals;

(B) a substance that is required by any applicable federal or state law or rule to be dispensed by prescription only or is restricted to administration by practitioners only;

(C) a substance other than food intended to affect the structure or any function of the body of humans or other animals; and

(D) substances intended for use as a component of any substance specified in Subsections (1)(r)(i)(A), (B), and (C).

(ii) "Drug" does not include dietary supplements.

(iii) "Drug" includes a food intended for human consumption that intentionally contains a vaccine or vaccine material as provided in Section 4-5-107.

(s) "Drug dependent person" means any individual who unlawfully and habitually uses any controlled substance to endanger the public morals, health, safety, or welfare, or who is so dependent upon the use of controlled substances as to have lost the power of self-control with reference to the individual's dependency.

(t) (i) "Food" means:

~~(i)~~ any nutrient or substance of plant, mineral, or animal origin other than a drug as specified in this chapter, and normally ingested by human beings; and

~~(ii)~~ foods for special dietary uses as exist by reason of a physical, physiological, pathological, or other condition including [~~but not limited to~~]the conditions of disease, convalescence, pregnancy, lactation, allergy, hypersensitivity to food, underweight, and overweight; uses for supplying a particular dietary need which exist by reason of age including [~~but not limited to~~]the ages of infancy and childbirth, and also uses for supplementing and for fortifying the ordinary or unusual diet with any vitamin, mineral, or other dietary property for use of a food.

(ii) Any particular use of a food is a special dietary use regardless of the nutritional purposes.

(u) "Immediate precursor" means a substance which the Attorney General of the United States has found to be, and by regulation designated as being, the principal compound used or produced primarily for use in the manufacture of a controlled substance, or which is an immediate chemical intermediary used or likely to be used in the manufacture of a controlled substance, the control of which is necessary to prevent, curtail, or limit the manufacture of the controlled substance.

(v) "Indian" means a member of an Indian tribe.

(w) "Indian religion" means [~~any~~]a religion:

(i) the origin and interpretation of which is from within a traditional Indian culture or community; and

(ii) [~~which~~]that is practiced by Indians.

(x) "Indian tribe" means any tribe, band, nation, pueblo, or other organized group or community of Indians, including any Alaska Native village, which is legally recognized as eligible for and is consistent with the special programs, services, and entitlements provided by the United States to Indians because of their status as Indians.

(y) "Manufacture" means the production, preparation, propagation, compounding, or processing of a controlled substance, either directly or indirectly by extraction from substances of natural origin, or independently by means of chemical synthesis or by a combination of extraction and chemical synthesis.

(z) "Manufacturer" includes any person who packages, repackages, or labels any container of any controlled substance, except pharmacists who dispense or compound prescription orders for delivery to the ultimate consumer.

(aa) (i) "Marijuana" means all species of the genus cannabis and all parts of the genus, whether growing or not, including:

(A) seeds;

(B) resin extracted from any part of the plant, including the resin extracted from the mature stalks;

(C) every compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture, or preparation of the plant, seeds, or resin;

(D) any synthetic equivalents of the substances contained in the plant cannabis sativa or any other species of the genus cannabis which are chemically indistinguishable and pharmacologically active; and

(E) any component part or cannabinoid extracted or isolated from the plant, including extracted or isolated tetrahydrocannabinols.

(ii) "Marijuana" does not include:

(A) the mature stalks of the plant;

(B) fiber produced from the stalks;

(C) oil or cake made from the seeds of the plant;

(D) except as provided in Subsection (1)(aa)(i), any other compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture, or preparation of the mature stalks, fiber, oil or cake;

(E) the sterilized seed of the plant which is incapable of germination;

(F) any compound, mixture, or preparation approved by the federal Food and Drug Administration under the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, 21 U.S.C. Sec. 301 et seq. that is not listed in a schedule of controlled substances in Section 58-37-4 or in the federal Controlled Substances Act, Title II, P.L. 91-513; or

(G) transportable industrial hemp concentrate as that term is defined in Section 4-41-102.

(bb) "Money" means officially issued coin and currency of the United States or any foreign country.

(cc) "Narcotic drug" means any of the following, whether produced directly or indirectly by extraction from substances of vegetable origin, or independently by means of chemical synthesis, or by a combination of extraction and chemical synthesis:

(i) opium, coca leaves, and opiates;

(ii) a compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, or preparation of opium, coca leaves, or opiates;

(iii) opium poppy and poppy straw; or

(iv) a substance, and any compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, or preparation of the substance, which is chemically identical with any of the substances referred to in Subsection (1)(cc)(i), (ii), or (iii), except narcotic drug does not include decocainized coca leaves or extracts of coca leaves which do not contain cocaine or ecgonine.

(dd) "Negotiable instrument" means documents, containing an unconditional promise to pay a sum of money, which are legally transferable to another party by endorsement or delivery.

(ee) "Opiate" means any drug or other substance having an addiction-forming or addiction-sustaining liability similar to morphine or being capable of conversion into a drug having addiction-forming or addiction-sustaining liability.

For a person to be a possessor or user of a controlled substance, it is not required that the person be shown to have individually possessed, used, or controlled the substance, but it is sufficient if it is shown that the person jointly participated with one or more persons in the use, possession, or control of any substances with knowledge that the activity was occurring, or the controlled substance is found in a place or under circumstances indicating that the person had the ability and the intent to exercise dominion and control over [~~it~~]the controlled substance.

(jj) "Practitioner" means a physician, dentist, naturopathic physician, veterinarian, pharmacist, scientific investigator, pharmacy, hospital, or other person licensed, registered, or otherwise permitted to distribute, dispense, conduct research with respect to, administer, or use in teaching or chemical analysis a controlled substance in the course of professional practice or research in this state.

(kk) "Prescribe" means to issue a prescription:

(i) orally or in writing; or

(ii) by telephone, facsimile transmission, computer, or other electronic means of communication as defined by division rule.

(ll) "Prescription" means an order issued:

(i) by a licensed practitioner, in the course of that practitioner's professional practice or by collaborative pharmacy practice agreement; and

(ii) for a controlled substance or other prescription drug or device for use by a patient or an animal.

(mm) "Production" means the manufacture, planting, cultivation, growing, or harvesting of a controlled substance.

(nn) "Securities" means any stocks, bonds, notes, or other evidences of debt or of property.

(oo) "State" means the state of Utah.

(pp) "Ultimate user" means any person who lawfully possesses a controlled substance for the person's own use, for the use of a member of the person's household, or for administration to an animal owned by the person or a member of the person's household.

(2) If a term used in this chapter is not defined, the definition and terms of Title 76, Utah Criminal Code, shall apply.

64-13-46.1, as renumbered and amended by Laws of Utah 2024, Chapter 182

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 17-22-8 is amended to read:

17-22-8. Care of prisoners -- Funding of services -- Private contractor.

(1) As used in this section, "medication assisted treatment plan" means a prescription plan to use buprenorphine, methadone, or naltrexone to treat substance use withdrawal symptoms or an opioid use disorder.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection (7), a sheriff shall:

(a) receive each individual committed to jail by competent authority;

(b) provide each prisoner with necessary food, clothing, and bedding in the manner prescribed by the county legislative body;

(c) provide each prisoner medical care when:

(i) the prisoner's symptoms evidence a serious disease or injury;

(ii) the prisoner's disease or injury is curable or may be substantially alleviated; and

(iii) the potential for harm to the person by reason of delay or the denial of medical care would be substantial;

(d) provide each prisoner, as part of the intake process, with the option of continuing any of the following medically prescribed methods of contraception:

(i) an oral contraceptive;

(ii) an injectable contraceptive;

(iii) a patch;

(iv) a vaginal ring; or

(v) an intrauterine device, if the prisoner was prescribed the intrauterine device because the prisoner experiences serious and persistent adverse effects when using the methods of contraception described in Subsections (2)(d)(i) and (ii); [~~and~~]

(e) cooperate with medical personnel to continue a medication assisted treatment plan for an inmate if the inmate was an active client before arrest and commitment[~~.~~]; and

(f) ensure that each female prisoner younger than 50 years old who has been incarcerated for longer than 72 hours on a state or local criminal offense is offered, which the prisoner may reject, a test for pregnancy.

(3) A sheriff may provide the generic form of a contraceptive described in Subsection (2)(d)(i) or (ii).

(4) A sheriff shall follow the provisions of Section 64-13-46 if a prisoner is pregnant or in postpartum recovery[~~, including the reporting requirements in Subsection 64-13-45(2)(c)~~].

(5) (a) Except as provided in Section 17-22-10 and Subsection (5)(b), the expense incurred in providing the services required by this section to prisoners shall be paid from the county treasury.

(b) The expense incurred in providing the services described in Subsection (2)(d) to prisoners shall be paid by the Department of Health and Human Services.

(6) A medication used for a medication assisted treatment plan under Subsection (2)(e):

(a) shall be administered to an inmate in accordance with the inmate's prescription under the direction of the sheriff;

(b) may be paid for by a county; and

(c) may be left or stored at a jail at the discretion of the sheriff.

(7) If the county executive contracts with a private contractor to provide the services required by this section, the sheriff shall provide only those services required of the sheriff by the contract between the county and the private contractor.

Section 2. Section 26B-4-319 is amended to read:

26B-4-319. Testing of newborn infants.

(1) (a) Except in the case where parents object on the grounds that they are members of a specified, well-recognized religious organization whose teachings are contrary to the tests required by this section, a newborn infant shall be tested for:

~~(a)~~ phenylketonuria (PKU);

~~(b)~~ other heritable disorders which may result in an intellectual or physical disability or death and for which:

~~(i)~~ a preventive measure or treatment is available; and

~~(ii)~~ there exists a reliable laboratory diagnostic test method;

[~~(c) (i) an infant born in a hospital with 100 or more live births annually, hearing loss; and~~]

[~~(ii) an infant born in a setting other than a hospital with 100 or more live births annually, hearing loss; and~~]

(iii) hearing loss; and

~~(d)~~ critical congenital heart defects using pulse oximetry.

(b) (i) Prior to conducting newborn infant testing under this section, information shall be provided to the newborn infant's parent or guardian explaining relevant facts and information about newborn infant testing and sample storage under this section.

(ii) Prior to conducting a newborn infant heelstick screen under this section, a copy of the privacy consent form described in Subsection (5) shall be provided to the newborn infant's parent or guardian.

(iii) The department may retain, in accordance with the department's retention policy, a biological sample and any genetic data, as those terms are defined in Section 13-60-102, collected under this section, only if a parent or guardian consents to the retention policy on the privacy consent form.

(c) A biological sample and any genetic data collected under this section shall be destroyed:

(i) according to the department's retention policy; or

(ii) if the newborn infant's parent or guardian does not consent to the department's retention policy, upon completion of the newborn infant's testing under this section.

(2) In accordance with Section 26B-1-209, the department may charge fees for:

(a) materials supplied by the department to conduct tests required under Subsection (1);

(b) tests required under Subsection (1) conducted by the department;

(c) laboratory analyses by the department of tests conducted under Subsection (1); and

(d) the administrative cost of follow-up contacts with the parents or guardians of tested infants.

(3) Tests for hearing loss described in Subsection (1) shall be based on one or more methods approved by the Newborn Hearing Screening Committee created in Section 26B-1-432, including:

(a) auditory brainstem response;

(b) automated auditory brainstem response; and

(c) evoked otoacoustic emissions.

(4) Results of tests for hearing loss described in Subsection (1) shall be reported to:

(a) the department; and

(b) when results of tests for hearing loss under Subsection (1) suggest that additional diagnostic procedures or medical interventions are necessary:

(i) a parent or guardian of the infant;

(ii) an early intervention program administered by the department in accordance with Part C of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1431 et seq.; and

(iii) the Utah Schools for the Deaf and the Blind, created in Section 53E-8-201.

(5) The department shall publish a privacy consent form containing:

(a) relevant facts and information about:

(i) the purposes for which the department retains biological samples or any genetic data obtained through newborn infant testing; and

(ii) the department's retention policy for biological samples or any genetic data obtained through newborn infant testing; and

(b) the option for a parent or guardian to indicate consent to the department's retention policy.

Section 3. Section 63I-1-264 is amended to read:

63I-1-264. Repeal dates: Title 64.

Section 64-13-46.1, Correctional Postnatal and Early Childhood Advisory Board, is repealed July 1, [~~2025~~]2027.

Section 4. Section 64-13-46 is amended to read:

64-13-46. Pregnant inmates.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Postpartum recovery" means, as determined by the pregnant inmate's physician, the period immediately following delivery, including the entire period the inmate is in the hospital or health care facility after birth.

(b) "Restraints" means any physical restraint or mechanical device used to control the movement of an inmate's body or limbs, including flex cuffs, soft restraints, shackles, or a convex shield.

(c) (i) "Shackles" means metal restraints, including leg irons, belly chains, or a security or tether chain.

(ii) "Shackles" does not include hard metal handcuffs.

(2) The department shall ensure that each female inmate younger than 50 years old is offered, which the inmate may reject, a test for pregnancy upon admission, or within a reasonable time after admission, to a correctional facility.

~~(2)~~ Subject to Subsections ~~(3) and (4)~~ and (5), if the staff of a correctional facility knows or has reason to believe that an inmate is pregnant or is in postpartum recovery, the staff shall, when restraining the inmate at any time or location, use the least restrictive restraints necessary to ensure the safety and security of the inmate and others.

~~(3)~~ A correctional staff member may not use restraints on an inmate during the third trimester of pregnancy, labor, or childbirth unless a correctional staff member makes an individualized determination that there are compelling grounds to believe that the inmate presents:

(a) an immediate and serious risk of harm to the inmate, the inmate's infant, medical staff, correctional staff, or the public; or

(b) a substantial risk of escape that cannot reasonably be reduced by the use of other existing means.

~~(4)~~ Notwithstanding Subsection ~~(3)~~, under no circumstances may shackles, leg restraints, or waist restraints be used on an inmate during the third trimester of pregnancy, labor, childbirth, or postpartum recovery.

~~(5)~~ Correctional staff present during labor or childbirth shall:

(a) be stationed in a location that offers the maximum privacy to the inmate, while taking into consideration safety and security concerns; and

(b) be female, if practicable.

~~(6)~~ If a correctional staff member authorizes restraints under Subsection ~~(2) or (3)~~ or (4), the correctional staff member shall make a written record of the authorization and use of the restraints that includes:

(a) an explanation of the grounds for the correctional staff member's authorization on the use of restraints;

(b) the type of restraints that were used; and

(c) the length of time the restraints were used.

~~(7)~~ The record described in Subsection ~~(6)~~:

(a) shall be retained by the correctional facility for five years;

(b) shall be available for public inspection with individually identifying information redacted; and

(c) may not be considered a medical record under state or federal law.

~~(8)~~ For a minimum of 48 hours after an inmate has given birth, a correctional facility shall, if directed by the inmate's physician, allow the infant to remain with the inmate at the health care facility.

~~(9)~~ A correctional facility shall provide:

(a) an inmate who is pregnant, or who has given birth within the past six weeks, access to a social worker to help the inmate:

(i) arrange childcare;

(ii) establish a reunification plan; and

(iii) establish a substance abuse treatment plan, if needed; and

(b) an inmate in postpartum recovery access to postpartum care for up to 12 weeks as determined by the inmate's physician.

~~(10)~~ The department may not create or operate a nursery in a correctional facility to provide space for a female inmate and the inmate's child.

Section 5. Section 64-13-46.1 is amended to read:

64-13-46.1. Correctional Postnatal and Early Childhood Advisory Board -- Duties -- Rulemaking.

(1) As used in this part:

(a) "Advisory board" means the Correctional Postnatal and Early Childhood Advisory Board.

(b) "Correctional facility" means a facility operated by the department or a county sheriff that houses inmates in a secure setting.

(c) "Incarcerated mother" means an inmate who:

(i) has recently given birth before entering a correctional facility;

(ii) is pregnant and incarcerated in a correctional facility; or

(iii) has given birth while incarcerated in a correctional facility.

(2) The advisory board shall consist of the following members:

(a) two individuals from the department, appointed by the executive director;

(b) one individual appointed by the Board of Pardons and Parole;

(c) one individual appointed by the president of the Utah Sheriffs' Association;

(d) one individual representing the Administrative Office of the Courts appointed by the Judicial Council;

(e) one individual appointed by the Statewide Association of Public Attorneys and Prosecutors;

(f) one individual appointed by the Utah Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers; and

~~(d)~~ four individuals appointed by the executive director of the Department of Health and Human Services, including:

(i) [~~two~~]one pediatric healthcare [~~providers~~]provider;

(ii) one individual with expertise in early childhood development;

(iii) one individual employed by the Division of Child and Family Services; and

~~(iii)~~ one individual with experience advocating for incarcerated women.

(3) [~~(a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a member of the advisory board shall be appointed for a four-year term.~~]

[~~(b) A member that is appointed to complete an unexpired term may complete the unexpired term and serve a subsequent four-year term.~~]

[~~(c) Appointments and reappointments may be staggered so that one-fourth of the advisory board changes each year.~~]

[~~(d)~~] The advisory board shall annually elect a chair and co-chair of the board from among the members of the board[~~to serve a two-year term~~].

(4) The advisory board shall meet at least bi-annually, or more frequently as determined by the executive director, the chair, or three or more members of the advisory board.

(5) A majority of the board constitutes a quorum and a vote of the majority of the members present constitutes an action of the advisory board.

(6) A member of the advisory board may not receive compensation or benefits for the member's service, but may receive per diem and travel expenses as allowed in:

(a) Section 63A-3-106;

(b) Section 63A-3-107; and

(c) rules made by the Division of Finance in accordance with Sections 63A-3-106 and 63A-3-107.

(7) The advisory board shall:

(a) review research regarding childhood development and best practices for placing infants and incarcerated mothers in a diversion program not located in a correctional facility;

(b) study the costs of implementing a diversion program for infants and incarcerated mothers removed from a correctional facility;

(c) create a provisional plan for implementing a diversion program for infants and incarcerated mothers removed from a correctional facility; and

(d) advise and make recommendations to the department and county sheriffs regarding rules and policies for placing an infant or incarcerated mother in a diversion program not located in a correctional facility.

(8) On or before November 30 [~~, 2024~~]of each year, the advisory board shall provide a report of the advisory board's research and study under Subsections (7)(a) through (c), including any proposed legislation, to:

(a) the Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice Interim Committee; and

(b) the [~~Executive Offices and~~]Criminal Justice Appropriations Subcommittee.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 10-2-510 is amended to read:
10-2-510
(Effective 05/07/25)
. Boundary adjustment procedure not affected.

This part may not be construed to abrogate, modify, or replace the boundary adjustment procedure provided in Section [~~10-2-419~~]10-2-903.

Section 2. Section 10-2-801, which is renumbered from Section 10-2-401 is renumbered and amended to read:

PART 8. Annexation

[~~10-2-401~~]10-2-801
(Effective 05/07/25)
. Definitions.

[~~(1)~~] As used in this part:

~~(a)~~ "Affected area" means an annexed area or area proposed for annexation.

(2) "Affected entity" means:

~~(i)~~ a county of the first or second class in whose unincorporated area the area proposed for annexation is located;

~~(ii)~~ a county of the third, fourth, fifth, or sixth class in whose unincorporated area the area proposed for annexation is located, if the area includes residents or commercial or industrial development;

~~(iii)~~ a special district under Title 17B, Limited Purpose Local Government Entities - Special Districts, or special service district under Title 17D, Chapter 1, Special Service District Act, whose boundary includes any part of an area proposed for annexation;

~~(iv)~~ a school district whose boundary includes any part of an area proposed for annexation, if the boundary is proposed to be adjusted as a result of the annexation; and

~~(v)~~ a municipality whose boundaries are within 1/2 mile of an area proposed for annexation.

~~(b)~~ "Annexation action" means:

(a) the enactment of an ordinance annexing an unincorporated area;

(b) the enactment of an ordinance approving a boundary adjustment by each of the municipalities involved in the boundary adjustment; or

(c) an automatic annexation that occurs on July 1, 2027, under Subsection 10-2-814(2)(b).

(4) "Annexation petition" means a petition under Section [~~10-2-403~~]10-2-806 proposing the annexation to a municipality of a contiguous, unincorporated area that is contiguous to the municipality.

(5) "Annexing municipality" means:

(a) the municipality that annexes an unincorporated area; or

(b) the municipality to which an unincorporated island is automatically annexed under Section 10-2-814.

(6) "Applicable legislative body" means:

(a) the legislative body of each municipality that enacts an ordinance under this part approving the annexation of an unincorporated area or the adjustment of a boundary; or

(b) the legislative body of a municipality to which an unincorporated island is automatically annexed under Section 10-2-814.

[~~(c) "Commission" means a boundary commission established under Section 10-2-409for the county in which the property that is proposed for annexation is located.~~]

~~(d)~~ "Expansion area" means the unincorporated area that is identified in an annexation policy plan under Section [~~10-2-401.5~~]10-2-803 as the area that the municipality anticipates annexing in the future.

~~(e)~~ "Feasibility consultant" means a person or firm with expertise in the processes and economics of local government.

~~(f)~~ "Mining protection area" means the same as that term is defined in Section 17-41-101.

(10) "Municipal records officer" means a:

(a) city recorder; or

(b) town clerk.

~~(g)~~ "Municipal selection committee" means a committee in each county composed of the mayor of each municipality within that county.

(12) "Owner of real property" means:

(a) the record title owner according to the records of the county recorder on the date of the filing of the petition or protest; or

(b) the lessee of military land, as defined in Section 63H-1-102, if the area proposed for annexation includes military land that is within a project area described in a project area plan adopted by the military installation development authority under Title 63H, Chapter 1, Military Installation Development Authority Act.

[~~(h) "Planning advisory area" means the same as that term is defined in Section 17-27a-306.~~]

~~(i)~~ "Private," with respect to real property, means not owned by:

(a) the United States or any agency of the federal government[~~,~~];

(b) the state[~~,~~];

(c) a county[~~,~~];

(d) a municipality[~~,~~];

(e) a school district[~~,~~];

(f) a special district under Title 17B, Limited Purpose Local Government Entities - Special Districts[~~,~~];

(g) a special service district under Title 17D, Chapter 1, Special Service District Act[~~,~~]; or

(h) any other political subdivision or governmental entity of the state.

~~(j)~~ ~~(i)~~ "Rural real property" means a group of contiguous tax parcels, or a single tax parcel, that:

~~(A)~~ are under common ownership;

~~(B)~~ consist of no less than 1,000 total acres;

~~(C)~~ are zoned for manufacturing or agricultural purposes; and

~~(D)~~ do not have a residential unit density greater than one unit per acre.

~~(ii)~~ "Rural real property" includes any portion of private real property, if the private real property:

~~(A)~~ qualifies as rural real property under Subsection ~~(1)(j)(i)~~(a); and ~~(B)~~ consists of more than 1,500 total acres.

~~(k)~~ "Specified county" means a county of the second, third, fourth, fifth, or sixth class.

~~(l)~~ "Unincorporated peninsula" means an unincorporated area:

~~(i)~~ that is part of a larger unincorporated area;

~~(ii)~~ that extends from the rest of the unincorporated area of which it is a part;

~~(iii)~~ that is surrounded by land that is within a municipality, except where the area connects to and extends from the rest of the unincorporated area of which it is a part; and

~~(iv)~~ whose width, at any point where a straight line may be drawn from a place where it borders a municipality to another place where it borders a municipality, is no more than 25% of the boundary of the area where it borders a municipality.

~~(m)~~ "Urban development" means:

~~(i)~~ a housing development with more than 15 residential units and an average density greater than one residential unit per acre; or

~~(ii)~~ a commercial or industrial development for which cost projections exceed $750,000 for all phases.

[~~(2) For purposes of this part:~~]

[~~(a) the owner of real property shall be:~~]

[~~(i) except as provided in Subsection (2)(a)(ii), the record title owner according to the records of the county recorder on the date of the filing of the petition or protest; or~~]

[~~(ii) the lessee of military land, as defined in Section 63H-1-102, if the area proposed for annexation includes military land that is within a project area described in a project area plan adopted by the military installation development authority under Title 63H, Chapter 1, Military Installation Development Authority Act; and~~]

[~~(b) the value of private real property shall be determined according to the last assessment roll for county taxes before the filing of the petition or protest.~~]

[~~(3) For purposes of each provision of this part that requires the owners of private real property covering a percentage or majority of the total private land area within an area to sign a petition or protest:~~]

[~~(a) a parcel of real property may not be included in the calculation of the required percentage or majority unless the petition or protest is signed by:~~]

[~~(i) except as provided in Subsection (3)(a)(ii), owners representing a majority ownership interest in that parcel; or~~]

[~~(ii) if the parcel is owned by joint tenants or tenants by the entirety, 50% of the number of owners of that parcel;~~]

[~~(b) the signature of a person signing a petition or protest in a representative capacity on behalf of an owner is invalid unless:~~]

[~~(i) the person's representative capacity and the name of the owner the person represents are indicated on the petition or protest with the person's signature; and~~]

[~~(ii) the person provides documentation accompanying the petition or protest that substantiates the person's representative capacity; and~~]

[~~(c) subject to Subsection (3)(b), a duly appointed personal representative may sign a petition or protest on behalf of a deceased owner.~~]

Section 3. Section 10-2-802 is enacted to read:

10-2-802

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Valuation of private real property -- Determining consent to petition or protest by owners of real property.

(1) For purposes of this part and Part 9, Municipal Boundary Adjustments, the value of private real property shall be determined according to the last assessment roll for county taxes before the filing of the petition or protest.

(2) For purposes of each provision of this part and Part 9, Municipal Boundary Adjustments, that require an owner of private real property covering a percentage or majority of the total private land area within an area to sign a petition or protest:

(a) a parcel of real property may not be included in the calculation of the required percentage or majority unless the petition or protest is signed by:

(i) except as provided in Subsection (2)(a)(ii), owners of real property representing a majority ownership interest in that parcel; or

(ii) if the parcel is owned by joint tenants or tenants in the entirety, 50% of the number of owners of real property within that parcel; and

(b) subject to Subsection (2)(b), a duly appointed personal representative may sign a petition or protest on behalf of a deceased owner of real property.

Section 4. Section 10-2-803, which is renumbered from Section 10-2-401.5 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~10-2-401.5~~]10-2-803

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Annexation policy plan.

(1) [~~No municipality may annex an unincorporated area located within a specified county unless the municipality has adopted an annexation policy plan as provided in this section.~~]Except as provided in Subsection (9), before a municipality may annex an unincorporated area:

(a) the municipality's planning commission shall prepare and recommend to the legislative body an annexation policy plan, as described in Subsections (2) through (4); and

(b) a municipal legislative body shall adopt a recommended annexation policy plan, as described in Subsection (6).

[~~(2) To adopt an annexation policy plan:~~]

[~~(a) the planning commission shall:~~]

[~~(i) prepare a proposed annexation policy plan that complies with Subsection (3);~~]

[~~(ii) hold a public meeting to allow affected entities to examine the proposed annexation policy plan and to provide input on it;~~]

[~~(iii) provide notice of the public meeting under Subsection (2)(a)(ii) to each affected entity at least 14 days before the meeting;~~]

[~~(iv) accept and consider any additional written comments from affected entities until 10 days after the public meeting under Subsection (2)(a)(ii);~~]

[~~(v) before holding the public hearing required under Subsection (2)(a)(vi), make any modifications to the proposed annexation policy plan the planning commission considers appropriate, based on input provided at or within 10 days after the public meeting under Subsection (2)(a)(ii);~~]

[~~(vi) hold a public hearing on the proposed annexation policy plan;~~]

[~~(vii) provide reasonable public notice, including notice to each affected entity, of the public hearing required under Subsection (2)(a)(vi) at least 14 days before the date of the hearing;~~]

[~~(viii) make any modifications to the proposed annexation policy plan the planning commission considers appropriate, based on public input provided at the public hearing; and~~]

[~~(ix) submit the planning commission's recommended annexation policy plan to the municipal legislative body; and~~]

[~~(b) the municipal legislative body shall:~~]

[~~(i) hold a public hearing on the annexation policy plan recommended by the planning commission;~~]

[~~(ii) provide reasonable notice, including notice to each affected entity, of the public hearing at least 14 days before the date of the hearing;~~]

[~~(iii) after the public hearing under Subsection (2)(b)(ii), make any modifications to the recommended annexation policy plan that the legislative body considers appropriate; and~~]

[~~(iv) adopt the recommended annexation policy plan, with or without modifications.~~]

~~(3)~~ (a) Each proposed annexation policy plan shall include:

~~(a)~~ a map of the expansion area which may include territory located outside the county in which the municipality is located;

~~(b)~~ a statement of the specific criteria that will guide the municipality's decision whether or not to grant future annexation petitions, addressing matters relevant to those criteria including:

~~(i)~~ the character of the community;

~~(ii)~~ the need for municipal services in developed and undeveloped unincorporated areas;

~~(iii)~~ the municipality's plans for extension of municipal services;

~~(iv)~~ how the services will be financed;

~~(v)~~ an estimate of the tax consequences to residents both currently within the municipal boundaries and in the expansion area; and

~~(vi)~~ the interests of all affected entities; and

~~(c)~~ justification for excluding from the expansion area any area containing urban development within 1/2 mile of the municipality's boundary; and

~~(d)~~ In addition to the requirements described in Subsection (2)(a), a recommended annexation policy plan shall also include a statement addressing any comments made by affected entities at or within 10 days after the public meeting [~~under Subsection (2)(a)(ii)~~]described in Subsection (4)(d).

~~(4)~~ In [~~developing, considering, and adopting an~~]preparing a proposed annexation policy plan, the planning commission [~~and municipal legislative body~~]shall:

(a) attempt to avoid gaps between or overlaps with the expansion areas of other municipalities;

(b) consider population growth projections for the municipality and adjoining areas for the next 20 years;

(c) consider current and projected costs of infrastructure, urban services, and public facilities necessary:

(i) to facilitate full development of the area within the municipality; and

(ii) to expand the infrastructure, services, and facilities into the area being considered for inclusion in the expansion area;

(d) consider, in conjunction with the municipality's general plan, the need over the next 20 years for additional land suitable for residential, commercial, and industrial development;

(e) consider the reasons for including agricultural lands, forests, recreational areas, and wildlife management areas in the municipality; and

(f) be guided by the principles set forth in Subsection [~~10-2-403(5)~~]10-2-806(5).

(4) Before presenting a recommended annexation policy plan to a municipal legislative body, the planning commission shall:

(a) prepare a proposed annexation policy plan, as described in Subsections (2)(a) and (3);

(b) hold a public meeting to allow affected entities to examine the proposed annexation policy plan and to provide comments on the proposed annexation policy plan;

(c) provide notice of the public meeting under Subsection (4)(b):

(i) as a class A notice, as described in Section 63G-30-102; and

(ii) to each affected entity at least 14 days before the day of the meeting;

(d) accept and consider any additional written comments from affected entities for 10 days following the public meeting under Subsection (4)(b);

(e) if the planning commission receives comments from affected entities under Subsection (4)(b) or written comments under (4)(d):

(i) if appropriate, make modifications to the proposed annexation policy plan; and

(ii) modify the proposed annexation policy plan to include the statement required by Subsection (2)(b);

(f) hold a public hearing on the proposed annexation policy plan, including any new modifications to the proposed annexation policy plan under Subsection (4)(e);

(g) provide notice of the public hearing described in Subsection (4)(f):

(i) as class A notice, as described in Section 63G-30-102; and

(ii) to each affected entity at least 14 days before the day of the hearing;

(h) make any final modifications to the proposed annexation policy plan, as appropriate, based on public input provided at the public hearing; and

(i) submit the planning commission's recommended annexation policy plan to the municipal legislative body.

(5) A municipal legislative body may reject a recommended annexation plan or adopt a recommended annexation plan as described in Subsection (6).

(6) To adopt a recommended annexation plan, a municipal body shall:

(a) hold a public hearing on the annexation policy plan recommended by the planning commission;

(b) provide notice of the public hearing described in Subsection (6)(a):

(i) as class A notice, as described in Section 63G-30-102; and

(ii) to each affected entity at least 14 days before the day of the hearing;

(c) after the public hearing, make modifications to the recommended annexation policy plan, as appropriate; and

(d) adopt the recommended annexation policy plan, with or without modifications.

~~(5)~~ Within 30 days after adopting [~~an~~]a recommended or modified annexation policy plan, the municipal legislative body shall submit a copy of the adopted annexation policy plan to the legislative body of each county in which any of the municipality's expansion area is located.

~~(6)~~ Nothing in this chapter may be construed to prohibit or restrict two or more municipalities [~~in specified counties~~]from negotiating and cooperating with respect to defining each municipality's expansion area under an annexation policy plan.

(9) (a) This section does not apply to a municipality engaged in an automatic annexation under Section 10-2-814.

(b) A municipality is not required to comply with the provisions of this section for an annexation petition that is pending on May 7, 2025.

Section 5. Section 10-2-804, which is renumbered from Section 10-2-402 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~10-2-402~~]10-2-804

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Annexation -- Limitations.

(1) [~~(a)~~] A contiguous, unincorporated area that is contiguous to a municipality may be annexed to the municipality as provided in this part.

~~(b)~~ Except as provided in Subsection ~~(1)(c),~~, a municipality may not annex an unincorporated area [~~may not be annexed to a municipality~~]unless:

~~(i)~~ the unincorporated area is a contiguous area;

~~(ii)~~ the unincorporated area is contiguous to the municipality;

~~(iii)~~ annexation will not leave or create an unincorporated island or unincorporated peninsula:

~~(A)~~ except as provided in Subsection [~~10-2-418(3)~~]10-2-812(2);

~~(B)~~ except where an unincorporated island or peninsula existed before the annexation, if the annexation will reduce the size of the unincorporated island or peninsula; or

~~(C)~~ unless the county and municipality have otherwise agreed; and

~~(iv)~~ [~~for an area located in a specified county,~~]the area is within the proposed annexing municipality's expansion area, as specified in an annexation policy plan adopted as described in Section 10-2-803.

~~(c)~~ A municipality may annex an unincorporated area within a specified county that does not meet the requirements of Subsection ~~(1)(b)~~, leaving or creating an unincorporated island or unincorporated peninsula, if:

~~(i)~~ the area is within the annexing municipality's expansion area;

~~(ii)~~ the [~~specified~~]county in which the area is located and the annexing municipality agree to the annexation;

~~(iii)~~ the area is not within the area of another municipality's annexation policy plan, unless the other municipality agrees to the annexation; and

~~(iv)~~ the annexation is for the purpose of providing municipal services to the area.

~~(2)~~ Except as provided in Section [~~10-2-418~~]10-2-812, a municipality may not annex an unincorporated area unless a petition under Section [~~10-2-403~~]10-2-806 is filed requesting annexation.

~~(3)~~ (a) An annexation under this part may not include part of a parcel of real property and exclude part of that same parcel unless the owner of that parcel has signed the annexation petition under Section [~~10-2-403~~]10-2-806.

(b) A piece of real property that has more than one parcel number is considered to be a single parcel for purposes of Subsection ~~(3)(a)~~(a) if owned by the same owner.

~~(4)~~ A municipality may not annex an unincorporated area [~~in a specified county~~]for the sole purpose of acquiring municipal revenue or to [~~retard~~]hinder the capacity of another municipality to annex the same or a related area unless the annexing municipality has the ability and intent to benefit the annexed area by providing municipal services to the annexed area.

[~~(5) (a) As used in this subsection, "expansion area urban development" means:~~]

[~~(i) for a specified county, urban development within a city or town's expansion area; or~~]

[~~(ii) for a county of the first class, urban development within a city or town's expansion area that:~~]

[~~(A) consists of 50 or more acres;~~]

[~~(B) requires the county to change the zoning designation of the land on which the urban development is located; and~~]

[~~(C) does not include commercial or industrial development that is located within a mining protection area as defined in Section 17-41-101, regardless of whether the commercial or industrial development is for a mining use as defined in Section 17-41-101.~~]

[~~(b) A county legislative body may not approve expansion area urban development unless:~~]

[~~(i) the county notifies the city or town of the proposed development; and~~]

[~~(ii) (A) the city or town consents in writing to the development;~~]

[~~(B) within 90 days after the county's notification of the proposed development, the city or town submits to the county a written objection to the county's approval of the proposed development and the county responds in writing to the city or town's objection; or~~]

[~~(C) the city or town fails to respond to the county's notification of the proposed development within 90 days after the day on which the county provides the notice.~~]

~~(6)~~ (a) As used in this Subsection ~~(6)~~, "airport" means an area that the Federal Aviation Administration has, by a record of decision, approved for the construction or operation of a Class I, II, or III commercial service airport, as designated by the Federal Aviation Administration in 14 C.F.R. Part 139.

(b) A municipality may not annex an unincorporated area within 5,000 feet of the center line of any runway of an airport operated or to be constructed and operated by another municipality unless the legislative body of the other municipality adopts a resolution consenting to the annexation.

(c) A municipality that operates or intends to construct and operate an airport and does not adopt a resolution consenting to the annexation of an area described in Subsection ~~(6)(b)~~(b) may not deny an annexation petition proposing the annexation of that same area to that municipality.

~~(7)~~ (a) As used in this Subsection ~~(7),~~:

(i) "Authority" means the same as that term is defined in Section 63H-1-102.

(ii) [~~"project~~]"Project area" means [~~a project area as defined in Section 63H-1-102that is in a project area plan as defined in Section 63H-1-102 adopted by the Military Installation Development Authority under Title 63H, Chapter 1, Military Installation Development Authority Act~~]the same as that term is defined in Section 63H-1-102.

(b) A municipality may not annex an unincorporated area located within a project area without the authority's approval.

(c) [~~(i) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(c)(ii), the Military Installation Development Authority~~]The authority may petition for annexation of the following areas to a municipality as if the [~~Military Installation Development Authority~~]authority was the sole private property owner within the area:

~~(A)~~ an area within a project area;

~~(B)~~ an area that is contiguous to a project area and within the boundaries of a military installation;

~~(C)~~ an area owned by the [~~Military Installation Development Authority~~]authority; and

~~(D)~~ an area that is contiguous to an area owned by the [~~Military Installation Development Authority~~]authority that the [~~Military Installation Development Authority~~]authority plans to add to an existing project area.

[~~(ii) If any portion of an area annexed under a petition for annexation filed by the Military Installation Development Authority is located in a specified county:~~]

[~~(A) the annexation process shall follow the requirements for a specified county; and~~]

[~~(B) the provisions of Section 10-2-402.5 do not apply.~~]

~~(8)~~ (a) [~~A~~]Except as provided in Subsection (9)(b), a municipality may not annex an unincorporated area if:

~~(a)~~ the unincorporated area is proposed for incorporation in:

~~(i)~~ a feasibility study conducted under Section 10-2a-205; or

~~(ii)~~ a supplemental feasibility study conducted under Section 10-2a-206; and

~~(b)~~ the county clerk completes the second public hearing on the proposed incorporation under Subsection 10-2a-207(4).

(b) If an unincorporated area proposed for incorporation, as described in Subsection (9)(a)(i), does not incorporate within three years from the day on which the county clerk completes the second public hearing on the proposed municipality, a municipality may annex the unincorporated area.

. Cross-county annexation -- Requirements.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Affected county" means the county in which an area proposed for cross-county annexation is located.

(b) "Affected municipality" means a municipality:

(i) located in an affected county; and

(ii) whose expansion area includes the area proposed for cross-county annexation.

(c) "Applicant" means a person intending to file an annexation petition proposing a cross-county annexation.

(d) "Cross-county annexation" means the annexation of an area located in a county that is not the county in which the proposed annexing municipality is located.

(e) "Specified public utility" means the same as that term is defined in Section 10-9a-103.

(2) An applicant may not file a petition under Section [~~10-2-403 proposing~~]10-2-806 that proposes a cross-county annexation unless:

(a) the applicant sends a written notice of intent to file a petition proposing a cross-county annexation to the legislative body of each affected municipality describing:

(i) the area proposed for cross-county annexation; and

(ii) the proposed annexing municipality;

(b) the proposed annexing municipality adopts or amends the municipality's annexation policy plan under Section [~~10-2-401.5~~]10-2-803 to include the area proposed for cross-county annexation within the proposed annexing municipality's expansion area;

(c) the applicant files a request to approve the proposed cross-county annexation with the legislative body of the affected county:

(i) no sooner than 90 days after the day on which the applicant sends the written notice described in Subsection (2)(a) to each affected municipality; and

(ii) no later than 180 days after the day on which the applicant sends the written notice described in Subsection (2)(a) to each affected municipality;

(d) a feasibility consultant conducts a feasibility study in accordance with Subsection (3), unless the feasibility study is waived under Subsection (3)(b); and

(e) the legislative body of the affected county:

(i) holds a public hearing in accordance with Subsection (4); and

(ii) adopts the resolution described in Subsection (4)(a)(iii)(A).

(3) (a) Within 60 days after the day on which a legislative body of an affected county receives the request described in Subsection (2)(c), or within a time period longer than 60 days if agreed to by the legislative body of the affected county and the applicant, the legislative body of the affected county and the applicant shall jointly select and engage a feasibility consultant to:

(i) conduct a feasibility study on the proposed cross-county annexation; and

(ii) submit written results of the feasibility study to the legislative body of the affected county and the applicant no later than 90 days after the day on which the feasibility consultant is engaged to conduct the feasibility study.

(b) The legislative body of the affected county may waive the requirement for a feasibility study under Subsection (3)(a).

(c) The feasibility study under Subsection (3)(a) shall determine:

(i) whether the proposed cross-county annexation eliminates, leaves, or creates an unincorporated island or unincorporated peninsula;

(ii) the fiscal impact of the proposed cross-county annexation on:

(A) the affected county;

(B) affected municipalities;

(C) specified public utilities that serve the area proposed for cross-county annexation; and

(D) affected entities;

(iii) the estimated cost that the proposed annexing municipality would incur to provide governmental services in the area proposed for cross-county annexation during the current fiscal year;

(iv) the estimated revenue that the proposed annexing municipality would receive from the area proposed for cross-county annexation during the current fiscal year; and

(v) (A) each entity that has provided municipal-type services in the area proposed for cross-county annexation;

(B) the methods under which each entity described in Subsection (3)(c)(v)(A) has provided municipal-type services in the area proposed for cross-county annexation; and

(C) the feasibility of the proposed annexing municipality providing municipal-type services in the area proposed for cross-county annexation.

(d) For purposes of Subsection (3)(c)(iv), the feasibility consultant shall assume that the ad valorem property tax rate on property within the area proposed for cross-county annexation is the same property tax rate that the proposed annexing municipality currently imposes on property within the municipality.

(e) The applicant and the affected county shall share equally the feasibility consultant fees and expenses.

(4) (a) A legislative body of an affected county shall hold, within 30 days after the day on which the legislative body receives the written results of the feasibility study under Subsection (3)(a) or waives the requirement for a feasibility study under Subsection (3)(b), a public hearing to:

(i) determine whether the requirements described in Subsections (2)(a) and (b) have been met;

(ii) consider the results of the feasibility study under Subsection (3)(a), unless the feasibility study is waived under Subsection (3)(b); and

(iii) (A) adopt a resolution approving the proposed cross-county annexation; or

(B) adopt a resolution rejecting the proposed cross-county annexation.

(b) The legislative body of the affected county shall send, at least 15 days before the day on which the public hearing described in Subsection (4)(a) occurs, written notice of the public hearing to:

(i) the applicant;

(ii) each residence within, and to each owner of real property located within:

(A) the area proposed for cross-county annexation; and

(B) 300 feet of the area proposed for cross-county annexation;

(iii) the legislative body of:

(A) the proposed annexing municipality; and

(B) the county in which the proposed annexing municipality is located;

(iv) each specified public utility that serves the area proposed for cross-county annexation;

(v) each affected municipality; and

(vi) each affected entity.

(c) At the public hearing described in Subsection (4)(a), the legislative body of the affected county shall allow the individuals present to speak to the proposed cross-county annexation.

(d) A legislative body of an affected county may not adopt a resolution rejecting a proposed cross-county annexation under this section unless the legislative body determines that:

(i) the requirements described in Subsections (2)(a) and (b) have not been met; or

(ii) the results of the feasibility study under Subsection (3)(a) show that:

(A) the proposed cross-county annexation would impose a substantial burden on the affected county;

(B) the estimated revenue under Subsection (3)(c)(iv) exceeds the estimated cost to provide governmental services under Subsection (3)(c)(iii) by more than 5%; or

(C) it would not be feasible for the proposed annexing municipality to provide municipal-type services in the area proposed for cross-county annexation.

(e) A legislative body of an affected county that adopts a resolution rejecting a proposed cross-county annexation under this section shall provide to the applicant a written explanation of the legislative body's decision.

(f) A legislative body of an affected county may adopt a resolution approving a proposed cross-county annexation under this section regardless of the results of a feasibility study under Subsection (3)(a).

(5) (a) A party adversely affected by a legislative body of an affected county's decision under Subsection (4)(a) may, within 30 days after the day on which the legislative body [~~issues the legislative body's decision~~]adopts a resolution approving or rejecting a cross-county annexation, file a petition for review of the decision in the district court with jurisdiction in the affected county.

(b) The district court shall defer to the legislative body of the affected county's decision under Subsection (4)(a) unless the court determines that the decision is arbitrary, capricious, or unlawful.

(6) Section [~~10-2-418~~]10-2-812 does not apply to a cross-county annexation unless consented to by all affected counties.

Section 7. Section 10-2-806, which is renumbered from Section 10-2-403 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~10-2-403~~]10-2-806

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Annexation petition -- Requirements -- Notice required before filing.

(1) Except as provided in Section [~~10-2-418~~]10-2-812 and except for an automatic annexation under Section [~~10-2-429~~]10-2-814, the process to annex an unincorporated area to a municipality is initiated by a petition as provided in this section.

(2) (a) (i) Before filing a petition under Subsection (1), the person [~~or persons~~]intending to file a petition shall:

(A) file with the [~~city recorder or town clerk~~]municipal records officer of the proposed annexing municipality a notice of intent to file a petition; and

(B) send a copy of the notice of intent to file a petition to each affected entity.

(ii) Each notice of intent under Subsection (2)(a)(i) shall include an accurate map of the area that is proposed to be annexed.

(b) (i) Subject to Subsection (2)(b)(ii), the county in which the area proposed to be annexed is located shall:

(A) mail the notice described in Subsection (2)(b)(iii) to:

(I) each owner of real property located within the area proposed to be annexed; and

(II) each owner of real property located within 300 feet of the area proposed to be annexed; and

(B) send to the proposed annexing municipality a copy of the notice and a certificate indicating that the notice has been mailed as required under Subsection (2)(b)(i)(A).

(ii) The county shall mail the notice required under Subsection (2)(b)(i)(A) within 20 days after receiving from the person [~~or persons~~]who filed the notice of intent:

(A) a written request to mail the required notice; and

(B) payment of an amount equal to the county's expected actual cost of mailing the notice.

(iii) Each notice required under Subsection (2)(b)(i)(A) shall:

(A) be in writing;

(B) state, in bold and conspicuous terms, substantially the following:

"Attention: Your property may be affected by a proposed annexation.

Records show that you own property within an area that is intended to be included in a proposed annexation to (state the name of the proposed annexing municipality) or that is within 300 feet of that area. If your property is within the area proposed for annexation, you may be asked to sign a petition supporting the annexation. You may choose whether to sign the petition. By signing the petition, you indicate your support of the proposed annexation. If you sign the petition but later change your mind about supporting the annexation, you may withdraw your signature by submitting a signed, written withdrawal with the recorder or clerk of (state the name of the proposed annexing municipality) within 30 days after (state the name of the proposed annexing municipality) receives notice that the petition has been certified.

There will be no public election on the proposed annexation because Utah law does not provide for an annexation to be approved by voters at a public election. Signing or not signing the annexation petition is the method under Utah law for the owners of property within the area proposed for annexation to demonstrate their support of or opposition to the proposed annexation.

You may obtain more information on the proposed annexation by contacting (state the name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address of the official or employee of the proposed annexing municipality designated to respond to questions about the proposed annexation), (state the name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address of the county official or employee designated to respond to questions about the proposed annexation), or (state the name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address of the person who filed the notice of intent under Subsection (2)(a)(i)(A), or, if more than one person filed the notice of intent, one of those persons). Once filed, the annexation petition will be available for inspection and copying at the office of (state the name of the proposed annexing municipality) located at (state the address of the municipal offices of the proposed annexing municipality)."; and

(C) be accompanied by an accurate map identifying the area proposed for annexation.

(iv) A county may not mail with the notice required under Subsection (2)(b)(i)(A) any other information or materials related or unrelated to the proposed annexation.

(c) (i) After receiving the certificate from the county as provided in Subsection (2)(b)(i)(B), the proposed annexing municipality shall, upon request from the person [~~or persons~~]who filed the notice of intent under Subsection (2)(a)(i)(A), provide an annexation petition for the annexation proposed in the notice of intent.

(ii) An annexation petition provided by the proposed annexing municipality may be duplicated for circulation for signatures.

(3) Each petition under Subsection (1) shall:

(a) be filed with the [~~applicable city recorder or town clerk~~]municipal records officer of the proposed annexing municipality;

(b) contain the signatures of, if all the real property within the area proposed for annexation is owned by a public entity other than the federal government, the owners of all the publicly owned real property, or the owners of private real property that:

(i) is located within the area proposed for annexation;

(ii) (A) subject to Subsection (3)(b)(ii)(C), covers a majority of the private land area within the area proposed for annexation;

(B) covers 100% of all of the rural real property within the area proposed for annexation; and

(C) covers 100% of all of the private land area within the area proposed for annexation if the area is within a migratory bird production area created under Title 23A, Chapter 13, Migratory Bird Production Area; and

(iii) is equal in value to at least 1/3 of the value of all private real property within the area proposed for annexation;

(c) be accompanied by:

(i) an accurate and recordable map, prepared by a licensed surveyor in accordance with Section 17-23-20, of the area proposed for annexation; and

(ii) a copy of the notice sent to affected entities as required under Subsection (2)(a)(i)(B) and a list of the affected entities to which notice was sent;

(d) contain on each signature page a notice in bold and conspicuous terms that states substantially the following:

"Notice:

There will be no public election on the annexation proposed by this petition because Utah law does not provide for an annexation to be approved by voters at a public election.

If you sign this petition and later decide that you do not support the petition, you may withdraw your signature by submitting a signed, written withdrawal with the recorder or clerk of (state the name of the proposed annexing municipality). If you choose to withdraw your signature, you shall do so no later than 30 days after (state the name of the proposed annexing municipality) receives notice that the petition has been certified.";

(e) if the petition proposes a cross-county annexation, as defined in Section [~~10-2-402.5~~]10-2-805, be accompanied by a copy of the resolution described in Subsection [~~10-2-402.5(4)(a)(iii)(A)~~]10-2-805(4)(a)(iii)(A); and

(f) designate up to five of the signers of the petition as sponsors, one of whom shall be designated as the contact sponsor, and indicate the mailing address of each sponsor.

(4) A petition under Subsection (1) may not propose the annexation of all or part of an area proposed for annexation to a municipality in a previously filed petition that has not been denied, rejected, or granted.

(5) If practicable and feasible, the boundaries of an area proposed for annexation shall be drawn:

(a) along the boundaries of existing special districts and special service districts for sewer, water, and other services, along the boundaries of school districts whose boundaries follow city boundaries or school districts adjacent to school districts whose boundaries follow city boundaries, and along the boundaries of other taxing entities;

(b) to eliminate islands and peninsulas of territory that is not receiving municipal-type services;

(c) to facilitate the consolidation of overlapping functions of local government;

(d) to promote the efficient delivery of services; and

(e) to encourage the equitable distribution of community resources and obligations.

(6) On the date of filing, the petition [~~sponsors~~]contact sponsor shall deliver or mail a copy of the petition to the county clerk of the county in which the area proposed for annexation is located.

(7) A property owner who signs an annexation petition may withdraw the owner's signature by filing a written withdrawal, signed by the property owner, with the [~~city recorder or town clerk~~]municipal records officer no later than 30 days after the municipal legislative body's receipt of the notice of certification under Subsection [~~10-2-405(2)(c)(i)~~]10-2-807(2)(c)(i).

Section 8. Section 10-2-807, which is renumbered from Section 10-2-405 is renumbered and amended to read:

. Acceptance or denial of an annexation petition -- Petition certification process -- Modified petition.

(1) (a) (i) A municipal legislative body may:

(A) subject to Subsection (1)(a)(ii), deny a petition filed under Section [~~10-2-403~~]10-2-806; or

(B) accept the petition for further consideration under this part.

(ii) A petition shall be considered to have been accepted for further consideration under this part if a municipal legislative body fails to [~~act to~~]deny or accept the petition under Subsection (1)(a)(i):

(A) in the case of a city of the first or second class, within 14 days after the [~~filing of the~~]petition is filed; or

(B) in the case of a city of the third, fourth, or fifth class or a town, at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the municipal legislative body that is at least 14 days after the date the petition was filed.

(b) If a municipal legislative body denies a petition under Subsection (1)(a)(i), it shall, within five days after the denial, mail written notice of the denial to:

(i) the contact sponsor; and

(ii) the county clerk of the county in which the area proposed for annexation is located.

(2) If the municipal legislative body accepts a petition under Subsection (1)(a)(i)(B) or is considered to have accepted the petition under Subsection (1)(a)(ii), the [~~city recorder or town clerk, as the case may be,~~]municipal records officer shall, within 30 days after [~~that~~]the day of acceptance:

(a) obtain from the assessor, clerk, surveyor, and recorder of the county in which the area proposed for annexation is located the records the [~~city recorder or town clerk~~]municipal records officer needs to determine whether the petition meets the requirements of Subsections [~~10-2-403(3)~~]10-2-806(3) and (4);

(b) with the assistance of the municipal attorney, determine whether the petition meets the requirements of Subsections [~~10-2-403(3)~~]10-2-806(3) and (4); and

(c) (i) if the [~~city recorder or town clerk~~]municipal records officer determines that the petition meets [~~those requirements~~]the requirements described in Subsection (2)(b), certify the petition and mail or deliver written notification [~~of the certification to~~]to:

(A) the municipal legislative body[~~,~~];

(B) the contact sponsor[~~,~~]; and

(C) the county legislative body; or

(ii) if the [~~city recorder or town clerk~~]municipal records officer determines that the petition fails to meet [~~any of those requirements~~]a requirement described in Subsection (2)(b), reject the petition and mail or deliver written notification of the rejection and the reasons for the rejection to:

(A) the municipal legislative body[~~,~~];

(B) the contact sponsor[~~,~~]; and

(C) the county legislative body.

(3) The day the municipal records officer mails or delivers written notification of the certification, as described in Subsection (2)(c)(i), is the day of certification.

~~(3)~~ (a) (i) If the [~~city recorder or town clerk~~]municipal records officer rejects a petition under Subsection (2)(c)(ii), the petition sponsor may modify the petition [~~may be modified~~]to correct the deficiencies for which it was rejected and [~~then refiled~~]refile the petition with the [~~city recorder or town clerk, as the case may be~~]municipal records officer.

(ii) A signature on an annexation petition filed under Section [~~10-2-403~~]10-2-806 may be used toward fulfilling the signature requirement of Subsection [~~10-2-403(2)(b)~~]10-2-806(2)(b) for the petition as modified under Subsection ~~(3)(a)(i)~~(a)(i).

(b) If a petition is refiled under Subsection ~~(3)(a)~~(a) after having been rejected by the [~~city recorder or town clerk~~]municipal records officer under Subsection (2)(c)(ii), the refiled petition shall be treated as a newly filed petition under Subsection [~~10-2-403(1)~~]10-2-806(1).

~~(4)~~ Any vote by a municipal legislative body to deny a petition under this part may be recalled and set for reconsideration by a majority of the voting members of the municipal legislative body.

~~(5)~~ Each county assessor, clerk, surveyor, and recorder shall provide copies of records that a [~~city recorder or town clerk~~]municipal records officer requests under Subsection (2)(a).

Section 9. Section 10-2-808, which is renumbered from Section 10-2-406 is renumbered and amended to read:

. Notice of certification -- Providing notice of petition.

(1) (a) [~~After receipt of the notice of certification from the city recorder or town clerk under Subsection 10-2-405(2)(c)(i),~~]After the day of certification as described in Subsection 10-2-807(3) and within the time described in Subsection (1)(b), the municipal legislative body shall provide notice:

~~(a)~~ for the area proposed for annexation and [~~the~~]any unincorporated area within 1/2 mile of the area proposed for annexation, as a class B notice under Section 63G-30-102[~~, no later than 10 days after the day on which the municipal legislative body receives the notice of certification~~]; and

~~(b)~~ [~~within 20 days after the day on which the municipal legislative body receives the notice of certification,~~]by mailing written notice to each affected entity.

(b) The municipal legislative body shall provide the notice:

(i) described in Subsection (1)(a)(i) no later than 10 days after the day of certification; and

(ii) described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii) no later than 20 days after the day of certification.

(2) The notice described in Subsection (1) shall:

(a) state that a petition has been filed with the municipality proposing the annexation of an area to the municipality;

(b) state the [~~date of the municipal legislative body's receipt of the notice of certification under Subsection 10-2-405(2)(c)(i)~~]day of certification;

(c) describe the area proposed for annexation in the annexation petition;

(d) state that the complete annexation petition is available for inspection and copying at the office of the [~~city recorder or town clerk~~]municipal records officer;

(e) state in conspicuous and plain terms that the municipality may grant the petition and annex the area described in the petition unless, [~~within the time required under Subsection 10-2-407(2)(a)(i),~~]no later than 30 days after the day of certification:

(i) a written protest to the annexation petition is filed with the boundary commission; and

(ii) a copy of the written protest is delivered to the [~~city recorder or town clerk~~]municipal records officer of the proposed annexing municipality;

(f) (i) state the address of the boundary commission [~~or,~~]where a protest to the annexation petition may be filed; or

(ii) if a boundary commission has not yet been created in the county, the address of the county clerk, where a protest to the annexation petition may be filed;

(g) provide brief instructions on how to file a protest to the annexation petition or a link to a webpage that contains instructions on how to file a protest to the annexation petition;

(h) state that the area proposed for annexation to the municipality will also automatically be annexed to a special district providing fire protection, paramedic, and emergency services or a special district providing law enforcement service, as the case may be, as provided in Section 17B-1-416, if:

(i) the proposed annexing municipality is entirely within the boundaries of a special district:

(A) that provides fire protection, paramedic, and emergency services or law enforcement service, respectively; and

(B) in the creation of which an election was not required because of Subsection 17B-1-214(3)(c); and

(ii) the area proposed to be annexed to the municipality is not already within the boundaries of the special district; and

~~(h)~~ state that the area proposed for annexation to the municipality will be automatically withdrawn from a special district providing fire protection, paramedic, and emergency services or a special district providing law enforcement service, as the case may be, as provided in Subsection 17B-1-502(2), if:

(i) the petition proposes the annexation of an area that is within the boundaries of a special district:

(A) that provides fire protection, paramedic, and emergency services or law enforcement service, respectively; and

(B) in the creation of which an election was not required because of Subsection 17B-1-214(3)(c); and

(ii) the proposed annexing municipality is not within the boundaries of the special district.

(3) [~~(a)~~] The statement required by Subsection (2)(e) shall state the deadline for filing a written protest in terms of the actual date[~~rather than~~], not by reference to the statutory citation.

[~~(b) In addition to the requirements under Subsection (2), a notice under Subsection (1)for a proposed annexation of an area within a county of the first class shall include a statement that a protest to the annexation petition may be filed with the commission by property owners if it contains the signatures of the owners of private real property that:~~]

[~~(i) is located in the unincorporated area within 1/2 mile of the area proposed for annexation;~~]

[~~(ii) covers at least 25% of the private land area located in the unincorporated area within 1/2 mile of the area proposed for annexation; and~~]

[~~(iii) is equal in value to at least 15% of all real property located in the unincorporated area within 1/2 mile of the area proposed for annexation.~~]

. Boundary commission -- Creation -- Members -- Terms -- Chair -- Boundary commission quorum -- Municipal selection committee.

(1) The legislative body of each county:

(a) may create a boundary commission on its own initiative at any time; and

(b) shall create a boundary commission within 30 days of the filing of a protest under Section [~~10-2-407~~]10-2-810.

(2) A boundary commission shall hear and decide, according to the provisions of this part, any protest filed under Section 10-2-810 with respect to an area that is located within the boundary commission's county.

(3) Each boundary commission shall be composed of:

(a) in a county with two or more municipalities:

(i) two members who are elected county officers, appointed by:

~~(A) (I)~~ in a county [~~of the first class~~]operating under a form of government in which the executive and legislative functions are separated, the county executive with the advice and consent of the county legislative body; or

~~(II)~~ in a county [~~of the first class~~]operating under a form of government in which the executive and legislative functions of the governing body are not separated, the county legislative body; [~~or~~]

[~~(B) in a specified county, the county legislative body;~~]

(ii) two members who are elected municipal officers from separate municipalities within the county, appointed by the municipal selection committee described in Subsection (13); and

(iii) three members who are residents of the county, none of whom is a county or municipal elected officer, appointed by the four other members of the boundary commission; and

(b) in a county with only one municipality:

(i) two members who are county elected officers, appointed by the county legislative body;

(ii) one member who is a municipal elected officer, appointed by the governing body of the municipality; and

(iii) two members who are residents of the county, neither of whom is a county or municipal elected officer, appointed by the other three members of the boundary commission.

~~(3)~~ At the expiration of the term of each member appointed under this section, the member's successor shall be appointed by the same body that appointed the member whose term is expiring, as provided in this section.

(5) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(b), the term of each member of a boundary commission:

(i) is approximately four years; and

(ii) begins and expires on the first Monday of January of the applicable year.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (5)(a), the terms of the first members of a boundary commission shall be staggered by lot so that:

(i) on a seven-member commission described in Subsection (3)(a), the term of one member is approximately one year, the term of two members is approximately two years, the term of two members is approximately three years, and the term of two members is approximately four years; and

(ii) on a five-member commission described in Subsection (3)(b), the term of two members is approximately two years and the term of the other three members is approximately four years.

(c) A vacancy on a boundary commission shall be filled for the remaining unexpired term in the same manner that the predecessor member was appointed, as described in Subsection (3).

(6) (a) (i) The members of a boundary commission shall elect a chair from the eligible membership of the boundary commission.

(ii) A member of a boundary commission is eligible to serve as chair if the member has at least two years remaining in the member's term.

(b) The term of a boundary commission chair is two years from the day on which the chair is elected.

(7) (a) A majority of the members of the boundary commission constitutes a quorum.

(b) Boundary commission action requires a majority vote of the members of the boundary commission.

(8) (a) A member of the boundary commission is disqualified from hearing and deciding a protest if the boundary commission member owns any property within the area proposed for annexation that is the subject of the protest.

(b) In the event a member of the boundary commission is disqualified as described in Subsection (8)(a), the body that appointed the disqualified member of the boundary commission shall appoint an alternate member of the boundary commission to hear and decide the protest.

(9) In considering a protest filed under Section 10-2-810, the boundary commission may:

(a) adopt and enforce rules of procedure for the orderly and fair conduct of boundary commission proceedings;

(b) authorize a member of the boundary commission to administer oaths, if necessary in the performance of the boundary commission's duties;

(c) employ staff or retain professional or consulting services reasonably necessary to enable the commission to carry out the boundary commission's duties;

(d) incur reasonable and necessary expenses in order to carry out the boundary commission's duties; and

(e) request any additional information from the sponsor of the protest that the boundary commission considers necessary to make a determination.

(10) The legislative body of each county shall, with respect to the boundary commission in that county:

(a) furnish the boundary commission with any necessary office space, equipment, and supplies;

(b) pay necessary operating expenses incurred by the boundary commission; and

(c) reimburse the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by each member appointed under Subsection (2), unless otherwise provided by interlocal agreement.

(11) Each county legislative body or municipal legislative body shall reimburse the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by a boundary commission member who is a county or municipal elected officer, respectively.

(12) The boundary commission may request, and a relevant county or municipality shall provide, records, information, or any other relevant material necessary to enable the boundary commission to hear and decide a protest.

(13) (a) A municipal selection committee consists of the municipal executive of each municipality in the county.

(b) (i) In a county with an odd number of municipalities, a majority of the members of a municipal selection committee constitutes a quorum.

(ii) In a county with an even number of municipalities, half of the members of the municipal selection committee constitutes a quorum.

(c) A legislative body that creates a boundary commission described in Subsection (3)(a) shall, at the same time the legislative body creates the boundary commission as described in Subsection (1), notify the municipal selection committee of the obligation to select the members described in Subsection (3)(a)(ii).

~~(b)~~ be filed with the county clerk of the county in which the area proposed for annexation is located;

(b) state each reason for the protest of the annexation petition and [~~, if the area proposed to be annexed is located in a specified county,~~] justification for the protest under the standards established in this [~~chapter~~]part;

[~~(c) if the area proposed to be annexed is located in a specified county, contain other information that the commission by rule requires or that the party filing the protest considers pertinent; and~~]

~~(d)~~ contain any information that the county boundary commission requires or the party filing the protest considers relevant to the protest; and

(d) contain the name and address of a contact person who is to receive notices sent by the boundary commission with respect to the protest proceedings.

(3) The party filing a protest under this section shall on the same date deliver or mail a copy of the protest to the [~~city recorder or town clerk~~]municipal records officer of the proposed annexing municipality.

(4) Each county clerk who receives a protest under Subsection ~~(2)(a)(ii)(B)~~(a) shall:

(a) immediately notify the county legislative body of the protest; and

(b) deliver the protest to the boundary commission within five days after:

(i) receipt of the protest, if the boundary commission has previously been created; or

(ii) creation of the boundary commission under [~~Subsection 10-2-409(1)(b)~~]Section 10-2-809, if the boundary commission has not previously been created.

(5) (a) If a protest is filed under this section:

(i) the municipal legislative body may, at [~~its~~]the next regular municipal legislative meeting [~~after expiration of the deadline under Subsection (2)(a)(i)~~]occurring within 30 days of the day of certification, as described in Subsection 10-2-807(3), deny the annexation petition; or

(ii) if the municipal legislative body does not deny the annexation petition under Subsection (5)(a)(i), the municipal legislative body may [~~take no~~]not take further action on the annexation petition until after receipt of the boundary commission's notice of its decision on the protest under Section [~~10-2-416~~]10-2-811.

(b) If a municipal legislative body denies an annexation petition under Subsection (5)(a)(i), the municipal legislative body shall, within five days after the denial, send notice of the denial in writing to:

(i) the contact sponsor of the annexation petition;

(ii) the boundary commission; and

(iii) each entity that filed a protest.

(6) (a) A protest may not be filed later than 30 days after the day of certification, as described in Subsection 10-2-807(3).

(b) If no timely protest is filed under this section, the municipal legislative body may, subject to Subsection (7), approve the annexation petition.

(7) Before approving an annexation petition under Subsection (6), the municipal legislative body shall:

(a) hold a public hearing; and

(b) provide notice of the public hearing by publishing the notice for the municipality and the area proposed for annexation, as a class B notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least seven days before the date of the public hearing.

[~~(8) (a) Subject to Subsection (8)(b), only a person or entity that is described in Subsection (1) has standing to challenge an annexation in district court.~~]

[~~(b) A person or entity described in Subsection (1) may only bring an action in district court to challenge an annexation if the person or entity has timely filed a protest as described in Subsection (2) and exhausted the administrative remedies described in this section.~~]

. Public hearing of protest -- Notice -- Decision -- Municipal legislative action -- Judicial review.

[~~(1) (a) If the results of the feasibility study or supplemental feasibility study meet the requirements of Subsection 10-2-416(3) with respect to a proposed annexation of an area located in a county of the first class, the commission shall hold a public hearing within 30 days after the day on which the commission receives the feasibility study or supplemental feasibility study results.~~]

[~~(b) At the public hearing described in Subsection (1)(a), the commission shall:~~]

[~~(i) require the feasibility consultant to present the results of the feasibility study and, if applicable, the supplemental feasibility study;~~]

[~~(ii) allow those present to ask questions of the feasibility consultant regarding the study results; and~~]

[~~(iii) allow those present to speak to the issue of annexation.~~]

[~~(2) The commission shall provide notice of the public hearing described in Subsection (1)(a) for the area proposed for annexation, the surrounding 1/2 mile of unincorporated area, and the proposed annexing municipality, as a class B notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least two weeks before the date of the public hearing.~~]

[~~(3) The notice described in Subsection (2) shall:~~]

[~~(a) be entitled, "notice of annexation hearing";~~]

[~~(b) state the name of the annexing municipality;~~]

[~~(c) describe the area proposed for annexation; and~~]

[~~(d) specify the following sources where an individual may obtain a copy of the feasibility study conducted in relation to the proposed annexation:~~]

[~~(i) if the municipality has a website, the municipality's website;~~]

[~~(ii) a municipality's physical address; and~~]

[~~(iii) a mailing address and telephone number.~~]

[~~(4) Within 30 days after the time under Subsection 10-2-407(2) for filing a protest has expired with respect to a proposed annexation of an area located in a specified county, the boundary commission shall hold a hearing on all protests that were filed with respect to the proposed annexation.~~]

[~~(5) For at least 14 days before the date of a hearing described in Subsection (4), the commission chair shall provide notice of the hearing, for the area proposed for annexation, as a class B notice under Section 63G-30-102.~~]

~~(6)~~ (a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), the boundary commission for each county shall hear and decide, according to the provisions of this part, each protest timely filed under Section 10-2-810.

(b) If the municipal legislative body has already denied the petition for annexation that is the subject of the protest under Subsection 10-2-810(5)(a), the boundary commission shall take no further action on the protest.

(2) In regard to a protest described in Subsection (1)(a), the boundary commission shall:

(a) schedule a public hearing on the protest no later than 30 days from the day on which the time for filing a protest expired; and

(b) except as provided in Subsection (5), hold the public hearing on the protest.

(3) At least 14 days before the day of a hearing described in Subsection (2), the boundary commission shall provide notice of the public hearing:

(a) (i) by posting one notice, and at least one additional notice per 2,000 residents within the area proposed for annexation, in places reasonably likely to give notice of the public hearing; and

(ii) by mailing notice to each resident within, and each owner of property located within, the area proposed for annexation;

(b) by posting notice on the Utah Public Notice Website, created in Section 63A-16-601, for 14 days before the day of the public hearing;

(c) if the annexing municipality has a website, by providing notice to the municipal records officer to post on the municipality's website for 14 days before the day of the public hearing; and

(d) by posting notice on the county's website for 14 days before the day of the public hearing.

(4) Each notice described in Subsection ~~(5)~~ shall:

(a) state the date, time, and place of the hearing;

(b) briefly summarize the nature of the protest; and

(c) state that a copy of the protest is on file at:

(i) the boundary commission's office, if the boundary commission has a physical office; or

(ii) the county recorder's office.

~~(7)~~ The boundary commission may [~~continue~~]postpone a scheduled public hearing[~~under Subsection (4) from time to time~~], but no [~~continued~~]postponed hearing may be held later than 60 days after the original hearing date.

~~(8)~~ In considering [~~protests~~]a protest, the boundary commission shall consider whether the proposed annexation:

(a) complies with the requirements of[~~Sections 10-2-402 and 10-2-403~~]:

(i) Section 10-2-804;

(ii) Section 10-2-806; and

(iii) the annexation policy plan of the proposed annexing municipality, as described in Section 10-2-803;

(b) conflicts with the annexation policy plan of another municipality; and

(c) if the proposed annexation includes urban development, will have an adverse tax consequence on the remaining unincorporated area of the county.

(7) After the public hearing required by this section, the boundary commission:

(a) shall, within 30 days, issue a written decision on the protest filed under Section 10-2-810;

(b) shall send a copy of the written decision described in Subsection (7)(a) to:

(i) the legislative body of the county in which the area proposed for annexation is located;

(ii) the legislative body of the proposed annexing municipality;

(iii) the sponsor of the annexation petition; and

(iv) the contact person for the protest; and

(c) may:

(i) recommend approval of the proposed annexation, either with or without conditions; or

(ii) recommend denying the proposed annexation.

~~(9)~~ (a) The boundary commission shall record each public hearing under this section by electronic means.

(b) [~~A~~]The record of a boundary commission proceeding includes:

(i) then transcription of the recording under Subsection (8)(a)[~~(9)(a),~~];

(ii) the feasibility study, if applicable[~~,~~];

(iii) information received at the hearing[~~,~~]; and

(iv) the written decision of the boundary commission[~~shall constitute the record of the hearing~~].

(9) Except as provided in Subsection (12), upon receipt of the boundary commission's written decision under Subsection (7), the legislative body of the annexing municipality shall take action no earlier than 30 days after but no later than 60 days after receipt of the boundary commission's written decision to:

(a) deny the annexation petition; or

(b) subject to Subsection (10), approve the annexation petition, with or without any conditions recommended by the boundary commission.

(10) A municipal legislative body shall exclude from an annexation:

(a) rural real property, unless the owner of the rural real property has signed the annexation petition or otherwise gives written consent to the inclusion of the owner's property to the annexation; and

(b) private real property located within a mining protection area, unless the owner of the private property located in the mining protection area has signed the annexation petition or otherwise gives written consent to the inclusion of the owner's property to the annexation.

(11) (a) As used in this subsection, "party" means:

(i) an annexing municipality;

(ii) the contact sponsor of an annexation petition; or

(iii) the contact person for a protest.

(b) A party may seek review of a boundary commission's written decision in the state district court with jurisdiction over the county in which the boundary commission is established by filing a petition for review of the written decision within 20 days of receiving the boundary commission's written decision.

(c) A party that files a petition for review under Subsection (11)(b) shall provide notice of the filing to the legislative body of the annexing municipality, unless the annexing municipality is the party that filed a petition for review.

(d) The district court shall consider the record described in Subsection (8)(b) and affirm the boundary commission's written decision unless the court determines the boundary commission's written decision is arbitrary or capricious.

(12) The legislative body of an annexing municipality is excused from complying with the requirements of Subsection (9) until judicial review is concluded.

Section 13. Section 10-2-812, which is renumbered from Section 10-2-418 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~10-2-418~~]10-2-812

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Annexation of an island or peninsula without a petition -- Notice -- Hearing.

[~~(1) As used in Subsection (2)(b)(ii), for purposes of an annexation conducted in accordance with this section of an area located within a county of the first class, "municipal-type services" does not include a service provided by a municipality pursuant to a contract that the municipality has with another political subdivision as "political subdivision" is defined in Section 17B-1-102.~~]

~~(2)~~ Notwithstanding Subsection [~~10-2-402(2)~~]10-2-804(4), a municipality may annex an unincorporated area under this section without an annexation petition if:

(a) for an unincorporated area within the expansion area of more than one municipality, each municipality agrees to the annexation; and

(b) (i) (A) the area to be annexed consists of one or more unincorporated islands within or unincorporated peninsulas contiguous to the municipality;

(B) the majority of each island or peninsula consists of residential or commercial development;

(C) the area proposed for annexation requires the delivery of municipal-type services; and

(D) the municipality has provided most or all of the municipal-type services to the area for more than one year;

(ii) (A) the area to be annexed consists of one or more unincorporated islands within or unincorporated peninsulas contiguous to the municipality, each of which has fewer than 800 residents; and

(B) the municipality has provided one or more municipal-type services to the area for at least one year;

(iii) the area consists of:

(A) an unincorporated island within or an unincorporated peninsula contiguous to the municipality; and

(B) [~~for an area outside of the county of the first class proposed for annexation,~~]no more than 50 acres; or

(iv) (A) the area to be annexed consists only of one or more unincorporated islands in a county of the second class;

(B) the area to be annexed is located in the expansion area of a municipality; and

(C) the county legislative body in which the municipality is located provides notice to each property owner within the area to be annexed that the county legislative body will hold a public hearing, no less than 15 days after the day on which the county legislative body provides the notice, and may make a recommendation of annexation to the municipality whose expansion area includes the area to be annexed after the public hearing.

~~(3)~~ Notwithstanding Subsection [~~10-2-402(1)(b)(iii)~~]10-2-804(2)(c), a municipality may annex a portion of an unincorporated island or unincorporated peninsula under this section, leaving unincorporated the remainder of the unincorporated island or unincorporated peninsula, if:

(a) in adopting the resolution under Subsection ~~(5)(a)~~(a) the municipal legislative body determines that not annexing the entire unincorporated island or unincorporated peninsula is in the municipality's best interest; and

(b) for an annexation of one or more unincorporated islands under Subsection ~~(2)(b)~~(b), the entire island of unincorporated area, of which a portion is being annexed, complies with the requirement of Subsection ~~(2)(b)(ii)~~(b)(ii) relating to the number of residents.

[~~(4) (a) This Subsection (4) applies only to an annexation within a county of the first class.~~]

[~~(b) A county of the first class shall agree to an annexation if the majority of private property owners within the area to be annexed give written consent to the annexation, in accordance with Subsection (4)(d), to the recorder of the annexing municipality.~~]

[~~(c) For purposes of Subsection (4)(b), the majority of private property owners is property owners who own:~~]

[~~(i) the majority of the total private land area within the area proposed for annexation; and~~]

[~~(ii) private real property equal to at least 1/2 the value of private real property within the area proposed for annexation.~~]

[~~(d) A property owner consenting to annexation shall indicate the property owner's consent on a form which includes language in substantially the following form:~~

~~"Notice: If this written consent is used to proceed with an annexation of your property in accordance with Utah Code Section 10-2-418, no public election is required by law to approve the annexation. If you sign this consent and later decide you do not want to support the annexation of your property, you may withdraw your signature by submitting a signed, written withdrawal with the recorder or clerk of [name of annexing municipality]. If you choose to withdraw your signature, you must do so no later than the close of the public hearing on the annexation conducted in accordance with Utah Code Subsection 10-2-418(4)(d).".~~]

[~~(e) A private property owner may withdraw the property owner's signature indicating consent by submitting a signed, written withdrawal with the recorder or clerk no later than the close of the public hearing held in accordance with Subsection (5)(b).~~]

~~(5)~~ The legislative body of each municipality intending to annex an area under this section shall:

(a) adopt a resolution indicating the municipal legislative body's intent to annex the area, describing the area proposed to be annexed; and

(b) hold a public hearing on the proposed annexation no earlier than 30 days after the adoption of the resolution described in Subsection

~~(5)(a)~~(a).

~~(6)~~ A legislative body described in Subsection ~~(5)~~ shall provide notice of a public hearing described in Subsection ~~(5)(b)~~(b):

(a) for at least three weeks before the day of the public hearing, for the municipality and the area proposed for annexation, as a class B notice under Section 63G-30-102; and

(b) by sending written notice to:

(i) the board of each special district and special service district whose boundaries contain some or all of the area proposed for annexation; and

(ii) the legislative body of the county in which the area proposed for annexation is located.

~~(7)~~ The legislative body of the annexing municipality shall ensure that:

(a) each notice described in Subsection ~~(6)~~:

(i) states that the municipal legislative body has adopted a resolution indicating the municipality's intent to annex the area proposed for annexation;

(ii) states the date, time, and place of the public hearing described in Subsection ~~(5)(b)~~(b);

(iii) describes the area proposed for annexation; and

(iv) except for an annexation that meets the requirements of Subsection ~~(8)(b)~~(b) or (c), states in conspicuous and plain terms that the municipal legislative body will annex the area unless, at or before the public hearing described in Subsection ~~(5)(b)~~(b), written protests to the annexation are filed by the owners of private real property that:

(A) is located within the area proposed for annexation;

(B) covers a majority of the total private land area within the entire area proposed for annexation; and

(C) is equal in value to at least 1/2 the value of all private real property within the entire area proposed for annexation; and

(b) the first publication of the notice described in Subsection ~~(6)(a)~~(a) occurs within 14 days after the day on which the municipal legislative body adopts a resolution under Subsection ~~(5)(a)~~(a).

~~(8)~~ (a) Except as provided in Subsections ~~(8)(b)(i)~~(b)(i) and ~~(8)(c)(i)~~(c)(i), upon conclusion of the public hearing described in Subsection ~~(5)(b)~~(b), the municipal legislative body may adopt an ordinance approving the annexation of the area proposed for annexation under this section unless, at or before the hearing, written protests to the annexation have been filed with the recorder or clerk of the municipality by the owners of private real property that:

(i) is located within the area proposed for annexation;

(ii) covers a majority of the total private land area within the entire area proposed for annexation; and

(iii) is equal in value to at least 1/2 the value of all private real property within the entire area proposed for annexation.

(b) (i) Notwithstanding Subsection ~~(8)(a)~~(a), upon conclusion of the public hearing described in Subsection ~~(5)(b)~~(b), a municipality may adopt an ordinance approving the annexation of the area proposed for annexation under this section without allowing or considering protests under Subsection ~~(8)(a)~~(a) if the owners of at least 75% of the total private land area within the entire area proposed for annexation, representing at least 75% of the value of the private real property within the entire area proposed for annexation, have consented in writing to the annexation.

(ii) Upon the effective date under Section [~~10-2-425~~]10-2-813 of an annexation approved by an ordinance adopted under Subsection ~~(8)(b)(i)~~(b)(i), the area annexed is conclusively presumed to be validly annexed.

(c) (i) Notwithstanding Subsection ~~(8)(a)~~(a), upon conclusion of the public hearing described in Subsection ~~(5)(b)~~(b), a municipality may adopt an ordinance approving the annexation of an area that the county legislative body proposes for annexation under this section without allowing or considering protests under Subsection ~~(8)(a)~~(a) if the county legislative body has formally recommended annexation to the annexing municipality and has made a formal finding that:

(A) the area to be annexed can be more efficiently served by the municipality than by the county;

(B) the area to be annexed is not likely to be naturally annexed by the municipality in the future as the result of urban development;

(C) annexation of the area is likely to facilitate the consolidation of overlapping functions of local government; and

(D) annexation of the area is likely to result in an equitable distribution of community resources and obligations.

(ii) The county legislative body may base the finding required in Subsection ~~(8)(c)(i)(B)~~(c)(i)(B) on:

(A) existing development in the area;

(B) natural or other conditions that may limit the future development of the area; or

(C) other factors that the county legislative body considers relevant.

(iii) A county legislative body may make the recommendation for annexation required in Subsection ~~(8)(c)(i)~~(c)(i) for only a portion of an unincorporated island if, as a result of information provided at the public hearing, the county legislative body makes a formal finding that it would be equitable to leave a portion of the island unincorporated.

(iv) If a county legislative body has made a recommendation of annexation under Subsection ~~(8)(c)(i)~~(c)(i):

(A) the relevant municipality is not required to proceed with the recommended annexation; and

(B) if the relevant municipality proceeds with annexation, the municipality shall annex the entire area that the county legislative body recommended for annexation.

(v) Upon the effective date under Section [~~10-2-425~~]10-2-813 of an annexation approved by an ordinance adopted under Subsection ~~(8)(c)(i)~~(c)(i), the area annexed is conclusively presumed to be validly annexed.

~~(9)~~ (a) Except as provided in Subsections ~~(8)(b)(i)~~(b)(i) and ~~(8)(c)(i)~~(c)(i), if protests are timely filed under Subsection ~~(8)(a)~~(a), the municipal legislative body may not adopt an ordinance approving the annexation of the area proposed for annexation, and the annexation proceedings under this section shall be considered terminated.

(b) Subsection ~~(9)(a)~~(a) does not prohibit the municipal legislative body from excluding from a proposed annexation under Subsection ~~(2)(b)~~(b) the property within an unincorporated island regarding which protests have been filed and proceeding under Subsection ~~(3)~~ to annex some or all of the remaining portion of the unincorporated island.

(8) Nothing in this section prohibits a municipal legislative body from excluding from a proposed annexation any property that is the subject of a protest, or excluding from a proposed annexation any property for any other reason, and proceeding with the annexation of the non-excluded property if:

(a) the non-excluded property complies with Subsection (1); and

(b) the requirements of Subsection (2) are met.

[~~(iv) an automatic annexation that occurs on July 1, 2027 under Subsection 10-2-429(2)(b).~~]

[~~(b) "Applicable legislative body" means:~~]

[~~(i) the legislative body of each municipality that enacts an ordinance under this part approving the annexation of an unincorporated area or the adjustment of a boundary; or~~]

[~~(ii) the legislative body of a municipality to which an unincorporated island is automatically annexed under Section 10-2-429.~~]

~~(2)~~ An applicable legislative body shall:

(a) within 60 days after an annexation action, file with the lieutenant governor:

(i) a notice of an impending boundary action, as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5, that meets the requirements of Subsection 67-1a-6.5(3);

(ii) a copy of an approved final local entity plat, as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5; and

(iii) if applicable, a copy of [~~an agreement~~]a resolution under Subsection [~~10-2-429(2)(a)(ii)~~]10-2-814(2)(a)(ii);

(b) upon the lieutenant governor's issuance of a certificate of annexation or boundary adjustment, as the case may be, under Section 67-1a-6.5:

(i) if the annexed area or area subject to the boundary adjustment is located within the boundary of a single county, submit to the recorder of that county the original notice of an impending boundary action, the original certificate of annexation or boundary adjustment, the original approved final local entity plat, and a certified copy of the ordinance approving the annexation or boundary adjustment; or

(ii) if the annexed area or area subject to the boundary adjustment is located within the boundaries of more than a single county:

(A) submit to the recorder of one of [~~those~~]the affected counties the original notice of impending boundary action, the original certificate of annexation or boundary adjustment, and the original approved final local entity plat;

(B) submit to the recorder of each other affected county a certified copy of the documents listed in Subsection ~~(2)(b)(ii)(A)~~(b)(ii)(A); and

(C) submit a certified copy of the ordinance approving the annexation or boundary adjustment to each county described in Subsections ~~(2)(b)(ii)(A)~~(b)(ii)(A) and (B); and

(c) concurrently with Subsection ~~(2)(b)~~(b):

(i) send notice of the annexation or boundary adjustment to each affected entity; and

(ii) in accordance with Section 53-2d-514, file with the Bureau of Emergency Medical Services:

(A) a certified copy of the ordinance approving the annexation of an unincorporated area or the adjustment of a boundary, if applicable; and

(B) a copy of the approved final local entity plat.

~~(3)~~ If an annexation under this part or a boundary adjustment under [~~this part~~]Part 9, Municipal Boundary Adjustments, also causes an automatic annexation to a special district under Section 17B-1-416 or an automatic withdrawal from a special district under Subsection 17B-1-502(2), the municipal legislative body shall, as soon as practicable after the lieutenant governor issues a certificate of annexation or boundary adjustment under Section 67-1a-6.5, send notice of the annexation or boundary adjustment to the special district to which the annexed area is automatically annexed or from which the annexed area is automatically withdrawn.

~~(4)~~ Each notice required under Subsection (1) relating to an annexation or boundary adjustment shall state the effective date of the annexation or boundary adjustment, as determined under Subsection ~~(5)~~.

~~(5)~~ An annexation under this part or a boundary adjustment under [~~this part~~]Part 9, Municipal Boundary Adjustments, is completed and takes effect:

(a) for the annexation of or boundary adjustment affecting an area located in a county of the first class, except for an annexation under Section [~~10-2-418~~]10-2-812:

(i) July 1 following the lieutenant governor's issuance under Section 67-1a-6.5 of a certificate of annexation or boundary adjustment if:

(A) the certificate is issued during the preceding November 1 through April 30; and

(B) the requirements of Subsection ~~(2)~~ are met before that July 1; or

(ii) January 1 following the lieutenant governor's issuance under Section 67-1a-6.5 of a certificate of annexation or boundary adjustment if:

(A) the certificate is issued during the preceding May 1 through October 31; and

(B) the requirements of Subsection ~~(2)~~ are met before that January 1; and

(b) subject to Subsection ~~(6)~~, for all other annexations and boundary adjustments, the date of the lieutenant governor's issuance, under Section 67-1a-6.5, of a certificate of annexation or boundary adjustment.

[~~(6) (a) As used in this Subsection (6):~~]

[~~(i) "Affected area" means:~~]

[~~(A) in the case of an annexation, the annexed area; and~~]

[~~(B) in the case of a boundary adjustment, any area that, as a result of the boundary adjustment, is moved from within the boundary of one municipality to within the boundary of another municipality.~~]

[~~(ii) "Annexing municipality" means:~~]

[~~(A) in the case of an annexation, the municipality that annexes an unincorporated area or the municipality to which an unincorporated island is automatically annexed under Section 10-2-429; and~~]

[~~(B) in the case of a boundary adjustment, a municipality whose boundary includes an affected area as a result of a boundary adjustment.~~]

~~(b)~~ (a) The effective date of an annexation or boundary adjustment for purposes of assessing property within an affected area is governed by Section 59-2-305.5.

~~(c)~~ Until the documents listed in Subsection ~~(2)(b)(i)~~(b)(i) are recorded in the office of the recorder of each county in which the property is located, a municipality may not:

(i) levy or collect a property tax on property within an affected area;

(ii) levy or collect an assessment on property within an affected area; or

(iii) charge or collect a fee for service provided to property within an affected area, unless the municipality was charging and collecting the fee within that area immediately before annexation.

. Automatic annexations in a county of the first class.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Most populous bordering municipality" means the municipality with the highest population of any municipality that shares a common border with an unincorporated island.

(b) "Unincorporated island" means an area that is:

(i) within a county of the first class;

(ii) not within a municipality; and

(iii) completely surrounded by land that is within one or more municipalities within the county of the first class.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, on July 1, 2027, an unincorporated island is automatically annexed to:

(i) the most populous bordering municipality, except as provided in Subsection (2)(a)(ii); or

(ii) a municipality other than the most populous bordering municipality if:

(A) the other municipality shares a common border with the unincorporated island; and

(B) the other municipality and the most populous bordering municipality each adopt a resolution agreeing that the unincorporated island should be annexed to the other municipality.

(b) The effective date of an annexation under Subsection (2)(a) is governed by Section [~~10-2-425~~]10-2-813.

Section 16. Section 10-2-815, which is renumbered from Section 10-2-422 is renumbered and amended to read:

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Bonds not affected by annexations -- Payment of property taxes.

(1) [~~A boundary adjustment or~~]An annexation under this part may not jeopardize or endanger any general obligation or revenue bond.

(2) A bondholder may require the payment of property taxes from any area that:

(a) was included in the taxable value of the municipality or other governmental entity issuing the bond at the time the bond was issued; and

(b) is no longer within the boundaries of the municipality or other governmental entity issuing the bond due to [~~the boundary adjustment or~~]an annexation.

Section 18. Section 10-2-817, which is renumbered from Section 10-2-421 is renumbered and amended to read:

. Electric utility service in annexed area -- Reimbursement for value of facilities -- Liability -- Arbitration.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Commission" means the Public Service Commission established in Section 54-1-1.

(b) "Current replacement cost" means the cost the transferring party would incur to construct the facility at the time of transfer using the transferring party's:

(i) standard estimating rates and standard construction methodologies for the facility; and

(ii) standard estimating process.

(c) "Depreciation" means an amount calculated:

(i) based on:

(A) the life and depreciation mortality curve most recently set for the type of facility in the depreciation rates set by the commission or other governing regulatory authority for the electrical corporation; or

(B) a straight-line depreciation rate that represents the expended life if agreed to by the transferring and receiving parties; and

(ii) to include the gross salvage value of the type of facility based on the latest depreciation life approved by the commission or other governing regulatory authority for the electrical corporation, with a floor at the gross salvage value of the asset and in no case less than zero.

(d) "Electrical corporation" means:

(i) an entity as defined in Section 54-2-1; or

(ii) an improvement district system described in Subsection 17B-2a-403(1)(a)(iv).

(e) "Facility" means electric equipment or infrastructure used to serve an electric customer, above ground or underground, including:

(i) a power line, transformer, switch gear, pole, wire, guy anchor, conductor, cable, or other related equipment; or

(ii) a right-of-way, easement, or any other real property interest or legal right or interest used to operate and maintain the electric equipment or infrastructure.

(f) "Facility transfer" means the transfer of a facility from a transferring party to a receiving party in accordance with Subsection (3).

(g) "Lost or stranded facility" means a facility that is currently used by a transferring party that will no longer be used, whether in whole or in part, as a result of a facility transfer.

(h) "Receiving party" means a municipality or electrical corporation to whom a facility is transferred.

(i) "Transferring party" means a municipality or electrical corporation that transfers a facility.

(2) (a) If an electric customer in an area being annexed by a municipality receives electric service from an electrical corporation that is not an improvement district system described in Subsection 17B-2a-403(1)(a)(iv), the municipality may not, without the agreement of the electrical corporation, furnish municipal electric service to any electric customer in the annexed area until the municipality has reimbursed the electrical corporation for the value of each facility used to serve any electric customer within the annexed area, including the value of any facility owned by a wholesale electric cooperative affiliated with the electrical corporation, dedicated to provide service to the annexed area.

(b) If an electric customer in an area being annexed by a municipality receives electric service from an electrical corporation that is an improvement district system described in Subsection 17B-2a-403(1)(a)(iv), the municipality may not, without the agreement of the electrical corporation, furnish municipal electric service to the electric customer until the municipality has reimbursed the electric corporation for the value of the facility used to serve the electric customer within the annexed area.

(3) The following procedures [~~shall~~]apply if a municipality transfers a facility to an electrical corporation in accordance with Section 10-8-14 or if an electrical corporation transfers a facility to a municipality in accordance with Subsection (2), Section 54-3-30, or 54-3-31:

(a) [~~The~~]the transferring party shall provide a written estimate of the transferring party's cost of preparing the inventory required in Subsection (3)(c) to the receiving party no later than 60 days after the date of notice from the receiving party[~~.~~];

(b) (i) [~~The~~]the receiving party shall pay the estimated cost of preparing the inventory to the transferring party no later than 60 days after the day that the receiving party receives the written estimate[~~.~~]; or

(ii) [~~If~~]if the actual cost of preparing the inventory differs from the estimated cost, the transferring party shall include the difference between the actual cost and the estimated cost in the reimbursement described in Subsection (5)[~~.~~];

(c) [~~Except~~]except as provided in Subsection (3)(f), the transferring party shall prepare, in accordance with Subsection (4), and deliver the inventory to the receiving party no later than 180 days after the day that the transferring party receives the payment specified in Subsection (3)(b)[~~.~~];

(d) (i) [~~At~~]at any time, the parties may by agreement correct or update the inventory[~~.~~]; or

(ii) [~~If~~]if the parties are unable to reach an agreement on an updated inventory, they shall:

(A) proceed with the facility transfer and reimbursement based on the inventory as submitted in accordance with Subsection (3)(c); and

(B) resolve their dispute as provided in Subsection (6)[~~.~~];

(e) [~~Except~~]except as provided in Subsection (3)(f), the parties shall complete each facility transfer and reimbursement contemplated by this Subsection (3) no later than 180 days after the date that the transferring party delivers the inventory to the receiving party in accordance with Subsection (3)(c)[~~.~~]; and

(f) [~~The~~]the periods specified in Subsections (3)(c) and (e) may be extended for up to an additional 90 days by agreement of the parties.

(4) (a) The inventory prepared by a transferring party in accordance with Subsection (3)(c) shall include an identification of each facility to be transferred and the amount of reimbursement as provided in Subsection (5).

(b) The transferring party may not include in the inventory a facility that the transferring party removed from service for at least 36 consecutive months prior to the date of the inventory, unless the facility was taken out of service as a result of an action by the receiving party.

(5) (a) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the reimbursement for the transfer of each facility shall include:

(i) the cost of preparing the inventory as provided in Subsection (3)(b);

(ii) subject to Subsection (5)(b)(i), the value of each transferred facility calculated by the current replacement cost of the facility less depreciation based on facility age;

(iii) the cost incurred by the transferring party for:

(A) the physical separation of each facility from its system, including the cost of any facility constructed or installed that is necessary for the transferring party to continue to provide reliable electric service to its remaining customers;

(B) administrative, engineering, and record keeping expenses incurred by the transferring party for the transfer of each facility to the receiving party, including any difference between the actual cost of preparing the inventory and the estimated cost of preparing the inventory; and

(C) reimbursement for any tax consequences to the transferring party resulting from each facility transfer;

(iv) the value of each lost or stranded facility of the transferring party based on the valuation formula described in Subsection (5)(a)(ii) or as otherwise agreed by the parties;

(v) the diminished value of each transferring party facility that will not be transferred based on the percentage of the facility that will no longer be used as a result of the facility transfer; and

(vi) the transferring party's book value of a right-of-way or easement transferred with each facility.

(b) (i) (A) The receiving party may review the estimation of the current replacement costs of each facility, including the wage rates, material costs, overhead assumptions, and other pricing used to establish the estimation of the current replacement costs of the facility.

(B) Prior to reviewing the estimation, the receiving party shall enter into a nondisclosure agreement acceptable to the transferring party.

(C) The nondisclosure agreement shall restrict the use of the information provided by the transferring party solely for the purpose of reviewing the estimation of the current replacement cost and preserve the confidentiality of the information to prevent any effect on a competitive bid received by either party.

(ii) (A) If the age of a facility may be readily determined by the transferring party, the transferring party shall use that age to determine the facility's depreciation.

(B) If the age of a facility cannot be readily determined, the transferring party shall estimate the age of the facility based on the average remaining life approved for the same type of facility in the most current depreciation rates set by the commission or other governing regulatory authority for the electrical corporation.

(c) (i) (A) A transferring party that transfers a facility in accordance with this section shall, upon delivery of a document conveying title to the receiving party, transfer the facility without any express or implied warranties.

(B) A receiving party that receives a facility in accordance with this section shall, upon receipt of a document conveying title, accept the facility in its existing condition and assume any and all liability, fault, risk, or potential loss arising from or related to the facility.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (5)(c)(i), if, within six months after the date that any oil filled equipment is transferred, the receiving party discovers that a transferred oil filled equipment contains polychlorinated biphenyl, the transferring party shall reimburse the receiving party for the cost of testing and disposal of that oil filled equipment.

(6) (a) If the parties cannot agree on each facility to be transferred or the respective reimbursement amount, the parties shall:

(i) proceed with the facility transfer and the reimbursement based on the inventory as submitted by the transferring party in accordance with Subsection (3)(c) and in accordance with the schedule provided in Subsection (3)(e); and

(ii) submit the dispute for mediation or arbitration.

(b) The parties shall share equally in the costs of mediation or arbitration.

(c) If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute through mediation or arbitration, either party may bring an action in the state court of jurisdiction.

(d) The arbitrator, or state court if the parties cannot agree on arbitration, shall determine each facility to be transferred and the amount to be reimbursed in accordance with Subsection (5).

(e) If the arbitrator or state court determines that:

(i) a transferring party transferred a facility that should not have been transferred, the receiving party shall return the facility;

(ii) a party did not transfer a facility that should have been transferred, the party that should have transferred the facility shall transfer the facility to the party to whom the facility should have been transferred;

(iii) the amount reimbursed by the receiving party is insufficient, the receiving party shall pay the difference to the transferring party; or

(iv) the amount reimbursed by the receiving party is more than the amount that should have been reimbursed, the transferring party shall pay the difference to the receiving party.

(7) Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by the parties:

(a) a party shall transfer a facility to be transferred in accordance with Subsection (6)(e) no later than 60 days after the day that the arbitrator or court issues a determination unless the parties mutually agree to a longer time to complete the transfer; and

(b) a party shall:

(i) pay an amount required to be paid in accordance with Subsection (6)(e) no later than 30 days after the day that the arbitrator or court issues a determination; and

(ii) include interest in the payment at the overall rate of return on the rate base most recently authorized by the commission or other governing regulatory agency for the electrical corporation from the date the reimbursement was originally paid until the difference is paid.

(8) (a) Nothing in this section limits the availability of other damages under law arising by virtue of an agreement between the municipality and the electrical corporation.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (8)(a), a party described in this section is not entitled to an award for:

(i) damages that are indirect, incidental, punitive, exemplary, or consequential;

(ii) lost profits; or

(iii) other business interruption damages.

(9) Nothing in this section or Section 10-8-14, 54-3-30, or 54-3-31 applies to a transfer of facilities from an electrical corporation to a municipality in accordance with a decision by a municipality that did not previously provide electric service and seeks to commence providing electric service to a customer currently served by an electrical corporation within the municipal boundary.

(10) The provisions of this section apply to any annexation under this part.

Section 19. Section 10-2-901 is enacted to read:

PART 9. Municipal Boundary Adjustments

10-2-901
(Effective 05/07/25)
. Definitions.

As used in this part:

(1) "Affected area" means any area that, as a result of the boundary adjustment, is moved from within the boundary of one municipality to within the boundary of another municipality.

(2) "Annexing municipality" means a municipality whose boundary includes an affected area as a result of a boundary adjustment.

(3) "Municipal records officer" means the same as that term is defined in Section 10-2-801.

(4) "Owner of real property" means the same as that term is defined in Section 10-2-801.

Section 20. Section 10-2-902 is enacted to read:
10-2-902

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Valuation of private real property -- Determining consent to petition or protest by owners of real property.

(1) For purposes of implementing the provisions of this part, the value of private real property shall be determined according to the provisions of Section 10-2-802.

(2) For purposes of implementing the provisions of this part requiring an owner of private real property to sign a petition or protest, determining the appropriate individual to sign the petition or protest shall be determined according to the provisions of Section 10-2-802.

Section 21. Section 10-2-903, which is renumbered from Section 10-2-419 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~10-2-419~~]10-2-903

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Municipal boundary adjustment -- Notice and hearing -- Protest.

(1) The legislative bodies of two or more municipalities having common boundaries may adjust [~~their~~]the common boundaries as provided in this section.

(2) The legislative body of each municipality intending to adjust a boundary that is common with another municipality shall:

(a) adopt a resolution indicating the intent of the municipal legislative body to adjust a common boundary; and

(b) hold a public hearing on the proposed adjustment no less than 60 days after the adoption of the resolution under Subsection (2)(a).

(3) A legislative body described in Subsection (2) shall provide notice of a public hearing described in Subsection (2)(b):

(a) for the municipality, as a class B notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least three weeks before the day of the public hearing; and

(b) if the proposed boundary adjustment may cause any part of real property owned by the state to be within the geographic boundary of a different local governmental entity than before the adjustment, by providing written notice, at least 50 days before the day of the public hearing, to:

(i) the title holder of any state-owned real property described in this Subsection (3)(b); and

(ii) the Utah State Developmental Center Board, created under Section 26B-1-429, if any state-owned real property described in this Subsection (3)(b) is associated with the Utah State Developmental Center.

(4) The notice described in Subsection (3) shall:

(a) state that the municipal legislative body has adopted a resolution indicating the municipal legislative body's intent to adjust a boundary that the municipality has in common with another municipality;

(b) describe the area proposed to be adjusted;

(c) state the date, time, and place of the public hearing described in Subsection (2)(b);

(d) state in conspicuous and plain terms that the municipal legislative body will adjust the boundaries unless, at or before the public hearing described in Subsection (2)(b), a written protest to the adjustment is filed by:

(i) an owner of private real property that:

(A) is located within the area proposed for adjustment;

(B) covers at least 25% of the total private land area within the area proposed for adjustment; and

(C) is equal in value to at least 15% of the value of all private real property within the area proposed for adjustment; or

(ii) a title holder of state-owned real property described in Subsection (3)(b);

(e) state that the area that is the subject of the boundary adjustment will, because of the boundary adjustment, be automatically annexed to a special district providing fire protection, paramedic, and emergency services or a special district providing law enforcement service, as the case may be, as provided in Section 17B-1-416, if:

(i) the municipality to which the area is being added because of the boundary adjustment is entirely within the boundaries of a special district:

(A) that provides fire protection, paramedic, and emergency services or law enforcement service, respectively; and

(B) in the creation of which an election was not required because of Subsection 17B-1-214(3)(c); and

(ii) the municipality from which the area is being taken because of the boundary adjustment is not within the boundaries of the special district; and

(f) state that the area proposed for annexation to the municipality will be automatically withdrawn from a special district providing fire protection, paramedic, and emergency services, as provided in Subsection 17B-1-502(2), if:

(i) the municipality to which the area is being added because of the boundary adjustment is not within the boundaries of a special district:

(A) that provides fire protection, paramedic, and emergency services; and

(B) in the creation of which an election was not required because of Subsection 17B-1-214(3)(c); and

(ii) the municipality from which the area is being taken because of the boundary adjustment is entirely within the boundaries of the special district.

(5) Upon conclusion of the public hearing described in Subsection (2)(b), the municipal legislative body may adopt an ordinance approving the adjustment of the common boundary unless, at or before the hearing described in Subsection (2)(b), a written protest to the adjustment is filed with the [~~city recorder or town clerk~~]municipal records officer by a person described in Subsection (3)(b)(i) or (ii).

(6) The municipal legislative body of an annexing municipality shall, in regards to an affected area, comply with the requirements of Section [~~10-2-425~~]10-2-813 in regards to the filing of notice and plat and recording a boundary adjustment as if the boundary adjustment were an annexation.

(7) (a) An ordinance adopted under Subsection (5) becomes effective when each municipality involved in the boundary adjustment has adopted an ordinance under Subsection (5).

(b) The effective date of a boundary adjustment under this section is governed by Section [~~10-2-425~~]10-2-813.

Section 22. Section 10-2-904 is enacted to read:

10-2-904

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Bonds not affected by municipal boundary adjustment -- Payment of property taxes.

(1) A boundary adjustment under this part may not jeopardize or endanger any general obligation or revenue bond.

(2) A bondholder may require the payment of property taxes from any area that:

(a) was included in the taxable value of the municipality or other governmental entity issuing the bond at the time the bond was issued; and

(b) is no longer within the boundaries of the municipality or other governmental entity issuing the bond due to a boundary adjustment.

Section 23. Section 10-2-905 is enacted to read:

10-2-905

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Municipal boundary adjustment effect on local districts and special service districts.

(1) a local district under Title 17B, Limited Purpose Local Government Entities -- Special Districts; or

(2) a special service district under Title 17D, Chapter 1, Special Service District Act.

Section 24. Section 10-2a-103 is amended to read:

10-2a-103

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Incorporation of a contiguous area -- Incorporation of a community council area -- Incorporation involving more than one county.

(1) (a) An unincorporated contiguous area of a county not within a municipality may incorporate as a municipality as provided in this chapter.

(b) Two or more unincorporated islands, as defined in Section [~~10-2-429~~]10-2-814, that are not contiguous with each other may incorporate as a municipality, as provided in this chapter, if:

(i) those unincorporated islands are part of a community council area; and

(ii) a feasibility request for the proposed incorporation of the community council area is submitted under Section 10-2a-202 no later than May 1, 2025.

(2) If a proposed incorporation relates to an area in more than one county:

(a) the individual who files the feasibility request shall file the request with each county containing a portion of the area proposed for incorporation; and

(b) the counties shall work together, in accordance with direction given by the lieutenant governor, to complete the actions required by this chapter.

Section 25. Section 10-2a-107 is amended to read:

10-2a-107

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Effect of incorporation of community council area.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Service area" means the area for which a service provider provided municipal services to an unincorporated island immediately before the incorporation of a community council municipality that includes the previously unincorporated island.

(b) "Service provider" means a special district or other provider of municipal services that, before the incorporation of a community council municipality, provided service to the service area.

(c) "Unincorporated island" means the same as that term is defined in Section [~~10-2-429~~]10-2-814.

(2) An incorporation of a community council municipality does not affect the boundary of any service provider, subject to any future change in the boundary as provided by applicable law.

(3) All roads and other utilities that before incorporation of a community council municipality were under the jurisdiction of the county in which the community council municipality is located become, upon incorporation, under the jurisdiction of the community council municipality.

Section 26. Section 10-2a-201.5 is amended to read:

10-2a-201.5

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Qualifications for incorporation.

(1) (a) An area may incorporate as a town in accordance with this part if the area:

(i) (A) is contiguous; or

(B) is a community council area;

(ii) has a population of at least 100 people, but fewer than 1,000 people; and

(iii) is not already part of a municipality.

(b) A preliminary municipality may transition to, and incorporate as, a town, in accordance with Section 10-2a-510.

(c) An area may incorporate as a city in accordance with this part if the area:

(i) (A) is contiguous; or

(B) is a community council area;

(ii) has a population of 1,000 people or more; and

(iii) is not already part of a municipality.

(2) (a) An area may not incorporate under this part if:

(i) the area has a population of fewer than 100 people; or

(ii) except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), the area has an average population density of fewer than seven people per square mile.

(b) Subsection (2)(a)(ii) does not prohibit incorporation of an area if:

(i) noncompliance with Subsection (2)(a)(ii) is necessary to connect separate areas that share a demonstrable community interest; and

(ii) the area is contiguous.

(3) An area incorporating under this part may not include land owned by the United States federal government unless:

(a) the area, including the land owned by the United States federal government, is contiguous; and

(b) (i) incorporating the land is necessary to connect separate areas that share a demonstrable community interest; or

(ii) excluding the land from the incorporating area would create an unincorporated island within the proposed municipality.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), an area incorporating under this part may not include some or all of an area proposed for annexation in an annexation petition under Section [~~10-2-403~~]10-2-806 that:

(i) was filed before the filing of the request for a feasibility study, described in Section 10-2a-202, relating to the incorporating area; and

(ii) is still pending on the date the request for the feasibility study described in Subsection (4)(a)(i) is filed.

(b) A feasibility request may propose for incorporation an area that includes some or all of an area proposed for annexation in an annexation petition described in Subsection (4)(a) if:

(i) the proposed annexation area that is part of the area proposed for incorporation does not exceed 20% of the area proposed for incorporation;

(ii) the feasibility request complies with Subsections 10-2a-202(1), (3), (4), and (5) with respect to excluding the proposed annexation area from the area proposed for incorporation; and

(iii) excluding the area proposed for annexation from the area proposed for incorporation would not cause the area proposed for incorporation to not be contiguous.

(c) Except as provided in Section 10-2a-206, the lieutenant governor shall consider each feasibility request to which Subsection (4)(b) applies as not proposing the incorporation of an area proposed for annexation.

(5) (a) An area incorporating under this part may not include part of a parcel of real property and exclude part of that same parcel unless the owner of the parcel gives written consent to exclude part of the parcel.

(b) A piece of real property that has more than one parcel number is considered to be a single parcel for purposes of Subsection (5)(a) if owned by the same owner.

Section 27. Section 10-2a-205 is amended to read:

10-2a-205

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Feasibility study -- Feasibility study consultant -- Qualifications for proceeding with incorporation.

(1) (a) The lieutenant governor shall, within 10 days after the day on which the lieutenant governor certifies a feasibility request under Subsection 10-2a-204(5)(a):

(i) estimate the cost of a feasibility study under this section; and

(ii) provide the estimated cost to the feasibility request sponsors.

(b) The feasibility request sponsors shall pay to the lieutenant governor the amount of the estimated cost under Subsection (1)(a) of a feasibility study conducted on or after May 1, 2024.

(c) Within 90 days after the feasibility request sponsors pay the estimated feasibility study cost under Subsection (1)(a), the lieutenant governor shall, in accordance with Subsection (2), engage a feasibility consultant to conduct a feasibility study.

(2) The lieutenant governor shall:

(a) select a feasibility consultant in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Utah Procurement Code;

(b) ensure that the feasibility consultant:

(i) has expertise in the processes and economics of local government;

(ii) is independent of and not affiliated with a sponsor of the feasibility request or the county in which the proposed municipality is located; and

(iii) for a feasibility study for the proposed incorporation of a community council area, has expertise in the processes and economics of a municipal services district providing municipal services to an unincorporated island, as defined in Section [~~10-2-429~~]10-2-814; and

(c) require the feasibility consultant to:

(i) submit a draft of the feasibility study to each applicable person with whom the feasibility consultant is required to consult under Subsection (3)(c) within 90 days after the day on which the lieutenant governor engages the feasibility consultant to conduct the study;

(ii) allow each person to whom the consultant provides a draft under Subsection (2)(c)(i) to review and provide comment on the draft;

(iii) submit a completed feasibility study, including a one-page summary of the results, to the following within 120 days after the day on which the lieutenant governor engages the feasibility consultant to conduct the feasibility study:

(A) the lieutenant governor;

(B) the county legislative body of the county in which the incorporation is proposed;

(C) the contact sponsor; and

(D) each person to whom the consultant provided a draft under Subsection (2)(c)(i); and

(iv) attend the public hearings described in Section 10-2a-207 to present the feasibility study results and respond to questions from the public.

(3) (a) The feasibility study shall include:

(i) an analysis of the population and population density within the area proposed for incorporation and the surrounding area;

(ii) the current and projected five-year demographics and tax base within the boundaries of the proposed municipality and surrounding area, including household size and income, commercial and industrial development, and public facilities;

(iii) subject to Subsection (3)(b), the current and five-year projected cost of providing municipal services to the proposed municipality, including administrative costs;

(iv) assuming the same tax categories and tax rates as currently imposed by the county and all other current service providers, the present and five-year projected revenue for the proposed municipality;

(v) an analysis of the risks and opportunities that might affect the actual costs described in Subsection (3)(a)(iii) or revenues described in Subsection (3)(a)(iv) of the newly incorporated municipality;

(vi) an analysis of new revenue sources that may be available to the newly incorporated municipality that are not available before the area incorporates, including an analysis of the amount of revenues the municipality might obtain from those revenue sources;

(vii) the projected tax burden per household of any new taxes that may be levied within the proposed municipality within five years after incorporation;

(viii) the fiscal impact of the municipality's incorporation on unincorporated areas, other municipalities, special districts, special service districts, and other governmental entities in the county; and

(ix) if the county clerk excludes property from, or includes property in, the proposed municipality under Section 10-2a-204.5, an update to the map and legal description described in Subsection 10-2a-202(3)(c).

(b) (i) In calculating the projected costs under Subsection (3)(a)(iii), the feasibility consultant shall assume the proposed municipality will provide a level and quality of municipal services that fairly and reasonably approximate the level and quality of municipal services that are provided to the area of the proposed municipality at the time the feasibility consultant conducts the feasibility study.

(ii) In calculating the current cost of a municipal service under Subsection (3)(a)(iii), the feasibility consultant shall consider:

(A) the amount it would cost the proposed municipality to provide the municipal service for the first five years after the municipality's incorporation; and

(B) the current municipal service provider's present and five-year projected cost of providing the municipal service.

(iii) In calculating costs under Subsection (3)(a)(iii), the feasibility consultant shall account for inflation and anticipated growth.

(c) In conducting the feasibility study, the feasibility consultant shall consult with the following before submitting a draft of the feasibility study under Subsection (2)(c)(i):

(i) if the proposed municipality will include lands owned by the United States federal government, the entity within the United States federal government that has jurisdiction over the land;

(ii) if the proposed municipality will include lands owned by the state, the entity within state government that has jurisdiction over the land;

(iii) each entity that provides a municipal service to a portion of the proposed municipality; and

(iv) each other special service district that provides services to a portion of the proposed municipality.

(4) If the five-year projected revenues calculated under Subsection (3)(a)(iv) exceed the five-year projected costs calculated under Subsection (3)(a)(iii) by more than 5%, the feasibility consultant shall project and report the expected annual revenue surplus to the contact sponsor and the lieutenant governor.

(5) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(b), if the results of the feasibility study, or a supplemental feasibility study described in Section 10-2a-206, show that the average annual amount of revenue calculated under Subsection (3)(a)(iv) does not exceed the average annual cost calculated under Subsection (3)(a)(iii) by more than 5%, the process to incorporate the area that is the subject of the feasibility study or supplemental feasibility study may not proceed.

(b) The process to incorporate an area described in Subsection (5)(a) may proceed if a subsequent supplemental feasibility study conducted under Section 10-2a-206 for the proposed incorporation demonstrates compliance with Subsection (5)(a).

(6) If the results of the feasibility study or revised feasibility study do not comply with Subsection (5), and if requested by the sponsors of the request, the feasibility consultant shall, as part of the feasibility study or revised feasibility study, make recommendations regarding how the boundaries of the proposed municipality may be altered to comply with Subsection (5).

(7) The lieutenant governor shall post a copy of the feasibility study, and any supplemental feasibility study described in Section 10-2a-206, on the lieutenant governor's website and make a copy available for public review at the lieutenant governor's office.

Section 28. Section 10-2a-205.5 is amended to read:

10-2a-205.5

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Additional feasibility consultant considerations for proposed incorporation of community council area -- Additional feasibility study requirements.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Applicable community council" means the community council that represents the community council area that is proposed to be incorporated.

(b) "Request sponsors" means the sponsors of a feasibility request relating to the proposed incorporation of a community council area.

(2) Subsections 10-2a-205(3)(a) and (b) do not apply to a feasibility study for a proposed incorporation of a community council area.

(3) A feasibility consultant conducting a feasibility study for a proposed incorporation of a community council area shall consider:

(a) population and population density within the community council area;

(b) current and five-year projections of demographics and economic base in the community council area, including household size and income, commercial and industrial development, and public facilities;

(c) projected population growth in the community council area during the next five years;

(d) subject to Subsection (4)(a), the present and five-year projections of the cost, including overhead, of providing the same or a similar service in the community council area as is provided by the municipal services district, including a comparison of:

(i) the estimated cost if the municipal services district continues to provide service;

(ii) the estimated cost if the community council municipality provides service directly or through a contract with another service provider; and

(iii) the estimated cost if an unincorporated island within the community council area is annexed under Section [~~10-2-429~~]10-2-814 and the annexing municipality provides service;

(e) subject to Subsection (4)(a), evaluating the present and five-year projections of the cost, including overhead, of a municipal services district providing municipal services to the community council area, comparing those costs assuming that the community council area is included in the service area of the municipal services district with those costs assuming that the community council area is excluded from the service area of the municipal services district;

(f) a projection of any new taxes per household that may be levied within the community council municipality within five years after incorporation;

(g) the fiscal impact that the community council area's incorporation will have on other municipalities and unincorporated areas served by the municipal services district, including any rate increase that may become necessary to maintain required coverage ratios for the municipal services district's debt if, after incorporation:

(i) the municipal services district continues to provide service to the community council area; or

(ii) the community council area provides service directly or through contract with another service provider;

(h) the physical and other assets that will be required by the municipal services district to provide, without interruption or diminution of service, the same or a similar service to the community council municipality upon incorporation;

(i) the physical and other assets that will no longer be required by the municipal services district to continue to provide the current level of service to the remainder of the service area without the community council area if the community council area incorporates and provides services directly or through contract with another service provider;

(j) the number and classification of municipal services district employees who will no longer be required to serve the remaining portions of the service area if a community council area provides service directly or through contract with another service provider upon incorporation, including the dollar amount of the wages, salaries, and benefits attributable to the employees and the estimated cost associated with termination of the employees if the community council municipality does not employ the employees;

(k) if the community council municipality will provide service directly or through another service provider, the effects of maintaining as a base, for a period of three years, the existing schedule of pay and benefits for municipal services district employees who may be transferred to the employment of the community council municipality or to another service provider with which the community council municipality contracts for service; and

(l) any other factor that the feasibility consultant considers relevant to the cost of providing municipal services as a result of a community council area's incorporation or the annexation of one or more unincorporated islands under Section [~~10-2-429~~]10-2-814.

(4) (a) For purposes of Subsections (3)(d) and (e):

(i) the feasibility consultant shall assume a level and quality of service to be provided in the future to the community council municipality that fairly and reasonably approximates the level and quality of service that the municipal services district provides to the community council area at the time of the feasibility study;

(ii) in determining the present-value cost of a service that the municipal services district provides, the feasibility consultant shall consider:

(A) the cost to the community council municipality of providing the service for the first five years after incorporation;

(B) the municipal services district's present and five-year projected cost of providing the same service to the community council area;

(C) the present and five-year projected cost of providing the same or a similar service to the community council area if service is provided by a municipality to which one or more unincorporated islands are annexed under Section [~~10-2-429~~]10-2-814;

(D) evaluate and detail the expected cost savings and qualitative benefits that result from a service provider other than the proposed municipality providing some municipal services;

(E) incorporate into the overall cost projection for the proposed municipality the potential for municipal services to be provided by a service provider other than the proposed municipality; and

(F) evaluate and detail projected costs for municipal services based on the proposed municipality providing municipal services as compared to service providers other than the proposed municipality providing municipal services funded by those other service providers; and

(iii) the feasibility consultant shall consider inflation and anticipated population growth in calculating the cost of providing service.

(b) A feasibility consultant may not consider an allocation of municipal services district assets or a transfer of municipal services district employees to the extent that the allocation or transfer would impair the municipal services district's ability to continue to provide the current level of service to the remainder of the municipal services district's service area without the community council area, unless the municipal services district consents to the allocation or transfer.

(5) (a) A feasibility consultant shall prepare a written report of the results of the feasibility study.

(b) A report under Subsection (5)(a) shall:

(i) contain a recommendation as to whether the proposed incorporation of the community council area is functionally and financially feasible for the community council area;

(ii) include any conditions the feasibility consultant determines are required to be satisfied to make the incorporation functionally and financially feasible; and

(iii) compare the costs of incorporation to the costs of the unincorporated islands within the community council area being annexed under Section [~~10-2-429~~]10-2-814.

(c) (i) Before finalizing a written report under this Subsection (5), the feasibility consultant shall provide a copy of a draft feasibility study report to the request sponsors and the county for their review and comments.

(ii) Based on comments provided under Subsection (5)(c)(i), a feasibility consultant may adjust the draft feasibility study report before finalizing the report.

(6) Upon completion of the feasibility study and preparation of a written report, the feasibility consultant shall deliver a copy of the report to:

(a) the applicable community council;

(b) the request sponsors;

(c) the municipal services district that provides service to the community council area;

(d) the county in which the community council area is located; and

(e) each municipality that borders any part of the community council area.

(7) (a) (i) If the request sponsors or the county in which the community council area is located disagrees with any aspect of a feasibility study report or, if applicable, a feasibility study report modified under Subsection (7)(c), the request sponsors or county may, within 20 business days after receiving a copy of the report under Subsection (6) or a copy of a modified feasibility study report under Subsection (7)(c)(ii), submit to the feasibility consultant a written objection detailing the disagreement.

(ii) Request sponsors who submit a written objection under Subsection (7)(a)(i) shall simultaneously deliver a copy of the objection to the county.

(iii) A county that submits a written objection under Subsection (7)(a)(i) shall simultaneously deliver a copy of the objection to the request sponsors.

(b) (i) The request sponsors or a county may, within 10 business days after receiving an objection under Subsection (7)(a)(i), submit to the feasibility consultant a written response to the objection.

(ii) The request sponsors who submit a response under Subsection (7)(b)(i) shall simultaneously deliver a copy of the response to the county.

(iii) A county that submits a response under Subsection (7)(b)(i) shall simultaneously deliver a copy of the response to the request sponsors.

(c) If an objection is filed under Subsection (7)(a)(i), the feasibility consultant shall, within 20 business days after the expiration of the deadline under Subsection (7)(b)(i) for submitting a response to an objection:

(i) (A) modify the feasibility study report; or

(B) explain in writing why the feasibility consultant is not modifying the feasibility study report; and

(ii) deliver the modified feasibility study report or written explanation to:

(A) the request sponsors;

(B) the municipal services district that provides service to the community council area;

(C) the county in which the community council area is located; and

(D) each municipality that borders any part of the community council area.

(d) Within seven days after the expiration of the deadline under Subsection (7)(a)(i) for submitting an objection or, if an objection is submitted, within seven days after receiving a modified feasibility study report or written explanation under Subsection (7)(c), but at least 30 days before a public hearing under Subsection (9), the applicable community council shall:

(i) make a copy of the report available to the public at the primary office of the applicable community council; and

(ii) post a copy of the report on the website of the applicable community council, if the applicable community council has a website.

(8) (a) A feasibility study report or, if a feasibility study report is modified under Subsection (7), a modified feasibility study report may not be challenged unless the basis of the challenge is that the report results from collusion or fraud.

(b) Subsection (8)(a) does not apply to an objection to a feasibility study report or a modified feasibility study report under Subsection (7).

(9) (a) Following the expiration of the deadline under Subsection (7)(a)(i) for submitting an objection, or, if an objection is submitted under Subsection (7)(a)(i), following the applicable community council's receipt of the modified feasibility study report or written explanation under Subsection (7)(c), the applicable community council shall, at the applicable community council's next regular meeting, schedule at least one public hearing to be held:

(i) within the following 60 days; and

(ii) for the purpose of allowing:

(A) the feasibility consultant to present the results of the feasibility study; and

(B) the public to become informed about the feasibility study results, to ask the feasibility consultant questions about the feasibility study, and to express the public's views about the proposed incorporation of the community council area.

(b) At a public hearing under Subsection (9)(a), the applicable community council shall:

(i) provide a copy of the feasibility study for public review; and

(ii) allow the public to:

(A) ask the feasibility consultant questions about the feasibility study; and

(B) express the public's views about the advantages and disadvantages of the proposed incorporation as compared to a potential annexation under Section [~~10-2-429~~]10-2-814.

(c) (i) The applicable community council shall publish notice of a hearing under Subsection (9)(a), as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102, for three consecutive weeks immediately before the public hearing.

(ii) A notice under Subsection (9)(c)(i) shall state:

(A) the date, time, and location of the public hearing; and

(B) that a copy of the feasibility study report may be obtained, free of charge, at the office of the applicable community council or, if applicable, on the applicable community council's website.

(10) A community council area may not incorporate if the feasibility study concludes that incorporation of the community council area is not functionally and financially feasible.

(11) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part:

(a) the lieutenant governor shall pay the fees and costs of a feasibility consultant using funds from the Municipal Incorporation Expendable Special Revenue Fund under Section 10-2a-220; and

(b) if the community council area incorporates as a municipality, the newly incorporated municipality shall pay incorporation costs to the lieutenant governor and county as provided in Section 10-2a-220.

(12) Unless the request sponsors and county agree otherwise, conditions that a feasibility study report indicates are necessary to be met for the incorporation of the community council area to be functionally and financially feasible for the proposed community council municipality are binding on the community council municipality and county if the incorporation occurs.

Section 29. Section 10-2a-207 is amended to read:

10-2a-207

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Additional public hearings on feasibility study results -- Notice of hearings.

(1) As used in this section, "specified landowner" means the same as that term is defined in Section 10-2a-204.5.

(2) If the results of the feasibility study or supplemental feasibility study comply with Subsection 10-2a-205(5)(a), the county clerk shall, after receipt of the results of the feasibility study or supplemental feasibility study, conduct additional public hearings in accordance with this section.

(3) (a) If an area proposed for incorporation is approved for annexation after the feasibility study or supplemental feasibility study is conducted but before the county clerk conducts the second public hearing under Subsection (4), the county clerk may not conduct the second public hearing under Subsection (4) unless:

(i) the sponsors of the feasibility study file a modified feasibility request in accordance with Section 10-2a-206; and

(ii) the results of the supplemental feasibility study comply with Subsection 10-2a-205(5)(a).

(b) For purposes of Subsection (3)(a), an area is approved for annexation if a municipal legislative body:

(i) approves an annexation petition proposing the annexation of an area that is part of the area proposed for incorporation under Section [~~10-2-407 or 10-2-408~~]10-2-810 or 10-2-811; or

(ii) adopts an ordinance approving the annexation of an area that is part of the area proposed for incorporation under Section [~~10-2-418~~]10-2-812.

(4) The county clerk shall conduct the second public hearing:

(a) within 60 days after the day on which the county clerk receives the results under Subsection (2) or (3)(a)(ii);

(b) at a location approved by the lieutenant governor within or near the proposed municipality; and

(c) to allow the feasibility consultant to present the results of the feasibility study and inform the public about the results.

(5) The county clerk shall:

(a) conduct an additional public hearing following each occasion when, after the day of the second public hearing, the county clerk receives the results of a supplemental feasibility study that comply with Subsection 10-2a-205(5); and

(b) hold the public hearing described in Subsection (5)(a):

(i) within 30 days after the day on which the county clerk receives the results of the supplemental feasibility study;

(ii) at a location approved by the lieutenant governor within or near the proposed municipality;

(iii) to inform the public that the feasibility presented to the public at the preceding public hearing does not apply; and

(iv) to allow the feasibility consultant to present the results of the supplemental feasibility study and inform the public about the results.

(6) At each public hearing required under this section, the county clerk shall:

(a) provide a map or plat of the boundary of the proposed municipality;

(b) provide a copy of the applicable feasibility study for public review;

(c) allow members of the public to express views about the proposed incorporation, including views about the proposed boundaries; and

(d) allow the public to ask the feasibility consultant questions about the applicable feasibility study.

(7) The county clerk shall publish notice of each public hearing required under this section, and Section 10-2a-204.3, for the proposed municipality, as a class B notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least three weeks before the day of the public hearing.

(8) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (8)(b), for a hearing described in this section, the notice described in Subsection (7) shall:

(i) include the feasibility study summary described in Subsection 10-2a-205(2)(c)(iii); and

(ii) indicate that a full copy of the feasibility study is available on the county's website and for inspection at the county clerk's office.

(b) Instead of publishing the feasibility summary under Subsection (8)(a)(i), the county clerk may publish a statement that specifies the following sources where a resident within, or the owner of real property located within, the proposed municipality, may view or obtain a copy of the feasibility study:

(i) the lieutenant governor's website;

(ii) the county's website;

(iii) the physical address of the county clerk's office; and

(iv) a mailing address and telephone number.

Section 30. Section 10-2a-210 is amended to read:

10-2a-210

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Incorporation election -- Notice of election -- Voter information pamphlet.

(1) (a) If the county clerk certifies a petition for incorporation under Subsection 10-2a-209(1)(b), the lieutenant governor shall schedule an incorporation election for the proposed municipality described in the petition for incorporation to be held on the date of the next regular general election described in Section 20A-1-201, or the next municipal general election described in Section 20A-1-202, that is at least 65 days after the day on which the county clerk certifies the petition for incorporation.

(b) (i) The lieutenant governor shall direct the county legislative body of the county in which the proposed municipality is located to hold the election on the date that the lieutenant governor schedules under Subsection (1)(a).

(ii) The county legislative body shall hold the election as directed by the lieutenant governor under Subsection (1)(b)(i).

(2) The county clerk shall provide notice of the election for the area proposed to be incorporated, as a class B notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least three weeks before the day of the election.

(3) (a) The notice described in Subsection (2) shall include:

(i) a statement of the contents of the petition for incorporation;

(ii) a description of the area proposed to be incorporated as a municipality;

(iii) a statement of the date and time of the election and the location of polling places; and

(iv) except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), the feasibility study summary described in Subsection 10-2a-205(2)(c)(iii) and a statement that a full copy of the study is available on the county's website and for inspection at the county offices.

(b) Instead of including the feasibility summary under Subsection (3)(a)(iv), the notice may include a statement that specifies the following sources where a registered voter in the area proposed to be incorporated may view or obtain a copy of the feasibility study:

(i) the county's website;

(ii) the physical address of the county clerk office; and

(iii) a mailing address and telephone number.

(4) (a) In addition to the notice described in Subsection (2), the county clerk shall publish and distribute, before the incorporation election is held, a voter information pamphlet:

(i) in accordance with the procedures and requirements of Section 20A-7-402;

(ii) in consultation with the lieutenant governor; and

(iii) in a manner that the county clerk determines is adequate, subject to Subsections (4)(a)(i) and (ii).

(b) The voter information pamphlet described in Subsection (4)(a):

(i) shall inform the public of the proposed incorporation; and

(ii) may include written statements, printed in the same font style and point size, from proponents and opponents of the proposed incorporation.

(5) An individual may not vote in an incorporation election under this section unless the individual is a registered voter who is a resident, as defined in Section 20A-1-102, within the boundaries of the proposed municipality.

(6) (a) Subject to Subsection (6)(b), if a majority of those who vote in an incorporation election held under this section cast votes in favor of incorporation, the area shall incorporate.

(b) (i) As used in this Subsection (6)(b):

(A) "Approving separate area" means a separate area in which a majority of those voting in an incorporation election for the incorporation of a community council area vote in favor of incorporation.

(B) "Separate area" means an unincorporated island, as defined in Section [~~10-2-429~~]10-2-814, that is within a community council area.

(ii) If a majority of those within a separate area voting in an incorporation election for the incorporation of a community council area vote against incorporation, that separate area is excluded from the incorporation.

(iii) Approving separate areas are incorporated as a municipality if the combined total population within all approving separate areas is at least 80% of the population within the community council area.

. Public hearings on feasibility study results -- Notice of hearings.

(1) If the results of the feasibility study or supplemental feasibility study comply with Subsection 10-2a-504(4), the lieutenant governor shall, after receipt of the results of the feasibility study or supplemental feasibility study, conduct public hearings in accordance with this section.

(2) (a) If a portion of the proposed preliminary municipality area is approved for annexation after the feasibility study or supplemental feasibility study is conducted but before the lieutenant governor conducts a public hearing under Subsection (4), the lieutenant governor may not conduct the public hearing under Subsection (4) unless:

(i) the sponsors of the feasibility study file a modified feasibility request in accordance with Section 10-2a-505; and

(ii) the results of the supplemental feasibility study comply with Subsection 10-2a-504(4).

(b) For purposes of Subsection (2)(a), an area is approved for annexation if a municipal legislative body:

(i) approves an annexation petition proposing the annexation of an area that is part of the proposed preliminary municipality area under Section [~~10-2-407 or 10-2-408~~]10-2-810 or 10-2-811; or

(ii) adopts an ordinance approving the annexation of an area that is part of the proposed preliminary municipality area under Section [~~10-2-418~~]10-2-812.

(3) The lieutenant governor shall conduct a public hearing:

(a) within 60 days after the day on which the lieutenant governor receives the results under Subsection (1) or (2)(a)(ii);

(b) at a location within or near the proposed preliminary municipality; and

(c) to allow the feasibility consultant to present the results of the feasibility study and inform the public about the results.

(4) The lieutenant governor shall:

(a) conduct an additional public hearing following each occasion when, after the day of the initial public hearing, the lieutenant governor receives the results of a supplemental feasibility study that comply with Subsection 10-2a-504(4); and

(b) hold the public hearing described in Subsection (4)(a):

(i) within 30 days after the day on which the lieutenant governor receives the results of the supplemental feasibility study;

(ii) at a location within or near the proposed preliminary municipality;

(iii) to inform the public that the feasibility presented to the public at the preceding public hearing does not apply; and

(iv) to allow the feasibility consultant to present the results of the supplemental feasibility study and inform the public about the results.

(5) At each public hearing required under this section, the lieutenant governor shall:

(a) provide a map or plat of the boundary of the proposed preliminary municipality;

(b) provide a copy of the applicable feasibility study for public review;

(c) allow members of the public to express views about the proposed preliminary municipality, including views about the proposed boundaries; and

(d) allow the public to ask the feasibility consultant questions about the applicable feasibility study.

(6) The lieutenant governor shall publish notice of each public hearing required under this section for the proposed preliminary municipality area, as a class B notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least three weeks before the day of the public hearing.

(7) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(b), for a hearing described in this section, the notice described in Subsection ~~(7)~~ shall:

(i) include the feasibility study summary described in Subsection 10-2a-504(2)(c)(iii); and

(ii) indicate that a full copy of the feasibility study is available on the lieutenant governor's website and for inspection at the lieutenant governor's office.

(b) Instead of publishing the feasibility summary under Subsection (7)(a)(i), the lieutenant governor may publish a statement that specifies the following sources where a person may view or obtain a copy of the feasibility study:

(i) the lieutenant governor's website;

(ii) the lieutenant governor's office; and

(iii) a mailing address and telephone number.

. Utility and telecommunications services -- Service beyond municipal limits -- Retainage -- Notice of service and agreement.

(1) As used in this section, "public telecommunications service facilities" means the same as that term is defined in Section 10-18-102.

(2) A municipality may:

(a) construct, maintain, and operate waterworks, sewer collection, sewer treatment systems, gas works, electric light works, telecommunications lines, cable television lines, public transportation systems, or public telecommunications service facilities;

(b) authorize the construction, maintenance and operation of the works or systems listed in Subsection (2)(a) by others;

(c) purchase or lease the works or systems listed in Subsection (2)(a) from any person or corporation; and

(d) sell and deliver the surplus product or service capacity of any works or system listed in Subsection (2)(a), not required by the municipality or the municipality's inhabitants, to others beyond the limits of the municipality, except the sale and delivery of:

(i) retail electricity beyond the municipal boundary is governed by Subsections (3) through (8);

(ii) cable television services or public telecommunications services is governed by Subsection (12); and

(iii) water is governed by Sections 10-7-14 and 10-8-22.

(3) If any payment on a contract with a private person, firm, or corporation to construct waterworks, sewer collection, sewer treatment systems, gas works, electric works, telecommunications lines, cable television lines, public transportation systems, or public telecommunications service facilities is retained or withheld, it shall be retained or withheld and released as provided in Section 13-8-5.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), (6), or (10), a municipality may not sell or deliver the electricity produced or distributed by the municipality's electric works constructed, maintained, or operated in accordance with Subsection (2) to a retail customer located beyond the municipality's municipal boundary.

(b) A municipality that provides retail electric service to a customer beyond the municipality's municipal boundary on or before June 15, 2013, may continue to serve that customer if:

(i) on or before December 15, 2013, the municipality provides the electrical corporation, as defined in Section 54-2-1, that is obligated by the municipality's certificate of public convenience and necessity to serve the customer with an accurate and complete verified written notice described in Subsection (4)(c) that identifies each customer served by the municipality beyond the municipality's municipal boundary;

(ii) no later than June 15, 2014, the municipality enters into a written filing agreement for the provision of electric service with the electrical corporation; and

(iii) the Public Service Commission approves the written filing agreement in accordance with Section 54-4-40.

(c) The municipality shall include in the written notice required in Subsection (4)(b)(i) for each customer:

(i) the customer's meter number;

(ii) the location of the customer's meter by street address, global positioning system coordinates, metes and bounds description, or other similar method of meter location;

(iii) the customer's class of service; and

(iv) a representation that the customer was receiving service from the municipality on or before June 15, 2013.

(5) The written filing agreement entered into in accordance with Subsection (4)(b)(ii) shall require the following:

(a) The municipality shall provide electric service to a customer identified in accordance with Subsection (4)(b)(i) unless the municipality and the electrical corporation subsequently agree in writing that the electrical corporation will provide electric service to the customer.

(b) If a customer who is located outside the municipal boundary and who is not identified in accordance with Subsection (4)(b)(i) requests service from the municipality after June 15, 2013, the municipality may not provide that customer electric service unless the municipality submits a request to and enters into a written agreement with the electric corporation in accordance with Subsection (6).

(6) (a) A municipality may submit to the electrical corporation a request to provide electric service to an electric customer described in Subsection (5)(b).

(b) If a municipality submits a request, the electrical corporation shall respond to the request within 60 days.

(c) If the electrical corporation agrees to allow the municipality to provide electric service to the customer:

(i) the electrical corporation and the municipality shall enter into a written agreement;

(ii) the municipality shall agree in the written agreement to subsequently transfer service to the customer described in Subsection (5)(b) if the electrical corporation notifies, in writing, the municipality that the electrical corporation has installed a facility capable of providing electric service to the customer; and

(iii) the municipality may provide the service if:

(A) except as provided in Subsection (6)(c)(iii)(B), the Public Service Commission approves the agreement in accordance with Section 54-4-40; or

(B) for an electrical cooperative that meets the requirements of Subsection 54-7-12(7), the governing board of the electrical cooperative approves the agreement.

(d) The municipality or the electrical corporation may terminate the agreement for the provision of electric service if the Public Service Commission imposes a condition authorized in Section 54-4-40 that is a material change to the agreement.

(7) If the municipality and electrical corporation make a transfer described in Subsection (6)(c)(ii):

(a) (i) the municipality shall transfer the electric service customer to the electrical corporation; and

(ii) the electrical corporation shall provide electric service to the customer; and

(b) the municipality shall transfer a facility in accordance with and for the value as provided in Section [~~10-2-421~~]10-2-817.

(8) (a) In accordance with Subsection (8)(b), the municipality shall establish a reasonable mechanism for resolving potential future complaints by an electric customer located outside the municipality's municipal boundary.

(b) The mechanism shall require:

(i) that the rates and conditions of service for a customer outside the municipality's boundary are at least as favorable as the rates and conditions of service for a similarly situated customer within the municipality's boundary; and

(ii) if the municipality provides a general rebate, refund, or other payment to a customer located within the municipality's boundary, that the municipality also provide the same general rebate, refund, or other payment to a similarly situated customer located outside the municipality's boundary.

(9) The municipality is relieved of any obligation to transfer a customer described in Subsection (5)(b) or facility used to serve the customer in accordance with Subsection (6)(c)(ii) if the municipality annexes the property on which the customer is being served.

(10) (a) A municipality may provide electric service outside of the municipality's municipal boundary to a facility that is solely owned and operated by the municipality for municipal service.

(b) A municipality's provision of electric service to a facility that is solely owned and operated by the municipality does not expand the municipality's electric service area.

(11) Nothing in this section expands or diminishes the ability of a municipality to enter into a wholesale electrical sales contract with another municipality that serves electric customers to sell and deliver wholesale electricity to the other municipality.

(12) A municipality's actions under this section related to works or systems involving public telecommunications services or cable television services are subject to the requirements of Chapter 18, Municipal Cable Television and Public Telecommunications Services Act.

(b) "Subdivision" includes:

(i) the division or development of land, whether by deed, metes and bounds description, devise and testacy, map, plat, or other recorded instrument, regardless of whether the division includes all or a portion of a parcel or lot; and

(ii) except as provided in Subsection ~~(68)(c)~~(c), divisions of land for residential and nonresidential uses, including land used or to be used for commercial, agricultural, and industrial purposes.

(c) "Subdivision" does not include:

(i) a bona fide division or partition of agricultural land for the purpose of joining one of the resulting separate parcels to a contiguous parcel of unsubdivided agricultural land, if neither the resulting combined parcel nor the parcel remaining from the division or partition violates an applicable land use ordinance;

(ii) a boundary line agreement recorded with the county recorder's office between owners of adjoining parcels adjusting the mutual boundary in accordance with Section 10-9a-524 if no new parcel is created;

(iii) a recorded document, executed by the owner of record:

(A) revising the legal descriptions of multiple parcels into one legal description encompassing all such parcels; or

(B) joining a lot to a parcel;

(iv) a boundary line agreement between owners of adjoining subdivided properties adjusting the mutual lot line boundary in accordance with Sections 10-9a-524 and 10-9a-608 if:

(A) no new dwelling lot or housing unit will result from the adjustment; and

(B) the adjustment will not violate any applicable land use ordinance;

(v) a bona fide division of land by deed or other instrument if the deed or other instrument states in writing that the division:

(A) is in anticipation of future land use approvals on the parcel or parcels;

(B) does not confer any land use approvals; and

(C) has not been approved by the land use authority;

(vi) a parcel boundary adjustment;

(vii) a lot line adjustment;

(viii) a road, street, or highway dedication plat;

(ix) a deed or easement for a road, street, or highway purpose; or

(x) any other division of land authorized by law.

~~(69)~~ (a) "Subdivision amendment" means an amendment to a recorded subdivision in accordance with Section 10-9a-608 that:

(i) vacates all or a portion of the subdivision;

(ii) alters the outside boundary of the subdivision;

(iii) changes the number of lots within the subdivision;

(iv) alters a public right-of-way, a public easement, or public infrastructure within the subdivision; or

(v) alters a common area or other common amenity within the subdivision.

(b) "Subdivision amendment" does not include a lot line adjustment, between a single lot and an adjoining lot or parcel, that alters the outside boundary of the subdivision.

(ii) a share in a water company, as defined in Section 73-3-3.5.

~~(76)~~ "Zoning map" means a map, adopted as part of a land use ordinance, that depicts land use zones, overlays, or districts.

Section 36. Section 10-9a-205 is amended to read:

10-9a-205

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Notice of public hearings and public meetings on adoption or modification of land use regulation.

(1) Each municipality shall give:

(a) notice of the date, time, and place of the first public hearing to consider the adoption or any modification of a land use regulation; and

(b) notice of each public meeting on the subject.

(2) Each notice of a public hearing under Subsection (1)(a) shall be:

(a) mailed to each affected entity at least 10 calendar days before the public hearing; and

(b) (i) provided for the area directly affected by the land use ordinance change, as a class B notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least 10 calendar days before the day of the public hearing[-]; or

(ii) if the proposed land use ordinance adoption or modification is ministerial in nature, as described in Subsections (6)(a) and (b), provided as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102 for at least 10 calendar days before the day of the public hearing.

(3) In addition to the notice requirements described in Subsections (1) and (2), for any proposed modification to the text of a zoning code, the notice posted in accordance with Subsection (2) shall:

(a) include:

(i) a summary of the effect of the proposed modifications to the text of the zoning code designed to be understood by a lay person; or

(ii) a direct link to the municipality's webpage where a person can find a summary of the effect of the proposed modifications to the text of the zoning code designed to be understood by a lay person; and

(b) be provided to any person upon written request.

(4) Each notice of a public meeting under Subsection (1)(b) shall be provided for the municipality, as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least 24 hours before the meeting.

(5) (a) A municipality shall send a courtesy notice to each owner of private real property whose property is located entirely or partially within a proposed zoning map enactment or amendment at least 10 days before the scheduled day of the public hearing.

(b) The notice shall:

(i) identify with specificity each owner of record of real property that will be affected by the proposed zoning map or map amendments;

(ii) state the current zone in which the real property is located;

(iii) state the proposed new zone for the real property;

(iv) provide information regarding or a reference to the proposed regulations, prohibitions, and permitted uses that the property will be subject to if the zoning map or map amendment is adopted;

(v) state that the owner of real property may no later than 10 days after the day of the first public hearing file a written objection to the inclusion of the owner's property in the proposed zoning map or map amendment;

(vi) state the address where the property owner should file the protest;

(vii) notify the property owner that each written objection filed with the municipality will be provided to the municipal legislative body; and

(viii) state the location, date, and time of the public hearing described in Section 10-9a-502.

(c) If a municipality mails notice to a property owner in accordance with Subsection (2)(b)(i) for a public hearing on a zoning map or map amendment, the notice required in this Subsection (5) may be included in or part of the notice described in Subsection (2)(b)(i) rather than sent separately.

(6) (a) For purpose of the notice requirements in Subsection (2)(b) only, a proposed land use ordinance is ministerial in nature if the proposed land use ordinance is to:

(i) bring the municipality's land use ordinances into compliance with a state or federal law;

(ii) adopt a municipal land use update that affects:

(A) an entire zoning district; or

(B) multiple zoning districts;

(iii) adopt a non-substantive, clerical text amendment to an existing land use ordinance;

(iv) recodify the municipality's existing land use ordinances; or

(v) designate or define an affected area for purposes of a boundary adjustment or annexation.

(b) A proposed land use ordinance may include more than one of the purposes described in Subsection (6)(a) and remain ministerial in nature.

(c) If a proposed land use ordinance includes an adoption or modification not described in Subsection (6)(a):

(i) the proposed land use ordinance is not ministerial in nature, even if the proposed land use ordinance also includes a change or modification described in Subsection (6)(a); and

(ii) the notice requirements of Subsection (2)(b)(i) apply.

Section 37. Section 10-9a-508 is amended to read:

10-9a-508

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Exactions -- Exaction for water interest -- Requirement to offer to original owner property acquired by exaction.

(1) A municipality may impose an exaction or exactions on development proposed in a land use application, including, subject to Subsection (3), an exaction for a water interest, if:

(a) an essential link exists between a legitimate governmental interest and each exaction; and

(b) each exaction is roughly proportionate, both in nature and extent, to the impact of the proposed development.

(2) If a land use authority imposes an exaction for another governmental entity:

(a) the governmental entity shall request the exaction; and

(b) the land use authority shall transfer the exaction to the governmental entity for which it was exacted.

(3) (a) (i) Subject to the requirements of this Subsection (3), a municipality shall base an exaction for a water interest on the culinary water authority's established calculations of projected water interest requirements.

(ii) Except as described in Subsection (3)(a)(iii), a culinary water authority shall base an exaction for a culinary water interest on:

(A) consideration of the system-wide minimum sizing standards established for the culinary water authority by the Division of Drinking Water pursuant to Section 19-4-114; and

(B) the number of equivalent residential connections associated with the culinary water demand for each specific development proposed in the development's land use application, applying lower exactions for developments with lower equivalent residential connections as demonstrated by at least five years of usage data for like land uses within the municipality.

(iii) A municipality may impose an exaction for a culinary water interest that results in less water being exacted than would otherwise be exacted under Subsection (3)(a)(ii) if the municipality, at the municipality's sole discretion, determines there is good cause to do so.

(iv) (A) A municipality shall make public the methodology used to comply with Subsection (3)(a)(ii)(B).

(B) A land use applicant may appeal to the municipality's governing body an exaction calculation used by the municipality under Subsection (3)(a)(ii).

(C) A land use applicant may present data and other information that illustrates a need for an exaction recalculation and the municipality's governing body shall respond with due process.

(v) Upon an applicant's request, the culinary water authority shall provide the applicant with the basis for the culinary water authority's calculations under Subsection (3)(a)(i) on which an exaction for a water interest is based.

(b) A municipality may not impose an exaction for a water interest if the culinary water authority's existing available water interests exceed the water interests needed to meet the reasonable future water requirement of the public, as determined under Subsection 73-1-4(2)(f).

(4) (a) If a municipality plans to dispose of surplus real property that was acquired under this section and has been owned by the municipality for less than 15 years, the municipality shall first offer to reconvey the property, without receiving additional consideration, to the person who granted the property to the municipality.

(b) A person to whom a municipality offers to reconvey property under Subsection (4)(a) has 90 days to accept or reject the municipality's offer.

(c) If a person to whom a municipality offers to reconvey property declines the offer, the municipality may offer the property for sale.

(d) Subsection (4)(a) does not apply to the disposal of property acquired by exaction by a community reinvestment agency.

(5) (a) A municipality may not, as part of an infrastructure improvement, require the installation of pavement on a residential roadway at a width in excess of 32 feet.

(b) Subsection (5)(a) does not apply if a municipality requires the installation of pavement in excess of 32 feet:

(i) in a vehicle turnaround area;

(ii) in a cul-de-sac;

(iii) to address specific traffic flow constraints at an intersection, mid-block crossings, or other areas;

(iv) to address an applicable general or master plan improvement, including transportation, bicycle lanes, trails, or other similar improvements that are not included within an impact fee area;

(v) to address traffic flow constraints for service to or abutting higher density developments or uses that generate higher traffic volumes, including community centers, schools, and other similar uses;

(vi) as needed for the installation or location of a utility which is maintained by the municipality and is considered a transmission line or requires additional roadway width;

(vii) for third-party utility lines that have an easement preventing the installation of utilities maintained by the municipality within the roadway;

(viii) for utilities over 12 feet in depth;

(ix) for roadways with a design speed that exceeds 25 miles per hour;

(x) as needed for flood and stormwater routing;

(xi) as needed to meet fire code requirements for parking and hydrants; or

(xii) as needed to accommodate street parking.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a municipality from approving a road cross section with a pavement width less than 32 feet.

(d) (i) A land use applicant may appeal a municipal requirement for pavement in excess of 32 feet on a residential roadway.

(ii) A land use applicant that has appealed a municipal specification for a residential roadway pavement width in excess of 32 feet may request that the municipality assemble a panel of qualified experts to serve as the appeal authority for purposes of determining the technical aspects of the appeal.

(iii) Unless otherwise agreed by the applicant and the municipality, the panel described in Subsection (5)(d)(ii) shall consist of the following three experts:

(A) one licensed engineer, designated by the municipality;

(B) one licensed engineer, designated by the land use applicant; and

(C) one licensed engineer, agreed upon and designated by the two designated engineers under Subsections (5)(d)(iii)(A) and (B).

(iv) A member of the panel assembled by the municipality under Subsection (5)(d)(ii) may not have an interest in the application that is the subject of the appeal.

(v) The land use applicant shall pay:

(A) 50% of the cost of the panel; and

(B) the municipality's published appeal fee.

(vi) The decision of the panel is a final decision, subject to a petition for review under Subsection (5)(d)(vii).

(vii) Pursuant to Section 10-9a-801, a land use applicant or the municipality may file a petition for review of the decision with the district court within 30 days after the date that the decision is final.

Section 38. Section 10-9a-508.1 is enacted to read:

10-9a-508.1

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Private maintenance of public access amenities prohibited.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Public access amenity" means a physical feature like a trail or recreation area that a municipality designates for public access and use.

(b) "Retail water line" means the same as that term is defined in Section 11-8-4.

(c) "Sewer lateral" means the same as that term is defined in Section 11-8-4.

(d) (i) "Water utility" means a main line or other integral part of a sewer or water utility service.

(ii) "Water utility" does not include a retail water line, privately owned water utility, or sewer lateral.

(2) A municipality may not require a private individual or entity, including a community association or homeowners association, to maintain and be responsible for a public access amenity or water utility in perpetuity unless:

(a) the public access amenity is the property located adjacent to the private property owned by the private individual or entity to the curb line of the street, including park strips and sidewalks; or

(b) the private individual or entity agreed to maintain or be responsible for the public access amenity or water utility in perpetuity in a covenant, utility service agreement, development agreement, or other agreement between the municipality and the private individual or entity.

Section 39. Section 10-9a-509 is amended to read:

10-9a-509

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Applicant's entitlement to land use application approval -- Municipality's requirements and limitations -- Vesting upon submission of development plan and schedule.

(1) (a) (i) An applicant who has submitted a complete land use application as described in Subsection (1)(c), including the payment of all application fees, is entitled to substantive review of the application under the land use regulations:

(A) in effect on the date that the application is complete; and

(B) applicable to the application or to the information shown on the application.

(ii) An applicant is entitled to approval of a land use application if the application conforms to the requirements of the applicable land use regulations, land use decisions, and development standards in effect when the applicant submits a complete application and pays application fees, unless:

(A) the land use authority, on the record, formally finds that a compelling, countervailing public interest would be jeopardized by approving the application and specifies the compelling, countervailing public interest in writing; or

(B) in the manner provided by local ordinance and before the applicant submits the application, the municipality formally initiates proceedings to amend the municipality's land use regulations in a manner that would prohibit approval of the application as submitted.

(b) The municipality shall process an application without regard to proceedings the municipality initiated to amend the municipality's ordinances as described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii)(B) if:

(i) 180 days have passed since the municipality initiated the proceedings; and

(ii) (A) the proceedings have not resulted in an enactment that prohibits approval of the application as submitted; or

(B) during the 12 months prior to the municipality processing the application, or multiple applications of the same type, are impaired or prohibited under the terms of a temporary land use regulation adopted under Section 10-9a-504.

(c) A land use application is considered submitted and complete when the applicant provides the application in a form that complies with the requirements of applicable ordinances and pays all applicable fees.

(d) A subsequent incorporation of a municipality or a petition that proposes the incorporation of a municipality does not affect a land use application approved by a county in accordance with Section 17-27a-508.

(e) Unless a phasing sequence is required in an executed development agreement, a municipality shall, without regard to any other separate and distinct land use application, accept and process a complete land use application.

(f) The continuing validity of an approval of a land use application is conditioned upon the applicant proceeding after approval to implement the approval with reasonable diligence.

(g) A municipality may not impose on an applicant who has submitted a complete application a requirement that is not expressed in:

(i) this chapter;

(ii) a municipal ordinance in effect on the date that the applicant submits a complete application, subject to Subsection 10-9a-509(1)(a)(ii); or

(iii) a municipal specification for public improvements applicable to a subdivision or development that is in effect on the date that the applicant submits an application.

(h) A municipality may not impose on a holder of an issued land use permit or a final, unexpired subdivision plat a requirement that is not expressed:

(i) in a land use permit;

(ii) on the subdivision plat;

(iii) in a document on which the land use permit or subdivision plat is based;

(iv) in the written record evidencing approval of the land use permit or subdivision plat;

(v) in this chapter;

(vi) in a municipal ordinance; or

(vii) in a municipal specification for residential roadways in effect at the time a residential subdivision was approved.

(i) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(j) or (k), a municipality may not withhold issuance of a certificate of occupancy or acceptance of subdivision improvements because of an applicant's failure to comply with a requirement that is not expressed:

(i) in the building permit or subdivision plat, documents on which the building permit or subdivision plat is based, or the written record evidencing approval of the land use permit or subdivision plat; or

(ii) in this chapter or the municipality's ordinances.

(j) A municipality may not unreasonably withhold issuance of a certificate of occupancy where an applicant has met all requirements essential for the public health, public safety, and general welfare of the occupants, in accordance with this chapter, unless:

(i) the applicant and the municipality have agreed in a written document to the withholding of a certificate of occupancy; or

(ii) the applicant has not provided a financial assurance for required and uncompleted public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements in accordance with an applicable local ordinance[~~that the legislative body adopts under this chapter~~].

(k) A municipality may not conduct a final inspection required before issuing a certificate of occupancy for a residential unit that is within the boundary of an infrastructure financing district, as defined in Section 17B-1-102, until the applicant for the certificate of occupancy provides adequate proof to the municipality that any lien on the unit arising from the infrastructure financing district's assessment against the unit under Title 11, Chapter 42, Assessment Area Act, has been released after payment in full of the infrastructure financing district's assessment against that unit.

(l) A municipality:

(i) may require the submission of a private landscaping plan, as defined in Section 10-9a-604.5, before landscaping is installed; and

(ii) may not withhold an applicant's building permit or certificate of occupancy because the applicant has not submitted a private landscaping plan.

(2) A municipality is bound by the terms and standards of applicable land use regulations and shall comply with mandatory provisions of those regulations.

(3) A municipality may not, as a condition of land use application approval, require a person filing a land use application to obtain documentation regarding a school district's willingness, capacity, or ability to serve the development proposed in the land use application.

(4) Upon a specified public agency's submission of a development plan and schedule as required in Subsection 10-9a-305(8) that complies with the requirements of that subsection, the specified public agency vests in the municipality's applicable land use maps, zoning map, hookup fees, impact fees, other applicable development fees, and land use regulations in effect on the date of submission.

(5) (a) If sponsors of a referendum timely challenge a project in accordance with Subsection 20A-7-601(6), the project's affected owner may rescind the project's land use approval by delivering a written notice:

(i) to the local clerk as defined in Section 20A-7-101; and

(ii) no later than seven days after the day on which a petition for a referendum is determined sufficient under Subsection 20A-7-607(5).

(b) Upon delivery of a written notice described in Subsection (5)(a) the following are rescinded and are of no further force or effect:

(i) the relevant land use approval; and

(ii) any land use regulation enacted specifically in relation to the land use approval.

(6) (a) After issuance of a building permit, a municipality may not:

(i) change or add to the requirements expressed in the building permit, unless the change or addition is:

(A) requested by the building permit holder; or

(B) necessary to comply with an applicable state building code; or

(ii) revoke the building permit or take action that has the effect of revoking the building permit.

(b) Subsection (6)(a) does not prevent a municipality from issuing a building permit that contains an expiration date defined in the building permit.

Section 40. Section 10-9a-509.5 is amended to read:

10-9a-509.5

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Review for application completeness -- Substantive application review -- Reasonable diligence required for determination of whether improvements or warranty work meets standards -- Money damages claim prohibited.

(1) (a) Each municipality shall, in a timely manner, determine whether a land use application is complete for the purposes of subsequent, substantive land use authority review.

(b) After a reasonable period of time to allow the municipality diligently to evaluate whether all objective ordinance-based application criteria have been met, if application fees have been paid, the applicant may in writing request that the municipality provide a written determination either that the application is:

(i) complete for the purposes of allowing subsequent, substantive land use authority review; or

(ii) deficient with respect to a specific, objective, ordinance-based application requirement.

(c) Within 30 days of receipt of an applicant's request under this section, the municipality shall either:

(i) mail a written notice to the applicant advising that the application is deficient with respect to a specified, objective, ordinance-based criterion, and stating that the application shall be supplemented by specific additional information identified in the notice; or

(ii) accept the application as complete for the purposes of further substantive processing by the land use authority.

(d) If the notice required by Subsection (1)(c)(i) is not timely mailed, the application shall be considered complete, for purposes of further substantive land use authority review.

(e) (i) The applicant may raise and resolve in a single appeal any determination made under this Subsection (1) to the appeal authority, including an allegation that a reasonable period of time has elapsed under Subsection ~~(1)(a)~~(b).

(ii) The appeal authority shall issue a written decision for any appeal requested under this Subsection (1)(e).

(f) (i) The applicant may appeal to district court the decision of the appeal authority made under Subsection (1)(e).

(ii) Each appeal under Subsection (1)(f)(i) shall be made within 30 days of the date of the written decision.

(2) (a) Each land use authority shall substantively review a complete application and an application considered complete under Subsection (1)(d), and shall approve or deny each application with reasonable diligence.

(b) After a reasonable period of time to allow the land use authority to consider an application, the applicant may in writing request that the land use authority take final action within 45 days from date of service of the written request.

(c) Within 45 days from the date of service of the written request described in Subsection (2)(b):

(i) except as provided in Subsection (2)(c)(ii), the land use authority shall take final action, approving or denying the application; and

(ii) if a landowner petitions for a land use regulation, a legislative body shall take final action by approving or denying the petition.

(d) If the land use authority denies an application processed under the mandates of Subsection (2)(b), or if the applicant has requested a written decision in the application, the land use authority shall include its reasons for denial in writing, on the record, which may include the official minutes of the meeting in which the decision was rendered.

(e) If the land use authority fails to comply with Subsection (2)(c), the applicant may appeal this failure to district court within 30 days of the date on which the land use authority is required to take final action under Subsection (2)(c).

(3) (a) As used in this Subsection (3), an "infrastructure improvement category" includes:

(i) a culinary water system;

(ii) a sanitary sewer system;

(iii) a storm water system;

(iv) a transportation system;

(v) a secondary and irrigation water system;

(vi) public landscaping; or

(vii) public parks, trails, or open space.

(b) With reasonable diligence, each land use authority shall determine whether the installation of required subdivision improvements or the performance of warranty work meets the municipality's adopted standards.

~~(b)~~ (i) An applicant may in writing request the land use authority to accept or reject the applicant's installation of required subdivision improvements or performance of warranty work.

(ii) The land use authority shall accept or reject subdivision improvements within 15 days after receiving an applicant's written request under Subsection ~~(3)(b)(i)~~(c)(i), or as soon as practicable after that 15-day period if inspection of the subdivision improvements is impeded by winter weather conditions.

(iii) [~~The~~]Except as provided in Subsection (3)(c)(iv), (3)(d), or (3)(e), the land use authority shall accept or reject the performance of warranty work within[~~45 days after receiving an applicant's written request under Subsection (3)(b)(i), or as soon as practicable after that 45-day period if inspection of the warranty work is impeded by winter weather conditions~~]:

(A) for a city of a first, second, third, or fourth class, 15 days after the day on which the land use authority receives an applicant's written request under Subsection (3)(c)(i); and

(B) for a city of the fifth class or a town, 30 days after the day on which the land use authority receives an applicant's written request under Subsection (3)(c)(i).

(iv) If winter weather conditions do not reasonably permit a full and complete inspection of warranty work within the relevant time period described in Subsection (3)(c)(iii) so the land use authority is able to accept or reject the warranty work, the land use authority shall:

(A) notify the applicant in writing before the end of the applicable time period described in Subsection (3)(c)(iii)(A) or (3)(c)(iii)(B) that, because of winter weather conditions, the land use authority will require additional time to accept or reject the performance of warranty work; and

(B) complete the inspection of the performance of warranty work and provide the applicant with an acceptance or rejection as soon as practicable.

~~(c)~~ If a land use authority rejects an applicant's performance of warranty work three times, the municipality may take 15 days in addition to the relevant time period described in Subsection (3)(c)(iii) for subsequent inspections of the applicant's warranty work.

(e) (i) If extraordinary circumstances do not permit a land use authority to complete inspection of warranty work within the relevant time period described in Subsection (3)(c)(iii) so the land use authority is able to accept or reject the warranty work, the land use authority shall:

(A) notify the applicant in writing before the end of the applicable time period described in Subsection (3)(c)(iii)(A) or (3)(c)(iii)(B) that, because of the extraordinary circumstances, the land use authority requires additional time to accept or reject the performance of warranty work; and

(B) complete the inspection of the performance of warranty work and provide the applicant with an acceptance or rejection within 30 days after the day on which the relevant time period described in Subsection (3)(c)(iii)(A) or (3)(c)(iii)(B) ends.

(ii) The following situations constitute extraordinary circumstances for purposes of Subsection (3)(e)(i):

(A) the land use authority is processing a request for inspection that substantially exceeds the normal scope of inspection the municipality is customarily required to perform;

(B) the applicant has provided two or more written requests described in Subsection (3)(c)(i) within the same 30-day time period; or

(C) the land use authority is processing an unusually large number of written requests described in Subsection (3)(c)(i) to accept or reject subdivision improvements or performance of warranty work.

(f) (i) If a land use authority determines that the installation of required subdivision improvements or the performance of warranty work does not meet the municipality's adopted standards, the land use authority shall, within 15 days of the day on which the land use authority makes the determination, comprehensively and with specificity list the reasons for the land use authority's determination.

(ii) If the land use authority fails to provide an applicant with the list described in Subsection (3)(f)(i) within the required time period:

(A) the applicant may send written notice to the land use authority requesting the list within five days; and

(B) if the applicant does not receive the list within five days from the day on which the applicant provides the land use authority with written notice as described in Subsection (3)(f)(ii)(A), the applicant may demand, and the land use authority shall provide, a reimbursement equal to 20% of the applicant's improvement completion assurance or security for the warranty work within each infrastructure improvement category.

(g) Subject to the provisions of Section 10-9a-604.5:

(i) within 15 days of the day on which the land use authority determines that an infrastructure improvement within a certain infrastructure improvement category, as described in Subsection (3)(a), meets the municipality's adopted standards for that category of infrastructure improvement and an applicant submits complete as-built drawings to the land use authority, whichever occurs later, the land use authority shall return to the applicant 90% of the applicant's improvement completion assurance allocated toward that infrastructure improvement category; and

(ii) within 15 days of the day on which the warranty period expires and the land use authority determines that an infrastructure improvement within a certain infrastructure improvement category, as described in Subsection (3)(a), meets the municipality's adopted standards for that category of infrastructure improvement, the land use authority shall return to the applicant the remaining 10% of the applicant's improvement completion assurance allocated toward that infrastructure improvement category, plus any remaining portion of a bond described in Subsection 10-9a-604.5(5)(b).

(h) The following acts under this Subsection (3) are administrative acts:

(i) a municipality's return of an applicant's improvement completion assurance, or any portion of an improvement completion assurance, within a category of infrastructure improvements, to the applicant; and

(ii) a municipality's return of an applicant's security for an improvement warranty, or any portion of security for an improvement warranty, within a category of infrastructure improvements, to the applicant.

(4) Subject to Section 10-9a-509, nothing in this section and no action or inaction of the land use authority relieves an applicant's duty to comply with all applicable substantive ordinances and regulations.

(5) There shall be no money damages remedy arising from a claim under this section.

Section 41. Section 10-9a-509.7 is amended to read:

10-9a-509.7

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Transferable development rights.

(1) A municipality may adopt an ordinance:

(a) designating sending zones and receiving zones located wholly within the municipality;

(b) designating a sending zone if the area described in the sending zone is located, at least in part, within the municipality, and the area described in the sending zone that is located outside the municipality complies with Subsection (2);

(c) designating a receiving zone if the area described in the receiving zone is located, at least in part, within the municipality, and the area described in the receiving zone that is located outside the municipality complies with Subsection (2);and

~~(b)~~ allowing the transfer of a transferable development right from a sending zone to a receiving zone.

(2) A municipality may adopt an ordinance designating a sending zone or receiving zone that is located, in part, in another municipality or unincorporated county if the legislative body of every municipality or county with land inside the sending zone or receiving zone adopts an ordinance designating the sending zone or receiving zone.

~~(2)~~ A municipality may not allow the use of a transferable development right unless the municipality adopts an ordinance described in Subsection (1).

Section 42. Section 10-9a-510 is amended to read:

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Limit on fees -- Requirement to itemize fees -- Appeal of fee -- Provider of culinary or secondary water.

(1) A municipality may [~~not~~]impose or collect a fee for reviewing or approving the plans for a commercial or residential building[~~that exceeds~~], not to exceed the lesser of:

(a) the actual cost of performing the plan review; and

(b) 65% of the amount the municipality charges for a building permit fee for that building.

(2) (a) Subject to Subsection ~~(1)~~(b), a municipality may impose and collect [~~only~~]a [~~nominal~~]fee for reviewing and approving identical [~~floor~~]plan

(i) the actual cost of performing the plan review; or

(ii) 30% of the fee that would be imposed and collected under Subsection (1).

(b) A municipality may impose and collect a fee for reviewing an original plan, as defined in Section 10-9a-541, that an applicant submits with the intent that the original plan be used as the basis for a future identical plan submission, the same as any other plan review fee under Subsection (1).

(3) A municipality may not impose or collect a hookup fee that exceeds the reasonable cost of installing and inspecting the pipe, line, meter, and appurtenance to connect to the municipal water, sewer, storm water, power, or other utility system.

(4) A municipality may not impose or collect:

(a) a land use application fee that exceeds the reasonable cost of processing the application or issuing the permit; or

(b) an inspection, regulation, or review fee that exceeds the reasonable cost of performing the inspection, regulation, or review.

(5) (a) If requested by an applicant who is charged a fee or an owner of residential property upon which a fee is imposed, the municipality shall provide an itemized fee statement that shows the calculation method for each fee.

(b) If an applicant who is charged a fee or an owner of residential property upon which a fee is imposed submits a request for an itemized fee statement no later than 30 days after the day on which the applicant or owner pays the fee, the municipality shall no later than 10 days after the day on which the request is received provide or commit to provide within a specific time:

(i) for each fee, any studies, reports, or methods relied upon by the municipality to create the calculation method described in Subsection (5)(a);

(ii) an accounting of each fee paid;

(iii) how each fee will be distributed; and

(iv) information on filing a fee appeal through the process described in Subsection (5)(c).

(c) A municipality shall establish a fee appeal process subject to an appeal authority described in Part 7, Appeal Authority and Variances, and district court review in accordance with Part 8, District Court Review, to determine whether a fee reflects only the reasonable estimated cost of:

(i) regulation;

(ii) processing an application;

(iii) issuing a permit; or

(iv) delivering the service for which the applicant or owner paid the fee.

(6) A municipality may not impose on or collect from a public agency any fee associated with the public agency's development of its land other than:

(a) subject to Subsection (4), a fee for a development service that the public agency does not itself provide;

(b) subject to Subsection (3), a hookup fee; and

(c) an impact fee for a public facility listed in Subsection 11-36a-102(17)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), or (g), subject to any applicable credit under Subsection 11-36a-402(2).

(7) A provider of culinary or secondary water that commits to provide a water service required by a land use application process is subject to the following as if it were a municipality:

(a) Subsections (5) and (6);

(b) Section 10-9a-508; and

(c) Section 10-9a-509.5.

Section 43. Section 10-9a-529 is amended to read:

(c) "Overhead spray irrigation" means above ground irrigation heads that spray water through a nozzle.

(d) "Private landscaping plan" means the same as that term is defined in Section 10-9a-604.5.

~~(d)~~ (i) "Vegetative coverage" means the ground level surface area covered by the exposed leaf area of a plant or group of plants at full maturity.

(ii) "Vegetative coverage" does not mean the ground level surface area covered by the exposed leaf area of a tree or trees.

~~(e)~~ "Water wise landscaping" means any or all of the following:

(i) installation of plant materials suited to the microclimate and soil conditions that can:

(A) remain healthy with minimal irrigation once established; or

(B) be maintained without the use of overhead spray irrigation;

(ii) use of water for outdoor irrigation through proper and efficient irrigation design and water application; or

(iii) use of other landscape design features that:

(A) minimize the need of the landscape for supplemental water from irrigation; or

(B) reduce the landscape area dedicated to lawn or turf.

(2) A municipality may not enact or enforce an ordinance, resolution, or policy that prohibits, or has the effect of prohibiting, a property owner from incorporating water wise landscaping on the property owner's property.

(3) (a) Subject to Subsection (3)(b), Subsection (2) does not prohibit a municipality from requiring a property owner to:

(i) comply with a site plan review, private landscaping plan review, or other review process before installing water wise landscaping;

(ii) maintain plant material in a healthy condition; and

(iii) follow specific water wise landscaping design requirements adopted by the municipality, including a requirement that:

(A) restricts or clarifies the use of mulches considered detrimental to municipal operations;

(B) imposes minimum or maximum vegetative coverage standards; or

(C) restricts or prohibits the use of specific plant materials.

(b) A municipality may not require a property owner to install or keep in place lawn or turf in an area with a width less than eight feet.

(4) A municipality may require a seller of a newly constructed residence to inform the first buyer of the newly constructed residence of a municipal ordinance requiring water wise landscaping.

(5) A municipality shall report to the Division of Water Resources the existence, enactment, or modification of an ordinance, resolution, or policy that implements regional-based water use efficiency standards established by the Division of Water Resources by rule under Section 73-10-37.

(6) A municipality may enforce a municipal landscaping ordinance in compliance with this section.

Section 45. Section 10-9a-541 is enacted to read:

. Identical plan review -- Process -- Indexing of plans -- Prohibitions.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Business day" means Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday, unless the day falls on a federal, state, or municipal holiday.

(b) "Nonidentical plan" means a plan that does not meet the definition of an identical plan in Section 10-9a-103.

(c) "Original plan" means a floor plan that an applicant intends to:

(i) replicate in the future; and

(ii) use as the basis for the submission of an identical plan.

(2) An applicant may submit, and a municipality shall review, an identical plan as described in this section.

(3) At the time of submitting an identical plan for review to a municipality, an applicant shall:

(a) mark the floor plan as "identical plans";

(b) identify in writing:

(i) the building permit number the municipality issued for the original plan:

(A) that was previously approved by the municipality; and

(B) to which the submitted floor plan qualifies as an identical plan; or

(ii) the identifying index number assigned by the municipality to the original plan, as described in Subsection (5)(b); and

(c) identify the site on which the applicant intends to implement the identical plan.

(4) Beginning May 7, 2025, an applicant that intends to submit an identical plan for review to a municipality shall:

(a) indicate, at the time of submitting an original plan to the municipality for review and approval, that the applicant intends to use the original plan as the basis for submitting a future identical plan if the original plan is approved by the municipality; and

(b) identify:

(i) the name or other identifier of the original plan; and

(ii) the zone the building will be located in, if the municipality approves the original plan.

(5) Upon approving an original plan and receiving the information described in Subsection (4), a municipality shall:

(a) file and index the original plan for future reference against an identical plan later submitted under Subsection (2); and

(b) provide the applicant with an identifying index number for the original plan.

(6) A municipality that receives a submission under Subsection (2) shall review and compare the submitted identical plan to the original plan to ensure:

(a) the identical plan and original plan are substantially identical; and

(b) no structural changes have been made from the original plan.

(7) Nothing in this section prohibits a municipality from conducting a site review and requiring geological analysis of the proposed site identified by the applicant under Subsection (3)(c).

(8) A municipality shall:

(a) review a submitted identical plan for compliance with this section; and

(b) approve or reject the identical plan within five business days after the day on which the identical plan was submitted under Subsection (2).

(9) An applicant that submits a nonidentical plan to a municipality as an identical plan, with knowledge that the nonidentical plan does not qualify as an identical plan and with intent to deceive the municipality:

(a) may be fined by the municipality receiving the submission of the nonidentical plan:

(i) in an amount not to exceed three times the building permit fee, if the municipality approved the nonidentical plan as an identical plan before discovering the submission did not qualify as an identical plan; or

(ii) in an amount equal to the building permit fee that would have been issued for the nonidentical plan, if the municipality did not approve the nonidentical plan before discovering the submission did not qualify as an identical plan; and

(b) is prohibited from submitting an identical plan for review and approval under this section for a period of two years from the day on which the municipality discovers the nonidentical plan identified as an identical plan in the applicant's submission did not qualify as an identical plan.

(10) A municipality may impose a criminal penalty, as described in Section 10-3-703, for an applicant that knowingly violates the prohibition described in Subsection (9)(b).

Section 46. Section 10-9a-542, which is renumbered from Section 10-6-160 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~10-6-160~~]10-9a-542

~~(i)~~ "Technical nature" means a characteristic that places an item outside the training and expertise of an individual who regularly performs plan reviews.

(2) (a) If a [~~city~~]municipality collects a fee for the inspection of a construction project, the [~~city~~]municipality shall ensure that the construction project receives a prompt inspection as described in Subsection (2)(b).

(b) If a [~~city~~]municipality cannot provide a building inspection within three business days after the day on which the [~~city~~]municipality receives the request for the inspection, the building permit applicant may engage a third-party inspection firm from the third-party inspection firm list described in Section 15A-1-105.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(b), if an applicant requests that an inspection take place on a date that is more than three days from the day on which the applicant requests the inspection, the [~~city~~]municipality shall conduct the inspection on the date requested.

(d) If an inspector identifies one or more violations of the State Construction Code or State Fire Code during an inspection, the inspector shall give the permit holder written notification that:

(i) identifies each violation;

(ii) upon request by the permit holder, includes a reference to each applicable provision of the State Construction Code or State Fire Code; and

(iii) is delivered:

(A) in hardcopy or by electronic means; and

(B) the day on which the inspection occurs.

(3) (a) (i) A municipality that receives an application for a plan review shall determine if the application is complete, as described in Subsection (12), within the screening period.

(ii) If the municipality determines an application for a plan review is complete as described in Subsection (12) within the screening period, the municipality shall begin the plan review process described in Subsection (4).

(b) If the municipality determines that an application for a plan review is not complete as described in Subsection (12), and if the municipality notifies the applicant of the municipality's determination:

(i) before 5 p.m. on the last day of the screening period, the municipality may:

(A) pause the screening period until the applicant ensures the application meets the requirements of Subsection (12); or

(B) reject the incomplete application; or

(ii) after 5 p.m. on the last day of the screening period, the municipality may not pause the screening period and shall begin the plan review process described in Subsection (4).

(c) If an application is rejected as described in Subsection (3)(b)(i)(B) and an applicant resubmits the application, the resubmission begins a new screening period in which the municipality shall review the resubmitted application to determine if the application is complete as described in Subsection (12).

(d) If the municipality gives notice of an incomplete application after 5 p.m. on the last day of the screening period, the municipality:

(i) shall immediately notify the applicant that the municipality has determined the application is not complete and the basis for the determination;

(ii) may not, except as provided in Subsection (3)(d)(iii), pause the relevant time period described in Subsection (4); and

(iii) may pause the relevant time period described in Subsection (4)(a) or (b) as described in Subsection (4)(c).

~~(3)~~ (a) [~~A city~~]Except as provided in Subsection (7), once a municipality determines an application is complete, or proceeds to review an incomplete application for plan review under Subsection (3)(b)(ii), the municipality shall complete a plan review of a construction project for a one[~~to~~]- or two-family dwelling or townhome by no later than 14 business days after the day on which the [~~applicant submits a complete building permit application to the city~~]screening period for the application ends.

(b) [~~A city~~]Except as provided in Subsection (7), once a municipality determines an application is complete, or proceeds to review an incomplete application for plan review under Subsection (3)(b)(ii), the municipality shall complete a plan review of a construction project for a residential structure built under the [~~International Building~~]State Construction Code [~~, not including~~]that is not a one- or two-family dwelling, townhome, or a lodging establishment, by no later than 21 business days after the day on which the [~~applicant submits a complete building permit application to the city~~]screening period for the application ends.

[~~(c) (i) Subject to Subsection (3)(c)(ii), if a city does not complete a plan review before the time period described in Subsection (3)(a) or (b) expires, an applicant may request that the city complete the plan review.~~]

[~~(ii) If an applicant makes a request under Subsection (3)(c)(i), the city shall perform the plan review no later than:~~]

[~~(A) for a plan review described in Subsection (3)(a), 14 days from the day on which the applicant makes the request; or~~]

[~~(B) for a plan review described in Subsection (3)(b), 21 days from the day on which the applicant makes the request.~~]

~~(d)~~ If a municipality gives notice of an incomplete application as described in Subsection (3)(d), the municipality:

(i) may pause the time period described in Subsection (4)(a) or (b):

(A) within the last five days of the relevant time period; and

(B) until the applicant provides the municipality with the information necessary to consider the application complete under Subsection (12); and

(ii) shall resume the relevant time period upon receipt of the information necessary to consider the application complete; and

(iii) may, if necessary, use five additional days beginning the day on which the municipality receives the information described in Subsection (4)(c)(ii) to consider whether the application meets the requirements for a building permit, even if the five additional days extend beyond the relevant time period described in Subsection 4(a) or (b).

(d) If, at the conclusion of plan review, the municipality determines the application meets the requirements for a building permit, the municipality shall approve the application and, subject to Subsection (10)(b), issue the building permit to the applicant.

(5) (a) A municipality may utilize another government entity to determine if an application is complete or perform a plan review, in whole or in part.

(b) A municipality that utilizes another government entity to determine if an application is complete or perform a plan review, as described in Subsection (5)(a), shall:

(i) notify any other government entities, including water providers, within 24 hours of receiving any building permit application; and

(ii) provide the government entity all documents necessary to determine if an application is complete or perform a plan review, in whole or in part, as requested by the municipality.

(6) A government entity determining if an application is complete or performing a plan review, in whole or in part, as requested by a municipality, shall:

(a) comply with the requirements of this chapter; and

(b) notify the municipality within the screening period whether the application, or a portion of the application, is complete.

(7) An applicant may:

~~(i)~~ waive the plan review time requirements described in [~~this Subsection (3)~~]Subsection (4); or

~~(ii)~~ with the [~~city's~~]municipality's written consent, establish an alternative plan review time requirement.

~~(4)~~ (a) A [~~city~~]municipality may not enforce a requirement to have a plan review if:

~~(a)~~ the [~~city~~]municipality does not complete the plan review within the relevant time period described in Subsection ~~(3)(a) or (b)~~; and

~~(b)~~ a licensed architect or structural engineer, or both when required by law, stamps the plan.

(b) If a municipality is prohibited from enforcing a requirement to have a plan review under Subsection (8)(a), the municipality shall return to the applicant the plan review fee.

~~(5)~~ (a) A [~~city~~]municipality may attach to a reviewed plan a list that includes:

(i) items with which the [~~city~~]municipality is concerned and may enforce during construction; and

(ii) building code violations found in the plan.

(b) A [~~city~~]municipality may not require an applicant to redraft a plan if the city requests minor changes to the plan that the list described in Subsection ~~(5)(a)~~(a) identifies.

(c) A [~~city~~]municipality may only require a single resubmittal of plans for a one- or two-family dwelling or townhome if [~~the resubmission is required to address deficiencies identified by a third-party review of a geotechnical report or geological report~~]deficiencies in the plan would affect the site plan interaction or footprint of the design.

~~(6)~~ (a) If a [~~city~~]municipality charges a fee for a building permit, the [~~city~~]municipality may not refuse payment of the fee at the time the applicant submits [~~a building permit~~]an application under Subsection (3).

(b) If a municipality charges a fee for a building permit and does not require the fee for a building permit be included in an application for plan review, upon approval of an application for plan review under Subsection (4)(d), the municipality may require the applicant to pay the fee for the building permit before the municipality issues the building permit.

~~(7)~~ A [~~city~~]municipality may not limit the number of [~~building permit~~]applications submitted under Subsection (3).

~~(8)~~ For purposes of Subsection (3), [~~a building permit~~]an application for plan review is complete if the application contains:

(a) the name, address, and contact information of:

(i) the applicant; and

(ii) the construction manager/general contractor, as defined in Section 63G-6a-103, for the construction project;

(b) a site plan for the construction project that:

(i) is drawn to scale;

(ii) includes a north arrow and legend; and

(iii) provides specifications for the following:

(A) lot size and dimensions;

(B) setbacks and overhangs for setbacks;

(C) easements;

(D) property lines;

(E) topographical details, if the slope of the lot is greater than 10%;

(F) retaining walls;

(G) hard surface areas;

(H) curb and gutter elevations as indicated in the subdivision documents;

(I) existing and proposed utilities, including water[~~meter and sewer lateral location~~], sewer, and subsurface drainage facilities;

(J) street names;

(K) driveway locations;

(L) defensible space provisions and elevations, if required by the Utah Wildland Urban Interface Code adopted under Section 15A-2-103; and

(M) the location of the nearest hydrant;

(c) construction plans and drawings, including:

(i) elevations, only if the construction project is new construction;

(ii) floor plans for each level, including the location and size of doors[~~and~~], windows, and egress;

(iii) foundation, structural, and framing detail; [~~and~~]

(iv) electrical, mechanical, and plumbing design;

(v) a licensed architect's or structural engineer's stamp, when required by law; and

(vi) fire suppression details, when required by fire code;

(d) documentation of energy code compliance;

(e) structural calculations, except for trusses;

(f) a geotechnical report, including a slope stability evaluation and retaining wall design, if:

(i) the slope of the lot is greater than 15%; and

(ii) required by the city; [~~and~~]

(g) a statement indicating[~~that actual construction will comply with applicable local ordinances and building codes.~~]:

(i) before land disturbance occurs on the subject property, the applicant will obtain a storm water permit; and

(ii) during actual construction, the applicant shall comply with applicable local ordinances and building codes; and

(h) the fees, if any, established by ordinance for the municipality to perform a plan review.

(13) A municipality may, at the municipality's discretion, utilize automated review to fulfill, in whole or in part, the municipality's obligation to conduct a plan review described in this section.

Section 47. Section 10-9a-604.5 is amended to read:

10-9a-604.5

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Subdivision plat recording or development activity before required landscaping or infrastructure is completed -- Improvement completion assurance -- Improvement warranty.

(1) As used in this section[~~,~~]:

(a) "Private landscaping plan" means a proposal:

(i) to install landscaping on a lot owned by a private individual or entity; and

(ii) submitted to a municipality by the private individual or entity, or on behalf of a private individual or entity, that owns the lot.

(b) [~~"public~~]"Public landscaping improvement" means landscaping that an applicant is required to install to comply with published installation and inspection specifications for public improvements that:

~~(a)~~ will be dedicated to and maintained by the municipality; or

~~(b)~~ are associated with and proximate to trail improvements that connect to planned or existing public infrastructure.

(2) A land use authority shall establish objective inspection standards for acceptance of a public landscaping improvement or infrastructure improvement that the land use authority requires.

(3) (a) [~~Before~~]Except as provided in Subsection (3)(d) or (e), before an applicant conducts any development activity or records a plat, the applicant shall:

(i) complete any required public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements; or

(ii) post an improvement completion assurance for any required public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements.

(b) If an applicant elects to post an improvement completion assurance, the applicant shall in accordance with Subsection (5) provide completion assurance for:

(i) completion of 100% of the required public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements; or

(ii) if the municipality has inspected and accepted a portion of the public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements, 100% of the incomplete or unaccepted public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements.

(c) A municipality shall:

(i) establish a minimum of two acceptable forms of completion assurance;

(ii) (A) if an applicant elects to post an improvement completion assurance, allow the applicant to post an assurance that meets the conditions of this [~~title,~~]chapter and any local ordinances; and

(B) if a municipality accepts cash deposits as a form of completion assurance and the applicant elects to post a cash deposit as a form of completion assurance, place the cash deposit in an interest-bearing account upon receipt and return any earned interest to the applicant with the return of the completion assurance according to the conditions of this chapter and any local ordinances;

(iii) establish a system for the partial release of an improvement completion assurance as portions of required public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements are completed and accepted in accordance with local ordinance; and

(iv) issue or deny a building permit in accordance with Section 10-9a-802 based on the installation of public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements.

(d) A municipality may not require an applicant to post an improvement completion assurance for:

(i) public landscaping improvements or an infrastructure improvement that the municipality has previously inspected and accepted;

(ii) infrastructure improvements that are private and not essential or required to meet the building code, fire code, flood or storm water management provisions, street and access requirements, or other essential necessary public safety improvements adopted in a land use regulation;

(iii) in a municipality where ordinances require all infrastructure improvements within the area to be private, infrastructure improvements within a development that the municipality requires to be private; [~~or~~]

(iv) landscaping improvements that are not public landscaping improvements, unless the landscaping improvements and completion assurance are required under the terms of a development agreement[~~.~~];

(v) a private landscaping plan;

(vi) landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements that an applicant elects to install at the applicant's own risk:

(A) before the plat is recorded;

(B) pursuant to inspections required by the municipality for the infrastructure improvement; and

(C) pursuant to final civil engineering plan approval by the municipality; or

(vii) any individual public landscaping improvement or individual infrastructure improvement when the individual public landscaping improvement or individual infrastructure improvement is also included as part of a separate improvement completion assurance.

(e) (i) A municipality may not:

(A) prohibit an applicant from installing a public landscaping improvement or an infrastructure improvement when the municipality has approved final civil engineering plans for the development activity or plat for which the public landscaping improvement or infrastructure improvement is required; or

(B) require an applicant to sign an agreement, release, or other document inconsistent with this chapter as a condition of posting an improvement completion assurance, security for an improvement warranty, or receiving a building permit.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(e)(i)(A), public infrastructure improvements and infrastructure improvements that are installed by an applicant are subject to inspection by the municipality in accordance with the municipality's adopted inspection standards.

(f) (i) Each improvement completion assurance and improvement warranty posted by an applicant with a municipality shall be independent of any other improvement completion assurance or improvement warranty posted by the same applicant with the municipality.

(ii) Subject to Section 10-9a-509.5, if an applicant has posted a form of security with a municipality for more than one infrastructure improvement or public landscaping improvement, the municipality may not withhold acceptance of an applicant's required subdivision improvements, public landscaping improvement, infrastructure improvements, or the performance of warranty work for the same applicant's failure to complete a separate subdivision improvement, public landscaping improvement, infrastructure improvement, or warranty work under a separate improvement completion assurance or improvement warranty.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(c), as a condition for increased density or other entitlement benefit not currently available under the existing zone, a municipality may require a completion assurance bond for landscaped amenities and common area that are dedicated to and maintained by a homeowners association.

(b) Any agreement regarding a completion assurance bond under Subsection (4)(a) between the applicant and the municipality shall be memorialized in a development agreement.

(c) A municipality may not require a completion assurance bond for or dictate who installs or is responsible for the cost of the landscaping of residential lots or the equivalent open space surrounding single-family attached homes, whether platted as lots or common area.

(5) The sum of the improvement completion assurance required under Subsections (3) and (4) may not exceed the sum of:

(a) 100% of the estimated cost of the public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements, as evidenced by an engineer's estimate or licensed contractor's bid; and

(b) 10% of the amount of the bond to cover administrative costs incurred by the municipality to complete the improvements, if necessary.

(6) (a) [~~At any time before a municipality accepts a public landscaping improvement or infrastructure improvement,~~]Upon an applicant's written request that the land use authority accept or reject the applicant's installation of required subdivision improvements or performance of warranty work as set forth in Section 10-9a-509.5, and for the duration of each improvement warranty period, the municipality may require the applicant to:

~~(a)~~ execute an improvement warranty for the improvement warranty period; and

~~(b)~~ post a cash deposit, surety bond, letter of credit, or other similar security, as required by the municipality, in the amount of up to 10% of the lesser of the:

~~(i)~~ municipal engineer's original estimated cost of completion; or

~~(ii)~~ applicant's reasonable proven cost of completion.

~~(7)~~ A municipality may not require the payment of the deposit of the improvement warranty assurance described in Subsection (6)(a)(i) for an infrastructure improvement or public landscaping improvement before the applicant indicates through written request that the applicant has completed the infrastructure improvement or public landscaping improvement.

(7) When a municipality accepts an improvement completion assurance for public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements for a development in accordance with Subsection (3)(c)(ii), the municipality may not deny an applicant a building permit if the development meets the requirements for the issuance of a building permit under the building code and fire code.

(8) A municipality may not require the submission of a private landscaping plan as part of an application for a building permit.

~~(8)~~ The provisions of this section do not supersede the terms of a valid development agreement, an adopted phasing plan, or the state construction code.

Section 48. Section 10-9a-701 is amended to read:

10-9a-701

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Appeal authority required -- Condition precedent to judicial review -- Appeal authority duties.

(1) (a) Each municipality adopting a land use ordinance shall, by ordinance, establish one or more appeal authorities.

(b) An appeal authority described in Subsection (1)(a) shall hear and decide:

(i) requests for variances from the terms of land use ordinances;

(ii) appeals from land use decisions applying land use ordinances; and

(iii) appeals from a fee charged in accordance with Section 10-9a-510.

(c) An appeal authority described in Subsection (1)(a) may not hear an appeal from the enactment of a land use regulation.

(2) As a condition precedent to judicial review, each adversely affected party shall timely and specifically challenge a land use authority's land use decision, in accordance with local ordinance.

(3) An appeal authority described in Subsection (1)(a):

(a) shall:

(i) act in a quasi-judicial manner; and

(ii) serve as the final arbiter of issues involving the interpretation or application of land use ordinances; and

(b) may not entertain an appeal of a matter in which the appeal authority, or any participating member, had first acted as the land use authority.

(4) By ordinance, a municipality may:

(a) designate a separate appeal authority to hear requests for variances than the appeal authority the municipality designates to hear appeals;

(b) designate one or more separate appeal authorities to hear distinct types of appeals of land use authority decisions;

(c) require an adversely affected party to present to an appeal authority every theory of relief that the adversely affected party can raise in district court;

(d) not require a land use applicant or adversely affected party to pursue duplicate or successive appeals before the same or separate appeal authorities as a condition of an appealing party's duty to exhaust administrative remedies; and

(e) provide that specified types of land use decisions may be appealed directly to the district court.

(5) A municipality may not require a public hearing for a request for a variance or land use appeal.

(6) If the municipality establishes or, prior to the effective date of this chapter, has established a multiperson board, body, or panel to act as an appeal authority, at a minimum the board, body, or panel shall:

(a) notify each of the members of the board, body, or panel of any meeting or hearing of the board, body, or panel;

(b) provide each of the members of the board, body, or panel with the same information and access to municipal resources as any other member;

(c) convene only if a quorum of the members of the board, body, or panel is present; and

(d) act only upon the vote of a majority of the convened members of the board, body, or panel.

Section 49. Section 10-9a-802 is amended to read:

10-9a-802

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Enforcement -- Limitations on a municipality's ability to enforce an ordinance by withholding a permit or certificate.

(1) (a) A municipality or an adversely affected party may, in addition to other remedies provided by law, institute:

(i) injunctions, mandamus, abatement, or any other appropriate actions; or

(ii) proceedings to prevent, enjoin, abate, or remove the unlawful building, use, or act.

(b) A municipality need only establish the violation to obtain the injunction.

(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsections (3) [~~and (4)~~]though (6), a municipality may enforce the municipality's ordinance by withholding a building permit or certificate of occupancy.

(b) It is an infraction to erect, construct, reconstruct, alter, or change the use of any building or other structure within a municipality without approval of a building permit.

(c) A municipality may not issue a building permit unless the plans of and for the proposed erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, or use fully conform to all regulations then in effect.

(d) A municipality may require an applicant to maintain and repair a temporary fire apparatus road during the construction of a structure accessed by the temporary fire apparatus road in accordance with the municipality's adopted standards.

(e) A municipality may require temporary signs to be installed at each street intersection once construction of a new roadway allows passage by a motor vehicle.

(f) A municipality may adopt and enforce any appendix of the International Fire Code, 2021 Edition.

[~~(d)~~]

(3) (a) A municipality may not deny an applicant a building permit or certificate of occupancy because the applicant has not completed an infrastructure improvement:

(i) [~~that is not~~]unless the infrastructure improvement is essential to meet the requirements for the issuance of a building permit or certificate of occupancy under [~~the building code and fire code~~]Title 15A, State Construction and Fire Codes Act; and

(ii) for which the municipality has accepted an improvement completion assurance for a public landscaping improvement, as defined in Section 10-9a-604.5, or an infrastructure improvement for the development.

(b) For purposes of Subsection (3)(a)(i), notwithstanding Section 15A-5-205.6, infrastructure improvement that is essential means:

(i) for a building permit:

(A) operable fire hydrants installed in a manner that is consistent with the municipality's adopted engineering standards; and

(B) for temporary roads used during construction, a properly compacted road base installed in a manner consistent with the municipality's adopted engineering standards;

(ii) for a certificate of occupancy, at the discretion of the municipality, at least one of the following:

(A) a permanent road;

(B) a temporary road covered with asphalt or concrete; or

(C) another method for accessing a structure consistent with Appendix D of the International Fire Code; and

(iii) public infrastructure necessary for the health, life, and safety of the occupant.

(c) A municipality may not adopt an engineering standard that requires an applicant to install a permanent road or a temporary road with asphalt or concrete before receiving a building permit.

~~(3)~~ A municipality may not deny an applicant a building permit or certificate of occupancy [~~based on the lack of completion of a~~]for failure to:

(a) submit a private landscaping plan, as defined in Section 10-9a-604.5; or

(b) complete a landscaping improvement that is not a public landscaping improvement, as defined in Section 10-9a-604.5.

~~(4)~~ A municipality may not withhold a building permit based on the lack of completion of a portion of a public sidewalk to be constructed within a public right-of-way serving a lot where a single-family or two-family residence or town home is proposed in a building permit application if an improvement completion assurance has been posted for the incomplete portion of the public sidewalk.

~~(5)~~ A municipality may not prohibit the construction of a single-family or two-family residence or town home, withhold recording a plat, or withhold acceptance of a public landscaping improvement, as defined in Section 10-9a-604.5, or an infrastructure improvement based on the lack of installation of a public sidewalk if an improvement completion assurance has been posted for the public sidewalk.

~~(6)~~ A municipality may not redeem an improvement completion assurance securing the installation of a public sidewalk sooner than 18 months after the date the improvement completion assurance is posted.

~~(7)~~ A municipality shall allow an applicant to post an improvement completion assurance for a public sidewalk separate from an improvement completion assurance for:

(a) another infrastructure improvement; or

(b) a public landscaping improvement, as defined in Section 10-9a-604.5.

~~(8)~~ A municipality may withhold a certificate of occupancy for a single-family or two-family residence or town home until the portion of the public sidewalk to be constructed within a public right-of-way and located immediately adjacent to the single-family or two-family residence or town home is completed and accepted by the municipality.

Section 50. Section 15A-1-105 is amended to read:

15A-1-105

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Third-party inspection firms.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Building permit applicant" means a person who applies to a local regulator for a building permit.

(b) "Inspection" means a physical examination of all aspects of a structure to ensure compliance with the State Construction Code.

(c) "Local regulator" means the same as that terms is defined in Section 15A-1-102.

(d) "Third-party inspection firm" means an entity that is:

(i) licensed under Title 58, Chapter 56, Building Inspector and Factory Built Housing Licensing Act;

(ii) independent, but may include a building inspector for an adjacent city or county; and

(iii) included on the local regulator's third-party inspection firm list.

(e) "Third-party inspection firm list" means a list of:

(i) for a first, second, third, or fourth class county, or a municipality located within a first, second, third, or fourth class county, three or more third-party inspection firms approved by the local regulator; or

(ii) for a fifth or sixth class county, or a municipality located within a fifth or sixth class county, one or more third-party inspection firms approved by the local regulator.

(2) (a) Subject to the provisions of this section and Subsections [~~10-6-160(2)~~]10-9a-542(2) and [~~17-36-55(2)~~]17-27a-537(2), after submitting a request for inspection, a building permit applicant may engage a third-party inspection firm from the local regulator's third-party inspection firm list to conduct or complete an inspection for the scope of work identified under the original request for inspection.

(b) If a building permit applicant wishes to engage a third-party inspection firm in accordance with Subsection (2)(a), the building permit applicant shall first notify the local regulator of the third-party inspection firm the building permit applicant intends to engage.

(c) Upon completing the inspection, the third-party inspection firm shall submit the inspection report to the local regulator.

(d) (i) The local regulator shall pay the cost of the inspection to the third-party inspection firm after the local regulator receives the third-party inspection report indicating the third-party inspection firm completed the inspection.

(ii) This section does not require a local regulator to pay for an inspection that exceeds the scope of work identified under the original request for inspection.

(3) (a) The local regulator shall issue a certificate of occupancy to the building permit applicant if the third-party inspection firm:

(i) completes the inspection; and

(ii) submits the inspection report to the local regulator.

(b) The local regulator shall promptly issue the certificate of occupancy or letter of completion after the third-party inspection firm submits the final inspection report to the local regulator as described in Subsection (3)(a)(ii).

(4) A local regulator is not liable for any inspection performed by a third-party inspection firm.

Section 51. Section 15A-3-203 is amended to read:

15A-3-203

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Amendments to Chapters 6 through 15 of IRC.

(1) IRC, Section R609.4.1, is deleted.

(2) In IRC, Section N1101.4 (R102.1.1), a new section N1101.4.1 (R102.1.1) is added as follows: "N1101.4.1 National Green Building Standard. Buildings complying with ICC 700-2020 National Green Building Standard and achieving the Gold rating level for the energy efficiency category shall be deemed to exceed the energy efficiency required by this code. The building shall also meet the requirements identified in table N1105.2 and the building thermal envelope efficiency is greater than or equal to levels of efficiency and solar heat gain coefficients (SHGC) in Tables N1102.2.2 and N1102.1.3 of the 2009 IRC."

(3) In IRC, Section N1101.5 (R103.2), all words after the words "herein governed." are deleted and replaced with the following: "Construction documents include all documentation required for building permits shall include only those items specified in Subsection [~~10-5-132(8)~~]10-9a-542(8) or 17-27a-537(8) of the Utah [~~Municipal~~]Code."

(4) In IRC, Section N1101.10.3 (R303.1.3) the following changes are made:

(a) The following is added at the end of the first sentence "or EN 14351-1:2006+A1:2010."

(b) The word "accredited" is replaced with "approved" in the third sentence.

(c) The following sentence is added after the third sentence: "A conversion factor of 5.678 shall be used to convert from U values expressed in SI units: ()/53678=."

(d) After "NFRC 200" the following words are added: "or EN 14351-1:2006+A1:2010," and in the sentence the word "accredited" is replaced with the word "approved."

(e) The following new sentence shall be inserted immediately prior to the last sentence: "Total Energy Transmittance values may be substituted for SHGC, and Luminous Transmission values may be substituted for VT."

(5) In IRC, Section N1101.12 (R303.3), all wording after the first sentence is deleted.

(6) In IRC, Section N1101.13 (R401.2), in the first sentence, the words "Section N1101.13.5 and" are deleted.

(7) In IRC, Section N1101.13.5 (R401.2.5) is deleted.

(8) In IRC, Section N1101.14 (R401.3) Number 7, the words "and the compliance path used" are deleted.

(9) In IRC, Table N1102.1.2 (R402.1.2):

(a) in the column titled Fenestration U-Factor the following changes are made:

(i) in the row titled "Climate Zone 3" delete 0.30 and replace it with 0.32;

(ii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 5 and Marine 4" delete 0.30 and replace it with 0.32; and

(iii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 6" delete 0.30 and replace it with 0.32;

(b) in the column titled "Glazed Fenestration SHGC", the following change is made: in the row titled "Climate Zone 3" delete 0.25 and replace it with 0.35;

(c) in the column titled "Ceiling U-Factor" the following changes are made:

(i) in the row titled "Climate Zone 3" delete 0.026 and replace it with 0.030;

(ii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 5 and Marine 4" delete 0.024 and replace it with 0.026; and

(iii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 6" delete 0.024 and replace it with 0.026;

(d) in the column titled "Wood Frame Wall U Factor", the following changes are made:

(i) in the row titled "Climate Zone 3" delete 0.060 and replace it with 0.060;

(ii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 5 and Marine 4" delete 0.045 and replace it with 0.060; and

(iii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 6" delete 0.045 and replace it with 0.060;

(e) in the column titled "Basement Wall U-Factor" the following changes are made:

(i) in the row titled "Climate Zone 5 and Marine 4" delete 0.050 and replace it with 0.075; and

(ii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 6" delete 0.50 and replace it with 0.065; and

(f) in the column titled "Crawl Space Wall U-Factor" the following changes are made:

(i) in the row titled "Climate Zone 5 and Marine 4" delete 0.055 and replace it with 0.078; and

(ii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 6" delete 0.55 and replace it with 0.065.

(10) In IRC, Table N1102.1.3 (R402.1.3), the following changes are made:

(a) in the column titled "Wood Frame Walls R-Value" a new footnote indicator "j" is added and at the bottom of the footnotes the following footnote "j" is added: "j. In climate zone 3B and 5B, an R-15, and in climate zone 6, an R-20 shall be acceptable where air-impermeable insulation is installed in the cavity space, exterior continuous insulation, or some combination thereof; and the tested house air leakage is a maximum of 2.0 ACH50"; and

(b) add a new footnote "k" as follows: "k. Log walls complying with ICC400 and with a minimum average wall thickness of 5 inches or greater shall be permitted in Zones 5 through 8 when overall window glazing has 0.30 U-factor or lower, minimum heating equipment efficiency is for gas 95 AFUE, or for oil, 84 AFUE, and all other components requirements are met."

(11) In IRC, Table N1102.1.3 (R402.1.3) the following changes are made:

(a) in the column titled "Fenestration U-Factor" the following changes are made:

(i) in the row titled "Climate Zone 3" delete 0.30 and replace it with 0.32;

(ii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 5 and Marine 4" delete 0.30 and replace it with 0.32; and

(iii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 6" delete 0.30 and replace it with 0.32;

(b) in the column titled "Glazed Fenestration SHGC" the following change is made: in the row titled "Climate Zone 3" delete 0.25 and replace it with 0.35;

(c) in the Column R-Value the following changes are made:

(i) in the row titled "Climate Zone 3" delete 49 and replace it with 38;

(ii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 5 and Marine 4" delete 60 and replace it with 49; and

(iii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 6" delete 60 and replace it with 49;

(d) in the Column titled "Wood Frame Wall R-Value" the following changes are made:

(i) in the row titled "Climate Zone 3" delete all values and replace with 20+Oci or 13+5ci or 015ci;

(ii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 5 or Marine 4" delete all values and replace with 21+Oci or 15+5ci or 0+15ci; and

(iii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 6" delete all values and replace with 21+Oci or 15+5ci or 0+15ci;

(e) in the column titled "Basement Wall R Value" the following changes are made:

(i) in the row titled "Climate Zone 5 or Marine 4" delete all values and replace with 15+Oci or 0+11ci or 11+5ci; and

(ii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 6" delete all values and replace with 19+Oci or 0+13ci or 11+5ci;

(f) in the column titled "Slab R Value and Depth" the following changes are made:

(i) in the row titled "Climate Zone 3" delete 10ci. 2 ft and replace it with NR; and

(ii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 5 & Marine 4" delete 4 ft and replace it with 2 ft; and

(g) in the column titled "Crawl Space Wall R-Value" the following changes are made:

(i) in the row titled "Climate Zone 5 or Marine 4" delete all values and replace with 15+Oci or 0+11ci or 11+5ci; and

(ii) in the row titled "Climate Zone 6" delete all values and replace with 19+Oci or 0+13ci or 0+11+5ci.

(12) In IRC, a new subsection N1102.1.5.1 (R402.1.5.1) is added as follows: "1102.1.5.1 (R402.1.5.1) RESCheck 2012 Utah Energy Conservation Code. Compliance with section N1102.1.5 (R402.1.5) may be satisfied using the software RESCheck 2012 Utah Energy Conservation Code, which shall satisfy the R-value and U-factor requirements of N1102.1, N1102.2, and N1102.3, provided the following conditions are met:

(a) in "Climate Zone 5 and 6" the software result shall show 5% better than code; and

(b) in "Climate Zone 3", the software result shall show 5% better than code when software inputs for window U-factor .65 and window SHGC=0.40, notwithstanding actual windows installed shall conform to requirements of Tables N1102.1.2 (R402.1.2) and N1102.1.3 (R402.1.3)."

(13) In IRC, Sections N1102.2.1 (R402.2.1), a new Section N1102.2.1.1 is added as follows:

"N1102.2.1.1. Unvented attic and unvented enclosed rafter assemblies. Unvented attic and unvented enclosed rafter assemblies conforming to Section R806.5 shall be provided with an R-value of R-22 (maximum U-Factor of 0.045) in Climate Zone 3-B or an R-value of R-26 (maximum U-factor of 0.038) in Climate Zones 5-B and 6-B shall be permitted provided all the following conditions are met:

1. The unvented attic assembly complies with the requirements of the International Residential Code, R806.5.

2. The house shall attain a blower door test result 2.5ACH 50.

3. The house shall require a whole house mechanical ventilation system that does not rely solely on a negative pressure strategy (must be positive, balanced or hybrid).

4. Where insulation is installed below the roof deck and the exposed portion of roof rafters are not already covered by the R-20 depth of the air-impermeable insulation, the exposed portion of the roof rafters shall be wrapped (covered) by minimum R-3 unless directly covered by drywall/finished ceiling. Roof rafters are not required to be covered by minimum R-3 if a continuous insulation is installed above the roof deck.

5. Indoor heating, cooling and ventilation equipment (including ductwork) shall be inside the building thermal envelope."

(14) In IRC, Section N1102.2.9.1 (R402.2.9.1) the numeral (i) is added before the words "cut at a 45 degree" and the following is added after the words "exterior wall": "or (ii) lowered from top of slab 4" when a 4" thermal break material such as, but not limited to, felt or asphalt impregnated fiber board, with a minimum thickness of 1/4" is installed at the upper 4" of slab".

(15) In IRC, Section N1102.4.1 (R402.4.1), in the first sentence, the word "and" is deleted and replaced with the word "or."

(16) In IRC, Section N1102.4.1.1 (R402.4.1.1), the last sentence is deleted and replaced with the following: "Where allowed by the code official, the builder may certify compliance to components criteria for items which may not be inspected during regularly scheduled inspections."

(17) In IRC, Table N1102.4.1.1 (R402.4.1.1) in the column titled "COMPONENT, the following changes are made:

(a) In the row "Rim Joists" the word "exterior" in the first sentence is deleted, and the second sentence is deleted.

(b) In the row "Electrical/phone box on the exterior walls" the last sentence is deleted and replaced with: "Alternatively, close cell foam, caulking or gaskets may be used, or air sealed boxes may be installed."

(18) In IRC, Section N1102.4.1.2 (R402.4.1.2), the following changes are made:

(a) In the fourth sentence, the word "third" is deleted.

(b) The following sentence is added after the fourth sentence: "The following parties shall be approved to conduct testing: Parties certified by BPI or RESNET, or licensed contractors who have completed training provided by Blower Door Test equipment manufacturers or other comparable training."

(c) In the first Exception the second sentence is deleted.

(19) IRC, Section N1103.3.3 (R403.3.3), is deleted.

[~~(a) on or after January 1, 2017, and before January 1, 2019, with the following: "Exception: The duct air leakage test is not required~~

~~forsystems with all air handlers and at least 65% of all ducts (measured by length) located entirely within the building thermal envelope.";~~]

(20) IRC Section N1103.3.3.1 (R403.3.3.1) is deleted.

(21) In IRC, Section N1103.3.5 (R403.3.5), [~~the~~]the following changes are made:

(a) a second Exception is added as follows: "A duct leakage test shall not be required for any system designed such that no air handlers or ducts are located within unconditioned attics."; and

(b) the following is added at the end of the section: "The following parties shall be approved to conduct testing:

(i) Parties certified by BPT or RESNET; and

(ii) Licensed contractors who have completed training provided by Duct Test equipment manufacturers or other comparable training."

(22) In IRC, Section N1103.3.6 (R403.3.6) the following changes are made:

(a) in Subsection 1:

(i) the number 4.0 is changed to 6.0;

(ii) the number 113.3 is changed to 170;

(iii) the number 3.0 is changed to 5.0; and

(iv) the number 85 is changed to 141;

(b) in Subsection 2:

(i) the number 4.0 is changed to 5.0; and

(ii) the number 113.3 is changed to 141; and

(c) Subsection 3 is deleted.

(23) In IRC, Section N1103.3.7 (R403.3.7) the words "or plenums" are deleted.

(24) In IRC, Section N1103.5.1.1 (R403.5.1.1) the words "Where installed" are added at the beginning of the first sentence.

(25) In IRC, Section N1103.5.2 (R403.5.2) the following change is made, Subsections 5 and 6 are deleted and Subsection 7 is renumbered to 5.

(26) IRC, Section N1103.6.2 (R403.6.2), is deleted and replaced with the following: "N1103.6.2 (R403.6.2) Whole-house mechanical ventilation system fan efficacy. Fans used to provide whole-house mechanical ventilation shall meet the efficacy requirements of Table N1103.6.2 (R403.6.2).

Exception: Where an air handler that is integral to tested and listed HVAC equipment is used to provide whole-house mechanical ventilation, the air handler shall be powered by an electronically commutated motor."

(27) In IRC, Section N1103.6.2 (R403.6.2), the table is deleted and replaced with the following:

"TABLE N1103.6.2 (R403.6.2)",

MECHANICAL VENTILATION SYSTEM FAN EFFICACY

FAN LOCATION	AIR FLOW RATE MINI-MUM (CFM)	MINIMUM EFFICACY (CFM/WATT)	AIR FLOW RATE MAXI-MUM (CFM)
HRV or ERV	Any	1.2 cfm/watt	Any
Range hoods	Any	2.8 cfm/watt	Any
In-line fan	Any	2.8 cfm/watt	Any
Bathroom, utility room	10	1.4 cfm/watt	90
Bathroom, utility room	90	2.8 cfm/watt	Any"

(28) IRC, Section N1103.6.3 (R403.6.3) is deleted.

(29) In IRC, Section N1103.7 (R403.7) the word "approved" is deleted in the first sentence and the following is added after the word "methodologies": "complying with N1103.7.1 (R403.7.1)".

(30) A new IRC, Section N1103.7.1 (R403.7.1) is added as follows: "N1103.7.1 Qualifications. An individual performing load calculations shall be qualified by completing HVAC training from one of the following:

1. HVAC load calculation education from ACCA;

2. A recognized educational institution;

3. HVAC equipment manufacturer's training; or

4. Other recognized industry certification."

(31) In IRC, Section N1104.1 (R404.1), the word "All" is replaced with "Not less than 90 percent of the lamps in".

(32) IRC, Section N1104.1.1 (R404.1.1) is deleted.

(33) IRC, Section N1104.2 (R404.2) is deleted.

(34) IRC, Section N1104.3 (R404.3) is deleted.

(35) In IRC, section N1105.2 (R405.2) the following changes are made:

(a) In Subsection 3, the words "approved by the code official" are deleted; and

(b) In Subsection 3, the following words are added at the end of the sentence: "when applicable and readily available".

(36) In IRC, Section N1106.3 (R406.3) "Building thermal envelope" is deleted, and replaced with "Building thermal envelope and on-site renewables. The proposed total building thermal envelope UA, which is the sum of U-factor times assembly area, shall be less than or equal to the building thermal envelope UA using the prescriptive U-factors from Table N1102.1.2 multiplied by 1.15 in accordance with Equation 11-4. The area-weighted maximum fenestration SHGC permitted in Climate Zones 0 through 3 shall be: 0.30.UAProposed design =1.15xUAPrescriptive reference design (Equation 11-4)."

(37) In IRC, Section N1106.3.1 (R406.3.1) is deleted.

(38) In IRC, Section N1106.3.2 (R403.3.2) is deleted.

(39) In IRC, Section N1106.4 (R406.4) the following changes are made:

(a) In the first sentence, the words "in accordance with Equation 11-5" are deleted and replaced with: "permitted to be calculated using the minimum total air exchange rate for the rated home (Qtot) and for the index adjustment factor in accordance with Equation 11.5.";

(b) In equation 11-5, the words "Ventilation rate, CFM" are deleted and replaced with: "Qtot"; and

(c) In the last sentence the number "5" is deleted and replaced with "15".

(40) In IRC N1106.5, in the column titled "ENERGY RATING INDEX" of Table R406.5, the following changes are made:

(a) In the row for "Climate Zone 3", "51" is deleted and replaced with "65";

(b) In the row for "Climate Zone 5", "55" is deleted and replaced with "69"; and

(c) In the row for "Climate Zone 6", "54" is deleted and replaced with "68".

(41) In IRC, Section N1108 (R408) is deleted.

(42) In IRC, Section M1401.3 the word "approved" is deleted in the first sentence and the following is added after the word methodologies ", complying with M1401.3.1".

(43) A new IRC, Section M1401.3.1, is added as follows: "M1401.3.1 Qualifications. An individual performing load calculations shall be qualified by completing HVAC training from one of the following:

1. HVAC load calculation education from ACCA;

2. A recognized educational institution;

3. HVAC equipment manufacturer's training; or

4. Other recognized industry certification."

(44) In IRC, Section M1402.1, the following is added at the end of the second sentence: "or UL/CSA 60335-2-40."

(45) In IRC, Section M1403.1, the characters "/ANCE" are deleted.

(46) IRC, Section M1411.9, is deleted.

(47) In IRC, Section M1412.1, the characters "/ANCE" are deleted.

(48) In IRC, Section M1413.1, the characters "/ANCE" are deleted.

Section 52. Section 15A-5-205.6 is amended to read:

. Amendments and additions to Chapter 33 of IFC.

(1) IFC, Chapter 33, Section 3311.1, Required access, is deleted and rewritten as follows:

"3311.1 Required access.

3311.1.1 Approved vehicle access. Approved vehicle access for fire fighting shall be provided as described in Chapter 5 of this code to all construction or demolition sites.

3311.1.2 Fire department connections. Vehicle access shall be provided to within 100 feet of temporary or permanent fire department connections.

3311.1.3 Type of access. Vehicle access shall be provided by either temporary or permanent roads.

3311.3.1 Temporary road requirements. Temporary roads shall be constructed with a minimum of site specific required structural fill for permanent roads and road base, or other approved material complying with local standards.

3311.3.2 Reports. Compaction reports may be required. An engineer's review and certification of a temporary fire department access road is not required.

3311.3.3 Local jurisdictions. [~~If an improvement completion assurance has been posted in accordance with Section 10-9a-604.5, a~~]A local jurisdiction may not require:

(a) []permanent roads, or asphalt or concrete on temporary roads [~~,~~]before final approval of the structure served by the road; or

(b) permanent roads, or asphalt and concrete on temporary roads, during construction of the structure served by the road.

3311.1.4 Maintenance. Temporary roads shall be maintained until permanent fire apparatus access roads are available.

3311.1.5 Time line. Temporary or permanent fire department access roads shall be functional before construction above the foundation begins and before an appreciable amount of combustible construction materials are on site."

(2) IFC, Chapter 33, Section 3311.2, Key boxes, is deleted.

(3) Notwithstanding IFC 3311.3.1, a temporary road that meets the requirements of Section 10-9a-802 or 17-27a-802, and any local regulation adopted in accordance with Section 10-9a-802 or 17-27a-802, may be constructed.

Section 53. Section 17-27a-102 is amended to read:

17-27a-102

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Purposes -- General land use authority -- Limitations.

(1) (a) The purposes of this chapter are to:

(i) provide for the health, safety, and welfare;

(ii) promote the prosperity;

(iii) improve the morals, peace, good order, comfort, convenience, and aesthetics of each county and each county's present and future inhabitants and businesses;

(iv) protect the tax base;

(v) secure economy in governmental expenditures;

(vi) foster the state's agricultural and other industries;

(vii) protect both urban and nonurban development;

(viii) protect and ensure access to sunlight for solar energy devices;

(ix) provide fundamental fairness in land use regulation;

(x) facilitate orderly growth and allow growth in a variety of housing types; and

(xi) protect property values.

(b) Subject to Subsection (4) and Section 11-41-103, to accomplish the purposes of this chapter, a county may enact all ordinances, resolutions, and rules and may enter into other forms of land use controls and development agreements that the county considers necessary or appropriate for the use and development of land within the unincorporated area of the county or a designated mountainous planning district, including ordinances, resolutions, rules, restrictive covenants, easements, and development agreements governing:

(i) uses;

(ii) density;

(iii) open spaces;

(iv) structures;

(v) buildings;

(vi) energy-efficiency;

(vii) light and air;

(viii) air quality;

(ix) transportation and public or alternative transportation;

(x) infrastructure;

(xi) street and building orientation and width requirements;

(xii) public facilities;

(xiii) fundamental fairness in land use regulation; and

(xiv) considerations of surrounding land uses to balance the foregoing purposes with a landowner's private property interests and associated statutory and constitutional protections.

(2) Each county shall comply with the mandatory provisions of this part before any agreement or contract to provide goods, services, or municipal-type services to any storage facility or transfer facility for high-level nuclear waste, or greater than class C radioactive waste, may be executed or implemented.

(3) (a) Any ordinance, resolution, or rule enacted by a county pursuant to its authority under this chapter shall comply with the state's exclusive jurisdiction to regulate oil and gas activity, as described in Section 40-6-2.5.

(b) A county may enact an ordinance, resolution, or rule that regulates surface activity incident to an oil and gas activity if the county demonstrates that the regulation:

(i) is necessary for the purposes of this chapter;

(ii) does not effectively or unduly limit, ban, or prohibit an oil and gas activity; and

(iii) does not interfere with the state's exclusive jurisdiction to regulate oil and gas activity, as described in Section 40-6-2.5.

(4) (a) This Subsection (4) applies to development agreements entered into on or after May 5, 2021.

(b) A provision in a county development agreement is unenforceable if the provision requires an individual or an entity, as a condition for issuing building permits or otherwise regulating development activities within an unincorporated area of the county, to initiate a process for a municipality to annex the unincorporated area in accordance with [~~Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 4, Annexation~~]Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 8, Annexation.

(c) Subsection (4)(b) does not affect or impair the enforceability of any other provision in the development agreement.

Section 54. Section 17-27a-103 is amended to read:

17-27a-103

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Accessory dwelling unit" means a habitable living unit added to, created within, or detached from a primary single-family dwelling and contained on one lot.

(2) "Adversely affected party" means a person other than a land use applicant who:

(a) owns real property adjoining the property that is the subject of a land use application or land use decision; or

(b) will suffer a damage different in kind than, or an injury distinct from, that of the general community as a result of the land use decision.

(3) "Affected entity" means a county, municipality, special district, special service district under Title 17D, Chapter 1, Special Service District Act, school district, interlocal cooperation entity established under Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act, specified property owner, property owner's association, public utility, or the Department of Transportation, if:

(a) the entity's services or facilities are likely to require expansion or significant modification because of an intended use of land;

(b) the entity has filed with the county a copy of the entity's general or long-range plan; or

(c) the entity has filed with the county a request for notice during the same calendar year and before the county provides notice to an affected entity in compliance with a requirement imposed under this chapter.

(4) "Affected owner" means the owner of real property that is:

(a) a single project;

(b) the subject of a land use approval that sponsors of a referendum timely challenged in accordance with Subsection 20A-7-601(6); and

(c) determined to be legally referable under Section 20A-7-602.8.

(5) "Appeal authority" means the person, board, commission, agency, or other body designated by ordinance to decide an appeal of a decision of a land use application or a variance.

(6) "Billboard" means a freestanding ground sign located on industrial, commercial, or residential property if the sign is designed or intended to direct attention to a business, product, or service that is not sold, offered, or existing on the property where the sign is located.

(7) "Building code adoption cycle" means the period of time beginning the day on which a specific edition of a construction code from a nationally recognized code authority is adopted and effective in Title 15A, State Construction and Fire Codes Act, until the day before a new edition of a construction code is adopted and effective in Title 15A, State Construction and Fire Codes Act.

~~(7)~~ (a) "Charter school" means:

(i) an operating charter school;

(ii) a charter school applicant that a charter school authorizer approves in accordance with Title 53G, Chapter 5, Part 3, Charter School Authorization; or

(iii) an entity that is working on behalf of a charter school or approved charter applicant to develop or construct a charter school building.

(b) "Charter school" does not include a therapeutic school.

~~(8)~~ "Chief executive officer" means the person or body that exercises the executive powers of the county.

~~(9)~~ "Conditional use" means a land use that, because of the unique characteristics or potential impact of the land use on the county, surrounding neighbors, or adjacent land uses, may not be compatible in some areas or may be compatible only if certain conditions are required that mitigate or eliminate the detrimental impacts.

~~(10)~~ "Constitutional taking" means a governmental action that results in a taking of private property so that compensation to the owner of the property is required by the:

(a) Fifth or Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States; or

(b) Utah Constitution, Article I, Section 22.

~~(11)~~ "County utility easement" means an easement that:

(a) a plat recorded in a county recorder's office described as a county utility easement or otherwise as a utility easement;

(b) is not a protected utility easement or a public utility easement as defined in Section 54-3-27;

(c) the county or the county's affiliated governmental entity owns or creates; and

(d) (i) either:

(A) no person uses or occupies; or

(B) the county or the county's affiliated governmental entity uses and occupies to provide a utility service, including sanitary sewer, culinary water, electrical, storm water, or communications or data lines; or

(ii) a person uses or occupies with or without an authorized franchise or other agreement with the county.

~~(12)~~ "Culinary water authority" means the department, agency, or public entity with responsibility to review and approve the feasibility of the culinary water system and sources for the subject property.

~~(13)~~ "Development activity" means:

(a) any construction or expansion of a building, structure, or use that creates additional demand and need for public facilities;

(b) any change in use of a building or structure that creates additional demand and need for public facilities; or

(c) any change in the use of land that creates additional demand and need for public facilities.

~~(14)~~ (a) "Development agreement" means a written agreement or amendment to a written agreement between a county and one or more parties that regulates or controls the use or development of a specific area of land.

(b) "Development agreement" does not include an improvement completion assurance.

~~(15)~~ (a) "Disability" means a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of a person's major life activities, including a person having a record of such an impairment or being regarded as having such an impairment.

(b) "Disability" does not include current illegal use of, or addiction to, any federally controlled substance, as defined in Section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act, 21 U.S.C. Sec. 802.

~~(16)~~ "Educational facility":

(a) means:

(i) a school district's building at which pupils assemble to receive instruction in a program for any combination of grades from preschool through grade 12, including kindergarten and a program for children with disabilities;

(ii) a structure or facility:

(A) located on the same property as a building described in Subsection ~~(16)(a)(i)~~(a)(i); and

(B) used in support of the use of that building; and

(iii) a building to provide office and related space to a school district's administrative personnel; and

(b) does not include:

(i) land or a structure, including land or a structure for inventory storage, equipment storage, food processing or preparing, vehicle storage or maintenance, or similar use that is:

(A) not located on the same property as a building described in Subsection ~~(16)(a)(i)~~(a)(i); and

(B) used in support of the purposes of a building described in Subsection ~~(16)(a)(i)~~(a)(i); or

(ii) a therapeutic school.

~~(17)~~ "Fire authority" means the department, agency, or public entity with responsibility to review and approve the feasibility of fire protection and suppression services for the subject property.

~~(18)~~ "Flood plain" means land that:

(a) is within the 100-year flood plain designated by the Federal Emergency Management Agency; or

(b) has not been studied or designated by the Federal Emergency Management Agency but presents a likelihood of experiencing chronic flooding or a catastrophic flood event because the land has characteristics that are similar to those of a 100-year flood plain designated by the Federal Emergency Management Agency.

~~(19)~~ "Gas corporation" has the same meaning as defined in Section 54-2-1.

~~(20)~~ "General plan" means a document that a county adopts that sets forth general guidelines for proposed future development of:

(a) the unincorporated land within the county; or

(b) for a mountainous planning district, the land within the mountainous planning district.

~~(21)~~ "Geologic hazard" means:

(a) a surface fault rupture;

(b) shallow groundwater;

(c) liquefaction;

(d) a landslide;

(e) a debris flow;

(f) unstable soil;

(g) a rock fall; or

(h) any other geologic condition that presents a risk:

(i) to life;

(ii) of substantial loss of real property; or

(iii) of substantial damage to real property.

~~(22)~~ "Home-based microschool" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53G-6-201.

~~(23)~~ "Hookup fee" means a fee for the installation and inspection of any pipe, line, meter, or appurtenance to connect to a county water, sewer, storm water, power, or other utility system.

~~(24)~~ (a) "Identical plans" means [~~building~~]floor plans submitted to a county that:

~~(a)~~ are [~~clearly marked as "identical plans"~~]submitted within the same building code adoption cycle as floor plans that were previously approved by the county;

~~(b)~~ [~~are substantially identical building~~]have no structural differences from floor plans that were previously [~~submitted to and reviewed and~~] approved by the county; and

~~(c)~~ describe a building that:

~~(i)~~ is located on land zoned the same as the land on which the building described in the previously approved plans is located;

[~~(ii) is subject to the same geological and meteorological conditions and the same law as the building described in the previously approved plans;~~]

~~(iii)~~ has a substantially identical floor plan [~~identical to the building~~]to a floor plan previously [~~submitted to and reviewed and~~]approved by the county; and

~~(iv)~~ does not require any [~~additional~~]engineering or analysis beyond a review to confirm the submitted floor plans are substantially identical to a floor plan previously approved by the county or a review of the site plan and associated geotechnical reports for the site.

(b) "Identical plans" include floor plans that are oriented differently as the floor plan that was previously approved by the county.

~~(25)~~ "Impact fee" means a payment of money imposed under Title 11, Chapter 36a, Impact Fees Act.

~~(26)~~ "Improvement completion assurance" means a surety bond, letter of credit, financial institution bond, cash, assignment of rights, lien, or other equivalent security required by a county to guaranty the proper completion of landscaping or an infrastructure improvement required as a condition precedent to:

(a) recording a subdivision plat; or

(b) development of a commercial, industrial, mixed use, or multifamily project.

~~(27)~~ "Improvement warranty" means an applicant's unconditional warranty that the applicant's installed and accepted landscaping or infrastructure improvement:

(a) complies with the county's written standards for design, materials, and workmanship; and

(b) will not fail in any material respect, as a result of poor workmanship or materials, within the improvement warranty period.

~~(28)~~ "Improvement warranty period" means a period:

(a) no later than one year after a county's acceptance of required public landscaping; or

(b) no later than one year after a county's acceptance of required infrastructure, unless the county:

(i) determines, based on accepted industry standards and for good cause, that a one-year period would be inadequate to protect the public health, safety, and welfare; and

(ii) has substantial evidence, on record:

(A) of prior poor performance by the applicant; or

(B) that the area upon which the infrastructure will be constructed contains suspect soil and the county has not otherwise required the applicant to mitigate the suspect soil.

~~(29)~~ "Infrastructure improvement" means permanent infrastructure that is essential for the public health and safety or that:

(a) is required for human consumption; and

(b) an applicant must install:

(i) in accordance with published installation and inspection specifications for public improvements; and

(ii) as a condition of:

(A) recording a subdivision plat;

(B) obtaining a building permit; or

(C) developing a commercial, industrial, mixed use, condominium, or multifamily project.

~~(30)~~ "Internal lot restriction" means a platted note, platted demarcation, or platted designation that:

(a) runs with the land; and

(b) (i) creates a restriction that is enclosed within the perimeter of a lot described on the plat; or

(ii) designates a development condition that is enclosed within the perimeter of a lot described on the plat.

~~(31)~~ "Interstate pipeline company" means a person or entity engaged in natural gas transportation subject to the jurisdiction of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission under the Natural Gas Act, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 717 et seq.

~~(32)~~ "Intrastate pipeline company" means a person or entity engaged in natural gas transportation that is not subject to the jurisdiction of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission under the Natural Gas Act, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 717 et seq.

~~(33)~~ "Land use applicant" means a property owner, or the property owner's designee, who submits a land use application regarding the property owner's land.

~~(34)~~ "Land use application":

(a) means an application that is:

(i) required by a county; and

(ii) submitted by a land use applicant to obtain a land use decision; and

(b) does not mean an application to enact, amend, or repeal a land use regulation.

~~(35)~~ "Land use authority" means:

(a) a person, board, commission, agency, or body, including the local legislative body, designated by the local legislative body to act upon a land use application; or

(b) if the local legislative body has not designated a person, board, commission, agency, or body, the local legislative body.

~~(36)~~ "Land use decision" means an administrative decision of a land use authority or appeal authority regarding:

(a) a land use permit;

(b) a land use application; or

(c) the enforcement of a land use regulation, land use permit, or development agreement.

~~(37)~~ "Land use permit" means a permit issued by a land use authority.

~~(38)~~ "Land use regulation":

(a) means a legislative decision enacted by ordinance, law, code, map, resolution, engineering or development standard, specification for public improvement, fee, or rule that governs the use or development of land;

(b) includes the adoption or amendment of a zoning map or the text of the zoning code; and

(c) does not include:

(i) a land use decision of the legislative body acting as the land use authority, even if the decision is expressed in a resolution or ordinance; or

(ii) a temporary revision to an engineering specification that does not materially:

(A) increase a land use applicant's cost of development compared to the existing specification; or

(B) impact a land use applicant's use of land.

~~(39)~~ "Legislative body" means the county legislative body, or for a county that has adopted an alternative form of government, the body exercising legislative powers.

~~(40)~~ "Lot" means a tract of land, regardless of any label, that is created by and shown on a subdivision plat that has been recorded in the office of the county recorder.

Section 55. Section 17-27a-205 is amended to read:

17-27a-205

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Notice of public hearings and public meetings on adoption or modification of land use regulation.

(1) Each county shall give:

(a) notice of the date, time, and place of the first public hearing to consider the adoption or modification of a land use regulation; and

(b) notice of each public meeting on the subject.

(2) Each notice of a public hearing under Subsection (1)(a) shall be:

(a) mailed to each affected entity at least 10 calendar days before the public hearing; and

(b) (i) [~~published~~]provided for the area affected by the land use ordinance changes, as a class B notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least 10 calendar days before the day of the public hearing; or

(ii) if the proposed land use ordinance adoption or modification is ministerial in nature, as described in Subsections (6)(a) and (b), provided as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102 for at least 10 calendar days before the day of the public hearing.

(3) In addition to the notice requirements described in Subsections (1) and (2), for any proposed modification to the text of a zoning code, the notice posted in accordance with Subsection (2) shall:

(a) include:

(i) a summary of the effect of the proposed modifications to the text of the zoning code designed to be understood by a lay person; or

(ii) a direct link to the county's webpage where a person can find a summary of the effect of the proposed modifications to the text of the zoning code designed to be understood by a lay person; and

(b) be provided to any person upon written request.

(4) Each notice of a public meeting under Subsection (1)(b) shall be at least 24 hours before the hearing and shall be published for the county, as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least 24 hours.

(5) (a) A county shall send a courtesy notice to each owner of private real property whose property is located entirely or partially within the proposed zoning map enactment or amendment at least 10 days before the scheduled day of the public hearing.

(b) The notice shall:

(i) identify with specificity each owner of record of real property that will be affected by the proposed zoning map or map amendments;

(ii) state the current zone in which the real property is located;

(iii) state the proposed new zone for the real property;

(iv) provide information regarding or a reference to the proposed regulations, prohibitions, and permitted uses that the property will be subject to if the zoning map or map amendment is adopted;

(v) state that the owner of real property may no later than 10 days after the day of the first public hearing file a written objection to the inclusion of the owner's property in the proposed zoning map or map amendment;

(vi) state the address where the property owner should file the protest;

(vii) notify the property owner that each written objection filed with the county will be provided to the county legislative body; and

(viii) state the location, date, and time of the public hearing described in Section 17-27a-502.

(c) If a county mails notice to a property owner under Subsection (2)(b)(i) for a public hearing on a zoning map or map amendment, the notice required in this Subsection (5) may be included in or part of the notice described in Subsection (2)(b)(i) rather than sent separately.

(6) (a) A proposed land use ordinance is ministerial in nature if the proposed land use ordinance change is to:

(i) bring the county's land use ordinances into compliance with a state or federal law;

(ii) adopt a county land use update that affects:

(A) an entire zoning district; or

(B) multiple zoning districts;

(iii) adopt a non-substantive, clerical text amendment to an existing land use ordinance;

(iv) recodify the county's existing land use ordinances; or

(v) designate or define an affected area for purposes of a boundary adjustment or annexation.

(b) A proposed land use ordinance may include more than one of the purposes described in Subsection (6)(a) and remain ministerial in nature.

(c) If a proposed land use ordinance includes an adoption or modification not described in Subsection (6)(a):

(i) the proposed land use ordinance is not ministerial in nature, even if the proposed land use ordinance also includes a change or modification described in Subsection (6)(a); and

(ii) the notice requirements of Subsection (2)(b)(i) apply.

Section 56. Section 17-27a-309 is enacted to read:

17-27a-309

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Urban development in municipal expansion area -- Requirements.

(1) For purposes of this section, "urban development" means the same as the term is defined in Section 10-2-801.

(2) A county legislative body may approve urban development within an adopted expansion area of a municipality if the county notifies the municipality of the proposed urban development, and:

(a) the municipality consents in writing to the proposed urban development; or

(b) the municipality fails to respond to the county's notification of the proposed urban development within 90 days after the day on which the county provides the notice.

(3) If a municipality responds to the county's notice under Subsection (2) within 90 days after the county's notification of the proposed urban development to object to the proposed urban development, the county may approve the urban development if the county responds to the municipality's objection in writing.

Section 57. Section 17-27a-508 is amended to read:

17-27a-508

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Applicant's entitlement to land use application approval -- Application relating to land in a high priority transportation corridor -- County's requirements and limitations -- Vesting upon submission of development plan and schedule.

(1) (a) (i) An applicant who has submitted a complete land use application, including the payment of all application fees, is entitled to substantive review of the application under the land use regulations:

(A) in effect on the date that the application is complete; and

(B) applicable to the application or to the information shown on the submitted application.

(ii) An applicant is entitled to approval of a land use application if the application conforms to the requirements of the applicable land use regulations, land use decisions, and development standards in effect when the applicant submits a complete application and pays all application fees, unless:

(A) the land use authority, on the record, formally finds that a compelling, countervailing public interest would be jeopardized by approving the application and specifies the compelling, countervailing public interest in writing; or

(B) in the manner provided by local ordinance and before the applicant submits the application, the county formally initiates proceedings to amend the county's land use regulations in a manner that would prohibit approval of the application as submitted.

(b) The county shall process an application without regard to proceedings the county initiated to amend the county's ordinances as described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii)(B) if:

(i) 180 days have passed since the county initiated the proceedings; and

(ii) (A) the proceedings have not resulted in an enactment that prohibits approval of the application as submitted; or

(B) during the 12 months prior to the county processing the application or multiple applications of the same type, the application is impaired or prohibited under the terms of a temporary land use regulation adopted under Section 17-27a-504.

(c) A land use application is considered submitted and complete when the applicant provides the application in a form that complies with the requirements of applicable ordinances and pays all applicable fees.

(d) Unless a phasing sequence is required in an executed development agreement, a county shall, without regard to any other separate and distinct land use application, accept and process a complete land use application.

(e) The continuing validity of an approval of a land use application is conditioned upon the applicant proceeding after approval to implement the approval with reasonable diligence.

(f) A county may not impose on an applicant who has submitted a complete application a requirement that is not expressed in:

(i) this chapter;

(ii) a county ordinance in effect on the date that the applicant submits a complete application, subject to Subsection (1)(a)(ii); or

(iii) a county specification for public improvements applicable to a subdivision or development that is in effect on the date that the applicant submits an application.

(g) A county may not impose on a holder of an issued land use permit or a final, unexpired subdivision plat a requirement that is not expressed:

(i) in a land use permit;

(ii) on the subdivision plat;

(iii) in a document on which the land use permit or subdivision plat is based;

(iv) in the written record evidencing approval of the land use permit or subdivision plat;

(v) in this chapter;

(vi) in a county ordinance; or

(vii) in a county specification for residential roadways in effect at the time a residential subdivision was approved.

(h) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(i) or (j), a county may not withhold issuance of a certificate of occupancy or acceptance of subdivision improvements because of an applicant's failure to comply with a requirement that is not expressed:

(i) in the building permit or subdivision plat, documents on which the building permit or subdivision plat is based, or the written record evidencing approval of the building permit or subdivision plat; or

(ii) in this chapter or the county's ordinances.

(i) A county may not unreasonably withhold issuance of a certificate of occupancy where an applicant has met all requirements essential for the public health, public safety, and general welfare of the occupants, in accordance with this chapter, unless:

(i) the applicant and the county have agreed in a written document to the withholding of a certificate of occupancy; or

(ii) the applicant has not provided a financial assurance for required and uncompleted public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements in accordance with an applicable local ordinance[~~that the legislative body adopts under this chapter~~].

(j) A county may not conduct a final inspection required before issuing a certificate of occupancy for a residential unit that is within the boundary of an infrastructure financing district, as defined in Section 17B-1-102, until the applicant for the certificate of occupancy provides adequate proof to the county that any lien on the unit arising from the infrastructure financing district's assessment against the unit under Title 11, Chapter 42, Assessment Area Act, has been released after payment in full of the infrastructure financing district's assessment against that unit.

(k) A county:

(i) may require the submission of a private landscaping plan, as defined in Section 17-27a-604.5, before landscaping is installed; and

(ii) may not withhold an applicant's building permit or certificate of occupancy because the applicant has not submitted a private landscaping plan.

(2) A county is bound by the terms and standards of applicable land use regulations and shall comply with mandatory provisions of those regulations.

(3) A county may not, as a condition of land use application approval, require a person filing a land use application to obtain documentation regarding a school district's willingness, capacity, or ability to serve the development proposed in the land use application.

(4) Upon a specified public agency's submission of a development plan and schedule as required in Subsection 17-27a-305(8) that complies with the requirements of that subsection, the specified public agency vests in the county's applicable land use maps, zoning map, hookup fees, impact fees, other applicable development fees, and land use regulations in effect on the date of submission.

(5) (a) If sponsors of a referendum timely challenge a project in accordance with Subsection 20A-7-601(6), the project's affected owner may rescind the project's land use approval by delivering a written notice:

(i) to the local clerk as defined in Section 20A-7-101; and

(ii) no later than seven days after the day on which a petition for a referendum is determined sufficient under Subsection 20A-7-607(4).

(b) Upon delivery of a written notice described in Subsection (5)(a) the following are rescinded and are of no further force or effect:

(i) the relevant land use approval; and

(ii) any land use regulation enacted specifically in relation to the land use approval.

(6) (a) After issuance of a building permit, a county may not:

(i) change or add to the requirements expressed in the building permit, unless the change or addition is:

(A) requested by the building permit holder; or

(B) necessary to comply with an applicable state building code; or

(ii) revoke the building permit or take action that has the effect of revoking the building permit.

(b) Subsection (6)(a) does not prevent a county from issuing a building permit that contains an expiration date defined in the building permit.

Section 58. Section 17-27a-508.1 is enacted to read:

17-27a-508.1

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Private maintenance of public access amenities prohibited.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Public access amenity" means a physical feature like a trail or recreation area that a municipality designates for public access and use.

(b) "Retail water line" means the same as that term is defined in Section 11-8-4.

(c) "Sewer lateral" means the same as that term is defined in Section 11-8-4.

(d) (i) "Water utility" means a main line or other integral part of a sewer or water utility service.

(ii) "Water utility" does not include a retail water line or sewer lateral.

(2) A county may not require a private individual or entity, including a community association or homeowners association, to maintain and be responsible for a public access amenity or water utility in perpetuity unless:

(a) the public access amenity is the property located adjacent to the private property owned by the private individual or entity to the curb line of the street, including park strips and sidewalks; or

(b) the private individual or entity agreed to maintain or be responsible for the public access amenity or water utility in perpetuity in a covenant, utility service agreement, development agreement, or other agreement between the county and the private individual or entity.

Section 59. Section 17-27a-509 is amended to read:

17-27a-509

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Limit on fees -- Requirement to itemize fees -- Appeal of fee -- Provider of culinary or secondary water.

(1) A county may [~~not~~]impose or collect a fee for reviewing or approving the plans for a commercial or residential building[~~that exceeds~~], not to exceed the lesser of:

(a) the actual cost of performing the plan review; and

(b) 65% of the amount the county charges for a building permit fee for that building.

(2) (a) Subject to Subsection ~~(1)~~(b), a county may impose and collect [~~only~~]a [~~nominal~~]fee for reviewing and approving identical [~~floor~~]plans, as described in Section 17-27a-536, not to exceed the lesser of:

(i) the actual cost of performing the plan review; or

(ii) 30% of the fee that would be imposed and collected under Subsection (1).

(b) A county may impose and collect a fee for reviewing an original plan, as defined in Section 17-27a-536, that an applicant submits with the intent that the original plan be used as the basis for a future identical plan submission, the same as any other plan review fee under Subsection (1).

(3) A county may not impose or collect a hookup fee that exceeds the reasonable cost of installing and inspecting the pipe, line, meter, or appurtenance to connect to the county water, sewer, storm water, power, or other utility system.

(4) A county may not impose or collect:

(a) a land use application fee that exceeds the reasonable cost of processing the application or issuing the permit; or

(b) an inspection, regulation, or review fee that exceeds the reasonable cost of performing the inspection, regulation, or review.

(5) (a) If requested by an applicant who is charged a fee or an owner of residential property upon which a fee is imposed, the county shall provide an itemized fee statement that shows the calculation method for each fee.

(b) If an applicant who is charged a fee or an owner of residential property upon which a fee is imposed submits a request for an itemized fee statement no later than 30 days after the day on which the applicant or owner pays the fee, the county shall no later than 10 days after the day on which the request is received provide or commit to provide within a specific time:

(i) for each fee, any studies, reports, or methods relied upon by the county to create the calculation method described in Subsection (5)(a);

(ii) an accounting of each fee paid;

(iii) how each fee will be distributed; and

(iv) information on filing a fee appeal through the process described in Subsection (5)(c).

(c) A county shall establish a fee appeal process subject to an appeal authority described in Part 7, Appeal Authority and Variances, and district court review in accordance with Part 8, District Court Review, to determine whether a fee reflects only the reasonable estimated cost of:

(i) regulation;

(ii) processing an application;

(iii) issuing a permit; or

(iv) delivering the service for which the applicant or owner paid the fee.

(6) A county may not impose on or collect from a public agency any fee associated with the public agency's development of its land other than:

(a) subject to Subsection (4), a fee for a development service that the public agency does not itself provide;

(b) subject to Subsection (3), a hookup fee; and

(c) an impact fee for a public facility listed in Subsection 11-36a-102(17)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), or (g), subject to any applicable credit under Subsection 11-36a-402(2).

(7) A provider of culinary or secondary water that commits to provide a water service required by a land use application process is subject to the following as if it were a county:

(a) Subsections (5) and (6);

(b) Section 17-27a-507; and

(c) Section 17-27a-509.5.

Section 60. Section 17-27a-509.5 is amended to read:

17-27a-509.5

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Review for application completeness -- Substantive application review -- Reasonable diligence required for determination of whether improvements or warranty work meets standards -- Money damages claim prohibited.

(1) (a) Each county shall, in a timely manner, determine whether a land use application is complete for the purposes of subsequent, substantive land use authority review.

(b) After a reasonable period of time to allow the county diligently to evaluate whether all objective ordinance-based application criteria have been met, if application fees have been paid, the applicant may in writing request that the county provide a written determination either that the application is:

(i) complete for the purposes of allowing subsequent, substantive land use authority review; or

(ii) deficient with respect to a specific, objective, ordinance-based application requirement.

(c) Within 30 days of receipt of an applicant's request under this section, the county shall either:

(i) mail a written notice to the applicant advising that the application is deficient with respect to a specified, objective, ordinance-based criterion, and stating that the application must be supplemented by specific additional information identified in the notice; or

(ii) accept the application as complete for the purposes of further substantive processing by the land use authority.

(d) If the notice required by Subsection (1)(c)(i) is not timely mailed, the application shall be considered complete, for purposes of further substantive land use authority review.

(e) (i) The applicant may raise and resolve in a single appeal any determination made under this Subsection (1) to the appeal authority, including an allegation that a reasonable period of time has elapsed under Subsection (1)(a).

(ii) The appeal authority shall issue a written decision for any appeal requested under this Subsection (1)(e).

(f) (i) The applicant may appeal to district court the decision of the appeal authority made under Subsection (1)(e).

(ii) Each appeal under Subsection (1)(f)(i) shall be made within 30 days of the date of the written decision.

(2) (a) Each land use authority shall substantively review a complete application and an application considered complete under Subsection (1)(d), and shall approve or deny each application with reasonable diligence.

(b) After a reasonable period of time to allow the land use authority to consider an application, the applicant may in writing request that the land use authority take final action within 45 days from date of service of the written request.

(c) Within 45 days from the date of service of the written request described in Subsection (2)(b):

(i) except as provided in Subsection (2)(c)(ii), the land use authority shall take final action, approving or denying the application; and

(ii) if a landowner petitions for a land use regulation, a legislative body shall take final action by approving or denying the petition.

(d) If the land use authority denies an application processed under the mandates of Subsection (2)(b), or if the applicant has requested a written decision in the application, the land use authority shall include its reasons for denial in writing, on the record, which may include the official minutes of the meeting in which the decision was rendered.

(e) If the land use authority fails to comply with Subsection (2)(c), the applicant may appeal this failure to district court within 30 days of the date on which the land use authority should have taken final action under Subsection (2)(c).

(3) (a) As used in this Subsection (3), an "infrastructure improvement category" includes a:

(i) culinary water system;

(ii) sanitary sewer system;

(iii) storm water system;

(iv) transportation system;

(v) secondary and irrigation water system;

(vi) public landscaping; or

(vii) public parks, trails, or open space.

(b) With reasonable diligence, each land use authority shall determine whether the installation of required subdivision improvements or the performance of warranty work meets the county's adopted standards.

~~(b)~~ (i) An applicant may in writing request the land use authority to accept or reject the applicant's installation of required subdivision improvements or performance of warranty work.

(ii) The land use authority shall accept or reject subdivision improvements within 15 days after receiving an applicant's written request under Subsection ~~(3)(b)(i)~~(c)(i), or as soon as practicable after that 15-day period if inspection of the subdivision improvements is impeded by winter weather conditions.

(iii) [~~The~~]Except as provided in Subsection (3)(c)(iv), (3)(d), or (3)(e), the land use authority shall accept or reject the performance of warranty work within[~~45 days after receiving an applicant's written request under Subsection (3)(b)(i), or as soon as practicable after that 45-day period if inspection of the warranty work is impeded by winter weather conditions.~~]:

(A) for a county of a first, second, or third class, 15 days after the day on which the land use authority receives an applicant's written request under Subsection (3)(c)(i); and

(B) for a county of the fourth, fifth, or sixth class, 30 days after the day on which the land use authority receives an applicant's written request under Subsection (3)(c)(i).

(iv) If winter weather conditions do not reasonably permit a full and complete inspection of warranty work within the time periods described in Subsection (3)(c)(iii)(A) or (3)(c)(iii)(B) so the land use authority is able to accept or reject the warranty work, the land use authority shall:

(A) notify the applicant in writing before the end of the applicable time period described in Subsection (3)(c)(iii)(A) or (3)(c)(iii)(B) that, because of winter weather conditions, the land use authority will require additional time to accept or reject the performance of warranty work; and

(B) complete the inspection of the performance of warranty work and provide the applicant with an acceptance or rejection as soon as practicable.

(d) If a land use authority rejects an applicant's performance of warranty work three times, the county may take 15 days in addition to the relevant time period described in Subsection (3)(c)(iii) for subsequent inspections of the applicant's warranty work.

(e) (i) If extraordinary circumstances do not permit a land use authority to complete inspection of warranty work within the relevant time period described in Subsection (3)(c)(iii)(A) or (3)(c)(iii)(B) so the land use authority is able to accept or reject the warranty work, the land use authority shall:

(A) notify the applicant in writing before the end of the applicable time period described in Subsection (3)(c)(iii)(A) or (3)(c)(iii)(B) that, because of the extraordinary circumstances, the land use authority will require additional time to accept or reject the performance of warranty work; and

(B) complete the inspection of the performance of warranty work and provide the applicant with an acceptance or rejection within 30 days after the day on which the relevant time period described in Subsection (3)(c)(iii)(A) or (3)(c)(iii)(B) ends.

(ii) The following situations constitute extraordinary circumstances for purposes of Subsection (3)(e)(i):

(A) the land use authority is processing a request for inspection that substantially exceeds the normal scope of inspection the county is customarily required to perform;

(B) the applicant has provided two or more written requests described in Subsection (3)(c)(i) within the same 30-day time period; or

(C) the land use authority is processing an unusually large number of written requests described in Subsection (3)(c)(i) to accept or reject subdivision improvements or performance of warranty work.

~~(e)~~ (i) If a land use authority determines that the installation of required subdivision improvements or the performance of warranty work does not meet the county's adopted standards, the land use authority shall, within 15 days of the day on which the land use authority makes the determination, comprehensively and with specificity list the reasons for the land use authority's determination.

(ii) If the land use authority fails to provide an applicant with the list described in Subsection (3)(f)(i) within the required time period:

(A) the applicant may send written notice to the land use authority requesting the list within five days; and

(B) if the applicant does not receive the list within five days from the day on which the applicant provides the land use authority with written notice as described in Subsection (3)(f)(ii)(A), the applicant may demand, and the land use authority shall provide, a reimbursement equal to 20% of the applicant's improvement completion assurance or security for the warranty work within each infrastructure improvement category.

(g) Subject to the provisions of Section 10-9a-604.5:

(i) within 15 days of the day on which the land use authority determines that an infrastructure improvement within a certain infrastructure improvement category, as described in Subsection (3)(a), meets the county's adopted standards for that category of infrastructure improvement and an applicant submits complete as-built drawings to the land use authority, whichever occurs later, the land use authority shall return to the applicant 90% of the applicant's improvement completion assurance allocated toward that infrastructure improvement category; and

(ii) within 15 days of the day on which the warranty period expires and the land use authority determines that an infrastructure improvement within a certain infrastructure improvement category, as described in Subsection (3)(a), meets the county's adopted standards for that category of infrastructure improvement, the land use authority shall return to the applicant the remaining 10% of the applicant's improvement completion assurance allocated toward that infrastructure improvement category, plus any remaining portion of a bond described in Subsection 10-9a-604.5(5)(b).

(h) The following acts under this Subsection (3) are administrative acts:

(i) a county's return of an applicant's improvement completion assurance, or any portion of an improvement completion assurance, within a category of infrastructure improvements, to the applicant; and

(ii) a county's return of an applicant's security for an improvement warranty, or any portion of security for an improvement warranty, within a category of infrastructure improvements, to the applicant.

(4) Subject to Section 17-27a-508, nothing in this section and no action or inaction of the land use authority relieves an applicant's duty to comply with all applicable substantive ordinances and regulations.

(5) There shall be no money damages remedy arising from a claim under this section.

Section 61. Section 17-27a-509.7 is amended to read:

17-27a-509.7

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Transferable development rights.

(1) A county may adopt an ordinance:

(a) designating sending zones and receiving zones located wholly within the unincorporated area of the county;

(b) designating a sending zone if the area described in the sending zone is located, at least in part, within the unincorporated county, and the area described in the sending zone that is located outside the county complies with Subsection (2);

(c) designating a receiving zone if the area described in the receiving zone is located, at least in part, within the unincorporated county, and the area described in the receiving zone that is located outside the county complies with Subsection (2); and

~~(b)~~ allowing the transfer of a transferable development right from a sending zone to a receiving zone.

(2) A county may adopt an ordinance designating a sending zone or receiving zone that is located, in part, in a municipality or unincorporated area of another county, if the legislative body of every municipality or county with land inside the sending zone or receiving zone adopts an ordinance designating the sending zone or receiving zone.

~~(2)~~ A county may not allow the use of a transferable development right unless the county adopts an ordinance described in Subsection (1).

Section 62. Section 17-27a-532 is amended to read:

17-27a-532

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Water wise landscaping -- County landscaping regulations.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Lawn or turf" means nonagricultural land planted in closely mowed, managed grasses.

(b) "Mulch" means material such as rock, bark, wood chips, or other materials left loose and applied to the soil.

(c) "Overhead spray irrigation" means above ground irrigation heads that spray water through a nozzle.

(d) "Private landscaping plan" means the same as that term is defined in Section 17-27a-604.5.

~~(d)~~ (i) "Vegetative coverage" means the ground level surface area covered by the exposed leaf area of a plant or group of plants at full maturity.

(ii) "Vegetative coverage" does not mean the ground level surface area covered by the exposed leaf area of a tree or trees.

~~(e)~~ "Water wise landscaping" means any or all of the following:

(i) installation of plant materials suited to the microclimate and soil conditions that can:

(A) remain healthy with minimal irrigation once established; or

(B) be maintained without the use of overhead spray irrigation;

(ii) use of water for outdoor irrigation through proper and efficient irrigation design and water application; or

(iii) the use of other landscape design features that:

(A) minimize the need of the landscape for supplemental water from irrigation; or

(B) reduce the landscape area dedicated to lawn or turf.

(2) A county may not enact or enforce an ordinance, resolution, or policy that prohibits, or has the effect of prohibiting, a property owner from incorporating water wise landscaping on the property owner's property.

(3) (a) Subject to Subsection (3)(b), Subsection (2) does not prohibit a county from requiring a property owner to:

(i) comply with a site plan review, private landscaping plan review, or other review process before installing water wise landscaping;

(ii) maintain plant material in a healthy condition; and

(iii) follow specific water wise landscaping design requirements adopted by the county, including a requirement that:

(A) restricts or clarifies the use of mulches considered detrimental to county operations;

(B) imposes minimum or maximum vegetative coverage standards; or

(C) restricts or prohibits the use of specific plant materials.

(b) A county may not require a property owner to install or keep in place lawn or turf in an area with a width less than eight feet.

(4) A county may require a seller of a newly constructed residence within the unincorporated area of the county to inform the first buyer of the newly constructed residence of a county ordinance requiring water wise landscaping.

(5) A county shall report to the Division of Water Resources the existence, enactment, or modification of an ordinance, resolution, or policy that implements regional-based water use efficiency standards established by the Division of Water Resources by rule under Section 73-10-37.

(6) A county may enforce a county landscaping ordinance in compliance with this section.

Section 63. Section 17-27a-536 is enacted to read:

17-27a-536

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Identical plan review -- Process -- Indexing of plans -- Prohibitions.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Business day" means Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday, unless the day falls on a federal, state, or county holiday.

(b) "Nonidentical plan" means a plan that does not meet the definition of an identical plan in Section 17-27a-103.

(c) "Original plan" means the same as that term is defined in Section 10-9a-541.

(2) An applicant may submit, and a county shall review, an identical plan as described in this section.

(3) At the time of submitting an identical plan for review to a county, an applicant shall:

(a) mark the floor plan as "identical plans";

(b) identify in writing:

(i) the building permit number the county issued for the original plan:

(A) that was previously approved by the county; and

(B) to which the submitted floor plan qualifies as an identical plan; or

(ii) the identifying index number assigned by the county to the original plan, as described in Subsection (5)(b); and

(c) identify the site on which the applicant intends to implement the identical plan.

(4) Beginning May 7, 2025, an applicant that intends to submit an identical plan for review to a county shall:

(a) indicate, at the time of submitting an original plan to the county for review and approval, that the applicant intends to use the original plan as the basis for submitting a future identical plan if the original plan is approved by the county; and

(b) identify:

(i) the name or other identifier of the original plan; and

(ii) the zone the building will be located in, if the county approves the original plan.

(5) Upon approving an original plan and receiving the information described in Subsection (4), a county shall:

(a) file and index the original plan for future reference against an identical plan later submitted under Subsection (2); and

(b) provide the applicant with an identifying index number for the original plan.

(6) A county that receives a submission under Subsection (2) shall review and compare the submitted identical plan to the original plan to ensure:

(a) the identical plan and original plan are substantially identical; and

(b) no structural changes have been made from the original plan.

(7) Nothing in this section prohibits a county from conducting a site review and requiring geological analysis of the proposed site identified by the applicant under Subsection (3)(c).

(8) A county shall:

(a) review a submitted identical plan for compliance with this section; and

(b) approve or reject the identical plan within five business days after the day on which the identical plan was submitted under Subsection (2).

(9) An applicant that submits a nonidentical plan to a county as an identical plan, with knowledge that the nonidentical plan does not qualify as an identical plan and with intent to deceive the county:

(a) may be fined by the county receiving the submission of the nonidentical plan:

(i) in an amount not to exceed three times the building permit fee, if the county approved the nonidentical plan as an identical plan before discovering the submission did not qualify as an identical plan; or

(ii) in an amount equal to the building permit fee that would have been issued for the nonidentical plan, if the county did not approve the nonidentical plan before discovering the submission did not qualify as an identical plan; and

(b) is prohibited from submitting an identical plan for review and approval under this section for a period of two years from the day on which the county discovers the nonidentical plan identified as an identical plan in the applicant's submission did not qualify as an identical plan.

(10) A county may impose a criminal penalty, as described in Section 17-53-223, for an applicant that knowingly violates the prohibition described in Subsection (9)(b).

Section 64. Section 17-27a-537, which is renumbered from Section 17-36-55 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-36-55~~]17-27a-537

(iv) a hotel;

(v) an inn;

(vi) a lodging house;

(vii) a motel;

(viii) a resort; or

(ix) a rooming house.

[~~(d) "Planning review" means a review to verify that a county has approved the following elements of a construction project:~~]

[~~(i) zoning;~~]

[~~(ii) lot sizes;~~]

[~~(iii) setbacks;~~]

[~~(iv) easements;~~]

[~~(v) curb and gutter elevations;~~]

[~~(vi) grades and slopes;~~]

[~~(vii) utilities;~~]

[~~(viii) street names;~~]

[~~(ix) defensible space provisions and elevations, if required by the Utah Wildland Urban Interface Code adopted under Section 15A-2-103; and~~]

[~~(x) subdivision.~~]

(e) (i) "Plan review" means all of the reviews and approvals of a plan that a county, including all relevant divisions or departments within a county, requires [~~to obtain~~]before issuing a building permit[~~from the county~~],with a scope that may not exceed a review to verify:

(A) that the construction project complies with the provisions of the State Construction Code under Title 15A, State Construction and Fire Codes Act;

(B) that the construction project complies with the energy code adopted under Section 15A-2-103;

(C) that the construction project [~~received a planning review~~]complies with local ordinances;

(D) that the applicant paid any required fees;

(E) that the applicant obtained final approvals from any other required reviewing agencies;

[~~(F) that the construction project complies with federal, state, and local storm water protection laws;~~]

~~(G)~~ that the construction project received a structural review;

~~(H)~~ the total square footage for each building level of finished, garage, and unfinished space; and

~~(I)~~ that the plans include a printed statement indicating that, before the disturbance of land and during the actual construction, the applicant will comply with applicable federal, state, and local laws and ordinances[~~and the state construction codes.~~], including any storm water protection laws and ordinances.

(ii) "Plan review" does not mean a review of[~~a document~~]:

(A) a document required to be re-submitted for a construction project other than a construction project for a one[~~to~~]-or two-family dwelling or townhome if additional modifications or substantive changes are identified by the plan review;

(B) a document submitted as part of a deferred submittal when requested by the applicant and approved by the building official; [~~or~~]

(C) a document that, due to the document's technical nature or on the request of the applicant, is reviewed by a third party[~~,~~]; or

(D) a storm water permit.

(f) "Screening period" means the three business days following the day on which an applicant submits an application.

(g) "State Construction Code" means the same as that term is defined in Section 15A-1-102.

~~(g)~~ "State Fire Code" means the same as that term is defined in Section 15A-1-102.

(i) "Storm water permit" means the same as that term is defined in Section 19-5-108.5.

~~(h)~~ "Structural review" means:

(i) a review that verifies that a construction project complies with the following:

(A) footing size and bar placement;

(B) foundation thickness and bar placement;

(C) beam and header sizes;

(D) nailing patterns;

(E) bearing points;

(F) structural member size and span; and

(G) sheathing; or

(ii) if the review exceeds the scope of the review described in Subsection ~~(1)(h)(i)~~(j)(i), a review that a licensed engineer conducts.

~~(i)~~ "Technical nature" means a characteristic that places an item outside the training and expertise of an individual who regularly performs plan reviews.

(2) (a) If a county collects a fee for the inspection of a construction project, the county shall ensure that the construction project receives a prompt inspection.

(b) If a county cannot provide a building inspection within three business days after the day on which the county receives the request for the inspection, the applicant may engage an inspection with a third-party inspection firm from the third-party inspection firm list, as described in Section 15A-1-105.

(c) If an inspector identifies one or more violations of the State Construction Code or State Fire Code during an inspection, the inspector shall give the permit holder written notification that:

(i) identifies each violation;

(ii) upon request by the permit holder, includes a reference to each applicable provision of the State Construction Code or State Fire Code; and

(iii) is delivered:

(A) in hardcopy or by electronic means; and

(B) the day on which the inspection occurs.

(3) (a) (i) A county that receives an application for a plan review shall determine if the application is complete, as described in Subsection (12), within the screening period.

(ii) If the county determines an application for a plan review is complete, as described in Subsection (12), within the screening period, the county shall begin the plan review process described in Subsection (4).

(b) If the county determines that an application for a plan review is not complete as described in Subsection (12), and if the county notifies the applicant of the county's determination:

(i) before 5 p.m. on the last day of the screening period, the county may:

(A) pause the screening period until the applicant ensures the application meets the requirements of Subsection (12); or

(B) reject the incomplete application; or

(ii) after 5 p.m. on the last day of the screening period, the county may not pause the screening period and shall begin the plan review process described in Subsection (4).

(c) If an application is rejected as described in Subsection (3)(b)(i)(B) and an applicant resubmits the application, the resubmission begins a new screening period in which the county shall review the resubmitted application to determine if the application is complete as described in Subsection (12).

(d) If the county gives notice of an incomplete application after 5 p.m. on the last day of the screening period, the county:

(i) shall immediately notify the applicant that the county has determined the application is not complete and the basis for the determination;

(ii) may not, except as provided in Subsection (3)(d)(iii), pause the relevant time period described in Subsection (4); and

(iii) may pause the relevant time period described in Subsection (4)(a) or (b) as described in Subsection (4)(c).

~~(3)~~ (a) [~~A~~]Except as provided in Subsection (7), once a county determines an application for plan review is complete, or proceeds to review an incomplete application for plan review under Subsection (3)(b)(ii), the county shall complete a plan review of a construction project for a one[~~to~~]- or two-family dwelling or townhome by no later than 14 business days after the day on which the [~~applicant submits a complete building permit application to the county~~]screening period for the application ends.

(b) [~~A~~]Except as provided in Subsection (7), once a county determines an application for plan review is complete, or proceeds to review an incomplete application for plan review under Subsection (3)(b)(ii), the county shall complete a plan review of a construction project for a residential structure built under the [~~International Building~~]State Construction Code [~~, not including~~]that is not a one- or two-family dwelling, townhome, or a lodging establishment, by no later than 21 business days after the day on which the [~~applicant submits a complete building permit application to the county~~]screening period for the application ends.

[~~(c) (i) Subject to Subsection (3)(c)(ii), if a county does not complete a plan review before the time period described in Subsection (3)(a) or (b) expires, an applicant may request that the county complete the plan review.~~]

[~~(ii) If an applicant makes a request under Subsection (3)(c)(i), the county shall perform the plan review no later than:~~]

[~~(A) for a plan review described in Subsection (3)(a), 14 days from the day on which the applicant makes the request; or~~]

[~~(B) for a plan review described in Subsection (3)(b), 21 days from the day on which the applicant makes the request.~~]

~~(d)~~ If a county gives notice of an incomplete application as described in Subsection (3)(d), the county:

(i) may pause the time period described in Subsection (4)(a) or (b):

(A) within the last five days of the relevant time period; and

(B) until the applicant provides the county with the information necessary to consider the application complete under Subsection (12);

(ii) shall resume the relevant time period upon receipt of the information necessary to consider the application complete; and

(iii) may, if necessary, use five additional days beginning the day on which the county receives the information described in Subsection (4)(c)(ii) to consider whether the application meets the requirements for a building permit, even if the five additional days extend beyond the relevant time period described in Subsection 4(a) or (b).

(d) If, at the conclusion of plan review, the county determines the application meets the requirements for a building permit, the county shall approve the application and, subject to Subsection (10)(b), issue the building permit to the applicant.

(5) (a) A county may utilize another government entity to determine if an application is complete or perform a plan review, in whole or in part.

(b) A county that utilizes another government entity to determine if an application is complete or perform a plan review, as described in Subsection (5)(a), shall:

(i) notify any other government entities, including water providers, within 24 hours of receiving any building permit application; and

(ii) provide the government entity all documents necessary to determine if an application is complete or perform a plan review, in whole or in part, as requested by the county.

(6) A government entity determining if an application is complete or performing a plan review, in whole or in part, as requested by a county, shall:

(a) comply with the requirements of this chapter; and

(b) notify the county within the screening period whether the application, or a portion of the application, is complete.

(7) An applicant may:

~~(i)~~ waive the plan review time requirements described in [~~this Subsection (3)~~]Subsection (4); or

~~(ii)~~ with the county's written consent, establish an alternative plan review time requirement.

~~(4)~~ (a) A county may not enforce a requirement to have a plan review if:

~~(a)~~ the county does not complete the plan review within the relevant time period described in Subsection ~~(3)(a) or (b)~~; and

~~(b)~~ a licensed architect or structural engineer, or both when required by law, stamps the plan.

(b) If a county is prohibited from enforcing a requirement to have a plan review under Subsection (8)(a), the county shall return to the applicant the plan review fee.

~~(5)~~ (a) A county may attach to a reviewed plan a list that includes:

(i) items with which the county is concerned and may enforce during construction; and

(ii) building code violations found in the plan.

(b) A county may not require an applicant to redraft a plan if the county requests minor changes to the plan that the list described in Subsection ~~(5)(a)~~(a) identifies.

(c) A county may require a single resubmittal of plans for a one- or two-family dwelling or townhome if [~~the resubmission is required to address deficiencies identified by a third-party review of a geotechnical report or geological report~~]deficiencies in the plan would affect the site plan interaction or footprint of the design.

~~(6)~~ (a) If a county charges a fee for a building permit, the county may not refuse payment of the fee at the time the applicant submits [~~a building permit~~]an application under Subsection (3).

(b) If a county charges a fee for a building permit and does not require the fee for a building permit be included in an application for plan review, upon approval of an application for plan review under Subsection (4)(d), the county may require the applicant to pay the fee for the building permit before the county issues the building permit.

~~(7)~~ A county may not limit the number of [~~building permit~~]applications submitted under Subsection (3).

~~(8)~~ For purposes of Subsection (3), [~~a building permit~~]an application for plan review is complete if the application contains:

(a) the name, address, and contact information of:

(i) the applicant; and

(ii) the construction manager/general contractor, as defined in Section 63G-6a-103, for the construction project;

(b) a site plan for the construction project that:

(i) is drawn to scale;

(ii) includes a north arrow and legend; and

(iii) provides specifications for the following:

(A) lot size and dimensions;

(B) setbacks and overhangs for setbacks;

(C) easements;

(D) property lines;

(E) topographical details, if the slope of the lot is greater than 10%;

(F) retaining walls;

(G) hard surface areas;

(H) curb and gutter elevations as indicated in the subdivision documents;

(I) existing and proposed utilities, including water[~~meter and sewer lateral location~~], sewer, and subsurface drainage facilities;

(J) street names;

(K) driveway locations;

(L) defensible space provisions and elevations, if required by the Utah Wildland Urban Interface Code adopted under Section 15A-2-103; and

(M) the location of the nearest hydrant;

(c) construction plans and drawings, including:

(i) elevations, only if the construction project is new construction;

(ii) floor plans for each level, including the location and size of doors[~~and~~], windows, and egress;

(iii) foundation, structural, and framing detail; [~~and~~]

(iv) electrical, mechanical, and plumbing design;

(v) a licensed architect's or structural engineer's stamp, when required by law; and

(vi) fire suppression details, when required by fire code;

(d) documentation of energy code compliance;

(e) structural calculations, except for trusses;

(f) a geotechnical report, including a slope stability evaluation and retaining wall design, if:

(i) the slope of the lot is greater than 15%; and

(ii) required by the county; [~~and~~]

(g) a statement indicating that[~~actual construction will comply with applicable local ordinances and building codes.~~]:

(i) before land disturbance occurs on the subject property, the applicant will obtain a storm water permit; and

(ii) during actual construction, the applicant shall comply with applicable local ordinances and building codes; and

(h) the fees, if any, established by ordinance for the county to perform a plan review.

(13) A county may, at the county's discretion, utilize automated review to fulfill, in whole or in part, the county's obligation to conduct plan review described in this section.

Section 65. Section 17-27a-604.5 is amended to read:

17-27a-604.5

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Subdivision plat recording or development activity before required infrastructure is completed -- Improvement completion assurance -- Improvement warranty.

(1) As used in this section[~~,~~]:

(a) "Private landscaping plan" means a proposal:

(i) to install landscaping on a lot owned by a private individual or entity; and

(ii) submitted to a county by the private individual or entity, or on behalf of a private individual or entity, that owns the lot.

(b) " [~~public~~]Public landscaping improvement" means landscaping that an applicant is required to install to comply with published installation and inspection specifications for public improvements that:

~~(a)~~ will be dedicated to and maintained by the county; or

~~(b)~~ are associated with and proximate to trail improvements that connect to planned or existing public infrastructure.

(2) A land use authority shall establish objective inspection standards for acceptance of a required public landscaping improvement or infrastructure improvement.

(3) (a) [~~Before~~]Except as provided in Subsection (3)(d) or (3)(e), before an applicant conducts any development activity or records a plat, the applicant shall:

(i) complete any required public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements; or

(ii) post an improvement completion assurance for any required public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements.

(b) If an applicant elects to post an improvement completion assurance, the applicant shall in accordance with Subsection (5) provide completion assurance for:

(i) completion of 100% of the required public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements; or

(ii) if the county has inspected and accepted a portion of the public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements, 100% of the incomplete or unaccepted public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements.

(c) A county shall:

(i) establish a minimum of two acceptable forms of completion assurance;

(ii) (A) if an applicant elects to post an improvement completion assurance, allow the applicant to post an assurance that meets the conditions of this [~~title,~~]chapter and any local ordinances; and

(B) if a county accepts cash deposits as a form of completion assurance and an applicant elects to post a cash deposit as a form of completion assurance, place the cash deposit in an interest-bearing account upon receipt and return any earned interest to the applicant with the return of the completion assurance according to the conditions of this chapter and any local ordinances;

(iii) establish a system for the partial release of an improvement completion assurance as portions of required public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements are completed and accepted in accordance with local ordinance; and

(iv) issue or deny a building permit in accordance with Section 17-27a-802 based on the installation of public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements.

(d) A county may not require an applicant to post an improvement completion assurance for:

(i) public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements that the county has previously inspected and accepted;

(ii) infrastructure improvements that are private and not essential or required to meet the building code, fire code, flood or storm water management provisions, street and access requirements, or other essential necessary public safety improvements adopted in a land use regulation;

(iii) in a county where ordinances require all infrastructure improvements within the area to be private, infrastructure improvements within a development that the county requires to be private; [~~or~~]

(iv) landscaping improvements that are not public landscaping improvements, unless the landscaping improvements and completion assurance are required under the terms of a development agreement[~~.~~];

(v) a private landscaping plan;

(vi) landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements that an applicant elects to install at the applicant's own risk:

(A) before the plat is recorded;

(B) pursuant to inspections required by the county for the infrastructure improvement; and

(C) pursuant to final civil engineering plan approval by the county; or

(vii) any individual public landscaping improvement or individual infrastructure improvement when the individual public landscaping improvement or individual infrastructure improvement is also included as part of a separate improvement completion assurance.

(e) (i) A county may not:

(A) prohibit an applicant from installing a public landscaping improvement or an infrastructure improvement when the municipality has approved final civil engineering plans for the development activity or plat for which the public landscaping improvement or infrastructure improvement is required; or

(B) require an applicant to sign an agreement, release, or other document inconsistent with this chapter as a condition of posting an improvement completion assurance, security for an improvement warranty, or receiving a building permit.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(e)(i)(A), public infrastructure improvements and infrastructure improvements that are installed by an applicant are subject to inspection by the county in accordance with the county's adopted inspection standards.

(f) (i) Each improvement completion assurance and improvement warranty posted by an applicant with a county shall be independent of any other improvement completion assurance or improvement warranty posted by the same applicant with the county.

(ii) Subject to Section 10-9a-509.5, if an applicant has posted a form of security with a county for more than one infrastructure improvement or public landscaping improvement, the county may not withhold acceptance of an applicant's required subdivision improvements, public landscaping improvement, infrastructure improvements, or the performance of warranty work for the same applicant's failure to complete a separate subdivision improvement, public landscaping improvement, infrastructure improvement, or warranty work under a separate improvement completion assurance or improvement warranty.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(c), as a condition for increased density or other entitlement benefit not currently available under the existing zone, a county may require a completion assurance bond for landscaped amenities and common area that are dedicated to and maintained by a homeowners association.

(b) Any agreement regarding a completion assurance bond under Subsection (4)(a) between the applicant and the county shall be memorialized in a development agreement.

(c) A county may not require a completion assurance bond for or dictate who installs or is responsible for the cost of the landscaping of residential lots or the equivalent open space surrounding single-family attached homes, whether platted as lots or common area.

(5) The sum of the improvement completion assurance required under Subsections (3) and (4) may not exceed the sum of:

(a) 100% of the estimated cost of the public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements, as evidenced by an engineer's estimate or licensed contractor's bid; and

(b) 10% of the amount of the bond to cover administrative costs incurred by the county to complete the improvements, if necessary.

(6) (a) [~~At any time before a county accepts a public landscaping improvement or infrastructure improvement~~]Upon an applicant's written request that the land use authority accept or reject the applicant's installation of required subdivision improvements or performance of warranty work as set forth in Section 17-27a-509.5, and for the duration of each improvement warranty period, the land use authority may require the applicant to:

~~(a)~~ execute an improvement warranty for the improvement warranty period; and

~~(b)~~ post a cash deposit, surety bond, letter of credit, or other similar security, as required by the county, in the amount of up to 10% of the lesser of the:

~~(i)~~ county engineer's original estimated cost of completion; or

~~(ii)~~ applicant's reasonable proven cost of completion.

(b) A county may not require the payment of the deposit of the improvement warranty assurance described in Subsection (6)(a) for an infrastructure improvement or public landscaping improvement before the applicant indicates through written request that the applicant has completed the infrastructure improvement or public landscaping improvement.

(7) When a county accepts an improvement completion assurance for public landscaping improvements or infrastructure improvements for a development in accordance with Subsection (3)(c)(ii) (A), the county may not deny an applicant a building permit if the development meets the requirements for the issuance of a building permit under the building code and fire code.

(8) A county may not require the submission of a private landscaping plan as part of an application for a building permit.

~~(8)~~ The provisions of this section do not supersede the terms of a valid development agreement, an adopted phasing plan, or the state construction code.

Section 66. Section 17-27a-701 is amended to read:

17-27a-701

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Appeal authority required -- Condition precedent to judicial review -- Appeal authority duties.

(1) (a) Each county adopting a land use ordinance shall, by ordinance, establish one or more appeal authorities.

(b) An appeal authority shall hear and decide:

(i) requests for variances from the terms of land use ordinances;

(ii) appeals from land use decisions applying land use ordinances; and

(iii) appeals from a fee charged in accordance with Section 17-27a-509.

(c) An appeal authority may not hear an appeal from the enactment of a land use regulation.

(2) As a condition precedent to judicial review, each adversely affected party shall timely and specifically challenge a land use authority's land use decision, in accordance with local ordinance.

(3) An appeal authority described in Subsection (1)(a):

(a) shall:

(i) act in a quasi-judicial manner; and

(ii) serve as the final arbiter of issues involving the interpretation or application of land use ordinances; and

(b) may not entertain an appeal of a matter in which the appeal authority, or any participating member, had first acted as the land use authority.

(4) By ordinance, a county may:

(a) designate a separate appeal authority to hear requests for variances than the appeal authority the county designates to hear appeals;

(b) designate one or more separate appeal authorities to hear distinct types of appeals of land use authority decisions;

(c) require an adversely affected party to present to an appeal authority every theory of relief that the adversely affected party can raise in district court;

(d) not require a land use applicant or adversely affected party to pursue duplicate or successive appeals before the same or separate appeal authorities as a condition of an appealing party's duty to exhaust administrative remedies; and

(e) provide that specified types of land use decisions may be appealed directly to the district court.

(5) A county may not require a public hearing for a request for a variance or land use appeal.

(6) If the county establishes or, prior to the effective date of this chapter, has established a multiperson board, body, or panel to act as an appeal authority, at a minimum the board, body, or panel shall:

(a) notify each of the members of the board, body, or panel of any meeting or hearing of the board, body, or panel;

(b) provide each of the members of the board, body, or panel with the same information and access to municipal resources as any other member;

(c) convene only if a quorum of the members of the board, body, or panel is present; and

(d) act only upon the vote of a majority of the convened members of the board, body, or panel.

Section 67. Section 17-27a-802 is amended to read:

17-27a-802

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Enforcement -- Limitations on a county's ability to enforce an ordinance by withholding a permit or certificate.

(1) (a) A county or an adversely affected party may, in addition to other remedies provided by law, institute:

(i) injunctions, mandamus, abatement, or any other appropriate actions; or

(ii) proceedings to prevent, enjoin, abate, or remove the unlawful building, use, or act.

(b) A county need only establish the violation to obtain the injunction.

(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsections (3) [~~and (4)~~]through (6), a county may enforce the county's ordinance by withholding a building permit or certificate of occupancy.

(b) It is unlawful to erect, construct, reconstruct, alter, or change the use of any building or other structure within a county without approval of a building permit.

(c) The county may not issue a building permit unless the plans of and for the proposed erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, or use fully conform to all regulations then in effect.

(d) A county may require an applicant to install a permanent road, cover a temporary road with asphalt or concrete, or create another method for servicing a structure that is consistent with Appendix D of the International Fire Code, before receiving a certificate of occupancy for that structure.

(e) A county may require an applicant to maintain and repair a temporary fire apparatus road during the construction of a structure accessed by the temporary fire apparatus road in accordance with the county's adopted standards.

(f) A county may require temporary signs to be installed at each street intersection once construction of new roadway allows passage by a motor vehicle.

(g) A county may adopt and enforce any appendix of the International Fire Code, 2021 Edition.

(3) (a) A county may not deny an applicant a building permit or certificate of occupancy because the applicant has not completed an infrastructure improvement:

(i) [~~that is not~~]unless the infrastructure improvement is essential to meet the requirements for the issuance of a building permit or certificate of occupancy under [~~the building code and fire code~~]Title 15A, State Construction and Fire Codes Act; and

(ii) for which the county has accepted an improvement completion assurance for a public landscaping improvement, as defined in Section 17-27a-604.5, or an infrastructure improvement for the development.

(b) For purposes of Subsection (3)(a)(i), notwithstanding Section 15A-5-205.6, infrastructure improvement that is essential means:

(i) operable fire hydrants installed in a manner that is consistent with the county's adopted engineering standards; and

(ii) for temporary roads used during construction, a properly compacted road base installed in a manner consistent with the county's adopted engineering standards.

(c) A county may not adopt an engineering standard that requires an applicant to install a permanent road or a temporary road with asphalt or concrete before receiving a building permit.

~~(3)~~ A county may not deny an applicant a building permit or certificate of occupancy [~~based on the lack of completion of a~~]for failure to:

(a) submit a private landscaping plan, as defined in Section 17-27a-604.5; or

(b) complete a landscaping improvement that is not a public landscaping improvement, as defined in Section 17-27a-604.5.

~~(4)~~ A county may not withhold a building permit based on the lack of completion of a portion of a public sidewalk to be constructed within a public right-of-way serving a lot where a single-family or two-family residence or town home is proposed in a building permit application if an improvement completion assurance has been posted for the incomplete portion of the public sidewalk.

~~(5)~~ A county may not prohibit the construction of a single-family or two-family residence or town home, withhold recording a plat, or withhold acceptance of a public landscaping improvement, as defined in Section 17-27a-604.5, or an infrastructure improvement based on the lack of installation of a public sidewalk if an improvement completion assurance has been posted for the public sidewalk.

~~(6)~~ A county may not redeem an improvement completion assurance securing the installation of a public sidewalk sooner than 18 months after the date the improvement completion assurance is posted.

~~(7)~~ A county shall allow an applicant to post an improvement completion assurance for a public sidewalk separate from an improvement completion assurance for:

(a) another infrastructure improvement; or

(b) a public landscaping improvement, as defined in Section 17-27a-604.5.

~~(8)~~ A county may withhold a certificate of occupancy for a single-family or two-family residence or town home until the portion of the public sidewalk to be constructed within a public right-of-way and located immediately adjacent to the single-family or two-family residence or town home is completed and accepted by the county.

Section 68. Section 17B-1-119 is amended to read:

17B-1-119

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Duty to comply with local land use provisions -- Requirements before providing a service.

[~~A special district shall comply with Title 10, Chapter 9a, Municipal Land Use, Development, and Management Act, and Title 17, Chapter 27a, County Land Use, Development, and Management Act, as applicable, if~~]

(1) (a) If a land use authority consults with or allows [~~the~~]a special district to participate in any way in a land use authority's land use development review or approval process[~~.~~], the special district shall comply with Title 10, Chapter 9a, Municipal Land Use and Development Act, or Title 17, Chapter 27a, County Land Use and Development Act, as applicable to the land use authority.

(b) The compliance required under Subsection (1)(a) is not limited to the special district's participation in the land use authority's review or approval process.

(2) (a) Before a special district begins providing a service to a service applicant, the service applicant shall provide the special district with an improvement assurance and an improvement assurance warranty.

(b) A special district that has not received an improvement assurance and an improvement assurance warranty from a service applicant may not begin providing service to the service applicant.

Section 69. Section 17B-1-503 is amended to read:

17B-1-503

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Withdrawal or boundary adjustment with municipal approval.

(1) A municipality and a special district whose boundaries adjoin or overlap may adjust the boundary of the special district to include more or less of the municipality, including the expansion area identified in the annexation policy plan adopted by the municipality under Section [~~10-2-401.5~~]10-2-803, in the special district by following the same procedural requirements as set forth in Section 17B-1-417 for boundary adjustments between adjoining special districts.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, a municipality annexing all or part of an unincorporated island or peninsula under Title 10, Chapter 2, Classification, Boundaries, Consolidation, and Dissolution of Municipalities, that overlaps a municipal services district organized under Chapter 2a, Part 11, Municipal Services District Act, may petition to withdraw the area from the municipal services district in accordance with this Subsection (2).

(b) For a valid withdrawal described in Subsection (2)(a):

(i) the annexation petition under Section [~~10-2-403~~]10-2-806 or a separate consent, signed by owners of at least 60% of the total private land area, shall state that the signers request the area to be withdrawn from the municipal services district; and

(ii) the legislative body of the municipality shall adopt a resolution, which may be the resolution adopted in accordance with Subsection [~~10-2-418(5)(a)~~]10-2-812(3)(a), stating the municipal legislative body's intent to withdraw the area from the municipal services district.

(c) The board of trustees of the municipal services district shall consider the municipality's petition to withdraw the area from the municipal services district within 90 days after the day on which the municipal services district receives the petition.

(d) The board of trustees of the municipal services district:

(i) may hold a public hearing in accordance with the notice and public hearing provisions of Section 17B-1-508;

(ii) shall consider information that includes any factual data presented by the municipality and any owner of private real property who signed a petition or other form of consent described in Subsection (2)(b)(i); and

(iii) identify in writing the information upon which the board of trustees relies in approving or rejecting the withdrawal.

(e) The board of trustees of the municipal services district shall approve the withdrawal, effective upon the annexation of the area into the municipality or, if the municipality has already annexed the area, as soon as possible in the reasonable course of events, if the board of trustees makes a finding that:

(i) (A) the loss of revenue to the municipal services district due to a withdrawal of the area will be offset by savings associated with no longer providing municipal-type services to the area; or

(B) if the loss of revenue will not be offset by savings resulting from no longer providing municipal-type services to the area, the municipality agreeing to terms and conditions, which may include terms and conditions described in Subsection 17B-1-510(5), can mitigate or eliminate the loss of revenue;

(ii) the annexation petition under Section [~~10-2-403~~]10-2-806, or a separate petition meeting the same signature requirements, states that the signers request the area to be withdrawn from the municipal services district; or

(iii) the following have consented in writing to the withdrawal:

(A) owners of more than 60% of the total private land area; or

(B) owners of private land equal in assessed value to more than 60% of the assessed value of all private real property within the area proposed for withdrawal have consented in writing to the withdrawal.

(f) If the board of trustees of the municipal services district does not make any of the findings described in Subsection (2)(e), the board of trustees may approve or reject the withdrawal based upon information upon which the board of trustees relies and that the board of trustees identifies in writing.

(g) (i) If a municipality annexes an island or a part of an island before May 14, 2019, the legislative body of the municipality may initiate the withdrawal of the area from the municipal services district by adopting a resolution that:

(A) requests that the area be withdrawn from the municipal services district; and

(B) a final local entity plat accompanies, identifying the area proposed to be withdrawn from the municipal services district.

(ii) (A) Upon receipt of the resolution and except as provided in Subsection (2)(g)(ii)(B), the board of trustees of the municipal services district shall approve the withdrawal.

(B) The board of trustees of the municipal services district may reject the withdrawal if the rejection is based upon a good faith finding that lost revenues due to the withdrawal will exceed expected cost savings resulting from no longer serving the area.

(h) (i) Based upon a finding described in Subsection (e) or (f):

(A) the board of trustees of the municipal services district shall adopt a resolution approving the withdrawal; and

(B) the chair of the board shall sign a notice of impending boundary action, as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5, that meets the requirements of Subsection 67-1a-6.5(3).

(ii) The annexing municipality shall deliver the following to the lieutenant governor:

(A) the resolution and notice of impending boundary action described in Subsection (2)(g)(i);

(B) a copy of an approved final local entity plat as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5; and

(C) any other documentation required by law.

(i) (i) Once the lieutenant governor has issued an applicable certificate as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5, the municipality shall deliver the certificate, the resolution and notice of impending boundary action described in Subsection (2)(h)(i), the final local entity plat as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5, and any other document required by law, to the recorder of the county in which the area is located.

(ii) After the municipality makes the delivery described in Subsection (2)(i)(i), the area, for all purposes, is no longer part of the municipal services district.

(j) The annexing municipality and the municipal services district may enter into an interlocal agreement under Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act, stating:

(i) the municipality's and the district's duties and responsibilities in conducting a withdrawal under this Subsection (2); and

(ii) any other matter respecting an unincorporated island that the municipality surrounds on all sides.

(3) After a boundary adjustment under Subsection (1) or a withdrawal under Subsection (2)is complete:

(a) the special district shall, without interruption, provide the same service to any area added to the special district as provided to other areas within the special district; and

(b) the municipality shall, without interruption, provide the same service that the special district previously provided to any area withdrawn from the special district.

(4) No area within a municipality may be added to the area of a special district under this section if the area is part of a special district that provides the same wholesale or retail service as the first special district.

Section 70. Section 17B-1-512 is amended to read:

17B-1-512

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Filing of notice and plat -- Recording requirements -- Contest period -- Judicial review.

(1) (a) Within the time specified in Subsection (1)(b), the board of trustees shall file with the lieutenant governor:

(i) a copy of a notice of an impending boundary action, as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5, that meets the requirements of Subsection 67-1a-6.5(3); and

(ii) a copy of an approved final local entity plat, as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5.

(b) The board of trustees shall file the documents listed in Subsection (1)(a):

(i) within 10 days after adopting a resolution approving a withdrawal under Section 17B-1-510;

(ii) on or before January 31 of the year following the board of trustees' receipt of a notice or copy described in Subsection (1)(c), if the board of trustees receives the notice or copy between July 1 and December 31; or

(iii) on or before the July 31 following the board of trustees' receipt of a notice or copy described in Subsection (1)(c), if the board of trustees receives the notice or copy between January 1 and June 30.

(c) The board of trustees shall comply with the requirements described in Subsection (1)(b)(ii) or (iii) after:

(i) receiving:

(A) a notice under Subsection [~~10-2-425(3)~~]10-2-813(2) of an automatic withdrawal under Subsection 17B-1-502(2);

(B) a copy of the municipal legislative body's resolution approving an automatic withdrawal under Subsection 17B-1-502(3)(a); or

(C) notice of a withdrawal of a municipality from a special district under Section 17B-1-502; or

(ii) entering into an agreement with a municipality under Subsection 17B-1-505(5)(a)(ii)(A) or (5)(b).

(d) Upon the lieutenant governor's issuance of a certificate of withdrawal under Section 67-1a-6.5, the board shall:

(i) if the withdrawn area is located within the boundary of a single county, submit to the recorder of that county:

(A) the original:

(I) notice of an impending boundary action;

(II) certificate of withdrawal; and

(III) approved final local entity plat; and

(B) if applicable, a certified copy of the resolution or notice referred to in Subsection (1)(b); or

(ii) if the withdrawn area is located within the boundaries of more than a single county, submit:

(A) the original of the documents listed in Subsections (1)(d)(i)(A)(I), (II), and (III) and, if applicable, a certified copy of the resolution or notice referred to in Subsection (1)(b) to one of those counties; and

(B) a certified copy of the documents listed in Subsections (1)(d)(i)(A)(I), (II), and (III) and a certified copy of the resolution or notice referred to in Subsection (1)(b) to each other county.

(2) (a) Upon the lieutenant governor's issuance of the certificate of withdrawal under Section 67-1a-6.5 for a withdrawal under Section 17B-1-510, for an automatic withdrawal under Subsection 17B-1-502(3), or for the withdrawal of a municipality from a special district under Section 17B-1-505, the withdrawal shall be effective, subject to the conditions of the withdrawal resolution, if applicable.

(b) An automatic withdrawal under Subsection 17B-1-502(3) shall be effective upon the lieutenant governor's issuance of a certificate of withdrawal under Section 67-1a-6.5.

(3) (a) The special district may provide for the publication of any resolution approving or denying the withdrawal of an area:

(i) in a newspaper of general circulation in the area proposed for withdrawal; and

(ii) as required in Section 45-1-101.

(b) In lieu of publishing the entire resolution, the special district may publish a notice of withdrawal or denial of withdrawal, containing:

(i) the name of the special district;

(ii) a description of the area proposed for withdrawal;

(iii) a brief explanation of the grounds on which the board of trustees determined to approve or deny the withdrawal; and

(iv) the times and place where a copy of the resolution may be examined, which shall be at the place of business of the special district, identified in the notice, during regular business hours of the special district as described in the notice and for a period of at least 30 days after the publication of the notice.

(4) Any sponsor of the petition or receiving entity may contest the board's decision to deny a withdrawal of an area from the special district by submitting a request, within 60 days after the resolution is adopted under Section 17B-1-510, to the board of trustees, suggesting terms or conditions to mitigate or eliminate the conditions upon which the board of trustees based its decision to deny the withdrawal.

(5) Within 60 days after the request under Subsection (4) is submitted to the board of trustees, the board may consider the suggestions for mitigation and adopt a resolution approving or denying the request in the same manner as provided in Section 17B-1-510 with respect to the original resolution denying the withdrawal and file a notice of the action as provided in Subsection (1).

(6) (a) Any person in interest may seek judicial review of:

(i) the board of trustees' decision to withdraw an area from the special district;

(ii) the terms and conditions of a withdrawal; or

(iii) the board's decision to deny a withdrawal.

(b) Judicial review under this Subsection (6) shall be initiated by filing an action in the district court in the county in which a majority of the area proposed to be withdrawn is located:

(i) if the resolution approving or denying the withdrawal is published under Subsection (3), within 60 days after the publication or after the board of trustees' denial of the request under Subsection (5);

(ii) if the resolution is not published pursuant to Subsection (3), within 60 days after the resolution approving or denying the withdrawal is adopted; or

(iii) if a request is submitted to the board of trustees of a special district under Subsection (4), and the board adopts a resolution under Subsection (5), within 60 days after the board adopts a resolution under Subsection (5) unless the resolution is published under Subsection (3), in which event the action shall be filed within 60 days after the publication.

(c) A court in which an action is filed under this Subsection (6) may not overturn, in whole or in part, the board of trustees' decision to approve or reject the withdrawal unless:

(i) the court finds the board of trustees' decision to be arbitrary or capricious; or

(ii) the court finds that the board materially failed to follow the procedures set forth in this part.

(d) A court may award costs and expenses of an action under this section, including reasonable attorney fees, to the prevailing party.

(7) After the applicable contest period under Subsection (4) or (6), no person may contest the board of trustees' approval or denial of withdrawal for any cause.

Section 71. Section 17B-2a-1106 is amended to read:

17B-2a-1106

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Municipal services district board of trustees -- Governance.

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law regarding the membership of a special district board of trustees, the initial board of trustees of a municipal services district shall consist of the county legislative body.

(2) (a) If, after the initial creation of a municipal services district, an area within the district is incorporated as a municipality as defined in Section 10-1-104 and the area is not withdrawn from the district in accordance with Section 17B-1-502 or 17B-1-505, or an area within the municipality is annexed into the municipal services district in accordance with Section 17B-2a-1103, the district's board of trustees shall be as follows:

(i) subject to Subsection (2)(b), a member of that municipality's governing body;

(ii) one member of the county council of the county in which the municipal services district is located; and

(iii) the total number of board members is not required to be an odd number.

(b) A member described in Subsection (2)(a)(i) shall be designated by the municipal legislative body.

(3) (a) As used in this Subsection (3):

(i) "District participant" means:

(A) the county that created a municipal services district under Section 17B-2a-1105; or

(B) a municipality that is part of the municipal services district.

(ii) "Proportionate amount" means, for each district participant, the amount that is attributable to the district participant in proportion to the total amount attributable to all district participants.

(iii) "Trigger date" means the earliest of:

(A) the effective date of an annexation of an unincorporated island, as defined in Section [~~10-2-429~~]10-2-814, that occurs under Title 10, Chapter 2, [~~Part 4~~]Part 8, Annexation, excluding an automatic annexation under Section [~~10-2-429~~]10-2-814;

(B) the effective date of an incorporation of a community council area, as defined in Section 10-2a-102; and

(C) the effective date of an automatic annexation under Section [~~10-2-429~~]10-2-814.

(b) For a board of trustees described in Subsection (2), each board member's vote is weighted:

(i) until the trigger date, using the proportion of the municipal services district population that resides:

(A) for each member described in Subsection (2)(a)(i), within that member's municipality; and

(B) for the member described in Subsection (2)(a)(ii), within the unincorporated county; and

(ii) beginning the trigger date:

(A) 60% according to the proportionate amount of the combined total of sales tax revenue and revenue for B and C roads under Section 72-2-108;

(B) 30% according to the proportionate amount of weighted mileage, as defined in Section 72-2-108; and

(C) 10% according to the proportionate amount of population.

(4) The board may adopt a resolution providing for future board members to be appointed, as provided in Section 17B-1-304, or elected, as provided in Section 17B-1-306.

(5) Notwithstanding Subsections 17B-1-309(1) or 17B-1-310(1), the board of trustees may adopt a resolution to determine the internal governance of the board.

(6) The municipal services district and the county may enter into an agreement for the provision of legal services to the municipal services district.

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Utah State Developmental Center Board -- Creation -- Membership -- Duties -- Powers.

(1) There is created the Utah State Developmental Center Board within the department.

(2) The board is composed of nine members as follows:

(a) the director of the Division of Services for People with Disabilities or the director's designee;

(b) the superintendent of the developmental center or the superintendent's designee;

(c) the executive director or the executive director's designee;

(d) a resident of the Utah State Developmental Center selected by the superintendent; and

(e) five members appointed or reappointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the Senate as follows:

(i) three members of the general public; and

(ii) two members who are parents or guardians of individuals who receive services at the Utah State Developmental Center.

(3) In making appointments to the board, the governor shall ensure that:

(a) no more than three members have immediate family residing at the Utah State Developmental Center; and

(b) members represent a variety of geographic areas and economic interests of the state.

(4) (a) The governor shall appoint each member described in Subsection (2)(e) for a term of four years.

(b) An appointed member may not serve more than two full consecutive terms unless the governor determines that an additional term is in the best interest of the state.

(c) Notwithstanding the requirements of Subsections (4)(a) and (b), the governor shall, at the time of appointment or reappointment, adjust the length of terms to ensure that the terms of appointed members are staggered so that approximately half of the appointed members are appointed every two years.

(d) Appointed members shall continue in office until the expiration of their terms and until their successors are appointed, which may not exceed 120 days after the formal expiration of a term.

(e) When a vacancy occurs in the membership for any reason, the governor shall, with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint a replacement for the unexpired term.

(5) (a) The director shall serve as the chair.

(b) The board shall appoint a member to serve as vice chair.

(c) The board shall hold meetings quarterly or as needed.

(d) Five members are necessary to constitute a quorum at any meeting, and, if a quorum exists, the action of the majority of members present shall be the action of the board.

(e) The chair shall be a non-voting member except that the chair may vote to break a tie vote between the voting members.

(6) An appointed member may not receive compensation or benefits for the member's service, but, at the executive director's discretion, may receive per diem and travel expenses in accordance with:

(a) Section 63A-3-106;

(b) Section 63A-3-107; and

(c) rules made by the Division of Finance pursuant to Sections 63A-3-106 and 63A-3-107.

(7) (a) The board shall adopt bylaws governing the board's activities.

(b) Bylaws shall include procedures for removal of a member who is unable or unwilling to fulfill the requirements of the member's appointment.

(8) The board shall:

(a) act for the benefit of the Utah State Developmental Center and the Division of Services for People with Disabilities;

(b) advise and assist the Division of Services for People with Disabilities with the division's functions, operations, and duties related to the Utah State Developmental Center, described in Sections 26B-6-402, 26B-6-403, 26B-6-502, 26B-6-504, and 26B-6-506;

(c) administer the Utah State Developmental Center Miscellaneous Donation Fund, as described in Section 26B-1-330;

(d) administer the Utah State Developmental Center Long-Term Sustainability Fund, as described in Section 26B-1-331;

(e) approve the sale, lease, or other disposition of real property or water rights associated with the Utah State Developmental Center, as described in Subsection 26B-6-507(2); and

(f) within 21 days after the day on which the board receives the notice required under Subsection [~~10-2-419(3) (b)~~]10-2-903(3)(b), provide a written opinion regarding the proposed boundary adjustment to:

(i) the director of the Division of Facilities and Construction Management; and

(ii) the Legislative Management Committee.

Section 74. Section 53-2d-514 is amended to read:

53-2d-514

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Annexations.

(1) A municipality shall comply with the provisions of this section if the municipality is licensed under this chapter and desires to provide service to an area that is:

(a) included in a petition for annexation under [~~Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 4, Annexation~~]Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 8, Annexation; and

(b) currently serviced by another provider licensed under this chapter.

(2) (a) (i) At least 45 days prior to approving a petition for annexation, the municipality shall certify to the bureau that by the time of the approval of the annexation the municipality can meet or exceed the current level of service provided by the existing licensee for the annexed area by meeting the requirements of Subsections (2)(b)(ii)(A) through (D); and

(ii) no later than three business days after the municipality files a petition for annexation in accordance with Section [~~10-2-403~~]10-2-806, provide written notice of the petition for annexation to:

(A) the existing licensee providing service to the area included in the petition of annexation; and

(B) the bureau.

(b) (i) After receiving a certification under Subsection (2)(a), but prior to the municipality approving a petition for annexation, the bureau may audit the municipality only to verify the requirements of Subsections (2)(b)(ii)(A) through (D).

(ii) If the bureau elects to conduct an audit, the bureau shall make a finding that the municipality can meet or exceed the current level of service provided by the existing licensee for the annexed area if the bureau finds that the municipality has or will have by the time of the approval of the annexation:

(A) adequate trained personnel to deliver basic and advanced life support services;

(B) adequate apparatus and equipment to deliver emergency medical services;

(C) adequate funding for personnel and equipment; and

(D) appropriate medical controls, such as a medical director and base hospital.

(iii) The bureau shall submit the results of the audit in writing to the municipal legislative body.

(3) (a) If the bureau audit finds that the municipality meets the requirements of Subsection (2)(b)(ii), the bureau shall issue an amended license to the municipality and all other affected licensees to reflect the municipality's new boundaries after the bureau receives notice of the approval of the petition for annexation from the municipality in accordance with Section [~~10-2-425~~]10-2-813.

(b) (i) Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection 63G-4-102(2)(k), if the bureau audit finds that the municipality fails to meet the requirements of Subsection (2)(b)(ii), the municipality may request an adjudicative proceeding under the provisions of Title 63G, Chapter 4, Administrative Procedures Act. The municipality may approve the petition for annexation while an adjudicative proceeding requested under this Subsection (3)(b)(i) is pending.

(ii) The bureau shall conduct an adjudicative proceeding when requested under Subsection (3)(b)(i).

(iii) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 53-2d-504 through 53-2d-509, in any adjudicative proceeding held under the provisions of Subsection (3)(b)(i), the bureau bears the burden of establishing that the municipality cannot, by the time of the approval of the annexation, meet the requirements of Subsection (2)(b)(ii).

(c) If, at the time of the approval of the annexation, an adjudicative proceeding is pending under the provisions of Subsection (3)(b)(i), the bureau shall issue amended licenses if the municipality prevails in the adjudicative proceeding.

Section 75. Section 54-3-30 is amended to read:

54-3-30

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Electric utility service within a provider municipality -- Electrical corporation prohibited as provider -- Exceptions -- Notice and agreement -- Transfer of customer.

(1) This section applies to an electrical corporation that intends to provide electric service to a customer:

(a) who is located within the municipal boundary of a municipality that provides electric service; and

(b) who is not described in Subsection 54-3-31(2).

(2) (a) If an electrical corporation is authorized by the commission to provide electric service to a customer in an area adjacent to a municipality, and the municipality provides electric service to a customer located within its municipal boundary, the electrical corporation may not provide electric service to a customer within the municipal boundary unless:

(i) the electrical corporation has entered into a written agreement with the municipality authorizing the electrical corporation to provide electric service:

(A) to a specified customer or to customers located within a specified area within the municipal boundary; and

(B) in accordance with the terms and conditions of the electrical corporation's tariffs and regulations approved by the commission, or approved by the governing board for an electrical cooperative that meets the requirements of Subsection 54-7-12(7); and

(ii) (A) except as provided in Subsection (2)(a)(ii)(B), the commission approves the agreement in accordance with Section 54-4-40; or

(B) for an electrical cooperative that meets the requirements of Subsection 54-7-12(7), the governing board of the electrical cooperative approves the agreement.

(b) The municipality or the electrical corporation may terminate the agreement for the provision of electric service if the commission imposes a condition authorized in Section 54-4-40 that is a material change to the agreement.

(3) An electrical corporation that enters into an agreement described in Subsection (2)(a) shall transfer service to a customer described in Subsection (2):

(a) at the conclusion of a term specified in the agreement; or

(b) upon termination of the agreement by the electrical corporation in accordance with Subsection (4).

(4) Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the electrical corporation and the municipality, the electrical corporation may terminate an agreement entered into in accordance with Subsection (2)(a) by giving written notice of termination to the municipality:

(a) no earlier than two years before the day of termination; or

(b) within a period of time shorter than two years if otherwise agreed to with the municipality.

(5) Upon termination of an agreement in accordance with Subsection (3)(a), (3)(b), or (4):

(a) (i) the electrical corporation shall transfer the electric service customer to the municipality; and

(ii) the municipality shall provide electric service to the customer; and

(b) the electrical corporation shall transfer a facility in accordance with and for the value as provided in Section [~~10-2-421~~]10-2-817.

(6) This section may not be construed to modify or terminate any written franchise agreement or other agreement that expressly provides for electric service by an electrical corporation to a customer within a municipality that was entered into between an electrical corporation and a municipality on or before June 15, 2013.

Section 76. Section 54-3-31 is amended to read:

54-3-31

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Electric utility service within a provider municipality -- Electrical corporation authorized as continuing provider for service provided on or before June 15, 2013 -- Notice of service and agreement -- Transfer of customer.

(1) This section applies to an electrical corporation that:

(a) (i) provides electric service to a customer on or before June 15, 2013, within the municipal boundary of a municipality that provides electric service; or

(ii) provides electric service to a customer within an area:

(A) established by an agreement dated on or before June 15, 2013, with a municipality; and

(B) within the municipal boundary of a municipality that provides electric service; and

(b) intends to continue providing service to that customer.

(2) Notwithstanding Section 54-3-30, if an electrical corporation provides electric service to a customer as described in Subsection (1), and the municipality provides electric service to another customer within its municipal boundary, the electrical corporation may continue to provide electric service to the customer within the municipality's boundary after the termination of, or in the absence of, a written agreement, if:

(a) the electrical corporation provides, on or before December 15, 2013, the municipality with an accurate and complete verified written notice, in accordance with Subsection (3), identifying each customer within the municipality served by the electrical corporation on or before June 15, 2013;

(b) the electrical corporation enters into a written agreement with the municipality:

(i) (A) prior to the termination of any prior written agreement; or

(B) in the absence of a written agreement; and

(ii) no later than June 15, 2014; and

(c) (i) except as provided in Subsection (2)(c)(ii), the commission approves the agreement in accordance with Section 54-4-40; or

(ii) for an electrical cooperative that meets the requirements of Subsection 54-7-12(7), the governing board of the electrical cooperative approves the agreement.

(3) The written notice provided in accordance with Subsection (2)(a) shall include for each customer:

(a) the customer's meter number;

(b) the location of the customer's meter by street address, global positioning system coordinates, metes and bounds description, or other similar method of meter location;

(c) the customer's class of service; and

(d) a representation that the customer was receiving service from the electrical corporation on or before June 15, 2013.

(4) The agreement entered into in accordance with Subsection (2) shall require the following:

(a) The electrical corporation is the exclusive electric service provider to a customer identified in the notice described in Subsection (2)(a) unless the municipality and electrical corporation subsequently agree, in writing, that the municipality may provide electric service to the identified customer.

(b) If a customer who is located within the municipal boundary and who is not identified in Subsection (2)(a) requests service after June 15, 2013, from the electrical corporation, the electrical corporation may not provide that customer electric service unless the electrical corporation subsequently submits a request to and enters into a written agreement with the municipality in accordance with Section 54-3-30.

(5) (a) Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the electrical corporation and the municipality, the electrical corporation may terminate an agreement entered into in accordance with Subsection (2)(b) by giving written notice of termination to the municipality:

(i) no earlier than two years before the day of termination; or

(ii) within a period of time shorter than two years if otherwise agreed to with the municipality.

(b) Upon termination of an agreement in accordance with Subsection (5)(a):

(i) (A) the electrical corporation shall transfer an electric service customer located within the municipality to the municipality; and

(B) the municipality shall provide electric service to the customer; and

(ii) the electrical corporation shall transfer a facility in accordance with and for the value as provided in Section [~~10-2-421~~]10-2-817.

(6) This section may not be construed to modify or terminate any written franchise agreement or other agreement that expressly provides for electric service by an electrical corporation to a customer within a municipality that was entered into between an electrical corporation and a municipality on or before June 15, 2013.

(A) that begins after the effective date of the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase; and

(B) if the billing period for the transaction begins before the effective date of the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase imposed under:

(I) Section 59-12-352; or

(II) Section 59-12-353.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(a), for a transaction described in Subsection (2)(c)(iii), the repeal of a tax or a tax rate decrease shall take effect on the first day of the last billing period:

(A) that began before the effective date of the repeal of the tax or the tax rate decrease; and

(B) if the billing period for the transaction begins before the effective date of the repeal of the tax or the tax rate decrease imposed under:

(I) Section 59-12-352; or

(II) Section 59-12-353.

(iii) Subsections (2)(c)(i) and (ii) apply to transactions subject to a tax under Subsection 59-12-103(1)(i).

(3) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(c), if, for an annexation that occurs on or after July 1, 2004, the annexation will result in the enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of a tax under this part for an annexing area, the enactment, repeal, or change shall take effect:

(i) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(ii) after a 90-day period beginning on the date the commission receives notice meeting the requirements of Subsection (3)(b) from the city or town that annexes the annexing area.

(b) The notice described in Subsection (3)(a)(ii) shall state:

(i) that the annexation described in Subsection (3)(a) will result in an enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of a tax under this part for the annexing area;

(ii) the statutory authority for the tax described in Subsection (3)(b)(i);

(iii) the effective date of the tax described in Subsection (3)(b)(i); and

(iv) if the city or town enacts the tax or changes the rate of the tax described in Subsection (3)(b)(i), the rate of the tax.

(c) (i) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), for a transaction described in Subsection (3)(c)(iii), the enactment of a tax or a tax rate increase shall take effect on the first day of the first billing period:

(A) that begins after the effective date of the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase; and

(B) if the billing period for the transaction begins before the effective date of the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase imposed under:

(I) Section 59-12-352; or

(II) Section 59-12-353.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(a), for a transaction described in Subsection (3)(c)(iii), the repeal of a tax or a tax rate decrease shall take effect on the first day of the last billing period:

(A) that began before the effective date of the repeal of the tax or the tax rate decrease; and

(B) if the billing period for the transaction begins before the effective date of the repeal of the tax or the tax rate decrease imposed under:

(I) Section 59-12-352; or

(II) Section 59-12-353.

(iii) Subsections (3)(c)(i) and (ii) apply to transactions subject to a tax under Subsection 59-12-103(1)(i).

Section 81. Section 59-12-403 is amended to read:

. Imposition of tax -- Base -- Rate -- Enactment or repeal of tax -- Tax rate change -- Effective date -- Notice requirements -- Administration, collection, and enforcement of tax -- Administrative charge.

(1) Beginning on or after January 1, 1998, the governing body of a town may impose a tax as provided in this part in an amount that does not exceed 1%.

(2) A town may impose a tax as provided in this part if the town imposed a license fee or tax on businesses based on gross receipts under Section 10-1-203 on or before January 1, 1996.

(3) A town imposing a tax under this section shall:

(a) except as provided in Subsection (4), impose the tax on the transactions described in Subsection 59-12-103(1) located within the town; and

(b) provide an effective date for the tax as provided in Subsection (5).

(4) (a) A town may not impose a tax under this section on:

(i) the sales and uses described in Section 59-12-104 to the extent the sales and uses are exempt from taxation under Section 59-12-104; and

(ii) except as provided in Subsection (4)(c), amounts paid or charged for food and food ingredients.

(b) For purposes of this Subsection (4), the location of a transaction shall be determined in accordance with Sections 59-12-211 through 59-12-215.

(c) A town imposing a tax under this section shall impose the tax on the purchase price or sales price for amounts paid or charged for food and food ingredients if the food and food ingredients are sold as part of a bundled transaction attributable to food and food ingredients and tangible personal property other than food and food ingredients.

(5) (a) For purposes of this Subsection (5):

(i) "Annexation" means an annexation to a town under [~~Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 4, Annexation~~]Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 8, Annexation.

(ii) "Annexing area" means an area that is annexed into a town.

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(c) or (d), if, on or after July 1, 2004, a town enacts or repeals a tax or changes the rate of a tax under this part, the enactment, repeal, or change shall take effect:

(A) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(B) after a 90-day period beginning on the date the commission receives notice meeting the requirements of Subsection (5)(b)(ii) from the town.

(ii) The notice described in Subsection (5)(b)(i)(B) shall state:

(A) that the town will enact or repeal a tax or change the rate of a tax under this part;

(B) the statutory authority for the tax described in Subsection (5)(b)(ii)(A);

(C) the effective date of the tax described in Subsection (5)(b)(ii)(A); and

(D) if the town enacts the tax or changes the rate of the tax described in Subsection (5)(b)(ii)(A), the rate of the tax.

(c) (i) If the billing period for the transaction begins before the effective date of the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase imposed under Subsection (1), the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase takes effect on the first day of the first billing period that begins on or after the effective date of the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase.

(ii) The repeal of a tax or a tax rate decrease applies to a billing period if the billing statement for the billing period is produced on or after the effective date of the repeal of the tax or the tax rate decrease imposed under Subsection (1).

(d) (i) If a tax due under this chapter on a catalogue sale is computed on the basis of sales and use tax rates published in the catalogue, an enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of a tax described in Subsection (5)(b)(i) takes effect:

(A) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(B) beginning 60 days after the effective date of the enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of the tax under Subsection (5)(b)(i).

(ii) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commission may by rule define the term "catalogue sale."

(e) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(f) or (g), if, for an annexation that occurs on or after July 1, 2004, the annexation will result in the enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of a tax under this part for an annexing area, the enactment, repeal, or change shall take effect:

(A) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(B) after a 90-day period beginning on the date the commission receives notice meeting the requirements of Subsection (5)(e)(ii) from the town that annexes the annexing area.

(ii) The notice described in Subsection (5)(e)(i)(B) shall state:

(A) that the annexation described in Subsection (5)(e)(i) will result in an enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of a tax under this part for the annexing area;

(B) the statutory authority for the tax described in Subsection (5)(e)(ii)(A);

(C) the effective date of the tax described in Subsection (5)(e)(ii)(A); and

(D) if the town enacts the tax or changes the rate of the tax described in Subsection (5)(e)(ii)(A), the rate of the tax.

(f) (i) If the billing period for a transaction begins before the effective date of the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase imposed under Subsection (1), the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase takes effect on the first day of the first billing period that begins on or after the effective date of the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase.

(ii) The repeal of a tax or a tax rate decrease applies to a billing period if the billing statement for the billing period is produced on or after the effective date of the repeal of the tax or the tax rate decrease imposed under Subsection (1).

(g) (i) If a tax due under this chapter on a catalogue sale is computed on the basis of sales and use tax rates published in the catalogue, an enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of a tax described in Subsection (5)(e)(i) takes effect:

(A) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(B) beginning 60 days after the effective date of the enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of the tax under Subsection (5)(e)(i).

(ii) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commission may by rule define the term "catalogue sale."

(6) The commission shall:

(a) distribute the revenue generated by the tax under this section to the town imposing the tax; and

(b) except as provided in Subsection (8), administer, collect, and enforce the tax authorized under this section in accordance with:

(i) the same procedures used to administer, collect, and enforce the tax under:

(A) Part 1, Tax Collection; or

(B) Part 2, Local Sales and Use Tax Act; and

(ii) Chapter 1, General Taxation Policies.

(7) The commission shall retain and deposit an administrative charge in accordance with Section 59-1-306 from the revenue the commission collects from a tax under this part.

(8) A tax under this section is not subject to Subsections 59-12-205(2) through (5).

Section 84. Section 59-12-1402 is amended to read:

59-12-1402

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Opinion question election -- Base -- Rate -- Imposition of tax -- Expenditure of revenue -- Enactment or repeal of tax -- Effective date -- Notice requirements.

(1) (a) Subject to the other provisions of this section, a city or town legislative body subject to this part may submit an opinion question to the residents of that city or town, by majority vote of all members of the legislative body, so that each resident of the city or town has an opportunity to express the resident's opinion on the imposition of a local sales and use tax of .1% on the transactions described in Subsection 59-12-103(1) located within the city or town, to:

(i) fund cultural facilities, recreational facilities, and zoological facilities and botanical organizations, cultural organizations, and zoological organizations in that city or town; or

(ii) provide funding for a botanical organization, cultural organization, or zoological organization to pay for use of a bus or facility rental if that use of the bus or facility rental is in furtherance of the botanical organization's, cultural organization's, or zoological organization's primary purpose.

(b) The opinion question required by this section shall state:

"Shall (insert the name of the city or town), Utah, be authorized to impose a .1% sales and use tax for (list the purposes for which the revenue collected from the sales and use tax shall be expended)?"

(c) A city or town legislative body may not impose a tax under this section:

(i) if the county in which the city or town is located imposes a tax under Part 7, County Option Funding for Botanical, Cultural, Recreational, and Zoological Organizations or Facilities;

(ii) on the sales and uses described in Section 59-12-104 to the extent the sales and uses are exempt from taxation under Section 59-12-104; and

(iii) except as provided in Subsection (1)(e), on amounts paid or charged for food and food ingredients.

(d) For purposes of this Subsection (1), the location of a transaction shall be determined in accordance with Sections 59-12-211 through 59-12-215.

(e) A city or town legislative body imposing a tax under this section shall impose the tax on the purchase price or sales price for amounts paid or charged for food and food ingredients if the food and food ingredients are sold as part of a bundled transaction attributable to food and food ingredients and tangible personal property other than food and food ingredients.

(f) Except as provided in Subsection (6), the election shall be held at a regular general election or a municipal general election, as those terms are defined in Section 20A-1-102, and shall follow the procedures outlined in Title 11, Chapter 14, Local Government Bonding Act.

(2) If the city or town legislative body determines that a majority of the city's or town's registered voters voting on the imposition of the tax have voted in favor of the imposition of the tax as prescribed in Subsection (1), the city or town legislative body may impose the tax by a majority vote of all members of the legislative body.

(3) Subject to Section 59-12-1403, revenue collected from a tax imposed under Subsection (2) shall be expended:

(a) to finance cultural facilities, recreational facilities, and zoological facilities within the city or town or within the geographic area of entities that are parties to an interlocal agreement, to which the city or town is a party, providing for cultural facilities, recreational facilities, or zoological facilities;

(b) to finance ongoing operating expenses of:

(i) recreational facilities described in Subsection (3)(a) within the city or town or within the geographic area of entities that are parties to an interlocal agreement, to which the city or town is a party, providing for recreational facilities; or

(ii) botanical organizations, cultural organizations, and zoological organizations within the city or town or within the geographic area of entities that are parties to an interlocal agreement, to which the city or town is a party, providing for the support of botanical organizations, cultural organizations, or zoological organizations; and

(c) as stated in the opinion question described in Subsection (1).

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), a tax authorized under this part shall be:

(i) administered, collected, and enforced in accordance with:

(A) the same procedures used to administer, collect, and enforce the tax under:

(I) Part 1, Tax Collection; or

(II) Part 2, Local Sales and Use Tax Act; and

(B) Chapter 1, General Taxation Policies; and

(ii) (A) levied for a period of eight years; and

(B) may be reauthorized at the end of the eight-year period in accordance with this section.

(b) (i) If a tax under this part is imposed for the first time on or after July 1, 2011, the tax shall be levied for a period of 10 years.

(ii) If a tax under this part is reauthorized in accordance with Subsection (4)(a) on or after July 1, 2011, the tax shall be reauthorized for a ten-year period.

(c) A tax under this section is not subject to Subsections 59-12-205(2) through (5).

(5) (a) For purposes of this Subsection (5):

(i) "Annexation" means an annexation to a city or town under [~~Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 4, Annexation~~]Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 8, Annexation.

(ii) "Annexing area" means an area that is annexed into a city or town.

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(c) or (d), if, on or after July 1, 2004, a city or town enacts or repeals a tax under this part, the enactment or repeal shall take effect:

(A) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(B) after a 90-day period beginning on the date the commission receives notice meeting the requirements of Subsection (5)(b)(ii) from the city or town.

(ii) The notice described in Subsection (5)(b)(i)(B) shall state:

(A) that the city or town will enact or repeal a tax under this part;

(B) the statutory authority for the tax described in Subsection (5)(b)(ii)(A);

(C) the effective date of the tax described in Subsection (5)(b)(ii)(A); and

(D) if the city or town enacts the tax described in Subsection (5)(b)(ii)(A), the rate of the tax.

(c) (i) If the billing period for a transaction begins before the effective date of the enactment of the tax under this section, the enactment of the tax takes effect on the first day of the first billing period that begins on or after the effective date of the enactment of the tax.

(ii) The repeal of a tax applies to a billing period if the billing statement for the billing period is produced on or after the effective date of the repeal of the tax imposed under this section.

(d) (i) If a tax due under this chapter on a catalogue sale is computed on the basis of sales and use tax rates published in the catalogue, an enactment or repeal of a tax described in Subsection (5)(b)(i) takes effect:

(A) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(B) beginning 60 days after the effective date of the enactment or repeal under Subsection (5)(b)(i).

(ii) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commission may by rule define the term "catalogue sale."

(e) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(f) or (g), if, for an annexation that occurs on or after July 1, 2004, the annexation will result in the enactment or repeal of a tax under this part for an annexing area, the enactment or repeal shall take effect:

(A) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(B) after a 90-day period beginning on the date the commission receives notice meeting the requirements of Subsection (5)(e)(ii) from the city or town that annexes the annexing area.

(ii) The notice described in Subsection (5)(e)(i)(B) shall state:

(A) that the annexation described in Subsection (5)(e)(i) will result in an enactment or repeal a tax under this part for the annexing area;

(B) the statutory authority for the tax described in Subsection (5)(e)(ii)(A);

(C) the effective date of the tax described in Subsection (5)(e)(ii)(A); and

(D) the rate of the tax described in Subsection (5)(e)(ii)(A).

(f) (i) If the billing period for a transaction begins before the effective date of the enactment of the tax under this section, the enactment of the tax takes effect on the first day of the first billing period that begins on or after the effective date of the enactment of the tax.

(ii) The repeal of a tax applies to a billing period if the billing statement for the billing period is produced on or after the effective date of the repeal of the tax imposed under this section.

(g) (i) If a tax due under this chapter on a catalogue sale is computed on the basis of sales and use tax rates published in the catalogue, an enactment or repeal of a tax described in Subsection (5)(e)(i) takes effect:

(A) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(B) beginning 60 days after the effective date of the enactment or repeal under Subsection (5)(e)(i).

(ii) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commission may by rule define the term "catalogue sale."

(6) (a) Before a city or town legislative body submits an opinion question to the residents of the city or town under Subsection (1), the city or town legislative body shall:

(i) submit to the county legislative body in which the city or town is located a written notice of the intent to submit the opinion question to the residents of the city or town; and

(ii) receive from the county legislative body:

(A) a written resolution passed by the county legislative body stating that the county legislative body is not seeking to impose a tax under Part 7, County Option Funding for Botanical, Cultural, Recreational, and Zoological Organizations or Facilities; or

(B) a written statement that in accordance with Subsection (6)(b) the results of a county opinion question submitted to the residents of the county under Part 7, County Option Funding for Botanical, Cultural, Recreational, and Zoological Organizations or Facilities, permit the city or town legislative body to submit the opinion question to the residents of the city or town in accordance with this part.

(b) (i) Within 60 days after the day the county legislative body receives from a city or town legislative body described in Subsection (6)(a) the notice of the intent to submit an opinion question to the residents of the city or town, the county legislative body shall provide the city or town legislative body:

(A) the written resolution described in Subsection (6)(a)(ii)(A); or

(B) written notice that the county legislative body will submit an opinion question to the residents of the county under Part 7, County Option Funding for Botanical, Cultural, Recreational, and Zoological Organizations or Facilities, for the county to impose a tax under that part.

(ii) If the county legislative body provides the city or town legislative body the written notice that the county legislative body will submit an opinion question as provided in Subsection (6)(b)(i)(B), the county legislative body shall submit the opinion question by no later than, from the date the county legislative body sends the written notice, the later of:

(A) a 12-month period;

(B) the next regular primary election; or

(C) the next regular general election.

(iii) Within 30 days of the date of the canvass of the election at which the opinion question under Subsection (6)(b)(ii) is voted on, the county legislative body shall provide the city or town legislative body described in Subsection (6)(a) written results of the opinion question submitted by the county legislative body under Part 7, County Option Funding for Botanical, Cultural, Recreational, and Zoological Organizations or Facilities, indicating that:

(A) (I) the city or town legislative body may not impose a tax under this part because a majority of the county's registered voters voted in favor of the county imposing the tax and the county legislative body by a majority vote approved the imposition of the tax; or

(II) for at least 12 months from the date the written results are submitted to the city or town legislative body, the city or town legislative body may not submit to the county legislative body a written notice of the intent to submit an opinion question under this part because a majority of the county's registered voters voted against the county imposing the tax and the majority of the registered voters who are residents of the city or town described in Subsection (6)(a) voted against the imposition of the county tax; or

(B) the city or town legislative body may submit the opinion question to the residents of the city or town in accordance with this part because although a majority of the county's registered voters voted against the county imposing the tax, the majority of the registered voters who are residents of the city or town voted for the imposition of the county tax.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (6)(b), at any time a county legislative body may provide a city or town legislative body described in Subsection (6)(a) a written resolution passed by the county legislative body stating that the county legislative body is not seeking to impose a tax under Part 7, County Option Funding for Botanical, Cultural, Recreational, and Zoological Organizations or Facilities, which permits the city or town legislative body to submit under Subsection (1) an opinion question to the city's or town's residents.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 10-2-602 is amended to read:
10-2-602
(Effective 05/07/25)
. Contents of resolution or petition.

(1) The resolution of the governing body or the petition of the electors shall include:

(a) a statement fully describing each of the areas to be included within the consolidated municipality;

(b) the name of the proposed consolidated municipality; and

(c) the names of the municipalities to be consolidated.

(2) (a) The resolution or petition shall state the population of each of the municipalities within the area of the proposed consolidated municipality and the total population of the proposed consolidated municipality.

(b) [~~(i)~~] The population [~~figure~~]for each municipality under Subsection (2)(a) shall be derived from:

(i) the estimate of the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(ii) if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available, the most recent official census or census estimate of the United States Bureau of the Census.

[~~(ii) If the population figure is not available from the United States Bureau of the Census, the population figure shall be derived from the estimate from the Utah Population Committee.~~]

Section 2. Section 10-2-711 is amended to read:

10-2-711

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Dissolution by the county legislative body.

(1) (a) A municipality having fewer than 50 residents may be dissolved on application to the district court by the county legislative body of the county where the municipality is located.

(b) [~~(i)~~] The population [~~figure~~]for each municipality under Subsection (1)(a) shall be derived from:

(i) the estimate of the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(ii) if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available, the most recent official census or census estimate of the United States Bureau of the Census.

[~~(ii) If the population figure is not available from the United States Bureau of the Census, the population figure shall be derived from the estimate from the Utah Population Committee.~~]

(2) Notice of the application shall be served on the municipality in the manner prescribed by law or by publication in the manner provided by law if the municipal authorities cannot be served.

(3) The district court may enter an order approving the dissolution of the municipality on a finding that the existence of the municipality serves no valid municipal purpose, its existence is a sham, or on a clear and convincing showing that the best interests of the community would be served by the dissolution.

(4) If the municipality is dissolved, the district court shall wind down the affairs and dissolve the municipality as quickly as possible in the same manner as is provided in [~~Sections 10-2-705 through 10-2-709~~]Part 7, Dissolution of Municipalities.

Section 3. Section 10-9a-103 is amended to read:

10-9a-103

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Accessory dwelling unit" means a habitable living unit added to, created within, or detached from a primary single-family dwelling and contained on one lot.

(2) "Adversely affected party" means a person other than a land use applicant who:

(a) owns real property adjoining the property that is the subject of a land use application or land use decision; or

(b) will suffer a damage different in kind than, or an injury distinct from, that of the general community as a result of the land use decision.

(3) "Affected entity" means a county, municipality, special district, special service district under Title 17D, Chapter 1, Special Service District Act, school district, interlocal cooperation entity established under Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act, specified public utility, property owner, property owners association, or the Department of Transportation, if:

(a) the entity's services or facilities are likely to require expansion or significant modification because of an intended use of land;

(b) the entity has filed with the municipality a copy of the entity's general or long-range plan; or

(c) the entity has filed with the municipality a request for notice during the same calendar year and before the municipality provides notice to an affected entity in compliance with a requirement imposed under this chapter.

(4) "Affected owner" means the owner of real property that is:

(a) a single project;

(b) the subject of a land use approval that sponsors of a referendum timely challenged in accordance with Subsection 20A-7-601(6); and

(c) determined to be legally referable under Section 20A-7-602.8.

(5) "Appeal authority" means the person, board, commission, agency, or other body designated by ordinance to decide an appeal of a decision of a land use application or a variance.

(6) "Billboard" means a freestanding ground sign located on industrial, commercial, or residential property if the sign is designed or intended to direct attention to a business, product, or service that is not sold, offered, or existing on the property where the sign is located.

(7) (a) "Charter school" means:

(i) an operating charter school;

(ii) a charter school applicant that a charter school authorizer approves in accordance with Title 53G, Chapter 5, Part 3, Charter School Authorization; or

(iii) an entity that is working on behalf of a charter school or approved charter applicant to develop or construct a charter school building.

(b) "Charter school" does not include a therapeutic school.

(8) "Conditional use" means a land use that, because of the unique characteristics or potential impact of the land use on the municipality, surrounding neighbors, or adjacent land uses, may not be compatible in some areas or may be compatible only if certain conditions are required that mitigate or eliminate the detrimental impacts.

(9) "Constitutional taking" means a governmental action that results in a taking of private property so that compensation to the owner of the property is required by the:

(a) Fifth or Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States; or

(b) Utah Constitution, Article I, Section 22.

(10) "Culinary water authority" means the department, agency, or public entity with responsibility to review and approve the feasibility of the culinary water system and sources for the subject property.

(11) "Development activity" means:

(a) any construction or expansion of a building, structure, or use that creates additional demand and need for public facilities;

(b) any change in use of a building or structure that creates additional demand and need for public facilities; or

(c) any change in the use of land that creates additional demand and need for public facilities.

(12) (a) "Development agreement" means a written agreement or amendment to a written agreement between a municipality and one or more parties that regulates or controls the use or development of a specific area of land.

(b) "Development agreement" does not include an improvement completion assurance.

(13) (a) "Disability" means a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of a person's major life activities, including a person having a record of such an impairment or being regarded as having such an impairment.

(b) "Disability" does not include current illegal use of, or addiction to, any federally controlled substance, as defined in Section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act, 21 U.S.C. 802.

(14) "Educational facility":

(a) means:

(i) a school district's building at which pupils assemble to receive instruction in a program for any combination of grades from preschool through grade 12, including kindergarten and a program for children with disabilities;

(ii) a structure or facility:

(A) located on the same property as a building described in Subsection (14)(a)(i); and

(B) used in support of the use of that building; and

(iii) a building to provide office and related space to a school district's administrative personnel; and

(b) does not include:

(i) land or a structure, including land or a structure for inventory storage, equipment storage, food processing or preparing, vehicle storage or maintenance, or similar use that is:

(A) not located on the same property as a building described in Subsection (14)(a)(i); and

(B) used in support of the purposes of a building described in Subsection (14)(a)(i); or

(ii) a therapeutic school.

(15) "Fire authority" means the department, agency, or public entity with responsibility to review and approve the feasibility of fire protection and suppression services for the subject property.

(16) "Flood plain" means land that:

(a) is within the 100-year flood plain designated by the Federal Emergency Management Agency; or

(b) has not been studied or designated by the Federal Emergency Management Agency but presents a likelihood of experiencing chronic flooding or a catastrophic flood event because the land has characteristics that are similar to those of a 100-year flood plain designated by the Federal Emergency Management Agency.

(17) "General plan" means a document that a municipality adopts that sets forth general guidelines for proposed future development of the land within the municipality.

(18) "Geologic hazard" means:

(a) a surface fault rupture;

(b) shallow groundwater;

(c) liquefaction;

(d) a landslide;

(e) a debris flow;

(f) unstable soil;

(g) a rock fall; or

(h) any other geologic condition that presents a risk:

(i) to life;

(ii) of substantial loss of real property; or

(iii) of substantial damage to real property.

(19) "Historic preservation authority" means a person, board, commission, or other body designated by a legislative body to:

(a) recommend land use regulations to preserve local historic districts or areas; and

(b) administer local historic preservation land use regulations within a local historic district or area.

(20) "Home-based microschool" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53G-6-201.

(21) "Hookup fee" means a fee for the installation and inspection of any pipe, line, meter, or appurtenance that connects to a municipal water, sewer, storm water, power, or other utility system.

(22) "Identical plans" means building plans submitted to a municipality that:

(a) are clearly marked as "identical plans";

(b) are substantially identical to building plans that were previously submitted to and reviewed and approved by the municipality; and

(c) describe a building that:

(i) is located on land zoned the same as the land on which the building described in the previously approved plans is located;

(ii) is subject to the same geological and meteorological conditions and the same law as the building described in the previously approved plans;

(iii) has a floor plan identical to the building plan previously submitted to and reviewed and approved by the municipality; and

(iv) does not require any additional engineering or analysis.

(23) "Impact fee" means a payment of money imposed under Title 11, Chapter 36a, Impact Fees Act.

(24) "Improvement completion assurance" means a surety bond, letter of credit, financial institution bond, cash, assignment of rights, lien, or other equivalent security required by a municipality to guaranty the proper completion of landscaping or an infrastructure improvement required as a condition precedent to:

(a) recording a subdivision plat; or

(b) development of a commercial, industrial, mixed use, or multifamily project.

(25) "Improvement warranty" means an applicant's unconditional warranty that the applicant's installed and accepted landscaping or infrastructure improvement:

(a) complies with the municipality's written standards for design, materials, and workmanship; and

(b) will not fail in any material respect, as a result of poor workmanship or materials, within the improvement warranty period.

(26) "Improvement warranty period" means a period:

(a) no later than one year after a municipality's acceptance of required landscaping; or

(b) no later than one year after a municipality's acceptance of required infrastructure, unless the municipality:

(i) determines for good cause that a one-year period would be inadequate to protect the public health, safety, and welfare; and

(ii) has substantial evidence, on record:

(A) of prior poor performance by the applicant; or

(B) that the area upon which the infrastructure will be constructed contains suspect soil and the municipality has not otherwise required the applicant to mitigate the suspect soil.

(27) "Infrastructure improvement" means permanent infrastructure that is essential for the public health and safety or that:

(a) is required for human occupation; and

(b) an applicant must install:

(i) in accordance with published installation and inspection specifications for public improvements; and

(ii) whether the improvement is public or private, as a condition of:

(A) recording a subdivision plat;

(B) obtaining a building permit; or

(C) development of a commercial, industrial, mixed use, condominium, or multifamily project.

(28) "Internal lot restriction" means a platted note, platted demarcation, or platted designation that:

(a) runs with the land; and

(b) (i) creates a restriction that is enclosed within the perimeter of a lot described on the plat; or

(ii) designates a development condition that is enclosed within the perimeter of a lot described on the plat.

(29) "Land use applicant" means a property owner, or the property owner's designee, who submits a land use application regarding the property owner's land.

(30) "Land use application":

(a) means an application that is:

(i) required by a municipality; and

(ii) submitted by a land use applicant to obtain a land use decision; and

(b) does not mean an application to enact, amend, or repeal a land use regulation.

(31) "Land use authority" means:

(a) a person, board, commission, agency, or body, including the local legislative body, designated by the local legislative body to act upon a land use application; or

(b) if the local legislative body has not designated a person, board, commission, agency, or body, the local legislative body.

(32) "Land use decision" means an administrative decision of a land use authority or appeal authority regarding:

(a) a land use permit; or

(b) a land use application.

(33) "Land use permit" means a permit issued by a land use authority.

(34) "Land use regulation":

(a) means a legislative decision enacted by ordinance, law, code, map, resolution, specification, fee, or rule that governs the use or development of land;

(b) includes the adoption or amendment of a zoning map or the text of the zoning code; and

(c) does not include:

(i) a land use decision of the legislative body acting as the land use authority, even if the decision is expressed in a resolution or ordinance; or

(ii) a temporary revision to an engineering specification that does not materially:

(A) increase a land use applicant's cost of development compared to the existing specification; or

(B) impact a land use applicant's use of land.

(35) "Legislative body" means the municipal council.

(36) "Local historic district or area" means a geographically definable area that:

(a) contains any combination of buildings, structures, sites, objects, landscape features, archeological sites, or works of art that contribute to the historic preservation goals of a legislative body; and

(b) is subject to land use regulations to preserve the historic significance of the local historic district or area.

(37) "Lot" means a tract of land, regardless of any label, that is created by and shown on a subdivision plat that has been recorded in the office of the county recorder.

(38) (a) "Lot line adjustment" means a relocation of a lot line boundary between adjoining lots or between a lot and adjoining parcels in accordance with Section 10-9a-608:

(i) whether or not the lots are located in the same subdivision; and

(ii) with the consent of the owners of record.

(b) "Lot line adjustment" does not mean a new boundary line that:

(i) creates an additional lot; or

(ii) constitutes a subdivision or a subdivision amendment.

(c) "Lot line adjustment" does not include a boundary line adjustment made by the Department of Transportation.

(39) "Major transit investment corridor" means public transit service that uses or occupies:

(a) public transit rail right-of-way;

(b) dedicated road right-of-way for the use of public transit, such as bus rapid transit; or

(c) fixed-route bus corridors subject to an interlocal agreement or contract between a municipality or county and:

(i) a public transit district as defined in Section 17B-2a-802; or

(ii) an eligible political subdivision as defined in Section [~~59-12-2219~~]59-12-2202.

(40) "Micro-education entity" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53G-6-201.

(41) "Moderate income housing" means housing occupied or reserved for occupancy by households with a gross household income equal to or less than 80% of the median gross income for households of the same size in the county in which the city is located.

(42) "Municipal utility easement" means an easement that:

(a) is created or depicted on a plat recorded in a county recorder's office and is described as a municipal utility easement granted for public use;

(b) is not a protected utility easement or a public utility easement as defined in Section 54-3-27;

(c) the municipality or the municipality's affiliated governmental entity uses and occupies to provide a utility service, including sanitary sewer, culinary water, electrical, storm water, or communications or data lines;

(d) is used or occupied with the consent of the municipality in accordance with an authorized franchise or other agreement;

(e) (i) is used or occupied by a specified public utility in accordance with an authorized franchise or other agreement; and

(ii) is located in a utility easement granted for public use; or

(f) is described in Section 10-9a-529 and is used by a specified public utility.

(43) "Nominal fee" means a fee that reasonably reimburses a municipality only for time spent and expenses incurred in:

(a) verifying that building plans are identical plans; and

(b) reviewing and approving those minor aspects of identical plans that differ from the previously reviewed and approved building plans.

(44) "Noncomplying structure" means a structure that:

(a) legally existed before the structure's current land use designation; and

(b) because of one or more subsequent land use ordinance changes, does not conform to the setback, height restrictions, or other regulations, excluding those regulations, which govern the use of land.

(45) "Nonconforming use" means a use of land that:

(a) legally existed before its current land use designation;

(b) has been maintained continuously since the time the land use ordinance governing the land changed; and

(c) because of one or more subsequent land use ordinance changes, does not conform to the regulations that now govern the use of the land.

(46) "Official map" means a map drawn by municipal authorities and recorded in a county recorder's office that:

(a) shows actual and proposed rights-of-way, centerline alignments, and setbacks for highways and other transportation facilities;

(b) provides a basis for restricting development in designated rights-of-way or between designated setbacks to allow the government authorities time to purchase or otherwise reserve the land; and

(c) has been adopted as an element of the municipality's general plan.

(47) "Parcel" means any real property that is not a lot.

(48) (a) "Parcel boundary adjustment" means a recorded agreement between owners of adjoining parcels adjusting the mutual boundary, either by deed or by a boundary line agreement in accordance with Section 10-9a-524, if no additional parcel is created and:

(i) none of the property identified in the agreement is a lot; or

(ii) the adjustment is to the boundaries of a single person's parcels.

(b) "Parcel boundary adjustment" does not mean an adjustment of a parcel boundary line that:

(i) creates an additional parcel; or

(ii) constitutes a subdivision.

(c) "Parcel boundary adjustment" does not include a boundary line adjustment made by the Department of Transportation.

(49) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, organization, association, trust, governmental agency, or any other legal entity.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (2) and for all taxes except individual income tax and corporate franchise tax, the commission may by rule, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, provide for the issuance of information concerning the identity and other information of taxpayers who have failed to file tax returns or to pay any tax due.

(d) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission shall provide to the director of the Division of Environmental Response and Remediation, as defined in Section 19-6-402, as requested by the director of the Division of Environmental Response and Remediation, any records, returns, or other information filed with the commission under Chapter 13, Motor and Special Fuel Tax Act, or Section 19-6-410.5 regarding the environmental assurance program participation fee.

(e) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), at the request of any person the commission shall provide that person sales and purchase volume data reported to the commission on a report, return, or other information filed with the commission under:

(i) Chapter 13, Part 2, Motor Fuel; or

(ii) Chapter 13, Part 4, Aviation Fuel.

(f) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), upon request from a tobacco product manufacturer, as defined in Section 59-22-202, the commission shall report to the manufacturer:

(i) the quantity of cigarettes, as defined in Section 59-22-202, produced by the manufacturer and reported to the commission for the previous calendar year under Section 59-14-407; and

(ii) the quantity of cigarettes, as defined in Section 59-22-202, produced by the manufacturer for which a tax refund was granted during the previous calendar year under Section 59-14-401 and reported to the commission under Subsection 59-14-401(1)(a)(v).

(g) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission shall notify manufacturers, distributors, wholesalers, and retail dealers of a tobacco product manufacturer that is prohibited from selling cigarettes to consumers within the state under Subsection 59-14-210(2).

(h) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission may:

(i) provide to the Division of Consumer Protection within the Department of Commerce and the attorney general data:

(A) reported to the commission under Section 59-14-212; or

(B) related to a violation under Section 59-14-211; and

(ii) upon request, provide to any person data reported to the commission under Subsections 59-14-212(1)(a) through (c) and Subsection 59-14-212(1)(g).

(i) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission shall, at the request of a committee of the Legislature, the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst, or the Governor's Office of Planning and Budget, provide to the committee or office the total amount of revenues collected by the commission under Chapter 24, Radioactive Waste Facility Tax Act, for the time period specified by the committee or office.

(j) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission shall make the directory required by Section 59-14-603 available for public inspection.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission may share information with federal, state, or local agencies as provided in Subsection 59-14-606(3).

(l) (i) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission shall provide the Office of Recovery Services within the Department of Health and Human Services any relevant information obtained from a return filed under Chapter 10, Individual Income Tax Act, regarding a taxpayer who has become obligated to the Office of Recovery Services.

(ii) The information described in Subsection (4)(l)(i) may be provided by the Office of Recovery Services to any other state's child support collection agency involved in enforcing that support obligation.

(m) (i) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), upon request from the state court administrator, the commission shall provide to the state court administrator, the name, address, telephone number, county of residence, and social security number on resident returns filed under Chapter 10, Individual Income Tax Act.

(ii) The state court administrator may use the information described in Subsection (4)(m)(i) only as a source list for the master jury list described in Section 78B-1-106.

(n) (i) As used in this Subsection (4)(n):

(A) "GOEO" means the Governor's Office of Economic Opportunity created in Section 63N-1a-301.

(B) "Income tax information" means information gained by the commission that is required to be attached to or included in a return filed with the commission under Chapter 7, Corporate Franchise and Income Taxes, or Chapter 10, Individual Income Tax Act.

(C) "Other tax information" means information gained by the commission that is required to be attached to or included in a return filed with the commission except for a return filed under Chapter 7, Corporate Franchise and Income Taxes, or Chapter 10, Individual Income Tax Act.

(D) "Tax information" means income tax information or other tax information.

(ii) (A) Notwithstanding Subsection (2) and except as provided in Subsection (4)(n)(ii)(B) or (C), the commission shall at the request of GOEO provide to GOEO all income tax information.

(B) For purposes of a request for income tax information made under Subsection (4)(n)(ii)(A), GOEO may not request and the commission may not provide to GOEO a person's address, name, social security number, or taxpayer identification number.

(C) In providing income tax information to GOEO, the commission shall in all instances protect the privacy of a person as required by Subsection (4)(n)(ii)(B).

(iii) (A) Notwithstanding Subsection (2) and except as provided in Subsection (4)(n)(iii)(B), the commission shall at the request of GOEO provide to GOEO other tax information.

(B) Before providing other tax information to GOEO, the commission shall redact or remove any name, address, social security number, or taxpayer identification number.

(iv) GOEO may provide tax information received from the commission in accordance with this Subsection (4)(n) only:

(A) as a fiscal estimate, fiscal note information, or statistical information; and

(B) if the tax information is classified to prevent the identification of a particular return.

(v) (A) A person may not request tax information from GOEO under Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act, or this section, if GOEO received the tax information from the commission in accordance with this Subsection (4)(n).

(B) GOEO may not provide to a person that requests tax information in accordance with Subsection (4)(n)(v)(A) any tax information other than the tax information GOEO provides in accordance with Subsection (4)(n)(iv).

(o) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission may provide to the governing board of the agreement or a taxing official of another state, the District of Columbia, the United States, or a territory of the United States:

(i) the following relating to an agreement sales and use tax:

(A) information contained in a return filed with the commission;

(B) information contained in a report filed with the commission;

(C) a schedule related to Subsection (4)(o)(i)(A) or (B); or

(D) a document filed with the commission; or

(ii) a report of an audit or investigation made with respect to an agreement sales and use tax.

(p) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission may provide information concerning a taxpayer's state income tax return or state income tax withholding information to the Driver License Division if the Driver License Division:

(i) requests the information; and

(ii) provides the commission with a signed release form from the taxpayer allowing the Driver License Division access to the information.

(q) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission shall provide to the Utah Communications Authority, or a division of the Utah Communications Authority, the information requested by the authority under Sections 63H-7a-302, 63H-7a-402, and 63H-7a-502.

(r) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission shall provide to the Utah Educational Savings Plan information related to a resident or nonresident individual's contribution to a Utah Educational Savings Plan account as designated on the resident or nonresident's individual income tax return as provided under Section 59-10-1313.

(s) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), for the purpose of verifying eligibility under Sections 26B-3-106 and 26B-3-903, the commission shall provide an eligibility worker with the Department of Health and Human Services or its designee with the adjusted gross income of an individual if:

(i) an eligibility worker with the Department of Health and Human Services or its designee requests the information from the commission; and

(ii) the eligibility worker has complied with the identity verification and consent provisions of Sections 26B-3-106 and 26B-3-903.

(t) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission may provide to a county, as determined by the commission, information declared on an individual income tax return in accordance with Section 59-10-103.1 that relates to eligibility to claim a residential exemption authorized under Section 59-2-103.

(u) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission shall provide a report regarding any access line provider that is over 90 days delinquent in payment to the commission of amounts the access line provider owes under Title 69, Chapter 2, Part 4, Prepaid Wireless Telecommunications Service Charges, to the board of the Utah Communications Authority created in Section 63H-7a-201.

(v) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission shall provide the Department of Environmental Quality a report on the amount of tax paid by a radioactive waste facility for the previous calendar year under Section 59-24-103.5.

(w) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission may, upon request, provide to the Department of Workforce Services any information received under Chapter 10, Part 4, Withholding of Tax, that is relevant to the duties of the Department of Workforce Services.

(x) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission may provide the Public Service Commission or the Division of Public Utilities information related to a seller that collects and remits to the commission a charge described in Subsection 69-2-405(2), including the seller's identity and the number of charges described in Subsection 69-2-405(2) that the seller collects.

(y) (i) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission shall provide to each qualifying jurisdiction the collection data necessary to verify the revenue collected by the commission for a distributed tax, fee, or charge collected within the qualifying jurisdiction.

(ii) In addition to the information provided under Subsection (4)(y)(i), the commission shall provide a qualifying jurisdiction with copies of returns and other information relating to a distributed tax, fee, or charge collected within the qualifying jurisdiction.

(iii) (A) To obtain the information described in Subsection (4)(y)(ii), the chief executive officer or the chief executive officer's designee of the qualifying jurisdiction shall submit a written request to the commission that states the specific information sought and how the qualifying jurisdiction intends to use the information.

(B) The information described in Subsection (4)(y)(ii) is available only in official matters of the qualifying jurisdiction.

(iv) Information that a qualifying jurisdiction receives in response to a request under this subsection is:

(A) classified as a private record under Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act; and

(B) subject to the confidentiality requirements of this section.

(z) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission shall provide the Alcoholic Beverage Services Commission, upon request, with taxpayer status information related to state tax obligations necessary to comply with the requirements described in Section 32B-1-203.

(aa) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission shall inform the Department of Workforce Services, as soon as practicable, whether an individual claimed and is entitled to claim a federal earned income tax credit for the year requested by the Department of Workforce Services if:

(i) the Department of Workforce Services requests this information; and

(ii) the commission has received the information release described in Section 35A-9-604.

(bb) (i) As used in this Subsection (4)(bb), "unclaimed property administrator" means the administrator or the administrator's agent, as those terms are defined in Section 67-4a-102.

(ii) (A) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), upon request from the unclaimed property administrator and to the extent allowed under federal law, the commission shall provide the unclaimed property administrator the name, address, telephone number, county of residence, and social security number or federal employer identification number on any return filed under Chapter 7, Corporate Franchise and Income Taxes, or Chapter 10, Individual Income Tax Act.

(B) The unclaimed property administrator may use the information described in Subsection (4)(bb)(ii)(A) only for the purpose of returning unclaimed property to the property's owner in accordance with Title 67, Chapter 4a, Revised Uniform Unclaimed Property Act.

(iii) The unclaimed property administrator is subject to the confidentiality provisions of this section with respect to any information the unclaimed property administrator receives under this Subsection (4)(bb).

(cc) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission may, upon request, disclose a taxpayer's state individual income tax information to a program manager of the Utah Fits All Scholarship Program under Section 53F-6-402 if:

(i) the taxpayer consents in writing to the disclosure;

(ii) the taxpayer's written consent includes the taxpayer's name, social security number, and any other information the commission requests that is necessary to verify the identity of the taxpayer; and

(iii) the program manager provides the taxpayer's written consent to the commission.

(dd) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission may provide to the Division of Finance within the Department of Government Operations any information necessary to facilitate a payment from the commission to a taxpayer, including:

(i) the name of the taxpayer entitled to the payment or any other person legally authorized to receive the payment;

(ii) the taxpayer identification number of the taxpayer entitled to the payment;

(iii) the payment identification number and amount of the payment;

(iv) the tax year to which the payment applies and date on which the payment is due;

(v) a mailing address to which the payment may be directed; and

(vi) information regarding an account at a depository institution to which the payment may be directed, including the name of the depository institution, the type of account, the account number, and the routing number for the account.

(ee) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission shall provide the total amount of revenues collected by the commission under Subsection 59-5-202(5):

(i) at the request of a committee of the Legislature, the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst, or the Governor's Office of Planning and Budget, to the committee or office for the time period specified by the committee or office; and

(ii) to the Division of Finance for purposes of the Division of Finance administering Subsection 59-5-202(5).

(ff) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission may provide the Department of Agriculture and Food with information from a return filed in accordance with Chapter 31, Cannabinoid Licensing and Tax Act.

(gg) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the commission may provide aggregated information to the Utah Population Committee, created in Section 63C-20-103, if the Utah Population Committee requests the information in accordance with Section 63C-20-105.

(5) (a) Each report and return shall be preserved for at least three years.

(b) After the three-year period provided in Subsection (5)(a) the commission may destroy a report or return.

(6) (a) Any individual who violates this section is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

(b) If the individual described in Subsection (6)(a) is an officer or employee of the state, the individual shall be dismissed from office and be disqualified from holding public office in this state for a period of five years thereafter.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (6)(a) or (b), GOEO, when requesting information in accordance with Subsection (4)(n)(iii), or an individual who requests information in accordance with Subsection (4)(n)(v):

(i) is not guilty of a class A misdemeanor; and

(ii) is not subject to:

(A) dismissal from office in accordance with Subsection (6)(b); or

(B) disqualification from holding public office in accordance with Subsection (6)(b).

(d) Notwithstanding Subsection (6)(a) or (b), for a disclosure of information to the Office of the Legislative Auditor General in accordance with Title 36, Chapter 12, Legislative Organization, an individual described in Subsection (2):

(i) is not guilty of a class A misdemeanor; and

(ii) is not subject to:

(A) dismissal from office in accordance with Subsection (6)(b); or

(B) disqualification from holding public office in accordance with Subsection (6)(b).

(7) Except as provided in Section 59-1-404, this part does not apply to the property tax.

Section 11. Section 59-12-205 is amended to read:

59-12-205

(Effective 07/01/25)

. Ordinances to conform with statutory amendments -- Distribution of tax revenue -- Determination of population.

(1) To maintain in effect sales and use tax ordinances adopted pursuant to Section 59-12-204, a county, city, or town shall adopt amendments to the county's, city's, or town's sales and use tax ordinances:

(a) within 30 days of the day on which the state makes an amendment to an applicable provision of Part 1, Tax Collection; and

(b) as required to conform to the amendments to Part 1, Tax Collection.

(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsections (3) and (4) and subject to Subsection (5):

(i) 50% of each dollar collected from the sales and use tax authorized by this part shall be distributed to each county, city, and town on the basis of the percentage that the population of the county, city, or town bears to the total population of all counties, cities, and towns in the state; and

(ii) (A) except as provided in Subsections (2)(a)(ii)(B), (C), and (D), 50% of each dollar collected from the sales and use tax authorized by this part shall be distributed to each county, city, and town on the basis of the location of the transaction as determined under Sections 59-12-211 through 59-12-215;

(B) 50% of each dollar collected from the sales and use tax authorized by this part within a project area described in a project area plan adopted by the military installation development authority under Title 63H, Chapter 1, Military Installation Development Authority Act, shall be distributed to the military installation development authority created in Section 63H-1-201;

(C) beginning July 1, 2024, 20% of each dollar collected from the sales and use tax authorized by this part within a project area under

Title 11, Chapter 58, Utah Inland Port Authority Act, shall be distributed to the Utah Inland Port Authority, created in Section 11-58-201; and

(D) 50% of each dollar collected from the sales and use tax authorized by this part within the lake authority boundary, as defined in Section 11-65-101, shall be distributed to the Utah Lake Authority, created in Section 11-65-201, beginning the next full calendar quarter following the creation of the Utah Lake Authority.

(b) Subsection (2)(a)(ii)(C) does not apply to sales and use tax revenue collected before July 1, 2022.

(3) (a) As used in this Subsection (3):

(i) "Eligible county, city, or town" means a county, city, or town that:

(A) for fiscal year 2012-13, received a tax revenue distribution under Subsection (3)(b) equal to the amount described in Subsection (3)(b)(ii); and

(B) does not impose a sales and use tax under Section 59-12-2103 on or before July 1, 2016.

(ii) "Minimum tax revenue distribution" means the total amount of tax revenue distributions an eligible county, city, or town received from a tax imposed in accordance with this part for fiscal year 2004-05.

(b) An eligible county, city, or town shall receive a tax revenue distribution for a tax imposed in accordance with this part equal to the greater of:

(i) the payment required by Subsection (2); or

(ii) the minimum tax revenue distribution.

(4) (a) For purposes of this Subsection (4):

(i) "Annual local contribution" means the lesser of $275,000 or an amount equal to 2.55% of the participating local government's tax revenue distribution amount under Subsection (2)(a)(i) for the previous fiscal year.

(ii) "Participating local government" means a county or municipality, as defined in Section 10-1-104, that is not an eligible municipality certified in accordance with Section 35A-16-404.

(b) For revenue collected from the tax authorized by this part that is distributed on or after January 1, 2019, the commission, before making a tax revenue distribution under Subsection (2)(a)(i) to a participating local government, shall:

(i) adjust a participating local government's tax revenue distribution under Subsection (2)(a)(i) by:

(A) subtracting an amount equal to one-twelfth of the annual local contribution for each participating local government from the participating local government's tax revenue distribution; and

(B) if applicable, reducing the amount described in Subsection (4)(b)(i)(A) by an amount equal to one-twelfth of $250 for each bed that is available at all homeless shelters located within the boundaries of the participating local government, as reported to the commission by the Office of Homeless Services in accordance with Section 35A-16-405; and

(ii) deposit the resulting amount described in Subsection (4)(b)(i) into the Homeless Shelter Cities Mitigation Restricted Account created in Section 35A-16-402.

(c) For a participating local government that qualifies to receive a distribution described in Subsection (3), the commission shall apply the provisions of this Subsection (4) after the commission applies the provisions of Subsection (3).

(5) (a) As used in this Subsection (5):

(i) "Annual dedicated sand and gravel sales tax revenue" means an amount equal to the total revenue an establishment described in NAICS Code 327320, Ready-Mix Concrete Manufacturing, of the 2022 North American Industry Classification System of the federal Executive Office of the President, Office of Management and Budget, collects and remits under this part for a calendar year.

(ii) "Sand and gravel" means sand, gravel, or a combination of sand and gravel.

(iii) "Sand and gravel extraction site" means a pit, quarry, or deposit that:

(A) contains sand and gravel; and

(B) is assessed by the commission in accordance with Section 59-2-201.

(iv) "Ton" means a short ton of 2,000 pounds.

(v) "Tonnage ratio" means the ratio of:

(A) the total amount of sand and gravel, measured in tons, sold during a calendar year from all sand and gravel extraction sites located within a county, city, or town; to

(B) the total amount of sand and gravel, measured in tons, sold during the same calendar year from sand and gravel extraction sites statewide.

(b) For purposes of calculating the ratio described in Subsection (5)(a)(v), the commission shall:

(i) use the gross sales data provided to the commission as part of the commission's property tax valuation process; and

(ii) if a sand and gravel extraction site operates as a unit across municipal or county lines, apportion the reported tonnage among the counties, cities, or towns based on the percentage of the sand and gravel extraction site located in each county, city, or town, as approximated by the commission.

(c) (i) [~~Beginning July 2023, and each July thereafter~~]Each July, the commission shall distribute from total collections under this part an amount equal to the annual dedicated sand and gravel sales tax revenue for the preceding calendar year to each county, city, or town in the same proportion as the county's, city's, or town's tonnage ratio for the preceding calendar year.

(ii) The commission shall ensure that the revenue distributed under this Subsection (5)(c) is drawn from each jurisdiction's collections in proportion to the jurisdiction's share of total collections for the preceding 12-month period.

(d) A county, city, or town shall use revenue described in Subsection (5)(c) for class B or class C roads.

(6) (a) Population figures for purposes of this section shall be based on[~~the most recent official census or census estimate of the United States Bureau of the Census.~~], to the extent not otherwise required by federal law:

(i) the most recent estimate from the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(ii) if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available for each municipality and unincorporated area, the adjusted sub-county population estimate provided by the Utah Population Committee in accordance with Section 63C-20-104.

[~~(b) If a needed population estimate is not available from the United States Bureau of the Census, population figures shall be derived from the estimate from the Utah Population Committee.~~]

~~(c)~~ The population of a county for purposes of this section shall be determined only from the unincorporated area of the county.

Section 12. Section 59-12-401 is amended to read:

59-12-401

(Effective 07/01/25)

. Resort communities tax authority for cities, towns, military installation development authority, and fairpark district -- Base -- Rate -- Collection fees.

(1) (a) In addition to other sales and use taxes, a city or town in which the transient room capacity as defined in Section 59-12-405 is greater than or equal to 66% of the municipality's permanent [~~census~~]population may impose a sales and use tax of up to 1.1% on the transactions described in Subsection 59-12-103(1) located within the city or town.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(a), a city or town may not impose a tax under this section on:

(i) (A) the sale of a motor vehicle, an aircraft, a watercraft, a modular home, a manufactured home, or a mobile home;

(B) the sales and uses described in Section 59-12-104 to the extent the sales and uses are exempt from taxation under Section 59-12-104; and

(C) except as provided in Subsection (1)(d), amounts paid or charged for food and food ingredients; or

(ii) transactions that occur in the district sales tax area, as defined in Subsection (4), if the fairpark district, as defined in Subsection (4), has imposed a tax under Subsection (4).

(c) For purposes of this Subsection (1), the location of a transaction shall be determined in accordance with Sections 59-12-211 through 59-12-215.

(d) A city or town imposing a tax under this section shall impose the tax on the purchase price or the sales price for amounts paid or charged for food and food ingredients if the food and food ingredients are sold as part of a bundled transaction attributable to food and food ingredients and tangible personal property other than food and food ingredients.

(2) (a) An amount equal to the total of any costs incurred by the state in connection with the implementation of Subsection (1) which exceed, in any year, the revenues received by the state from its collection fees received in connection with the implementation of Subsection (1) shall be paid over to the state General Fund by the cities and towns which impose the tax provided for in Subsection (1).

(b) Amounts paid under Subsection (2)(a) shall be allocated proportionally among those cities and towns according to the amount of revenue the respective cities and towns generate in that year through imposition of that tax.

(3) (a) Subject to Section 63H-1-203, the military installation development authority created in Section 63H-1-201 may impose a tax under this section on the transactions described in Subsection 59-12-103(1) located within a project area described in a project area plan adopted by the authority under Title 63H, Chapter 1, Military Installation Development Authority Act, as though the authority were a city or a town.

(b) For purposes of calculating the permanent [~~census~~]population within a project area, the board, as defined in Section 63H-1-102, shall:

(i) use the actual number of permanent residents within the project area as determined by the board;

(ii) include in the calculation of transient room capacity the number, as determined by the board, of approved high-occupancy lodging units, recreational lodging units, special lodging units, and standard lodging units, even if the units are not constructed;

(iii) adopt a resolution verifying the population number; and

(iv) provide the commission any information required in Section 59-12-405.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(a), a board as defined in Section 63H-1-102 may impose the sales and use tax under this section if there are no permanent residents.

(4) (a) As used in this Subsection (4):

(i) "District sales tax area" means the same as that term is defined in Section 11-70-101.

(ii) "Fairpark district" means the Utah Fairpark Area Investment and Restoration District, created in Section 11-70-201.

(iii) "Fairpark district board" means the board of the fairpark district.

(b) The fairpark district, by resolution of the fairpark district board, may impose a tax under this section, as though the fairpark district were a city or town, on transactions described in Subsection 59-12-103(1):

(i) located within the district sales tax area; and

(ii) that occur on or after October 1, 2024.

(c) For purposes of calculating the permanent [~~census~~]population within the district sales tax area, the fairpark district board shall:

(i) use the actual number of permanent residents within the district sales tax area as determined by the fairpark district board;

(ii) include in the calculation of transient room capacity the number, as determined by the fairpark district board, of approved high-occupancy lodging units, recreational lodging units, special lodging units, and standard lodging units, even if the units are not constructed;

(iii) adopt a resolution verifying the population number; and

(iv) provide the commission any information required in Section 59-12-405.

(d) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(a), the fairpark district may impose the sales and use tax under this section if there are no permanent residents within the district sales tax area.

(5) For purposes of this section, population shall be based on, to the extent not otherwise required by federal law:

(a) the most recent estimate from the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(b) if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available for each municipality and unincorporated area, the adjusted sub-county population estimate provided by the Utah Population Committee in accordance with Section 63C-20-104.

Section 13. Section 59-12-402 is amended to read:

59-12-402

(Effective 07/01/25)

. Additional resort communities sales and use tax -- Base -- Rate -- Collection fees -- Resolution and voter approval requirements -- Election requirements -- Notice requirements -- Ordinance requirements -- Prohibition of military installation development authority imposition of tax.

(1) (a) Subject to Subsections (2) through (6), the governing body of a municipality in which the transient room capacity as defined in Section 59-12-405 is greater than or equal to 66% of the municipality's permanent [~~census~~]population may, in addition to the sales tax authorized under Section 59-12-401, impose an additional resort communities sales tax in an amount that is less than or equal to .5% on the transactions described in Subsection 59-12-103(1) located within the municipality.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(a), the governing body of a municipality may not impose a tax under this section on:

(i) (A) the sale of a motor vehicle, an aircraft, a watercraft, a modular home, a manufactured home, or a mobile home;

(B) the sales and uses described in Section 59-12-104 to the extent the sales and uses are exempt from taxation under Section 59-12-104; and

(C) except as provided in Subsection (1)(d), amounts paid or charged for food and food ingredients; or

(ii) transactions that occur in the district sales tax area, as defined in Subsection 59-12-401(4), if the Utah Fairpark Area Investment and Restoration District, created in Section 11-70-201, has imposed a tax under Subsection (8).

(c) For purposes of this Subsection (1), the location of a transaction shall be determined in accordance with Sections 59-12-211 through 59-12-215.

(d) A municipality imposing a tax under this section shall impose the tax on the purchase price or sales price for amounts paid or charged for food and food ingredients if the food and food ingredients are sold as part of a bundled transaction attributable to food and food ingredients and tangible personal property other than food and food ingredients.

(2) (a) An amount equal to the total of any costs incurred by the state in connection with the implementation of Subsection (1) which exceed, in any year, the revenues received by the state from its collection fees received in connection with the implementation of Subsection (1) shall be paid over to the state General Fund by the cities and towns which impose the tax provided for in Subsection (1).

(b) Amounts paid under Subsection (2)(a) shall be allocated proportionally among those cities and towns according to the amount of revenue the respective cities and towns generate in that year through imposition of that tax.

(3) To impose an additional resort communities sales tax under this section, the governing body of the municipality shall:

(a) pass a resolution approving the tax; and

(b) except as provided in Subsection (6), obtain voter approval for the tax as provided in Subsection (4).

(4) To obtain voter approval for an additional resort communities sales tax under Subsection (3)(b), a municipality shall:

(a) hold the additional resort communities sales tax election during:

(i) a regular general election; or

(ii) a municipal general election; and

(b) post notice of the election for the municipality, as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least 15 days before the day on which the election is held.

(5) An ordinance approving an additional resort communities sales tax under this section shall provide an effective date for the tax as provided in Section 59-12-403.

(6) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (6)(b), a municipality is not subject to the voter approval requirements of Subsection (3)(b) if, on or before January 1, 1996, the municipality imposed a license fee or tax on businesses based on gross receipts pursuant to Section 10-1-203.

(b) The exception from the voter approval requirements in Subsection (6)(a) does not apply to a municipality that, on or before January 1, 1996, imposed a license fee or tax on only one class of businesses based on gross receipts pursuant to Section 10-1-203.

(7) Subject to Subsection 63H-1-203(1), a military installation development authority authorized to impose a resort communities tax under Section 59-12-401 may impose an additional resort communities sales tax under this section.

(8) The Utah Fairpark Area Investment and Restoration District, created in Section 11-70-201, may impose an additional resort communities tax under this section on transactions that occur:

(a) within the district sales tax area, as defined in Subsection 59-12-401(4); and

(b) that occur on or after October 1, 2024.

(9) For purposes of this section, population shall be based on, to the extent not otherwise required by federal law:

(a) the most recent estimate from the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(b) if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available for each municipality and unincorporated area, the adjusted sub-county population estimate provided by the Utah Population Committee in accordance with Section 63C-20-104.

Section 14. Section 59-12-405 is amended to read:

59-12-405

(Effective 07/01/25)

. Definitions -- Municipality filing requirements for lodging unit capacity -- Failure to meet eligibility requirements -- Notice to municipality -- Municipality authority to impose tax.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "High-occupancy lodging unit" means each bedroom in a:

(b) "High-occupancy lodging unit capacity of a municipality" means the product of:

(i) the total number of high-occupancy lodging units within the incorporated boundaries of a municipality on the first day of the calendar quarter during which the municipality files the form described in Subsection (3); and

(ii) four.

(c) "Recreational lodging unit" means each site in a:

(i) campground that:

(A) is issued a business license by the municipality in which the campground is located; and

(B) provides the following hookups:

(I) water;

(II) sewer; and

(III) electricity; or

(ii) recreational vehicle park that provides the following hookups:

(A) water;

(B) sewer; and

(C) electricity; or

(iii) unit similar to Subsection (1)(c)(i) or (ii) as determined by the commission by rule.

(d) "Recreational lodging unit capacity of a municipality" means the product of:

(i) the total number of recreational lodging units within the incorporated boundaries of a municipality on the first day of the calendar quarter during which the municipality files the form described in Subsection (3); and

(ii) four.

(e) "Special lodging unit" means a lodging unit:

(i) that is a:

(A) high-occupancy lodging unit;

(B) recreational lodging unit; or

(C) standard lodging unit;

(ii) for which the commission finds that in determining the capacity of the lodging unit the lodging unit should be multiplied by a number other than a number described in:

(A) for a high-occupancy lodging unit, Subsection (1)(b)(ii);

(B) for a recreational lodging unit, Subsection (1)(d)(ii); or

(C) for a standard lodging unit, Subsection (1)(i)(ii); and

(iii) for which the municipality in which the lodging unit is located files a written request with the commission for the finding described in Subsection (1)(e)(ii).

(f) "Special lodging unit capacity of a municipality" means the sum of the special lodging unit numbers for all of the special lodging units within the incorporated boundaries of a municipality on the first day of the calendar quarter during which the municipality files the form described in Subsection (3).

(g) "Special lodging unit number" means the number by which the commission finds that a special lodging unit should be multiplied in determining the capacity of the special lodging unit.

(h) "Standard lodging unit" means each bedroom in:

(i) a hotel;

(ii) a motel;

(iii) a bed and breakfast establishment;

(iv) an inn;

(v) a condominium that is:

(A) part of a rental pool; or

(vi) a property used as a residence that is:

(A) part of a rental pool; or

(B) regularly rented out for a time period of less than 30 consecutive days; or

(vii) a unit similar to Subsections (1)(h)(i) through (vi) as determined by the commission by rule.

(i) "Standard lodging unit capacity of a municipality" means the product of:

(i) the total number of standard lodging units within the incorporated boundaries of a municipality on the first day of the calendar quarter during which the municipality files the form described in Subsection (3); and

(ii) three.

(j) "Transient room capacity" means the sum of:

(i) the high-occupancy lodging unit capacity of a municipality;

(ii) the recreational lodging unit capacity of a municipality;

(iii) the special lodging unit capacity of a municipality; and

(iv) the standard lodging unit capacity of a municipality.

(2) A municipality that imposes a tax under this part shall provide the commission the following information as provided in this section:

(a) the high-occupancy lodging unit capacity of the municipality;

(b) the recreational lodging unit capacity of the municipality;

(c) the special lodging unit capacity of the municipality; and

(d) the standard lodging unit capacity of the municipality.

(3) A municipality shall file with the commission the information required by Subsection (2):

(a) on a form provided by the commission; and

(b) on or before:

(i) for a municipality that is required by Section 59-12-403 to provide notice to the commission, the day on which the municipality provides the notice required by Section 59-12-403 to the commission; or

(ii) for a municipality that is not required by Section 59-12-403 to provide notice to the commission, July 1 of each year.

(4) If the commission determines that a municipality that files the form described in Subsection (3) has a transient room capacity that is less than 66% of the municipality's permanent [~~census~~]population, the commission shall notify the municipality in writing:

(a) that the municipality's transient room capacity is less than 66% of the municipality's permanent [~~census~~]population; and

(b) (i) for a municipality that is required by Section 59-12-403 to provide notice to the commission, within 30 days after the day on which the municipality provides the notice to the commission; or

(ii) for a municipality that is not required by Section 59-12-403 to provide notice to the commission, on or before September 1.

(5) (a) For a municipality that does not impose a tax under Section 59-12-401 on the day on which the municipality files the form described in Subsection (3), if the commission provides written notice described in Subsection (4) to the municipality, the municipality may not impose a tax under this part until the municipality meets the requirements of this part to enact the tax.

(b) For a municipality that is not required by Section 59-12-403 to provide notice to the commission, if the commission provides written notice described in Subsection (4) to the municipality for three consecutive calendar years, the municipality may not impose a tax under this part:

(i) beginning on July 1 of the year after the year during which the commission provided written notice described in Subsection (4):

(A) to the municipality; and

(B) for the third consecutive calendar year; and

(ii) until the municipality meets the requirements of this part to enact the tax.

(6) For purposes of this section, population for each municipality shall be based on, to the extent not otherwise required by federal law:

(a) the most recent estimate from the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(b) if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available for each municipality and unincorporated area, the adjusted sub-county population estimate provided by the Utah Population Committee in accordance with Section 63C-20-104.

Section 15. Section 59-12-603 is amended to read:

59-12-603

(Effective 07/01/25)

. County tax -- Bases -- Rates -- Use of revenue -- Adoption of ordinance required -- Advisory board -- Administration -- Collection -- Administrative charge -- Distribution -- Enactment or repeal of tax or tax rate change -- Effective date -- Notice requirements.

(1) (a) In addition to any other taxes, a county legislative body may, as provided in this part, impose a tax as follows:

(i) (A) a county legislative body of any county may impose a tax of not to exceed 3% on all short-term rentals of motor vehicles, except for short-term rentals of motor vehicles made for the purpose of temporarily replacing a person's motor vehicle that is being repaired pursuant to a repair or an insurance agreement; and

(B) a county legislative body of any county imposing a tax under Subsection (1)(a)(i)(A) may, in addition to imposing the tax under Subsection (1)(a)(i)(A), impose a tax of not to exceed 4% on all short-term rentals of motor vehicles, except for short-term rentals of motor vehicles made for the purpose of temporarily replacing a person's motor vehicle that is being repaired pursuant to a repair or an insurance agreement;

(ii) a county legislative body of any county may impose a tax of not to exceed 7% on all short-term rentals of off-highway vehicles and recreational vehicles;

(iii) a county legislative body of any county may impose a tax of not to exceed 1% of all sales of the following that are sold by a restaurant:

(A) alcoholic beverages;

(B) food and food ingredients; or

(C) prepared food;

(iv) a county legislative body of a county of the first class may impose a tax of not to exceed .5% on charges for the accommodations and services described in Subsection 59-12-103(1)(i); and

(v) if a county legislative body of any county imposes a tax under Subsection (1)(a)(i), a tax at the same rate applies to car sharing of less than 30 days, except for car sharing for the purpose of temporarily replacing a person's motor vehicle that is being repaired pursuant to a repair or an insurance agreement.

(b) A tax imposed under Subsection (1)(a) is subject to the audit provisions of Section 17-31-5.5.

(2) (a) Subject to Subsection (2)(c), a county may use revenue from the imposition of a tax under Subsection (1) for:

(i) financing tourism promotion; and

(ii) the development, operation, and maintenance of:

(A) an airport facility;

(B) a convention facility;

(C) a cultural facility;

(D) a recreation facility; or

(E) a tourist facility.

(b) (i) In addition to the uses described in Subsection (2)(a) and subject to Subsection (2)(b)(ii), a county of the fourth, fifth, or sixth class or a county with a population density of fewer than 15 people per square mile may expend the revenue from the imposition of a tax under Subsections (1)(a)(i) and (ii) on the following activities to mitigate the impacts of tourism:

(A) solid waste disposal;

(B) search and rescue activities;

(C) law enforcement activities;

(D) emergency medical services; or

(E) fire protection services.

(ii) A county may only expend the revenue as outlined in Subsection (2)(b)(i) if the county's tourism tax advisory board created under Subsection 17-31-8(1)(a) has prioritized the use of revenue to mitigate the impacts of tourism.

(c) A county of the first class shall expend at least $450,000 each year of the revenue from the imposition of a tax authorized by Subsection (1)(a)(iv) within the county to fund a marketing and ticketing system designed to:

(i) promote tourism in ski areas within the county by persons that do not reside within the state; and

(ii) combine the sale of:

(A) ski lift tickets; and

(B) accommodations and services described in Subsection 59-12-103(1)(i).

(3) A tax imposed under this part may be pledged as security for bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness incurred by a county, city, or town under Title 11, Chapter 14, Local Government Bonding Act, or a community reinvestment agency under Title 17C, Chapter 1, Part 5, Agency Bonds, to finance:

(a) an airport facility;

(b) a convention facility;

(c) a cultural facility;

(d) a recreation facility; or

(e) a tourist facility.

(4) (a) To impose a tax under Subsection (1), the county legislative body shall adopt an ordinance imposing the tax.

(b) The ordinance under Subsection (4)(a) shall include provisions substantially the same as those contained in Part 1, Tax Collection, except that the tax shall be imposed only on those items and sales described in Subsection (1).

(c) The name of the county as the taxing agency shall be substituted for that of the state where necessary, and an additional license is not required if one has been or is issued under Section 59-12-106.

(5) To maintain in effect a tax ordinance adopted under this part, each county legislative body shall, within 30 days of any amendment of any applicable provisions of Part 1, Tax Collection, adopt amendments to the county's tax ordinance to conform with the applicable amendments to Part 1, Tax Collection.

(6) (a) Regardless of whether a county of the first class creates a tourism tax advisory board in accordance with Section 17-31-8, the county legislative body of the county of the first class shall create a tax advisory board in accordance with this Subsection (6).

(b) The tax advisory board shall be composed of nine members appointed as follows:

(i) four members shall be residents of a county of the first class appointed by the county legislative body of the county of the first class; and

(ii) subject to Subsections (6)(c) and (d), five members shall be mayors of cities or towns within the county of the first class appointed by an organization representing all mayors of cities and towns within the county of the first class.

(c) Five members of the tax advisory board constitute a quorum.

(d) The county legislative body of the county of the first class shall determine:

(i) terms of the members of the tax advisory board;

(ii) procedures and requirements for removing a member of the tax advisory board;

(iii) voting requirements, except that action of the tax advisory board shall be by at least a majority vote of a quorum of the tax advisory board;

(iv) chairs or other officers of the tax advisory board;

(v) how meetings are to be called and the frequency of meetings; and

(vi) the compensation, if any, of members of the tax advisory board.

(e) The tax advisory board under this Subsection (6) shall advise the county legislative body of the county of the first class on the expenditure of revenue collected within the county of the first class from the taxes described in Subsection (1)(a).

(7) (a) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(a)(ii), a tax authorized under this part shall be administered, collected, and enforced in accordance with:

(A) the same procedures used to administer, collect, and enforce the tax under:

(I) Part 1, Tax Collection; or

(II) Part 2, Local Sales and Use Tax Act; and

(B) Chapter 1, General Taxation Policies.

(ii) A tax under this part is not subject to Section 59-12-107.1 or 59-12-123 or Subsections 59-12-205(2) through (5).

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(c):

(i) for a tax under this part other than the tax under Subsection (1)(a)(i)(B), the commission shall distribute the revenue to the county imposing the tax; and

(ii) for a tax under Subsection (1)(a)(i)(B), the commission shall distribute the revenue according to the distribution formula provided in Subsection (8).

(c) The commission shall retain and deposit an administrative charge in accordance with Section 59-1-306 from the revenue the commission collects from a tax under this part.

(8) (a) The commission shall distribute the revenue generated by the tax under Subsection (1)(a)(i)(B) to each county collecting a tax under Subsection (1)(a)(i)(B) according to the following formula:

~~(a)~~ the commission shall distribute 70% of the revenue based on the percentages generated by dividing the revenue collected by each county under Subsection (1)(a)(i)(B) by the total revenue collected by all counties under Subsection (1)(a)(i)(B); and

~~(b)~~ the commission shall distribute 30% of the revenue based on the percentages generated by dividing the population of each county collecting a tax under Subsection (1)(a)(i)(B) by the total population of all counties collecting a tax under Subsection (1)(a)(i)(B).

(b) Population for purposes of this Subsection (8) shall be based on, to the extent not otherwise required by federal law:

(i) the estimate of the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(ii) if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available, the most recent census or census estimate of the United States Bureau of the Census.

(9) (a) For purposes of this Subsection (9):

(i) "Annexation" means an annexation to a county under Title 17, Chapter 2, Part 2, County Annexation.

(ii) "Annexing area" means an area that is annexed into a county.

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (9)(c), if a county enacts or repeals a tax or changes the rate of a tax under this part, the enactment, repeal, or change shall take effect:

(A) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(B) after a 90-day period beginning on the day on which the commission receives notice meeting the requirements of Subsection (9)(b)(ii) from the county.

(ii) The notice described in Subsection (9)(b)(i)(B) shall state:

(A) that the county will enact or repeal a tax or change the rate of a tax under this part;

(B) the statutory authority for the tax described in Subsection (9)(b)(ii)(A);

(C) the effective date of the tax described in Subsection (9)(b)(ii)(A); and

(D) if the county enacts the tax or changes the rate of the tax described in Subsection (9)(b)(ii)(A), the rate of the tax.

(c) (i) If the billing period for a transaction begins before the effective date of the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase imposed under Subsection (1), the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase shall take effect on the first day of the first billing period that begins after the effective date of the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase.

(ii) If the billing period for a transaction begins before the effective date of the repeal of the tax or the tax rate decrease imposed under Subsection (1), the repeal of the tax or the tax rate decrease shall take effect on the first day of the last billing period that began before the effective date of the repeal of the tax or the tax rate decrease.

(d) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (9)(e), if the annexation will result in the enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of a tax under this part for an annexing area, the enactment, repeal, or change shall take effect:

(A) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(B) after a 90-day period beginning on the day on which the commission receives notice meeting the requirements of Subsection (9)(d)(ii) from the county that annexes the annexing area.

(ii) The notice described in Subsection (9)(d)(i)(B) shall state:

(A) that the annexation described in Subsection (9)(d)(i) will result in an enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of a tax under this part for the annexing area;

(B) the statutory authority for the tax described in Subsection (9)(d)(ii)(A);

(C) the effective date of the tax described in Subsection (9)(d)(ii)(A); and

(D) if the county enacts the tax or changes the rate of the tax described in Subsection (9)(d)(ii)(A), the rate of the tax.

(e) (i) If the billing period for a transaction begins before the effective date of the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase imposed under Subsection (1), the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase shall take effect on the first day of the first billing period that begins after the effective date of the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase.

(ii) If the billing period for a transaction begins before the effective date of the repeal of the tax or the tax rate decrease imposed under Subsection (1), the repeal of the tax or the tax rate decrease shall take effect on the first day of the last billing period that began before the effective date of the repeal of the tax or the tax rate decrease.

Section 16. Section 59-12-1102 is amended to read:

59-12-1102

(Effective 07/01/25)

. Base -- Rate -- Imposition of tax -- Distribution of revenue -- Administration -- Administrative charge -- Commission requirement to retain an amount to be deposited into the Qualified Emergency Food Agencies Fund -- Enactment or repeal of tax -- Effective date -- Notice requirements.

(1) (a) (i) Subject to Subsections (2) through (6), and in addition to any other tax authorized by this chapter, a county may impose by ordinance a county option sales and use tax of .25% upon the transactions described in Subsection 59-12-103(1).

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(a)(i), a county may not impose a tax under this section on the sales and uses described in Section 59-12-104 to the extent the sales and uses are exempt from taxation under Section 59-12-104.

(b) For purposes of this Subsection (1), the location of a transaction shall be determined in accordance with Sections 59-12-211 through 59-12-215.

(c) The county option sales and use tax under this section shall be imposed:

(i) upon transactions that are located within the county, including transactions that are located within municipalities in the county; and

(ii) except as provided in Subsection (1)(d) or (5), beginning on the first day of January:

(A) of the next calendar year after adoption of the ordinance imposing the tax if the ordinance is adopted on or before May 25; or

(B) of the second calendar year after adoption of the ordinance imposing the tax if the ordinance is adopted after May 25.

(d) The county option sales and use tax under this section shall be imposed:

(i) beginning January 1, 1998, if an ordinance adopting the tax imposed on or before September 4, 1997; or

(ii) beginning January 1, 1999, if an ordinance adopting the tax is imposed during 1997 but after September 4, 1997.

(2) (a) Before imposing a county option sales and use tax under Subsection (1), a county shall hold two public hearings on separate days in geographically diverse locations in the county.

(b) (i) At least one of the hearings required by Subsection (2)(a) shall have a starting time of no earlier than 6 p.m.

(ii) The earlier of the hearings required by Subsection (2)(a) shall be no less than seven days after the day the first advertisement required by Subsection (2)(c) is published.

(c) (i) Before holding the public hearings required by Subsection (2)(a), the county shall advertise:

(A) its intent to adopt a county option sales and use tax;

(B) the date, time, and location of each public hearing; and

(C) a statement that the purpose of each public hearing is to obtain public comments regarding the proposed tax.

(ii) The advertisement shall be published:

(A) in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once each week for the two weeks preceding the earlier of the two public hearings; and

(B) for the county, as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102, for two weeks before the day on which the first of the two public hearings is held.

(iii) The advertisement described in Subsection (2)(c)(ii)(A) shall be no less than 1/8 page in size, and the type used shall be no smaller than 18 point and surrounded by a 1/4-inch border.

(iv) The advertisement described in Subsection (2)(c)(ii)(A) may not be placed in that portion of the newspaper where legal notices and classified advertisements appear.

(v) In accordance with Subsection (2)(c)(ii)(A), whenever possible:

(A) the advertisement shall appear in a newspaper that is published at least five days a week, unless the only newspaper in the county is published less than five days a week; and

(B) the newspaper selected shall be one of general interest and readership in the community, and not one of limited subject matter.

(d) The adoption of an ordinance imposing a county option sales and use tax is subject to a local referendum election and shall be conducted as provided in Title 20A, Chapter 7, Part 6, Local Referenda - Procedures.

(3) (a) Subject to Subsection (5), if the aggregate population of the counties imposing a county option sales and use tax under Subsection (1) is less than 75% of the state population, the tax levied under Subsection (1) shall be distributed to the county in which the tax was collected.

(b) Subject to Subsection (5), if the aggregate population of the counties imposing a county option sales and use tax under Subsection (1) is greater than or equal to 75% of the state population:

(i) 50% of the tax collected under Subsection (1) in each county shall be distributed to the county in which the tax was collected; and

(ii) except as provided in Subsection (3)(c), 50% of the tax collected under Subsection (1) in each county shall be distributed proportionately among all counties imposing the tax, based on the total population of each county.

(c) Except as provided in Subsection (5), the amount to be distributed annually to a county under Subsection (3)(b)(ii), when combined with the amount distributed to the county under Subsection (3)(b)(i), does not equal at least $75,000, then:

(i) the amount to be distributed annually to that county under Subsection (3)(b)(ii) shall be increased so that, when combined with the amount distributed to the county under Subsection (3)(b)(i), the amount distributed annually to the county is $75,000; and

(ii) the amount to be distributed annually to all other counties under Subsection (3)(b)(ii) shall be reduced proportionately to offset the additional amount distributed under Subsection (3)(c)(i).

(d) The commission shall establish rules to implement the distribution of the tax under Subsections (3)(a), (b), and (c).

(e) Population for each county for purposes of this Subsection (3) shall be based on, to the extent not otherwise required by federal law:

(i) the estimate of the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(ii) if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available, the most recent census or census estimate of the United States Bureau of the Census.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b) or (c), a tax authorized under this part shall be administered, collected, and enforced in accordance with:

(i) the same procedures used to administer, collect, and enforce the tax under:

(A) Part 1, Tax Collection; or

(B) Part 2, Local Sales and Use Tax Act; and

(ii) Chapter 1, General Taxation Policies.

(b) A tax under this part is not subject to Subsections 59-12-205(2) through (5).

(c) (i) Subject to Subsection (4)(c)(ii), the commission shall retain and deposit an administrative charge in accordance with Section 59-1-306 from the revenue the commission collects from a tax under this part.

(ii) Notwithstanding Section 59-1-306, the administrative charge described in Subsection (4)(c)(i) shall be calculated by taking a percentage described in Section 59-1-306 of the distribution amounts resulting after:

(A) the applicable distribution calculations under Subsection (3) have been made; and

(B) the commission retains the amount required by Subsection (5).

(5) (a) Beginning on July 1, 2009, the commission shall calculate and retain a portion of the sales and use tax collected under this part as provided in this Subsection (5).

(b) For a county that imposes a tax under this part, the commission shall calculate a percentage each month by dividing the sales and use tax collected under this part for that month within the boundaries of that county by the total sales and use tax collected under this part for that month within the boundaries of all of the counties that impose a tax under this part.

(c) For a county that imposes a tax under this part, the commission shall retain each month an amount equal to the product of:

(i) the percentage the commission determines for the month under Subsection (5)(b) for the county; and

(ii) $6,354.

(d) The commission shall deposit an amount the commission retains in accordance with this Subsection (5) into the Qualified Emergency Food Agencies Fund created by Section 35A-8-1009.

(e) An amount the commission deposits into the Qualified Emergency Food Agencies Fund shall be expended as provided in Section 35A-8-1009.

(6) (a) For purposes of this Subsection (6):

(i) "Annexation" means an annexation to a county under Title 17, Chapter 2, County Consolidations and Annexations.

(ii) "Annexing area" means an area that is annexed into a county.

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (6)(c) or (d), if, on or after July 1, 2004, a county enacts or repeals a tax under this part:

(A) (I) the enactment shall take effect as provided in Subsection (1)(c); or

(II) the repeal shall take effect on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(B) after a 90-day period beginning on the date the commission receives notice meeting the requirements of Subsection (6)(b)(ii) from the county.

(ii) The notice described in Subsection (6)(b)(i)(B) shall state:

(A) that the county will enact or repeal a tax under this part;

(B) the statutory authority for the tax described in Subsection (6)(b)(ii)(A);

(C) the effective date of the tax described in Subsection (6)(b)(ii)(A); and

(D) if the county enacts the tax described in Subsection (6)(b)(ii)(A), the rate of the tax.

(c) (i) If the billing period for a transaction begins before the effective date of the enactment of the tax under Subsection (1), the enactment of the tax takes effect on the first day of the first billing period that begins on or after the effective date of the enactment of the tax.

(ii) The repeal of a tax applies to a billing period if the billing statement for the billing period is produced on or after the effective date of the repeal of the tax imposed under Subsection (1).

(d) (i) If a tax due under this chapter on a catalogue sale is computed on the basis of sales and use tax rates published in the catalogue, an enactment or repeal of a tax described in Subsection (6)(b)(i) takes effect:

(A) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(B) beginning 60 days after the effective date of the enactment or repeal under Subsection (6)(b)(i).

(ii) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commission may by rule define the term "catalogue sale."

(e) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (6)(f) or (g), if, for an annexation that occurs on or after July 1, 2004, the annexation will result in the enactment or repeal of a tax under this part for an annexing area, the enactment or repeal shall take effect:

(A) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(B) after a 90-day period beginning on the date the commission receives notice meeting the requirements of Subsection (6)(e)(ii) from the county that annexes the annexing area.

(ii) The notice described in Subsection (6)(e)(i)(B) shall state:

(A) that the annexation described in Subsection (6)(e)(i) will result in an enactment or repeal of a tax under this part for the annexing area;

(B) the statutory authority for the tax described in Subsection (6)(e)(ii)(A);

(C) the effective date of the tax described in Subsection (6)(e)(ii)(A); and

(D) the rate of the tax described in Subsection (6)(e)(ii)(A).

(f) (i) If the billing period for a transaction begins before the effective date of the enactment of the tax under Subsection (1), the enactment of the tax takes effect on the first day of the first billing period that begins on or after the effective date of the enactment of the tax.

(ii) The repeal of a tax applies to a billing period if the billing statement for the billing period is produced on or after the effective date of the repeal of the tax imposed under Subsection (1).

(g) (i) If a tax due under this chapter on a catalogue sale is computed on the basis of sales and use tax rates published in the catalogue, an enactment or repeal of a tax described in Subsection (6)(e)(i) takes effect:

(A) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(B) beginning 60 days after the effective date of the enactment or repeal under Subsection (6)(e)(i).

(ii) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commission may by rule define the term "catalogue sale."

Section 17. Section 59-12-2206 is amended to read:

59-12-2206

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Administration, collection, and enforcement of a sales and use tax under this part -- Transmission of revenue monthly by electronic funds transfer -- Transfer of revenue to a public transit district or eligible political subdivision.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), the commission shall administer, collect, and enforce a sales and use tax imposed under this part.

(2) The commission shall administer, collect, and enforce a sales and use tax imposed under this part in accordance with:

(a) the same procedures used to administer, collect, and enforce a tax under:

(i) Part 1, Tax Collection; or

(ii) Part 2, Local Sales and Use Tax Act; and

(b) Chapter 1, General Taxation Policies.

(3) A sales and use tax under this part is not subject to Subsections 59-12-205(2) through (5).

(4) Subject to Section 59-12-2207 and except as provided in Subsection (5) or another provision of this part, the state treasurer shall transmit revenue collected within a county, city, or town from a sales and use tax under this part to the county, city, or town legislative body monthly by electronic funds transfer.

(5) (a) Subject to Section 59-12-2207, and except as provided in Subsection (5)(b), the state treasurer shall transfer revenue collected within a county, city, or town from a sales and use tax under this part directly to a public transit district organized under Title 17B, Chapter 2a, Part 8, Public Transit District Act, or an eligible political subdivision as defined in Section [~~59-12-2219~~]59-12-2202, if the county, city, or town legislative body:

(i) provides written notice to the commission and the state treasurer requesting the transfer; and

(ii) designates the public transit district or eligible political subdivision to which the county, city, or town legislative body requests the state treasurer to transfer the revenue.

(b) The commission shall transmit a portion of the revenue collected within a county, city, or town from a sales and use tax under this part that would be transferred to a public transit district or an eligible political subdivision under Subsection (5)(a) to the county, city, or town to fund public transit fixed guideway safety oversight under Section 72-1-214 if the county, city, or town legislative body:

(i) provides written notice to the commission and the state treasurer requesting the transfer; and

(ii) specifies the amount of revenue required to be transmitted to the county, city, or town.

Section 18. Section 59-12-2219 is amended to read:

59-12-2219

(Effective 07/01/25)

. County option sales and use tax for highways and public transit -- Base -- Rate -- Distribution and expenditure of revenue -- Revenue may not supplant existing budgeted transportation revenue.

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this part, and subject to Subsection (13), a county legislative body may impose a sales and use tax of .25% on the transactions described in Subsection 59-12-103(1) within the county, including the cities and towns within the county.

(2) Subject to Subsection (9), the commission shall distribute sales and use tax revenue collected under this section as provided in Subsections (3) through (8).

(3) If the entire boundary of a county that imposes a sales and use tax under this section is annexed into a single public transit district, the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue collected within the county as follows:

(a) .10% shall be transferred to the public transit district in accordance with Section 59-12-2206;

(b) .10% shall be distributed as provided in Subsection (6); and

(c) .05% shall be distributed to the county legislative body.

(4) If the entire boundary of a county that imposes a sales and use tax under this section is not annexed into a single public transit district, but a city or town within the county is annexed into a single large public transit district, the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue collected within the county as follows:

(a) for a city or town within the county that is annexed into a single public transit district, the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue collected within that city or town as follows:

(i) .10% shall be transferred to the public transit district in accordance with Section 59-12-2206;

(ii) .10% shall be distributed as provided in Subsection (6); and

(iii) .05% shall be distributed to the county legislative body;

(b) for an eligible political subdivision within the county, the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue collected within that eligible political subdivision as follows:

(i) .10% shall be transferred to the eligible political subdivision in accordance with Section 59-12-2206;

(ii) .10% shall be distributed as provided in Subsection (6); and

(iii) .05% shall be distributed to the county legislative body; and

(c) the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue, except for the sales and use tax revenue described in Subsections (4)(a) and (b), as follows:

(i) .10% shall be distributed as provided in Subsection (6); and

(ii) .15% shall be distributed to the county legislative body.

(5) For a county not described in Subsection (3) or (4), if a county of the second, third, fourth, fifth, or sixth class imposes a sales and use tax under this section, the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue collected within the county as follows:

(a) for a city or town within the county that is annexed into a single public transit district, the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue collected within that city or town as follows:

(i) .10% shall be distributed as provided in Subsection (6);

(ii) .10% shall be distributed as provided in Subsection (7); and

(iii) .05% shall be distributed to the county legislative body;

(b) for an eligible political subdivision within the county, the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue collected within that eligible political subdivision as follows:

(i) .10% shall be distributed as provided in Subsection (6);

(ii) .10% shall be distributed as provided in Subsection (7); and

(iii) .05% shall be distributed to the county legislative body; and

(c) the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue, except for the sales and use tax revenue described in Subsections (5)(a) and (b), as follows:

(i) .10% shall be distributed as provided in Subsection (6); and

(ii) .15% shall be distributed to the county legislative body.

(6) (a) Subject to Subsection (6)(b), the commission shall make the distributions required by Subsections (3)(b), (4)(a)(ii), (4)(b)(ii), (4)(c)(i), (5)(a)(i), (5)(b)(i), (5)(c)(i), and (7)(d)(ii)(A) as follows:

(i) 50% of the total revenue collected under Subsections (3)(b), (4)(a)(ii), (4)(b)(ii), (4)(c)(i), (5)(a)(i), (5)(b)(i), (5)(c)(i), and (7)(d)(ii)(A) within the counties and cities that impose a tax under this section shall be distributed to the unincorporated areas, cities, and towns within those counties and cities on the basis of the percentage that the population of each unincorporated area, city, or town bears to the total population of all of the counties and cities that impose a tax under this section; and

(ii) 50% of the total revenue collected under Subsections (3)(b), (4)(a)(ii), (4)(b)(ii), (4)(c)(i), (5)(a)(i), (5)(b)(i), (5)(c)(i), and (7)(d)(ii)(A) within the counties and cities that impose a tax under this section shall be distributed to the unincorporated areas, cities, and towns within those counties and cities on the basis of the location of the transaction as determined under Sections 59-12-211through 59-12-215.

(b) (i) Population for purposes of this Subsection (6) shall be [~~determined on the basis of the most recent official census or census estimate of the United States Bureau of the Census.~~]based on, to the extent not otherwise required by federal law:

(A) the most recent estimate from the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(B) if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available for each municipality and unincorporated area, the adjusted sub-county population estimate provided by the Utah Population Committee in accordance with Section 63C-20-104.

(ii) If a needed population estimate is not available from the United States Bureau of the Census, population figures shall be derived from an estimate from the Utah Population Committee.

(7) (a) (i) Subject to the requirements in Subsections (7)(b) and (c), a county legislative body:

(A) for a county that obtained approval from a majority of the county's registered voters voting on the imposition of a sales and use tax under this section prior to May 10, 2016, may, in consultation with any cities, towns, or eligible political subdivisions within the county, and in compliance with the requirements for changing an allocation under Subsection (7)(e), allocate the revenue under Subsection (5)(a)(ii) or (5)(b)(ii) by adopting a resolution specifying the percentage of revenue under Subsection (5)(a)(ii) or (5)(b)(ii) that will be allocated to a public transit district or an eligible political subdivision; or

(B) for a county that imposes a sales and use tax under this section on or after May 10, 2016, shall, in consultation with any cities, towns, or eligible political subdivisions within the county, allocate the revenue under Subsection (5)(a)(ii) or (5)(b)(ii) by adopting a resolution specifying the percentage of revenue under Subsection (5)(a)(ii) or (5)(b)(ii) that will be allocated to a public transit district or an eligible political subdivision.

(ii) If a county described in Subsection (7)(a)(i)(A) does not allocate the revenue under Subsection (5)(a)(ii) or (5)(b)(ii) in accordance with Subsection (7)(a)(i)(A), the commission shall distribute 100% of the revenue under Subsection (5)(a)(ii) or (5)(b)(ii) to:

(A) a public transit district for a city or town within the county that is annexed into a single public transit district; or

(B) an eligible political subdivision within the county.

(b) If a county legislative body allocates the revenue as described in Subsection (7)(a)(i), the county legislative body shall allocate not less than 25% of the revenue under Subsection (5)(a)(ii) or (5)(b)(ii) to:

(i) a public transit district for a city or town within the county that is annexed into a single public transit district; or

(ii) an eligible political subdivision within the county.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 59-12-2208, the opinion question described in Section 59-12-2208 shall state the allocations the county legislative body makes in accordance with this Subsection (7).

(d) The commission shall make the distributions required by Subsection (5)(a)(ii) or (5)(b)(ii) as follows:

(i) the percentage specified by a county legislative body shall be distributed in accordance with a resolution adopted by a county legislative body under Subsection (7)(a) to an eligible political subdivision or a public transit district within the county; and

(ii) except as provided in Subsection (7)(a)(ii), if a county legislative body allocates less than 100% of the revenue under Subsection (5)(a)(ii) or (5)(b)(ii) to a public transit district or an eligible political subdivision, the remainder of the revenue under Subsection (5)(a)(ii) or (5)(b)(ii) not allocated by a county legislative body through a resolution under Subsection (7)(a) shall be distributed as follows:

(A) 50% of the revenue as provided in Subsection (6); and

(B) 50% of the revenue to the county legislative body.

(e) If a county legislative body seeks to change an allocation specified in a resolution under Subsection (7)(a), the county legislative body may change the allocation by:

(i) adopting a resolution in accordance with Subsection (7)(a) specifying the percentage of revenue under Subsection (5)(a)(ii) or (5)(b)(ii) that will be allocated to a public transit district or an eligible political subdivision;

(ii) obtaining approval to change the allocation of the sales and use tax by a majority of all the members of the county legislative body; and

(iii) subject to Subsection (7)(f):

(A) in accordance with Section 59-12-2208, submitting an opinion question to the county's registered voters voting on changing the allocation so that each registered voter has the opportunity to express the registered voter's opinion on whether the allocation should be changed; and

(B) in accordance with Section 59-12-2208, obtaining approval to change the allocation from a majority of the county's registered voters voting on changing the allocation.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 59-12-2208, the opinion question required by Subsection (7)(e)(iii)(A) shall state the allocations specified in the resolution adopted in accordance with Subsection (7)(e) and approved by the county legislative body in accordance with Subsection (7)(e)(ii).

(g) (i) If a county makes an allocation by adopting a resolution under Subsection (7)(a) or changes an allocation by adopting a resolution under Subsection (7)(e), the allocation shall take effect on the first distribution the commission makes under this section after a 90-day period that begins on the date the commission receives written notice meeting the requirements of Subsection (7)(g)(ii) from the county.

(ii) The notice described in Subsection (7)(g)(i) shall state:

(A) that the county will make or change the percentage of an allocation under Subsection (7)(a) or (e); and

(B) the percentage of revenue under Subsection (5)(a)(ii) or (5)(b)(ii) that will be allocated to a public transit district or an eligible political subdivision.

(8) (a) If a public transit district is organized after the date a county legislative body first imposes a tax under this section, a change in a distribution required by this section may not take effect until the first distribution the commission makes under this section after a 90-day period that begins on the date the commission receives written notice from the public transit district of the organization of the public transit district.

(b) If an eligible political subdivision intends to provide public transit service within a county after the date a county legislative body first imposes a tax under this section, a change in a distribution required by this section may not take effect until the first distribution the commission makes under this section after a 90-day period that begins on the date the commission receives written notice from the eligible political subdivision stating that the eligible political subdivision intends to provide public transit service within the county.

(9) (a) (i) Notwithstanding Subsections (3) through (8), for a county that has not imposed a sales and use tax under this section before May 8, 2018, and if the county imposes a sales and use tax under this section before June 30, 2019, the commission shall distribute all of the sales and use tax revenue collected by the county before June 30, 2019, to the county for the purposes described in Subsection (9)(a)(ii).

(ii) For any revenue collected by a county pursuant to Subsection (9)(a)(i) before June 30, 2019, the county may expend that revenue for:

(A) reducing transportation related debt;

(B) a regionally significant transportation facility; or

(C) a public transit project of regional significance.

(b) For a county that has not imposed a sales and use tax under this section before May 8, 2018, and if the county imposes a sales and use tax under this section before June 30, 2019, the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue collected by the county on or after July 1, 2019, as described in Subsections (3) through (8).

(c) For a county that has not imposed a sales and use tax under this section before June 30, 2019, if the entire boundary of that county is annexed into a large public transit district, and if the county imposes a sales and use tax under this section on or after July 1, 2019, the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue collected by the county as described in Subsections (3) through (8).

(10) A county, city, or town may expend revenue collected from a tax under this section, except for revenue the commission distributes in accordance with Subsection (3)(a), (4)(a)(i), (4)(b)(i), or (7)(d)(i), for a purpose described in Section 59-12-2212.2.

(11) (a) A public transit district or an eligible political subdivision may expend revenue the commission distributes in accordance with Subsection (3)(a), (4)(a)(i), (4)(b)(i), or (7)(d)(i) for capital expenses and service delivery expenses of the public transit district or eligible political subdivision.

(b) As provided in Section 59-12-2212.2, for the .10% designated for public transit described in Subsection (3)(a) that is not contractually obligated for debt service, beginning on July 1, 2025, a public transit district shall make available to the Department of Transportation an amount equal to 10% of the .10% to be used for public transit innovation grants as provided in Title 72, Chapter 2, Part 3, Public Transit Innovation Grants.

(12) Notwithstanding Section 59-12-2208, a county, city, or town legislative body may, but is not required to, submit an opinion question to the county's, city's, or town's registered voters in accordance with Section 59-12-2208 to impose a sales and use tax under this section.

(13) (a) (i) Notwithstanding any other provision in this section, if the entire boundary of a county is annexed into a large public transit district, if the county legislative body wishes to impose a sales and use tax under this section, the county legislative body shall pass the ordinance to impose a sales and use tax under this section on or before June 30, 2022.

(ii) If the entire boundary of a county is annexed into a large public transit district, the county legislative body may not pass an ordinance to impose a sales and use tax under this section on or after July 1, 2022.

(b) Notwithstanding the deadline described in Subsection (13)(a), any sales and use tax imposed under this section by passage of a county ordinance on or before June 30, 2022, may remain in effect.

(14) (a) Beginning on July 1, 2020, and subject to Subsection (15), if a county has not imposed a sales and use tax under this section, subject to the provisions of this part, the legislative body of a city or town described in Subsection (14)(b) may impose a .25% sales and use tax on the transactions described in Subsection 59-12-103(1) within the city or town.

(b) The following cities or towns may impose a sales and use tax described in Subsection (14)(a):

(i) a city or town that has been annexed into a public transit district; or

(ii) an eligible political subdivision.

(c) If a city or town imposes a sales and use tax as provided in this section, the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue collected by the city or town as follows:

(i) .125% to the city or town that imposed the sales and use tax, to be distributed as provided in Subsection (6); and

(ii) .125%, as applicable, to:

(A) the public transit district in which the city or town is annexed; or

(B) the eligible political subdivision for public transit services.

(d) If a city or town imposes a sales and use tax under this section and the county subsequently imposes a sales and use tax under this section, the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue collected within the city or town as described in Subsection (14)(c).

(15) (a) (i) Notwithstanding any other provision in this section, if a city or town legislative body wishes to impose a sales and use tax under this section, the city or town legislative body shall pass the ordinance to impose a sales and use tax under this section on or before June 30, 2022.

(ii) A city or town legislative body may not pass an ordinance to impose a sales and use tax under this section on or after July 1, 2022.

(b) Notwithstanding the deadline described in Subsection (15)(a), any sales and use tax imposed under this section by passage of an ordinance by a city or town legislative body on or before June 30, 2022, may remain in effect.

Section 19. Section 59-12-2220 is amended to read:

59-12-2220

(Effective 07/01/25)

. County option sales and use tax to fund highways or a system for public transit -- Base -- Rate.

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this part and subject to the requirements of this section, the following counties may impose a sales and use tax under this section:

(a) a county legislative body may impose the sales and use tax on the transactions described in Subsection 59-12-103(1) located within the county, including the cities and towns within the county if:

(i) the entire boundary of a county is annexed into a large public transit district; and

(ii) the maximum amount of sales and use tax authorizations allowed pursuant to Section 59-12-2203 and authorized under the following sections has been imposed:

(A) Section 59-12-2213;

(B) Section 59-12-2214;

(C) Section 59-12-2215;

(D) Section 59-12-2216;

(E) Section 59-12-2217;

(F) Section 59-12-2218; and

(G) Section 59-12-2219;

(b) if the county is not annexed into a large public transit district, the county legislative body may impose the sales and use tax on the transactions described in Subsection 59-12-103(1) located within the county, including the cities and towns within the county if:

(i) the county is an eligible political subdivision; or

(ii) a city or town within the boundary of the county is an eligible political subdivision; or

(c) a county legislative body of a county not described in Subsection (1)(a) or (1)(b) may impose the sales and use tax on the transactions described in Subsection 59-12-103(1) located within the county, including the cities and towns within the county.

(2) For purposes of Subsection (1) and subject to the other provisions of this section, a county legislative body that imposes a sales and use tax under this section may impose the tax at a rate of .2%.

(3) (a) The commission shall distribute sales and use tax revenue collected under this section as determined by a county legislative body as described in Subsection (3)(b).

(b) If a county legislative body imposes a sales and use tax as described in this section, the county legislative body may elect to impose a sales and use tax revenue distribution as described in Subsection (4), (5), (6), or (7), depending on the class of county, and presence and type of a public transit provider in the county.

(4) If a county legislative body imposes a sales and use tax as described in this section, and the entire boundary of the county is annexed into a large public transit district, and the county is a county of the first class, the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue as follows:

(a) .10% to a public transit district as described in Subsection (11);

(b) .05% to the cities and towns as provided in Subsection (8); and

(c) .05% to the county legislative body.

(5) If a county legislative body imposes a sales and use tax as described in this section and the entire boundary of the county is annexed into a large public transit district, and the county is a county not described in Subsection (4), the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue as follows:

(a) .10% to a public transit district as described in Subsection (11);

(b) .05% to the cities and towns as provided in Subsection (8); and

(c) .05% to the county legislative body.

(6) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (12)(c), if the entire boundary of a county that imposes a sales and use tax as described in this section is not annexed into a single public transit district, but a city or town within the county is annexed into a single public transit district, or if the city or town is an eligible political subdivision, the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue collected within the county as provided in Subsection (6)(b) or (c).

(b) For a city, town, or portion of the county described in Subsection (6)(a) that is annexed into the single public transit district, or an eligible political subdivision, the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue collected within the portion of the county that is within a public transit district or eligible political subdivision as follows:

(i) .05% to a public transit provider as described in Subsection (11);

(ii) .075% to the cities and towns as provided in Subsection (8); and

(iii) .075% to the county legislative body.

(c) Except as provided in Subsection (12)(c), for a city, town, or portion of the county described in Subsection (6)(a) that is not annexed into a single public transit district or eligible political subdivision in the county, the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue collected within that portion of the county as follows:

(i) .08% to the cities and towns as provided in Subsection (8); and

(ii) .12% to the county legislative body.

(7) For a county without a public transit service that imposes a sales and use tax as described in this section, the commission shall distribute the sales and use tax revenue collected within the county as follows:

(a) .08% to the cities and towns as provided in Subsection (8); and

(b) .12% to the county legislative body.

(8) (a) Subject to Subsections (8)(b) and (c), the commission shall make the distributions required by Subsections (4)(b), (5)(b), (6)(b)(ii), (6)(c)(i), and (7)(a) as follows:

(i) 50% of the total revenue collected under Subsections (4)(b), (5)(b), (6)(b)(ii), (6)(c)(i), and (7)(a) within the counties that impose a tax under Subsections (4) through (7) shall be distributed to the unincorporated areas, cities, and towns within those counties on the basis of the percentage that the population of each unincorporated area, city, or town bears to the total population of all of the counties that impose a tax under this section; and

(ii) 50% of the total revenue collected under Subsections (4)(b), (5)(b), (6)(b)(ii), (6)(c)(i), and (7)(a) within the counties that impose a tax under Subsections (4) through (7) shall be distributed to the unincorporated areas, cities, and towns within those counties on the basis of the location of the transaction as determined under Sections 59-12-211 through 59-12-215.

(b) (i) Population for purposes of this Subsection (8) shall be [~~determined on the basis of the most recent official census or census estimate of the United States Census Bureau.~~]based on, to the extent not otherwise required by federal law:

(A) the most recent estimate from the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(B) if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available for each municipality and unincorporated area, the adjusted sub-county population estimate provided by the Utah Population Committee in accordance with Section 63C-20-104.

(ii) If a needed population estimate is not available from the United States Census Bureau, population figures shall be derived from an estimate from the Utah Population Estimates Committee created by executive order of the governor.

(c) (i) Beginning on January 1, 2024, if the Housing and Community Development Division within the Department of Workforce Services determines that a city or town is ineligible for funds in accordance with Subsection 10-9a-408(7), beginning the first day of the calendar quarter after receiving 90 days' notice, the commission shall distribute the distribution that city or town would have received under Subsection (8)(a) to cities or towns to which Subsection 10-9a-408(7) does not apply.

(ii) Beginning on January 1, 2024, if the Housing and Community Development Division within the Department of Workforce Services determines that a county is ineligible for funds in accordance with Subsection 17-27a-408(7), beginning the first day of the calendar quarter after receiving 90 days' notice, the commission shall distribute the distribution that county would have received under Subsection (8)(a) to counties to which Subsection 17-27a-408(7) does not apply.

(9) If a public transit service is organized after the date a county legislative body first imposes a tax under this section, a change in a distribution required by this section may not take effect until the first distribution the commission makes under this section after a 90-day period that begins on the date the commission receives written notice from the public transit provider that the public transit service has been organized.

(10) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (10)(b), a county, city, or town that received distributions described in Subsections (4)(b), (4)(c), (5)(b), (5)(c), (6)(b)(ii), (6)(b)(iii), (6)(c), and (7) may only expend those funds for a purpose described in Section 59-12-2212.2.

(b) If a county described in Subsection (1)(a) that is a county of the first class imposes the sales and use tax authorized in this section, the county may also use funds distributed in accordance with Subsection (4)(c) for public safety purposes.

(11) (a) Subject to Subsections (11)(b), (c), and (d), revenue designated for public transit as described in this section may be used for capital expenses and service delivery expenses of:

(i) a public transit district;

(ii) an eligible political subdivision; or

(iii) another entity providing a service for public transit or a transit facility within the relevant county, as those terms are defined in Section 17B-2a-802.

(b) (i) (A) If a county of the first class imposes a sales and use tax described in this section, for a three-year period following the date on which the county imposes the sales and use tax under this section, revenue designated for public transit within a county of the first class as described in Subsection (4)(a) shall be transferred to the County of the First Class Highway Projects Fund created in Section 72-2-121.

(B) Revenue deposited into the County of the First Class Highway Projects Fund created in Section 72-2-121 as described in Subsection (11)(b)(i)(A) may be used for public transit innovation grants as provided in Title 72, Chapter 2, Part [~~3~~]4, Public Transit Innovation Grants.

(ii) If a county of the first class imposes a sales and use tax described in this section, beginning on the day three years after the date on which the county imposed the tax as described in Subsection (11)(b)(i), for revenue designated for public transit as described in Subsection (4)(a):

(A) 50% of the revenue from a sales and use tax imposed under this section in a county of the first class shall be transferred to the County of the First Class Highway Projects Fund created in Section 72-2-121; and

(B) 50% of the revenue from a sales and use tax imposed under this section in a county of the first class shall be transferred to the Transit Transportation Investment Fund created in Subsection 72-2-124(9).

(c) (i) If a county that is not a county of the first class for which the entire boundary of the county is annexed into a large public transit district imposes a sales and use tax described in this section, for a three-year period following the date on which the county imposes the sales and use tax under this section, revenue designated for public transit as described in Subsection (5)(a) shall be transferred to the relevant county legislative body to be used for a purpose described in Subsection (11)(a).

(ii) If a county that is not a county of the first class for which the entire boundary of the county is annexed into a large public transit district imposes a sales and use tax described in this section, beginning on the day three years after the date on which the county imposed the tax as described in Subsection (11)(c)(i), for the revenue that is designated for public transit in Subsection (5)(a):

(A) 50% shall be transferred to the Transit Transportation Investment Fund created in Subsection 72-2-124(9); and

(B) 50% shall be transferred to the relevant county legislative body to be used for a purpose described in Subsection (11)(a).

(d) Except as provided in Subsection (12)(c), for a county that imposes a sales and use tax under this section, for revenue designated for public transit as described in Subsection (6)(b)(i), the revenue shall be transferred to the relevant county legislative body to be used for a purpose described in Subsection (11)(a).

(12) (a) Notwithstanding Section 59-12-2208, a county legislative body may, but is not required to, submit an opinion question to the county's registered voters in accordance with Section 59-12-2208 to impose a sales and use tax under this section.

(b) If a county passes an ordinance to impose a sales and use tax as described in this section, the sales and use tax shall take effect on the first day of the calendar quarter after a 90-day period that begins on the date the commission receives written notice from the county of the passage of the ordinance.

(c) A county that imposed the local option sales and use tax described in this section before January 1, 2023, may maintain that county's distribution allocation in place as of January 1, 2023.

(13) (a) Revenue collected from a sales and use tax under this section may not be used to supplant existing General Fund appropriations that a county, city, or town budgeted for transportation or public transit as of the date the tax becomes effective for a county, city, or town.

(b) The limitation under Subsection (13)(a) does not apply to a designated transportation or public transit capital or reserve account a county, city, or town established before the date the tax becomes effective.

Section 20. Section 63C-20-102 is amended to read:

63C-20-102

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Definitions.

As used in this chapter[~~, "committee"~~]:

(1) "Adjusted sub-county population estimate" means:

(a) a municipality's or an unincorporated area's population estimate from the United States Bureau of the Census; multiplied by

(b) the corresponding Utah Population Committee county raking factor.

(2) "Committee" means the Utah Population Committee created by this chapter.

(3) "Utah Population Committee county raking factor" means:

(a) a county's population estimate from the Committee; divided by

(b) the county's population estimate from the United States Bureau of the Census.

Section 21. Section 63C-20-104 is amended to read:

63C-20-104

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Committee duties.

The committee shall:

(1) prepare annual population estimates for the total population of the state and each county in the state;

(2) review and comment on the methodologies and population estimates for all geographic levels for the state that the United States Bureau of the Census produces;

(3) prepare place estimates for new political subdivision annexations and incorporations in the state;

(4) prepare additional demographic estimates for the state that may include estimates related to race, ethnicity, age, sex, religious affiliation, or economic status; [~~and~~]

(5) publish the estimates described in Subsections (1), (3), and (4) on the committee's website; and

(6) no later than 90 days after the day on which the United States Bureau of the Census releases annual population estimates, provide to the State Tax Commission and Department of Transportation the adjusted sub-county population estimate for each municipality and unincorporated area within the state.

Section 22. Section 63C-20-105 is amended to read:

63C-20-105

(Effective 05/07/25)

. State data and use of committee estimates -- Compliance.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), and unless otherwise provided in statute or rule, if an executive branch entity, legislative branch entity, or independent entity is required to perform an action or make a determination based on a population estimate, the entity shall use a population estimate that the committee produces, if available.

(2) (a) The Governor's Office of Planning and Budget may make rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, to use a population estimate other than a population estimate that the committee produces.

(b) For the purpose of creating a revenue estimate, the Governor's Office of Planning and Budget and the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst are not required to use a population estimate that the committee produces.

(c) For redistricting purposes, a legislative branch entity shall give priority to a population estimate that is produced by the United States Bureau of the Census.

(3) A newly incorporated political subdivision shall provide the committee with a list of residential building permits issued within the boundaries of the political subdivision since the last decennial census.

(4) (a) Subject to any confidentiality restrictions imposed under federal law, the committee may request information from a governmental entity, as that term is defined in Section 63G-2-103, that is necessary to the performance of the committee's duties under this chapter.

(b) Notwithstanding Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act, a governmental entity shall comply with a request under Subsection (4)(a) if the governmental entity has or can reasonably obtain the information that the committee requests.

(c) Before a governmental entity provides information requested under this Subsection (4), the governmental entity and the committee may enter into an agreement that addresses:

(i) the timing and format of the requested information;

(ii) the sharing of a record otherwise classified as private, controlled, or protected under Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act; or

(iii) any other restriction or limitation related to the requested information.

Section 23. Section 67-1a-2 is amended to read:

67-1a-2

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Duties enumerated.

(1) The lieutenant governor shall:

(a) perform duties delegated by the governor, including assignments to serve in any of the following capacities:

(i) as the head of any one department, if so qualified, with the advice and consent of the Senate, and, upon appointment at the pleasure of the governor and without additional compensation;

(ii) as the chairperson of any cabinet group organized by the governor or authorized by law for the purpose of advising the governor or coordinating intergovernmental or interdepartmental policies or programs;

(iii) as liaison between the governor and the state Legislature to coordinate and facilitate the governor's programs and budget requests;

(iv) as liaison between the governor and other officials of local, state, federal, and international governments or any other political entities to coordinate, facilitate, and protect the interests of the state;

(v) as personal advisor to the governor, including advice on policies, programs, administrative and personnel matters, and fiscal or budgetary matters; and

(vi) as chairperson or member of any temporary or permanent boards, councils, commissions, committees, task forces, or other group appointed by the governor;

(b) serve on all boards and commissions in lieu of the governor, whenever so designated by the governor;

(c) serve as the chief election officer of the state as required by Subsection (2);

(d) keep custody of the Great Seal of the State of Utah;

(e) keep a register of, and attest, the official acts of the governor;

(f) affix the Great Seal, with an attestation, to all official documents and instruments to which the official signature of the governor is required; and

(g) furnish a certified copy of all or any part of any law, record, or other instrument filed, deposited, or recorded in the office of the lieutenant governor to any person who requests it and pays the fee.

(2) (a) As the chief election officer, the lieutenant governor shall:

(i) exercise oversight, and general supervisory authority, over all elections;

(ii) exercise direct authority over the conduct of elections for federal, state, and multicounty officers and statewide or multicounty ballot propositions and any recounts involving those races;

(iii) establish uniformity in the election ballot;

(iv) (A) prepare election information for the public as required by law and as determined appropriate by the lieutenant governor; and

(B) make the information described in Subsection (2)(a)(iv)(A) available to the public and to news media, on the Internet, and in other forms as required by law and as determined appropriate by the lieutenant governor;

(v) receive and answer election questions and maintain an election file on opinions received from the attorney general;

(vi) maintain a current list of registered political parties as defined in Section 20A-8-101;

(vii) maintain election returns and statistics;

(viii) certify to the governor the names of individuals nominated to run for, or elected to, office;

(ix) ensure that all voting equipment purchased by the state complies with the requirements of Sections 20A-5-302, 20A-5-802, and 20A-5-803;

(x) during a declared emergency, to the extent that the lieutenant governor determines it warranted, designate, as provided in Section 20A-1-308, a different method, time, or location relating to:

(A) voting on election day;

(B) early voting;

(C) the transmittal or voting of an absentee ballot or military-overseas ballot;

(D) the counting of an absentee ballot or military-overseas ballot; or

(E) the canvassing of election returns; and

(xi) exercise all other election authority, and perform other election duties, as provided in Title 20A, Election Code.

(b) As chief election officer, the lieutenant governor:

(i) shall oversee all elections, and functions relating to elections, in the state;

(ii) shall, in accordance with Section 20A-1-105, take action to enforce compliance by an election officer with legal requirements relating to elections; and

(iii) may not assume the responsibilities assigned to the county clerks, city recorders, town clerks, or other local election officials by Title 20A, Election Code.

(3) (a) The lieutenant governor shall:

(i) determine a new municipality's classification under Section 10-2-301 upon the city's incorporation under Title 10, Chapter 2a, Part 2, Incorporation of a Municipality, based on the municipality's population using the population estimate from the Utah Population Committee; and

(ii) (A) prepare a certificate indicating the class in which the new municipality belongs based on the municipality's population; and

(B) within 10 days after preparing the certificate, deliver a copy of the certificate to the municipality's legislative body.

(b) The lieutenant governor shall:

(i) determine the classification under Section 10-2-301 of a consolidated municipality upon the consolidation of multiple municipalities under Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 6, Consolidation of Municipalities, using population information for each municipality from:

(A) the estimate of the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(B) [~~each official~~]if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available, the census or census estimate of the United States Bureau of the Census; [~~or~~]and

[~~(B) the population estimate from the Utah Population Committee, if the population of a municipality is not available from the United States Bureau of the Census; and~~]

(ii) (A) prepare a certificate indicating the class in which the consolidated municipality belongs based on the municipality's population; and

(B) within 10 days after preparing the certificate, deliver a copy of the certificate to the consolidated municipality's legislative body.

(c) The lieutenant governor shall monitor the population of each municipality using population information from:

(i) the estimate of the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(ii) [~~each official~~]if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available, the census or census estimate of the United States Bureau of the Census[~~; or~~].

[~~(ii) the population estimate from the Utah Population Committee, if the population of a municipality is not available from the United States Bureau of the Census.~~]

(d) If the applicable population figure under Subsection (3)(b) or (c) indicates that a municipality's population has increased beyond the population for its current class, the lieutenant governor shall:

(i) prepare a certificate indicating the class in which the municipality belongs based on the increased population figure; and

(ii) within 10 days after preparing the certificate, deliver a copy of the certificate to the legislative body of the municipality whose class has changed.

(e) (i) If the applicable population figure under Subsection (3)(b) or (c) indicates that a municipality's population has decreased below the population for its current class, the lieutenant governor shall send written notification of that fact to the municipality's legislative body.

(ii) Upon receipt of a petition under Subsection 10-2-302(2) from a municipality whose population has decreased below the population for its current class, the lieutenant governor shall:

(A) prepare a certificate indicating the class in which the municipality belongs based on the decreased population figure; and

(B) within 10 days after preparing the certificate, deliver a copy of the certificate to the legislative body of the municipality whose class has changed.

Section 24. Section 72-2-108 is amended to read:

72-2-108

(Effective 07/01/25)

. Apportionment of funds available for use on class B and class C roads -- Bonds.

(1) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Eligible county" means a county of the fifth class, as described in Section 17-50-501, that received a distribution for fiscal year 2015 that was reapportioned to include money in addition to the amount calculated under Subsection (2), and the portion of the distribution derived from the calculation under Subsection (2) was less than 60% of the total distribution.

(b) "Graveled road" means a road:

(i) that is:

(A) graded; and

(B) drained by transverse drainage systems to prevent serious impairment of the road by surface water;

(ii) that has an improved surface; and

(iii) that has a wearing surface made of:

(A) gravel;

(B) broken stone;

(C) slag;

(D) iron ore;

(E) shale; or

(F) other material that is:

(I) similar to a material described in Subsection (1)(b)(iii)(A) through (E); and

(II) coarser than sand.

(c) "Paved road" includes:

(i) a graveled road with a chip seal surface; and

(ii) a circulator alley.

(d) "Road mile" means a one-mile length of road, regardless of:

(i) the width of the road; or

(ii) the number of lanes into which the road is divided.

(e) "Weighted mileage" means the sum of the following:

(i) paved road miles multiplied by five; and

(ii) all other road type road miles multiplied by two.

(2) (a) Subject to the provisions of Subsections (2)(b) and (3) through (7), funds appropriated for class B and class C roads shall be apportioned among counties and municipalities in the following manner:

~~(a)~~ 50% in the ratio that the class B roads weighted mileage within each county and class C roads weighted mileage within each municipality bear to the total class B and class C roads weighted mileage within the state; and

~~(b)~~ 50% in the ratio that the population of a county or municipality bears to the total population of the state[~~as of the last official federal census or the United States Bureau of Census estimate, whichever is most recent, except that if population estimates are not available from the United States Bureau of Census, population figures shall be derived from the estimate from the Utah Population Committee~~].

(b) To the extent not otherwise required by federal law, population shall be based on:

(i) the most recent estimate from the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(ii) if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available for each municipality and unincorporated area, the adjusted sub-county population estimate provided by the Utah Population Committee in accordance with Section 63C-20-104.

(3) For purposes of Subsection (2)(b), "the population of a county" means:

(a) the population of a county outside the corporate limits of municipalities in that county, if the population of the county outside the corporate limits of municipalities in that county is not less than 14% of the total population of that county, including municipalities; and

(b) if the population of a county outside the corporate limits of municipalities in the county is less than 14% of the total population:

(i) the aggregate percentage of the population apportioned to municipalities in that county shall be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between:

(A) 14%; and

(B) the actual percentage of population outside the corporate limits of municipalities in that county; and

(ii) the population apportioned to the county shall be 14% of the total population of that county, including incorporated municipalities.

(4) For an eligible county, the department shall reapportion the funds under Subsection (2) to ensure that the county or municipality receives, for a fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 2018, an amount equal to the greater of:

(a) the amount apportioned to the county or municipality for class B and class C roads in the current fiscal year under Subsection (2); or

(b) (i) the amount apportioned to the county or municipality for class B and class C roads through the apportionment formula under Subsection (2) or this Subsection (4) in the prior fiscal year; plus

(ii) the amount calculated as described in Subsection (6).

(5) (a) The department shall decrease proportionately as provided in Subsection (5)(b) the apportionments to counties and municipalities for which the reapportionment under Subsection (4) does not apply.

(b) The aggregate amount of the funds that the department shall decrease proportionately from the apportionments under Subsection (5)(a) is an amount equal to the aggregate amount reapportioned to counties and municipalities under Subsection (4).

(6) (a) In addition to the apportionment adjustments made under Subsection (4), a county or municipality that qualifies for reapportioned money under Subsection (4) shall receive an amount equal to the amount apportioned to the eligible county or municipality under Subsection (4) for class B and class C roads in the prior fiscal year multiplied by the percentage increase or decrease in the total funds available for class B and class C roads between the prior fiscal year and the fiscal year that immediately preceded the prior fiscal year.

(b) The adjustment under Subsection (6)(a) shall be made in the same way as provided in Subsections (5)(a) and (b).

(7) (a) If a county or municipality does not qualify for a reapportionment under Subsection (4) in the current fiscal year but previously qualified for a reapportionment under Subsection (4) on or after July 1, 2017, the county or municipality shall receive an amount equal to the greater of:

(i) the amount apportioned to the county or municipality for class B and class C roads in the current fiscal year under Subsection (2); or

(ii) the amount apportioned to the county or municipality for class B and class C roads in the prior fiscal year.

(b) The adjustment under Subsection (7)(a) shall be made in the same way as provided in Subsections (5)(a) and (b).

(8) The governing body of any municipality or county may issue bonds redeemable up to a period of 10 years under Title 11, Chapter 14, Local Government Bonding Act, to pay the costs of constructing, repairing, and maintaining class B or class C roads and may pledge class B or class C road funds received pursuant to this section to pay principal, interest, premiums, and reserves for the bonds.

Section 25. Section 72-2-133 is amended to read:

72-2-133

(Effective 07/01/25)

. Rural Transportation Infrastructure Fund -- Creation -- Uses.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Graveled road" means the same as that term is defined in Section 72-2-108.

(b) "Paved road" means the same as that term is defined in Section 72-2-108.

(c) "Qualifying county" means a county that:

(i) is a county of the third through sixth class;

(ii) has imposed a local option sales and use tax pursuant to:

(A) Section 59-12-2217;

(B) Section 59-12-2218; or

(C) Section 59-12-2219; and

(iii) has not imposed a local option sales and use tax pursuant to Section 59-12-2220on or before January 1, 2023.

(d) "Qualifying municipality" means a municipality located within a qualifying county.

(e) "Qualifying recipient" means qualifying county or a qualifying municipality.

(f) "Road mile" means the same as that term is defined in Section 72-2-108.

(g) "Weighted mileage" means the same as that term is defined in Section 72-2-108.

(2) There is created in the Transportation Fund an expendable special revenue fund called the Rural Transportation Infrastructure Fund.

(3) The Rural Transportation Infrastructure Fund shall be funded by:

(a) deposits into the fund as described in [~~Subsection 41-1a-1201(10)~~]Subsection 41-1a-1201(9);

(b) appropriations by the Legislature; and

(c) other deposits into the fund.

(4) The department shall administer the fund.

(5) (a) Beginning on January 1, 2024, and subject to Subsection (5)(b), the department shall annually distribute revenue in the fund among qualifying recipients in the following manner:

~~(a)~~ 50% in the ratio that the class B roads weighted mileage within each county and class C roads weighted mileage within each municipality bear to the total class B and class C roads weighted mileage within the state; and

~~(b)~~ 50% in the ratio that the population of a county or municipality bears to the total population of the state.

(b) [~~as of the last official federal census or the United States Census Bureau estimate, whichever is most recent, except that if population estimates are not available from the United States Census Bureau, population figures shall be derived from the estimate from the Utah Population Committee.~~]To the extent not otherwise required by federal law, population shall be based on:

(i) the most recent estimate from the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(ii) if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available for each municipality and unincorporated area, the adjusted sub-county population estimate provided by the Utah Population Committee in accordance with Section 63C-20-104.

(6) A qualifying recipient may only use funds distributed as described in this section in the same manner as class B and class C road funds distributed in accordance with Section 72-2-108.

(7) (a) Before November 1 of each year, the State Tax Commission shall notify the department and indicate which counties are qualifying counties.

(b) After receiving the notification described in Subsection (7)(a), the department shall distribute funds for the following year to the municipalities and counties that were identified as qualifying recipients in the notification described in Subsection (7)(a).

Section 26. Section 73-5-8.5 is amended to read:

73-5-8.5

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Per capita consumptive use.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Community water system" means a public water system that serves residents year-round.

(b) (i) "Metered secondary water" means secondary water metered by a secondary water supplier either at the supply side when introduced into the secondary water supplier's distribution system or metered at the meter of the end user.

(ii) "Metered secondary water" does not include:

(A) water lost in the secondary water supplier's system before being delivered to an end user; or

(B) water delivered to an end user who is not a commercial, industrial, institutional, or residential user.

(c) "Per capita consumptive use" means a valid representation of total water consumed divided by the total population for a given area.

(d) "Publicly owned treatment works" means a facility for the treatment of pollutants owned by the state, the state's political subdivisions, or other public entity.

(e) "Reporting district" means a water conservancy district that serves wholesale water to a retail water supplier located in whole or in part in a county of the first or second class.

(f) "Retail water supplier" means a person that:

(i) supplies water for human consumption and other domestic uses to an end user; and

(ii) has more than 500 service connections.

(g) "Secondary water" means the same as that term is defined in Section 73-10-34.

(h) "Secondary water supplier" means the same as that term is defined in Section 73-10-34.

(i) "Total population" means the permanent population of a given area subject to a population adjustment described in Subsection (5).

(j) "Total water consumed" means total water supplied to commercial, industrial, institutional, and residential users in a given area minus return flow.

(k) "Total water supplied" means the total amount of water delivered to commercial, industrial, institutional, and residential users in a given area as metered secondary water or metered drinking water.

(l) "Water conservancy district" means an entity formed under Title 17B, Chapter 2a, Part 10, Water Conservancy District Act.

(2) State agencies and political subdivisions shall use per capita consumptive use for reporting municipal and industrial water use in counties of the first and second class to provide another method to:

(a) track progress in water conservation; and

(b) ensure efficient public water supply management.

(3) (a) The Division of Water Resources shall designate the reporting district that shall calculate the per capita consumptive use for each county of the first or second class, except that the Division of Water Resources may only require a reporting district calculate the per capita consumptive use for a county in which the reporting district provides wholesale water to a retail water supplier.

(b) Beginning with a calculation of per capita consumptive use for calendar year 2023, a reporting district shall annually provide the Division of Water Rights a calculation of per capita consumptive use for the one or more counties designated under Subsection (3)(a).

(4) In determining per capita consumptive use, a reporting district:

(a) shall use reliable and timely information about water used for municipal and industrial purposes, including water used in commercial, industrial, institutional, and residential settings; and

(b) may not be required:

(i) to use the same methodology as another reporting district; or

(ii) to adopt or follow the definition of "water being conserved" that is adopted under Section 73-10-32.

(5) In determining total population, a reporting district shall rely on, to the extent not otherwise required by federal law:

(a) (i) an estimate of the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(ii) if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available, the most recent census [~~, a~~]or census estimate of the United States Bureau of the Census; and

(b) [~~, or an estimate of the Utah Population Committee, together with~~]an adjustment to population based on locally significant effects of a non-permanent population, including:

~~(a)~~ transient but consistently recurring non-resident population associated with secondary residences or visitors; and

~~(b)~~ daytime population changes.

(6) In determining return flow, a reporting district:

(a) shall obtain relevant data associated with discharges from publicly owned treatment works; and

(b) may include water flow returning to the natural environment from the use of drinking water, secondary water, or other water used for outdoor irrigation if the flow is capable of being measured or otherwise determined with a reasonable degree of certainty.

(7) In determining total water supplied, a reporting district shall:

(a) select the community water systems serving a population of 3,300 or more whose data the reporting district will use in preparing the report of per capita consumptive use;

(b) only rely on data that:

(i) is reliable; and

(ii) the reporting district is able to obtain for both metered drinking water and metered secondary water; and

(c) make reasonable efforts to ensure that the water use data relied upon in the reporting district's report is the same as the water use data reported by the community water systems to the Division of Water Rights under Section 73-5-8.

(8) A reporting district shall include in the reporting district's report of per capita consumptive use an explanation of how the reporting district determines:

(a) total water supplied;

(b) return flow; and

(c) total population.

(9) A reporting district shall annually file the reporting district's per capita consumptive use report with the Division of Water Rights on or before July 1.

(10) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (10)(b), this section may not be construed to prohibit the Division of Water Resources from:

(i) adopting regional water conservation goals as described in Section 73-10-32; or

(ii) calculating, publishing, or disseminating diverted water use information or per capita consumptive use from community water systems in counties of the third, fourth, fifth, or sixth class.

(b) A state agency or a political subdivision of the state may not calculate, publish, or disseminate a:

(i) statewide per capita consumptive use number; or

(ii) per capita consumptive use number for a first class or second class county that is different from a number reported by a reporting district pursuant to this section.

(c) This section may not be construed to prohibit a retail water supplier from using or publishing the retail water supplier's own water consumptive use numbers for the efficient management of the retail water supplier's system.

Section 27. Section 78B-1-110 is amended to read:

78B-1-110

(Effective 05/07/25)

. Limitations on jury service.

(1) In any two-year period, a person may not:

(a) be required to serve on more than one grand jury;

(b) be required to serve as both a grand and trial juror;

(c) be required to attend court as a trial juror more than one court day, except if necessary to complete service in a particular case; or

(d) if summoned for jury service and the summons is complied with as directed, be selected for the prospective jury list more than once.

(2) (a) Subsection (1)(d) does not apply to counties of the fourth, fifth, and sixth class and counties of the third class with populations up to 75,000.

(b) [~~(i) All population figures~~]The population for each county used for this section shall be derived from, to the extent not otherwise required by federal law:

(i) the estimate of the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(ii) if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available, the most recent [~~official~~]census or census estimate of the United States Bureau of the Census.

PRESUMPTION OF STATE JURISDICTION AMENDMENTS

Chief Sponsor: Ken Ivory
Senate Sponsor: Keven J. Stratton

LONG TITLE

General Description:

This bill addresses state sovereignty and establishes a presumption of state jurisdiction.

Highlighted Provisions:

This bill:

- ► defines terms;
- ► establishes the principles of state sovereignty, including the presumption that jurisdiction over subject matters not enumerated to the federal government in the United States Constitution remains with the state;
- ► provides that any presumption against state jurisdiction may be overcome only by federal demonstration of specific constitutional authorization;
- ► places the burden on the federal government in jurisdictional conflicts between the state and federal government; and
- ► makes technical changes.

AMENDS:

63G-16-101, as enacted by Laws of Utah 2012, Chapter 38

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 63G-16-101 is amended to read:

63G-16-101. Principles of state sovereignty -- Presumption of state subject matter jurisdiction -- Resolution of jurisdictional conflicts.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Commission" means the Federalism Commission created in Section 63C-4a-302.

(b) "State entity" means:

(i) any department, agency, board, commission, or other instrumentality of the state; or

(ii) a political subdivision of the state.

~~(1)~~ Pursuant to the Ninth and Tenth Amendments of the [~~Constitution of the United States of America, the state of Utah does solemnly affirm its state~~]United States Constitution, Utah solemnly affirms the state's sovereignty and fully and unconditionally reserves and asserts all rights and powers, directly and indirectly related to those rights and powers.

~~(2)~~ [~~This~~]The affirmation, reservation, and assertion of state sovereignty under Subsection (2) includes rights and claims of set-off by the state [~~of Utah~~]for any amounts [~~it~~]the state claims to have been inequitably or unlawfully caused or imposed by the federal government.

(4) The federal government is a government of limited jurisdiction and power.

(5) (a) The state has general governing authority under the state's inherent police power jurisdiction over all governing matters within the state affecting public welfare, safety, health, and morality, as recognized under the Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

(b) The subject areas within the state's police powers jurisdiction under Subsection (5)(a) include, without limitation:

(i) natural resources;

(ii) water resources and water rights;

(iii) agriculture;

(iv) education; and

(v) energy resources.

(6) The federalism canon, as prescribed by the United States Supreme Court, requires courts to presume that federal law does not preempt state law because of the sovereignty the states enjoy under the United States Constitution, as amended.

(7) The balance of governing jurisdiction and power protects the diversity of the states and ensures the self-governing voice of the people.

(8) (a) Jurisdiction over all governing subject matters arising within the state is presumed to reside with the state except as otherwise enumerated in the United States Constitution, as amended.

(b) The presumption of state jurisdiction under this Subsection (8) may only be overcome if the federal government demonstrates that jurisdiction over the subject matter in question is specifically enumerated to the federal government under the United States Constitution, as amended.

(c) If a conflict arises whereby the federal government asserts jurisdiction over subject matters not enumerated under the United States Constitution, as amended, the federal government bears the burden of establishing federal jurisdiction over the subject matter through coordination with the state.

REPEALS:

63A-17-111, as enacted by Laws of Utah 2021, Chapter 192

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 63A-17-106 is amended to read:

63A-17-106. Responsibilities of the director.

(1) As used in this section, "miscarriage" means the spontaneous or accidental loss of a fetus, regardless of gestational age or the duration of the pregnancy.

(2) The director shall have full responsibility and accountability for the administration of the statewide human resource management system.

(3) Except as provided in Section 63A-17-201, an agency may not perform human resource functions without the consent of the director.

(4) Statewide human resource management rules made by the division in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, shall take precedence if there is a conflict with agency rules, policies, or practices.

(5) The division may operate as an internal service fund agency in accordance with Section 63J-1-410 for the human resource functions the division provides.

(6) The director shall:

(a) develop, implement, and administer a statewide program of human resource management that will:

(i) aid in the efficient execution of public policy;

(ii) foster careers in public service for qualified employees; and

(iii) render assistance to state agencies in performing their missions;

(b) design and administer the state pay plan;

(c) design and administer the state classification system and procedures for determining schedule assignments;

(d) design and administer the state recruitment and selection system;

(e) administer agency human resource practices and ensure compliance with federal law, state law, and state human resource rules, including equal employment opportunity;

(f) consult with agencies on decisions concerning employee corrective action and discipline;

(g) maintain central personnel records;

(h) perform those functions necessary to implement this chapter unless otherwise assigned or prohibited;

(i) perform duties assigned by the governor, executive director, or statute;

(j) make rules for human resource management, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act;

(k) establish and maintain a management information system that will furnish the governor, the Legislature, and agencies with current information on authorized positions, payroll, and related matters concerning state human resources;

(l) conduct research and planning activities to:

(i) determine and prepare for future state human resource needs;

(ii) develop methods for improving public human resource management; and

(iii) propose needed policy changes to the governor;

(m) study the character, causes, and extent of discrimination in state employment and develop plans for its elimination through programs consistent with federal and state laws governing equal employment opportunity in employment;

(n) establish compensation policies and procedures for early voluntary retirement;

(o) confer with the heads of other agencies about human resource policies and procedures;

(p) submit an annual report to the executive director, the governor, and the Legislature; and

(q) assist with the development of a vacant position report required under Subsection 63J-1-201(2)(b)(vi).

(7) (a) After consultation with the executive director, the governor, and the heads of other agencies, the director shall establish and coordinate statewide training programs, including training described in Subsection (7)(e).

(b) The programs developed under this Subsection (7) shall have application to more than one agency.

(c) The division may not establish training programs that train employees to perform highly specialized or technical jobs and tasks.

(d) The division shall ensure that any training program described in this Subsection (7) complies with Title 63G, Chapter 22, State Training and Certification Requirements.

(e) (i) As used in this Subsection (7)(e):

(A) "Employee" []means [~~the same as that term is defined in Section 63A-17-112~~]an employee included in an agency's pay for performance policy adopted in accordance with Section 63A-17-112.

(B) "Supervisor" means an individual in a position at an agency, as defined in Section 63A-17-112, that requires the regular supervision and performance evaluation of an employee.

(ii) A supervisor shall attend the training:

(A) within six months of being promoted or hired to the position of supervisor; and

(B) at least annually.

(iii) A supervisor's completion of training and effective use of training information and principles shall be considered in an evaluation of the supervisor's job performance.

(iv) The training shall include:

(A) effective employee management and evaluation methods based on the pay for performance management system described in Section 63A-17-112;

(B) instruction to improve supervisor and employee communications;

(C) best practices for recognizing and retaining high-performing employees;

(D) best practices for addressing poor-performing employees; and

(E) any other information and principles identified by the division to improve management or organizational effectiveness.

(8) (a) (i) The division may collect fees for training as authorized by this Subsection (8).

(ii) Training funded from General Fund appropriations shall be treated as a separate program within the department budget.

(iii) All money received from fees under this section will be accounted for by the department as a separate user driven training program.

(iv) The user training program includes the costs of developing, procuring, and presenting training and development programs, and other associated costs for these programs.

(b) (i) Funds remaining at the end of the fiscal year in the user training program are nonlapsing.

(ii) Each year, as part of the appropriations process, the Legislature shall review the amount of nonlapsing funds remaining at the end of the fiscal year and may, by statute, require the department to lapse a portion of the funds.

(9) Rules described in Subsection (6)(j) shall provide for at least three work days of paid bereavement leave for an employee:

(a) following the end of the employee's pregnancy by way of miscarriage or stillbirth; or

(b) following the end of another individual's pregnancy by way of a miscarriage or stillbirth, if:

(i) the employee is the individual's spouse or partner;

(ii) (A) the employee is the individual's former spouse or partner; and

(B) the employee would have been a biological parent of a child born as a result of the pregnancy;

(iii) the employee provides documentation to show that the individual intended for the employee to be an adoptive parent, as that term is defined in Section 78B-6-103, of a child born as a result of the pregnancy; or

(iv) under a valid gestational agreement in accordance with Title 78B, Chapter 15, Part 8, Gestational Agreement, the employee would have been a parent of a child born as a result of the pregnancy.

Section 2. Section 63A-17-112 is amended to read:

63A-17-112. Pay for performance management system -- Employees paid for performance.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) (i) "Agency" means, except as provided in Subsection ~~(1)(a)(ii)~~(a)(iii), the same as that term is defined in Section 63A-17-102.

(ii) "Agency" includes an independent entity that has decided to participate in the pay for performance management system in accordance with Subsection (6)(a).

~~(ii)~~ "Agency" does not include:

(A) []the State Board of Education[~~,~~];

(q) subject to Subsection (6), schedule AX includes employees in positions that:

(i) require the regular supervision and performance evaluation of one or more other employees; and

(ii) are not designated exempt from career service under any other schedule described in this Subsection (1); and

(r) for employees in positions that are temporary, seasonal, time limited, funding limited, or variable hour in nature, under schedule codes and parameters established by the division by administrative rule.

(2) The civil service shall consist of two schedules as follows:

(a) (i) Schedule A is the schedule consisting of positions under Subsection (1).

(ii) Removal from any appointive position under schedule A, unless otherwise regulated by statute, is at the pleasure of the appointing officers without regard to tenure.

(b) Schedule B is the competitive career service schedule, consisting of:

(i) all positions filled through competitive selection procedures as defined by the director; or

(ii) positions filled through a division approved on-the-job examination intended to appoint a qualified person with a disability, or a veteran in accordance with Title 71A, Chapter 2, Veterans Preference.

(3) (a) The director, after consultation with the heads of concerned executive branch departments and agencies and with the approval of the governor, shall allocate positions to the appropriate schedules under this section.

(b) Agency heads shall make requests and obtain approval from the director before changing the schedule assignment and tenure rights of any position.

(c) Unless the director's decision is reversed by the governor, when the director denies an agency's request, the director's decision is final.

(d) (i) An agency may file a request with the division[-]:

(A) to keep a position scheduled as a schedule B position as a schedule B position; or

(B) to reschedule a position that is scheduled as a schedule A position as a schedule B position.

(ii) The division shall review a request filed under Subsection (3)(d)(i) and approve the request only if the exception is necessary to conform to a requirement imposed as a condition precedent to receipt of federal funds or grant of a tax benefit under federal law.

(4) (a) Compensation for employees of the Legislature shall be established by the directors of the legislative offices in accordance with Section 36-12-7.

(b) Compensation for employees of the judiciary shall be established by the state court administrator in accordance with Section 78A-2-107.

(c) Compensation for officers, faculty, and other employees of state universities and institutions of higher education shall be established as provided in Title 53B, Chapter 1, Governance, Powers, Rights, and Responsibilities, and Title 53B, Chapter 2, Institutions of Higher Education.

(d) Unless otherwise provided by law, compensation for all other schedule A employees shall be established by their appointing authorities, within ranges approved by, and after consultation with the director.

(5) An employee who is in a position designated schedule AC and who holds career service status on June 30, 2010, shall retain the career service status if the employee:

(a) remains in the position that the employee is in on June 30, 2010; and

(b) does not elect to convert to career service exempt status in accordance with a rule made by the division.

(6) (a) An employee who is hired for a schedule AX position on or after July 1, 2022, is exempt from career service status.

(b) An employee who before July 1, 2022, is a career service employee employed in a schedule B position that is rescheduled to a schedule AX position on July 1, 2022, shall maintain the employee's career service status for the duration of the employee's employment in the same position unless the employee voluntarily converts to career service exempt status before July 1, 2023.

(c) (i) Subject to Subsection (6)(c)(ii), an employee is exempt from career service status if:

(A) before July 1, 2022, the employee was a probationary employee in a schedule B position and had not completed the probationary period; and

(B) on July 1, 2022, the schedule B position in which the probationary employee is employed is rescheduled as a scheduled AX position.

(ii) An employee described in Subsection (6)(c)(i):

(A) is not a probationary employee on or after July 1, 2022; and

(B) is exempt from career service status on and after July 1, 2022, unless the employee changes employment to a schedule B position.

(d) The division shall disseminate to each employee described in Subsection (6)(b) information on financial and other incentives for voluntary conversion to career-service exempt status.

(e) An agency [~~, as defined in Section 63A-17-112,~~]may adopt a policy, created in consultation with the division, for agency review of recommendations that schedule AX employees be suspended, demoted, or dismissed from employment.

53E-6-201, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2024, Chapter 51
63N-3-607, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2024, Chapter 521

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 53E-6-201 is amended to read:

53E-6-201. State board licensure.

(1) The state board shall make rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, to establish a system for educator licensing that includes:

(a) an associate educator license that permits an individual to provide educational services in a public school while working to meet the requirements of a professional educator license;

(b) a professional educator license that permits an individual to provide educational services in a public school after demonstrating that the individual meets licensure requirements established in state board rule;

(c) an LEA-specific educator license issued by the state board at the request of an LEA's governing body that is valid for an individual to provide educational services in the requesting LEA's schools;

(d) beginning in the 2023-2024 school year, a provider-specific license issued by the state board at the request of an authorized online course provider described in [~~Subsection~~]Section 53F-4-504 that:

(i) is valid for an individual to provide educational services to a student enrolled in an online course described in Section 53F-4-503; and

(ii) contains eligibility criteria that is no more stringent than the requirements for a license described in Subsection (1)(c); and

(e) beginning in the 2029-2030 school year, the creation or modification of licenses if any are created or modified under Section 53G-6-206.

(2) An individual employed in a position that requires licensure by the state board shall hold the license that is appropriate to the position.

(3) (a) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(a)(ii), the state board may make rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, to rank, endorse, or otherwise classify licenses and establish the criteria for obtaining, retaining, and reinstating licenses.

(ii) The state board may not make licensure contingent upon passage of a pedagogical performance assessment.

(iii) The state board shall consider employment duration as a preschool teacher in a child care program, as that term is defined in Section 26B-2-401, as equivalent to employment duration in a district school, charter school, or accredited private school for purposes of relicensing.

(b) An educator who is enrolling in a course of study at an institution within the state system of higher education to satisfy the state board requirements for retaining a license is exempt from tuition, except for a semester registration fee established by the Utah Board of Higher Education, if:

(i) the educator is enrolled on the basis of surplus space in the class after regularly enrolled students have been assigned and admitted to the class in accordance with regular procedures, normal teaching loads, and the institution's approved budget; and

(ii) enrollments are determined by each institution under rules and guidelines established by the Utah Board of Higher Education in accordance with findings of fact that space is available for the educator's enrollment.

Section 2. Section 63N-3-607 is amended to read:

63N-3-607. Payment, use, and administration of revenue from a housing and transit reinvestment zone.

(1) A municipality or public transit county may receive and use tax increment and housing and transit reinvestment zone funds in accordance with this part.

(2) (a) A county that collects property tax on property located within a housing and transit reinvestment zone shall, in accordance with Section 59-2-1365, distribute to the municipality or public transit county any tax increment the municipality or public transit county is authorized to receive up to the maximum approved by the housing and transit reinvestment zone committee.

(b) Tax increment distributed to a municipality or public transit county in accordance with Subsection (2)(a) is not revenue of the taxing entity or municipality or public transit county.

(c) (i) Tax increment paid to the municipality or public transit county are housing and transit reinvestment zone funds and shall be administered by an agency created by the municipality or public transit county within which the housing and transit reinvestment zone is located.

(ii) Before an agency may receive housing and transit reinvestment zone funds from the municipality or public transit county, the municipality or public transit county and the agency shall enter into an interlocal agreement with terms that:

(A) are consistent with the approval of the housing and transit reinvestment zone committee; and

(B) meet the requirements of Section 63N-3-603.

(3) (a) A municipality or public transit county and agency shall use housing and transit reinvestment zone funds within, or for the direct benefit of, the housing and transit reinvestment zone.

(b) If any housing and transit reinvestment zone funds will be used outside of the housing and transit reinvestment zone, there must be a finding in the approved proposal for a housing and transit reinvestment zone that the use of the housing and transit reinvestment zone funds outside of the housing and transit reinvestment zone will directly benefit the housing and transit reinvestment zone.

(4) (a) A municipality or public transit county shall use housing and transit reinvestment zone funds to achieve the purposes described in Subsections 63N-3-603(1) and (2), by paying all or part of the costs of any of the following:

~~(a)~~ income targeted housing costs;

~~(b)~~ structured parking within the housing and transit reinvestment zone;

~~(c)~~ enhanced development costs;

~~(d)~~ horizontal construction costs;

~~(e)~~ vertical construction costs;

~~(f)~~ property acquisition costs within the housing and transit reinvestment zone; [~~or~~]

~~(g)~~ the costs of the municipality or public transit county to create and administer the housing and transit reinvestment zone, which may not exceed 2% of the total housing and transit reinvestment zone funds, plus the costs to complete the gap analysis described in Subsection 63N-3-604(2)[~~.~~]; or

(viii) subject to Subsection (4)(b), costs for the construction or expansion of child care facilities within the boundary of the housing and transit reinvestment zone.

(b) A municipality or public transit county may not use more than 1% of the total housing and transit reinvestment zone funds to pay costs described in Subsection (4)(a)(viii).

(5) Housing and transit reinvestment zone funds may be paid to a participant, if the agency and participant enter into a participation agreement [~~which~~]that requires the participant to utilize the housing and transit reinvestment zone funds as allowed in this section.

(6) Housing and transit reinvestment zone funds may be used to pay all of the costs of bonds issued by the municipality or public transit county in accordance with Title 17C, Chapter 1, Part 5, Agency Bonds, including the cost to issue and repay the bonds including interest.

(7) A municipality or public transit county may create one or more public infrastructure districts within the housing and transit reinvestment zone under Title 17D, Chapter 4, Public Infrastructure District Act, and pledge and utilize the housing and transit reinvestment zone funds to guarantee the payment of public infrastructure bonds issued by a public infrastructure district.

ENACTS:

59-7-627, Utah Code Annotated 1953
59-10-1048, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 59-7-104 is amended to read:
59-7-104. Tax -- Minimum tax.

(1) Each domestic and foreign corporation, except a corporation that is exempt under Section 59-7-102, shall pay an annual tax to the state based on the corporation's Utah taxable income for the taxable year for the privilege of exercising the corporation's corporate franchise or for the privilege of doing business in the state.

(2) The tax shall be [~~4.55~~]4.5% of a corporation's Utah taxable income.

(3) The minimum tax a corporation shall pay under this chapter is $100.

Section 2. Section 59-7-201 is amended to read:
59-7-201. Tax -- Minimum tax.

(1) There is imposed upon each corporation, except a corporation that is exempt under Section 59-7-102, a tax upon the corporation's Utah taxable income for the taxable year that is derived from sources within this state other than income for any period that the corporation is required to include in the corporation's tax base under Section 59-7-104.

(2) The tax imposed by Subsection (1) shall be [~~4.55~~]4.5% of a corporation's Utah taxable income.

(3) In no case shall the tax be less than $100.

Section 3. Section 59-7-627 is enacted to read:
59-7-627. Nonrefundable tax credits for employer-provided child care.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) (i) "Qualified child care expenditure" means an amount paid or incurred for the operating costs of a qualified child care facility of the employer, whether the employer operates the qualified child care facility or contracts with a third party provider to provide child care services at the qualified child care facility.

(ii) "Qualified child care expenditure" includes costs related to training employees and providing increased compensation to employees with higher levels of child care training.

(b) "Qualified child care facility" means center based child care as that term is defined in Section 26B-2-401 that is located in the state.

(c) "Qualified construction expenditure" means an amount paid or incurred to acquire, construct, rehabilitate, or expand property:

(i) for a qualified child care facility of the employer; and

(ii) with respect to which the employer is allowed a deduction for depreciation, or amortization in lieu of depreciation.

(d) "Qualifying taxpayer" means a taxpayer that:

(i) is an employer; and

(ii) qualifies for and claims the federal employer-provided child care tax credit described in Section 45F, Internal Revenue Code, for the current taxable year.

(e) "Recapture event" means an employer fails to operate a qualified child care facility for which the employer claims a tax credit under this section as a child care facility for at least five consecutive taxable years after the taxable year on which the employer first claims a tax credit under this section.

(f) "Third party provider" means:

(i) a new child care provider; or

(ii) an existing child care provider that can perform the contract without reducing the provider's existing child care services.

(2) (a) A qualifying taxpayer may claim a nonrefundable tax credit equal to 20% of the qualified construction expenditures the qualifying taxpayer incurred during the taxable year.

(b) A qualifying taxpayer may carry forward, to the next five taxable years, the amount of the qualifying taxpayer's tax credit described in this Subsection (2) that exceeds the qualifying taxpayer's income tax liability for the taxable year.

(3) (a) (i) Subject to Subsection (3)(a)(ii), a qualifying taxpayer may claim a nonrefundable tax credit equal to 10% of the qualified child care expenditures the qualifying taxpayer incurred during the taxable year.

(ii) A qualifying taxpayer may claim a tax credit under this Subsection (3) for qualified child care expenditures only if the qualifying taxpayer claims a tax credit under Subsection (2) for the current taxable year or a previous taxable year.

(b) A qualifying taxpayer may not carry forward or carry back the tax credit described in this Subsection (3) that exceeds the qualifying taxpayer's income tax liability for the taxable year.

(4) (a) (i) If a recapture event happens within two taxable years after the first taxable year in which the qualifying taxpayer claims a tax credit under this section, a qualifying taxpayer shall repay 100% of the tax credit a qualifying taxpayer receives under this section for any taxable year.

(ii) If a recapture event happens more than two taxable years but fewer than three taxable years after the first taxable year in which the qualifying taxpayer claims a tax credit under this section, a qualifying taxpayer shall repay 75% of the tax credit a qualifying taxpayer receives under this section for any taxable year.

(iii) If a recapture event happens more than three taxable years but fewer than four taxable years after the first taxable year in which the qualifying taxpayer claims a tax credit under this section, a qualifying taxpayer shall repay 50% of the tax credit a qualifying taxpayer receives under this section for any taxable year.

(iv) If a recapture event happens more than four taxable years but fewer than five taxable years after the first taxable year in which the qualifying taxpayer claims a tax credit under this section, a qualifying taxpayer shall repay 25% of the tax credit a qualifying taxpayer receives under this section for any taxable year.

(b) A qualifying taxpayer shall make a payment for a recapture event for the taxable year in which the recapture event occurs.

Section 4. Section 59-10-104 is amended to read:

59-10-104. Tax basis -- Tax rate -- Exemption.

(1) A tax is imposed on the state taxable income of a resident individual as provided in this section.

(2) For purposes of Subsection (1), for a taxable year, the tax is an amount equal to the product of:

(a) the resident individual's state taxable income for that taxable year; and

(b) [~~4.55~~]4.5%.

(3) This section does not apply to a resident individual exempt from taxation under Section 59-10-104.1.

Section 5. Section 59-10-1002.2 is amended to read:

59-10-1002.2. Apportionment of tax credits.

(1) A nonresident individual or a part-year resident individual that claims a tax credit in accordance with Section 59-10-1017, 59-10-1018, 59-10-1019, 59-10-1022, 59-10-1023, 59-10-1024, 59-10-1028, 59-10-1042, 59-10-1043, 59-10-1044, 59-10-1046, [~~or~~]59-10-1047, or 59-10-1048 may only claim an apportioned amount of the tax credit equal to:

(a) for a nonresident individual, the product of:

(i) the state income tax percentage for the nonresident individual; and

(ii) the amount of the tax credit that the nonresident individual would have been allowed to claim but for the apportionment requirements of this section; or

(b) for a part-year resident individual, the product of:

(i) the state income tax percentage for the part-year resident individual; and

(ii) the amount of the tax credit that the part-year resident individual would have been allowed to claim but for the apportionment requirements of this section.

(2) A nonresident estate or trust that claims a tax credit in accordance with Section 59-10-1017, 59-10-1020, 59-10-1022, 59-10-1024, [~~or~~]59-10-1028, or 59-10-1048 may only claim an apportioned amount of the tax credit equal to the product of:

(a) the state income tax percentage for the nonresident estate or trust; and

(b) the amount of the tax credit that the nonresident estate or trust would have been allowed to claim but for the apportionment requirements of this section.

Section 6. Section 59-10-1047 is amended to read:

59-10-1047. Nonrefundable child tax credit.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Joint filing status" means the same as that term is defined in Section 59-10-1018.

(b) "Head of household filing status" means the same as that term is defined in Section 59-10-1018.

(c) "Married filing separately status" means a married individual who:

(i) does not file a single federal individual income tax return jointly with that married individual's spouse for the taxable year; and

(ii) files a single federal individual income tax return for the taxable year.

(d) "Modified adjusted gross income" means the sum of the following for a claimant or, if the claimant's federal individual income tax return is allowed a joint filing status, the claimant and the claimant's spouse:

(i) adjusted gross income for the taxable year for which a tax credit is claimed under this section;

(ii) any interest income that is not included in adjusted gross income for the taxable year described in Subsection (1)(d)(i); and

(iii) any addition to adjusted gross income required by Section 59-10-114 for the taxable year described in Subsection (1)(d)(i).

(e) "Qualifying child" means an individual:

(i) with respect to whom the claimant is allowed to claim a tax credit under Section 24, Internal Revenue Code, on the claimant's federal individual income tax return for the taxable year; and

(ii) who is [~~at least one year old and younger than five~~]under six years old on the last day of the claimant's taxable year.

(f) "Single filing status" means a single individual who files a single federal individual income tax return for the taxable year.

(2) Subject to [~~Subsection~~]Section59-10-1002.2, a claimant may claim a nonrefundable tax credit of $1,000 for each qualifying child.

(3) A claimant may not carry forward or carry back the amount of the tax credit that exceeds the claimant's tax liability.

(4) The tax credit allowed by Subsection (2) claimed on a return filed under this part shall be reduced by $.10 for each dollar by which modified adjusted gross income for purposes of the return exceeds:

(a) for a federal individual income tax return that is allowed a married filing separately status, $27,000;

(b) for a federal individual income tax return that is allowed a single filing status or head of household filing status, $43,000; and

(c) for a federal individual income tax return that is allowed a joint filing status, $54,000.

Section 7. Section 59-10-1048 is enacted to read:

59-10-1048. Nonrefundable tax credits for employer-provider child care.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Qualified child care expenditure" means the same as that term is defined in Section 59-7-627.

(b) "Qualified child care facility" means the same as that term is defined in Section 59-7-627.

(c) "Qualified construction expenditure" means the same as that term is defined in Section 59-7-627.

(d) "Qualifying claimant" means a claimant, estate, or trust that:

(i) is an employer; and

(ii) qualifies for and claims the federal employer-provided child care tax credit described in Section 45F, Internal Revenue Code, for the current taxable year.

(e) "Recapture event" means the same as that term is defined in Section 59-7-627.

(f) "Third party provider" means the same as that term is defined in Section 59-7-627.

(2) (a) A qualifying claimant may claim a nonrefundable tax credit equal to 20% of the qualified construction expenditures the qualifying claimant incurred during the taxable year.

(b) A qualifying claimant may carry forward, to the next five taxable years, the amount of the qualifying claimant's tax credit described in this Subsection (2) that exceeds the qualifying claimant's income tax liability for the taxable year.

(3) (a) (i) Subject to Subsection (3)(a)(ii), a qualifying claimant may claim a nonrefundable tax credit equal to 10% of the qualified child care expenditures the qualifying claimant incurred during the taxable year.

(ii) A qualifying claimant may claim a tax credit under this Subsection (3) for qualified child care expenditures only if the qualifying claimant claims a tax credit under Subsection (2) for the current taxable year or a previous taxable year.

(b) A qualifying claimant may not carry forward or carry back the tax credit described in this Subsection (3) that exceeds the qualifying claimant's income tax liability for the taxable year.

(4) (a) (i) If a recapture event happens within two taxable years after the first taxable year in which the qualifying claimant claims a tax credit under this section, a qualifying claimant shall repay 100% of the tax credit a qualifying claimant receives under this section for any taxable year.

(ii) If a recapture event happens more than two taxable years but fewer than three taxable years after the first taxable year in which the qualifying claimant claims a tax credit under this section, a qualifying claimant shall repay 75% of the tax credit a qualifying claimant receives under this section for any taxable year.

(iii) If a recapture event happens more than three taxable years but fewer than four taxable years after the first taxable year in which the qualifying claimant claims a tax credit under this section, a qualifying claimant shall repay 50% of the tax credit a qualifying claimant receives under this section for any taxable year.

(iv) If a recapture event happens more than four taxable years but fewer than five taxable years after the first taxable year in which the qualifying claimant claims a tax credit under this section, a qualifying claimant shall repay 25% of the tax credit a qualifying claimant receives under this section for any taxable year.

(b) A qualifying claimant shall make a payment for a recapture event for the taxable year in which the recapture event occurs.

Section 8. Effective Date.

(4) "Does not correspond with the sex designation" means that a student's sex designation for an interscholastic activity in which a student seeks participation does not correspond with the sex designation on the student's birth certificate or an amendment, including the amendment history, to the student's birth certificate that the Division of Vital Records and Statistics provides.

(5) "Female-designated" means that an interscholastic activity is designated specifically for female students.

(6) "Gender-designated" means that an interscholastic activity or facility is designated specifically for female or male students.

(7) "Gender identity" means the same as that term is defined in Section 34A-5-102.

(8) "Interscholastic activity" means an activity in which a student represents the student's school in the activity in competition against another school.

(9) "Male-designated" means that an interscholastic activity is designated specifically for male students.

(10) "Student" means a student who is enrolled in a public school that participates in interscholastic activities.

(11) "Unamended birth certificate" means a birth certificate:

(a) with no amendment history; or

(b) with an amendment history that:

(i) does not include gender-related amendments; or

(ii) includes gender-related amendments that only:

(A) correct an error or omission resulting from a scrivener's error under Subsection 26B-8-107(2); or

(B) correct a misidentification of birth sex for an intersex individual under Subsection 26B-8-107(2).

Section 2. Section 53G-6-1003 is amended to read:

53G-6-1003. School Activity Eligibility Commission -- Baseline range.

(1) There is created the School Activity Eligibility Commission.

(2) (a) The commission shall consist of the following members:

(i) the following two members whom the president of the Senate appoints:

(A) a mental health professional; and

(B) a statistician with expertise in the analysis of medical data;

(ii) the following two members whom the speaker of the House of Representatives appoints:

(A) a [~~board-certified~~]physician with expertise in gender identity healthcare, including an endocrinologist, a family medicine physician, or a pediatrician; and

(B) a sports physiologist, an exercise physiologist, a sports medicine physician, a pediatrician with experience in youth sports, or an orthopedist or orthopedic surgeon;

(iii) the following two members whom the governor appoints:

(A) a representative of an athletic association; and

(B) an athletic trainer who serves student athletes on the collegiate level; and

(iv) one ad hoc member, serving on a case-by-case basis, who is:

(A) appointed by the athletic association in which the relevant student's school competes; and

(B) a certified high school coach or official who coaches or officiates in a separate region or classification from the relevant student's school and in the sport in which the relevant student seeks eligibility.

(b) An athletic association may prepare and communicate the association's sport-specific appointments described in Subsection (2)(a)(iv) in preparation for student requests in a given sport.

(3) (a) A member of the commission described in Subsections (2)(a)(i) through (iii) shall serve an initial term of one year, subject to reappointment for subsequent terms of two years.

(b) If a vacancy occurs in the membership of the commission, the individual responsible for the appointment of the vacant seat as described in Subsection (2) shall fill the vacancy in the same manner as the original appointment.

(4) (a) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(a)(ii)[~~,~~]:

(A) all members of the commission constitute a quorum of the commission for a meeting to determine the eligibility of a student[~~.~~]; and

~~(ii)~~ [~~All~~]all members of the commission described in Subsections (2)(a)(i) through (iii) constitute a quorum for any meeting other than the meeting described in Subsection (4)(a)(i).

(ii) The commission satisfies the quorum requirements described in Subsection (4)(a)(i) if no more than one of the commission positions described in Subsections (2)(a)(i) through (iii) is vacant.

(b) An action of a majority of a quorum constitutes an action of the commission.

(5) A majority of the commission members described in Subsections (2)(a)(i) through (iii) shall elect a chair from among the members described in Subsections (2)(a)(i) through (iii) to:

(a) schedule meetings of the commission;

(b) set the agenda of commission meetings; and

(c) facilitate discussion among the commission's members.

(6) A commission member:

(a) may not receive compensation or benefits for the member's service on the commission; and

(b) may receive per diem and reimbursement for travel expenses that the commission member incurs as a commission member at the rates that the Division of Finance establishes under:

(i) Sections 63A-3-106 and 63A-3-107; and

(ii) rules that the Division of Finance makes under Sections 63A-3-106 and 63A-3-107.

(7) The [~~commission may enter into an agreement with an athletic association to~~]Department of Government Operations shall provide administrative staff support to the commission.

(8) (a) The commission shall, to the extent possible based on the available evidence, establish a baseline range of physical characteristics for students participating in a specific gender-designated activity at a specific age to provide the context for the evaluation of an individual student's eligibility for a given gender-designated interscholastic activity under Section 53G-6-1004.

(b) In creating the baseline ranges described in Subsection (8)(a), the commission shall include the physical characteristics for the age and gender group in a given gender-designated interscholastic activity that are relevant to the specific interscholastic activity.

(c) The physical characteristics described in Subsection (8)(b) may include height, weight, physical characteristics relevant to the application of the standard described in Subsection 53G-6-1004(3), or the extent of physical characteristics affected by puberty, giving consideration to the practicability of considering the physical characteristic when making an assessment of an individual student's eligibility under Section 53G-6-1004.

(9) The following records that relate to the application or analysis of or determination under this part regarding the eligibility of a specific student shall be classified as a protected record under Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act:

(a) any record of the commission, including any communication between an athletic association and the commission; and

(b) any record that a school or LEA possesses.

(10) Members of the commission are immune from suit with respect to all acts done and actions taken in good faith in carrying out the purposes of this part.

(11) The commission has no authority in relation to eligibility questions other than participation in a gender-designated interscholastic activity under this part.

Section 3. Section 53G-6-1004 is amended to read:

53G-6-1004. Eligibility for interscholastic activities.

(1) (a) Notwithstanding any state board rule or policy of an athletic association, and except as provided in Subsections (1)(b) and (c):

(i) once a student has obtained the eligibility approval of the commission under Subsection (2), unless otherwise prohibited by federal law or a policy of an LEA, school, or athletic association that governs the relevant interscholastic athletic activity, the student [~~may~~]is eligible under this part to participate in a gender-designated interscholastic activity that does not correspond with the sex designation on the student's unamended birth certificate for the given school year; and

(ii) if a student does not obtain the eligibility approval of the commission under Subsection (2), the student may not participate in a gender-designated interscholastic activity that does not correspond with the sex designation on the student's unamended birth certificate.

(b) A student [~~who has undergone or is undergoing a gender transition shall obtain the eligibility approval of the commission under Subsection (2) to~~]may only participate in a gender-designated interscholastic activity that [~~corresponds with the student's gender identity~~]does not correspond with the student's sex, as defined in Section 68-3-12.5, if the student obtains the eligibility approval of the commission under Subsection (2).

(c) Nothing in this [~~subsection~~]part prohibits a student from participating in a gender-designated interscholastic activity in accordance with 34 C.F.R. Sec. 106.41(b).

(2) (a) When a student registers with an athletic association to participate in a gender-designated interscholastic activity:

(i) a student who has undergone or is undergoing a gender transition shall notify the athletic association of the student's transition and the need for the commission's eligibility approval as described in Subsection (1)(b);

(ii) the athletic association shall notify the commission of:

(A) a student for whom an eligibility determination of the commission is required due to the sex designation on the student's unamended birth certificate not corresponding with the gender designation of the gender-designated interscholastic activity in which the student seeks to participate or the student's notice of a gender transition under Subsection (1)(a)(ii); and

(B) the association's ad hoc appointment to the commission described in Subsection 53G-6-1003(2)(a)(iv); and

(iii) the athletic association shall notify the student described in this Subsection (2)(a) regarding the process for determining the student's eligibility for the activity under this section.

(b) The commission shall:

(i) (A) schedule at least three non-public meetings throughout the school year to consider any student eligibility notifications described in Subsection (2)(a) the commission has received at least 14 days before the date of each meeting; and

(B) give notice of each scheduled meeting and the associated 14-day deadline to the relevant athletic association; and

~~(i)~~ (A) if the commission receives a notification described in Subsection (2)(a) after the 14-day deadline described in Subsection (2)(b)(i), schedule [~~a~~]an ad hoc non-public meeting to consider [~~a~~]the given student's eligibility[~~to be held within 30 days after the day on which the commission receives the notification described in Subsection (2)(a)~~], occurring within 60 days after the day on which the commission receives the notification; and

~~(ii)~~ [~~notify~~]give notice of the ad hoc meeting to the relevant athletic association and the [~~student's parents or legal guardians of the scheduled meeting~~]parents of each student seeking an eligibility determination.

(c) Before the meeting described in Subsection (2)(b):

(i) the student for whom the commission has scheduled the meeting or the student's parent or guardian is not required but may submit to the commission any information the student wishes to disclose to the commission that may be relevant to the commission's eligibility determination, including information regarding:

(A) the gender-designated interscholastic activities for which the student seeks eligibility;

(B) the gender-designated interscholastic activities in which the student has previously participated; and

(C) the student's physical characteristics or medical treatments that support the student's eligibility for the specific gender-designated interscholastic activity;

(ii) the commission may request additional evidence from the student that is:

(A) limited to the extent possible to protect the student's privacy; and

(B) only directly relevant to the commission's eligibility determination; and

(iii) the commission may offer the student a voucher to cover the cost of a diagnostic assessment if the commission makes a request for medical information under Subsection (2)(c)(ii) for which the student's insurance does not provide coverage or reimbursement for the diagnostic that:

(A) would provide the requested information; and

(B) is not free or otherwise readily available to the student.

(d) During the meeting described in Subsection (2)(b):

(i) only the following individuals may be present or participate electronically:

(A) the student for whom the commission is meeting to make an eligibility determination;

(B) the student's parents or guardians;

(C) the members and necessary staff of the commission; and

(D) any medical professionals or other witnesses the student chooses to include to support the student's eligibility;

(ii) attendees may participate in person or electronically; and

(iii) the commission shall:

(A) hear the information that supports the student's eligibility;

(B) deliberate the facts relevant to the student's physical characteristics and eligibility in camera or otherwise after temporarily excusing from the meeting the student, the student's parents or legal guardians, and any medical professionals or other witnesses whom the student includes; and

(C) render the commission's eligibility determination in accordance with Subsection (3) or request additional information and schedule an additional commission meeting to be held within 30 days of the meeting and in accordance with this Subsection (2)(d) to discuss the additional information and render the commission's eligibility determination.

(e) The commission may not address the commission's application or analysis of or determination under this part regarding the eligibility of a specific student in a public meeting or public communication.

(3) (a) In making an eligibility determination, the commission, after considering whether the student's assertion of a gender identity is consistent with the statutory definition of gender identity as that term is defined in Section 34A-5-102, including the implications for the student's mental health of participating in the gender-designated interscholastic activity, shall:

(i) make a determination based on a preponderance of the evidence regarding whether, when measured against the relevant baseline range described in Subsection 53G-6-1003(8), granting the student's eligibility would:

(A) present a substantial safety risk to the student or others that is significantly greater than the inherent risks of the given activity; or

(B) likely give the student a material competitive advantage, as the commission defines, when compared to students of the same age competing in the relevant gender-designated activity, including consideration of the student's previous history of participation in gender-designated interscholastic activities; and

(ii) record the commission's decision and rationale in writing and provide the written decision to the athletic commission within 30 days after the day on which the commission renders an eligibility decision under this Subsection (3)(a) in a meeting described in Subsection (2)(b).

(b) Upon receipt of the commission's determination and rationale under Subsection (3)(a), the athletic commission shall notify the student and the relevant school or LEA of the commission's determination and rationale.

(c) A school or LEA shall comply with the commission's determination under this Subsection (3).

(d) An eligibility determination of the commission only applies for the relevant school year.

(4) (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law and except as provided in Subsections (3)(b) and (4)(b), the commission may not disclose:

(i) the name of a student whose eligibility the commission will consider, is considering, or has considered; or

(ii) the commission's determination regarding a student's eligibility.

(b) The commission shall disclose the commission's determination of a student's eligibility for a given gender-designated interscholastic activity to the relevant athletic association, only for the purpose of confirming whether the student is eligible for the interscholastic activity.

(c) (i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an athletic association may not disclose the information described in Subsections (4)(a)(i) and (ii).

(ii) Nothing in this Subsection (4) prohibits an athletic association from affirming that a student is eligible if the eligibility of a student is questioned.

Section 4. Section 53G-7-1102 is amended to read:

53G-7-1102. Public schools prohibited from membership.

(1) A public school may not be a member of or pay dues to an association that:

(a) is not in compliance with:

(i) this part;

(ii) Title 52, Chapter 4, Open and Public Meetings Act;

(iii) Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act; and

(iv) Title 67, Chapter 16, Utah Public Officers' and Employees' Ethics Act;

(b) does not collect each student's unamended birth certificate[], as that term is defined in Section 53G-6-1001, or subject to Subsection (3), equivalent documentation, as described in Subsection (2)(a), to determine eligibility as a condition of the association's registration process for an athletic team, event, or category; or

(c) does not require a student to provide the student's date of birth and sex as a condition of the registration process for an athletic team, event, or category.

(2) (a) For a student who is not a United States citizen and who is unable to provide [~~a~~]an unamended birth certificate, as that term is defined in Section 53G-6-1001, the association may collect the student's:

(i) state-issued identification document, including a driver's license or passport; or

(ii) federally recognized identification document, including a document that the Department of Homeland Security issues.

(b) If a student who is not a United States citizen is unable to provide a document under Subsection (2)(a), the association may collect other reliable proof of a student's date of birth and sex, including:

(i) an affidavit from the student's parent or legal guardian attesting:

(A) to the student's date of birth and sex; and

(B) that the parent or legal guardian is unable to obtain a document described in Subsection (2)(a); and

(ii) one of the following:

(A) a religious, hospital, or physician certificate;

(B) verified school records;

(C) verified immunization records; or

(D) documentation from a social service provider.

(3) (a) Subsection (1)(b) does not apply to an association for a student who is a homeless child or youth, as defined in the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 11431 et seq.

(b) For a student who is a homeless child or youth, including an unaccompanied homeless child or youth, an association may collect:

(i) an affidavit from the student's parent or guardian, or the student if the student is an unaccompanied homeless child or youth, indicating that the student does not meet the necessary requirements to obtain a document described in Subsection (2)(a); and

(ii) a document described in Subsection (2)(b)(ii).

(4) Nothing in this section limits or impairs an LEA's requirement to verify a student's initial review of eligibility to participate in an athletic team, event, or category under applicable state or federal law or state board rule, including the student's:

(a) residency status;

(b) age;

(c) sex, verified by the student's unamended birth certificate, as that term is defined in Section 53G-6-1001;

(d) academic requirements; or

(e) school enrollment capacity.

(5) Unless otherwise specified, an association's compliance with or an association employee or officer's compliance with the provisions described in Subsection (1) does not alter:

(a) the association's public or private status; or

(b) the public or private employment status of the employee or officer.

Section 5. Effective Date.

This bill takes effect on May 7, 2025.

ENACTS:

53G-10-207, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 53G-10-207 is enacted to read:

53G-10-207. Personal privacy for employee.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Employee" means:

(i) "administrative personnel" as that term is defined in Section 53G-10-206; and

(ii) "instructional personnel" as that term is defined in Section 53G-10-206.

(b) "LEA" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53E-1-102.

(c) "Required technology" means an application, software, or other technologies for work-related duties without which an employee could not reasonably complete necessary or essential job functions or engage in emergency situations.

(d) "Work-related contact information" means:

(i) private or work-provided phone numbers used for work purposes;

(ii) email addresses an employer provides or uses primarily for work functions;

(iii) work mail addresses, including physical addresses, post office boxes, and other mailing details used to send or receive work-related communications or documents;

(iv) logins, usernames, access codes, passwords, or other credentials used to access accounts, systems, documents, records, or services provided in relation to an employee's job duties; and

(v) messaging accounts, forum memberships, directory listings, distribution lists, committee or group enrollments.

(2) (a) Except as provided in Sections 53G-7-224 and 63G-2-204, an LEA or the state board may not sell or otherwise transfer an employee's work-related contact information to a third party if the sale or transfer is an isolated or standalone transaction.

(b) To the extent allowed by law, an LEA shall publicly disclose a records request, and any fees charged, for the information described in Subsection (2)(a).

(3) Except as provided in Section 53G-7-224, an LEA or the state board may not distribute an employee's work-related contact information in a manner that would interfere with an employee's ability to access or use work-related accounts, contacts, email lists, or other contact information resources necessary to perform the employee's job duties.

(4) An LEA may not require an employee to download, install, access, or otherwise use required technology on a personally owned electronic device if use of the required technology contains terms, conditions, or data sharing provisions that would allow for access to data or information outside of the required technology.

(5) If an LEA requires an employee to use required technology that the employee reasonably finds to contain objectionable terms and conditions, the LEA shall provide reasonable accommodations to the impacted employee to avoid mandatory use on the employee's personal device.

(6) An LEA shall provide a reasonable accommodation under Subsection (5) that allows required use without accessing an employee's personal device, including providing the required technology:

(a) via an LEA-owned and provided electronic device such as a computer, phone, or tablet;

(b) through a secure virtual or remote desktop environment not requiring installation or access credentials on a personal device; or

(c) through similar means that do not obligate personal device use.

(7) An LEA may not take adverse action against an employee for exercising rights under this section and requesting reasonable accommodations.

(8) An employee may file a written complaint with the state board alleging violations of this chapter.

(9) The state board shall investigate any complaint alleging violations under this section and take licensure or corrective action if the state board determines that action is necessary.

Section 2. Effective date.

AMENDS:

53F-2-301, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2024, Chapters 124, 460
53F-9-204, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2024, Chapter 322

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 53F-2-301 is amended to read:
53F-2-301. Minimum basic tax rate for a fiscal year that begins after July 1, 2022.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Basic levy increment rate" means a tax rate that will generate an amount of revenue equal to $75,000,000.

(b) "Combined basic rate" means a rate that is the sum of:

(i) the minimum basic tax rate; and

(ii) the WPU value rate.

(c) "Commission" means the State Tax Commission.

(d) "Minimum basic local amount" means an amount that is:

(i) equal to the sum of:

(A) the school districts' contribution to the basic school program the previous fiscal year;

(B) the amount generated by the basic levy increment rate; and

(C) the eligible new growth, as defined in Section 59-2-924 and rules of the State Tax Commission multiplied by the minimum basic rate; and

(ii) set annually by the Legislature in Subsection (2)(a).

(e) "Minimum basic tax rate" means a tax rate certified by consensus between the commission, the Governor's Office of Planning and Budget, and the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst that will generate an amount of revenue equal to the minimum basic local amount described in Subsection (2)(a).

(f) "Weighted pupil unit value" or "WPU value" means the amount established each year in the enacted public education budget that is multiplied by the number of weighted pupil units to yield the funding level for the basic school program.

(g) "WPU value amount" means an amount:

(i) that is equal to the product of:

(A) the WPU value increase limit; and

(B) the percentage share of local revenue to the cost of the basic school program in the immediately preceding fiscal year; and

(ii) set annually by the Legislature in Subsection (3)(a).

(h) "WPU value increase limit" means the lesser of:

(i) the total cost to the basic school program to increase the WPU value over the WPU value in the prior fiscal year; or

(ii) the total cost to the basic school program to increase the WPU value by 4% over the WPU value in the prior fiscal year.

(i) "WPU value rate" means a tax rate certified by the commission that will generate an amount of revenue equal to the WPU value amount described in Subsection (3)(a).

(2) (a) The minimum basic local amount for the fiscal year that begins on July 1, 2024, is $759,529,000 in revenue statewide.

(b) The preliminary estimate of the minimum basic tax rate for a fiscal year that begins on July 1, 2024, is .001429.

(3) (a) The WPU value amount for the fiscal year that begins on July 1, 2024, is $29,240,600 in revenue statewide.

(b) The preliminary estimate of the WPU value rate for the fiscal year that begins on July 1, 2024, is .000055.

(4) (a) On or before June 22, the commission, the Governor's Office of Planning and Budget, and the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst shall by consensus certify for the year:

(i) the minimum basic tax rate; and

(ii) the WPU value rate.

(b) The estimate of the minimum basic tax rate provided in Subsection (2)(b) and the estimate of the WPU value rate provided in Subsection (3)(b) are based on a forecast for property values for the next calendar year.

(c) The certified minimum basic tax rate described in Subsection (4)(a)(i) and the certified WPU value rate described in Subsection (4)(a)(ii) are based on property values as of January 1 of the current calendar year, except personal property, which is based on values from the previous calendar year.

(5) (a) To qualify for receipt of the state contribution toward the basic school program and as a school district's contribution toward the cost of the basic school program for the school district, each local school board shall impose the combined basic rate.

(b) (i) The state is not subject to the notice requirements of Section 59-2-926 before imposing the tax rates described in this Subsection (5).

(ii) The state is subject to the notice requirements of Section 59-2-926 if the state authorizes a tax rate that exceeds the tax rates described in this Subsection (5).

(6) (a) The state shall contribute to each school district toward the cost of the basic school program in the school district an amount of money that is the difference between the cost of the school district's basic school program and the sum of revenue generated by the school district by the following:

(i) the combined basic rate; and

(ii) the basic levy increment rate.

(b) (i) If the difference described in Subsection (6)(a) equals or exceeds the cost of the basic school program in a school district, no state contribution shall be made to the basic school program for the school district.

(ii) The proceeds of the difference described in Subsection (6)(a) that exceed the cost of the basic school program shall be paid into the Uniform School Fund as provided by law and by the close of the fiscal year in which the proceeds were calculated.

(7) Upon appropriation by the Legislature, the Division of Finance shall deposit an amount equal to the proceeds generated statewide:

(a) by the basic levy increment rate into the Minimum Basic Growth Account created in Section 53F-9-302; and

(b) by the WPU value rate into the Teacher and Student Success Account created in Section 53F-9-306.

Section 2. Section 53F-9-204 is amended to read:

53F-9-204. Public Education Economic Stabilization Restricted Account.

(1) There is created within the Uniform School Fund a restricted account known as the "Public Education Economic Stabilization Restricted Account."

(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), the account shall be funded from the following revenue sources:

(i) 15% of the difference between, as determined by the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst:

(A) the estimated amount of ongoing Income Tax Fund and Uniform School Fund revenue available for the Legislature to appropriate for the next fiscal year; and

(B) the amount of ongoing appropriations from the Income Tax Fund and Uniform School Fund in the current fiscal year; and

(ii) other appropriations as the Legislature may designate.

(b) If the appropriation described in Subsection (2)(a) would cause the ongoing appropriations to the account to exceed 11% of Uniform School Fund appropriations described in Section 53F-9-201.1 for the same fiscal year, the Legislature shall appropriate only those funds necessary to ensure that the ongoing appropriations to the account equal 11% of Uniform School Fund appropriations for that fiscal year.

(3) Subject to the availability of ongoing appropriations to the account, in accordance with Utah Constitution, Article X, Section 5, Subsection (4), the ongoing appropriation to the account shall be used to fund:

(a) except for a year described in Subsection (3)(b) or (c), one-time appropriations to the public education system; [~~and~~]

(b) the Minimum School Program for a year in which Income Tax Fund revenue and Uniform School Fund revenue are insufficient to fund:

(i) ongoing appropriations to the public education system; and

(ii) enrollment growth and inflation estimates, as defined in Section 53F-9-201.1[~~.~~]; and

(c) the minimum basic local amount as defined in Section 53F-2-301 for a year in which the minimum basic tax rate, as defined in Section 53F-2-301, is insufficient to generate the amount described in Subsection 53F-2-301(2)(a).

(4) (a) The account shall earn interest.

(b) All interest earned on account money shall be deposited in the account.

(5) On or before December 31, 2023, and every three years thereafter, the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst shall:

(a) review the percentages described in Subsections (2)(a)(i) and (2)(b); and

(b) recommend to the Executive Appropriations Subcommittee any changes based on the review described in Subsection (5)(a).

76-3-406, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2024, Chapter 96
76-5-402, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2022, Chapter 181
76-5-402.2, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2022, Chapter 181
76-5-403, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2022, Chapter 181

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 76-3-406 is amended to read:

76-3-406. Crimes for which probation, suspension of sentence, lower category of offense, or hospitalization may not be granted.

(1) Notwithstanding Sections 76-3-201 and 77-18-105 and Title 77, Chapter 16a, Commitment and Treatment of Individuals with a Mental Condition, except as provided in Section 76-5-406.5 or Subsection 77-16a-103(6) or (7), probation may not be granted, the execution or imposition of sentence may not be suspended, the court may not enter a judgment for a lower category of offense, and hospitalization may not be ordered, the effect of which would in any way shorten the prison sentence for an individual who commits a capital felony or a first degree felony involving:

(a) aggravated murder as described in Section 76-5-202;

(b) murder as described in Section 76-5-203;

(c) child kidnapping as described in Section 76-5-301.1;

(d) aggravated kidnapping as described in Subsection 76-5-302(3)(b);

(e) rape as described in Subsection 76-5-402(3)(b), (3)(c), (3)(d), or (4);

(f) rape of a child as described in Section 76-5-402.1;

(g) object rape as described in Subsection 76-5-402.2(3)(b), (3)(c), (3)(d), or (4);

(h) object rape of a child as described in Section 76-5-402.3;

(i) forcible sodomy as described in Subsection 76-5-403(3)(b), (3)(c), (3)(d), or (4);

(j) sodomy on a child as described in Section 76-5-403.1;

(k) forcible sexual abuse as described in Subsection 76-5-404(3)(b)(i) or (ii);

(l) aggravated sexual abuse of a child as described in Section 76-5-404.3;

(m) aggravated sexual assault as described in Section 76-5-405; or

(n) any attempt to commit a felony listed in Subsection (1)(f), (h), or (j).

(2) Except for an offense before the district court in accordance with Section 80-6-502 or 80-6-504, the provisions of this section do not apply if the sentencing court finds that the defendant:

(a) was under 18 years old at the time of the offense; and

(b) could have been adjudicated in the juvenile court but for the delayed reporting or delayed filing of the information.

Section 2. Section 76-5-402 is amended to read:

76-5-402. Rape.

(1) (a) As used in this section, "incapacitated individual" means:

(i) an individual 14 years old or older with:

(A) an intellectual disease or defect;

(B) a physical disease or defect;

(C) a neurological disease or defect; or

(D) a cognitive disease or defect; and

(ii) as a result of the disease or defect described in Subsection (1)(a)(i), the individual is unable to meet two or more of the following requirements:

(A) appraise the nature of an act of sexual intercourse;

(B) resist or escape an act of sexual intercourse; or

(C) report an act of sexual intercourse committed against the individual.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) (a) An actor commits rape if the actor has sexual intercourse with another individual without the individual's consent.

(b) Any sexual penetration, however slight, is sufficient to constitute the relevant element of a violation of Subsection (2)(a).

(c) This section applies whether or not the actor is married to the individual.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a felony of the first degree, punishable by a term of imprisonment of:

(a) except as provided in Subsection (3)(b)[~~or~~], (c), or (d), not less than five years and which may be for life;

(b) except as provided in Subsection (3)(c), (3)(d), or (4)(a), 10 years and which may be for life if the trier of fact finds that the act committed by the actor described in Subsection (2) was committed against an incapacitated individual;

~~(b)~~ except as provided in Subsection ~~(3)(c) or (4)~~(d) or (4)(b), 15 years and which may be for life, if the trier of fact finds that:

(i) during the course of the commission of the rape the defendant caused serious bodily injury to the victim; or

(ii) at the time of the commission of the rape, the defendant was younger than 18 years old and was previously convicted of a grievous sexual offense; or

~~(c)~~ life without parole, if the trier of fact finds that at the time of the commission of the rape the defendant was previously convicted of a grievous sexual offense.

(4) (a) If, when imposing a sentence under Subsection (3)(b), a court finds that a lesser term than the term described in Subsection (3)(b) is in the interests of justice and states the reasons for this finding on the record, the court may impose a term of imprisonment of not less than six years and which may be for life.

(b) If, when imposing a sentence under Subsection ~~(3)(b)~~(c), a court finds that a lesser term than the term described in Subsection ~~(3)(b)~~(c) is in the interests of justice and states the reasons for this finding on the record, the court may impose a term of imprisonment of not less than:

~~(a)~~ 10 years and which may be for life; or

~~(b)~~ six years and which may be for life.

(5) The provisions of Subsection (4) do not apply when a defendant is sentenced under Subsection (3)(a) or ~~(c)~~.

(6) Imprisonment under Subsection (3)(b), (3)(c), (3)(d), or (4) is mandatory in accordance with Section 76-3-406.

Section 3. Section 76-5-402.2 is amended to read:

76-5-402.2. Object rape.

(1) (a) As used in this section, "incapacitated individual" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-402.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits object rape if:

(a) the actor:

(i) acts without an individual's consent;

(ii) causes the penetration, however slight, of the genital or anal opening of the individual by:

(A) a foreign object;

(B) a substance;

(C) an instrument;

(D) a device; or

(E) a part of the human body other than the mouth or genitals; and

(iii) (A) intends to cause substantial emotional or bodily pain to the individual; or

(B) intends to arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any individual; and

(b) the individual described in Subsection (2)(a)(i) is 14 years old or older.

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a first degree felony, punishable by a term of imprisonment of:

(a) except as provided in Subsection (3)(b)[~~or~~], (c), or (d), not less than five years and which may be for life;

(b) except as provided in Subsection (3)(c), (3)(d), or (4)(a), 10 years and which may be for life if the trier of fact finds that the act committed by the actor described in Subsection (2) was committed against an incapacitated individual;

~~(b)~~ except as provided in Subsection ~~(3)(c) or (4),~~(d) or (4)(b), 15 years and which may be for life, if the trier of fact finds that:

(i) during the course of the commission of the object rape the defendant caused serious bodily injury to the victim; or

(ii) at the time of the commission of the object rape, the defendant was younger than 18 years old and was previously convicted of a grievous sexual offense; or

~~(c)~~ life without parole, if the trier of fact finds that at the time of the commission of the object rape, the defendant was previously convicted of a grievous sexual offense.

(4) (a) If, when imposing a sentence under Subsection (3)(b), a court finds that a lesser term than the term described in Subsection (3)(b) is in the interests of justice and states the reasons for this finding on the record, the court may impose a term of imprisonment of not less than six years and which may be for life.

(b) If, when imposing a sentence under Subsection ~~(3)(b)~~(c), a court finds that a lesser term than the term described in Subsection ~~(3)(b)~~(c) is in the interests of justice and states the reasons for this finding on the record, the court may impose a term of imprisonment of not less than:

~~(a)~~ 10 years and which may be for life; or

~~(b)~~ six years and which may be for life.

(5) The provisions of Subsection (4) do not apply if a defendant is sentenced under Subsection (3)(a) or ~~(c)~~.

(6) Imprisonment under Subsection (3)(b), (3)(c), (3)(d), or (4) is mandatory in accordance with Section 76-3-406.

Section 4. Section 76-5-403 is amended to read:

76-5-403. Forcible sodomy.

(1) (a) As used in this section[~~,~~]:

(i) "Incapacitated individual" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-5-402.

(ii) [~~"sodomy"~~]"Sodomy" means engaging in any sexual act with an individual who is 14 years old or older involving the genitals of one individual and the mouth or anus of another individual.

(b) Terms defined in Section 76-1-101.5 apply to this section.

(2) (a) An actor commits forcible sodomy when the actor commits sodomy upon another individual without the other individual's consent.

(b) Any touching, however slight, is sufficient to constitute the relevant element of a violation of Subsection (2)(a).

(3) A violation of Subsection (2) is a first degree felony, punishable by a term of imprisonment of:

(a) except as provided in Subsection (3)(b)[~~or~~],(c), or (d), not less than five years and which may be for life;

(b) except as provided in Subsection (3)(c), (3)(d), or (4)(a), 10 years and which may be for life if the trier of fact finds that the act committed by the actor described in Subsection (2) was committed against an incapacitated individual;

~~(b)~~ except as provided in Subsection ~~(3)(c) or (4)~~(d) or (4)(b), 15 years and which may be for life, if the trier of fact finds that:

(i) during the course of the commission of the forcible sodomy the defendant caused serious bodily injury to the victim; or

(ii) at the time of the commission of the [~~rape~~]forcible sodomy, the defendant was younger than 18 years old and was previously convicted of a grievous sexual offense; or

~~(c)~~ life without parole, if the trier of fact finds that at the time of the commission of the forcible sodomy the defendant was previously convicted of a grievous sexual offense.

(4) (a) If, when imposing a sentence under Subsection (3)(b), a court finds that a lesser term than the term described in Subsection (3)(b) is in the interests of justice and states the reasons for this finding on the record, the court may impose a term of imprisonment of not less than six years and which may be for life.

(b) If, when imposing a sentence under Subsection ~~(3)(b)~~(c), a court finds that a lesser term than the term described in Subsection ~~(3)(b)~~(c) is in the interests of justice and states the reasons for this finding on the record, the court may impose a term of imprisonment of not less than:

~~(a)~~ 10 years and which may be for life; or

~~(b)~~ six years and which may be for life.

(5) The provisions of Subsection (4) do not apply when a defendant is sentenced under Subsection (3)(a) or ~~(c)~~.

(6) Imprisonment under Subsection (3)(b), (3)(c), (3)(d), or (4) is mandatory in accordance with Section 76-3-406.

Section 2. Section 53F-9-204 is amended to read:

53F-9-204. Public Education Economic Stabilization Restricted Account.

(1) There is created within the Uniform School Fund a restricted account known as the "Public Education Economic Stabilization Restricted Account."

(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), the account shall be funded from the following revenue sources:

(i) 15% of the difference between, as determined by the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst:

(A) the estimated amount of ongoing Income Tax Fund and Uniform School Fund revenue available for the Legislature to appropriate for the next fiscal year; and

(B) the amount of ongoing appropriations from the Income Tax Fund and Uniform School Fund in the current fiscal year; and

(ii) other appropriations as the Legislature may designate.

(b) If the appropriation described in Subsection (2)(a) would cause the ongoing appropriations to the account to exceed 11% of Uniform School Fund appropriations described in Section 53F-9-201.1 for the same fiscal year, the Legislature shall appropriate only those funds necessary to ensure that the ongoing appropriations to the account equal 11% of Uniform School Fund appropriations for that fiscal year.

(3) Subject to the availability of ongoing appropriations to the account, in accordance with Utah Constitution, Article X, Section 5, Subsection (4), the ongoing appropriation to the account shall be used to fund:

(a) except for a year described in Subsection (3)(b), one-time appropriations to the public education system; and

(b) the Minimum School Program for a year in which Income Tax Fund revenue and Uniform School Fund revenue are insufficient to fund:

(i) ongoing appropriations to the public education system; and

(ii) enrollment growth and inflation estimates, as defined in Section 53F-9-201.1.

(4) (a) The account shall earn interest.

(b) All interest earned on account money shall be deposited in the account.

(5) On or before December 31, 2023, and every three years thereafter, the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst shall:

(a) review the percentages described in Subsections (2)(a)(i) and (2)(b); and

(b) recommend to the Executive Appropriations Subcommittee any changes based on the review described in Subsection (5)(a).

(6) In preparing budget bills for a given fiscal year, the Executive Appropriations Committee shall make the one-time appropriations described in Subsection (3)(a) by appropriating at least the lesser of 10% of the total amount of the one-time appropriations; or

(a) the cost of providing 32 paid professional hours for teachers in accordance with Section 53F-7-203; [~~and~~]

(b) the amount to make the distribution required under Section 53F-2-527[~~.~~]; and

(c) the cost of the Rural School Sports Facilities Grant Program described in Section 53F-10-303.

Section 3. Section 53F-10-303 is enacted to read:

53F-10-303. Rural School Sports Facilities Grant Program.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Eligible school" means a public school within a school district:

(i) located in a county of the fourth, fifth, or sixth class, as defined in Section 17-50-501; or

(ii) with fewer than 3,000 students enrolled in the school district.

(b) "Program" means the Rural School Sports Facilities Grant Program created in Subsection (2).

(c) "Sports facility" means an indoor or outdoor facility primarily designed and used for athletic activities, physical education, or school-sponsored sports programs.

(2) There is created the Rural School Sports Facilities Grant Program to provide funding to an eligible school for the construction or refurbishment of a sports facility.

(3) The state board shall:

(a) in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, make rules to:

(i) create an application process for a school district to apply for program funds;

(ii) select a school to receive program funds in accordance with Subsection (3)(b); and

(iii) establish a system to distribute program funds to a school the state board selects to receive program funds through the program; and

(b) subject to legislative appropriations, prioritize applications and distribute program funds to an eligible school based on:

(i) the greatest need for program funds;

(ii) the financial feasibility of a sports facility construction or refurbishment project; and

(iii) the potential benefit program funds may have on the community.

(4) (a) A school district with jurisdiction over an eligible school may submit an application to receive program funds under this section.

(b) In the school district's application, the school district shall:

(i) identify an eligible school within the school district that wishes to receive program funds;

(ii) evidence the need for construction or refurbishment of a sports facility;

(iii) describe the proposed sports facility project; and

(iv) estimate a budget and timeline for the completion of the sports facility project.

(5) A school district to which the state board awards program funds shall submit a report to the state board, by December 31 each year while construction is ongoing, detailing:

(a) how a school is using program funds to complete the sports facility project;

(b) budget and timeline updates related to the construction or refurbishment of the sports facility; and

(c) the progress of the construction or refurbishment of a sports facility.

(6) Subject to legislative appropriations, the state board may award up to $500,000 to each eligible school the state board selects under the program.

(7) Upon request of the Education Interim Committee, the state board shall report to the Education Interim Committee on:

(a) the number of applications the state board accepts;

(b) the dollar amount of program funds the state board awards under this section;

(c) the implementation of the program; and

(d) the use of program funds.

Section 4. FY 2026 Appropriations.

The following sums of money are appropriated for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 2025, and ending June 30, 2026. These are additions to amounts previously appropriated for fiscal year 2026.

4-41a-103. Inventory control system.

(1) Each cannabis production establishment and each medical cannabis pharmacy shall maintain an inventory control system that meets the requirements of this section.

(2) A cannabis production establishment and a medical cannabis pharmacy shall ensure that the inventory control system maintained by the establishment or pharmacy:

(a) tracks cannabis using a unique identifier, in real time, from the point that a cannabis plant is eight inches tall and has a root ball until the cannabis is disposed of or sold, in the form of unprocessed cannabis or a cannabis product, to an individual with a medical cannabis card;

(b) maintains in real time a record of the amount of cannabis and cannabis products in the possession of the establishment or pharmacy; and

[~~(c) includes a video recording system that:~~]

[~~(i) tracks all handling and processing of cannabis or a cannabis product in the establishment or pharmacy;~~]

[~~(ii) is tamper proof; and~~]

[~~(iii) stores a video record for at least 45 days; and~~]

~~(d)~~ preserves compatibility with the state electronic verification system described in Section 26B-4-202.

(3) A cannabis production establishment and a medical cannabis pharmacy shall allow the following to access the cannabis production establishment's or the medical cannabis pharmacy's inventory control system at any time:

(a) the department; and

(b) the Department of Health and Human Services[~~; and~~].

[~~(c) a financial institution that the Division of Finance validates, in accordance with Subsection (6).~~]

(4) The department may establish compatibility standards for an inventory control system by rule made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(5) (a) The department shall make rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, establishing requirements for aggregate or batch records regarding the planting and propagation of cannabis before being tracked in an inventory control system described in this section.

(b) The department shall ensure that the rules described in Subsection (5)(a) address record-keeping for the amount of planted seed, number of cuttings taken, date and time of cutting and planting, number of plants established, and number of plants culled or dead.

(6) (a) The department may provide reports from the inventory control system to a financial institution to allow them to reconcile transactions and other financial activity of cannabis production establishments, medical cannabis pharmacies, and medical cannabis couriers that use financial services that the financial institution provides.

(b) A report:

(i) may only include information related to financial transactions; and

(ii) may not include any identifying patient information.

[~~(6) (a) The Division of Finance shall, in consultation with the state treasurer:~~]

[~~(i) in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, make rules to:~~]

[~~(A) establish a process for validating financial institutions for access to an inventory control system in accordance with Subsections (3)(c) and (6)(b); and~~]

[~~(B) establish qualifications for the validation described in Subsection (6)(a)(i)(A);~~]

[~~(ii) review applications the Division of Finance receives in accordance with the process established under Subsection (6)(a)(i);~~]

[~~(iii) validate a financial institution that meets the qualifications described in Subsection (6)(a)(i); and~~]

[~~(iv) provide a list of validated financial institutions to the department and the Department of Health and Human Services.~~]

[~~(b) A financial institution that the Division of Finance validates under Subsection (6)(a):~~]

[~~(i) may only access an inventory control system for the purpose of reconciling transactions and other financial activity of cannabis production establishments, medical cannabis pharmacies, and medical cannabis couriers that use financial services that the financial institution provides;~~]

[~~(ii) may only access information related to financial transactions; and~~]

[~~(iii) may not access any identifying patient information.~~]

Section 3. Section 4-41a-201 is amended to read:

4-41a-201. Cannabis production establishment -- License.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (14), a person may not operate a cannabis production establishment without a license that the department issues under this chapter.

(2) (a) (i) Subject to Subsections (6), (7), (8), and (13) and to Section 4-41a-205, for a licensing process that the department initiates after March 17, 2021, the department, through the licensing board, shall issue licenses in accordance with Section 4-41a-201.1.

(ii) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the department shall make rules to specify a transparent and efficient process to:

(A) solicit applications for a license under this section;

(B) allow for comments and questions in the development of applications;

(C) timely and objectively evaluate applications;

(D) hold public hearings that the department deems appropriate; and

(E) select applicants to receive a license.

(iii) The department may not issue a license to operate a cannabis production establishment to an applicant who is not eligible for a license under this section.

(b) An applicant is eligible for a license under this section if the applicant submits to the licensing board:

(i) subject to Subsection (2)(c), a proposed name and each address[~~or, for a cannabis cultivation facility, addresses of no more than two facility locations~~], located in a zone described in Subsection 4-41a-406(2)(a) or (b), where the applicant will operate the cannabis production establishment;

(ii) the name and address of any individual who has:

(A) for a publicly traded company, a financial or voting interest of 10% or greater in the proposed cannabis production establishment;

(B) for a privately held company, a financial or voting interest in the proposed cannabis production establishment; or

(C) the power to direct or cause the management or control of a proposed cannabis production establishment;

(iii) an operating plan that:

(A) complies with Section 4-41a-204;

(B) includes operating procedures that comply with this chapter and any law the municipality or county in which the person is located adopts that is consistent with Section 4-41a-406; and

(C) the department or licensing board approves;

(iv) a statement that the applicant will obtain and maintain a liquid cash account with a financial institution or a performance bond that a surety authorized to transact surety business in the state issues in an amount of at least:

(A) $100,000 for each cannabis cultivation facility for which the applicant applies; or

(B) $50,000 for each cannabis processing facility or independent cannabis testing laboratory for which the applicant applies;

(v) an application fee in an amount that, subject to Subsection 4-41a-104(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504; and

(vi) a description of any investigation or adverse action taken by any licensing jurisdiction, government agency, law enforcement agency, or court in any state for any violation or detrimental conduct in relation to any of the applicant's cannabis-related operations or businesses.

(c) (i) A person may not locate a cannabis production establishment:

(A) within 1,000 feet of a community location; or

(B) in or within 600 feet of a district that the relevant municipality or county has zoned as primarily residential.

(ii) The proximity requirements described in Subsection (2)(c)(i) shall be measured from the nearest entrance to the cannabis production establishment by following the shortest route of ordinary pedestrian travel to the property boundary of the community location or residential area.

(iii) The licensing board may grant a waiver to reduce the proximity requirements in Subsection (2)(c)(i) by up to 20% if the licensing board determines that it is not reasonably feasible for the applicant to site the proposed cannabis production establishment without the waiver.

(iv) An applicant for a license under this section shall provide evidence of compliance with the proximity requirements described in Subsection (2)(c)(i).

(3) If the licensing board approves an application for a license under this section and Section 4-41a-201.1:

(a) the applicant shall pay the [~~departmentan~~]department an initial license fee in an amount that, subject to Subsection 4-41a-104(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504; and

(b) the department shall notify the Department of Public Safety of the license approval and the names of each individual described in Subsection (2)(b)(ii).

(4) (a) Except as provided in [~~Subsection (4)(b)~~]this Subsection (4), a cannabis production establishment shall obtain a separate license for each type of cannabis production establishment and each location of a cannabis production establishment.

(b) The licensing board may issue a cannabis cultivation facility license and a cannabis processing facility license to a person to operate at the same physical location or at separate physical locations.

(c) A cannabis cultivation facility may operate at two addresses under a single license.

(d) A tier one cannabis processing facility may operate at a second address under the same tier one license if:

(i) the second address is co-located at a cannabis cultivation facility operated by the same licensee; and

(ii) the licensee pays a fee of $70,000 for the second location.

(e) An applicant for a tier two cannabis processing facility license that has a cannabis cultivation facility license and intends to process cannabis at the cannabis cultivation facility shall pay a fee of $25,000 for the tier two cannabis processing facility license.

(5) If the licensing board receives more than one application for a cannabis production establishment within the same city or town, the licensing board shall consult with the local land use authority before approving any of the applications pertaining to that city or town.

(6) The licensing board may not issue a license to operate an independent cannabis testing laboratory to a person who:

(a) holds a license or has an ownership interest in a medical cannabis pharmacy, a cannabis processing facility, or a cannabis cultivation facility;

(b) has an owner, officer, director, or employee whose family member holds a license or has an ownership interest in a medical cannabis pharmacy, a cannabis processing facility, or a cannabis cultivation facility; or

(c) proposes to operate the independent cannabis testing laboratory at the same physical location as a medical cannabis pharmacy, a cannabis processing facility, or a cannabis cultivation facility.

(7) The licensing board may not issue a license to operate a cannabis production establishment to an applicant if any individual described in Subsection (2)(b)(ii):

(a) has been convicted under state or federal law of:

(i) a felony in the preceding 10 years; or

(ii) after December 3, 2018, a misdemeanor for drug distribution;

(b) is younger than 21 years old; or

(c) after September 23, 2019, until January 1, 2023, is actively serving as a legislator.

(8) (a) If an applicant for a cannabis production establishment license under this section holds a license under Title 4, Chapter 41, Hemp and Cannabinoid Act, the licensing board may not give preference to the applicant based on the applicant's status as a holder of the license.

(b) If an applicant for a license to operate a cannabis cultivation facility under this section holds a license to operate a medical cannabis pharmacy under this title, the licensing board may give consideration to the applicant based on the applicant's status as a holder of a medical cannabis pharmacy license if:

(i) the applicant demonstrates that a decrease in costs to patients is more likely to result from the applicant's vertical integration than from a more competitive marketplace; and

(ii) the licensing board finds multiple other factors, in addition to the existing license, that support granting the new license.

(9) The licensing board may revoke a license under this part:

(a) if the cannabis production establishment does not begin cannabis production operations within one year after the day on which the licensing board issues the initial license;

(b) after the third of the same violation of this chapter in any of the licensee's licensed cannabis production establishments or medical cannabis pharmacies;

(c) if any individual described in Subsection (2)(b) is convicted, while the license is active, under state or federal law of:

(i) a felony; or

(ii) after December 3, 2018, a misdemeanor for drug distribution;

(d) if the licensee fails to provide the information described in Subsection (2)(b)(vi) at the time of application, or fails to supplement the information described in Subsection (2)(b)(vi) with any investigation or adverse action that occurs after the submission of the application within 14 calendar days after the licensee receives notice of the investigation or adverse action;

(e) if the cannabis production establishment demonstrates a willful or reckless disregard for the requirements of this chapter or the rules the department makes in accordance with this chapter;

(f) if, after a change of ownership described in Subsection (15)(b), the board determines that the cannabis production establishment no longer meets the minimum standards for licensure and operation of the cannabis production establishment described in this chapter;

(g) for an independent cannabis testing laboratory, if the independent cannabis testing laboratory fails to substantially meet the performance standards described in Subsection (14)(b); or

(h) if, following an investigation conducted pursuant to Subsection 4-41a-201.1(11), the board [~~identifies~~]finds that the licensee has participated in an anticompetitive business [~~practices~~]practice.

(10) (a) A person who receives a cannabis production establishment license under this chapter, if the municipality or county where the licensed cannabis production establishment will be located requires a local land use permit, shall submit to the licensing board a copy of the licensee's approved application for the land use permit within 120 days after the day on which the licensing board issues the license.

(b) If a licensee fails to submit to the licensing board a copy of the licensee's approved land use permit application in accordance with Subsection (10)(a), the licensing board may revoke the licensee's license.

(11) The department shall deposit the proceeds of a fee that the department imposes under this section into the Qualified Production Enterprise Fund.

(12) The department shall begin accepting applications under this part on or before January 1, 2020.

(13) (a) The department's authority, and consequently the licensing board's authority, to issue a license under this section is plenary and is not subject to review.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(a)(ii)(A), the decision of the department to award a license to an applicant is not subject to:

(i) Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Part 16, Protests; or

(ii) Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Part 17, Procurement Appeals Board.

(14) (a) Notwithstanding this section, the department:

(i) may operate or partner with a research university to operate an independent cannabis testing laboratory;

(ii) if the department operates or partners with a research university to operate an independent cannabis testing laboratory, may not cease operating or partnering with a research university to operate the independent cannabis testing laboratory unless:

(A) the department issues at least two licenses to independent cannabis testing laboratories; and

(B) the department has ensured that the licensed independent cannabis testing laboratories have sufficient capacity to provide the testing necessary to support the state's medical cannabis market; and

(iii) after ceasing department or research university operations under Subsection (14)(a)(ii) shall resume independent cannabis testing laboratory operations at any time if:

(A) fewer than two licensed independent cannabis testing laboratories are operating; or

(B) the licensed independent cannabis testing laboratories become, in the department's determination, unable to fully meet the market demand for testing.

(b) (i) The department shall make rules, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, to establish performance standards for the operation of an independent cannabis testing laboratory, including deadlines for testing completion.

(ii) A license that the department issues to an independent cannabis testing laboratory is contingent upon substantial satisfaction of the performance standards described in Subsection (14)(b)(i), as determined by the board.

(15) (a) A cannabis production establishment license is not transferable or assignable.

(b) If the ownership of a cannabis production establishment changes by 50% or more:

(i) the cannabis production establishment shall submit a new application described in Subsection (2)(b), subject to Subsection (2)(c);

(ii) within 30 days of the submission of the application, the board shall:

(A) conduct the application review described in Section 4-41a-201.1; and

(B) award a license to the cannabis production establishment for the remainder of the term of the cannabis production establishment's license before the ownership change if the cannabis production establishment meets the minimum standards for licensure and operation of the cannabis production establishment described in this chapter; and

(iii) if the board approves the license application, notwithstanding Subsection (3), the cannabis production establishment shall pay a license fee that the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504 in an amount that covers the board's cost of conducting the application review.

Section 4. Section 4-41a-201.1 is amended to read:

4-41a-201.1. Cannabis Production Establishment and Pharmacy Licensing Advisory Board -- Composition -- Duties.

(1) There is created within the department the Cannabis Production Establishment and Pharmacy Licensing Advisory Board.

(2) The commissioner shall:

(a) appoint the members of the [~~board~~]licensing board;

(b) submit the name of each individual that the commissioner appoints under Subsection (2)(a) to the governor for confirmation or rejection; and

(c) if the governor rejects an appointee that the commissioner submits under Subsection (2)(b), appoint another individual in accordance with this Subsection (2).

(3) (a) Except as provided in Subsection ~~(3)(c)~~(b), the [~~board~~]licensing board shall consist of the following eight members:

(i) the following seven voting members whom the commissioner appoints:

(A) one member of the public;

(B) one member with knowledge and experience in the pharmaceutical or nutraceutical manufacturing industry;

(C) one member representing law enforcement;

(D) one member whom an organization representing medical cannabis patients recommends;

(E) a chemist who has experience with cannabis and who is associated with a research university;

(F) a pharmacist who is not associated with the medical cannabis industry; and

(G) an accountant; and

(ii) the commissioner or the commissioner's designee as a non-voting member, except to cast a deciding vote in the event of a tie.

(b) The commissioner may appoint a ninth member to the [~~board~~]licensing board who has a background in the cannabis cultivation and processing industry.

(c) The commissioner or the commissioner's designee shall serve as the chair of the [~~board~~]licensing board.

(d) An individual is not eligible for appointment to be a member of the [~~board~~]licensing board if the individual:

(i) has any commercial or ownership interest in a cannabis production establishment, medical cannabis pharmacy, or medical cannabis courier;

(ii) has an owner, officer, director, or employee whose family member holds a license or has an ownership interest in a cannabis production establishment, medical cannabis pharmacy, or medical cannabis courier; or

(iii) is employed or contracted to lobby on behalf of any cannabis production establishment, medical cannabis pharmacy, or medical cannabis courier.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), a voting [~~board~~]licensing board member shall serve a term of four years, beginning July 1 and ending June 30.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (4)(a), for the initial appointments to the [~~board~~]licensing board, the commissioner shall stagger the length of the terms of [~~board~~]licensing board members to ensure that the commissioner appoints two or three [~~board~~]licensing board members every two years.

(c) As a [~~board~~]licensing board member's term expires:

(i) the [~~board~~]licensing board member is eligible for reappointment; and

(ii) the commissioner shall make an appointment, in accordance with Subsection (2), for the new term before the end of the member's term.

(d) When a vacancy occurs on the [~~board~~]licensing board for any reason other than the expiration of a [~~board~~]licensing board member's term, the commissioner shall appoint a replacement to the vacant position, in accordance with Subsection (2), for the unexpired term.

(e) In making appointments, the commissioner shall ensure that no two members of the [~~board~~]licensing board are employed by or represent the same company or nonprofit organization.

(f) The commissioner may remove a [~~board~~]licensing board member for cause, neglect of duty, inefficiency, or malfeasance.

(5) (a) (i) Five members of the [~~board~~]licensing board constitute a quorum of the [~~board~~]licensing board.

(ii) An action of the majority of the [~~board~~]licensing board members when a quorum is present constitutes an action of the [~~board~~]licensing board.

(b) The department shall provide staff support to the [~~board~~]licensing board.

(c) A member of the [~~board~~]licensing board may not receive compensation or benefits for the member's service, but may receive per diem and travel expenses in accordance with:

(i) Section 63A-3-106;

(ii) Section 63A-3-107; and

(iii) rules made by the Division of Finance in accordance with Sections 63A-3-106and 63A-3-107.

(6) The [~~board~~]licensing board shall:

(a) meet as called by the chair to review cannabis production establishment [~~and~~], medical cannabis pharmacy, and medical cannabis courier license applications;

(b) review each license application for compliance with:

(i) this chapter; and

(ii) department rules;

(c) conduct a public hearing to consider the license application;

(d) approve the department's license application forms and checklists; and

(e) make a determination on each license application.

(7) The [~~board~~]licensing board shall hold a public hearing to review a cannabis production establishment's or medical cannabis pharmacy's license if the establishment:

(a) changes ownership by an interest of 20% or more;

(b) changes or adds a location;

(c) upgrades to a different licensing tier under department rule;

(d) changes extraction or formulation standard operating procedures;

(e) adds an industrial hemp processing or cultivation license to the same location as the cannabis production establishment's processing facility; or

(f) as necessary based on the recommendation of the department.

(8) In a public hearing held under Subsection (7), the [~~board~~]licensing board may consider the following in determining whether to approve a request to change pharmacy locations:

(a) medical cannabis availability, quality, and variety;

(b) whether geographic dispersal among licensees is sufficient to reasonably maximize access to the largest number of medical cannabis cardholders;

(c) the extent to which the pharmacy can increase efficiency and reduce the cost to patients of medical cannabis; and

(d) the factors listed in Subsection 4-41a-1004(7).

(9) In a public hearing held pursuant to Subsection (7), the [~~board~~]licensing board may not approve a request to change a medical cannabis pharmacy location outside of the pharmacy's current region established under Subsection 4-41a-1005(1)(c)(ii)(A).

(10) (a) The [~~board~~]licensing board shall meet [~~annually in December~~]as necessary to consider cannabis production establishment[~~and~~], medical cannabis pharmacy, and medical cannabis courier license renewal applications.

(b) During the meeting described in Subsection (10)(a):

(i) a representative from each applicant for renewal shall:

(A) attend in person or electronically; or

(B) submit information before the meeting, as the [~~board~~]licensing board may require, for the [~~board's~~]licensing board's consideration;

(ii) the [~~board~~]licensing board shall consider, for each cannabis cultivation facility seeking renewal, information including:

(A) the amount of biomass the licensee produced during the current calendar year;

(B) the amount of biomass the licensee projects to produce during the following year;

(C) the amount of hemp waste the licensee currently holds;

(D) the current square footage or acres of growing area the licensee uses; and

(E) the square footage or acres of growing area the licensee projects to use in the following year;

(iii) the [~~board~~]licensing board shall consider, for each cannabis processing facility seeking renewal, information including:

(A) methods and procedures for extraction;

(B) standard operating procedures; and

(C) a complete listing of the medical dosage forms that the licensee produces; and

(iv) the [~~board~~]licensing board shall consider, for each cannabis pharmacy seeking renewal, information including:

(A) product availability, quality, and variety;

(B) the pharmacy's operating procedures and practices; and

(C) the factors listed in Subsection 4-41a-1003(1).

(c) Following consideration of the information provided under Subsection (10)(b), the [~~board~~]licensing board may elect to approve, deny, or issue conditional approval of a cannabis production establishment or pharmacy license renewal application.

(d) The information a licensee or license applicant provides to the [~~board~~]licensing board for a license determination constitutes a protected record under Subsection 63G-2-305(1) or (2) if the applicant or licensee provides the [~~board~~]licensing board with the information regarding business confidentiality required in Section 63G-2-309.

(11) (a) In cooperation with the attorney general, the [~~board~~]licensing board may investigate information received by the department indicating that a licensee is potentially engaging in anticompetitive business practices.

(b) In investigating potential anticompetitive business practices under this section, the attorney general may issue civil investigative demands as set forth in Section 76-10-3107.

(12) The department shall:

(a) provide staff support for the licensing board;

(b) assist the licensing board in conducting meetings; and

(c) review all submitted applications for completion and accuracy.

Section 5. Section 4-41a-204 is amended to read:

4-41a-204. Operating plan.

(1) A person applying for a cannabis production establishment license or license renewal shall submit to the department for the department's review a proposed operating plan that complies with this section and that includes:

(a) a description of the physical characteristics of [~~the~~]each proposed facility[~~or, for a cannabis cultivation facility, no more than two facility locations~~], including a floor plan and an architectural elevation;

(b) a description of the credentials and experience of:

(i) each officer, director, and owner of the proposed cannabis production establishment; and

(ii) any highly skilled or experienced prospective employee;

(c) the cannabis production establishment's employee training standards;

(d) a security plan;

(e) a description of the cannabis production establishment's inventory control system, including a description of how the inventory control system is compatible with the state electronic verification system described in Section 26B-4-202;

(f) storage protocols, both short- and long-term, to ensure that cannabis is stored in a manner that is sanitary and preserves the integrity of the cannabis;

(g) for a cannabis cultivation facility, the information described in Subsection (2);

(h) for a cannabis processing facility, the information described in Subsection (3); and

(i) for an independent cannabis testing laboratory, the information described in Subsection (4).

(2) (a) A cannabis cultivation facility shall ensure that the facility's operating plan includes the facility's intended:

(i) cannabis cultivation practices, including the facility's intended pesticide use and fertilizer use; and

(ii) subject to Subsection (2)(b), acreage or square footage under cultivation and anticipated cannabis yield.

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(c)(i) or (c)(ii), a cannabis cultivation facility may not:

(i) for a facility that cultivates cannabis only indoors, use more than 100,000 total square feet of cultivation space;

(ii) for a facility that cultivates cannabis only outdoors, use more than four acres for cultivation; and

(iii) for a facility that cultivates cannabis through a combination of indoor and outdoor cultivation, use more combined indoor square footage and outdoor acreage than allowed under the department's formula described in Subsection (2)(e).

(c) (i) Each licensee may apply to the department for:

(A) a one-time, permanent increase of up to 20% of the limitation on the cannabis cultivation facility's cultivation space; or

(B) a short-term increase, not to exceed 12 months, of up to 40% of the limitation on the cannabis cultivation facility's cultivation space.

(ii) After conducting a review equivalent to the review described in Subsection 4-41a-205(2)(a), if the department determines that additional cultivation is needed, the department may:

(A) grant the one-time, permanent increase described in Subsection (2)(c)(i)(A); or

(B) grant the short-term increase described in Subsection (2)(c)(i)(B).

(d) If a licensee describes an intended acreage or square footage under cultivation under Subsection (2)(a)(ii) that is less than the limitation described in Subsection (2)(b), the licensee may not cultivate more than the licensee's identified intended acreage or square footage under cultivation.

(e) The department shall, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, establish a formula for combined usage of indoor and outdoor cultivation that:

(i) does not exceed, in estimated cultivation yield, the aggregate limitations described in Subsection (2)(b)(i) or (ii); and

(ii) allows a cannabis cultivation facility to operate both indoors and outdoors.

(f) (i) The department may authorize a cannabis cultivation facility to operate at no more than two separate locations.

(ii) If the department authorizes multiple locations under Subsection (2)(f)(i), the two cannabis cultivation facility locations combined may not exceed the cultivation limitations described in this Subsection (2).

(3) A cannabis processing facility's operating plan shall include the facility's intended cannabis processing practices, including the cannabis processing facility's intended:

(a) offered variety of cannabis product;

(b) cannabinoid extraction method;

(c) cannabinoid extraction equipment;

(d) processing equipment;

(e) processing techniques; and

(f) sanitation and manufacturing safety procedures for items for human consumption.

(4) An independent cannabis testing laboratory's operating plan shall include the laboratory's intended:

(a) cannabis and cannabis product testing capability;

(b) cannabis and cannabis product testing equipment; and

(c) testing methods, standards, practices, and procedures for testing cannabis and cannabis products.

(5) Notwithstanding an applicant's proposed operating plan, a cannabis production establishment is subject to land use regulations, as defined in Sections 10-9a-103 and 17-27a-103, regarding the availability of outdoor cultivation in an industrial zone.

Section 6. Section 4-41a-205 is amended to read:

4-41a-205. Number of licenses -- Cannabis cultivation facilities.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(a), the department shall issue at least five but not more than eight licenses to operate a cannabis cultivation facility.

(2) (a) The department may issue a number of licenses to operate a cannabis cultivation facility that, in addition to the licenses described in Subsection (1), does not cause the total number of licenses to exceed 15 if the department determines, in consultation with the Department of Health and Human Services and after an annual or more frequent analysis of the current and anticipated market for medical cannabis, that each additional license is necessary to provide an adequate supply, quality, or variety of medical cannabis to medical cannabis cardholders.

(b) If the recipient of one of the initial licenses described in Subsection (1) ceases operations for any reason or otherwise abandons the license, the department may but is not required to grant the vacant license to another applicant based on an analysis as described in Subsection (2)(a).

(3) If there are more qualified applicants than the number of available licenses for cannabis cultivation facilities under Subsections (1) and (2), the department shall evaluate the applicants and award the limited number of licenses described in Subsections (1) and (2) to the applicants that best demonstrate:

(a) experience with establishing and successfully operating a business that involves:

(i) complying with a regulatory environment;

(ii) tracking inventory; and

(iii) training, evaluating, and monitoring employees;

(b) an operating plan that will best ensure the safety and security of patrons and the community;

(c) positive connections to the local community; and

(d) the extent to which the applicant can increase efficiency and reduce the cost to patients of medical cannabis.

(4) The department may conduct a face-to-face interview with an applicant for a license that the department evaluates under Subsection (3).

(5) The licensing board may not issue more than 18 tier one cannabis processing facility licenses.

Section 7. Section 4-41a-401 is amended to read:

4-41a-401. Cannabis production establishment -- General operating requirements.

(1) (a) A cannabis production establishment shall operate in accordance with the operating plan described in Sections 4-41a-201 and 4-41a-204.

(b) A cannabis production establishment shall notify the department before a change in the cannabis production establishment's operating plan.

(c) (i) If a cannabis production establishment changes the cannabis production establishment's operating plan, the establishment shall ensure that the new operating plan complies with this chapter.

(ii) The department shall establish by rule, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, a process to:

(A) review a change notification described in Subsection (1)(b);

(B) identify for the cannabis production establishment each point of noncompliance between the new operating plan and this chapter;

(C) provide an opportunity for the cannabis production establishment to address each identified point of noncompliance; and

(D) suspend or revoke a license if the cannabis production establishment fails to cure the noncompliance.

(2) A cannabis production establishment shall operate:

(a) except as provided in Subsection (5), in a facility that is accessible only by an individual with a valid cannabis production establishment agent registration card issued under Section 4-41a-301; and

(b) at the physical address provided to the department under Section 4-41a-201.

(3) A cannabis production establishment may not employ an individual who is younger than 21 years old.

(4) A cannabis production establishment may not employ an individual who has been convicted, under state or federal law, of:

(a) a felony in the preceding 10 years; or

(b) after December 3, 2018, a misdemeanor for drug distribution.

(5) A cannabis production establishment may authorize an individual who is at least 18 years old and is not a cannabis production establishment agent to access the cannabis production establishment if the cannabis production establishment:

(a) tracks and monitors the individual at all times while the individual is at the cannabis production establishment; and

(b) maintains a record of the individual's access, including arrival and departure.

(6) A cannabis production establishment shall operate in a facility that has:

(a) a single, secure public entrance;

(b) a security system with a backup power source that:

(i) detects and records entry into the cannabis production establishment; and

(ii) provides notice of an unauthorized entry to law enforcement when the cannabis production establishment is closed; and

(c) a lock or equivalent restrictive security feature on any area where the cannabis production establishment stores cannabis or a cannabis product.

(7) (a) A cannabis production establishment shall maintain a video surveillance system that:

(i) tracks all handling and processing of cannabis or a cannabis product in the establishment;

(ii) is tamper proof; and

(iii) stores a video record for at least 45 days.

(b) A cannabis production establishment shall provide the department access to the video surveillance system upon request.

Section 8. Section 4-41a-801 is amended to read:

4-41a-801. Enforcement -- Fine -- Citation.

(1) (a) If a person that is a cannabis production establishment, [~~or~~]a cannabis production establishment agent, a medical cannabis pharmacy, a medical cannabis pharmacy agent, or a medical cannabis courier, violates this chapter, the department may:

~~(a)~~ revoke the person's license or [~~cannabis production establishment~~]agent registration card;

~~(b)~~ decline to renew the person's license or [~~cannabis production establishment~~]agent registration card; [~~or~~]

~~(c)~~ assess the person an administrative penalty that the department establishes by rule in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act[~~.~~]; or

(iv) provide a letter of concern in accordance with Subsection (8).

(b) Except for a violation that threatens public health or for the third violation of the same rule or statute in a 24-month period, the department shall issue a letter of concern before taking other administrative action under this section.

(2) The department shall deposit an administrative penalty imposed under this section into the General Fund.

(3) (a) The department may take an action described in Subsection (3)(b) if the department concludes, upon investigation, that, for a person that is a cannabis production establishment[~~or~~], a cannabis production establishment agent, a medical cannabis pharmacy, a medical cannabis pharmacy agent, or a medical cannabis courier:

(i) the person has violated the provisions of this chapter, a rule made under this chapter, or an order issued under this chapter; or

(ii) the person produced cannabis or a cannabis product batch that contains a substance, other than cannabis, that poses a significant threat to human health.

(b) If the department makes the determination about a person described in Subsection (3)(a), the department [~~shall~~]may:

(i) issue the person a written administrative citation;

(ii) attempt to negotiate a stipulated settlement;

(iii) seize, embargo, or destroy the cannabis or cannabis product batch;

(iv) order the person to cease and desist from the action that creates a violation; [~~and~~]or

(v) direct the person to appear before an adjudicative proceeding conducted under Title 63G, Chapter 4, Administrative Procedures Act.

(4) The department may, for a person subject to an uncontested citation, a stipulated settlement, or a finding of a violation in an adjudicative proceeding under this section, for a fine amount not already specified in law, assess the person, who is not an individual, a fine of up to $5,000 per violation, in accordance with a fine schedule that the department establishes by rule in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(5) The department may not revoke a [~~cannabis production establishment's~~]license without first directing the [~~cannabis production establishment~~]licensee to appear before an adjudicative proceeding conducted under Title 63G, Chapter 4, Administrative Procedures Act.

(6) If within 20 calendar days after the day on which a department serves a citation for a violation of this chapter, the person that is the subject of the citation fails to request a hearing to contest the citation, the citation becomes the department's final order.

(7) The department may, for a person who fails to comply with a citation under this section:

(a) refuse to issue or renew the person's license or [~~cannabis production establishment~~]agent registration card; or

(b) suspend, revoke, or place on probation the person's license or [~~cannabis production establishment~~]registration card.

(8) (a) A letter of concern shall describe:

(i) the violation including the statute or rule being violated;

(ii) possible options to remedy the issue; and

(iii) possible consequences for not remedying the violation.

(b) Under a letter of concern, the department shall provide the person at least 30 days to remedy the violation.

(c) If the person fails to remedy the violation described in a letter of concern, the department may take other enforcement action as described in this section.

(d) If a letter of concern is resolved without an enforcement action being taken under Subsection (8)(c), the department may not report that a letter of concern was issued to the licensing board.

~~(8)~~ (a) Except where a criminal penalty is expressly provided for a specific violation of this chapter, or where civil and criminal penalties are provided for violations of Section 76-10-31, if an individual:

(i) violates a provision of this chapter, the individual is:

(A) guilty of an infraction; and

(B) subject to a $100 fine; or

(ii) intentionally or knowingly violates a provision of this chapter or violates this chapter three or more times, the individual is:

(A) guilty of a class B misdemeanor; and

(B) subject to a $1,000 fine.

(b) An individual who is guilty of a violation described in Subsection ~~(8)(a)~~(a) is not guilty of a violation of Title 58, Chapter 37, Utah Controlled Substances Act, for the conduct underlying the violation described in Subsection ~~(8)(a)~~(a).

~~(9)~~ Nothing in this section prohibits:

(a) the department from referring potential criminal activity to law enforcement[~~.~~]; or

(b) the attorney general from investigating or prosecuting individuals or businesses for violations of Title 76, Chapter 10, Part 31, Utah Antitrust Act.

Section 9. Section 4-41a-802 is amended to read:

4-41a-802. Report.

(1) At or before the November interim meeting each year, the department shall report to the Health and Human Services Interim Committee on:

(a) the number of applications and renewal applications that the department receives under this chapter;

(b) the number of each type of [~~cannabis production facility~~]license that the department [~~licenses~~]issues in each county;

(c) the amount of cannabis that licensees grow;

(d) the amount of cannabis that licensees manufacture into cannabis products;

(e) the number of licenses the department revokes under this chapter;

(f) the department's operation of an independent cannabis testing laboratory under Section 4-41a-201, including:

(i) the cannabis and cannabis products the department tested; and

(ii) the results of the tests the department performed;

(g) the expenses incurred and revenues generated under this chapter; [~~and~~]

(h) the total quantity of medical cannabis shipments;

(i) the number of overall purchases of medical cannabis from each medical cannabis pharmacy; and

~~(h)~~ an analysis of product availability in medical cannabis pharmacies in consultation with the Department of Health and Human Services.

(2) The department may not include personally identifying information in the report described in this section.

(3) The department shall report to the working group described in Section 36-12-8.2 as requested by the working group.

Section 10. Section 4-41a-1001 is amended to read:

4-41a-1001. Medical cannabis pharmacy -- License -- Eligibility.

(1) A person may not:

(a) operate as a medical cannabis pharmacy without a license that the department issues under this part;

(b) obtain a medical cannabis pharmacy license if obtaining the license would cause the person to exceed the pharmacy ownership limit;

(c) obtain a partial ownership share of a medical cannabis pharmacy if obtaining the partial ownership share would cause the person to exceed the pharmacy ownership limit; or

(d) enter into any contract or agreement that allows the person to directly or indirectly control the operations of a medical cannabis pharmacy if the person's control of the medical cannabis pharmacy would cause the person to effectively exceed the pharmacy ownership limit.

(2) (a) (i) Subject to Subsections (4) and (5) and to Section 4-41a-1005, the [~~department shall issue a license to operate a medical cannabis pharmacy through the licensing board created under Section 4-41a-201.1~~]licensing board shall issue a license to operate a medical cannabis pharmacy.

(ii) The [~~department~~]licensing board may not issue a license to operate a medical cannabis pharmacy to an applicant who is not eligible for a license under this section.

(b) An applicant is eligible for a license under this section if the applicant submits to the [~~department~~]licensing board:

(i) subject to Subsection (2)(c), a proposed name and address where the applicant will operate the medical cannabis pharmacy;

(ii) the name and address of an individual who:

(A) for a publicly traded company, has a financial or voting interest of 10% or greater in the proposed medical cannabis pharmacy;

(B) for a privately held company, a financial or voting interest in the proposed medical cannabis pharmacy; or

(C) has the power to direct or cause the management or control of a proposed medical cannabis pharmacy;

(iii) for each application that the applicant submits to the department, a statement from the applicant that the applicant will obtain and maintain:

(A) a performance bond in the amount of $100,000 issued by a surety authorized to transact surety business in the state; or

(B) a liquid cash account in the amount of $100,000 with a financial institution;

(iv) an operating plan that:

(A) complies with Section 4-41a-1004;

(B) includes operating procedures to comply with the operating requirements for a medical cannabis pharmacy described in this part and with a relevant municipal or county law that is consistent with Section 4-41a-1106; and

(C) the department approves;

(v) an application fee in an amount that, subject to Subsection 4-41a-104(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504; and

(vi) a description of any investigation or adverse action taken by any licensing jurisdiction, government agency, law enforcement agency, or court in any state for any violation or detrimental conduct in relation to any of the applicant's cannabis-related operations or businesses.

(c) (i) A person may not locate a medical cannabis pharmacy:

(A) within 200 feet of a community location; or

(B) in or within 600 feet of a district that the relevant municipality or county has zoned as primarily residential.

(ii) The proximity requirements described in Subsection (2)(c)(i) shall be measured from the nearest entrance to the medical cannabis pharmacy establishment by following the shortest route of ordinary pedestrian travel to the property boundary of the community location or residential area.

(iii) The [~~department~~]licensing board may grant a waiver to reduce the proximity requirements in Subsection (2)(c)(i) by up to 20% if the department determines that it is not reasonably feasible for the applicant to cite the proposed medical cannabis pharmacy without the waiver.

(iv) An applicant for a license under this section shall provide evidence of compliance with the proximity requirements described in Subsection (2)(c)(i).

(d) The [~~department~~]licensing board may not issue a license to an eligible applicant that the department has selected to receive a license until the selected eligible applicant complies with the bond or liquid cash requirement described in Subsection (2)(b)(iii).

(e) If the [~~department~~]licensing board receives more than one application for a medical cannabis pharmacy within the same city or town, the department shall consult with the local land use authority before approving any of the applications pertaining to that city or town.

(f) In considering the issuance of a medical cannabis pharmacy license under this section, the [~~department~~]licensing board may consider the extent to which the pharmacy can increase efficiency and reduce cost to patients of medical cannabis.

(3) If the [~~department~~]licensing board selects an applicant for a medical cannabis pharmacy license under this section, the department shall:

(a) charge the applicant an initial license fee in an amount that, subject to Subsection 4-41a-104(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504;

(b) notify the Department of Public Safety of the license approval and the names of each individual described in Subsection (2)(b)(ii); and

(c) charge the licensee a fee in an amount that, subject to Subsection 4-41a-104(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504, for any change in location, ownership, or company structure.

(4) The [~~department~~]licensing board may not issue a license to operate a medical cannabis pharmacy to an applicant if an individual described in Subsection (2)(b)(ii):

(a) has been convicted under state or federal law of:

(i) a felony in the preceding 10 years; or

(ii) after December 3, 2018, a misdemeanor for drug distribution;

(b) is younger than 21 years old; or

(c) after September 23, 2019, until January 1, 2023, is actively serving as a legislator.

(5) (a) If an applicant for a medical cannabis pharmacy license under this section holds another license under this chapter, the [~~department~~]licensing board may not give preference to the applicant based on the applicant's status as a holder of the license.

(b) If an applicant for a medical cannabis pharmacy license under this section holds a license to operate a cannabis cultivation facility under this section, the [~~department~~]licensing board may give consideration to the applicant's status as a holder of the license if:

(i) the applicant demonstrates that a decrease in costs to patients is more likely to result from the applicant's vertical integration than from a more competitive marketplace; and

(ii) the department finds multiple other factors, in addition to the existing license, that support granting the new license.

(6) The [~~licensing board~~]licensing board may revoke a license under this part:

(a) if the medical cannabis pharmacy does not begin operations within one year after the day on which the department issues an announcement of the department's intent to award a license to the medical cannabis pharmacy;

(b) after the third of the same violation of this chapter in any of the licensee's licensed cannabis production establishments or medical cannabis pharmacies;

(c) if an individual described in Subsection (2)(b)(ii) is convicted, while the license is active, under state or federal law of:

(i) a felony; or

(ii) after December 3, 2018, a misdemeanor for drug distribution;

(d) if the licensee fails to provide the information described in Subsection (2)(b)(vi) at the time of application, or fails to supplement the information described in Subsection (2)(b)(vi) with any investigation or adverse action that occurs after the submission of the application within 14 calendar days after the licensee receives notice of the investigation or adverse action;

(e) if the medical cannabis pharmacy demonstrates a willful or reckless disregard for the requirements of this chapter or the rules the department makes in accordance with this chapter;

(f) if, after a change of ownership described in Subsection ~~(11)(c)~~(c), the department determines that the medical cannabis pharmacy no longer meets the minimum standards for licensure and operation of the medical cannabis pharmacy described in this chapter; or

(g) if through an investigation conducted under Subsection 4-41a-201.1(11) and in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 4, Administrative Procedures Act, the [~~board~~]licensing board finds that the licensee has participated in anticompetitive business practices.

(7) (a) A person who receives a medical cannabis pharmacy license under this chapter, if the municipality or county where the licensed medical cannabis pharmacy will be located requires a local land use permit, shall submit to the department a copy of the licensee's approved application for the land use permit within 120 days after the day on which the department issues the license.

(b) If a licensee fails to submit to the department a copy the licensee's approved land use permit application in accordance with Subsection (7)(a), the department may revoke the licensee's license.

(8) The department shall deposit the proceeds of a fee imposed by this section into the Qualified Production Enterprise Fund.

[~~(9) The department shall begin accepting applications under this part on or before March 1, 2020.~~]

~~(10)~~ (a) The [~~department's~~]licensing board's authority to issue a license under this section is plenary and is not subject to review.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the decision of the department to award a license to an applicant is not subject to:

(i) Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Part 16, Protests; or

(ii) Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Part 17, Procurement Appeals Board.

~~(11)~~ (a) A medical cannabis pharmacy license is not transferable or assignable.

(b) A medical cannabis pharmacy shall report in writing to the department no later than [~~10~~]45 business days before the date of any change of ownership of the medical cannabis pharmacy.

(c) If the ownership of a medical cannabis pharmacy changes by 50% or more:

(i) concurrent with the report described in Subsection ~~(11)(b)~~(b), the medical cannabis pharmacy shall submit a new application described in Subsection (2)(b), subject to Subsection (2)(c);

(ii) within 30 days of the submission of the application, the [~~department~~]licensing board shall:

(A) conduct an application review; and

(B) award a license to the medical cannabis pharmacy for the remainder of the term of the medical cannabis pharmacy's license before the ownership change if the medical cannabis pharmacy meets the minimum standards for licensure and operation of the medical cannabis pharmacy described in this chapter; and

(iii) if the department approves the license application, notwithstanding Subsection (3), the medical cannabis pharmacy shall pay a license fee that the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504 in an amount that covers the department's cost of conducting the application review.

Section 11. Section 4-41a-1005 is amended to read:

4-41a-1005. Maximum number of licenses.

(1) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b) or (d), if a sufficient number of applicants apply, the department shall issue up to 15 medical cannabis pharmacy licenses in accordance with this section.

(b) If an insufficient number of qualified applicants apply for the available number of medical cannabis pharmacy licenses, the department shall issue a medical cannabis pharmacy license to each qualified applicant.

(c) The department may issue the licenses described in Subsection (1)(a) in accordance with this Subsection (1)(c).

(i) Using one procurement process, the department may issue eight licenses to an initial group of medical cannabis pharmacies and six licenses to a second group of medical cannabis pharmacies.

(ii) The department shall:

(A) divide the state into no less than four geographic regions, set by the department in rule;

(B) issue at least one license in each geographic region during each phase of issuing licenses; and

(C) complete the process of issuing medical cannabis pharmacy licenses no later than July 1, 2020.

(iii) In issuing a 15th license under Subsection (1), the department shall ensure that the license recipient will locate the medical cannabis pharmacy within Dagget, Duchesne, Uintah, Carbon, Sevier, Emery, Grand, or San Juan County.

(d) (i) The department may issue licenses to operate a medical cannabis pharmacy in addition to the licenses described in Subsection (1)(a) if the department determines, in consultation with the Department of Health and Human Services and after an annual or more frequent analysis of the current and anticipated market for medical cannabis, that each additional license is necessary to provide an adequate supply, quality, or variety of medical cannabis to medical cannabis cardholders.

(ii) The department shall:

(A) in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, make rules to establish criteria and processes for the consultation, analysis, and application for a license described in Subsection (1)(d)(i); and

(B) report to the Executive Appropriations Committee of the Legislature before each time the department issues an additional license under Subsection (1)(d)(i) regarding the results of the consultation and analysis described in Subsection (1)(d)(i) and the application of the criteria described in Subsection (1)(d)(ii)(A).

(2) (a) If there are more qualified applicants than there are available licenses for medical cannabis pharmacies, the department shall:

(i) evaluate each applicant and award the license to the applicant that best demonstrates:

(A) experience with establishing and successfully operating a business that involves complying with a regulatory environment, tracking inventory, and training, evaluating, and monitoring employees;

(B) an operating plan that will best ensure the safety and security of patrons and the community;

(C) positive connections to the local community;

(D) the suitability of the proposed location and the location's accessibility for qualifying patients;

(E) the extent to which the applicant can increase efficiency and reduce the cost of medical cannabis for patients; and

(F) a strategic plan described in Subsection 4-41a-1004(7) that has a comparatively high likelihood of success; and

(ii) ensure a geographic dispersal among licensees that is sufficient to reasonably maximize access to the largest number of medical cannabis cardholders.

(b) In making the evaluation described in Subsection (2)(a), the department may give increased consideration to applicants who indicate a willingness to[~~:~~]

[~~(i)~~] operate as a home delivery medical cannabis pharmacy that accepts electronic medical cannabis orders that the state central patient portal facilitates[~~; and~~].

[~~(ii) accept payments through:~~]

[~~(A) a payment provider that the Division of Finance approves, in consultation with the state treasurer, in accordance with Section 4-41a-108; or~~]

[~~(B) a financial institution in accordance with Subsection 4-41a-108(4).~~]

(3) The department may conduct a face-to-face interview with an applicant for a license that the department evaluates under Subsection (2).

Section 12. Section 4-41a-1101 is amended to read:

4-41a-1101. Operating requirements -- General.

(1) (a) A medical cannabis pharmacy shall operate:

(i) at the physical address provided to the department under Section 4-41a-1001; and

(ii) in accordance with the operating plan provided to the department under Section 4-41a-1001 and, if applicable, Section 4-41a-1004.

(b) A medical cannabis pharmacy shall notify the department before a change in the medical cannabis pharmacy's physical address or operating plan.

(2) An individual may not enter a medical cannabis pharmacy unless the individual:

(a) is at least 18 years old or is an emancipated minor under Section 80-7-105; and

(b) except as provided in Subsection (4):

(i) possesses a valid:

(A) medical cannabis pharmacy agent registration card;

(B) pharmacy medical provider registration card; or

(C) medical cannabis card;

(ii) is an employee of the department performing an inspection under Section 4-41a-1103; or

(iii) is another individual as the department provides.

(3) A medical cannabis pharmacy may not employ an individual who is younger than 21 years old.

(4) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(a), a medical cannabis pharmacy may authorize an individual who is not a medical cannabis pharmacy agent or pharmacy medical provider to access the medical cannabis pharmacy if the medical cannabis pharmacy tracks and monitors the individual at all times while the individual is at the medical cannabis pharmacy and maintains a record of the individual's access.

(5) A medical cannabis pharmacy shall operate in a facility that has:

(a) a single, secure public entrance;

(b) a security system with a backup power source that:

(i) detects and records entry into the medical cannabis pharmacy; and

(ii) provides notice of an unauthorized entry to law enforcement when the medical cannabis pharmacy is closed; and

(c) a lock on each area where the medical cannabis pharmacy stores cannabis or a cannabis product.

(6) A medical cannabis pharmacy shall post, both clearly and conspicuously in the medical cannabis pharmacy, the limit on the purchase of cannabis described in Subsection 4-41a-1102(2).

(7) Except for an emergency situation described in Subsection [~~26B-4-213(3)(e)~~]26B-4-213(3)(b), a medical cannabis pharmacy may not allow any individual to consume cannabis on the property or premises of the medical cannabis pharmacy.

(8) A medical cannabis pharmacy may not sell cannabis or a cannabis product without first indicating on the cannabis or cannabis product label the name of the medical cannabis pharmacy.

(9) (a) Each medical cannabis pharmacy shall retain in the pharmacy's records the following information regarding each recommendation underlying a transaction:

(i) the recommending medical provider's name, address, and telephone number;

(ii) the patient's name and address;

(iii) the date of issuance;

(iv) directions of use and dosing guidelines or an indication that the recommending medical provider did not recommend specific directions of use or dosing guidelines; and

(v) if the patient did not complete the transaction, the name of the medical cannabis cardholder who completed the transaction.

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (9)(b)(iii), a medical cannabis pharmacy may not sell medical cannabis unless the medical cannabis has a label securely affixed to the container indicating the following minimum information:

(A) the name, address, and telephone number of the medical cannabis pharmacy;

(B) the unique identification number that the medical cannabis pharmacy assigns;

(C) the date of the sale;

(D) the name of the patient;

(E) the name of the recommending medical provider who recommended the medical cannabis treatment;

(F) directions for use and cautionary statements, if any;

(G) the amount dispensed and the cannabinoid content;

(H) the suggested use date;

(I) for unprocessed cannabis flower, the legal use termination date; and

(J) any other requirements that the department determines, in consultation with the Division of Professional Licensing and the Board of Pharmacy.

(ii) A medical cannabis pharmacy is exempt from the requirement to provide the following information under Subsection (9)(b)(i) if the information is already provided on the product label that a cannabis production establishment affixes:

(A) a unique identification number;

(B) directions for use and cautionary statements;

(C) amount and cannabinoid content; and

(D) a suggested use date.

(iii) If the size of a medical cannabis container does not allow sufficient space to include the labeling requirements described in Subsection (9)(b)(i), the medical cannabis pharmacy may provide the following information described in Subsection (9)(b)(i) on a supplemental label attached to the container or an informational enclosure that accompanies the container:

(A) the cannabinoid content;

(B) the suggested use date; and

(C) any other requirements that the department determines.

(iv) A medical cannabis pharmacy may sell medical cannabis to another medical cannabis pharmacy without a label described in Subsection (9)(b)(i).

(10) A pharmacy medical provider or medical cannabis pharmacy agent shall:

(a) upon receipt of an order from a limited medical provider in accordance with Subsections 26B-4-204(1)(b) through (d):

(i) for a written order or an electronic order under circumstances that the department determines, contact the limited medical provider or the limited medical provider's office to verify the validity of the recommendation; and

(ii) for an order that the pharmacy medical provider or medical cannabis pharmacy agent verifies under Subsection (10)(a)(i) or an electronic order that is not subject to verification under Subsection (10)(a)(i), enter the limited medical provider's recommendation or renewal, including any associated directions of use, dosing guidelines, or caregiver indication, in the state electronic verification system;

(b) in processing an order for a holder of a conditional medical cannabis card described in Subsection 26B-4-213(1)(b) that appears irregular or suspicious in the judgment of the pharmacy medical provider or medical cannabis pharmacy agent, contact the recommending medical provider or the recommending medical provider's office to verify the validity of the recommendation before processing the cardholder's order;

(c) unless the medical cannabis cardholder has had a consultation under Subsection 26B-4-231(5), verbally offer to a medical cannabis cardholder at the time of a purchase of cannabis, a cannabis product, or a medical cannabis device, personal counseling with the pharmacy medical provider; and

(d) provide a telephone number or website by which the cardholder may contact a pharmacy medical provider for counseling.

(11) (a) A medical cannabis pharmacy may create a medical cannabis disposal program that allows an individual to deposit unused or excess medical cannabis or cannabis residue from a medical cannabis device in a locked box or other secure receptacle within the medical cannabis pharmacy.

(b) A medical cannabis pharmacy with a disposal program described in Subsection (11)(a) shall ensure that only a medical cannabis pharmacy agent or pharmacy medical provider can access deposited medical cannabis.

(c) A medical cannabis pharmacy shall dispose of any deposited medical cannabis by:

(i) rendering the deposited medical cannabis unusable and unrecognizable before transporting deposited medical cannabis from the medical cannabis pharmacy; and

(ii) disposing of the deposited medical cannabis in accordance with:

(A) federal and state law, rules, and regulations related to hazardous waste;

(B) the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 6991 et seq.;

(C) Title 19, Chapter 6, Part 5, Solid Waste Management Act; and

(D) other regulations that the department makes in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(12) A medical cannabis pharmacy:

(a) shall employ a pharmacist who is licensed under Title 58, Chapter 17b, Pharmacy Practice Act, as a pharmacy medical provider;

(b) may employ a physician who has the authority to write a prescription and is licensed under Title 58, Chapter 67, Utah Medical Practice Act, or Title 58, Chapter 68, Utah Osteopathic Medical Practice Act, as a pharmacy medical provider;

(c) shall ensure that a pharmacy medical provider described in Subsection (12)(a) works onsite during all business hours;

(d) shall designate one pharmacy medical provider described in Subsection (12)(a) as the pharmacist-in-charge to oversee the operation of and generally supervise the medical cannabis pharmacy; [~~and~~]

(e) shall allow the pharmacist-in-charge to determine which cannabis and cannabis products the medical cannabis pharmacy maintains in the medical cannabis pharmacy's inventory[~~.~~];

(f) shall maintain a video surveillance system that:

(i) tracks all handling of medical cannabis in the pharmacy;

(ii) is tamper proof; and

(iii) stores a video record for at least 45 days;

(g) shall provide the department access to the video surveillance system upon request;

(h) if a patient product information insert is available, shall provide a patient who purchases a medical cannabis product the medical cannabis product's patient product information insert using any of the following methods:

(i) a physical document;

(ii) an email message;

(iii) a text message; or

(iv) a quick response code; and

(i) may not allow a recommending medical provider to recommend medical cannabis as part of an event that:

(i) is a temporary gathering, market, clinic, or promotional event;

(ii) operates in a temporary tent or structure; and

(iii) is held within 500 feet of the medical cannabis pharmacy's property line.

(13) The department shall establish by rule, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, protocols for a recall of cannabis and cannabis products by a medical cannabis pharmacy.

Section 13. Section 4-41a-1102 is amended to read:

4-41a-1102. Dispensing -- Amount a medical cannabis pharmacy may dispense -- Reporting -- Form of cannabis or cannabis product.

(1) (a) A medical cannabis pharmacy may not sell a product other than:

[~~(i) cannabis in a medicinal dosage form that the medical cannabis pharmacy acquired from another medical cannabis pharmacy or a cannabis processing facility that is licensed under Section 4-41a-201;~~]

~~(ii)~~ [~~a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form~~]medical cannabis that the medical cannabis pharmacy acquired from another medical cannabis pharmacy or a cannabis processing facility that is licensed under Section 4-41a-201;

~~(iii)~~ a medical cannabis device; or

~~(iv)~~ educational material related to the medical use of cannabis.

(b) A medical cannabis pharmacy may only sell an item listed in Subsection (1)(a) to an individual with:

(i) (A) a medical cannabis card; or

(B) a Department of Health and Human Services registration described in Subsection 26B-4-213(10); and

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(a), a medical cannabis pharmacy may not sell a cannabis-based drug that the United States Food and Drug Administration has approved.

(d) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(b), a medical cannabis pharmacy may not sell a medical cannabis device or medical cannabis to an individual described in Subsection 26B-4-213(2)(a)(i)(B) or to a minor described in Subsection 26B-4-213(2)(c) unless the individual or minor has the approval of the Compassionate Use Board in accordance with Subsection 26B-1-421(5).

(2) A medical cannabis pharmacy:

(a) may dispense to a medical cannabis cardholder, in any one 28-day period, up to the legal dosage limit of:

(i) unprocessed cannabis that:

(A) is in a medicinal dosage form; and

(B) carries a label clearly displaying the amount of tetrahydrocannabinol and cannabidiol in the cannabis; and

(ii) a cannabis product that is in a medicinal dosage form; and

(b) may not dispense:

(i) except for a medical cannabis cardholder approved under Subsection 26B-4-245(2), more medical cannabis than described in Subsection (2)(a); or

(ii) any medical cannabis to an individual whose recommending medical provider did not recommend directions of use and dosing guidelines, until the individual consults with the pharmacy medical provider in accordance with Subsection 26B-4-231(5).

(3) (a) A medical cannabis pharmacy shall:

(i) (A) access the state electronic verification system before dispensing [~~cannabis or a cannabis product~~]medical cannabis to a medical cannabis cardholder in order to determine if the cardholder or, where applicable, the associated patient has met the maximum amount of medical cannabis described in Subsection (2); and

(B) if the verification in Subsection (3)(a)(i)(A) indicates that the individual has met the maximum amount described in Subsection (2), decline the sale, and notify the recommending medical provider who made the underlying recommendation;

(ii) submit a record to the state electronic verification system each time the medical cannabis pharmacy dispenses medical cannabis to a medical cannabis cardholder;

(iii) ensure that the pharmacy medical provider who is a licensed pharmacist reviews each medical cannabis transaction before dispensing the medical cannabis to the cardholder in accordance with pharmacy practice standards;

(iv) package any medical cannabis [~~that is~~]in a container that:

(A) complies with Subsection 4-41a-602(1)(b) or, if applicable, provisions related to a container for unprocessed cannabis flower in the definition of "medicinal dosage form" in Section 26B-4-201; and

(B) is tamper-resistant and tamper-evident; [~~and~~]

[~~(C) provides an opaque bag or box for the medical cannabis cardholder's use in transporting the container in public;~~]

(v) for a product that is a cube that is designed for ingestion through chewing or holding in the mouth for slow dissolution, include a separate, off-label warning about the risks of over-consumption; and

(vi) beginning January 1, 2024, for [~~a cannabis product~~]medical cannabis that is cannabis flower, vaporizer cartridges, or concentrate, provide the product's terpene profiles collected under Subsection 4-41a-701(4) at or before the point of sale.

(b) A medical cannabis cardholder transporting or possessing the container described in Subsection (3)(a)(iv) in public shall keep the container within the opaque bag or box that the medical cannabis pharmacist provides.

(c) A medical cannabis pharmacy shall provide an opaque bag or box for the medical cannabis cardholder to use in transporting the medical cannabis in public if the medical cannabis cardholder does not provide an opaque bag or box.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), a medical cannabis pharmacy may not sell medical cannabis in the form of a cigarette or a medical cannabis device that is intentionally designed or constructed to resemble a cigarette.

(b) A medical cannabis pharmacy may sell a medical cannabis device that warms cannabis material into a vapor without the use of a flame and that delivers cannabis to an individual's respiratory system.

(5) (a) A medical cannabis pharmacy may not give, at no cost, a product that the medical cannabis pharmacy is allowed to sell under Subsection (1)(a)(i) [~~,~~]or (ii)[~~, or (iii)~~].

(b) A medical cannabis pharmacy may give, at no cost, educational material related to the medical use of cannabis.

(6) A medical cannabis pharmacy may purchase and store medical cannabis devices regardless of whether the seller has a cannabis-related license under this chapter or Title 26B, Utah Health and Human Services Code.

Section 14. Section 4-41a-1106 is amended to read:

4-41a-1106. Medical cannabis pharmacy agent -- Registration.

(1) An individual may not serve as a medical cannabis pharmacy agent of a medical cannabis pharmacy unless the department registers the individual as a medical cannabis pharmacy agent.

(2) A recommending medical provider may not act as a medical cannabis pharmacy agent, have a financial or voting interest of 2% or greater in a medical cannabis pharmacy, or have the power to direct or cause the management or control of a medical cannabis pharmacy.

(3) (a) The department shall, within 15 days after the day on which the department receives a complete application from a medical cannabis pharmacy on behalf of a prospective medical cannabis pharmacy agent, register and issue a medical cannabis pharmacy agent registration card to the prospective agent if the medical cannabis pharmacy:

(i) provides to the department:

(A) the prospective agent's name and address;

(B) the name and location of the licensed medical cannabis pharmacy where the prospective agent seeks to act as the medical cannabis pharmacy agent; and

(C) the submission required under Subsection (3)(b); and

(ii) pays a fee to the department in an amount that, subject to Subsection 4-41a-104(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504.

(b) Each prospective agent described in Subsection (3)(a) shall:

(i) submit to the department:

(A) a fingerprint card in a form acceptable to the Department of Public Safety; and

(B) a signed waiver in accordance with Subsection 53-10-108(4) acknowledging the registration of the prospective agent's fingerprints in the Federal Bureau of Investigation Next Generation Identification System's Rap Back Service; and

(ii) consent to a fingerprint background check by:

(A) the Bureau of Criminal Identification; and

(B) the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(c) The Bureau of Criminal Identification shall:

(i) check the fingerprints the prospective agent submits under Subsection (3)(b) against the applicable state, regional, and national criminal records databases, including the Federal Bureau of Investigation Next Generation Identification System;

(ii) report the results of the background check to the department;

(iii) maintain a separate file of fingerprints that prospective agents submit under Subsection (3)(b) for search by future submissions to the local and regional criminal records databases, including latent prints;

(iv) request that the fingerprints be retained in the Federal Bureau of Investigation Next Generation Identification System's Rap Back Service for search by future submissions to national criminal records databases, including the Next Generation Identification System and latent prints; and

(v) establish a privacy risk mitigation strategy to ensure that the department only receives notifications for an individual with whom the department maintains an authorizing relationship.

(d) The department shall:

(i) assess an individual who submits fingerprints under Subsection (3)(b) a fee in an amount that the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504 for the services that the Bureau of Criminal Identification or another authorized agency provides under this section; and

(ii) remit the fee described in Subsection (3)(d)(i) to the Bureau of Criminal Identification.

[~~(4) The department shall designate, on an individual's medical cannabis pharmacy agent registration card the name of the medical cannabis pharmacy where the individual is registered as an agent.~~]

~~(5)~~ A medical cannabis pharmacy agent shall comply with a certification standard that the department develops in collaboration with the Division of Professional Licensing and the Board of Pharmacy, or a third-party certification standard that the department designates by rule, in collaboration with the Division of Professional Licensing and the Board of Pharmacy and in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

~~(6)~~ The department shall ensure that the certification standard described in Subsection ~~(5)~~ includes training in:

(a) Utah medical cannabis law; and

(b) medical cannabis pharmacy best practices.

~~(7)~~ The department may revoke the medical cannabis pharmacy agent registration card of, or refuse to issue a medical cannabis pharmacy agent registration card to, an individual who:

(a) violates the requirements of this chapter; or

(b) is convicted under state or federal law of:

(i) a felony within the preceding 10 years; or

(ii) after December 3, 2018, a misdemeanor for drug distribution.

~~(8)~~ (a) A medical cannabis pharmacy agent registration card expires two years after the day on which the department issues or renews the card.

(b) A medical cannabis pharmacy agent may renew the agent's registration card if the agent:

(i) is eligible for a medical cannabis pharmacy agent registration card under this section;

(ii) certifies to the department in a renewal application that the information in Subsection (3)(a) is accurate or updates the information; and

(iii) pays to the department a renewal fee in an amount that:

(A) subject to Subsection 4-41a-104(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504; and

(B) may not exceed the cost of the relatively lower administrative burden of renewal in comparison to the original application process.

~~(9)~~ (a) As a condition precedent to registration and renewal of a medical cannabis pharmacy agent registration card, a medical cannabis pharmacy agent shall:

(i) complete at least one hour of continuing education regarding patient privacy and federal health information privacy laws that is offered by the department under Subsection ~~(9)(b)~~(b) or an accredited or approved continuing education provider that the department recognizes as offering continuing education appropriate for the medical cannabis pharmacy practice; and

(ii) make a continuing education report to the department in accordance with a process that the department establishes by rule, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, and in collaboration with the Division of Professional Licensing and the Board of Pharmacy.

(b) The department may, in consultation with the Division of Professional Licensing, develop the continuing education described in this Subsection ~~(9)~~.

(c) The pharmacist-in-charge described in Section 26B-4-219 shall ensure that each medical cannabis pharmacy agent working in the medical cannabis pharmacy who has access to the state electronic verification system is in compliance with this Subsection ~~(9)~~.

(d) A medical cannabis pharmacy agent may not access the electronic verification system following the termination of the medical cannabis pharmacy agent's employment.

~~(10)~~ A medical cannabis pharmacy shall:

(a) maintain a list of employees that have a medical cannabis pharmacy agent registration card; and

(b) provide the list to the department upon request.

Section 15. Section 4-41a-1202 is amended to read:

4-41a-1202. Home delivery of medical cannabis shipments -- Medical cannabis couriers -- License.

(1) The department shall make rules, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, to ensure the safety, security, and efficiency of a home delivery medical cannabis pharmacy's fulfillment of electronic medical cannabis orders that the state central patient portal facilitates, including rules regarding the safe and controlled delivery of medical cannabis shipments.

(2) A person may not operate as a medical cannabis courier without a license that the [~~department~~]licensing board issues under this section.

(3) (a) Subject to Subsections (5) and (6), the [~~department~~]licensing board shall issue a license to operate as a medical cannabis courier to an applicant who is eligible for a license under this section.

(b) An applicant is eligible for a license under this section if the applicant submits to the [~~department~~]licensing board:

(i) the name and address of an individual who:

(A) has a financial or voting interest of 10% or greater in the proposed medical cannabis courier; or

(B) has the power to direct or cause the management or control of a proposed cannabis production establishment;

(ii) an operating plan that includes operating procedures to comply with the operating requirements for a medical cannabis courier described in this chapter; and

(iii) an application fee in an amount that, subject to Subsection 4-41a-104(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504.

(4) If the [~~department~~]licensing board determines that an applicant is eligible for a license under this section, the department shall:

(a) charge the applicant an initial license fee in an amount that, subject to Subsection 4-41a-104(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504; and

(b) notify the Department of Public Safety of the license approval and the names of each individual described in Subsection (3)(b)(i).

(5) The [~~department~~]licensing board may not issue a license to operate as a medical cannabis courier to an applicant if an individual described in Subsection (3)(b)(i):

(a) has been convicted under state or federal law of:

(i) a felony in the preceding 10 years; or

(ii) after September 23, 2019, a misdemeanor for drug distribution; or

(b) is younger than 21 years old.

(6) The [~~department~~]licensing board may revoke a license under this part if:

(a) the medical cannabis courier does not begin operations within one year after the day on which the department issues the initial license;

(b) the medical cannabis courier makes the same violation of this chapter three times;

(c) an individual described in Subsection (3)(b)(i) is convicted, while the license is active, under state or federal law of:

(i) a felony; or

(ii) after September 23, 2019, a misdemeanor for drug distribution; or

(d) after a change of ownership described in Subsection (14)(c), the [~~department~~]licensing board determines that the medical cannabis courier no longer meets the minimum standards for licensure and operation of the medical cannabis courier described in this chapter.

(7) The department shall deposit the proceeds of a fee imposed by this section [~~in~~]into the Qualified Production Enterprise Fund.

(8) The [~~department's~~]licensing board's authority to issue a license under this section is plenary and is not subject to review.

(9) Each applicant for a license as a medical cannabis courier shall submit, at the time of application, from each individual who has a financial or voting interest of 10% or greater in the applicant or who has the power to direct or cause the management or control of the applicant:

(a) a fingerprint card in a form acceptable to the Department of Public Safety;

(b) a signed waiver in accordance with Subsection 53-10-108(4) acknowledging the registration of the individual's fingerprints in the Federal Bureau of Investigation Next Generation Identification System's Rap Back Service; and

(c) consent to a fingerprint background check by:

(i) the Bureau of Criminal Identification; and

(ii) the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(10) The Bureau of Criminal Identification shall:

(a) check the fingerprints the applicant submits under Subsection (9) against the applicable state, regional, and national criminal records databases, including the Federal Bureau of Investigation Next Generation Identification System;

(b) report the results of the background check to the department;

(c) maintain a separate file of fingerprints that applicants submit under Subsection (9) for search by future submissions to the local and regional criminal records databases, including latent prints;

(d) request that the fingerprints be retained in the Federal Bureau of Investigation Next Generation Identification System's Rap Back Service for search by future submissions to national criminal records databases, including the Next Generation Identification System and latent prints; and

(e) establish a privacy risk mitigation strategy to ensure that the department only receives notifications for an individual with whom the department maintains an authorizing relationship.

(11) The department shall:

(a) assess an individual who submits fingerprints under Subsection (9) a fee in an amount that the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504 for the services that the Bureau of Criminal Identification or another authorized agency provides under this section; and

(b) remit the fee described in Subsection (11)(a) to the Bureau of Criminal Identification.

(12) The [~~department~~]licensing board shall renew a license under this section every year if, at the time of renewal:

(a) the licensee meets the requirements of this section; and

(b) the licensee pays the department a license renewal fee in an amount that, subject to Subsection 4-41a-104(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504.

(13) A person applying for a medical cannabis courier license shall submit to the [~~department~~]licensing board a proposed operating plan that complies with this section and that includes:

(a) a description of the physical characteristics of any proposed facilities, including a floor plan and an architectural elevation, and delivery vehicles;

(b) a description of the credentials and experience of each officer, director, or owner of the proposed medical cannabis courier;

(c) the medical cannabis courier's employee training standards;

(d) a security plan; and

(e) storage and delivery protocols, both short and long term, to ensure that medical cannabis shipments are stored and delivered in a manner that is sanitary and preserves the integrity of the cannabis.

(14) (a) A medical cannabis courier license is not transferable or assignable.

(b) A medical cannabis courier shall report in writing to the department no later than [~~10~~]45 business days before the date of any change of ownership of the medical cannabis courier.

(c) If the ownership of a medical cannabis courier changes by 50% or more:

(i) concurrent with the report described in Subsection (14)(b), the medical cannabis courier shall submit a new application described in Subsection (3)(b);

(ii) within 30 days of the submission of the application, the [~~department~~]licensing board shall:

(A) conduct an application review; and

(B) award a license to the medical cannabis courier for the remainder of the term of the medical cannabis courier's license before the ownership change if the medical cannabis courier meets the minimum standards for licensure and operation of the medical cannabis courier described in this chapter; and

(iii) if the [~~department~~]licensing board approves the license application, notwithstanding Subsection (4), the medical cannabis courier shall pay a license fee that the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504 in an amount that covers the [~~board~~]licensing board's cost of conducting the application review.

(15) (a) Except as provided in Subsection(15)(b), a person may not advertise regarding the transportation of medical cannabis.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (14)(a) and subject to Section 4-41a-109, a licensed home delivery medical cannabis pharmacy or a licensed medical cannabis courier may advertise:

(i) a green cross;

(ii) the pharmacy's or courier's name and logo; and

(iii) that the pharmacy or courier is licensed to transport medical cannabis shipments.

Section 16. Section 4-41a-1204 is amended to read:

4-41a-1204. Medical cannabis courier agent -- Background check -- Registration card -- Rebuttable presumption.

(1) An individual may not serve as a medical cannabis courier agent unless the department registers the individual as a medical cannabis courier agent.

(2) (a) The department shall, within 15 days after the day on which the department receives a complete application from a medical cannabis courier on behalf of a medical cannabis courier agent, register and issue a medical cannabis courier agent registration card to the prospective agent if the medical cannabis courier:

(i) provides to the department:

(A) the prospective agent's name and address;

(B) the name and address of the medical cannabis courier;

(C) the name and address of each home delivery medical cannabis pharmacy with which the medical cannabis courier contracts to deliver medical cannabis shipments; and

(D) the submission required under Subsection (2)(b);

(ii) as reported under Subsection (2)(c), has not been convicted under state or federal law of:

(A) a felony; or

(B) after December 3, 2018, a misdemeanor for drug distribution; and

(iii) pays the department a fee in an amount that, subject to Subsection 4-41a-104(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504.

(b) Each prospective agent described in Subsection (2)(a) shall:

(i) submit to the department:

(A) a fingerprint card in a form acceptable to the Department of Public Safety; and

(B) a signed waiver in accordance with Subsection 53-10-108(4) acknowledging the registration of the prospective agent's fingerprints in the Federal Bureau of Investigation Next Generation Identification System's Rap Back Service; and

(ii) consent to a fingerprint background check by:

(A) the Bureau of Criminal Identification; and

(B) the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(c) The Bureau of Criminal Identification shall:

(i) check the fingerprints the prospective agent submits under Subsection (2)(b)against the applicable state, regional, and national criminal records databases, including the Federal Bureau of Investigation Next Generation Identification System;

(ii) report the results of the background check to the department;

(iii) maintain a separate file of fingerprints that prospective agents submit under Subsection (2)(b) for search by future submissions to the local and regional criminal records databases, including latent prints;

(iv) request that the fingerprints be retained in the Federal Bureau of Investigation Next Generation Identification System's Rap Back Service for search by future submissions to national criminal records databases, including the Next Generation Identification System and latent prints; and

(v) establish a privacy risk mitigation strategy to ensure that the department only receives notifications for an individual with whom the department maintains an authorizing relationship.

(d) The department shall:

(i) assess an individual who submits fingerprints under Subsection (2)(b) a fee in an amount that the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504 for the services that the Bureau of Criminal Identification or another authorized agency provides under this section; and

(ii) remit the fee described in Subsection (2)(d)(i) to the Bureau of Criminal Identification.

[~~(3) The department shall designate on an individual's medical cannabis courier agent registration card the name of the medical cannabis pharmacy where the individual is registered as an agent and each home delivery medical cannabis courier for which the medical cannabis courier delivers medical cannabis shipments.~~]

~~(4)~~ (a) A medical cannabis courier agent shall comply with a certification standard that the department develops, in collaboration with the Division of Professional Licensing and the Board of Pharmacy, or a third-party certification standard that the department designates by rule in collaboration with the Division of Professional Licensing and the Board of Pharmacy and in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(b) The department shall ensure that the certification standard described in Subsection ~~(4)(a)~~(a) includes training in:

(i) Utah medical cannabis law;

(ii) the medical cannabis shipment process; and

(iii) medical cannabis courier agent best practices.

~~(5)~~ (a) A medical cannabis courier agent registration card expires two years after the day on which the department issues or renews the card.

(b) A medical cannabis courier agent may renew the agent's registration card if the agent:

(i) is eligible for a medical cannabis courier agent registration card under this section;

(ii) certifies to the department in a renewal application that the information in Subsection (2)(a) is accurate or updates the information; and

(iii) pays to the department a renewal fee in an amount that:

(A) subject to Subsection 4-41a-104(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504; and

(B) may not exceed the cost of the relatively lower administrative burden of renewal in comparison to the original application process.

~~(6)~~ The department may revoke or refuse to issue or renew the medical cannabis courier agent registration card of an individual who:

(a) violates the requirements of this chapter; or

(b) is convicted under state or federal law of:

(i) a felony within the preceding 10 years; or

(ii) after December 3, 2018, a misdemeanor for drug distribution.

~~(7)~~ A medical cannabis courier agent whom the department has registered under this section shall carry the agent's medical cannabis courier agent registration card with the agent at all times when:

(a) the agent is on the premises of the medical cannabis courier, a medical cannabis pharmacy, or a delivery address; and

(b) the agent is handling a medical cannabis shipment.

~~(8)~~ If a medical cannabis courier agent handling a medical cannabis shipment possesses the shipment in compliance with Subsection ~~(7)~~:

(a) there is a rebuttable presumption that the agent possesses the shipment legally; and

(b) there is no probable cause, based solely on the agent's possession of the medical cannabis shipment that the agent is engaging in illegal activity.

~~(9)~~ (a) A medical cannabis courier agent who violates Subsection ~~(7)~~ is:

(i) guilty of an infraction; and

(ii) subject to a $100 fine.

(b) An individual who is guilty of a violation described in Subsection ~~(9)(a)~~(a) is not guilty of a violation of Title 58, Chapter 37, Utah Controlled Substances Act, for the conduct underlying the violation described in Subsection ~~(9)(a)~~(a).

~~(10)~~ A medical cannabis courier shall:

(a) maintain a list of employees who have a medical cannabis courier agent card; and

(b) provide the list to the department upon request.

Section 17. Section 26B-1-435 is amended to read:

(b) The commissioner of the Department of Agriculture and Food shall ensure that at least one individual appointed under Subsection (2)(a)(ii)(A) or (B) also owns or operates a licensed cannabis processing facility.

(3) (a) Subject to Subsection (3)(b), a member of the advisory board shall serve for a four year term.

(b) When appointing the initial membership of the advisory board, the executive director and the commissioner of the Department of Agriculture and Food shall coordinate to appoint four advisory board members to serve a term of two years to ensure that approximately half of the board is appointed every two years.

(4) (a) If an advisory board member is no longer able to serve as a member, a new member shall be appointed in the same manner as the original appointment.

(b) A member appointed in accordance with Subsection (4)(a) shall serve for the remainder of the unexpired term of the original appointment.

(5) (a) A majority of the advisory board members constitutes a quorum.

(b) The action of a majority of a quorum constitutes an action of the advisory board.

(c) For a term lasting one year, the advisory board shall annually designate members of the advisory board to serve as chair and vice-chair.

(d) When designating the chair and vice-chair, the advisory board shall ensure that at least one individual described Subsection (2)(a)(i) is appointed as chair or vice-chair.

(6) An advisory board member may not receive compensation or benefits for the member's service on the advisory board but may receive per diem and reimbursement for travel expenses incurred as an advisory board member in accordance with:

(a) Sections 63A-3-106 and 63A-3-107; and

(b) rules made by the Division of Finance pursuant to Sections 63A-3-106 and 63A-3-107.

(7) The department shall:

(a) provide staff support for the advisory board; and

(b) assist the advisory board in conducting meetings.

(8) The advisory board may recommend:

(a) to the department or the Department of Agriculture and Food changes to current or proposed medical cannabis rules or statutes; and

(b) to the appropriate legislative committee whether the advisory board supports a change to medical cannabis statutes.

(9) The advisory board shall:

(a) review any draft rule that is authorized under [~~this chapter~~]Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis, or Title 4, Chapter 41a, Cannabis Production Establishments and Pharmacies;

(b) consult with the Department of Agriculture and Food regarding the issuance of an additional:

(i) cultivation facility license under Section 4-41a-205; or

(ii) pharmacy license under Section 4-41a-1005;

(c) consult with the department regarding cannabis patient education;

(d) consult regarding the reasonableness of any fees set by the department or the Department of Agriculture and Food that pertain to the medical cannabis program; and

(e) consult regarding any issue pertaining to medical cannabis when asked by the department or the Utah Department of Agriculture and Food.

(2) The Department of Agriculture and Food, the department, the Department of Public Safety, and the Division of Technology Services shall ensure that the state electronic verification system described in Subsection (1):

(a) allows an individual to apply for a medical cannabis patient card or, if applicable, a medical cannabis guardian card, provided that the card may not become active until:

(i) the relevant qualified medical provider completes the associated medical cannabis recommendation; or

(ii) for a medical cannabis card related to a limited medical provider's recommendation, the medical cannabis pharmacy completes the recording described in Subsection (2)(d);

(b) allows an individual to apply to renew a medical cannabis patient card or a medical cannabis guardian card in accordance with Section 26B-4-213;

(c) allows a qualified medical provider, or an employee described in Subsection (3) acting on behalf of the qualified medical provider, to:

(i) access dispensing and card status information regarding a patient:

(A) with whom the qualified medical provider has a provider-patient relationship; and

(B) for whom the qualified medical provider has recommended or is considering recommending a medical cannabis card;

(ii) electronically recommend treatment with cannabis in a medicinal dosage form or a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form and optionally recommend dosing guidelines;

(iii) electronically renew a recommendation to a medical cannabis patient cardholder or medical cannabis guardian cardholder:

(A) using telehealth services, for the qualified medical provider who originally recommended a medical cannabis treatment during a face-to-face visit with the patient; or

(B) during a face-to-face visit with the patient, for a qualified medical provider who did not originally recommend the medical cannabis treatment during a face-to-face visit; and

(iv) submit an initial application, renewal application, or application payment on behalf of an individual applying for any of the following:

(A) a medical cannabis patient card;

(B) a medical cannabis guardian card; or

(C) a medical cannabis caregiver card;

(d) allows a medical cannabis pharmacy medical provider or medical cannabis pharmacy agent, in accordance with Subsection 4-41a-1101(10)(a), to:

(i) access the electronic verification system to review the history within the system of a patient with whom the provider or agent is interacting, limited to read-only access for medical cannabis pharmacy agents unless the medical cannabis pharmacy's pharmacist in charge authorizes add and edit access;

(ii) record a patient's recommendation from a limited medical provider, including any directions of use, dosing guidelines, or caregiver indications from the limited medical provider;

(iii) record a limited medical provider's renewal of the provider's previous recommendation; and

(iv) submit an initial application, renewal application, or application payment on behalf of an individual applying for any of the following:

(A) a medical cannabis patient card;

(B) a medical cannabis guardian card; or

(C) a medical cannabis caregiver card;

(e) connects with:

(i) an inventory control system that a medical cannabis pharmacy uses to track in real time and archive purchases of any cannabis in a medicinal dosage form, cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form, or a medical cannabis device, including:

(A) the time and date of each purchase;

(B) the quantity and type of cannabis, cannabis product, or medical cannabis device purchased;

(C) any cannabis production establishment, any medical cannabis pharmacy, or any medical cannabis courier associated with the cannabis, cannabis product, or medical cannabis device; and

(D) the personally identifiable information of the medical cannabis cardholder who made the purchase; and

(ii) any commercially available inventory control system that a cannabis production establishment utilizes in accordance with Section 4-41a-103 to use data that the Department of Agriculture and Food requires by rule, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, from the inventory tracking system that a licensee uses to track and confirm compliance;

(f) provides access to:

(i) the department to the extent necessary to carry out the department's functions and responsibilities under this part;

(ii) the Department of Agriculture and Food to the extent necessary to carry out the functions and responsibilities of the Department of Agriculture and Food under Title 4, Chapter 41a, Cannabis Production Establishments and Pharmacies; and

(iii) the Division of Professional Licensing to the extent necessary to carry out the functions and responsibilities related to the participation of the following in the recommendation and dispensing of medical cannabis:

(A) a podiatrist licensed under Title 58, Chapter 5a, Podiatric Physician Licensing Act;

(B) a pharmacist licensed under Title 58, Chapter 17b, Pharmacy Practice Act;

(C) an advanced practice registered nurse licensed under Title 58, Chapter 31b, Nurse Practice Act;

(D) a physician licensed under Title 58, Chapter 67, Utah Medical Practice Act, or Title 58, Chapter 68, Utah Osteopathic Medical Practice Act; or

(E) a physician assistant licensed under Title 58, Chapter 70a, Utah Physician Assistant Act;

(g) provides access to and interaction with the state central patient portal;

(h) communicates dispensing information from a record that a medical cannabis pharmacy submits to the state electronic verification system under Subsection 4-41a-1102(3)(a)(ii) to the controlled substance database;

(i) provides access to state or local law enforcement only to verify the validity of an individual's medical cannabis card for the administration of criminal justice and through a database used by law enforcement; and

(j) creates a record each time a person accesses the system that identifies the person who accesses the system and the individual whose records the person accesses.

(3) (a) An employee of a qualified medical provider may access the electronic verification system for a purpose described in Subsection (2)(c) on behalf of the qualified medical provider if:

(i) the qualified medical provider has designated the employee as an individual authorized to access the electronic verification system on behalf of the qualified medical provider;

(ii) the qualified medical provider provides written notice to the department of the employee's identity and the designation described in Subsection (3)(a)(i); and

(iii) the department grants to the employee access to the electronic verification system.

(b) An employee of a business that employs a qualified medical provider may access the electronic verification system for a purpose described in Subsection (2)(c) on behalf of the qualified medical provider if:

(i) the qualified medical provider has designated the employee as an individual authorized to access the electronic verification system on behalf of the qualified medical provider;

(ii) the qualified medical provider and the employing business jointly provide written notice to the department of the employee's identity and the designation described in Subsection (3)(b)(i); and

(iii) the department grants to the employee access to the electronic verification system.

(c) Every two years, an employee described in Subsections (3)(a) and (3)(b) shall complete at least one hour of education regarding health information privacy laws that is offered by the department or an accredited or approved education provider that the department recognizes before the department may grant the employee access to the electronic verification system.

(4) (a) As used in this Subsection (4), "prescribing provider" means:

(i) a podiatrist licensed under Title 58, Chapter 5a, Podiatric Physician Licensing Act;

(ii) an advanced practice registered nurse licensed under Title 58, Chapter 31b, Nurse Practice Act;

(iii) a physician licensed under Title 58, Chapter 67, Utah Medical Practice Act, or Title 58, Chapter 68, Utah Osteopathic Medical Practice Act; or

(iv) a physician assistant licensed under Title 58, Chapter 70a, Utah Physician Assistant Act.

(b) A prescribing provider may access information in the electronic verification system regarding a patient the prescribing provider treats.

(5) The department may release limited data that the system collects for the purpose of:

(a) conducting medical and other department approved research;

(b) providing the report required by Section 26B-4-222; and

(c) other official department purposes.

(6) The department shall make rules, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, to establish:

(a) the limitations on access to the data in the state electronic verification system as described in this section; and

(b) standards and procedures to ensure accurate identification of an individual requesting information or receiving information in this section.

(7) Any person who negligently or recklessly releases any information in the state electronic verification system in violation of this section is guilty of a class C misdemeanor.

(8) Any person who obtains or attempts to obtain information from the state electronic verification system by misrepresentation or fraud is guilty of a third degree felony.

(9) (a) Except as provided in Subsections (9)(c) and (9)(e), a person may not knowingly and intentionally use, release, publish, or otherwise make available to any other person information obtained from the state electronic verification system for any purpose other than a purpose specified in this section.

(b) Each separate violation of this Subsection (9) is:

(i) a third degree felony; and

(ii) subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $5,000.

(c) A law enforcement officer who uses the database used by law enforcement to access information in the electronic verification system for a reason that is not the administration of criminal justice is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

(d) The department shall determine a civil violation of this Subsection (9) in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 4, Administrative Procedures Act.

(e) Civil penalties assessed under this Subsection (9) shall be deposited into the General Fund.

(f) This Subsection (9) does not prohibit a person who obtains information from the state electronic verification system under Subsection (2)(a), (c), or (f) from:

(i) including the information in the person's medical chart or file for access by a person authorized to review the medical chart or file;

(ii) providing the information to a person in accordance with the requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996; or

(iii) discussing or sharing that information about the patient with the patient.

Section 20. Section 26B-4-204 is amended to read:

26B-4-204. Qualified medical provider registration -- Continuing education -- Treatment recommendation -- Limited medical provider.

(1) (a) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), an individual may not recommend a medical cannabis treatment unless the department registers the individual as a qualified medical provider in accordance with this section.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(a)(i), a qualified medical provider who is podiatrist licensed under Title 58, Chapter 5a, Podiatric Physician Licensing Act, may not recommend a medical cannabis treatment except within the course and scope of a practice of podiatry, as that term is defined in Section 58-5a-102.

(b) An individual who meets the recommending qualifications may recommend a medical cannabis treatment as a limited medical provider without registering under Subsection (1)(a) if:

(i) the individual recommends the use of medical cannabis to the patient through an order described in Subsection (1)(c) after:

(A) a face-to-face visit for an initial recommendation or the renewal of a recommendation for a patient for whom the limited medical provider did not make the patient's original recommendation; or

(B) a visit using telehealth services for a renewal of a recommendation for a patient for whom the limited medical provider made the patient's original recommendation; and

(ii) the individual's recommendation or renewal would not cause the total number of the individual's patients who have a valid medical cannabis patient card or provisional patient card resulting from the individual's recommendation to exceed 15.

(c) The individual described in Subsection (1)(b) shall communicate the individual's recommendation through an order for the medical cannabis pharmacy to record the individual's recommendation or renewal in the state electronic verification system under the individual's recommendation that:

(i) (A) the individual or the individual's employee sends electronically to a medical cannabis pharmacy; or

(B) the individual gives to the patient in writing for the patient to deliver to a medical cannabis pharmacy; and

(ii) may include:

(A) directions of use or dosing guidelines; and

(B) an indication of a need for a caregiver in accordance with Subsection [~~26B-4-213(3)(e)~~]26B-4-213(3)(b).

(d) If the limited medical provider gives the patient a written recommendation to deliver to a medical cannabis pharmacy under Subsection (1)(c)(i)(B), the limited medical provider shall ensure that the document includes all of the information that is included on a prescription the provider would issue for a controlled substance, including:

(i) the date of issuance;

(ii) the provider's name, address and contact information, controlled substance license information, and signature; and

(iii) the patient's name, address and contact information, age, and diagnosed qualifying condition.

(e) In considering making a recommendation as a limited medical provider, an individual may consult information that the department makes available on the department's website for recommending providers.

(2) (a) The department shall, within 15 days after the day on which the department receives an application from an individual, register and issue a qualified medical provider registration card to the individual if the individual:

(i) provides to the department the individual's name and address;

(ii) provides to the department an acknowledgment that the individual has completed four hours of continuing education related to medical cannabis;

(iii) provides to the department evidence that the individual meets the recommending qualifications;

(iv) for an applicant on or after November 1, 2021, provides to the department the information described in Subsection (10)(a); and

(v) pays the department a fee in an amount that:

(A) the department sets, in accordance with Section 63J-1-504; and

(B) does not exceed $300 for an initial registration.

(b) The department may not register an individual as a qualified medical provider if the individual is:

(i) a pharmacy medical provider; or

(ii) an owner, officer, director, board member, employee, or agent of a cannabis production establishment, a medical cannabis pharmacy, or a medical cannabis courier.

(3) (a) An individual shall complete the continuing education related to medical cannabis in the following amounts:

(i) for an individual as a condition precedent to registration, four hours; and

(ii) for a qualified medical provider as a condition precedent to renewal, four hours every two years.

(b) The department may, in consultation with the Division of Professional Licensing, develop continuing education related to medical cannabis.

(c) The continuing education described in this Subsection (3) may discuss:

(i) the provisions of this part;

(ii) general information about medical cannabis under federal and state law;

(iii) the latest scientific research on the endocannabinoid system and medical cannabis, including risks and benefits;

(iv) recommendations for medical cannabis as it relates to the continuing care of a patient in pain management, risk management, potential addiction, or palliative care; and

(v) best practices for recommending the form and dosage of medical cannabis based on the qualifying condition underlying a medical cannabis recommendation.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b), a qualified medical provider may not recommend a medical cannabis treatment to more than 1.5% of the total amount of medical cannabis patient cardholders.

(b) If a qualified medical provider receives payment from an insurance plan for services provided under this chapter, then the patient whose insurance plan was billed does not count toward the 1.5% patient cap described in Subsection (4)(a).

(5) A recommending medical provider may recommend medical cannabis to an individual under this part only in the course of a provider-patient relationship after the recommending medical provider has completed and documented in the patient's medical record a thorough assessment of the patient's condition and medical history based on the appropriate standard of care for the patient's condition.

(6) (a) Except as provided in Subsections (6)(b) and (c), a person may not advertise that the person or the person's employee recommends a medical cannabis treatment.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (6)(a) and Section 4-41a-109, a qualified medical provider, medical clinic, or medical office that employs a qualified medical provider may advertise only the following:

(i) a green cross;

(ii) the provider's or clinic's name and logo;

(iii) a qualifying condition that the individual treats;

(iv) that the qualified medical provider, medical clinic, or medical office evaluates patients for medical cannabis recommendations;

(v) a scientific study regarding medical cannabis use; or

(vi) contact information.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (6)(a) and Section 4-41a-109, qualified medical provider, medical clinic, or medical office that employs a qualified medical provider may engage in targeted marketing, as determined by the department through rule, for advertising medical cannabis recommendation services.

(7) (a) A qualified medical provider registration card expires two years after the day on which the department issues the card.

(b) The department shall renew a qualified medical provider's registration card if the provider:

(i) applies for renewal;

(ii) is eligible for a qualified medical provider registration card under this section, including maintaining an unrestricted license under the recommending qualifications;

(iii) certifies to the department in a renewal application that the information in Subsection (2)(a) is accurate or updates the information;

(iv) submits a report detailing the completion of the continuing education requirement described in Subsection (3); and

(v) pays the department a fee in an amount that:

(A) the department sets, in accordance with Section 63J-1-504; and

(B) does not exceed $50 for a registration renewal.

(8) The department may revoke the registration of a qualified medical provider who fails to maintain compliance with the requirements of this section.

(9) A recommending medical provider may not:

(a) receive any compensation or benefit for the qualified medical provider's medical cannabis treatment recommendation from:

(i) a cannabis production establishment or an owner, officer, director, board member, employee, or agent of a cannabis production establishment;

(ii) a medical cannabis pharmacy or an owner, officer, director, board member, employee, or agent of a medical cannabis pharmacy; or

(iii) a recommending medical provider or pharmacy medical provider; or

(b) provide a medical cannabis recommendation at a medical clinic or medical office that is violating the advertising limitations described in Subsection (6).

(10) (a) Each quarter, a qualified medical provider shall report to the department, in a manner designated by the department:

(i) if applicable, that the qualified medical provider or the entity that employs the qualified medical provider represents online or on printed material that the qualified medical provider is a qualified medical provider or offers medical cannabis recommendations to patients; and

(ii) (A) for cash payment without insurance, the fee amount that the qualified medical provider or the entity that employs the qualified medical provider charges a patient for a medical cannabis recommendation as an actual cash rate; and

(B) whether the qualified medical provider or the entity that employs the qualified medical provider bills insurance.

(b) The department shall:

(i) ensure that the following information related to qualified medical providers and entities described in Subsection (10)(a)(i) is available on the department's website or on the health care price transparency tool under Subsection (10)(b)(ii):

(A) the name of the qualified medical provider and, if applicable, the name of the entity that employs the qualified medical provider;

(B) the address of the qualified medical provider's office or, if applicable, the entity that employs the qualified medical provider; and

(C) the fee amount described in Subsection (10)(a)(ii)(A); and

(ii) share data collected under this Subsection (10) with the state auditor for use in the health care price transparency tool described in Section 67-3-11.

Section 21. Section 26B-4-213 is amended to read:

26B-4-213. Medical cannabis patient card -- Medical cannabis guardian card -- Conditional medical cannabis card -- Application -- Fees -- Studies.

(1) (a) Subject to Section 26B-4-246, within 15 days after the day on which an individual who satisfies the eligibility criteria in this section or Section 26B-4-214 submits an application in accordance with this section or Section 26B-4-214, the department shall:

(i) issue a medical cannabis patient card to an individual described in Subsection (2)(a);

(ii) issue a medical cannabis guardian card to an individual described in Subsection (2)(b);

(iii) issue a provisional patient card to a minor described in Subsection (2)(c); and

(iv) issue a medical cannabis caregiver card to an individual described in Subsection 26B-4-214(4).

(b) (i) Upon the entry of a recommending medical provider's medical cannabis recommendation for a patient in the state electronic verification system, either by the provider or the provider's employee or by a medical cannabis pharmacy medical provider or medical cannabis pharmacy in accordance with Subsection 4-41a-1101(10)(a), the department shall issue to the patient an electronic conditional medical cannabis card, in accordance with this Subsection (1)(b).

(ii) A conditional medical cannabis card is valid for the lesser of:

(A) 60 days; or

(B) the day on which the department completes the department's review and issues a medical cannabis card under Subsection (1)(a), denies the patient's medical cannabis card application, or revokes the conditional medical cannabis card under Subsection (8).

(iii) The department may issue a conditional medical cannabis card to an individual applying for a medical cannabis patient card for which approval of the Compassionate Use Board is not required.

(iv) An individual described in Subsection (1)(b)(iii) has the rights, restrictions, and obligations under law applicable to a holder of the medical cannabis card for which the individual applies and for which the department issues the conditional medical cannabis card.

(2) (a) An individual is eligible for a medical cannabis patient card if:

(i) (A) the individual is at least 21 years old; or

(B) the individual is 18, 19, or 20 years old, the individual petitions the Compassionate Use Board under Section 26B-1-421, and the Compassionate Use Board recommends department approval of the petition;

(ii) the individual is a Utah resident;

(iii) the individual's recommending medical provider recommends treatment with medical cannabis in accordance with Subsection (4);

(iv) the individual signs an acknowledgment stating that the individual received the information described in Subsection (9); and

(v) the individual pays to the department a fee in an amount that, subject to Subsection 26B-1-310(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504.

(b) (i) An individual is eligible for a medical cannabis guardian card if the individual:

(A) is at least 18 years old;

(B) is a Utah resident;

(C) is the parent or legal guardian of a minor for whom the minor's recommending medical provider recommends a medical cannabis treatment, the individual petitions the Compassionate Use Board under Section 26B-1-421, and the Compassionate Use Board recommends department approval of the petition;

(D) the individual signs an acknowledgment stating that the individual received the information described in Subsection (9); and

(E) pays to the department a fee in an amount that, subject to Subsection 26B-1-310(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504, plus the cost of the criminal background check described in Section 26B-4-215.

(ii) The department shall notify the Department of Public Safety of each individual that the department registers for a medical cannabis guardian card.

(c) (i) A minor is eligible for a provisional patient card if:

(A) the minor has a qualifying condition;

(B) the minor's recommending medical provider recommends a medical cannabis treatment to address the minor's qualifying condition;

(C) one of the minor's parents or legal guardians petitions the Compassionate Use Board under Section 26B-1-421, and the Compassionate Use Board recommends department approval of the petition; and

(D) the minor's parent or legal guardian is eligible for a medical cannabis guardian card under Subsection (2)(b) or designates a caregiver under Subsection (2)(d) who is eligible for a medical cannabis caregiver card under Section 26B-4-214.

(ii) The department shall automatically issue a provisional patient card to the minor described in Subsection (2)(c)(i) at the same time the department issues a medical cannabis guardian card to the minor's parent or legal guardian.

(d) If the parent or legal guardian of a minor described in Subsections (2)(c)(i)(A) through (C) does not qualify for a medical cannabis guardian card under Subsection (2)(b), the parent or legal guardian may designate up to two caregivers in accordance with Subsection 26B-4-214(1)(c) to ensure that the minor has adequate and safe access to the recommended medical cannabis treatment.

(3) (a) An individual who is eligible for a medical cannabis card described in Subsection (2)(a) or (b) shall submit an application for a medical cannabis card to the department:

(i) through an electronic application connected to the state electronic verification system;

(ii) with the recommending medical provider; and

(iii) with information including:

(A) the applicant's name, gender, age, and address;

(B) the number of the applicant's government issued photo identification;

(C) for a medical cannabis guardian card, the name, gender, and age of the minor receiving a medical cannabis treatment under the cardholder's medical cannabis guardian card; and

(D) for a provisional patient card, the name of the minor's parent or legal guardian who holds the associated medical cannabis guardian card.

[~~(b) The department shall ensure that a medical cannabis card the department issues under this section contains the information described in Subsection (3)(a)(iii).~~]

~~(c)~~ (i) If a recommending medical provider determines that, because of age, illness, or disability, a medical cannabis patient cardholder requires assistance in administering the medical cannabis treatment that the recommending medical provider recommends, the recommending medical provider may indicate the cardholder's need in the state electronic verification system, either directly or, for a limited medical provider, through the order described in Subsections 26B-4-204(1)(c) and (d).

(ii) If a recommending medical provider makes the indication described in Subsection ~~(3)(c)(i)~~(b)(i):

(A) the department shall add a label to the relevant medical cannabis patient card indicating the cardholder's need for assistance;

(B) any adult who is 18 years old or older and who is physically present with the cardholder at the time the cardholder needs to use the recommended medical cannabis treatment may handle the medical cannabis treatment and any associated medical cannabis device as needed to assist the cardholder in administering the recommended medical cannabis treatment; and

(C) an individual of any age who is physically present with the cardholder in the event of an emergency medical condition, as that term is defined in Section 31A-1-301, may handle the medical cannabis treatment and any associated medical cannabis device as needed to assist the cardholder in administering the recommended medical cannabis treatment.

(iii) A non-cardholding individual acting under Subsection ~~(3)(c)(ii)(B)~~(b)(ii)(B) or (C) may not:

(A) ingest or inhale medical cannabis;

(B) possess, transport, or handle medical cannabis or a medical cannabis device outside of the immediate area where the cardholder is present or with an intent other than to provide assistance to the cardholder; or

(C) possess, transport, or handle medical cannabis or a medical cannabis device when the cardholder is not in the process of being dosed with medical cannabis.

(4) To recommend a medical cannabis treatment to a patient or to renew a recommendation, a recommending medical provider shall:

(a) visit with the patient face-to-face for an initial recommendation unless the patient:

(i) prefers a virtual visit; and

(ii) (A) is on hospice or has a terminal illness according to the patient's medical provider; or

(B) is a resident of an assisted living facility, as defined in Section 26B-2-201, or a nursing care facility, as defined in Section 26B-2-201;

(b) before recommending or renewing a recommendation for medical cannabis in a medicinal dosage form or a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form:

(i) verify the patient's and, for a minor patient, the minor patient's parent or legal guardian's government issued photo identification described in Subsection (3)(a);

(ii) review any record related to the patient and, for a minor patient, the patient's parent or legal guardian in:

(A) for a qualified medical provider, the state electronic verification system; and

(B) the controlled substance database created in Section 58-37f-201; and

(iii) consider the recommendation in light of the patient's qualifying condition, history of substance use or opioid use disorder, and history of medical cannabis and controlled substance use during a visit with the patient; and

(c) state in the recommending medical provider's recommendation that the patient:

(i) suffers from a qualifying condition, including the type of qualifying condition; and

(ii) may benefit from treatment with cannabis in a medicinal dosage form or a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form.

(5) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(b) or (c), a medical cannabis card that the department issues under this section is valid for the lesser of:

(i) an amount of time that the recommending medical provider determines; or

(ii) one year from the day the card is issued.

(b) (i) A medical cannabis card that the department issues in relation to a terminal illness described in Section 26B-4-203 expires after one year.

(ii) The recommending medical provider may revoke a recommendation that the provider made in relation to a terminal illness described in Section 26B-4-203 if the medical cannabis cardholder no longer has the terminal illness.

(c) A medical cannabis card that the department issues in relation to acute pain as described in Section 26B-4-203 expires 30 days after the day on which the department first issues a conditional or full medical cannabis card.

(6) (a) A medical cannabis patient card or a medical cannabis guardian card is renewable if:

(i) at the time of renewal, the cardholder meets the requirements of Subsection (2)(a) or (b); or

(ii) the cardholder received the medical cannabis card through the recommendation of the Compassionate Use Board under Section 26B-1-421.

(b) The recommending medical provider who made the underlying recommendation for the card of a cardholder described in Subsection (6)(a) may renew the cardholder's card through phone or video conference with the cardholder, at the recommending medical provider's discretion.

(c) Before having access to a renewed card, a cardholder under Subsection (2)(a) or (b) shall pay to the department a renewal fee in an amount that:

(i) subject to Subsection 26B-1-310(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504; and

(ii) may not exceed the cost of the relatively lower administrative burden of renewal in comparison to the original application process.

(d) If a minor meets the requirements of Subsection (2)(c), the minor's provisional patient card renews automatically at the time the minor's parent or legal guardian renews the parent or legal guardian's associated medical cannabis guardian card.

(7) (a) A cardholder under this section shall carry the cardholder's valid medical cannabis card with the patient's name.

(b) (i) A medical cannabis patient cardholder or a provisional patient cardholder may purchase, in accordance with this part and the recommendation underlying the card, cannabis in a medicinal dosage form, a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form, or a medical cannabis device.

(ii) A cardholder under this section may possess or transport, in accordance with this part and the recommendation underlying the card, cannabis in a medicinal dosage form, a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form, or a medical cannabis device.

(iii) To address the qualifying condition underlying the medical cannabis treatment recommendation:

(A) a medical cannabis patient cardholder or a provisional patient cardholder may use medical cannabis or a medical cannabis device; and

(B) a medical cannabis guardian cardholder may assist the associated provisional patient cardholder with the use of medical cannabis or a medical cannabis device.

(8) (a) The department may revoke a medical cannabis card that the department issues under this section if:

(i) the recommending medical provider withdraws the medical provider's recommendation for medical cannabis; or

(ii) the cardholder:

(A) violates this part; or

(B) is convicted under state or federal law of, after March 17, 2021, a drug distribution offense.

(b) The department may not refuse to issue a medical cannabis card to a patient solely based on a prior revocation under Subsection (8)(a)(i).

(9) The department shall establish by rule, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, a process to provide information regarding the following to an individual receiving a medical cannabis card:

(a) risks associated with medical cannabis treatment;

(b) the fact that a condition's listing as a qualifying condition does not suggest that medical cannabis treatment is an effective treatment or cure for that condition, as described in Subsection 26B-4-203(1); and

(c) other relevant warnings and safety information that the department determines.

(10) The department may establish procedures by rule, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, to implement the application and issuance provisions of this section.

(11) (a) The department shall establish by rule, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, a process to allow an individual from another state to register with the department in order to purchase medical cannabis or a medical cannabis device from a medical cannabis pharmacy while the individual is visiting the state.

(b) The department may only provide the registration process described in Subsection (11)(a):

(i) to a nonresident patient; and

(ii) for no more than two visitation periods per calendar year of up to 21 calendar days per visitation period.

(12) (a) A person may submit to the department a request to conduct a research study using medical cannabis cardholder data that the state electronic verification system contains.

(b) The department shall review a request described in Subsection (12)(a) to determine whether an institutional review board, as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201, could approve the research study.

(c) At the time an individual applies for a medical cannabis card, the department shall notify the individual:

(i) of how the individual's information will be used as a cardholder;

(ii) that by applying for a medical cannabis card, unless the individual withdraws consent under Subsection (12)(d), the individual consents to the use of the individual's information for external research; and

(iii) that the individual may withdraw consent for the use of the individual's information for external research at any time, including at the time of application.

(d) An applicant may, through the medical cannabis card application, and a medical cannabis cardholder may, through the state central patient portal, withdraw the applicant's or cardholder's consent to participate in external research at any time.

(e) The department may release, for the purposes of a study described in this Subsection (12), information about a cardholder under this section who consents to participate under Subsection (12)(c).

(f) If an individual withdraws consent under Subsection (12)(d), the withdrawal of consent:

(i) applies to external research that is initiated after the withdrawal of consent; and

(ii) does not apply to research that was initiated before the withdrawal of consent.

(g) The department may establish standards for a medical research study's validity, by rule made in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

(13) The department shall record the issuance or revocation of a medical cannabis card under this section in the controlled substance database.

Section 22. Section 26B-4-219 is amended to read:

26B-4-219. Pharmacy medical providers -- Registration -- Continuing education.

(1) (a) A medical cannabis pharmacy:

(i) shall employ a pharmacist who is licensed under Title 58, Chapter 17b, Pharmacy Practice Act, as a pharmacy medical provider;

(ii) may employ a physician who has the authority to write a prescription and is licensed under Title 58, Chapter 67, Utah Medical Practice Act, or Title 58, Chapter 68, Utah Osteopathic Medical Practice Act, as a pharmacy medical provider;

(iii) shall ensure that a pharmacy medical provider described in Subsection (1)(a)(i) works onsite during all business hours; and

(iv) shall designate one pharmacy medical provider described in Subsection (1)(a)(i) as the pharmacist-in-charge to oversee the operation of and generally supervise the medical cannabis pharmacy.

(b) The pharmacist-in-charge shall determine which cannabis and cannabis products the medical cannabis pharmacy maintains in the medical cannabis pharmacy's inventory.

(c) An individual may not serve as a pharmacy medical provider unless the department registers the individual as a pharmacy medical provider in accordance with Subsection (2).

(2) (a) The department shall, within 15 days after the day on which the department receives an application from a medical cannabis pharmacy on behalf of a prospective pharmacy medical provider, register and issue a pharmacy medical provider registration card to the prospective pharmacy medical provider if the medical cannabis pharmacy:

(i) provides to the department:

(A) the prospective pharmacy medical provider's name and address;

(B) the name and location of the licensed medical cannabis pharmacy where the prospective pharmacy medical provider seeks to act as a pharmacy medical provider;

(C) [~~a report detailing the completion of the continuing education requirement described in Subsection (3);~~]an acknowledgment that the individual has completed four hours of continuing education related to medical cannabis; and

(D) evidence that the prospective pharmacy medical provider is a pharmacist who is licensed under Title 58, Chapter 17b, Pharmacy Practice Act, or a physician who has the authority to write a prescription and is licensed under Title 58, Chapter 67, Utah Medical Practice Act, or Title 58, Chapter 68, Utah Osteopathic Medical Practice Act; and

(ii) pays a fee to the department in an amount that, subject to Subsection 26B-1-310(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504.

(b) The department may not register a recommending medical provider as a pharmacy medical provider.

(3) (a) A pharmacy medical provider shall complete the continuing education described in this Subsection (3) in the following amounts:

(i) as a condition precedent to registration, four hours; and

(ii) as a condition precedent to renewal of the registration, four hours every two years.

[~~(b) In accordance with Subsection (3)(a), the pharmacy medical provider shall:~~]

[~~(i) complete continuing education:~~]

[~~(A) regarding the topics described in Subsection (3)(d); and~~]

[~~(B) offered by the department under Subsection (3)(c) or an accredited or approved continuing education provider that the department recognizes as offering continuing education appropriate for the medical cannabis pharmacy practice; and~~]

[~~(ii) make a continuing education report to the department in accordance with a process that the department establishes by rule, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, and in collaboration with the Division of Professional Licensing and:~~]

[~~(A) for a pharmacy medical provider who is licensed under Title 58, Chapter 17b, Pharmacy Practice Act, the Board of Pharmacy; or~~]

[~~(B) for a pharmacy medical provider licensed under Title 58, Chapter 67, Utah Medical Practice Act, or Title 58, Chapter 68, Utah Osteopathic Medical Practice Act, the Medical Licensing Board.~~]

~~(c)~~ The department may, in consultation with the Division of Professional Licensing, develop the continuing education described in this Subsection (3).

~~(d)~~ The continuing education described in this Subsection (3) may discuss:

(i) the provisions of this part;

(ii) general information about medical cannabis under federal and state law;

(iii) the latest scientific research on the endocannabinoid system and medical cannabis, including risks and benefits;

(iv) recommendations for medical cannabis as it relates to the continuing care of a patient in pain management, risk management, potential addiction, and palliative care; or

(v) best practices for recommending the form and dosage of medical cannabis based on the qualifying condition underlying a medical cannabis recommendation.

(4) (a) A pharmacy medical provider registration card expires two years after the day on which the department issues or renews the card.

(b) A pharmacy medical provider may renew the provider's registration card if the provider:

(i) is eligible for a pharmacy medical provider registration card under this section;

(ii) certifies to the department in a renewal application that the information in Subsection (2)(a) is accurate or updates the information;

(iii) submits a report detailing the completion of the continuing education requirement described in Subsection (3); and

(iv) pays to the department a renewal fee in an amount that:

(A) subject to Subsection 26B-1-310(5), the department sets in accordance with Section 63J-1-504; and

(B) may not exceed the cost of the relatively lower administrative burden of renewal in comparison to the original application process.

(5) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(b), a person may not advertise that the person or another person dispenses medical cannabis.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (5)(a) and Section 4-41a-109, a registered pharmacy medical provider may advertise the following:

(i) a green cross;

(ii) that the person is registered as a pharmacy medical provider and dispenses medical cannabis; or

(iii) a scientific study regarding medical cannabis use.

(6) (a) The department may revoke a pharmacy medical provider's registration for a violation of this chapter.

(b) The department may inspect patient records held by a medical cannabis pharmacy to ensure a pharmacy medical provider is practicing in accordance with this chapter and applicable rules.

Section 23. Section 26B-4-222 is amended to read:

26B-4-222. Report.

(1) By the November interim meeting each year, the department shall report to the Health and Human Services Interim Committee on:

(a) the number of applications and renewal applications filed for medical cannabis cards;

(b) the number of qualifying patients and designated caregivers;

(c) the nature of the debilitating medical conditions of the qualifying patients;

(d) the age and county of residence of cardholders;

(e) the number of medical cannabis cards revoked;

(f) the number of practitioners providing recommendations for qualifying patients; and

[~~(g) the number of license applications and renewal license applications received;~~]

[~~(h) the number of licenses the department has issued in each county;~~]

[~~(i) the number of licenses the department has revoked;~~]

[~~(j) the quantity of medical cannabis shipments that the state central patient portal facilitates;~~]

[~~(k) the number of overall purchases of medical cannabis and medical cannabis products from each medical cannabis pharmacy;~~]

~~(l)~~ the expenses [~~incurred~~]and revenues [~~generated from the medical cannabis program; and~~]of the Qualified Patient Enterprise Fund created in Section 26B-1-310.

[~~(m) an analysis of product availability in medical cannabis pharmacies in consultation with the Department of Agriculture and Food.~~]

(2) The report shall include information provided by the Center for Medical Cannabis Research described in Section 53B-17-1402.

(3) The department may not include personally identifying information in the report described in this section.

(4) The department shall report to the working group described in Section 36-12-8.2 as requested by the working group.

Section 24. Section 26B-4-243 is amended to read:

26B-4-243. Guidance for treatment with medical cannabis.

The department, in consultation with the Center for Medical Cannabis Research created in Section 53B-17-1402, shall:

(1) develop evidence-based guidance for treatment with medical cannabis based on the latest medical research that shall include:

(a) for each qualifying condition, a summary of the latest medical research regarding the treatment of the qualifying condition with medical cannabis;

(b) risks, contraindications, side effects, and adverse reactions that are associated with medical cannabis use; and

(c) potential drug interactions between medical cannabis and medications that have been approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration; [~~and~~]

(2) educate recommending medical providers, pharmacy medical providers, medical cannabis cardholders, and the public regarding:

(a) the evidence-based guidance for treatment with medical cannabis described in Subsection (1)(a);

(b) relevant warnings and safety information related to medical cannabis use; and

(c) other topics related to medical cannabis use as determined by the department[~~.~~]; and

(3) develop patient product information inserts for medical cannabis products:

(a) in consultation with the cannabis processing facility that created the product; and

(b) that do not contain proprietary information about the product.

(8) (a) "Personal information" means personally identifiable financial information:

(i) provided by a consumer to another person;

(ii) resulting from any transaction with the consumer or any service performed for the consumer; or

(iii) otherwise obtained by another person.

(b) "Personal information" does not include:

(i) publicly available information, as that term is defined [~~by the regulations prescribed under 15 U.S.C. Sec. 6804~~]in Section 13-61-101; or

(ii) any list, description, or other grouping of consumers, and publicly available information [~~pertaining to the consumers~~]relating to a consumer, that is derived without using any nonpublic personal information.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (8)(b), "personal information" includes any list, description, or other grouping of consumers, and publicly available information [~~pertaining to the consumers~~]relating to a consumer, that is derived using any nonpublic personal information other than publicly available information.

(9) (a) "Proper identification" [~~has the same meaning as~~]means the same as that term is defined in 15 U.S.C. Sec. 1681h(a)(1)[~~.~~];

(b) [~~and~~]"Proper identification" includes:

~~(a)~~ the consumer's full name, including first, last, and middle names and any suffix;

~~(b)~~ any name the consumer previously used;

~~(c)~~ the consumer's current and recent full addresses, including street address, any apartment number, city, state, and ZIP code;

~~(d)~~ the consumer's Social Security number; and

~~(e)~~ the consumer's date of birth.

(10) "Protected consumer" means an individual who, at the time a request for a security freeze is made, is:

(a) [~~less than~~]under16 years [~~of age~~]old;

(b) an incapacitated person; or

(c) a protected person.

(11) "Protected person" means the same as that term is defined in Section 75-5b-102.

(12) "Record" means a compilation of information that:

(a) identifies a protected consumer;

(b) is created by a consumer reporting agency solely for the purpose of complying with this section; and

(c) may not be created or used to consider the protected consumer's credit worthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living.

(13) "Representative" means a person [~~who~~]that provides to a consumer reporting agency sufficient proof of authority to act on behalf of a protected consumer.

(14) (a) "Sufficient proof of authority" means documentation that shows that a person has authority to act on behalf of a protected consumer.

(b) "Sufficient proof of authority" includes:

(i) a court order;

(ii) a lawfully executed power of attorney; or

(iii) a written, notarized statement signed by the person that expressly describes the person's authority to act on behalf of the protected consumer.

(15) (a) "Sufficient proof of identification" means information or documentation that identifies a protected consumer or a representative.

(b) "Sufficient proof of identification" includes:

(i) a Social Security number or a copy of a Social Security card issued by the United States Social Security Administration;

TALENT READY UTAH PROGRAM AMENDMENTS

Chief Sponsor: Val L. Peterson
Senate Sponsor: Ann Millner

LONG TITLE

General Description:

This bill clarifies the allowed membership of an advisory council and types of talent initiatives.

Highlighted Provisions:

This bill:

► clarifies the allowed membership of an advisory council and types of talent initiatives.

Money Appropriated in this Bill:

None

Other Special Clauses:

None

Utah Code Sections Affected:

AMENDS:

53B-34-110, as enacted by Laws of Utah 2024, Chapter 378

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 53B-34-110 is amended to read:

53B-34-110. Talent advisory councils.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Advisory council" means an advisory council the talent board creates under Subsection (10).

(b) "Institution of higher education" means the same as the term is defined in Section 53B-1-102.

(c) "Talent initiative" means an initiative the board creates under Subsection (2).

(2) (a) Subject to legislative appropriations and in accordance with the proposal process and other provisions of this section, the board shall develop and oversee one or more talent initiatives that include providing funding for expanded programs at an institution of higher education related to the talent initiative.

(b) The board shall ensure that a talent initiative the board creates:

(i) uses a name for the talent initiative that reflects the area the initiative is targeting;

(ii) contains an outline of the disciplines, industries, degrees, certifications, credentials, and types of skills the talent initiative will target; and

(iii) uses a corresponding advisory council created in Subsection (10).

(3) In creating a talent initiative, the board shall facilitate collaborations between an institution of higher education and participating employers that:

(a) create expanded, multidisciplinary programs or stackable credential programs offered at a technical college, undergraduate, or graduate level of study; and

(b) prepare students to be workforce participants in jobs requiring skills related to a talent initiative.

(4) (a) An institution of higher education seeking to partner with one or more participating employers to create a program related to a talent initiative shall submit a proposal to the talent board through a process the talent board creates.

(b) An institution of higher education shall submit a proposal that contains:

(i) a description of the proposed program, including:

(A) implementation timelines for the program;

(B) a demonstration of how the program will be responsive to the talent needs related to the talent initiative;

(C) an outline of relevant industry involvement that includes at least one participating employer that partners with the institution of higher education; and

(D) an explanation of how the program addresses an unmet regional workforce need related to a talent initiative;

(ii) an estimate of:

(A) projected student enrollment and completion rates for a program;

(B) the academic credit or credentials that a program will provide; and

(C) occupations for which a graduate will qualify;

(iii) evidence that each participating employer is committed to participating and contributing to the program by providing any combination of:

(A) instruction;

(B) curriculum review;

(C) feedback regarding effectiveness of program graduates as employees;

(D) work-based learning opportunities; or

(E) mentoring;

(iv) a description of any resources a participating employer will provide within the program; and

(v) the amount of funding requested for the program, including:

(A) the justification for the funding; and

(B) the cost per student served as estimated under Subsection (4)(b)(ii).

(5) In reviewing a proposal, the talent board shall provide a proposal to the relevant advisory council described in Subsections (10) and (11).

(6) The relevant advisory council shall:

(a) review and prioritize each proposal the advisory council receives; and

(b) recommend to the talent board whether the proposal should be funded and the funding amount based on:

(i) the quality and completeness of the elements of the proposal described in Subsection (4)(b);

(ii) to what extent the proposed program:

(A) would expand the capacity to meet state or regional workforce needs related to the talent initiative;

(B) would integrate industry-relevant competencies with disciplinary expertise;

(C) would incorporate internships or significant project experiences, including team-based experiences;

(D) identifies how industry professionals would participate in elements described in Subsection (4)(b)(iii); and

(E) would be cost effective; and

(iii) other relevant criteria as the relevant advisory council and the talent board determines.

(7) The board shall review the recommendations of an advisory council and may provide funding for a program related to a talent initiative using the criteria described in Subsection (6)(b).

(8) In a form that the board approves, each institution of higher education that receives funding shall annually provide written information to the board regarding the activities, successes, and challenges related to administering the program related to the talent initiative, including:

(a) specific entities that received funding under this section;

(b) the amount of funding provided to each entity;

(c) the number of participating students in each program;

(d) the number of graduates of the program;

(e) the number of graduates of the program employed in jobs requiring skills related to the talent initiative; and

(f) progress and achievements relevant to the implementation timeline submitted under Subsection (4)(b)(i)(A).

(9) On or before October 1 of each year, the board shall provide an annual written report containing the information described in Subsection (8) to the:

(a) Education Interim Committee; and

(b) Higher Education Appropriations Subcommittee.

(10) The talent board shall create a talent advisory council for each talent initiative created under Subsection (2) to make recommendations to the board regarding the administration of a talent initiative including:

(a) a deep technology initiative;

(b) a life sciences workforce initiative;

(c) engineering and computer technology; and

~~(c)~~ health professions initiatives including a nursing initiative.

(11) An advisory council shall consist of the following members:

(a) a minimum of four members who have extensive experience in the talent initiative's subject matter from the private sector whom the chair of the talent board appoints and the board approves;

(b) a representative of the board described in Section 53B-1-402 whom the chair of the board appoints;

(c) a representative of the Governor's Office of Economic Opportunity whom the executive director of the Governor's Office of Economic Opportunity appoints;

(d) a representative from Talent Ready Utah;

(e) one member of the Senate whom the president of the Senate appoints;

(f) one member of the House of Representatives whom the speaker of the House of Representatives appoints; and

(g) any other specialized industry experts whom a majority of the advisory council may invite to participate as needed as nonvoting members.

(12) Talent Ready Utah shall provide staff support for an advisory council.

(13) (a) Two advisory council members appointed under Subsection (11)(a) shall serve an initial term of two years.

(b) Except as described in Subsection (13)(a), all other advisory council members shall serve an initial term of four years.

(c) Successor advisory council members upon appointment or reappointment shall each serve a term of four years.

(d) When a vacancy occurs in the membership for any reason, the initial appointing authority shall appoint a replacement for the unexpired term.

(e) An advisory council member may not serve more than two consecutive terms.

(14) A vote of a majority of the advisory council members constitutes an action of the advisory council.

(15) The duties of the advisory council include reviewing, prioritizing, and making recommendations to the board regarding proposals for funding under the talent initiative created in accordance with Subsection (2) for which the council was created.

(16) An advisory council member may not receive compensation or benefits for the member's service, but an advisory council member who is not a legislator may receive per diem and travel expenses in accordance with:

(a) Sections 63A-3-106 and 63A-3-107; and

(b) rules made by the Division of Finance pursuant to Sections 63A-3-106 and 63A-3-107.

(17) The board may discontinue a talent initiative and the related talent advisory council by majority vote.

Section 2. Effective date.

This bill takes effect on May 7, 2025.

Section 2. Section 26B-2-117 is amended to read:

26B-2-117. Licensing residential treatment programs and recovery residences -- Notification of local government.

(1) (a) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the office shall make rules that establish categories of residential treatment and recovery residence licenses based on differences in the types of residential treatment programs and recovery residences.

(b) The categories referred to in Subsection (1)(a) may be based on differences in:

(i) services offered;

(ii) types of clients served;

(iii) risks posed to the community; or

(iv) other factors that make regulatory differences advisable.

(2) Subject to the requirements of federal and state law, and pursuant to the authority granted by Section 26B-2-104, the office shall establish and enforce rules that:

(a) (i) relate generally to all categories of residential treatment program and recovery residence licenses; and

~~(b)~~ relate to specific categories of residential treatment program and recovery residence licenses on the basis of the regulatory needs, as determined by the office, of residential treatment programs and recovery residences within those specific categories[~~.~~];

(b) preclude each qualified residential treatment program and each qualified recovery residence from refusing to accept a client based solely on the client's use of medication assisted treatment consistent with the recommendation of a licensed prescriber or provider;

(c) require each qualified residential treatment program and each qualified recovery residence to allow a client to receive medication assisted treatment as recommended by a licensed prescriber or provider; and

(d) require that each Medicaid provider contract with a qualified residential treatment program or a qualified recovery residence includes a provision obligating the provider to comply with rules enacted pursuant to Subsections (2)(b) and (c), subject to the sanctions provided pursuant to Subsection 26B-3-108(6).

(3) (a) Beginning July 1, 2014, the office shall charge an annual licensing fee, set by the office in accordance with the procedures described in Section 63J-1-504, to a recovery residence in an amount that will pay for the cost of the licensing and inspection requirements described in this section and in Section 26B-2-104.

(b) The office shall deposit the licensing fees described in this section in the General Fund as a dedicated credit to be used solely to pay for the cost of the licensing and inspection requirements described in this section and in Section 26B-2-104.

(4) Before submitting an application for a license to operate a residential treatment program, the applicant shall serve notice of its intent to operate a residential treatment program on the governing body of:

(a) the city in which the residential treatment program will be located; or

(b) if the residential treatment program will be located in the unincorporated area of a county, the county in which the residential treatment program will be located.

(5) The notice described in Subsection (4) shall include the following information relating to the residential treatment program:

(a) an accurate description of the residential treatment program;

(b) the location where the residential treatment program will be operated;

(c) the services that will be provided by the residential treatment program;

(d) the type of clients that the residential treatment program will serve;

(e) the category of license for which the residential treatment program is applying to the office;

(f) the name, telephone number, and address of a person that may be contacted to make inquiries about the residential treatment program; and

(g) any other information that the office may require by rule.

(6) When submitting an application for a license to operate a residential treatment program, the applicant shall include with the application:

(a) a copy of the notice described in Subsection (4); and

(b) proof that the applicant served the notice described in Subsection (4) on the governing body described in Subsection (4).

(3) (a) Institutions within the state system of higher education may grant resident student status to any student who has come to Utah and established residency for the purpose of attending an institution of higher education, and who, prior to registration as a resident student:

(i) has maintained continuous Utah residency status for one full year;

(ii) has signed a written declaration that the student has relinquished residency in any other state; and

(iii) has submitted objective evidence that the student has taken overt steps to establish permanent residency in Utah and that the student does not maintain a residence elsewhere.

(b) Evidence to satisfy the requirements under Subsection (3)(a)(iii) includes:

(i) a Utah high school transcript issued in the past year confirming attendance at a Utah high school in the past 12 months;

(ii) a Utah voter registration dated a reasonable period prior to application;

(iii) a Utah driver license or identification card with an original date of issue or a renewal date several months prior to application;

(iv) a Utah vehicle registration dated a reasonable period prior to application;

(v) evidence of employment in Utah for a reasonable period prior to application;

(vi) proof of payment of Utah resident income taxes for the previous year;

(vii) a rental agreement showing the student's name and Utah address for at least 12 months prior to application; and

(viii) utility bills showing the student's name and Utah address for at least 12 months prior to application.

(c) A student who is claimed as a dependent on the tax returns of a person who is not a resident of Utah is not eligible to apply for resident student status.

(4) Except as provided in Subsection (8), an institution within the state system of higher education may establish stricter criteria for determining resident student status.

(5) If an institution does not have a minimum credit-hour requirement, that institution shall honor the decision of another institution within the state system of higher education to grant a student resident student status, unless:

(a) the student obtained resident student status under false pretenses; or

(b) the facts existing at the time of the granting of resident student status have changed.

(6) Within the limits established in Chapter 8, Tuition Waiver and Scholarships, each institution within the state system of higher education may, regardless of its policy on obtaining resident student status, waive nonresident tuition either in whole or in part, but not other fees.

(7) In addition to the waivers of nonresident tuition under Subsection (6), each institution may, as athletic scholarships, grant full waiver of fees and nonresident tuition, up to the maximum number allowed by the appropriate athletic conference as recommended by the president of each institution.

(8) Notwithstanding Subsection (3), an institution within the state system of higher education shall grant resident student status for tuition purposes to:

(a) a military service member, if the military service member provides:

(i) the military service member's current United States military identification card;

(ii) a leave and earning statement of the military service member;

(iii) the military service member's military orders;

(iv) documentation of enlistment by the military service member; or

(v) a statement from the military service member's current commander stating that the military service member is currently serving in the military; [~~and~~]

[~~(ii) (A) a statement from the military service member's current commander, or equivalent, stating that the military service member is assigned in Utah; or~~]

[~~(B) evidence that the military service member is domiciled in Utah, as described in Subsection (9)(a);~~]

(b) a military service member's immediate family member, if the military service member's immediate family member provides:

(i) [~~(A) the military service member's current United States military identification card~~]any of the documentation described in Subsection (8)(a); or

~~(B)~~ the immediate family member's current United States military identification card; [~~and~~]

[~~(ii) (A) a statement from the military service member's current commander, or equivalent, stating that the military service member is assigned in Utah;~~]

[~~(B) evidence that the military service member is domiciled in Utah, as described in Subsection (9)(a); or~~]

[~~(C) evidence that the immediate family member completed at least one year of grades 9 through 12 at a local education agency, as defined in Section 53E-1-102, within the state while the military service member was assigned in Utah, regardless of the service member's current assignment.~~]

(c) a military veteran, regardless of whether the military veteran served in Utah, if the military veteran provides [~~:~~]

[~~(i)~~] evidence of an honorable or general discharge;

[~~(ii) a signed written declaration that the military veteran has relinquished residency in any other state and does not maintain a residence elsewhere;~~]

[~~(iii) objective evidence that the military veteran has demonstrated an intent to establish residency in Utah, which may include any one of the following:~~]

[~~(E) a rental agreement showing the military veteran's name and Utah address; or~~]

[~~(F) utility bills showing the military veteran's name and Utah address;~~]

(d) a military veteran's immediate family member, regardless of whether the military veteran served in Utah, if the military veteran's immediate family member provides [~~:~~]

[~~(i)~~] evidence of the military veteran's honorable or general discharge;

[~~(ii) a signed written declaration that the military veteran's immediate family member has relinquished residency in any other state and does not maintain a residence elsewhere; and~~]

[~~(iii) objective evidence that the military veteran's immediate family member has demonstrated an intent to establish residency in Utah, which may include one of the items described in Subsection (8)(c)(iii);~~]

(e) a foreign service member as defined in the Foreign Service Family Act of 2021 who is either:

(i) domiciled in Utah, recognizing the individual may not be physically present in the state due to an assignment; or

(ii) assigned to a duty station in Utah if the foreign service member provides:

(A) evidence of the foreign service member's status;

(B) a statement from the foreign service member's current commander, or equivalent, stating that the foreign service member is assigned in Utah; or

(C) evidence that the foreign service member is domiciled in Utah;

(f) a foreign service member's immediate family member if the foreign service member is either:

(i) domiciled in Utah, recognizing the individual may not be physically present in the state due to an assignment; or

(ii) assigned to a duty station in Utah if the foreign service member provides:

(A) evidence of the foreign service member's status;

(B) a statement from the foreign service member's current commander, or equivalent, stating that the foreign service member is assigned in Utah; or

(C) evidence that the foreign service member is domiciled in Utah;

(g) an eligible person who provides:

(i) evidence of eligibility under Title 38 U.S.C., Veterans' Benefits; and

(ii) a signed written declaration that the eligible person will use the Veteran Benefits under Title 38 U.S.C.; [~~and~~]

[~~(iii) objective evidence that the eligible person has demonstrated an intent to establish residency in Utah, which may include one of the items described in Subsection (8)(c)(iii);~~]

(h) an alien who provides:

(i) evidence that the alien is a special immigrant visa recipient;

(ii) evidence that the alien has been granted refugee status, humanitarian parole, temporary protected status, or asylum; or

(iii) evidence that the alien has submitted in good faith an application for refugee status, humanitarian parole, temporary protected status, or asylum under United States immigration law; or

(i) an inmate:

(i) during the time the inmate is enrolled in the course; and

(ii) for one year after the day on which the inmate is released from a correctional facility as defined in Section 64-13-1.

(9) [~~(a) The evidence described in Subsection (8)(a)(ii)(B) or (8)(b)(ii)(B) includes:~~]

[~~(i) a current Utah voter registration card;~~]

[~~(ii) a valid Utah driver license or identification card;~~]

[~~(iii) a current Utah vehicle registration;~~]

[~~(iv) a copy of a Utah income tax return, in the military service member's or military service member's spouse's name, filed as a resident in accordance with Section 59-10-502; or~~]

[~~(v) proof that the military service member or military service member's spouse owns a home in Utah, including a property tax notice for property owned in Utah.~~]

~~(b)~~ Aliens who are present in the United States on visitor, student, or other visas not listed in Subsection (8)(h) or ~~(9)(c)~~(b), which authorize only temporary presence in this country, do not have the capacity to intend to reside in Utah for an indefinite period and therefore are classified as nonresidents.

~~(c)~~ Aliens who have been granted or have applied for permanent resident status in the United States are classified for purposes of resident student status according to the same criteria applicable to citizens.

(10) Any American Indian who is enrolled on the tribal rolls of a tribe whose reservation or trust lands lie partly or wholly within Utah or whose border is at any point contiguous with the border of Utah, and any American Indian who is a member of a federally recognized or known Utah tribe and who has graduated from a high school in Utah, is entitled to resident student status.

(11) A Job Corps student is entitled to resident student status if the student:

(a) is admitted as a full-time, part-time, or summer school student in a program of study leading to a degree or certificate; and

(b) submits verification that the student is a current Job Corps student.

(12) A person is entitled to resident student status and may immediately apply for resident student status if the person:

(a) marries a Utah resident eligible to be a resident student under this section; and

(b) establishes his or her domicile in Utah as demonstrated by objective evidence as provided in Subsection (3).

(13) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(c), a dependent student who has at least one parent who has been domiciled in Utah for at least 12 months prior to the student's application is entitled to resident student status.

(14) (a) A person who has established domicile in Utah for full-time permanent employment may rebut the presumption of a nonresident classification by providing substantial evidence that the reason for the individual's move to Utah was, in good faith, based on an employer requested transfer to Utah, recruitment by a Utah employer, or a comparable work-related move for full-time permanent employment in Utah.

(b) All relevant evidence concerning the motivation for the move shall be considered, including:

(i) the person's employment and educational history;

(ii) the dates when Utah employment was first considered, offered, and accepted;

(iii) when the person moved to Utah;

(iv) the dates when the person applied for admission, was admitted, and was enrolled as a postsecondary student;

(v) whether the person applied for admission to an institution of higher education sooner than four months from the date of moving to Utah;

(vi) evidence that the person is an independent person who is:

(A) at least 24 years old; or

(B) not claimed as a dependent on someone else's tax returns; and

(vii) any other factors related to abandonment of a former domicile and establishment of a new domicile in Utah for purposes other than to attend an institution of higher education.

(15) (a) A person who is in residence in Utah to participate in a United States Olympic athlete training program, at a facility in Utah, approved by the governing body for the athlete's Olympic sport, shall be entitled to resident status for tuition purposes.

(b) Upon the termination of the athlete's participation in the training program, the athlete shall be subject to the same residency standards applicable to other persons under this section.

(c) Time spent domiciled in Utah during the Olympic athlete training program in Utah counts for Utah residency for tuition purposes upon termination of the athlete's participation in a Utah Olympic athlete training program.

(16) (a) A person who has established domicile in Utah for reasons related to divorce, the death of a spouse, or long-term health care responsibilities for an immediate family member, including the person's spouse, parent, sibling, or child, may rebut the presumption of a nonresident classification by providing substantial evidence that the reason for the individual's move to Utah was, in good faith, based on the long-term health care responsibilities.

(b) All relevant evidence concerning the motivation for the move shall be considered, including:

(i) the person's employment and educational history;

(ii) the dates when the long-term health care responsibilities in Utah were first considered, offered, and accepted;

(iii) when the person moved to Utah;

(iv) the dates when the person applied for admission, was admitted, and was enrolled as a postsecondary student;

(v) whether the person applied for admission to an institution of higher education sooner than four months from the date of moving to Utah;

(vi) evidence that the person is an independent person who is:

(A) at least 24 years old; or

(B) not claimed as a dependent on someone else's tax returns; and

(vii) any other factors related to abandonment of a former domicile and establishment of a new domicile in Utah for purposes other than to attend an institution of higher education.

(17) A foreign service member or the foreign service member's immediate family member deemed eligible for resident student status under Subsection (8)(e) or (f) shall retain the eligibility for resident student status if the foreign service member or immediate family member maintains continuous enrollment even in the case of a change in domicile or duty station.

(18) The board, after consultation with the institutions, shall make rules not inconsistent with this section:

(a) concerning the definition of resident and nonresident students;

(b) establishing procedures for classifying and reclassifying students;

(c) establishing criteria for determining and judging claims of residency or domicile;

(d) establishing appeals procedures; and

(e) other matters related to this section.

(19) A student shall be exempt from paying the nonresident portion of total tuition if the student:

(a) is a foreign national legally admitted to the United States;

(b) attended high school in this state for three or more years; and

(c) graduated from a high school in this state or received the equivalent of a high school diploma in this state.

AMENDS:

26B-8-217, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2024, Chapter 240

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 26B-8-217 is amended to read:

26B-8-217. Records of medical examiner -- Confidentiality.

(1) For purposes of this section, "deidentify" means to remove personally identifying information about a decedent or the decedent's family and any other information that may be used to identify a decedent.

(2) The medical examiner shall maintain complete, original records for the medical examiner record, which shall:

(a) be properly indexed, giving the name, if known, or otherwise identifying every individual whose death is investigated;

(b) indicate the place where the body was found;

(c) indicate the date of death;

(d) indicate the cause and manner of death;

(e) indicate the occupation of the decedent, if available;

(f) include all other relevant information concerning the death; and

(g) include a full report and detailed findings of the autopsy or report of the investigation.

~~(2)~~ (a) Upon written request from an individual described in Subsections ~~(2)(a)(i)~~(a)(i) through (iv), the medical examiner shall provide a copy of the autopsy report, toxicology report, lab reports, investigative reports, documents generated by the medical examiner related to any report, and any other specifically requested portions of the medical examiner record, if any, to any of the following:

(i) a decedent's immediate relative;

(ii) a decedent's legal representative;

(iii) a physician or physician assistant who attended the decedent during the year before the decedent's death; or

(iv) a county attorney, a district attorney, a criminal defense attorney, or other law enforcement official with jurisdiction, as necessary for the performance of the attorney or official's professional duties.

(b) Subject to Subsection ~~(2)(c)~~(c), upon written request from the director or a designee of the director of an entity described in Subsections ~~(2)(b)(i)~~(b)(i) through (iv), the medical examiner may provide a copy of any medical examiner report or other portions of the medical examiner's record described in Subsection ~~(2)(a)~~(a), to any of the following entities as necessary for performance of the entity's official purposes:

(i) a local health department;

(ii) a local mental health authority;

(iii) a public health authority; or

(iv) another state or federal governmental agency.

(c) The medical examiner may provide a copy of a report or portion of the medical examiner's record described in Subsection ~~(2)(a)~~(a), if the report or portion of the medical examiner's record relates to an issue of public health or safety, as further defined by rule made by the department in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.

~~(3)~~ Reports provided under Subsection ~~(2)~~ may not include records that the medical examiner obtains from a third party in the course of investigating the decedent's death.

~~(4)~~ (a) The medical examiner may provide a medical examiner record to a researcher who:

~~(a)~~ has an advanced degree;

~~(b)~~ ~~(i)~~ is affiliated with an accredited college or university, a hospital, or another system of care, including an emergency medical response or a local health agency; or

~~(ii)~~ is part of a research firm contracted with an accredited college or university, a hospital, or another system of care;

~~(c)~~ requests a medical examiner record for a research project or a quality improvement initiative that will have a public health benefit, as determined by the department; and

~~(d)~~ provides to the medical examiner an approval from:

~~(i)~~ the researcher's sponsoring organization; and

~~(ii)~~ the Utah Department of Health and Human Services Institutional Review Board.

~~(5)~~ Records provided under Subsection ~~(4)~~(a) may not include a third party record, unless:

~~(a)~~ a court has ordered disclosure of the third party record; and

~~(b)~~ disclosure is conducted in compliance with state and federal law.

~~(6)~~ (i) A person who obtains a medical examiner record under Subsection ~~(4)~~(a) shall:

~~(a)~~ maintain the confidentiality of the medical examiner record [~~by removing personally identifying information about a decedent or the decedent's family and any other information that may be used to identify a decedent~~]and deidentify the medical examiner record before using the medical examiner record in research;

~~(b)~~ conduct any research within and under the supervision of the Office of the Medical Examiner, if the medical examiner record contains a third party record with personally identifiable information;

~~(c)~~ limit the use of a medical examiner record to the purpose for which the person requested the medical examiner record;

~~(d)~~ destroy a medical examiner record and the data abstracted from the medical examiner record at the conclusion of the research for which the person requested the medical examiner record;

~~(e)~~ reimburse the medical examiner, as provided in Section 26B-1-209, for any costs incurred by the medical examiner in providing a medical examiner record;

~~(f)~~ allow the medical examiner to review, before public release, a publication in which data from a medical examiner record is referenced or analyzed; and

~~(g)~~ provide the medical examiner access to the researcher's database containing data from a medical examiner record, until the day on which the researcher permanently destroys the medical examiner record and all data obtained from the medical examiner record.

(ii) A person who fails to comply with the requirements of Subsections (5)(c)(i)(A) through (D) is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

(6) (a) Except as provided in Subsections (6)(b) and (c), it is a class B misdemeanor for a person who receives a photograph or video of a decedent under Subsection (3) of this section to knowingly share, publish, or otherwise distribute or make available to another person a photograph or video of a decedent if the photograph or video:

(i) is part of the medical examiner's record; and

(ii) is not in the public domain at the time that the person shared, published, distributed, or otherwise made the photograph or video available.

(b) Subsection (6) does not apply to an employee or contractor of the Office of the Medical Examiner who, in the course of performing or assisting with the duties of the Office of the Medical Examiner, and in accordance with any applicable department rules, shares, publishes, distributes, or makes available:

(i) a photograph or video of a decedent for consultation with other professionals in determining cause and manner of the decedent's death; or

(ii) a deidentified photograph or video of a decedent for:

(A) training and services authorized under Section 26B-8-222;

(B) research;

(C) presentations and publication for academic or educational purposes; or

(D) other purposes provided by law.

(c) Subsection (6) does not apply to:

(i) a member, a contractor, or an employee of a law enforcement agency or prosecutorial agency who, in the course of performing or assisting with the duties of the agency, shares, publishes, distributes, or makes available a deidentified photograph or video of a decedent for the purposes of training;

(ii) an individual who shares or makes available a photograph or video of a decedent for the purposes of adjudicating a claim in an administrative or judicial proceeding; or

(iii) an individual who shares, publishes, distributes, or makes available a photograph or video of a decedent pursuant to lawful subpoena, court order, or the Government Records Access and Management Act.

(7) The department may make rules, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, and in consideration of applicable state and federal law, to establish permissible uses and disclosures of a medical examiner record or other record obtained under this section.

(8) Except as provided in this chapter or ordered by a court, the medical examiner may not disclose any part of a medical examiner record.

[~~(9) A person who obtains a medical examiner record under Subsection (4) is guilty of a class B misdemeanor, if the person fails to comply with the requirements of Subsections (6)(a) through (d).~~]

(I) are unaccompanied youth 24 years old or younger;

(iii) the number of individuals who exited homeless services since the last report by:

(A) type of homelessness;

(B) subpopulation; and

(C) exit destination; [~~and~~]

(iv) the progress, by project type, on each goal established in accordance with Subsection (3)[~~.~~]; and

(v) the data provided by the homeless services provider ombudsman as described in Section 35A-16-802.

(b) The reports described in this Subsection (1) shall contain aggregated, de-identified information.

(2) The office shall report the data described in Subsection (1):

(a) in the annual report required by Section 35A-16-203;

(b) on or before October 1 of each year, through an oral presentation to the Economic Development and Workforce Services Interim Committee; and

(c) on a data dashboard for the public with specific additional data points recommended by the board.

(3) The board and the local homeless councils shall jointly establish quarterly goals for each project type.

(4) The board and the local homeless councils shall jointly make annual progress reports identifying:

(a) the percentage of clients screened for social needs;

(b) the percentage of clients subsequently referred to community-based providers who can:

(i) address the client's needs;

(ii) follow-up on status of addressing the client's needs; and

(iii) report back to the referring entity;

(c) the number of youth receiving parent or guardian bereavement support services; and

(d) the number of clients with:

(i) a successful exit;

(ii) an unsuccessful exit;

(iii) a neutral exit; and

(iv) continued enrollment in the project.

Section 2. Section 35A-16-801 is enacted to read:

PART 8. Homeless Services Provider Ombudsman

35A-16-801. Homeless services provider ombudsman -- Definitions -- Creation -- Appointment -- Qualifications.

(1) As used in this part:

(a) "Client" means the same at that term is defined in Section 35A-16-102.

(b) "Complainant" means a person who initiates a complaint with the ombudsman.

(c) "Complaint" means a complaint regarding an act or omission by a service provider with respect to a particular client.

(d) "Office" means the Office of Homeless Services described in Chapter 16, Part 2, Office of Homeless Services.

(e) "Ombudsman" means the homeless services provider ombudsman appointed under this section.

(f) "Service provider" means the same as that term is defined in Section 35A-16-102.

(2) (a) There is created within the office the position of homeless services provider ombudsman to investigate complaints made against service providers by or on behalf of individuals experiencing homelessness.

(b) The executive director of the department shall:

(i) appoint an ombudsman who has:

(A) recognized executive and administrative capacity; and

(B) experience in human welfare, and in state laws and policies governing vulnerable populations; and

(ii) select the ombudsman solely with regard to qualifications and fitness to discharge the duties of the ombudsman.

(c) The ombudsman shall:

(i) serve at the pleasure of the executive director of the department; and

(ii) devote full-time to the duties described in this part.

Section 3. Section 35A-16-802 is enacted to read:

35A-16-802. Homeless services provider ombudsman -- Powers and duties -- Reporting requirements.

(1) The ombudsman shall:

(a) provide training and information to public agencies, private entities, individuals, service providers, and other interested parties across the state regarding:

(i) the role and duties of the ombudsman;

(ii) the rights and privileges of an individual experiencing homelessness;

(iii) services available in the state to an individual experiencing homelessness; and

(iv) how to submit a complaint; and

(b) develop a website to provide the information described in this Subsection (1) in a form that is easily accessible.

(2) The ombudsman may:

(a) decline to investigate a complaint or continue an investigation of a complaint;

(b) conduct an investigation on the ombudsman's own initiative;

(c) conduct further investigation upon the request of the complainant; or

(d) recommend that a complainant pursue other available remedies before pursuing a complaint with the ombudsman.

(3) (a) A service provider shall display an ombudsman program information poster containing the information described in Subsection

(1) in a location that is easily visible to all clients, volunteers, and staff members.

(b) The office is responsible for providing the posters, which shall include a phone number and a link to the website described in Subsection (1)(b).

(4) After the ombudsman receives a complaint, the ombudsman shall notify the complainant and the office:

(a) whether the ombudsman will investigate the complaint; and

(b) if the ombudsman decides not to investigate the complaint, the reason for the decision.

(5) (a) If the ombudsman decides to investigate a complaint, the ombudsman shall determine whether a service provider's act or omission with respect to a particular client:

(i) is contrary to state or federal law;

(ii) places a client's health or safety at risk;

(iii) is made without an adequate statement of reason; or

(iv) is based on irrelevant, immaterial, or erroneous grounds.

(b) If the ombudsman determines, after completing the investigation described in Subsection (5)(a), that a service provider's act or omission violates state or federal law, the ombudsman shall:

(i) prepare a written report of the findings and recommendations, as described in Subsection (6), if any, of each investigation;

(ii) provide a copy of the report to the claimant; and

(iii) provide a copy of the report and recommendations, if any, to the office and the appropriate county or district attorney or the attorney general.

(6) The ombudsman may make recommendations to the office to consider:

(a) policies or procedures that may need to be addressed, modified, or canceled; or

(b) any other recommendations necessary to carry out the purposes of this part.

(7) (a) On or before October 1 of each year, the ombudsman shall provide a written report to the office for inclusion in the office's annual report described in Section 35A-16-208.

(b) The written report shall include:

(i) the total number of complaints filed with the ombudsman;

(ii) the number of complaints the ombudsman investigated;

(iii) reoccurring themes among complaints, if any; and

(iv) any recommendations described in Subsection (6).

(8) (a) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the office shall make rules to implement this part.

(b) The rules described in Subsection (8)(a) shall include a maximum time within which the ombudsman is required to respond to and complete an investigation of a complaint under Subsections (4) and (5).

ENACTS:

72-1-218, Utah Code Annotated 1953
72-10-703, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 72-1-218 is enacted to read:

72-1-218. Advanced air mobility community outreach.

The department shall conduct a community outreach and public education campaign that:

(1) educates the public regarding advanced air mobility, including:

(a) the information and findings of relevant studies and reports that the department conducts;

(b) potential use cases;

(c) potential benefits as a form of transportation;

(d) state-driven advanced air mobility initiatives;

(e) potential impacts on the economy, including job creation and other new opportunities; and

(f) potential phasing for establishing a robust advanced air mobility system;

(2) provides and coordinates opportunities for the public to observe real world demonstrations;

(3) coordinates with local advanced air mobility industry leaders and other groups in the state that are promoting and planning for advanced air mobility; and

(4) provides information on how advanced air mobility could benefit and otherwise impact communities.

Section 2. Section 72-10-102 is amended to read:

72-10-102. Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Acrobatics" means the intentional maneuvers of an aircraft not necessary to air navigation.

(2) (a) "Advanced air mobility system" means a system that transports individuals and property using piloted and unpiloted aircraft, including electric aircraft and electric vertical takeoff and landing aircraft, in controlled or uncontrolled airspace.

(b) "Advanced air mobility system" includes each component of a system described in Subsection (2)(a), including:

(i) the aircraft, including payload;

(ii) communications equipment;

(iii) navigation equipment;

(iv) controllers;

(v) support equipment;

(vi) an authoritative supplemental data service provider;

(vii) flight information exchange; and

~~(vi)~~ remote and autonomous functions.

(3) "Aerial transit corridor" means an airspace volume defining a three-dimensional route segment with performance requirements to operate within or to cross where tactical air traffic control separation services are not provided.

(4) "Aeronautics" means transportation by aircraft, air instruction, the operation, repair, or maintenance of aircraft, and the design, operation, repair, or maintenance of airports, or other air navigation facilities.

(5) "Aeronautics instructor" means any individual engaged in giving or offering to give instruction in aeronautics, flying, or ground subjects, either with or without:

(a) compensation or other reward;

(b) advertising the occupation;

(c) calling [~~his~~]the instructor's facilities an air school, or any equivalent term; or

(d) employing or using other instructors.

(6) "Aircraft" means any contrivance now known or in the future invented, used, or designed for navigation of or flight in the air.

(7) "Air instruction" means the imparting of aeronautical information by any aviation instructor or in any air school or flying club.

(8) "Airport" means any area of land, water, or both, that:

(a) is used or is made available for landing and takeoff;

(b) provides facilities for the shelter, supply, and repair of aircraft, and handling of passengers and cargo;

(c) meets the minimum requirements established by the department as to size and design, surface, marking, equipment, and operation; and

(d) includes all areas shown as part of the airport in the current airport layout plan as approved by the Federal Aviation Administration.

(9) "Airport authority" means a political subdivision of the state, other than a county or municipality, that is authorized by statute to operate an airport.

(10) "Airport operator" means a municipality, county, or airport authority that owns or operates a commercial airport.

(11) (a) "Airport revenue" means:

(i) all fees, charges, rents, or other payments received by or accruing to an airport operator for any of the following reasons:

(A) revenue from air carriers, tenants, lessees, purchasers of airport properties, airport permittees making use of airport property and services, and other parties;

(B) revenue received from the activities of others or the transfer of rights to others relating to the airport, including revenue received:

(I) for the right to conduct an activity on the airport or to use or occupy airport property;

(II) for the sale, transfer, or disposition of airport real or personal property, or any interest in that property, including transfer through a condemnation proceeding;

(III) for the sale of, or the sale or lease of rights in, mineral, natural, or agricultural products or water owned by the airport operator to be taken from the airport; and

(IV) for the right to conduct an activity on, or for the use or disposition of, real or personal property or any interest in real or personal property owned or controlled by the airport operator and used for an airport-related purpose but not located on the airport; or

(C) revenue received from activities conducted by the airport operator whether on or off the airport, which is directly connected to the airport operator's ownership or operation of the airport; and

(ii) state and local taxes on aviation fuel.

(b) "Airport revenue" does not include amounts received by an airport operator as passenger facility fees pursuant to 49 U.S.C. Sec. 40117.

(12) "Air school" means any person engaged in giving, offering to give, or advertising, representing, or holding [~~himself~~]itself out as giving, with or without compensation or other reward, instruction in aeronautics, flying, or ground subjects, or in more than one of these subjects.

(13) "Airworthiness" means conformity with requirements prescribed by the Federal Aviation Administration regarding the structure or functioning of aircraft, engine, parts, or accessories.

(14) "Authoritative supplemental data service provider" means a third party provider of unmanned aircraft system traffic management services that is approved by the department and supplies specialized data to an unmanned aircraft system service supplier or to an unmanned aircraft system operator for a variety of uses.

~~(14)~~ "Civil aircraft" means any aircraft other than a public aircraft.

~~(15)~~ "Commercial aircraft" means aircraft used for commercial purposes.

~~(16)~~ "Commercial airport" means a landing area, landing strip, or airport that may be used for commercial operations.

~~(17)~~ "Commercial flight operator" means a person who conducts commercial operations.

~~(18)~~ "Commercial operations" means:

(a) any operations of an aircraft for compensation or hire or any services performed incidental to the operation of any aircraft for which a fee is charged or compensation is received, including the servicing, maintaining, and repairing of aircraft, the rental or charter of aircraft, the operation of flight or ground schools, the operation of aircraft for the application or distribution of chemicals or other substances, and the operation of aircraft for hunting and fishing; or

(b) the brokering or selling of any of these services; but

(c) does not include any operations of aircraft as common carriers certificated by the federal government or the services incidental to those operations.

~~(19)~~ "Correctional facility" means the same as that term is defined in Section 77-16b-102.

~~(20)~~ "Dealer" means any person who is actively engaged in the business of flying for demonstration purposes, or selling or exchanging aircraft, and who has an established place of business.

~~(21)~~ "Experimental aircraft" means:

(a) any aircraft designated by the Federal Aviation Administration or the military as experimental and used solely for the purpose of experiments, or tests regarding the structure or functioning of aircraft, engines, or their accessories; and

(b) any aircraft designated by the Federal Aviation Administration as:

(i) being custom or amateur built; and

(ii) used for recreational, educational, or display purposes.

~~(22)~~ "Flight" means any kind of locomotion by aircraft while in the air.

(24) "Flight information exchange" means a model or system that allows for the consistent exchange of flying data between an unmanned aircraft system traffic management system and an unmanned aircraft system operator or aircraft to facilitate the coordination of flights.

~~(23)~~ "Flying club" means five or more persons who for neither profit nor reward own, lease, or use one or more aircraft for the purpose of instruction, pleasure, or both.

~~(24)~~ "Glider" means an aircraft heavier than air, similar to an airplane, but without a power plant.

~~(25)~~ "Mechanic" means a person who constructs, repairs, adjusts, inspects, or overhauls aircraft, engines, or accessories.

~~(26)~~ "Navigable airspace" means the same as that term is defined in 49 U.S.C. Sec. 40102.

~~(27)~~ "Parachute jumper" means any person who has passed the required test for jumping with a parachute from an aircraft, and has passed an examination showing that [~~he~~]the jumper possesses the required physical and mental qualifications for the jumping.

~~(28)~~ "Parachute rigger" means any person who has passed the required test for packing, repairing, and maintaining parachutes.

~~(29)~~ "Passenger aircraft" means aircraft used for transporting persons, in addition to the pilot or crew, with or without their necessary personal belongings.

~~(30)~~ "Person" means any individual, corporation, limited liability company, or association of individuals.

~~(31)~~ "Pilot" means any person who operates the controls of an aircraft while in-flight.

~~(32)~~ "Primary glider" means any glider that has a gliding angle of less than 10 to one.

~~(33)~~ "Public aircraft" means an aircraft used exclusively in the service of any government or of any political subdivision, including the government of the United States, of the District of Columbia, and of any state, territory, or insular possession of the United States, but not including any government-owned aircraft engaged in carrying persons or goods for commercial purposes.

~~(34)~~ "Reckless flying" means the operation or piloting of any aircraft recklessly, or in a manner as to endanger the property, life, or body of any person, due regard being given to the prevailing weather conditions, field conditions, and to the territory being flown over.

~~(35)~~ "Registration number" means the number assigned by the Federal Aviation Administration to any aircraft, whether or not the number includes a letter or letters.

~~(36)~~ "Roadable aircraft" means an aircraft capable of taking off and landing from a suitable airfield and is also designed to be driven on a highway as a conveyance.

~~(37)~~ "Secondary glider" means any glider that has a gliding angle between 10 to one and 16 to one, inclusive.

~~(38)~~ "Soaring glider" means any glider that has a gliding angle of more than 16 to one.

(41) "Unmanned aircraft system service supplier" means a service supplier that:

(a) relays flight information between an unmanned aircraft system operator and a flight management system; and

(b) provides information that supports unmanned aircraft system operations and assists with strategic deconfliction by an unmanned aircraft system traffic management system.

~~(39)~~ "Unmanned aircraft" means an aircraft that is:

(a) capable of sustaining flight; and

(b) operated with no possible direct human intervention from on or within the aircraft.

~~(40)~~ "Unmanned aircraft system" means the entire system used to operate an unmanned aircraft, including:

(a) the unmanned aircraft, including payload;

(b) communications equipment;

(c) navigation equipment;

(d) controllers;

(e) support equipment; and

(f) autopilot functionality.

~~(41)~~ "Unmanned aircraft system traffic management" means a traffic management ecosystem for uncontrolled operations, including unmanned aircraft systems, that is separate from, but complementary to, the Federal Aviation Administration's air traffic management system.

~~(42)~~ "Vertiport" means an area of land, or a structure, used or intended to be used for electric, hydrogen, and hybrid vertical aircraft landings and takeoffs, including associated buildings and facilities.

Section 3. Section 72-10-109 is amended to read:

72-10-109. Certificate of registration of aircraft required -- Exceptions.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), a person may not operate, pilot, or navigate, or cause or authorize to be operated, piloted, or navigated within this state any civil aircraft operating in this state for 181 or more days within any consecutive 12-month period unless the aircraft has a current certificate of registration issued by the department.

(2) The state registration requirement under Subsection (1) does not apply to:

(a) aircraft licensed by a foreign country with which the United States has a reciprocal agreement covering the operations of the registered aircraft;

(b) a non-passenger-carrying flight solely for inspection or test purposes authorized by the Federal Aviation Administration to be made without the certificate of registration; or

(c) aircraft operating under 14 C.F.R. Part 121, with a maximum takeoff weight exceeding 35,000 pounds.

(3) Beginning on January 1, 2025, a person may not operate in this state an unmanned aircraft system or an advanced air mobility aircraft for commercial operation for which certification is required under [~~14 C.F.R. Part 107 or 135~~]federal rule unless the aircraft has a current certificate of registration issued by the department.

(4) The department shall, on or before December 31 of each calendar year, provide to the State Tax Commission a list of each aircraft for which a current certificate of registration is issued by the department under Subsection (1).

Section 4. Section 72-10-703 is enacted to read:

72-10-703. Advanced air mobility toolkit.

(1) As used in this section, "political subdivision" means the same as that term is defined in Section 72-10-401.

(2) On or before July 1, 2026, the department shall:

(a) develop a toolkit for a political subdivision to address advanced air mobility, including:

(i) model ordinances governing advanced air mobility;

(ii) best practices; and

(iii) available resources that can assist the political subdivision in developing and implementing advanced air mobility policy;

(b) regularly maintain and update the toolkit; and

(c) make the toolkit publicly available on the department's website.

(3) The department may not require a political subdivision to adopt or implement any portion of the advanced air mobility toolkit.

Section 5. Effective Date.

This bill takes effect on May 7, 2025.

Utah Code Sections Affected:

AMENDS:

53G-7-1206, as last amended by Laws of Utah 2024, Chapter 20

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 53G-7-1206 is amended to read:

53G-7-1206. School LAND Trust Program.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Charter trust land council" means a council established by a charter school governing board under Section 53G-7-1205.

(b) "Council" means a school community council or a charter trust land council.

(c) "LAND trust plan" means a school's plan to use School LAND Trust Program money to implement a component of the school's success plan.

(d) "School community council" means a council established at a district school in accordance with Section 53G-7-1202.

(e) "Teacher and student success plan" or "success plan" means the same as that term is defined in Section 53G-7-1301.

(2) This section creates the School LAND (Learning And Nurturing Development) Trust Program under the state board to:

(a) provide financial resources to public schools to enhance or improve student academic achievement and implement a component of a district school or charter school's teacher and student success plan; and

(b) involve parents of a school's students in decision making regarding the expenditure of School LAND Trust Program money allocated to the school.

(3) To receive an allocation under Section 53F-2-404:

(a) a district school shall have established a school community council in accordance with Section 53G-7-1202;

(b) a charter school shall have established a charter trust land council in accordance with Section 53G-7-1205; and

(c) the school's principal shall provide a signed, written assurance that the school is in compliance with Subsection (3)(a) or (b).

(4) (a) A council shall create a program to use the school's allocation distributed under Section 53F-2-404 to implement a component of the school's success plan, including:

(i) the school's identified most critical academic needs;

(ii) a recommended [~~course of~~]action plan to meet the identified academic needs;

(iii) a specific listing of any programs, practices, materials, or equipment that the school will need to implement [~~a component of the school's success plan~~]the action plan to have a direct impact on the instruction of students and result in measurable increased student performance; and

(iv) how [~~the school intends to spend the school's allocation of funds under this section~~]each proposed expenditure in the action plan will be used to implement a component of the action plan to enhance or improve academic excellence at the school.

(b) (i) A council shall create and vote to adopt a LAND trust plan in a meeting of the council at which a quorum is present.

(ii) If a majority of the quorum votes to adopt a LAND trust plan, the LAND trust plan is adopted.

(c) A council shall:

(i) post a LAND trust plan that is adopted in accordance with Subsection (4)(b) on the School LAND Trust Program reporting website; and

(ii) include with the LAND trust plan a report noting the number of council members who voted for or against the approval of the LAND trust plan and the number of council members who were absent for the vote.

(d) (i) The local school board of a district school shall approve or disapprove a LAND trust plan.

(ii) If a local school board disapproves a LAND trust plan:

(A) the local school board shall provide a written explanation of why the LAND trust plan was disapproved and request the school community council who submitted the LAND trust plan to revise the LAND trust plan; and

(B) the school community council shall submit a revised LAND trust plan in response to a local school board's request under Subsection (4)(d)(ii)(A).

(iii) Once a LAND trust plan has been approved by a local school board, a school community council may amend the LAND trust plan, subject to a majority vote of the school community council and local school board approval.

(e) A charter trust land council's LAND trust plan is subject to approval by the:

(i) charter school governing board; and

(ii) budget officer whom the charter school governing board appoints.

(5) (a) A district school or charter school shall:

(i) implement the program as approved;

(ii) provide ongoing support for the council's [~~program~~]plan and responsibilities; and

(iii) meet state board reporting requirements regarding financial and performance accountability of the program.

(b) (i) A district school or charter school shall prepare and post an annual report of the program on the School LAND Trust Program reporting website before the council submits a plan for the following year.

(ii) The report shall detail the use of program funds received by the school under this section and an assessment of the results obtained from the use of the funds.

(iii) A summary of the report shall be provided to parents of students who attend the school.

(6) An LEA shall record the LEA's expenditures of School LAND Trust Program funds through a financial reporting system that the board identifies to assist schools in developing the annual report described in Subsection (5)(b).

(7) The president or chair of a local school board or charter school governing board shall ensure that the members of the local school board or charter school governing board are provided with annual training on the requirements of this section.

(8) (a) The state board shall provide annual training opportunities to the entities described in Subsection (8)(b) on:

(i) the School LAND Trust Program; [~~and~~]

(ii) [~~(A)~~] the responsibilities and formation of:

(A) a school community council consistent with Section 53G-7-1202; or

(B) a charter trust land council [~~.~~]consistent with Section 53G-7-1205; and

(iii) as applicable, council responsibilities as described in Section 53G-7-1203.

(b) The state board shall provide the training to:

(i) a local school board or a charter school governing board;

(ii) a district business administrator or a charter business official;

~~(ii)~~ a school district or a charter school; and

~~(iii)~~ a school community council.

(9) The state board shall annually review [~~each~~]a school's compliance with applicable law, including rules adopted by the state board in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, by:

(a) reading each School LAND [~~trust~~]Trust Program plan submitted; [~~and~~]

(b) reviewing proposed expenditures to be made from School LAND Trust Program money[~~.~~]; and

(c) conducting an annual compliance review of an LEA using a sample of schools.

(10) The superintendent shall calculate and initiate the annual School LAND Trust distribution to schools through the state board's finance system to each LEA as outlined in Section 53F-2-404.

(11) The superintendent shall administer the School LAND Trust website to provide transparency and accountability to school communities and the public of School LAND Trust plans, reports, and expenditures of trust distributions.

~~(10)~~ The state board shall designate a staff member who administers the School LAND Trust Program [~~:~~]

[~~(a)~~] to serve as a member of the Land Trusts Protection and Advocacy Committee created under Section 53D-2-202[~~; and~~].

[~~(b) who may coordinate with the Land Trusts Protection and Advocacy Office director, appointed under Section 53D-2-203, to attend meetings or events within the School and Institutional Trust System, as defined in Section 53D-2-102, that relate to the School LAND Trust Program.~~]

(z) "Sexual orientation" means an individual's actual or perceived orientation as heterosexual, homosexual, or bisexual.

(aa) "Undue hardship" means an action that requires significant difficulty or expense when considered in relation to factors such as the size of the entity, the entity's financial resources, and the nature and structure of the entity's operation.

(bb) "Unincorporated entity" means an entity organized or doing business in the state that is not:

(i) an individual;

(ii) a corporation; or

(iii) publicly traded.

(cc) "Vocational school" means a school or institution conducting a course of instruction, training, or retraining to prepare individuals to follow an occupation or trade, or to pursue a manual, technical, industrial, business, commercial, office, personal services, or other nonprofessional occupations.

(2) (a) For purposes of this chapter, an unincorporated entity that is required to be licensed under Title 58, Chapter 55, Utah Construction Trades Licensing Act, is presumed to be the employer of each individual who, directly or indirectly, holds an ownership interest in the unincorporated entity.

(b) Pursuant to rules made by the commission in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, an unincorporated entity may rebut the presumption under Subsection (2)(a) for an individual by establishing by clear and convincing evidence that the individual:

(i) is an active manager of the unincorporated entity;

(ii) directly or indirectly holds at least an 8% ownership interest in the unincorporated entity; or

(iii) is not subject to supervision or control in the performance of work by:

(A) the unincorporated entity; or

(B) a person with whom the unincorporated entity contracts.

(c) As part of the rules made under Subsection (2)(b), the commission may define:

(i) "active manager";

(ii) "directly or indirectly holds at least an 8% ownership interest"; and

(iii) "subject to supervision or control in the performance of work."

(3) For purposes of determining whether two or more persons are considered joint employers under this chapter, an administrative ruling of a federal executive agency may not be considered a generally applicable law unless that administrative ruling is determined to be generally applicable by a court of law, or adopted by statute or rule.

(4) (a) For purposes of this chapter, a franchisor is not considered to be an employer of:

(i) a franchisee; or

(ii) a franchisee's employee.

(b) With respect to a specific claim for relief under this chapter made by a franchisee or a franchisee's employee, this Subsection (4) does not apply to a franchisor under a franchise that exercises a type or degree of control over the franchisee or the franchisee's employee not customarily exercised by a franchisor for the purpose of protecting the franchisor's trademarks and brand.

(5) Notwithstanding Title 78B, Chapter 3a, Venue for Civil Actions, a person shall bring an action under this chapter in the judicial district in which the asserted unfair employment practice occurs if the action is brought in the district court.

Section 2. Section 34A-5-114 is amended to read:

34A-5-114. Limitations on enforceability of nondisclosure and non-disparagement clauses -- Retaliation prohibited.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Confidentiality clause" means a nondisclosure clause or a non-disparagement clause.

(b) "Employee" means a current or a former employee.

(c) "Nondisclosure clause" means an agreement between an employee and employer that [~~:~~]

[~~(i)~~] prevents, or has the effect of preventing, an employee from disclosing or discussing:

~~(A)~~ sexual assault;

~~(B)~~ allegations of sexual assault;

~~(C)~~ sexual harassment; or

~~(D)~~ allegations of sexual harassment.

(d) "Non-disparagement clause" means an agreement between an employee and employer that prohibits, or has the effect of prohibiting, an employee from making a negative statement that is:

(i) about the employer; and

(ii) related to:

(A) a claim of sexual assault or sexual harassment;

(B) a sexual assault dispute; or

(C) a sexual harassment dispute.

(e) "Post-employment restrictive covenant" means the same as that term is defined in Section 34-51-102.

(f) "Proprietary information" means an employer's business plan or customer information.

(g) "Retaliate" means taking an adverse action against an employee because the employee made an allegation of sexual harassment or assault, including:

(i) discharge;

(ii) suspension;

(iii) demotion; or

(iv) discrimination in the terms, conditions, or privileges of employment.

(h) "Sexual assault" means:

(i) conduct that would constitute a violation of 18 U.S.C. Secs. 2241 through 2244; or

(ii) criminal conduct described in Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses.

(i) "Sexual assault dispute" means a dispute between an employer and the employer's employee relating to alleged sexual assault.

[~~(j) "Sexual harassment" means conduct that is a violation of:~~]

[~~(i) Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 2000e et seq.; or~~]

[~~(ii) Subsection 34A-5-106(1)(a)(i) prohibiting harassment on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, or gender.~~]

(j) "Sexual harassment" means harassment on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, or gender, as prohibited in:

(i) Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 2000e et seq.; or

(ii) Subsection 34A-5-106(1)(a)(i).

(k) "Sexual harassment dispute" means a dispute between an employer and the employer's employee relating to alleged sexual harassment.

(2) (a) A confidentiality clause regarding sexual misconduct, as a condition of employment, is against public policy and is void and unenforceable.

(b) After an employee makes an allegation of sexual harassment or sexual assault, an employer of any sized business, regardless of Subsection 34-5-102(1)(i)(D):

(i) may not retaliate against the employee because the employee made an allegation of sexual harassment or assault; or

(ii) may not retaliate based on an employee's refusal to enter into a confidentiality clause or an employment contract that, as a condition of employment, contains a confidentiality clause.

(c) An employee may, within three business days after the day on which the employee agrees to a settlement agreement that includes a confidentiality clause regarding sexual misconduct, withdraw from the settlement agreement.

(3) An employer who attempts to enforce a confidentiality clause in violation of this section:

(a) is liable for all costs, including reasonable attorney fees, resulting from legal action to enforce the confidentiality clause; and

(b) is not entitled to monetary damages resulting from a breach of a confidentiality clause.

(4) This section does not:

(a) prohibit an agreement between an employee who alleges sexual assault or sexual harassment and an employer from containing a nondisclosure clause, a non-disparagement clause, or any other clause prohibiting disclosure of:

(i) the amount of a monetary settlement; or

(ii) at the request of the employee, facts that could reasonably lead to the identification of the employee;

(b) prohibit an employer from requiring an employee to:

(i) sign a post-employment restrictive covenant; or

(ii) agree not to disclose an employer's non-public trade secrets, proprietary information, or confidential information that does not involve illegal acts;

(c) authorize an employee to:

(i) disclose data otherwise protected by law or legal privilege; or

(ii) knowingly make statements or disclosures that are false or made with reckless disregard of the truth;

(d) prohibit an employee from discussing sexual misconduct or allegations of sexual misconduct in a civil or criminal case when subpoenaed if the sexual misconduct or allegations of sexual misconduct are against the individual whom the employee alleged engaged in sexual misconduct;

(e) permit a disclosure that would violate state or federal law; or

(f) limit other grounds that may exist at law or in equity for the unenforceability of a confidentiality clause.

Section 3. Effective Date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 10-3-1103 is amended to read:
10-3-1103. Sickness, disability, and death benefits.

(1) As used in this section, "miscarriage" means the spontaneous or accidental loss of a fetus, regardless of the gestational age or the duration of the pregnancy.

(2) The governing body of each municipality may maintain as to all elective or appointive officers and employees, including heads of departments, a system for the payment of health, dental, hospital, medical, disability and death benefits to be financed and administered in a manner and payable upon the terms and conditions as the governing body of the municipality may by ordinance or resolution prescribe.

(3) The governing bodies of the municipalities may create and administer personnel benefit programs separately or jointly with other municipalities or other political subdivisions of the State of Utah or associations thereof.

(4) The governing body of each municipality shall, by ordinance or resolution, provide for at least three work days of paid bereavement leave for an employee:

(a) following the end of the employee's pregnancy by way of miscarriage or stillbirth; or

(b) following the end of another individual's pregnancy by way of a miscarriage or stillbirth, if:

(i) the employee is the individual's spouse or partner;

(ii) (A) the employee is the individual's former spouse or partner; and

(B) the employee would have been a biological parent of a child born as a result of the pregnancy;

(iii) the employee provides documentation to show that the individual intended for the employee to be an adoptive parent, as that term is defined in Section [~~78B-6-103~~]81-13-101, of a child born as a result of the pregnancy; or

(iv) under a valid gestational agreement in accordance with [~~Title 78B, Chapter 15, Part 8, Gestational Agreement~~]Title 81, Chapter 5, Part 8, Gestational Agreement, the employee would have been a parent of a child born as a result of the pregnancy.

Section 2. Section 17-33-5 is amended to read:
17-33-5. Office of personnel management -- Director -- Appointment and responsibilities -- Personnel rules.

(1) As used in this section, "miscarriage" means the spontaneous or accidental loss of a fetus, regardless of gestational age or the duration of the pregnancy.

(2) (a) (i) Each county executive shall:

(A) create an office of personnel management, administered by a director of personnel management; and

(B) ensure that the director is a person with proven experience in personnel management.

(ii) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), the position of director of personnel management shall be:

(A) a merit position; and

(B) filled as provided in Subsection (2)(a)(iii).

(iii) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), the career service council shall:

(A) advertise and recruit for the director position in the same manner as for merit positions;

(B) select three names from a register; and

(C) submit those names as recommendations to the county legislative body.

(iv) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), the county legislative body shall select a person to serve as director of the office of personnel management from the names submitted to it by the career service council.

(b) (i) Effective for appointments made after May 1, 2006, and as an alternative to the procedure under Subsections (2)(a)(ii), (iii), and (iv) and at the county executive's discretion, the county executive may appoint a director of personnel management with the advice and consent of the county legislative body.

(ii) The position of each director of personnel management appointed under this Subsection (2)(b) shall be a merit exempt position.

(iii) A director of personnel management appointed under this Subsection (2)(b) may be terminated by the county executive with the consent of the county legislative body.

(3) The director of personnel management shall:

(a) encourage and exercise leadership in the development of expertise in personnel administration within the several departments, offices, and agencies in the county service and make available the facilities of the office of personnel management to this end;

(b) advise the county legislative and executive bodies on the use of human resources;

(c) develop and implement programs for the improvement of employee effectiveness, such as training, safety, health, counseling, and welfare;

(d) investigate periodically the operation and effect of this law and of the policies made under it and report findings and recommendations to the county legislative body;

(e) establish and maintain records of all employees in the county service, setting forth as to each employee class, title, pay or status, and other relevant data;

(f) make an annual report to the county legislative body and county executive regarding the work of the department; and

(g) apply and carry out this law and the policies under it and perform any other lawful acts that are necessary to carry out the provisions of this law.

(4) (a) (i) The director shall recommend personnel rules for the county.

(ii) The county legislative body may:

(A) recommend personnel rules for the county; and

(B) approve, amend, or reject personnel rules before they are adopted.

(b) The rules shall provide for:

(i) recruiting efforts to be planned and carried out in a manner that assures open competition, with special emphasis to be placed on recruiting efforts to attract minorities, women, persons with a disability as defined by and covered under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. 12102, or other groups that are substantially underrepresented in the county work force to help assure they will be among the candidates from whom appointments are made;

(ii) the establishment of job related minimum requirements wherever practical, that all successful candidates shall be required to meet in order to be eligible for consideration for appointment or promotion;

(iii) selection procedures that include consideration of the relative merit of each applicant for employment, a job related method of determining the eligibility or ineligibility of each applicant, and a valid, reliable, and objective system of ranking eligible applicants according to their qualifications and merit;

(iv) certification procedures that insure equitable consideration of an appropriate number of the most qualified eligible applicants based on the ranking system;

(v) appointments to positions in the career service by selection from the most qualified eligible applicants certified on eligible lists established in accordance with Subsections (4)(b)(iii) and (iv);

(vi) noncompetitive appointments in the occasional instance where there is evidence that open or limited competition is not practical, such as for unskilled positions that have no minimum job requirements;

(vii) limitation of competitions at the discretion of the director for appropriate positions to facilitate employment of qualified applicants with a substantial physical or mental impairment, or other groups protected by Title VII of the Civil Rights Act;

(viii) permanent appointment for entry to the career service that shall be contingent upon satisfactory performance by the employee during a period of six months, with the probationary period extendable for a period not to exceed six months for good cause, but with the condition that the probationary employee may appeal directly to the council any undue prolongation of the period designed to thwart merit principles;

(ix) temporary, provisional, or other noncareer service appointments, which may not be used as a way of defeating the purpose of the career service and may not exceed 270 days;

(x) lists of eligible applicants normally to be used, if available, for filling temporary positions, and short term emergency appointments to be made without regard to the other provisions of law to provide for maintenance of essential services in an emergency situation where normal procedures are not practical, these emergency appointments not to exceed 270 days;

(xi) promotion and career ladder advancement of employees to higher level positions and assurance that all persons promoted are qualified for the position;

(xii) recognition of the equivalency of other merit processes by waiving, at the discretion of the director, the open competitive examination for placement in the career service positions of those who were originally selected through a competitive examination process in another governmental entity, the individual in those cases, to serve a probationary period;

(xiii) preparation, maintenance, and revision of a position classification plan for all positions in the career service, based upon similarity of duties performed and responsibilities assumed, so that the same qualifications may reasonably be required for, and the same schedule of pay may be equitably applied to, all positions in the same class, the compensation plan, in order to maintain a high quality public work force, to take into account the responsibility and difficulty of the work, the comparative pay and benefits needed to compete in the labor market and to stay in proper alignment with other similar governmental units, and other factors;

(xiv) keeping records of performance on all employees in the career service and requiring consideration of performance records in determining salary increases, any benefits for meritorious service, promotions, the order of layoffs and reinstatements, demotions, discharges, and transfers;

(xv) establishment of a plan governing layoffs resulting from lack of funds or work, abolition of positions, or material changes in duties or organization, and governing reemployment of persons so laid off, taking into account with regard to layoffs and reemployment the relative ability, seniority, and merit of each employee;

(xvi) establishment of a plan for resolving employee grievances and complaints with final and binding decisions;

(xvii) establishment of disciplinary measures such as suspension, demotion in rank or grade, or discharge, measures to provide for presentation of charges, hearing rights, and appeals for all permanent employees in the career service to the career service council;

(xviii) establishment of a procedure for employee development and improvement of poor performance;

(xix) establishment of hours of work, holidays, and attendance requirements in various classes of positions in the career service;

(xx) establishment and publicizing of fringe benefits such as insurance, retirement, and leave programs; and

(xxi) any other requirements not inconsistent with this law that are proper for its enforcement.

(5) Rules adopted pursuant to Subsection (4)(b)(xx) shall provide for at least three work days of paid bereavement leave for an employee:

(a) following the end of the employee's pregnancy by way of miscarriage or stillbirth; or

(b) following the end of another individual's pregnancy by way of a miscarriage or stillbirth, if:

(i) the employee is the individual's spouse or partner;

(ii) (A) the employee is the individual's former spouse or partner; and

(B) the employee would have been a biological parent of a child born as a result of the pregnancy;

(iii) the employee provides documentation to show that the individual intended for the employee to be an adoptive parent, as that term is defined in Section [~~78B-6-103~~]81-13-101, of a child born as a result of the pregnancy; or

(iv) under a valid gestational agreement in accordance with [~~Title 78B, Chapter 15, Part 8, Gestational Agreement~~]Title 81, Chapter 5, Part 8, Gestational Agreement, the employee would have been a parent of a child born as a result of the pregnancy.

Section 3. Section 26B-1-202 is amended to read:

26B-1-202. Department authority and duties.

The department may, subject to applicable restrictions in state law and in addition to all other authority and responsibility granted to the department by law:

(1) adopt rules, in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, and not inconsistent with law, as the department may consider necessary or desirable for providing health and social services to the people of this state;

(2) establish and manage client trust accounts in the department's institutions and community programs, at the request of the client or the client's legal guardian or representative, or in accordance with federal law;

(3) purchase, as authorized or required by law, services that the department is responsible to provide for legally eligible persons;

(4) conduct adjudicative proceedings for clients and providers in accordance with the procedures of Title 63G, Chapter 4, Administrative Procedures Act;

(5) establish eligibility standards for the department's programs, not inconsistent with state or federal law or regulations;

(6) take necessary steps, including legal action, to recover money or the monetary value of services provided to a recipient who was not eligible;

(7) set and collect fees for the department's services;

(8) license agencies, facilities, and programs, except as otherwise allowed, prohibited, or limited by law;

(9) acquire, manage, and dispose of any real or personal property needed or owned by the department, not inconsistent with state law;

(10) receive gifts, grants, devises, and donations; gifts, grants, devises, donations, or the proceeds thereof, may be credited to the program designated by the donor, and may be used for the purposes requested by the donor, as long as the request conforms to state and federal policy; all donated funds shall be considered private, nonlapsing funds and may be invested under guidelines established by the state treasurer;

(11) accept and employ volunteer labor or services; the department is authorized to reimburse volunteers for necessary expenses, when the department considers that reimbursement to be appropriate;

(12) carry out the responsibility assigned in the workforce services plan by the State Workforce Development Board;

(13) carry out the responsibility assigned by Section 26B-1-430 with respect to coordination of services for students with a disability;

(14) provide training and educational opportunities for the department's staff;

(15) collect child support payments and any other money due to the department;

(16) apply the provisions of Title 81, Chapter 6, Child Support, and Title 81, Chapter 7, Payment and Enforcement of Spousal and Child Support, to parents whose child lives out of the home in a department licensed or certified setting;

(17) establish policy and procedures, within appropriations authorized by the Legislature, in cases where the Division of Child and Family Services or the Division of Juvenile Justice and Youth Services is given custody of a minor by the juvenile court under Title 80, Utah Juvenile Code, or the department is ordered to prepare an attainment plan for a minor found not competent to proceed under Section 80-6-403, including:

(a) designation of interagency teams for each juvenile court district in the state;

(b) delineation of assessment criteria and procedures;

(c) minimum requirements, and timeframes, for the development and implementation of a collaborative service plan for each minor placed in department custody; and

(d) provisions for submittal of the plan and periodic progress reports to the court;

(18) carry out the responsibilities assigned to the department by statute;

(19) examine and audit the expenditures of any public funds provided to a local substance abuse authority, a local mental health authority, a local area agency on aging, and any person, agency, or organization that contracts with or receives funds from those authorities or agencies. Those local authorities, area agencies, and any person or entity that contracts with or receives funds from those authorities or area agencies, shall provide the department with any information the department considers necessary. The department is further authorized to issue directives resulting from any examination or audit to a local authority, an area agency, and persons or entities that contract with or receive funds from those authorities with regard to any public funds. If the department determines that it is necessary to withhold funds from a local mental health authority or local substance abuse authority based on failure to comply with state or federal law, policy, or contract provisions, the department may take steps necessary to ensure continuity of services. For purposes of this Subsection (19) "public funds" means the same as that term is defined in Section 26B-5-101;

(20) in accordance with Subsection 26B-2-104(1)(d), accredit one or more agencies and persons to provide intercountry adoption services;

(21) within legislative appropriations, promote and develop a system of care and stabilization services:

(a) in compliance with Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Utah Procurement Code; and

(b) that encompasses the department, department contractors, and the divisions, offices, or institutions within the department, to:

(i) navigate services, funding resources, and relationships to the benefit of the children and families whom the department serves;

(ii) centralize department operations, including procurement and contracting;

(iii) develop policies that govern business operations and that facilitate a system of care approach to service delivery;

(iv) allocate resources that may be used for the children and families served by the department or the divisions, offices, or institutions within the department, subject to the restrictions in Section 63J-1-206;

(v) create performance-based measures for the provision of services; and

(vi) centralize other business operations, including data matching and sharing among the department's divisions, offices, and institutions;

(22) ensure that any training or certification required of a public official or public employee, as those terms are defined in Section 63G-22-102, complies with Title 63G, Chapter 22, State Training and Certification Requirements, if the training or certification is required:

(a) under this title;

(b) by the department; or

(c) by an agency or division within the department;

(23) enter into cooperative agreements with the Department of Environmental Quality to delineate specific responsibilities to assure that assessment and management of risk to human health from the environment are properly administered;

(24) consult with the Department of Environmental Quality and enter into cooperative agreements, as needed, to ensure efficient use of resources and effective response to potential health and safety threats from the environment, and to prevent gaps in protection from potential risks from the environment to specific individuals or population groups;

(25) to the extent authorized under state law or required by federal law, promote and protect the health and wellness of the people within the state;

(26) establish, maintain, and enforce rules authorized under state law or required by federal law to promote and protect the public health or to prevent disease and illness;

(27) investigate the causes of epidemic, infectious, communicable, and other diseases affecting the public health;

(28) provide for the detection and reporting of communicable, infectious, acute, chronic, or any other disease or health hazard which the department considers to be dangerous, important, or likely to affect the public health;

(29) collect and report information on causes of injury, sickness, death, and disability and the risk factors that contribute to the causes of injury, sickness, death, and disability within the state;

(30) collect, prepare, publish, and disseminate information to inform the public concerning the health and wellness of the population, specific hazards, and risks that may affect the health and wellness of the population and specific activities which may promote and protect the health and wellness of the population;

(31) abate nuisances when necessary to eliminate sources of filth and infectious and communicable diseases affecting the public health;

(32) make necessary sanitary and health investigations and inspections in cooperation with local health departments as to any matters affecting the public health;

(33) establish laboratory services necessary to support public health programs and medical services in the state;

(34) establish and enforce standards for laboratory services which are provided by any laboratory in the state when the purpose of the services is to protect the public health;

(35) cooperate with the Labor Commission to conduct studies of occupational health hazards and occupational diseases arising in and out of employment in industry, and make recommendations for elimination or reduction of the hazards;

(36) cooperate with the local health departments, the Department of Corrections, the Administrative Office of the Courts, the Division of Juvenile Justice and Youth Services, and the Utah Office for Victims of Crime to conduct testing for HIV infection of alleged sexual offenders, convicted sexual offenders, and any victims of a sexual offense;

(37) investigate the causes of maternal and infant mortality;

(38) establish, maintain, and enforce a procedure requiring the blood of adult pedestrians and drivers of motor vehicles killed in highway accidents be examined for the presence and concentration of alcohol, and provide the Commissioner of Public Safety with monthly statistics reflecting the results of these examinations, with necessary safeguards so that information derived from the examinations is not used for a purpose other than the compilation of these statistics;

(39) establish qualifications for individuals permitted to draw blood under Subsection 41-6a-523(1)(a)(vi), 53-10-405(2)(a)(vi), 72-10-502(5)(a)(vi), or 77-23-213(3)(a)(vi), and to issue permits to individuals the department finds qualified, which permits may be terminated or revoked by the department;

Section 5. Section 26B-2-127 is amended to read:

26B-2-127. Child placing licensure requirements -- Prohibited acts -- Consortium.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) (i) "Advertisement" means any written, oral, or graphic statement or representation made in connection with a solicitation of business.

(ii) "Advertisement" includes a statement or representation described in Subsection (1)(a)(i) by a noncable television system, radio, printed brochure, newspaper, leaflet, flyer, circular, billboard, banner, Internet website, social media, or sign.

(b) "Birth parent" means the same as that term is defined in Section [~~78B-6-103~~]81-13-101.

(c) "Clearly and conspicuously disclose" means the same as that term is defined in Section 13-11a-2.

(d) (i) "Matching advertisement" means any written, oral, or graphic statement or representation made in connection with a solicitation of business to provide the assistance described in Subsection (3)(a)(i), regardless of whether there is or will be an exchange described in Subsection (3)(a)(ii).

(ii) "Matching advertisement" includes a statement or representation described in Subsection (1)(d)(i) by a noncable television system, radio, printed brochure, newspaper, leaflet, flyer, circular, billboard, banner, Internet website, social media, or sign.

(2) (a) Subject to Section [~~78B-24-205~~]81-14-205, a person may not engage in child placing, or solicit money or other assistance for child placing, without a valid license issued by the office in accordance with this part.

(b) If a child-placing agency's license is suspended or revoked in accordance with this part, the care, control, or custody of any child who is in the care, control, or custody of the child-placing agency shall be transferred to the Division of Child and Family Services.

(3) (a) (i) An attorney, physician, or other person may assist:

(A) a birth parent to identify or locate a prospective adoptive parent who is interested in adopting the birth parent's child; or

(B) a prospective adoptive parent to identify or locate a child to be adopted.

(ii) A payment, charge, fee, reimbursement of expense, or exchange of value of any kind, or promise or agreement to make the same, may not be made for the assistance described in Subsection (3)(a)(i).

(b) An attorney, physician, or other person may not:

(i) issue or cause to be issued to any person a card, sign, or device indicating that the attorney, physician, or other person is available to provide the assistance described in Subsection (3)(a)(i);

(ii) cause, permit, or allow any sign or marking indicating that the attorney, physician, or other person is available to provide the assistance described in Subsection (3)(a)(i), on or in any building or structure;

(iii) announce, cause, permit, or allow an announcement indicating that the attorney, physician, or other person is available to provide the assistance described in Subsection (3)(a)(i), to appear in any newspaper, magazine, directory, on radio or television, or an Internet website relating to a business;

(iv) announce, cause, permit, or allow a matching advertisement; or

(v) announce, cause, permit, or allow an advertisement that indicates or implies the attorney, physician, or other person is available to provide the assistance described in Subsection (3)(a)(i) as part of, or related to, other adoption-related services by using any of the following terms:

(A) "comprehensive";

(B) "complete";

(C) "one-stop";

(D) "all-inclusive"; or

(E) any other term similar to the terms described in Subsections (3)(b)(v)(A) through (D).

(c) An attorney, physician, or other person who is not licensed by the office shall clearly and conspicuously disclose in any print media advertisement or written contract regarding adoption services or adoption-related services that the attorney, physician, or other person is not licensed to provide adoption services by the office.

(4) A person who intentionally or knowingly violates Subsection (2) or (3) is guilty of a third degree felony.

(5) This section does not preclude payment of fees for medical, legal, or other lawful services rendered in connection with the care of a mother, delivery and care of a child, or lawful adoption proceedings, except that a child-placing agency may not:

(a) charge or accept payment for services that were not actually rendered; or

(b) charge or accept payment from a prospective adoptive parent for medical or hospital expenses that were paid for by public funds.

(6) In accordance with federal law, only an agent or employee of the Division of Child and Family Services or of a licensed child-placing agency may certify to United States Citizenship and Immigration Services that a family meets the preadoption requirements of the Division of Child and Family Services.

(7) A licensed child-placing agency or an attorney practicing in this state may not place a child for adoption, either temporarily or permanently, with an individual who would not be qualified for adoptive placement under Sections [~~78B-6-102, 78B-6-117, and 78B-6-137~~]81-13-202, 81-13-203, and 81-13-402.

(8) (a) A child-placing agency, as that term is defined in Section 63G-20-102, that serves a resident of the state who is a birth mother or a prospective adoptive parent must be a member of a statewide consortium of licensed child-placing agencies that, together, serve all birth mothers lawfully seeking to place a child for adoption and all qualified prospective adoptive parents.

(b) The department shall receive and investigate any complaint against a consortium of licensed child-placing agencies.

Section 6. Section 26B-3-108 is amended to read:

26B-3-108. Administration of Medicaid program by department -- Reporting to the Legislature -- Disciplinary measures and sanctions -- Funds collected -- Eligibility standards -- Optional dental services costs and delivery -- Internal audits -- Health opportunity accounts.

(1) The department shall be the single state agency responsible for the administration of the Medicaid program in connection with the United States Department of Health and Human Services pursuant to Title XIX of the Social Security Act.

(2) (a) The department shall implement the Medicaid program through administrative rules in conformity with this chapter, Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the requirements of Title XIX, and applicable federal regulations.

(b) The rules adopted under Subsection (2)(a) shall include, in addition to other rules necessary to implement the program:

(i) the standards used by the department for determining eligibility for Medicaid services;

(ii) the services and benefits to be covered by the Medicaid program;

(iii) reimbursement methodologies for providers under the Medicaid program; and

(iv) a requirement that:

(A) a person receiving Medicaid services shall participate in the electronic exchange of clinical health records established in accordance with Section 26B-8-411 unless the individual opts out of participation;

(B) prior to enrollment in the electronic exchange of clinical health records the enrollee shall receive notice of enrollment in the electronic exchange of clinical health records and the right to opt out of participation at any time; and

(C) when the program sends enrollment or renewal information to the enrollee and when the enrollee logs onto the program's website, the enrollee shall receive notice of the right to opt out of the electronic exchange of clinical health records.

(3) (a) The department shall, in accordance with Subsection (3)(b), report to the Social Services Appropriations Subcommittee when the department:

(i) implements a change in the Medicaid State Plan;

(ii) initiates a new Medicaid waiver;

(iii) initiates an amendment to an existing Medicaid waiver;

(iv) applies for an extension of an application for a waiver or an existing Medicaid waiver;

(v) applies for or receives approval for a change in any capitation rate within the Medicaid program; or

(vi) initiates a rate change that requires public notice under state or federal law.

(b) The report required by Subsection (3)(a) shall:

(i) be submitted to the Social Services Appropriations Subcommittee prior to the department implementing the proposed change; and

(ii) include:

(A) a description of the department's current practice or policy that the department is proposing to change;

(B) an explanation of why the department is proposing the change;

(C) the proposed change in services or reimbursement, including a description of the effect of the change;

(D) the effect of an increase or decrease in services or benefits on individuals and families;

(E) the degree to which any proposed cut may result in cost-shifting to more expensive services in health or human service programs; and

(F) the fiscal impact of the proposed change, including:

(I) the effect of the proposed change on current or future appropriations from the Legislature to the department;

(II) the effect the proposed change may have on federal matching dollars received by the state Medicaid program;

(III) any cost shifting or cost savings within the department's budget that may result from the proposed change; and

(IV) identification of the funds that will be used for the proposed change, including any transfer of funds within the department's budget.

(4) Any rules adopted by the department under Subsection (2) are subject to review and reauthorization by the Legislature in accordance with Section 63G-3-502.

(5) The department may, in its discretion, contract with other qualified agencies for services in connection with the administration of the Medicaid program, including:

(a) the determination of the eligibility of individuals for the program;

(b) recovery of overpayments; and

(c) consistent with Section 26B-3-1113, and to the extent permitted by law and quality control services, enforcement of fraud and abuse laws.

(6) The department shall provide, by rule, disciplinary measures and sanctions for Medicaid providers who fail to comply with the rules and procedures of the program, provided that sanctions imposed administratively may not extend beyond:

(a) termination from the program;

(b) recovery of claim reimbursements incorrectly paid; and

(c) those specified in Section 1919 of Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act.

(7) (a) Funds collected as a result of a sanction imposed under Section 1919 of Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act shall be deposited into the General Fund as dedicated credits to be used by the division in accordance with the requirements of Section 1919 of Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act.

(b) In accordance with Section 63J-1-602.2, sanctions collected under this Subsection (7) are nonlapsing.

(8) (a) In determining whether an applicant or recipient is eligible for a service or benefit under this part or Part 9, Utah Children's Health Insurance Program, the department shall, if Subsection (8)(b) is satisfied, exclude from consideration one passenger vehicle designated by the applicant or recipient.

(b) Before Subsection (8)(a) may be applied:

(i) the federal government shall:

(A) determine that Subsection (8)(a) may be implemented within the state's existing public assistance-related waivers as of January 1, 1999;

(B) extend a waiver to the state permitting the implementation of Subsection (8)(a); or

(C) determine that the state's waivers that permit dual eligibility determinations for cash assistance and Medicaid are no longer valid; and

(ii) the department shall determine that Subsection (8)(a) can be implemented within existing funding.

(9) (a) As used in this Subsection (9):

(i) "aged, blind, or has a disability" means an aged, blind, or disabled individual, as defined in 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1382c(a)(1); and

(ii) "spend down" means an amount of income in excess of the allowable income standard that shall be paid in cash to the department or incurred through the medical services not paid by Medicaid.

(b) In determining whether an applicant or recipient who is aged, blind, or has a disability is eligible for a service or benefit under this chapter, the department shall use 100% of the federal poverty level as:

(i) the allowable income standard for eligibility for services or benefits; and

(ii) the allowable income standard for eligibility as a result of spend down.

(10) The department shall conduct internal audits of the Medicaid program.

(11) (a) (i) The department shall apply for, and if approved, implement an amendment to the state plan under this Subsection (11) for benefits for:

(A) medically needy pregnant women;

(B) medically needy children; and

(C) medically needy parents and caretaker relatives.

(ii) The department may implement the eligibility standards of Subsection (11)(b) for eligibility determinations made on or after the date of the approval of the amendment to the state plan.

(b) In determining whether an applicant is eligible for benefits described in Subsection (11)(a)(i), the department shall:

(i) disregard resources held in an account in a savings plan created under Title 53B, Chapter 8a, Utah Educational Savings Plan, if the beneficiary of the account is:

(A) under the age of 26; and

(B) living with the account owner, as that term is defined in Section 53B-8a-102, or temporarily absent from the residence of the account owner; and

(ii) include withdrawals from an account in the Utah Educational Savings Plan as resources for a benefit determination, if the withdrawals were not used for qualified higher education costs as that term is defined in Section 53B-8a-102.5.

(12) (a) The department may not deny or terminate eligibility for Medicaid solely because an individual is:

(i) incarcerated; and

(ii) not an inmate as defined in Section 64-13-1.

(b) Subsection (12)(a) does not require the Medicaid program to provide coverage for any services for an individual while the individual is incarcerated.

(13) The department is a party to, and may intervene at any time in, any judicial or administrative action:

(a) to which the Department of Workforce Services is a party; and

(b) that involves medical assistance under this chapter.

(14) (a) The department may not deny or terminate eligibility for Medicaid solely because a birth mother, as that term is defined in Section [~~78B-6-103~~]81-13-101, considers an adoptive placement for the child or proceeds with an adoptive placement of the child.

(b) A health care provider, as that term is defined in Section 26B-3-126, may not decline payment by Medicaid for covered health and medical services provided to a birth mother, as that term is defined in Section [~~78B-6-103~~]81-13-101, who is enrolled in Utah's Medicaid program and who considers an adoptive placement for the child or proceeds with an adoptive placement of the child.

Section 7. Section 26B-5-316 is amended to read:

26B-5-316. Responsibility for cost of care.

(1) The division shall estimate and determine, as nearly as possible, the actual expense per annum of caring for and maintaining a patient in the state hospital, and that amount or portion of that amount shall be assessed to and paid by the applicant, patient, spouse, parents, child or children who are of sufficient financial ability to do so, or by the guardian of the patient who has funds of the patient that may be used for that purpose.

(2) In addition to the expenses described in Subsection (1), parents are responsible for the support of their child while the child is in the care of the state hospital in accordance with [~~Title 26B,~~]Chapter 9, Recovery Services and Administration of Child Support, [~~and~~]Title 81, Chapter 6, Child Support, and Title 81, Chapter 7, Payment and Enforcement of Spousal and Child Support.

Section 8. Section 26B-6-411 is amended to read:

26B-6-411. Parent liable for cost and support of minor -- Guardian liable for costs.

(1) Parents of a person who receives services or support from the division, who are financially responsible, are liable for the cost of the actual care and maintenance of that person and for the support of the child in accordance with [~~Title 81, Chapter 6, Child Support, and~~]Chapter 9, Part 1, Office of Recovery Services, Title 81, Chapter 6, Child Support, and Title 81, Chapter 7, Payment and Enforcement of Spousal and Child Support, until the person reaches 18 years old.

(2) A guardian of a person who receives services or support from the division is liable for the cost of actual care and maintenance of that person, regardless of his age, where funds are available in the guardianship estate established on his behalf for that purpose. However, if the person who receives services is a beneficiary of a trust created in accordance with Section 26B-6-412, or if the guardianship estate meets the requirements of a trust described in that section, the trust income prior to distribution to the beneficiary, and the trust principal are not subject to payment for services or support for that person.

(3) If, at the time a person who receives services or support from the division is discharged from a facility or program owned or operated by or under contract with the division, or after the death and burial of a resident of the developmental center, there remains in the custody of the division or the superintendent any money paid by a parent or guardian for the support or maintenance of that person, it shall be repaid upon demand.

(ii) includes an unmarried biological father.

(c) "State registrar" means the state registrar of vital records appointed under Subsection (2)(e).

(d) "Unmarried biological father" means the same as that term is defined in Section [~~78B-6-103~~]81-13-101.

(2) The department shall:

(a) provide offices properly equipped for the preservation of vital records made or received under this part;

(b) establish a statewide vital records system for the registration, collection, preservation, amendment, and certification of vital records and other similar documents required by this part and activities related to them, including the tabulation, analysis, and publication of vital statistics;

(c) prescribe forms for certificates, certification, reports, and other documents and records necessary to establish and maintain a statewide system of vital records;

(d) prepare an annual compilation, analysis, and publication of statistics derived from vital records; and

(e) appoint a state registrar to direct the statewide system of vital records.

(3) The department may:

(a) divide the state from time to time into registration districts; and

(b) appoint local registrars for registration districts who under the direction and supervision of the state registrar shall perform all duties required of them by this part and department rules.

(4) The state registrar appointed under Subsection (2)(e) shall, with the input of Utah stakeholders and the Uniform Law Commission, study the following items for the state's implementation of the compact:

(a) the feasibility of using systems developed by the National Association for Public Health Statistics and Information Systems, including the State and Territorial Exchange of Vital Events (STEVE) system and the Electronic Verification of Vital Events (EVVE) system, or similar systems, to exchange putative father registry information with states that are parties to the compact;

(b) procedures necessary to share putative father information, located in the confidential registry maintained by the state registrar, upon request from the state registrar of another state that is a party to the compact;

(c) procedures necessary for the state registrar to access putative father information located in a state that is a party to the compact, and share that information with persons who request a certificate from the state registrar;

(d) procedures necessary to ensure that the name of the mother of the child who is the subject of a putative father's notice of commencement, filed pursuant to Section [~~78B-6-121~~]81-13-213, is kept confidential when a state that is a party to the compact accesses this state's confidential registry through the state registrar; and

(e) procedures necessary to ensure that a putative father's registration with a state that is a party to the compact is given the same effect as a putative father's notice of commencement filed pursuant to Section [~~78B-6-121~~]81-13-213.

Section 11. Section 26B-8-104 is amended to read:

26B-8-104. Birth registrations -- Execution and registration requirements.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Birthing facility" means a:

(i) general acute hospital as defined in Section 26B-2-201; or

(ii) birthing center as defined in Section 26B-2-201.

(b) "Designated administrator" means an individual who has been designated by a birthing facility to submit a birth registration on behalf of the birthing facility.

(2) (a) The office shall register a birth if a birth registration is completed and filed in accordance with this section.

(b) Once a birth is registered, the office shall provide a birth certificate upon request in accordance with all state laws.

(3) (a) For each live birth that occurs in a birthing facility, the designated administrator, attending physician, or nurse midwife shall:

(i) obtain and enter the information required under this part in the electronic birth registration system no later than 10 days from the day on which the birth occurred;

(ii) provide the parent the opportunity to review the information to ensure accuracy; and

(iii) submit the birth registration.

(b) (i) The date, time, place of birth, and required medical information shall be certified by the designated administrator.

(ii) The designated administrator shall enter the attending physician's, physician assistant's, or nurse midwife's name and transmit the birth registration to the local registrar for each birth that occurs in a birth facility.

(iii) The information contained in the birth registration about the parents shall be provided and certified by the mother or father or, in their incapacity or absence, by a person with knowledge of the facts.

(4) (a) (i) For a live birth that occurs outside a birthing facility, the birth registration shall be completed and filed by the physician, physician assistant, nurse, nurse practitioner, certified nurse midwife, or other person primarily responsible for providing assistance to the mother at the birth no later than 10 days from the day on which the birth occurred.

(ii) If the birth occurred without assistance from an individual described in Subsection (4)(a)(i), the presumed or declarant father or the mother of the child shall complete and file the birth registration.

(b) The birth registration shall be completed as fully as possible and shall include the date, time, and place of birth, and the mother's name.

(5) (a) For each live birth to an unmarried mother that occurs in a birthing facility, the designated administrator shall:

(i) provide the birth mother and declarant father, if present, with:

(A) a voluntary declaration of paternity form published by the state registrar;

(B) oral and written notice to the birth mother and declarant father of the alternatives to, the legal consequences of, and the rights and responsibilities that arise from signing the declaration; and

(C) the opportunity to sign the declaration;

(ii) witness the signature of a birth mother or declarant father in accordance with Section [~~78B-15-302~~]81-5-302 if the signature occurs at the facility;

(iii) enter the declarant father's information on the original birth certificate, but only if the mother and declarant father have signed a voluntary declaration of paternity or a court or administrative agency has issued an adjudication of paternity; and

(iv) file the completed declaration with the original birth certificate.

(b) If there is a presumed father, the voluntary declaration will only be valid if the presumed father also signs the voluntary declaration.

(c) The state registrar shall file the information provided on the voluntary declaration of paternity form with the original birth certificate and may provide certified copies of the declaration of paternity as otherwise provided under [~~Title 78B, Chapter 15, Utah Uniform Parentage Act~~]Title 81, Chapter 5, Uniform Parentage Act.

(6) (a) The state registrar shall publish a form for the voluntary declaration of paternity, a description of the process for filing a voluntary declaration of paternity, and of the rights and responsibilities established or effected by that filing, in accordance with [~~Title 78B, Chapter 15, Utah Uniform Parentage Act~~]Title 81, Chapter 5, Uniform Parentage Act.

(b) Information regarding the form and services related to voluntary paternity establishment shall be made available to birthing facilities and to any other entity or individual upon request.

(7) The name of a declarant father may only be included on the birth certificate of a child of unmarried parents if:

(a) the mother and declarant father have signed a voluntary declaration of paternity; or

(b) a court or administrative agency has issued an adjudication of paternity.

(8) Voluntary declarations of paternity, adjudications of paternity by judicial or administrative agencies, and voluntary rescissions of paternity shall be filed with and maintained by the state registrar for the purpose of comparing information with the state case registry maintained by the Office of Recovery Services pursuant to Section 26B-9-104.

(9) The department may notify the Division of Professional Licensing that an individual who is required to complete a birth registration under Subsection (4)(a)(i) has failed to register a birth if:

(a) the department has notified the individual that the individual is required by state law to complete the birth registration; and

(b) the individual is a physician, physician assistant, nurse, nurse practitioner, or certified nurse midwife.

Section 12. Section 26B-8-110 is amended to read:

26B-8-110. Supplementary certificate of birth.

(1) An individual born in this state may request the state registrar to register a supplementary birth certificate for the individual if:

(a) the individual is legally recognized as a child of the individual's [~~natural~~]parents when the individual's [~~natural~~]parents are subsequently married;

(b) the individual's parentage has been determined by a state court of the United States or a Canadian provincial court with jurisdiction; or

(c) the individual has been legally adopted, as a child or as an adult, under the law of this state, any other state, or any province of Canada.

(2) The application for registration of a supplementary birth certificate may be made by:

(a) the individual requesting registration under Subsection (1) if the individual is of legal age;

(b) a legal representative; or

(c) any agency authorized to receive children for placement or adoption under the laws of this or any other state.

(3) (a) The state registrar shall require that an applicant submit identification and proof according to department rules.

(b) In the case of an adopted individual, that proof may be established by order of the court in which the adoption proceedings were held.

(4) (a) After the supplementary birth certificate is registered, any information disclosed from the record shall be from the supplementary birth certificate.

(b) Access to the original birth certificate and to the evidence submitted in support of the supplementary birth certificate are not open to inspection except upon the order of a Utah district court or as described in Section [~~78B-6-141 or Section 78B-6-144~~]81-13-103 or 81-13-504.

Section 13. Section 26B-8-119 is amended to read:

26B-8-119. Petition for establishment of unregistered birth or death -- Court procedure.

(1) A person holding a direct, tangible, and legitimate interest as described in Subsection 26B-8-125(3)(a) or (b) may petition for a court order establishing the fact, time, and place of a birth or death that is not registered or for which a certified copy of the registered birth or death certificate is not obtainable. The person shall verify the petition and file the petition in the Utah court for the county where:

(a) the birth or death is alleged to have occurred;

(b) the person resides whose birth is to be established; or

(c) the decedent named in the petition resided at the date of death.

(2) In order for the court to have jurisdiction, the petition shall:

(a) allege the date, time, and place of the birth or death; and

(b) state either that no certificate of birth or death has been registered or that a copy of the registered certificate cannot be obtained.

(3) The court shall set a hearing for five to 10 days after the day on which the petition is filed.

(4) (a) If the time and place of birth or death are in question, the court shall hear available evidence and determine the time and place of the birth or death.

(b) If the time and place of birth or death are not in question, the court shall determine the time and place of birth or death to be those alleged in the petition.

(5) A court order under this section shall be made on a form prescribed and furnished by the department and is effective upon the filing of a certified copy of the order with the state registrar.

(6) (a) For purposes of this section, the birth certificate of an adopted alien child [~~, as defined in Section 78B-6-108,~~]is considered to be unobtainable if the alien child was born in a country that is not recognized by department rule as having an established vital records registration system.

(b) If the adopted alien child was born in a country recognized by department rule, but a person described in Subsection (1) is unable to obtain a certified copy of the birth certificate, the state registrar shall authorize the preparation of a birth certificate if the state registrar receives a written statement signed by the registrar of the alien child's birth country stating a certified copy of the birth certificate is not available.

Section 14. Section 26B-8-125 is amended to read:

26B-8-125. Inspection of vital records.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Designated legal representative" means an attorney, physician, funeral service director, genealogist, or other agent of the subject, or an immediate family member of the subject, who has been delegated the authority to access vital records.

(b) "Drug use intervention or suicide prevention effort" means a program that studies or promotes the prevention of drug overdose deaths or suicides in the state.

(c) "Immediate family member" means a spouse, child, parent, sibling, grandparent, or grandchild.

(d) "Pre-existing parent" means the same as that term is defined in Section 81-13-101.

(2) (a) The vital records shall be open to inspection, but only in compliance with the provisions of this part, department rules, and Sections [~~78B-6-141 and 78B-6-144~~]81-13-103 and 81-13-504.

(b) It is unlawful for any state or local officer or employee to disclose data contained in vital records contrary to this part, department rule, [~~Section 78B-6-141, or Section 78B-6-144~~]Section 81-13-103, or Section 81-13-504.

(c) [~~(i)~~] An adoption document is open to inspection as provided in Section [~~78B-6-141 or Section 78B-6-144~~]81-13-103 or 81-13-504.

[~~(ii) A birth parent may not access an adoption document under Subsection 78B-6-141(3).~~]

(d) A custodian of vital records may permit inspection of a vital record or issue a certified copy of a record or a part of a record when the custodian is satisfied that the applicant has demonstrated a direct, tangible, and legitimate interest.

(3) Except as provided in Subsection (4), a direct, tangible, and legitimate interest in a vital record is present only if:

(a) the request is from:

(i) the subject;

(ii) an immediate family member of the subject;

(iii) the guardian of the subject;

(iv) a designated legal representative of the subject; or

(v) a person, including a child-placing agency as defined in Section [~~78B-6-103~~]81-13-101, with whom a child has been placed pending finalization of an adoption of the child;

(b) the request involves a personal or property right of the subject of the record;

(c) the request is for official purposes of a public health authority or a state, local, or federal governmental agency;

(d) the request is for a drug use intervention or suicide prevention effort or a statistical or medical research program and prior consent has been obtained from the state registrar; or

(e) the request is a certified copy of an order of a court of record specifying the record to be examined or copied.

(4) (a) Except as provided in [~~Title 78B, Chapter 6, Part 1, Utah Adoption Act~~]Title 81, Chapter 13, Adoption, a parent, or an immediate family member of a parent [~~, who~~]may not be considered as having a direct, tangible, and legitimate interest under this section in a vital record for which the subject is a child if the parent or family member does not have legal or physical custody of, or visitation or parent-time rights for[~~a~~], the child:

(i) because of the termination of parental rights under Title 80, Chapter 4, Termination and Restoration of Parental Rights[~~, or~~]; or

(ii) by virtue of consenting to or relinquishing a child for adoption [~~pursuant to Title 78B, Chapter 6, Part 1, Utah Adoption Act, may not be considered as having a direct, tangible, and legitimate interest under this section~~]as described in Title 81, Chapter 13, Adoption.

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(d), a commercial firm or agency requesting names, addresses, or similar information may not be considered as having a direct, tangible, and legitimate interest under this section.

(5) Upon payment of a fee established in accordance with Section 63J-1-504, the office shall make the following records available to the public:

(a) except as provided in Subsection 26B-8-110(4)(b), a birth record, excluding confidential information collected for medical and health use, if 100 years or more have passed since the date of birth;

(b) a death record if 50 years or more have passed since the date of death; and

(c) a vital record not subject to Subsection (5)(a) or (b) if 75 years or more have passed since the date of the event upon which the record is based.

(6) Upon payment of a fee established in accordance with Section 63J-1-504, the office shall make an adoption document available as provided in Sections [~~78B-6-141 and 78B-6-144~~]81-13-103 and 81-13-504.

(7) The office shall make rules in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, establishing procedures and the content of forms as follows:

(a) for the inspection of adoption documents under Subsection [~~78B-6-141(4)~~]81-13-103(6);

(b) for a [~~birth~~]pre-existing parent's election to permit identifying information about the [~~birth~~]pre-existing parent to be made available [~~, under Section 78B-6-141~~]as described in Section 81-13-103;

(c) for the release of information by the mutual-consent, voluntary adoption registry [~~, under Section 78B-6-144~~]as described in Section 81-13-504;

(d) for collecting fees and donations under Section [~~78B-6-144.5~~]81-13-505; and

(e) for the review and approval of a request described in Subsection (3)(d).

Section 15. Section 26B-8-128 is amended to read:

26B-8-128. Divorce or adoption -- Duty of court clerk to file certificates or reports.

(1) For each adoption, annulment of adoption, divorce, and annulment of marriage ordered or decreed in this state, the clerk of the court shall prepare a divorce certificate or report of adoption on a form furnished by the state registrar or, for a report of adoption, the state of the child's birth.

(2) The petitioner shall provide the clerk of the court with the information necessary to prepare the certificate or report under Subsection (1), including the form furnished by the child's state of birth if the child was born in another state.

(3) The clerk shall:

(a) prepare the certificate or report under Subsection (1); and

(b) complete the remaining entries for the certificate or report immediately after the decree or order becomes final.

(4) On or before the 15th day of each month, the clerk shall forward the divorce certificates and reports of adoption under Subsection (1) completed by the clerk during the preceding month to the state registrar, except for reports of adoption provided to an attorney or child-placing agency under Subsection (5)(b).

(5) (a) In addition to the report of adoption that the clerk forwards to the state registrar under Subsection (4), the clerk shall also provide an original report of adoption under Subsection (1), upon request, to the attorney who is providing representation of a party to the adoption, or the child-placing agency, as defined in Section [~~78B-6-103~~]81-13-101, that is placing the child.

(b) If the child was born in another state, the clerk of court shall prepare and provide one original report of adoption, upon request, to the attorney who is providing representation of a party to the adoption, or the child-placing agency that is placing the child, and the attorney or child-placing agency shall be responsible for submitting the report to the state of the child's birth.

(c) If the attorney or child-placing agency does not request an original report of adoption under Subsection (5)(a) or (b), the clerk shall forward the report of adoption to the state registrar pursuant to Subsection (4).

(d) If, pursuant to Subsection (5)(a), an original report of adoption is provided to the attorney or the child-placing agency, as defined in Section [~~78B-6-103~~]81-13-101, the attorney or the child-placing agency shall immediately provide the report of adoption to the state registrar.
