(6) "Sibling" means the same as that term is defined in Section 80-2-102.

(7) "Temporary custody" means the same as that term is defined in Section 80-2-102.

Section 60. Section 80-2a-201 is amended to read:

80-2a-201. Rights of parents -- Children's rights -- Interest and responsibility of state.

(1) (a) Under both the United States Constitution and the constitution of this state, a parent possesses a fundamental liberty interest in the care, custody, and management of the parent's children. A fundamentally fair process must be provided to parents if the state moves to challenge or interfere with parental rights. A governmental entity must support any actions or allegations made in opposition to the rights and desires of a parent regarding the parent's child by sufficient evidence to satisfy a parent's constitutional entitlement to heightened protection against government interference with the parent's fundamental rights and liberty interests and, concomitantly, the right of the child to be reared by the child's [~~natural~~]parent.

(b) The fundamental liberty interest of a parent concerning the care, custody, and management of the parent's child is recognized, protected, and does not cease to exist simply because a parent may fail to be a model parent or because the parent's child is placed in the temporary custody of the state. At all times, a parent retains a vital interest in preventing the irretrievable destruction of family life. Before an adjudication of unfitness, government action in relation to a parent and the parent's child may not exceed the least restrictive means or alternatives available to accomplish a compelling state interest. Until the state proves parental unfitness, and the child suffers, or is substantially likely to suffer, serious detriment as a result, the child and the child's parent share a vital interest in preventing erroneous termination of their natural relationship and the state cannot presume that a child and the child's parent are adversaries.

(c) It is in the best interest and welfare of a child to be raised under the care and supervision of the child's [~~natural~~]parents. A child's need for a normal family life in a permanent home, and for positive, nurturing family relationships is usually best met by the child's [~~natural~~]parents. Additionally, the integrity of the family unit and the right of a parent to conceive and raise the parent's child are constitutionally protected. The right of a fit, competent parent to raise the parent's child without undue government interference is a fundamental liberty interest that has long been protected by the laws and Constitution and is a fundamental public policy of this state.

(d) The state recognizes that:

(i) a parent has the right, obligation, responsibility, and authority to raise, manage, train, educate, provide and care for, and reasonably discipline the parent's child; and

(ii) the state's role is secondary and supportive to the primary role of a parent.

(e) It is the public policy of this state that:

(i) a parent retains the fundamental right and duty to exercise primary control over the care, supervision, upbringing, and education of the parent's child;

(ii) a parent retains the right to have contact with the parent's child when the child is placed outside of the parent's home, and parent-time should be ordered by a court so long as the contact is not contrary to the best interest of the child; and

(iii) a child has the right to have contact with the child's sibling when the child is placed outside of the home and apart from the child's sibling, and sibling visits should be ordered by a court unless the contact would be contrary to the safety or well-being of the child.

(f) Subsections (2) through (7) shall be interpreted and applied consistent with this Subsection (1).

(2) It is also the public policy of this state that children have the right to protection from abuse and neglect, and that the state retains a compelling interest in investigating, prosecuting, and punishing abuse and neglect. Therefore, the state, as parens patriae, has an interest in and responsibility to protect a child whose parent abuses the child or does not adequately provide for the child's welfare. There may be circumstances where a parent's conduct or condition is a substantial departure from the norm and the parent is unable or unwilling to render safe and proper parental care and protection. Under those circumstances, the state may take action for the welfare and protection of the parent's child.

(3) When the division intervenes on behalf of an abused, neglected, or dependent child, the division shall take into account the child's need for protection from immediate harm and the extent to which the child's extended family may provide needed protection. Throughout the division's involvement, the division shall utilize the least intrusive and least restrictive means available to protect a child, in an effort to ensure that children are brought up in stable, permanent families, rather than in temporary foster placements under the supervision of the state.

(4) If circumstances within the family pose a threat to the child's immediate safety or welfare, the division may seek custody of the child for a planned, temporary period and place the child in a safe environment, subject to the requirements of this section and in accordance with Chapter 3, Abuse, Neglect, and Dependency Proceedings, and when safe and appropriate, return the child to the child's parent or as a last resort, pursue another permanency plan.

(5) In determining and making reasonable efforts with regard to a child, under Section 80-2a-302, both the division's and the juvenile court's paramount concern shall be the child's health, safety, and welfare. The desires of a parent for the parent's child, and the constitutionally protected rights of a parent, as described in this section, shall be given full and serious consideration by the division and the juvenile court.

(6) In accordance with Subsections 80-2a-302(4) and 80-3-301(12), in cases where sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, abandonment, severe abuse, or severe neglect are involved, the state has no duty to make reasonable efforts or to, in any other way, attempt to maintain a child in the child's home, provide reunification services, or rehabilitate the offending parent or parents. This Subsection (6) does not exempt the division from providing court-ordered services.

(7) (a) In accordance with Subsection (1), the division shall strive to achieve appropriate permanency for children who are abused, neglected, or dependent. The division shall provide in-home services, if appropriate and safe, in an effort to help a parent to correct the behavior that resulted in abuse, neglect, or dependency of the parent's child. The division may pursue a foster placement only if in-home services fail or are otherwise insufficient or inappropriate, kinship placement is not safe or appropriate, or in-home services and kinship placement fail and cannot be corrected. The division shall also seek qualified extended family support or a kinship placement to maintain a sense of security and stability for the child.

(b) If the use or continuation of reasonable efforts, as described in Subsections (5) and (6), is determined to be inconsistent with the permanency plan for a child, then measures shall be taken, in a timely manner, to place the child in accordance with the permanency plan, and to complete whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the child.

(c) Subject to the parental rights recognized and protected under this section, if, because of a parent's conduct or condition, the parent is determined to be unfit or incompetent based on the grounds for termination of parental rights described in Chapter 4, Termination and Restoration of Parental Rights, the continuing welfare and best interest of the child is of paramount importance, and shall be protected in determining whether that parent's rights should be terminated.

(8) The state's right to direct or intervene in the provision of medical or mental health care for a child is subject to Subsections [~~80-1-102(58)(b)(i)~~]80-1-102(57)(b)(i) through (iii) and Sections 80-3-109 and 80-3-304.

Section 61. Section 80-2a-304 is amended to read:

80-2a-304. Removal of a child from foster family placement -- Procedural due process.

(1) (a) The Legislature finds that, except with regard to a child's [~~natural~~]parent or guardian, a foster family has a very limited but recognized interest in the foster family's familial relationship with a foster child who has been in the care and custody of the foster family and in making determinations regarding removal of a child from a foster home, the division may not dismiss the foster family as a mere collection of unrelated individuals.

(b) The Legislature finds that children in the temporary custody and custody of the division are experiencing multiple changes in foster care placements with little or no documentation, and that numerous studies of child growth and development emphasize the importance of stability in foster care living arrangements.

(c) For the reasons described in Subsections (1)(a) and (b), the division shall provide procedural due process for a foster family before removal of a foster child from the foster family's home, regardless of the length of time the child has been in the foster family's home, unless removal is for the purpose of:

(i) returning the child to the child's [~~natural~~]parent or guardian;

(ii) immediately placing the child in an approved adoptive home;

(iii) placing the child with a relative who obtained custody or asserted an interest in the child within the preference period described in Subsection 80-3-302(7); or

(iv) placing an Indian child in accordance with placement preferences and other requirements described in the Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1915.

(2) (a) The division shall maintain and utilize due process procedures for removal of a foster child from a foster home, in accordance with the procedures and requirements of Title 63G, Chapter 4, Administrative Procedures Act.

(b) The procedures described in Subsection (2)(a) shall include requirements for:

(i) personal communication with, and a written explanation of the reasons for the removal to, the foster parents before removal of the child; and

(ii) an opportunity for foster parents to:

(A) present the foster parents' information and concerns to the division; and

(B) request a review, to be held before removal of the child, by a third party neutral fact finder or if the child is placed with the foster parents for a period of at least two years, request a review, to be held before removal of the child, by the juvenile court judge currently assigned to the child's case or, if the juvenile court judge currently assigned to the child's case is not available, another juvenile court judge.

(c) If the division determines that there is a reasonable basis to believe that the child is in danger or that there is a substantial threat of danger to the health or welfare of the child, the division shall place the child in emergency foster care during the pendency of the procedures described in this Subsection (2), instead of making another foster care placement.

(3) (a) If the division removes a child from a foster home based on the child's statement alone, the division shall initiate and expedite the processes described in Subsection (2).

(b) The division may not take formal action with regard to the foster parent's license until after the processes described in Subsection (2), in addition to any other procedure or hearing required by law, are completed.

(4) If a complaint is made to the division by a foster child against a foster parent, the division shall, within 30 business days after the day on which the complaint is received, provide the foster parent with information regarding the specific nature of the complaint, the time and place of the alleged incident, and who was alleged to have been involved.

(5) If the division places a child in a foster home, the division shall provide the foster parents with:

(a) notification of the requirements of this section;

(b) a written description of the procedures enacted by the division under Subsection (2) and how to access the procedures; and

(c) written notification of the foster parents' ability to petition the juvenile court directly for review of a decision to remove a foster child who, subject to Section 80-3-502, has been in the foster parents' custody for 12 months or longer.

(6) This section does not apply to the removal of a child based on a foster parent's request for the removal.

(7) It is unlawful for a person, with the intent to avoid compliance with the requirements of this section, to:

(a) take action, or encourage another to take action, against the license of a foster parent; or

(b) remove a child from a foster home before the child is placed with the foster parents for two years.

(8) The division may not remove a foster child from a foster parent who is a relative of the child on the basis of the age or health of the foster parent without determining:

(a) by clear and convincing evidence that the foster parent is incapable of caring for the foster child, if the alternative foster parent would not be another relative of the child; or

(b) by a preponderance of the evidence that the foster parent is incapable of caring for the foster child, if the alternative foster parent would be another relative of the child.

80-3-204. Protective custody of a child after a petition is filed -- Grounds.

(2) After an abuse, neglect, or dependency petition is filed, if the child who is the subject of the petition is not in protective custody, a juvenile court may order that the child be removed from the child's home or otherwise taken into protective custody if the juvenile court finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that any one or more of the following circumstances exist:

(c) the child or another child residing in the same household has been, or is considered to be at substantial risk of being, physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited, by a parent or guardian, a member of the parent's or guardian's household, or other individual known to the parent or guardian;

(d) the parent or guardian is unwilling to have physical custody of the child;

(e) the child is abandoned or left without any provision for the child's support;

(f) a parent or guardian who has been incarcerated or institutionalized has not arranged or cannot arrange for safe and appropriate care for the child;

(ii) the whereabouts of the parent or guardian are unknown; and

(iii) reasonable efforts to locate the parent or guardian are unsuccessful;

(h) subject to Subsection [~~80-1-102(58)(b)~~]80-1-102(57)(b) and Sections 80-3-109 and 80-3-304, the child is in immediate need of medical care;

(i) (i) a parent's or guardian's actions, omissions, or habitual action create an environment that poses a serious risk to the child's health or safety for which immediate remedial or preventive action is necessary; or

(ii) a parent's or guardian's action in leaving a child unattended would reasonably pose a threat to the child's health or safety;

(j) the child or another child residing in the same household has been neglected;

(k) the child's [~~natural~~]parent:

(i) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causes the death of another parent of the child;

(ii) is identified by a law enforcement agency as the primary suspect in an investigation for intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the child; or

(ii) any clandestine laboratory operation was located in the residence or on the property where the child resided; or

(n) the child's welfare is otherwise endangered.

(3) (a) For purposes of Subsection (2)(a), if a child has previously been adjudicated as abused, neglected, or dependent, and a subsequent incident of abuse, neglect, or dependency occurs involving the same substantiated abuser or under similar circumstance as the previous abuse, that fact is prima facie evidence that the child cannot safely remain in the custody of the child's parent.

(b) For purposes of Subsection (2)(c):

(i) another child residing in the same household may not be removed from the home unless that child is considered to be at substantial risk of being physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited as described in Subsection (2)(c) or Subsection (3)(b)(ii); and

(ii) if a parent or guardian has received actual notice that physical abuse, sexual abuse, or sexual exploitation by an individual known to the parent has occurred, and there is evidence that the parent or guardian failed to protect the child, after having received the notice, by allowing the child to be in the physical presence of the alleged abuser, that fact is prima facie evidence that the child is at substantial risk of being physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited.

(4) (a) For purposes of Subsection (2), if the division files an abuse, neglect, or dependency petition, the juvenile court shall consider the division's safety and risk assessments described in Section 80-2-403 to determine whether a child should be removed from the custody of the child's parent or guardian or should otherwise be taken into protective custody.

(b) The division shall make a diligent effort to provide the safety and risk assessments described in Section 80-2-403 to the juvenile court, guardian ad litem, and counsel for the parent or guardian, as soon as practicable before the shelter hearing described in Section 80-3-301.

(5) In the absence of one of the factors described in Subsection (2), a juvenile court may not remove a child from the parent's or guardian's custody on the basis of:

(a) educational neglect, truancy, or failure to comply with a court order to attend school;

(c) disability of the parent or guardian, as defined in Section 57-21-2; or

(d) the possession or use, in accordance with Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis, of cannabis in a medicinal dosage form, a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form, or a medical cannabis device, as those terms are defined in Section 26B-4-201.

(6) A child removed from the custody of the child's parent or guardian under this section may not be placed or kept in detention, unless the child may be admitted to detention under Chapter 6, Part 2, Custody and Detention.

(7) This section does not preclude removal of a child from the child's home without a warrant or court order under Section 80-2a-202.

(8) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (8)(b), a juvenile court and the division may not remove a child from the custody of the child's parent or guardian on the sole or primary basis that the parent or guardian refuses to consent to:

(i) the administration of a psychotropic medication to a child;

(ii) a psychiatric, psychological, or behavioral treatment for a child; or

(iii) a psychiatric or behavioral health evaluation of a child.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (8)(a), a juvenile court or the division may remove a child under conditions that would otherwise be prohibited under Subsection (8)(a) if failure to take an action described under Subsection (8)(a) would present a serious, imminent risk to the child's physical safety or the physical safety of others.

80-3-301. Shelter hearing -- Court considerations.

(f) a statement that the parent or guardian is liable for the cost of support of the child in the protective custody, temporary custody, and custody of the division, and the cost for legal counsel appointed for the parent or guardian under Subsection (2)(e), according to the financial ability of the parent or guardian.

(3) The notice described in Subsection (2) shall be personally served as soon as possible, but no later than one business day after the day on which the child is removed from the child's home, or the day on which a motion for expedited placement in temporary custody under Section 80-3-203 is filed, on:

(a) the appropriate guardian ad litem; and

(b) both parents and any guardian of the child, unless the parents or guardians cannot be located.

(4) Notwithstanding Section 80-3-104, the following individuals shall be present at the shelter hearing:

(a) the child, unless it would be detrimental for the child;

(b) the child's parents or guardian, unless the parents or guardian cannot be located, or fail to appear in response to the notice;

(B) any other individual with relevant knowledge;

(ii) subject to Section 80-3-108, provide an opportunity for the child to testify; and

(b) The juvenile court:

(i) may consider all relevant evidence, in accordance with the Utah Rules of Juvenile Procedure;

(ii) shall hear relevant evidence presented by the child, the child's parent or guardian, the requesting party, or the requesting party's counsel; and

(iii) may in the juvenile court's discretion limit testimony and evidence to only that which goes to the issues of removal and the child's need for continued protection.

(6) If the child is in protective custody, the division shall report to the juvenile court:

(a) the reason why the child was removed from the parent's or guardian's custody;

(b) any services provided to the child and the child's family in an effort to prevent removal;

(c) the need, if any, for continued shelter;

(d) the available services that could facilitate the return of the child to the custody of the child's parent or guardian; and

(e) subject to Subsections 80-3-302(7)(c) and (d), whether any relatives of the child or friends of the child's parents may be able and willing to accept temporary placement of the child.

(7) The juvenile court shall consider all relevant evidence provided by an individual or entity authorized to present relevant evidence under this section.

(8) (a) If necessary to protect the child, preserve the rights of a party, or for other good cause shown, the juvenile court may grant no more than one continuance, not to exceed five judicial days.

(b) A juvenile court shall honor, as nearly as practicable, the request by a parent or guardian for a continuance under Subsection (8)(a).

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (8)(a), if the division fails to provide the notice described in Subsection (2) within the time described in Subsection (3), the juvenile court may grant the request of a parent or guardian for a continuance, not to exceed five judicial days.

(9) (a) If the child is in protective custody, the juvenile court shall order that the child be returned to the custody of the parent or guardian unless the juvenile court finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, consistent with the protections and requirements provided in Subsection 80-2a-201(1), that any one of the following exists:

(i) subject to Subsection (9)(b)(i), there is a serious danger to the physical health or safety of the child and the child's physical health or safety may not be protected without removing the child from the custody of the child's parent;

(ii) (A) the child is suffering emotional damage that results in a serious impairment in the child's growth, development, behavior, or psychological functioning;

(B) the parent or guardian is unwilling or unable to make reasonable changes that would sufficiently prevent future damage; and

(C) there are no reasonable means available by which the child's emotional health may be protected without removing the child from the custody of the child's parent or guardian;

(iii) there is a substantial risk that the child will suffer abuse or neglect if the child is not removed from the custody of the child's parent or guardian;

(iv) subject to Subsection (9)(b)(ii), the child or a minor residing in the same household has been, or is considered to be at substantial risk of being, physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited by:

(A) a parent or guardian;

(B) a member of the parent's household or the guardian's household; or

(C) an individual known to the parent or guardian;

(v) the parent or guardian is unwilling to have physical custody of the child;

(vi) the parent or guardian is unable to have physical custody of the child;

(vii) the child is without any provision for the child's support;

(viii) a parent who is incarcerated or institutionalized has not or cannot arrange for safe and appropriate care for the child;

(ix) (A) a relative or other adult custodian with whom the child is left by the parent or guardian is unwilling or unable to provide care or support for the child;

(B) the whereabouts of the parent or guardian are unknown; and

(C) reasonable efforts to locate the parent or guardian are unsuccessful;

(x) subject to Subsection [~~80-1-102(58)(b)(i)~~]80-1-102(57)(b)(i) and Sections 80-3-109 and 80-3-304, the child is in immediate need of medical care;

(xi) (A) the physical environment or the fact that the child is left unattended beyond a reasonable period of time poses a threat to the child's health or safety; and

(B) the parent or guardian is unwilling or unable to make reasonable changes that would remove the threat;

(xii) (A) the child or a minor residing in the same household has been neglected; and

(B) the parent or guardian is unwilling or unable to make reasonable changes that would prevent the neglect;

(xiii) the parent, guardian, or an adult residing in the same household as the parent or guardian, is charged or arrested pursuant to Title 58, Chapter 37d, Clandestine Drug Lab Act, and any clandestine laboratory operation was located in the residence or on the property where the child resided;

(xiv) (A) the child's welfare is substantially endangered; and

(B) the parent or guardian is unwilling or unable to make reasonable changes that would remove the danger; or

(xv) the child's [~~natural~~]parent:

(A) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causes the death of another parent of the child;

(B) is identified by a law enforcement agency as the primary suspect in an investigation for intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the child; or

(C) is being prosecuted for or has been convicted of intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the child.

(b) (i) Prima facie evidence of the finding described in Subsection (9)(a)(i) is established if:

(A) a court previously adjudicated that the child suffered abuse, neglect, or dependency involving the parent; and

(B) a subsequent incident of abuse, neglect, or dependency involving the parent occurs.

(ii) For purposes of Subsection (9)(a)(iv), if the juvenile court finds that the parent knowingly allowed the child to be in the physical care of an individual after the parent received actual notice that the individual physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited the child, that fact is prima facie evidence that there is a substantial risk that the child will be physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited.

(10) (a) (i) The juvenile court shall make a determination on the record as to whether reasonable efforts were made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and whether there are available services that would prevent the need for continued removal.

(ii) If the juvenile court finds that the child can be safely returned to the custody of the child's parent or guardian through the provision of the services described in Subsection (10)(a)(i), the juvenile court shall place the child with the child's parent or guardian and order that the services be provided by the division.

(b) In accordance with federal law, the juvenile court shall consider the child's health, safety, and welfare as the paramount concern when making the determination described in Subsection (10)(a), and in ordering and providing the services described in Subsection (10)(a).

(11) If the division's first contact with the family occurred during an emergency situation in which the child could not safely remain at home, the juvenile court shall make a finding that any lack of preplacement preventive efforts, as described in Section 80-2a-302, was appropriate.

(12) In cases where sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, abandonment, severe abuse, or severe neglect are involved, the juvenile court and the division do not have any duty to make reasonable efforts or to, in any other way, attempt to maintain a child in the child's home, return a child to the child's home, provide reunification services, or attempt to rehabilitate the offending parent or parents.

(13) The juvenile court may not order continued removal of a child solely on the basis of educational neglect, truancy, or failure to comply with a court order to attend school.

(14) (a) If a juvenile court orders continued removal of a child under this section, the juvenile court shall state the facts on which the decision is based.

(b) If no continued removal is ordered and the child is returned home, the juvenile court shall state the facts on which the decision is based.

(15) If the juvenile court finds that continued removal and temporary custody are necessary for the protection of a child under Subsection (9)(a), the juvenile court shall order continued removal regardless of:

(a) any error in the initial removal of the child;

(b) the failure of a party to comply with notice provisions; or

(c) any other procedural requirement of this chapter, Chapter 2, Child Welfare Services, or Chapter 2a, Removal and Protective Custody of a Child.

Section 66. Section 80-3-302 is amended to read:

80-3-302. Shelter hearing -- Placement of a child.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Asserted an interest" means to communicate, verbally or in writing, to the division or the court, that the relative or friend is interested in becoming a placement for the child.

[~~(b) (i) "Natural parent," notwithstanding Section 80-1-102, means:~~]

[~~(A) a biological or adoptive mother of the child;~~]

[~~(B) an adoptive father of the child; or~~]

[~~(C) a biological father of the child who:~~]

[~~(I) was married to the child's biological mother at the time the child was conceived or born; or~~]

[~~(II) has strictly complied with Sections 78B-6-120 through 78B-6-122, before removal of the child or voluntary surrender of the child by the custodial parent.~~]

(b) (i) "Parent" does not include an unmarried biological father, as defined in Section 81-13-101, who has not strictly complied with Sections 81-13-212 and 81-13-213 before the removal of the child or voluntary surrender of the child by the custodial parent.

(ii) [~~"Natural parent" includes the individuals described in Subsection (1)(b)~~]"Parent" includes, except as provided in Subsection (1)(b)(i), an individual with a parent-child relationship to the child under Section 81-5-201 regardless of whether the child has been or will be placed with adoptive parents or whether adoption has been or will be considered as a long-term goal for the child.

(2) (a) At the shelter hearing, if the juvenile court orders that a child be removed from the custody of the child's parent in accordance with Section 80-3-301, the juvenile court shall first determine whether there is another [~~natural~~]parent with whom the child was not residing at the time the events or conditions that brought the child within the juvenile court's jurisdiction occurred, who desires to assume custody of the child.

(b) Subject to Subsection (7), if another [~~natural~~]parent requests custody under Subsection (2)(a), the juvenile court shall place the child with that parent unless the juvenile court finds that the placement would be unsafe or otherwise detrimental to the child.

(c) The juvenile court:

(i) shall make a specific finding regarding the fitness of the parent described in Subsection (2)(b) to assume custody, and the safety and appropriateness of the placement;

(ii) shall, at a minimum, order the division to visit the parent's home, comply with the criminal background check provisions described in Section 80-3-305, and check the Management Information System for any previous reports of abuse or neglect received by the division regarding the parent at issue;

(iii) may order the division to conduct any further investigation regarding the safety and appropriateness of the placement; and

(iv) may place the child in the temporary custody of the division, pending the juvenile court's determination regarding the placement.

(d) The division shall report the division's findings from an investigation under Subsection (2)(c), regarding the child in writing to the juvenile court.

(3) If the juvenile court orders placement with a parent under Subsection (2):

(a) the child and the parent are under the continuing jurisdiction of the juvenile court;

(b) the juvenile court may order:

(i) that the parent take custody subject to the supervision of the juvenile court; and

(ii) that services be provided to the parent from whose custody the child was removed, the parent who has assumed custody, or both; and

(c) the juvenile court shall order reasonable parent-time with the parent from whose custody the child was removed, unless parent-time is not in the best interest of the child.

(4) The juvenile court shall periodically review an order described in Subsection (3) to determine whether:

(a) placement with the parent continues to be in the child's best interest;

(b) the child should be returned to the original custodial parent;

(c) the child should be placed with a relative under Subsections (6) through (9); or

(d) the child should be placed in the temporary custody of the division.

(5) (a) Legal custody of the child is not affected by an order entered under Subsection (2) or (3).

(b) To affect a previous court order regarding legal custody, the party shall petition the court for modification of legal custody.

(6) Subject to Subsection (7), if, at the time of the shelter hearing, a child is removed from the custody of the child's parent and is not placed in the custody of the child's other parent, the juvenile court:

(a) shall, at that time, determine whether there is a relative or a friend who is able and willing to care for the child, which may include asking a child, who is of sufficient maturity to articulate the child's wishes in relation to a placement, if there is a relative or friend with whom the child would prefer to reside;

(b) may order the division to conduct a reasonable search to determine whether there are relatives or friends who are willing and appropriate, in accordance with the requirements of this chapter, Chapter 2, Child Welfare Services, and Chapter 2a, Removal and Protective Custody of a Child, for placement of the child;

(c) shall order the parents to cooperate with the division, within five working days, to provide information regarding relatives or friends who may be able and willing to care for the child; and

(d) may order that the child be placed in the temporary custody of the division pending the determination under Subsection (6)(a).

(7) (a) (i) Subject to Subsection (7)(b), and if the provisions of this section are satisfied, the division and the juvenile court shall give preferential consideration to a relative's or a friend's request for placement of the child, if the placement is in the best interest of the child.

(ii) If a relative or friend verbally communicates to the division or court that the relative or friend is interested in becoming a placement for the child, the division or court shall make a written record of the communication and include that written record in the report the division submits at the initial dispositional hearing, a report the division submits under Section 80-3-408, or the court's legal file.

(b) (i) (A) The preferential consideration that the juvenile court or division initially grants a friend under Subsection (7)(a)(i) expires 120 days after the day on which the shelter hearing occurs.

(B) After the day on which the time period described in Subsection (7)(b)(i)(A) expires, the division or the juvenile court may not grant preferential consideration to a friend, who has not obtained custody or asserted an interest in the child.

(ii) (A) Until eight months after the day on which the shelter hearing occurs, the preferential consideration that the juvenile court or division grants a relative under Subsection (7)(a)(i) is a rebuttable presumption that placement of the child with a relative is in the best interest of the child.

(B) After the rebuttable presumption described in Subsection (7)(b)(ii)(A) expires, the juvenile court or division shall give preferential consideration to a relative's request for placement of the child, if the placement is in the best interest of the child considering the totality of the circumstances.

(C) If a relative asserts an interest in becoming a placement for the child more than one year after the day on which the shelter hearing occurs, the juvenile court may not give the relative the preferential consideration described in Subsection (7)(b)(ii)(B).

(c) The following order of preference shall be applied when determining the individual with whom a child will be placed, provided that the individual is willing and able to care for the child:

(i) a noncustodial parent of the child;

(ii) a relative of the child;

(iii) subject to Subsection (7)(d), a friend if the friend is a licensed foster parent; and

(iv) other placements that are consistent with the requirements of law.

(d) In determining whether a friend is a willing, able, and appropriate placement for a child, the juvenile court or the division:

(i) subject to Subsections (7)(d)(ii) through (iv), shall consider the child's preferences or level of comfort with the friend;

(ii) is required to consider no more than one friend designated by each parent of the child and one friend designated by the child if the child is of sufficient maturity to articulate the child's wishes in relation to a placement;

(iii) may limit the number of designated friends to two, one of whom shall be a friend designated by the child if the child is of sufficient maturity to articulate the child's wishes in relation to a placement; and

(iv) shall give preference to a friend designated by the child if:

(A) the child is of sufficient maturity to articulate the child's wishes; and

(B) the basis for removing the child under Section 80-3-301 is sexual abuse of the child.

(e) (i) If a parent of the child or the child, if the child is of sufficient maturity to articulate the child's wishes in relation to a placement, is not able to designate a friend who is a licensed foster parent for placement of the child, but is able to identify a friend who is willing to become licensed as a foster parent, the department shall fully cooperate to expedite the licensing process for the friend.

(ii) If the friend described in Subsection (7)(e)(i) becomes licensed as a foster parent within the time frame described in Subsection (7)(b)(i), the juvenile court shall determine whether it is in the best interest of the child to place the child with the friend.

(8) (a) If a relative or friend who is willing to cooperate with the child's permanency goal is identified under Subsection (6)(a), the juvenile court:

(i) shall make a specific finding regarding:

(A) the fitness of that relative or friend as a placement for the child; and

(B) the safety and appropriateness of placement with the relative or friend; and

(ii) may not consider a request for guardianship or adoption of the child by an individual who is not a relative of the child, or prevent the division from placing the child in the custody of a relative of the child in accordance with this part, until after the day on which the juvenile court makes the findings under Subsection (8)(a)(i).

(b) In making the finding described in Subsection (8)(a), the juvenile court shall, at a minimum, order the division to:

(i) if the child may be placed with a relative, conduct a background check that includes:

(A) completion of a nonfingerprint-based, Utah Bureau of Criminal Identification background check of the relative;

(B) a completed search, relating to the relative, of the Management Information System; and

(C) a background check that complies with the criminal background check provisions described in Section 80-3-305, of each nonrelative of the child who resides in the household where the child may be placed;

(ii) if the child will be placed with a noncustodial parent, complete a background check that includes:

(A) the background check requirements applicable to an emergency placement with a noncustodial parent that are described in Subsections 80-2a-301(4) and (6);

(B) a completed search, relating to the noncustodial parent of the child, of the Management Information System; and

(C) a background check that complies with the criminal background check provisions described in Section 80-3-305, of each nonrelative of the child who resides in the household where the child may be placed;

(iii) if the child may be placed with an individual other than a noncustodial parent or a relative, conduct a criminal background check of the individual, and each adult that resides in the household where the child may be placed, that complies with the criminal background check provisions described in Section 80-3-305;

(iv) visit the relative's or friend's home;

(v) check the Management Information System for any previous reports of abuse or neglect regarding the relative or friend at issue;

(vi) report the division's findings in writing to the juvenile court; and

(vii) provide sufficient information so that the juvenile court may determine whether:

(A) the relative or friend has any history of abusive or neglectful behavior toward other children that may indicate or present a danger to this child;

(B) the child is comfortable with the relative or friend;

(C) the relative or friend recognizes the parent's history of abuse and is committed to protect the child;

(D) the relative or friend is strong enough to resist inappropriate requests by the parent for access to the child, in accordance with court orders;

(E) the relative or friend is committed to caring for the child as long as necessary; and

(F) the relative or friend can provide a secure and stable environment for the child.

(c) The division may determine to conduct, or the juvenile court may order the division to conduct, any further investigation regarding the safety and appropriateness of the placement described in Subsection (8)(a).

(d) The division shall complete and file the division's assessment regarding placement with a relative or friend under Subsections (8)(a) and (b) as soon as practicable, in an effort to facilitate placement of the child with a relative or friend.

(9) (a) The juvenile court may place a child described in Subsection (2)(a) in the temporary custody of the division, pending the division's investigation under Subsection (8), and the juvenile court's determination regarding the appropriateness of the placement.

(b) The juvenile court shall ultimately base the juvenile court's determination regarding the appropriateness of a placement with a relative or friend on the best interest of the child.

(10) If a juvenile court places a child described in Subsection (6) with the child's relative or friend:

(a) the juvenile court shall:

(i) order the relative or friend take custody, subject to the continuing supervision of the juvenile court;

(ii) provide for reasonable parent-time with the parent or parents from whose custody the child is removed, unless parent-time is not in the best interest of the child; and

(iii) conduct a periodic review no less often than every six months, to determine whether:

(A) placement with a relative or friend continues to be in the child's best interest;

(B) the child should be returned home; or

(C) the child should be placed in the custody of the division;

(b) the juvenile court may enter an order:

(i) requiring the division to provide necessary services to the child and the child's relative or friend, including the monitoring of the child's safety and well-being; or

(ii) that the juvenile court considers necessary for the protection and best interest of the child; and

(c) the child and the relative or friend in whose custody the child is placed are under the continuing jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

(11) No later than 12 months after the day on which the child is removed from the home, the juvenile court shall schedule a hearing for the purpose of entering a permanent order in accordance with the best interest of the child.

(12) The time limitations described in Section 80-3-406, with regard to reunification efforts, apply to a child placed with a previously noncustodial parent under Subsection (2) or with a relative or friend under Subsection (6).

(13) (a) If the juvenile court awards temporary custody of a child to the division, and the division places the child with a relative, the division shall:

(i) conduct a criminal background check of the relative that complies with the criminal background check provisions described in Section 80-3-305; and

(ii) if the results of the criminal background check described in Subsection (13)(a)(i) would prohibit the relative from having direct access to the child under Section 26B-2-120, the division shall:

(A) take the child into physical custody; and

(B) within three days, excluding weekends and holidays, after the day on which the child is taken into physical custody under Subsection (13)(a)(ii)(A), give written notice to the juvenile court, and all parties to the proceedings, of the division's action.

(b) Subsection (13)(a) does not prohibit the division from placing a child with a relative, pending the results of the background check described in Subsection (13)(a) on the relative.

(14) If the juvenile court orders that a child be removed from the custody of the child's parent and does not award custody and guardianship to another parent, relative, or friend under this section, the juvenile court shall order that the child be placed in the temporary custody of the division, to proceed to adjudication and disposition and to be provided with care and services in accordance with this chapter, Chapter 2, Child Welfare Services, and Chapter 2a, Removal and Protective Custody of a Child.

(15) (a) If a child reenters the temporary custody or the custody of the division and the child is not placed with an individual who is a parent, relative, or friend, the division shall:

(i) notify the child's former foster parents; and

(ii) upon a determination of the former foster parents' willingness and ability to safely and appropriately care for the child, give the former foster parents preference for placement of the child.

(b) If, after the shelter hearing, the child is placed with an individual who is not a parent, a relative, a friend, or a former foster parent of the child, priority shall be given to a foster placement with a married couple, unless it is in the best interests of the child to place the child with a single foster parent.

(16) In determining the placement of a child, the juvenile court and the division may not take into account, or discriminate against, the religion of an individual with whom the child may be placed, unless the purpose of taking religion into account is to place the child with an individual or family of the same religion as the child.

(17) If the juvenile court's decision differs from a child's express wishes if the child is of sufficient maturity to articulate the wishes in relation to the child's placement, the juvenile court shall make findings explaining why the juvenile court's decision differs from the child's wishes.

(18) This section does not guarantee that an identified relative or friend will receive custody of the child.

(19) (a) If, for a relative placement, an interstate placement requested under the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children has been initiated by the division or is ordered by or pending before the juvenile court, the court may not finalize a non-relative placement unless the court gives due weight to:

(i) the preferential consideration granted to a relative in Section 80-3-302;

(ii) the rebuttable presumption in Section 80-3-302; and

(iii) the division's placement authority under Subsections 80-1-102(50) and 80-3-303(1).

(b) Nothing in this section affects the ability of a foster parent to petition the juvenile court under Subsection 80-3-502(3).

Section 67. Section 80-3-307 is amended to read:

80-3-307. Child and family plan developed by division -- Parent-time and relative visitation.

(1) The division shall develop and finalize a child's child and family plan no more than 45 days after the day on which the child enters the temporary custody of the division.

(2) (a) The division may use an interdisciplinary team approach in developing a child and family plan.

(b) The interdisciplinary team described in Subsection (2)(a) may include representatives from the following fields:

(i) mental health;

(ii) education; or

(iii) if appropriate, law enforcement.

(3) (a) The division shall involve all of the following in the development of a child's child and family plan:

(i) both of the child's [~~natural~~]parents, unless the whereabouts of a parent are unknown;

(ii) the child;

(iii) the child's foster parents; and

(iv) if appropriate, the child's stepparent.

(b) Subsection (3)(a) does not prohibit any other party not listed in Subsection (3)(a) or a party's counsel from being involved in the development of a child's child and family plan if the party or counsel's participation is otherwise permitted by law.

(c) In relation to all information considered by the division in developing a child and family plan, the division shall give additional weight and attention to the input of the child's natural and foster parents upon the involvement of the child's natural and foster parents under Subsections (3)(a)(i) and (iii).

(d) (i) The division shall make a substantial effort to develop a child and family plan with which the child's parents agree.

(ii) If a parent does not agree with a child and family plan:

(A) the division shall strive to resolve the disagreement between the division and the parent; and

(B) if the disagreement is not resolved, the division shall inform the court of the disagreement.

(4) A copy of the child and family plan shall, immediately upon completion, or as soon as reasonably possible thereafter, be provided to:

(a) the guardian ad litem;

(b) the child's [~~natural~~]parents; and

(c) the child's foster parents.

(5) A child and family plan shall:

(a) specifically provide for the safety of the child, in accordance with federal law;

(b) clearly define what actions or precautions will, or may be, necessary to provide for the health, safety, protection, and welfare of the child;

(c) be specific to each child and the child's family, rather than general;

(d) include individualized expectations and contain specific time frames;

(e) except as provided in Subsection (6), address problems that:

(i) keep a child in the child's placement; and

(ii) keep a child from achieving permanence in the child's life;

(f) be designed to:

(i) minimize disruption to the normal activities of the child's family, including employment and school; and

(ii) as much as practicable, help the child's parent maintain or obtain employment; and

(g) set forth, with specificity, at least the following:

(i) the reason the child entered into protective custody or the division's temporary custody or custody;

(ii) documentation of:

(A) the reasonable efforts made to prevent placement of the child in protective custody or the division's temporary custody or custody; or

(B) the emergency situation that existed and that prevented the reasonable efforts described in Subsection (5)(g)(ii)(A), from being made;

(iii) the primary permanency plan for the child, as described in Section 80-3-406, and the reason for selection of the plan;

(iv) the concurrent permanency plan for the child, as described in Section 80-3-406, and the reason for the selection of the plan;

(v) if the plan is for the child to return to the child's family:

(A) specifically what the parents must do in order to enable the child to be returned home;

(B) specifically how the requirements described in Subsection (5)(g)(v)(A) may be accomplished; and

(C) how the requirements described in Subsection (5)(g)(v)(A) will be measured;

(vi) the specific services needed to reduce the problems that necessitated placing the child in protective custody or the division's temporary custody or custody;

(vii) the name of the individual who will provide for and be responsible for case management for the division;

(viii) subject to Subsection (10), a parent-time schedule between the [~~natural~~]parent and the child;

(ix) subject to Subsection (7), the health and mental health care to be provided to address any known or diagnosed mental health needs of the child;

(x) if residential treatment rather than a foster home is the proposed placement, a requirement for a specialized assessment of the child's health needs including an assessment of mental illness and behavior and conduct disorders;

(xi) social summaries that include case history information pertinent to case planning; and

(xii) subject to Subsection (12), a sibling visitation schedule.

(6) For purposes of Subsection (5)(e), a child and family plan may only include requirements that:

(a) address findings made by the court; or

(b) (i) are requested or consented to by a parent or guardian of the child; and

(ii) are agreed to by the division and the guardian ad litem.

(7) (a) Subject to Subsection (7)(b), in addition to the information required under Subsection (5)(g)(ix), a child and family plan shall include a specialized assessment of the medical and mental health needs of a child, if the child:

(i) is placed in residential treatment; and

(ii) has medical or mental health issues that need to be addressed.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (7)(a), a parent shall retain the right to seek a separate medical or mental health diagnosis of the parent's child from a licensed practitioner of the parent's choice.

(8) (a) The division shall train the division's employees to develop child and family plans that comply with:

(i) federal mandates; and

(ii) the specific needs of the particular child and the child's family.

(b) The child's natural parents, foster parents, and if appropriate, stepparents, shall be kept informed of and supported to participate in important meetings and procedures related to the child's placement.

(9) If the division documents to the court that there is a compelling reason that adoption, reunification, guardianship, and a placement described in Subsection 80-3-301(6)(e) are not in the child's best interest, the court may order another planned permanent living arrangement in accordance with federal law.

(10) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (10)(b), parent-time may only be denied by a court order issued in accordance with Subsection 80-3-406(9).

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (10)(a), the person designated by the division or a court to supervise a parent-time session may deny parent-time for the session if the supervising person determines that, based on the parent's condition, it is necessary to deny parent-time to:

(i) protect the physical safety of the child;

(ii) protect the life of the child; or

(iii) consistent with Subsection (10)(c), prevent the child from being traumatized by contact with the parent.

(c) In determining whether the condition of the parent described in Subsection (10)(b) will traumatize a child, the person supervising the parent-time session shall consider the impact that the parent's condition will have on the child in light of:

(i) the child's fear of the parent; and

(ii) the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect.

(11) If a child is in the division's temporary custody or custody, the division shall consider visitation with the child's grandparent if:

(a) the division determines the visitation to be in the best interest of the child;

(b) there are no safety concerns regarding the behavior or criminal background of the grandparent;

(c) allowing the grandparent visitation would not compete with or undermine the child's reunification plan;

(d) there is a substantial relationship between the grandparent and child; and

(e) the grandparent visitation will not unduly burden the foster parents.

(12) (a) The division shall incorporate into the child and family plan reasonable efforts to provide sibling visitation if:

(i) siblings are separated due to foster care or adoptive placement;

(ii) the sibling visitation is in the best interest of the child for whom the child and family plan is developed; and

(iii) the division has consent for sibling visitation from the guardian of the sibling.

(b) The division shall obtain consent for sibling visitation from the sibling's guardian if the criteria of Subsections (12)(a)(i) and (ii) are met.

Section 68. Section 80-3-405 is amended to read:

80-3-405. Dispositions after adjudication.

(1) Upon adjudication under Subsection 80-3-402(1), the juvenile court may make the dispositions described in Subsection (2) at the dispositional hearing.

(2) (a) (i) The juvenile court may vest custody of an abused, neglected, or dependent minor in the division or any other appropriate person, with or without court-specified child welfare services, in accordance with the requirements and procedures of this chapter.

(ii) When placing a minor in the custody of the division or any other appropriate person, the juvenile court:

(A) shall give primary consideration to the welfare of the minor;

(B) shall give due consideration to the rights of the parent or parents concerning the minor; and

(C) when practicable, may take into consideration the religious preferences of the minor and of the minor's parents or guardian.

(b) (i) The juvenile court may appoint a guardian for the minor if it appears necessary in the interest of the minor.

(ii) A guardian appointed under Subsection (2)(b)(i) may be a public or private institution or agency, but not a nonsecure residential placement provider, in which legal custody of the minor is vested.

(iii) When placing a minor under the guardianship of an individual or of a private agency or institution, the juvenile court:

(A) shall give primary consideration to the welfare of the minor; and

(B) when practicable, may take into consideration the religious preferences of the minor and of the minor's parents or guardian.

(c) The juvenile court may order:

(i) protective supervision;

(ii) family preservation;

(iii) sibling visitation; or

(iv) other services.

(d) (i) If a minor has been placed with an individual or relative as a result of an adjudication under this chapter, the juvenile court may enter an order of permanent legal custody and guardianship with the individual or relative of the minor.

(ii) If a juvenile court enters an order of permanent custody and guardianship with an individual or relative of a minor under Subsection (2)(d)(i), the juvenile court may, in accordance with Section 78A-6-356, enter an order for child support on behalf of the minor against the [~~natural~~]parents of the minor.

(iii) An order under this Subsection (2)(d):

(A) shall remain in effect until the minor is 18 years old;

(B) is not subject to review under Section 78A-6-358; and

(C) may be modified by petition or motion as provided in Section 78A-6-357.

(e) The juvenile court may order a child be committed to the physical custody, as defined in Section 26B-5-401, of a local mental health authority, in accordance with the procedures and requirements of Title 26B, Chapter 5, Part 4, Commitment of Persons Under Age 18.

(f) (i) If the child has an intellectual disability, the juvenile court may make an order committing a minor to the Utah State Developmental Center in accordance with Title 26B, Chapter 6, Part 6, Admission to an Intermediate Care Facility for People with an Intellectual Disability.

(ii) The juvenile court shall follow the procedure applicable in the district court with respect to judicial commitments to the Utah State Developmental Center when ordering a commitment under Subsection (2)(f)(i).

(g) (i) Subject to Subsection [~~80-1-102(58)(b)~~]80-1-102(57)(b) and Section 80-3-304, the juvenile court may order that a minor:

(A) be examined or treated by a mental health therapist, as described in Section 80-3-109; or

(B) receive other special care.

(ii) For purposes of receiving the examination, treatment, or care described in Subsection (2)(g)(i), the juvenile court may place the minor in a hospital or other suitable facility that is not secure care or secure detention.

(iii) In determining whether to order the examination, treatment, or care described in Subsection (2)(g)(i), the juvenile court shall consider:

(A) the desires of the minor;

(B) the desires of the parent or guardian of the minor if the minor is younger than 18 years old; and

(C) whether the potential benefits of the examination, treatment, or care outweigh the potential risks and side-effects, including behavioral disturbances, suicidal ideation, brain function impairment, or emotional or physical harm resulting from the compulsory nature of the examination, treatment, or care.

(h) The juvenile court may make other reasonable orders for the best interest of the minor.

(3) (a) At the dispositional hearing described in Subsection 80-3-402(3), if a child remains in an out-of-home placement, the juvenile court shall:

(i) make specific findings regarding the conditions of parent-time that are in the child's best interest; and

(ii) if parent-time is denied, state the facts that justify the denial.

(b) Parent-time shall be under the least restrictive conditions necessary to:

(i) protect the physical safety of the child; or

(ii) prevent the child from being traumatized by contact with the parent due to the child's fear of the parent in light of the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect.

(c) (i) The division or the person designated by the division or a court to supervise a parent-time session may deny parent-time for the session if the division or the supervising person determines that, based on the parent's condition, it is necessary to deny parent-time to:

(A) protect the physical safety of the child;

(B) protect the life of the child; or

(C) consistent with Subsection (3)(c)(ii), prevent the child from being traumatized by contact with the parent.

(ii) In determining whether the condition of the parent described in Subsection (3)(c)(i) will traumatize a child, the division or the person supervising the parent-time session shall consider the impact that the parent's condition will have on the child in light of:

(A) the child's fear of the parent; and

(B) the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect.

(4) Upon an adjudication under this chapter, the juvenile court may not:

(a) commit a minor solely on the ground of abuse, neglect, or dependency to the Division of Juvenile Justice and Youth Services;

(b) assume the function of developing foster home services; or

(c) vest legal custody of an abused, neglected, or dependent minor in the division to primarily address the minor's ungovernable or other behavior, mental health, or disability, unless the division:

(i) engages other relevant divisions within the department that are conducting an assessment of the minor and the minor's family's needs;

(ii) based on the assessment described in Subsection (4)(c)(i), determines that vesting custody of the minor in the division is the least restrictive intervention for the minor that meets the minor's needs; and

(iii) consents to legal custody of the minor being vested in the division.

(5) The juvenile court may combine the dispositions listed in Subsection (2) if combining the dispositions is permissible and the dispositions are compatible.

(6) (a) If, for a relative placement, an interstate placement requested under the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children has been initiated by the division or is ordered by or pending before the juvenile court, the court may not finalize a non-relative placement unless the court gives due weight to:

(i) the preferential consideration granted to a relative in Section 80-3-302;

(ii) the rebuttable presumption in Section 80-3-302; and

(iii) the division's placement authority under Subsections 80-1-102(50) and 80-3-303(1).

(b) Nothing in this section affects the ability of a foster parent to petition the juvenile court under Subsection 80-3-502(3).

Section 69. Section 80-3-409 is amended to read:

80-3-409. Permanency hearing -- Final plan -- Petition for termination of parental rights filed -- Hearing on termination of parental rights.

(1) (a) If reunification services are ordered under Section 80-3-406, with regard to a minor who is in the custody of the division, the juvenile court shall hold a permanency hearing no later than 12 months after the day on which the minor is initially removed from the minor's home.

(b) If reunification services are not ordered at the dispositional hearing, the juvenile court shall hold a permanency hearing within 30 days after the day on which the dispositional hearing ends.

(2) (a) If reunification services are ordered in accordance with Section 80-3-406, the juvenile court shall, at the permanency hearing, determine, consistent with Subsection (3), whether the minor may safely be returned to the custody of the minor's parent.

(b) If the juvenile court finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that return of the minor to the minor's parent would create a substantial risk of detriment to the minor's physical or emotional well-being, the minor may not be returned to the custody of the minor's parent.

(c) Prima facie evidence that return of the minor to a parent or guardian would create a substantial risk of detriment to the minor is established if:

(i) the parent or guardian fails to:

(A) participate in a court approved child and family plan;

(B) comply with a court approved child and family plan in whole or in part; or

(C) meet the goals of a court approved child and family plan; or

(ii) the minor's [~~natural~~]parent:

(A) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causes the death of another parent of the minor;

(B) is identified by a law enforcement agency as the primary suspect in an investigation for intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the minor; or

(C) is being prosecuted for or has been convicted of intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the minor.

(3) In making a determination under Subsection (2)(a), the juvenile court shall:

(a) review and consider:

(i) the report prepared by the division;

(ii) in accordance with the Utah Rules of Evidence, any admissible evidence offered by the minor's attorney guardian ad litem;

(iii) any report submitted by the division under Subsection 80-3-408(3)(a)(i);

(iv) any evidence regarding the efforts or progress demonstrated by the parent; and

(v) the extent to which the parent cooperated and used the services provided; and

(b) attempt to keep the minor's sibling group together if keeping the sibling group together is:

(i) practicable; and

(ii) in accordance with the best interest of the minor.

(4) With regard to a case where reunification services are ordered by the juvenile court, if a minor is not returned to the minor's parent or guardian at the permanency hearing, the juvenile court shall, unless the time for the provision of reunification services is extended under Subsection (7):

(a) order termination of reunification services to the parent;

(b) make a final determination regarding whether termination of parental rights, adoption, or permanent custody and guardianship is the most appropriate final plan for the minor, taking into account the minor's primary permanency plan established by the juvenile court under Section 80-3-406; and

(c) in accordance with Subsection 80-3-406(2), establish a concurrent permanency plan that identifies the second most appropriate final plan for the minor, if appropriate.

(5) The juvenile court may order another planned permanent living arrangement other than reunification for a minor who is 16 years old or older upon entering the following findings:

(a) the division has documented intensive, ongoing, and unsuccessful efforts to reunify the minor with the minor's parent or parents, or to secure a placement for the minor with a guardian, an adoptive parent, or an individual described in Subsection 80-3-301(6)(e);

(b) the division has demonstrated that the division has made efforts to normalize the life of the minor while in the division's custody, in accordance with Section 80-2-308;

(c) the minor prefers another planned permanent living arrangement; and

(d) there is a compelling reason why reunification or a placement described in Subsection (5)(a) is not in the minor's best interest.

(6) Except as provided in Subsection (7), the juvenile court may not extend reunification services beyond 12 months after the day on which the minor is initially removed from the minor's home, in accordance with the provisions of Section 80-3-406.

(7) (a) Subject to Subsection (7)(b), the juvenile court may extend reunification services for no more than 90 days if the juvenile court finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that:

(i) there has been substantial compliance with the child and family plan;

(ii) reunification is probable within that 90-day period; and

(iii) the extension is in the best interest of the minor.

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(c), the juvenile court may not extend any reunification services beyond 15 months after the day on which the minor is initially removed from the minor's home.

(ii) Delay or failure of a parent to establish paternity or seek custody does not provide a basis for the juvenile court to extend services for the parent beyond the 12-month period described in Subsection (6).

(c) In accordance with Subsection (7)(d), the juvenile court may extend reunification services for one additional 90-day period, beyond the 90-day period described in Subsection (7)(a), if:

(i) the juvenile court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that:

(A) the parent has substantially complied with the child and family plan;

(B) it is likely that reunification will occur within the additional 90-day period; and

(C) the extension is in the best interest of the minor;

(ii) the juvenile court specifies the facts upon which the findings described in Subsection (7)(c)(i) are based; and

(iii) the juvenile court specifies the time period in which it is likely that reunification will occur.

(d) A juvenile court may not extend the time period for reunification services without complying with the requirements of this Subsection (7) before the extension.

(e) In determining whether to extend reunification services for a minor, a juvenile court shall take into consideration the status of the minor siblings of the minor.

(8) (a) At the permanency hearing, if a child remains in an out-of-home placement, the juvenile court shall:

(i) make specific findings regarding the conditions of parent-time that are in the child's best interest; and

(ii) if parent-time is denied, state the facts that justify the denial.

(b) Parent-time shall be under the least restrictive conditions necessary to:

(i) protect the physical safety of the child; or

(ii) prevent the child from being traumatized by contact with the parent due to the child's fear of the parent in light of the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect.

(c) (i) The division or the person designated by the division or a court to supervise a parent-time session may deny parent-time for the session if the division or the supervising person determines that, based on the parent's condition, it is necessary to deny parent-time to:

(A) protect the physical safety of the child;

(B) protect the life of the child; or

(C) consistent with Subsection (8)(c)(ii), prevent the child from being traumatized by contact with the parent.

(ii) In determining whether the condition of the parent described in Subsection (8)(c)(i) will traumatize a child, the division or the person supervising the parent-time session shall consider the impact that the parent's condition will have on the child in light of:

(A) the child's fear of the parent; and

(B) the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect.

(9) The juvenile court may, in the juvenile court's discretion:

(a) enter any additional order that the juvenile court determines to be in the best interest of the minor, so long as that order does not conflict with the requirements and provisions of Subsections (4) through (8); or

(b) order the division to provide protective supervision or other services to a minor and the minor's family after the division's custody of a minor is terminated.

(10) (a) If the final plan for the minor is to proceed toward termination of parental rights, the petition for termination of parental rights shall be filed, and a pretrial held, within 45 calendar days after the day on which the permanency hearing is held.

(b) If the division opposes the plan to terminate parental rights, the juvenile court may not require the division to file a petition for the termination of parental rights, except as required under Subsection 80-4-203(2).

(11) (a) Any party to an action may, at any time, petition the juvenile court for an expedited permanency hearing on the basis that continuation of reunification efforts are inconsistent with the permanency needs of the minor.

(b) If the juvenile court so determines, the juvenile court shall order, in accordance with federal law, that:

(i) the minor be placed in accordance with the permanency plan; and

(ii) whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the minor be completed as quickly as possible.

(12) Nothing in this section may be construed to:

(a) entitle any parent to reunification services for any specified period of time;

(b) limit a juvenile court's ability to terminate reunification services at any time before a permanency hearing; or

(c) limit or prohibit the filing of a petition for termination of parental rights by any party, or a hearing on termination of parental rights, at any time before a permanency hearing provided that relative placement and custody options have been fairly considered in accordance with Sections 80-2a-201 and 80-4-104.

(13) (a) Subject to Subsection (13)(b), if a petition for termination of parental rights is filed before the date scheduled for a permanency hearing, the juvenile court may consolidate the hearing on termination of parental rights with the permanency hearing.

(b) For purposes of Subsection (13)(a), if the juvenile court consolidates the hearing on termination of parental rights with the permanency hearing:

(i) the juvenile court shall first make a finding regarding whether reasonable efforts have been made by the division to finalize the permanency plan for the minor; and

(ii) any reunification services shall be terminated in accordance with the time lines described in Section 80-3-406.

(c) The juvenile court shall make a decision on a petition for termination of parental rights within 18 months after the day on which the minor is initially removed from the minor's home.

(14) (a) If a juvenile court determines that a minor will not be returned to a parent of the minor, the juvenile court shall consider appropriate placement options inside and outside of the state.

(b) In considering appropriate placement options under Subsection (14)(a), the juvenile court shall provide preferential consideration to a relative's request for placement of the minor.

(15) (a) In accordance with Section 80-3-108, if a minor 14 years old or older desires an opportunity to address the juvenile court or testify regarding permanency or placement, the juvenile court shall give the minor's wishes added weight, but may not treat the minor's wishes as the single controlling factor under this section.

(b) If the juvenile court's decision under this section differs from a minor's express wishes if the minor is of sufficient maturity to articulate the wishes in relation to permanency or the minor's placement, the juvenile court shall make findings explaining why the juvenile court's decision differs from the minor's wishes.

(16) (a) If, for a relative placement, an interstate placement requested under the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children has been initiated by the division or is ordered by or pending before the juvenile court, the court may not finalize a non-relative placement unless the court gives due weight to:

(i) the preferential consideration granted to a relative in Section 80-3-302;

(ii) the rebuttable presumption in Section 80-3-302; and

(iii) the division's placement authority under Subsections 80-1-102(50) and 80-3-303(1).

(b) Nothing in this section affects the ability of a foster parent to petition the juvenile court under Subsection 80-3-502(3).

Section 70. Section 80-3-502 is amended to read:

80-3-502. Review of foster care removal -- Foster parent's standing.

(1) With regard to a minor in the custody of the division who is the subject of a petition alleging abuse, neglect, or dependency, and who has been placed in foster care with a foster family, the Legislature finds that:

(a) except with regard to the minor's [~~natural~~]parents, a foster family has a very limited but recognized interest in its familial relationship with the minor; and

(b) minors in the custody of the division are experiencing multiple changes in foster care placements with little or no documentation, and that numerous studies of child growth and development emphasize the importance of stability in foster care living arrangements.

(2) For the reasons described in Subsection (1), the Legislature finds that, except with regard to the minor's [~~natural~~]parents, procedural due process protections must be provided to a foster family prior to removal of a foster minor from the foster home.

(3) (a) A foster parent who has had a foster minor in the foster parent's home for 12 months or longer may petition the juvenile court for a review and determination of the appropriateness of a decision by the division to remove the minor from the foster home, unless the removal was for the purpose of:

(i) returning the minor to the minor's [~~natural~~]parent or legal guardian;

(ii) immediately placing the minor in an approved adoptive home;

(iii) placing the minor with a relative who obtained custody or asserted an interest in the minor within the preference period described in Subsection 80-3-302(8); or

(iv) placing an Indian child in accordance with placement preferences and other requirements described in the Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1915.

(b) The foster parent may petition the juvenile court under this section without exhausting administrative remedies within the division.

(c) The juvenile court may order the division to place the minor in a specified home, and shall base the juvenile court's determination on the best interest of the minor.

(4) The requirements of this section do not apply to the removal of a minor based on a foster parent's request for that removal.

Section 71. Section 80-4-104 is amended to read:

80-4-104. Judicial process for termination -- Parent unfit or incompetent -- Best interest of child.

(1) Under both the United States Constitution and the constitution of this state, a parent possesses a fundamental liberty interest in the care, custody, and management of the parent's child. For this reason, the termination of family ties by the state may only be done for compelling reasons.

(2) The juvenile court shall provide a fundamentally fair process to a parent if a party moves to terminate the parent's parental rights.

(3) If the party moving to terminate parental rights is a governmental entity, the juvenile court shall find that any actions or allegations made in opposition to the rights and desires of a parent regarding the parent's child are supported by sufficient evidence to satisfy a parent's constitutional entitlement to heightened protection against government interference with the parent's fundamental rights and liberty interests.

(4) (a) The fundamental liberty interest of a parent concerning the care, custody, and management of the parent's child is recognized, protected, and does not cease to exist simply because:

(i) a parent may fail to be a model parent; or

(ii) the parent's child is placed in the temporary custody of the state.

(b) The juvenile court should give serious consideration to the fundamental right of a parent to rear the parent's child, and concomitantly, of the right of the child to be reared by the child's [~~natural~~]parent.

(5) At all times, a parent retains a vital interest in preventing the irretrievable destruction of family life.

(6) Before an adjudication of unfitness, government action in relation to a parent and a parent's child may not exceed the least restrictive means or alternatives available to accomplish a compelling state interest.

(7) Until parental unfitness is established and the children suffer, or are substantially likely to suffer, serious detriment as a result, the child and the child's parent share a vital interest in preventing erroneous termination of their relationship and the juvenile court may not presume that a child and the child's parents are adversaries.

(8) (a) It is in the best interest and welfare of a child to be raised under the care and supervision of the child's [~~natural~~]parents.

(b) A child's need for a normal family life in a permanent home, and for positive, nurturing family relationships is usually best met by the child's [~~natural~~]parents.

(c) Additionally, the integrity of the family unit and the right of parents to conceive and raise their children are constitutionally protected.

(d) For these reasons, the juvenile court should only transfer custody of a child from the child's [~~natural~~]parent for compelling reasons and when there is a jurisdictional basis to do so.

(9) The right of a fit, competent parent to raise the parent's child without undue government interference is a fundamental liberty interest that has long been protected by the laws and Constitution of this state and of the United States, and is a fundamental public policy of this state.

(10) (a) The state recognizes that:

(i) a parent has the right, obligation, responsibility, and authority to raise, manage, train, educate, provide for, and reasonably discipline the parent's child; and

(ii) the state's role is secondary and supportive to the primary role of a parent.

(b) It is the public policy of this state that a parent retain the fundamental right and duty to exercise primary control over the care, supervision, upbringing, and education of the parent's child.

(c) The interests of the state favor preservation and not severance of natural familial bonds in situations where a positive, nurturing parent-child relationship can exist, including extended family association and support.

(11) This chapter provides a judicial process for voluntary and involuntary severance of the parent-child relationship, designed to safeguard the rights and interests of all parties concerned and promote their welfare and that of the state.

(12) (a) Wherever possible, family life should be strengthened and preserved, but if a parent is found, by reason of the parent's conduct or condition, to be unfit or incompetent based upon any of the grounds for termination described in this part, the juvenile court shall then consider the welfare and best interest of the child of paramount importance in determining whether termination of parental rights shall be ordered.

(b) In determining whether termination is in the best interest of the child, and in finding, based on the totality of the circumstances, that termination of parental rights, from the child's point of view, is strictly necessary to promote the child's best interest, the juvenile court shall consider, among other relevant factors, whether:

(i) sufficient efforts were dedicated to reunification in accordance with Section 80-4-301; and

(ii) pursuant to Section 80-3-302,the efforts to place the child with a relative who has, or is willing to come forward to care for the child, were given due weight.

Section 72. Section 80-4-106 is amended to read:

80-4-106. Individuals entitled to be present at proceedings -- Legal representation -- Attorney general responsibilities.

(1) (a) The parties shall be advised of the parties' right to counsel, including the appointment of counsel for a parent or guardian facing any action initiated by a private party under this chapter or under Section [~~78B-6-112~~]81-13-205 for termination of parental rights.

(b) If a parent or guardian is the subject of a petition for the termination of parental rights, the juvenile court shall:

(i) appoint an indigent defense service provider for a parent or guardian determined to be an indigent individual in accordance with Title 78B, Chapter 22, Part 2, Appointment of Counsel; and

(ii) order indigent defense services for the parent or guardian who is determined to be an indigent individual in accordance with Title 78B, Chapter 22, Part 2, Appointment of Counsel.

(c) In any action under this chapter, a guardian ad litem, as defined in Section 78A-2-801, shall represent the child in accordance with Sections 78A-2-803 and 80-3-104.

(2) Subject to Section 67-5-17 and the attorney general's prosecutorial discretion in civil enforcement actions, the attorney general shall, in accordance with Section 80-2-303, enforce this chapter, Chapter 2, Child Welfare Services, and Chapter 2a, Removal and Protective Custody of a Child, relating to the termination of parental rights.

(3) (a) The juvenile court shall admit any individual to a hearing unless the juvenile court makes a finding upon the record that the individual's presence at the hearing would:

(i) be detrimental to the best interest of a child who is a party to the proceeding;

(ii) impair the fact-finding process; or

(iii) be otherwise contrary to the interests of justice.

(b) The juvenile court may exclude an individual from a hearing under Subsection (3)(a) on the juvenile court's own motion or by motion of a party to the proceeding.

Section 73. Section 80-4-203 is amended to read:

80-4-203. Mandatory petition for termination of parental rights.

(1) For purposes of this section, "abandoned infant" means a child who is 12 months old or younger and whose parent or parents:

(a) although having legal custody of the child, fail to maintain physical custody of the child without making arrangements for the care of the child;

(b) have failed to:

(i) maintain physical custody; and

(ii) exhibit the normal interest of a [~~natural~~]parent without just cause; or

(c) are unwilling to have physical custody of the child.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection (3), notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, Chapter 2, Child Welfare Services, or Chapter 2a, Removal and Protective Custody of a Child, the division shall file a petition for termination of parental rights with regard to:

(a) an abandoned infant; or

(b) the child of a parent, whenever a court has determined that the parent has:

(i) committed murder or child abuse homicide of another child of that parent;

(ii) committed manslaughter of another child of that parent;

(iii) aided, abetted, attempted, conspired, or solicited to commit murder, child abuse homicide, or manslaughter against another child of that parent; or

(iv) committed a felony assault or abuse that results in serious physical injury to:

(A) another child of that parent; or

(B) the other parent of the child.

(3) The division is not required to file a petition for termination of parental rights under Subsection (2) if:

(a) the child is being cared for by a relative;

(b) the division has:

(i) documented in the child's child and family plan a compelling reason for determining that filing a petition for termination of parental rights is not in the child's best interest; and

(ii) made that child and family plan available to the juvenile court for the juvenile court's review; or

(c) (i) the juvenile court has previously determined, in accordance with the provisions and limitations of Sections 80-2a-201, 80-2a-302, 80-3-301, and 80-3-406, that reasonable efforts to reunify the child with the child's parent or parents were required; and

(ii) the division has not provided, within the time period specified in the child and family plan, services that had been determined to be necessary for the safe return of the child.

Section 74. Section 80-4-302 is amended to read:

80-4-302. Evidence of grounds for termination.

(1) In determining whether a parent or parents have abandoned a child, it is prima facie evidence of abandonment that the parent or parents:

(a) although having legal custody of the child, have surrendered physical custody of the child, and for a period of six months following the surrender have not manifested to the child or to the person having the physical custody of the child a firm intention to resume physical custody or to make arrangements for the care of the child;

(b) have failed to communicate with the child by mail, telephone, or otherwise for six months;

(c) failed to have shown the normal interest of a [~~natural~~]parent, without just cause; or

(d) have abandoned an infant, as described in Section 80-4-203.

(2) In determining whether a parent or parents are unfit or have neglected a child the juvenile court shall consider:

(a) emotional illness, mental illness, or mental deficiency of the parent that renders the parent unable to care for the immediate and continuing physical or emotional needs of the child for extended periods of time;

(b) conduct toward a child of a physically, emotionally, or sexually cruel or abusive nature;

(c) habitual or excessive use of intoxicating liquors, controlled substances, or dangerous drugs that render the parent unable to care for the child;

(d) repeated or continuous failure to provide the child with adequate food, clothing, shelter, education, or other care necessary for the child's physical, mental, and emotional health and development by a parent or parents who are capable of providing that care;

(e) whether the parent is incarcerated as a result of conviction of a felony, and the sentence is of such length that the child will be deprived of a normal home for more than one year;

(f) a history of violent behavior;

(g) whether the parent has intentionally exposed the child to pornography or material harmful to a minor, as defined in Section 76-10-1201; or

(h) any other circumstance, conduct, or condition that the court considers relevant in the determination of whether a parent or parents are unfit or have neglected the child.

(3) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(c), the juvenile court may not discriminate against a parent because of or otherwise consider the parent's lawful possession or consumption of cannabis in a medicinal dosage form, a cannabis product, as those terms are defined in Section 26B-4-201 or a medical cannabis device, in accordance with Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis.

(4) A parent who, legitimately practicing the parent's religious beliefs, does not provide specified medical treatment for a child is not, for that reason alone, a negligent or unfit parent.

(5) (a) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), a parent may not be considered neglectful or unfit because of a health care decision made for a child by the child's parent unless the state or other party to the proceeding shows, by clear and convincing evidence, that the health care decision is not reasonable and informed.

(b) Nothing in Subsection (5)(a) may prohibit a parent from exercising the right to obtain a second health care opinion.

(6) If a child has been placed in the custody of the division and the parent or parents fail to comply substantially with the terms and conditions of a plan within six months after the date on which the child was placed or the plan was commenced, whichever occurs later, that failure to comply is evidence of failure of parental adjustment.

(7) The following circumstances are prima facie evidence of unfitness:

(a) sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, injury, or death of a sibling of the child, or of any child, due to known or substantiated abuse or neglect by the parent or parents;

(b) conviction of a crime, if the facts surrounding the crime are of such a nature as to indicate the unfitness of the parent to provide adequate care to the extent necessary for the child's physical, mental, or emotional health and development;

(c) a single incident of life-threatening or gravely disabling injury to or disfigurement of the child;

(d) the parent has committed, aided, abetted, attempted, conspired, or solicited to commit murder or manslaughter of a child or child abuse homicide; or

(e) the parent intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causes the death of another parent of the child, without legal justification.

Section 75. Section 80-4-307 is amended to read:

80-4-307. Voluntary relinquishment -- Irrevocable.

(1) The individual consenting to termination of parental rights or voluntarily relinquishing parental rights shall sign the consent or relinquishment, or confirm a consent or relinquishment previously signed by the individual, under oath before:

(a) a judge of any court that has jurisdiction over proceedings for termination of parental rights in this state or any other state, or a public officer appointed by that court for the purpose of taking consents or relinquishments; or

(b) except as provided in Subsection (2), any person authorized to take consents or relinquishments under Subsections [~~78B-6-124(1)~~]81-13-214(1) and (2).

(2) Only the juvenile court is authorized to take consents or relinquishments from a parent who has any child who is in the custody of a state agency or who has a child who is otherwise under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

(3) (a) The court, appointed officer, or other authorized person shall certify to the best of that person's information and belief that the individual executing the consent or relinquishment, or confirming a consent or relinquishment previously signed by the individual, has read and understands the consent or relinquishment and has signed the consent or relinquishment freely and voluntarily.

(b) A consent or relinquishment is not effective until the consent or relinquishment is certified pursuant to Subsection (3)(a).

(4) A consent or relinquishment that has been certified pursuant to Subsection (3)(a) is effective against the consenting or relinquishing individual and may not be revoked.

(5) (a) The requirements and processes described in Section 80-4-104, Sections 80-4-301 through 80-4-304, and Part 2, Petition for Termination of Parental Rights, do not apply to a voluntary relinquishment or consent for termination of parental rights.

(b) When determining voluntary relinquishment or consent for termination of parental rights, the juvenile court need only find that the relinquishment or termination is in the child's best interest.

(6) (a) There is a presumption that voluntary relinquishment or consent for termination of parental rights is not in the child's best interest where it appears to the juvenile court that the primary purpose for relinquishment or consent for termination is to avoid a financial support obligation.

(b) The presumption described in Subsection (6)(a) may be rebutted if the juvenile court finds the relinquishment or consent to termination of parental rights will facilitate the establishment of stability and permanency for the child.

(7) Upon granting a voluntary relinquishment the juvenile court may make orders relating to the child's care and welfare that the juvenile court considers to be in the child's best interest.

Section 76. Section 80-4-502 is amended to read:

80-4-502. Safe relinquishment of a newborn child -- Termination of parental rights -- Affirmative defense.

(1) (a) A parent or a parent's designee may safely relinquish a newborn child at a hospital in accordance with this part and retain complete anonymity, so long as the newborn child has not been subject to abuse or neglect.

(b) Safe relinquishment of a newborn child who has not otherwise been subject to abuse or neglect shall not, in and of itself, constitute neglect, and the newborn child may not be considered a neglected child so long as the relinquishment is carried out in substantial compliance with this part.

(2) (a) Personnel employed by a hospital shall accept a newborn child who is relinquished under this part, and may presume that the individual relinquishing is the newborn child's parent or the parent's designee.

(b) The person receiving the newborn child may request information regarding the parent and newborn child's medical histories, and identifying information regarding the nonrelinquishing parent of the newborn child.

(c) If the newborn child's parent or the parent's designee provides the person receiving the newborn child with any of the information described in Subsection (2)(b) or any other personal items, the person shall provide the information or personal items to the division.

(d) Personnel employed by the hospital shall:

(i) provide any necessary medical care to the newborn child;

(ii) notify the division of receipt of the newborn child as soon as possible, but no later than 24 hours after receipt of the newborn child; and

(iii) prepare a birth certificate or foundling birth certificate if parentage is unknown for the newborn child and file the certificate with the Office of Vital Records and Statistics within the Department of Health and Human Services.

(e) A hospital and personnel employed by a hospital are immune from any civil or criminal liability arising from accepting a newborn child if the personnel employed by the hospital substantially comply with the provisions of this part and medical treatment is administered according to standard medical practice.

(3) The division shall assume care and protective custody of the newborn child immediately upon notice from the hospital.

(4) So long as the division determines there is no abuse or neglect of the newborn child, neither the newborn child nor the child's parents are subject to:

(a) the investigation provisions contained in Section 80-2-701; or

(b) the provisions of Chapter 3, Abuse, Neglect, and Dependency Proceedings.

(5) (a) Unless identifying information relating to the nonrelinquishing parent of the newborn child is provided, the division shall:

(i) work with local law enforcement and the Bureau of Criminal Identification within the Department of Public Safety in an effort to ensure that the newborn child has not been identified as a missing child;

(ii) immediately place or contract for placement of the newborn child in a potential adoptive home and, within 10 days after the day on which the child is received, file a petition for termination of parental rights in accordance with this chapter;

(iii) direct the Office of Vital Records and Statistics within the Department of Health and Human Services to conduct a search for:

(A) a birth certificate for the newborn child; and

(B) unmarried biological fathers in the registry maintained by the Office of Vital Records and Statistics in accordance with [~~Title 78B, Chapter 15, Part 4, Registry~~]Title 81, Chapter 5, Part 4, Registry; and

(iv) provide notice to each potential father identified on the registry described in Subsection (5)(a)(iii) in accordance with [~~Title 78B, Chapter 15, Part 4, Registry~~]Title 81, Chapter 5, Part 4, Registry.

(b) (i) If no individual has affirmatively identified himself or herself within two weeks after the day on which notice under Subsection (5)(a)(iv) is complete and established paternity by scientific testing within as expeditious a time frame as practicable, a hearing on the petition for termination of parental rights shall be scheduled and notice provided in accordance with this chapter.

(ii) If a nonrelinquishing parent is not identified, relinquishment of a newborn child under this part is considered grounds for termination of parental rights of both the relinquishing and nonrelinquishing parents under Section 80-4-301.

(6) If at any time before the day on which the newborn child is adopted, the juvenile court finds it is in the best interest of the newborn child, the court shall deny the petition for termination of parental rights.

(7) The division shall provide for, or contract with a child-placing agency to provide for expeditious adoption of the newborn child.

(8) So long as the individual relinquishing a newborn child is the newborn child's parent or designee, and there is no abuse or neglect, safe relinquishment of a newborn child in substantial compliance with this part is an affirmative defense to any potential criminal liability for abandonment or neglect relating to the relinquishment.

(1) Upon the motion of any party to the action, except as otherwise provided in this part and Part 6, Adjudication of Parentage, the tribunal shall order the child and other designated individuals to submit to genetic testing if the request for testing is supported by the sworn statement of a party to the proceeding:

(a) alleging [~~paternity~~]parentage and stating facts establishing a reasonable probability of the requisite sexual contact between the individuals; or

(b) denying [~~paternity~~]parentage and stating facts establishing a possibility that sexual contact between the individuals, if any, did not result in the conception of the child.

(2) If a request for genetic testing of a child is made before birth, the tribunal may not order in-utero testing.

(3) If two or more [~~men~~]individuals are subject to an order for genetic testing, the testing may be ordered concurrently or sequentially.

(b) A report made under the requirements of this part is self-authenticating.

(2) Documentation from the testing laboratory of the following information is sufficient to establish a reliable chain of custody that allows the results of genetic testing to be admissible without testimony:

(a) the names and photographs of the individuals whose specimens have been taken;

(b) the names of the individuals who collected the specimens;

(c) the places and dates the specimens were collected;

(d) the names of the individuals who received the specimens in the testing laboratory;

[~~78B-15-505~~]81-5-505. Genetic testing results -- Rebuttal.

(1) Under this chapter, a man is presumed to be identified as the father of a child if the genetic testing complies with this part and the results disclose that:

(a) the man has at least a 99% probability of [~~paternity~~]parentage, using a prior probability of 0.50, as calculated by using the combined [~~paternity~~]parentage index obtained in the testing; and

(b) a combined [~~paternity~~]parentage index of at least 100 to 1.

(2) A man identified under Subsection (1) as the father of the child may rebut the genetic testing results only by other genetic testing satisfying the requirements of this part [~~which~~]that:

(a) excludes the man as a genetic father of the child; or

(b) identifies another man as the possible father of the child.

(3) (a) If an issue is raised as to whether the appropriate ethnic or racial group database was used by the testing laboratory, the testing laboratory will be asked to rerun the test using the correct ethnic or racial group database.

(b) If the testing laboratory does not have an adequate database, another testing laboratory may be engaged to perform the calculations.

(4) If a presumption of [~~paternity~~]parentage is not rebutted by a second test, the tribunal shall issue an order establishing [~~paternity~~]parentage.

(2) If the previous genetic testing identified a man as the father of the child under Section [~~78B-15-505~~]81-5-505, the tribunal may not order additional testing unless the party provides advance payment for the testing.

(3) If the tribunal orders a second genetic test in accordance with this section, the additional testing must be completed within 45 days of the tribunal's order or the requesting party's objection to the first test will be automatically denied.

(4) If failure to complete the test occurs because of noncooperation of the birth mother or unavailability of the child, the time will be tolled.

(a) the parents of the man;

(b) brothers and sisters of the man;

(c) other children of the man and their mothers; and

(d) other relatives of the man necessary to complete genetic testing.

(1) The tribunal may order genetic testing of a brother of a man identified as the father of a child if the man is commonly believed to have an identical brother and evidence suggests that the brother may be the genetic father of the child.

(2) If each brother satisfies the requirements as the identified father of the child under Section [~~78B-15-505~~]81-5-505 without consideration of another identical brother being identified as the father of the child, the tribunal may rely on nongenetic evidence to adjudicate which brother is the father of the child.

(3) Lack of jurisdiction over one individual does not preclude the tribunal from making an adjudication of parentage binding on another individual over whom the tribunal has personal jurisdiction.

Section 127. Section 81-5-605, which is renumbered from Section 78B-15-605 is renumbered and amended to read:

(a) Parentage of a child conceived or born during a marriage with a presumed father, as described in Subsection [~~78B-15-204(1)(a), (b), or (c),~~]81-5-204(1)(a), (b), or (c) may be raised by the presumed father, [~~the mother, or a support enforcement agency~~]the birth mother, or a child support services agency at any time before filing an action for divorce or in the pleadings at the time of the divorce of the parents.

(b) (i) If the issue is raised prior to the adjudication, genetic testing may be ordered by the tribunal in accordance with Section [~~78B-15-608~~]81-5-608.

(ii) Failure of the birth mother of the child to appear for testing may result in an order allowing a motherless calculation of [~~paternity~~]parentage.

(iii) Failure of the birth mother to make the child available may not result in a determination that the presumed father is not the father, but shall allow for appropriate proceedings to compel the cooperation of the birth mother.

(iv) If the question of [~~paternity~~]parentage has been raised in the pleadings in a divorce and the tribunal addresses the issue and enters an order, the parties are estopped from raising the issue again, and the order of the tribunal may not be challenged on the basis of material mistake of fact.

~~(b)~~ If the presumed father seeks to rebut the presumption of [~~paternity~~]parentage, then denial of a motion seeking an order for genetic testing or a decision to disregard genetic test results shall be based on a preponderance of the evidence.

~~(c)~~ If the birth mother seeks to rebut the presumption of [~~paternity~~]parentage, the birth mother has the burden to show by a preponderance of the evidence that it would be in the best interests of the child to disestablish the parent-child relationship.

(e) (i) If a [~~support enforcement agency~~]child support services agency seeks to rebut the presumption of parentage and the [~~presumptive parent~~]presumed father opposes the rebuttal, the agency's request shall be denied.

(ii) Otherwise, the denial of the agency's motion seeking an order for genetic testing or a decision to disregard genetic test results shall be based on a preponderance of the evidence, taking into account the best interests of the child.

(2) For the presumption outside of marriage described in Subsection [~~78B-15-204(1)(d)~~]81-5-204(1)(d), the presumption may be rebutted at any time if the tribunal determines that the presumed father and the birth mother of the child neither cohabited nor engaged in sexual intercourse with each other during the probable time of conception.

(3) The presumption may be rebutted by:

(a) genetic test results that exclude the presumed father;

(b) genetic test results that rebuttably identify another man as the father in accordance with Section [~~78B-15-505~~]81-5-505;

(c) evidence that the presumed father and the birth mother of the child neither cohabited nor engaged in sexual intercourse with each other during the probable time of conception; or

(d) an adjudication under this part.

(4) There is no presumption to rebut if the presumed father was properly served and there has been a final adjudication of the issue.

[~~78B-15-608~~]81-5-608. Authority to deny motion for genetic testing or disregard test results.

(1) In a proceeding to adjudicate the parentage of a child having a presumed father or to challenge the [~~paternity~~]parentage of a child having a declarant father, the tribunal may deny a motion seeking an order for genetic testing of the birth mother, the child, and the presumed or declarant father, or if testing has been completed, the tribunal may disregard genetic test results that exclude the presumed or declarant father if the tribunal determines that:

(a) the conduct of the birth mother or the presumed or declarant father estops that party from denying parentage; and

(b) it would be inequitable to disrupt the [~~father~~]parent-child relationship between the child and the presumed or declarant father.

(2) In determining whether to deny a motion seeking an order for genetic testing or to disregard genetic test results under this section, the tribunal shall consider the best interest of the child, including the following factors:

(a) the length of time between the proceeding to adjudicate parentage and the time that the presumed or declarant father was placed on notice that [~~he~~]the presumed or declarant father might not be the genetic father of the child;

(b) the length of time during which the presumed or declarant father has assumed the role of [~~father~~]parent of the child;

(c) the facts surrounding the presumed or declarant father's discovery of [~~his possible nonpaternity~~]the father's possible nonparentage;

(d) the nature of the relationship between the child and the presumed or declarant father;

(e) the age of the child;

(f) the harm that may result to the child if presumed or declared [~~paternity~~]parentage is successfully disestablished;

(g) the nature of the relationship between the child and any alleged father;

(h) the extent to which the passage of time reduces the chances of establishing the [~~paternity of another man~~]parentage of another individual and a child-support obligation in favor of the child; and

(i) other factors that may affect the equities arising from the disruption of the [~~father~~]parent-child relationship between the child and the presumed or declarant father or the chance of other harm to the child.

(3) If the tribunal denies a motion seeking an order for genetic testing or disregards genetic test results that exclude the presumed or declarant father, [~~it~~]the tribunal shall issue an order adjudicating the presumed or declarant father to be the father of the child.

Section 131. Section 81-5-609, which is renumbered from Section 78B-15-609 is renumbered and amended to read:

(i) for the petitioner, 60 days after the day on which the petition is filed; and

(ii) for the respondent, 30 days after the day on which the respondent is served.

(b) The clerk of the court shall provide notice to a petitioner that the petitioner is required to attend the parenting course.

(c) A petition shall include information regarding the parenting course when the petition is served on the respondent.

(d) The court may not grant a final custody or parent-time order in a parentage action until:

(i) both parties have attended the parenting course; and

(ii) both parties have presented a certificate of course completion to the court.

(5) For a party that is unable to pay the costs of the parenting course, and before the court enters an order for custody or parent-time in the parentage action, the court shall:

(a) make a final determination of indigency; and

(b) order the party to pay the costs of the parenting course if the court determines the party is not indigent.

(6) (a) Notwithstanding Subsection (4), the court may waive the requirement that the parties attend the parenting course, on the court's own motion or on the motion of one of the parties, if the court determines course attendance and completion are not necessary, appropriate, or feasible, or in the best interest of the parties.

(b) If the requirement is waived, the court may proceed with entering a final custody or parent-time order.

(3) (a) A tribunal of this state may not modify any aspect of a child support order that may not be modified under the law of the issuing state, including the duration of the obligation of support.

(b) If two or more tribunals have issued child support orders for the same obligor and same child, the order that controls and shall be so recognized under Section [~~78B-14-207~~]81-8-207 establishes the aspects of the support order [~~which~~]that are nonmodifiable.

(5) On issuance of an order by a tribunal of this state modifying a child support order issued in another state, the tribunal of this state becomes the tribunal of continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.

(6) Notwithstanding Subsections (1) through (5) and Subsection [~~78B-14-201(2)~~]81-8-201(2), a tribunal of this state retains jurisdiction to modify an order issued by a tribunal of this state if:

(a) one party resides in another state; and

(1) may enforce [~~its~~]the tribunal's order that was modified only as to arrears and interest accruing before the modification;

(2) may provide appropriate relief for violations of [~~its~~]the tribunal's order which occurred before the effective date of the modification; and

(2) A tribunal of this state exercising jurisdiction under this section shall apply the provisions of this part, Part 1, General Provisions, and Part 2, Jurisdiction, and the procedural and substantive law of this state to the proceeding for enforcement or modification. Part 3, Civil Provisions of General Application, Part 4, Establishment of Support Order or Determination of Parentage, Part 5, Enforcement of Support Order Without Registration, Part 7, Support Proceedings Under Convention, and Part 8, Rendition, do not apply.

(2) A party who obtains the order and fails to file a certified copy is subject to appropriate sanctions by a tribunal in which the issue of failure to file arises.

(3) The failure to file does not affect the validity or enforceability of the modified order of the new tribunal having continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.

Section 222. Section 81-8-615, which is renumbered from Section 78B-14-615 is renumbered and amended to read:

(2) A parent-time schedule mutually agreed upon by both parents is preferable to a court-imposed solution.

(3) A parent-time schedule shall be used to maximize the continuity and stability of the minor child's life.

(4) Each parent shall give special consideration to make the minor child available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the minor child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

(5) (a) The court shall determine the responsibility for the pick up, delivery, and return of the minor child when the parent-time order is entered.

(b) The court may change the responsibility described in Subsection (5)(a) at any time a subsequent modification is made to the parent-time order.

(c) If the noncustodial parent will be providing transportation, the custodial parent shall:

(a) make alterations in the parent-time schedule to reasonably accommodate the work schedule of both parents; and

(8) The court may make alterations in the parent-time schedule to reasonably accommodate the distance between the parties and the expense of exercising parent-time.

(9) A parent may not withhold parent-time or child support due to the other parent's failure to comply with a court-ordered parent-time schedule.

(10) (a) The custodial parent shall notify the noncustodial parent within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the minor child is participating or being honored.

(b) The noncustodial parent is entitled to attend and participate fully in the functions described in Subsection (10)(a).

(12) (a) Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the minor child, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available.

(b) If the parents cannot agree on whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court shall decide whether the equipment for virtual parent-time is reasonably available by taking into consideration:

(i) the best interests of the minor child;

(ii) each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parent-time; and

(iii) any other factors the court considers material.

(13) (a) Parental care is presumed to be better care for the minor child than surrogate care.

(b) The court shall encourage the parties to cooperate in allowing the noncustodial parent, if willing and able to transport the minor child, to provide the child care.

(c) Child care arrangements existing during the marriage are preferred as are child care arrangements with nominal or no charge.

(14) Each parent shall:

(a) provide all surrogate care providers with the name, current address, and telephone number of the other parent; and

(b) provide the noncustodial parent with the name, current address, and telephone number of all surrogate care providers unless the court for good cause orders otherwise.

(15) (a) Each parent is entitled to an equal division of major religious holidays celebrated by the parents.

(b) The parent who celebrates a religious holiday that the other parent does not celebrate shall have the right to be together with the minor child on the religious holiday.

(16) If the minor child is on a different parent-time schedule than a sibling, based on Sections 81-9-302 and 81-9-304, the parents should consider if an upward deviation for parent-time with all the minor children so that parent-time is uniform between school aged and nonschool aged children, is appropriate.

(17) (a) When one or both parents are servicemembers or contemplating joining a uniformed service, the parents should resolve issues of custodial responsibility in the event of deployment as soon as practicable through reaching a voluntary agreement pursuant to Section [~~78B-20-201~~]81-10-201 or through court order obtained pursuant to this part.

Section 242. Section 81-9-203 is amended to read:

81-9-203. Custody and parent-time proceedings -- Requirements for parenting plan.

(1) In a custody or parent-time proceeding that is not a divorce action, the court may require the parents to attend the mandatory educational course described in Section [~~81-4-106~~]81-4-105.

(2) (a) In a proceeding between parents regarding the custody or parent-time for a minor child, the parent shall file and serve a proposed parenting plan at the time of the filing of the parent's original petition or at the time of filing the parent's answer or counterclaim.

(b) In a proceeding in which a parent seeks to modify custody provisions or a parenting plan, the parent shall file the proposed parenting plan with the petition to modify or the answer or counterclaim to the petition to modify.

(c) A parent who desires joint legal custody shall file a proposed parenting plan in accordance with this section.

(3) If a parent files a proposed parenting plan in compliance with this section, the parent may move the court for an order of default to adopt the plan if the other parent fails to file a proposed parenting plan as required by this section.

(4) A parent may file and serve an amended proposed parenting plan according to the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

(5) The parent submitting a proposed parenting plan shall attach a verified statement that the plan is proposed by that parent in good faith.

(6) (a) Both parents may submit a parenting plan which has been agreed upon.

(b) The parents shall attach a verified statement to the parenting plan that is signed by both parents.

(7) If the parents file inconsistent parenting plans, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the best interests of the minor child, who may, if necessary, file a separate parenting plan reflecting the best interests of the minor child.

(8) (a) If a parent is a service member, the parenting plan shall be consistent with Subsection (16).

(b) If a parent becomes a service member after a parenting plan is adopted, the parents shall amend the existing parenting plan as soon as practical to comply with Subsection (16).

(9) The objectives of a parenting plan are to:

(a) provide for the minor child's physical care;

(b) maintain the minor child's emotional stability;

(c) provide for the minor child's changing needs as the minor child grows and matures in a way that minimizes the need for future modifications to the parenting plan;

(d) set forth the authority and responsibilities of each parent with respect to the minor child consistent with the definitions outlined in this chapter;

(e) minimize the minor child's exposure to harmful parental conflict;

(f) encourage the parents, where appropriate, to meet the responsibilities to their minor child through agreements in the parenting plan rather than relying on judicial intervention; and

(g) protect the best interests of the minor child.

(10) (a) The parenting plan shall contain:

(i) provisions for resolution of future disputes between the parents, allocation of decision-making authority, and residential provisions for the minor child;

(ii) provisions addressing notice and parent-time responsibilities in the event of the relocation of a party; and

(iii) a process for resolving disputes, unless precluded or limited by statute.

(b) A dispute resolution process under Subsection (10)(a)(iii) may include:

(i) counseling;

(ii) mediation or arbitration by a specified individual or agency; or

(iii) court action.

(c) In the dispute resolution process under Subsection (10)(b):

(i) preference shall be given to the provisions in the parenting plan;

(ii) parents shall use the designated process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the plan, except those related to financial support, unless an emergency exists;

(iii) a written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached in counseling or mediation and provided to each party;

(iv) if arbitration becomes necessary, a written record shall be prepared and a copy of the arbitration award shall be provided to each party;

(v) if the court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court may award attorney fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent;

(vi) the district court has the right of review from the dispute resolution process; and

(vii) the provisions of this Subsection (10)(c) shall be set forth in any final decree or order.

(11) (a) Subject to the other provisions of this Subsection (11), the parenting plan shall allocate decision-making authority to one or both parties regarding the minor child's education, healthcare, and religious upbringing.

(b) The parties may incorporate an agreement related to the care and growth of the minor child in these specified areas or in other areas into the plan that are consistent with parenting functions and the criteria outlined in Subsection (9).

(c) Regardless of the allocation of decision-making in the parenting plan, a parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the minor child.

(d) A minor child's education plan shall designate the following:

(i) the home residence for purposes of identifying the appropriate school or another specific plan that provides for where the minor child will attend school;

(ii) which parent has authority to make education decisions for the minor child if the parents cannot agree; and

(iii) whether one or both parents have access to the minor child during school and authority to check the minor child out of school.

(e) If an education provision is not included in the parenting plan:

(i) a parent with sole physical custody shall make the decisions listed in Subsection (11)(d);

(ii) in the event of joint physical custody when one parent has custody a majority of the time as described in Subsection 81-9-205(10):

(A) the parent having the minor child the majority of the time shall make the decisions listed in Subsections (11)(d)(i) and (ii); and

(B) both parents with joint physical custody shall have access to the minor child during school and authority to check the child out of school; or

(iii) in the event of joint physical custody when the parents have custody an equal amount of time:

(A) the court shall determine how the decisions listed in Subsections (11)(d)(i) and (ii) are made; and

(B) both parents with joint physical custody shall have access to the minor child during school and authority to check the minor child out of school.

(12) Each parent may make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the minor child while the minor child is residing with that parent.

(13) When mutual decision-making is designated but cannot be achieved, the parties shall make a good faith effort to resolve the issue through the dispute resolution process.

(14) The parenting plan shall include a residential schedule that designates in which parent's home a minor child shall reside on given days of the year, including provisions for holidays, birthdays of family members, vacations, and other special occasions.

(15) (a) If a parent fails to comply with a provision of the parenting plan or a child support order, the other parent's obligations under the parenting plan or the child support order are not affected.

(b) Failure to comply with a provision of the parenting plan or a child support order may result in a finding of contempt of court.

(16) (a) If a parent is a service member, the parenting plan shall contain provisions that address the foreseeable parenting and custodial issues likely to arise in the event of notification of deployment or other contingency, including long-term deployments, short-term deployments, death, incapacity, and noncombatant evacuation operations.

(b) The provisions in the parenting plan described in Subsection (16)(a) shall comport substantially with the requirements of an agreement made pursuant to Section [~~78B-20-201~~]81-10-201.

Section 243. Section 81-9-204 is amended to read:

81-9-204. Custody and parent-time of a minor child -- Custody factors -- Preferences.

(1) In a proceeding between parents in which the custody and parent-time of a minor child is at issue, the court shall consider the best interests of the minor child in determining any form of custody and parent-time.

(2) The court shall determine whether an order for custody or parent-time is in the best interests of the minor child by a preponderance of the evidence.

(3) In determining any form of custody and parent-time under Subsection (1), the court shall consider:

(a) for each parent, and in accordance with Section 81-9-104, evidence of domestic violence, physical abuse, or sexual abuse involving the minor child, the parent, or a household member of the parent;

(b) whether the parent has intentionally exposed the minor child to pornography or material harmful to minors, as "material" and "harmful to minors" are defined in Section 76-10-1201; and

(c) whether custody and parent-time would endanger the minor child's health or physical or psychological safety.

(4) In determining the form of custody and parent-time that is in the best interests of the minor child, the court may consider, among other factors the court finds relevant, the following for each parent:

(a) evidence of psychological maltreatment;

(b) the parent's demonstrated understanding of, responsiveness to, and ability to meet the developmental needs of the minor child, including the minor child's:

(i) physical needs;

(ii) emotional needs;

(iii) educational needs;

(iv) medical needs; and

(v) any special needs;

(c) the parent's capacity and willingness to function as a parent, including:

(i) parenting skills;

(ii) co-parenting skills, including:

(A) ability to appropriately communicate with the other parent;

(B) ability to encourage the sharing of love and affection; and

(C) willingness to allow frequent and continuous contact between the minor child and the other parent, except that, if the court determines that the parent is acting to protect the minor child from domestic violence, neglect, or abuse, the parent's protective actions may be taken into consideration; and

(iii) ability to provide personal care rather than surrogate care;

(d) the past conduct and demonstrated moral character of the parent as described in Subsection (9);

(e) the emotional stability of the parent;

(f) the parent's inability to function as a parent because of drug abuse, excessive drinking, or other causes;

(g) the parent's reason for having relinquished custody or parent-time in the past;

(h) duration and depth of desire for custody or parent-time;

(i) the parent's religious compatibility with the minor child;

(j) the parent's financial responsibility;

(k) the child's interaction and relationship with step-parents, extended family members of other individuals who may significantly affect the minor child's best interests;

(l) who has been the primary caretaker of the minor child;

(m) previous parenting arrangements in which the minor child has been happy and well-adjusted in the home, school, and community;

(n) the relative benefit of keeping siblings together;

(o) the stated wishes and concerns of the minor child, taking into consideration the minor child's cognitive ability and emotional maturity;

(p) the relative strength of the minor child's bond with the parent, meaning the depth, quality, and nature of the relationship between the parent and the minor child; and

(q) any other factor the court finds relevant.

(5) (a) A minor child may not be required by either party to testify unless the trier of fact determines that extenuating circumstances exist that would necessitate the testimony of the minor child be heard and there is no other reasonable method to present the minor child's testimony.

(b) (i) The court may inquire and take into consideration the minor child's desires regarding future custody or parent-time schedules, but the expressed desires are not controlling and the court may determine the minor child's custody or parent-time otherwise.

(ii) The desires of a minor child who is 14 years old or older shall be given added weight, but is not the single controlling factor.

(c) (i) If an interview with a minor child is conducted by the court in accordance with Subsection (5)(b), the interview shall be conducted by the court in camera.

(ii) The prior consent of the parties may be obtained but is not necessary if the court finds that an interview with a minor child is the only method to ascertain the minor child's desires regarding custody.

(6) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (6)(b), a court may not discriminate against a parent due to a disability, as defined in Section 57-21-2, in awarding custody or determining whether a substantial change has occurred for the purpose of modifying an award of custody.

(b) The court may not consider the disability of a parent as a factor in awarding custody or modifying an award of custody based on a determination of a substantial change in circumstances, unless the court makes specific findings that:

(i) the disability significantly or substantially inhibits the parent's ability to provide for the physical and emotional needs of the minor child at issue; and

(ii) the parent with a disability lacks sufficient human, monetary, or other resources available to supplement the parent's ability to provide for the physical and emotional needs of the minor child at issue.

(c) Nothing in this section may be construed to apply to adoption proceedings under [~~Title 78B, Chapter 6, Part 1, Utah Adoption Act~~]Chapter 13, Adoption.

(7) This section does not establish:

(a) a preference for either parent solely because of the gender of the parent; or

(b) a preference for or against joint physical custody or sole physical custody, but allows the court and the family the widest discretion to choose a parenting plan that is in the best interest of the minor child.

(8) When an issue before the court involves custodial responsibility in the event of a deployment of a parent who is a service member and the service member has not yet been notified of deployment, the court shall resolve the issue based on the standards in Sections [~~78B-20-306 through 78B-20-309~~]81-10-306 through 81-10-309.

(9) In considering the past conduct and demonstrated moral standards of each party under Subsection (4)(d) or any other factor a court finds relevant, the court may not:

(a) (i) consider or treat a parent's lawful possession or use of cannabis in a medicinal dosage form, a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form, or a medical cannabis device, in accordance with Title 4, Chapter 41a, Cannabis Production Establishments and Pharmacies, Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis, or Subsection 58-37-3.7(2) or (3) any differently than the court would consider or treat the lawful possession or use of any prescribed controlled substance; or

(ii) discriminate against a parent because of the parent's status as a:

(A) cannabis production establishment agent, as that term is defined in Section 4-41a-102;

(B) medical cannabis pharmacy agent, as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201;

(C) medical cannabis courier agent, as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201; or

(D) medical cannabis cardholder in accordance with Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis; or

(b) discriminate against a parent based upon the parent's agreement or disagreement with a minor child of the couple's:

(i) assertion that the minor child's gender identity is different from the minor child's biological sex; or

(ii) practice of having or expressing a different gender identity than the minor child's biological sex.

(10) (a) The court shall consider evidence of domestic violence if evidence of domestic violence is presented.

(b) The court shall consider as primary, the safety and well-being of the minor child and the parent who experiences domestic violence.

(c) A court shall consider an order issued by a court in accordance with Title 78B, Chapter 7, Part 6, Cohabitant Abuse Protective Orders, as evidence of real harm or substantiated potential harm to the minor child.

(d) If a parent relocates because of an act of domestic violence or family violence by the other parent, the court shall make specific findings and orders with regards to the application of Section 81-9-209.

(11) Absent a showing by a preponderance of evidence of real harm or substantiated potential harm to the minor child:

(a) it is in the best interest of the minor child to have frequent, meaningful, and continuing access to each parent following separation or divorce;

(b) each parent is entitled to and responsible for frequent, meaningful, and continuing access with the parent's minor child consistent with the minor child's best interests; and

(c) it is in the best interest of the minor child to have both parents actively involved in parenting the minor child.

(12) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the court may not grant custody or parent-time of a minor child to a parent convicted of a sexual offense, as defined in Section 77-37-2, that resulted in the conception of the minor child unless:

(a) the nonconvicted biological parent, or the legal guardian of the minor child, consents to custody or parent-time and the court determines it is in the best interest of the minor child to award custody or parent-time to the convicted parent; or

(b) after the date of the conviction, the convicted parent and the nonconvicted parent cohabit and establish a mutual custodial environment for the minor child.

(13) A denial of custody or parent-time under Subsection (12) does not:

(a) terminate the parental rights of the parent denied parent-time or custody; or

(b) affect the obligation of the convicted parent to financially support the minor child.

Section 244. Section 81-9-208 is amended to read:

81-9-208. Modification or termination of a custody or parent-time order -- Noncompliance with a parent-time order.

(1) The court has continuing jurisdiction to make subsequent changes to modify:

(a) custody of a minor child if there is a showing of a substantial and material change in circumstances since the entry of the order; and

(b) parent-time for a minor child if there is a showing that there is a change in circumstances since the entry of the order.

(2) A substantial and material change in circumstances under Subsection (1)(a) includes a showing by a parent that the other parent:

(a) resides with an individual or provides an individual with access to the minor child; and

(b) knows that the individual:

(i) is required to register as a sex offender [~~or~~], a kidnap offender, or a child abuse offender for an offense against a minor child under Title 77, Chapter 41, [~~Sex and Kidnap Offender Registry~~]Sex, Kidnap, and Child Abuse Offender Registry; or

[~~(ii) is required to register as a child abuse offender under Title 77, Chapter 43, Child Abuse Offender Registry; or~~]

~~(iii)~~ has been convicted of:

(A) a child abuse offense under Section 76-5-109, 76-5-109.2, 76-5-109.3, 76-5-114, or 76-5-208;

(B) a sexual offense against a minor child under Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses;

(C) an offense for kidnapping or human trafficking of a minor child under Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 3, Kidnapping, Trafficking, and Smuggling;

(D) a sexual exploitation offense against a minor child under Title 76, Chapter 5b, Sexual Exploitation Act; or

(E) an offense that is substantially similar to an offense under Subsections ~~(2)(b)(iii)(A)~~(b)(ii)(A) through (D).

(3) On the petition of one or both of the parents, or the joint legal or physical custodians if they are not the parents, the court may, after a hearing, modify or terminate an order that established joint legal custody or joint physical custody if:

(a) the verified petition or accompanying affidavit initially alleges that admissible evidence will show that there has been a substantial and material change in the circumstances of the minor child or one or both parents or joint legal or physical custodians since the entry of the order to be modified;

(b) a modification of the terms and conditions of the order would be an improvement for and in the best interest of the minor child; and

(c) (i) both parents have complied in good faith with the dispute resolution procedure in accordance with Subsection 81-9-205(8); or

(ii) if no dispute resolution procedure is contained in the order that established joint legal custody or joint physical custody, the court orders the parents to participate in a dispute resolution procedure in accordance with Subsection 81-9-205(13) unless the parents certify that, in good faith, they have used a dispute resolution procedure to resolve their dispute.

(4) (a) In determining whether the best interest of a minor child will be served by either modifying or terminating the joint legal custody or joint physical custody order, the court shall, in addition to other factors the court considers relevant, consider the factors described in Sections 81-9-204 and 81-9-205.

(b) A court order modifying or terminating an existing joint legal custody or joint physical custody order shall contain written findings that:

(i) a substantial and material change of circumstance has occurred; and

(ii) a modification of the terms and conditions of the order would be an improvement for and in the best interest of the minor child.

(c) The court shall give substantial weight to the existing joint legal custody or joint physical custody order when the minor child is thriving, happy, and well-adjusted.

(5) The court shall, in every case regarding a petition for termination of a joint legal custody or joint physical custody order, consider reasonable alternatives to preserve the existing order in accordance with Section 81-9-204.

(6) The court may modify the terms and conditions of the existing order in accordance with this chapter and may order the parents to file a parenting plan in accordance with Section 81-9-203.

(7) A parent requesting a modification from sole custody to joint legal custody or joint physical custody or both, or any other type of shared parenting arrangement, shall file and serve a proposed parenting plan with the petition to modify in accordance with Section 81-9-203.

(8) If an issue before the court involves custodial responsibility in the event of deployment of one or both parents who are service members, and the service member has not yet been notified of deployment, the court shall resolve the issue based on the standards in Sections [~~78B-20-306 through 78B-20-309~~]81-10-306 through 81-10-309.

(9) If the court finds that an action to modify custody or parent-time is filed or answered frivolously and, in a manner, designed to harass the other party, the court shall assess attorney fees as costs against the offending party.

(10) If a petition to modify custody or parent-time provisions of a court order is made and denied, the court shall order the petitioner to pay the reasonable attorney fees expended by the prevailing party in that action if the court determines that the petition was without merit and not asserted or defended against in good faith.

(11) If a motion or petition alleges noncompliance with a parent-time order by a parent, or a visitation order by a grandparent or other member of the immediate family where a visitation or parent-time right has been previously granted by the court, the court:

(a) may award to the prevailing party:

(i) actual attorney fees incurred;

(ii) the costs incurred by the prevailing party because of the other party's failure to provide or exercise court-ordered visitation or parent-time, including:

(A) court costs;

(B) child care expenses;

(C) transportation expenses actually incurred;

(D) lost wages, if ascertainable; or

(E) counseling for a parent or a minor child if ordered or approved by the court; or

(iii) any other appropriate equitable remedy; and

(b) shall award reasonable make-up parent-time to the prevailing party, unless make-up parent-time is not in the best interest of the minor child.

Section 245. Section 81-9-209 is amended to read:

81-9-209. Notice of relocation -- Effect of relocation on parent-time schedule.

(1) As used in this section, "relocation" means moving 150 miles or more from the residence of the other parent.

(2) The relocating parent shall provide written notice to the other parent at least 60 days before the day on which the relocating parent intends to relocate.

(3) The written notice of relocation under Subsection (2) shall contain statements affirming:

(a) the parent-time provisions in Subsection (9) or a parent-time schedule approved by both parties will be followed; and

(b) that a parent will not interfere with the other's parental rights pursuant to court ordered parent-time arrangements or the parent-time schedule approved by both parties.

(4) The court shall, upon motion of any party or upon the court's own motion, schedule a hearing with notice to:

(a) review the notice of relocation and the relevant parent-time schedule under Section [~~81-8-302 or 81-8-304~~]81-9-302 or 81-9-304; and

(b) make appropriate orders regarding the parent-time schedule and costs for parent-time transportation.

(5) In a hearing to review the notice of relocation, the court shall, in determining if the relocation of a custodial parent is in the best interest of the minor child, consider any other factors that the court considers relevant to the determination.

(6) If the court determines that relocation is not in the best interest of the minor child, and the custodial parent relocates, the court may order a change of custody.

(7) (a) If the court finds that the relocation is in the best interest of the minor child, the court shall determine the parent-time schedule and allocate the transportation costs that will be incurred for the minor child to visit the noncustodial parent.

(b) In making a determination under Subsection (7)(a), the court shall consider:

(i) the reason for the parent's relocation;

(ii) the additional costs or difficulty to both parents in exercising parent-time;

(iii) the economic resources of both parents; and

(iv) other factors the court considers necessary and relevant.

(8) If a parent relocates because of an act of domestic violence or family violence by the other parent, the court shall make specific findings and orders with regard to the application of this section.

(9) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, upon the relocation of one of the parties, the following schedule is the minimum parent-time the noncustodial parent is entitled to a minor child who is five to 18 years old:

(a) in years ending in an odd number, the minor child shall spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

(i) Thanksgiving holiday beginning Wednesday until Sunday; and

(ii) Spring break, if applicable, beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the day before school resumes;

(b) in years ending in an even number, the minor child shall spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:

(i) the entire winter school break period; and

(ii) the Fall school break beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the day before school resumes;

(c) extended parent-time equal to 1/2 of the summer or off-track time for consecutive weeks; and

(d) one weekend per month, at the option and expense of the noncustodial parent.

(10) For extended parent-time under Subsection (9)(c), the minor child should be returned to the custodial home no later than seven days before school begins, except that this week is counted when determining the amount of parent-time to be divided between the parents for the summer or off-track period.

(11) (a) The court may also set a parent-time schedule for a minor child who is younger than five years old.

(b) The schedule shall take into consideration the following:

(i) the age of the minor child;

(ii) the developmental needs of the minor child;

(iii) the distance between the parents' homes;

(iv) the travel arrangements and cost;

(v) the level of attachment between the minor child and the noncustodial parent; and

(vi) any other factors relevant to the best interest of the minor child.

(12) The noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement is subject to the following restrictions.

(a) (i) If the noncustodial parent has not designated a specific weekend for parent-time, the noncustodial parent shall receive the last weekend of each month unless a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on that particular weekend.

(ii) If a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on the last weekend of the month, the noncustodial parent is entitled to the next to the last weekend of the month.

(b) If a noncustodial parent's extended parent-time or parent-time over a holiday extends into or through the first weekend of the next month, that weekend shall be considered the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement for that month.

(c) If a minor child is out of school for teacher development days or snow days after the minor child begins the school year, or other days not included in the list of holidays in Subsection (9) and those days are contiguous with the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend parent-time, those days shall be included in the weekend parent-time.

(13) The custodial parent is entitled to all parent-time not specifically allocated to the noncustodial parent.

(14) In the event finances and distance preclude the exercise of minimum parent-time for the noncustodial parent during the school year, the court should consider awarding more time for the noncustodial parent during the summer time if it is in the best interests of the [~~the~~]minor child.

(15) (a) Upon the motion of any party, the court may order uninterrupted parent-time with the noncustodial parent for a minimum of 30 days during extended parent-time, unless the court finds it is not in the best interest of the minor child.

(b) If the court orders uninterrupted parent-time during a period not covered by this section, the court shall specify in its order which parent is responsible for the minor child's travel expenses.

(16) (a) Unless otherwise ordered by the court the relocating party shall be responsible for all the minor child's travel expenses relating to Subsections (9)(a) and (b) and 1/2 of the minor child's travel expenses relating to Subsection (9)(c), provided the noncustodial parent is current on all support obligations.

(b) If the noncustodial parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, the noncustodial parent is responsible for all of the minor child's travel expenses under Subsection (9), unless the court rules otherwise.

(c) A responsible party shall make a reimbursement to the other for the minor child's travel expenses within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

(17) The court may apply this provision to any preexisting decree of divorce.

(18) Any action under this section may be set for an expedited hearing.

(19) A parent who fails to comply with the notice of relocation in Subsection (2) is in contempt of the court's order.

Section 246. Section 81-9-303 is amended to read:

81-9-303. Optional schedule for parent-time for a minor child five to 18 years old.

(1) (a) The optional parent-time schedule in this section applies to a minor child who is five to 18 years old.

(b) For purposes of calculating child support, the optional parent-time schedule in this section is 145 overnights.

(c) Any impact on child support shall be consistent with joint physical custody.

(2) The parents and the court may consider the increased parent-time schedule in this section as a minimum parent-time schedule when the parties agree or the noncustodial parent can demonstrate:

(a) the noncustodial parent has been actively involved in the minor child's life;

(b) the parties can communicate effectively regarding the minor child or the noncustodial parent has a plan to accomplish effective communications regarding the minor child;

(c) the noncustodial parent has the ability to facilitate the increased parent-time;

(b) For the four weeks of extended parent-time for a noncustodial parent under Subsection (7)(a):

(i) two weeks, which may be consecutive, shall be uninterrupted parent-time for the noncustodial parent; and

(ii) two weeks, which may be consecutive, may be interrupted by the custodial parent for a weekday visit on the same day on which the noncustodial parent is granted weekday day parent-time.

(d) If a custodial parent intends to interrupt a noncustodial parent's parent-time under Subsection (7)(b)(ii), the custodial parent shall provide notification to the noncustodial parent of the intent to interrupt parent-time within 10 days after the day on which the custodial parent receives notification of the noncustodial parent's plans for the exercise of interrupted extended parent-time.

(9) (a) An election should be made by the noncustodial parent at the time of entry of the divorce decree or court order, except that the election may be changed by mutual agreement, court order, or by the noncustodial parent in the event of a change in the minor child's schedule.

(12) If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the parent exercising parent-time shall be responsible for the minor child's attendance at school for that school day.

(13) If there is more than one minor child and the minor children's school schedules vary for purpose of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the holiday, the minor children may remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening that all minor children's schools are dismissed for the holiday and ending the evening before any minor child returns to school.

(14) If there is a minor child five to 18 years old and a minor child under five years old and both minor children are the children of the parties, the parents and the court should consider an upward deviation for parent-time with all the minor children so that parent-time is uniform based on a schedule under this section.

(1) (a) In accordance with Section 80-2a-201, it is the public policy of this state that a parent retain the fundamental right and duty to exercise primary control over the care, supervision, upbringing, and education of a minor child of the parent.

(b) There is a rebuttable presumption that a parent's decisions are in the minor child's best interests.

(a) currently resides; or

(b) lived with a parent or an individual other than a parent who acted as a parent within six months before the commencement of the action.

(10) Except as provided in Subsection (11), a court may not grant custody of a minor child under this section to an individual:

(a) who is not the parent of the minor child; and

(b) who, before a custody order is issued, is convicted, pleads guilty, or pleads no contest to a felony or attempted felony involving conduct that constitutes any of the following:

(xi) aggravated sexual exploitation of a minor, as described in Section 76-5b-201.1; or

(xii) an offense in another state that, if committed in this state, would constitute an offense described in this Subsection (10).

(11) (a) As used in this Subsection (11), "disqualifying offense" means an offense listed in Subsection (10) that prevents a court from granting custody except as provided in this Subsection (11).

(b) An individual described in Subsection (10) may only be considered for custody of a minor child if the following criteria are met by clear and convincing evidence:

(i) the individual is a relative, as defined in Section 80-3-102, of the minor child;

(ii) at least 10 years have elapsed from the day on which the individual is successfully released from prison, jail, parole, or probation related to a disqualifying offense;

(iii) during the 10 years before the day on which the individual files a petition with the court seeking custody the individual has not been convicted, plead guilty, or plead no contest to an offense greater than an infraction or traffic violation that would likely impact the health, safety, or well-being of the minor child;

(iv) the individual can provide evidence of successful treatment or rehabilitation directly related to the disqualifying offense;

(v) the court determines that the risk related to the disqualifying offense is unlikely to cause harm, as defined in Section 80-1-102, or potential harm to the minor child currently or at any time in the future when considering all of the following:

(A) the minor child's age;

(B) the minor child's gender;

(vi) the individual can provide evidence of the following:

(A) the relationship with the minor child is of long duration;

(B) that an emotional bond exists with the minor child; and

(C) that custody by the individual who has committed the disqualifying offense ensures the best interests of the minor child are met;

(vii) (A) there is no other responsible relative known to the court who has or likely could develop an emotional bond with the minor child and does not have a disqualifying offense; or

(B) if there is a responsible relative known to the court that does not have a disqualifying offense, Subsection (11)(d) applies; and

(viii) that the continuation of the relationship between the individual with the disqualifying offense and the minor child could not be sufficiently maintained through any type of visitation if custody were given to the relative with no disqualifying offense described in Subsection (11)(d).

(c) The individual with the disqualifying offense bears the burden of proof regarding why placement with that individual is in the best interest of the minor child over another responsible relative or equally situated individual who does not have a disqualifying offense.

(d) If, as provided in Subsection (11)(b)(vii)(B), there is a responsible relative known to the court who does not have a disqualifying offense:

(i) preference for custody is given to a relative who does not have a disqualifying offense; and

(ii) before the court may place custody with the individual who has the disqualifying offense over another responsible, willing, and able relative:

(A) an impartial custody evaluation shall be completed; and

(B) a guardian ad litem shall be assigned.

(12) Subsections (10) and (11) apply to a case pending on March 25, 2017, for which a final decision on custody has not been made and to a case filed on or after March 25, 2017.

(b) The order must include the provisions required by Subsection (1) and measures and conditions, including those in Subsections (3), (4), and (5), that are reasonably calculated to prevent abduction of the minor child, giving due consideration to the custody, visitation, and parent-time rights of the parties.

(b) require the respondent to post a bond or provide other security in an amount sufficient to serve as a financial deterrent to abduction, the proceeds of which may be used to pay for the reasonable expenses of recovery of the minor child, including reasonable attorney fees and costs if there is an abduction; and

(c) require the respondent to obtain education on the potentially harmful effects to the minor child from abduction.

(5) To prevent imminent abduction of a minor child, a court may:

(a) issue a warrant to take physical custody of the minor child under Section [~~78B-16-109~~]81-12-108 or the law of this state other than this chapter;

(2) (a) The respondent on a petition under Subsection (1) must be afforded an opportunity to be heard at the earliest possible time after the ex parte warrant is executed, but not later than the next judicial day unless a hearing on that date is impossible.

(b) In that event, the court shall hold the hearing on the first judicial day possible.

(3) An ex parte warrant under Subsection (1) to take physical custody of a minor child must:

(b) direct law enforcement officers to take physical custody of the minor child immediately;

(c) state the date and time for the hearing on the petition; and

(d) provide for the safe interim placement of the minor child pending further order of the court.

(5) The petition and warrant must be served on the respondent when or immediately after the minor child is taken into physical custody.

(6) (a) A warrant to take physical custody of a minor child, issued by this state or another state, is enforceable throughout this state.

(c) If required by exigent circumstances, the court may authorize law enforcement officers to make a forcible entry at any hour.

(7) If the court finds, after a hearing, that a petitioner sought an ex parte warrant under Subsection (1) for the purpose of harassment or in bad faith, the court may award the respondent reasonable attorney fees, costs, and other reasonable expenses and losses arising out of the issuance of the ex parte warrant.

(8) This chapter does not affect the availability of relief allowed under the law of this state other than this chapter.

Section 334. Section 81-13-201 is enacted to read:

PART 2. Adoption of a Minor Child

81-13-201. Definitions for part.

As used in this part, "sexual offense" means:

(1) an offense described in Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses; or

(2) an offense under the laws of the state where the minor child was conceived that is substantially similar to an offense described in Title 76, Chapter 5, Part 4, Sexual Offenses.

Section 335. Section 81-13-202, which is renumbered from Section 78B-6-102 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~78B-6-102~~]81-13-202. Legislative intent and findings -- Best interest of the minor child -- Interests of each party.

(1) It is the intent and desire of the Legislature that in every adoption of a minor child that the best interest of the minor child should govern and be of foremost concern in the court's determination.

(2) The court shall make a specific finding regarding the best interest of the [~~child~~]minor child, taking into consideration information provided to the court pursuant to the requirements of this chapter relating to the health, safety, and welfare of the minor child and the moral climate of the potential adoptive placement.

(3) The Legislature finds that the rights and interests of all parties affected by an adoption proceeding must be considered and balanced in determining what constitutional protections and processes are necessary and appropriate.

(4) (a) The Legislature specifically finds that it is not in a minor child's best interest to be adopted by a person or persons who are cohabiting in a relationship that is not a legally valid and binding marriage under the laws of this state.

(b) Nothing in this section limits or prohibits the court's placement of a minor child with a single adult who is not cohabiting or a person who is a relative of the minor child or a recognized placement under the Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1901 et seq.

(5) The Legislature also finds that:

(a) the state has a compelling interest in providing a stable and permanent [~~homes for adoptive children~~]home for a child adoptee in a prompt manner, in preventing the disruption of [~~adoptive placements~~]an adoptive placement, and in holding parents accountable for meeting the needs of [~~children~~]a child adoptee;

(b) an unmarried birth mother, faced with the responsibility of making crucial decisions about the future of a newborn child, is entitled to privacy, and has the right to make timely and appropriate decisions regarding her future and the future of the newborn child, and is entitled to assurance regarding the permanence of an adoptive placement;

(c) [~~adoptive children have~~]a child adoptee has a right to permanence and stability in [~~adoptive placements~~]an adoptive placement;

(d) adoptive parents have a constitutionally protected liberty and privacy interest in retaining custody of [~~an adopted child~~]a child adoptee;

(e) an unmarried biological father has an inchoate interest that acquires constitutional protection only when [~~he~~]the unmarried biological father demonstrates a timely and full commitment to the responsibilities of parenthood, both during pregnancy and upon the

[~~child's~~]child adoptee's birth; and

(f) the state has a compelling interest in requiring [~~unmarried biological fathers~~]an unmarried biological father to demonstrate commitment by providing appropriate medical care and financial support and by establishing legal [~~paternity,~~]parentage in accordance with the requirements of this chapter.

(6) (a) In enacting this chapter, the Legislature has prescribed the conditions for determining whether an unmarried biological father's action is sufficiently prompt and substantial to require constitutional protection.

(b) If an unmarried biological father fails to grasp the opportunities to establish a relationship with [~~his child~~]the child adoptee that are available to [~~him, his biological~~]the unmarried biological father, the unmarried biological father's parental interest may be lost entirely, or greatly diminished in constitutional significance by [~~his~~]the unmarried biological father's failure to timely exercise [~~it~~]the unmarried biological father's parental interest, or by [~~his~~]the unmarried biological father's failure to strictly comply with the available legal steps to substantiate [~~it~~]the parental interest.

(c) (i) A certain degree of finality is necessary in order to facilitate the state's compelling interest.

(ii) The Legislature finds that the interests of the state, the birth mother, the child adoptee, and the adoptive parents described in this section outweigh the interest of an unmarried biological father who does not timely grasp the opportunity to establish and demonstrate a relationship with [~~his child~~]the child adoptee in accordance with the requirements of this chapter.

(d) (i) The Legislature finds no practical way to remove all risk of fraud or misrepresentation in adoption proceedings, and has provided a method for absolute protection of an unmarried biological father's rights by compliance with the provisions of this chapter.

(ii) In balancing the rights and interests of the state, and of all parties affected by fraud, specifically the child adoptee, the adoptive parents, and the unmarried biological father, the Legislature has determined that the unmarried biological father is in the best position to prevent or ameliorate the effects of fraud and that, therefore, the burden of fraud shall be borne by [~~him~~]the unmarried biological father.

(e) An unmarried biological father has the primary responsibility to protect [~~his~~]the unmarried biological father's rights.

(f) An unmarried biological father is presumed to know that the child adoptee may be adopted without [~~his~~]the unmarried biological father's consent unless [~~he~~]the unmarried biological father strictly complies with the provisions of this chapter, manifests a prompt and full commitment to [~~his~~]the unmarried biological father's parental responsibilities, and establishes paternity.

(7) The Legislature finds that an unmarried birth mother has:

(a) a right of privacy with regard to [~~her~~]the unmarried birth mother's pregnancy and adoption plan[~~, and therefore has~~];

(b) no legal obligation to disclose the identity of an unmarried biological father [~~prior to~~]before or during an adoption proceeding[~~, and has~~]; and

(c) no obligation to volunteer information to the court with respect to the father.

~~(6)~~ (a) [~~For purpose of~~]As used in this Subsection ~~(6)~~, "disqualifying offense" means an offense listed in Subsection ~~(5)~~ that prevents a court from considering [~~an individual~~]an adult for adoption of a minor child except as provided in this Subsection ~~(6)~~.

(b) An [~~individual~~]adult described in Subsection ~~(5)~~ may only be considered for adoption of a minor child if the following criteria are met by clear and convincing evidence:

(i) at least 10 years have elapsed from the day on which the [~~individual~~]adult is successfully released from prison, jail, parole, or probation related to a disqualifying offense;

(ii) during the 10 years before the day on which the [~~individual~~]adult files a petition with the court seeking adoption, the [~~individual~~]adult has not been convicted, pleaded guilty, or pleaded no contest to an offense greater than an infraction or traffic violation that would likely impact the health, safety, or well-being of the minor child;

(B) engaging in regular communication with the child adoptee or with the person or authorized agency that has lawful custody of the child adoptee;

(b) The subjective intent of an unmarried biological father, whether expressed or otherwise, that is unsupported by evidence that the requirements in Subsection ~~(1)~~ have been met, shall not preclude a determination that the unmarried biological father failed to meet the requirements of Subsection ~~(1)~~.

~~(3)~~ Except as provided in [~~Subsections (6) and 78B-6-122(1)~~]Subsections (7) and (8), and subject to Subsection ~~(5), with regard to a child who is six months old or less at the time the child is placed with prospective adoptive parents,~~, the consent of an unmarried biological father to the adoption of a child adoptee, who is 180 days old or younger at the time that the child adoptee is placed with the prospective adoptive parents, is not required unless, [~~prior to the time the mother executes her~~]before the time that the birth mother executes the birth mother's consent for adoption or relinquishes the child adoptee for adoption, the unmarried biological father:

(ii) [~~he~~]the unmarried biological father was prevented from paying the expenses by the person or authorized agency having lawful custody of the child adoptee; or

(iii) the birth mother refused to accept the unmarried biological father's offer to pay the expenses described in this Subsection ~~(3)(d)~~(d).

~~(4)~~ (a) The notice described in Subsection ~~(3)(c)~~(c) is considered filed when received by the [~~state registrar of vital statistics~~]office.

(b) If the unmarried biological father fully complies with the requirements of Subsection ~~(3)~~, and an adoption of the child adoptee is not completed, the unmarried biological father shall, without any order of the court, be legally obligated for a reasonable amount of child support, pregnancy expenses, and child birth expenses, in accordance with [~~his~~]the unmarried biological father's financial ability.

~~(5)~~ Unless [~~his~~]the unmarried biological father's ability to assert the right to consent has been lost for failure to comply with Section [~~78B-6-110.1~~]81-13-208, or lost under another provision of Utah law, an unmarried biological father shall have at least one business day after the [~~child's~~]child adoptee's birth to fully and strictly comply with the requirements of Subsection ~~(3)~~.

~~(6)~~ [~~Consent~~]The consent of an unmarried biological father to the adoption of a child adoptee is not required under this section if:

(8) Notwithstanding Subsections (2) and (4), the consent of an unmarried biological father to the adoption of a child adoptee is required if:

(a) (i) the unmarried biological father did not know, and through the exercise of reasonable diligence could not have known, before the time the birth mother executed a consent to adoption or relinquishment of the child adoptee for adoption that a qualifying circumstance existed;

(ii) before the birth mother executed a consent to adoption or relinquishment of the child adoptee for adoption, the unmarried biological father fully complied with the requirements to establish parental rights and duties in the child adoptee, and to preserve the right to notice of a proceeding in connection with the adoption of the child adoptee, imposed by:

(A) the last state where the unmarried biological father knew, or through the exercise of reasonable diligence should have known, that the birth mother resided in before the birth mother executed the consent to adoption or relinquishment of the child adoptee for adoption; or

(A) 20 days after the day that the unmarried biological father knew, or through the exercise of reasonable diligence should have known, that a qualifying circumstance existed; or

(B) the time that the birth mother executed a consent to adoption or relinquishment of the child adoptee for adoption.

(9) When determining whether an unmarried biological father has demonstrated a full commitment to the unmarried biological father's parental responsibilities for purposes of Subsection (8)(a)(iii), a court shall consider the totality of the circumstances, including, if applicable:

(a) the efforts the unmarried biological father has taken to discover the location of the child adoptee or the child adoptee's birth mother;

(b) whether the unmarried biological father has expressed and demonstrated an interest in taking responsibility for the child adoptee;

(c) whether, and to what extent, the unmarried biological father has developed, or attempted to develop, a relationship with the child adoptee;

(d) whether the unmarried biological father offered to provide and, unless the offer was rejected, did provide, financial support for the child adoptee or the child adoptee's birth mother;

(e) whether, and to what extent, the unmarried biological father has communicated, or attempted to communicate, with the child adoptee or the child adoptee's birth mother;

(f) whether the unmarried biological father has timely filed legal proceedings to establish the unmarried biological father's parentage of, and take responsibility for, the child adoptee; and

(g) whether the unmarried biological father has timely filed a notice with a public official or agency relating to:

(i) the unmarried biological father's parentage of the child adoptee;

(ii) legal proceedings to establish the unmarried biological father's parentage of the child adoptee; or

(iii) other evidence that shows whether the unmarried biological father has demonstrated a full commitment to the unmarried biological father's parental responsibilities.

(10) An unmarried biological father who does not fully and strictly comply with the requirements of this section is considered to have waived and surrendered any right in relation to the child adoptee, including the right to:

(a) notice of any judicial proceeding in connection with the adoption of the child adoptee; and

(b) consent, or refuse to consent, to the adoption of the child adoptee.

(11) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the consent of an unmarried biological father is not required in a case where it is shown that the child adoptee was conceived as a result of conduct that constitutes a sexual offense, regardless of whether the unmarried biological father is formally charged with or convicted of the sexual offense.

~~(7)~~ Unless the child adoptee is conceived or born within a marriage, the petitioner in an adoption proceeding shall, [~~prior to~~]before entrance of a final decree of adoption, file with the court a certificate from the [~~state registrar of vital statistics within the Department of Health and Human Services~~]office, stating:

(a) that a diligent search has been made of the registry of notices from unmarried biological fathers described in Subsection ~~(3)(d)~~(c); and

(b) (i) that no filing has been found pertaining to the unmarried biological father of the child adoptee in question; or

(a) only has the effect of establishing that the individual is an unmarried biological father of the child adoptee to whom the order, declaration, or acknowledgment relates; and

(b) does not entitle the individual to:

(i) notice of any judicial proceeding related to the adoption of the child adoptee;

(ii) the right to consent, or refuse to consent, to the adoption of the child adoptee; or

(iii) the right to custody of, control over, or visitation with the child adoptee.

(c) a court that has jurisdiction over adoption proceedings in the state where the consent or relinquishment is taken; or

(4) A person, authorized by Subsection (1) or (2) to take consents or relinquishments, shall certify to the best of [~~his~~]the person's information and belief that the person executing the consent or relinquishment has read and understands the consent or relinquishment and has signed [~~it~~]the consent or relinquishment freely and voluntarily.

Section 348. Section 81-13-215, which is renumbered from Section 78B-6-133 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~78B-6-133~~]81-13-215. Contested adoption of a minor child -- Rights of parties -- Determination of custody.

(1) If [~~a person~~]an individual whose consent for an adoption of a minor child is required [~~pursuant to Subsection 78B-6-120(1)(b)~~]as described in Subsection 81-13-212(1)(b), (c), (d), (e), or (f) refused to consent, the court shall determine whether proper grounds exist for the termination of that [~~person's rights pursuant to the provisions of~~]individual's rights in accordance with this chapter or Title 80, Chapter 4, Termination and Restoration of Parental Rights.

(2) (a) If there are proper grounds to terminate the [~~person's~~]individual's parental rights, the court shall order that the [~~person's~~]individual's rights be terminated.

(b) If there are not proper grounds to terminate the [~~person's~~]individual's parental rights, the court shall:

(i) dismiss the adoption petition;

(ii) conduct an evidentiary hearing to determine who should have custody of the minor child; and

(iii) award custody of the minor child in accordance with the minor child's best interest.

(c) Termination of [~~a person's~~]an individual's parental rights does not terminate the right of a relative of the parent to seek adoption of the minor child.

(3) Evidence considered at the custody hearing may include:

(a) evidence of psychological or emotional bonds that the minor child has formed with a third person, including the prospective adoptive parent; and

(b) any detriment that a change in custody may cause the minor child.

(4) If the court dismisses the adoption petition, the fact that [~~a person~~]an individual relinquished a minor child for adoption or consented to the adoption may not be considered as evidence in a custody proceeding described in this section, or in any subsequent custody proceeding, that it is not in the minor child's best interest for custody to be awarded to such person or that:

(a) the [~~person~~]individual is unfit or incompetent to be a parent;

(b) the [~~person~~]individual has neglected or abandoned the minor child;

(c) the [~~person~~]individual is not interested in having custody of the minor child; or

(d) the [~~person~~]individual has forfeited the [~~person's~~]individual's parental presumption.

(5) Any custody order entered [~~pursuant to~~]under this section may also:

(a) include provisions for:

(i) parent-time; or

(ii) visitation by an interested third party, including the prospective adoptive parent; and

(b) provide for the financial support of the minor child.

(6) (a) If a person [~~or entity~~]whose consent is required for an adoption under Subsection [~~78B-6-120(1)(a)~~]81-13-212(1)(a) or (g) refuses to consent, the court shall proceed with an evidentiary hearing and award custody as [~~set forth~~]described in Subsection (2).

(b) The court may also finalize the adoption if doing so is in the best interest of the minor child.

(7) (a) A person may not contest an adoption after the final decree of adoption is entered, if that person:

(i) was a party to the adoption proceeding;

(ii) was served with notice of the adoption proceeding; or

(iii) executed a consent to the adoption or relinquishment for adoption.

(b) No person may contest an adoption after one year from the day on which the final decree of adoption is entered.

(c) The limitations on contesting an adoption action, described in this Subsection (7), apply to all attempts to contest an adoption:

(i) regardless of whether the adoption is contested directly or collaterally; and

(ii) regardless of the basis for contesting the adoption, including claims of fraud, duress, undue influence, lack of capacity or competency, mistake of law or fact, or lack of jurisdiction.

(d) The limitations on contesting an adoption action, described in this Subsection (7), do not prohibit a timely appeal of:

(i) a final decree of adoption; or

(ii) a decision in an action challenging an adoption, if the action was brought within the time limitations described in Subsections (7)(a) and (b).

(8) A court that has jurisdiction over a minor child for whom more than one petition for adoption is filed shall grant a hearing only under the following circumstances:

(a) to a petitioner:

(i) with whom the minor child is placed;

(ii) who has custody or guardianship of the minor child;

(iii) who has filed a written statement with the court within [~~eight months~~]240 days after the day on which the shelter hearing is held:

(A) requesting immediate placement of the minor child with the petitioner; and

(B) expressing the petitioner's intention of adopting the minor child;

(iv) who is a relative with whom the minor child has a significant and substantial relationship and who was unaware, within [~~the first eight months~~]240 days after the day on which the shelter hearing is held, of the minor child's removal from the minor child's parent; or

(v) who is a relative with whom the minor child has a significant and substantial relationship and, in a case where the minor child is not placed with a relative or is placed with a relative that is unable or unwilling to adopt the minor child:

(A) was actively involved in the minor child's child welfare case with the division or the juvenile court while the minor child's parent engaged in reunification services; and

(B) filed a written statement with the court that includes the information described in Subsections (8)(a)(iii)(A) and (B) within 30 days after the day on which the court terminated reunification services; or

(b) if the minor child:

(i) has been in the current placement for less than 180 days before the day on which the petitioner files the petition for adoption; or

(ii) is placed with, or is in the custody or guardianship of, an individual who previously informed the division or the court that the individual is unwilling or unable to adopt the minor child.

(9) (a) If the court grants a hearing on more than one petition for adoption, there is a rebuttable presumption that it is in the best interest of a minor child to be placed for adoption with a petitioner:

(i) who has fulfilled the requirements [~~described in Title 78B, Chapter 6, Part 1, Utah Adoption Act~~]of this chapter; and

(ii) (A) with whom the minor child has continuously resided for [~~six months~~]180 days;

(B) who has filed a written statement with the court within [~~eight months~~]240 days after the day on which the shelter hearing is held, as described in Subsection (8)(a)(iii); or

(C) who is a relative described in Subsection (8)(a)(iv).

(b) The court may consider other factors relevant to the best interest of the minor child to determine whether the presumption is rebutted.

(c) The court shall weigh the best interest of the minor child uniformly between petitioners if more than one petitioner satisfies a rebuttable presumption condition described in Subsection (9)(a).

(10) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the division or the minor child's guardian ad litem from appearing or participating in any proceeding for a petition for adoption.

(11) The division shall use best efforts to provide a known relative with timely information relating to the relative's rights or duties under this section.

Section 349. Section 81-13-216, which is renumbered from Section 78B-6-146 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~78B-6-146~~]81-13-216. Postadoption contact agreement.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Postadoption contact agreement" means a document, agreed upon prior to the finalization of an adoption of a minor child in the custody of the division, that outlines the relationship between an adoptive parent, birth parent, or other birth relative, and [~~an adopted child~~]the minor child after the finalization of adoption.

(b) "Other birth relative" means a grandparent, stepparent, sibling, stepsibling, aunt, or uncle of the [~~prospective adoptive child~~]child adoptee.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding any other provision in this chapter, if a child adoptee in the custody of the division is placed for adoption, the prospective adoptive parent and birth parent, or other birth relative, may enter into a postadoption contact agreement as provided in this section.

(b) A birth parent is not required to be a party to a postadoption contact agreement in order to permit an open adoption agreement between a prospective adoptive parent and another birth relative of the child adoptee.

(3) In order to be legally enforceable, a postadoption contact agreement shall be:

(a) approved by the court before the finalization of the adoption, with the court making a specific finding that the agreement is in the best interest of the child adoptee;

(b) signed by each party claiming a right or obligation in the agreement; and

(c) if the [~~adopted child~~]child adoptee is 12 years old or older, approved by the child adoptee.

(4) A postadoption contact agreement shall:

(a) describe:

(i) visits, if any, that shall take place between the birth parent, other birth relative, adoptive parent, and [~~adopted child~~]child adoptee;

(ii) the degree of supervision, if any, that shall be required during a visit between a birth parent, other birth relative, and [~~adopted child~~]child adoptee;

(iii) the information, if any, that shall be provided to a birth parent, or other birth relative, about the [~~adopted child~~]child adoptee and how often that information shall be provided;

(iv) the grounds, if any, on which the adoptive parent may:

(A) decline to permit visits, described in Subsection (4)(a)(i), between the birth parent, or other birth relative, and [~~adopted child~~]child adoptee; or

(B) cease providing the information described in Subsection (4)(a)(iii) to the birth parent or other birth relative; and

(b) state that following the adoption, the court shall presume that the adoptive parent's judgment about the best interest of the child adoptee is correct in any action seeking to enforce, modify, or terminate the agreement.

(5) A postadoption contact agreement may not limit the adoptive parent's ability to move out of state.

(6) A postadoption contact agreement may only be modified with the consent of the adoptive parent.

(7) In an action seeking enforcement of a postadoption contact agreement:

(a) an adoptive parent's judgment about the best interest of the child adoptee is entitled to a presumption of correctness;

(b) if the party seeking to enforce the postadoption contact agreement successfully rebuts the presumption described in Subsection (7)(a), the court shall consider whether:

(i) the parties performed the duties outlined in the open adoption agreement in good faith;

(ii) there is a reasonable alternative that fulfills the spirit of the open adoption agreement without ordering mandatory compliance with the open adoption agreement; and

(iii) enforcement of the open adoption agreement is in the best interest of the [~~adopted child~~]child adoptee; and

(c) the court shall order the parties to attend mediation, if the presumption in Subsection (7)(a) is successfully rebutted and mediation is in the [~~child's~~]child adoptee's best interest.

(8) An open adoption agreement that has been found not to be in the best interest of the [~~adopted child~~]child adoptee shall not be enforced.

(9) Violation of an open adoption agreement is not grounds:

(a) to set aside an adoption; or

(b) for an award of money damages.

(10) Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean that an open adoption agreement is required before an adoption may be finalized.

(11) Refusal or failure to agree to a postadoption contact agreement is not admissible in any adoption proceeding.

(12) The court that approves a postadoption contact agreement retains jurisdiction over modification, termination, and enforcement of an approved postadoption contact agreement.

(1) As used in this section, "nonconforming sign" means a sign that has been erected in a zone or area other than commercial or industrial or where outdoor advertising is not permitted under this part.

(2) (a) The department may acquire by gift, purchase, agreement, exchange, or eminent domain, any existing outdoor advertising and all property rights pertaining to the outdoor advertising which were lawfully in existence on May 9, 1967, and which by reason of this part become nonconforming.

(5) Except as provided in Section 72-7-508, no sign shall be required to be removed by the department nor sign maintenance as described in this section be discontinued unless at the time of removal or discontinuance there are sufficient funds, from whatever source, appropriated and immediately available to pay the just compensation required under this section and unless at that time the federal funds required to be contributed under 23 U.S.C., Sec. 131, if any, with respect to the outdoor advertising being removed, have been appropriated and are immediately available to this state.

(6) (a) If any outdoor advertising use, structure, or permit may not be continued because of the widening, construction, or reconstruction along an interstate, federal aid primary highway existing as of June 1, 1991, or national highway systems highway, the owner shall have the option to relocate and remodel the use, structure, or permit to another location:

(3) The county or municipality in which the [~~outdoor advertising~~]obstructed sign is located or is to be relocated shall, if necessary, provide for the height adjustment or relocation by ordinance for a special exception to its zoning ordinance.

(4) (a) The height adjusted sign:

(a) within the same municipality or unincorporated county:

~~(a)~~ on the same property;

(2) (a) An appointment of an agent to make decisions only for mental health care for an individual does not revoke an earlier appointment of an agent to make other health care decisions for the individual.

(b) A later appointment revokes the authority of an agent under the earlier appointment to make decisions about mental health care unless otherwise specified in the power of attorney making the later appointment.

(3) An appointment of an agent to make health care decisions for an individual other than decisions about mental health care made after appointment of an agent authorized to make only mental health care decisions does not revoke the appointment of the agent authorized to make only mental health care decisions.

75A-9-111. Default surrogate.

(1) A default surrogate may make a health care decision for an individual who lacks capacity to make health care decisions and for whom an agent, or guardian authorized to make health care decisions, has not been appointed or is not reasonably available.

(a) an adult the individual has identified, other than in a power of attorney for health care, to make a health care decision for the individual if the individual cannot make the decision;

(j) a physician designated in accordance with Subsection (6).

(3) (a) A responsible health care professional may require an individual who assumes authority to act as a default surrogate to provide a declaration in a record under penalty of perjury stating facts and circumstances reasonably sufficient to establish the authority.

(b) The Department of Health and Human Services shall create a uniform form to be used in accordance with Subsection (3)(a).

(4) If a responsible health care professional reasonably determines that an individual who assumed authority to act as a default surrogate is not willing or able to comply with a duty under Section 75A-9-116 or fails to comply with the duty in a timely manner, the professional may recognize the individual next in priority under Subsection (2) as the default surrogate.

(5) A health care decision made by a default surrogate is effective without judicial approval.

(6) If an individual resides in or is receiving care in a health care institution, and is determined to lack capacity to make a health care decision, the responsible health care professional may designate a willing physician to make the decision on behalf of the individual if:

(a) the responsible health care professional, or person acting under the supervision of the responsible health care professional, after using best efforts cannot identify and locate:

(ii) under the actual or constructive authority of the responsible health care professional;

(iii) a family member or cohabitant of the responsible health care professional; or

(iv) disqualified from acting as default surrogate under Section 75A-9-113;

(d) the responsible health care professional informs the individual of the designation of a willing physician, the identity of the designated physician, and of the individual's right to object to the designation; and

(e) the identity of the physician designated by the responsible health care professional is documented in the individual's medical record.

(7) The power of a physician designated under Subsection (6) to act as default surrogate terminates if:

(c) the conditions in Subsection (1) do not exist.

Section 14. Section 75A-9-112 is enacted to read:

75A-9-112. Disagreement among default surrogates.

(1) A default surrogate who assumes authority under Section 75A-9-111 shall inform a responsible health care professional if two or more members of a class under Subsection 75A-9-111(2) have assumed authority to act as default surrogates and the members do not agree on a health care decision.

(2) A responsible health care professional shall comply with the decision of a majority of the members of the class with highest priority under Subsection 75A-9-111(2) who have communicated their views to the professional and the professional reasonably believes are acting consistent with their duties under Section 75A-9-116.

(3) (a) If a responsible health care professional is informed that the members of the class who have communicated their views to the professional are evenly divided concerning the health care decision, the default surrogate who assumes authority under Section 75A-9-111 shall make a reasonable effort to solicit the views of members of the class who are reasonably available but have not yet communicated their views to the professional.

(b) The professional, after the solicitation, shall comply with the decision of a majority of the members who have communicated their views to the professional and the professional reasonably believes are acting consistent with their duties under Section 75A-9-116.

(4) If the class remains evenly divided after the effort is made under Subsection (3), the health care decision must be made as provided by other law of this state regarding the treatment of an individual who is found to lack capacity.

Section 15. Section 75A-9-113 is enacted to read:

75A-9-113. Disqualification to act as default surrogate.

(c) Disqualification under this subsection is effective even if made by an individual who lacks capacity to make an advance directive if the individual clearly communicates a desire that the individual being disqualified not make health care decisions for the individual.

(2) An individual is disqualified from acting as a default surrogate for an individual who lacks capacity to make health care decisions if:

(a) a court finds that the potential default surrogate poses a danger to the individual's well-being, even if the court does not issue a protective order against the potential surrogate;

(b) the potential default surrogate is an owner, operator, employee, or contractor of a nursing home or assisted living facility in which the individual is residing or receiving care unless the owner, operator, employee, or contractor is a family member of the individual, the cohabitant of the individual, or a descendant of the cohabitant; or

(c) the potential default surrogate refuses to provide a timely declaration under Subsection 75A-9-111(3).

Section 16. Section 75A-9-114 is enacted to read:

75A-9-114. Revocation.

(2) Revocation under Subsection (1) may be by any act of the individual that clearly indicates that the individual intends to revoke the appointment, designation, or instruction, including an oral statement to a health care professional.

(3) Except as provided in Section 75A-9-109, an advance health care directive of an individual that conflicts with another advance health care directive of the individual revokes the earlier directive to the extent of the conflict.

(4) Unless otherwise provided in an individual's advance health care directive appointing an agent, the appointment of a spouse of an individual as agent for the individual is revoked if:

(a) a petition for annulment, divorce, dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or termination has been filed and not dismissed or withdrawn;

(a) the law of the state specified in the directive or, if a state is not specified, the state in which the individual created the directive; or

(b) this chapter.

(2) A person may assume without inquiry that an advance health care directive is genuine, valid, and still in effect, and may implement and rely on it, unless the person has good cause to believe the directive is invalid or has been revoked.

(3) An advance health care directive, revocation of a directive, or a signature on a directive or revocation may not be denied legal effect or enforceability solely because it is in electronic form.

(4) Evidence relating to an advance health care directive, revocation of a directive, or a signature on a directive or revocation may not be excluded in a proceeding solely because the evidence is in electronic form.

(5) This chapter does not affect the validity of an electronic record or signature that is valid under Title 46, Chapter 4, Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

(6) If this chapter conflicts with other law of this state relating to the creation, execution, implementation, or revocation of an advance health care directive, this chapter prevails.

Section 18. Section 75A-9-116 is enacted to read:

(2) An agent or default surrogate shall make a health care decision in accordance with the direction of the individual in an advance health care directive and other goals, preferences, and wishes of the individual to the extent known or reasonably ascertainable by the agent or default surrogate.

(3) If there is not a direction in an advance health care directive and the goals, preferences, and wishes of the individual regarding a health care decision are not known or reasonably ascertainable by the agent or default surrogate, the agent or default surrogate shall make the decision in accordance with the agent's or default surrogate's determination of the individual's best interest.

(4) In determining the individual's best interest under Subsection (3), the agent or default surrogate shall:

(a) give primary consideration to the individual's contemporaneous communications, including verbal and nonverbal expressions;

(b) consider the individual's values to the extent known or reasonably ascertainable by the agent or default surrogate; and

(c) consider the risks and benefits of the potential health care decision.

(5) As soon as reasonably feasible, an agent or default surrogate who is informed of a revocation of an advance health care directive or disqualification of the agent or default surrogate shall communicate the revocation or disqualification to a responsible health care professional.

Section 19. Section 75A-9-117 is enacted to read:

(1) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (3), the power of an agent or default surrogate commences when the individual is found under Subsection 75A-9-103(2) or by a court to lack capacity to make a health care decision.

(b) The power ceases if the individual later is found to have capacity to make a health care decision, or the individual objects under Subsection 75A-9-104(3) to the finding of lack of capacity under Subsection 75A-9-103(2).

(c) The power resumes if:

(i) the power ceased because the individual objected under Subsection 75A-9-104(3); and

(3) A power of attorney for health care may provide that the power of an agent under Subsection (1) commences on appointment.

(4) (a) If no other person is authorized to do so, an agent or default surrogate may apply for public or private health insurance and benefits on behalf of the individual.

(b) An agent or default surrogate who may apply for insurance and benefits does not, solely by reason of the power, have a duty to apply for the insurance or benefits.

(5) An agent or default surrogate may not consent to voluntary admission of the individual to a facility for mental health treatment unless:

(a) voluntary admission is specifically authorized by the individual in an advance health care directive in a record; and

(b) the admission is for no more than the maximum of the number of days specified in the directive.

(6) Except as provided in Subsection (7), an agent or default surrogate may not consent to placement of the individual in a nursing home if the placement is intended to be for more than 100 days if:

(a) an alternative living arrangement is reasonably feasible;

(b) the individual objects to the placement; or

(c) the individual is not terminally ill.

(7) If specifically authorized by the individual in an advance health care directive in a record, an agent or default surrogate may consent to placement of the individual in a nursing home for more than 100 days even if:

(b) the individual has expressly authorized the withholding or withdrawal in a health care instruction that has not been revoked; or

(2) A default surrogate may not make a health care decision if, under other law of this state, the decision:

(3) Unless the power of attorney provides otherwise, an alternate agent has the same authority as the original agent:

(a) at any time the original agent is not reasonably available or is otherwise unwilling or unable to act, for the duration of the unavailability, unwillingness, or inability to act; or

(2) If possible before implementing a health care decision made by a surrogate, a responsible health care professional as soon as reasonably feasible shall communicate to the individual the decision made and the identity of the surrogate.

(3) A responsible health care professional who makes or is informed of a finding that an individual lacks capacity to make a health care decision or no longer lacks capacity, or that other circumstances exist that affect a health care instruction or the authority of a surrogate, as soon as reasonably feasible, shall:

(a) document the finding or circumstance in the individual's medical record; and

(6) A health care professional or a health care institution may refuse to provide health care consistent with a health care instruction or health care decision if:

(a) the instruction or decision is contrary to a policy of the health care institution providing care to the individual that is based expressly on reasons of conscience and the policy was timely communicated to the individual or to the individual's surrogate;

(b) the care would require health care that is not available to the professional or institution; or

(c) compliance with the instruction or decision would:

[~~(b) adopt rules of practice setting forth the nature and requirements of all formal and informal procedures available, including a description of the forms and instructions used by the enforcing authority of his office; and~~]

[~~(c) make available for public inspection all rules, written statements of policy, and interpretations formulated, adopted, or used by the enforcing authority in discharging his functions.~~]

[~~(2) A rule of the enforcing authority is invalid, and may not be invoked by the enforcing authority for any purpose, until it has been made available for public inspection under Subsection (1). This provision does not apply to a person who has knowledge of a rule before engaging in an act or practice that violates this act.~~]In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the division shall make rules that specify acts or practices that violate Subsection 13-11-4(1).

Section 10. Section 13-11-16 is amended to read:

13-11-16. Investigatory powers of the division.

(1) If [~~, by his own inquiries or as a result of complaints, the enforcing authority~~]the division has reason to believe that a person has engaged in, is engaging in, or is about to engage in an act or practice that violates this [~~act, he~~]chapter, the division may [~~administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses or matter, and collect evidence~~]investigate and otherwise act in accordance with Sections 13-2-5 and 13-2-6 and other provisions of this chapter.

(2) (a) If the matter that the [~~enforcing authority~~]division subpoenas is located outside this state, the person subpoenaed may either make [~~it~~]the matter available to the [~~enforcing authority~~]division at a convenient location within the state or pay the reasonable and necessary expenses for the [~~enforcing authority~~]division or [~~his~~]the division's representative to examine the matter at the place where [~~it~~]the matter is located.

(b) The [~~enforcing authority~~]division may designate representatives, including officials of the state in which the matter is located, to inspect the matter on [~~his~~]the division's behalf, and [~~he~~]may respond to similar requests from officials of other states.

(3) Upon failure of a person without lawful excuse to obey a subpoena and upon reasonable notice to all persons affected, the [~~enforcing authority~~]division may apply to the court for an order compelling compliance.

(4) In the event a witness asserts a privilege against self-incrimination, testimony and evidence from the witness may be compelled [~~pursuant to~~]in accordance with Title 77, Chapter 22b, Grants of Immunity.

Section 11. Section 13-11-17 is amended to read:

13-11-17. Actions by the division.

(1) The [~~enforcing authority~~]division may bring an action in a court [~~of competent~~]with jurisdiction to:

(a) obtain a declaratory judgment that an act or practice violates this chapter;

(b) enjoin, in accordance with the principles of equity, a supplier [~~who~~]that has violated, is violating, or is otherwise likely to violate this chapter;

(c) order disgorgement of money or any thing of value received in violation of this chapter;

(d) recover, for each violation, restitution for actual damages, or obtain relief under Subsection (2)(b), on behalf of impacted consumers[~~, who complained to the enforcing authority within a reasonable time after it instituted proceedings under this chapter~~]; and

~~(d)~~ obtain a fine in an amount determined after considering the factors in Subsection (6).

(2) (a) The [~~enforcing authority~~]division may bring a class action on behalf of consumers for the actual damages caused by an act or practice specified as violating this chapter in a rule adopted by the [~~enforcing authority~~]division under [~~Subsection 13-11-8(2)~~]Section 13-11-9 before the consumer transactions on which the action is based, or declared to violate Section 13-11-4 or 13-11-5 by final judgment of courts of general jurisdiction and appellate courts of this state that was either reported officially or made available for public dissemination under Subsection 13-11-7(1)(c) by the [~~enforcing authority~~]division 10 days before the consumer transactions on which the action is based, or, with respect to a supplier who agreed to [~~it~~]a consent judgment, was prohibited specifically by the terms of a consent judgment that became final before the consumer transactions on which the action is based.

(b) (i) On motion of the [~~enforcing authority~~]division and without bond in an action under this Subsection (2), the court may make appropriate orders, including appointment of a master or receiver or sequestration of assets, but only if it appears that the defendant is threatening or is about to remove, conceal, or dispose of the defendant's property to the damage of persons for whom relief is requested.

(ii) An appropriate order described in Subsection (2)(b)(i) may include an order to:

(A) reimburse consumers found to have been damaged;

(B) carry out a transaction in accordance with consumers' reasonable expectations;

(C) strike or limit the application of unconscionable clauses of contracts to avoid an unconscionable result;

(D) impose a fine in an amount determined after considering the factors listed in Subsection (6); or

(E) grant other appropriate relief.

~~(ii)~~ The court may assess the expenses of a master or receiver against a supplier.

(c) If an act or practice that violates this chapter unjustly enriches a supplier and damages can be computed with reasonable certainty, damages recoverable on behalf of consumers who cannot be located with due diligence shall be transferred to the state treasurer [~~pursuant to~~]in accordance with Title 67, Chapter 4a, Revised Uniform Unclaimed Property Act.

(d) If a supplier shows by a preponderance of the evidence that a violation of this chapter resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid the error, recovery under this Subsection (2) is limited to the amount, if any, by which the supplier was unjustly enriched by the violation.

(3) (a) (i) The [~~enforcing authority~~]division may terminate an investigation or an action other than a class action upon acceptance of the supplier's written assurance of voluntary compliance with this chapter.[-]

(ii) Acceptance of an assurance may be conditioned on a commitment to reimburse consumers or take other appropriate corrective action.

(b) (i) An assurance is not evidence of a prior violation of this chapter.[-]

(ii) Unless an assurance has been rescinded by agreement of the parties or voided by a court for good cause, subsequent failure to comply with the terms of an assurance is prima facie evidence of a violation.

(4) (a) In addition to other penalties and remedies set out under this chapter, and in addition to [~~its~~]the division's other enforcement powers under Chapter 2, Division of Consumer Protection, the division director may issue a cease and desist order and impose an administrative fine of up to $2,500 for each violation of this chapter.

(b) All money received through fines imposed under this section shall be deposited in the Consumer Protection Education and Training Fund created by Section 13-2-8.

(5) (a) Within 30 days after agency review or, if appealed to a court with jurisdiction, 30 days after judicial review of a final division order imposing an administrative fine, the supplier on whom the fine is imposed shall pay the fine in full.

(b) The unpaid amount of a fine is increased by 10%:

(i) if the fine has not been paid in full within 60 days after the final division order imposing the fine; and

(ii) unless the division waives the 10% increase in a stipulated payment plan.

(6) A court shall determine the fine imposed under Subsection ~~(1)(d)~~(e) or Subsection ~~(2)(b)(i)(D) shall be determined~~(b)(ii)(D) after considering the following factors:

(a) the seriousness, nature, circumstances, extent, and persistence of the conduct constituting the violation, including whether the supplier acted knowingly or intentionally to deceive;

(b) the harm to other persons resulting either directly or indirectly from the violation;

(c) cooperation by the supplier in an inquiry or investigation conducted by the [~~enforcing authority~~]division concerning the violation;

(d) efforts by the supplier to prevent occurrences of the violation;

(e) efforts by the supplier to mitigate the harm caused by the violation, including a reimbursement made to a consumer injured by the act of the supplier;

(f) the history of previous violations by the supplier;

(g) the need to deter the supplier or other suppliers from committing the violation in the future;[~~ and~~]

(h) whether the individual harmed by the violation was a vulnerable adult; and

~~(h)~~ other matters as justice may require.

Section 12. Section 13-11-18 is amended to read:

13-11-18. Noncompliance by supplier subject to other state supervision -- Cooperation of division and other official or agency.

(1) (a) If the [~~enforcing authority~~]division receives a complaint or other information relating to noncompliance with this [~~act~~]chapter by a supplier [~~who~~]that is subject to other supervision in this state, the [~~enforcing authority~~]division shall inform the official or agency having that supervision.[-]

(b) The [~~enforcing authority~~]division may request information about [~~suppliers~~]a supplier from the official or agency.

(2) (a) The [~~enforcing authority~~]division and any other official or agency in this state having supervisory authority over a supplier shall consult and assist each other in maintaining compliance with this [~~act~~]chapter.

(b) Within the scope of [~~their~~]the division's authority, [~~they~~]the division and any other official or agency in this state may jointly or separately make investigations, prosecute suits, and take other official action [~~they consider~~]the division considers appropriate.

Section 13. Section 13-11-19 is amended to read:

13-11-19. Actions by consumer.

(1) Whether [~~he~~]a consumer seeks or is entitled to damages or otherwise has an adequate remedy at law, [~~a~~]the consumer may bring an action to:

(a) obtain a declaratory judgment that an act or practice violates this chapter; and

(b) enjoin, in accordance with the principles of equity, a supplier [~~who~~]that has violated, is violating, or is likely to violate this chapter.

(2) A consumer who suffers loss as a result of a violation of this chapter may recover[~~, but not in a class action,~~]actual damages [~~or $2,000, whichever is greater,~~]plus court costs, but not in a class action except as provided in this section.

(3) Whether a consumer seeks or is entitled to recover damages or has an adequate remedy at law, [~~he~~]the consumer may bring a class action for declaratory judgment, an injunction, and appropriate ancillary relief against an act or practice that violates this chapter.

(4) (a) A consumer who suffers loss as a result of a violation of this chapter may bring a class action for the actual damages caused by an act or practice specified as violating this chapter by a rule adopted by the [~~enforcing authority~~]division under [~~Subsection 13-11-8(2)~~]Section 13-11-9 before the consumer transactions on which the action is based, or declared to violate Section 13-11-4 or 13-11-5 by a final judgment of the appropriate court or courts of general jurisdiction and appellate courts of this state that was either officially reported or made available for public dissemination under Subsection 13-11-7(1)(c) by the [~~enforcing authority~~]division 10 days before the consumer transactions on which the action is based, or with respect to a supplier who agreed to [~~it~~]a consent judgment, was prohibited specifically by the terms of a consent judgment [~~which~~]that became final before the consumer transactions on which the action is based.

(b) If an act or practice that violates this chapter unjustly enriches a supplier and the damages can be computed with reasonable certainty, damages recoverable on behalf of consumers who cannot be located with due diligence shall be transferred to the state treasurer [~~pursuant to~~]in accordance with Title 67, Chapter 4a, Revised Uniform Unclaimed Property Act.

(c) If a supplier shows by a preponderance of the evidence that a violation of this chapter resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid the error, recovery under this section is limited to the amount, if any, in which the supplier was unjustly enriched by the violation.

(5) Except for services performed by the [~~enforcing authority~~]division, the court may award to the prevailing party a reasonable attorney's fee limited to the work reasonably performed if:

(a) the consumer complaining of the act or practice that violates this chapter has brought or maintained an action [~~he~~]the consumer knew to be groundless; or a supplier has committed an act or practice that violates this chapter; and

(b) an action under this section has been terminated by a judgment or required by the court to be settled under Subsection 13-11-21(1)(a).

(6) Except for consent judgment entered before testimony is taken, a final judgment in favor of the [~~enforcing authority~~]division under Section 13-11-17 is admissible as prima facie evidence of the facts on which [~~it~~]an action is based in later proceedings under this section against the same person or a person in privity with [~~him~~]the person against which the judgment is entered.

(7) When a judgment under this section becomes final, the prevailing party shall mail a copy to the [~~enforcing authority~~]division for inclusion in the public file maintained under Subsection 13-11-7(1)(e).

Section 14. Section 13-11-20 is amended to read:

13-11-20. Class actions.

(a) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable;

(b) there are questions of law or fact common to the class;

(c) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class;

(d) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class; and

(e) [~~either:~~]

(i) the prosecution of separate actions by or against individual members of the class would create a risk of:

(A) inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the party opposing the class; or

(B) adjudications with respect to individual members of the class that would as a practical matter dispose of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect [~~their~~]the other members' interests;[~~ or~~]

(ii) the party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole; or

(iii) the court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

(2) The matters pertinent to the findings under Subsection (1)(e)(iii) include:

(a) the interest of members of the class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;

(b) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the class;

(c) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and

(d) the difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(3) (a) As soon as practicable after the commencement of an action brought as a class action, the court shall determine by order whether [~~it~~]the action is to be so maintained.

(b) An order under this subsection may be conditional, and [~~it~~]the order may be amended before decision on the merits.

(4) (a) In a class action maintained under Subsection (1)(e), the court may direct to the members of the class the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to each member who can be identified through reasonable effort.

(b) The notice shall advise each member that:

~~(a)~~ the court will exclude [~~him~~]the member from the class, unless [~~he~~]the member requests inclusion, by a specified date;

~~(b)~~ the judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all members who request inclusion; and

~~(c)~~ a member who requests inclusion may, if [~~he~~]the member desires, enter an appearance through [~~his~~]counsel.

(5) When appropriate, an action may be brought or maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues, or a class may be divided into subclasses and each subclass treated as a class.

(6) In the conduct of a class action the court may make appropriate orders:

(a) determining the course of proceedings or prescribing measures to prevent undue repetition or complication in the presentation of evidence or argument;

(b) requiring, for the protection of the members of the class or otherwise for the fair conduct of the action, that notice be given in the manner the court directs to some or all of the members or to the [~~enforcing authority~~]division of any step in the action, or of the proposed extent of the judgment, or of the opportunity of members to signify whether [~~they~~]the members consider the representation fair and adequate, to intervene and present claims or defenses, or otherwise to come into the action;

(c) imposing conditions on the representative parties or on intervenors;

(d) requiring that the pleadings be amended to eliminate allegations as to representation of absent persons, and that the action proceed accordingly; or

(e) dealing with similar procedural matters.

(7) (a) A class action may not be dismissed or compromised without approval of the court.

(b) Notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to all members of the class as the court directs.

(8) (a) The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under Subsection (1)(e)(i)or (ii), whether or not favorable to the class, shall describe those whom the court finds to be members of the class.[-]

(b) The judgment in a class action under Subsection (1)(e)(iii), whether or not favorable to the class, shall specify or describe [~~those~~]the members to whom the notice provided in Subsection (4) was directed, and who have requested inclusion, and whom the court finds to be members of the class.

Section 15. Section 13-11-21 is amended to read:

13-11-21. Settlement of class action -- Complaint in class action delivered to enforcing authority.

(1) (a) (i) (A) A defendant in a class action may file a written [~~offer of settlement~~]settlement offer.[-]

(B) If [~~it~~]the settlement offer is not accepted within a reasonable time by a plaintiff class representative, the defendant may file an affidavit reciting the rejection.

(ii) (A) The court may determine that the settlement offer has enough merit to present to the members of the class.[-]

(B) If the court [~~so determines~~]determines that the settlement offer merits presenting, the court shall order a hearing to determine whether the settlement offer should be approved.

(iii) The court shall provide at least 60 days advance notice of the hearing:

(A) to the [~~enforcing authority~~]division; and

(B) to the extent practicable, to each member who can be identified through reasonable effort.

(iv) The notice described in Subsection (1)(a)(iii) shall specify the terms of the settlement offer and a reasonable period within which members of the class who request [~~it~~]to be included in the class are entitled to be included in the class.

(v) (A) The statute of limitations for [~~those who~~]the members that are excluded [~~pursuant to~~]in accordance with this Subsection ~~(1)(a)(v)~~(a)(v)(A) is tolled for the period the class action has been pending, plus an additional year.[-]

(B) Within 60 days of receipt of the notice required by this Subsection (1)(a), the [~~enforcing authority~~]division may intervene in the class action for the limited purpose of objecting to the [~~offer of settlement~~]settlement offer.

(b) (i) If a member who has previously lost an opportunity to be excluded from the class is excluded at [~~his~~]the member's request in response to notice of the settlement offer [~~of settlement~~] during the period specified under Subsection (1)(a), [~~he~~]the member may not thereafter participate in a class action for damages respecting the same consumer transaction, unless the court later disapproves the settlement offer [~~of settlement~~] or approves a settlement materially different from that proposed in the original settlement offer [~~of settlement~~].

(ii) After the expiration of the period of limitations, a member of the class is not entitled to be excluded from [~~it~~]the class.

(c) (i) If the court later approves the settlement offer [~~of settlement~~], including changes, if any, required by the court in the interest of a just settlement of the action, [~~it~~]the court shall enter judgment, which is binding on all persons who are then members of the class.[-]

(ii) If the court disapproves the settlement offer or approves a settlement materially different from that proposed in the original settlement offer, notice shall be given to a person who was excluded from the action at [~~his~~]the person's request in response to notice of the settlement offer under Subsection (1)(a), and [~~he~~]the person is entitled to rejoin the class and, in the case of the approval, participate in the settlement.

(2) (a) On the commencement of a class action under Section 13-11-19, the class representative shall mail by certified mail with return receipt requested or personally serve a copy of the complaint on the [~~enforcing authority~~]division.[-]

(b) Within 180 days after the receipt of a copy of the complaint, but not thereafter, the [~~enforcing authority~~]division may intervene in the class action for purposes of participation as an interested party in litigation of the class action.

(B) a subsequent incident of abuse, neglect, or dependency involving the parent occurs.

(ii) For purposes of Subsection (9)(a)(iv), if the juvenile court finds that the parent knowingly allowed the child to be in the physical care of an individual after the parent received actual notice that the individual physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited the child, that fact is prima facie evidence that there is a substantial risk that the child will be physically abused, sexually abused, or sexually exploited.

(10) (a) (i) The juvenile court shall make a determination on the record as to whether reasonable efforts were made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and whether there are available services that would prevent the need for continued removal.

(ii) If the juvenile court finds that the child can be safely returned to the custody of the child's parent or guardian through the provision of the services described in Subsection (10)(a)(i), the juvenile court shall place the child with the child's parent or guardian and order that the services be provided by the division.

(b) In accordance with federal law, the juvenile court shall consider the child's health, safety, and welfare as the paramount concern when making the determination described in Subsection (10)(a), and in ordering and providing the services described in Subsection (10)(a).

(11) If the division's first contact with the family occurred during an emergency situation in which the child could not safely remain at home, the juvenile court shall make a finding that any lack of preplacement preventive efforts, as described in Section 80-2a-302, was appropriate.

(12) In cases where sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, abandonment, severe abuse, or severe neglect are involved, the juvenile court and the division do not have any duty to make reasonable efforts or to, in any other way, attempt to maintain a child in the child's home, return a child to the child's home, provide reunification services, or attempt to rehabilitate the offending parent or parents.

(13) The juvenile court may not order continued removal of a child solely on the basis of educational neglect, truancy, or failure to comply with a court order to attend school.

(14) (a) If a juvenile court orders continued removal of a child under this section, the juvenile court shall state the facts on which the decision is based.

(b) If no continued removal is ordered and the child is returned home, the juvenile court shall state the facts on which the decision is based.

(15) If the juvenile court finds that continued removal and temporary custody are necessary for the protection of a child under Subsection (9)(a), the juvenile court shall order continued removal regardless of:

(a) any error in the initial removal of the child;

(b) the failure of a party to comply with notice provisions; or

(c) any other procedural requirement of this chapter, Chapter 2, Child Welfare Services, or Chapter 2a, Removal and Protective Custody of a Child.

Section 15. Section 80-3-404 is amended to read:

80-3-404. Finding of severe child abuse or neglect -- Order delivered to division -- Court records.

(1) If an abuse, neglect, or dependency petition [~~is~~]filed with the juvenile court [~~that~~]pursuant to Section 80-3-201 informs the juvenile court that the division has made a supported finding that an individual committed a severe type of child abuse or neglect, the juvenile court shall:

(a) make a finding of substantiated, unsubstantiated, or without merit;

(b) include the finding described in Subsection (1)(a) in a written order; and

(c) deliver a certified copy of the order described in Subsection (1)(b) to the division.

(2) The juvenile court shall make the finding described in Subsection (1):

(a) as part of the adjudication hearing;

(b) at the conclusion of the adjudication hearing; or

(c) as part of a court order entered under a written stipulation of the parties.

(3) In accordance with Section 80-2-707, a proceeding for adjudication of a supported finding of a type of abuse or neglect that does not constitute a severe type of child abuse or neglect may be joined in the juvenile court with an adjudication of a severe type of child abuse or neglect.

(4) (a) The juvenile court shall make [~~records~~]a record of the juvenile court's findings under Subsection (1) available only to an individual with statutory authority to access the Licensing Information System for the purposes of licensing under Sections 26B-1-211, 26B-2-120, and 26B-2-404, or for the purposes described in Sections [~~53-2d-410,~~]26B-2-121, 26B-2-238 through 26B-2-241, or [~~26B-4-124~~]53-2d-410.

(b) An appellate court shall make [~~records~~]a record of an appeal from the juvenile court's decision under Subsection (1) available only to an individual with statutory authority to access the Licensing Information System for the purposes described in Subsection (4)(a).

Section 16. Section 80-3-406 is amended to read:

80-3-406. Permanency plan -- Reunification services.

(1) If the juvenile court orders continued removal at the dispositional hearing under Section 80-3-402, and that the minor remain in the custody of the division, the juvenile court shall first:

(a) establish a primary permanency plan and a concurrent permanency plan for the minor in accordance with this section; and

(b) determine whether, in view of the primary permanency plan, reunification services are appropriate for the minor and the minor's family under Subsections (5) through (8).

(2) (a) The concurrent permanency plan shall include:

(i) a representative list of the conditions under which the primary permanency plan will be abandoned in favor of the concurrent permanency plan; and

(ii) an explanation of the effect of abandoning or modifying the primary permanency plan.

(b) In determining the primary permanency plan and concurrent permanency plan, the juvenile court shall consider:

(i) the preference for kinship placement over nonkinship placement, including the rebuttable presumption described in Subsection 80-3-302(7)(a);

(ii) the potential for a guardianship placement if parental rights are terminated and no appropriate adoption placement is available; and

(iii) the use of an individualized permanency plan, only as a last resort.

(3) (a) The juvenile court may amend a minor's primary permanency plan before the establishment of a final permanency plan under Section 80-3-409.

(b) The juvenile court is not limited to the terms of the concurrent permanency plan in the event that the primary permanency plan is abandoned.

(c) If, at any time, the juvenile court determines that reunification is no longer a minor's primary permanency plan, the juvenile court shall conduct a permanency hearing in accordance with Section 80-3-409 on or before the earlier of:

(i) 30 days after the day on which the juvenile court makes the determination described in this Subsection (3)(c); or

(ii) the day on which the provision of reunification services, described in Section 80-3-409, ends.

(4) (a) Because of the state's interest in and responsibility to protect and provide permanency for minors who are abused, neglected, or dependent, the Legislature finds that a parent's interest in receiving reunification services is limited.

(b) The juvenile court may determine that:

(i) efforts to reunify a minor with the minor's family are not reasonable or appropriate, based on the individual circumstances; and

(ii) reunification services should not be provided.

(c) In determining reasonable efforts to be made with respect to a minor, and in making reasonable efforts, the juvenile court and the division shall consider the minor's health, safety, and welfare as the paramount concern.

(5) There is a presumption that reunification services should not be provided to a parent if the juvenile court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that any of the following circumstances exist:

(a) the whereabouts of the parents are unknown, based on a verified affidavit indicating that a reasonably diligent search has failed to locate the parent;

(b) subject to Subsection (6)(a), the parent is suffering from a mental illness of such magnitude that the mental illness renders the parent incapable of utilizing reunification services;

(c) the minor was previously adjudicated as an abused child due to physical abuse, sexual abuse, or sexual exploitation, and following the adjudication the child:

(i) was removed from the custody of the minor's parent;

(ii) was subsequently returned to the custody of the parent; and

(iii) is being removed due to additional physical abuse, sexual abuse, or sexual exploitation;

(d) the parent:

(i) caused the death of another minor through abuse or neglect;

(ii) committed, aided, abetted, attempted, conspired, or solicited to commit:

(A) murder or manslaughter of a minor; or

(B) child abuse homicide;

(iii) committed sexual abuse against the minor;

(iv) is a registered sex offender or required to register as a sex offender; or

(v) (A) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causes the death of another parent of the minor;

(B) is identified by a law enforcement agency as the primary suspect in an investigation for intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the minor; or

(C) is being prosecuted for or has been convicted of intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing the death of another parent of the minor;

(e) the minor suffered severe abuse by the parent or by any individual known by the parent if the parent knew or reasonably should have known that the individual was abusing the minor;

(f) the minor is adjudicated as an abused minor as a result of severe abuse by the parent, and the juvenile court finds that it would not benefit the minor to pursue reunification services with the offending parent;

(g) the parent's rights are involuntarily terminated with regard to any other minor;

(h) the minor was removed from the minor's home on at least two previous occasions and reunification services were offered or provided to the family at those times;

(i) the parent has abandoned the minor for a period of six months or longer;

(j) the parent permitted the minor to reside, on a permanent or temporary basis, at a location where the parent knew or should have known that a clandestine laboratory operation was located;

(k) except as provided in Subsection (6)(b), with respect to a parent who is the minor's birth mother, the minor has fetal alcohol syndrome, fetal alcohol spectrum disorder, or was exposed to an illegal or prescription drug that was abused by the minor's mother while the minor was in utero, if the minor was taken into division custody for that reason, unless the mother agrees to enroll in, is currently enrolled in, or has recently and successfully completed a substance use disorder treatment program approved by the department; or

(l) [~~any other circumstance that the juvenile court determines should preclude reunification efforts or services.~~]the parent has subjected the minor to aggravated circumstances, including:

(i) a severe type of child abuse or neglect;

(ii) torture; or

(iii) human trafficking of a child as described in Section 76-5-308.5.

(6) (a) The juvenile court shall base the finding under Subsection (5)(b) on competent evidence from at least two medical or mental health professionals, who are not associates, establishing that, even with the provision of services, the parent is not likely to be capable of adequately caring for the minor within 12 months after the day on which the juvenile court finding is made.

(b) The juvenile court may disregard the provisions of Subsection (5)(k) if the juvenile court finds, under the circumstances of the case, that the substance use disorder treatment described in Subsection (5)(k) is not warranted.

(7) In determining whether reunification services are appropriate, the juvenile court shall take into consideration:

(a) failure of the parent to respond to previous services or comply with a previous child and family plan;

(b) the fact that the minor was abused while the parent was under the influence of drugs or alcohol;

(c) any history of violent behavior directed at the minor or an immediate family member;

(d) the circumstances under which the parent's rights were voluntarily terminated with regard to any other minor;

~~(d)~~ whether a parent continues to live with an individual who abused the minor;

~~(e)~~ any patterns of the parent's behavior that have exposed the minor to repeated abuse;

~~(f)~~ testimony by a competent professional that the parent's behavior is unlikely to be successful; and

~~(g)~~ whether the parent has expressed an interest in reunification with the minor.

(8) If, under Subsections (5)(b) through (l), the juvenile court does not order reunification services, a permanency hearing shall be conducted within 30 days in accordance with Section 80-3-409.

(9) (a) Subject to Subsections (9)(b) through (e), if the juvenile court determines that reunification services are appropriate for the minor and the minor's family, the juvenile court shall provide for reasonable parent-time with the parent or parents from whose custody the minor was removed, unless parent-time is not in the best interest of the minor.

(b) Parent-time is in the best interests of a minor unless the juvenile court makes a finding that it is necessary to deny parent-time in order to:

(i) protect the physical safety of the minor;

(ii) protect the life of the minor; or

(iii) prevent the minor from being traumatized by contact with the parent due to the minor's fear of the parent in light of the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (9)(a), a juvenile court may not deny parent-time based solely on a parent's failure to:

(i) prove that the parent has not used legal or illegal substances; or

(ii) comply with an aspect of the child and family plan that is ordered by the juvenile court.

(d) Parent-time shall be under the least restrictive conditions necessary to:

(i) protect the physical safety of the child; or

(ii) prevent the child from being traumatized by contact with the parent due to the minor's fear of the parent in light of the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect.

(e) (i) The division or the person designated by the division or a court to supervise a parent-time session may deny parent-time for the session if the division or the supervising person determines that, based on the parent's condition, it is necessary to deny parent-time to:

(A) protect the physical safety of the child;

(B) protect the life of the child; or

(C) consistent with Subsection (9)(e)(ii), prevent the child from being traumatized by contact with the parent.

(ii) In determining whether the condition of the parent described in Subsection (9)(e)(i) will traumatize a child, the division or the person supervising the parent-time session shall consider the impact that the parent's condition will have on the child in light of:

(A) the child's fear of the parent; and

(B) the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect.

(10) (a) If the juvenile court determines that reunification services are appropriate, the juvenile court shall order that the division make reasonable efforts to provide services to the minor and the minor's parent for the purpose of facilitating reunification of the family, for a specified period of time.

(b) In providing the services described in Subsection (10)(a), the juvenile court and the division shall consider the minor's health, safety, and welfare as the paramount concern.

(11) In cases where sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, abandonment, severe abuse, or severe neglect are involved:

(a) the juvenile court does not have any duty to order reunification services; and

(b) the division does not have a duty to make reasonable efforts to or in any other way attempt to provide reunification services or attempt to rehabilitate the offending parent or parents.

(12) (a) The juvenile court shall:

(i) determine whether the services offered or provided by the division under the child and family plan constitute reasonable efforts on the part of the division;

(ii) determine and define the responsibilities of the parent under the child and family plan in accordance with Subsection 80-3-307(5)(g)(iii); and

(iii) identify verbally on the record, or in a written document provided to the parties, the responsibilities described in Subsection (12)(a)(ii), for the purpose of assisting in any future determination regarding the provision of reasonable efforts, in accordance with state and federal law.

(b) If the parent is in a substance use disorder treatment program, other than a certified drug court program, the juvenile court may order the parent:

(i) to submit to supplementary drug or alcohol testing, in accordance with Subsection 80-3-110(6), in addition to the testing recommended by the parent's substance use disorder program based on a finding of reasonable suspicion that the parent is abusing drugs or alcohol; and

(ii) to provide the results of drug or alcohol testing recommended by the substance use disorder program to the juvenile court or division.

(13) (a) The time period for reunification services may not exceed 12 months from the day on which the minor was initially removed from the minor's home, unless the time period is extended under Subsection 80-3-409(7).

(b) This section does not entitle any parent to an entire 12 months of reunification services.

(14) (a) If reunification services are ordered, the juvenile court may terminate those services at any time.

(b) If, at any time, continuation of reasonable efforts to reunify a minor is determined to be inconsistent with the final permanency plan for the minor established under Section 80-3-409, then measures shall be taken, in a timely manner, to:

(i) place the minor in accordance with the final permanency plan; and

(ii) complete whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the minor.

(15) Any physical custody of the minor by the parent or a relative during the period described in Subsections (10) through (14) does not interrupt the running of the period.

(16) (a) If reunification services are ordered, the juvenile court shall conduct a permanency hearing in accordance with Section 80-3-409 before the day on which the time period for reunification services expires.

(b) The permanency hearing shall be held no later than 12 months after the original removal of the minor.

(c) If reunification services are not ordered, a permanency hearing shall be conducted within 30 days in accordance with Section 80-3-409.

(17) With regard to a minor in the custody of the division whose parent or parents are ordered to receive reunification services but who have abandoned that minor for a period of six months from the day on which reunification services are ordered:

(a) the juvenile court shall terminate reunification services; and

(b) the division shall petition the juvenile court for termination of parental rights.

(18) When a minor is under the custody of the division and has been separated from a sibling due to foster care or adoptive placement, a juvenile court may order sibling visitation, subject to the division obtaining consent from the sibling's guardian, according to the juvenile court's determination of the best interests of the minor for whom the hearing is held.

(19) (a) If reunification services are not ordered under this section, and the whereabouts of a parent becomes known within six months after the day on which the out-of-home placement of the minor is made, the juvenile court may order the division to provide reunification services.

(b) The time limits described in this section are not tolled by the parent's absence.

(20) (a) If a parent is incarcerated or institutionalized, the juvenile court shall order reasonable services unless the juvenile court determines that those services would be detrimental to the minor.

(b) In making the determination described in Subsection (20)(a), the juvenile court shall consider:

(i) the age of the minor;

(ii) the degree of parent-child bonding;

(iii) the length of the sentence;

(iv) the nature of the treatment;

(v) the nature of the crime or illness;

(vi) the degree of detriment to the minor if services are not offered;

(vii) for a minor who is 10 years old or older, the minor's attitude toward the implementation of family reunification services; and

(viii) any other appropriate factors.

(c) Reunification services for an incarcerated parent are subject to the time limitations imposed in this section.

(d) Reunification services for an institutionalized parent are subject to the time limitations imposed in this section, unless the juvenile court determines that continued reunification services would be in the minor's best interest.

Section 17. Section 80-3-504 is amended to read:

80-3-504. Petition for substantiation -- Court findings -- Expedited hearing -- Records of an appeal.

(1) The division or an individual may file a petition for substantiation in accordance with Section 80-2-708 or 80-2-1004.

(2) An adjudicative proceeding on a petition for substantiation may be stayed during the time a judicial action or an active criminal investigation on the same matter is pending.

(3) If the division decides to file a petition for substantiation under Section 80-2-1004, the division shall file the petition [~~no more than 14~~]within 30 days after the day on which the division makes the decision.

~~(3)~~ At the conclusion of the hearing on a petition for substantiation, the juvenile court shall:

(a) make a finding of substantiated, unsubstantiated, or without merit;

(b) include the finding in a written order; and

(c) deliver a certified copy of the order to the division.

~~(4)~~ If an individual whose name is listed on the Licensing Information System before May 6, 2002, files a petition for substantiation under Section 80-2-1004 during the time that an alleged perpetrator's application for clearance to work with children or vulnerable adults is pending, the juvenile court shall:

(a) hear the matter on an expedited basis; and

(b) enter a final decision no later than 60 days after the day on which the petition for substantiation is filed.

~~(5)~~ (a) The juvenile court shall make a record of the juvenile court's findings under Subsection (4) available only to an individual with statutory authority to access the Licensing Information System for the purposes of licensing under Sections 26B-1-211, 26B-2-120, and 26B-2-404, or for the purposes described in Sections 26B-2-121, or 26B-2-238 through 26B-2-241, or 53-2d-410.

(b) An appellate court shall make a record of an appeal from the juvenile court's decision under Subsection ~~(3)~~ available only to an individual with statutory authority to access the Licensing Information System for the purposes [~~of licensing under Sections 26B-1-211, 26B-2-120, 26B-2-404, or for the purposes described in Sections 53-2d-410, 26B-2-121, 26B-2-238 through 26B-2-241, or 26B-4-124~~]described in Subsection (6)(a).

20A-4-603. Instant runoff voting.

(1) In a multi-candidate race, the election officer for a participating municipality shall:

(a) (i) conduct the first ballot-counting phase by counting the valid first preference rankings for each candidate; and

(ii) if one of the candidates receives more than 50% of the valid first preference rankings counted, declare that candidate elected;

(b) if, after counting the valid first preference rankings for each candidate, no candidate receives more than 50% of the valid first preference rankings counted, conduct the second ballot-counting phase by:

(i) excluding from the multi-candidate race:

(A) the candidate who received the fewest valid first preference rankings counted; or

(B) in the event of a tie for the fewest valid first preference rankings counted, one of the tied candidates, determined by the election officer by lot, in accordance with Subsection (6);

(ii) adding, to the valid first preference rankings counted for the remaining candidates, the next valid preference rankings cast for the remaining candidates by the voters who cast a valid first preference ranking for the excluded candidate; and

(iii) if, after adding the rankings in accordance with Subsection (1)(b)(ii), one candidate receives more than 50% of the valid rankings counted, declaring that candidate elected; and

(c) if, after adding the next valid preference rankings in accordance with Subsection (1)(b)(ii), no candidate receives more than 50% of the valid rankings counted, conduct subsequent ballot-counting phases by continuing the process described in Subsection (1)(b) until a candidate receives more than 50% of the valid rankings counted, as follows:

(i) excluding from consideration the candidate who has the fewest valid rankings counted or, in the event of a tie for the fewest valid rankings counted, excluding one of the tied candidates, by lot, in accordance with Subsection (6); and

(ii) adding the next valid preference ranking cast by each voter whose ranking was counted for the last excluded candidate to one of the remaining candidates, in the order of the next preference indicated by the voter.

(2) The election officer shall declare elected the first candidate who receives more than 50% of the valid rankings counted under the process described in Subsection (1).

(3) A ranking is valid for a particular ballot-counting phase of a multi-candidate race if:

(a) the voter indicates the voter's preference for that ballot-counting phase and all previous ballot-counting phases; or

(b) in the event that the voter skips a number in filling out the rankings on a ballot:

(i) the voter clearly indicates an order of preference for the candidates;

(ii) the voter does not skip two or more consecutive numbers at any point before the preference ranking that would otherwise be counted for the current ballot-counting phase;

(iii) the candidate next preferred by the voter is clearly indicated by a subsequent number that most closely follows the number assigned by the voter for the previously-ranked candidate; and

(iv) the voter did not give the same rank to more than one candidate for the applicable ballot-counting phase or a previous ballot-counting phase.

(4) A ranking is not valid for a particular ballot-counting phase of a multi-candidate race, and for all subsequent ballot-counting phases, if:

(a) the voter indicates the same rank for more than one candidate for that ballot-counting phase; or

(b) the voter skips two or more consecutive numbers before ranking another candidate.

(5) If, for a ballot-counting phase, a voter ranks a candidate who has withdrawn from the race, the next-ranked candidate who has not withdrawn from the race will be counted for that ballot-counting phase.

(6) For each ballot-counting phase after the first phase, if two or more candidates tie as having received the fewest valid rankings counted at that point in the ballot count, the election officer shall eliminate one of those candidates from consideration, by lot, in the following manner:

(a) determine the names of the candidates who tie as having received the fewest valid rankings for that ballot-counting phase;

(b) cast the lot in the presence of at least two election officials and any counting poll watchers who are present and desire to witness the casting of the lot; and

(c) sign a public document that:

(i) certifies the method used for casting the lot and the result of the lot; and

(ii) includes the name of each individual who witnessed the casting of the lot.

(7) In a multi-candidate race for an at-large office, where the number of candidates who qualify for the race exceeds the total number of at-large seats to be filled for the office, the election officer shall count the rankings by:

(a) except as provided in Subsection (8), counting rankings in the same manner as described in Subsections (1) through (6), until a candidate is declared elected;

(b) repeating the process described in Subsection (7)(a) for all candidates that are not declared elected until another candidate is declared elected; and

(c) continuing the process described in Subsection (7)(b) until all at-large seats in the race are filled.

(8) After a candidate is declared elected under Subsection (7), the election officer shall, in repeating the process described in Subsections (1) through (6) to declare the next candidate elected, add to the ranking totals the next valid preference vote of each voter whose ranking was counted for a candidate already declared elected.

(9) An election officer for a participating municipality may choose to conduct a primary election by using instant runoff voting in the manner described in Subsections (1)through (6), except that:

(a) instead of determining whether a candidate receives more than 50% of the valid preference rankings for a particular ballot-counting phase, the election officer shall proceed to a subsequent ballot-counting stage, and exclude the candidate who receives the fewest valid preference rankings in that phase, until twice the number of seats to be filled in the race remain; and

(b) after complying with Subsection (9)(a), the election officer shall declare the remaining candidates nominated to participate in the municipal general election.

(10) After completing all ballot-counting phases in a multi-candidate race, the election officer shall order a full recount of the ballots cast for that race if, in one or more of the ballot-counting phases:

(a) the difference between the number of rankings counted for a candidate who is declared elected and the number of rankings counted for any other candidate in the same ballot-counting phase is equal to or less than the product of the following, rounded up to the nearest whole number:

(i) the total number of voters who cast a valid ranking counted in that ballot-counting phase; and

(ii) the recount threshold; or

(b) the difference between the number of rankings counted for the candidate who received the fewest valid rankings in a ballot-counting phase and the number of rankings counted for any other candidate in the same ballot-counting phase is equal to or less than the product of the following, rounded up to the nearest whole number:

(i) the total number of voters who cast a valid ranking counted in that ballot-counting phase; and

(ii) the recount threshold.

(11) A recount described in Subsection (10):

(a) requires rescanning and tabulating all valid ballots; and
