(ii) "Primary certificate holder" means an individual who elects and purchases travel insurance under a group policy.

(iii) "Primary policyholder" means an individual who elects and purchases individual travel insurance.

(iv) "Travel assistance service" means the same as that term is defined in Section 31A-23a-902.

(v) "Travel insurance" means the same as that term is defined in Section 31A-23a-902.

(b) A travel insurer shall:

(i) pay a premium tax required under Subsection (1) on a travel insurance premium that:

(A) an individual primary policyholder pays, if the policyholder is a resident of this state;

(B) a primary certificate holder pays, if the certificate holder is a resident of this state and elects coverage under a group travel insurance policy; or

(C) subject to any apportionment rules that apply to the insurer across multiple taxing jurisdictions or permit the insurer to allocate the premium on an apportioned basis in a reasonable and equitable manner across multiple jurisdictions, a blanket travel insurance policyholder pays for eligible blanket group members, if the policyholder is a resident in this state, has the policyholder's principal place of business in this state, or has the principal place of business of an affiliate or subsidiary that has purchased blanket travel insurance in this state;

(ii) document the state of residence or principal place of business of each policyholder and certificate holder; and

(iii) report as a premium only the amount allocable to travel insurance and not an amount received for:

(A) a cancellation fee waiver; or

(B) a travel assistance service.

(7) A captive insurer, as provided in Section 31A-3-304, that pays a fee imposed under Section 31A-3-304 is not subject to the premium tax under this section.

(8) An insurer issuing multiple policies to an insured may not artificially allocate the premiums among the policies for purposes of reducing the aggregate premium tax or assessment applicable to the policies.

(9) The retaliatory provisions of Title 31A, Chapter 3, Department Funding, Fees, and Taxes, apply to the tax or assessment imposed under this chapter.

Section 125. Section 59-9-102.5 is amended to read:

59-9-102.5 (Effective upon governor's approval) (Repealed 12/31/30). Offset for occupational health and safety related donations.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Occupational health and safety center" means the Rocky Mountain Center for Occupational and Environmental Health created in [~~Title 53B, Chapter 30, Part 2, Rocky Mountain Center for Occupational and Environmental Health~~]Title 53H, Chapter 5, Part 2, Rocky Mountain Center for Occupational and Environmental Health.

(b) "Qualified donation" means a donation that is:

(i) cash;

(ii) given directly to an occupational health and safety center; and

(iii) given exclusively for the purpose of:

(A) supporting undergraduate or graduate level education and training in fields of:

(I) safety and ergonomics;

(II) industrial hygiene;

(III) occupational health nursing;

(IV) occupational injury prevention; and

(V) occupational medicine;

(B) providing continuing education programs for employers designed to promote workplace safety; and

(C) paying reasonable administrative, personnel, equipment, and overhead costs of the occupational health and safety center.

(c) "Workers' compensation insurer" means an admitted insurer writing workers' compensation insurance in this state that is required to pay the premium assessment imposed under Subsection 59-9-101(2).

(2) (a) A workers' compensation insurer may offset against the premium assessment imposed under Subsection 59-9-101(2) an amount equal to the lesser of:

(i) the total of qualified donations made by the workers' compensation insurer in the calendar year for which the premium assessment is calculated; and

(ii) .20% of the workers' compensation insurer's total workers' compensation premium income as defined in Subsection 59-9-101(2)(b) in the calendar year for which the premium assessment is calculated.

(b) The offset provided under this Subsection (2) shall be allocated in proportion to the percentages provided in Subsection 59-9-101(2)(c).

(3) An occupational health and safety center shall:

(a) provide a workers' compensation insurer a receipt for any qualified donation made by the workers' compensation insurer to the occupational health and safety center; and

(b) expend money received by a qualified donation:

(i) for the purposes described in Subsection (1)(b)(iii); and

(ii) in a manner that can be audited to ensure that the money is expended for the purposes described in Subsection (1)(b)(iii).

Section 126. Section 59-10-114 is amended to read:

59-10-114 (Effective upon governor's approval). Additions to and subtractions from adjusted gross income of an individual.

(1) There shall be added to adjusted gross income of a resident or nonresident individual:

(a) a lump sum distribution that the taxpayer does not include in adjusted gross income on the taxpayer's federal individual income tax return for the taxable year;

(b) the amount of a child's income calculated under Subsection (4) that:

(i) a parent elects to report on the parent's federal individual income tax return for the taxable year; and

(ii) the parent does not include in adjusted gross income on the parent's federal individual income tax return for the taxable year;

(c) (i) a withdrawal from a medical care savings account and any penalty imposed for the taxable year if:

(A) the resident or nonresident individual does not deduct the amounts on the resident or nonresident individual's federal individual income tax return under Section 220, Internal Revenue Code;

(B) the withdrawal is subject to Subsections 31A-32a-105(1) and (2); and

(C) the withdrawal is subtracted on, or used as the basis for claiming a tax credit on, a return the resident or nonresident individual files under this chapter;

(ii) a disbursement required to be added to adjusted gross income in accordance with Subsection 31A-32a-105(3); or

(iii) an amount required to be added to adjusted gross income in accordance with Subsection 31A-32a-105(5)(c);

(d) the amount withdrawn under [~~Title 53B, Chapter 8a, Utah Educational Savings Plan~~]Title 53H, Chapter 10, Utah Education Savings, from the account of a resident or nonresident individual who is an account owner as defined in Section [~~53B-8a-102~~]53H-10-101, for the taxable year for which the amount is withdrawn, if that amount withdrawn from the account of the resident or nonresident individual who is the account owner:

(i) is not expended for:

(A) higher education costs as defined in Section [~~53B-8a-102.5~~]53H-10-201; or

(B) a payment or distribution that qualifies as an exception to the additional tax for distributions not used for educational expenses provided in Sections 529(c) and 530(d), Internal Revenue Code; and

(ii) is:

(A) subtracted by the resident or nonresident individual:

(I) who is the account owner; and

(II) on the resident or nonresident individual's return filed under this chapter for a taxable year beginning on or before December 31, 2007; or

(B) used as the basis for the resident or nonresident individual who is the account owner to claim a tax credit under Section 59-10-1017;

(e) except as provided in Subsection (5), for bonds, notes, and other evidences of indebtedness acquired on or after January 1, 2003, the interest from bonds, notes, and other evidences of indebtedness:

(i) issued by one or more of the following entities:

(A) a state other than this state;

(B) the District of Columbia;

(C) a political subdivision of a state other than this state; or

(D) an agency or instrumentality of an entity described in Subsections (1)(e)(i)(A) through (C); and

(ii) to the extent the interest is not included in adjusted gross income on the taxpayer's federal income tax return for the taxable year;

(f) subject to Subsection (2)(c), any distribution received by a resident beneficiary of a resident trust of income that was taxed at the trust level for federal tax purposes, but was subtracted from state taxable income of the trust pursuant to Subsection 59-10-202(2)(b);

(g) any distribution received by a resident beneficiary of a nonresident trust of undistributed distributable net income realized by the trust on or after January 1, 2004, if that undistributed distributable net income was taxed at the trust level for federal tax purposes, but was not taxed at the trust level by any state, with undistributed distributable net income considered to be distributed from the most recently accumulated undistributed distributable net income;

(h) any adoption expense:

(i) for which a resident or nonresident individual receives reimbursement from another person; and

(ii) to the extent to which the resident or nonresident individual subtracts that adoption expense:

(A) on a return filed under this chapter for a taxable year beginning on or before December 31, 2007; or

(B) from federal taxable income on a federal individual income tax return;

(i) the amount of tax paid on income attributed to the individual in accordance with Subsection 59-10-1403.2(2) that is not included in adjusted gross income; and

(j) the amount of tax paid:

(i) on income attributed to the individual and taxable in this state, that is not included in adjusted gross income;

(ii) to another state; and

(iii) that the commission determines is substantially similar to the tax imposed under Subsection 59-10-1403.2(2).

(2) There shall be subtracted from adjusted gross income of a resident or nonresident individual:

(a) the difference between:

(i) the interest or a dividend on an obligation or security of the United States or an authority, commission, instrumentality, or possession of the United States, to the extent that interest or dividend is:

(A) included in adjusted gross income for federal income tax purposes for the taxable year; and

(B) exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States; and

(ii) any interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry the obligation or security described in Subsection (2)(a)(i);

(b) if the conditions of Subsection (3)(a) are met, the amount of income derived by a Ute tribal member:

(i) during a time period that the Ute tribal member resides on homesteaded land diminished from the Uintah and Ouray Reservation; and

(ii) from a source within the Uintah and Ouray Reservation;

(c) an amount received by a resident or nonresident individual or distribution received by a resident or nonresident beneficiary of a resident trust:

(i) if that amount or distribution constitutes a refund of taxes imposed by:

(A) a state; or

(B) the District of Columbia; and

(ii) to the extent that amount or distribution is included in adjusted gross income for that taxable year on the federal individual income tax return of the resident or nonresident individual or resident or nonresident beneficiary of a resident trust;

(d) the amount of a railroad retirement benefit:

(i) paid:

(A) in accordance with The Railroad Retirement Act of 1974, 45 U.S.C. Sec. 231 et seq.;

(B) to a resident or nonresident individual; and

(C) for the taxable year; and

(ii) to the extent that railroad retirement benefit is included in adjusted gross income on that resident or nonresident individual's federal individual income tax return for that taxable year;

(e) an amount:

(i) received by an enrolled member of an American Indian tribe; and

(ii) to the extent that the state is not authorized or permitted to impose a tax under this part on that amount in accordance with:

(A) federal law;

(B) a treaty; or

(C) a final decision issued by a court of competent jurisdiction;

(f) an amount received:

(i) for the interest on a bond, note, or other obligation issued by an entity for which state statute provides an exemption of interest on its bonds from state individual income tax;

(ii) by a resident or nonresident individual;

(iii) for the taxable year; and

(iv) to the extent the amount is included in adjusted gross income on the taxpayer's federal income tax return for the taxable year;

(g) the amount of all income, including income apportioned to another state, of a nonmilitary spouse of an active duty military member if:

(i) both the nonmilitary spouse and the active duty military member are nonresident individuals;

(ii) the active duty military member is stationed in Utah;

(iii) the nonmilitary spouse is subject to the residency provisions of 50 U.S.C. Sec. 4001(a)(2); and

(iv) the income is included in adjusted gross income for federal income tax purposes for the taxable year;

(h) the amount of any FDIC premium paid or incurred by the taxpayer that is disallowed as a deduction for federal income tax purposes under Section 162(r), Internal Revenue Code, for the taxable year;

(i) an amount of a distribution from a qualified retirement plan under Section 401(a), Internal Revenue Code, if:

(i) the amount of the distribution is included in adjusted gross income on the resident or nonresident individual's federal individual income tax return for the taxable year; and

(ii) for the taxable year when the amount of the distribution was contributed to the qualified retirement plan, the amount of the distribution:

(A) was not included in adjusted gross income on the resident or nonresident individual's federal individual income tax return for the taxable year; and

(B) was taxed by another state of the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States; and

(j) the amount of any repayment in the current taxable year of social security income received in a previous taxable year if:

(i) the individual claimed a credit for the repayment on the individual's federal individual income tax return for the current taxable year; and

(ii) the individual did not claim a tax credit under Section 59-10-1042 for the taxable year in which the individual received the social security income.

(3) (a) A subtraction for an amount described in Subsection (2)(b) is allowed only if:

(i) the taxpayer is a Ute tribal member; and

(ii) the governor and the Ute tribe execute and maintain an agreement meeting the requirements of this Subsection (3).

(b) The agreement described in Subsection (3)(a):

(i) may not:

(A) authorize the state to impose a tax in addition to a tax imposed under this chapter;

(B) provide a subtraction under this section greater than or different from the subtraction described in Subsection (2)(b); or

(C) affect the power of the state to establish rates of taxation; and

(ii) shall:

(A) provide for the implementation of the subtraction described in Subsection (2)(b);

(B) be in writing;

(C) be signed by:

(I) the governor; and

(II) the chair of the Business Committee of the Ute tribe;

(D) be conditioned on obtaining any approval required by federal law; and

(E) state the effective date of the agreement.

(c) (i) The governor shall report to the commission by no later than February 1 of each year regarding whether or not an agreement meeting the requirements of this Subsection (3) is in effect.

(ii) If an agreement meeting the requirements of this Subsection (3) is terminated, the subtraction permitted under Subsection (2)(b) is not allowed for taxable years beginning on or after the January 1 following the termination of the agreement.

(d) For purposes of Subsection (2)(b) and in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commission may make rules:

(i) for determining whether income is derived from a source within the Uintah and Ouray Reservation; and

(ii) that are substantially similar to how adjusted gross income derived from Utah sources is determined under Section 59-10-117.

(4) (a) For purposes of this Subsection (4), "Form 8814" means:

(i) the federal individual income tax Form 8814, Parents' Election To Report Child's Interest and Dividends; or

(ii) (A) a form designated by the commission in accordance with Subsection (4)(a)(ii)(B) as being substantially similar to 2000 Form 8814 if for purposes of federal individual income taxes the information contained on 2000 Form 8814 is reported on a form other than Form 8814; and

(B) for purposes of Subsection (4)(a)(ii)(A) and in accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, the commission may make rules designating a form as being substantially similar to 2000 Form 8814 if for purposes of federal individual income taxes the information contained on 2000 Form 8814 is reported on a form other than Form 8814.

(b) The amount of a child's income added to adjusted gross income under Subsection (1)(b) is equal to the difference between:

(i) the lesser of:

(A) the base amount specified on Form 8814; and

(B) the sum of the following reported on Form 8814:

(I) the child's taxable interest;

(II) the child's ordinary dividends; and

(III) the child's capital gain distributions; and

(ii) the amount not taxed that is specified on Form 8814.

(5) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(e), interest from bonds, notes, and other evidences of indebtedness issued by an entity described in Subsections (1)(e)(i)(A) through (D) may not be added to adjusted gross income of a resident or nonresident individual if, as annually determined by the commission:

(a) for an entity described in Subsection (1)(e)(i)(A) or (B), the entity and all of the political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities of the entity do not impose a tax based on income on any part of the bonds, notes, and other evidences of indebtedness of this state; or

(b) for an entity described in Subsection (1)(e)(i)(C) or (D), the following do not impose a tax based on income on any part of the bonds, notes, and other evidences of indebtedness of this state:

(i) the entity; or

(ii) (A) the state in which the entity is located; or

(B) the District of Columbia, if the entity is located within the District of Columbia.

59-10-136 (Effective upon governor's approval). Domicile.

(1) (a) An individual is considered to have domicile in this state if:

(i) except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), a dependent with respect to whom the individual or the individual's spouse claims a personal exemption or a tax credit under Section 24, Internal Revenue Code, on the individual's or individual's spouse's federal individual income tax return is enrolled in a public kindergarten, public elementary school, or public secondary school in this state;

(ii) the individual or the individual's spouse is a resident student in accordance with Section [~~53B-8-102~~]53H-11-202 who is enrolled in an institution of higher education [~~deseribed~~]listed in Section [~~53B-2-101~~]53H-1-102 in this state; or

(iii) the individual or the individual's spouse, in that taxable year:

(A) votes in this state in a regular general election, municipal general election, primary election, or special election;

(B) has not registered to vote in another state; and

(C) has not voted in another state that does not require voter registration.

(b) The determination of whether an individual is considered to have domicile in this state may not be determined in accordance with Subsection (1)(a)(i) if the individual:

(i) is the noncustodial parent of a dependent:

(A) with respect to whom the individual claims a personal exemption or a tax credit under Section 24, Internal Revenue Code, on the individual's federal individual income tax return; and

(B) who is enrolled in a public kindergarten, public elementary school, or public secondary school in this state; and

(ii) (A) is divorced from the custodial parent of the dependent described in Subsection (1)(b)(i); or

(B) was never married to the custodial parent of the dependent described in Subsection (1)(b)(i).

(2) (a) Subject to Subsection (2)(b), if the requirements of Subsection (1) are not met for an individual to be considered to have domicile in this state, the individual is considered to have domicile in this state if:

(i) the individual or the individual's spouse has a permanent home in this state to which the individual or the individual's spouse intends to return after being absent; and

(ii) the individual or the individual's spouse has voluntarily fixed the individual's or the individual's spouse's habitation in this state, not for a special or temporary purpose, but with the intent of making a permanent home.

(b) The determination of whether an individual is considered to have domicile in this state under this Subsection (2) shall be based on the preponderance of the evidence, taking into consideration the totality of only the following facts and circumstances:

(i) whether the individual or the individual's spouse has a driver license in this state;

(ii) whether the individual or the individual's spouse receives a residential exemption in accordance with Chapter 2, Property Tax Act, for that individual's or individual's spouse's primary residence;

(iii) whether a dependent with respect to whom the individual or the individual's spouse claims a personal exemption or a tax credit under Section 24, Internal Revenue Code, on the individual's or individual's spouse's federal individual income tax return is a resident student in accordance with Section [~~53B-8-102~~]53H-11-202 who is enrolled in an institution of higher education [~~described~~]listed in Section [~~53B-2-101~~]53H-1-102 in this state;

(iv) the nature and quality of the living accommodations that the individual or the individual's spouse has in this state as compared to another state;

(v) the presence in this state of a spouse or dependent with respect to whom the individual or the individual's spouse claims a personal exemption or a tax credit under Section 24, Internal Revenue Code, on the individual's or individual's spouse's federal individual income tax return;

(vi) the physical location in which earned income as defined in Section 32(c)(2), Internal Revenue Code, is earned by the individual or the individual's spouse;

(vii) the state of registration of a vehicle as defined in Section 59-12-102 owned or leased by the individual or the individual's spouse;

(viii) whether the individual or the individual's spouse is a member of a church, a club, or another similar organization in this state;

(ix) whether the individual or the individual's spouse lists an address in this state on mail, a telephone listing, a listing in an official government publication, other correspondence, or another similar item;

(x) whether the individual or the individual's spouse lists an address in this state on a state or federal tax return;

(xi) whether the individual or the individual's spouse asserts residency in this state for purposes of filing an individual income tax return under this chapter, including asserting that the individual or the individual's spouse is a part-year resident of this state for the portion of the taxable year for which the individual or the individual's spouse is a resident of this state;

(xii) whether the individual or the individual's spouse asserts residency in this state on a document, other than an individual income tax return filed under this chapter, filed with or provided to a court or other governmental entity;

(xiii) the failure of an individual or the individual's spouse to obtain a permit or license normally required of a resident of the state for which the individual or the individual's spouse asserts to have domicile;

(xiv) whether the individual is an individual described in Subsection (1)(b);

(xv) whether the individual:

(A) maintains a place of abode in this state; and

(B) spends in the aggregate 183 or more days of the taxable year in this state; or

(xvi) whether the individual or the individual's spouse:

(A) did not vote in this state in a regular general election, municipal general election, primary election, or special election during the taxable year, but voted in the state in a general election, municipal general election, primary election, or special election during any of the three taxable years prior to that taxable year; and

(B) has not registered to vote in another state during a taxable year described in Subsection (2)(b)(xvi)(A).

(3) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), for individuals who are spouses for purposes of this section and one of the spouses has domicile under this section, the other spouse is not considered to have domicile in this state under Subsection (2) if one of the spouses establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that, during the taxable year and for three taxable years prior to that taxable year, that other spouse:

(a) is not an owner of property in this state;

(b) has not spent in the aggregate more than 30 days of the taxable year in this state;

(c) has not received earned income as defined in Section 32(c)(2), Internal Revenue Code, in this state;

(d) has not voted in this state in a regular general election, municipal general election, primary election, or special election; and

(e) does not have a driver license in this state.

(4) (a) For purposes of this section, an individual is not considered to have a spouse if:

(i) the individual is legally separated or divorced from the spouse; or

(ii) the individual and the individual's spouse claim married filing separately filing status for purposes of filing a federal individual income tax return for the taxable year.

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(a)(ii), for purposes of this section, an individual's filing status on a federal individual income tax return or a return filed under this chapter may not be considered in determining whether the individual has a spouse.

(5) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, and for purposes of Subsections (2)(b)(xv) and (3)(b), the commission may by rule define what constitutes spending a day of the taxable year in this state.

59-10-201 (Effective upon governor's approval). Taxation of resident trusts and estates.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), a tax determined in accordance with the rate prescribed by Subsection 59-10-104(2)(b) is imposed for each taxable year on the state taxable income of each resident estate or trust.

(2) The following are not subject to a tax imposed by this part:

(a) a resident estate or trust that is not required to file a federal income tax return for estates and trusts for the taxable year; or

(b) a resident trust taxed as a corporation.

(3) A resident estate or trust shall be allowed the credit provided in Section 59-10-1003, relating to an income tax imposed by another state, except that the limitation shall be computed by reference to the taxable income of the estate or trust.

(4) The property of the Utah Educational Savings Plan established in [~~Title 53B, Chapter 8a, Utah Educational Savings Plan~~]Title 53H, Chapter 10 Utah Education Savings, and [~~its~~]the Utah Educational Savings Plan's income from operations and investments are exempt from all taxation by the state under this chapter.

Section 129. Section 59-10-202 is amended to read:

59-10-202 (Effective upon governor's approval). Additions to and subtractions from unadjusted income of a resident or nonresident estate or trust.

(1) There shall be added to unadjusted income of a resident or nonresident estate or trust:

(a) a lump sum distribution allowable as a deduction under Section 402(d)(3), Internal Revenue Code, to the extent deductible under Section 62(a)(8), Internal Revenue Code, in determining adjusted gross income;

(b) except as provided in Subsection (3), for bonds, notes, and other evidences of indebtedness acquired on or after January 1, 2003, the interest from bonds, notes, and other evidences of indebtedness:

(i) issued by one or more of the following entities:

(A) a state other than this state;

(B) the District of Columbia;

(C) a political subdivision of a state other than this state; or

(D) an agency or instrumentality of an entity described in Subsections (1)(b)(i)(A) through (C); and

(ii) to the extent the interest is not included in federal taxable income on the taxpayer's federal income tax return for the taxable year;

(c) any portion of federal taxable income for a taxable year if that federal taxable income is derived from stock:

(i) in an S corporation; and

(ii) that is held by an electing small business trust;

(d) the amount withdrawn under [~~Title 53B, Chapter 8a, Utah Educational Savings Plan~~]Title 53H, Chapter 10, Utah Education Savings, from the account of a resident or nonresident estate or trust that is an account owner as defined in Section [~~53B-8a-102~~]53H-10-101, for the taxable year for which the amount is withdrawn, if that amount withdrawn from the account of the resident or nonresident estate or trust that is the account owner:

(i) is not expended for:

(A) higher education costs as defined in Section [~~53B-8a-102.5~~]53H-10-201; or

(B) a payment or distribution that qualifies as an exception to the additional tax for distributions not used for educational expenses provided in Sections 529(c) and 530(d), Internal Revenue Code; and

(ii) is:

(A) subtracted by the resident or nonresident estate or trust:

(I) that is the account owner; and

(II) on the resident or nonresident estate's or trust's return filed under this chapter for a taxable year beginning on or before December 31, 2007; or

(B) used as the basis for the resident or nonresident estate or trust that is the account owner to claim a tax credit under Section 59-10-1017; and

(e) any fiduciary adjustments required by Section 59-10-210.

(2) There shall be subtracted from unadjusted income of a resident or nonresident estate or trust:

(a) the interest or a dividend on obligations or securities of the United States and its possessions or of any authority, commission, or instrumentality of the United States, to the extent that interest or dividend is included in gross income for federal income tax purposes for the taxable year but exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States, but the amount subtracted under this Subsection (2) shall be reduced by any interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry the obligations or securities described in this Subsection (2), and by any expenses incurred in the production of interest or dividend income described in this Subsection (2) to the extent that such expenses, including amortizable bond premiums, are deductible in determining federal taxable income;

(b) income of an irrevocable resident trust if:

(i) the income would not be treated as state taxable income derived from Utah sources under Section 59-10-204 if received by a nonresident trust;

(ii) the trust first became a resident trust on or after January 1, 2004;

(iii) no assets of the trust were held, at any time after January 1, 2003, in another resident irrevocable trust created by the same settlor or the spouse of the same settlor;

(iv) the trustee of the trust is a trust company as defined in Subsection 7-5-1(1)(d);

(v) the amount subtracted under this Subsection (2)(b) is reduced to the extent the settlor or any other person is treated as an owner of any portion of the trust under Subtitle A, Subchapter J, Subpart E of the Internal Revenue Code; and

(vi) the amount subtracted under this Subsection (2)(b) is reduced by any interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry the assets generating the income described in this Subsection (2)(b), and by any expenses incurred in the production of income described in this Subsection (2)(b), to the extent that those expenses, including amortizable bond premiums, are deductible in determining federal taxable income;

(c) if the conditions of Subsection (4)(a) are met, the amount of income of a resident or nonresident estate or trust derived from a deceased Ute tribal member:

(i) during a time period that the Ute tribal member resided on homesteaded land diminished from the Uintah and Ouray Reservation; and

(ii) from a source within the Uintah and Ouray Reservation;

(d) any amount:

(i) received by a resident or nonresident estate or trust;

(ii) that constitutes a refund of taxes imposed by:

(A) a state; or

(B) the District of Columbia; and

(iii) to the extent that amount is included in total income on that resident or nonresident estate's or trust's federal tax return for estates and trusts for that taxable year;

(e) the amount of a railroad retirement benefit:

(i) paid:

(A) in accordance with The Railroad Retirement Act of 1974, 45 U.S.C. Sec. 231 et seq.;

(B) to a resident or nonresident estate or trust derived from a deceased resident or nonresident individual; and

(C) for the taxable year; and

Section 149. Section 63C-4a-303 is amended to read:

63C-4a-303 (Effective upon governor's approval) (Repealed 07/01/28). Federalism Commission to evaluate federal law -- Curriculum on federalism -- Environment discussions -- Oversight of Center for Constitutional Studies in relation to center's federalism duties.

(1) (a) In accordance with Section 63C-4a-304, the commission may evaluate a federal law:

(i) as agreed by a majority of the commission;

(ii) submitted to the commission by a council member; or

(iii) reported to the commission in accordance with Subsection (1)(b).

(b) (i) To assist the commission in the evaluation of federal law as required in this section and Section 63C-4a-304, the commission may contract with a third party that is a Utah institution of higher education to monitor federal law for possible implications on the principles of federalism.

(ii) A third party contracted to monitor federal law as described in Subsection (1)(b)(i) shall:

(A) monitor federal law for possible implications on the principles of federalism and state sovereignty; and

(B) report to the commission any law or action by the federal government that may implicate the principles of federalism or state sovereignty.

(c) (i) As used in this Subsection (1)(c), "interim committee" means the same as that term is defined in Section 36-12-1.

(ii) The commission shall provide an annual report to each interim committee concerning any law or action by the federal government that implicates the principles of federalism or state sovereignty.

(iii) The commission may notify the appropriate interim committee of any law or action by the federal government that implicates the principles of federalism or state sovereignty.

(2) The commission may request information regarding a federal law under evaluation from a United States senator or representative elected from the state.

(3) If the commission finds that a federal law is not authorized by the United States Constitution or violates the principle of federalism as described in Subsection 63C-4a-304(2), a commission cochair or the commission may:

(a) request from a United States senator or representative elected from the state:

(i) information about the federal law; or

(ii) assistance in communicating with a federal governmental entity regarding the federal law;

(b) (i) give written notice of an evaluation made under Subsection (1) to the federal governmental entity responsible for adopting or administering the federal law; and

(ii) request a response by a specific date to the evaluation from the federal governmental entity;

(c) request a meeting, conducted in person or by electronic means, with the federal governmental entity, a representative from another state, or a United States Senator or Representative elected from the state to discuss the evaluation of federal law and any possible remedy; or

(d) give written notice of an evaluation and the conclusions of the commission to any other relevant entity.

(4) The commission may recommend to the governor that the governor call a special session of the Legislature to give the Legislature an opportunity to respond to the commission's evaluation of a federal law.

(5) A commission cochair may coordinate the evaluation of and response to federal law with another state as provided in Section 63C-

(6) The commission shall keep a current list on the Legislature's website of:

(a) a federal law that the commission evaluates under Subsection (1);

(b) an action taken by a cochair of the commission or the commission under Subsection (3);

(c) any coordination undertaken with another state under Section 63C-4a-305; and

(d) any response received from a federal government entity that was requested under Subsection (3).

(7) (a) The commission shall develop curriculum for a seminar on the principles of federalism.

(b) The curriculum under Subsection (7)(a) shall be available to the general public and include:

(i) fundamental principles of federalism;

(ii) the sovereignty, supremacy, and jurisdiction of the individual states, including their police powers;

(iv) the authority and limits on the authority of the federal government as found in the United States Constitution;

(v) the relationship between the state and federal governments;

(vi) methods of evaluating a federal law in the context of the principles of federalism;

(vii) how and when challenges should be made to a federal law or regulation on the basis of federalism;

(viii) the separate and independent powers of the state that serve as a check on the federal government;

(ix) first amendment rights and freedoms contained therein; and

(x) any other issues relating to federalism the commission considers necessary.

(8) The commission may apply for and receive grants, and receive private donations to assist in funding the creation, enhancement, and dissemination of the curriculum.

(9) The commission shall submit a report on or before November 30 of each year to the Government Operations Interim Committee and the Natural Resources, Agriculture, and Environment Interim Committee that:

(a) describes any action taken by the commission under Section 63C-4a-303; and

(b) includes any proposed legislation the commission recommends.

(10) The commission shall comply with Section 19-1-110 in discussions with the Department of Environmental Quality on issues related to the environment or the functioning of the Department of Environmental Quality.

(11) The commission shall:

(a) coordinate with and make recommendations to the center concerning the center's federalism-related duties under Section [~~53B-29-402~~]53H-4-703, including:

(i) the development of the federalism education and training program under Subsection [~~53B-29-402(1)~~]53H-4-703(1); and

(ii) the scope and objectives of:

(A) the annual federalism conference organized under Subsection [~~53B-29-402(2)~~]53H-4-703(2);

(B) the study conducted under Subsection [~~53B-29-402(3)~~]53H-4-703(3); and

(C) the center's coordination efforts under Subsection [~~53B-29-402(4)~~]53H-4-703(4);

(b) coordinate with and make recommendations to the institute regarding the institute's federalism-related duties under Section [~~53B-29-403~~]53H-4-704; and

(c) report annually to the Legislative Management Committee regarding:

(i) the center's progress in fulfilling the requirements of Section [~~53B-29-402~~]53H-4-703; and

(ii) the institute's progress in fulfilling the requirements of Section [~~53B-29-403~~]53H-4-704.

(12) Each executive branch agency shall, at the request of the commission, designate a contact person to coordinate with the commission regarding the federalism education and training program developed under Section [~~53B-29-402~~]53H-4-703 for purposes of:

(a) determining the extent of federal jurisdiction in the agency's resource sphere;

(b) determining whether federal action exceeds the federal government's jurisdictional authority;

(c) assessing what actions the agency may take in the event that federal action exceeds the federal government's jurisdictional authority; and

(d) assessing how actions described in Subsection (12)(c) may better enable the agency to use the agency's best judgment in serving the people of Utah.

(p) an initiative packet, as defined in Section 20A-7-101, and a referendum packet, as defined in Section 20A-7-101, after the packet is submitted to a county clerk.

(3) The following records are normally public, but to the extent that a record is expressly exempt from disclosure, access may be restricted under Subsection 63G-2-201(3)(b), Section 63G-2-302, 63G-2-304, or 63G-2-305:

(a) administrative staff manuals, instructions to staff, and statements of policy;

(b) records documenting a contractor's or private provider's compliance with the terms of a contract with a governmental entity;

(c) records documenting the services provided by a contractor or a private provider to the extent the records would be public if prepared by the governmental entity;

(d) contracts entered into by a governmental entity;

(e) any account, voucher, or contract that deals with the receipt or expenditure of funds by a governmental entity;

(f) records relating to government assistance or incentives publicly disclosed, contracted for, or given by a governmental entity, encouraging a person to expand or relocate a business in Utah, except as provided in Subsection 63G-2-305(35);

(g) chronological logs and initial contact reports;

(h) correspondence by and with a governmental entity in which the governmental entity determines or states an opinion upon the rights of the state, a political subdivision, the public, or any person;

(i) empirical data contained in drafts if:

(i) the empirical data is not reasonably available to the requester elsewhere in similar form; and

(ii) the governmental entity is given a reasonable opportunity to correct any errors or make nonsubstantive changes before release;

(j) drafts that are circulated to anyone other than:

(i) a governmental entity;

(ii) a political subdivision;

(iii) a federal agency if the governmental entity and the federal agency are jointly responsible for implementation of a program or project that has been legislatively approved;

(iv) a government-managed corporation; or

(v) a contractor or private provider;

(k) drafts that have never been finalized but were relied upon by the governmental entity in carrying out action or policy;

(l) original data in a computer program if the governmental entity chooses not to disclose the program;

(m) arrest warrants after issuance, except that, for good cause, a court may order restricted access to arrest warrants prior to service;

(n) search warrants after execution and filing of the return, except that a court, for good cause, may order restricted access to search warrants prior to trial;

(o) records that would disclose information relating to formal charges or disciplinary actions against a past or present governmental entity employee if:

(i) the disciplinary action has been completed and all time periods for administrative appeal have expired; and

(ii) the charges on which the disciplinary action was based were sustained;

(p) records maintained by the Division of Forestry, Fire, and State Lands, the School and Institutional Trust Lands Administration, or the Division of Oil, Gas, and Mining that evidence mineral production on government lands;

(q) final audit reports;

(r) occupational and professional licenses;

(s) business licenses;

(t) a notice of violation, a notice of agency action under Section 63G-4-201, or similar records used to initiate proceedings for discipline or sanctions against persons regulated by a governmental entity, but not including records that initiate employee discipline; and

(u) (i) records that disclose a standard, regulation, policy, guideline, or rule regarding the operation of a correctional facility or the care and control of inmates committed to the custody of a correctional facility; and

(ii) records that disclose the results of an audit or other inspection assessing a correctional facility's compliance with a standard, regulation, policy, guideline, or rule described in Subsection (3)(u)(i).

(4) The list of public records in this section is not exhaustive and should not be used to limit access to records.

Section 153. Section 63G-2-305 is amended to read:

63G-2-305 (Effective upon governor's approval). Protected records.

The following records are protected if properly classified by a governmental entity:

(1) trade secrets as defined in Section 13-24-2 if the person submitting the trade secret has provided the governmental entity with the information specified in Section 63G-2-309;

(2) commercial information or nonindividual financial information obtained from a person if:

(a) disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to result in unfair competitive injury to the person submitting the information or would impair the ability of the governmental entity to obtain necessary information in the future;

(b) the person submitting the information has a greater interest in prohibiting access than the public in obtaining access; and

(c) the person submitting the information has provided the governmental entity with the information specified in Section 63G-2-309;

(3) commercial or financial information acquired or prepared by a governmental entity to the extent that disclosure would lead to financial speculations in currencies, securities, or commodities that will interfere with a planned transaction by the governmental entity or cause substantial financial injury to the governmental entity or state economy;

(4) records, the disclosure of which could cause commercial injury to, or confer a competitive advantage upon a potential or actual competitor of, a commercial project entity as defined in Subsection 11-13-103(4);

(5) test questions and answers to be used in future license, certification, registration, employment, or academic examinations;

(6) records, the disclosure of which would impair governmental procurement proceedings or give an unfair advantage to any person proposing to enter into a contract or agreement with a governmental entity, except, subject to Subsections (1) and (2), that this Subsection (6) does not restrict the right of a person to have access to, after the contract or grant has been awarded and signed by all parties:

(a) a bid, proposal, application, or other information submitted to or by a governmental entity in response to:

(i) an invitation for bids;

(ii) a request for proposals;

(iii) a request for quotes;

(iv) a grant; or

(v) other similar document; or

(b) an unsolicited proposal, as defined in Section 63G-6a-712;

(7) information submitted to or by a governmental entity in response to a request for information, except, subject to Subsections (1) and (2), that this Subsection (7) does not restrict the right of a person to have access to the information, after:

(a) a contract directly relating to the subject of the request for information has been awarded and signed by all parties; or

(b) (i) a final determination is made not to enter into a contract that relates to the subject of the request for information; and

(ii) at least two years have passed after the day on which the request for information is issued;

(8) records that would identify real property or the appraisal or estimated value of real or personal property, including intellectual property, under consideration for public acquisition before any rights to the property are acquired unless:

(a) public interest in obtaining access to the information is greater than or equal to the governmental entity's need to acquire the property on the best terms possible;

(b) the information has already been disclosed to persons not employed by or under a duty of confidentiality to the entity;

(c) in the case of records that would identify property, potential sellers of the described property have already learned of the governmental entity's plans to acquire the property;

(d) in the case of records that would identify the appraisal or estimated value of property, the potential sellers have already learned of the governmental entity's estimated value of the property; or

(e) the property under consideration for public acquisition is a single family residence and the governmental entity seeking to acquire the property has initiated negotiations to acquire the property as required under Section 78B-6-505;

(9) records prepared in contemplation of sale, exchange, lease, rental, or other compensated transaction of real or personal property including intellectual property, which, if disclosed prior to completion of the transaction, would reveal the appraisal or estimated value of the subject property, unless:

(a) the public interest in access is greater than or equal to the interests in restricting access, including the governmental entity's interest in maximizing the financial benefit of the transaction; or

(b) when prepared by or on behalf of a governmental entity, appraisals or estimates of the value of the subject property have already been disclosed to persons not employed by or under a duty of confidentiality to the entity;

(10) records created or maintained for civil, criminal, or administrative enforcement purposes or audit purposes, or for discipline, licensing, certification, or registration purposes, if release of the records:

(a) reasonably could be expected to interfere with investigations undertaken for enforcement, discipline, licensing, certification, or registration purposes;

(b) reasonably could be expected to interfere with audits, disciplinary, or enforcement proceedings;

(c) would create a danger of depriving a person of a right to a fair trial or impartial hearing;

(d) reasonably could be expected to disclose the identity of a source who is not generally known outside of government and, in the case of a record compiled in the course of an investigation, disclose information furnished by a source not generally known outside of government if disclosure would compromise the source; or

(e) reasonably could be expected to disclose investigative or audit techniques, procedures, policies, or orders not generally known outside of government if disclosure would interfere with enforcement or audit efforts;

(11) records the disclosure of which would jeopardize the life or safety of an individual;

(12) records the disclosure of which would jeopardize the security of governmental property, governmental programs, or governmental recordkeeping systems from damage, theft, or other appropriation or use contrary to law or public policy;

(13) records that, if disclosed, would jeopardize the security or safety of a correctional facility, or records relating to incarceration, treatment, probation, or parole, that would interfere with the control and supervision of an offender's incarceration, treatment, probation, or parole;

(14) records that, if disclosed, would reveal recommendations made to the Board of Pardons and Parole by an employee of or contractor for the Department of Corrections, the Board of Pardons and Parole, or the Department of Health and Human Services that are based on the employee's or contractor's supervision, diagnosis, or treatment of any person within the board's jurisdiction;

(ii) the governmental entity to whom the request for a record is made determines that the record claimed to be protected under a provision listed in Subsection (1)(b)(i)should be released after balancing interests under Subsection 63G-2-201(5)(b) or 63G-2-401(6).

(c) A person who makes a claim of business confidentiality under this Subsection (1) shall protect, defend, and indemnify the governmental entity that retains the record, and all staff and employees of the governmental entity from and against any claims, liability, or damages resulting from or arising from a denial of access to the record as a protected record based on the claim of business confidentiality.

(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b) or by court order, the governmental entity to whom the request for a record is made may not disclose a record claimed to be protected under a provision listed in Subsection (1)(b)(i) but which the governmental entity or the director of the Government Records Office determines should be disclosed until the period in which to bring an appeal expires or the end of the appeals process, including judicial appeal.

(b) Subsection (2)(a) does not apply where the claimant, after notice, has waived the claim by not appealing or intervening before the director of the Government Records Office.

(3) Disclosure or acquisition of information under this chapter does not constitute misappropriation under Subsection 13-24-2(2).

63G-3-201 (Effective upon governor's approval). When rulemaking is required.

(1) Each agency shall:

(a) maintain a current version of its rules; and

(b) make it available to the public for inspection during its regular business hours.

(2) In addition to other rulemaking required by law, each agency shall make rules when agency action:

(a) authorizes, requires, or prohibits an action;

(b) provides or prohibits a material benefit;

(c) applies to a class of persons or another agency; and

(d) is explicitly or implicitly authorized by statute.

(3) Rulemaking is also required when an agency issues a written interpretation of a state or federal legal mandate.

(4) Rulemaking is not required when:

(a) agency action applies only to internal agency management, inmates or residents of a state correctional, diagnostic, or detention facility, persons under state legal custody, patients admitted to a state hospital, members of the state retirement system, or [~~,~~],except as provided in [~~Title 53B, Chapter 27, Part 3, Student Civil Liberties Protection Act~~]Title 53H, Chapter 7, Part 3, Student Civil Liberties Protection, students enrolled in a state education institution;

(b) a standardized agency manual applies only to internal fiscal or administrative details of governmental entities supervised under statute;

(c) an agency issues policy or other statements that are advisory, informative, or descriptive, and do not conform to the requirements of Subsections (2) and (3); or

(d) an agency makes nonsubstantive changes in a rule, except that the agency shall file all nonsubstantive changes in a rule with the office.

(5) (a) A rule shall enumerate any penalty authorized by statute that may result from its violation, subject to Subsections (5)(b) and (c).

(b) A violation of a rule may not be subject to the criminal penalty of a class C misdemeanor or greater offense, except as provided under Subsection (5)(c).

(c) A violation of a rule may be subject to a class C misdemeanor or greater criminal penalty under Subsection (5)(a) when:

(i) authorized by a specific state statute;

(ii) a state law and programs under that law are established in order for the state to obtain or maintain primacy over a federal program; or

(iii) state civil or criminal penalties established by state statute regarding the program are equivalent to or less than corresponding federal civil or criminal penalties.

(6) Each agency shall enact rules incorporating the principles of law not already in its rules that are established by final adjudicative decisions within 120 days after the decision is announced in its cases.

(7) (a) Each agency may enact a rule that incorporates by reference:

(i) all or any part of another code, rule, or regulation that has been adopted by a federal agency, an agency or political subdivision of this state, an agency of another state, or by a nationally recognized organization or association;

(ii) state agency implementation plans mandated by the federal government for participation in the federal program;

(iii) lists, tables, illustrations, or similar materials that are subject to frequent change, fully described in the rule, and are available for public inspection; or

(iv) lists, tables, illustrations, or similar materials that the director determines are too expensive to reproduce in the administrative code.

(b) Rules incorporating materials by reference shall:

(i) be enacted according to the procedures outlined in this chapter;

(c) "Drug and alcohol testing policy" means a policy under which a contractor or subcontractor tests a covered individual to establish, maintain, or enforce the prohibition of:

(i) the manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession, or use of drugs or alcohol, except the medically prescribed possession and use of a drug; or

(ii) the impairment of judgment or physical abilities due to the use of drugs or alcohol.

(d) "Random testing" means that a covered individual is subject to periodic testing for drugs and alcohol:

(i) in accordance with a drug and alcohol testing policy; and

(ii) on the basis of a random selection process.

(e) "State executive entity" means:

(i) a state executive branch:

(A) department;

(B) division;

(C) agency;

(D) board;

(E) commission;

(F) council;

(G) committee; or

(H) institution; or

(ii) [~~a state~~]an institution of higher education, as defined in Section [~~53B-3-102~~]53H-1-101.

(f) "State construction contract" means a contract for design or construction entered into by a state executive entity.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection (7), a state executive entity may not enter into a state construction contract unless the public construction contract requires that the contractor demonstrate to the state executive entity that the contractor:

(a) has and will maintain a drug and alcohol testing policy during the period of the state construction contract that applies to the covered individuals hired by the contractor;

(b) posts in one or more conspicuous places notice to covered individuals hired by the contractor that the contractor has the drug and alcohol testing policy described in Subsection (2)(a);

(c) subjects the covered individuals to random testing under the drug and alcohol testing policy described in Subsection (2)(a) if at any time during the period of the state construction contract there are 10 or more individuals who are covered individuals hired by the contractor; and

(d) requires that as a condition of contracting with the contractor, a subcontractor:

(i) has and will maintain a drug and alcohol testing policy during the period of the state construction contract that applies to the covered individuals hired by the subcontractor;

(ii) posts in one or more conspicuous places notice to covered individuals hired by the subcontractor that the subcontractor has the drug and alcohol testing policy described in Subsection (2)(d)(i); and

(iii) subjects the covered individuals hired by the subcontractor to random testing under the drug and alcohol testing policy described in Subsection (2)(d)(i) if at any time during the period of the state construction contract there are 10 or more individuals who are covered individuals hired by the subcontractor.

(3) (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Subsection (3), if a contractor or subcontractor fails to comply with Subsection (2), the contractor or subcontractor may be suspended or debarred in accordance with this chapter.

(b) A state executive entity shall include in a state construction contract:

(i) a reference to the rules described in Subsection (4)(b); or

(ii) if the rulemaking authority has not made the rules described in Subsection (4)(b), a process that provides a contractor or subcontractor reasonable notice and opportunity to cure a violation of this section before suspension or debarment of the contractor or subcontractor in light of the circumstances of the state construction contract or the violation.

(c) (i) A contractor is not subject to penalties for the failure of a subcontractor to comply with Subsection (2).

(ii) A subcontractor is not subject to penalties for the failure of a contractor to comply with Subsection (2).

(4) A rulemaking authority:

(a) may make rules that establish the requirements and procedures a contractor is required to follow to comply with Subsection (2); and

(b) shall make rules that establish:

(i) the penalties that may be imposed in accordance with Subsection (3); and

(ii) a process that provides a contractor or subcontractor reasonable notice and opportunity to cure a violation of this section before suspension or debarment of the contractor or subcontractor in light of the circumstances of the state construction contract or the violation.

(5) The failure of a contractor or subcontractor to meet the requirements of Subsection (2):

(a) may not be the basis for a protest or other action from a prospective bidder, offeror, or contractor under Part 17, Procurement Appeals Board, or Part 18, Appeals to Court and Court Proceedings; and

(b) may not be used by a state executive entity, a prospective bidder, an offeror, a contractor, or a subcontractor as a basis for an action that would suspend, disrupt, or terminate the design or construction under a state construction contract.

(6) (a) After a state executive entity enters into a state construction contract in compliance with this section, the state is not required to audit, monitor, or take any other action to ensure compliance with this section.

(b) The state is not liable in any action related to this section, including not being liable in relation to:

(i) a contractor or subcontractor having or not having a drug and alcohol testing policy;

(ii) failure to test for a drug or alcohol under a contractor's or subcontractor's drug and alcohol testing policy;

(iii) the requirements of a contractor's or subcontractor's drug and alcohol testing policy;

(iv) a contractor's or subcontractor's implementation of a drug and alcohol testing policy, including procedures for:

(A) collection of a sample;

(B) testing of a sample;

(C) evaluation of a test; or

(D) disciplinary or rehabilitative action on the basis of a test result;

(v) an individual being under the influence of drugs or alcohol; or

(vi) an individual under the influence of drugs or alcohol harming another person or causing property damage.

(7) This section does not apply if the state executive entity determines that the application of this section would severely disrupt the operation of a procurement unit to the detriment of the procurement unit or the general public, including:

(a) jeopardizing the receipt of federal funds;

(b) causing the state construction contract to be a sole source contract; or

(c) causing the state construction contract to be an emergency procurement.

(8) If a contractor or subcontractor meets the requirements of this section, this section may not be construed to restrict the contractor's or subcontractor's ability to impose or implement an otherwise lawful provision as part of a drug and alcohol testing policy.

Section 158. Section 63G-7-102 is amended to read:

63G-7-102 (Effective upon governor's approval). Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(7) "Personal injury" means an injury of any kind other than property damage.

(8) "Political subdivision" means any county, city, town, school district, community reinvestment agency, special improvement or taxing district, special district, special service district, an entity created by an interlocal agreement adopted under Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act, or other governmental subdivision or public corporation.

(9) "Property damage" means injury to, or loss of, any right, title, estate, or interest in real or personal property.

(10) "State" means the state of Utah, and includes each office, department, division, agency, authority, commission, board, institution, hospital, college, university, Children's Justice Center, or other instrumentality of the state.

(11) "Willful misconduct" means the intentional doing of a wrongful act, or the wrongful failure to act, without just cause or excuse, where the actor is aware that the actor's conduct will probably result in injury.

Section 159. Section 63G-7-301 is amended to read:

63G-7-301 (Effective upon governor's approval). Waivers of immunity.

(1) (a) Immunity from suit of each governmental entity is waived as to any contractual obligation.

(b) Actions arising out of contractual rights or obligations are not subject to the requirements of Section 63G-7-401, 63G-7-402, 63G-7-403, or 63G-7-601.

(c) The Division of Water Resources is not liable for failure to deliver water from a reservoir or associated facility authorized by Title 73, Chapter 26, Bear River Development Act, if the failure to deliver the contractual amount of water is due to drought, other natural condition, or safety condition that causes a deficiency in the amount of available water.

(2) Immunity from suit of each governmental entity is waived:

(a) as to any action brought to recover, obtain possession of, or quiet title to real or personal property;

(b) as to any action brought to foreclose mortgages or other liens on real or personal property, to determine any adverse claim on real or personal property, or to obtain an adjudication about any mortgage or other lien that the governmental entity may have or claim on real or personal property;

(c) as to any action based on the negligent destruction, damage, or loss of goods, merchandise, or other property while it is in the possession of any governmental entity or employee, if the property was seized for the purpose of forfeiture under any provision of state law;

(d) subject to Section 63G-7-302, as to any action brought under the authority of Utah Constitution, Article I, Section 22, for the recovery of compensation from the governmental entity when the governmental entity has taken or damaged private property for public uses without just compensation;

(e) as to any claim for attorney fees or costs under Section 63G-2-209, 63G-2-405, or 63G-2-802;

(f) for actual damages under Title 67, Chapter 21, Utah Protection of Public Employees Act;

(g) as to any action brought to obtain relief from a land use regulation that imposes a substantial burden on the free exercise of religion under Title 63L, Chapter 5, Utah Religious Land Use Act;

(h) except as provided in Subsection 63G-7-201(3), as to any injury caused by:

(i) a defective, unsafe, or dangerous condition of any highway, road, street, alley, crosswalk, sidewalk, culvert, tunnel, bridge, viaduct, or other structure located on them; or

(ii) any defective or dangerous condition of a public building, structure, dam, reservoir, or other public improvement;

(i) subject to Subsections 63G-7-101(4) and 63G-7-201(4), as to any injury proximately caused by a negligent act or omission of an employee committed within the scope of employment;

(j) notwithstanding Subsection 63G-7-101(4), as to a claim for an injury resulting from a sexual battery, as provided in Section 76-5-418, committed:

(i) against a student of a public elementary or secondary school, including a charter school; and

(ii) by an employee of a public elementary or secondary school or charter school who:

(A) at the time of the sexual battery, held a position of special trust, as defined in Section 76-5-404.1, with respect to the student;

(B) is criminally charged in connection with the sexual battery; and

(C) the public elementary or secondary school or charter school knew or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, at the time of the employee's hiring, to be a sex offender, a kidnap offender, or a child abuse offender as described in Section 53-29-202, required to register under Title 53, Chapter 29, Sex, Kidnap, and Child Abuse Offender Registry, whose status as a sex offender, kidnap offender, or child abuse offender would have been revealed in a background check under Section 53G-11-402;

(k) as to any action brought under Section 78B-6-2303;

(l) as to any action brought to obtain relief under [~~Title 53B, Chapter 27, Part 6~~]Title 53H, Chapter 7, Part 7, Student Legal Representation; and

(m) as to any action brought under Section 53-30-301.

(3) (a) As used in this Subsection (3):

(i) "Code of conduct" means a code of conduct that:

(A) is not less stringent than a model code of conduct, created by the State Board of Education, establishing a professional standard of care for preventing the conduct described in Subsection (3)(a)(i)(D);

(B) is adopted by the applicable local education governing body;

(C) regulates behavior of a school employee toward a student; and

(D) includes a prohibition against any sexual conduct between an employee and a student and against the employee and student sharing any sexually explicit or lewd communication, image, or photograph.

(ii) "Local education agency" means:

(A) for an individual who is a graduate of a high school located within Utah; and

(B) administered by an institution of higher education as defined in Section [~~53B-2-101~~]53H-1-101.

(4) (a) An agency or political subdivision required to verify the lawful presence in the United States of an applicant under this section shall require the applicant to certify under penalty of perjury that:

(i) the applicant is a United States citizen; or

(ii) the applicant is:

(A) a qualified alien as defined in 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1641; and

(B) lawfully present in the United States.

(b) The certificate required under this Subsection (4) shall include a statement advising the signer that providing false information subjects the signer to penalties for perjury.

(5) An agency or political subdivision shall verify a certification required under Subsection (4)(a)(ii) through the federal SAVE program.

(6) (a) An individual who knowingly and willfully makes a false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or representation in a certification under Subsection (3)(k) or (4) is subject to the criminal penalties applicable in this state for:

(i) making a written false statement under Section 76-8-504; and

(ii) fraudulently obtaining:

(A) public assistance program benefits under Section 76-8-1203.1; or

(B) unemployment compensation under Section 76-8-1301, 76-8-1302, 76-8-1303, or 76-8-1304.

(b) If the certification constitutes a false claim of United States citizenship under 18 U.S.C. Sec. 911, the agency or political subdivision shall file a complaint with the United States Attorney General for the applicable district based upon the venue in which the application was made.

(c) If an agency or political subdivision receives verification that a person making an application for a benefit, service, or license is not a qualified alien, the agency or political subdivision shall provide the information to the Office of the Attorney General unless prohibited by federal mandate.

(7) An agency or political subdivision may adopt variations to the requirements of this section that:

(a) clearly improve the efficiency of or reduce delay in the verification process; or

(b) provide for adjudication of unique individual circumstances where the verification procedures in this section would impose an unusual hardship on a legal resident of Utah.

(8) It is unlawful for an agency or a political subdivision of this state to provide a state, local, or federal benefit, as defined in 8 U.S.C. Sec. 1611 and 1621, in violation of this section.

(9) A state agency or department that administers a program of state or local public benefits shall:

(a) provide an annual report to the governor, the president of the Senate, and the speaker of the House regarding its compliance with this section; and

(b) (i) monitor the federal SAVE program for application verification errors and significant delays;

(ii) provide an annual report on the errors and delays to ensure that the application of the federal SAVE program is not erroneously denying a state or local benefit to a legal resident of the state; and

(iii) report delays and errors in the federal SAVE program to the United States Department of Homeland Security.

(j) subject to Subsection (2), investigate criminal conduct involving offenders incarcerated in a state correctional facility;

(k) cooperate and exchange information with other state, local, and federal law enforcement agencies to achieve greater success in prevention and detection of crime and apprehension of criminals;

(l) implement the provisions of Title 77, Chapter 28c, Interstate Compact for Adult Offender Supervision;

(m) establish a case action plan based on appropriate validated risk, needs, and responsivity assessments for each offender as follows:

(i) (A) if an offender is to be supervised in the community, the department shall establish a case action plan for the offender no later than 60 days after the day on which the department's community supervision of the offender begins; and

(B) if the offender is committed to the custody of the department, the department shall establish a case action plan for the offender no later than 90 days after the day on which the offender is committed to the custody of the department;

(ii) each case action plan shall:

(A) integrate an individualized, evidence-based, and evidence-informed treatment and program plan with clearly defined completion requirements; and

(B) require that a case manager will:

(I) ensure that an assessment of the education level, occupational interests, and aptitudes of the inmate has been completed;

(II) refer the inmate to a higher education student advisor at an institution offering programs consistent with the inmate's interests and aptitudes for advisement on educational preferences and plans;

(III) incorporate the inmate's interests, aptitudes, and student advisement into an education plan consistent with the guidance provided by the Higher Education and Corrections Council created in Section [~~53B-35-201~~]53H-1-604; and

(IV) refer the inmate to the student advisor at the institution called for in the case action plan for guidance and assistance with the education process;

(iii) the department shall share each newly established case action plan with the sentencing and release authority within 30 days after the day on which the case action plan is established; and

(iv) the department shall share any changes to a case action plan, including any change in an offender's risk assessment, with the sentencing and release authority within 30 days after the day of the change;

(n) ensure that an inmate has reasonable access to legal research;

(o) ensure that any training or certification required of a public official or public employee, as those terms are defined in Section 63G-

22-102, complies with Title 63G, Chapter 22, State Training and Certification Requirements, if the training or certification is required:

(i) under this title;

(ii) by the department; or

(iii) by an agency or division within the department;

(p) when reporting on statewide recidivism, include the metrics and requirements described in Section 63M-7-102;

(q) create a reentry division that focuses on the successful reentry of inmates into the community, which shall include:

(i) screening and assessments for an inmate's risks and needs;

(ii) individualized plans and case management;

(iii) quality treatment, education, and job preparation;

(iv) community partnerships; and

(v) comprehensive release planning before the inmate's release, including:

(A) coordination with support services; and

(B) coordination with one or more family members or friends, if the inmate has given permission to contact specific individuals for this purpose;

(r) coordinate with the Board of Pardons and Parole regarding inmate records that are necessary for the Board of Pardons and Parole to make necessary determinations regarding an inmate; and

(s) ensure that inmate records regarding discipline, programs, and other relevant metrics are:

(i) complete and updated in a timely manner; and

(ii) when applicable, shared with the Board of Pardons and Parole in a timely manner.

(2) In accordance with department policy, the department may conduct criminal investigations regarding an allegation that:

(a) an offender has committed a criminal offense; or

(b) an employee of the department has committed a criminal offense.

(3) (a) The executive director of the department, or the executive director's designee if the designee possesses expertise in correctional programming, shall consult at least annually with cognitive and career-readiness staff experts from the Utah system of higher education and the State Board of Education to review the department's evidence-based and evidence-informed treatment and program opportunities.

(b) Beginning in the 2022 interim, the department shall provide an annual report to the Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice Interim Committee regarding:

(i) the department's implementation of and offender participation in evidence-based and evidence-informed treatment and program opportunities designed to reduce the criminogenic and recidivism risks of offenders over time; and

(b) The attorney general may review investigation results de novo and file criminal charges, if warranted, in any case involving a first degree felony, if:

(i) a law enforcement agency submits investigation results to the county attorney or district attorney of the jurisdiction where the incident occurred and the county attorney or district attorney:

(A) declines to file criminal charges; or

(B) fails to screen the case for criminal charges within six months after the law enforcement agency's submission of the investigation results; and

(ii) after consultation with the county attorney or district attorney of the jurisdiction where the incident occurred, the attorney general reasonably believes action by the attorney general would not interfere with an ongoing investigation or prosecution by the county attorney or district attorney of the jurisdiction where the incident occurred.

(c) If the attorney general decides to conduct a review under Subsection (2)(b), the district attorney, county attorney, and law enforcement agency shall, within 14 days after the day on which the attorney general makes a request, provide the attorney general with:

(i) all information relating to the investigation, including all reports, witness lists, witness statements, and other documents created or collected in relation to the investigation;

(ii) all recordings, photographs, and other physical or digital media created or collected in relation to the investigation;

(iii) access to all evidence gathered or collected in relation to the investigation; and

(iv) the identification of, and access to, all officers or other persons who have information relating to the investigation.

(d) If a district attorney, county attorney, or law enforcement agency fails to timely comply with Subsection (2)(c), the attorney general may seek a court order compelling compliance.

(e) If the attorney general seeks a court order under Subsection (2)(d), the court shall grant the order unless the district attorney, county attorney, or law enforcement agency shows good cause and a compelling interest for not complying with Subsection (2)(c).

(3) The attorney general:

(a) is a full-time employee of the state; and

(b) may not engage in the private practice of law.

Section 177. Section 67-8-3 is amended to read:

67-8-3 (Effective upon governor's approval). Compensation plan for appointive officers -- Exceptions -- Legislative approval -- Career status attorneys.

(1) (a) The director of the Division of Human Resource Management, based upon recommendations of the Executive and Judicial Compensation Commission shall, before October 31 of each year, recommend to the governor a compensation plan for appointed officers of the state except those officers whose compensation is set under Section 49-11-203, 53E-3-302, [~~53B-1-408~~]53H-1-302, or 53C-1-301.

(b) The plan shall include salaries and wages, paid leave, group insurance plans, retirement programs, and any other benefits that may be offered to state officers.

(2) The governor shall include in each annual budget proposal to the Legislature specific recommendations on compensation for those appointed state officers in Subsection (1).

(3) (a) After consultation with the attorney general, the director of the Division of Human Resource Management shall place career status attorneys on a state salary schedule at a range comparable with salaries paid attorneys in private and other public employment.

(b) The attorney general and the executive director shall take into consideration the experience of the attorney, length of service with the Office of the Attorney General, quality of performance, and responsibility involved in legal assignments.

(c) The attorney general and the executive director shall periodically adjust the salary levels for attorneys in a career status to reasonably compensate them for full-time employment and the restrictions placed on the private practice of law.

Section 178. Section 67-21-2 is amended to read:

67-21-2 (Effective upon governor's approval). Definitions.

Section 179. Section 67-21-3 is amended to read:

67-21-3 (Effective upon governor's approval). Reporting of governmental waste or violations of law -- Employer action -- Exceptions.

(1) (a) An employer may not take retaliatory action against an employee because the employee, or a person authorized to act on behalf of the employee, communicates in good faith:

(i) the waste or misuse of public funds, property, or manpower;

(ii) a violation or suspected violation of a law, rule, or regulation adopted under the law of this state, a political subdivision of this state, or any recognized entity of the United States; or

(iii) as it relates to a state government employer:

(A) gross mismanagement;

(B) abuse of authority; or

(C) unethical conduct.

(b) For purposes of Subsection (1)(a), an employee is presumed to have communicated in good faith if the employee gives written notice or otherwise formally communicates the conduct described in Subsection (1)(a) to:

(i) a person in authority over the person alleged to have engaged in the conduct described in Subsection (1)(a);

(ii) the attorney general's office;

(iii) law enforcement, if the conduct is criminal in nature;

(iv) if the employee is a public entity employee, public body employee, legislative employee, or a judicial employee:

(A) the state auditor's office;

(B) the president of the Senate;

(C) the speaker of the House of Representatives;

(D) the Office of Legislative Auditor General;

(E) the governor's office;

(F) the state court administrator; or

(G) the Division of Finance;

(v) if the employee is a public entity employee, but not an employee of [~~astate~~]an institution of higher education, the director of the Division of Purchasing and General Services;

(vi) if the employee is a political subdivision employee:

(A) the legislative body, or a member of the legislative body, of the political subdivision;

(B) the governing body, or a member of the governing body, of the political subdivision;

(C) the top executive of the political subdivision; or

(D) any government official with authority to audit the political subdivision or the applicable part of the political subdivision; or

(vii) if the employee is an employee of [~~astate~~]an institution of higher education:

(A) the Utah Board of Higher Education or a member of the Utah Board of Higher Education;

(B) the commissioner of higher education;

(C) the president of the [~~state~~]institution of higher education where the employee is employed; or

(D) the entity that conducts audits of the [~~state~~]institution of higher education where the employee is employed.

(c) The presumption described in Subsection (1)(b) may be rebutted by showing that the employee knew or reasonably ought to have known that the report is malicious, false, or frivolous.

(2) An employer may not take retaliatory action against an employee because an employee participates or gives information in an investigation, hearing, court proceeding, legislative or other inquiry, or other form of administrative review held by the public body.

(3) An employer may not take retaliatory action against an employee because the employee has objected to or refused to carry out a directive that the employee reasonably believes violates a law of this state, a political subdivision of this state, or the United States, or a rule or regulation adopted under the authority of the laws of this state, a political subdivision of this state, or the United States.

(4) An employer may not implement rules or policies that unreasonably restrict an employee's ability to document:

(a) the waste or misuse of public funds, property, or manpower;

(b) a violation or suspected violation of any law, rule, or regulation; or

(c) as it relates to a state government employer:

(i) gross mismanagement;

(ii) abuse of authority; or

(iii) unethical conduct.

Section 180. Section 67-21-3.7 is amended to read:

67-21-3.7 (Effective upon governor's approval). Administrative review for institution of higher education employees.

(1) (a) As used in this section, "independent personnel board" means a board where no member of the board:

(i) is in the same department as the complainant;

(ii) is a supervisor of the complainant; or

(iii) has a conflict of interest in relation to the complainant or an allegation made in the complaint.

(b) [~~Astate~~]An institution of higher education shall adopt a policy to establish an independent personnel board to hear and take action on a complaint alleging retaliatory action.

(c) The policy described in Subsection (1)(b) shall include:

(i) procedures for filing a complaint and conducting a hearing; and

(ii) a burden of proof on the employer to establish by substantial evidence that the employer's action was justified by reasons unrelated to the employee's good faith actions under Section 67-21-3.

(2) (a) An employee of [~~astate~~]an institution of higher education may file a complaint with the independent personnel board described in Subsection (1)(b) alleging retaliatory action.

(b) An independent personnel board that receives a complaint under Subsection (2)(a) shall hear the matter, resolve the complaint, and take action under Subsection (3) within the later of:

(i) 30 days after the day on which the employee files the complaint; or

(ii) a longer period of time, not to exceed 30 additional days, if the employee and the independent personnel board mutually agree on the longer time period.

(3) If an independent personnel board finds that retaliatory action is taken in violation of the policy described in Subsection (1)(b), the independent personnel board may order, or recommend to a final decision maker:

(a) reinstatement of the employee at the same level as before the retaliatory action;

(b) the payment of back wages;

(c) full reinstatement of fringe benefits;

(d) full reinstatement of seniority rights; or

(e) if the retaliatory action includes failure to promote, as described in Subsection 67-19a-101(11)(d), a pay raise that results in the employee receiving the pay that the employee would have received if the person had been promoted.

(4) A final decision maker who receives a recommendation under Subsection (3) shall render a decision and enter an order within seven days after the day on which the final decision maker receives the recommendation.

Section 181. Section 67-21-4 is amended to read:

67-21-4 (Effective upon governor's approval). Choice of forum -- Remedies for employee bringing action -- Proof required.

(1) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b) or (d), and subject to Subsections (1)(d) through (e), an employee who alleges a violation of this chapter may bring a civil action for appropriate injunctive relief, damages, or both, within 180 days after the occurrence of the alleged violation of this chapter.

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(d):

(i) an employee of a political subdivision that has adopted an ordinance described in Section 67-21-3.6:

(A) may bring a civil action described in Subsection (1)(a) within 180 days after the day on which the employee has exhausted administrative remedies; and

(B) may not bring a civil action described in Subsection (1)(a) until the employee has exhausted administrative remedies; and

(ii) an employee of [~~astate~~]an institution of higher education:

(A) may bring a civil action described in Subsection (1)(a) within 180 days after the day on which the employee has exhausted administrative remedies; and

(B) may not bring a civil action described in Subsection (1)(a) until the employee has exhausted administrative remedies.

(c) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(d), a public entity employee who is not a legislative employee or a judicial employee may bring a claim of retaliatory action by selecting one of the following methods:

(i) filing a grievance with the Career Service Review Office in accordance with Section 67-19a-402.5; or

(ii) bringing a civil action for appropriate injunctive relief, damages, or both, within 180 days after the occurrence of the alleged violation of this chapter.

(d) (i) A claimant may bring an action after the 180-day limit described in this Subsection (1) if:

(A) the claimant originally brought the action within the 180-day time limit;

(B) the action described in Subsection (1)(d)(i)(A) failed or was dismissed for a reason other than on the merits; and

(C) the claimant brings the new action within 180 days after the day on which the claimant originally brought the action under Subsection (1)(d)(i)(A).

(ii) A claimant may commence a new action under this Subsection (1)(d) only once.

(e) A public entity employee who files a grievance under Subsection (1)(d)(i):

(i) may not, at any time, bring a civil action in relation to the subject matter of the grievance;

(ii) may seek a remedy described in Subsection 67-21-3.5(2); and

(iii) waives the right to seek a remedy or a type of damages not included in Subsection 67-21-3.5(2).

(f) A public entity employee who files a civil action under Subsection (1)(d)(ii) may not, at any time, file a grievance with the Career Service Review Office in relation to the subject matter of the civil action.

(2) An employee who brings a civil action under this section shall bring the action in the district court for the county where the alleged violation occurred, the county where the complainant resides, or the county where the person against whom the civil complaint is filed resides or has the person's principal place of business.

(3) (a) An employee who brings an action under this section has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the employee, in good faith, engaged in protected reporting and suffered a retaliatory action.

(b) If the employee satisfies the burden described in Subsection (3)(a), the employer has the burden of proving by substantial evidence that the employer's action was justified.

(c) If the employer satisfies the burden described in Subsection (3)(b), the employee has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the employer's justification is pretextual.

Section 182. Section 67-27-106 is amended to read:

67-27-106 (Effective upon governor's approval). Reasonable accommodations for government employees.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Confidential information" means any:

(i) information related to an employee's request under Subsection (2); or

(ii) record created under Subsection (3) or (4).

(b) "Conscience" means a sincerely held belief as to the rightness or wrongness of an action or inaction.

(c) (i) "Employee" means an individual employed by a governmental entity.

(ii) "Employee" does not include:

(A) an elected official;

(B) an individual employed by the Legislature; or

(C) an individual who is appointed or employed to be on an elected official's personal staff to assist the elected official in fulfilling the elected official's duties.

(d) "First responder" means:

(i) a law enforcement officer, as that term is defined in Section 53-13-103;

(ii) an emergency medical technician, as that term is defined in Section 53-2e-101;

(iii) an advanced emergency medical technician, as that term is defined in Section 53-2e-101;

(iv) a paramedic, as that term is defined in Section 53-2e-101;

(v) a firefighter, as that term is defined in Section [~~53B-8c-102~~]53H-11-306; or

(vi) a dispatcher, as that term is defined in Section 53-6-102.

(e) "Governmental entity" means:

(i) the state;

(ii) a political subdivision of the state, including a county, city, town, school district, special district, institution of higher education, or special service district; or

(iii) an entity created by the state, including an agency, board, bureau, commission, committee, department, division, institution, instrumentality, or office.

(f) "Retaliatory action" means any of the following actions taken by a governmental entity against an employee as a result of the employee filing a request under Subsection (2):

(i) a dismissal;

(ii) a reduction of compensation;

(iii) a failure to increase compensation by an amount that the employee is otherwise entitled to or was promised;

(iv) a failure to promote if the employee would otherwise be promoted; or

(v) a threat to take an action described in Subsections (1)(f)(i) through (iv).

(g) "Task" means a specific job, duty, or function.

(h) "Undue hardship" means a substantial burden, privation, or adversity on a governmental entity that would result from granting an employee's request to be relieved from performing a certain task when considering all relevant factors, including:

(i) the practical impact on the governmental entity in light of the nature, size, and operating cost of the governmental entity;

(ii) the disruption of the governmental entity's operations;

(iii) the nature of the employee's duties;

(iv) the number of employees the governmental entity will be required to grant a request to if the governmental entity grants the employee's request;

(v) the type of workplace; and

(vi) the number of requests by the employee in the preceding 12 months from the day on which the employee submitted the request.

(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), a governmental entity may not deny an employee's reasonable request to be relieved from performing a certain task if:

(i) performing the task would conflict with the employee's sincerely held religious beliefs or conscience;

(ii) the employee has complied with the requirements of Subsection (3); and

(iii) relieving the employee from the task would not impose an undue hardship on the governmental entity.

(b) A governmental entity is not required to grant an employee's request under Subsection (2)(a) if:

(i) the request is to be relieved from performing a task that is part of training or safety instructions directly related to the employee's employment;

(ii) granting the request would result in a deficit in the amount of work for which the employee is compensated;

(iii) granting the request would create a conflict with an existing legal obligation and the governmental entity cannot avoid the conflict if the governmental entity grants the employee's request under Subsection (3);

(iv) the employee is a first responder and the request by the employee under Subsection (2)(a) is to be relieved from performing a task that involves protecting the safety of the public; or

(v) the employee's asserted religious beliefs or conscience described in Subsection (2)(a)(i) is being asserted for an improper purpose.

(3) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), an employee seeking to be relieved from performing a certain task under Subsection (2) shall:

(a) (i) as soon as practicable but not more than two days after the day on which the employee received the assignment to perform the task, submit a written request to the employee's supervisor providing an explanation as to why the task would conflict with the employee's sincerely held religious beliefs or conscience; or

(ii) if the employee receives the assignment to perform the task within two days after the day on which the employee received the assignment, orally or in writing immediately request to be relieved from performing the task; and

(b) provide the governmental entity with a reasonable opportunity to grant the employee's request or otherwise address the employee's concerns.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(c), a governmental entity that receives a request under Subsection (3) shall respond to the request as soon as practicable but at least five days before the day on which the certain task is required to be performed.

(b) If a governmental entity denies an employee's request submitted as described in Subsection (3), the governmental entity shall include in the response required under Subsection (4)(a):

(i) an explanation of the governmental entity's decision and why:

(A) granting the request would impose an undue hardship on the governmental entity; or

(B) the governmental entity is not required to grant the employee's request for a reason described in Subsection (2)(b); and

(ii) that the employee may seek redress in a court as described in Subsection (6) if the employee has exhausted the internal process allowing the governmental entity to address the employee's concerns under Subsection (3)(b).

(c) An employee and governmental entity may agree in writing to waive or extend the time limit described in Subsection (4)(a).

(5) (a) A governmental entity may adopt a policy detailing the requirements of this section.

(b) A policy adopted under Subsection (5)(a) shall:

(i) provide the governmental entity's employees a process for making a request under this section;

(ii) designate an individual to receive an employee request described in Subsection (3);

(iii) outline the information an employee is required to provide to the governmental entity in a request described in Subsection (3);

(iv) describe the process the employee is required to undertake to allow the governmental entity a reasonable opportunity to grant the employee's request or otherwise address the employee's concerns under Subsection (3)(b); and

(v) outline the process the governmental entity will use to evaluate a request received under Subsection (3) in determining if the request will impose an undue hardship on the governmental entity.

(c) A governmental entity establishing a policy under this Subsection (5) shall ensure that:

(i) the governmental entity's employees receive notice of the policy and access to a copy of the policy when the policy is adopted or when an employee begins working for the governmental entity, whichever occurs first; and

(ii) if the governmental agency receives a request under Subsection (3), the governmental entity includes a reference to the governmental entity's policy in the governmental entity's response.

(6) (a) An employee has a right of action against the governmental entity that employs the employee if:

(i) the employee has complied with Subsection (3) in good faith;

(ii) the employee has complied with any policy created under Subsection (5) after receiving notice and a reference of the policy as described in Subsection (5)(c);

(iii) the employee's asserted religious beliefs or conscience described in Subsection (2)(a)(i) is not asserted for an improper purpose; and

(iv) (A) granting the request would not have imposed an undue hardship on the governmental entity; or

(B) the governmental entity cannot meet an exception described in Subsection (2)(b).

(b) An employee seeking to assert a right of action under this section shall bring the action in a court within 180 calendar days after the day on which the employee received the governmental entity's response described in Subsection (4).

(c) If an employee establishes, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the employee meets the requirements described in Subsection (6)(a), the court:

(i) shall grant the employee relief by:

(A) issuing an injunction ordering the governmental entity to relieve the employee from the specific task if the task is still to be performed; or

(B) ordering the governmental entity to reinstate or rehire the employee, with an award of back pay, if the employee was constructively discharged, demoted, or terminated as a direct result of the governmental entity's violation of Subsection (2); and

(ii) may award to the employee reasonable attorney fees, and court costs.

(7) The classification of an employee's confidential information is governed by Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act.

(8) A governmental entity may not take retaliatory action against an employee for submitting a meritorious request under Subsection (3).

(9) Nothing in this section:

(a) limits the employee's right to bring any other claim the employee may have against the governmental entity; or

(b) prevents a governmental entity from implementing a policy required by state or federal law.

67-27-107 (Effective upon governor's approval). Prohibition on the use of certain submissions by governmental employers -- Exceptions.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) (i) "Governmental employer" means any department, division, agency, commission, board, council, committee, authority, municipality, county, political subdivision, or any other institution of the state.

(ii) "Governmental employer" does not mean a local education agency or institution of higher education.

(b) (i) "Prohibited submission" means a submission, statement, or document that requires an individual to articulate the individual's position, view, contribution, effort, or experience regarding a policy, program, or initiative that promotes differential treatment based on an individual's personal identity characteristics, as that term is defined in Section [~~53B-1-118~~]53H-1-504.

(ii) "Prohibited submission" includes a submission, statement, or document that relates to a policy, program, or initiative regarding:

(A) anti-racism;

(B) bias;

(C) critical race theory;

(D) implicit bias;

(E) intersectionality;

(F) prohibited discriminatory practice, as that term is defined in Section [~~53B-1-118~~]53H-1-504; or

(G) racial privilege.

(iii) "Prohibited submission" does not include a submission, statement, or document for an employment position if the submission, statement, or document relates to a bona fide occupational qualification for the position.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection (4), a governmental employer may not require, request, solicit, or compel a prohibited submission as a certification or condition before taking action with respect to:

(a) employment, including decisions regarding:

(i) hiring;

(ii) terms of employment;

(iii) benefits;

(iv) compensation;

(v) seniority status;

(vi) tenure or continuing status;

(vii) promotion;

(viii) performance reviews;

(ix) transfer;

(x) termination; or

(xi) appointment; or

(b) admissions and aid, including:

(i) admission to any state program or course;

(ii) financial or other forms of state-administered aid or assistance; or

(iii) other benefits from the governmental employer for which an individual is eligible.

(3) A governmental employer may not grant any form of preferential consideration to an individual who, with or without solicitation from the governmental employer, provides a prohibited submission for any action described in Subsection (2).

(4) If federal law requires a governmental employer to accept or require a prohibited submission, the governmental employer:

(a) may accept the prohibited submission only to the extent required under federal law; and

(b) shall limit consideration of the information contained in the prohibited submission to the extent necessary to satisfy the requirement under federal law.

(5) Nothing in this section limits or prohibits a governmental employer's authority to establish policies that are necessary to comply with state or federal law, including laws relating to prohibited discrimination or harassment.

Section 184. Section 67-27-108 is amended to read:

67-27-108 (Effective upon governor's approval). Prohibition on the use of certain training by governmental employers -- Exceptions.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Governmental employer" means the same as that term is defined in Section 67-27-107.

(b) (i) "Prohibited training" means a mandatory instructional program and related materials that a governmental employer requires the governmental employer's current or prospective employees to attend that promote prohibited discriminatory practices as that term is defined in Section [~~53B-1-118~~]53H-1-504.

(ii) "Prohibited training" includes an in-person or online seminar, discussion group, workshop, other program, or related materials.

(2) A governmental employer may not require prohibited training.

(3) Nothing in this section limits or prohibits a governmental employer's authority to establish policies that are necessary to comply with state or federal law, including laws relating to prohibited discrimination or harassment.

67-27-109 (Effective upon governor's approval). Prohibited discriminatory practices -- Restrictions -- Reporting.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Executive agency director" means the executive agency director of an executive department agency who, at the direction of the governor, carries out state business.

(b) "Governmental employer" means the same as that term is defined in Section 67-27-107.

(c) "Personal identity characteristics" means the same as that term is defined in Section [~~53B-1-118~~]53H-1-504.

(d) "Prohibited discriminatory practice" means the same as that term is defined in Section [~~53B-1-118~~]53H-1-504.

(2) (a) This section does not apply to a federal grant or program that would otherwise require a governmental employer to engage in a prohibited discriminatory practice if the grant or program has been reviewed and approved by the governmental employer's executive director, legislative body, or governing body, as that term is defined in Section 10-1-104.

(b) A governmental employer's executive director, legislative body, or governing body shall report the reviewed and approved federal grant or program under Subsection (2)(a) to the Executive Appropriations Committee.

(3) A governmental employer may not engage in prohibited discriminatory practices.

(4) Nothing in this section limits or prohibits a governmental employer from:

(a) as required or permitted by state law:

(i) establishing or maintaining an office, division, or employment position to implement, develop, plan, or promote practices relating to personal identity characteristics if the office, division, or employment position is not engaging in prohibited discriminatory practices; or

(ii) employing or assigning an employee or a third-party whose duties for governmental employer include coordinating, creating, developing, designing, implementing, organizing, planning, or promoting policies, programming, training, practices, activities, and procedures relating to personal identity characteristics if the employee or the third-party is not engaging in prohibited discriminatory practices;

(b) establishing policies that are necessary to comply with state or federal law, including laws relating to prohibited discrimination or harassment; or

(c) establishing policies that are necessary to comply with state law enacted on or before July 1, 2024.

(5) (a) Beginning on July 1, 2024, each executive agency director shall conduct a thorough review of existing agency programs and offices to determine if the program or office is in compliance with Subsection (3).

(b) On or before August 1, 2025, each executive agency director shall report on the compliance of agency programs and offices under Subsection (5)(a) to the governor.

(c) The governor shall provide the reports under Subsection (5)(b) to:

(i) the Government Operations Interim Committee at or before the November 2025, interim committee meeting; and

(ii) the Legislative Management Committee upon request.

Section 186. Section 71A-1-201 is amended to read:

(f) make recommendations related to the development of multiple feedstock or energy resources in the state such as wind, solar, hydroelectric, geothermal, coal, natural gas, oil, water, electrolysis, coal gasification, liquefaction, hydrogen storage, safety handling, compression, and transportation;

(g) make recommendations to establish statewide safety protocols for production, transportation, and handling of hydrogen for both residential and commercial applications;

(h) facilitate public events to raise the awareness of hydrogen and hydrogen related fuels within the state and how hydrogen can be advantageous to all forms of transportation, heat, and power generation;

(i) review and make recommendations regarding legislation; and

(j) make other recommendations to the director related to hydrogen development in the state.

Section 202. Section 79-6-409 is amended to read:

79-6-409 (Effective upon governor's approval). Energy Education and Workforce Development Advisory Group established -- Energy education and workforce development programs.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Advisory group" means the Energy Education and Workforce Development Advisory Group created in this section.

(b) "Core standards" means the science standards established by the state board as described in Section 53E-4-202.

(c) "Institution of higher education" means the same as that term is defined in Section [~~53B-1-102~~]53H-1-101.

(2) Pursuant to Subsection 79-6-301(1)(h) and subject to legislative appropriations and other funding sources, the office shall establish the Energy Education and Workforce Development Advisory Group consisting of the following:

(a) the director of the office, or the director's designee;

(b) the director of the Division of Oil, Gas, and Mining, or the director's designee;

(c) the state superintendent of public instruction, or the superintendent's designee from the State Board of Education elementary science team;

(d) the state superintendent of public instruction, or the superintendent's designee from the State Board of Education secondary science team;

(e) the commissioner of higher education, or the commissioner's designee from Talent Ready Utah;

(f) the president of the Utah Rural Schools Association, or the president's designee;

(g) the president of the Utah Science Teaching Association, or the president's designee;

(h) the chief executive officer of the Utah Municipal Power Agency or the Utah Associated Municipal Power Systems, or the chief executive officer's designee;

(i) the executive director of the Utah Rural Electric Cooperative Association, or the executive director's designee;

(j) the president of the Utah Petroleum Association, or the president's designee; and

(k) the president of the Utah Mining Association, or the president's designee.

(3) In consultation with the advisory group, the office shall:

(a) develop and maintain energy education programs and curricula for kindergarten through grade 12 that:

(i) meet core standards;

(ii) align with the state energy policy described in Section 79-6-301;

(iii) are appropriate for each grade level; and

(iv) are available to school districts, charter schools, and the public for voluntary use;

(b) develop and provide professional development training for educators that:

(i) promotes the use and appropriate deployment and teaching of the energy education programs and curricula developed under Subsection (3)(a);

(ii) builds fluency for educators with the energy education programs and curricula;

(iii) provides educators with opportunities and activities to receive renewal hours for professional licensure; and

(iv) complies with state educator licensure requirements; and

(c) develop energy-related workforce development programs and facilitate collaboration among institutions of higher education, elementary and secondary schools, and industry.

(4) The office may:

(a) include in the curricula other elements of the state energy policy to advance a comprehensive understanding of energy policy;

(b) contract with third-party curriculum development organizations to create the curricula based on guidance from the office and the advisory committee; and

(c) provide comment on the development of Utah science core standards.

(5) The professional development training provided to educators by the office may include:

(a) virtual or in-person classroom instruction;

(b) conferences;

(c) seminars; and

(d) site visits.

(6) An energy-related workforce development program described in Subsection (3)(c) shall:

(a) create expanded, multidisciplinary programs or stackable credential programs;

(b) prepare students for energy industry jobs; and

(c) promote policies consistent with the state energy policy described in Section 79-6-301.

(7) The advisory group's duties may include providing recommendations to the office regarding the development and implementation of:

(a) energy education programs and curricula in grades kindergarten through grade 12;

(b) professional development trainings for educators;

(c) energy related workforce development programs; and

(d) any potential comments to be submitted on the development of science core standards for Utah public schools for the state.

(8) On or before October 1 of each year, the office shall submit a written report to the Public Utilities, Energy, and Technology Interim Committee describing activities, successes, challenges, and funding needs related to the programs and training established in this section.

79-6-1003 (Effective upon governor's approval). Utah Energy Research Board -- Duties -- Expenses.

(1) There is established in the office the Utah Energy Research Board that is composed of the following voting board members:

(a) the director, or the director's designee, who shall serve as the chair of the board;

(b) the president, or the president's designee, of each public and private university in the state that is classified as a Research 1 institution by the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education;

(c) the commissioner of higher education, as described in Section [~~53B-1-408~~]53H-1-302, or the commissioner's designee;

(d) one member, who is not a legislator, with experience in the non-regulated energy industry appointed by the speaker of the House of Representatives;

(e) one member, who is not a legislator, with experience in energy commercialization appointed by the president of the Senate;

(f) one member appointed by the governor who resides in a county of the third, fourth, fifth, or sixth class as described in Section 17-50-501;

(g) one member appointed by the director representing the Idaho National Laboratory; and

(h) two members appointed by the director with relevant expertise in energy research and development.

(2) (a) The term of an appointed board member is four years.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(a), the person making an appointment shall, at the time of appointment or reappointment, adjust the length of board member terms to ensure the terms of board members are staggered so that approximately half of the board is constituted of new members every two years.

(c) The person who appoints a member under Subsection (1) may remove an appointee who was appointed by the person for cause.

(d) The person who appoints a member under Subsection (1) shall fill a vacancy on the board in the same manner as provided in Subsection (1).

(e) An individual appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve the remaining unexpired term.

(f) Unless removed for cause under Subsection (2)(c) a board member shall serve until a successor is appointed.

(3) (a) A majority of the board constitutes a quorum.

(b) A majority vote of the quorum is required for an action to be taken by the board.

(4) The board shall:

(a) oversee and supervise the management of:

(i) the lab; and

(ii) the institute;

(b) appoint directors for the lab and institute, who shall serve at the pleasure of the board;

(c) establish reasonable compensation for:

(i) the lab director; and

(ii) the institute director;

(d) develop and implement:

(i) bylaws to govern the lab; and

(ii) bylaws to govern the institute;

(e) establish policies for:

(i) joint appointments between the Idaho National Laboratory and public and private institutions of higher education;

(ii) research partnerships between institutions;

(iii) technology commercialization; and

(iv) workforce development initiatives;

(f) foster innovation and support technological development in the energy sector by collaborating with industry leaders, researchers, entrepreneurs, investors, and other stakeholders;

(g) identify areas of economic growth and workforce development opportunities related to emerging energy technologies and solutions;

(h) seek potential investors and partners from the technology, finance, and business sectors to support innovative research and early-stage ventures focused on developing commercially viable energy technologies in the state;

(i) develop evaluation criteria for approving project proposals, with input from the lab director, including:

(i) alignment with state energy policy priorities;

(ii) commercialization potential;

(iii) economic impact; and

(iv) other relevant factors as determined by the board;

(j) approve providing matching grants to applicants under the Utah Energy Research Grant Program created in Section 79-6-403; and

(k) make recommendations to the council regarding funding allocations for:

(i) research projects;

(ii) facility operations;

(iii) workforce development programs; and

(iv) technology commercialization initiatives;

(l) administer the funds allocated by the council to the board;

(m) coordinate energy research activities between:

(i) the lab;

(ii) the institute;

(iii) public and private institutions of higher education;

(iv) the Idaho National Laboratory; and

(v) industry partners;

(n) review and approve annual reports from the lab and institute directors;

(o) report annually to:

(i) the governor;

(ii) the Public Utilities, Energy, and Technology Interim Committee; and

(iii) the Education Interim Committee;

(p) engage with industry partners to:

(i) identify research needs;

(ii) develop workforce programs;

(iii) commercialize technologies; and

(iv) secure additional funding sources;

(q) coordinate with federal agencies on:

(i) research initiatives;

(ii) grant opportunities; and

(iii) regulatory compliance;

(r) provide quarterly reports to the Utah Energy Council regarding:

(i) ongoing research projects and the research projects' alignment with state energy goals;

(ii) potential commercialization opportunities;

(iii) emerging technologies and the potential impact on the state's energy landscape; and

(iv) recommendations for policy changes or initiatives to support energy innovation; and

(s) coordinate with the council on:

(i) strategic planning for statewide energy research initiatives;

(ii) identifying priority research areas that align with state energy policy;

(iii) developing frameworks for public-private partnerships in energy research; and

(iv) establishing metrics for measuring research outcomes and impact.

(5) A member may not receive compensation or benefits for the member's service, but may receive per diem and travel expenses in accordance with:

(a) Section 63A-3-106;

(b) Section 63A-3-107; and

(c) rules made by the Division of Finance pursuant to Sections 63A-3-106 and 63A-3-107.

(6) The board shall meet at least quarterly and may hold additional meetings as necessary to review project proposals.

Section 204. Effective Date.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), this bill takes effect:

(a) except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), December 6, 2025; or

(b) if approved by two-thirds of all members elected to each house:

(i) upon approval by the governor;

(ii) without the governor's signature, the day following the constitutional time limit of Utah Constitution, Article VII, Section 8; or

(iii) in the case of a veto, the date of veto override.

(2) The actions affecting Section 59-12-102 (Effective 07/01/26) take effect on July 1, 2026.

Section 205. Coordinating with S.B. 1001

If S.B. 1002, Higher Education Recodification External References, passes, and S.B., 1001, Higher Education Recodification, does not pass and become law, the Legislature intends that S.B. 1002, Higher Education Recodification External References, not be enrolled.

59-28-101, as enacted by Laws of Utah 2017, Chapter 166

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 10-2-905 is amended to read:

10-2-905. Municipal boundary adjustment effect on local districts and special service districts.

[~~(1)~~] Except as provided in Section 17B-1-416 and Subsection 17B-1-502(2), the adjustment of a boundary shared by municipalities does not affect the boundaries of:

(1) a local district under Title 17B, Limited Purpose Local Government Entities -- Special Districts; or

(2) a special service district under Title 17D, Chapter 1, Special Service District Act.

Section 2. Section 17-31-2 is amended to read:

17-31-2. Purposes of transient room tax and expenditure of revenue -- Purchase or lease of facilities -- Mitigating impacts of recreation, tourism, or conventions -- Issuance of bonds.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Airport" means the same as that term is defined in Section 72-10-102.

(b) "Airport operator" means the same as that term is defined in Section 72-10-102.

(c) "Establishing and promoting" means an activity or related expense to encourage, solicit, advertise, or market in order to attract or enhance transient guest spending in a county for a purpose described in Subsection (3)(a).

(d) "Mitigation" means activity to address the direct impacts of tourism, recreation related to tourism, or conventions in a county, specifically sanitation and solid waste disposal, emergency medical services, search and rescue services, law enforcement, road repair, and road upgrades.

(e) "Transient room tax" means a tax at a rate not to exceed the relevant rate authorized by Section 59-12-301.

(2) Subject to the requirements of this section, a county legislative body may impose the transient room tax for a purpose described in Subsection (3).

(3) A county legislative body may expend revenue generated by the transient room tax imposed under this section [~~and any revenue the county receives from the State Tax Commission under Section 59-28-103~~]only:

(a) for the purpose of establishing and promoting:

(i) tourism;

(ii) recreation;

(iii) film production; or

(iv) conventions;

(b) to pay for tourism- or recreation-related facilities in the county, including acquiring, leasing, constructing, furnishing, maintaining, or operating:

(i) convention meeting rooms;

(ii) exhibit halls;

(iii) visitor information centers;

(iv) museums;

(v) sports and recreation facilities including practice fields, stadiums, arenas, and trails;

(vi) the following on any route to a recreation destination within the county, as designated by the county legislative body:

(A) transit service, including shuttle service; and

(B) parking infrastructure; and

(vii) an airport, if the county is the airport operator of the airport;

(c) for the purpose of acquiring land, leasing land, or making payments for construction or infrastructure improvements required for or related to the facilities listed in Subsection (3)(b);

(d) to pay mitigation costs, specifically:

(i) solid waste disposal operations;

(ii) emergency medical services;

(iii) search and rescue activities;

(iv) law enforcement activities; and

(v) road repair and upgrade of:

(A) class B roads, as defined in Section 72-3-103;

(B) class C roads, as defined in Section 72-3-104; or

(C) class D roads, as defined in Section 72-3-105; and

(e) to make the annual payment of principal, interest, premiums, and necessary reserves for any of the aggregate of bonds authorized under Subsection (4).

(4) The county legislative body may issue bonds or cause bonds to be issued, as permitted by law, to pay all or part of any costs incurred for the purposes set forth in Subsections (3)(b) through (3)(d) that are permitted to be paid from bond proceeds.

(5) (a) Activity described in Subsection (3)(a) is exclusive of activity described in Subsection (3)(b) or (c).

(b) A county may not distribute revenue generated by the transient room tax imposed under this section to a large public transit district, as that term is defined in Section 17B-2a-802.

(6) A county that generates $1 million or more in revenue from a transient room tax imposed under this section in the preceding calendar year:

(a) shall expend, at a minimum, the revenue the county generates from the first 2% of the tax rate of a transient room tax on a purpose described in Subsection (3)(a); and

(b) may expend the remainder of the revenue the county generates from a transient room tax on any purpose described in Subsection (3).

(7) A county that generates $500,000 or more but less than $1 million in revenue from a transient room tax imposed under this section in the preceding calendar year:

(a) shall expend, at a minimum, the revenue the county generates from the first 1% of the tax rate of a transient room tax on a purpose described in Subsection (3)(a); and

(b) may expend the remainder of the revenue the county generates from a transient room tax on any purpose described in Subsection (3).

(8) A county that is not described in Subsection (6) or (7) may expend the revenue the county generates from a transient room tax on any purpose described in Subsection (3).

(9) The legislative body of a county may cause revenue generated by a transient room tax to be expended by a municipality within the county if:

(a) the revenue the county shares with the municipality is not required to be spent by the county for a purpose described in Subsection (3)(a);

(b) the county and municipality enter into an interlocal agreement:

(i) governing the use of the revenue; and

(ii) requiring the municipality to report the municipality's expenditures of the revenue to the county; and

(c) the municipality receiving revenue generated by the county's transient room tax agrees to and expends the revenue for a purpose described in Subsection (3).

Section 3. Section 17B-1-414 is amended to read:

17B-1-414. Resolution approving an annexation -- Filing of notice and plat with lieutenant governor -- Recording requirements -- Effective date.

(1) (a) Subject to Subsection (1)(b), the special district board shall adopt a resolution approving the annexation of the area proposed to be annexed or rejecting the proposed annexation within 90 days after:

(i) expiration of the protest period under Subsection 17B-1-412(2), if sufficient protests to require an election are not filed;

(ii) for a petition that meets the requirements of Subsection 17B-1-413(1):

(A) a public hearing under Section 17B-1-409 is held, if the board chooses or is required to hold a public hearing under Subsection 17B-1-413(2)(a)(ii); or

(B) expiration of the time for submitting a request for public hearing under Subsection 17B-1-413(2)(a)(ii)(B), if no request is submitted and the board chooses not to hold a public hearing; or

(iii) for a proposed annexation to an infrastructure financing district, the board's certification of the annexation petition under Section 17B-1-405.

(b) If the special district has entered into an agreement with the United States that requires the consent of the United States for an annexation of territory to the district, a resolution approving annexation under this part may not be adopted until the written consent of the United States is obtained and filed with the board of trustees.

(2) (a) (i) Within the time specified under Subsection (2)(a)(ii), the board shall file with the lieutenant governor:

(A) a copy of a notice of an impending boundary action, as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5, that meets the requirements of Subsection 67-1a-6.5(3) and, if applicable, Subsection (2)(b); and

(B) a copy of an approved final local entity plat, as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5.

(ii) The board shall file the documents listed in Subsection (2)(a)(i) with the lieutenant governor:

(A) within 30 days after adoption of a resolution under Subsection (1), Subsection 17B-1-412(3)(c)(i), or Section 17B-1-415; and

(B) as soon as practicable after receiving the notice under Subsection 10-2-425(3) of a municipal annexation that causes an automatic annexation to a special district under Section 17B-1-416.

(b) For an automatic annexation to a special district under Section 17B-1-416, the notice of an impending boundary action required under Subsection (2)(a) shall state that an area outside the boundaries of the special district is being automatically annexed to the special district under Section 17B-1-416 because of a municipal annexation under [~~Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 4, Annexation~~]Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 8, Annexation, or a boundary adjustment under Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 9, Municipal Boundary Adjustments.

(c) Upon the lieutenant governor's issuance of a certificate of annexation under Section 67-1a-6.5, the board shall:

(i) if the annexed area is located within the boundary of a single county, submit to the recorder of that county:

(A) the original:

(I) notice of an impending boundary action;

(II) certificate of annexation; and

(III) approved final local entity plat; and

(B) a certified copy of the annexation resolution; or

(ii) if the annexed area is located within the boundaries of more than a single county:

(A) submit to the recorder of one of those counties:

(I) the original of the documents listed in Subsections (2)(c)(i)(A)(I), (II), and (III); and

(II) a certified copy of the annexation resolution; and

(B) submit to the recorder of each other county:

(I) a certified copy of the documents listed in Subsection (2)(c)(i)(A)(I), (II), and (III); and

(II) a certified copy of the annexation resolution.

(3) (a) As used in this Subsection (3), "fire district annexation" means an annexation under this part of an area located in a county of the first class to a special district:

(i) created to provide fire protection, paramedic, and emergency services; and

(ii) in the creation of which an election was not required because of Subsection 17B-1-214(3)(d).

(b) An annexation under this part is complete and becomes effective:

(i) (A) on July 1 for a fire district annexation, if the lieutenant governor issues the certificate of annexation under Section 67-1a-6.5 from January 1 through June 30; or

(B) on January 1 for a fire district annexation, if the lieutenant governor issues the certificate of annexation under Section 67-1a-6.5 from July 1 through December 31; or

(ii) upon the lieutenant governor's issuance of the certificate of annexation under Section 67-1a-6.5, for any other annexation.

(c) (i) The effective date of a special district annexation for purposes of assessing property within the annexed area is governed by Section 59-2-305.5.

(ii) Until the documents listed in Subsection (2)(c) are recorded in the office of the recorder of each county in which the property is located, a special district may not:

(A) levy or collect a property tax on property within the annexed area;

(B) levy or collect an assessment on property within the annexed area; or

(C) charge or collect a fee for service provided to property within the annexed area.

(iii) Subsection (3)(c)(ii)(C):

(A) may not be construed to limit a special district's ability before annexation to charge and collect a fee for service provided to property that is outside the special district's boundary; and

(B) does not apply until 60 days after the effective date, under Subsection (3)(b), of the special district's annexation, with respect to a fee that the special district was charging for service provided to property within the annexed area immediately before the area was annexed to the special district.

Section 4. Section 17B-1-416 is amended to read:

17B-1-416. Automatic annexation to a district providing fire protection, paramedic, and emergency services or law enforcement service.

(1) An area outside the boundaries of a special district that is annexed to a municipality under Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 8, Annexation, or added to a municipality by a boundary adjustment under [~~Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 4, Annexation~~]Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 9, Municipal Boundary Adjustments, is automatically annexed to the special district if:

(a) the special district provides:

(i) fire protection, paramedic, and emergency services; or

(ii) law enforcement service;

(b) the special district is located in a county of the first class, but not otherwise, an election for the creation of the special district was not required because of Subsection 17B-1-214(3)(d); and

(c) before the municipal annexation or boundary adjustment, the entire municipality that is annexing the area or adding the area by boundary adjustment was included within the special district.

(2) The effective date of an annexation under this section is governed by Subsection 17B-1-414(3)(b).

(1) (a) An area within the boundaries of a special district may be withdrawn from the special district only as provided in this part or, if applicable, as provided in Chapter 2a, Part 11, Municipal Services District Act.

(b) Except as provided in Subsections (2) and (3), the inclusion of an area of a special district within a municipality because of a municipal incorporation under Title 10, Chapter 2a, Municipal Incorporation, [~~or~~]a municipal annexation under Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 8, Annexation, or a boundary adjustment under [~~Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 4, Annexation~~]Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 9, Municipal Boundary

Adjustments, does not affect the requirements under this part for the process of withdrawing that area from the special district.

(2) (a) An area within the boundaries of a special district is automatically withdrawn from the special district by the annexation of the area to a municipality under Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 8, Annexation, or the adding of the area to a municipality by boundary adjustment under [~~Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 4, Annexation~~]Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 9, Municipal Boundary Adjustments, if:

(i) the special district provides:

(A) fire protection, paramedic, and emergency services; or

(B) law enforcement service;

(ii) an election for the creation of the special district was not required because of Subsection 17B-1-214(3)(d) or (g); and

(iii) before annexation or boundary adjustment, the boundaries of the special district do not include any of the annexing municipality.

(b) The effective date of a withdrawal under this Subsection (2) is governed by Subsection 17B-1-512(2)(b).

(3) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(c) or (d), an area within the boundaries of a special district located in a county of the first class is automatically withdrawn from the special district by the incorporation of a municipality whose boundaries include the area if:

(i) the special district provides municipal services, as defined in Section 17B-2a-1102, excluding fire protection, paramedic, emergency, and law enforcement services;

(ii) an election for the creation of the special district was not required because of Subsection [~~17B-1-214(3) (g)~~]17B-1-214(3)(g); and

(iii) the legislative body of the newly incorporated municipality:

(A) adopts a resolution no later than 180 days after the effective date of incorporation approving the withdrawal that includes the legal description of the area to be withdrawn; and

(B) delivers a copy of the resolution to the board of trustees of the special district.

(b) The effective date of a withdrawal under this Subsection (3) is governed by Subsection 17B-1-512(2)(a).

(c) Section 17B-1-505 governs the withdrawal of an incorporated area within a county of the first class if:

(i) the special district from which the area is withdrawn provides:

(A) fire protection, paramedic, and emergency services;

(B) law enforcement service; or

(C) municipal services, as defined in Section 17B-2a-1102;

(ii) an election for the creation of the special district was not required under Subsection 17B-1-214(3)(d) or (g); and

(iii) for a special district that provides municipal services, as defined in Section 17B-2a-1102, excluding fire protection, paramedic, emergency, and law enforcement services, the 180-day period described in Subsection (3)(a)(iii)(A) is expired.

(d) An area may not be withdrawn from a special district that provides municipal services, as defined in Section 17B-2a-1102, excluding fire protection, paramedic, emergency, and law enforcement services, if the area is within a converted municipality, as defined in Section 10-1-201.5.

Section 6. Section 26A-1-114 is amended to read:

26A-1-114. Powers and duties of departments.

(1) Subject to Subsections (7), (8), and (10), a local health department may:

(a) subject to the provisions in Section 26A-1-108, enforce state laws, local ordinances, department rules, and local health department standards and regulations relating to public health and sanitation, including the plumbing code administered by the Division of Professional Licensing under Title 15A, Chapter 1, Part 2, State Construction Code Administration Act, and under Title 26B, Chapter 7, Part 4, General Sanitation and Food Safety, in all incorporated and unincorporated areas served by the local health department;

(b) establish, maintain, and enforce isolation and quarantine, over an individual in accordance with an order of restriction issued under Title 26B, Chapter 7, Part 3, Treatment, Isolation, and Quarantine Procedures for Communicable Diseases;

(c) establish and maintain medical, environmental, occupational, and other laboratory services considered necessary or proper for the protection of the public health;

(d) establish and operate reasonable health programs or measures not in conflict with state law which:

(i) are necessary or desirable for the promotion or protection of the public health and the control of disease; or

(ii) may be necessary to ameliorate the major risk factors associated with the major causes of injury, sickness, death, and disability in the state;

(e) close theaters, schools, and other public places and prohibit gatherings of people when necessary to protect the public health;

(f) exercise physical control of property to abate nuisances or eliminate sources of filth and infectious and communicable diseases affecting the public health and bill the owner or other person in charge of the premises upon which this nuisance occurs for the cost of abatement;

(g) make necessary sanitary and health investigations and inspections on the local health department's own initiative or in cooperation with the Department of Health and Human Services or the Department of Environmental Quality, or both, as to any matters affecting the public health;

(h) pursuant to county ordinance or interlocal agreement:

(i) establish and collect appropriate fees for the performance of services and operation of authorized or required programs and duties;

(ii) accept, use, and administer all federal, state, or private donations or grants of funds, property, services, or materials for public health purposes; and

(iii) make agreements not in conflict with state law which are conditional to receiving a donation or grant;

(i) prepare, publish, and disseminate information necessary to inform and advise the public concerning:

(i) the health and wellness of the population, specific hazards, and risk factors that may adversely affect the health and wellness of the population; and

(ii) specific activities individuals and institutions can engage in to promote and protect the health and wellness of the population;

(j) investigate the causes of morbidity and mortality;

(k) issue notices and orders necessary to carry out this part;

(l) conduct studies to identify injury problems, establish injury control systems, develop standards for the correction and prevention of future occurrences, and provide public information and instruction to special high risk groups;

(m) cooperate with boards created under Section 19-1-106 to enforce laws and rules within the jurisdiction of the boards;

(n) cooperate with the state health department, the Department of Corrections, the Administrative Office of the Courts, the Division of Juvenile Justice and Youth Services, and the [~~Crime Victim Reparations Board~~]Utah Office for Victims of Crime to conduct testing for HIV infection of alleged sexual offenders, convicted sexual offenders, and any victims of a sexual offense;

(o) investigate suspected bioterrorism and disease pursuant to Section 26B-7-321;

(p) provide public health assistance in response to a national, state, or local emergency, a public health emergency as defined in Section 26B-7-301, or a declaration by the President of the United States or other federal official requesting public health-related activities; and

(q) when conducting routine inspections of businesses regulated by the local health department, notify the Department of Agriculture and Food of a potential violation of Title 4, Chapter 41, Hemp and Cannabinoid Act.

(2) The local health department shall:

(a) establish programs or measures to promote and protect the health and general wellness of the people within the boundaries of the local health department;

(b) investigate infectious and other diseases of public health importance and implement measures to control the causes of epidemic and communicable diseases and other conditions significantly affecting the public health which may include involuntary testing of alleged sexual offenders for the HIV infection pursuant to Section 53-10-802 and voluntary testing of victims of sexual offenses for HIV infection pursuant to Section 53-10-803;

(c) cooperate with the department in matters pertaining to the public health and in the administration of state health laws;

(d) enter into a cooperative agreement with the Department of Environmental Quality as described in Subsection 19-1-201(1)(c); and

(e) investigate a report made in accordance with Section 59-14-811 to determine whether a product is sold in violation of law.

(3) The local health department has the following duties regarding public and private schools within the local health department's boundaries:

(a) enforce all ordinances, standards, and regulations pertaining to the public health of persons attending public and private schools;

(b) exclude from school attendance any person, including teachers, who is suffering from any communicable or infectious disease, whether acute or chronic, if the person is likely to convey the disease to those in attendance; and

(c) (i) make regular inspections of the health-related condition of all school buildings and premises;

(ii) report the inspections on forms furnished by the department to those responsible for the condition and provide instructions for correction of any conditions that impair or endanger the health or life of those attending the schools; and

(iii) provide a copy of the report to the department at the time the report is made.

(4) If those responsible for the health-related condition of the school buildings and premises do not carry out any instructions for corrections provided in a report in Subsection (3)(c), the local health board shall cause the conditions to be corrected at the expense of the persons responsible.

(5) The local health department may exercise incidental authority as necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of this part.

(6) This part does not authorize a local health department to:

(a) require the installation or maintenance of a carbon monoxide detector in a residential dwelling against anyone other than the occupant of the dwelling; or

(b) control the production, processing, distribution, or sale price of local food in response to a public health emergency.

(7) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(c), a local health department may not declare a public health emergency until the local health department has provided notice of the proposed action to the chief executive officer of the relevant county no later than 24 hours before the local health department issues the order or declaration.

(b) The local health department:

(i) shall provide the notice required by Subsection (7)(a) using the best available method under the circumstances as determined by the local health department;

(ii) may provide the notice required by Subsection (7)(a) in electronic format; and

(iii) shall provide the notice in written form, if practicable.

(c) (i) Notwithstanding Subsection (7)(a), a local health department may declare a public health emergency without approval of the chief executive officer of the relevant county if the passage of time necessary to obtain approval of the chief executive officer of the relevant county as required in Subsection (7)(a) would substantially increase the likelihood of loss of life due to an imminent threat.

(ii) If a local health department declares a public health emergency as described in Subsection (7)(c)(i), the local health department shall notify the chief executive officer of the relevant county before declaring a public health emergency.

(iii) The chief executive officer of the relevant county may terminate a declaration of a public health emergency as described in Subsection (7)(c)(i) within 72 hours of declaration of the public health emergency.

(d) (i) The relevant county governing body may at any time terminate a public health emergency issued by the local health department by majority vote of the county governing body.

(ii) A vote by the relevant county governing body to terminate a public health emergency as described in Subsection (7)(d)(i) is not subject to veto by the relevant chief executive officer.

(8) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (8)(b), a public health emergency declared by a local health department expires at the earliest of:

(i) the local health department or the chief executive officer of the relevant county finding that the threat or danger has passed or the public health emergency reduced to the extent that emergency conditions no longer exist;

(ii) 30 days after the date on which the local health department declared the public health emergency; or

(iii) the day on which the public health emergency is terminated by majority vote of the county governing body.

(b) (i) The relevant county legislative body, by majority vote, may extend a public health emergency for a time period designated by the county legislative body.

(ii) If the county legislative body extends a public health emergency as described in Subsection (8)(b)(i), the public health emergency expires on the date designated by the county legislative body.

(c) Except as provided in Subsection (8)(d), if a public health emergency declared by a local health department expires as described in Subsection (8)(a), the local health department may not declare a public health emergency for the same illness or occurrence that precipitated the previous public health emergency declaration.

(d) (i) Notwithstanding Subsection (8)(c), subject to Subsection (8)(f), if the local health department finds that exigent circumstances exist, after providing notice to the county legislative body, the department may declare a new public health emergency for the same illness or occurrence that precipitated a previous public health emergency declaration.

(ii) A public health emergency declared as described in Subsection (8)(d)(i) expires in accordance with Subsection (8)(a) or (b).

(e) For a public health emergency declared by a local health department under this chapter or under Title 26B, Chapter 7, Part 3, Treatment, Isolation, and Quarantine Procedures for Communicable Diseases, the Legislature may terminate by joint resolution a public health emergency that was declared based on exigent circumstances or that has been in effect for more than 30 days.

(f) If the Legislature or county legislative body terminates a public health emergency declared due to exigent circumstances as described in Subsection (8)(d)(i), the local health department may not declare a new public health emergency for the same illness, occurrence, or exigent circumstances.

(9) (a) During a public health emergency declared as described in this title, the department or a local health department may not issue a public health order or impose or implement a regulation that substantially burdens an individual's exercise of religion unless the department or local health department demonstrates that the application of the burden to the individual:

(i) is in furtherance of a compelling government interest; and

(ii) is the least restrictive means of furthering that compelling government interest.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (9)(a), the department or a local health department shall allow reasonable accommodations for an individual to perform or participate in a religious practice or rite.

(10) A local health department may not:

(a) require a person to obtain an inspection, license, or permit from the local health department to engage in a practice described in Subsection 58-11a-304(5);

(b) prevent or limit a person's ability to engage in a practice described in Subsection 58-11a-304(5) by:

(i) requiring the person to engage in the practice at a specific location or at a particular type of facility or location; or

(ii) enforcing a regulation applicable to a facility or location where the person chooses to engage in the practice; or

(c) issue an order of constraint under any circumstance.

Section 7. Section 26B-2-801 is amended to read:

26B-2-801. Definitions for part.

(a) specific preferences expressed by the adult:

(i) when the adult had the capacity to make health care decisions; and

(ii) at the time the decision is being made;

(b) the surrogate's understanding of the adult's health care preferences;

(c) the surrogate's understanding of what the adult would have wanted under the circumstances; and

(d) to the extent that the preferences described in Subsections (14)(a) through (c) are unknown, the best interest of the adult.

(15) "Surrogate" means the same as that term is defined in Section 75A-9-101.[~~-~~]

Section 8. Section 53G-8-701.8 is amended to read:

53G-8-701.8. School safety and security director.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection 53G-8-701.5(3), an LEA shall designate a school safety and security director as the LEA point of contact for the county security chief, local law enforcement, and the state security chief.

(2) A school safety and security director shall:

(a) participate in and satisfy the training requirements as follows:

(i) only once, the training requirements described in Section 53-22-105 for school guardians; and

(ii) the school resource officer and administrator training the state security chief approves in consultation with the School Safety Center; [~~and~~]

(b) if serving as a backup school guardian, satisfy all requirements described in 53-22-105;

(c) if the designee is an employee of an LEA, participate on the multidisciplinary team the LEA establishes;

(d) coordinate security responses among, if applicable, the following individuals in the LEA that employs the school safety and security director:

(i) school safety and security specialists;

(ii) school resource officers;

(iii) armed school security guards; and

(iv) school guardians; and

(e) collaborate and maintain effective communications with local law enforcement, a county security chief, the LEA, and school-based behavioral and mental health professionals to ensure adherence with all policies, procedures, protocols, rules, and regulations relating to school safety and security.

(3) A school safety and security director:

(a) does not have authority to act in a law enforcement capacity; and

(b) may, at the LEA that employs the director:

(i) take actions necessary to prevent or abate an active threat; and

(ii) temporarily detain an individual when the school safety and security director has reasonable cause to believe the individual has committed or is about to commit a forcible felony.

(4) Notwithstanding Subsection 76-11-205(4), if a school safety and security director is carrying a firearm, the school safety and security director shall carry the school safety and security director's firearm in a concealed manner and may not, unless during an active threat, display or open carry a firearm while on school grounds.

(5) A school may use the services of the school safety and security director on a temporary basis to satisfy the school safety personnel requirement of Subsection 53G-8-701.5(2).

(6) The state security chief shall:

(a) for each school safety and security director, track each school safety and security director by collecting the photograph and the name and contact information for each school safety and security director; and

(b) make the information described in Subsection (6)(a) readily available to each law enforcement agency in the state categorized by LEA.

Section 9. Section 59-12-104.11 is amended to read:

59-12-104.11. Sales tax due for motor vehicle with adaptive driving equipment.

(1) An owner of a motor vehicle with adaptive driving equipment installed may claim the sales tax exemption described in Subsection [~~59-12-104(99)~~]59-12-104(100) at the time of purchase if the owner purchases the motor vehicle from a vehicle dealer.

(2) A vehicle dealer shall collect sales tax required by this chapter on the purchase price of the vehicle after subtracting the amount of the purchase price attributed to the adaptive driving equipment.

(3) (a) A vehicle dealer shall state the purchase price attributed to the adaptive driving equipment on the contract of sale.

(b) The vehicle dealer shall retain the contract of sale described in Subsection (3)(a) for the same period of time a vehicle dealer is required to keep books and records under Section 59-1-1406.

Section 10. Section 63G-2-305 is amended to read:

63G-2-305. Protected records.

(1) trade secrets as defined in Section 13-24-2 if the person submitting the trade secret has provided the governmental entity with the information specified in Section 63G-2-309;

(2) commercial information or nonindividual financial information obtained from a person if:

(a) disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to result in unfair competitive injury to the person submitting the information or would impair the ability of the governmental entity to obtain necessary information in the future;

(b) the person submitting the information has a greater interest in prohibiting access than the public in obtaining access; and

(c) the person submitting the information has provided the governmental entity with the information specified in Section 63G-2-309;

(3) commercial or financial information acquired or prepared by a governmental entity to the extent that disclosure would lead to financial speculations in currencies, securities, or commodities that will interfere with a planned transaction by the governmental entity or cause substantial financial injury to the governmental entity or state economy;

(4) records, the disclosure of which could cause commercial injury to, or confer a competitive advantage upon a potential or actual competitor of, a commercial project entity as defined in Subsection 11-13-103(4);

(5) test questions and answers to be used in future license, certification, registration, employment, or academic examinations;

(6) records, the disclosure of which would impair governmental procurement proceedings or give an unfair advantage to any person proposing to enter into a contract or agreement with a governmental entity, except, subject to Subsections (1) and (2), that this Subsection (6) does not restrict the right of a person to have access to, after the contract or grant has been awarded and signed by all parties:

(a) a bid, proposal, application, or other information submitted to or by a governmental entity in response to:

(i) an invitation for bids;

(ii) a request for proposals;

(iii) a request for quotes;

(iv) a grant; or

(v) other similar document; or

(b) an unsolicited proposal, as defined in Section 63G-6a-712;

(7) information submitted to or by a governmental entity in response to a request for information, except, subject to Subsections (1) and (2), that this Subsection (7) does not restrict the right of a person to have access to the information, after:

(a) a contract directly relating to the subject of the request for information has been awarded and signed by all parties; or

(b) (i) a final determination is made not to enter into a contract that relates to the subject of the request for information; and

(ii) at least two years have passed after the day on which the request for information is issued;

(8) records that would identify real property or the appraisal or estimated value of real or personal property, including intellectual property, under consideration for public acquisition before any rights to the property are acquired unless:

(a) public interest in obtaining access to the information is greater than or equal to the governmental entity's need to acquire the property on the best terms possible;

(b) the information has already been disclosed to persons not employed by or under a duty of confidentiality to the entity;

(c) in the case of records that would identify property, potential sellers of the described property have already learned of the governmental entity's plans to acquire the property;

(d) in the case of records that would identify the appraisal or estimated value of property, the potential sellers have already learned of the governmental entity's estimated value of the property; or

(e) the property under consideration for public acquisition is a single family residence and the governmental entity seeking to acquire the property has initiated negotiations to acquire the property as required under Section 78B-6-505;

(9) records prepared in contemplation of sale, exchange, lease, rental, or other compensated transaction of real or personal property including intellectual property, which, if disclosed prior to completion of the transaction, would reveal the appraisal or estimated value of the subject property, unless:

(a) the public interest in access is greater than or equal to the interests in restricting access, including the governmental entity's interest in maximizing the financial benefit of the transaction; or

(b) when prepared by or on behalf of a governmental entity, appraisals or estimates of the value of the subject property have already been disclosed to persons not employed by or under a duty of confidentiality to the entity;

(10) records created or maintained for civil, criminal, or administrative enforcement purposes or audit purposes, or for discipline, licensing, certification, or registration purposes, if release of the records:

(a) reasonably could be expected to interfere with investigations undertaken for enforcement, discipline, licensing, certification, or registration purposes;

(b) reasonably could be expected to interfere with audits, disciplinary, or enforcement proceedings;

(c) would create a danger of depriving a person of a right to a fair trial or impartial hearing;

(d) reasonably could be expected to disclose the identity of a source who is not generally known outside of government and, in the case of a record compiled in the course of an investigation, disclose information furnished by a source not generally known outside of government if disclosure would compromise the source; or

(e) reasonably could be expected to disclose investigative or audit techniques, procedures, policies, or orders not generally known outside of government if disclosure would interfere with enforcement or audit efforts;

(11) records the disclosure of which would jeopardize the life or safety of an individual;

(12) records the disclosure of which would jeopardize the security of governmental property, governmental programs, or governmental recordkeeping systems from damage, theft, or other appropriation or use contrary to law or public policy;

(13) records that, if disclosed, would jeopardize the security or safety of a correctional facility, or records relating to incarceration, treatment, probation, or parole, that would interfere with the control and supervision of an offender's incarceration, treatment, probation, or parole;

(14) records that, if disclosed, would reveal recommendations made to the Board of Pardons and Parole by an employee of or contractor for the Department of Corrections, the Board of Pardons and Parole, or the Department of Health and Human Services that are based on the employee's or contractor's supervision, diagnosis, or treatment of any person within the board's jurisdiction;

(15) records and audit workpapers that identify audit, collection, and operational procedures and methods used by the State Tax Commission, if disclosure would interfere with audits or collections;

(16) records of a governmental audit agency relating to an ongoing or planned audit until the final audit is released;

(17) records that are subject to the attorney client privilege;

(18) records prepared for or by an attorney, consultant, surety, indemnitor, insurer, employee, or agent of a governmental entity for, or in anticipation of, litigation or a judicial, quasi-judicial, or administrative proceeding;

(19) (a) (i) personal files of a state legislator, including personal correspondence to or from a member of the Legislature; and

(ii) notwithstanding Subsection (19)(a)(i), correspondence that gives notice of legislative action or policy may not be classified as protected under this section; and

(b) (i) an internal communication that is part of the deliberative process in connection with the preparation of legislation between:

(A) members of a legislative body;

(B) a member of a legislative body and a member of the legislative body's staff; or

(C) members of a legislative body's staff; and

(ii) notwithstanding Subsection (19)(b)(i), a communication that gives notice of legislative action or policy may not be classified as protected under this section;

(20) (a) records in the custody or control of the Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel, that, if disclosed, would reveal a particular legislator's contemplated legislation or contemplated course of action before the legislator has elected to support the legislation or course of action, or made the legislation or course of action public; and

(b) notwithstanding Subsection (20)(a), the form to request legislation submitted to the Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel is a public document unless a legislator asks that the records requesting the legislation be maintained as protected records until such time as the legislator elects to make the legislation or course of action public;

(21) a research request from a legislator to a legislative staff member and research findings prepared in response to the request;

(22) drafts, unless otherwise classified as public;

(23) records concerning a governmental entity's strategy about:

(a) collective bargaining; or

(b) imminent or pending litigation;

(24) records of investigations of loss occurrences and analyses of loss occurrences that may be covered by the Risk Management Fund, the Employers' Reinsurance Fund, the Uninsured Employers' Fund, or similar divisions in other governmental entities;

(25) records, other than personnel evaluations, that contain a personal recommendation concerning an individual if disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, or disclosure is not in the public interest;

(26) records that reveal the location of historic, prehistoric, paleontological, or biological resources that if known would jeopardize the security of those resources or of valuable historic, scientific, educational, or cultural information;

(27) records of independent state agencies if the disclosure of the records would conflict with the fiduciary obligations of the agency;

(28) records of an institution within the state system of higher education defined in Section 53B-1-102 regarding tenure evaluations, appointments, applications for admissions, retention decisions, and promotions, which could be properly discussed in a meeting closed in accordance with Title 52, Chapter 4, Open and Public Meetings Act, provided that records of the final decisions about tenure, appointments, retention, promotions, or those students admitted, may not be classified as protected under this section;

(29) records of the governor's office, including budget recommendations, legislative proposals, and policy statements, that if disclosed would reveal the governor's contemplated policies or contemplated courses of action before the governor has implemented or rejected those policies or courses of action or made them public;

(30) records of the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst relating to budget analysis, revenue estimates, and fiscal notes of proposed legislation before issuance of the final recommendations in these areas;

(31) records provided by the United States or by a government entity outside the state that are given to the governmental entity with a requirement that they be managed as protected records if the providing entity certifies that the record would not be subject to public disclosure if retained by it;

(32) transcripts, minutes, recordings, or reports of the closed portion of a meeting of a public body except as provided in Section 52-4-206;

(33) records that would reveal the contents of settlement negotiations but not including final settlements or empirical data to the extent that they are not otherwise exempt from disclosure;

(34) memoranda prepared by staff and used in the decision-making process by an administrative law judge, a member of the Board of Pardons and Parole, or a member of any other body charged by law with performing a quasi-judicial function;

(35) records that would reveal negotiations regarding assistance or incentives offered by or requested from a governmental entity for the purpose of encouraging a person to expand or locate a business in Utah, but only if disclosure would result in actual economic harm to the person or place the governmental entity at a competitive disadvantage, but this section may not be used to restrict access to a record evidencing a final contract;

(36) materials to which access must be limited for purposes of securing or maintaining the governmental entity's proprietary protection of intellectual property rights including patents, copyrights, and trade secrets;

(37) the name of a donor or a prospective donor to a governmental entity, including an institution within the state system of higher education defined in Section 53B-1-102, and other information concerning the donation that could reasonably be expected to reveal the identity of the donor, provided that:

(a) the donor requests anonymity in writing;

(b) any terms, conditions, restrictions, or privileges relating to the donation may not be classified protected by the governmental entity under this Subsection (37); and

(c) except for an institution within the state system of higher education defined in Section 53B-1-102, the governmental unit to which the donation is made is primarily engaged in educational, charitable, or artistic endeavors, and has no regulatory or legislative authority over the donor, a member of the donor's immediate family, or any entity owned or controlled by the donor or the donor's immediate family;

(ii) a dependent of a deceased victim of criminally injurious conduct; or

(iii) a representative acting on behalf of one of the above;

(b) (i) the criminally injurious conduct occurred in Utah; or

(ii) the victim is a Utah resident who suffers injury or death as a result of criminally injurious conduct inflicted in a state, territory, or country that does not provide a crime victims' compensation program;

(c) the application is made in writing in a form that conforms substantially to that prescribed by the [~~board~~]office;

(d) the criminally injurious conduct is reported to a law enforcement officer, in the law enforcement officer's capacity as a law enforcement officer, or another federal or state investigative agency;

(e) the claimant or victim cooperates with the appropriate law enforcement agencies and prosecuting attorneys in efforts to apprehend or convict the perpetrator of the alleged offense; and

(f) the criminally injurious conduct occurred after December 31, 1986.

(2) A reparations award may be made to a victim regardless of whether any individual is arrested, prosecuted, or convicted of the criminally injurious conduct giving rise to a reparations claim.

(3) (a) Notwithstanding the requirements of Subsections (1)(d) and (e), a victim of sexual assault is not required to report the sexual assault to a law enforcement officer or another federal or state investigative agency or cooperate with the appropriate law enforcement agencies and prosecuting attorneys to be eligible for a reparations award under this section if:

(i) the victim seeks assistance from an advocacy services provider, a criminal justice system victim advocate, or a nongovernment organization victim advocate; and

(ii) the advocacy services provider, the criminal justice system victim advocate, or the nongovernment organization victim advocate completes a questionnaire, provided by the office, regarding the sexual assault.

(b) Notwithstanding the requirement of Subsection (1)(e), a victim who has suffered strangulation in the course of interpersonal violence is not required to cooperate with the appropriate law enforcement agencies and prosecuting attorneys to be eligible for a reparations award under this section if the victim:

(i) reports the strangulation to a law enforcement officer or another federal or state investigative agency after the strangulation occurs; or

(ii) seeks medical care for the strangulation immediately after the strangulation occurs.

Section 14. Section 63M-7-517 is amended to read:

63M-7-517. Additional testing.

(1) If the mental, physical, or emotional condition of a victim is material to a reparations claim, the reparations officer, director, or the assistant director reparations program manager[~~, or chair of the board~~] who hears the reparations claim or the appeal may order the claimant to submit to a mental or physical examination by a physician or psychologist and may recommend to the court to order an autopsy of a deceased victim.

(2) The court may order an additional examination for good cause shown and shall provide notice to the individual to be examined and the individual's representative.

(3) All reports from additional examinations shall set out findings, including results of all tests made, diagnoses, prognoses, other conclusions, and reports of earlier examinations of the same conditions.

(4) A copy of the report shall be made available to the victim or the representative of the victim unless dissemination of that copy is prohibited by law.

Section 15. Section 63M-7-529 is amended to read:

63M-7-529. Determination of eligibility for victim reparations -- Law enforcement agency to provide investigative reports -- Restrictions on usage -- Criminal penalty.

(1) (a) Notwithstanding Section 63G-2-206, and subject to Subsection (1)(c), a law enforcement agency shall provide a copy of an investigative report that describes the facts and circumstances of a criminal episode within 10 business days of the date the law enforcement agency receives a request for that information from the office.

(b) Before releasing an investigative report, the law enforcement agency may redact the following information:

(i) the name of:

(A) an undercover officer; or

(B) a confidential informant; and

(ii) any information that would:

(A) jeopardize the investigation; or

(B) disclose law enforcement techniques not generally known to the public.

(c) If a criminal episode remains under investigation when the office requests an investigative report and the law enforcement agency determines that release of an investigative report at that time would jeopardize the investigation, a law enforcement agency may provide a detailed description of the following information, instead of providing an investigative report, within 10 [~~business~~]business days of the date the law enforcement agency received the original request from the office:

(i) the law enforcement agency's case number;

(ii) the location where the criminal episode occurred;

(iii) the criminal conduct under investigation;

(iv) a summary of the criminal episode;

(v) verification that the claimant is a victim of the criminal conduct;

(vi) any information regarding whether the claimant's conduct may have contributed to the criminal conduct; and

(vii) whether the claimant was and continues to be cooperative with law enforcement.

(d) An investigative report provided under Subsection (1)(a), or information provided under Subsection (1)(c), shall contain sufficient information for the office to determine whether a claimant is eligible for a reparations award under Sections 63M-7-509 and 63M-7-510.

(e) If an investigative report or information provided to the office by a law enforcement agency is not sufficient for the office to determine whether a claimant is eligible for a reparations award, the office may contact the law enforcement agency for additional information.

(f) (i) A law enforcement agency may give written notice that a request may take up to an additional 10 business days to process if exigent circumstances exist, which include:

(A) a circumstance where another agency is using relevant documents;

(B) the request requires review of a voluminous amount of documents;

(C) the request requires legal review;

(D) the request requires extensive redaction;

(E) the law enforcement agency is currently processing multiple requests; or

(F) other exigent circumstances.

(ii) Notice of an extended response time shall include the type of exigent circumstances involved and the new due date for the response.

(2) (a) An investigative report provided under this section may only be used for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this part.

(b) An investigative report received under this section:

(i) may only be viewed by the office[~~, the board,~~] and legal counsel for the office; and

(ii) may not be further disclosed or disseminated for any reason.

(3) The office shall dispose of or retain an investigative report received under this section in a secure manner.

(4) An investigative report provided to the office under this section is not subject to the provisions of Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act.

(5) A public employee or other person who knowingly or intentionally uses or distributes an investigative report, or information received from an investigative report, in violation of the requirements of Subsection (2) is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

76-6-202. Burglary.

(1) Terms defined in Sections 76-1-101.5 and 76-6-101 apply to this section.

(2) An actor commits burglary if the actor enters or remains unlawfully in a building or any portion of a building with intent to commit:

(a) a felony;

(b) theft;

(c) an assault on any person;

(d) lewdness, in violation of Section 76-5-419;

(e) sexual battery, in violation of Section 76-5-418;

(f) lewdness involving a child, in violation of Section 76-5-420;[~~ or~~]

(g) voyeurism, in violation of Section [~~76-9-702.7.~~]76-12-306;

(h) recorded or photographed voyeurism, in violation of Section 76-12-307; or

(i) distribution of images obtained through voyeurism, in violation of Section 76-12-308.

(3) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), a violation of Subsection (2) is a third degree felony.

(b) A violation of Subsection (2) is a second degree felony if the violation is committed in a dwelling.

(4) A violation of this section is a separate offense from any of the offenses listed in Subsections (2)(a) through ~~(g)~~, and which may be committed by the actor while in the building.

77-37-3. Bill of rights.

(1) The bill of rights for victims and witnesses is:

(a) Victims and witnesses have a right to be informed as to the level of protection from intimidation and harm available to them, and from what sources, as they participate in criminal justice proceedings as designated by Section 76-8-508, regarding tampering with a witness, and Section 76-8-509, regarding extortion or bribery to dismiss a criminal proceeding. Law enforcement, prosecution, and corrections personnel have the duty to timely provide this information in a form which is useful to the victim.

(b) Victims and witnesses, including children and their guardians, have a right to be informed and assisted as to their role in the criminal justice process. All criminal justice agencies have the duty to provide this information and assistance.

(c) Victims and witnesses have a right to clear explanations regarding relevant legal proceedings; these explanations shall be appropriate to the age of child victims and witnesses. All criminal justice agencies have the duty to provide these explanations.

(d) Victims and witnesses should have a secure waiting area that does not require them to be in close proximity to defendants or the family and friends of defendants. Agencies controlling facilities shall, whenever possible, provide this area.

(e) Victims may seek restitution or reparations, including medical costs, as provided in Title 63M, Chapter 7, Criminal Justice and Substance Abuse, Title 77, Chapter 38b, Crime Victims Restitution Act, and Section 80-6-710. State and local government agencies that serve victims have the duty to have a functional knowledge of the procedures established by the [~~Crime Victim Reparations Board~~]Utah Office for Victims of Crime and to inform victims of these procedures.

(f) Victims and witnesses have a right to have any personal property returned as provided in Chapter 11a, Seizure of Property and Contraband, and Chapter 11d, Lost or Mislaid Property. Criminal justice agencies shall expeditiously return the property when it is no longer needed for court law enforcement or prosecution purposes.

(g) Victims and witnesses have the right to reasonable employer intercession services, including pursuing employer cooperation in minimizing employees' loss of pay and other benefits resulting from their participation in the criminal justice process. Officers of the court shall provide these services and shall consider victims' and witnesses' schedules so that activities which conflict can be avoided. Where conflicts cannot be avoided, the victim may request that the responsible agency intercede with employers or other parties.

(h) Victims and witnesses, particularly children, should have a speedy disposition of the entire criminal justice process. All involved public agencies shall establish policies and procedures to encourage speedy disposition of criminal cases.

(i) Victims and witnesses have the right to timely notice of judicial proceedings they are to attend and timely notice of cancellation of any proceedings. Criminal justice agencies have the duty to provide these notifications. Defense counsel and others have the duty to provide timely notice to prosecution of any continuances or other changes that may be required.

(2) In addition to the rights of a victim described in Subsection (1), a victim of a sexual offense has the right to:

(a) request voluntary testing for themselves for HIV infection as described in Section 53-10-803;

(b) request mandatory testing of the alleged sexual offender for HIV infection as described in Section 53-10-802;

(c) not to be prevented from, or charged for, a medical forensic examination;

(d) have the evidence from a sexual assault kit, or the contents of the sexual assault kit, preserved for the time periods described in [~~Title 77, Chapter 11c~~]Chapter 11c, Retention of Evidence, without any charge to the victim;

(e) be informed whether a DNA profile was obtained from the testing of the evidence in a sexual assault kit or from other crime scene evidence;

(f) be informed whether a DNA profile developed from the evidence in a sexual assault kit, or from other crime scene evidence, has been entered into the Utah Combined DNA Index System;

(g) be informed of any result from a sexual assault kit or from other crime scene evidence if that disclosure would not impede or compromise an ongoing investigation, including:

(i) whether there is a match between a DNA profile developed from the evidence in a sexual assault kit, or from other crime scene evidence, and a DNA profile contained in the Utah Combined DNA Index System; and

(ii) a toxicology result or other information that is collected from a sexual assault kit as part of a medical forensic examination of the victim;

(h) be informed in writing of policies governing the collection and preservation of a sexual assault kit;

(i) be informed of the status and location of a sexual assault kit;

(j) upon written request by the victim, receive a notice of intent from an agency, as defined in Section 53-10-905, if the agency intends to destroy or dispose of evidence from a sexual assault kit;

(k) be granted further preservation of the sexual assault kit if the agency, as defined in Section 53-10-905, intends to destroy or dispose of evidence from a sexual assault kit and the victim submits a written request as described in Section 53-10-905;

(l) designate a person of the victim's choosing to act as a recipient of the information provided under this Subsection (2) or Subsections (3) and (4); and

(m) be informed of all the enumerated rights in this Subsection (2).

(3) Subsections (2)(e) through (g) do not require that the law enforcement agency communicate with the victim or the victim's designee regarding the status of DNA testing, absent a specific request received from the victim or the victim's designee.

(4) A law enforcement agency investigating a sexual offense may:

(a) release the information indicated in Subsections (2)(e) through (g) upon the request of the victim of the sexual offense, or the victim's designee and is the designated agency to provide that information to the victim or the victim's designee;

(b) require that the victim's request be in writing; and

(c) respond to the victim's request with verbal communication, written communication, or by email if an email address is available.

(5) A law enforcement agency investigating a sexual offense shall:

(a) notify the victim of the sexual offense, or the victim's designee, if the law enforcement agency determines that DNA evidence will not be analyzed in a case where the identity of the perpetrator has not be confirmed;

(b) provide the information described in this section in a timely manner; and

(c) upon request of the victim or the victim's designee, advise the victim or the victim's designee of any significant changes in the information of which the law enforcement agency is aware.

(6) The law enforcement agency investigating the sexual offense is responsible for informing the victim of the sexual offense, or the victim's designee, of the rights established under this section.

(7) Informational rights of the victim under this chapter are based upon the victim providing the current name, address, telephone number, and email address, if an email address is available, of the person to whom the information should be provided to the criminal justice agencies involved in the case.

Section 18. Section 78B-3-407.5 is amended to read:

78B-3-407.5. Requirements for written agreement or consent for egg retrieval.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Assisted reproduction" means the same as that term is defined in Section [~~78B-15-102~~]81-5-102.

(b) "Donor" means an individual who provides the individual's egg for use in assisted reproduction that is to be performed on a recipient other than the individual or the individual's regular sexual partner.

(c) "Egg retrieval" means a procedure by which an egg is collected from an individual's ovarian follicles.

(d) "Reproductive tissue facility" means the facility that performs an egg retrieval.

(2) A written agreement or consent between a reproductive tissue facility and a donor for an egg retrieval shall contain a clause that discloses any reasonably foreseeable complication associated with the egg retrieval.

(3) A clause in a written agreement or consent between a reproductive tissue facility and a donor for an egg retrieval is against public policy and is void and unenforceable if the clause requires the donor to release the reproductive tissue facility from liability for any complication associated with the egg retrieval that arises within 90 days after the day on which the egg retrieval occurs.

Section 19. Section 78B-5-505 is amended to read:

78B-5-505. Property exempt from execution.

(1) (a) An individual is entitled to exemption of the following property:

(i) a burial plot for the individual and the individual's family;

(ii) health aids reasonably necessary to enable the individual or a dependent to work or sustain health;

(iii) benefits that the individual or the individual's dependent have received or are entitled to receive from any source because of:

(A) disability;

(B) illness; or

(C) unemployment;

(iv) benefits paid or payable for medical, surgical, or hospital care to the extent that the benefits are used by an individual or the individual's dependent to pay for that care;

(v) veterans benefits;

(vi) money or property received, and rights to receive money or property for child support;

(vii) money or property received, and rights to receive money or property for alimony or separate maintenance, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the individual and the individual's dependents;

(viii) (A) one:

(I) clothes washer and dryer;

(II) refrigerator;

(III) freezer;

(IV) stove;

(V) microwave oven; and

(VI) sewing machine;

(B) all carpets in use;

(C) provisions sufficient for 12 months actually provided for individual or family use;

(D) all wearing apparel of every individual and dependent, not including jewelry or furs; and

(E) all beds and bedding for every individual or dependent;

(ix) except for works of art held by the debtor as part of a trade or business, works of art:

(A) depicting the debtor or the debtor and the debtor's resident family; or

(B) produced by the debtor or the debtor and the debtor's resident family;

(x) proceeds of insurance, a judgment, or a settlement, or other rights accruing as a result of bodily injury of the individual or of the wrongful death or bodily injury of another individual of whom the individual was or is a dependent to the extent that those proceeds are compensatory;

(xi) the proceeds or benefits of any life insurance contracts or policies paid or payable to the debtor or any trust of which the debtor is a beneficiary upon the death of the spouse or children of the debtor, provided that the contract or policy has been owned by the debtor for a continuous unexpired period of one year;

(xii) the proceeds or benefits of any life insurance contracts or policies paid or payable to the spouse or children of the debtor or any trust of which the spouse or children are beneficiaries upon the death of the debtor, provided that the contract or policy has been in existence for a continuous unexpired period of one year;

(xiii) proceeds and avails of any unmatured life insurance contracts owned by the debtor or any revocable grantor trust created by the debtor, excluding any payments made on the contract during the one year immediately preceding a creditor's levy or execution;

(xiv) except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), and except for a judgment described in Subsection 75B-2-503(2)(c), any money or other assets held for or payable to the individual as an owner, participant, or beneficiary from or an interest of the individual as an owner, participant, or beneficiary in a fund or account, including an inherited fund or account, in a retirement plan or arrangement that is described in Section 401(a), 401(h), 401(k), 403(a), 403(b), 408, 408A, 409, 414(d), 414(e), or 457, Internal Revenue Code, including an owner's, a participant's, or a beneficiary's interest that arises by inheritance, designation, appointment, or otherwise;

(xv) the interest of or any money or other assets payable to an alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order as those terms are defined in Section 414(p), Internal Revenue Code;

(xvi) unpaid earnings of the household of the filing individual due as of the date of the filing of a bankruptcy petition in the amount of 1/24 of the Utah State annual median family income for the household size of the filing individual as determined by the Utah State Annual Median Family Income reported by the United States Census Bureau and as adjusted based upon the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers for an individual whose unpaid earnings are paid more often than once a month or, if unpaid earnings are not paid more often than once a month, then in the amount of 1/12 of the Utah State annual median family income for the household size of the individual as determined by the Utah State Annual Median Family Income reported by the United States Census Bureau and as adjusted based upon the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers;

(xvii) except for curio or relic firearms, any three of the following:

(A) one handgun and ammunition for the handgun not exceeding 1,000 rounds;

(B) one shotgun and ammunition for the shotgun not exceeding 1,000 rounds; and

(C) one shoulder arm and ammunition for the shoulder arm not exceeding 1,000 rounds; and

(xviii) money, not exceeding $200,000, in the aggregate, that an individual deposits, more than 18 months before the day on which the individual files a petition for bankruptcy or an action is filed by a creditor against the individual, as applicable, in all tax-advantaged accounts for saving for higher education costs on behalf of a particular individual that meets the requirements of Section 529, Internal Revenue Code.

(b) (i) Any money, asset, or other interest in a fund or account that is exempt from a claim of a creditor of the owner, beneficiary, or participant under Subsection (1)(a)(xiv) does not cease to be exempt after the owner's, participant's, or beneficiary's death by reason of a direct transfer or eligible rollover to an inherited individual retirement account as defined in Section 408(d)(3), Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) Subsections (1)(a)(xiv) and (1)(b)(i) apply to all inherited individual retirement accounts without regard to the date on which the account was created.

(c) (i) The exemption granted by Subsection (1)(a)(xiv) does not apply to:

(A) an alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as those terms are defined in Section 414(p), Internal Revenue Code; or

(B) amounts contributed or benefits accrued by or on behalf of a debtor within one year before the debtor files for bankruptcy, except amounts directly rolled over from other funds that are exempt from attachment under this section.

(ii) The exemptions in Subsections (1)(a)(xi), (xii), and (xiii) do not apply to the secured creditor's interest in proceeds and avails of any matured or unmatured life insurance contract assigned or pledged as collateral for repayment of a loan or other legal obligation.

(2) (a) Disability benefits, as described in Subsection (1)(a)(iii)(A), and veterans benefits, as described in Subsection (1)(a)(v), may be garnished on behalf of a victim who is a child if the person receiving the benefits has been convicted of a felony sex offense against the victim and ordered by the sentencing court to pay restitution to the victim.

(b) The exemption from execution under this Subsection (2) shall be reinstated upon payment of the restitution in full.

(3) The exemptions under this section do not limit items that may be claimed as exempt under Section 78B-5-506.

(4) (a) The exemptions described in Subsections (1)(a)(iii), (iv), (vi), (vii), (x), (xii), (xiii), (xiv), (xv), (xvii), and (xviii) do not apply to a civil accounts receivable or a civil judgment of restitution for an individual who is found in contempt under Section 78B-6-317.

(b) Subsection (4)(a) does not apply to the benefits described in Subsection (1)(a)(iii) if the individual's dependent received, or is entitled to receive, the benefits.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 17D-1-103 is amended to read:

17D-1-103 (Effective upon governor's approval). Special service district status, powers, and duties -- Registration as a limited purpose entity -- Limitation on districts providing jail service.

(1) A special service district:

(a) is:

(i) a body corporate and politic with perpetual succession, separate and distinct from the county or municipality that creates it;

(ii) a quasi-municipal corporation; and

(iii) a political subdivision of the state; and

(b) may sue and be sued.

(2) A special service district may:

(a) exercise the power of eminent domain possessed by the county or municipality that creates the special service district;

(b) enter into a contract that the governing authority considers desirable to carry out special service district functions, including a contract:

(i) with the United States or an agency of the United States, the state, an institution of higher education, a county, a municipality, a school district, a special district, another special service district, or any other political subdivision of the state; or

(ii) that includes provisions concerning the use, operation, and maintenance of special service district facilities and the collection of fees or charges with respect to commodities, services, or facilities that the district provides;

(c) acquire or construct facilities;

(d) acquire real or personal property, or an interest in real or personal property, including water and water rights, whether by purchase, lease, gift, devise, bequest, or otherwise, and whether the property is located inside or outside the special service district, and own, hold, improve, use, finance, or otherwise deal in and with the property or property right;

(e) sell, convey, lease, exchange, transfer, or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the special service district's property or assets, including water and water rights;

(f) mortgage, pledge, or otherwise encumber all or any part of the special service district's property or assets, including water and water rights;

(g) enter into a contract with respect to the use, operation, or maintenance of all or any part of the special service district's property or assets, including water and water rights;

(h) accept a government grant or loan and comply with the conditions of the grant or loan;

(i) use an officer, employee, property, equipment, office, or facility of the county or municipality that created the special service district, subject to reimbursement as provided in Subsection (4);

(j) employ one or more officers, employees, or agents, including one or more engineers, accountants, attorneys, or financial consultants, and establish their compensation;

(k) designate an assessment area and levy an assessment as provided in Title 11, Chapter 42, Assessment Area Act;

(l) contract with a franchised, certificated public utility for the construction and operation of an electrical service distribution system within the special service district;

(m) borrow money and incur indebtedness;

(n) as provided in Part 5, Special Service District Bonds, issue bonds for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, and equipping any of the facilities required for the services the special service district is authorized to provide, including:

(i) bonds payable in whole or in part from taxes levied on the taxable property in the special service district;

(ii) bonds payable from revenues derived from the operation of revenue-producing facilities of the special service district;

(iii) bonds payable from both taxes and revenues;

(iv) guaranteed bonds, payable in whole or in part from taxes levied on the taxable property in the special service district;

(v) tax anticipation notes;

(vi) bond anticipation notes;

(vii) refunding bonds;

(ix) bonds payable in whole or in part from mineral lease payments as provided in Section 11-14-308;

(o) except as provided in Subsection (5), impose fees or charges or both for commodities, services, or facilities that the special service district provides;

(p) provide to an area outside the special service district's boundary, whether inside or outside the state, a service that the special service district is authorized to provide within its boundary, if the governing body makes a finding that there is a public benefit to providing the service to the area outside the special service district's boundary;

(q) provide other services that the governing body determines will more effectively carry out the purposes of the special service district;[~~ and~~]

(r) adopt an official seal for the special service district[~~.~~]; and

(s) if authorized, impose an emergency services tax under Title 59, Chapter 12, Part 24, Emergency Services Tax.

(3) (a) Each special service district shall register and maintain the special service district's registration as a limited purpose entity, in accordance with Section 67-1a-15.

(b) A special service district that fails to comply with Subsection (3)(a) or Section 67-1a-15 is subject to enforcement by the state auditor, in accordance with Section 67-3-1.

(4) (a) Each special service district that uses an officer, employee, property, equipment, office, or facility of the county or municipality that created the special service district shall reimburse the county or municipality a reasonable amount for what the special service district uses.

(b) The amount invoiced for what the special service district uses under Subsection (4)(a)may not exceed the actual documented cost incurred, without markup, by the county or municipality.

(5) (a) A special service district that provides jail service as provided in Subsection 17D-1-201(10) may not impose a fee or charge for the service it provides.

(b) Subsection (5)(a) may not be construed to limit a special service district that provides jail service from:

(i) entering into a contract with the federal government, the state, or a political subdivision of the state to provide jail service for compensation; or

(ii) receiving compensation for jail service it provides under a contract described in Subsection (5)(b)(i).

(iii) avalanche forecasting within the county; or

(iv) a combination of the activities described in this Subsection (4)(a).

(b) For a tax increased on or after July 1, 2024, [~~by a county described in Subsection (1)(a)(i),~~]a county legislative body may use the money collected from the increased tax rate to fund the activities described in Subsections (4)(a)(i) through (iv).

[~~(5) (a) A county described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii) may impose a tax under this section within a portion of the county if the affected area includes:~~]

[~~(i) the entire unincorporated area of the county; and~~]

[~~(ii) the entire boundaries of any municipality located within the affected area.~~]

[~~(b) Before a county described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii) may impose a tax under this section within a portion of the county, the county legislative body shall obtain approval to impose the tax from a majority of:~~]

[~~(i) the members of the county's legislative body;~~]

[~~(ii) the county's registered voters within the affected area voting on the imposition of the tax, in an election conducted according to the procedures and requirements of Title 11, Chapter 14, Local Government Bonding Act; and~~]

[~~(iii) (A) the members of the legislative body of each municipality located within the affected area; or~~]

[~~(B) the members of the governing body of a special service district established under Title 17D, Chapter 1, Special Service District Act, to provide emergency medical services within the affected area.~~]

[~~(c) A county described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii) that imposes a tax under this section within a portion of the county in accordance with this Subsection (5) may use the money collected from the tax to fund emergency medical services that are provided by a political subdivision within the affected area.~~]

~~(6)~~ (a) A tax under this section shall be:

(i) except as provided in Subsection ~~(6)(b)~~(b), administered, collected, enforced, and interpreted in accordance with:

(A) the same procedures used to administer, collect, enforce, and interpret the tax under:

(I) Part 1, Tax Collection; or

(II) Part 2, Local Sales and Use Tax Act; and

(B) Chapter 1, General Taxation Policies; and

(ii) levied for a period of 10 years and may be reauthorized at the end of the 10-year period by the county legislative body and the county's registered voters in accordance with the procedures and requirements for levying a tax under Subsection (2)[~~or (5)(b)~~], except as provided in Subsection ~~(6)(d)~~(d).

(b) A tax under this section is not subject to Subsections 59-12-205(2) and (4) through (6).

(c) A county legislative body shall distribute money collected from a tax under this section quarterly.

(d) (i) This Subsection ~~(6)(d)~~(d) applies to a county that imposes a tax under this section on or before January 1, 2024.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection ~~(6)(a)(ii)~~(a)(ii), a county described in Subsection ~~(6)(d)(i)~~(d)(i) is not subject to the voter approval requirement in Subsection (2)[~~or (5)(b) ~~]for the first time the county reauthorizes the tax at the end of the 10-year levy period after January 1, 2024.

(iii) The voter approval requirement in Subsection (2)[~~or (5)(b)~~]applies to a county described in Subsection ~~(6)(d)(i)~~(d)(i) for any time the county reauthorizes the tax at the end of the 10-year levy period after the reauthorization described in Subsection ~~(6)(d)(ii)~~(d)(ii).

~~(7)~~ The commission shall retain and deposit an administrative charge in accordance with Section 59-1-306 from the revenue the commission collects from a tax under this section.

Section 6. Section 59-12-2401 is enacted to read:

PART 24. Emergency Services Tax

59-12-2401 (Effective upon governor's approval). Definitions.

As used in this part:

(1) "Emergency services" means:

(a) emergency medical services as defined in Section 53-2d-101;

(b) fire protection services; or

(c) a combination of emergency medical services, as defined in Section 53-2d-101, and fire protection services.

(2) "Emergency services tax" means the sales and use tax authorized under Section 59-12-2402.

(3) "Governing body" means:

(a) for a county, city, or town, the legislative body of the county, city, or town; or

(b) for a special service district:

(i) the legislative body of the county, city, or town that established the special service district, if no administrative control board has been created under Section 17D-1-301; or

(ii) the administrative control board of the special service district, if an administrative control board has been created under Section 17D-1-301.

(4) "Qualifying political subdivision" means:

(a) a specified county;

(b) a special service district established under Title 17D, Chapter 1, Special Service District Act, to provide emergency services within a specified county; or

(c) a city or town that:

(i) is located:

(A) within a specified county; and

(B) outside the boundaries of a special service district described in Subsection (4)(b); and

(ii) provides, or contracts with a special service district described in Subsection (4)(b)to receive, emergency services within the city or town.

(5) "Specified county" means a county of the second or third class, as defined in Section 17-50-501, that contains:

(a) a national park and two or more state parks within or partially within the county's boundaries; and

(b) a municipality with a population of 95,000 or more.

Section 7. Section 59-12-2402 is enacted to read:

59-12-2402 (Effective upon governor's approval). Imposition of emergency services tax -- Permitted rates -- Expenditure and distribution of tax revenue -- Administration, collection, and enforcement of tax -- Administrative charge.

(1) (a) The governing body of a qualifying political subdivision may, subject to Subsection (1)(b), impose a sales and use tax on the transactions described in Subsection 59-12-103(1) in the following amount:

(i) an amount of up to .33% if the governing body:

(A) first holds a public hearing at which the tax is discussed, subject to Subsection (2); and

(B) after the public hearing is held, passes an ordinance or resolution approving the tax; or

(ii) an amount of up to 1% if the governing body obtains approval to impose the tax from a majority of:

(A) the members of the governing body; and

(B) voters within the qualifying political subdivision voting in an election held for that purpose in accordance with Title 11, Chapter 14, Local Government Bonding Act.

(b) (i) A tax imposed by a county under Subsection (1)(a) shall be imposed within all unincorporated areas of the county.

(ii) A tax imposed by a special service district under Subsection (1)(a) shall be imposed within the boundaries of each city and town located within the area of the special service district.

(iii) A tax may not be imposed under this section within:

(A) a portion of a city, town, or the unincorporated area of a county; or

(B) an area in which a tax under this section has already been imposed.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(a), a qualifying political subdivision may not impose a tax under this section on:

(i) the sales and uses described in Section 59-12-104 to the extent the sales and uses are exempt from taxation under Section 59-12-104; and

(ii) except as provided in Subsection (1)(e), amounts paid or charged for food and food ingredients.

(d) For purposes of this Subsection (1), the location of a transaction is determined in accordance with Sections 59-12-211 through 59-12-215.

(e) A qualifying political subdivision that imposes a tax under this section shall impose the tax on the purchase price or sales price for amounts paid or charged for food and food ingredients if the food and food ingredients are sold as part of a bundled transaction attributable to food and food ingredients and tangible personal property other than food and food ingredients.

(2) (a) The governing body of a qualifying political subdivision proposing a tax rate described in Subsection (1)(a)(i) shall, as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102, publish notice of the public hearing required by Subsection (1)(a)(i)(A) for at least 14 days before the day of the public hearing.

(b) The notice described in Subsection (2)(a) shall:

(i) state the governing body's intent to adopt a tax under this section;

(ii) describe the proposed tax rate;

(iii) describe the cities, towns, and unincorporated areas within which the proposed tax is to be imposed;

(iv) specify the date, time, and location of the public hearing; and

(v) state that the purpose of the public hearing is to obtain public comments regarding the proposed tax.

(3) For a county proposing a tax rate described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii), the voter approval requirement in Subsection (1)(a)(ii)(B) applies only to voters residing within the unincorporated areas of the county.

(4) (a) Subject to Subsection (4)(b), a qualifying political subdivision may use money collected from a tax imposed under this section to fund emergency services provided by, or on behalf of, a qualifying political subdivision.

(b) A qualifying political subdivision that imposes a tax under this section may:

(i) use money collected from the tax to fund emergency services within an area in which the tax is not imposed; and

(ii) enter into an agreement authorized by Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act, allowing for another qualifying political subdivision to use money collected from the tax to fund emergency services.

(5) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(b), a tax under this section shall be administered, collected, and enforced in accordance with the same procedures used to administer, collect, and enforce the tax under:

(i) (A) Part 1, Tax Collection; or

(B) Part 2, Local Sales and Use Tax Act; and

(ii) Chapter 1, General Taxation Policies.

(b) A tax under this section is not subject to Subsections 59-12-205(2) through (5).

(c) A tax under this section shall be levied for a period of 10 years and may, in accordance with the procedures and requirements for levying a tax under Subsections (1) through (3), be reauthorized at the end of the 10-year period by:

(i) the governing body that imposed the tax, for reauthorizing a tax rate described in Subsection (1)(a)(i); or

(ii) the governing body that imposed the tax and the qualifying political subdivision's voters, for reauthorizing a tax rate described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii).

(d) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(e), the commission shall distribute the revenue the commission collects from a tax imposed under this section directly to the qualifying political subdivision imposing the tax.

(e) The commission shall retain and deposit an administrative charge in accordance with Section 59-1-306 from the revenue the commission collects from a tax under this section.

Section 8. Section 59-12-2403 is enacted to read:

59-12-2403 (Effective upon governor's approval). Enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of an emergency services tax -- Annexation -- Notice.

(1) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (2), if a qualifying political subdivision enacts or repeals an emergency services tax or changes the rate of an emergency services tax, the enactment, repeal, or change shall take effect:

(i) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(ii) after a 90-day period beginning on the date the commission receives notice that meets the requirements of Subsection (1)(b) from the qualifying political subdivision.

(b) The notice described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii) shall state:

(i) that the qualifying political subdivision will enact, repeal, or change the rate of an emergency services tax;

(ii) the statutory authority for the emergency services tax;

(iii) the effective date of the enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of the emergency services tax; and

(iv) if the county enacts or changes the rate of the emergency services tax:

(A) the rate of the emergency services tax; and

(B) the cities, towns, and unincorporated areas within which the emergency services tax is imposed.

(2) (a) If the billing period for a transaction begins before the effective date of the enactment of an emergency services tax or the increase in the rate of an emergency services tax, the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase shall take effect on the first day of the first billing period that begins after the effective date of the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase.

(b) If the billing period for a transaction begins before the effective date of the repeal of an emergency services tax or the decrease in the rate of an emergency services tax, the repeal of the tax or the tax rate decrease shall take effect on the first day of the last billing period that began before the effective date of the repeal of the tax or the tax rate decrease.

(c) If a tax due under this part on a catalogue sale is computed on the basis of sales and use tax rates published in the catalogue, an enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of a tax described in Subsection (1)(a) shall take effect:

(i) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(ii) beginning 60 days after the effective date of the enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of the tax under Subsection (1)(a).

(3) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (4), if an annexation will result in the enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of an emergency services tax for an annexing area, the enactment, repeal, or change shall take effect:

(i) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(ii) after a 90-day period beginning on the date the commission receives notice meeting the requirements of Subsection (3)(b) from the political subdivision that annexes the annexing area.

(b) The notice described in Subsection (3)(a)(ii) shall state:

(i) that the annexation described in Subsection (3)(a) will result in the enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of an emergency services tax for the annexing area;

(ii) the statutory authority for the emergency services tax;

(iii) the effective date of the enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of the emergency services tax; and

(iv) if the annexation results in the enactment or change in the rate of an emergency services tax for the annexing area, the rate of the emergency services tax.

(4) (a) If the billing period for a transaction begins before the effective date of the enactment of an emergency services tax or the increase in the rate of an emergency services tax, the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase shall take effect on the first day of the first billing period that begins after the effective date of the enactment of the tax or the tax rate increase.

(b) If the billing period for a transaction begins before the effective date of the repeal of an emergency services tax or the decrease in the rate of an emergency services tax, the repeal of the tax or the tax rate decrease shall take effect on the first day of the last billing period that began before the effective date of the repeal of the tax or the tax rate decrease.

(c) If a tax due under this part on a catalogue sale is computed on the basis of sales and use tax rates published in the catalogue, an enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of a tax described in Subsection (3)(a) shall take effect:

(i) on the first day of a calendar quarter; and

(ii) beginning 60 days after the effective date of the enactment, repeal, or change in the rate of the tax under Subsection (3)(a).

(5) In accordance with Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act, and for purposes of Subsections (2)(c) and (4)(c), the commission may by rule define the term "catalogue sale."

Section 9. Section 59-12-2404 is enacted to read:

59-12-2404 (Effective upon governor's approval). Seller or certified service provider reliance on commission information.

A seller or certified service provider is not liable for failing to collect an emergency services tax if the seller's or certified service provider's failure to collect the emergency services tax is as a result of the seller's or certified service provider's reliance on incorrect data provided by the commission in a database created by the commission:

(1) containing tax rates, boundaries, or local taxing jurisdiction assignments; or

(2) indicating the taxability of tangible personal property, a product transferred electronically, or a service.

Section 10. Section 59-12-2405 is enacted to read:

59-12-2405 (Effective upon governor's approval). Certified service provider or model 2 seller reliance on commission certified software.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2) and subject to Subsection (4), a certified service provider or model 2 seller is not liable for failing to collect an emergency services tax if:

(a) the certified service provider or model 2 seller relies on software the commission certifies; and

(b) the certified service provider's or model 2 seller's failure to collect an emergency services tax is a result of the seller's or certified service provider's reliance on incorrect data:

(i) provided by the commission; or

(ii) in the software the commission certifies.

(2) The relief from liability described in Subsection (1) does not apply if a certified service provider or model 2 seller incorrectly classifies an item or transaction into a product category the commission certifies.

(3) If the taxability of a product category is incorrectly classified in software the commission certifies, the commission shall:

(a) notify a certified service provider or model 2 seller of the incorrect classification of the taxability of a product category in software the commission certifies; and

(b) state in the notice required by Subsection (3)(a) that the certified service provider or model 2 seller is liable for failing to collect the correct amount of tax under this part on the incorrectly classified product category if the certified service provider or model 2 seller fails to correct the taxability of the item or transaction within 10 days after the day on which the certified service provider or model 2 seller receives the notice.

(4) If a certified service provider or model 2 seller fails to correct the taxability of an item or transaction within 10 days after the day on which the certified service provider or model 2 seller receives the notice described in Subsection (3), the certified service provider or model 2 seller is liable for failing to collect the correct amount of tax under this part on the item or transaction.

59-12-2406 (Effective upon governor's approval). Purchaser relief from liability.

(1) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), a purchaser is relieved from a penalty under Section 59-1-401 for failure to pay an emergency services tax or an underpayment of the emergency services tax if:

(i) the purchaser's seller or certified service provider relies on incorrect data provided by the commission:

(A) on a tax rate;

(B) on a boundary;

(C) on a taxing jurisdiction; or

(D) in the taxability matrix the commission provides in accordance with the agreement; or

(ii) the purchaser, regardless of whether the purchaser holds a direct payment permit in accordance with Section 59-12-107.1, relies on incorrect data provided by the commission:

(A) on a tax rate;

(B) on a boundary;

(C) on a taxing jurisdiction; or

(D) in the taxability matrix the commission provides in accordance with the agreement.

(b) For purposes of Subsection (1)(a), a purchaser is not relieved from a penalty under Section 59-1-401 for failure to pay a tax due under this part or an underpayment if the purchaser's, the purchaser's seller's, or the purchaser's certified service provider's reliance on incorrect data provided by the commission is a result of conduct that is:

(i) fraudulent;

(ii) intentional; or

(iii) willful.

(2) In addition to the relief from a penalty described in Subsection (1), a purchaser is not liable for a tax or interest under Section 59-1-402 for failure to pay a tax due under this part or an underpayment if:

(a) the purchaser's seller or certified service provider relies on:

(i) incorrect data provided by the commission:

(A) on a tax rate;

(B) on a boundary; or

(C) on a taxing jurisdiction; or

(ii) an erroneous classification by the commission:

(A) in the taxability matrix the commission provides in accordance with the agreement; and

(B) with respect to a term that is in the library of definitions and that is listed as taxable or exempt, included in or excluded from "sales price," or included in or excluded from a definition; or

(b) the purchaser, regardless of whether the purchaser holds a direct payment permit in accordance with Section 59-12-107.1, relies on:

(i) incorrect data provided by the commission:

(A) on a tax rate;

(B) on a boundary; or

(C) on a taxing jurisdiction; or

(ii) an erroneous classification by the commission:

(A) in the taxability matrix the commission provides in accordance with the agreement; and

(B) with respect to a term that is in the library of definitions and that is listed as taxable or exempt, included in or excluded from "sales price," or included in or excluded from a definition.

Section 12. Effective Date.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), this bill takes effect:

(a) except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), December 6, 2025; or

(b) if approved by two-thirds of all members elected to each house:

(i) upon approval by the governor;
(ii) without the governor's signature, the day following the constitutional time limit of Utah Constitution, Article VII, Section 8; or
(iii) in the case of a veto, the date of veto override.
(2) The actions affecting Section 59-12-102 (Effective 07/01/26) take effect on July 1, 2026.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

CHAPTER 60. General Provisions Applicable to Counties

PART 1. General Provisions

[~~17-50-101~~]17-60-101 (Effective 11/06/25). Definitions.

As used in this title:

(1) "County" means a unit of local government that is a body corporate and politic and a legal subdivision of the state, with:

(a) geographic boundaries as described in Section [~~17-50-104,~~]17-61-102; and

(b) powers as provided in [~~Part 3, County Powers~~]Part 2, County Powers Generally.

(2) "Executive," when used to describe the powers, duties, or functions of [~~a person~~]an individual or body elected as the county executive or [~~a person~~]an individual appointed as the county manager or administrative officer, refers to:

(a) the power and duty to carry laws and ordinances into effect and secure [~~their~~]the due observance of laws and ordinances; and

(b) those powers, duties, and functions that, under constitutional and statutory provisions and through long usage and accepted practice and custom at the federal and state level, have come to be regarded as belonging to the executive branch of government.

(3) "Legislative," when used to describe the powers, duties, or functions of a county commission or county council, refers to:

(a) the power and duty to enact ordinances, levy taxes, and establish budgets; and

(b) those powers, duties, and functions that, under constitutional and statutory provisions and through long usage and accepted practice and custom at the federal and state level, have come to be regarded as belonging to the legislative branch of government.

(4) "Voter" means an individual who is registered to vote in Utah.

[~~17-50-314~~]17-60-102 (Effective 11/06/25). Powers of municipalities not affected.

Nothing in this [~~chapter~~]title may be construed to diminish, impair, or affect the power conferred upon cities and towns.

[~~17-50-103~~]17-60-103 (Effective 11/06/25). Relationship to special districts -- Use of "county" prohibited -- Legal action to compel compliance.

(1) For purposes of this section[~~:~~], "special district" means the same as that term is defined in Section 17B-1-102.

[~~(a) (i) "Existing local entity" means a special district, special service district, or other political subdivision of the state created before May 1, 2000.~~]

[~~(ii) "Existing local entity" does not include a county, city, town, or school district.~~]

[~~(b) (i) "New local entity" means a city, town, school district, special district, special service district, or other political subdivision of the state created on or after May 1, 2000.~~]

[~~(ii) "New local entity" does not include a county.~~]

[~~(c) (i) "Special district" means a special district under Title 17B, Limited Purpose Local Government Entities - Special Districts, that:~~]

[~~(A) by statute is a political and corporate entity separate from the county that created the special district; and~~]

[~~(B) by statute is not subject to the direction and control of the county that created the special district~~].

(2) The county legislative body's statutory authority to appoint members to the governing body of a special district does not alone make the special district subject to the direction and control of that county.

~~(2)~~ [~~(a) A new local entity may not use the word "county" in its name.~~]

[~~(b) After January 1, 2005, an existing~~]A local entity may not use the word "county" in [~~its~~]the local entity's name unless the county whose name is used by the [~~existing~~]local entity gives [~~its~~]or has given the local entity the county's written consent.

~~(3)~~ A county with a name similar to the name of a [~~new~~]local entity [~~or existing local entity~~]in violation of this section may bring legal action in a court with jurisdiction under Title 78A, Judiciary and Judicial Administration, to compel compliance with this section.

[~~17-50-501~~]17-60-104 (Effective 11/06/25). Classification of counties.

(1) Each county shall be classified according to [~~its~~]the county's population.

(2) (a) A county with a population of 1,150,000 or more is a county of the first class.

(b) A county with a population of 260,000 or more but less than 1,150,000 is a county of the second class.

(c) A county with a population of 40,000 or more but less than 260,000 is a county of the third class.

(d) A county with a population of 12,000 or more but less than 40,000 is a county of the fourth class.

(e) A county with a population of 5,000 or more but less than 12,000 is a county of the fifth class.

(f) A county with a population less than 5,000 is a county of the sixth class.

[~~17-50-502~~]17-60-105 (Effective 11/06/25). Change of class of county.

(1) Each county shall retain [~~its~~]the county's classification under Section [~~17-50-501~~]17-60-104 until changed as provided in this section.

(2) The lieutenant governor shall monitor the population figure for each county as shown on:

(a) the estimate of the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(b) if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available, the census or census estimate of the United States Bureau of the Census.

(3) After July 1, 2021, if the applicable population figure under Subsection (2) indicates that a county's population has increased beyond the limit for [~~its~~]the county's current class, the lieutenant governor shall:

(a) prepare a certificate indicating the class in which the county belongs based on the increased population figure; and

(b) within 10 days after preparing the certificate, deliver a copy of the certificate to the county legislative body and, if the county has an executive that is separate from the legislative body, the executive of the county whose class was changed.

(4) A county's change in class is effective on the date of the lieutenant governor's certificate under Subsection (3).

[~~17-15-31~~]17-60-106 (Effective 11/06/25). Registration as a local government entity.

(1) (a) Each county shall register and maintain the county's registration as a local government entity, in accordance with Section 67-1a-15.

(b) The county clerk shall register and maintain the county's registration.

(2) A county that fails to comply with Subsection (1) or Section 67-1a-15 is subject to enforcement by the state auditor, in accordance with Section 67-3-1.

[~~17-15-32~~]17-60-107 (Effective 11/06/25). County website requirements.

(1) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), a county may:

(i) as prescribed by statute:

(A) levy a tax;

(B) perform an assessment;

(C) collect a tax;

(D) borrow money; or

(E) levy and collect a special assessment for a conferred benefit; or

(ii) provide a service, exercise a power, or perform a function that is reasonably related to the safety, health, morals, and welfare of county inhabitants[~~, except as limited or prohibited by statute~~].

(b) A county or a governmental instrumentality of a county may not perform an action described in Subsection (1)(a)(i) or provide a service, exercise a power, or perform a function described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii) in another county or a municipality within the other county without first entering into an agreement under Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act, or other contract with the other county to perform the action, provide the service, exercise the power, or perform the function.

(2) [~~(a)~~] A county may:

~~(i)~~ sue and be sued;

~~(ii)~~ (i) subject to Subsection ~~(2)(c)~~, acquire real property by tax sale, purchase, lease, contract, or gift[;]; and

(ii) hold the real property acquired under Subsection (2)(b)(i)as necessary and proper for county purposes;

~~(iii)~~ ~~(A)~~ subject to [~~Subsection (2)(b)~~]Subsections (3)(a) and (b), acquire real property by condemnation, as provided in Title

78B, Chapter 6, Part 5, Eminent Domain; and

~~(B)~~ hold the real property acquired under Subsection (2)(c)(i) as necessary and proper for county purposes;

~~(iv)~~ as may be necessary to the exercise of its powers, acquire personal property by purchase, lease, contract, or gift, and hold such personal property; and

~~(v)~~ manage and dispose of its property as the interests of its inhabitants may require.

~~(i)~~ (a) For purposes of Subsection ~~(2)(a)(iii)~~(c), water rights that are not appurtenant to land do not constitute real property that may be acquired by the county through condemnation.

~~(ii)~~ Nothing in Subsection ~~(2)(a)(iii)~~(c) may be construed to authorize a county to acquire by condemnation the rights to water unless the land to which those water rights are appurtenant is acquired by condemnation.

~~(i)~~ Except as provided in Subsection ~~(2)(c)(iv)~~, each county intending to acquire real property for the purpose of expanding the county's infrastructure or other facilities used for providing services that the county offers or intends to offer shall provide written notice[~~, as provided in this Subsection (2)(c),~~]of [~~its~~]the county's intent to acquire the property if:

~~(A)~~ the property is located:

~~(I)~~ outside the boundaries of the unincorporated area of the county; and

~~(II)~~ in a county of the first or second class; and

~~(B)~~ the intended use of the property is contrary to:

~~(I)~~ the anticipated use of the property under the general plan of the county in whose unincorporated area or the municipality in whose boundaries the property is located; or

~~(II)~~ the property's current zoning designation.

~~(ii)~~ (a) Each notice under Subsection ~~(2)(c)(i)~~ shall:

~~(A)~~ indicate that the county intends to acquire real property;

~~(B)~~ identify the real property; and

~~(C)~~ be sent to:

~~(I)~~ each county in whose unincorporated area and each municipality in whose boundaries the property is located; and ~~(II)~~ each affected entity.

~~(iii)~~ A notice under [~~this~~]Subsection ~~(2)(c)~~ is a protected record as provided in Subsection 63G-2-305(8).

~~(A)~~ The notice requirement of Subsection ~~(2)(c)(i)~~ does not apply if the county previously provided notice under Section [~~17-27a-203~~]17-79-203 identifying the general location within the municipality or unincorporated part of the county where the property to be acquired is located.

~~(B)~~ If a county is not required to comply with the notice requirement of Subsection ~~(2)(c)(i)~~ because of application of Subsection ~~(2)(c)(iv)(A)~~, the county shall provide the notice specified in Subsection ~~(2)(c)(i)~~ as soon as practicable after [~~its~~]the county's acquisition of the real property.

[~~17-50-303~~]17-60-203 (Effective 11/06/25). County may borrow in anticipation of revenues -- Assistance to nonprofit and private entities -- Notice requirements -- County prohibited from lending credit.

[~~(1) A county may not give or lend its credit to or in aid of any person or corporation, or, except as provided in Subsection (3), appropriate money in aid of any private enterprise.~~]

~~(2)~~ (a) A county may borrow money in anticipation of the collection of taxes and other county revenues in the manner and subject to the conditions of Title 11, Chapter 14, Local Government Bonding Act.

(b) A county may incur indebtedness under Subsection ~~(2)(a)~~(a) for any purpose for which funds of the county may be expended.

(2) A county may not:

(a) give or lend county credit to or in aid of any person or corporation; or

(b) except as provided in Subsection (3), appropriate money in aid of any private enterprise.

(3) (a) A county may appropriate money to or provide nonmonetary assistance to a nonprofit entity, or waive fees required to be paid by a nonprofit entity, if, in the judgment of the county legislative body, the assistance contributes to the safety, health, prosperity, moral well-being, peace, order, comfort, or convenience of county residents.

(b) A county may appropriate money to a nonprofit entity from the county's own funds or from funds the county receives from the state or any other source.

(4) (a) As used in this Subsection (4):

(i) "Private enterprise" means a person that engages in an activity for profit.

(ii) "Project" means an activity engaged in by a private enterprise.

(b) A county may appropriate money in aid of a private enterprise project if:

(i) subject to Subsection (4)(c), the county receives value in return for the money appropriated; and

(ii) in the judgment of the county legislative body, the private enterprise project provides for the safety, health, prosperity, moral well-being, peace, order, comfort, or convenience of the county residents.

(c) The county shall measure the net value received by the county for money appropriated by the county to a private entity on a project-by-project basis over the life of the project.

(d) (i) Before a county legislative body may appropriate funds in aid of a private enterprise project under this Subsection (4), the county legislative body shall:

(A) adopt by ordinance criteria to determine what value, if any, the county will receive in return for money appropriated under this Subsection (4);

(B) conduct a study as described in Subsection (4)(e) on the proposed appropriation and private enterprise project; and

(C) post notice, subject to Subsection (4)(f), and hold a public hearing on the proposed appropriation and the private enterprise project.

(ii) The county legislative body may consider an intangible benefit as a value received by the county.

(e) (i) Before publishing or posting notice in accordance with Subsection (4)(f), the county shall study:

(A) any value the county will receive in return for money or resources appropriated to a private entity;

(B) the county's purpose for the appropriation, including an analysis of the way the appropriation will be used to enhance the safety, health, prosperity, moral well-being, peace, order, comfort, or convenience of the county residents; and

(C) whether the appropriation is necessary and appropriate to accomplish the reasonable goals and objectives of the county in the area of economic development, job creation, affordable housing, elimination of a development impediment, as defined in Section 17C-1-102, job preservation, the preservation of historic structures, analyzing and improving county government structure or property, or any other public purpose.

(ii) The county shall:

(A) prepare a written report of the results of the study; and

(B) make the report available to the public at least 14 days immediately [~~prior to~~]before the scheduled day of the public hearing described in Subsection (4)(d)(i)(C).

(f) The county shall publish notice of the public hearing required in Subsection (4)(d)(i)(C) for the county, as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least 14 days before the day of the public hearing.

(g) (i) A person may appeal the decision of the county legislative body to appropriate funds under this Subsection (4).

(ii) A person shall file an appeal with the district court within 30 days after the day on which the legislative body adopts an ordinance or approves a budget to appropriate the funds.

(iii) A court shall:

(A) presume that an ordinance adopted or appropriation made under this Subsection (4) is valid; and

(B) determine only whether the ordinance or appropriation is arbitrary, capricious, or illegal.

(iv) A determination of illegality requires a determination that the decision or ordinance violates a law, statute, or ordinance in effect at the time the decision was made or the ordinance was adopted.

(v) The district court's review is limited to:

(A) a review of the criteria adopted by the county legislative body under Subsection (4)(d)(i)(A);

(B) the record created by the county legislative body at the public hearing described in Subsection (4)(d)(i)(C); and

(C) the record created by the county in preparation of the study and the study itself as described in Subsection (4)(e).

(vi) If there is no record, the court may call witnesses and take evidence.

(h) This section applies only to an appropriation not otherwise approved in accordance with [~~Title 17, Chapter 36, Uniform Fiscal Procedures Act for Counties~~]Chapter 63, Fiscal Authority and Processes.

(1) A county may, individually or in association with other counties, study the processes and methods of county government with a view to improvement and cause to be assembled and presented to the Legislature or the Congress of the United States, or to or before the appropriate committees of either or both, such information and factual data with respect to the effect upon counties, the taxpayers, and the people, of existing, pending or proposed legislation, as in the judgment of county executives and legislative bodies, will be in the interest of and beneficial to counties, taxpayers, and people.

(2) The charges and expenses incurred under Subsection (1) shall be proper claim against county funds, to be audited and paid as other county claims.

PART 3. County Seats

[~~17-11-1~~]17-60-301 (Effective 11/06/25). County seats fixed -- Election to move a county seat.

(1) The county seats of the several counties of this state as now fixed by law are hereby recognized as such.

(2) [~~No~~]In accordance with Utah Constitution, Article XI, Section 2, no county seat shall be [~~removed~~]moved unless:

(a) two-thirds of the qualified electors of the county, voting on the proposition at a countywide general election, [~~shall~~]vote in favor of [~~such removal,~~]the relocation; and

(b) two-thirds of the votes cast on the proposition [~~shall be required to relocate a~~]approve the relocation of the county seat.

[~~17-11-2~~]17-60-302 (Effective 11/06/25). Initiating a petition to move a county seat -- Certification of petition signatures -- Removal of signature -- Limitation.

[~~(1) Whenever there is presented to the county legislative body of any county a petition signed by registered voters of the county, in number equal to a majority of the votes cast at the preceding general election, praying for the submission of the question of the removal of the county seat, it shall be the duty of the county legislative body to submit the question of the removal at the next general election to the registered voters of the county.~~]

(1) (a) A voter may file a petition to move the county seat with the county legislative body of the county in which the voter lives if the petition is signed by a majority of registered voters in the county, calculated by the number of votes cast in the county at the preceding general election.

(b) If the county legislative body receives a petition that complies with this section, the county legislative body shall submit the question of moving the county seat to the county's voters at the next general election.

(2) (a) Within three business days after the day on which a county legislative body receives a petition under Subsection (1), the county legislative body shall provide the petition to the county clerk.

(b) Within 14 days after the day on which a county clerk receives a petition from the county legislative body under Subsection (2)(a), the county clerk shall:

(i) use the procedures described in Section 20A-1-1002 to determine whether the petition satisfies the requirements of Subsection (1);

(ii) certify on the petition whether each name is that of a registered voter in the county; and

(iii) deliver the certified petition to the county legislative body.

(3) (a) [~~A voter~~]An individual who signs a petition under this section may have the [~~voter's~~]individual's signature removed from the petition by, no later than three business days after the day on which the county legislative body provides the petition to the county clerk, submitting to the county clerk a statement requesting that the [~~voter's~~]individual's signature be removed.

(b) A statement described in Subsection (3)(a) shall comply with the requirements described in Subsection 20A-1-1003(2).

(c) The county clerk shall use the procedures described in Subsection 20A-1-1003(3) to determine whether to remove an individual's signature from a petition after receiving a timely, valid statement requesting removal of the signature.

(4) The election shall be conducted and the returns canvassed in all respects as provided by law for the conducting of general elections and canvassing the returns.

(5) [~~A~~]In accordance with Utah Constitution, Article XI, Section 2, a proposition [~~of removal of~~]to move the county seat may not be submitted in the same county more than once in four years, or within four years after the day on which a proposition [~~of removal of~~]to move the county seat is submitted to the voters.

PART 4. Claims Against the County

[~~17-50-401~~]17-60-401 (Effective 11/06/25). Review of claims by county executive -- Auditor review -- Attorney review -- Claim requirements -- Approval or disapproval of claim -- Written explanation of claim process.

(1) Upon receiving a notice of claim under Section 63G-7-401, the county clerk shall deliver the notice of claim to the county executive described in Chapter 65, County Executive.

(2) Subject to Subsection (3), each county executive shall review each claim, as defined in Section [~~17-19a-102~~]17-69-101, against the county and [~~disapprove or, if payment appears to the county executive to be~~]:

(a) if the claim is just, lawful, and properly due and owing, approve the claim[~~.~~]; or

(b) disapprove the claim.

[~~(2) Upon receiving a notice of claim under Section 63G-7-401, the county clerk shall deliver the notice of claim to the county executive.~~]

(3) (a) The county executive shall forward all claims [~~regarding liability or attorney fees~~]to the county attorney, or, in a county that has a district attorney but not a county attorney, to the district attorney for the attorney's review and recommendation to the county executive regarding liability and payment.

(b) Except as provided in Section [~~17-50-405~~]17-60-405, the county executive shall forward all claims requesting payment for goods or services to the county auditor for the county auditor's review and recommendation, subject to Subsection (7), to the county executive.

(4) Each claim for goods or services against a county shall:

(a) itemize the claim, giving applicable names, dates, and particular goods provided or services rendered;

(b) if the claim is for service of process, state the character of process served, upon whom served, the number of days engaged, and the number of miles traveled;

(c) be duly substantiated as to [~~its~~]the claim's correctness and as to the fact that [~~it~~]the claim is justly due;

(d) if the claim is for materials furnished, state to whom the materials were furnished, by whom ordered, and the quantity and price agreed upon; and

(e) be presented to the county executive within a year after the last item of the account or credit accrued.

(5) If the county executive refuses to hear or consider a claim because it is not properly made out, the county executive shall cause notice of the refusal to be given to the claimant or the claimant's agent and shall allow a reasonable amount of time for the claim to be properly itemized and substantiated.

(6) Each county shall prepare and make available to a person submitting or intending to submit a claim under this part a written explanation, in simple and easy to understand language, of how to submit a claim to the county and of the county's process for receiving, reviewing, and deciding a claim.

(7) Upon receiving a claim in accordance with Subsection (3)(b), the county auditor shall:

(a) (i) investigate, examine, review, and inspect the claim; and

(ii) (A) recommend that the county executive approve or reject the claim; and

(B) endorse the recommendation;

(b) after completing the investigation, examination, and inspection, report the claim and the recommendation described in Subsection (7)(a)(ii) to the county executive; and

(c) keep a complete record of the claim, the claim recommendation, the reasons for the recommendation, and the county executive's final action as described in Subsection (8).

(8) After receiving the county or district attorney's recommendation in accordance with Subsection (3)(a)[~~, or~~]and the county auditor's recommendation in accordance with Subsection (3)(b), the county executive shall decide whether to approve or reject a claim.

(9) (a) The county auditor shall pay, subject to Subsection (9)(b), a claim approved by the county executive in accordance with Subsection (8) by:

(i) a warrant drawn by the auditor on the county treasurer in favor of the person entitled to payment; or

(ii) a county check or other payment mechanism as may be adopted in accordance with [~~Chapter 36, Uniform Fiscal Procedures Act for Counties~~]Chapter 63, Fiscal Authority and Processes.

(b) The county auditor may not pay a claim against the county unless:

(i) the auditor:

(A) receives from the county executive a certified list described in [~~Subsection 17-20-1.7(4)~~]Section 17-70-302; and

(B) has complied with the recommendation and other requirements of Subsection (7); and

(ii) the county executive has approved the claim in accordance with Subsection (8).

(10) Nothing in this section may be construed to modify the requirements of Section 63G-7-401.

[~~17-50-402~~]17-60-402 (Effective 11/06/25). Payment or rejection of claims.

(1) If the county executive finds that any claim presented to the county is not payable by the county or is not a proper county charge, the county executive shall reject the claim.

(2) (a) If the claim is found to be a proper county charge, but greater in amount than is justly due, the county executive may allow the claim in part and may order a warrant drawn for the portion allowed.

(b) If the claimant is unwilling to receive the amount in full payment, the county executive may again consider the claim.

(3) No claim may be paid if paying the claim would exceed the current unencumbered funds.

(1) (a) A claimant dissatisfied with the rejection of a claim or demand or with the amount allowed on an account may sue the county on the claim, demand, or account at any time within one year after the first rejection of the claim, demand, or account by the county executive[~~, but not afterward~~].

(b) A claim brought later than the time period described in Subsection (1)(a) is barred.

(2) If in [~~such~~]an action described in Subsection (1), judgment is recovered for more than the county executive allowed, costs shall be taxed against the county, but if no more is recovered than the county executive allowed, costs shall be taxed against the plaintiff.

(3) On presentation of a certified copy of a judgment against the county, the county executive shall allow and pay the same.

[~~17-50-404~~]17-60-404 (Effective 11/06/25). Judgments against county -- Payment.

(d) "Private employer" means a person who has one or more employees employed in the same business, or in or about the same establishment, under any contract of hire, express or implied, oral or written.

(e) "Insurance" is as defined in Section 31A-1-301.

(f) "Life insurance" is as defined in Section 31A-1-301.

(2) A county may not enact or enforce an ordinance that establishes, mandates, or requires a private employer to establish or offer an employee benefit, including:

(a) accident and health insurance;

(b) life insurance;

(c) sick leave; or

(d) family medical leave.

(3) Nothing in this section prohibits a county from considering an employee benefit described in Subsection (2) among other criteria when issuing a request for proposals.

[~~17-50-336~~]17-60-508 (Effective 11/06/25). Service animals permitted.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Retired service animal" means a dog that:

(i) at one time was a service animal for the current owner; and

(ii) no longer provides service animal services to the owner because of the dog's age or other factors limiting the dog's service capability.

(b) "Service animal" means the same as that term is defined in Section [~~18-8-65~~]10-8-65.

(2) If a county adopts a limit as to the number of dogs a person may keep, the county shall allow a person to keep a service animal, a retired service animal, or both in addition to that limit.

Section 30. Section 17-61-101 is enacted to read:

CHAPTER 61. County Boundaries

PART 1. General Provisions

17-61-101 (Effective 11/06/25). Definitions.

(1) "Annexing county" means the county to which a portion of territory of an adjoining county is annexed, or proposed to be annexed, as provided in Part 3, County Annexation.

(2) "Consolidating county" means the county to which another county is joined, or is proposed to be joined, by consolidation as provided in Part 2, Consolidation of Counties.

(3) "Independent surveyor" means the surveyor whose position is established within the Utah Geospatial Resource Center under Section 63A-16-505.

(4) "Initiating county" means the county from which a portion of territory is annexed, or is proposed to be annexed, to an adjoining county as provided in Part 3, County Annexation.

(5) "New county" means the county that is created through the process described in Part 4, Creating New Counties.

(6) "Originating county" means the county that is joined, or is proposed to be joined, to another county through consolidation as provided in Part 2, Consolidation of Counties.

(7) "Seceding county" means the county that loses, or is proposed to lose, territory to a new county through the process described in Part 4, Creating New Counties.

[~~17-50-105~~]17-61-102 (Effective 11/06/25). Counties of the state -- County boundaries maintained by lieutenant governor -- Process to determine disputed county boundaries.

[~~(1) As used in this section, "independent surveyor" means the surveyor whose position is established within the Utah Geospatial Resource Center under Subsection 63A-16-505(3).~~]

(1) The counties of the state are those whose geographical boundaries in the official county boundary records maintained by the office of the lieutenant governor, as described in Section 17E-2-301, and may be changed only in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(2) The office of the lieutenant governor shall:

(a) maintain the official county boundaries of the state; and

(b) update the official county boundaries upon the lieutenant governor's issuance, under Section 67-1a-6.5, of an applicable certificate.

~~(2)~~ (a) If a dispute or uncertainty arises as to the true location of a county boundary as described in the official records maintained by the office of the lieutenant governor, the county surveyors of each county whose boundary is the subject of the dispute or uncertainty may determine the true location.

(b) If agreement is reached under Subsection ~~(2)(a)~~(a), the county surveyors of each county whose boundary was the subject of the dispute or uncertainty shall provide notice, accompanied by a map, to the lieutenant governor showing the true location of the county boundary.

~~(3)~~ (a) If the county surveyors fail to agree on or otherwise fail to establish the true location of the county boundary, the county executive of either or both of the affected counties shall engage the services of [~~the~~]an independent surveyor.

(b) After being engaged under Subsection ~~(3)(a)~~(a), the independent surveyor shall notify the county surveyor of each county whose boundary is the subject of the dispute or uncertainty of the procedure the independent surveyor will use to determine the true location of the boundary.

(c) With the assistance of each county surveyor who chooses to participate, the independent surveyor shall determine permanently the true location of the boundary by marking surveys and erecting suitable monuments to designate the boundary.

(d) Each boundary established under this Subsection ~~(3)~~ shall be considered permanent until superseded by legislative enactment.

(e) The independent surveyor shall provide notice, accompanied by a map, to the lieutenant governor showing the true location of the county boundary.

~~(4)~~ Nothing in this section may be construed to give the county surveyors or independent surveyor any authority other than to erect suitable monuments to designate county boundaries as they are described in the official records maintained by the office of the lieutenant governor.

PART 2. Consolidation of Counties

[~~17-2-103~~]17-61-201 (Effective 11/06/25). Consolidation of counties -- Petition -- Certification of petition signatures -- Removal of signature -- Election -- Ballot.

(1) [~~If a majority of the legal voters of any county desire~~]A voter of a county who desires to have the county joined to and consolidated with an adjoining county[~~, they~~] may petition the county legislative body of the county in which [~~they reside~~]the voter resides and the county legislative body of the adjoining county, as described in this section.

(2) Each petition under Subsection (1) shall be:

(a) signed by a majority of the voters who reside in the originating county;

(b) signed by a majority of the voters who reside in the consolidating county; and

(c) presented to the county legislative body of the originating county and the county legislative body of the consolidating county before the first Monday in June of any year.

(3) (a) Within three business days after the day on which a county legislative body receives a petition under Subsection (1), the county legislative body shall provide the petition to the county clerk.

(b) Within 14 days after the day on which a county clerk receives a petition from the county legislative body under Subsection (3)(a), the county clerk shall:

(i) use the procedures described in Section 20A-1-1002 to determine whether the petition satisfies the requirements of Subsection ~~(1)~~ in regard to the voters of the county in which the county clerk is an officer;

(ii) certify on the petition whether each name is that of a registered voter in the county in which the county clerk is an officer; and

(iii) deliver the certified petition to the county legislative body.

(4) (a) [~~A voter~~]An individual who signs a petition under this section may have the [~~voter's~~]individual's signature removed from the petition by, no later than three business days after the day on which the county legislative body provides the petition to the county clerk, submitting to the county clerk a statement requesting that the [~~voter's~~]individual's signature be removed.

(b) A statement described in Subsection (4)(a) shall comply with the requirements described in Subsection 20A-1-1003(2).

(c) The county clerk shall use the procedures described in Subsection 20A-1-1003(3) to determine whether to remove an individual's signature from a petition after receiving a timely, valid statement requesting removal of the signature.

(5) If the county clerks of the originating county and consolidating county each determine that the petition meets the requirements of Subsection (2)(a), each county clerk shall ensure that the petition is submitted to the voters of the respective counties as described in Subsection (6).

~~(5)~~ (a) If a petition under Subsection (1) is presented in a year during which a regular general election is held, the county legislative body of the originating county and the county legislative body of the consolidating county shall cause the proposition to be submitted to the legal voters of [~~their~~]the respective counties at the next regular general election.

(b) If a petition under Subsection (1) is presented during a year in which there is no regular general election, the county legislative body of the originating county and the county legislative body of the consolidating county shall:

(i) call a special election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November following the presentation of the petition; and

(ii) cause the proposition to be submitted to the [~~legal~~]voters of the respective counties [~~on that day~~]during the special election.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this part, an election under this Subsection ~~(5)~~shall be held, the results canvassed, and returns made under the provisions of the general election laws of the state.

(d) The ballot language to be used at an election under this Subsection ~~(5)~~ shall be:

For combining ____ county with ____ county.

Against combining ____ county with ____ county.

In an election held under [~~Subsection 17-2-203(1)~~]Section 17-61-301, if it appears from the certified report that the lieutenant governor receives under Section 20A-4-304 that a majority of those voting in [~~each county~~]both the initiating county and the annexing county have voted in favor of the annexation, as required by Utah Constitution, Article XI, Section 3, the lieutenant governor shall certify the result of the vote to the governor.

[~~17-2-205~~]17-61-303 (Effective 11/06/25). Governor's proclamation -- Notice to lieutenant governor -- Recording requirements -- Effective date.

(1) Upon receipt of the lieutenant governor's certification under Section [~~17-2-204~~]17-61-302, the governor shall issue a proclamation, stating:

(a) the result of the vote in [~~each~~]the initiating county and the annexing county[~~,~~]; and

(b) that the annexation of the territory to the annexing county will take effect as provided in Subsection (3).

(2) The legislative body of the annexing county shall:

(a) within 30 days after the issuance of the governor's proclamation under Subsection (1), send to the lieutenant governor:

(i) a copy of a notice of an impending boundary action, as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5, that meets the requirements of Subsection 67-1a-6.5(3); and

(ii) a copy of an approved final local entity plat, as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5; and

(b) upon the lieutenant governor's issuance of a certificate of annexation under Section 67-1a-6.5, submit to the recorder of the annexing county:

(i) the original notice of an impending boundary action;

(ii) the original certificate of consolidation;

(iii) the original approved final local entity plat; and

(iv) a certified copy of the governor's proclamation under Subsection (1).

(3) (a) An annexation approved at an election under Section [~~17-2-203 ~~]17-61-301 takes effect on January 1 of the year immediately following the lieutenant governor's issuance of a certificate of annexation under Section 67-1a-6.5.

(b) (i) The effective date of a county annexation for purposes of assessing property within the annexing county is governed by Section 59-2-305.5.

(ii) Until the documents listed in Subsection (2)(b) are recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which the property is located, an annexing county may not:

(A) levy or collect a property tax on property in the annexing county that used to be in the initiating county;

(B) levy or collect an assessment on property in the annexing county that used to be in the initiating county; or

(C) charge or collect a fee for service provided to property within the annexing county that used to be in the initiating county.

(1) Upon the effective date of the annexation described in Section 17-61-303, all the area proposed to be annexed shall become part of the annexing county.

(2) (a) The legislative body of the initiating county shall:

(i) until the date of annexation, continue:

(A) to levy and collect ad valorem property tax and other revenues from or pertaining to the area; and

(B) except as otherwise agreed with the annexing county, to provide the same services to the area proposed to be annexed as the initiating county provided before the commencement of the annexation proceedings; and

(ii) after annexation, share pro rata with the annexing county the taxes and service charges or fees levied and collected by the initiating county during the year of the annexation if and to the extent that the annexing county provides, by itself or by contract, the same services for which the initiating county levied and collected the taxes and service charges or fees.

(b) The pro rata allocation of taxes under Subsection (2)(a)(ii) shall be based on the date of annexation, and the pro rata allocation of service charges and fees shall be based on the proportion of services related to the service charges and fees that remain to be rendered after annexation.

[~~17-2-207~~]17-61-305 (Effective 11/06/25). Effect on precincts and school districts -- Pending criminal proceedings.

(1) The precincts and school districts in the annexed territory:

(a) continue;

(b) become precincts and school districts in the annexing county; and

(c) remain as then organized until changed in the manner provided by law.

(2) The officers of those precincts and school districts hold their respective offices until the expiration of their terms.

(3) If a precinct or school district is divided because of a county annexation under this part:

(a) the precinct or school district is disorganized, and the property and territory embraced in the precinct or school district is subject to the action of the county legislative body of the respective counties; and

(b) any bonded or other indebtedness of a school district attaches to and becomes the obligation of the district that is created out of the territory that retains the buildings and other property of the original district.

(4) All criminal proceedings and actions pending in the annexed territory as of the consolidation effective date shall be prosecuted to judgment and execution in the annexed territory as part of the annexing county.

(5) All offenses committed in the annexed territory before annexation that have not been prosecuted may be prosecuted to judgment and execution in the annexed territory or any part of the annexing county.

[~~17-2-209~~]17-61-306 (Effective 11/06/25). Minor adjustments to county boundaries authorized -- Public hearing -- Joint resolution of county legislative bodies -- Notice and plat to lieutenant governor -- Recording requirements -- Effective date.

(1) (a) Counties sharing a common boundary may, in accordance with the provisions of Subsection (2) and Utah Constitution, Article XI, Section 3[~~, of the Utah Constitution~~] and for purposes of real property tax assessment and county record keeping, adjust all or part of the common boundary to move it, subject to Subsection (1)(b), a sufficient distance to reach to, and correspond with, the closest existing property boundary of record.

(b) A boundary adjustment under Subsection (1)(a) may not create a boundary line that divides or splits:

(i) an existing parcel;

(ii) an interest in the property; or

(iii) a claim of record in the office of recorder of either county sharing the common boundary.

(2) The legislative bodies of both counties desiring to adjust a common boundary in accordance with Subsection (1) shall:

(a) hold a joint public hearing on the proposed boundary adjustment;

(b) at least seven days before the public hearing described in Subsection (2)(a), provide written notice of the proposed adjustment to:

(i) each owner of real property whose property, or a portion of whose property, may change counties as the result of the proposed adjustment; and

(ii) any of the following whose territory, or a portion of whose territory, may change counties as the result of the proposed boundary adjustment, or whose boundary is aligned with any portion of the existing county boundary that is being proposed for adjustment:

(A) a city;

(B) a town;

(C) a school district;

(D) a special district governed by Title 17B, Limited Purpose Local Government Entities - Special Districts;

(E) a special service district governed by Title 17D, Chapter 1, Special Service District Act;

(F) an interlocal entity governed by Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act;

(G) a community reinvestment agency governed by Title 17C, Limited Purpose Local Government Entities - Community Reinvestment Agency Act;

(H) a local building authority governed by Title 17D, Chapter 2, Local Building Authority Act; and

(I) a conservation district governed by Title 17D, Chapter 3, Conservation District Act; and

(c) adopt a joint resolution approved by both county legislative bodies approving the proposed boundary adjustment.

(3) The legislative bodies of both counties adopting a joint resolution under Subsection (2)(c) shall:

(a) within 15 days after adopting the joint resolution, jointly send to the lieutenant governor:

(i) a copy of a notice of an impending boundary action, as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5, that meets the requirements of Subsection 67-1a-6.5(3); and

(ii) a copy of an approved final local entity plat, as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5; and

(b) upon the lieutenant governor's issuance of a certificate of boundary adjustment under Section 67-1a-6.5, jointly submit to the recorder of the county in which the property is located after the boundary adjustment:

(i) the original notice of an impending boundary action;

(ii) the original certificate of boundary adjustment;

(iii) the original approved final local entity plat; and

(iv) a certified copy of the joint resolution approving the boundary adjustment.

(4) (a) As used in this Subsection (4):

(i) "Affected area" means an area that, as a result of a boundary adjustment under this section, is moved from within the boundary of one county to within the boundary of another county.

(ii) "Receiving county" means a county whose boundary includes an affected area as a result of a boundary adjustment under this section.

(b) A boundary adjustment under this section takes effect on the date the lieutenant governor issues a certificate of boundary adjustment under Section 67-1a-6.5.

(c) (i) The effective date of a boundary adjustment for purposes of assessing property within an affected area is governed by Section 59-2-305.5.

(ii) Until the documents listed in Subsection (3)(b) are recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which the property is located, a receiving county may not:

(A) levy or collect a property tax on property within an affected area;

(B) levy or collect an assessment on property within an affected area; or

(C) charge or collect a fee for service provided to property within an affected area.

(5) Upon the effective date of a boundary adjustment under this section:

(a) all territory designated to be adjusted into another county becomes the territory of the other county; and

(b) the provisions of [~~Sections 17-2-207 and 17-2-208~~]Section 17-61-305 apply in the same manner as with an annexation under this part.

PART 4. Creating New Counties

[~~17-3-1~~]17-61-401 (Effective 11/06/25). Creating a new county -- Petition -- Certification of petition signatures -- Removal of signature -- Election -- Ballots.

(1) Whenever[~~ any number of the registered voters of any portion of any county desire~~] a voter desires to have the territory within which [~~they reside~~]the voter resides created into a new county[~~, they~~], the voter may file a petition for the creation of a new county with the county legislative body of the seceding county in which [~~they reside~~]the voter resides as described in this section.

(2) (a) The petition described in Subsection (1) shall:

(i) propose the name and define the boundaries of the new county; and

(ii) be signed:

(A) by at least one-fourth of the [~~registered~~]voters [~~as shown by the registration list of the last preceding general election,~~]residing in [~~that~~]the portion of the seceding county proposed to be created into a new county[~~,~~]; and

(B) by [~~not~~]no less than one-fourth of the [~~registered~~]voters residing in the remaining portion of the seceding county.

(b) If a petition proposes to take territory from more than one seceding county, the requirements of Subsection (2)(a)(ii) apply to each seceding county affected by the petition.

(3) [~~The petition shall be presented~~]A voter shall file a petition for the creation of a new county on or before the first Monday in May of any year[~~, and shall propose the name and define the boundaries of the new county.~~]with the county legislative body of the seceding county.

(4) (a) Within three business days after the day on which a county legislative body receives a petition[~~ under Subsection (1)~~], the county legislative body shall provide the petition to the county clerk.

(b) Within 14 days after the day on which a county clerk receives a petition from the county legislative body under Subsection (4)(a), the county clerk shall:

(i) use the procedures described in Section 20A-1-1002 to determine whether the petition satisfies the requirements of Subsection (2);

(ii) certify on the petition whether each name is that of a registered voter in the seceding county; and

(iii) deliver the certified petition to the county legislative body.

(5) (a) [~~A voter~~]An individual who signs a petition under this section may have the [~~voter's~~]individual's signature removed from the petition by, no later than three business days after the day on which the county legislative body provides the petition to the county clerk, submitting to the county clerk a statement requesting that the [~~voter's~~]individual's signature be removed.

(b) A statement described in Subsection (5)(a) shall comply with the requirements described in Subsection 20A-1-1003(2).

(c) The county clerk shall use the procedures described in Subsection 20A-1-1003(3) to determine whether to remove an individual's signature from a petition after receiving a timely, valid statement requesting removal of the signature.

(6) The seceding county legislative body shall cause the proposition to be submitted to the [~~legal~~]voters residing in the seceding county at a special election to be held according to the dates established in Section 20A-1-204, first causing 30 days' notice of the election to be given in the manner provided by law for giving notice of general elections.

(7) The county clerk shall ensure that the special election [~~shall be~~]is held, the result canvassed, and returns made under the provisions of the general election laws.

(8) The form of ballot to be used at [~~such~~]the special election shall be:

(1) (a) If a petition for the creation of a new county impacts only one seceding county, the proposition submitted to voters under Section 17-61-401 shall be approved by a majority vote of those voters who reside:

(i) in the portion of the seceding county proposed as a new county; and

(ii) in the remaining portion of the seceding county.

(b) If a petition for the creation of a new county impacts more than one seceding county, the proposition submitted to voters under Section 17-61-401 shall be approved by a majority of those voters who reside:

(i) in each portion of each seceding county proposed to be part of a new county; and

(ii) in each remaining portion of each seceding county.

(2) If it appears that any proposition submitted to the [~~electors~~]voters as provided in [~~this chapter~~]Section 17-61-401 has been[~~carried in the affirmative by a majority vote of the qualified electors residing in that portion of the county proposed as a new county, and also by a majority vote of the qualified electors residing in the remaining portion of that county~~] approved as described in Subsection (1):

(a) the lieutenant governor, upon receiving the certified report under Section 20A-4-304, shall certify the result to the governor; and

(b) upon receiving the results from the lieutenant governor under Subsection (1)(a), the governor shall issue a proclamation, stating:

(i) the result of the vote in each division of the county;

(ii) the name and boundaries of the new county;

(iii) the boundaries of [~~the original~~]a seceding county as changed by the creation of the new county;

(iv) that the creation of the new county will take effect on the first Monday in January following the lieutenant governor's issuance of a certificate of creation under Section 67-1a-6.5;

(v) the name proposed in the petition as the name of the new county; and

(vi) the judicial district to which the new county belongs.

~~(2)~~ The legislative body of the county from which the greatest portion of the new county was taken shall:

(a) within 30 days after the issuance of the governor's proclamation under Subsection (1), send to the lieutenant governor:

(i) a copy of a notice of an impending boundary action, as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5, that meets the requirements of Subsection 67-1a-6.5(3); and

(ii) a copy of an approved final local entity plat, as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5; and

(b) upon the lieutenant governor's issuance of a certificate of creation under Section 67-1a-6.5, submit to the recorder of the new county:

(i) the original notice of an impending boundary action;

(ii) the original certificate of creation;

(iii) the original approved final local entity plat; and

(iv) a certified copy of the governor's proclamation under Subsection (1).

~~(3)~~ (a) The new county that is the subject of the lieutenant governor's certificate of creation under Section 67-1a-6.5 is a county of the state from and after [~~12 noon of the first Monday in~~]January 1 following the issuance of the lieutenant governor's certificate of creation.

(b) (i) The effective date of the creation of a new county for purposes of assessing property within the county is governed by Section 59-2-305.5.

(ii) Until the documents listed in Subsection ~~(3)(b)~~(b) are recorded in the office of the recorder of the new county, the new county may not:

(A) levy or collect a property tax on property in the county;

(B) levy or collect an assessment on property in the county; or

(C) charge or collect a fee for service provided to property within the county.

CHAPTER 62. Forms of County Government

PART 1. General Provisions

[~~17-52a-102~~]17-62-101 (Effective 11/06/25). Definitions.

(1) "Optional plan" means a plan establishing an alternate form of government for a county as provided in Section [~~17-52a-404~~]17-62-403.

(2) "Study committee" means the committee that has five members appointed and charged with the duties as provided in Section [~~17-52a-403~~]17-62-402.

Section 50. Section 17-62-102, which is renumbered from Section 17-52a-103 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-52a-103~~]17-62-102 (Effective 11/06/25) (Partially Repealed 01/01/28). Forms of county government -- County commission form required unless another is adopted -- Restrictions on form of county government.

(1) In accordance with Utah Constitution, Article XI, Section 4, this chapter provides optional forms of county government.

(2) Subject to Subsection ~~(2)~~, each county shall operate under one of the following forms of county government:

(a) the county commission form under Section [~~17-52a-201~~]17-62-201;

(b) the expanded county commission form under Section [~~17-52a-202~~]17-62-202;

(c) the county executive and council form under Section [~~17-52a-203~~]17-62-203; or

(d) the council-manager form under Section [~~17-52a-204~~]17-62-204.

~~(2)~~ Unless a county adopts another form of government as provided in this chapter, the county shall operate under the county commission form of government under Section [~~17-52a-201~~]17-62-201.

~~(3)~~ (a) In a county that operates under a form of government that is not described in Subsection ~~(2)~~:

(i) the county's legislative body shall, before July 1, 2018, initiate the process under Section [~~17-52a-302~~]17-62-302 of changing the county's form of government;

(ii) the county shall hold a special election on November 6, 2018;

(iii) if the voters approve the appointment of a study committee at the special election described in Subsection ~~(3)(a)(ii)~~(a)(ii):

(A) the study committee may not recommend under Section [~~17-52a-403~~]17-62-402 that the county retain the county's current form of government; and

(B) the county shall hold an election described in Section [~~17-52a-501~~]17-62-501before December 31, 2020, on an optional plan that the study committee creates; and

(iv) the registered voters of the county may not repeal an optional plan under Section [~~17-52a-505~~]17-62-505 that is adopted at an election described in Subsection ~~(3)(a)(iii)(B)~~(a)(iii)(B).

(b) If the voters of a county described in Subsection ~~(3)(a)~~(a) do not approve a change in the county's form of government at an election described in Subsection ~~(3)(a)(iii)(B)~~(a)(iii)(B) before December 31, 2020:

(i) the county shall operate under the county commission form of government under Section [~~17-52a-201~~]17-62-201; and

(ii) the county shall transition to the form of government described in Subsection ~~(3)(b)(i)~~(b)(i) in the same manner as if the voters of the county had approved the change in the form of government described in Subsection ~~(3)(b)(i)~~(b)(i)in the applicable election described in Subsection ~~(3)(b)~~(b).

~~(4)~~ In a county of the fifth or sixth class, if the county legislative body under Section [~~17-52a-302~~]17-62-302 or the registered voters under Section [~~17-52a-303~~]17-62-303, after March 24, 2020, initiate the process to adopt an optional plan, the proposed optional plan may only propose a form of government authorized under Section [~~17-52a-405~~]17-62-404.

PART 2. Permissible Forms of County Government

[~~17-52a-201~~]17-62-201 (Effective 11/06/25). County commission form of government -- Commission member elections.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Midterm vacancy" means a county commission position that is being filled at an election for less than the position's full term as established in:

(i) Subsection (4)(a); or

(ii) a county's optional plan under [~~Subsection 17-52a-404(5)(b)~~]Section 17-62-403.

(b) "Open position" means a county commission position that is being filled at a regular general election for the position's full term as established in:

(i) Subsection (4)(a); or

(ii) a county's optional plan under [~~Subsection 17-52a-404(5)(b)~~]Section 17-62-403.

(c) "Opt-in county" means a county that has, in accordance with Subsection (6)(a), chosen to conduct county commissioner elections in accordance with Subsection (6).

(2) A county commission consisting of three members shall govern each county operating under the county commission form of government.

(3) A county commission under a county commission form of government is both the county legislative body and the county executive and has the powers, duties, and functions of a county legislative body under [~~Chapter 53, Part 2, County Legislative Body~~]Chapter 64, County Legislative Body, and the powers, duties, and functions of a county executive under [~~Chapter 53, Part 3, County Executive~~]Chapter 65, County Executive.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in an optional plan adopted under this chapter:

(a) the term of office of each county commission member is four years;

(b) the terms of county commission members shall be staggered so that two members are elected at a regular general election date that alternates with the regular general election date of the other member; and

(c) each county commission member shall be elected:

(i) at large, unless otherwise required by court order; and

(ii) subject to the provisions of this section, in accordance with Title 20A, Election Code.

(5) Except as provided in Subsection (6):

(a) if two county commission positions are vacant for an election, the positions shall be designated "county commission seat A" and "county commission seat B";

(b) each candidate who files a declaration of candidacy when two positions are vacant shall designate on the declaration of candidacy form whether the candidate is a candidate for seat A or seat B; and

(c) no person may file a declaration of candidacy for, be a candidate for, or be elected to two county commission positions in the same election.

(6) (a) A county of the first or second class may, through an optional plan as described in Subsection [~~17-52a-404(5)~~]17-62-403(5) or by ordinance, choose to conduct county commissioner elections in accordance with this Subsection (6).

(b) When issuing the notice of election required by Subsection 20A-5-101(2), the clerk of an opt-in county shall, if there is at least one open position and at least one midterm vacancy, designate:

(i) each open position as "open position"; and

(ii) each midterm vacancy as "midterm vacancy."

(c) An individual who files a declaration of candidacy for the office of county commissioner in an opt-in county:

(i) if there is more than one open position, is not required to indicate which open position the individual is running for;

(ii) if there is at least one open position and at least one midterm vacancy, shall designate on the declaration of candidacy whether the individual is filing for an open position or a midterm vacancy; and

(iii) may not file a declaration of candidacy for an open position and a midterm vacancy in the same election.

(d) If there is an open position and a midterm vacancy being voted upon in the same election in an opt-in county, the county clerk shall indicate on the ballot for the election which positions are open positions and which positions are midterm vacancies.

(e) In an opt-in county:

(i) the candidates for open positions, in a number equal to the number of open positions, who receive the highest number of votes are:

(A) for the purposes of a regular primary election, nominated by the candidates' party for the open positions; and

(B) for the purposes of a regular general election, elected to fill the open positions; and

(ii) the candidates for midterm vacancies, in a number equal to the number of midterm vacancies, who receive the highest number of votes are:

(A) for the purposes of a regular primary election, nominated by the candidates' party for the midterm vacancies; and

(B) for the purposes of a regular general election, elected to fill the midterm vacancies.

[~~17-52a-202~~]17-62-202 (Effective 11/06/25). Expanded county commission form of government -- Commission member elections.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Midterm vacancy" means the same as that term is defined in Section [~~17-52a-201~~]17-62-201.

(b) "Open position" means the same as that term is defined in Section [~~17-52a-201~~]17-62-201.

(c) "Opt-in county" means a county that has, in accordance with Subsection (6)(a), chosen to conduct county commissioner elections in accordance with Subsection (6).

(2) A county commission consisting of five or seven members shall govern each county operating under an expanded county commission form of government.

(3) A county commission under the expanded county commission form of government is both the county legislative body and the county executive and has the powers, duties, and functions of a county legislative body under [~~Chapter 53, Part 2, County Legislative Body~~]Chapter 64, County Legislative Body, and the powers, duties, and functions of a county executive under [~~Chapter 53, Part 3, County Executive~~]Chapter 65, County Executive.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in an optional plan adopted under this chapter:

(a) the term of office of each county commission member is four years;

(b) the terms of county commission members shall be staggered so that approximately half the members are elected at alternating regular general election dates; and

(c) each county commission member shall be elected:

(i) at large, unless otherwise required by court order; and

(ii) subject to the provisions of this section, in accordance with Title 20A, Election Code.

(5) Except as provided in Subsection (6):

(a) if multiple at-large county commission positions are vacant for an election, the positions shall be designated "county commission seat A," "county commission seat B," and so on as necessary for the number of vacant positions;

(b) each candidate who files a declaration of candidacy when multiple positions are vacant shall designate the letter of the county commission seat for which the candidate is a candidate; and

(c) no person may file a declaration of candidacy for, be a candidate for, or be elected to two county commission positions in the same election.

(6) (a) A county of the first or second class may, through an optional plan as described in Subsection [~~17-52a-404(5)~~]17-62-403(5) or by ordinance, choose to conduct county commissioner elections in accordance with this Subsection (6).

(b) When issuing the notice of election required by Subsection 20A-5-101(2), the clerk of an opt-in county shall, if there is at least one open position and at least one midterm vacancy, designate:

(i) each open position as "open position"; and

(ii) each midterm vacancy as "midterm vacancy."

(c) An individual who files a declaration of candidacy for the office of county commissioner in an opt-in county:

(i) if there is more than one open position, is not required to indicate which open position the individual is running for;

(ii) if there is at least one open position and at least one midterm vacancy, shall designate on the declaration of candidacy whether the individual is filing for an open position or a midterm vacancy; and

(iii) may not file a declaration of candidacy for an open position and a midterm vacancy in the same election.

(d) If there is an open position and a midterm vacancy being voted upon in the same election in an opt-in county, the county clerk shall indicate on the ballot for the election which positions are open positions and which positions are midterm vacancies.

(e) In an opt-in county:

(i) the candidates for open positions, in a number equal to the number of open positions, who receive the highest number of votes are:

(A) for the purposes of a regular primary election, nominated by the candidates' party for the open positions; and

(B) for the purposes of a regular general election, elected to fill the open positions; and

(ii) the candidates for midterm vacancies, in a number equal to the number of midterm vacancies, who receive the highest number of votes are:

(A) for the purposes of a regular primary election, nominated by the candidates' party for the midterm vacancies; and

(B) for the purposes of a regular general election, elected to fill the midterm vacancies.

[~~17-52a-203~~]17-62-203 (Effective 11/06/25). County executive-council form of county government.

(1) (a) The following shall govern a county operating under the form of government known as the "county executive-council" form:

(i) an elected county council;

(ii) an elected county executive; and

(iii) other officers and employees authorized by law.

(b) The optional plan shall provide for the qualifications, time, and manner of election, term of office and compensation of the county executive.

(2) The county executive is the chief executive officer or body of the county.

(3) In the county executive-council form of county government:

(a) the county council is the county legislative body and has the powers, duties, and functions of a county legislative body under [~~Chapter 53, Part 2, County Legislative Body~~]Chapter 64, County Legislative Body; and

(b) the county executive has the powers, duties, and functions of a county executive under [~~Chapter 53, Part 3, County Executive~~]Chapter 65, County Executive.

(4) References in any statute [~~or state rule~~]to the "governing body" or the "board of county commissioners" of the county, in the county executive-council form of county government, means:

(a) the county council, with respect to legislative functions, duties, and powers; and

(b) the county executive, with respect to executive functions, duties, and powers.

[~~17-52a-204~~]17-62-204 (Effective 11/06/25). Council-manager form of county government -- Establishment of voting districts.

(1) As used in this section, "district" means a geographic area within the boundaries of a county with a council-manager form of government that is represented only by one council member who is a resident of the area.

(2) (a) The following shall govern a county operating under the form of government known as the "council-manager" form:

(i) an elected county council;

(ii) a county manager appointed by the council; and

(iii) other officers and employees authorized by law.

(b) The optional plan shall provide for the qualifications, time and manner of appointment subject to Subsections (7) and (8), term of office, compensation, and removal of the county manager.

(3) The county manager is the administrative head of the county government and has the powers, functions, and duties of a county executive, except:

(a) as the county legislative body otherwise provides by ordinance; and

(b) that the county manager may not veto any ordinances enacted by the council.

(4) (a) An individual member of the council may not directly or indirectly, by suggestion or otherwise:

(i) attempt to influence or coerce the manager in:

(A) making any appointment;

(B) removing any officer or employee; or

(C) purchasing supplies;

(ii) attempt to exact any promise relative to any appointment from any candidate for manager; or

(iii) discuss directly or indirectly with the manager the matter of specific appointments to any county office or employment.

(b) (i) A member of the county council who violates the provisions of this Subsection (4) shall forfeit the member's county council office.

(ii) Nothing in this section shall be construed, however, as prohibiting the council from fully and freely discussing with or suggesting to the manager anything pertaining to county affairs or the interests of the county.

(iii) The county manager may not take part in securing, or contributing any money toward, the nomination or election of any candidate for a county office.

(iv) The optional plan may provide procedures for implementing this Subsection (4).

(5) In the council-manager form of county government:

(a) the legislative powers of the county are vested in the county council; and

(b) the executive powers of the county are vested in the county manager.

(6) A reference in statute or state rule to the "governing body" or the "board of county commissioners" of the county, in the council-manager form of county government, means:

(a) the county council, with respect to legislative functions, duties, and powers; and

(b) the county manager, with respect to executive functions, duties, and powers.

(7) (a) As used in this Subsection (7), "interim vacancy period" means the period of time that:

(i) begins on the day on which a general election described in Section [~~17-16-6~~]17-66-202 is held to elect a council member; and

(ii) ends on the day on which the council member-elect begins the council member's term.

(b) (i) The county council may not appoint a county manager during an interim vacancy period.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (7)(b)(i):

(A) the county council may appoint an interim county manager during an interim vacancy period; and

(B) the interim county manager's term shall expire once a new county manager is appointed by the new administration after the interim vacancy period has ended.

(c) Subsection (7)(b) does not apply if all the county council members who held office on the day of the county general election whose term of office was vacant for the election are re-elected to the council for the following term.

(8) A county council that appoints a county manager in accordance with this section may not enter into an employment contract that contains an automatic renewal provision with the county manager.

(9) A county of the third through sixth class with a council-manager form of government shall ensure that each council member:

(a) represents a single district, rather than being elected at large;

(b) is elected by a majority vote of voters residing within the member's district; and

(c) is a resident of the district the council member represents.

(10) (a) For a county with a council-manager form of government that, on May 7, 2025, does not meet the requirements described in Subsection (9), the county council shall, on or before June 1, 2025:

(i) in accordance with Subsection (10)(b), establish a county districting commission; and

(ii) in accordance with Subsection (10)(c)(i), approve a map of the county council districts.

(b) (i) A county council shall comply with Subsection (10)(a)(i) by establishing a county districting commission, consisting of:

(A) one representative from each municipality in the county, who is either the municipality's mayor or a resident whom the mayor appoints;

(B) one representative who resides in an unincorporated area of the county and is appointed by the county council; and

(C) the county clerk, or the county clerk's designee, as a non-voting member.

(ii) The county districting commission shall divide the county into districts by:

(A) relying on the total population enumeration of the most recent decennial census;

(B) ensuring that between districts, there is less than 10% total population deviation;

(C) ensuring that each district is contiguous and reasonably compact;

(D) ensuring that district boundaries do not divide existing voter precincts; and

(E) complying with the United States Constitution.

(iii) The county districting commission shall submit a proposed map of district boundaries to the county council for approval for the initial districting process, on or before October 1, 2025.

(iv) The county manager shall provide for the county districting commission:

(A) county staff for assistance; and

(B) suitable meeting facilities.

(c) After receiving the district map described in Subsection (10)(b)(iii), the county council shall, within 30 calendar days after the day on which the county council receives the map, hold a public hearing, at which:

(i) the county council shall approve the district map if the map complies with the requirements described in Subsection (10)(b)(ii); and

(ii) the county clerk shall designate, by lot, a current county council member to represent each district for the remainder of the council member's term of office, regardless of whether the council member is a resident of that district.

(11) After the adoption of a district map under Subsection (10)(c)(i), at an election in which a county council position is subject to an election:

(a) each candidate for that position [~~must~~]shall reside in the district that the position represents; and

(b) the council member for the district shall be elected by a majority vote of voters residing in the district.

(12) (a) After creating districts and adopting a district map under Subsections (10) and (11), a county described in Subsection (10) may not redistrict until an official decennial census publicly releases population data for the county, unless otherwise required by law.

(b) Each time a county described in Subsection (10)(a) conducts redistricting for the county council districts, the county council shall redistrict by:

(i) adjusting districts in accordance with Subsections (10)(b)(ii)(A), (B), (C), and (E); and

(ii) after drawing a proposed map of district boundaries, holding a public hearing, at which the county council shall approve the map as proposed, or revise the map and approve the revised map.

PART 3. Procedure for Initiating Optional Plan

[~~17-52a-301~~]17-62-301 (Effective 11/06/25). Procedure for initiating adoption of optional plan -- Limitations -- Pending proceedings.

(1) An optional plan proposing an alternate form of government for a county may be adopted as provided in this chapter.

(2) The process to adopt an optional plan establishing an alternate form of county government may be initiated by:

(a) the county legislative body as provided in Section [~~17-52a-302~~]17-62-302; or

(b) registered voters of the county as provided in Section [~~17-52a-303~~]17-62-303.

(3) (a) If the process to adopt an optional plan is initiated under Laws of Utah 1973, Chapter 26, Section 3, 4, or 5, or Section [~~17-52a-302~~]17-62-302 or [~~17-52a-303~~]17-62-303, the county legislative body may not initiate the process again under Section [~~17-52a-302~~]17-62-302, and registered voters may not initiate the process again under Section [~~17-52a-303~~]17-62-303, until:

(i) the first initiated process concludes with an election under Section [~~17-52a-501~~]17-62-501;

(ii) the first initiated process concludes under Subsection [~~17-52a-403(7)~~]17-62-402(7) because the study committee recommended that the county's form of government not change; or

(iii) the first initiated process concludes because registered voters fail to submit a sufficient number of valid signatures for a petition before the deadline described in Subsection [~~17-52a-303(2)(c)~~]17-62-303(2)(c).

(b) A county legislative body may not initiate the process to adopt an optional plan under Section [~~17-52a-302~~]17-62-302 within four years of an election at which voters first elect elected county officials in accordance with Section [~~17-52a-503~~]17-62-503 and as specified in an optional plan proposed as a result of a process initiated by the county legislative body.

(c) Registered voters of a county may not initiate the process to adopt an optional plan under Section [~~17-52a-303~~]17-62-303 within four years of an election at which voters first elect elected county officials in accordance with Section [~~17-52a-503~~]17-62-503 and as specified in an optional plan proposed as a result of a process initiated by registered voters.

[~~17-52a-302~~]17-62-302 (Effective 11/06/25). County legislative body initiation of adoption of optional plan -- Procedure.

(1) (a) A county legislative body may only initiate the process of adopting an optional plan by:

(i) approving a motion to establish a study committee to study changing the form of government; and

(ii) adopting a resolution to submit to the voters the question of whether the county should adopt an optional plan proposed by the study committee described in Subsection (1)(a)(i).

(b) The county legislative body may not submit to the voters an optional plan unless the optional plan complies with the requirements of Sections [~~17-52a-404~~]17-62-403 and [~~17-52a-405~~]17-62-404.

(2) (a) No later than 10 days after the day on which the county legislative body approves a motion as described in Subsection (1)(a)(i), the county legislative body shall notify the county executive of the county legislative body's approval to establish a study committee.

(b) No later than 10 days after the day on which the county legislative body adopts a resolution as described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii), the legislative body shall send a copy of the optional plan that the legislative body recommends to:

(i) the county clerk; and

(ii) the county attorney for review in accordance with Section [~~17-52a-406~~]17-62-405.

[~~17-52a-303~~]17-62-303 (Effective 11/06/25). Registered voter initiation of adoption of optional plan -- Certification of petition signatures -- Removal of signature -- Procedure.

(1) (a) Registered voters of a county may initiate the process of adopting an optional plan by filing with the county clerk a notice of intent to gather signatures for a petition:

(i) for the establishment of a study committee described in Section [~~17-52a-403~~]17-62-402; or

(ii) to adopt an optional plan that:

(A) accompanies the petition during the signature gathering process and accompanies the petition in the submission to the county clerk under Subsection (2)(b); and

(B) complies with the requirements described in Sections [~~17-52a-404~~]17-62-403 and [~~17-52a-405~~]17-62-404.

(b) A notice of intent described in Subsection (1)(a) shall:

(i) designate five sponsors for the petition;

(ii) designate a contact sponsor to serve as the primary contact for the petition sponsors;

(iii) list the mailing address and telephone number of each of the sponsors; and

(iv) be signed by each of the petition sponsors.

(c) Registered voters of a county may not file a notice of intent to gather signatures in bad faith.

(2) (a) The sponsors of a petition may circulate the petition after filing a notice of intent to gather signatures under Subsection (1).

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b)(ii), the petition is valid if the petition contains the number of legal signatures required under Subsection 20A-7-501(2).

(ii) For a county of the fifth or sixth class, the petition is valid if the petition contains at least the number of legal signatures equal to 30% of the number of active voters, as defined in Section 20A-7-501, in the county.

(iii) The county clerk may not count a signature that was collected for the petition before the petition sponsors filed a notice of intent under Subsection (1)(a).

(iv) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an individual may not sign a petition circulated under this section by electronic signature as defined in Section 20A-1-202.

(c) Except as provided in Subsection (4)(b)(ii), the sponsors of the petition shall submit the completed petition and any amended or supplemental petition described in Subsection (4) with the county clerk not more than 180 days after the day on which the sponsors file the notice described in Subsection (1).

(d) (i) Within 30 days after the day on which the sponsors submit a petition, the sponsors shall submit financial disclosures to the county clerk that include:

(A) a list of each contribution received by the sponsors and the name of the donor; and

(B) a list of each expenditure for purposes of furthering or sponsoring the petition and the recipient of each expenditure.

(ii) The county clerk shall publish the financial disclosures described in Subsection (2)(d)(i).

(iii) All sponsors of a petition shall date and sign each list described in Subsection (2)(d)(i).

(3) Within 30 days after the day on which the sponsors submit a petition under Subsection (2)(c) or an amended or supplemental petition under Subsection (4), the county clerk shall:

(a) (i) use the procedures described in Section 20A-1-1002 to determine whether a signer is a registered voter; and

(ii) determine whether the petition or amended or supplemental petition has been signed by the required number of registered voters;

(b) (i) if the petition was signed by a sufficient number of registered voters:

(A) certify the petition;

(B) deliver the petition to the county legislative body and county executive; and

(C) notify the contact sponsor in writing of the certification; or

(ii) if the petition was not signed by a sufficient number of registered voters:

(A) reject the petition; and

(B) notify the county legislative body and the contact sponsor in writing of the rejection and the reasons for the rejection; and

(c) for a petition described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii), no later than 10 days after the day on which the county clerk certifies the petition under Subsection (3)(b)(i), the county clerk shall send a copy of the optional plan that accompanied the petition to the county attorney for review in accordance with Section [~~17-52a-406~~]17-62-405.

(4) The sponsors of a petition circulated under this section may submit supplemental signatures for the petition:

(a) if the county clerk rejects the petition under Subsection (3)(b)(ii); and

(b) before the earlier of:

(i) the deadline described in Subsection (2)(c); or

(ii) 20 days after the day on which the county clerk rejects the petition under Subsection (3)(b)(ii).

(5) With the unanimous approval of petition sponsors, a petition filed under this section may be withdrawn at any time within 90 days after the day on which the county clerk certifies the petition under Subsection (3)(b)(i) and no later than 45 days before an election under Section [~~17-52a-501~~]17-62-501 if the petition included a notification to petition signers, in conspicuous language and in a conspicuous location, that the petition sponsors are authorized to withdraw the petition.

(6) (a) A voter who signs a petition under this section may have the voter's signature removed from the petition by, no later than three business days after the day on which the sponsors submit the petition to the county clerk, submitting to the county clerk a statement requesting that the voter's signature be removed.

(b) A statement described in Subsection (6)(a) shall comply with the requirements described in Subsection 20A-1-1003(2).

(c) The county clerk shall use the procedures described in Subsection 20A-1-1003(3) to determine whether to remove an individual's signature from a petition after receiving a timely, valid statement requesting removal of the signature.

The county legislative body shall hold four public hearings on a proposed optional plan within 45 days after the day on which:

(1) the county legislative body adopts a resolution that proposes an optional plan under Subsection [~~17-52a-302(1)(a)(ii)~~]17-62-302(1)(a)(ii); or

(2) the county clerk certifies, in accordance with Subsection [~~17-52a-303(3)~~]17-62-303(3), a petition that proposes an optional plan under Subsection [~~17-52a-303(1)(a)(ii)~~]17-62-303(1)(a)(ii).

PART 4. Study Committee and Optional Plan

[~~17-52a-402~~]17-62-401 (Effective 11/06/25). Convening of first meeting of study committee.

(1) The county executive shall convene the first meeting of the study committee no later than 10 days after the day on which the county executive receives notification:

(a) of the establishment of a study committee by the county legislative body as described in Section [~~17-52a-302~~]17-62-302; or

(b) of a certified petition from the county clerk as described in Section [~~17-52a-303~~]17-62-303.

(2) (a) At the study committee's first meeting, the study committee shall select a chair from among the members of the study committee.

(b) The chair of the study committee is responsible for convening each future meeting of the study committee.

[~~17-52a-403~~]17-62-402 (Effective 11/06/25). Study committee -- Members -- Powers and duties -- Proposed plan and report -- Services provided by county.

(1) (a) As used in this Subsection (1), "council of governments" means the same as that term is defined in Section 17B-2a-802.

(b) A study committee consists of:

(i) for a study committee established by the county legislative body under Section [~~17-52a-302~~]17-62-302:

(A) two members appointed by the county legislative body, who each may be either a member of the county legislative body or an individual appointed by the county legislative body; and

(B) three members appointed by the county's council of governments, who each may be either a member of the county's council of governments or an individual appointed by the county's council of governments; or

(ii) for a study committee established by the registered voters through a petition under Section [~~17-52a-303~~]17-62-303:

(A) one member appointed by the sponsors of the petition; and

(B) four members appointed by the county's council of governments.

(c) A member of a study committee:

(i) may not receive compensation for service on the study committee;

(ii) may not hold an elected county office or have filed a current declaration of candidacy for an elected county office; and

(iii) shall be a registered voter.

(d) The county legislative body shall reimburse each member of a study committee for necessary expenses incurred in performing the member's duties on the study committee.

(2) A study committee may:

(a) [~~adopt~~]make rules for the study committee's own organization and procedure and to fill a vacancy in its membership;

(b) establish advisory boards or committees and include on the advisory boards or committees persons who are not members of the study committee; and

(c) request the assistance and advice of any officers or employees of any agency of state or local government.

(3) (a) A study committee shall:

(i) study the form of government within the county and compare it with other forms available under this chapter;

(ii) determine whether the administration of local government in the county could be strengthened, made more clearly responsive or accountable to the people, or significantly improved in the interest of economy and efficiency by a change in the form of county government;

(iii) hold public hearings and community forums and other means the committee considers appropriate to disseminate information and stimulate public discussion of the committee's purposes, progress, and conclusions; and

(iv) file a written report of the study committee's findings and recommendations with the county executive, the county legislative body, and the county clerk no later than one year after the convening of the study committee's first meeting under Section [~~17-52a-402~~]17-62-401.

(b) Within 10 days after the day on which the study committee submits the study committee's report under Subsection (3)(a)(iv), if the report recommends a change in the form of county government, the county clerk shall send to the county attorney a copy of the optional plan recommended in the report for review in accordance with Section [~~17-52a-406~~]17-62-405.

(4) Each study committee report under Subsection (3)(a)(iv) shall include:

(a) the study committee's recommendation as to whether the form of county government should be changed to another form authorized under this chapter;

(b) if the study committee recommends changing the form of government, a complete detailed draft of a proposed optional plan to change the form of county government, including all necessary implementing provisions; and

(c) any additional recommendations the study committee considers appropriate to improve the efficiency and economy of the administration of local government within the county.

(5) (a) If the study committee's report recommends a change in the form of county government, the study committee may conduct additional public hearings after filing the report under Subsection (3)(a)(iv) and, following the hearings and subject to Subsection (5)(b), alter the report or proposed optional plan.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (5)(a), the study committee may not make an alteration to the report or proposed optional plan:

(i) that would recommend the adoption of an optional form different from that recommended in the original report; or

(ii) within the 160-day period before the election under Section [~~17-52a-501~~]17-62-501.

(6) Each meeting that the study committee holds shall be open to the public.

(7) If the study committee's report does not recommend a change in the form of county government, the report is final, the study committee is dissolved, and the process to change the county's form of government is concluded.

(8) The county legislative body shall provide for the study committee:

(a) suitable meeting facilities;

(b) necessary secretarial services;

(c) necessary printing and photocopying services;

(d) necessary clerical and staff assistance; and

(e) adequate funds for the employment of independent legal counsel and professional consultants that the study committee reasonably determines to be necessary to help the study committee fulfill its duties.

(9) The county legislative body may not interfere with the work of the study committee.

(1) The study committee or the sponsors of a petition described in Subsection [~~17-52a-303(1)(a)(ii)~~]17-62-303(1)(a)(ii) shall ensure that an optional plan the committee or registered voters propose under this chapter, respectively:

(a) proposes the adoption of one of the forms of county government authorized in Subsection [~~17-52a-405(1)(a)~~]17-62-404(1)(a);

(b) contains detailed provisions relating to the transition from the existing form of county government to the form proposed in the optional plan, including provisions relating to the:

(i) election or appointment of officers specified in the optional plan for the new form of county government;

(ii) retention, elimination, or combining of existing offices and, if an office is eliminated, the division or department of county government responsible for performing the duties of the eliminated office;

(iii) continuity of existing ordinances and regulations;

(iv) continuation of pending legislative, administrative, or judicial proceedings;

(v) making of interim and temporary appointments; and

(vi) preparation, approval, and adjustment of necessary budget appropriations;

(c) specifies the date the optional plan becomes effective if adopted, which may not be earlier than the first day of January next following the election of officers under the new plan; and

(d) notwithstanding any other provision of this title and except with respect to an optional plan that proposes the adoption of the county commission or expanded county commission form of government, with respect to the county budget provides that:

(i) the county executive's role is to prepare and present a proposed budget to the county legislative body; and

(ii) the county legislative body's role is to adopt a final budget.

(2) Subject to Subsection (3), an optional plan may include provisions that are considered necessary or advisable to the effective operation of the proposed optional plan.

(3) An optional plan may not:

(a) include any provision that is inconsistent with or prohibited by the Utah Constitution or any statute;

(b) if the optional plan is proposed after March 20, 2020:

(i) specify compensation, including benefits, for any appointed or elected county official; or

(ii) specify the full or part-time status of any appointed or elected county official; or

(c) if the optional plan specifies that county council or commission members are to be elected from districts, establish, divide, abolish, alter, change, or otherwise attempt to draw boundaries of election districts or impair the duties of the county legislative body as described in Section [~~17-52a-503~~]17-62-503.

(4) The optional plan proponent described in Subsection (1) shall ensure that an optional plan proposing to change the form of government to the county executive-council form under Section [~~17-52a-203~~]17-62-203 or the council-manager form under Section [~~17-52a-204~~]17-62-204:

(a) provides for the same executive and legislative officers as are specified in the applicable section for the form of government that the optional plan proposes;

(b) provides for the election of the county council;

(c) specifies the number of county council members, which shall be an odd number from three to nine;

(d) subject to Subsection (3)(c), and except as provided in Section [~~17-52a-204~~]17-62-204, specifies whether the members of the county council are to be elected from districts, at large, or by a combination of at large and by district;

(e) specifies county council members' qualifications and terms and whether the terms are to be staggered; and

(f) contains procedures for filling vacancies on the county council, consistent with the provisions of Section 20A-1-508.

(5) The optional plan proponent described in Subsection (1) shall ensure that an optional plan proposing to change the form of government to the county commission form under Section [~~17-52a-201~~]17-62-201 or the expanded county commission form under Section [~~17-52a-202~~]17-62-202 specifies:

(a) (i) for the county commission form of government, that the county commission shall have three members; or

(ii) for the expanded county commission form of government, whether the county commission shall have five or seven members;

(b) the terms of office for county commission members and whether the terms are to be staggered;

(c) subject to Subsection (3)(c), whether members of the county commission are to be elected from districts, at large, or by a combination of at large and from districts;

(d) if any members of the county commission are to be elected from districts, the district residency requirements for those commission members; and

(e) if any members of the county commission are to be elected at large, whether the election of county commission members is subject to the provisions of Subsection [~~17-52a-201(6)~~]17-62-201(6) or Subsection [~~17-52a-202(6)~~]17-62-202(6).

(1) (a) The optional plan proponent described in Subsection [~~17-52a-404(1)~~]17-62-403(1) shall ensure that each optional plan proposes changing the form of county government to:

(i) for a county of the first, second, third, or fourth class:

(A) the county commission form under Section [~~17-52a-201~~]17-62-201;

(B) the expanded county commission form under Section [~~17-52a-202~~]17-62-202;

(C) the county executive and council form under Section [~~17-52a-203~~]17-62-203; or

(D) the council-manager form under Section [~~17-52a-204~~]17-62-204; and

(ii) for a county of the fifth or sixth class:

(A) the county commission form under Section [~~17-52a-201~~]17-62-201; or

(B) the expanded county commission form under Section [~~17-52a-202~~]17-62-202.

(b) The optional plan proponent described in Subsection [~~17-52a-404(1)~~]16-62-403(1) may not recommend an optional plan that:

(i) proposes changing the form of government to a form not authorized in Subsection (1)(a);

(ii) provides for the nonpartisan election of elected officers;

(iii) imposes a limit on the number of terms or years that an elected officer may serve;

(iv) provides for elected officers to be subject to a recall election; or

(v) provides, in a county with a population of 225,000 or more, for a full-time county commission in an expanded county commission form of government under Section [~~17-52a-202~~]17-62-202.

(2) A county that provides for the election of the county's elected officers through a partisan election may not change to a process that provides for the election of the county's elected officers through a nonpartisan election.

[~~17-52a-406~~]17-62-405 (Effective 11/06/25). County attorney review of proposed optional plan -- Conflict with statutory or constitutional provisions -- Processing of optional plan after attorney review.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Proposed optional plan" means an optional plan that is submitted to the county attorney for review in accordance with a provision of this chapter.

(b) "Requesting entity" means the person who submits a proposed optional plan to the county attorney for review in accordance with a provision of this chapter.

(2) (a) Within 45 days after the day on which the county attorney receives a proposed optional plan from a requesting entity, the county attorney shall review the proposed optional plan and send a written report containing the information described in Subsection (2)(b) to:

(i) the requesting entity; and

(ii) (A) the petition sponsors, if the proposed optional plan was recommended under Section [~~17-52a-303~~]17-62-303; or

(B) the study committee, if the proposed optional plan was recommended under Section [~~17-52a-403~~]17-62-402.

(b) A report from the county attorney under Subsection (2)(a) shall:

(i) state the county attorney's opinion as to whether implementation of the proposed optional plan would result in a violation of any applicable statutory or constitutional provision;

(ii) if the county attorney concludes that a violation would result:

(A) identify specifically each statutory or constitutional provision that implementation of the proposed optional plan would violate;

(B) identify specifically each provision or feature of the proposed optional plan that would result in a statutory or constitutional violation if the proposed optional plan is implemented; and

(C) recommend how the proposed optional plan may be modified to avoid the statutory or constitutional violation.

(3) (a) The proposed optional plan may not be the subject of an election under Section [~~17-52a-501~~]17-62-501 if:

(i) the county attorney has not reviewed and submitted a written report in accordance with this section; or

(ii) the county attorney concludes that implementation of the proposed optional plan would result in a violation of an applicable statutory or constitutional provision.

(b) The study committee may:

(i) modify a proposed optional plan that the study committee recommends in accordance with Section [~~17-52a-403~~]17-62-402 to avoid a violation that a county attorney's report describes under Subsection (2); and

(ii) file a new report under Subsection [~~17-52a-403(3)(a)(iv)~~]17-62-402(3)(a)(iv).

(c) A county legislative body may:

(i) modify a proposed optional plan that the county legislative body proposes in accordance with Section [~~17-52a-302~~]17-62-302 or [~~17-52a-403~~]17-62-402 to avoid a violation that a county attorney's report describes under Subsection (2); and

(ii) within 10 days of modifying the proposed optional plan, send the modified proposed optional plan to:

(A) the county clerk, if the proposed optional plan was proposed in accordance with Section [~~17-52a-302~~]17-62-302; and

(B) the county attorney for review in accordance with this section.

(d) (i) The petition sponsors may:

(A) modify a proposed optional plan that the petition proposes in accordance with Subsection [~~17-52a-303(1)(a)(ii)~~]17-62-303(1)(a)(ii) to avoid a violation that a county attorney's report describes under Subsection (2); and

(B) submit the modified proposed optional plan to the county clerk.

(ii) Upon receipt of a modified proposed optional plan described in Subsection (3)(d)(i), the county clerk shall send the modified proposed optional plan to the county attorney for review in accordance with this section.

(4) The county executive, county legislative body, county attorney, and county clerk shall treat the following as an original:

(a) a new report that a study committee files under Subsection [~~17-52a-403(3)(a)(iv)~~]17-62-402(3)(a)(iv);

(b) a modified proposed optional plan that a county legislative body sends under Subsection (3)(c); and

(c) a modified proposed optional plan that petition sponsors submit to the county clerk and that the county clerk sends under Subsection (3)(d).

(5) If the county attorney's written report under Subsection (2)(b) does not identify any provisions or features of the proposed optional plan that, if implemented, would violate a statutory or constitutional provision, the proposed optional plan is subject to the provisions described in Section [~~17-52a-501~~]17-62-501.

Section 64. Section 17-62-501, which is renumbered from Section 17-52a-501 is renumbered and amended to read:

PART 5. Adoption and Implementation of Optional Plan

[~~17-52a-501~~]17-62-501 (Effective 11/06/25). Election on recommended optional plan.

(1) If the county attorney finds under Section [~~17-52a-406~~]17-62-405 that a proposed optional plan does not violate a statutory or constitutional provision, a county shall hold an election on the optional plan at the next regular general election that is not less than 65 days after the day on which the county attorney submits to the county clerk the attorney's report described in Section [~~17-52a-406~~]17-62-405.

(2) The county clerk shall prepare the ballot for an election under this section so that the question on the ballot states substantially the following:

"Shall _____ County adopt the alternate form of government known as the (insert the proposed form of government) as recommended in the proposed optional plan?"

(3) The county clerk shall:

(a) publish the complete text of the proposed optional plan in a newspaper of general circulation within the county at least once during two different calendar weeks within the 30-day period immediately before the date of the election described in Subsection (1);

(b) post the complete text of the proposed optional plan in a conspicuous place on the county's website during the 45-day period that immediately precedes the election on the optional plan; and

(c) make a complete copy of the optional plan and the study committee report available free of charge to any member of the public who requests a copy.

(4) A county clerk shall declare an optional plan as adopted by the voters if a majority of voters voting on the optional plan vote in favor of the optional plan.

[~~17-52a-502~~]17-62-502 (Effective 11/06/25). Voter information pamphlet.

(1) In anticipation of an election under Section [~~17-52a-501~~]17-62-501, the county clerk shall prepare a voter information pamphlet to inform the public of the proposed optional plan in accordance with the provisions of Title 20A, Chapter 7, Part 7, Voter Information Pamphlet.

(2) In preparing a voter information pamphlet under this section, the county clerk shall:

(a) allow proponents and opponents of the proposed optional plan to provide written statements to be included in the pamphlet; and

(b) ensure each written statement described in Subsection (2)(a) is printed in the same font style and point size.

(3) A county clerk shall cause the publication and distribution of the pamphlet in a manner that the county clerk determines is adequate.

[~~17-52a-503~~]17-62-503 (Effective 11/06/25). Adoption of optional plan -- Election of new county officers -- Effect of adoption.

(1) If a proposed optional plan is approved at an election held under Section [~~17-52a-501~~]17-62-501:

(a) on or before November 1 of the year immediately following the year of the election described in Section [~~17-52a-501~~]17-62-501 in which the optional plan is approved, the county legislative body shall:

(i) if the proposed optional plan under Section [~~17-52a-404~~]17-62-403 specifies that one or more members of the county legislative body are elected from districts, adopt the geographic boundaries of each council or commission member district; and

(ii) adopt the compensation, including benefits, for each member of the county legislative body;

(b) the elected county officers specified in the plan shall be elected at the next regular general election following the election under Section [~~17-52a-501~~]17-62-501, according to the procedure and schedule established under Title 20A, Election Code, for the election of county officers;

(c) the proposed optional plan:

(i) becomes effective according to the optional plan's terms;

(ii) subject to Subsection [~~17-52a-404(1)(c)~~]17-62-403(1)(c), at the time specified in the optional plan, is a public record open to inspection by the public; and

(iii) is judicially noticeable by all courts;

(d) the county clerk shall, within 10 days of the canvass of the election, file with the lieutenant governor a copy of the optional plan, certified by the clerk to be a true and correct copy;

(e) all public officers and employees shall cooperate fully in making the transition between forms of county government; and

(f) the county legislative body may enact and enforce necessary ordinances to bring about an orderly transition to the new form of government, including any transfer of power, records, documents, properties, assets, funds, liabilities, or personnel that are consistent with the approved optional plan and necessary or convenient to place it into full effect.

(2) An action by the county legislative body under Subsection (1)(a) is not an amendment for purposes of Section [~~17-52a-504~~]17-62-504.

(3) Adoption of an optional plan does not alter or affect the boundaries, organization, powers, duties, or functions of any:

(a) school district;

(b) justice court;

(c) special district under Title 17B, Limited Purpose Local Government Entities - Special Districts;

(d) special service district under Title 17D, Chapter 1, Special Service District Act;

(e) city or town; or

(f) entity created by an interlocal agreement under Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act.

(4) (a) After adoption of the optional plan, the county legislative body may adopt a change to the geographic boundaries of a council or commission member's district.

(b) An action by the county legislative body under Subsection (4)(a) is not an amendment for purposes of Section [~~17-52a-504~~]17-62-504.

(5) After the adoption of an optional plan, the county remains vested with all powers and duties vested generally in counties by statute.

(1) Subject to Subsection (2), an optional plan, after going into effect following an election held under Section [~~17-52a-501~~]17-62-501, may be amended by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the county legislative body.

(2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), an amendment to an optional plan that is in effect may not take effect until a majority of registered voters voting in a general or special election at which the amendment is proposed approve the amendment, if the amendment changes:

(a) the size or makeup of the legislative body, except for adjustments necessary due to decennial reapportionment;

(b) the distribution of powers between the executive and legislative branches of county government; or

(c) the status of the county executive or legislative body from full-time to part-time or vice versa.

[~~17-52a-505~~]17-62-505 (Effective 11/06/25). Repeal of optional plan -- Certification of petition signatures -- Removal of signature.

(1) An optional plan that the voters in an election adopt under this chapter may be repealed as provided in this section.

(2) Registered voters of a county that has adopted an optional plan may initiate the process of repealing an optional plan by filing a petition for the repeal of the optional plan.

(3) (a) Registered voters of a county may not file a petition to repeal an optional plan sooner than four years or more than five years after the election of county officers under Section [~~17-52a-503~~]17-62-503.

(b) (i) If the registered voters file a petition to repeal an optional plan under this section, the petition is certified, and the optional plan is not repealed at an election described in Subsection (9), the voters may not circulate or file a subsequent petition to repeal until at least four, and not more than five, years after the certification of the original petition.

(ii) If, after four years, the voters file a subsequent petition under Subsection (3)(b)(i), the voters:

(A) may not circulate or file another petition to repeal until at least four, and not more than five, years after certification of the subsequent petition; and

(B) shall wait an additional four, and not more than five, years after the date of certification of the previous petition for each petition filed thereafter.

(4) A petition described in Subsection (2) shall:

(a) be signed by registered voters residing in the county:

(i) equal in number to at least 15% of the total number of votes cast in each precinct described in Subsection (4)(a)(ii) for all candidates for president of the United States at the most recent election in which a president of the United States was elected; and

(ii) who represent at least 85% of the voting precincts located within the county;

(b) designate up to five of the petition signers as sponsors, designating one petition signer as the contact sponsor, with the mailing address and telephone number of each; and

(c) be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the petition signers reside.

(5) Within 30 days after the filing of a petition under Subsection (2) or an amended petition under Subsection (6), the county clerk shall:

(a) (i) use the procedures described in Section 20A-1-1002 to determine whether a signer is a registered voter; and

(ii) determine whether the required number of voters have signed the petition or amended petition has been signed by the required number of registered voters; and

(b) (i) if a sufficient number of voters have signed the petition, certify the petition or amended petition and deliver it to the county legislative body, and notify in writing the contact sponsor of the certification; or

(ii) if a sufficient number of voters have not signed the petition, reject the petition or the amended petition and notify the county legislative body and the contact sponsor in writing of the rejection and the reasons for the rejection.

(6) If a county clerk rejects a petition or an amended petition under Subsection (5)(b)(ii), the petition may be amended or an amended petition may be further amended with additional signatures and refiled within 20 days of the date of rejection.

(7) (a) A voter who signs a petition under this section may have the voter's signature removed from the petition by, no later than three business days after the day on which the sponsors file the petition in the office of the county clerk, submitting to the county clerk a statement requesting that the voter's signature be removed.

(b) A statement described in Subsection (7)(a) shall comply with the requirements described in Subsection 20A-1-1003(2).

(c) The county clerk shall use the procedures described in Subsection 20A-1-1003(3) to determine whether to remove an individual's signature from a petition after receiving a timely, valid statement requesting removal of the signature.

(8) If a county clerk certifies a petition under Subsection (2), the county legislative body shall hold an election on the proposal to repeal the optional plan at the next regular general election that is at least 60 days after the day on which the county clerk certifies the petition.

(9) If, at an election held under Subsection (8), a majority of voters voting on the proposal to repeal the optional plan vote in favor of repealing:

(a) the optional plan is repealed, effective January 1 of the year following the election of county officers under Subsection (9)(c);

(b) upon the effective date of the repeal under Subsection (9)(a), the form of government under which the county operates reverts to the form it had before the optional plan was adopted; and

(c) the county officers under the form of government to which the county reverts, who are different than the county officers under the repealed optional plan, shall be elected at the next regular general election following the election under Subsection (8).

(2) (a) [~~Counties~~]Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), a county may expand the uniform system prescribed by the state auditor to serve better [~~their~~]the county's needs.

(b) [~~Deviations from or alterations to~~]A county may not deviate from or alter the basic prescribed classification system for the identity of funds and accounts[~~ should not be made~~].

[~~17-36-6~~]17-63-203 (Effective 11/06/25). Basis of accounting -- Required funds and accounts -- Lapse of appropriations.

(1) A county shall use either accrual or modified accrual, as prescribed in the uniform system of budgeting, accounting, and reporting, as the basis of accounting to record county transactions.

(2) In [~~its~~]the county system of accounts, each county shall maintain the following funds or account groups that are appropriate to [~~its~~]the county's needs:

(a) a county general fund;

(b) special revenue funds;

(c) debt service funds to account for the retirement of general obligation bonds or other long-term indebtedness including the payment of interest;

(d) capital project funds, as required to account for the application of proceeds from the sale of general obligation bonds or other general long-term debt, or funds derived from other sources, to the specific purposes for which they are authorized;

(e) a separate fund for each utility or enterprise such as an airport fund, a sewer fund, a water fund, or other similar funds;

(f) intragovernmental service funds;

(g) fiduciary funds such as a cemetery perpetual-care fund or a retirement fund;

(h) a separate fund for each special improvement district, which shall be known as a special assessment fund;

(i) a ledger or group of accounts to record the details relating to the general fixed assets of the county;

(j) a ledger or group of accounts to record the details relating to the general obligation bonds or other long-term indebtedness of the county;

(k) municipal services fund as required in [~~Section 17-36-9~~]Chapter 78, Part 5, Provision of Municipal-Type Services to Unincorporated Areas; and

(l) any other funds for special purposes required or established under the uniform system of budgeting, accounting, and reporting.

~~(2)~~ The county shall classify the funds and account groups established under the authority of this section according to the [~~uniform~~]procedures established by this chapter.

(4) All appropriations shall lapse following the close of the budget period to the extent that the appropriation is unexpended or unencumbered.

[~~17-36-16~~]17-63-204 (Effective 11/06/25). Retained earnings -- Accumulation -- Restrictions -- Disbursements.

(1) (a) A county may accumulate:

(i) retained earnings in any enterprise or internal service fund[~~ or~~]; and

(ii) a fund balance in any [~~other~~]fund that is not an enterprise or internal service fund.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(a), use of the county general fund shall be restricted to the following purposes:

(i) to provide cash to finance expenditures from the beginning of the budget period until general property taxes, sales taxes, or other revenues are collected;

(ii) to provide a fund or reserve to meet emergency expenditures; and

(iii) to cover unanticipated deficits for future years.

(2) (a) The maximum accumulated unappropriated surplus in the county general fund, as determined [~~prior to~~]before adoption of the tentative budget, may not exceed an amount equal to the greater of:

(i) (A) for a county with a taxable value of $750,000,000 or more and a population of 100,000 or more, 25% of the total revenues of the county general fund for the current fiscal period; or

(B) for any other county, 65% of the total revenues of the county general fund for the current fiscal period; and

(ii) the estimated total revenues from property taxes for the current fiscal period.

(b) Any surplus balance in excess of the above computed maximum shall be included in the estimated revenues of the county general fund budget for the next fiscal period.

(3) Any fund balance exceeding 5% of the total county general fund revenues may be used for budgetary purposes.

(4) (a) A county may appropriate funds from estimated revenue in any budget period to a reserve for capital improvements within any capital improvements fund which has been duly established by ordinance or resolution.

(b) Money in the reserves shall be allowed to accumulate from fiscal period to fiscal period until the accumulated total is sufficient to permit economical expenditure for the specified purposes.

(c) Disbursements from the reserves shall be made only by transfer to a revenue account within a capital improvements fund [~~pursuant to~~]in accordance with an appropriation for the fund.

(d) Expenditures from the capital improvement budget accounts shall conform to all requirements of this [~~act~~]chapter as it relates to the execution and control of budgets.

PART 3. Preparation and Adoption of County Budgets

[~~17-36-8~~]17-63-301 (Effective 11/06/25). Preparation of budgets.

The finance officer of each county shall prepare each budget period, in a format [~~provided pursuant to Section 17-36-4~~]that complies with Sections 17-63-202 and 17E-2-401, a tentative budget for each of the following funds which are included in the county's system of accounts:

(1) county general fund;

(2) special revenue funds;

(3) debt service funds;

(4) capital project funds; and

(5) any other fund or funds for which a budget is required by the uniform system of budgeting, accounting, and reporting.

[~~17-36-9~~]17-63-302 (Effective 11/06/25). Budget -- Financial plan -- Contents.

~~(1) (a)~~ The budget for each fund shall provide a complete financial plan for the budget period and shall contain in tabular form classified by the account titles as required by the uniform system of budgeting, accounting, and reporting:

~~(i)~~ estimates of all anticipated revenues;

~~(ii)~~ all appropriations for expenditures; and

~~(iii)~~ any additional data required by Section [~~17-36-10~~]17-63-303 or by the uniform system of budgeting, accounting, and reporting.

~~(b)~~ The total of appropriated expenditures shall be equal to the total of anticipated revenues.

[~~(2) (a) Each first-, second-, and third-class county that provides municipal-type services under Section 17-34-1 shall:~~]

[~~(i) establish a special revenue fund, "Municipal Services Fund," and a capital projects fund, "Municipal Capital Projects Fund," or establish a special district or special service district to provide municipal services; and~~]

[~~(ii) budget appropriations for municipal services and municipal capital projects from these funds.~~]

[~~(b) The Municipal Services Fund is subject to the same budgetary requirements as the county general fund.~~]

[~~(c) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(c)(ii), the county may deposit revenue derived from any taxes otherwise authorized by law, income derived from the investment of money contained within the municipal services fund and the municipal capital projects fund, the appropriate portion of federal money, and fees collected into a municipal services fund and a municipal capital projects fund.~~]

[~~(ii) The county may not deposit revenue derived from a fee, tax, or other source based upon a countywide assessment or from a countywide service or function into a municipal services fund or a municipal capital projects fund.~~]

[~~(d) The maximum accumulated unappropriated surplus in the municipal services fund, as determined prior to adoption of the tentative budget, may not exceed an amount equal to the total estimated revenues of the current fiscal period.~~]

[~~17-36-10~~]17-63-303 (Effective 11/06/25). Preparation of tentative budget.

(1) (a) On or before [~~the first day of the next to last month of every fiscal period~~]November 1, the finance officer shall prepare for the next budget period and file with the governing body a tentative budget for each fund for which a budget is required.

(b) During the preparation of a tentative budget described in Subsection (1)(a), the following may participate in the creation of the tentative budget:

(i) for a county commission or expanded county commission form of county government, the county commission;

(ii) for a county executive-council form of county government, the county council and the county executive; and

(iii) for a council-manager form of county government, the county council and the county manager.

(2) (a) A department for which county funds are appropriated shall file with the finance officer not less than three months before the commencement of each fiscal year on forms furnished by the finance officer a detailed estimate and statement of the revenue and necessary expenditures of the department for the next budget year.

(b) The estimate and statement described in Subsection (2)(a) shall [~~set forth~~]include:

(i) the number of persons to be regularly employed;

(ii) the kinds of service the department will perform;

(iii) the salaries and wages the department expects to pay;

(iv) the kind of work the department will perform and the improvements the department expects to make; and

(v) the estimated cost of the service, work, and improvements.

(c) The finance officer shall make the estimate and statement described in Subsection (2)(a) available to:

(i) for a county commission or expanded county commission form of county government, the county commission;

(ii) for a county executive-council form of county government, the county council and the county executive; and

(iii) for a council-manager form of county government, the county council and the county manager.

(d) The statement shall also record performance data expressed in work units, unit costs, [~~man~~]personnel hours, and [~~man~~]personnel years sufficient in detail, content, and scope to permit the finance officer to prepare and process the county budget.

(3) In the preparation of the budget, the finance officer and all other county officers are subject to [~~Sections 17-36-1 through 17-36-44 and to the uniform system of budgeting, accounting, and reporting established therein~~]the provisions of this chapter and the uniform system of fiscal procedures established under Section 17E-2-401.

(4) In the tentative budget, the finance officer shall set forth in tabular form:

(a) actual revenues and expenditures in the last completed fiscal period;

(b) estimated total revenues and expenditures for the current fiscal period;

(c) the estimated available revenues and expenditures for the ensuing budget period computed by determining:

(i) the estimated expenditure for each fund after review of each departmental budget request; and

(ii) the total revenue requirements of the fund, including:

(A) the part of the total revenue that will be derived from revenue sources other than property tax; and

(B) the part of the total revenue that will be derived from property taxes; and

(d) if required by the governing body, actual performance experience to the extent available in work units, unit costs, [~~man~~]personnel hours, and [~~man~~]personnel years for each budgeted fund that includes an appropriation for salaries or wages for the last completed fiscal period and the first eight months of the current fiscal period if the county is on an annual fiscal period, or the first 20 months of the current fiscal period if the county is on a biennial fiscal period, together with the total estimated performance data of like character for the current fiscal period and for the ensuing budget period.

(5) The finance officer may recommend modification of any departmental budget request under Subsection (4)(c)(i) before the budget request is filed with the governing body, if each department head has been given an opportunity to be heard concerning the modification.

(6) (a) A tentative budget shall contain the estimates of expenditures submitted by any department together with specific work programs and other supportive data as the governing body requests.

(b) The finance officer shall include with the tentative budget a supplementary estimate of all capital projects or planned capital projects within the budget period and within the next three succeeding years.

(7) (a) A finance officer that submits a tentative budget in a county with a population of more than 25,000 shall include with the tentative budget [~~a budget message in~~]an explanation of the budget.

(b) The [~~budget message~~]explanation described in Subsection (7)(a) shall:

(i) include an outline of the proposed financial policies of the county for the budget period;

(ii) describe the important features of the budgetary plan;

(iii) state the reasons for changes from the previous fiscal period in appropriation and revenue items; and

(iv) explain any major changes in financial policy.

(c) A finance officer of a county with a population of less than 25,000 may prepare a budget message in explanation of the tentative budget.

(8) (a) The governing body shall review, consider, and adopt a tentative budget in a regular or special meeting called for that purpose.

(b) (i) Subject to Subsection (8)(b)(ii), the governing body may thereafter amend or revise the tentative budget [~~prior to~~]before public hearings on the tentative budget.

(ii) A governing body may not:

(A) reduce below the required minimum an appropriation required for debt retirement and interest; or

(B) reduce, in accordance with Section [~~17-36-17~~]17-63-305, an existing deficit.

[~~17-36-12~~]17-63-304 (Effective 11/06/25). Tentative budget -- Public record before adoption -- Notice of budget hearing -- Public hearing on tentative budget -- Adjustments.

(1) (a) A tentative budget and all supportive schedules and data are a public record.

(b) A county shall, for at least 10 days before the public hearing to adopt a final budget, make a tentative budget and all supportive schedules and data available for inspection during business hours at the office of the county finance officer.

(2) The governing body shall determine the time and place for the public hearing on the adoption of the budget.

~~(2)~~ Notice of [~~such~~]the hearing described in Subsection (2) shall be published for the county, as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least [~~seven~~]10 days before the day of the hearing.

(4) The governing body shall hold a public hearing on the budget where all interested individuals shall have an opportunity to be heard for or against the estimates of revenue and expenditures and performance data or any item in any fund.

(5) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (5)(b), the governing body may make final adjustments to the tentative budget after the public hearing, as the governing body determines are appropriate, giving due consideration to matters discussed at the hearing.

(b) The governing body may not make the following adjustments to a tentative budget before adopting the tentative budget as a final budget:

(i) decrease the amount appropriated, as provided in Section 17-63-305, for the reduction of a deficit; or

(ii) increase any appropriation, if the increase would result in exceeding the estimated revenue for the budget.

[~~17-36-15~~]17-63-305 (Effective 11/06/25). Adoption of final budget -- Appropriations in final budget -- Addressing deficits.

~~(1) (a)~~ On or before the last day of each fiscal period, the governing body by resolution shall adopt the final budget.

~~(b)~~ A final budget adopted in accordance with Subsection ~~(1)(a)~~ is, unless amended, in effect for the next fiscal period.

~~(c)~~ The finance officer shall:

~~(i)~~ certify a copy of the final budget, and of any subsequent budget amendment; and

~~(ii)~~ file a copy with the state auditor not later than 30 days after the day on which the governing body adopts the budget.

~~(d)~~ The finance officer shall file a certified copy of the budget in the office of the finance officer for inspection by the public during business hours.

(5) The governing body may not make any appropriation in the final budget of any fund in excess of the estimated expendable revenue of the fund for the budget period.

(6) If there is a deficit in any fund as of the close of the last completed fiscal period, there shall be included as an item of appropriation in the budget of the fund of:

(a) at least 5% of the total revenue of the fund in the last completed fiscal period; or

(b) if the deficit is less than 5% of the total revenue, an amount equal to the deficit.

[~~(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), a county officer or county employee may not file a legal action in state or federal court against the county, a department, or a county officer for any matter related to the following:~~]

[~~(i) the adoption of a county budget;~~]

[~~(ii) a county appropriation;~~]

[~~(iii) a county personnel allocation; or~~]

[~~(iv) a fund related to the county budget, a county appropriation, or a county personnel allocation.~~]

[~~(b) A county or district attorney may enforce a procedural requirement that governs the adoption or approval of a budget in accordance with this chapter.~~]

[~~17-36-26.5~~]17-63-306 (Effective 11/06/25). Review of second year's budget for biennial budgets.

(1) In a county that has adopted a fiscal period that is a biennial period under [~~Subsection 17-36-3.5(2)~~]Section 17-63-201, the governing body shall, in a public hearing before December 31 of the first year of the biennial period, review the individual budgets of the funds set forth in Sections [~~17-36-8~~]17-63-301 and [~~17-36-32~~]17-63-802 for the second year of the biennial period.

(2) In each review under Subsection (1), the governing body shall follow the procedures of [~~Sections 17-36-12 and 17-36-13~~]Section 17-63-304 for holding a public hearing.

Section 82. Section 17-63-307 is enacted to read:

17-63-307 (Effective 11/06/25). Immunity.

(1) Except as provided in Subsection (2), a county officer or county employee may not file a legal action in state or federal court against the county, a department, or a county officer for any matter related to the following:

(a) the adoption of a county budget;

(b) a county appropriation;

(c) a county personnel allocation; or

(d) a fund related to the county budget, a county appropriation, or a county personnel allocation.

(2) A county or district attorney may enforce a procedural requirement that governs the making or approval of a budget in accordance with this chapter.

PART 4. Budget Modifications

[~~17-36-24~~]17-63-401 (Effective 11/06/25). Budget appropriation reduction.

(1) [~~The~~]A county governing body may reduce a budget appropriation for any department [~~may be reduced,~~]for any purpose other than to transfer funds to another department[~~,~~] by resolution[~~ of the governing body provided that~~], if:

(a) five days' notice of the proposed [~~action~~]reduction is given to all members of the governing body and to the director of the affected department[~~ affected,~~]; and

(b) [~~that such~~]the director of the affected department is permitted to be heard on the proposed reduction.

(2) [~~Notice~~]The notice requirements of Subsection (1) may be waived in writing by the affected department or by any member of the governing body.

[~~17-36-26~~]17-63-402 (Effective 11/06/25). Increase in budgetary fund or county general fund -- Public hearing -- Notice.

(1) Before the governing body may, by resolution, increase a budget appropriation of any budgetary fund, increase the budget of the county general fund, or make an amendment to a budgetary fund or the county general fund, the governing body shall hold a public hearing giving all interested parties an opportunity to be heard.

(2) Notice of the public hearing described in Subsection (1) shall be published for the county, as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least five days before the day of the hearing.

[~~17-36-22~~]17-63-403 (Effective 11/06/25). Transfer of unexpended appropriation balance by department -- Transfer of unexpended appropriation balance by governing body.

(1) After review by the finance officer and in accordance with budgetary and fiscal policies or ordinances adopted by the county legislative body, any county department may:

(a) transfer any unencumbered or unexpended appropriation balance or any part from one expenditure account to another within the department during the budget year; or

(b) incur an excess expenditure of one or more line items.

(2) A transfer or expenditure under Subsection (1) may not occur if the transfer or expenditure would cause the total of all excess expenditures or encumbrances to exceed the total unused appropriation within the department at the close of the budget period.

(3) Except as provided in Subsection (4), upon the request of the finance officer or upon the governing body's own motion, the governing body may by resolution transfer any unencumbered or unexpended appropriation balance, or part of any unencumbered or unexpended appropriation balance, from one county department in a fund to another county department within the same fund.

(4) No appropriation for debt retirement and interest, reduction of deficit, or other appropriation required by law may be reduced below the required minimum.

[~~17-36-27~~]17-63-404 (Effective 11/06/25). Emergency expenditures -- Deficit.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Fiscal emergency" means a major disruption in county operations or services caused by the unforeseen and sudden significant decrease or elimination of funding from the United States government or Legislature that was appropriated in the county's current budget.

(b) "Natural disaster" means widespread damage within a county caused by:

(i) an explosion;

(ii) fire;

(iii) a flood;

(iv) a storm;

(v) a tornado;

(vi) winds;

(vii) an earthquake;

(viii) lightning; or

(ix) any other adverse weather event.

(2) (a) Subject to Subsection (2)(b), if the governing body determines that a natural disaster or fiscal emergency exists, and that the expenditure of money in excess of the county general fund budget is necessary to respond to the natural disaster or fiscal emergency, the county legislative body may make expenditures and incur deficits that are reasonably necessary to meet the natural disaster or fiscal emergency.

(b) (i) A county may not take an action in response to a natural disaster or fiscal emergency in accordance with Subsection (2)(a) or (3) unless the action:

(A) is for the current budget year only and the current budget year is the year in which the natural disaster or fiscal emergency occurs; and

(B) is approved by a majority of the elected members of the county legislative body.

(ii) If a fiscal emergency occurs, the county may take an action described in Subsection (2)(a) or (3) only if the state or federal funding that was significantly decreased or eliminated was:

(A) ongoing funding appropriated by the county to a county program or service; and

(B) repeatedly relied on by the county for that program or service rather than a one-time or limited-time funding source.

(3) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections [~~17-36-21, 17-36-22, 17-36-23, 17-36-24, and 17-36-26~~]17-63-401, 17-63-402, 17-63-403, and 17-63-502, and subject to Subsections (3)(b) and (c), the county legislative body may respond to a natural disaster or fiscal emergency by:

(i) transferring, increasing, or decreasing an appropriation in a county budget or fund; or

(ii) making or directing the making of an expenditure in excess of a budget or fund.

(b) An action by the county legislative body described in Subsection (3)(a)(i) or (ii) may not result in an expenditure or change in an appropriation that exceeds the total unencumbered county budget.

(c) If a county legislative body takes an action described in Subsection (3)(a)(i) or (ii), the county legislative body shall, as soon as possible, conduct a public hearing on the action and affirm the emergency action by adopting a resolution.

(4) Except to the extent provided for in Title 53, Chapter 2a, Part 6, Disaster Recovery Funding Act, the governing body of the county may not expend money in the county's local fund for an emergency, if the county creates a local fund under Title 53, Chapter 2a, Part 6, Disaster Recovery Funding Act.

PART 5. Purchases, Payments, and Costs Between Counties

[~~17-36-20~~]17-63-501 (Effective 11/06/25). Encumbrance system -- Purchasing agent -- Purchases or encumbrances by purchasing agent.

(1) Each county shall use an encumbrance system or other budgetary controls to ensure that no expenditure is made for any item of an appropriation unless there is a sufficient unencumbered balance in the appropriation and available funds, except in cases of fiscal emergency or natural disaster as described in Section 17-63-404.

(2) A person may not make a purchase or incur an encumbrance on behalf of a county unless that person acts in accordance with an order by, or approval of, the person duly authorized to act as purchasing agent for the county, except encumbrances or expenditures directly investigated and specifically approved by the executive or legislative body.

~~(2)~~ Unless otherwise provided by the governing body, the finance officer or the finance officer's agents shall serve as a purchasing agent.

[~~17-36-21~~]17-63-502 (Effective 11/06/25). Expenditure limitation.

(1) No county officer or county employee [~~of a county shall~~]may make any expenditure or encumbrance in excess of the total appropriation for any department.

(2) Any obligation that is contracted by [~~any such~~]a county officer or county employee in excess of the total departmental appropriation is:

(a) the personal obligation of the officer or employee; and [~~is~~]

(b) unenforceable against the county.

[~~17-15-16~~]17-63-503 (Effective 11/06/25). Warrants -- Payment -- Registration -- Duty of auditor.

(1) Warrants drawn by order of the county executive on the county treasurer for current expenses during each year shall specify:

(a) the liability for which [~~they are~~]the warrant is drawn[~~,~~];

(b) when [~~they~~]the liability accrued[~~,~~]; and

(c) the funds from which [~~they are~~]the warrant is to be paid[~~, and~~].

(2) Warrants shall be paid in the order of presentation to the treasurer.

(3) If [~~the~~]a fund is insufficient to pay any warrant, [~~it~~]the warrant shall be registered and then paid in the order of registration.

(4) Accounts for county charges of every description shall be presented to the county auditor and county executive to be audited as prescribed in this [~~title~~]chapter or Chapter 69, County Auditor.

[~~17-15-18~~]17-63-504 (Effective 11/06/25). Costs between counties on removal of criminal actions.

When a criminal action is removed before trial, the costs accruing upon [~~such~~]the removal shall be a charge against the county in which the indictment or information was found or filed.

[~~17-15-19~~]17-63-505 (Effective 11/06/25). Costs between counties from change of venue in civil cases.

(1) [~~In all civil cases~~]Except as provided in Subsection (2), in a civil case where any change of venue is granted from one county to another, [~~excepting where the change is granted because the action should have been begun in the county to which the case is taken for trial,~~] the costs and expenses connected with the trial of the action that are payable by the county shall be refunded by the county in which the action originated to the county in which the case is tried, upon the county clerk of the county wherein the case is tried certifying the amount of costs so paid to the county clerk of the county wherein the action originated.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a civil case where the change of venue is granted because the civil action should have been filed in the county to which the case is taken for trial.

[~~17-53-225~~]17-63-506 (Effective 11/06/25). County legislative body may adopt Utah Procurement Code -- Retention of records.

(1) A county legislative body may adopt any or all of the provisions of Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Utah Procurement Code, or the rules [~~promulgated pursuant to that code.~~]made under the authority of Utah Procurement Code, as described in Section 63G-6a-107.4.

(2) Whenever any county is required by law to receive bids for purchases, construction, repairs, or any other purpose requiring the expenditure of funds, that county shall keep on file all bids received, together with proof of advertisement by publication or otherwise, for:

(a) at least three years [~~following the letting of~~]after issuing any contract [~~pursuant to those bids~~]to one or more responsive bidders; or

(b) three years following the first advertisement for the bids, if all bids [~~pursuant to~~]received for that advertisement are rejected.

PART 6. Administering and Auditing Finances

[~~17-36-43~~]17-63-601 (Effective 11/06/25). Financial administration ordinance -- Purposes.

(1) The county legislative body, after consultation with the county auditor, may adopt a financial administration ordinance authorizing the county auditor, county executive, county manager, or, in the case of [~~county operated~~]county-operated hospitals or mental health districts, an appointed administrator, to act as the financial officer for the purpose of approving:

~~(1)~~ payroll checks, if the checks are prepared in accordance with a salary schedule established in a personnel ordinance or resolution; or

~~(2)~~ routine expenditures, such as utility bills, payroll-related expenses, supplies, materials, and payments on county-approved contracts and capital expenditures which are referenced in the budget document and approved by an appropriation resolution adopted for the current fiscal year.

(2) A financial administration ordinance adopted in accordance with Subsection (1) shall provide:

(a) a maximum amount over which purchases may not be made without the approval of the county executive;

(b) that the financial officer be bonded for a reasonable amount; and

(c) any other provisions the county legislative body considers advisable.

(1) A county may account separately for the revenues derived from a property tax, that is lawfully levied for a specific purpose, in accordance with this section.

(2) To levy a property tax under this section, the legislative body of the county that levies the property tax shall indicate through ordinance:

(a) that the county levies the tax under this section; and

(b) the specific service for which the county levies the tax.

(3) A property tax levied under this section is subject to the maximum rate a county may levy for property taxes under Section 59-2-908.

(4) (a) A county that collects a property tax under this section shall:

(i) create a special revenue fund to hold the revenues collected under this section; and

(ii) deposit revenues collected from that tax into the special revenue fund described in Subsection (4)(a)(i).

(b) A county may only expend revenues from a special revenue fund described in Subsection (4)(a) for a purpose that is solely related to the provision of the service described in Subsection (2)(b) for which the county created the special revenue fund.

(5) Except as provided in Subsections (2) and (4), a county that levies a property tax under this section shall:

(a) levy and collect the tax in accordance with Title 59, Chapter 2, Property Tax Act;

(b) account for revenues derived from the tax in accordance with this chapter; and

(c) levy and collect and account for revenues derived from the tax in the same general manner as for the county's other property taxes.

[~~17-36-32~~]17-63-802 (Effective 11/06/25). Operating and capital budget -- Expenditures.

(1) (a) As used in this section, "operating and capital budget" means a plan of financial operation for an enterprise or other special fund embodying estimates of operating and nonoperating resources and expenses and other outlays for a fiscal period.

(b) Except as otherwise expressly provided, "budget" or "budgets" and the procedures and controls relating to [~~them~~]budgets in other sections of this [~~act~~]chapter are not applicable to the operating and capital budgets provided in this section.

(2) At or before the time that the governing body adopts budgets for the budgetary funds specified in Section [~~17-36-8~~]17-63-301, the governing body shall adopt an operating and capital budget for the next fiscal period for:

(a) each enterprise fund; and

(b) any other special nonbudgetary fund for which operating and capital budgets are prescribed by the uniform system of budgeting, accounting, and reporting.

(3) (a) The governing body shall adopt and administer the operating and capital budget in accordance with this Subsection (3).

(b) At or before the first day of the next to last month of each fiscal period, the finance officer shall prepare for the next fiscal period on forms provided [~~pursuant to~~]in accordance with Section [~~17-36-4~~]17E-2-401, and file with the governing body a tentative operating and capital budget for:

(i) each enterprise fund; and

(ii) any other special fund that requires an operating and capital budget.

(c) The tentative operating and capital budget shall be accompanied by a supplementary estimate of all capital projects or planned capital projects:

(i) within the next fiscal period; and

(ii) within the fiscal period immediately following the fiscal period described in Subsection (3)(c)(i).

(d) (i) Subject to Subsection (3)(d)(ii), the finance officer shall prepare all estimates after review and consultation, if requested, with a department proposing a capital project.

(ii) After complying with Subsection (3)(d)(i), the finance officer may revise any departmental estimate before it is filed with the governing body.

(e) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(e)(iv), if a governing body includes in a tentative budget, or an amendment to a budget, allocations or transfers between a utility enterprise fund and another fund that are not reasonable allocations of costs between the utility enterprise fund and the other fund, the governing body shall:

(A) hold a public hearing;

(B) prepare a written notice of the date, time, place, and purpose of the hearing, in accordance with Subsection (3)(e)(ii); and

(C) subject to Subsection (3)(e)(iii), mail the notice to each utility enterprise fund customer at least seven days before the day of the hearing.

(ii) The purpose portion of the written notice described in Subsection (3)(e)(i)(B)shall identify:

(A) the utility enterprise fund from which money is being transferred;

(B) the amount being transferred; and

(C) the fund to which the money is being transferred.

(iii) The governing body:

(A) may print the written notice required under Subsection (3)(e)(i) on the utility enterprise fund customer's bill; and

(B) shall include the written notice required under Subsection (3)(e)(i) as a separate notification mailed or transmitted with the utility enterprise fund customer's bill.

(iv) The notice and hearing requirements in this Subsection (3)(e) are not required for an allocation or a transfer included in an original budget or in a subsequent budget amendment previously approved by the governing body for the current fiscal year.

(f) (i) The governing body shall review the tentative operating and capital budget at any regular or special meeting called for that purpose.

(ii) In accordance with Subsection (3)(f)(i), the governing body may make any changes to the tentative operating and capital budget that the governing body considers advisable.

(iii) Before the close of the fiscal period, the governing body shall adopt an operating and capital budget for the next fiscal period.

(g) (i) Upon final adoption by the governing body, the operating and capital budget shall be in effect for the budget period subject to amendment.

(ii) The governing body shall:

(A) certify a copy of the operating and capital budget for each fund with the finance officer; and

(B) make a copy available to the public during business hours in the offices of the county auditor.

(iii) The governing body shall file a copy of the operating and capital budget with the state auditor within 30 days after the day on which the operating and capital budget is adopted.

(iv) The governing body may during the budget period amend the operating and capital budget of an enterprise or other special fund by resolution.

(v) A copy of the operating and capital budget as amended shall be filed with the state auditor.

(4) Any expenditure from an operating and capital budget shall conform to the requirements for budgets specified by Sections [~~17-36-20, 17-36-22, 17-36-23, and 17-36-24~~]17-63-401, 17-63-403, and 17-63-501.

[~~17-36-46~~]17-63-803 (Effective 11/06/25). Reserve fund for capital improvements -- Creation -- Purpose -- Limitation.

(1) The legislative body of any county may establish and maintain, by ordinance, a cumulative reserve fund to be accumulated by levy for the purpose of financing the purchase of real property and the cost of planning, constructing or rehabilitating public buildings or other public works and capital improvements.

(2) (a) Before a reserve fund under Subsection (1) may be established, the county legislative body shall designate by ordinance the specific purpose for which the fund is established.

(b) Except as provided in Section [~~17-36-50~~]17-63-805, all funds in a reserve fund under Subsection (1) shall be expended for the designated purposes.

[~~17-36-47~~]17-63-804 (Effective 11/06/25). Reserve fund for capital improvements -- Estimate of amount required -- Tax levy -- Accumulation from year to year -- Restriction on use.

(1) Subject to Subsection (4) the legislative body of a county that has established a reserve fund under Section [~~17-36-46~~]17-63-803 may:

(a) include in the annual budget or estimate of amounts required to meet the public expenses of the county for the ensuing year such sum as it considers necessary for the uses and purposes of the fund; and

(b) include those amounts in the annual tax levy of the county.

(2) Subject to Subsection (4), the money in the fund shall be allowed to accumulate from year to year until the county legislative body determines to spend any money in the fund for the purpose specified.

(3) Subject to Subsection (4), money in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall remain in the fund as surplus available for future use, and may not be transferred to any other fund or used for any other purpose.

(4) The amount of money in a reserve fund established under Section [~~17-36-46~~]17-63-803may not exceed .6% of the taxable value of the county.

[~~17-36-50~~]17-63-805 (Effective 11/06/25). Reserve fund for capital improvements -- Transfer to fund of unencumbered surplus -- Investment -- Interest and income -- Modification of use -- Special election.

(1) At any time after the creation of a reserve fund under Section 17-63-803, the county legislative body may transfer to the fund any unencumbered surplus county funds remaining at the end of a fiscal year.

(2) All money belonging to a reserve fund created under Section 17-63-803 shall be invested in such securities as are legal for other funds of the county.

(3) The interest and income from the investments shall be a part of the fund.

(4) The legislative body of any county may submit the proposition of using funds in a reserve fund established under Section [~~17-36-46~~]17-63-803 for projects other than originally specified to the electors of the county at a special election if the projects are for the purposes set forth in Section [~~17-36-46~~]17-63-803.

~~(2)~~ If a proposition under Subsection ~~(1)~~ is proposed, the county legislative body shall fix a time and place for a special election on the proposition, to be held as provided by law.

[~~17-36-51~~]17-63-806 (Effective 11/06/25). Establishment of tax stability and trust fund -- Increase in tax levy -- Deposit or investment of funds -- Use of interest or other income.

(1) (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in statute, the legislative body of any county may by ordinance establish and maintain a tax stability and trust fund, for the purpose of preserving funds during years with favorable tax revenues for use during years with less favorable tax revenues.

(b) Each fund under Subsection (1)(a) shall be subject to all of the limitations and restrictions imposed by this section [~~and Sections 17-36-52~~]and [~~17-36-53~~]Section 17-63-807.

(c) The principal of the fund shall consist of all sums transferred to it in accordance with Subsection (2) and interest or other income retained in the fund under Subsection ~~17-36-52(2)(a)~~(a).

(2) (a) After establishing a tax stability and trust fund as provided in Subsection (1), the legislative body, in establishing the levy for the property tax levied by the county under Section 59-2-908, may establish the levy at a level not to exceed .0001 per dollar of taxable value of taxable property increase per year that will permit the county to receive during that fiscal year sums in excess of what may be required to provide for the purposes of the county.

(b) Any excess sums so received are to be transferred from the county general fund into the tax stability and trust fund.

(3) (a) All amounts in the tax stability and trust fund established by a county under this section may be deposited or invested as provided in Section 51-7-11.

(b) The amounts described in Subsection (3)(a) may also be transferred by the county treasurer to the Public Treasurers' Investment Fund, as defined in Section 51-7-3, for the treasurer's management and control under Title 51, Chapter 7, State Money Management Act.

(4) (a) The interest or other income realized from amounts in the tax stability and trust fund shall be returned to the county general fund during the fiscal year in which the income or interest is paid to the extent the interest or income is required by the county to provide for county purposes during that fiscal year.

(b) An amount returned in accordance with Subsection (4)(a) may be used for all purposes as other amounts in the county general fund.

(c) Any interest or income that is not returned to the county general fund in accordance with Subsection (4)(a) shall be added to the principal of that county's tax stability and trust fund.

Section 114. Section 17-63-807, which is renumbered from Section 17-36-53 is renumbered and amended to read: [~~17-36-53~~]17-63-807 (Effective 11/06/25). Amount in tax stability and trust fund limited -- Disposition of excess -- Use of principal -- Determination of necessity -- Election -- Exception.

(1) The total amount in a county's tax stability and trust fund established under Section [~~17-36-51~~]17-63-806 shall be limited to the percentage of the total taxable value of property in that county not to exceed the limits provided in the following schedule:

Total Taxable Value	Fund Limits Percentage of Taxable Value	but not to exceed:
Less than $500,000,000	1.6%		$5,000,000
From 500,000,000 to 1,500,000,000	1.0%		7,500,000
Over 1,500,000,000	.5%		15,000,000

(2) If any excess occurs in the tax stability and trust fund over the percentage or maximum dollar amounts specified in Subsection (1), this excess shall be transferred to the county general fund and may be used for all purposes as other amounts in the county general fund are used.

(3) (a) Subject to Subsection (3)(b), if any excess in the fund exists because of a decrease in total taxable value, that excess may remain in the fund.

(b) If the excess amount in the fund is decreased below the limitations of the fund for any reason, the fund limitations established under Subsection (1) apply.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (5), if the legislative body of a county that has established a tax stability and trust fund under Section 17-63-806 determines that it is necessary for purposes of that county to use any portion of the principal of the fund, the county legislative body shall submit this proposition to the electorate of that county in a special election called and held in the manner provided for in Title 11, Chapter 14, Local Government Bonding Act, for the holding of bond elections.

(b) If the proposition is approved at the special election by a majority of the qualified electors of the county voting at the election, then that portion of the principal of the fund covered by the proposition may be transferred to the county general fund for use for purposes of that county.

(5) (a) The requirements of Subsection (4) do not apply to the use of any portion of the principal of a tax stability and trust fund established under Section 17-63-806 for payment of any refund of property taxes owed by the county as a result of an objection to the assessment of property assessed by the State Tax Commission under Section 59-2-1007.

(b) The legislative body of a county may, by ordinance or resolution, authorize the use of any portion of the tax stability and trust fund for the purpose described in Subsection (5)(a).

Section 115. Section 17-63-808, which is renumbered from Section 17-36-29 is renumbered and amended to read: [~~17-36-29~~]17-63-808 (Effective 11/06/25). Special funds -- Ceases -- Transfer.

(1) A county legislative body may:

(a) establish a salary fund or any other special fund as the legislative body considers necessary for the proper transaction of the business of the county; and

(b) transfer money from one fund to another as the public interest requires, except as otherwise specifically provided in statute.

(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsection ~~(1)(b)~~(b), if a county legislative body determines that the purpose no longer exists for which the legislative body created a special fund or any portion of the special fund, the legislative body may authorize the transfer of the remaining balance or a portion of the remaining balance to the fund balance account in the county general fund.

(b) The legislative body may redistribute the remaining balance or a portion of the remaining balance described in Subsection ~~(1)(a)~~(a) in accordance with Subsection ~~(1)(c)~~(c) if:

(i) the county levied the fund primarily on property in the unincorporated areas of the county;

(ii) the county established a municipal services fund to provide municipal services under [~~Sections 17-34-1 and 17-36-9~~]Chapter 78, Part 5, Provision of Municipal-Type Services to Unincorporated Areas; and

(iii) the area from which the county levied the fund has since incorporated as a city or town.

(c) The legislative body of a county described in Subsection ~~(1)(b)~~(b) may set aside the remaining balance or a portion of the remaining balance described in Subsection ~~(1)(a)~~(a) in a fund from which the county may make disbursements to support and benefit the area and the residents in the area from which the county originally derived the special fund.

~~(2)~~ Any balance which remains in a special assessment fund and any unrequired balance in a special improvement guaranty fund shall be treated as provided in Subsection 11-42-701(5).

~~(3)~~ Any balance which remains in a capital projects fund shall be transferred to the appropriate debt service fund or such other fund as the bond ordinance requires or to the county general fund balance account.

Section 116. Section 17-63-809, which is renumbered from Section 17-36-30 is renumbered and amended to read: [~~17-36-30~~]17-63-809 (Effective 11/06/25). Interfund loans -- Acquisition of issued unmatured bonds.

(1) Subject to this section, restrictions imposed by bond covenants, or other controlling regulations, the governing body may:

(a) subject to the restrictions in Section 53-2a-605, authorize an interfund loan from one fund to another; and

(b) with available cash in any fund, purchase or otherwise acquire for investment an unmatured bond of the county or of any county fund.

(2) An interfund loan under Subsection (1)(a) shall be in writing and specify the terms and conditions of the loan, including the:

(a) effective date of the loan;

(b) name of the fund loaning the money;

(c) name of the fund receiving the money;

(d) amount of the loan;

(e) subject to Subsection (3), term of and repayment schedule for the loan;

(f) subject to Subsection (4), interest rate of the loan;

(g) method of calculating interest applicable to the loan;

(h) procedures for:

(i) applying interest to the loan; and

(ii) paying interest on the loan; and

(i) other terms and conditions the governing body determines applicable.

(3) The term and repayment schedule specified under Subsection (2)(e) may not exceed 10 years.

(4) (a) In determining the interest rate of the loan specified under Subsection (2)(f), the governing body shall apply an interest rate that reflects the rate of potential gain had the funds been deposited or invested in a comparable investment.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (4)(a), the interest rate of the loan specified under Subsection (2)(f):

(i) if the term of the loan under Subsection (2)(e) is one year or less, may not be less than the rate offered by the Public Treasurers' Investment Fund as defined in Section 51-7-3; or

(ii) if the term of the loan under Subsection (2)(e) is more than one year, may not be less than the greater of the rate offered by:

(A) the Public Treasurers' Investment Fund as defined in Section 51-7-3; or

(B) a United States Treasury note of a comparable term.

(5) (a) For an interfund loan under Subsection (1)(a), the governing body shall:

(i) hold a public hearing;

(ii) prepare a written notice of the date, time, place, and purpose of the hearing, and the proposed terms and conditions of the interfund loan under Subsection (2);

(iii) provide notice of the public hearing in the same manner as required under Section [~~17-36-12~~]17-63-304as if the hearing were a budget hearing; and

(iv) authorize the interfund loan by ordinance or resolution in a public meeting.

(b) The notice and hearing requirements in Subsection (5)(a) are satisfied if the interfund loan is included in an original budget or in a subsequent budget amendment previously approved by the governing body for the current fiscal year.

(6) Subsections (2) through (5) do not apply to an interfund loan if the interfund loan is:

(a) a loan from the county general fund to any other fund of the county; or

(b) a short-term advance from the county's cash and investment pool to individual funds that are repaid by the end of the fiscal year.

PART 9. Bond Indebtedness

[~~17-12-1~~]17-63-901 (Effective 11/06/25). Authority and applicable procedure for issuance of bonds -- Application of proceeds -- Debt limit.

(1) This part is adopted for the purpose of:

(a) eliminating or reducing, so far as possible, the ad valorem taxes necessary to be levied for the payment of bonds;

(b) improving the security of bonds; and

(c) ensuring that the holders of the bonds from time to time shall have a vested and enforceable contract right in the provisions of the bond proceedings made in accordance with the provisions of this part.

(2) (a) Except as otherwise provided under Section [~~17-50-303~~]17-60-203, the county legislative body may contract a bonded indebtedness in the manner and subject to the conditions provided under Title 11, Chapter 14, Local Government Bonding Act.

(b) The revenue derived from the sale of bonds shall be applied only to the purpose or purposes specified in the order of the county legislative body.

(c) If there is any surplus, [~~it~~]the surplus shall be applied to the payment of the bonds.

(3) [~~In no event may any county~~]A county may not become so indebted to an amount, including existing indebtedness, exceeding 2% of the fair market value, as defined under Section 59-2-102, of the taxable property in the county as computed from the last equalized assessment roll for county purposes [~~prior to the incurring of~~]before the county incurred the indebtedness.

PART 5. Ordinances and Policies

[~~17-53-223~~]17-64-501 (Effective 11/06/25). Ordinances -- Power to enact -- Penalty for violation.

(1) A [~~county~~] legislative body may:

(a) pass [~~all~~]ordinances[~~ and rules and make all regulations, not repugnant to law,~~]:

(i) necessary for carrying into effect or discharging the powers and duties conferred by this title[~~,~~]; and

(ii) as are necessary and proper to provide for the safety, and preserve the health, promote the prosperity, improve the morals, peace, and good order, comfort, and convenience of the county and [~~its~~]county inhabitants, and for the protection of property in the county;

(b) enforce obedience to ordinances with fines or penalties as the [~~county~~]legislative body considers proper; [~~and~~]

(c) pass ordinances to control air pollution;

(d) pass resolutions; and

(e) make or adopt policies that conform with a county ordinance, county resolution, or provision of state or federal law.

(2) (a) (i) Punishment imposed under Subsection (1)(b) shall be by fine, [~~not to exceed the maximum fine for a class B misdemeanor under Section 76-3-301,~~]imprisonment, or both fine and imprisonment.

(ii) A fine imposed under Subsection (2)(a)(i) may not exceed the maximum fine for a class B misdemeanor under Section 76-3-301.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(a), a county may not impose a criminal penalty greater than an infraction for a violation pertaining to an individual's pet, as defined in Section 4-12-102, or an individual's use of the individual's residence unless:

(i) the violation:

(A) is a nuisance as that term is defined in Section 78B-6-1101; and

(B) threatens the health, safety, or welfare of the individual or an identifiable third party; or

(ii) the county has imposed a fine on the individual for a violation that involves the same residence or pet on three previous occasions within the past 12 months.

(c) Subsection (2)(b) does not apply to county enforcement of a building code or fire code ordinance in accordance with Title 15A, State Construction and Fire Codes Act.

(d) When a penalty for a violation of an ordinance includes any possibility of imprisonment, the [~~county~~]legislative body shall include in the ordinance a statement that the county is required, under Section 78B-22-301, to provide for indigent defense services, as that term is defined in Section 78B-22-102.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the following may issue a criminal citation for a violation that is punished as a misdemeanor if the violation threatens the health and safety of an animal or the public:

(i) a fire officer described in Section 53-7-102;

(ii) a law enforcement officer described in Section 53-13-103; or

(iii) an animal control officer described in Section 11-46-102.

(3) (a) Except as specifically authorized by statute, the [~~county~~]legislative body may not impose a civil penalty for the violation of a county traffic ordinance.

(b) Subsection (3)(a) does not apply to an ordinance regulating the parking of vehicles on a highway.

(4) A county may not issue more than one infraction within a 14-day period for a violation described in Subsection (2)(b) that is ongoing.

[~~17-53-208~~]17-64-502 (Effective 11/06/25). Ordinances -- Effective dates -- Publication -- Adoption of ordinances printed in book form -- Review of nuisance ordinances.

(1) The enacting clause of an ordinance adopted by the county legislative body shall be as follows: "The County Legislative Body of _____County ordains as follows:".

(2) (a) The chair [~~of the county legislative body~~]shall sign, and the county clerk shall attest to, each ordinance.

(b) If the [~~county~~]legislative body votes to adopt an ordinance, county staff shall:

(i) record the vote of each [~~county legislative body~~]member in attendance and enter each vote in the minutes of the meeting; and

(ii) enter the full text of the adopted ordinance in the county ordinance book.

(3) (a) [~~No~~]Except as provided in Subsection (6), no ordinance passed by the [~~county~~]legislative body may take effect within less than 15 days after [~~its~~]passage of the ordinance.

(b) The [~~county~~]legislative body shall, before the ordinance may take effect:

(i) deposit a copy of the ordinance in the office of the county clerk; and

(ii) (A) publish a short summary of the ordinance, together with a statement that a complete copy of the ordinance is available at the county clerk's office and with the name of the members voting for and against the ordinance:

(I) for at least one publication in:

(Aa) a newspaper published in and having general circulation in the county, if there is one; or

(Bb) if there is none published in the county, in a newspaper of general circulation within the county; and

(II) as required in Section 45-1-101; or

(B) post a complete copy of the ordinance in nine public places within the county.

(4) Any ordinance printed by authority of the [~~county~~]legislative body in book form or electronic media, or any general revision of county ordinances printed in book form or electronic media, may be adopted by an ordinance making reference to the printed ordinance or revision if a copy of the ordinance or revision is filed in the office of the county clerk at the time of adoption for use and examination by the public.

(5) If the [~~county~~]legislative body adopts an ordinance establishing rules and regulations, printed as a code in book form or electronic media, for the construction of buildings, the installation of plumbing, the installation of electric wiring, or other related or similar work, the [~~county~~]legislative body may adopt the ordinance by reference to the code book if a copy of the code book is filed in the office of the county clerk at the time of the adoption of the ordinance for use and examination by the public.

(6) If, in the opinion of the [~~county~~]legislative body, an ordinance is necessary for the immediate preservation of the peace, health, or safety of the county and the county's inhabitants, the ordinance may, if clearly stated in the ordinance, take effect immediately upon publication in one issue of a newspaper published in and having general circulation in the county, if there is one, and if there is none published in the county, then immediately after posting at the courthouse door.

(7) An ordinance may take effect at a later date than provided in this section, if the ordinance clearly states the later effective date.

(8) An order entered in the minutes of the [~~county~~]legislative body that an ordinance has been duly published or posted shall be prima facie proof of the publication or posting.

[~~17-33-15~~]17-64-503 (Effective 11/06/25). Duty of county legislative body to provide for operation and functioning of county personnel -- Conflicts with state or federal law.

(1) It [~~shall be~~]is the duty of the [~~county~~]legislative body to provide [~~by rule or regulation~~]for the operation and functioning of any activity within the purpose and spirit of [~~the act~~]Chapter 75, General County Personnel Management, and Chapter 76, County Emergency Personnel Management, which is necessary and expedient.

[~~(2) If any provision of this act or the application thereof is found to be in conflict with any state or federal law, conflict with which would impair funding otherwise receivable from the state or federal government, the conflicting part is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict and with respect to the department, agency, or institution of the county directly affected, but such finding does not affect the operation of the remainder of this act in any of its applications.~~]

~~(3)~~ Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, [~~no rule or regulation shall be adopted by the county legislative body which~~]a legislative body may not adopt an ordinance or resolution that would deprive the county or any [~~of its~~]county departments, agencies, or institutions of state or federal grants or other forms of financial assistance.

[~~17-53-228~~]17-64-504 (Effective 11/06/25). Administrative hearings and procedures -- Penalty for code violation.

(1) A [~~county~~]legislative body may adopt an ordinance establishing an administrative hearing process to review and decide matters relating to the violation, enforcement, or administration of a county civil ordinance, including an ordinance related to the following:

(a) a building code;

(b) planning and zoning;

(c) animal control;

(d) licensing;

(e) health and safety;

(f) county employment; or

(g) sanitation.

(2) An ordinance adopted in accordance with Subsection (1) shall provide appropriate due process protections for a party participating in an administrative hearing.

(3) An administrative hearing held in accordance with an ordinance described in Subsection (1) may be conducted by an administrative law judge.

(4) A county may not impose a civil penalty and adjudication for the violation of a county moving traffic ordinance.

(5) (a) A county may not impose a nonjudicial penalty for a violation of a land use regulation or a nuisance ordinance unless the county provides to the individual who is subject to the penalty written notice that:

(i) identifies the relevant regulation or ordinance at issue;

(ii) specifies the violation of the relevant regulation or ordinance; and

(iii) provides for a reasonable time to cure the violation, taking into account the cost of curing the violation.

(b) A county may not collect on a nonjudicial penalty for a violation of a land use regulation or a nuisance ordinance that is outstanding or pending on or after May 14, 2019, unless the county imposed the outstanding or pending penalty in relation to a written notice that:

(i) identified the relevant regulation or ordinance at issue;

(ii) specified the violation of the relevant regulation or ordinance; and

(iii) provided for a reasonable time to cure the violation, taking into account the cost of curing the violation.

[~~17-53-216~~]17-64-505 (Effective 11/06/25). Business license fees and taxes -- Application information to be transmitted to the county assessor.

(1) As used in this section, "business" means any enterprise carried on for the purpose of gain or economic profit, except that the acts of employees rendering services to employers are not included in this definition.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection (4), the legislative body [~~of a county~~]may by ordinance:

(a) provide for the licensing of businesses within the unincorporated areas of the county for the purpose of regulation[~~,~~]; and

(b) [~~may~~]impose fees on businesses to recover the county's costs of regulation.

(3) All license fees and taxes shall be uniform in respect to the class upon which [~~they~~]the license fees and taxes are imposed.

(4) (a) As used in this Subsection (4):

(i) (A) "Event requirement" means a requirement a county imposes on individuals who participate in a county event.

(B) "Event requirement" does not include a requirement that is inconsistent with Subsection (4)(b).

(ii) "Exempt individual" means an individual who, under Subsection (4)(b), may not be required to have a business license or permit.

(iii) "County event" means an event hosted or sponsored by a county.

(b) A county may not require a license or permit for a business that is operated:

(i) only occasionally; and

(ii) by an individual who is under 19 years old.

(c) Subsection (4)(b) does not prevent a county from imposing an event requirement on an exempt individual who participates in a county event.

(5) A county may not:

(a) charge a license fee for a [~~home based~~]home-based business unless the combined offsite impact of the [~~home based~~]home-based business and the primary residential use materially exceeds the offsite impact of the primary residential use alone; or

(b) require, as a condition of obtaining or maintaining a license or permit for a business:

(i) that an employee or agent of a business complete education, continuing education, or training that is in addition to requirements under state law or state licensing requirements; or

(ii) that a business disclose financial information, inventory amounts, or proprietary business information except as specifically authorized under state or federal law.

(6) The county business licensing agency shall transmit the information from each approved business license application to the county assessor within 60 days [~~following the approval of~~]after the day on which the licensing agency approves the application.

(7) This section may not be construed to enhance, diminish, or otherwise alter the taxing power of counties existing [~~prior to~~]before the effective date of Laws of Utah 1988,

Chapter 144.

(c) execute a legislative policy or ordinance, as provided by statute.

(2) (a) The county executive may not issue an executive order that:

(i) is inconsistent with county ordinances that address the same subject as the executive order or with policies established by the county legislative body that address the same subject as the executive order; or

(ii) expands or narrows legislative action taken or legislative policy issued by the county legislative body.

(b) If a county legislative body adopts an ordinance or establishes a policy that conflicts with an existing executive order, the ordinance or policy adopted or established by the county legislative body supersedes the executive order.

(3) Each executive order exercising supervisory power over other elected county officers shall be consistent with the authority given the county executive under Section [~~17-53-106~~]17-65-504.

[~~17-53-303~~]17-65-304 (Effective 11/06/25). Examination and audit of accounts.

[~~(1) As used in this section, "finance officer" means the same as that term is defined in Section 17-36-3.~~]

~~(2)~~ The county executive may examine and audit the accounts of all officers having the care, management, collection, or disbursement of money belonging to the county or appropriated by law or otherwise for [~~its~~]the county's use and benefit.

~~(3)~~ (a) Subject to Subsection ~~(3)(b)~~(b), the county's finance officer [~~of the county~~]shall reply to each request for financial information by a county executive within five business days after the day on which the finance officer receives the request[~~, is received~~].

(b) If a request for financial information requires an extended time period to research and compile, the county's finance officer [~~of the county~~]shall provide written notice to the county executive that includes:

(i) an explanation for the delay; and

(ii) the date when the information will be provided to the county executive.

~~(4)~~ Nothing in this section may be construed to affect a county auditor's authority under [~~Chapter 19a, County Auditor~~]Chapter 69, County Auditor.

[~~17-53-315~~]17-65-305 (Effective 11/06/25). Actions -- Control and direction.

(1) (a) A county executive may control and direct the prosecution, defense, and settlement of all lawsuits and other actions:

(i) to which the county is a party;

(ii) as to which the county may be required to pay the judgment or the costs of prosecution or defense; or

(iii) as further provided by county ordinance.

(b) If necessary, the county executive may, upon the recommendation of the county or district attorney or if required by court order, employ counsel to:

(i) represent the county in the lawsuit or other action; or

(ii) assist the county attorney or[~~, in a county that does not have a county attorney,~~]the district attorney in conducting those lawsuits or any other actions where the county attorney or district attorney, as the case may be, is authorized by law to act.

(2) If a lawsuit or other action is brought or prosecuted by another elected official or a board or other entity of the county under a statutory duty, that other elected official, board, or other entity may control and direct the lawsuit or other action, consistent with applicable law.

[~~17-53-306~~]17-65-306 (Effective 11/06/25). Warrants -- Authority to draw on treasury.

(1) The county executive may settle and allow all accounts legally chargeable against the county, after examination by the county auditor, and order warrants to be drawn on the county treasurer for those accounts.

(2) Each warrant drawn by order of the county executive on the county treasurer for current expenses during each year shall specify:

(a) the liability for which it is drawn[~~,~~];

(b) when it accrued[~~,~~]; and

(c) the funds from which it is to be paid.

~~(2)~~ Each warrant shall be paid in the order of presentation to the county treasurer.

~~(3)~~ If the money in the county treasury is insufficient to pay a warrant, the county treasurer shall:

(a) register the warrant; and

(b) pay [~~it~~]the warrant in the order of registration.

~~(4)~~ Accounts for county charges of every description shall be presented to the county auditor and county executive to be audited as prescribed in statute.

[~~17-53-317~~]17-65-307 (Effective 11/06/25). Appointment of an individual with advice and consent of county legislative body.

(1) The appointment of [~~a person~~]an individual to fill a position on a board, committee, or similar body whose membership is appointed by the county shall be by the county executive, with the advice and consent of the county legislative body.

[~~(2) (a) As used in this Subsection (2), "interim vacancy period" means:~~]

[~~(i) for a county commission form or expanded county commission form of government, the period of time that:~~]

[~~(A) begins on the day on which a general election described in Section 17-16-6 is held to elect a commission member; and~~]

[~~(B) ends on the day on which the commission member-elect begins the council member's term; or~~]

[~~(ii) for a county executive-council form of government, the period of time that:~~]

[~~(A) begins on the day on which a general election described in Section 17-16-6 is held to elect a county executive; and~~]

[~~(B) ends on the day on which the county executive-elect begins the county executive's term.~~]

[~~(b)~~]

~~(i)~~ (a) (i) A county commission in a county commission form of government, or a county commission in an expanded county commission form of government, may not appoint during an interim period vacancy a manager, a chief executive officer, a chief administrative officer, or a similar position to perform executive and administrative duties or functions.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection ~~(2)(b)(i)~~(a)(i):

(A) a county commission in a county commission form of government, or a county commission in an expanded county commission form of government, may appoint an interim manager, a chief executive officer, a chief administrative officer, or a similar position during an interim vacancy period; and

(B) the interim appointee's term shall expire once a new manager, a chief executive officer, a chief administrative officer, or a similar position is appointed by the new administration after the interim vacancy period has ended.

~~(c)~~ Subsection ~~(2)(b)~~(a) does not apply if all the county commission members who held office on the day of the county general election whose term of office was vacant for the election are re-elected to the county commission for the following term.

~~(d)~~ (i) A county executive in a county executive-council form of government may not appoint during an interim vacancy period a manager, a chief executive officer, a chief administrative officer, or a similar position to perform executive and administrative duties or functions.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection ~~(2)(d)(i)~~(c)(i):

(A) a county executive in a county executive-council form of government may appoint an interim manager, a chief executive officer, a chief administrative officer, or a similar position during an interim vacancy period; and

(B) the interim appointee's term shall expire once a new manager, a chief executive officer, a chief administrative officer, or a similar position is appointed by the new county executive after the interim vacancy period has ended.

~~(e)~~ Subsection ~~(2)(d)~~(c) does not apply if the county executive who held office on the day of the county general election is re-elected to the office of county executive for the following term.

(3) A county commission in a county commission form of government, a county commission in an expanded county commission form of government, or a county executive in a county executive-council form of government that appoints a manager, a chief executive officer, a chief administrative officer, or a similar position in accordance with this section may not, on or after May 10, 2011, enter into an employment contract that contains an automatic renewal provision with the manager, chief executive officer, chief administrative officer, or similar position.

[~~17-53-312~~]17-65-308 (Effective 11/06/25). County resource development committee -- Membership -- Term -- Compensation and expenses -- Duties.

(1) (a) A county executive may, with the advice and consent of the county legislative body, appoint a county resource development committee of three or more members, at least one of which shall be a member of the county legislative body.

(b) Each member of a county resource development committee shall be a resident of the county.

(2) (a) The term of each member of a county resource development committee shall be two years and until a successor has been appointed.

(b) The legislative body of each county with a county resource development committee shall provide by ordinance for the filling of a vacancy in the membership of the committee and for the removal of a member for nonperformance of duty or misconduct.

(3) (a) Each member shall serve without compensation.

(b) The county legislative body may reimburse a member for actual expenses incurred in performing the member's duties and responsibilities on the committee, upon presentation of proper receipts and vouchers.

(4) The committee may elect such officers from its members as it considers appropriate and may, with the consent and approval of the county legislative body, employ an executive director for the committee.

(5) The committee shall:

(a) assist in promoting the development of the county's mineral, water, manpower, industrial, historical, cultural, and other resources; and

(b) make such recommendations to the county for resource development as the committee considers advisable.

(6) The county executive may cooperate and enter into contracts with municipalities, local communities, other counties, and the state for the purpose of promoting the development of the economic, historical, and cultural resources of the county.

PART 4. County Assets and Contracts

[~~17-53-307~~]17-65-401 (Effective 11/06/25). County purchasing agent.

(1) [~~The county executive, with the advice and consent of the county legislative body, in each~~]In a county having a taxable value in excess of $500,000,000, the county executive may, with the advice and consent of the county legislative body, appoint a county purchasing agent.

(2) (a) The purchasing agent shall qualify by taking, subscribing, and filing the constitutional oath.

(b) The county shall obtain crime insurance:

(i) in an amount set by the county legislative body, in relation to the duties of the purchasing agent; and

(ii) before the purchasing agent begins fulfilling the duties of the purchasing agent.

(3) (a) The county purchasing agent shall, under the direction and supervision of the county executive and except as provided in Subsection (3)(b):

(i) negotiate for the purchase of or contract for all supplies and materials required by the county;

(ii) submit all contracts and purchases negotiated by the purchasing agent under Subsection (3)(a)(i) to the county executive for approval and ratification;

(iii) keep an accurate and complete record of all purchases and a detailed disposition of the purchases; and

(iv) when required by the county legislative body, make a complete and detailed report to the county legislative body of business transacted.

(b) Subject to Subsection (3)(c), the county executive may structure the county purchasing agent's office so that:

(i) the county purchasing agent's office is physically located within the county auditor's office; and

(ii) the county purchasing agent receives direction and supervision from the county auditor.

(c) The county executive:

(i) may not structure the county purchasing agent's office as described in Subsection (3)(b) unless:

(A) the county executive receives the advice and consent of the county [~~council~~]legislative body; and

(B) the county executive and county auditor agree, in writing, to the proposed structure, including the level of direction and supervision of the county purchasing agent retained by the county executive; and

(ii) shall maintain the level of direction and supervision over the county purchasing agent as agreed upon with the county auditor.

(4) The county executive may exclude from the purchasing agent's responsibility a county clerk's duties concerning elections or a sheriff's duties under Section [~~17-22-8~~]17-72-501.

[~~17-53-313~~]17-65-402 (Effective 11/06/25). Hiring of professional architect, engineer, or surveyor -- Higher education entity restrictions.

(1) Notwithstanding the adoption of some or all of the provisions of Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Utah Procurement Code, under Section [~~17-53-225~~]17-63-506, each county executive that engages the services of a professional architect, engineer, or surveyor and considers more than one such professional for the engagement:

~~(1)~~ shall consider, as a minimum, in the selection process:

~~(b)~~ the specific individuals assigned to the project and the time commitments of each to the project; and

~~(c)~~ the project schedule and the approach to the project that the firm will take; and

~~(2)~~ may engage the services of a professional architect, engineer, or surveyor based on the criteria under Subsection (1) rather than solely on lowest cost.

(2) When a county elects to obtain architect or engineering services by using a competitive procurement process and has provided public notice of the county's competitive procurement process:

(a) a higher education entity, or any part of one, may not submit a proposal in response to the county's competitive procurement process; and

(b) the county may not award a contract to perform the architect or engineering services solicited in the competitive procurement process to a higher education entity or any part of one.

[~~17-53-309~~]17-65-403 (Effective 11/06/25). Approval of cost-increase changes in plans and specifications -- Delegation.

(1) If the county executive adopts plans and specifications for the alteration, construction, or repair of any public building or other public structure, the plans and specifications may not be altered or changed in any manner that would increase the cost of altering, constructing, or repairing the building or structure, unless the county executive approves the alteration or change in the plans and specifications.

(2) The county executive may adopt policies and procedures to delegate authority to approve alterations or changes in plans and specifications to a county employee, including the county engineer, architect, surveyor, or director of the department or division responsible for the work.

[~~17-53-310~~]17-65-404 (Effective 11/06/25). Changes or alterations in contract -- Liability of county.

(1) If the county executive enters into a contract for the construction, alteration, or repair of any public building or other public structure, the contract may be altered or changed only if the alteration or change is within the general scope of the contract.

(2) If [~~a~~]the county executive makes a change or alteration [~~in~~]to the contract [~~is made~~], as described in Subsection (1):

(a) the particular change or alteration shall be specified in writing; and

(b) the increase or decrease in cost due to the change or alteration shall be established by the county executive according to either:

(i) the provisions of the contract; or

(ii) established principles of the construction industry.

(3) (a) The county executive may adopt policies and procedures to delegate authority for approval of changes or alterations in the contract to a county employee, including the county engineer, architect, surveyor, or director of the department or division responsible for the work.

(b) Unless the requirements of this section are met, the county is not liable for any extra work done on the buildings or public structures.

[~~17-53-311~~]17-65-405 (Effective 11/06/25). Contracting for management, maintenance, operation, or construction of county jails.

(1) (a) With the approval of the sheriff, a county executive may contract with private contractors for management, maintenance, operation, and construction of county jails.

(b) A county executive may include a provision in the contract that allows use of a building authority created under the provisions of Title 17D, Chapter 2, Local Building Authority Act, to construct or acquire a jail facility.

(c) A county executive may include a provision in the contract that requires that any county jail facility meet any federal, state, or local standards for the construction of jails.

(2) If a county executive contracts only for the management, maintenance, or operation of a county jail, the county executive shall include provisions in the contract that:

(a) require the private contractor to post a performance bond in the amount set by the county legislative body;

(b) establish training standards that shall be met by county jail personnel;

(c) require the private contractor to provide and fund training for county jail personnel so that the county jail personnel meet the standards established in the contract and any other federal, state, or local standards for the operation of jails and the treatment of jail prisoners;

(d) require the private contractor to indemnify the county for errors, omissions, defalcations, and other activities committed by the private contractor that result in liability to the county;

(e) require the private contractor to show evidence of liability insurance protecting the county and its officers, employees, and agents from liability arising from the construction, operation, or maintenance of the county jail, in an amount not less than those specified in Title 63G, Chapter 7, Governmental Immunity Act of Utah;

(f) require the private contractor to:

(i) receive all prisoners committed to the county jail by competent authority; and

(ii) provide them with necessary food, clothing, and bedding in the manner prescribed by the governing body; and

(g) prohibit [~~the use of inmates by~~]the private contractor from using inmates for private business purposes of any kind.

(3) A contractual provision requiring the private contractor to maintain liability insurance in an amount not less than the liability limits established by Title 63G, Chapter 7, Governmental Immunity Act of Utah, may not be construed as waiving the limitation on damages recoverable from a governmental entity or its employees established by that chapter.

Section 161. Section 17-66-101 is enacted to read:

CHAPTER 66. County Officers and Officials Generally

PART 1. General Provisions

17-66-101 (Effective 11/06/25). Definitions.

[~~17-53-101~~]17-66-102 (Effective 11/06/25). County officers enumerated.

[~~(1)~~] The elected officers of a county are:

~~(a)~~ ~~(i)~~ in a county operating under a county commission, as described in Section 17-62-201, or expanded county commission form of government, as described in Section 17-62-202, each county commission [~~members~~]member; or

~~(ii)~~ in a county operating under [~~one of the other forms of county government under Subsection 17-52a-405(1)(a)~~]a county executive-council form of government, as described in Section 17-62-203, or a council-manager form of government, as described in Section 17-62-204, the county legislative body members and the county executive;

(2) the county assessor, with powers and duties described in Chapter 67, County Assessor;

(3) the county attorney and a district attorney in a county which is part of a prosecution district, with powers and duties described in Chapter 68, County and District Attorney;

(4) the county auditor, with powers and duties described in Chapter 69, County Auditor;

(5) the county clerk, with powers and duties described in Chapter 70, County Clerk;

(6) the county recorder, with powers and duties described in Chapter 71, County Recorder;

(7) the county sheriff, with powers and duties described in Chapter 72, County Sheriff;

(8) the county surveyor, with powers and duties described in Chapter 73, County Surveyor; and

(9) the county treasurer, with powers and duties described in Chapter 74, County Treasurer.

[~~(b) a county treasurer, a sheriff, a county clerk, a county auditor, a county recorder, a county attorney, a district attorney in a county which is part of a prosecution district, a county surveyor, and a county assessor; and~~]

[~~(c) any others provided by law.~~]

[~~(2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), in counties having a taxable value of less than $100,000,000 the county clerk shall be ex officio auditor of the county and shall perform the duties of the office without extra compensation.~~]

[~~17-16-9~~]17-66-103 (Effective 11/06/25). Officers at county seats -- Office hours.

(1) (a) The elected county officers of a county, except a county with a population of less than 8,000, shall have offices at the county seat.

(b) A county legislative body may authorize [~~the elected~~]county officers [~~of the county~~]to maintain additional office space at a location within the county that is not at the county seat.

(c) The county shall furnish an office, furniture, and necessary supplies for a county officer.

(2) (a) In all counties, the clerk, sheriff, recorder, auditor, treasurer, assessor, and county attorney shall keep office space open for the transaction of business as authorized by resolution of the county legislative body.

(b) If the [~~county~~]legislative body does not authorize hours of operation for Saturdays, then the hours served by [~~the~~]county employees [~~of the county may not be less than under their present schedule~~]shall be set by:

(i) the county legislative body; or

(ii) personnel policies governing county employees made in accordance with the provisions of this title.

(c) (i) Any act authorized, required, or permitted to be performed at or by, or with respect to, any county office on a Saturday when the county office is closed, may be performed on the next business day.

(ii) No liability or loss of rights of any kind may result from the delay described in Subsection (2)(c)(i).

[~~17-16-3~~]17-66-104 (Effective 11/06/25). Consolidation of county offices -- County clerk to perform duties of county auditor under certain circumstances.

(1) A [~~county~~]legislative body may, unless prohibited by Subsection (2), pass an ordinance that:

(a) consolidates county offices and establishes the duties of [~~those~~]consolidated county offices;

(b) separates any previously consolidated offices and reconsolidates [~~them~~]county offices; or

(c) separates any previously consolidated county offices without reconsolidating them.

(2) A [~~county~~]legislative body may not:

(a) consolidate the offices of county commissioner, county council member, or county treasurer with the office of county auditor;

(b) consolidate the office of county executive with the office of county auditor, unless a referendum approving that consolidation passes; or

(c) consolidate the offices of county commissioner, county council member, county executive, county assessor, or county auditor with the office of county treasurer.

(3) Each [~~county~~]legislative body shall ensure that any ordinance consolidating or separating county offices:

(a) is enacted before [~~the~~]November 1 of the year before the year in which county officers are elected; and

(b) takes effect on the first Monday in January after the year in which county officers are elected.

(4) (a) Each [~~county~~]legislative body shall:

(i) enact an ordinance by February 1, 2010, separating any county offices that are prohibited from consolidation by this section; and

(ii) publish, by February 15, 2010, a notice once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county identifying the county offices that will be filled in the November 2010 election.

(b) [~~(i)~~] If a [~~county~~]legislative body has, by February 1, 2006, enacted an ordinance, in compliance with this Subsection (4) then in effect, separating county offices that are prohibited from consolidation by this section, the [~~county~~]legislative body may repeal that ordinance.

[~~(ii) If a county legislative body has published notice in a newspaper identifying the county offices that will be filled in the November 2006 election, and that notice, because of a repeal of an ordinance under Subsection (4)(b)(i), is incorrect, the county legislative body shall publish notice once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county indicating that the previous notice was incorrect and correctly identifying the county offices that will be filled in the November 2006 election.~~]

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section and Section 17-66-102, in counties having a taxable value of less than $100,000,000, the county clerk shall be ex officio county auditor and shall perform the duties of the office without extra compensation.

[~~17-16-11~~]17-66-105 (Effective 11/06/25). Crime insurance for county officers.

(a) [~~the members of the county legislative body;~~]a county officer enumerated in Section 17-66-102;

(b) a deputy or assistant of a county officer enumerated in Section 17-66-102, if the county legislative body requires the deputy or assistant to obtain crime insurance;

[~~(b) the county executive;~~]

[~~(c) the county clerk;~~]

[~~(d) the county auditor;~~]

[~~(e) the county sheriff;~~]

[~~(f) the county attorney;~~]

[~~(g) in a county that is within a prosecution district, the district attorney;~~]

[~~(h) the county recorder;~~]

[~~(i) the county assessor;~~]

[~~(j) the county surveyor;~~]

~~(k)~~ each justice court judge [~~and constable~~]within the county; and

(d) each constable appointed or contracted within the county, as described in Chapter 78, Part 6, Constables.

[~~(l) the county treasurer; and~~]

[~~(m) a deputy or assistant of an individual described in Subsections (1)(a) through (l) whom the county legislative body requires to obtain crime insurance.~~]

(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b):

(i) the legislative body [~~of each county~~]shall set the amount of crime insurance to be acquired for county officials; and

(ii) a county official may not discharge the duties of the county official's office before obtaining the crime insurance described in Subsection (2)(a)(i).

(b) The State Money Management Council created in Section 51-7-16 shall set the amount of crime insurance required for the county treasurer.

(c) The county treasurer may not discharge the duties of the county treasurer's office before obtaining the crime insurance described in Subsection (2)(b).

(3) A [~~county~~]legislative body may acquire crime insurance on all county officials as a group rather than individually.

(4) The cost of a crime insurance policy shall be paid from county funds.

(5) The county clerk shall maintain proof of the crime insurance described in this section.

(6) (a) The district attorney of each multicounty prosecution district shall:

(i) obtain crime insurance in the amount specified in the interlocal agreement that created the prosecution district; and

(ii) file proof of the crime insurance policy with the county clerk as specified in the interlocal agreement.

(b) The cost of a crime insurance policy described in Subsection (6)(a) shall be paid as specified in the interlocal agreement that created the prosecution district.

[~~17-16-8~~]17-66-106 (Effective 11/06/25). County officer deputies -- Powers, duties, and liabilities of county officer deputies.

(1) A county officer may appoint one or more deputies in accordance with the requirements of Section 17-75-201.

(2) Whenever the [~~official name~~]title of [~~any principal~~]a county officer is used in any law conferring powers or imposing duties or liabilities[~~, it~~], the title of the county officer includes the county officer's deputies.

PART 2. Qualifications and Term

[~~17-16-1~~]17-66-201 (Effective 11/06/25). Eligibility and residency requirements for county office -- Election of county officer to consolidated office.

(1) An individual filing a declaration of candidacy for a [~~county, district, precinct, or prosecution district office~~]county officer enumerated in Section 17-66-102 or any other county elected official established by law shall:

(a) be a United States citizen;

(b) except as provided in Section 20A-1-509.2 with respect to the office of county attorney or district attorney, as of the date of the election, have been a resident for at least one year of the county, district, precinct, or prosecution district in which the individual seeks office;

(c) be a registered voter in the county, district, precinct, or prosecution district in which the individual seeks office; and

(d) if the individual is filing a declaration of candidacy for the office of county auditor in a county of the first class, meet the qualifications described in Section [~~17-19a-201.5~~]17-69-202.

(2) (a) A county, district, precinct, or prosecution district officer shall maintain residency within the county, district, precinct, or prosecution district in which the officer was elected during the officer's term of office.

(b) If a county, district, precinct, or prosecution district officer establishes the officer's principal place of residence as provided in Section 20A-2-105 outside the county, district, precinct, or prosecution district in which the officer was elected, the office is automatically vacant.

(3) When county offices are consolidated, as described in Section 17-66-104:

(a) only one individual shall be elected to fill the consolidated offices; and

(b) the individual elected shall:

(i) take the oath required for each of the offices;

(ii) obtain the crime insurance required for each of the offices, as established under Section 17-66-105; and

(iii) discharge all the duties of each of the offices.

[~~17-16-6~~]17-66-202 (Effective 11/06/25). County officers -- Time of holding elections -- County commissioners -- Terms of office.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in an optional plan adopted under [~~Chapter 52a, Changing Forms of County Government~~]Chapter 62, Forms of County Government:

(a) each elected county officer shall be elected at the regular general election every four years in accordance with Section 20A-1-201, except as otherwise provided in this title;

(b) county commissioners shall be elected at the times, in the manner, and for the terms provided in Section [~~17-52a-201~~]17-62-201; and

(c) an elected officer shall hold office for the term for which the officer is elected, beginning at noon on the first Monday in January following the officer's election and until a successor is elected or appointed and qualified, except as provided in Section [~~17-16-1~~]17-66-201.

(2) (a) The terms of county officers shall be staggered in accordance with this Subsection (2).

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(c), in the 2014 general election:

(i) the following county officers shall be elected to one six-year term and thereafter elected to a four-year term:

(A) county treasurer;

(B) county recorder;

(C) county surveyor; and

(D) county assessor; and

(ii) all other county officers shall be elected to a four-year term.

(c) If a county legislative body consolidates two or more county offices in accordance with Section [~~17-16-3~~]17-66-104, and the consolidated offices are on conflicting election schedules, the county legislative body shall pass an ordinance [~~that sets~~]setting the election schedule for the consolidated offices in a reasonable manner that staggers the terms of county officers as provided in this Subsection (2).

(3) An individual who holds a municipal elected office may not, at the same time, hold a county elected office.

(4) The restriction described in Subsection (3) applies regardless of whether the individual is elected to the office or appointed to fill a vacancy in the office.

[~~17-16-12~~]17-66-203 (Effective 11/06/25). Business to be finished before expiration of term -- Vacancy in a county office.

(1) It shall be the duty of all county officers [~~in this title named~~]to complete the business of [~~their~~]the county officer's respective [~~offices~~]office to the time of the expiration of [~~their~~]the county officer's respective [~~terms, and in case an~~]term.

(2) If a county officer, at the close of the county officer's term[~~, shall leave~~], leaves to the county officer's successor official labor to be performed for which the preceding county officer has received compensation or which it was the preceding county officer's duty to perform, the preceding county officer shall be liable to pay the [~~officer's successor~~]county the full value of [~~such~~]the service.

(3) Except as provided in Section 17-68-203, a vacancy in a county office shall be filled as provided in Section 20A-1-508.

[~~17-16-10.5~~]17-66-204 (Effective 11/06/25). Failure to perform duties constitutes malfeasance in office -- Felony charges arising from official duties -- Paid administrative leave -- Reassignment of duties.

(1) The failure of [~~an elected~~]a county officer or prosecution district officer[~~, substantially~~], as described in Chapter 68, County and District Attorney, to substantially perform the officer's official duties constitutes malfeasance in office under Section 77-6-1.

(2) (a) If [~~an elected~~]a county officer or prosecution district officer is charged with the commission of a felony arising from conduct related to the county officer's or district officer's official duties, the officer shall be placed on paid administrative leave by the county legislative body until:

(i) the charges are dismissed or the officer is acquitted, at which time the officer shall be entitled to return to office, unless the officer's term of office has in the meantime expired; or

(ii) the officer is convicted of a felony or attempt to commit a felony arising from conduct related to the officer's official duties, in which case the sentencing judge shall order the officer removed from office.

(b) A conviction or a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, relating to a felony charge described in Subsection (2)(a), constitutes malfeasance in office for purposes of Section 77-6-1.

(c) Entry of a plea in abeyance is the equivalent of a conviction for purposes of Subsection (2)(a)(ii), even if the charge is later dismissed pursuant to a plea in abeyance agreement.

(d) The provisions under this Subsection (2) for the removal of a county or prosecution district officer are in addition to and do not replace or supersede the removal provisions under Title 77, Chapter 6, Removal by Judicial Proceedings.

(3) (a) During the time that [~~an elected~~]a county officer or prosecution district officer is on paid administrative leave under Subsection (2), the officer's duties may, except as provided in Subsection (3)(c), be temporarily:

(i) reassigned to another officer by the county legislative body; or

(ii) performed by [~~a person~~]an individual employed for [~~that~~]the purpose of fulfilling the officer's duties while the officer is on paid administrative leave.

(b) For purposes of Subsection (3)(a) with respect to a prosecution district officer in a multi-county prosecution district, "county legislative body" means the legislative bodies of all counties included in the prosecution district.

(c) A reassignment under Subsection (3)(a) may not result in the same [~~person~~]individual exercising the duties of:

(i) both a county legislative body member or county treasurer and county auditor; or

(ii) both a county executive and county auditor.

Section 171. Section 17-66-205 is enacted to read:

17-66-205 (Effective 11/06/25). Candidates to comply with conflict of interest disclosures.

A candidate for county office or local school board office shall comply with the requirements of Section 17-70-304.

PART 3. Fiscal Duties

[~~17-53-103~~]17-66-301 (Effective 11/06/25). Unauthorized payment or warrant -- Investigation by another county attorney -- Action to enjoin or recover payment.

(1) (a) If a county officer, without authority of law, orders any money paid for any purpose, or if any other county officer draws a warrant in the county officer's own favor or in favor of any other person without being authorized by the county legislative body or by law, the county attorney of that county shall request a county attorney from another county to investigate whether an unauthorized payment has been ordered or an unauthorized warrant drawn.

(b) If the county attorney requests a county attorney from another county to investigate under Subsection (1)(a), the county attorney shall deputize the investigating county attorney.

(2) If an investigating county attorney determines that an unauthorized payment has been ordered or that an unauthorized warrant has been drawn, that county attorney may commence and prosecute an action in the name of the county:

(a) if the payment has not been made or the warrant paid, to enjoin the payment of the unauthorized payment or of the unauthorized warrant; or

(b) if the payment has been made or the warrant paid:

(i) to the extent possible, to recover the amount from the payee or the county officer; or

(ii) to the extent applicable, to recover the amount in accordance with the applicable crime insurance policy.

(3) An order of the county legislative body is not necessary in order to maintain an action under Subsection (2).

[~~17-53-105~~]17-66-302 (Effective 11/06/25). Deposit of money in treasury.

Each county officer who collects any money on behalf of the county shall as rapidly as [~~it~~]the money is collected deposit [~~it~~]the money into the county treasury.

[~~17-16-21~~]17-66-303 (Effective 11/06/25). Fees of county officers.

(1) As used in this section, "county officer" means a county officer enumerated in Section [~~17-53-101~~]17-66-102 except a county recorder, a county constable, or a county sheriff.

(2) (a) A county officer shall collect, in advance, for exclusive county use and benefit:

(i) a fee established by the county legislative body under Section [~~17-53-211~~]17-63-707; and

(ii) any other fee authorized or required by law.

(b) As long as the Children's Legal Defense Account is authorized by Section 51-9-408, the county clerk shall:

(i) assess $10 in addition to whatever fee for a marriage license is established under authority of this section; and

(ii) transmit $10 from each marriage license fee to the Division of Finance for deposit into the Children's Legal Defense Account.

(c) (i) As long as the Division of Child and Family Services, created in Section 80-2-201, has the responsibility under Section 80-2-301 to provide services, including temporary shelter, for victims of domestic violence, the county clerk shall:

(A) collect $10 in addition to whatever fee for a marriage license is established under authority of this section and in addition to the amount described in Subsection (2)(b), if an applicant chooses, as provided in Subsection (2)(c)(ii), to pay the additional $10; and

(B) to the extent actually paid, transmit $10 from each marriage license fee to the Division of Finance for distribution to the Division of Child and Family Services for the operation of shelters for victims of domestic violence.

(ii) (A) The county clerk shall provide a method for an applicant for a marriage license to choose to pay the additional $10 referred to in Subsection (2)(c)(i).

(B) An applicant for a marriage license may choose not to pay the additional $10 referred to in Subsection (2)(c)(i) without affecting the applicant's ability to be issued a marriage license.

(d) If a county operates an online marriage application system, the county clerk of that county:

(i) may assess $20 in addition to the other fees for a marriage license established under this section;

(ii) except as provided in Subsection (2)(d)(iii), shall transmit $20 from the marriage license fee to the state treasurer for deposit annually as follows:

(A) the first $400,000 shall accrue to the Utah Marriage Commission, created in Title 63M, Chapter 15, Utah Marriage Commission, as dedicated credits for the operation of the Utah Marriage Commission; and

(B) proceeds in excess of $400,000 shall be deposited into the General Fund; and

(iii) may not transmit $20 from the marriage license fee to the state treasurer under this Subsection (2)(d) if both individuals seeking the marriage license certify that they have completed premarital counseling or education in accordance with Section 81-2-206.

(3) This section does not apply to a fee currently being assessed by the state but collected by a county officer.

[~~17-16-16~~]17-66-502 (Effective 11/06/25). Commissioner traveling expenses.

(1) The members of the board of county commissioners may not receive any compensation in addition to that provided in Section [~~17-16-14~~]17-66-401 for any special or committee work, but, subject to Subsection (2), each [~~member~~]commissioner shall receive travel expenses for attending the regular and special sessions of the board and in the discharge of necessary duties, in accordance with Section 11-55-103.

(2) Before receiving travel expenses described in Subsection (1), the [~~member~~]commissioner shall:

(a) submit an itemized statement showing in detail the expenses incurred; and

(b) subscribe and swear to the statement described in Subsection (2)(a).

[~~17-15-27~~]17-66-503 (Effective 11/06/25). Appointment of legal counsel by county executive and county legislative body.

(1) (a) An elected county executive in a county that has adopted a county executive-council form of county government under [~~Chapter 52a, Changing Forms of County Government~~]Chapter 62, Forms of County Government, may appoint an attorney to advise and represent the county executive.

(b) An attorney appointed under Subsection (1)(a):

(i) serves at the pleasure of the county executive; and

(ii) may not perform any of the functions of a county attorney or district attorney under [~~this title~~]Chapter 68, County and District Attorney, except as provided in this section.

(c) An attorney appointed under this Subsection (1) may represent the county executive in cases and controversies before courts and administrative agencies and tribunals when a conflict exists that precludes the county or district attorney from representing the county executive.

(2) (a) The legislative body of a county that has adopted a county executive-council form of county government under [~~Chapter 52a, Changing Forms of County Government~~]Chapter 62, Forms of County Government, may appoint an attorney to advise and represent the county legislative body.

(b) An attorney appointed under Subsection (2)(a):

(i) serves at the pleasure of the county legislative body; and

(ii) may not perform any of the functions of a county attorney or district attorney under this title, except as provided in this section.

(c) An attorney appointed under this Subsection (2) may represent the county legislative body in cases and controversies before courts and administrative agencies and tribunals when a conflict exists that precludes the county or district attorney from representing the county legislative body.

[~~17-53-106~~]17-66-504 (Effective 11/06/25). Supervision of county elected officers -- Legislative body and executive may examine and audit accounts and conduct investigation.

(1) As used in this section, "professional duties" means a county elected officer's functions, duties, and responsibilities specifically provided for by law and includes:

(a) the exercise of professional judgment and discretion reasonably related to the officer's required functions, duties, and responsibilities; and

(b) the management of deputies and other employees under the supervision of the elected officer under statute or county ordinance, policy, or regulation.

(2) (a) A [~~county~~]legislative body and a county executive each:

(i) may generally direct and supervise all elected county officers and employees to ensure compliance with general county administrative ordinances, rules, or policies;

(ii) may not direct or supervise other elected county officers or their sworn deputies with respect to the performance of the professional duties of the officers or deputies;

(iii) may examine and audit the accounts of all county officers having the care, management, collection, or distribution of money belonging to the county, appropriated to the county, or otherwise available for the county's use and benefit; and

(iv) may investigate any matter pertaining to a county officer or to the county or its business or affairs, and may require the attendance of witnesses and take evidence in any such investigation.

(b) In an investigation under Subsection (2)(a)(iv):

(i) the county executive or any member of the [~~county~~]legislative body may issue subpoenas and administer oaths to witnesses; and

(ii) if the county legislative body appoints members of the legislative body as a committee and confers on the committee power to hear or take evidence, the committee shall have the same power as the full [~~county~~] legislative body.

(3) Nothing in this section may be construed to prohibit the county executive or county legislative body from initiating an action for removal or prosecution of an elected county officer as provided by statute.

[~~17-16-203~~]17-70-402 (Effective 11/06/25). Personal use expenditure -- Authorized and prohibited uses of campaign funds -- Enforcement -- Penalties.

(1) A county office candidate, county officer, local school board candidate, or local school board member may not use money deposited into the separate bank account required under Section [~~17-16-6.5~~]17-70-403 for:

(a) a personal use expenditure; or

(b) an expenditure prohibited by law.

(2) (a) A county clerk shall enforce this section prohibiting a personal use expenditure by:

(i) evaluating a financial statement to identify a personal use expenditure; and

(ii) commencing an adjudicative proceeding in accordance with applicable county ordinance or policy if the county clerk has probable cause to believe a county office candidate, county officer, local school board candidate, or local school board member has made a personal use expenditure.

(b) Following the adjudicative proceeding described in Subsection (2)(a)(ii), the county clerk may issue a signed order requiring a county office candidate, county officer, local school board candidate, or local school board member who has made a personal use expenditure to:

(i) remit an administrative penalty of an amount equal to 50% of the personal use expenditure to the county clerk; and

(ii) deposit the amount of the personal use expenditure in the campaign account from which the personal use expenditure was disbursed.

(c) The county clerk shall deposit money received under Subsection (2)(b)(i) into the county's general fund.

[~~17-16-6.5~~]17-70-403 (Effective 11/06/25). Campaign financial disclosure in county elections.

(1) A county shall adopt an ordinance establishing campaign finance disclosure requirements for:

(a) candidates for county office; and

(b) candidates for local school board office who reside in that county.

(2) The ordinance required by Subsection (1) shall include:

(a) a requirement that each candidate for county office or local school board office report the candidate's itemized and total campaign contributions and expenditures at least once within the two weeks before the election and at least once within two months after the election;

(b) a definition of "contribution" and "expenditure" that requires reporting of nonmonetary contributions such as in-kind contributions and contributions of tangible things;

(c) a requirement that the financial reports identify:

(i) for each contribution, the name of the donor of the contribution, if known, and the amount of the contribution; and

(ii) for each expenditure, the name of the recipient and the amount of the expenditure;

(d) a requirement that a candidate for county office or local school board office deposit a contribution in a separate campaign account into a financial institution;

(e) a prohibition against a candidate for county office or local school board office depositing or mingling any contributions received into a personal or business account;

(f) a requirement that a candidate for county office who receives a contribution that is cash or a negotiable instrument, exceeds $50, and is from a donor whose name is unknown, shall, within 30 days after receiving the contribution, disburse the amount of the contribution to:

(i) the treasurer of the state or a political subdivision for deposit into the state's or political subdivision's general fund; or

(ii) an organization that is exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code;

(g) a requirement that a candidate seeking appointment to fill a midterm vacancy in a county office or local school board office file the financial report described in Subsection (2)(c) with the county clerk:

(i) for a county office vacancy described in Subsection 20A-1-508(3) or (7), no later than three business days before the day on which the political party of the prior officeholder submits the candidate's name to the county legislative body as the individual the political party selects to fill the vacancy;

(ii) for a county or district attorney office vacancy described in Subsection 20A-1-509.1(5)(a), no later than three business days before the day on which the political party of the prior officeholder submits the candidate's name to the county legislative body as one of the three individuals the party nominates to fill the vacancy;

(iii) for a county or district attorney office vacancy described in Section 20A-1-509.2:

(A) no later than the deadline for the candidate to submit an application to fill the vacancy under Subsection 20A-1-509.2(2)(c); and

(B) if, under Subsection 20A-1-509.2(3), more than three attorneys submit an application to fill the vacancy, no later than three business days before the day on which the political party of the prior officeholder submits the candidate's name to the county legislative body as one of the three individuals the party nominates to fill the vacancy; or

(iv) for a local school board office vacancy, no later than three business days before the day on which the local school board meets to interview each candidate interested in filling the vacancy in accordance with Section 20A-1-511; and

(h) a requirement that, upon receipt of the financial report described in Subsection (2)(g), the county clerk immediately submit a copy of the report to the county legislative body.

(3) (a) As used in this Subsection (3), "account" means an account in a financial institution:

(i) that is not described in Subsection (2)(d); and

(ii) into which or from which a person who, as a candidate for an office, other than a county office for which the person files a declaration of candidacy or federal office, or as a holder of an office, other than a county office for which the person files a declaration of candidacy or federal office, deposits a contribution or makes an expenditure.

(b) The ordinance required by Subsection (1) shall include a requirement that a candidate for county office or local school board office include on a financial report filed in accordance with the ordinance a contribution deposited in or an expenditure made from an account:

(i) since the last financial report was filed; or

(ii) that has not been reported under a statute or ordinance that governs the account.

(4) If any county fails to adopt a campaign finance disclosure ordinance described in Subsection (1), candidates for county office, other than community council office, and candidates for local school board office shall comply with the financial reporting requirements contained in Subsections (5) through (10).

(5) A candidate for elective office in a county or local school board office:

(a) shall deposit a contribution into a separate campaign account in a financial institution; and

(b) may not deposit or mingle any contributions received into a personal or business account.

(6) Each candidate for elective office in any county who is not required to submit a campaign financial statement to the lieutenant governor, and each candidate for local school board office, shall file a signed campaign financial statement with the county clerk:

(a) seven days before the date of the regular general election, reporting each contribution and each expenditure as of 10 days before the date of the regular general election; and

(b) no later than 30 days after the date of the regular general election.

(7) (a) The statement filed seven days before the regular general election shall include:

(i) a list of each contribution received by the candidate, and the name of the donor, if known; and

(ii) a list of each expenditure for political purposes made during the campaign period, and the recipient of each expenditure.

(b) The statement filed 30 days after the regular general election shall include:

(i) a list of each contribution received after the cutoff date for the statement filed seven days before the election, and the name of the donor; and

(ii) a list of all expenditures for political purposes made by the candidate after the cutoff date for the statement filed seven days before the election, and the recipient of each expenditure.

(8) (a) As used in this Subsection (8), "account" means an account in a financial institution:

(i) that is not described in Subsection (5)(a); and

(ii) into which or from which a person who, as a candidate for an office, other than a county office for which the person filed a declaration of candidacy or federal office, or as a holder of an office, other than a county office for which the person filed a declaration of candidacy or federal office, deposits a contribution or makes an expenditure.

(b) A county office candidate and a local school board office candidate shall include on any campaign financial statement filed in accordance with Subsection (6) or (7):

(i) a contribution deposited into an account:

(A) since the last campaign finance statement was filed; or

(B) that has not been reported under a statute or ordinance that governs the account; or

(ii) an expenditure made from an account:

(A) since the last campaign finance statement was filed; or

(B) that has not been reported under a statute or ordinance that governs the account.

(9) Within 30 days after receiving a contribution that is cash or a negotiable instrument, exceeds $50, and is from a donor whose name is unknown, a county office candidate shall disburse the amount of the contribution to:

(a) the treasurer of the state or a political subdivision for deposit into the state's or political subdivision's general fund; or

(b) an organization that is exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code.

(10) Candidates for elective office in any county, and candidates for local school board office, who are eliminated at a primary election shall file a signed campaign financial statement containing the information required by this section not later than 30 days after the primary election.

(11) (a) A candidate seeking appointment to fill a midterm vacancy in a county office or local school board office shall:

(i) comply with Subsections (5) and (9); and

(ii) file a signed campaign financial statement with the county clerk no later than the deadline described in Subsection (2)(g).

(b) Upon receipt of the campaign financial statement described in Subsection (11)(a)(ii), the county clerk shall immediately submit a copy of the statement to the county legislative body.

(12) Any [~~person~~]individual who fails to comply with this section is guilty of an infraction.

(13) (a) Counties may, by ordinance, enact requirements that:

(i) require greater disclosure of campaign contributions and expenditures; and

(ii) impose additional penalties.

(b) The requirements described in Subsection (13)(a) apply to a local school board office candidate who resides in that county.

(14) If a candidate fails to file an interim report due before the election, the county clerk:

(a) may send an electronic notice to the candidate and the political party of which the candidate is a member, if any, that states:

(i) that the candidate failed to timely file the report; and

(ii) that, if the candidate fails to file the report within 24 hours after the deadline for filing the report, the candidate will be disqualified and the political party will not be permitted to replace the candidate; and

(b) impose a fine of $100 on the candidate.

(15) (a) The county clerk shall disqualify a candidate and inform the appropriate election officials that the candidate is disqualified if the candidate fails to file an interim report described in Subsection (14) within 24 hours after the deadline for filing the report.

(b) The political party of a candidate who is disqualified under Subsection (15)(a) may not replace the candidate.

(c) A candidate who is disqualified under Subsection (15)(a) shall file with the county clerk a complete and accurate campaign finance statement within 30 days after the day on which the candidate is disqualified.

(16) If a candidate is disqualified under Subsection (15)(a), the election official:

(a) shall:

(i) notify every opposing candidate for the county office that the candidate is disqualified;

(ii) send an email notification to each voter who is eligible to vote in the county election office race for whom the election official has an email address informing the voter that the candidate is disqualified and that votes cast for the candidate will not be counted;

(iii) post notice of the disqualification on the county's website; and

(iv) if practicable, remove the candidate's name from the ballot by blacking out the candidate's name before the ballots are delivered to voters; and

(b) may not count any votes for that candidate.

(17) An election official may fulfill the requirement described in Subsection (16)(a) in relation to a mailed ballot, including a military or overseas ballot, by including with the ballot a written notice directing the voter to the county's website to inform the voter whether a candidate on the ballot is disqualified.

(18) A candidate is not disqualified if:

(a) the candidate files the interim reports described in Subsection (14) no later than 24 hours after the applicable deadlines for filing the reports;

(b) the reports are completed, detailing accurately and completely the information required by this section except for inadvertent omissions or insignificant errors or inaccuracies; and

(c) the omissions, errors, or inaccuracies are corrected in an amended report or in the next scheduled report.

(19) (a) A report is considered timely filed if:

(i) the report is received in the county clerk's office no later than midnight, Mountain Time, at the end of the day on which the report is due;

(ii) the report is received in the county clerk's office with a United States Postal Service postmark three days or more before the date that the report was due; or

(iii) the candidate has proof that the report was mailed, with appropriate postage and addressing, three days before the report was due.

(b) For a county clerk's office that is not open until midnight at the end of the day on which a report is due, the county clerk shall permit a candidate to file the report via email or another electronic means designated by the county clerk.

(20) (a) Any private party in interest may bring an action in a court with jurisdiction under Title 78A, Judiciary and Judicial Administration, to enforce the provisions of this section or any ordinance adopted under this section.

(b) In a civil action filed under Subsection (20)(a), the court shall award costs and attorney fees to the prevailing party.

(21) Notwithstanding any provision of Title 63G, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act, the county clerk shall:

(a) make each campaign finance statement filed by a candidate available for public inspection and copying no later than one business day after the statement is filed; and

(b) make the campaign finance statement filed by a candidate available for public inspection by:

(i) posting an electronic copy or the contents of the statement on the county's website no later than seven business days after the day on which the statement is filed; and

(ii) in order to meet the requirements of Subsection 20A-11-103(4)(b)(ii), providing the lieutenant governor with a link to the electronic posting described in Subsection (21)(b)(i) no later than two business days after the day the statement is filed.

[~~17-16a-10~~]17-70-510 (Effective 11/06/25). Prohibitions -- Violations.

(1) In addition to any penalty contained in any other provision of law, [~~a person~~]an individual who knowingly and intentionally violates this part:

(a) is guilty of a class A misdemeanor; and

(b) shall be dismissed from employment or removed from office.

(2) No person shall induce or seek to induce an officer to violate any of the provisions of this part.

[~~17-16a-11~~]17-70-511 (Effective 11/06/25). County ethics commission -- Complaints charging violations -- Procedure.

(1) A county may establish by ordinance an ethics commission to review a complaint, except as provided in Subsection (3), against [~~an~~]a county officer or county employee subject to this part for a violation of a provision of this part.

(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (3), a person filing a complaint for a violation of this part shall file the complaint:

(i) with the county ethics commission, if the county has established a county ethics commission in accordance with Subsection (1); or

(ii) with the Political Subdivisions Ethics Review Commission established in accordance with Title 63A, Chapter 15, Political Subdivisions Ethics Review Commission, if the county has not established a county ethics commission.

(b) A county that receives a complaint described in Subsection (2)(a) may:

(i) accept the complaint if the county has established a county ethics commission in accordance with Subsection (1); or

(ii) forward the complaint to the Political Subdivisions Ethics Review Commission established in Section 63A-15-201:

(A) regardless of whether the county has established a county ethics commission; or

(B) if the county has not established a county ethics commission.

(3) Any complaint against [~~a person~~]an individual who is under the merit system, charging [~~that person~~]the individual with a violation of this part, shall be filed and processed in accordance with the provisions of the merit system.

Section 253. Section 17-71-101 is enacted to read:

(vi) the kind of instrument[~~,~~];

(vii) the consideration[~~,~~];

(viii) the book and page[~~,~~] of the entry record where the county recorder entered the instrument; and

(ix) a brief description;

(f) subject to Subsection (4), keep a tract index, which shall show by description for every recorded instrument[~~ recorded,~~]:

(i) the instrument's date[~~ and~~];

(ii) the kind of instrument[~~,~~];

(iii) the time [~~of recording,~~]the county recorder recorded the instrument;[~~and~~]

(iv) the book and page of the entry record where the county recorder entered the instrument; and

(v) the instrument's entry number in the county recorder's entry record;

(g) keep an index of recorded maps, plats, and subdivisions;

(h) keep an index of powers of attorney showing:

(i) the date and time [~~of recording,~~]the county recorder recorded the power of attorney;

(ii) the book[~~, the~~] and page[~~,~~] of the entry record where the county recorder entered the power of attorney; and

(iii) the power of attorney's entry number in the county recorder's entry record;

(i) keep a miscellaneous index, in which the county recorder shall enter all instruments of a miscellaneous character not otherwise provided for in this section, showing:

(i) the date [~~of recording,~~]the county recorder recorded the instrument;

(ii) the book[~~, the~~] and page of the entry record where the county recorder entered the instrument[~~,~~];

(iii) the instrument's entry number in the county recorder's entry record[~~,~~];

(iv) the kind of instrument[~~,~~];and

(v) [~~from, to, and~~]the parties to the instrument;

(j) keep an index of judgments showing:

(i) the judgment debtors[~~,~~];

(ii) the judgment creditors[~~,~~];

(iii) the judgment amount[~~ of judgment,~~];

(iv) the date and time [~~of recording,~~]the county recorder recorded the judgment;

(v) the satisfaction[~~, and~~];

(vi) the book[~~, the~~] and page[~~,~~] of the entry record where the county recorder entered the instrument; and

(vii) the instrument's entry number in the county recorder's entry record;

(k) keep a general recording index in which the county recorder shall index all executions and writs of attachment, and any other instruments not required by law to be spread upon the records, and in separate columns the county recorder shall enter the names of the plaintiffs in the execution and the names of the defendants in the execution;

(l) keep an index of water right numbers that are included on an instrument recorded on or after May 13, 2014, showing:

(i) the date and time [~~of recording,~~]the county recorder recorded the instrument;

(ii) (A) the book and [~~the~~]page of the entry record where the county recorder entered the instrument; or

(B) the instrument's entry number[~~,~~] in the county recorder's entry record; and

(iii) the kind of instrument; and

(m) beginning January 1, 2025:

(i) maintain a system that allows a property owner to receive, upon the property owner's election, an electronic notice when the county recorder records a deed or mortgage, as defined in Section 70D-1-102, on the property owner's real property; and

(ii) if a property owner elects to receive electronic notice as described in Subsection (1)(m)(i), within 30 days after the day on which the county recorder records a deed or a mortgage as defined in Section 70D-1-102 on real property, provide an electronic notice of the recording to each property owner.

(2) Upon request, a county recorder may provide the notice described in Subsection (1)(m)(ii) to a property owner by a means other than electronic.

(3) Subsection (1)(m) applies only to real property for which the county treasurer provides a tax notice described in Section 59-2-1317.

(4) The recorder shall alphabetically arrange the indexes required by this section and keep a reverse index.

(5) (a) The tract index required by Subsection (1)(f) shall be kept so that it shows a true chain of title to each tract or parcel, together with each encumbrance on the tract or parcel, according to the records of the county recorder's office.

(b) A recorder shall abstract an instrument in the tract index unless:

(i) the instrument is required to contain a legal description under Section [~~17-21-20~~]17-71-402 or Section 57-3-105 and does not contain that legal description; or

(ii) the instrument contains errors, omissions, or defects to the extent that the tract or parcel to which the instrument relates cannot be determined.

(c) If a recorder abstracts an instrument in the tract index or another index required by this section, the recorder may:

(i) use a tax parcel number;

(ii) use a site address;

(iii) reference to other instruments of record recited on the instrument; or

(iv) reference another instrument that is recorded concurrently with the instrument.

(d) A recorder is not required to go beyond the face of an instrument to determine the tract or parcel to which an instrument may relate.

(e) A person may not bring an action against a recorder for injuries or damages suffered as a result of information contained in an instrument recorded in a tract index or other index that is required by this section despite errors, omissions, or defects in the instrument.

(f) The fact that a recorded instrument described in Subsection (3)(e) is included in the tract index does not cure a failure to give public notice caused by an error, omission, or defect.

(g) A document that is indexed in all or part of the indexes required by this section shall give constructive notice.

(6) Nothing in this section prevents the county recorder from using a single name index if that index includes all of the indexes required by this section.

[~~17-21-21~~]17-71-303 (Effective 11/06/25). Ownership plats -- Use of geographic information systems or computer systems.

(1) The county recorder shall prepare and keep ownership plats that:

(a) are drawn to a convenient scale[~~, which~~];

(b) show the record owners of each tract of land in the county[~~;~~]; and

(c) [~~together with~~]show the dimensions of [~~the~~]each tract of land in the county.

(2) The county recorder may not be required to:

(a) show ownership of timeshare units or timeshare estates on ownership plats; or

(b) show lot or unit ownership on subdivisions or condominium plats or other ownership plats if that information is available through computer systems or other indexes.

(3) Nothing in this chapter precludes the [~~use of~~]county recorder from using geographic information systems or computer systems [~~by the recorder~~]if the systems include all of the information [~~required by~~]this section requires.

(4) An ownership plat prepared under this section does not constitute a boundary record.

[~~17-21-22~~]17-71-304 (Effective 11/06/25). Annual revision -- Reporting changes in ownership to county assessors -- Use of geographic information systems or computer systems.

(1) The county recorder shall:

(a) each year, prepare copies of ownership plats and descriptions, showing record owners at noon on January 1;

(b) on or before January 30 of each year, transmit the copies to the county assessor;

(c) report all changes in recorded ownership of real property made during the first seven months of each calendar year to the county assessor not later than August 15 of that year;

(d) for the remainder of the calendar year, report the changes in the ownership of real property that are recorded in the county recorder's office each month on or before the 15th day of the month following the month in which the changes were recorded;

(e) transmit the changes of ownership on appropriate forms that show the current owner's name and a full legal description of the property conveyed; and

(f) where only a part of the grantor's property is conveyed, transmit an additional form showing a full legal description of the portion retained.

(2) Nothing in this chapter precludes the [~~use of~~]county recorder from using geographic information systems or computer systems [~~by the recorder~~]if the systems include all of the information [~~required by~~]this section requires.

[~~17-21-16~~]17-71-305 (Effective 11/06/25). Acknowledgments and administrations of oaths.

County recorders may take and certify acknowledgments and administer oaths.

[~~17-50-340~~]17-71-306 (Effective 11/06/25). Establishment of county recorder appeal authority.

(1) On or before July 1, 2023, a county legislative body shall, by ordinance, establish an appeal authority to hear and decide appeals from a county recorder's application of rules made by the County Recorder Standards Board under Section 63C-30-201.

(2) This section:

(a) does not preclude an individual who seeks an appeal from a county recorder's decision from pursuing any other available remedy; and

(b) may not be construed as requiring an individual to exhaust administrative remedies with an appeal authority established under Subsection (1) before seeking any other available remedy.

[~~17-21-17~~]17-71-307 (Effective 11/06/25). Prohibited acts.

(1) (a) Upon acceptance of an instrument entitled to be recorded, the county recorder may not:

(i) record the instrument in any manner other than the manner required by this chapter; [~~or~~]

(ii) alter, change, obliterate, or insert any new matter in any instrument of record; or

(iii) remove the instrument from the county recorder's records.

(b) In accordance with Section [~~17-21-12.5~~]17-71-406, a county recorder may redact personal information from a copy of an originally recorded instrument.

(2) A county recorder does not violate this section by:

(a) denying access to:

(i) an instrument of record that has been classified as private under Section 63G-2-302;

(ii) a portion of an instrument of record that has been classified as private under Section 63G-2-302; or

(iii) subject to Section [~~17-21-12.5~~]17-71-406, an originally recorded instrument of record for which a redacted copy exists and is accessible under Section [~~17-21-12.5~~]17-71-406; or

(b) placing an endorsement, reference, or other note on a document in the course of the county recorder's work.

PART 4. General Recording Provisions

[~~17-21-12~~]17-71-401 (Effective 11/06/25). Recording procedures -- Endorsements of entry number required on documents.

(1) When a document is accepted by the county recorder's office for recording, the county recorder shall:

(a) endorse upon the first page of the document [~~an entry number and the time when the document was accepted, noting the year, month, day, hour, and minute of its reception, and the amount of fees for recording it~~]the relevant information described in Section 17-71-302; and

(b) record the document during office hours in the order it was accepted.

(2) [~~Each~~]A county recorder shall place an entry number or a book and page reference on each page of a document that the county recorder accepts for recording only if the original document or a copy of the document is kept as a public record under Section [~~17-21-3~~]17-71-404.

(3) (a) A county recorder may endorse each document that the county recorder accepts for recording with a book and page reference.

(b) If a county recorder elects not to endorse a document with a book and page reference, the book and page reference may be omitted:

(i) in each index required by statute; and

(ii) on each document presented for recording that is required to recite recording data.

(4) Subject to Section [~~17-21-3~~]17-71-404, the county recorder shall return the document to the person that the county recorder considers appropriate.

[~~17-21-20~~]17-71-402 (Effective 11/06/25). Recording required -- County recorder may impose requirements on documents to be recorded -- Requirements for recording local entity plat -- Point of the Mountain State Land Authority plat.

(1) Subject to Subsections ~~(2)~~, ~~(3)~~, and ~~(4)~~, a county recorder shall record each paper, notice, and instrument required by law to be recorded in the office of the county recorder unless otherwise provided.

(2) (a) Beginning on or before January 1, 2022, each county shall accept and provide for the electronic recording of instruments.

(b) Beginning on or before January 1, 2023, each county shall:

(i) provide for the electronic recording of a plat; and

(ii) accept an electronic document for the recording of a plat.

~~(2)~~ Subject to [~~Chapter 21a, Uniform Real Property Electronic Recording Act~~]Part 6, Uniform Real Property Electronic Recording Act, each document that is submitted for recording to a county recorder's office shall:

(a) unless otherwise provided by law, be an original or certified copy of the document;

(b) be in English or be accompanied by an accurate English translation of the document;

(c) contain a brief title, heading, or caption on the first page stating the nature of the document;

(d) except as otherwise provided by statute, contain the legal description of the property that is the subject of the document in accordance with Subsection 57-3-105(4);

(e) comply with the requirements of Section [~~17-21-25~~]17-71-403 and Subsections 57-3-105(1) and (2);

(f) except as otherwise provided by statute, be notarized with the notary stamp with the seal legible; and

(g) have original signatures.

~~(3)~~ (a) Subject to [~~Chapter 21a, Uniform Real Property Electronic Recording Act~~]Part 6, Uniform Real Property Electronic Recording Act, a county recorder may require that each paper, notice, and instrument submitted for recording in the county recorder's office:

(i) be on white paper that is 8-1/2 inches by 11 inches in size;

(iii) have a space of 2-1/2 inches down and 4-1/2 inches across the upper right corner of the first page and a margin of one inch at the top of each succeeding page;

(iv) not be on sheets of paper that are continuously bound together at the side, top, or bottom;

(v) not contain printed material on more than one side of each page;

(vi) be printed in black ink and not have text smaller than seven lines of text per vertical inch; and

(vii) be sufficiently legible to make certified copies.

(b) A county recorder who intends to establish requirements under Subsection ~~(3)(a)~~(a) shall first:

(i) provide formal notice of the requirements; and

(ii) establish and publish an effective date for the requirements that is at least three months after the formal notice under Subsection ~~(3)(b)(i)~~(b)(i).

~~(4)~~ (a) To facilitate the abstracting of an instrument to which a tax identification number is assigned, a county recorder may require that the applicable tax identification number of each parcel described in the instrument be noted on the instrument before the county recorder accepts the instrument for recording.

(b) If a county recorder requires the applicable tax identification number to be on an instrument before the instrument may be recorded:

(i) the county recorder shall post a notice of that requirement in a conspicuous place at the recorder's office;

(ii) the tax identification number may not be considered to be part of the legal description and may be indicated on the margin of the instrument; and

(iii) an error in the tax identification number does not affect the validity of the instrument or effectiveness of the recording.

~~(5)~~ Subsections ~~(2), (3), and (4)~~, (4), and (5) do not apply to:

(a) a map or plat;

(b) a certificate or affidavit of death that a government agency issues;

(c) a military discharge or other record that a branch of the United States military service issues;

(d) a document regarding taxes that is issued by the Internal Revenue Service of the United States Department of the Treasury;

(e) a document submitted for recording that has been filed with a court and conforms to the formatting requirements established by the court; or

(f) a document submitted for recording that is in a form required by law.

~~(6)~~ [~~(a) As used in this Subsection (6):~~]

[~~(i) "Boundary action" has the same meaning as defined in Section 17-23-20.~~]

[~~(ii) "Local entity" has the same meaning as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5.~~]

~~(b)~~ A person may not submit to a county recorder for recording a plat depicting the boundary of a local entity as the boundary exists as a result of a boundary action, unless:

(i) the plat has been approved under Section [~~17-23-20~~]17-73-507 by the county surveyor as a final local entity plat, as defined in Section [~~17-23-20~~]17-73-101; and

(ii) the person also submits for recording:

(A) the original notice of an impending boundary action, as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5, for the boundary action for which the plat is submitted for recording;

(B) the original applicable certificate, as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5, issued by the lieutenant governor under Section 67-1a-6.5 for the boundary action for which the plat is submitted for recording; and

(C) each other document required by statute to be submitted for recording with the notice of an impending boundary action and applicable certificate.

~~(c)~~ Promptly after recording the documents described in Subsection ~~(6)(b)~~(a)relating to a boundary action, but no later than 10 days after [~~recording~~]the day on which the county recorder records those documents, the county recorder shall send a copy of all those documents to the State Tax Commission.

~~(7)~~ The county recorder for a county of the first class shall record a plat submitted by the Point of the Mountain State Land Authority, created in Section 11-59-201, for point of the mountain state land if the submitted plat:

(a) is in a recordable and legible format; and

(b) includes:

(i) a subdivision name that is distinct from any subdivision name on a plat recorded in the county recorder's office;

(ii) the boundaries, course, and dimensions of all of the parcels of ground divided, by their boundaries, course, and extent, whether the authority will use any parcel of ground as a street or for any other public use, and whether any such area is reserved or proposed for dedication for a public purpose;

(iii) the lot or unit reference, block or building reference, street or site address, street name or coordinate address, and acreage or square footage for all parcels, units, or lots;

(iv) every existing right-of-way and recorded easement located within the plat for:

(A) an underground facility;

(B) a water conveyance facility; or

(C) any other utility facility; and

(v) any water conveyance facility located, entirely or partially, within the plat that:

(A) is not recorded; and

(B) of which the authority has actual or constructive knowledge, including from information made available to the authority in the state engineer's inventory of canals or from a surveyor.

[~~17-21-25~~]17-71-403 (Effective 11/06/25). Names of persons signing to be typed or printed on instruments presented for recording.

(1) (a) Each instrument presented to the county recorder for recording shall have typed or printed on it the name of each person whose signature appears on the instrument whose name is required to be indexed.

(b) The person's typed or printed name shall appear just beneath that person's signature.

(2) The requirements of Subsection (1) do not affect the legality of the instrument to be recorded.

[~~17-21-3~~]17-71-404 (Effective 11/06/25). Public record of original documents or copies -- Receipt of recording.

(v) any intimate image as defined in Section 76-5b-203; or

(vi) any visual depiction or information for which possession is prohibited, by policy, at the jail.

[~~17-22-31~~]17-72-302 (Effective 11/06/25). Primary law enforcement authority.

The sheriff is the primary law enforcement authority of state law on federal land except as otherwise assigned by law to the authority of a state or municipal law enforcement agency.

Section 285. Section 17-72-303 is enacted to read:

17-72-303 (Effective 11/06/25). Duty to respond to county legislative body, county executive.

The county sheriff shall respond to a request for assistance made by the county legislative body or county executive in accordance with Section 17-66-506.

[~~17-22-2.5~~]17-72-304 (Effective 11/06/25). Fees.

(1) (a) The legislative body of a county may set a fee for a service described in this section and charged by the county sheriff:

(i) in an ordinance adopted under Section [~~17-53-223~~]17-64-501; and

(ii) in an amount reasonably related to, but not exceeding, the actual cost of providing the service.

(b) If the legislative body of a county does not under Subsection (1)(a) set a fee charged by the county sheriff, the sheriff shall charge a fee in accordance with Subsections (2)through (7).

(2) Unless under Subsection (1) the legislative body of a county sets a fee amount for a fee described in this Subsection (2), the sheriff shall charge the following fees:

(a) for serving a notice, rule, order, subpoena, garnishment, summons, or summons and complaint, or garnishee execution, or other process by which an action or proceeding is commenced, on each defendant, including copies when furnished by plaintiff, $20;

(b) for taking or approving a bond or undertaking in any case in which he is authorized to take or approve a bond or undertaking, including justification, $5;

(c) for a copy of any writ, process or other paper when demanded or required by law, for each folio, 50 cents;

(d) for serving an attachment on property, or levying an execution, or executing an order of arrest or an order for the delivery of personal property, including copies when furnished by plaintiff, $50;

(e) for taking and keeping possession of and preserving property under attachment or execution or other process, the amount the court orders to a maximum of $15 per day;

(f) for advertising property for sale on execution, or any judgment, or order of sale, exclusive of the cost of publication, $15;

(g) for drawing and executing a sheriff's deed or a certificate of redemption, exclusive of acknowledgment, $15, to be paid by the grantee;

(h) for recording each deed, conveyance, or other instrument affecting real estate, exclusive of the cost of recording, $10, to be paid by the grantee;

(i) for serving a writ of possession or restitution, and putting any person entitled to possession into possession of premises, and removing occupant, $50;

(j) for holding each trial of right of property, to include all services in the matter, except mileage, $35;

(k) for conducting, postponing, or canceling a sale of property, $15;

(l) for transporting a prisoner to and from prison to attend court proceedings in a civil case, $2.50 for each mile necessarily traveled, up to a maximum of 100 miles;

(m) for receiving and paying over money on execution or other process, as follows:

(i) if the amount collected does not exceed $1,000, 2% of this amount, with a minimum of $1; and

(ii) if the amount collected exceeds $1,000, 2% on the first $1,000 and 1-1/2% on the balance; and

(n) for executing in duplicate a certificate of sale, exclusive of filing it, $10.

(3) The fees allowed by Subsection (2)(f) for the levy of execution and for advertising shall be collected from the judgment debtor as part of the execution in the same manner as the sum directed to be made.

(4) When serving an attachment on property, an order of arrest, or an order for the delivery of personal property, the sheriff may only collect traveling fees for the distance actually traveled beyond the distance required to serve the summons if the attachment or those orders:

(a) accompany the summons in the action; and

(b) may be executed at the time of the service of the summons.

(5) (a) (i) When traveling generally to serve notices, orders, process, or other papers, the sheriff may receive, except as otherwise provided under Subsection (1)(a), $2.50 for each mile necessarily traveled, in going only, computed from the courthouse for each person served, to a maximum of 100 miles.

(ii) When transmitting notices, orders, process, or other papers by mail, the sheriff may receive, except as otherwise provided under Subsection (1)(a), $2.50 for each mile necessarily traveled, in going only, computed from the post office where received for each person served, to a maximum of 100 miles.

(b) The sheriff may only charge one mileage fee if any two or more papers are required to be served in the same action or proceeding at the same time and at the same address.

(c) If it is necessary to make more than one trip to serve any notice, order, process, or other paper, the sheriff may not collect more than two additional mileage charges.

(6) (a) For transporting a patient to the Utah State Hospital or to or from a hospital or a mental health facility, as defined in Section 26B-5-301, when the cost of transportation is payable by private individuals, the sheriff may collect, except as otherwise provided under Subsection (1)(a), $2.50 for each mile necessarily traveled, in going only, to a maximum of 100 miles.

(b) If the sheriff requires assistance to transport the person, the sheriff may also charge the actual and necessary cost of that assistance.

(7) (a) Subject to Subsection (7)(b), for obtaining a saliva DNA specimen under Section 53-10-404, the sheriff shall collect the fee of $150 in accordance with Section 53-10-404.

(b) The fee amount described in Subsection (7)(a) may not be changed by a county legislative body under Subsection (1).

[~~17-22-18~~]17-72-305 (Effective 11/06/25). Certain liability.

The sheriff is liable for the rescue of [~~a person~~]an individual arrested in a civil action equally as for an escape.

PART 4. County Jails

[~~17-22-4~~]17-72-401 (Effective 11/06/25). County jails -- Sheriff as keeper -- Contracting with private contractor.

(1) The [~~common jails in the several counties~~]county jail shall be kept by the [~~sheriffs,~~]sheriff and shall be used for:

(a) the detention of [~~persons~~]an individual committed to jail to secure [~~their~~]the individual's attendance as [~~witnesses~~]a witness in a criminal [~~cases~~]case;

(b) the detention of [~~persons~~]prisoners charged with crime and committed for trial;

(c) the confinement of [~~persons~~]prisoners committed for contempt, or upon civil process, or by other authority of law; and

(d) the confinement of [~~persons~~]inmates sentenced to imprisonment upon conviction of crime.

(2) If the county executive contracts with a private contractor to manage, maintain, operate, or construct county jail facilities, the sheriff shall perform whatever obligations are imposed upon [~~him~~]the sheriff by that contract.

[~~17-22-5.5~~]17-72-402 (Effective 11/06/25). Sheriff's classification of jail facilities -- Maximum operating capacity of jail facilities -- Limitations on contracting -- Transfer or release of prisoners -- Limitation -- Records regarding release.

(1) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (5), a county sheriff shall determine:

(i) subject to Subsection (1)(b), the classification of each county jail facility or section of a county jail facility under the sheriff's control;

(ii) the nature of each program conducted at a county jail facility under the sheriff's control; and

(iii) the internal operation of a county jail facility under the sheriff's control.

(b) A classification under Subsection (1)(a)(i) of a jail facility may not violate any applicable zoning ordinance or conditional use permit of the county or municipality.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection (5), each county sheriff shall:

(a) with the approval of the county legislative body, establish a maximum operating capacity for each county jail facility under the sheriff's control, based on facility design and staffing; and

(b) upon a county jail facility reaching the county jail facility's maximum operating capacity:

(i) transfer prisoners to another appropriate facility:

(A) under the sheriff's control; or

(B) available to the sheriff by contract;

(ii) subject to the requirements of Subsection (4), release prisoners:

(A) to a supervised release program, according to release criteria established by the sheriff; or

(B) to another alternative incarceration program developed by the sheriff; or

(iii) admit prisoners in accordance with law and a uniform admissions policy imposed equally upon all entities using the county jail.

(3) (a) The sheriff shall keep records of the release status and the type of release program or alternative incarceration program for any prisoner released under Subsection (2)(b)(ii).

(b) The sheriff shall make [~~these~~]records described in Subsection (3)(a) available upon request to the Department of Corrections, the [~~Judiciary~~]judiciary, and the [~~Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice~~]commission.

(4) A sheriff may not release an individual due to overcrowding who, based on information that is reasonably available to the sheriff:

(a) is arrested or convicted of a violent criminal offense as defined in Section 76-3-203.10;

(b) is arrested or convicted of a drug offense that is a felony;

(c) is arrested or convicted of possession of any composition or mixture, including pills, that contains 100 grams or more of fentanyl or a fentanyl-related substance;

(d) is arrested or convicted of an offense of driving under the influence or driving with a measurable controlled substance in the body, if the offense results in death or serious bodily injury to an individual;

(e) has been previously booked into the same jail within the [~~immediately preceding~~]12-month period immediately before the individual's current incarceration began; or

(f) has an outstanding warrant for failing to appear in a case:

(i) involving any charge described in Subsections (4)(a) through (4)(d); or

(ii) where the individual classifies as a habitual offender as defined in Section 77-18-102.

(5) (a) This section may not be construed to authorize a sheriff to modify provisions of a contract with the Department of Corrections to house in a county jail [~~an individual~~]a state inmate sentenced to the Department of Corrections.

(b) A county contracting with another county to house [~~an individual~~]a county inmate due to capacity issues:

(i) shall contract with a county that:

(A) has available capacity in [~~its~~]the county's county jail; and

(B) agrees to contract to house the [~~individual~~]county inmate;

(ii) shall, subject to the agreement of the parties to the contract, pay to the county contracting to receive the transferred [~~individual~~]county inmate a day per capita rate that does not exceed the higher of:

(A) the current average cost of housing [~~an individual~~]a county inmate in the transferring county jail; or

(B) the daily incarceration rates described in Section 64-13e-103.1; and

(iii) if the county is a county of the first class, and if the county or a sheriff in the county has released [~~an individual~~]a prisoner due to overcrowding during the lookback period described in Subsection (5)(c), the county:

(A) may not enter into a new contract with a federal agency for the purpose of housing [~~individuals~~]federal detainees;

(B) may not house federal detainees in a number that exceeds the number of beds that the county has contracted for with a federal agency in the current fiscal year; and

(C) shall publish daily totals on the public data dashboard showing:

(I) the total number of federal detainees held;

(II) the total number of beds under contract with a federal agency; and

(III) the total number of beds that are currently under contract with another county for the purpose of housing [~~individuals~~]federal detainees.

(c) The lookback period described in Subsection (5)(b)(iii) is:

(i) beginning on September 1, 2025, the period that begins on September 1, 2025 and ends on August 31, 2026; and

(ii) for September 1, 2026 forward, the period that begins on September 1 of the previous calendar year and ends on August 31 of the current calendar year.

(6) Regardless of whether a county jail facility has reached the county jail facility's maximum operating capacity under Subsection (2), a sheriff may release an individual from a county jail facility in accordance with:

(a) Section [~~17-22-36~~]17-72-804 and Section 77-20-203; or

(b) Section 77-20-204.

(7) The sheriff of a county of the first class is encouraged to open and operate all sections of a county jail facility within the county that [~~is~~]are not being used to full capacity.

(f) for each [~~inmate~~]prisoner booked into the county jail:

(i) the name of the agency that arrested the [~~inmate~~]prisoner;

(ii) the date and time the [~~inmate~~]prisoner was booked into and released from the custody of the county jail;

(iii) if the [~~inmate~~]prisoner was released from the custody of the county jail, the reason the inmate was released from the custody of the county jail;

(iv) if the [~~inmate~~]prisoner was released from the custody of the county jail on a financial condition, whether the financial condition was set by a county sheriff or a court;

(v) the number of days the [~~inmate~~]prisoner was held in the custody of the county jail before disposition of the [~~inmate's~~]prisoner's criminal charges;

(vi) whether the [~~inmate~~]prisoner was released from the custody of the county jail before final disposition of the [~~inmate's~~]prisoner's criminal charges; and

(vii) the prisoner's state identification number[~~ of the inmate~~];

(g) the number of in-custody deaths that occurred at the county jail;

(h) for each in-custody death:

(i) the deceased's name, gender, race, ethnicity, age, and known or suspected medical diagnosis or disability, if any[~~, of the deceased~~];

(ii) the date, time, and location of death;

(iii) the law enforcement agency that detained, arrested, or was in the process of arresting the deceased; and

(iv) a brief description of the circumstances surrounding the death;

(i) the known, or discoverable on reasonable inquiry, causes and contributing factors of each of the in-custody deaths described in Subsection (2)(g);

(j) the county jail's policy for notifying an inmate's next of kin after the [~~inmate's~~]prisoner's in-custody death;

(k) the county jail policies, procedures, and protocols:

(i) for treatment of [~~an inmate~~]a prisoner experiencing withdrawal from alcohol or substance use, including use of opiates;

(ii) that relate to the county jail's provision, or lack of provision, of medications used to treat, mitigate, or address [~~an inmate's~~]a prisoner's symptoms of withdrawal, including methadone and all forms of buprenorphine and naltrexone; and

(iii) that relate to screening, assessment, and treatment of [~~an inmate~~]a prisoner for a substance use or mental health disorder, including the policies, procedures, and protocols that implement the requirements described in [~~Subsection 17-22-8(2)(c)~~]Section 17-72-501;

(l) (i) the number of [~~inmates~~]prisoners whose screening described in [~~Subsection 17-22-8(2)(c)~~]Section 17-72-501indicated the presence of a substance use disorder; and

(ii) of the [~~inmates~~]prisoners whose screening indicated the presence of a substance use disorder, the number of [~~inmates~~]prisoners who received medication [~~pursuant to~~]under a medication assisted treatment plan[~~, as that term is defined in Section 17-22-8~~]; and

(m) any report the county jail provides or is required to provide under federal law or regulation relating to [~~inmate~~]prisoner deaths.

~~(3)~~ (a) Subsection ~~(2)~~ does not apply to a county jail if the county jail:

(i) collects and stores the data described in Subsection ~~(2)~~; and

(ii) enters into a memorandum of understanding with the commission that allows the commission to access the data described in Subsection ~~(2)~~.

(b) The memorandum of understanding described in Subsection ~~(3)(a)(ii)~~(a)(ii) shall include a provision to protect any information related to an ongoing investigation and comply with all applicable federal and state laws.

(c) If the commission accesses data from a county jail in accordance with Subsection ~~(3)(a)~~(a), the commission may not release a report prepared from that data, unless:

(i) the commission provides the report for review to:

(A) the county jail; and

(B) any arresting agency that is named in the report; and

(ii) (A) the county jail approves the report for release;

(B) the county jail reviews the report and prepares a response to the report to be published with the report; or

(C) the county jail fails to provide a response to the report within four weeks after the day on which the commission provides the report to the county jail.

~~(4)~~ The commission shall:

(a) compile the information from the reports described in Subsection ~~(2)~~;

(b) omit or redact any identifying information of an inmate in the compilation to the extent omission or redaction is necessary to comply with state and federal law;

(c) submit the compilation to the Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice Interim Committee and the Utah Substance Use and Mental Health Advisory Committee before November 1 of each year; and

(d) submit the compilation to the protection and advocacy agency designated by the governor before November 1 of each year.

~~(5)~~ The commission may not provide access to or use a county jail's policies, procedures, or protocols submitted under this section in a manner or for a purpose not described in this section.

~~(6)~~ [~~A~~]Upon request, a county jail shall make a report, including only the names and causes of death of deceased inmates and the facility in which [~~they~~]the deceased inmates were being held in custody[~~ shall be made~~], available to the public.

PART 5. Responsibility for Prisoners

[~~17-22-8~~]17-72-501 (Effective 11/06/25). Disclosure of prisoner medical clearance -- Care and health care of prisoners -- Funding of services -- Private contractor.

[~~(1) As used in this section, "medication assisted treatment plan" means a prescription plan to use prescribed medication approved by the Food and Drug Administration, such as buprenorphine, methadone, or naltrexone to treat substance use withdrawal symptoms or an opioid use disorder.~~]

(1) (a) A health care provider, as defined in Section 78B-3-403, who provides health care to an individual before the individual is booked into a county jail by a competent authority, is authorized to disclose to the competent authority whether the individual is medically cleared for incarceration.

(b) The disclosure under Subsection (1)(a) shall be made in writing if requested by the competent authority.

(2) Except as provided in Subsection ~~(7)~~, a sheriff shall:

(a) receive each [~~individual~~]prisoner committed to jail by competent authority;

(b) provide each prisoner with necessary food, clothing, and bedding in the manner prescribed by the county legislative body;

(c) subject to [~~Section 17-22-8.2~~]Subsection (7), provide each prisoner [~~medical~~]healthcare when:

(i) the prisoner's symptoms evidence a serious disease or injury;

(ii) the prisoner's disease or injury is curable or may be substantially alleviated; and

(iii) the potential for harm to the [~~person~~]prisoner by reason of delay or the denial of [~~medical~~]health care would be substantial;

(d) provide each prisoner, as part of the intake process, with the option of continuing any of the following medically prescribed methods of contraception:

(i) an oral contraceptive;

(ii) an injectable contraceptive;

(iii) a patch;

(iv) a vaginal ring; or

(v) an intrauterine device, if the prisoner was prescribed the intrauterine device because the prisoner experiences serious and persistent adverse effects when using the methods of contraception described in Subsections (2)(d)(i) and (ii);

(e) (i) within 30 days after [~~an inmate~~]a prisoner is committed to jail, use an evidence-based screening tool to screen each inmate for substance use disorders; and

(ii) use the results of the screening to assist with providing programming and treatment options for the [~~inmate~~]prisoner;

(f) cooperate with [~~medical~~]health care personnel to continue a medication assisted treatment plan for [~~an inmate~~]a prisoner if the [~~inmate~~]prisoner was an active client before arrest and commitment; and

(g) ensure that each female prisoner younger than 50 years old who has been incarcerated for longer than 72 hours on a state or local criminal offense is offered, which the prisoner may reject, a test for pregnancy.

(3) A sheriff may provide the generic form of a contraceptive described in Subsection (2)(d)(i) or (ii).

(4) A sheriff shall follow the provisions of Section 64-13-46 if a prisoner is pregnant or in postpartum recovery.

(5) (a) Except as provided in Section [~~17-22-10~~]17-72-506 and Subsection (5)(b), the expense incurred in providing the services required by this section to prisoners shall be paid from the county treasury.

(b) The expense incurred in providing the services described in Subsection (2)(d) to prisoners shall be paid by the Department of Health and Human Services.

(6) A medication used for a medication assisted treatment plan under Subsection (2)(f):

(a) shall be administered to [~~an inmate~~]a prisoner in accordance with the [~~inmate's~~]prisoner's prescription under the direction of the sheriff;

(b) may be paid for by a county; and

(c) may be left or stored at a jail at the discretion of the sheriff.

(7) (a) A sheriff may not initiate any of the following procedures or treatments for a prisoner:

(i) a cross-sex hormone treatment;

(ii) a primary sex characteristic surgical procedure; or

(iii) a secondary sex characteristic surgical procedure.

(b) Subject to Subsection (7)(a) and Section 17-72-503, a sheriff may provide psychotherapy, mental health care, or any other necessary and appropriate treatment to treat a prisoner's gender dysphoria and any co-occuring mental health disorder.

(8) If the county executive contracts with a private contractor to provide the services required by this section, the sheriff shall provide only those services required of the sheriff by the contract between the county and the private contractor.

Section 299. Section 17-72-502, which is renumbered from Section 17-22-3 is renumbered and amended to read: [~~17-22-3~~]17-72-502 (Effective 11/06/25). Transfer of inmates to state prison.

The sheriff of the county in which [~~a criminal~~]an individual is sentenced to confinement in the state prison, or is sentenced to death, shall cause [~~such convict~~]the inmate to be removed from the county jail within five days after the day on which the [~~sentence~~]inmate is sentenced and [~~conveyed~~]transferred to the state prison[~~ and delivered to the warden thereof~~].

Section 300. Section 17-72-503, which is renumbered from Section 17-22-5 is renumbered and amended to read: [~~17-22-5~~]17-72-503 (Effective 11/06/25). Sheriff's classification of prisoners -- Classification criteria -- Alternative incarceration programs -- Limitation.

(1) As used in this section, "living area" means the same as that term is defined in Section 64-13-7.

(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsections (5) and (6), the sheriff shall adopt and implement written policies:

(i) for admission of [~~inmates~~]prisoners to the county jail; and

(ii) for the classification of [~~individuals incarcerated in the jail which shall~~]prisoners that provide for the separation of prisoners by gender and by [~~such~~]other factors as may reasonably provide for the safety and well-being of [~~inmates~~]prisoners and the community.

(b) To the extent authorized by law, any written admission policies adopted and implemented under this Subsection (2) shall be applied equally to all entities using the county correctional facilities.

(3) Except as provided in Subsections (5) and (6), each county sheriff shall assign [~~inmates~~]prisoners to a facility or section of a facility based on classification criteria that the sheriff develops and maintains.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (6), a county sheriff may develop and implement alternative incarceration programs that may involve housing [~~an inmate~~]a prisoner in a jail facility.

(b) [~~An inmate~~]A prisoner housed under an alternative incarceration program under Subsection (4)(a) shall be considered to be in the full custody and control of the sheriff for purposes of Sections 76-8-309 and 76-8-309.3.

(c) [~~An inmate~~]A prisoner may not be placed in an alternative incarceration program under Subsection (4)(a) unless:

(i) the county jail [~~facility~~]is at maximum operating capacity, as established under Section [~~17-22-5.5~~]17-72-402; or

(ii) ordered by the court.

(5) A jail facility shall comply with the same requirements as the Department of Corrections described in Subsections 64-13-7(4), (5), and (6) when assigning [~~an inmate~~]a prisoner to a living area, including the reporting requirements in Subsections 64-13-45(2)(d) and (e).

(6) This section does not authorize a sheriff to modify provisions of a contract with the Department of Corrections to house state inmates in a county jail[~~, inmates sentenced to the Department of Corrections~~].

[~~17-22-6~~]17-72-504 (Effective 11/06/25). Service of process on prisoners -- Penalty.

(1) A sheriff [~~or jailer upon whom~~]who receives a paper in a judicial proceeding directed to a prisoner in the sheriff's[~~, or jailer's~~] custody [~~is served~~]shall forthwith deliver the paper to the prisoner, with a note [~~thereon~~]of the time of [~~its~~]the paper's service.

(2) A sheriff [~~or jailer~~] who neglects to comply with Subsection (1) is liable to the prisoner for all damages occasioned by that neglect.

[~~17-22-9.5~~]17-72-505 (Effective 11/06/25). Citizenship determination of prisoners -- Notification to and coordination with federal authorities when releasing certain individuals.

(1) The sheriff shall make a reasonable effort to determine the citizenship status of [~~an individual~~]a prisoner charged with a felony or driving under the influence under Section 41-6a-502[~~, when the individual is confined to the county jail for a period of time~~].

(2) If [~~the confined individual~~]a prisoner described in Subsection (1) is a foreign national, the sheriff shall make a reasonable effort to verify that:

(a) the individual has been lawfully admitted into the United States; and

(b) the individual's lawful status has not expired.

(3) (a) If the sheriff cannot verify the [~~confined individual's~~]lawful status of a prisoner described in Subsection (1) from documents in the [~~individual's~~]prisoner's possession, the sheriff shall attempt to verify that status within 48 hours of the [~~individual's~~]prisoner's confinement at the jail through contacting:

(i) the Law Enforcement Support Center of the United States Department of Homeland Security; or

(ii) an office or agency designated for citizenship status verification by the United States Department of Homeland Security.

(b) The sheriff shall notify the United States Department of Homeland Security of [~~an individual~~]a prisoner whose lawful citizenship status cannot be verified under Subsection (2) or (3)(a).

(4) In accordance with Title 77, Chapter 20, Bail, it is a rebuttable presumption for the purpose of determining whether to grant pretrial release that an individual who is verified under this section as a foreign national not lawfully admitted into the United States is at risk of flight.

(5) (a) As soon as practicable before the day of release, the sheriff shall notify the United States Department of Homeland Security, or other relevant federal agency in charge of handling immigration violations or deportations, when the sheriff is preparing to release an individual from the county jail who:

(i) is being released after serving the individual's jail sentence for:

(A) a class A misdemeanor described under Subsection 76-3-204(1)(b)(i); or

(B) a felony; and

(ii) is unlawfully present in the United States.

(b) The sheriff shall coordinate with federal authorities to transfer the custody of a released individual into federal custody as may be required under Subsection (5)(a).

(c) The requirements described in Subsection (5)(a) do not prohibit a sheriff from notifying or working with the United States Department of Homeland Security, or other relevant federal agency in charge of handling immigration violations or deportations, at any time with regard to an individual who is at the county jail or otherwise in the sheriff's custody.

[~~17-22-10~~]17-72-506 (Effective 11/06/25). Prisoners under civil process.

(1) Whenever [~~a person~~]an individual is committed upon process in a civil action or proceeding, except when the state is a party thereto, the sheriff is not bound:

(a) to receive [~~such person~~]the individual unless security is given on the part of the party at whose instance the process is issued, by deposit of money, to meet the expenses of necessary food, clothing, and bedding for the committed person[~~,~~]; or

(b) to detain [~~such person~~]the individual for any longer than the expenses described in Subsection (1)(a) are provided for.

(2) This section does not apply to cases where a party is committed as a punishment for disobedience to the mandates, process, writs or orders of court.

[~~17-22-17~~]17-72-507 (Effective 11/06/25). Escapes -- Sheriff's liability -- Defenses.

(1) A sheriff who suffers the escape of [~~a person~~]an individual arrested in a civil action, without the consent or connivance of the party in whose behalf the arrest or imprisonment is made, [~~is~~]may be liable as follows:

~~(1)~~ [~~When~~]when the arrest is upon an order to hold to bail or upon a surrender in exoneration of bail before judgment, the sheriff is liable to the plaintiff as bail[~~.~~];

~~(2)~~ [~~When~~]when the arrest is on an execution or commitment to enforce the payment of money, the sheriff is liable for the amount expressed in the execution or commitment[~~.~~]; and

~~(3)~~ [~~When~~]when the arrest is on an execution or commitment other than to enforce the payment of money, the sheriff is liable for the actual damages sustained.

~~(4)~~ Upon being sued for damages for an escape or rescue, the sheriff may introduce evidence in mitigation and exculpation.

(3) A person cannot maintain an action against the sheriff for a rescue or for an escape of a prisoner arrested upon an execution or commitment, if after that prisoner's rescue or escape and before the commencement of the action, the prisoner returns to the jail or is retaken by the sheriff or by any other person.

PART 6. Responsibility for Individuals on Probation

[~~17-22-5.6~~]17-72-601 (Effective 11/06/25). Probation supervision -- Violation of probation -- Detention -- Hearing.

[~~(1) As used in this section:~~]

[~~(a) "Probationer" means an individual on probation under the supervision of the county sheriff.~~]

[~~(b)~~ ~~(i) "Qualifying domestic violence offense" means the same as that term is defined in Subsection 77-36-1.1(4).~~]

[~~(ii) "Qualifying domestic violence offense" does not include criminal mischief as described in Section 76-6-106.~~]

[~~(c) "Violent felony" means the same as that term is defined in Section 76-3-203.5.~~]

~~(2)~~ In a county that offers probation services, the county sheriff shall adopt probation standards and practices that are established by the Utah Sheriffs' Association.

~~(3)~~ A county sheriff shall ensure that the court is notified of violations of the terms and conditions of a probationer's probation when the county sheriff determines that:

(a) incarceration is recommended as a sanction;

(b) a graduated and evidence-based response is not an appropriate response to the offender's violation and recommends revocation of probation; or

(c) there is probable cause that the conduct that led to a violation of probation is:

(i) a violent felony; or

(ii) a qualifying domestic violence offense.

~~(4)~~ A county sheriff may take custody of, and detain, a probationer for a maximum of 72 hours, excluding weekends and holidays, if there is probable cause to believe that the probationer has committed a violation of probation.

~~(5)~~ A county sheriff may not detain a probationer or parolee for longer than 72 hours without obtaining a warrant issued by the court.

~~(6)~~ If the county sheriff detains a probationer under Subsection ~~(4)~~, the county sheriff shall ensure the proper court is notified.

~~(7)~~ A written order from the county sheriff is sufficient authorization for a peace officer to incarcerate a probationer if the county sheriff has determined that there is probable cause to believe that the probationer has violated the conditions of probation.

~~(8)~~ If a probationer commits a violation outside of the jurisdiction of the county sheriff supervising the probationer, the arresting law enforcement agency is not required to hold or transport the probationer to the county sheriff.

~~(9)~~ This section does not require the county sheriff to release a probationer who is being held for something other than a probation violation, including a warrant issued for new criminal conduct or a new conviction where the individual is sentenced to incarceration.

PART 7. Process Service and Duty to the Court

(1) [~~The~~]Except as specifically otherwise provided by law, the sheriff shall, without fee, serve and return all process in criminal cases to which the state is a party[~~,~~] and that are lawfully issued by any court of the state[~~, except as otherwise provided by law~~].

(2) (a) If the process issues from a court outside of [~~his~~]the sheriff's county, [~~he~~]the sheriff is entitled to [~~his~~]the sheriff's actual expenses necessarily incurred.

(b) The expenses shall be paid by the county where the process was issued.

[~~17-22-22~~]17-72-702 (Effective 11/06/25). Process justifies sheriff's action -- Process to be exhibited.

(1) A sheriff is justified in the execution of, and shall execute, all process, writs, and orders issued by a competent authority.

(2) The officer executing process shall then, and at all times subsequent as long as the officer retains it, upon request show the [~~same~~]document for which the officer is executing process, with all papers attached, to any interested person.

[~~17-22-11~~]17-72-703 (Effective 11/06/25). Return of process -- Prima facie evidence.

(1) When process or notice is returnable, the sheriff may enclose such process or notice in an envelope addressed to the officer or person from whom the same emanated, and deposit it in the post office, prepaying the postage.

(2) The return of the sheriff upon process or notice is prima facie evidence of the facts in such return stated.

[~~17-22-13~~]17-72-704 (Effective 11/06/25). Failure or delay in making return on process -- Failure to levy execution -- Penalty.

(1) If a sheriff does not return without delay a process or notice in the sheriff's possession with the necessary endorsement thereon, the sheriff is liable to the party aggrieved for all damages sustained by the aggrieved party.

(2) If the sheriff to whom a writ of execution is delivered neglects or refuses, after being required by the creditor or the creditor's attorney, the fees having first been paid or tendered, to levy upon or sell any property of the party charged in the writ which is liable to be levied upon and sold, the sheriff shall be liable to the creditor for the value of the property.

[~~17-22-20~~]17-72-705 (Effective 11/06/25). Only written directions to sheriff binding.

No direction [~~or authority~~]by a party or the party's attorney to the sheriff in respect to the execution of process or the return thereof or to any act or omission relating thereto is available to discharge or excuse the sheriff from liability for neglect or misconduct, unless [~~it~~]the direction is contained in a writing, signed by the attorney of the party or by the party[~~,~~] if the party has no attorney.

[~~17-22-24~~]17-72-706 (Effective 11/06/25). Service of papers, other than process, on sheriff -- Powers of successor.

(1) Service upon the sheriff of a paper other than process may be made by delivering it or a copy thereof to the sheriff or to one of the sheriff's deputies or to [~~a person~~]an individual in charge of the sheriff's office during office hours, or, if no such [~~person~~]individual is there, by leaving it in a conspicuous place in the office.

(2) When any process remains with the sheriff unexecuted, in whole or in part, at the time of the sheriff's death, resignation of office, or at the expiration of the sheriff's [~~office such~~]term, process shall be executed by the sheriff's successor in office[~~; and when~~].

(3) When the sheriff sells real estate under and by virtue of an execution or order of court, the sheriff or the sheriff's successor in office shall execute and deliver to the purchaser all [~~such~~]deeds and conveyances [~~as~~]that are required by law and necessary for that purpose, and [~~such~~]the deeds and conveyances shall be as valid in law as if they had been executed by the sheriff who made the sale.

[~~17-22-23~~]17-72-707 (Effective 11/06/25). Crier of court.

The sheriff in attendance upon court shall, if required by the court[~~,~~]:

(1) act as crier for the court[~~,~~];

(2) call the parties and witnesses and other persons bound to appear at the court[~~,~~]; and

(3) make proclamation of the opening and adjournment of court and of any other matter under [~~its~~]the court's direction.

[~~17-22-27~~]17-72-708 (Effective 11/06/25). Sheriff -- Assignment of court bailiffs -- Contract and costs.

(1) The sheriff shall assign law enforcement officers or special function officers, as defined under Sections 53-13-103 and 53-13-105, to serve as court bailiffs and security officers in the courts of record and county justice courts as required by the rules of the Judicial Council.

(2) (a) The state court administrator shall enter into a contract with the county sheriff for bailiffs and building security officers for the district and juvenile courts within the county.

(b) The contract may not exceed amounts appropriated by the Legislature for that purpose.

(c) The county shall assume costs related to security administration, supervision, travel, equipment, and training of bailiffs.

~~(b)~~ The contract shall specify the agreed services, costs of services, and terms of payment.

~~(c)~~ (a) If the court is located in the same facility as a state or local law enforcement agency and the county sheriff's office is not in close proximity to the court, the state court administrator in consultation with the sheriff may enter into a contract with the state or local law enforcement agency for bailiff and security services subject to meeting all other requirements of this section.

(b) If the services are provided by another agency, the county sheriff shall have no responsibility for the services under this section.

~~(3)~~ (a) At the request of the court, the sheriff may appoint as a law clerk bailiff graduates of a law school accredited by the American Bar Association to provide security and legal research assistance.

(b) Any law clerk who is also a bailiff shall meet the requirements of Subsection (1) of this section.

~~(b)~~ The sheriff may appoint a law clerk bailiff by contract for a period not to exceed two years, who shall be exempt from the deputy sheriff merit service commission.

PART 8. Responsibility for Assets, Records, and Information

[~~17-22-15~~]17-72-801 (Effective 11/06/25). Neglect or refusal to pay over money -- Penalty.

(1) If the sheriff neglects or refuses to pay over on demand to the person entitled thereto any money which may come into the sheriff's hands by virtue of the sheriff's office, after deducting all legal fees, the amount thereof with 25% damages and interest at the rate of 1% per month from the time of demand may be recovered by such person[~~; provided, that such sheriff~~].

(2) A sheriff may pay [~~such~~]the money described in Subsection (1) into the court or to the clerk thereof issuing the writ or process upon which [~~such~~]the money is collected or received and from the time of such payment the sheriff shall be relieved of all liability therefor, unless the detention is shown to have been wrongful.

[~~17-22-30~~]17-72-802 (Effective 11/06/25). Prohibition on providing copy of booking photograph -- Statement required -- Victim access -- Criminal liability for false statement -- Remedy for failure to remove or delete.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Booking photograph" means a photograph or image of an individual that is generated:

(i) for identification purposes; and

(ii) when the individual is booked into a county jail.

(b) "Publish-for-pay publication" or "publish-for-pay website" means a publication or website that requires the payment of a fee or other consideration in order to remove or delete a booking photograph from the publication or website.

(2) (a) A sheriff may not provide a copy of a booking photograph in any format to a person requesting a copy of the booking photograph if:

(i) the booking photograph will be placed in a publish-for-pay publication or posted to a publish-for-pay website; or

(ii) the booking photograph is a protected record under Subsection [~~63G-2-305 (80)~~]63G-2-305(80).

(b) (i) A sheriff shall display a copy of a booking photograph to a person requesting to view the booking photograph if[~~ the person making the request:~~]:

(A) (I) the person making the request is an alleged victim of a crime that resulted in the creation of the booking photograph; and

(II) subject to Utah Rules of Evidence, Rule 617, the prosecuting agency with jurisdiction consents to the request; or

(B) if an alleged victim is deceased or incapacitated, the person making the request is an immediate family member, guardian, or conservator of an alleged victim of the crime that resulted in the creation of the booking photograph.

(ii) A person entitled to view a booking photograph under Subsection (2)(b)(i) is not permitted to:

(A) retain the booking photograph;

(B) make a copy, take a picture of, or otherwise reproduce the booking photograph; or

(C) disseminate or distribute the booking photograph.

(3) (a) A person who requests a copy of a booking photograph from a sheriff shall, at the time of making the request, submit a statement signed by the person affirming that the booking photograph will not be placed in a publish-for-pay publication or posted to a publish-for-pay website.

(b) A person who submits a false statement under Subsection (3)(a) is subject to criminal liability as provided in Section 76-8-504.

(4) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (5), a publish-for-pay publication or a publish-for-pay website shall remove and destroy a booking photograph of an individual who submits a request for removal and destruction within 30 calendar days after the day on which the individual makes the request.

(b) A publish-for-pay publication or publish-for-pay website described in Subsection (4)(a) may not condition removal or destruction of the booking photograph on the payment of a fee in an amount greater than $50.

(c) If the publish-for-pay publication or publish-for-pay website described in Subsection (4)(a) does not remove and destroy the booking photograph in accordance with Subsection (4)(a), the publish-for-pay publication or publish-for-pay website is liable for:

(i) all costs, including reasonable attorney fees, resulting from any legal action the individual brings in relation to the failure of the publish-for-pay publication or publish-for-pay website to remove and destroy the booking photograph; and

(ii) a civil penalty of $50 per day for each day after the 30-day deadline described in Subsection (4)(a) on which the booking photograph is visible or publicly accessible in the publish-for-pay publication or on the publish-for-pay website.

(5) (a) A publish-for-pay publication or a publish-for-pay website shall remove and destroy a booking photograph of an individual who submits a request for removal and destruction within seven calendar days after the day on which the individual makes the request if:

(i) the booking photograph relates to a criminal charge:

(A) on which the individual was acquitted or not prosecuted; or

(B) that was expunged, vacated, or pardoned; and

(ii) the individual submits, in relation to the request, evidence of a disposition described in Subsection (5)(a)(i).

(b) If the publish-for-pay publication or publish-for-pay website described in Subsection (5)(a) does not remove and destroy the booking photograph in accordance with Subsection (5)(a), the publish-for-pay publication or publish-for-pay website is liable for:

(i) all costs, including reasonable attorney fees, resulting from any legal action that the individual brings in relation to the failure of the publish-for-pay publication or publish-for-pay website to remove and destroy the booking photograph; and

(ii) a civil penalty of $100 per day for each day after the seven-day deadline described in Subsection (5)(a) on which the booking photograph is visible or publicly accessible in the publish-for-pay publication or on the publish-for-pay website.

(c) An act of a publish-for-pay publication or publish-for-pay website described in Subsection (5)(a) that seeks to condition removal or destruction of the booking photograph on the payment of any fee or amount constitutes theft by extortion under Section 76-6-406.

[~~17-22-35~~]17-72-803 (Effective 11/06/25). Notification requirements to state agencies concerning potential inmate debts.

[~~(1) As used in this section, "inmate" means an individual who is in the custody of a county jail.~~]

~~(2) (a)~~ Beginning on January 1, 2027, a county jail is required to notify the Office of State Debt Collection, the State Tax Commission, and the Office of Recovery Services:

~~(i)~~ within five business days after the day on which [~~an inmate~~]a prisoner has been incarcerated in the county jail for 90 consecutive days; and

~~(ii)~~ if [~~an inmate~~]a prisoner has been incarcerated in the county jail for more than 90 consecutive days, within five business days after the day on which [~~an inmate~~]a prisoner is released from the county jail.

~~(b)~~ The notification described in Subsection ~~(2)(a)~~ shall include:

~~(i)~~ the relevant dates of the [~~inmate's~~]prisoner's incarceration and identifying information concerning the [~~inmate's~~]prisoner's identity; and

~~(ii)~~ whether the [~~inmate's~~]prisoner's incarceration is based on:

~~(A)~~ criminal non-payment of a child support order; or

~~(B)~~ an offense against the [~~inmate's~~]prisoner's child or custodial parent of the [~~inmate's~~]prisoner's child.

~~(c)~~ The requirement described in Subsection ~~(2)(a)(i)~~(a) does not apply if a court, another county jail, the Department of Corrections, or another entity already has notified the Office of State Debt Collection, the State Tax Commission, and the Office of Recovery Services as described in Subsection ~~(2)(a)~~ about the inmate's incarceration.

~~(d)~~ The requirement described in Subsection ~~(2)(a)(ii)~~(b) does not apply if an inmate is transferred to a different county jail or another incarcerated setting for the purpose of continued incarceration.

[~~17-22-36~~]17-72-804 (Effective 11/06/25). State identification numbers and biometric and other personal information.

(1) As used in this section, "state identification number" means the number issued by the Bureau of Criminal Identification within the Department of Public Safety that corresponds to a certain individual.

(2) If an individual is brought to a county jail for processing or booking into custody, the county jail shall, regardless of whether the county jail retains custody of the individual or releases the individual due to capacity issues or another reason:

(a) collect the individual's biometric and other personal information required by law; and

(b) (i) to the extent possible, connect the individual with the individual's state identification number; and

(ii) if identified, use the individual's state identification number in association with any records created or accessed by the county jail concerning the individual.

Section 318. Section 17-73-101 is enacted to read:

CHAPTER 73. County Surveyor

PART 1. General Provisions

17-73-101 (Effective 11/06/25). Definitions.

[~~(b) "Township" means a term used in the context of identifying a geographic area in common surveyor practice.~~]

~~(2)~~ (a) (i) Each professional land surveyor making a boundary survey of lands within this state to establish or reestablish a boundary line or to obtain data for constructing a map or plat showing a boundary line shall file a map of the survey that meets the requirements of this section with the county surveyor or designated office within 90 days of the establishment or reestablishment of a boundary.

(ii) A professional land surveyor who fails to file a map of the survey as required by Subsection ~~(2)(a)(i)~~(a)(i) is guilty of an infraction.

(iii) Each failure to file a map of the survey as required by Subsection ~~(2)(a)(i)~~(a)(i) is a separate violation.

(b) The county surveyor or designated office shall file and index the map of the survey.

(c) The map shall be a public record in the office of the county surveyor or designated office.

~~(3)~~ This type of map shall show:

(a) the location of survey by quarter section and township and range;

(b) the date of survey;

(c) the scale of drawing and north point;

(d) the distance and course of all lines traced or established, giving the basis of bearing and the distance and course to two or more section corners or quarter corners, including township and range, or to identified monuments within a recorded subdivision;

(e) all measured bearings, angles, and distances separately indicated from those of record;

(f) a written boundary description of property surveyed;

(g) all monuments set and their relation to older monuments found;

(h) a detailed description of monuments found and monuments set, indicated separately;

(i) the surveyor's seal or stamp; and

(j) the surveyor's business name and address.

~~(4)~~ (a) The map shall contain a written narrative that explains and identifies:

(i) the purpose of the survey;

(ii) the basis on which the lines were established; and

(iii) the found monuments and deed elements that controlled the established or reestablished lines.

(b) If the narrative is a separate document, it shall contain:

(i) the location of the survey by quarter section and by township and range;

(ii) the date of the survey;

(iii) the surveyor's stamp or seal; and

(iv) the surveyor's business name and address.

(c) The map and narrative shall be referenced to each other if they are separate documents.

~~(5)~~ The map and narrative shall be created on material of a permanent nature on stable base reproducible material in the sizes required by the county surveyor.

~~(6)~~ (a) Any monument set by a licensed professional land surveyor to mark or reference a point on a property or land line shall be durably and visibly marked or tagged with the registered business name or the letters "L.S." followed by the registration number of the surveyor in charge.

(b) If the monument is set by a licensed land surveyor who is a public officer, it shall be marked with the official title of the office.

~~(7)~~ (a) If, in the performance of a survey, a surveyor finds or makes any changes to the section corner or quarter-section corner, or their accessories, the surveyor shall complete and submit to the county surveyor or designated office a record of the changes made.

(b) The record described in Subsection (6)(a) shall:

(i) be submitted within 45 days of the corner visits; and [~~shall~~]

(ii) include the surveyor's seal, business name, and address.

~~(8)~~ The Utah State Board of Engineers and Land Surveyors Examiners may revoke the license of any professional land surveyor who fails to comply with the requirements of this section, according to the procedures [~~set forth~~]in Title 58, Chapter 1, Division of Professional Licensing Act.

~~(9)~~ Each federal or state agency, board, or commission, special district, special service district, or municipal corporation that makes a boundary survey of lands within this state shall comply with this section.

[~~17-23-17.5~~]17-73-505 (Effective 11/06/25). Corner perpetuation and filing -- Establishment of corner file -- Preservation of map records -- Filing fees -- Exemptions.

[~~(1) As used in this section:~~]

[~~(a) "Accessory to a corner" means any exclusively identifiable physical object whose spatial relationship to the corner is recorded. Accessories may be bearing trees, bearing objects, monuments, reference monuments, line trees, pits, mounds, charcoal-filled bottles, steel or wooden stakes, or other objects.~~]

[~~(b) "Corner," unless otherwise qualified, means a property corner, a property controlling corner, a public land survey corner, or any combination of these.~~]

[~~(c) "Geographic coordinates" means mathematical values that designate a position on the earth relative to a given reference system. Coordinates shall be established pursuant to Title 57, Chapter 10, Utah Coordinate System.~~]

[~~(d) "Land surveyor" means a surveyor who is licensed to practice land surveying in this state in accordance with Title 58, Chapter 22, Professional Engineers and Professional Land Surveyors Licensing Act.~~]

[~~(e) "Monument" means an accessory that is presumed to occupy the exact position of a corner.~~]

[~~(f) "Property controlling corner" means a public land survey corner or any property corner which does not lie on a property line of the property in question, but which controls the location of one or more of the property corners of the property in question.~~]

[~~(g) "Property corner" means a geographic point of known geographic coordinates on the surface of the earth, and is on, a part of, and controls a property line.~~]

[~~(h) "Public land survey corner" means any corner actually established and monumented in an original survey or resurvey used as a basis of legal descriptions for issuing a patent for the land to a private person from the United States government.~~]

[~~(i) "Reference monument" means a special monument that does not occupy the same geographical position as the corner itself, but whose spatial relationship to the corner is recorded and which serves to witness the corner.~~]

[~~(j) "Township" means a term used in the context of identifying a geographic area in common surveyor practice.~~]

~~(2)~~ (a) Any land surveyor making a boundary survey of lands within this state and utilizing a corner shall, within 90 days, complete, sign, and file with the county surveyor of the county where the corner is situated, a written record to be known as a corner file for every public land survey corner and accessory to the corner which is used as control in any survey by the surveyor, unless the corner and its accessories are already a matter of record in the county.

(b) Where reasonably possible, the corner file shall include the geographic coordinates of the corner.

(c) A surveyor may file a corner record as to any property corner, reference monument, or accessory to a corner.

(d) Corner records may be filed concerning corners used before the effective date of this section.

~~(3)~~ The county surveyor of the county containing the corners shall have on record as part of the official files maps of each township within the county, the bearings and lengths of the connecting lines to government corners, and government corners looked for and not found.

~~(4)~~ The county surveyor shall make these records available for public inspection at the county facilities during normal business hours.

~~(5)~~ Filing fees for corner records shall be established by the county legislative body consistent with existing fees for similar services. All corners, monuments, and their accessories used [~~prior to the effective date of this section~~]before May 1, 1995 shall be accepted and filed with the county surveyor without requiring the payment of the fees.

~~(6)~~ When a corner record of a public land survey corner is required to be filed under the provisions of this section and the monument needs to be reconstructed or rehabilitated, the land surveyor shall contact the county surveyor in accordance with Section [~~17-23-14~~]17-73-502.

~~(7)~~ A corner record may not be filed unless it is signed by a land surveyor.

~~(8)~~ All filings relative to official cadastral surveys of the Bureau of Land Management of the United States of America performed by authorized personnel shall be exempt from filing fees.

[~~17-23-18~~]17-73-506 (Effective 11/06/25). Amendment of survey maps or narratives by affidavit of corrections.

(1) Any survey map or narrative filed under the provisions of this chapter may be amended by an affidavit of corrections:

(a) to show any courses or distances omitted from the map or narrative;

(b) to correct an error in the description of the real property shown on the map or narrative; or

(c) to correct any other errors or omissions where the error or omission is ascertainable from the data shown on the map or narrative as recorded.

(2) (a) The affidavit of correction shall be prepared by the licensed professional land surveyor who filed the map or narrative.

(b) In the event of the death, disability, or retirement from practice of the surveyor who filed the map or narrative, the county surveyor may prepare the affidavit of correction.

(c) The affidavit shall set forth in detail the corrections made.

(d) The seal and signature of the licensed professional land surveyor filing the affidavit of correction shall be affixed to the affidavit.

(3) The county surveyor having jurisdiction of the map or narrative shall certify that the affidavit of correction has been examined and that the changes shown on the map or narrative are changes permitted under this section.

(4) Nothing in this section permits changes in courses or distances for the purpose of redesigning parcel configurations.

[~~17-23-20~~]17-73-507 (Effective 11/06/25). Final plats of local entity boundary actions -- County surveyor approval of final plat -- Plat requirements.

[~~(1) As used in this section:~~]

[~~(a) "Approving authority" means the person or body required under applicable statute to submit to the lieutenant governor a notice of an impending boundary action, as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5.~~]

[~~(b)~~ (i) ~~"Boundary action" means any action that establishes, modifies, or eliminates the boundary of a local entity, including incorporation or creation, annexation, withdrawal or disconnection, consolidation, division, boundary adjustment, and dissolution.~~]

[~~(ii) "Boundary action" does not include the determination of the true location of a county boundary under Section 17-50-105.~~]

[~~(c) "Final local entity plat" means a plat that meets the requirements of Subsection (4).~~]

[~~(d) "Local entity" has the same meaning as defined in Section 67-1a-6.5.~~]

~~(2)~~ Upon request and in consultation with the county recorder, the county surveyor of each county in which property depicted on a plat is located shall determine whether the plat is a final local entity plat.

~~(3)~~ (a) If a county surveyor determines that a plat meets the requirements of Subsection ~~(4)~~, the county surveyor shall approve the plat as a final local entity plat.

(b) The county surveyor shall indicate the approval of a plat as a final local entity plat on the face of the final local entity plat.

~~(4)~~ A plat may not be approved as a final local entity plat unless the plat:

(a) contains a graphical illustration depicting:

(i) in the case of a proposed creation or incorporation of a local entity, the boundary of the proposed local entity;

(ii) in the case of a proposed annexation of an area into an existing local entity, the boundary of the area proposed to be annexed;

(iii) in the case of a proposed adjustment of a boundary between local entities, the boundary of the area that the boundary adjustment

proposes to move from inside the boundary of one local entity to inside the boundary of another local entity;

(iv) in the case of a proposed withdrawal or disconnection of an area from a local entity, the boundary of the area that is proposed to be withdrawn or disconnected;

(v) in the case of a proposed consolidation of multiple local entities, the boundary of the proposed consolidated local entity; and

(vi) in the case of a proposed division of a local entity into multiple local entities, the boundary of each new local entity created by the proposed division;

(b) is created on reproducible material that is:

(i) permanent in nature; and

(ii) the size and type specified by the county recorder;

(c) is drawn to a scale so that all data are legible;

(d) contains complete and accurate boundary information, including, as appropriate, calls along existing boundary lines, sufficient to enable:

(i) the county surveyor to establish the boundary on the ground, in the event of a dispute about the accurate location of the boundary; and

(ii) the county recorder to identify, for tax purposes, each tract or parcel included within the boundary;

(e) depicts a name for the plat, approved by the county recorder, that is sufficiently unique to distinguish the plat from all other recorded plats in the county;

(f) contains:

(i) the name of the local entity whose boundary is depicted on the plat;

(ii) the name of each county within which any property depicted on the plat is located;

(iii) the date that the plat was prepared;

(iv) a north arrow and legend;

(v) a signature block for:

(A) the signatures of:

(I) the professional land surveyor who prepared the plat; and

(II) the local entity's approving authority; and

(B) the approval of the county surveyor; and

(vi) a three-inch by three-inch block in the lower right hand corner for the county recorder's use when recording the plat;

(g) has been certified and signed by a professional land surveyor licensed under Title 58, Chapter 22, Professional Engineers and Professional Land Surveyors Licensing Act; and

(h) has been reviewed and signed by the approving authority of the local entity whose boundary is depicted on the plat.

~~(5)~~ The county surveyor may charge and collect a reasonable fee for the costs associated with:

(a) the process of determining whether a plat is a final local entity plat; and

(b) the approval of a plat as a final local entity plat.

Section 334. Section 17-74-101 is enacted to read:

(b) If [~~an~~]a merit system officer files a grievance, as defined by the commission, and exhausts all internal grievance procedures, if any, the merit system officer may, within 10 days after [~~receiving~~]the day on which the merit system officer received notice of the final disposition of the grievance, file an appeal with the commission.

(3) (a) The commission shall:

(i) fix a time and place for a hearing upon the charges or appeal of [~~the~~]a merit system officer grievance; and

(ii) give notice of the hearing to the parties.

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b)(ii), each hearing under this Subsection (3) shall be held not less than 10 days, and not more than 90 days, after the day on which a merit system officer files an appeal or grievance[~~ is filed~~].

(ii) A hearing may be held more than 90 days after an appeal or grievance is filed if:

(A) the merit system officer and employer agree; or

(B) the commission determines [~~for~~]there is good cause [~~the commission so orders~~]to delay the hearing.

(4) (a) If the aggrieved merit system officer so desires, the hearing shall be public.

(b) The parties may be represented by counsel at the hearing.

(5) After the hearing, the commission shall make its decision in writing, including findings of fact, and shall mail a copy of the commission's decision to each party.

(6) (a) An individual aggrieved by an act or failure to act of any commission under this part has exhausted the remedies of appeal to the commission, the individual may appeal the commission's decision to the district court.

(b) The courts may review questions of law and fact, and may affirm, set aside, or modify the ruling complained of.

(c) has practiced or attempted deception or fraud in the application or examination process or in securing eligibility for appointment; or

(d) is not:

(i) a citizen of the United States; or

(ii) a lawful permanent resident of the United States who:

(A) has been in the United States legally for the five years immediately before the day on which the application is made; and

(B) has legal authorization to work in the United States.

(2) If an applicant is rejected, the commission shall promptly notify the applicant[~~, shall be promptly notified~~].

(3) At any time before the day on which the examination is held, an applicant may correct a defect in the applicant's application.

(4) An applicant may file a written appeal regarding the application process with the commission at any time before the day on which the examination is held.

Section 55. Section 17-76-309, which is renumbered from Section 17-30a-304 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-30a-304~~]17-76-309 (Effective 11/06/25). Preservation and inspection of examination papers.

(1) (a) Examination papers and related documents:

(i) are the commission's property[~~, of the commission~~]; and

(ii) the commission shall preserve [~~them~~]examination papers and related documents until the expiration of the eligible register for which an examination is given.

(b) Preservation of examination papers and related documents after the time period described in Subsection (1)(a) is subject to a retention schedule adopted by the commission.

(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), examination papers and related documents are not open to public inspection without a court order.

(b) An applicant may inspect the applicant's own papers at any time within 30 days after the commission sends notice of the applicant's grade.

(c) The appointing authority may inspect the papers of any eligible applicant certified for appointment.

Section 56. Section 17-76-310, which is renumbered from Section 17-30a-305 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-30a-305~~]17-76-310 (Effective 11/06/25). Preparation and expiration of eligible appointment register -- Appointments from eligible appointment register -- Failure to accept appointment -- Probationary period.

(1) Upon completion of an examination, the commission shall prepare and adopt an eligible appointment register containing the names of applicants receiving a passing grade ranked in the order of grades earned, beginning with the highest.

(2) (a) An eligible appointment register shall expire not later than two years after the date of the examination unless the commission, for good reason, extends the time not to exceed one additional year.

(b) If the commission adopts a new eligible appointment register, a previous eligible appointment register for the same class or position is cancelled.

(3) If the appointment of a peace officer is an appointment based on an examination, the appointing authority shall request that the commission certify eligible applicants for each position.

(4) (a) The commission shall certify, to the appointing authority, a number of names equal to three times the number of allocations being filled.

(b) The names of the applicants shall be ranked in order of examination score, beginning with the name of the applicant standing highest on the eligible appointment register.

(5) The appointing authority shall select a person described in Subsection (4)(b) and appoint one person to each open position.

(6) If a certified applicant fails to accept a proffered appointment, the applicant:

(a) may request in writing that the applicant be able to retain the applicant's place on the eligible appointment register; and

(b) shall provide reasons sufficient, in the judgment of the commission, to justify the applicant's failure to accept.

(7) A peace officer appointed under Subsection (5) shall serve a probationary period of 12 consecutive months, during which time the officer may be discharged at the appointing authority's sole discretion.

(8) (a) At the request of the appointing authority, and with the approval of the commission, the probationary period may be extended beyond 12 months for a peace officer who has not yet satisfactorily completed an approved peace officer training program and received a certificate of completion under Title 53, Chapter 6, Peace Officer Standards and Training Act.

(b) At the request of the appointing authority, and with the approval of the commission, the probationary period of a peace officer may be extended beyond 12 months for good cause shown.

(c) Service under a temporary or part-time appointment is not considered a part of the probationary period.

(9) If a peace officer is retained in a position after the expiration of the probationary period, the peace officer's retention constitutes appointment to merit status.

(10) A person removed from employment during the probationary period may not be placed on the eligible appointment register again without having passed another regular examination.

(11) The commission may make or adopt policies governing probationary periods for other appointments, including the appointing or transfer of a peace officer from another jurisdiction.

[~~17-30a-308~~]17-76-311 (Effective 11/06/25). Vacancies -- Positions requiring special qualifications -- Competition suspended -- Promotion -- Promotion register.

(1) [~~In case of~~]When there is a vacancy in a position requiring peculiar and exceptional qualifications of a scientific, professional, or expert character, [~~and~~]the commission may, after a public hearing and unanimous vote by the commission, suspend competition regarding the position upon satisfactory evidence that:

(a) [~~competition~~]competitive hiring is impracticable; and

(b) the position can best be filled by the selection of [~~some designated person~~]an individual of recognized attainments[~~, the commission may, after a public hearing and by unanimous vote, suspend competition regarding that position~~].

(2) The commission shall report a suspension under Subsection (1) in the commission minutes, together with the reason for suspension.

(3) With the exception of an appointment made in accordance with a commission rule adopted under [~~Subsection 17-30a-203(1)(b)(i)(H)~~]Subsection 17-76-305(1)(b)(i)(H), a department shall fill a supervisor vacancy in the merit system classification by promotion insofar as possible.

(4) (a) A department shall make a promotion only after an open competitive examination, admission to which shall be limited to merit system officers.

(b) [~~An~~]A promotion examination process described in Subsection (4)(a) shall include consideration of the seniority and competence of the [~~peace~~]merit system officer to perform the duties required in the position for which application is made.

(c) The seniority element of the promotion examination may not exceed 40% of the entire examination score.

(5) (a) After a promotional examination, the commission shall prepare a promotional eligible appointment register that shall take precedence over any previously existing eligible appointment register.

(b) The certified promotional eligible appointment register shall consist of three names for the initial vacancy and one more name for each additional vacancy, ranked in the order of the examination score, beginning with the highest scoring applicant.

Section 58. Section 17-76-312, which is renumbered from Section 17-30a-310 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-30a-310~~]17-76-312 (Effective 11/06/25). Temporary and part-time appointment.

(2) A temporary employee is not a merit system officer and may be appointed without examination.

(3) A department may appoint an employee to a part-time appointment for a period not to exceed 29 hours per week.

(4) A part-time employee is not a merit system officer and may be appointed without examination.

Section 59. Section 17-76-313, which is renumbered from Section 17-30a-311 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-30a-311~~]17-76-313 (Effective 11/06/25). Temporary layoffs -- Reappointment register.

(1) Subject to Subsections (2) and (3), and if necessary, because of lack of funds or work, a department may temporarily lay off a merit system officer.

(2) A department that lays off a merit system officer under Subsection (1) shall lay off the merit system officer according to the seniority of the merit system officers of the class of positions affected, following the process prescribed by commission rule.

(3) A department shall lay off [~~a person~~]an individual serving under temporary or part-time appointment before a merit system officer.

(4) (a) If a merit system officer is laid off, the department shall place the merit system officer on [~~a~~]an eligible reappointment register to be reappointed in the inverse order in which the officer is laid off.

(b) The eligible reappointment register described in Subsection (4)(a) takes precedence over all other eligible reappointment registers.

Section 60. Section 17-76-314, which is renumbered from Section 17-30a-309 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-30a-309~~]17-76-314 (Effective 11/06/25). Transfer and reassignment.

(1) A merit system officer may be transferred, without examination, from one position to a similar position in the same class and grade within the department.

(2) A merit system officer may be voluntarily reassigned, including to another class and grade, in accordance with rules adopted by the commission.

Section 61. Section 17-76-315, which is renumbered from Section 17-30a-313 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-30a-313~~]17-76-315 (Effective 11/06/25). Vacation, sick leave, and other benefits.

For merit system officers, provisions regarding vacation, sick, other leave, or any other employment condition or benefit not covered by this chapter shall be established by:

(1) applicable law;

(2) county ordinance or regulation; or

(3) police interlocal entity rule or regulation.

Section 62. Section 17-76-316, which is renumbered from Section 17-30a-312 is renumbered and amended to read:
[~~17-30a-312~~]17-76-316 (Effective 11/06/25). Reappointment after temporary leave.

(1) (a) Consistent with [~~rules~~]policies adopted by the commission and within the appointing authority's discretion, a merit system officer may be granted a temporary leave of absence outside the department.

(b) Leave granted under Subsection (1)(a) is without pay and for a period not to exceed one year.

(c) In accordance with applicable law or ordinance, the appointing authority may reappoint the merit system officer without examination at the end of the leave.

(2) (a) In the event a merit system officer is elected sheriff or is appointed to any merit-exempt position in the department, the merit system officer's merit system status shall automatically be suspended for the period of time the officer remains sheriff or in a merit-exempt appointment.

(b) At the end of the period of election to sheriff or suspension of merit status under Subsection (2)(a), the merit system officer shall be returned to the merit system officer's former position as a merit system officer without examination.

(3) The appointing authority shall authorize any leave required by federal law.

Section 63. Section 17-76-317, which is renumbered from Section 17-30a-402 is renumbered and amended to read:
[~~17-30a-402~~]17-76-317 (Effective 11/06/25). Disciplinary charges and merit system officer grievances -- Appeal to commission -- Hearings -- Findings -- Appeal to district court -- Scope of review.

(1) An appointing authority may demote, suspend, discharge, or reduce a merit system officer's pay for:

(a) neglect of duty;

(b) disobedience of a reasonable order;

(c) misconduct;

(d) inefficiency or inability to satisfactorily perform assigned duties; or

(e) an act inimical to public service.

(2) A department may not suspend a merit system officer for more than 176 work hours at one time, or for more than 352 work hours in one year.

(3) The appointing authority shall order the demotion, reduction in pay, suspension, or discharge of a merit system officer.

(4) The appointing authority:

(a) may impose disciplinary charges in accordance with a rule, policy, ordinance, or law; and

(b) shall serve the merit system officer to be disciplined with a copy of the written charges.

(5) (a) A disciplined merit system officer may file an appeal of the disciplinary charges with the department, which shall conduct the appeal internally.

(b) The department shall conduct an appeal in accordance with policies made by the appointing authority.

(6) If the disciplinary charges are sustained on internal appeal, the merit system officer may appeal to the commission in accordance with the provisions of this section and commission policy.

(7) (a) A merit system officer disciplined in accordance with Subsection (1) may, within 10 calendar days after the day on which the department makes the appeal decision described in Subsection (5), make an appeal in writing to the commission.

(b) If the merit system officer fails to make an internal appeal of the disciplinary action, the merit system officer may not appeal to the commission.

(8) The commission may hear appeals regarding demotion, reduction in pay, suspension, or discharge of a merit system officer for any cause provided in Subsection (1).

(9) (a) The commission shall:

(i) fix a time and place for a hearing on the appeal; and

(ii) give notice of the hearing to the parties.

(b) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (9)(b)(ii), the commission shall hold a hearing under this Subsection (9) no less than 10 and no more than 90 days after the day on which an appeal is filed.

(ii) The commission may hold a hearing more than 90 days after the day on which an appeal is filed if:

(A) the parties agree; or

(B) the commission finds that the delay is for good cause.

(c) (i) The commission shall hold the hearing in accordance with Title 52, Chapter 4, Open and Public Meetings Act.

(ii) Notwithstanding Subsection (9)(c)(i), if the commission proposes to and is authorized to close the hearing to the public in accordance with Title 52, Chapter 4, Open and Public Meetings Act, the commission shall open the meeting to the public if the aggrieved merit system officer requests that the commission open the hearing.

(d) The parties may be represented by counsel at the hearing.

(10) The commission, on the commission's own motion or at the request of the appointing authority, may dismiss an appeal for unjustified delay, removal to a court or other venue, or for other good cause shown.

(11) In resolving an appeal, the commission may sustain, modify, or vacate a decision of the appointing authority.

(12) After the hearing described in Subsection (9), the commission shall publish a written decision, including findings of fact and conclusions of law, and shall notify each party.

(13) A person may appeal a final action or order of the commission to the Court of Appeals for review.

(a) A person shall file a notice of appeal within 30 days of the issuance of the final action or order of the commission.

(b) The Court of Appeals shall base the court's review on the record of the commission and for the purpose of determining if the commission has abused the commission's discretion or exceeded the commission's authority.

Section 64. Section 17-76-318, which is renumbered from Section 17-30a-314 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-30a-314~~]17-76-318 (Effective 11/06/25). Prohibitions against political activities -- Penalties.

(1) (a) An officer, employee, or member of a governing body of a county or a police interlocal entity, whether elected or appointed, may not directly or indirectly coerce, command, or advise a merit system officer to pay, lend, or contribute part of the merit system officer's salary or compensation or anything else of value to a party, committee, organization, agency, or person for political purpose.

(b) A county or police interlocal entity officer, employee, or member of a governing body, whether elected or appointed, may not make or attempt to make a merit system officer's personnel status dependent upon the merit system officer's support or lack of support for a political party, committee, organization, agency, or person engaged in a political activity.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to political speeches or use of mass communications media for political purposes by [~~a person~~]an individual where a merit system officer is present, unless the purpose and intent of the speaker is to violate this section with direct respect to those merit system officers.

(iii) an educational series; and

(iv) substance abuse treatment; and

(n) utilize proceeds of the accounts described in Subsection 26B-5-209(1) to supplement the cost of providing the services described in Subsection (5)(m).

(6) Before disbursing any public funds, each local substance abuse authority shall require that each entity that receives any public funds from the local substance abuse authority agrees in writing that:

(a) the entity's financial records and other records relevant to the entity's performance of the services provided to the local substance abuse authority shall be subject to examination by:

(i) the division;

(ii) the local substance abuse authority director;

(iii) (A) the county treasurer and county attorney or district attorney; or

(B) if two or more counties jointly provide substance use services under an agreement under Subsection (2), the designated treasurer and the designated legal officer;

(iv) the county legislative body; and

(v) in a county with a county executive that is separate from the county legislative body, the county executive;

(b) the county auditor may examine and audit the entity's financial and other records relevant to the entity's performance of the services provided to the local substance abuse authority; and

(c) the entity will comply with the provisions of Subsection (4)(b).

(7) (a) A local substance abuse authority may receive for substance abuse services:

(i) property[~~,~~];

(ii) grants[~~,~~];

(iii) gifts[~~,~~];

(iv) supplies[~~,~~];

(v) materials[~~,~~];

(vi) contributions[~~,~~]; and

(vii) any benefit derived [~~therefrom, for substance abuse services~~]from the items described in Subsections (7)(a)(i) through (vi).

(b) If [~~those gifts~~]an item described in Subsections (7)(a)(i) through (vi) are conditioned upon [~~their~~]the item's use for a specified service or program, [~~they~~]the item shall be so used.

(8) [~~(a) As used in this section, "public funds" means the same as that term is defined in Section 17-43-203.~~]

[~~(b)~~] Public funds received for the provision of services [~~pursuant to~~]in accordance with the local substance abuse plan may not be used for any other purpose except those authorized in the contract between the local substance abuse authority and the provider for the provision of plan services.

(9) Subject to the requirements of the federal Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment Block Grant, Pub. L. No. 102-321, a local substance abuse authority shall ensure that all substance use treatment programs that receive public funds:

(a) accept and provide priority for admission to a pregnant woman or a pregnant minor; and

(b) if admission of a pregnant woman or a pregnant minor is not possible within 24 hours of the time that a request for admission is made, provide a comprehensive referral for interim services that:

[~~17-43-202~~]17-77-202 (Effective 11/06/25). Requirements for distributing public funds.

(1) Each local substance abuse authority shall award all public funds in accordance with this section and in compliance with:

(a) the requirements of Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Utah Procurement Code; or

(b) a county procurement ordinance [~~that requires similar procurement practices~~]adopted under Section 17-63-506.

(2) (a) If all initial bids on the project are rejected, the local substance abuse authority shall publish a new invitation to bid.

(b) If no satisfactory bid is received by the local substance abuse authority when the bids received from the second invitation are opened, the local substance abuse authority may execute a contract without requiring competitive bidding.

(3) A local substance abuse authority [~~need not~~]is not required to comply with the procurement provisions of this section when [~~it~~]the local substance abuse authority disburses public funds to:

(a) another political subdivision of the state; or

(b) an institution of higher education of the state.

(4) (a) Each contract awarded by a local substance abuse authority shall be for a fixed amount and limited period.

(b) A local substance abuse authority may modify a contract[~~, may be modified~~] due to changes in available funding for the same contract purpose without competition.

[~~17-43-203~~]17-77-203 (Effective 11/06/25). Use and oversight of public funds.

[~~(1) As used in this section, "public funds":~~]

[~~(a) means:~~]

[~~(i) federal money received from the Department of Health and Human Services; and~~]

[~~(ii) state money appropriated by the Legislature to the Department of Health and Human Services, a county governing body, or a local substance abuse authority for the purposes of providing substance abuse programs or services; and~~]

[~~(b) includes that federal and state money:~~]

[~~(i) even after the money has been transferred by a local substance abuse authority to a private provider under an annual or otherwise ongoing contract to provide comprehensive substance abuse programs or services for the local substance abuse authority; and~~]

[~~(ii) while in the possession of the private provider.~~]

~~(2)~~ (a) Each local substance abuse authority is responsible for [~~oversight of~~]overseeing all public funds [~~received by it~~]the local substance abuse authority receives, to determine that [~~those~~] public funds are utilized in accordance with:

(i) federal and state law[~~,~~];

(ii) the rules and policies of the [~~Department of Health and Human Services,~~]department; and

(iii) [~~the provisions of~~]any contract between the local substance abuse authority and the [~~Department of Health and Human Services~~]department or a private provider.

(b) [~~That~~]Local substance abuse authority oversight includes requiring that neither [~~the contract provider, as described in Subsection (1)~~]a private provider that contracts with the local substance abuse authority to provide comprehensive substance abuse programs or services for the local substance abuse authority, nor any of [~~its~~]the private provider's employees:

~~(a)~~ violate any applicable federal or state criminal law;

~~(b)~~ knowingly violate:

(A) any applicable department rule or policy [~~of the Department of Health and Human Services, or knowingly violate~~];or

~~(2)~~ (a) (i) In each county other than a county described in Subsection (1)(a)(ii) or (iii), the county legislative body is the local mental health authority.

(ii) In each county operating under a county executive-council form of government under Section [~~17-52a-203~~]17-62-203, the county legislative body is the local mental health authority, [~~provided however~~]except that the county executive administers any contract for plan services[~~, shall be administered by the county executive~~].

~~(ii)~~ In each county operating under a council-manager form of government under Section [~~17-52a-204~~]17-62-204, the county manager is the local mental health authority.

[~~(iii) In each county other than a county described in Subsection (2)(a)(i) or (ii), the county legislative body is the local mental health authority.~~]

(b) Within legislative appropriations and county matching funds required by this section, under the direction of the division, each local mental health authority shall:

(i) provide mental health services to individuals within the county; and

(ii) cooperate with the division's efforts[~~, of the division~~] to promote integrated programs that address an individual's substance use, mental health, and physical healthcare needs, as described in Section 26B-5-102.

(c) Within legislative appropriations and county matching funds required by this section, each local mental health authority shall cooperate with the department's efforts[~~, of the department~~] to promote a system of care, as defined in Section 26B-5-101, for minors with or at risk for complex emotional and behavioral needs, as described in Section 26B-5-101.

~~(3)~~ (a) By executing an interlocal agreement under Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act, two or more counties may join to:

(i) provide mental health prevention and treatment services; or

(ii) create a united local health department that combines substance use treatment services, mental health services, and local health department services in accordance with Subsection ~~(4)~~.

(b) The legislative bodies of counties joining to provide services may establish acceptable ways of apportioning the cost of mental health services.

(c) Each agreement for joint mental health services shall:

(i) (A) designate the county treasurer of one of the participating counties or another [~~person~~]individual as the treasurer for the combined mental health authorities and as the custodian of money available for the joint services; and

(B) provide that the designated county treasurer, or other disbursing officer authorized by the designated county treasurer, may make payments from the money available for the joint services upon audit of the appropriate [~~auditing officer or officers~~]county auditor representing the participating counties;

(ii) provide for the appointment of an independent auditor or a county auditor of one of the participating counties as the designated auditing officer for the combined mental health authorities;

(iii) (A) provide for the appointment of the county attorney or district attorney of one of the participating counties as the designated legal officer for the combined mental health authorities; and

(B) authorize the designated legal officer to request and receive the assistance of the county or district attorneys of the other participating counties in defending or prosecuting actions within their counties relating to the combined mental health authorities; and

(iv) provide for the adoption of management, clinical, financial, procurement, personnel, and administrative policies as already established by one of the participating counties or as approved by the legislative body of each participating county or interlocal board.

(d) An agreement for joint mental health services may provide for:

(i) joint operation of services and facilities or for operation of services and facilities under contract by one participating local mental health authority for other participating local mental health authorities; and

(ii) allocation of appointments of members of the mental health advisory council between or among participating counties.

~~(4)~~ (a) A county governing body may elect to combine the local mental health authority with:

(i) the local substance abuse authority created in Part 2, Local Substance Abuse Authorities[~~, and~~]; or

(ii) the local health department created in Title 26A, Chapter 1, Part 1, Local Health Department Act[~~, to create a united local health department under Section 26A-1-105.5~~].

(b) A local mental health authority that joins with a united local health department shall comply with this part.

~~(5)~~ (a) Each local mental health authority is accountable to the department and the state with regard to the use of state and federal funds received from [~~those departments~~]the department for mental health services, regardless of whether the services are provided by a private contract provider.

(b) (i) Each local mental health authority shall comply, and require compliance by [~~its~~]the local mental health authority's contract provider, with all directives issued by the department regarding the use and expenditure of state and federal funds received from [~~those departments~~]the department for the purpose of providing mental health programs and services.

(ii) The department shall:

(A) ensure that [~~those~~]directives issued by the department described in Subsection (4)(b)(i) are not duplicative or conflicting[~~,~~]; and

(B) [~~shall~~]consult and coordinate with local mental health authorities with regard to programs and services.

~~(6)~~ (a) Each local mental health authority shall:

(i) review and evaluate mental health needs and services, including mental health needs and services for:

(A) an individual incarcerated in a county jail or other county correctional facility; and

(B) an individual who is a resident of the county and who is court ordered to receive assisted outpatient treatment under Section 26B-5-351;

(ii) in accordance with Subsections ~~(6)(b)~~(b) and (c), annually prepare and submit to the division a plan approved by the county legislative body for mental health funding and service delivery, either directly by the local mental health authority or by contract;

(iii) establish and maintain, either directly or by contract, programs licensed under Title 26B, Chapter 2, Part 1, Human Services Programs and Facilities;

(iv) appoint, directly or by contract, a full-time or part-time director for mental health programs and prescribe the director's duties;

(v) provide input and comment on new and revised rules established by the division;

(vi) establish and require contract providers to establish administrative, clinical, personnel, financial, procurement, and management policies regarding mental health services and facilities, in accordance with the rules of the division, and state and federal law;

(vii) establish mechanisms allowing for direct citizen input;

(viii) annually contract with the division to provide mental health programs and services in accordance with the provisions of Title 26B, Chapter 5, Health Care - Substance Use and Mental Health;

(ix) comply with all applicable state and federal:

(A) statutes[~~,~~];

(B) policies[~~,~~];

(C) audit requirements[~~,~~];

(D) contract requirements[~~,~~]; and

(E) any directives resulting from those audits and contract requirements;

(x) provide funding equal to at least 20% of the state funds that it receives to fund services described in the plan;

(xi) comply with the requirements and procedures of:

(A) Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act[~~,~~];

(B) Title 17B, Chapter 1, Part 6, Fiscal Procedures for Special Districts[~~,~~]; and

(C) Title 51, Chapter 2a, Accounting Reports from Political Subdivisions, Interlocal Organizations, and Other Local Entities Act;

(xii) take and retain physical custody of minors committed to the physical custody of local mental health authorities by a judicial proceeding under Title 26B, Chapter 5, Part 4, Commitment of Persons Under Age 18; and (xiii) cooperate with the Department of Corrections to complete the requirements described in [~~Subsection 64-13-21(8)~~]Section 64-14-204.

(b) Each plan under Subsection ~~(6)(a)(ii)~~(a)(ii) shall include services for adults, youth, and children, which shall include:

(i) inpatient care and services;

(ii) residential care and services;

(iii) outpatient care and services;

(iv) 24-hour crisis care and services;

(v) psychotropic medication management;

(vi) psychosocial rehabilitation, including vocational training and skills development;

(vii) case management;

(viii) community supports, including:

(A) in-home services[~~,~~];

(B) housing[~~,~~];

(C) family support services[~~,~~]; and

(D) respite services;

(ix) consultation and education services, including:

(A) case consultation[~~,~~]; and

(B) collaboration with other county service agencies, public education, and public information;

(x) services to [~~individuals~~]an individual incarcerated in a county jail or other county correctional facility; and

(xi) services to [~~individuals~~]an individual described in Subsection [~~64-13-21(8)(a)~~]64-14-204(8)(a).

(c) Each plan under Subsection ~~(6)(a)(ii)~~(a)(ii) shall include, in a form and format usable by a first responder, an inclusive list of providers of mental health services for individuals within the local mental health authority's jurisdiction.

~~(7)~~ (a) If a local mental health authority provides for a local mental health crisis line under the plan for 24-hour crisis care and services described in Subsection ~~(6)(b)(iv)~~(b)(iv), the local mental health authority shall:

(i) collaborate with the statewide mental health crisis line described in Section 26B-5-610;

(ii) ensure that each individual who answers calls to the local mental health crisis line:

(A) is a mental health therapist or a crisis worker; and

(B) meets the standards of care and practice established by the Division of Integrated Healthcare, in accordance with Section 26B-5-610; and

(iii) ensure that when necessary, based on the local mental health crisis line's capacity, calls are immediately routed to the statewide mental health crisis line to ensure that when an individual calls the local mental health crisis line, regardless of the time, date, or number of individuals trying to simultaneously access the local mental health crisis line, a mental health therapist or a crisis worker answers the call without the caller first:

(A) waiting on hold; or

(B) being screened by an individual other than a mental health therapist or crisis worker.

(b) If a local mental health authority does not provide for a local mental health crisis line under the plan for 24-hour crisis care and services described in Subsection ~~(6)(b)(iv)~~(b)(iv), the local mental health authority shall use the statewide mental health crisis line as a local crisis line resource.

~~(8)~~ Before disbursing any public funds, each local mental health authority shall require that each entity that receives any public funds from a local mental health authority agrees in writing that:

(a) the entity's financial records and other records relevant to the entity's performance of the services provided to the mental health authority shall be subject to examination by:

(i) the division;

(ii) the local mental health authority director;

(iii) (A) the county treasurer and county or district attorney; or

(B) if two or more counties jointly provide mental health services under an agreement under Subsection ~~(3)~~, the designated treasurer and the designated legal officer;

(iv) the county legislative body; and

(v) in a county with a county executive that is separate from the county legislative body, the county executive;

(b) the county auditor may examine and audit the entity's financial and other records relevant to the entity's performance of the services provided to the local mental health authority; and

(c) the entity will comply with the provisions of Subsection ~~(5)(b)~~(b).

~~(9)~~ (a) A local mental health authority may receive for mental health services:

(i) property[~~,~~];

(ii) grants[~~,~~];

(iii) gifts[~~,~~];

(iv) supplies[~~,~~];

(v) materials[~~,~~];

(vi) contributions[~~,~~]; and

(vii) any benefit derived [~~therefrom, for mental health services~~]from the items described in Subsections (8)(a)(i) through (vi).

(b) If [~~those gifts~~]the items described in Subsections (8)(a)(i) through (vi) are conditioned upon their use for a specified service or program, they shall be so used.

~~(10)~~ Public funds received for the provision of services [~~pursuant to~~]in accordance with the local mental health plan may not be used for any other purpose except those authorized in the contract between the local mental health authority and the provider for the provision of plan services.

~~(11)~~ A local mental health authority shall:

(a) provide assisted outpatient treatment services to a resident of the county who has been ordered under Section 26B-5-351 to receive assisted outpatient treatment; and

(b) to the extent feasible, coordinate with the Department of Corrections to ensure the continuity of mental health services for county residents who are on probation or parole.

[~~17-43-302~~]17-77-302 (Effective 11/06/25). Requirements for distributing public funds.

(1) Each local mental health authority shall award all public funds [~~by complying~~]in accordance with this section and in compliance with:

(a) the requirements of Title 63G, Chapter 6a, Utah Procurement Code[~~,~~]; or

(b) [~~by complying with~~]a county procurement ordinance [~~which requires similar procurement practices~~]adopted under Section 17-63-506.

(2) (a) If the local mental health authority rejects all initial bids on the project [~~are rejected~~], the local mental health authority shall publish a new invitation to bid in the manner specified in this section.

(b) If [~~no~~]the local mental health authority does not receive a satisfactory bid[~~is received by the authority~~] when the bids received from the second invitation are opened, the local mental health authority may execute a contract without requiring competitive bidding.

(3) The local mental health authority [~~need not~~]is not required to comply with the procurement provisions of this section when [~~it~~]the local mental health authority disburses public funds to:

(a) another political subdivision of the state; or

(b) an institution of higher education of the state.

(4) (a) Each contract awarded by a local mental health authority shall be for a fixed amount and limited period.

(b) A contract may be modified due to changes in available funding for the same contract purpose without competition.

[~~17-43-303~~]17-77-303 (Effective 11/06/25). Use and oversight of public funds.

[~~(1) As used in this section, "public funds":~~]

[~~(a) means:~~]

[~~(i) federal money received from the department or the Department of Health and Human Services; and~~]

[~~(ii) state money appropriated by the Legislature to the department, the Department of Health and Human Services, a county governing body, or a local mental health authority for the purposes of providing mental health programs or services; and~~]

[~~(b) includes that federal and state money:~~]

CHAPTER 78. County Property, Programs, and Entities

PART 1. County Property - General Provisions

17-78-101 (Effective 11/06/25). Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Adjusted present value" means:

(a) the disposition price; plus

(b) the anticipated future value.

(2) (a) "Anticipated future value" means the total value of all reasonably anticipated future benefits to a county from the disposal of a significant parcel of real property, including:

(i) increased tax revenues; and

(ii) job creation or maintenance.

(b) "Anticipated future value" does not include the present fair market value of the significant parcel of real property.

(3) "Dispose" means to sell or lease.

(4) "Disposition price" means the price a potential purchaser or lessee offers to pay in exchange for the sale or lease of a significant parcel of real property.

(5) "Federal agency" means any department of the executive branch of the federal government.

(6) "Flood plain" means the land along the course of a river or stream which is periodically flooded and for which flood control protective works would normally be provided or desirable.

[~~17-50-310~~]17-78-102 (Effective 11/06/25). County powers regarding property, water rights, and water facilities -- Retainage.

(1) A county may:

(a) purchase, receive by donation, or lease any real or personal property or water rights necessary for the use of the county;

(b) (i) purchase or otherwise acquire the necessary real estate upon which to sink wells to obtain water for sprinkling roads and for other county purposes;

(ii) [~~and erect thereon~~]erect pumping apparatus, tanks, and reservoirs on county-owned property for obtaining and storing water for such purposes; and

(iii) preserve, take care of, manage, and control[~~ that~~] real estate described in Subsection (1)(b)(i) and[~~ those~~] facilities described in Subsection (1)(b)(ii);

(c) purchase, receive by donation, or lease any water rights or stock or rights in reservoirs or storage companies or associations for the use of citizens of the county;

(d) construct dams and canals for the storage and distribution of waters [~~referred to~~]described in Subsection (1)(c); and

(e) fix the price for and sell water, water rights, stock, or rights in reservoir or storage companies or associations, with the dams and canals, as are not required for public use to citizens of the county.

(2) If any payment on a contract with a private contractor to construct dams and canals under this section is retained or withheld, it shall be retained or withheld and released as provided in Section 13-8-5.

[~~17-50-312~~]17-78-103 (Effective 11/06/25). Acquisition, management, and disposal of property.

[~~(1) As used in this section:~~]

[~~(a) "Adjusted present value" means:~~]

[~~(i) the disposition price; plus~~]

[~~(ii) the anticipated future value.~~]

[~~(b) (i) "Anticipated future value" means the total value of all reasonably anticipated future benefits to a county from the disposal of a significant parcel of real property, including:~~]

[~~(A) increased tax revenues; and~~]

[~~(B) job creation or maintenance.~~]

[~~(ii) "Anticipated future value" does not include the present fair market value of the significant parcel of real property.~~]

[~~(c) "Dispose" means to sell or lease.~~]

[~~(d) "Disposition price" means the price a potential purchaser or lessee offers to pay in exchange for the sale or lease of a significant parcel of real property.~~]

~~(2)~~ Subject to Subsection ~~(5)~~, a county may purchase, receive, hold, sell, lease, convey, or otherwise acquire and dispose of any real or personal property or any interest in such property if the action is in the public interest and complies with other law.

~~(3)~~ Any property interest acquired by the county shall be held in the name of the county unless specifically otherwise provided by law.

~~(4)~~ The county legislative body shall provide by ordinance, resolution, rule, or regulation for the manner in which property shall be acquired, managed, and disposed of.

~~(5)~~ (a) Before a county may dispose of a significant parcel of real property, the county shall:

(i) provide reasonable notice of the proposed disposition at least 14 days before the opportunity for public comment under Subsection ~~(5)(a)(ii)~~(a)(ii); and

(ii) allow an opportunity for public comment on the proposed disposition.

(b) Each county shall, by ordinance, define what constitutes:

(i) a significant parcel of real property for purposes of Subsection ~~(5)(a)~~(a); and

(ii) reasonable notice for purposes of Subsection ~~(5)(a)(i)~~(a)(i).

~~(6)~~ (a) A county may dispose of a significant parcel of real property in exchange for less than the present fair market value of the significant parcel of real property if the adjusted present value of the significant parcel of real property is equal to or greater than the present fair market value of the significant parcel of real property.

(b) Subsection ~~(6)(a)~~(a) does not affect a county's authority to dispose of a significant parcel of real property in a manner different from Subsection ~~(6)(a)~~(a) and in accordance with applicable law.

~~(7)~~ Before a county agrees to dispose of a significant parcel of real property, the county may require the potential purchaser or lessee to provide evidence that:

(a) the potential purchaser's or lessee's offer is bona fide;

(b) the potential purchaser or lessee has the ability to pay the disposition price; or

(c) any future benefits to the county from the disposal of the significant parcel of real property are reasonably anticipated.

~~(8)~~ If a county receives an unsolicited offer to purchase or lease a significant parcel of real property:

(a) the county is not required to consider the offer; and

(b) a person may not consider the offer in determining the present fair market value of the significant parcel of real property, unless considering the offer is warranted under generally accepted standards of professional appraisal practice.

~~(9)~~ A county may presume that the present fair market value of a significant parcel of real property is equal to the average of two appraised values each of which is based upon fair market value and calculated by a unique, independent appraiser who is licensed or certified in accordance with Title 61, Chapter 2g, Real Estate Appraiser Licensing and Certification Act.

A county may contract to:

(1) maintain [~~such~~]a flood control [~~projects~~]project after the construction work is completed, which maintenance may be without expense to the United States of America[~~,~~]; and

(2) [~~may contract to and~~]acquire easements and [~~rights of way~~]rights-of-way to relocate public roads or bridges when the replacement shall be rendered necessary by the construction of any flood control project and may give satisfactory assurance to the United States of America, or any federal agency [~~thereof~~], that the location, relocation, building or rebuilding of such roads, [~~rights of way~~]rights-of-way, or bridges shall be done without expense to the United States of America or any federal agency[~~ thereof~~].

[~~17-8-3~~]17-78-303 (Effective 11/06/25). Distribution of waters -- Operation of projects.

The duty of distributing the waters of and operating the flood control project when completed shall rest upon the state engineer [~~of the state of Utah~~]described in Section 73-2-1, provided, that the cost of such distribution and operation of the project by the state engineer shall be borne by the county entering into the cooperative contract with the United States of America for the construction and the operation of the flood control project.

[~~17-8-4~~]17-78-304 (Effective 11/06/25). Joint action of two or more counties.

Whenever the construction of a flood control project[~~, as hereinabove provided, shall be~~]described in this part is for the mutual benefit of two or more counties, the [~~boards of commissioners~~]governing bodies of the counties may jointly enter into such co-operative contracts with the United States of America, or any federal agency [~~thereof~~], for the construction of [~~such~~]the flood control project.

[~~17-8-5~~]17-78-305 (Effective 11/06/25). Clearing, improving, fencing, and construction of natural channels, sewers, and drains -- Enforcement of laws and regulations.

(1) In anticipation of and to provide for the carrying away and the safe disposal of natural storm and flood waters, the county may:

(a) remove any obstacle from any natural channels within the county and the incorporated municipalities in the county[~~. For the same purpose the county may~~]; and

(b) plan for and construct new channels, storm sewers, and drains to serve as though they were natural channels.

(2) The county may cause[~~ such~~] channels, storm sewers, and drains described in Subsection (1)(b) to be surveyed, and the county legislative body may, by ordinance, establish their location and dimensions.

(3) (a) The county legislative body may promulgate regulations to prevent the destruction or obstruction of[~~ these~~] channels, storm sewers, and drains, and may provide for the enforcement of those regulations.

(b) The county legislative body may also provide for the maintenance, improvement, and fencing of all such channels, including covering or replacement with buried conduits.

(c) To implement the establishment, clearing, protection, and continued use of such channels, storm sewers, and drains, the county may acquire, by right of eminent domain necessary easements and [~~rights of way~~]rights-of-way.

(4) All laws and sanitary regulations against the pollution of water in natural streams, canals, and lakes shall be enforced by:

(a) the county [~~executives in their respective counties,~~]officers;

(b) [~~or, by~~]the state, through the attorney general and in co-operation with the state board of health, state fish and game commission[~~,~~]; and

[~~17-8-7~~]17-78-307 (Effective 11/06/25). Declaration of drought emergency -- Appropriation -- Tax levy.

(1) The county legislative body of each county may at any regular meeting or at a special meeting called for such purpose, declare that an emergency drought exists in said county[~~; and thereupon may~~].

(2) (a) After a declaration of drought in a county, the county legislative body may appropriate from the money not otherwise appropriated in the county general fund such funds as shall be necessary for the gathering of information upon, and aiding in any program for increased precipitation within said county or in conjunction with any other county or counties[~~, or that if~~].

(b) If there are not sufficient funds available in the county general fund for [~~such~~]the purpose described in Subsection (2)(a), the county legislative body may[~~, during any such emergency so declared by them,~~] assess, levy, and direct the county to collect annually to aid in any program of increased precipitation.

~~(2)~~ The provisions of [~~Chapter 19a, County Auditor,~~]Chapter 69, County Auditor, relating to budgeting do not apply to appropriations necessitated by[~~such~~] an emergency described in this section.

PART 4. Transportation

[~~17-50-305~~]17-78-401 (Effective 11/06/25). County powers to acquire, construct, and control roads and other facilities -- Retainage.

(1) A county may:

(a) contract for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, when necessary, rights of way for county roads over private property, and may institute proceedings for acquiring such rights of way as provided by law;

(b) lay out, construct, maintain, control, and manage county roads, sidewalks, ferries and bridges within the county, outside of cities and towns;

(c) designate the county roads to be maintained by the county within or extending through any city or town, which may not be more than three in the same direction;

(d) abolish or abandon county roads that are unnecessary for the use of the public, in the manner provided by law; and

(e) lay out, construct, maintain, control, and manage landing fields and hangars for the use of airplanes or other vehicles for aerial travel.

(2) If any payment on a contract with a private contractor to construct county roads, sidewalks, ferries, and bridges under this section is retained or withheld, [~~it~~]the payment shall be retained or withheld and released as provided in Section 13-8-5.

[~~17-50-306~~]17-78-402 (Effective 11/06/25). Granting franchises over public roads -- Limitation.

(1) A county may grant franchises along and over the public roads and highways for all lawful purposes, upon such terms, conditions, and restrictions as in the judgment of the county legislative body are necessary and proper, to be exercised in such manner as to present the least possible obstruction and inconvenience to the traveling public.

(2) A franchise under Subsection (1) may not be granted for a period longer than 50 years.

[~~17-50-307~~]17-78-403 (Effective 11/06/25). Franchises for toll roads.

(1) Subject to Subsection (2), a county may grant, on such terms, conditions, and restrictions as in the judgment of the county executive are necessary and proper, licenses and franchises for taking tolls on public roads or highways whenever in the judgment of the county executive the expense of operating or maintaining the roads or highways as free public highways is too great to justify the county in operating or maintaining [~~them~~]the public roads or highways.

(2) Each license and franchise granted under Subsection (1) shall contain the condition that the roads and highways shall be kept in reasonable repair by the persons to whom such licenses or franchises are granted.

[~~17-50-308~~]17-78-404 (Effective 11/06/25). Franchises for ferries and bridges.

(1) A county may grant licenses and franchises for:

(a) constructing and keeping in repair roads, bridges, and ferries; and

(b) [~~for~~]the taking of tolls on [~~them~~]roads, bridges, and ferries.

(2) Each person operating any toll boat or ferry for the transportation of persons, vehicles, or livestock across any stream, river, or body of water in this state shall obtain a franchise for [~~its~~]the boat's or ferry's operation from the county executive of the county in which [~~such~~]the boat or ferry is operated.

(3) If [~~such~~]a boat or ferry is operated on a stream or body of water forming the boundary line between two adjoining counties, the person operating the boat or ferry shall obtain a franchise from the county executive of each county.

[~~17-50-309~~]17-78-405 (Effective 11/06/25). Regulation of use of roads.

A county may enact ordinances and make regulations not in conflict with law for the control, construction, alteration, repair, and use of all public roads and highways in the county outside of cities and towns.

[~~17-50-330~~]17-78-406 (Effective 11/06/25). Prohibition against spending certain transportation funds.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Apportioned" means divided or assigned among the states based on a prescribed formula established in 23 U.S.C.

(b) "Authorization act" means an act of Congress enacted after July 1, 2009, that authorizes transportation programs from the Highway Trust Fund established in 26 U.S.C. Sec. 9503.

(2) A county may not spend project-specific funds that are allocated through an authorization act for a transportation-related project that is eligible for funds apportioned to the state in support of the statewide transportation improvement program unless the specified project is included on the statewide transportation improvement program.

[~~17-34-1~~]17-78-501 (Effective 11/06/25). Counties may provide municipal services -- First-class counties to provide certain services -- Counties allowed to provide certain services in recreational areas.

(1) For purposes of this [~~chapter, except as otherwise provided in Subsection (3):~~]part, "municipal-type services" means:

[~~(a) "Greater than class C radioactive waste" has the same meaning as in Section 19-3-303.~~]

[~~(b) "High-level nuclear waste" has the same meaning as in Section 19-3-303.~~]

[~~(c) "Municipal-type services" means:~~]

~~(i)~~ fire protection service;

~~(ii)~~ waste and garbage collection and disposal;

~~(iii)~~ planning and zoning;

~~(iv)~~ street lighting;

~~(v)~~ animal services;

~~(vi)~~ storm drains;

~~(vii)~~ traffic engineering;

~~(viii)~~ code enforcement;

~~(x)~~ building permits and inspections;

~~(xi)~~ in a county of the first class:

~~(A)~~ advanced life support and paramedic services; and

~~(B)~~ detective investigative services; and

~~(xii)~~ all other services and functions that are required by law to be budgeted, appropriated, and accounted for from a municipal services fund or a municipal capital projects fund as defined under [~~Chapter 36, Uniform Fiscal Procedures Act for Counties~~]Chapter 63, Fiscal Authority and Processes.

[~~(d) "Placement" has the same meaning as in Section 19-3-303.~~]

[~~(e) "Storage facility" has the same meaning as in Section 19-3-303.~~]

[~~(f) "Transfer facility" has the same meaning as in Section 19-3-303.~~]

(2) A county may:

(a) provide municipal-type services to areas of the county outside the limits of cities and towns without providing the same services to cities or towns; and

(b) fund [~~those~~]municipal-type services by:

(i) levying a tax on taxable property in the county outside the limits of cities and towns;

(ii) charging a service charge or fee to persons benefitting from the municipal-type services; or

(iii) providing funds to a municipal services district in accordance with Section 17B-2a-1109.

[~~(3) A county may not:~~]

[~~(a) provide, contract to provide, or agree in any manner to provide municipal-type services, as these services are defined in Section 19-3-303, to any area under consideration for a storage facility or transfer facility for the placement of high-level nuclear waste, or greater than class C radioactive waste; or~~]

[~~(b) seek to fund services for these facilities by:~~]

[~~(i) levying a tax; or~~]

[~~(ii) charging a service charge or fee to persons benefitting from the municipal-type services.~~]

~~(4)~~ Each county of the first class shall provide to the area of the county outside the limits of cities and towns:

(a) advanced life support and paramedic services; and

(b) detective investigative services.

~~(5)~~ (a) A county may provide fire, paramedic, and police protection services in any area of the county outside the limits of cities and towns that is designated as a recreational area in accordance with the provisions of this Subsection ~~(5)~~.

(b) A county legislative body may designate any area of the county outside the limits of cities and towns as a recreational area if:

(i) the area has fewer than 1,500 residents and is primarily used for recreational purposes, including canyons, ski resorts, wilderness areas, lakes and reservoirs, campgrounds, or picnic areas; and

(ii) the county legislative body makes a finding that the recreational area is used by residents of the county who live both inside and outside the limits of cities and towns.

(c) Fire, paramedic, and police protection services needed to primarily serve those involved in the recreation activities in areas designated as recreational areas by the county legislative body in accordance with Subsection ~~(5)(b)~~(b) may be funded from the county general fund.

(d) A county legislative body may determine that fire, paramedic, and police protection services within a municipality that is located in an area designated as a recreational area, in accordance with this Subsection ~~(5)~~, may be funded with county general funds if the county legislative body makes a finding that a disproportionate share of public safety service needs within the municipality are generated by residents of the county who live both inside and outside the limits of cities and towns.

(5) A county may be limited in the municipal-type services the county provides, in accordance with Section 17-60-504.

[~~17-34-3~~]17-78-502 (Effective 11/06/25). Taxes or service charges for municipal-type services -- Budgeting, accounting for, and disbursing of funds -- Annual audit.

(1) (a) If a county furnishes the municipal-type services and functions described in Section [~~17-34-1~~]17-78-501 to areas of the county outside the limits of incorporated cities or towns, the entire cost of the services or functions so furnished shall be defrayed from funds that the county has derived from:

(i) taxes that the county may lawfully levy or impose outside the limits of incorporated towns or cities;

(ii) service charges or fees the county may impose upon the persons benefited in any way by the services or functions; or

(iii) a combination of these sources.

(b) As the taxes or service charges or fees are levied and collected, they shall be placed in a special revenue fund of the county and shall be disbursed only for the rendering of the services or functions established in Section [~~17-34-1~~]17-78-501 within the unincorporated areas of the county or as provided in Subsection 10-2a-219(2).

(2) (a) For the purpose of levying taxes, service charges, or fees provided in this section, the county legislative body may establish a district or districts in the unincorporated areas of the county.

(b) A district established by a county as provided in Subsection (2)(a) may be reorganized as a special district in accordance with the procedures set forth in Sections 17D-1-601, 17D-1-603, and 17D-1-604.

(3) Nothing contained in this chapter may be construed to authorize counties to impose or levy taxes not otherwise allowed by law.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this [~~chapter~~]part, a county providing fire, paramedic, and police protection services in a designated recreational area, as provided in [~~Subsection 17-34-1(5)~~]Section 17-78-501, may fund [~~those~~]fire, paramedic, or police protection services from the county general fund with revenues derived from both inside and outside the limits of cities and towns, and the funding of those services is not limited to unincorporated area revenues.

(5) (a) With respect to the budgeting, accounting for, and disbursing of funds to furnish the municipal-type services and functions described in Section 17-78-501 to areas of the county outside the limits of incorporated towns and cities, including levying of taxes and imposition of fees and charges under this section, each county legislative body shall separately budget and strictly account for and apportion to the costs of providing municipal-type services and functions for the following:

(i) the salaries of each county commissioner and the salaries and wages of all other elected and appointed county officials and employees;

(ii) the operation and maintenance costs of each municipal-type service or function provided, set forth separately as line items in the Municipal Services Fund budget;

(iii) the cost of renting or otherwise using capital facilities for the purposes of providing municipal-type services or functions; and

(iv) all other costs including administrative costs associated, directly or indirectly, with the costs of providing municipal-type services or functions.

(b) At all times these funds and any expenditures from these funds shall be separately accounted for and utilized only for the purposes of providing municipal-type services and functions to areas of the county outside the limits of incorporated towns or cities.

(6) To implement Subsection (5):

(a) a budget shall be adopted and administered in the same manner as the budget for general purposes of the county which furnishes the municipal-type services and functions is adopted and administered, either as a part of the general budget or separate from it;

(b) funds for the purposes of furnishing municipal-type services and functions under this chapter shall be collected, held, and administered in the same manner as other funds of the county are collected, held, and administered, but shall be segregated and separately maintained, except that where, in the judgment of the county legislative body, advantages inure to the fund from coinvestment of these funds and other funds also subject to control by the county legislative body, the county legislative body may direct this coinvestment, but in no event may the funds to furnish municipal-type services and functions or the income from their investment be used for purposes other than those described in Section 17-78-501;

(c) expenditures shall be made in the same manner as other expenditures of the county are made; and

(d) any taxes levied under this part shall be levied at the same time and in the same manner as other taxes of the county are levied.

(7) An annual audit of the budgeting, accounting for, and disbursing of funds used to furnish municipal-type services and functions, shall be conducted by an independent certified public accountant.

Section 120. Section 17-78-503 is enacted to read:

17-78-503 (Effective 11/06/25). Certain counties to establish funds or special service districts.

(1) Each county of the first, second, or third class that provides municipal-type services to unincorporated areas under this part shall:

(a) establish a special revenue fund, "Municipal Services Fund," and a capital projects fund, "Municipal Capital Projects Fund," or establish a special district or special service district to provide municipal services; and

(b) budget appropriations for municipal services and municipal capital projects from the funds described in Subsection (1)(a).

(2) The Municipal Services Fund is subject to the same budgetary requirements as the county general fund.

(3) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (3)(b), the county may deposit revenue derived from any taxes otherwise authorized by law, income derived from the investment of money contained within the municipal services fund and the municipal capital projects fund, the appropriate portion of federal money, and fees collected into a municipal services fund and a municipal capital projects fund.

(b) The county may not deposit revenue derived from a fee, tax, or other source based upon a countywide assessment or from a countywide service or function into a municipal services fund or a municipal capital projects fund.

(4) The maximum accumulated unappropriated surplus in the municipal services fund, as determined before adoption of the tentative budget, may not exceed an amount equal to the total estimated revenues of the current fiscal period.

[~~17-34-4~~]17-78-504 (Effective 11/06/25). Contracts under Interlocal Cooperation Act.

This [~~chapter~~]part may not be construed to prevent counties, cities, and towns from entering into contracts covering the furnishing by one to the other of all or any of the municipal-type services [~~listed in Section 17-34-1~~] under Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act, except that where incorporated cities or towns perform one or more of the municipal services set forth in Section [~~17-34-1~~]17-78-501 for unincorporated areas of a county, payment shall be made from the special revenue fund.

Section 122. Section 17-78-601, which is renumbered from Section 17-25a-1 is renumbered and amended to read:

PART 6. Constables

[~~17-25a-1~~]17-78-601 (Effective 11/06/25). County legislative body to determine whether to appoint or contract with constables -- Authority.

(1) (a) (i) The legislative [~~governing bodies of counties and cities~~]body of a county shall determine whether to appoint one or more constables to serve in the county.

(ii) If a county [~~or city~~]decides to appoint constables, the county[~~or city~~] shall nominate and appoint constables in accordance with this chapter.

(b) (i) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(a), a constable holding office on July 1, 2019, may complete the constable's term.

(ii) A constable shall serve any subsequent terms the constable may serve in accordance with this [~~chapter~~]part.

(2) To nominate a constable, the legislative body of a county of the first or second class [~~or the legislative body of a city of the first or second class~~]shall establish a nominating commission.

(a) The county nominating commission shall consist of:

(i) one member of the county legislative governing body or the member's designee;

(ii) one judge or the judge's designee;

(iii) the county attorney or the county attorney's designee;

(iv) the district attorney or the district attorney's designee;

(v) the sheriff of the county or the sheriff's designee; and

(vi) one private citizen.

[~~(b) The city nominating commission shall consist of:~~]

[~~(i) one member of the city legislative governing body;~~]

[~~(ii) one judge;~~]

[~~(iii) the city attorney;~~]

[~~(iv) the chief of police; and~~]

[~~(v) one private citizen.~~]

~~(c)~~ The nominating commission described in this Subsection (2) shall review each applicant's credentials and, by majority vote, recommend to the legislative governing body of the county [~~or city~~]the nominees the nominating commission finds most qualified.

~~(d)~~ The county [~~or city~~]legislative[~~governing~~] body shall either appoint or reject any nominee that the nominating commission recommends under Subsection ~~(2)(c)~~(b).

(3) The legislative body of a county of the third, fourth, fifth, or sixth class [~~or the legislative body of a city of the third, fourth, or fifth class~~]may appoint a constable on a recommendation from:

(a) the county sheriff and the county attorney; or

(b) the chief of police.

(4) A county [~~or city~~]legislative[~~governing~~] body that appoints a constable under this section may withdraw the authority of the constable for cause, including if the constable's peace officer certification is suspended or revoked under Section 53-6-211.

(5) In addition to the appointment process described in Subsections (1) through (4), the legislative body of a county where a justice court exists may contract with a constable to provide services in criminal cases for the contracting governmental entity by a method and for an amount mutually agreed upon.

(6) (a) A contract between a county legislative body and a constable, including a contract described in Subsection (5), may not exceed four years.

(b) A contract described in Subsection (6)(a) may be renewed or extended for a period not to exceed four years.

Section 123. Section 17-78-602, which is renumbered from Section 17-25a-2 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-25a-2~~]17-78-602 (Effective 11/06/25). Constable qualification -- Duties -- Constables to serve process in certain circumstances.

(1) To qualify as a constable, [~~a person~~]an individual shall be certified as a special function peace officer in the state.

(2) A constable shall:

(a) avoid all conflicts of interest; and

(b) maintain a public office and be accessible to the public and to the court during the hours the court is open.

(3) In cases where it appears in any court of record that the sheriff is a party, or where an affidavit is filed with the clerk of the court stating partiality, prejudice, consanguinity, or interest on the part of the sheriff, the clerk of the court shall direct process to any constable of the county, whose duty it shall be to execute it in the same manner as if the constable were sheriff.

Section 124. Section 17-78-603, which is renumbered from Section 17-25a-3 is renumbered and amended to read:
[~~17-25a-3~~]17-78-603 (Effective 11/06/25). Term -- Authority -- Deputies.

(1) (a) Constables appointed by a county [~~or city~~]are appointed for terms of six years and may serve more than one term if reappointed by the appointing body.

(b) Notwithstanding the law in place at the time a constable was appointed, the term of a constable appointed on or after July 1, 2018, expires six years after the day on which the term began.

(2) (a) [~~Constables~~]Appointed constables serving process outside the county in which they are appointed shall contact the sheriff's office or police department of the jurisdiction [~~prior to~~]before serving executions or seizing any property.

(b) [~~A constable~~]An appointed constable or a deputy of an appointed constable shall notify the agency of jurisdiction by contacting the sheriff's office or police department of jurisdiction before serving a warrant of arrest.

(3) The appointed constable may, upon approval of the appointing county[~~, or city~~], employ and deputize persons who are certified as special function peace officers to function as deputy constables.

(4) If the county [~~or city appointing~~]legislative body withdraws the authority of [~~a~~]an appointed constable, the authority of all deputy constables employed or deputized by the appointed constable is also withdrawn.

(5) If the authority of a constable or deputy constable is withdrawn under Subsection (4), [~~notification of~~]the county shall notify the Peace Officer Standards and Training Division of the Department of Public Safety [~~shall be made pursuant to~~]in accordance with Section 53-6-209.

(6) A constable, contracted or appointed, shall:

(a) attend the justice courts within the constable's county when required by contract or court order; and

(b) execute, serve, and return all process directed or delivered to the constable by a judge of the justice court serving the county, or by any competent authority within the limits of this section.

(7) A constable, contracted or appointed, may:

(a) serve any process throughout the state; and

(b) carry out all other functions associated with a constable.

(8) A constable shall serve exclusively as an agent for:

(a) the government entity that has a contract with the constable;

(b) the county that appointed the constable; or

(c) the court authorizing or directing the constable.

(9) Except as otherwise provided in this part, a constable may not serve as an agent, or be considered to be serving as an agent, for a person that is not described in Subsection (8).

[~~17-25-2~~]17-78-604 (Effective 11/06/25). Fees for constables -- Civil.

(1) Constables may, for [~~their~~]the constable's own use, collect as compensation in civil matters the same fees as those specified for sheriffs in Section [~~17-22-2.5~~]17-72-304.

(2) Constable fees that exceed the amounts in Section [~~17-22-2.5~~]17-72-304 are recoverable:

(a) by the constable only if [~~he~~]the constable has received prior approval for the increased fee from the party requesting the service; and

(b) by prevailing party as a cost of the action only if the court finds the service and increased fee are justifiable.

[~~17-25-3~~]17-78-605 (Effective 11/06/25). Fees for constables -- Criminal.

(1) (a) [~~In~~]Except as provided in Subsections (3) and (6), a constable shall be paid in criminal matters[~~, constables shall be paid~~] for each copy of a summons, subpoena, notice, court order, or other criminal paper[~~, except a warrant of arrest;~~]as follows:

(i) $5 for each defendant served; and

(ii) mileage of $1 per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going only, to be computed from either the courthouse, or when transmitted by mail, from the post office where received.

(b) If more than one trip is necessary to serve, or diligently attempt to serve, service of process, a constable may collect mileage charges for more than two trips [~~may be collected~~]only if the party requesting the service of process has approved the additional mileage charges.

(c) [~~Each charge~~]A constable shall[~~ be~~] individually [~~documented~~]document each charge under this Subsection (1) on the affidavit of return of service.

[~~(2) Lower charges may be established by contract for services under this section.~~]

~~(3)~~ If a constable serves process in a county other than the county where the process originated, travel expenses may not exceed the fee that would be charged if served by the sheriff of that county under Chapter 72, County Sheriff.

~~(4)~~ (a) [~~For~~]A constable may charge a county a fee of $1 for each mile traveled for the purpose of serving, or to diligently attempt service of, a warrant of arrest, both in going to and returning from the defendant's address[~~, a fee of $1 may be charged~~].

(b) If more than one trip is necessary to serve, or diligently attempt to serve, a warrant of arrest, a constable may collect no more than two additional mileage charges[~~ may be collected~~].

(c) [~~Each~~]A constable shall individually document each charge [~~shall be individually documented~~]under this Subsection (3) on the affidavit of return of service.

~~(5)~~ For arresting [~~each~~]a prisoner and bringing [~~him~~]the prisoner into court, or otherwise satisfying a warrant, a constable may charge a fee of $15[~~ may be charged~~].

(5) (a) Accounts against the county filed by constables for services in criminal cases shall be:

(i) certified as correct by the county attorney or district attorney; and

(ii) presented to the auditor.

(b) The county legislative body may reject constable bills in all causes or proceedings in which the county attorney or district attorney has not authorized the issuance of the warrant of arrest in writing.

(6) A county may, by contract with a constable, establish lower fees for services than the fees described in this section.

Section 127. Section 17-78-606, which is renumbered from Section 17-25a-4 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-25a-4~~]17-78-606 (Effective 11/06/25). Fees for constable service of process -- Exception.

(1) The rates recoverable through court action for service of process by a constable are governed by Section [~~17-22-2.5, 17-25-3, or 17-25-5~~]17-72-304, 17-78-601, or 17-78-605, when applicable.

(2) Constable fees that exceed the amounts in Section [~~17-22-2.5~~]17-72-304 are recoverable in court:

(a) by the constable only if [~~he~~]the constable has received prior approval for the increased fee from the party requesting the service; and

(b) by a prevailing party as a cost of the action only if the court finds the service and increased fee are justifiable.

[~~17-25-6~~]17-78-607 (Effective 11/06/25). Identification of constables -- Uniform requirements.

(1) While performing a duty described in Section [~~17-25-1~~]17-78-603, a constable shall prominently display a badge or other visible form of credentials and identification identifying:

(a) [~~a person~~]the individual as a constable;

(b) the [~~person's~~]individual's name; and

(c) the county [~~or municipality~~]for which the constable is appointed or contracted.

(2) If a constable serves process, the constable shall:

(a) verbally communicate to the person being served that the constable is a constable; and

(b) print on the first page of each document served:

(i) the constable's name and identification as a constable;

(ii) the county [~~or municipality~~]for which the constable is appointed; and

(iii) a business phone number for the constable.

(3) If a constable wears a uniform, the uniform shall be clearly marked with the word "constable" on the uniform shirt and, if applicable, the jacket.

Section 129. Section 17-78-701 is enacted to read:

PART 7. Establishing and Promoting Recreation, Tourism, and Conventions

17-78-701 (Effective 11/06/25). Definitions.

As used in this part:

(1) "Airport" means the same as that term is defined in Section 72-10-102.

(2) "Airport operator" means the same as that term is defined in Section 72-10-102.

(3) "Establishing and promoting" means an activity or related expense to encourage, solicit, advertise, or market in order to attract or enhance transient guest spending in a county for a purpose described in Subsection 17-78-702(2)(a).

(4) "Mitigation" means activity to address the direct impacts of tourism, recreation related to tourism, or conventions in a county, specifically sanitation and solid waste disposal, emergency medical services, search and rescue services, law enforcement, road repair, and road upgrades.

(5) "Transient room tax" means a tax at a rate not to exceed the relevant rate authorized by Section 59-12-301.

[~~17-31-2~~]17-78-702 (Effective 11/06/25). Purposes of transient room tax and expenditure of revenue -- Purchase or lease of facilities -- Mitigating impacts of recreation, tourism, or conventions -- Issuance of bonds.

[~~(1) As used in this section:~~]

[~~(a) "Airport" means the same as that term is defined in Section 72-10-102.~~]

[~~(b) "Airport operator" means the same as that term is defined in Section 72-10-102.~~]

[~~(c) "Establishing and promoting" means an activity or related expense to encourage, solicit, advertise, or market in order to attract or enhance transient guest spending in a county for a purpose described in Subsection (3)(a).~~]

[~~(d) "Mitigation" means activity to address the direct impacts of tourism, recreation related to tourism, or conventions in a county, specifically sanitation and solid waste disposal, emergency medical services, search and rescue services, law enforcement, road repair, and road upgrades.~~]

[~~(e) "Transient room tax" means a tax at a rate not to exceed the relevant rate authorized by Section 59-12-301.~~]

~~(2)~~ Subject to the requirements of this section, a county legislative body may impose the transient room tax for a purpose described in Subsection ~~(3)~~.

~~(3)~~ A county legislative body may expend revenue generated by the transient room tax imposed under this section and any revenue the county receives from the State Tax Commission under Section 59-28-103 only:

(a) for the purpose of establishing and promoting:

(i) tourism;

(ii) recreation;

(iii) film production; or

(iv) conventions;

(b) to pay for tourism- or recreation-related facilities in the county, including acquiring, leasing, constructing, furnishing, maintaining,

or operating:

(d) to pay mitigation costs, specifically:

(i) solid waste disposal operations;

(ii) emergency medical services;

(iii) search and rescue activities;

(iv) law enforcement activities; and

(v) road repair and upgrade of:

(A) class B roads, as defined in Section 72-3-103;

(B) class C roads, as defined in Section 72-3-104; or

(C) class D roads, as defined in Section 72-3-105; and

(e) to make the annual payment of principal, interest, premiums, and necessary reserves for any of the aggregate of bonds authorized under Subsection ~~(4)~~.

~~(4)~~ The county legislative body may issue bonds or cause bonds to be issued, as permitted by law, to pay all or part of any costs incurred for the purposes set forth in Subsections ~~(3)(b)~~(b) through ~~(3)(d)~~(d) that are permitted to be paid from bond proceeds.

~~(5)~~ (a) Activity described in Subsection ~~(3)(a)~~(a) is exclusive of activity described in Subsection ~~(3)(b)~~(b) or (c).

(b) A county may not distribute revenue generated by the transient room tax imposed under this section to a large public transit district, as that term is defined in Section 17B-2a-802.

~~(6)~~ A county that generates $1 million or more in revenue from a transient room tax imposed under this section in the preceding calendar year:

(a) shall expend, at a minimum, the revenue the county generates from the first 2% of the tax rate of a transient room tax on a purpose described in Subsection ~~(3)(a)~~(a); and

(b) may expend the remainder of the revenue the county generates from a transient room tax on any purpose described in Subsection ~~(3)~~.

~~(7)~~ A county that generates $500,000 or more but less than $1 million in revenue from a transient room tax imposed under this section in the preceding calendar year:

(a) shall expend, at a minimum, the revenue the county generates from the first 1% of the tax rate of a transient room tax on a purpose described in Subsection ~~(3)(a)~~(a); and

(b) may expend the remainder of the revenue the county generates from a transient room tax on any purpose described in Subsection ~~(3)~~.

~~(8)~~ A county that is not described in Subsection (5) or (6) [~~or (7)~~]may expend the revenue the county generates from a transient room tax on any purpose described in Subsection ~~(3)~~.

~~(9)~~ The legislative body of a county may cause revenue generated by a transient room tax to be expended by a municipality within the county if:

(a) the revenue the county shares with the municipality is not required to be spent by the county for a purpose described in Subsection ~~(3)(a)~~(a);

(b) the county and municipality enter into an interlocal agreement:

(i) governing the use of the revenue; and

(ii) requiring the municipality to report the municipality's expenditures of the revenue to the county; and

(c) the municipality receiving revenue generated by the county's transient room tax agrees to and expends the revenue for a purpose described in Subsection ~~(3)~~.

[~~17-31-5~~]17-78-703 (Effective 11/06/25). General powers and duties of a county legislative body related to the transient room tax.

(1) The legislative body of each county that imposes a transient room tax in accordance with Section [~~17-31-2~~]17-78-702:

(a) shall, except as provided in Subsection (2), at least annually consider the priorities and recommendations of the county's tourism tax advisory board created under Subsection [~~17-31-8(1)(a)~~]17-78-706(1)(a) or the substantially similar body as described in Subsection [~~17-31-8(1)(b)~~]17-78-706(1)(b) in one or more public meetings before finalizing decisions on expenditures of revenue from the transient room tax in each fiscal year;

(b) shall prepare and provide the annual written report for each fiscal year as described in Section [~~17-31-5.5~~]17-78-704; and

(c) may do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary, desirable, or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply to the legislative body of a county if:

(a) the legislative body of the county has entered into a written contract with a substantially similar body to a tourism tax advisory board as described in Subsection [~~17-31-8(1)(b)~~]17-78-706(1)(b); and

(b) the written contract described in Subsection (2)(a) clearly delineates how the expenditures of revenue from the transient room tax are to be spent.

[~~17-31-5.5~~]17-78-704 (Effective 11/06/25). Report by county legislative body -- Content.

(1) The legislative body of each county that imposes a transient room tax under Section 59-12-301 or a tourism, recreation, cultural, convention, and airport facilities tax under Section 59-12-603 shall:

(a) ensure that the annual financial report required by Section [~~17-36-37~~]17-63-603includes a breakdown of expenditures:

(i) for revenue generated by the transient room tax, according to the allowable expenditure categories described in Subsection [~~17-31-2(3)~~]17-78-702(2); and

(ii) for revenue generated by the tourism, recreation, cultural, convention, and airport facilities tax, according to the allowable expenditure categories described in Sections 59-12-602 and 59-12-603; and

(b) prepare annually a written report in accordance with Subsection (2).

(2) (a) For the transient room tax, the written report described in Subsection (1)(b) shall include:

(i) a breakdown of promotion expenditures;

(ii) if the county caused revenue generated by the transient room tax to be expended by a municipality within the county, as described in Subsection [~~17-31-2(9)~~]17-78-702(8), a description:

(A) of each interlocal agreement the county entered into with a municipality; and

(B) the amount of revenue the county shared with a municipality [~~pursuant to~~]in accordance with an interlocal agreement;

(iii) the number of search and rescue efforts conducted by the county in the previous fiscal year;

(iv) the total cost of search and rescue efforts and emergency medical services that were related to tourism or recreation within the eligible county in the previous fiscal year;

(v) a description of any factors that made a search and rescue effort or emergency medical service more expensive or difficult, including the condition of roads within the county;

(vi) what money, if any, the county was able to recover in the previous fiscal year from an individual on whose behalf the county incurred the cost of search and rescue or emergency medical services; and

(vii) (A) data on the percentages of individuals on whose behalf the county incurred the cost of search and rescue or emergency medical services who were in-state visitors to the county, out-of-state visitors to the county, or residents of the county; and

(B) if data described in Subsection (2)(a)(vii)(A) is unavailable regarding an individual on whose behalf the county incurred the cost of search and rescue or emergency medical services, the number of individuals whose data described in Subsection (2)(a)(vii)(A) is unavailable.

(b) A county legislative body preparing a report required under this section shall utilize the form created by the state auditor under Section 17E-2-406.

[~~(b) The state auditor, in consultation with the Utah Office of Tourism created in Section 63N-7-102, shall:~~]

[~~(i) create a form for a financial report and a form for a written report required under this section;~~]

[~~(ii) designate at least one employee within the state auditor's office to serve as the point of contact for counties preparing a financial report or written report under this section; and~~]

[~~(iii) if the state auditor's office determines it is advisable, create written guidance to assist counties in preparing a financial report or written report under this section.~~]

(3) On or before October 1, the county legislative body shall provide a copy of the annual written report described in Subsection (1)(b) for the previous fiscal year to the state auditor and the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst.

(4) (a) On or before December 1 of each year, the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst shall:

(i) analyze each written report received under Subsection (3) to determine if the information in the report sufficiently demonstrates that the county is expending revenue in accordance with the requirements of Sections [~~17-31-2~~]17-78-702, 59-12-301, and 59-12-603; and

(ii) provide a summary of the analysis and determination described in Subsection (4)(a)(i) to:

(A) the Revenue and Taxation Interim Committee;

(B) the Political Subdivisions Interim Committee; and

(C) the state auditor.

(b) If the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst determines a county written report does not sufficiently demonstrate that a county is expending revenue in accordance with the requirements of [~~Section 17-31-2~~]Sections 17-78-702, 59-12-301, and 59-12-603, the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst shall include a copy of the county's written report with the summary described in Subsection (4)(a)(ii) to the entities described in Subsections (4)(a)(ii)(A) through (C).

[~~17-31-3~~]17-78-705 (Effective 11/06/25). Reserve fund authorized -- Use of collected funds -- Limitation on surplus in fund.

(1) The county legislative body may create a reserve fund.

(2) (a) Subject to Subsections (2)(b) and (c), a county legislative body shall retain any transient room tax funds collected but not expended during any fiscal year in the reserve fund to be used in accordance with [~~Sections 17-31-2 through 17-31-5~~]Sections 17-78-702, 17-78-703, and 17-78-705.

(b) Except as described in Subsection (2)(c), accumulated unappropriated surplus in the reserve fund, as determined before the county's adoption of a tentative budget, may not exceed 50% of the total transient room tax revenue for the current fiscal year.

(c) For a fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 2019, and ending on or before July 1, 2023:

(i) if a county receives more than 150% of total transient room tax revenue in the fiscal year compared to the total transient room tax revenue received in the previous fiscal year, accumulated unappropriated surplus in the reserve fund, as determined before the county's adoption of a tentative budget, may not exceed 50% of the total transient room tax revenue for the previous fiscal year plus an amount equal to the total transient room tax revenue that is more than 100% of total transient room tax revenue from the previous fiscal year; and

(ii) if a county adds to the county's reserve fund an amount equal to the total transient room tax revenue that is more than 100% of total transient room tax revenue from the previous fiscal year as authorized in Subsection (2)(c)(i), the county may expend that additional reserve fund money for visitor management and destination development subject to the requirements described in [~~Subsections 17-31-2(6)(a)(ii)(A) and (B)~~]Section 17-78-702.

[~~17-31-8~~]17-78-706 (Effective 11/06/25). Tourism tax advisory boards.

(1) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), any county that collects the following taxes shall operate a tourism tax advisory board:

(i) the tax allowed under Section 59-12-301; or

(ii) the tax allowed under Section 59-12-603.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(a), a county is exempt from Subsection (1)(a) if the county has an existing board, council, committee, convention visitor's bureau, or body that substantially conforms with Subsections (2), (3), and (4).

(2) A tourism tax advisory board created under Subsection (1) shall consist of at least five members.

(3) (a) A tourism tax advisory board shall be composed of the following members that are residents of the county:

(i) a majority of the members shall be current employees of entities in the county that are subject to the taxes referred to in Section 59-12-301 or 59-12-603; and

(ii) at least two of the board's membership shall be employees of recreational facilities, convention facilities, museums, cultural attractions, or other tourism related industries located within the county.

(b) A tourism tax advisory board may add additional members to the board, including board members who represent the interests of municipalities in the county.

(c) If a county generates 50% or more of the county's revenue generated by the imposition of a tax described in Subsection (1)(a)(i) within one municipality in the county, the tourism tax advisory board for that county shall include a board member to represent the interests of the municipality.

(4) (a) Each tourism tax advisory board shall advise the county legislative body on the best use of revenues collected from the tax allowed under Section 59-12-301 by providing the legislative body with a priority listing for proposed expenditures based on projected available tax revenues supplied to the board by the county legislative body on an annual basis.

(b) Each tourism tax advisory board in a county operating under the county commission form of government under Section [~~17-52a-201~~]17-62-201 or the expanded county commission form under Section [~~17-52a-202~~]17-62-202 shall advise the county legislative body on the best use of revenues collected from the tax allowed under Section 59-12-603 by providing the legislative body with a priority listing for proposed expenditures based on projected available tax revenues supplied to the board by the county legislative body on an annual basis.

(5) A member of any county tourism tax advisory board:

(a) may not receive compensation or benefits for the member's services; and

(b) may receive per diem and travel expenses incurred in the performance of the member's official duties, in accordance with Section 11-55-103.

(6) (a) Nothing in this section:

(i) requires a county to issue a retail tobacco specialty business license; or

(ii) prohibits a county from adopting more restrictive requirements on a person seeking a license or renewal of a license to conduct business as a retail tobacco specialty business.

(b) A county may suspend or revoke a retail tobacco specialty business license issued under this section:

(i) if a licensee engages in a pattern of unlawful activity under Title 76, Chapter 17, Part 4, Offenses Concerning a Pattern of Unlawful Activity;

(ii) if a licensee violates federal law or federal regulations restricting the sale and distribution of tobacco products or electronic cigarette products to protect children and adolescents;

(iii) upon the recommendation of the department or a local health department under Title 26B, Chapter 7, Part 5, Regulation of Smoking, Tobacco Products, and Nicotine Products; or

(iv) under any other provision of state law or local ordinance.

(7) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(e), a retail tobacco specialty business is exempt from Subsection (4) if:

(i) on or before December 31, 2018, the retail tobacco specialty business was issued a license to conduct business as a retail tobacco specialty business;

(ii) the retail tobacco specialty business is operating in a county in accordance with all applicable laws except for the requirement in Subsection (4); and

(iii) beginning July 1, 2022, the retail tobacco specialty business is not located within 1,000 feet of a public or private kindergarten, elementary, middle, junior high, or high school.

(b) A retail tobacco specialty business may maintain an exemption under Subsection (7)(a) if:

(i) the license described in Subsection (7)(a)(i) is renewed continuously without lapse or permanent revocation;

(ii) the retail tobacco specialty business does not close for business or otherwise suspend the sale of tobacco products, electronic cigarette products, or nicotine products for more than 60 consecutive days;

(iii) the retail tobacco specialty business does not substantially change the business premises or business operation; and

(iv) the retail tobacco specialty business maintains the right to operate under the terms of other applicable laws, including:

(A) [~~Title 26, Chapter 38,~~]Section 26B-7-503, Utah Indoor Clean Air Act;

(B) zoning ordinances;

(C) building codes; and

(D) the requirements of the license described in Subsection (7)(a)(i).

(c) A retail tobacco specialty business that does not qualify for an exemption under Subsection (7)(a) is exempt from Subsection (4) if:

(i) on or before December 31, 2018, the retail tobacco specialty business was issued a general tobacco retailer permit or a retail tobacco specialty business permit under [~~Title 26, Chapter 62, Tobacco, Electronic Cigarette, and Nicotine Product Retail Permit~~]Title 26B, Chapter 7, Part 5, Regulation of Smoking, Tobacco Products, and Nicotine Products, by the local health department having jurisdiction over the area in which the retail tobacco specialty business is located;

(ii) the retail tobacco specialty business is operating in the county in accordance with all applicable laws except for the requirement in Subsection (4); and

(iii) beginning July 1, 2022, the retail tobacco specialty business is not located within 1,000 feet of a public or private kindergarten, elementary, middle, junior high, or high school.

(d) A retail tobacco specialty business may maintain an exemption under Subsection (7)(c) if:

(i) on or before December 31, 2020, the retail tobacco specialty business receives a retail tobacco specialty business permit from the local health department having jurisdiction over the area in which the retail tobacco specialty business is located;

(ii) the permit described in Subsection (7)(d)(i) is renewed continuously without lapse or permanent revocation;

(iii) the retail tobacco specialty business does not close for business or otherwise suspend the sale of tobacco products, electronic cigarette products, or nicotine products for more than 60 consecutive days;

(iv) the retail tobacco specialty business does not substantially change the business premises or business operation as the business existed when the retail tobacco specialty business received a permit under Subsection (7)(d)(i); and

(v) the retail tobacco specialty business maintains the right to operate under the terms of other applicable laws, including:

(A) [~~Title 26, Chapter 38,~~]Section 26B-7-503, Utah Indoor Clean Air Act;

(B) zoning ordinances;

(C) building codes; and

(D) the requirements of the retail tobacco permit described in Subsection (7)(d)(i).

(e) A retail tobacco specialty business described in Subsection (7)(a) or (b) that is located within 1,000 feet of a public or private kindergarten, elementary, middle, junior high, or high school before July 1, 2022, is exempt from Subsection (4)(a)(iii)(B) if the retail tobacco specialty business:

(i) relocates, before July 1, 2022, to a property that is used or zoned for commercial use and located within a group of architecturally unified commercial establishments built on a site that is planned, developed, owned, and managed as an operating unit; and

(ii) continues to meet the requirements described in Subsection (7)(b) that are not directly related to the relocation described in this Subsection (7)(e).

[~~17-50-339~~]17-78-1005 (Effective 11/06/25). Prohibition on licensing or certification of child care programs.

(1) (a) As used in this section, "child care program" means a child care facility or program operated by a person who holds a license or certificate from the Department of Health and Human Services under Title 26B, Chapter 2, Part 4, Child Care Licensing.

(b) "Child care program" does not include a child care program for which a county provides oversight, as described in Subsection 26B-2-405(2)(e).

(2) A county may not enact or enforce an ordinance that:

(a) imposes licensing or certification requirements for a child care program; or

(b) governs the manner in which care is provided in a child care program.

(3) This section does not prohibit a county from:

(a) requiring a business license to operate a business within the county; or

(b) imposing requirements related to building, health, and fire codes.

PART 11. County Regulation of Particular Non-County Property

[~~17-50-341~~]17-78-1101 (Effective 11/06/25). Ordinances regarding co-ownership -- Prohibition on county ordinances restricting co-ownership models.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Co-owned home" means any residential unit that is jointly owned, in any manner or form, by any combination of individuals or entities.

(b) "Residential unit" means the same as that term is defined in Section [~~17-50-338~~]17-78-1102.

(2) Notwithstanding Section [~~17-27a-501~~]17-79-501 or Subsection [~~17-27a-503(1)~~]17-79-503(1), a county legislative body may not:

(a) adopt or enforce a land use regulation that governs co-owned homes differently than other residential units; or

(b) use a land use regulation that regulates co-owned homes to fine, charge, prosecute, or otherwise punish an individual solely for the act of owning or using a co-owned home.

(3) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), a legislative body may adopt and enforce land use regulations, if the regulations are applied equally to all residential units, including co-owned homes.

(4) This section does not limit homeowners' associations or condominium associations from adopting rules or regulations governing co-owned homes.

(5) Nothing in this section limits a county's authority to adopt or enforce regulations regarding:

(a) accessory dwelling units, as defined in Section [~~17-27a-103~~]17-79-102;

(b) internal accessory dwelling units, as defined in Section [~~17-27a-510.5~~]17-79-611; or

(c) the rental of a residential unit for fewer than 30 days consistent with Section [~~17-50-338~~]17-78-1102.

[~~17-50-338~~]17-78-1102 (Effective 11/06/25). Ordinances regarding short-term rentals -- Prohibition on ordinances restricting speech on short-term rental websites -- Evidence of short-term rental -- Removing a listing.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Internal accessory dwelling unit" means the same as that term is defined in Section 10-9a-511.5.

(b) "Permit number" means a unique identifier issued by a county and may include a business license number.

(c) "Request" means a formal inquiry made by a county to a short-term rental website that is not a legal requirement.

(d) "Residential unit" means a residential structure or any portion of a residential structure that is occupied as a residence.

(e) "Short-term rental" means a residential unit or any portion of a residential unit that the owner of record or the lessee of the residential unit offers for occupancy for fewer than 30 consecutive days.

(f) "Short-term rental website" means a website or other digital platform that:

(i) allows a person to offer a short-term rental to one or more prospective renters; and

(ii) facilitates the renting of, and payment for, a short-term rental.

(g) "URL" means uniform resource locater.

(2) Notwithstanding Section [~~17-27a-501~~]17-79-501 or Subsection [~~17-27a-503(1)~~]17-79-503(1), a legislative body may not:

(a) enact or enforce an ordinance that prohibits an individual from listing or offering a short-term rental on a short-term rental website; or

(b) use an ordinance that prohibits the act of renting a short-term rental to fine, charge, prosecute, or otherwise punish an individual solely for the act of listing or offering a short-term rental on a short-term rental website.

(3) If a county regulates short-term rentals, Subsection (2)(b) does not prevent the county from using a listing or offering of a short-term rental on a short-term rental website as evidence that a short-term rental took place so long as the county has additional information to support the position that a property owner or lessee violated a county ordinance.

(4) A county may adopt an ordinance requiring the owner or lessee of a short-term rental to obtain a business license or other permit from the county before operating a short-term rental within an unincorporated area of the county.

(5) (a) A county may not regulate a short-term rental website.

(b) If a county allows short-term rentals within a portion of or all residential or commercial unincorporated zones in the county, the legislative body of a county may only request a short-term rental website to remove a short-term rental listing or offering from the short-term rental website after notice from the county, as described in Subsection (5), only if the short-term rental is operating in violation of business license requirements or zoning requirements.

(6) A county that provides a notice to a short-term rental website that a short-term rental within the unincorporated county is in violation of the county's business licensing requirements or zoning requirements shall identify in the notice:

(a) the listing or offering to be removed by the listing's or offering's URL; and

(b) the reason for the requested removal.

(7) If a legislative body imposes transient room tax on the rental of rooms in hotels, motels, inns, trailer courts, campgrounds, tourist homes, and similar accommodations for stays of less than 30 consecutive days as authorized by Section 59-12-301:

(a) the county may utilize a listing or offering of a short-term rental on a short-term rental website as evidence that the owner or lessee of a short-term rental may be subject to the transient room tax; and

(b) the county auditor may utilize the listing or offering of a short-term rental on a short-term rental website when making a referral to the State Tax Commission, as described in Section 59-12-302.

(8) Subsection (2) does not apply to an individual who lists or offers an internal accessory dwelling unit as a short-term rental on a short-term rental website if the county records a notice for the internal accessory dwelling unit under [~~Subsection 17-27a-526(6)~~]Section 17-78-303.

[~~17-50-327~~]17-78-1103 (Effective 11/06/25). Regulation of carbon monoxide detectors -- Enforcement against occupant only.

(1) Subject to Subsection (2), a county may not enforce an ordinance, rule, or regulation requiring the installation or maintenance of a carbon monoxide detector in a residential dwelling against anyone other than the occupant of the dwelling.

(2) Subsection (1) may not be construed to affect:

(a) a building permit applicant's obligation to comply with a building code that requires the installation of a carbon monoxide detector as part of new construction; or

(b) a county's ability to require a building permit applicant to comply with a building code that requires the installation of a carbon monoxide detector as part of new construction.

[~~17-15-29~~]17-78-1104 (Effective 11/06/25). Easement for utility use -- Realignment at property owner's expense.

(1) As used in this section, "utility easement" means an easement acquired by a county through the use of eminent domain to provide utility services to the county's residents.

(2) The owner of a servient estate subject to a utility easement may realign the easement at the servient estate owner's expense unless the alignment cannot be reasonably changed because of engineering or safety requirements.

Section 157. Section 17-79-101, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-102 is renumbered and amended to read:

CHAPTER 79. County Land Use, Development, and Management Act

PART 1. General Provisions

[~~17-27a-102~~]17-79-101 (Effective 11/06/25). Purposes -- General land use authority -- Limitations.

(1) (a) The purposes of this chapter are to:

(i) provide for the health, safety, and welfare;

(ii) promote the prosperity;

(iii) improve the morals, peace, good order, comfort, convenience, and aesthetics of each county and each county's present and future inhabitants and businesses;

(iv) protect the tax base;

(v) secure economy in governmental expenditures;

(vi) foster the state's agricultural and other industries;

(vii) protect both urban and nonurban development;

(viii) protect and ensure access to sunlight for solar energy devices;

(ix) provide fundamental fairness in land use regulation;

(x) facilitate orderly growth, allow growth in a variety of housing types, and contribute toward housing affordability; and

(xi) protect property values.

(b) Subject to Subsection (4) and Section 11-41-103, to accomplish the purposes of this chapter, a county may enact all ordinances, resolutions, and rules and may enter into other forms of land use controls and development agreements that the county considers necessary or appropriate for the use and development of land within the unincorporated area of the county or a designated mountainous planning district, including ordinances, resolutions, rules, restrictive covenants, easements, and development agreements governing:

(i) uses;

(ii) density;

(iii) open spaces;

(iv) structures;

(v) buildings;

(vi) energy-efficiency;

(vii) light and air;

(viii) air quality;

(ix) transportation and public or alternative transportation;

(x) infrastructure;

(xi) street and building orientation and width requirements;

(xii) public facilities;

(xiii) fundamental fairness in land use regulation; and

(xiv) considerations of surrounding land uses to balance the foregoing purposes with a landowner's private property interests and associated statutory and constitutional protections.

(2) Each county shall comply with the mandatory provisions of this part before any agreement or contract to provide goods, services, or municipal-type services to any storage facility or transfer facility for high-level nuclear waste, or greater than class C radioactive waste, may be executed or implemented.

(3) (a) Any ordinance, resolution, or rule enacted by a county [~~pursuant to its~~]in accordance with the county's authority under this chapter shall comply with the state's exclusive jurisdiction to regulate oil and gas activity, as described in Section 40-6-2.5.

(b) A county may enact an ordinance, resolution, or rule that regulates surface activity incident to an oil and gas activity if the county demonstrates that the regulation:

(i) is necessary for the purposes of this chapter;

(ii) does not effectively or unduly limit, ban, or prohibit an oil and gas activity; and

(iii) does not interfere with the state's exclusive jurisdiction to regulate oil and gas activity, as described in Section 40-6-2.5.

(4) (a) This Subsection (4) applies to development agreements entered into on or after May 5, 2021.

(b) A provision in a county development agreement is unenforceable if the provision requires an individual or an entity, as a condition for issuing building permits or otherwise regulating development activities within an unincorporated area of the county, to initiate a process for a municipality to annex the unincorporated area in accordance with Title 10, Chapter 2, Part 8, Annexation.

(c) Subsection (4)(b) does not affect or impair the enforceability of any other provision in the development agreement.

Section 158. Section 17-79-102, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-103 is renumbered and amended to read: [~~17-27a-103~~]17-79-102 (Effective 11/06/25). Definitions.

[~~17-27a-104~~]17-79-103 (Effective 11/06/25). County standards.

(1) This chapter does not prohibit a county from adopting the county's own land use standards.

(2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), a county may not impose a requirement, regulation, condition, or standard that conflicts with a provision of this chapter, Chapter 80, Counties and Housing Supply, other state law, or federal law.

Section 160. Section 17-79-201, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-201 is renumbered and amended to read:

PART 2. Notice

[~~17-27a-201~~]17-79-201 (Effective 11/06/25). Required notice.

(1) At a minimum, each county shall provide actual notice or the notice required by this part.

(2) A county may by ordinance require greater notice than required under this part.

Section 161. Section 17-79-202, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-202 is renumbered and amended to read:
[~~17-27a-202~~]17-79-202 (Effective 11/06/25). Applicant notice -- Waiver of requirements.

(1) For each land use application, the county shall:

(a) notify the applicant of the date, time, and place of each public hearing and public meeting to consider the application;

(b) provide to each applicant a copy of each staff report regarding the applicant or the pending application at least three business days before the public hearing or public meeting; and

(c) notify the applicant of any final action on a pending application.

(2) If a county fails to comply with the requirements of Subsection (1)(a) or (b) or both, an applicant may waive the failure so that the application may stay on the public hearing or public meeting agenda and be considered as if the requirements had been met.

Section 162. Section 17-79-203, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-203 is renumbered and amended to read:
[~~17-27a-203~~]17-79-203 (Effective 11/06/25). Notice of intent to prepare a general plan or comprehensive general plan amendments in certain counties.

(1) Before preparing a proposed general plan or a comprehensive general plan amendment, each county of the first or second class shall provide 10 calendar days notice of the county's intent to prepare a proposed general plan or a comprehensive general plan amendment:

(a) to each affected entity;

(b) to the Utah Geospatial Resource Center created in Section 63A-16-505;

(c) to the association of governments, established [~~pursuant to~~]in accordance with an interlocal agreement under Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act, of which the county is a member; and

(d) for the county, as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least 10 days.

(2) Each notice under Subsection (1) shall:

(a) indicate that the county intends to prepare a general plan or a comprehensive general plan amendment, as the case may be;

(b) describe or provide a map of the geographic area that will be affected by the general plan or amendment;

(c) be sent by mail, e-mail, or other effective means;

(d) invite the affected entities to provide information for the county to consider in the process of preparing, adopting, and implementing a general plan or amendment concerning:

(i) impacts that the use of land proposed in the proposed general plan or amendment may have; and

(ii) uses of land within the county that the affected entity is considering that may conflict with the proposed general plan or amendment; and

(e) include the address of an Internet website, if the county has one, and the name and telephone number of an individual where more information can be obtained concerning the county's proposed general plan or amendment.

Section 163. Section 17-79-204, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-204 is renumbered and amended to read:
[~~17-27a-204~~]17-79-204 (Effective 11/06/25). Notice of public hearings and public meetings to consider general plan or modifications.

(1) A county shall provide:

(a) notice of the date, time, and place of the first public hearing to consider the original adoption or any modification of all or any portion of a general plan; and

(b) notice of each public meeting on the subject.

(2) Each notice of a public hearing under Subsection (1)(a) shall be at least 10 calendar days before the public hearing and shall be:

(a) published for the county, as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least 10 days; and

(b) mailed to each affected entity.

(3) Each notice of a public meeting under Subsection (1)(b) shall be at least 24 hours before the meeting and shall be published for the county, as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least 24 hours.

Section 164. Section 17-79-205, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-205 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-27a-205~~]17-79-205 (Effective 11/06/25). Notice of public hearings and public meetings on adoption or modification of land use regulation.

(1) Each county shall give:

(a) notice of the date, time, and place of the first public hearing to consider the adoption or modification of a land use regulation; and

(b) notice of each public meeting on the subject.

(2) Each notice of a public hearing under Subsection (1)(a) shall be:

(a) mailed to each affected entity at least 10 calendar days before the public hearing; and

(b) (i) provided for the area affected by the land use ordinance changes, as a class B notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least 10 calendar days before the day of the public hearing; or

(ii) if the proposed land use ordinance adoption or modification is ministerial in nature, as described in Subsections (6)(a) and (b), provided as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102 for at least 10 calendar days before the day of the public hearing.

(3) In addition to the notice requirements described in Subsections (1) and (2), for any proposed modification to the text of a zoning code, the notice posted in accordance with Subsection (2) shall:

(a) include:

(i) a summary of the effect of the proposed modifications to the text of the zoning code designed to be understood by a lay person; or

(ii) a direct link to the county's webpage where a person can find a summary of the effect of the proposed modifications to the text of the zoning code designed to be understood by a lay person; and

(b) be provided to any person upon written request.

(4) Each notice of a public meeting under Subsection (1)(b) shall be at least 24 hours before the hearing and shall be published for the county, as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least 24 hours.

(5) (a) A county shall send a courtesy notice to each owner of private real property whose property is located entirely or partially within the proposed zoning map enactment or amendment at least 10 days before the scheduled day of the public hearing.

(b) The notice shall:

(i) identify with specificity each owner of record of real property that will be affected by the proposed zoning map or map amendments;

(ii) state the current zone in which the real property is located;

(iii) state the proposed new zone for the real property;

(iv) provide information regarding or a reference to the proposed regulations, prohibitions, and permitted uses that the property will be subject to if the zoning map or map amendment is adopted;

(v) state that the owner of real property may no later than 10 days after the day of the first public hearing file a written objection to the inclusion of the owner's property in the proposed zoning map or map amendment;

(vi) state the address where the property owner should file the protest;

(vii) notify the property owner that each written objection filed with the county will be provided to the county legislative body; and

(viii) state the location, date, and time of the public hearing described in Section [~~17-27a-502~~]17-79-502.

(c) If a county mails notice to a property owner under Subsection (2)(b)(i) for a public hearing on a zoning map or map amendment, the notice required in this Subsection (5) may be included in or part of the notice described in Subsection (2)(b)(i) rather than sent separately.

(6) (a) A proposed land use ordinance is ministerial in nature if the proposed land use ordinance change is to:

(i) bring the county's land use ordinances into compliance with a state or federal law;

(ii) adopt a county land use update that affects:

(A) an entire zoning district; or

(B) multiple zoning districts;

(iii) adopt a non-substantive, clerical text amendment to an existing land use ordinance;

(iv) recodify the county's existing land use ordinances; or

(v) designate or define an affected area for purposes of a boundary adjustment or annexation.

(b) A proposed land use ordinance may include more than one of the purposes described in Subsection (6)(a) and remain ministerial in nature.

(c) If a proposed land use ordinance includes an adoption or modification not described in Subsection (6)(a):

(i) the proposed land use ordinance is not ministerial in nature, even if the proposed land use ordinance also includes a change or modification described in Subsection (6)(a); and

(ii) the notice requirements of Subsection (2)(b)(i) apply.

Section 165. Section 17-79-206, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-206 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-27a-206~~]17-79-206 (Effective 11/06/25). Third party notice -- High priority transportation corridor notice.

(1) (a) If a county requires notice to adjacent property owners, the county shall:

(i) mail notice to the record owner of each parcel within parameters specified by county ordinance; or

(ii) post notice on the property with a sign of sufficient size, durability, print quality, and location that is reasonably calculated to give notice to passers-by.

(b) If a county mails notice to third party property owners under Subsection (1), it shall mail equivalent notice to property owners within an adjacent jurisdiction.

(2) (a) As used in this Subsection (2), "high priority transportation corridor" means a transportation corridor identified as a high priority transportation corridor under Section 72-5-403.

(b) The Department of Transportation may request, in writing, that a county provide the department with electronic notice of each land use application received by the county that may adversely impact the development of a high priority transportation corridor.

(c) If the county receives a written request as provided in Subsection (2)(b), the county shall provide the Department of Transportation with timely electronic notice of each land use application that the request specifies.

(3) (a) A large public transit district, as defined in Section 17B-2a-802, may request, in writing, that a county provide the large public transit district with electronic notice of each land use application received by the county that may impact the development of a major transit investment corridor.

(b) If the county receives a written request as provided in Subsection (3)(a), the county shall provide the large public transit district with timely electronic notice of each land use application that the request specifies.

[~~17-27a-207~~]17-79-207 (Effective 11/06/25). Notice for an amendment to a subdivision -- Notice for vacation of or change to street.

(1) (a) For an amendment to a subdivision, each county shall provide notice of the date, time, and place of at least one public meeting, as provided in Subsection (1)(b).

(b) At least 10 calendar days before the public meeting, the notice required under Subsection (1)(a) shall be:

(i) mailed and addressed to the record owner of each parcel within specified parameters of that property; or

(ii) posted on the property proposed for subdivision, in a visible location, with a sign of sufficient size, durability, and print quality that is reasonably calculated to give notice to passers-by.

(2) Each county shall provide notice as required by Section [~~17-27a-208~~]17-79-208 for a subdivision that involves a vacation, alteration, or amendment of a street.

[~~17-27a-208~~]17-79-208 (Effective 11/06/25). Hearing and notice for petition to vacate a public street.

(1) For any petition to vacate some or all of a public street or county utility easement, the legislative body shall:

(a) hold a public hearing; and

(b) give notice of the date, place, and time of the hearing, as provided in Subsection (2).

(2) At least 10 days before the public hearing under Subsection (1)(a), the legislative body shall ensure that the notice required under Subsection (1)(b) is:

(a) published for the county, as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least 10 days;

(b) provided to the owner of each parcel that is accessed by the public street or county utility easement; and

(c) mailed to each affected entity.

[~~17-27a-209~~]17-79-209 (Effective 11/06/25). Notice challenge.

If notice given under authority of this part is not challenged under Section [~~17-27a-801~~]17-79-1009 within 30 days after the meeting or action for which notice is given, the notice is considered adequate and proper.

Section 169. Section 17-79-210, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-210 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-27a-210~~]17-79-210 (Effective 11/06/25). Notice to county when a private institution of higher education is constructing student housing.

(1) Each private institution of higher education that intends to construct student housing on property owned by the institution shall provide written notice of the intended construction, as provided in Subsection (2), before any funds are committed to the construction, if any of the proposed student housing buildings is within 300 feet of privately owned residential property.

(2) Each notice under Subsection (1) shall be provided to the legislative body and, if applicable, the mayor of:

(a) the county in whose unincorporated area or the mountainous planning district area the privately owned residential property is located; or

(b) the municipality in whose boundaries the privately owned residential property is located.

(3) At the request of a county or municipality that is entitled to notice under this section, the institution and the legislative body of the affected county or municipality shall jointly hold a public hearing to provide information to the public and receive input from the public about the proposed construction.

Section 170. Section 17-79-211, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-211 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-27a-211~~]17-79-211 (Effective 11/06/25). Canal owner or operator -- Notice to county.

(1) A canal company or a canal operator shall ensure that each county in which the canal company or canal operator owns or operates a canal has on file, regarding the canal company or canal operator:

(a) a current mailing address and phone number;

(b) a contact name; and

(c) a general description of the location of each canal owned or operated by the canal owner or canal operator.

(2) If the information described in Subsection (1) changes after a canal company or a canal operator has provided the information to the county, the canal company or canal operator shall provide the correct information to the county within 30 days of the day on which the information changes.

Section 171. Section 17-79-212, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-212 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-27a-212~~]17-79-212 (Effective 11/06/25). Notice for an amendment to public improvements in a subdivision or development.

Before implementing an amendment to adopted specifications for public improvements that apply to a subdivision or a development, a county shall:

(1) hold a public hearing;

(2) mail a notice 30 days or more before the date of the public hearing to:

(a) each person who has submitted a land use application for which the land use authority has not issued a land use decision; and

(b) each person who makes a written request to receive a copy of the notice; and

(3) allow each person who receives a notice in accordance with Subsection (2) to provide public comment in writing before the public hearing or in person during the public hearing.

Section 172. Section 17-79-213, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-213 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-27a-213~~]17-79-213 (Effective 11/06/25). Hearing and notice procedures for modifying sign regulations.

(1) (a) [~~Prior to~~]Before any hearing or public meeting to consider a proposed land use regulation or land use application modifying sign regulations for an illuminated sign within any unified commercial development, as defined in Section 72-7-504.6, or within any planned unit development, a county shall give written notice of the proposed illuminated sign to:

(i) each property owner within a 500 foot radius of the sign site;

(ii) a municipality or county within a 500 foot radius of the sign site; and

(iii) any outdoor advertising permit holder described in Subsection 72-7-506(2)(b).

(b) The notice described in Subsection (1)(a) shall include the schedule of public meetings at which the proposed changes to land use regulations or land use application will be discussed.

(2) A county shall require the property owner or applicant to commence in good faith the construction of the commercial or industrial development within one year after the installation of the illuminated sign.

PART 3. General Land Use Provisions

[~~17-27a-301~~]17-79-301 (Effective 11/06/25). Ordinance establishing planning commission required -- Exception -- Ordinance requirements -- Planning advisory area planning commission -- Compensation.

(1) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), each county shall enact an ordinance establishing a countywide planning commission for the unincorporated areas of the county not within a planning advisory area.

(b) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply if all of the county is included within any combination of:

(i) municipalities;

(ii) planning advisory areas each with a separate planning commission; and

(iii) mountainous planning districts.

(c) (i) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(a), a county that designates a mountainous planning district shall enact an ordinance, subject to Subsection (1)(c)(ii), establishing a planning commission that has jurisdiction over the entire mountainous planning district.

(ii) A planning commission described in Subsection (1)(c)(i) has jurisdiction subject to a local health department exercising the local health department's authority in accordance with Title 26A, Chapter 1, Local Health Departments, and a municipality exercising the municipality's authority in accordance with Section 10-8-15.

(iii) The ordinance shall require that members of the planning commission be appointed by the county executive with the advice and consent of the county legislative body.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(b), the county legislative body of a county of the first or second class that includes more than one planning advisory area each with a separate planning commission may enact an ordinance that:

(i) dissolves each planning commission within the county; and

(ii) establishes a countywide planning commission that has jurisdiction over:

(A) each planning advisory area within the county; and

(B) the unincorporated areas of the county not within a planning advisory area.

(b) A countywide planning commission established under Subsection (2)(a) shall assume the duties of each dissolved planning commission.

(3) (a) The ordinance described in Subsection (1)(a)[~~or (c)~~], (1)(c), or (2)(a) shall define:

(i) the number and terms of the members and, if the county chooses, alternate members;

(ii) the mode of appointment;

(iii) the procedures for filling vacancies and removal from office;

(iv) the authority of the planning commission;

(v) subject to Subsection (3)(b), the rules of order and procedure for use by the planning commission in a public meeting; and

(vi) other details relating to the organization and procedures of the planning commission.

(b) Subsection (3)(a)(v) does not affect the planning commission's duty to comply with Title 52, Chapter 4, Open and Public Meetings Act.

(4) (a) (i) If the county establishes a planning advisory area planning commission, the county legislative body shall enact an ordinance that defines:

(A) appointment procedures;

(B) procedures for filling vacancies and removing members from office;

(C) subject to Subsection (4)(a)(ii), the rules of order and procedure for use by the planning advisory area planning commission in a public meeting; and

(D) details relating to the organization and procedures of each planning advisory area planning commission.

(ii) Subsection (4)(a)(i)(C) does not affect the planning advisory area planning commission's duty to comply with Title 52, Chapter 4, Open and Public Meetings Act.

(b) The planning commission for each planning advisory area shall consist of seven members who shall be appointed by:

(i) in a county operating under a form of government in which the executive and legislative functions of the governing body are separated, the county executive with the advice and consent of the county legislative body; or

(ii) in a county operating under a form of government in which the executive and legislative functions of the governing body are not separated, the county legislative body.

(c) (i) Members shall serve four-year terms and until their successors are appointed and qualified.

(ii) Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection (4)(c)(i), members of the first planning commissions shall be appointed so that, for each commission, the terms of at least one member and no more than two members expire each year.

(d) (i) Each member of a planning advisory area planning commission shall be a registered voter residing within the planning advisory area.

(ii) Subsection (4)(d)(i) does not apply to a member described in Subsection (5)(a) if that member was, [~~prior to~~]before May 12, 2015, authorized to reside outside of the planning advisory area.

(5) (a) A member of a planning commission who was elected to and served on a planning commission on May 12, 2015, shall serve out the term to which the member was elected.

(b) Upon the expiration of an elected term described in Subsection (5)(a), the vacant seat shall be filled by appointment in accordance with this section.

(6) Upon the appointment of all members of a planning advisory area planning commission, each planning advisory area planning commission under this section shall begin to exercise the powers and perform the duties provided in Section [~~17-27a-302~~]17-79-302 with respect to all matters then pending that previously had been under the jurisdiction of the countywide planning commission or planning advisory area planning and zoning board.

(7) The legislative body may authorize a member of a planning commission to receive per diem and travel expenses for meetings actually attended, in accordance with Section 11-55-103.

Section 174. Section 17-79-302, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-302 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-27a-302~~]17-79-302 (Effective 11/06/25). Planning commission powers and duties -- Training requirements.

(1) Each countywide, planning advisory area, or mountainous planning district planning commission shall, with respect to the unincorporated area of the county, the planning advisory area, or the mountainous planning district, review and make a recommendation to the county legislative body for:

(a) a general plan and amendments to the general plan;

(b) land use regulations, including:

(i) ordinances regarding the subdivision of land within the county; and

(ii) amendments to existing land use regulations;

(c) an appropriate delegation of power to at least one designated land use authority to hear and act on a land use application;

(d) an appropriate delegation of power to at least one appeal authority to hear and act on an appeal from a decision of the land use authority; and

(e) application processes that:

(i) may include a designation of routine land use matters that, upon application and proper notice, will receive informal streamlined review and action if the application is uncontested; and

(ii) shall protect the right of each:

(A) land use applicant and adversely affected party to require formal consideration of any application by a land use authority;

(B) land use applicant or adversely affected party to appeal a land use authority's decision to a separate appeal authority; and

(C) participant to be heard in each public hearing on a contested application.

(2) Before making a recommendation to a legislative body on an item described in Subsection (1)(a) or (b), the planning commission shall hold a public hearing in accordance with Section [~~17-27a-404~~]17-79-404.

(3) A legislative body may adopt, modify, or reject a planning commission's recommendation to the legislative body under this section.

(4) A legislative body may consider a planning commission's failure to make a timely recommendation as a negative recommendation.

(5) Nothing in this section limits the right of a county to initiate or propose the actions described in this section.

(6) (a) (i) This Subsection (6) applies to a county that:

(A) is a county of the first, second, or third class; and

(B) has a population in the county's unincorporated areas of 5,000 or more.

(ii) The population for each county described in Subsection (6)(a)(i) shall be derived from:

(A) an estimate of the Utah Population Committee created in Section 63C-20-103; or

(B) if the Utah Population Committee estimate is not available, the most recent official census or census estimate of the United States Bureau of the Census.

(b) A county described in Subsection (6)(a)(i) shall ensure that each member of the county's planning commission completes four hours of annual land use training as follows:

(i) one hour of annual training on general powers and duties under Title 17, Chapter 27a, County Land Use, Development, and Management Act; and

(ii) three hours of annual training on land use, which may include:

(A) appeals and variances;

(B) conditional use permits;

(C) exactions;

(D) impact fees;

(E) vested rights;

(F) subdivision regulations and improvement guarantees;

(G) land use referenda;

(H) property rights;

(I) real estate procedures and financing;

(J) zoning, including use-based and form-based; and

(K) drafting ordinances and code that complies with statute.

(c) A newly appointed planning commission member may not participate in a public meeting as an appointed member until the member completes the training described in Subsection (6)(b)(i).

(d) A planning commission member may qualify for one completed hour of training required under Subsection (6)(b)(ii) if the member attends, as an appointed member, 12 public meetings of the planning commission within a calendar year.

(e) A county shall provide the training described in Subsection (6)(b) through:

(i) county staff;

(ii) the Utah Association of Counties; or

(iii) a list of training courses selected by:

(A) the Utah Association of Counties; or

(B) the Division of Real Estate created in Section 61-2-201.

(f) A county shall, for each planning commission member:

(i) monitor compliance with the training requirements in Subsection (6)(b); and

(ii) maintain a record of training completion at the end of each calendar year.

Section 175. Section 17-79-303, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-306 is renumbered and amended to read: [~~17-27a-306~~]17-79-303 (Effective 11/06/25). Planning advisory areas -- Notice of hearings.

(1) (a) A planning advisory area may be established as provided in this Subsection (1).

(b) A planning advisory area may not be established unless the area to be included within the proposed planning advisory area:

(i) is unincorporated;

(ii) is contiguous; and

(iii) (A) contains:

(I) at least 20% but not more than 80% of:

(Aa) the total private land area in the unincorporated county; or

(Bb) the total value of locally assessed taxable property in the unincorporated county; or

(II) (Aa) in a county of the second or third class, at least 5% of the total population of the unincorporated county, but not less than 300 residents; or

(Bb) in a county of the fourth, fifth, or sixth class, at least 25% of the total population of the unincorporated county; or

(B) has been declared by the United States Census Bureau as a census designated place.

(c) (i) The process to establish a planning advisory area is initiated by the filing of a petition with the clerk of the county in which the proposed planning advisory area is located.

(ii) A petition to establish a planning advisory area may not be filed if it proposes the establishment of a planning advisory area that includes an area within a proposed planning advisory area in a petition that has previously been certified under Subsection (1)(g), until after the canvass of an election on the proposed planning advisory area under Subsection (1)(j).

(d) A petition under Subsection (1)(c) to establish a planning advisory area shall:

(i) be signed by the owners of private real property that:

(A) is located within the proposed planning advisory area;

(B) covers at least 10% of the total private land area within the proposed planning advisory area; and

(C) is equal in value to at least 10% of the value of all private real property within the proposed planning advisory area;

(ii) be accompanied by an accurate plat or map showing the boundary of the contiguous area proposed to be established as a planning advisory area;

(iii) indicate the typed or printed name and current residence address of each owner signing the petition;

(iv) designate up to five signers of the petition as petition sponsors, one of whom shall be designated as the contact sponsor, with the mailing address and telephone number of each petition sponsor;

(v) authorize the petition sponsor or sponsors to act on behalf of all owners signing the petition for purposes of the petition; and

(vi) request the county legislative body to provide notice of the petition and of a public hearing, hold a public hearing, and conduct an election on the proposal to establish a planning advisory area.

(e) Subsection 10-2a-102(3) applies to a petition to establish a planning advisory area to the same extent as if it were an incorporation petition under Title 10, Chapter 2a, Municipal Incorporation.

(f) (i) Within seven days after the filing of a petition under Subsection (1)(c)proposing the establishment of a planning advisory area in a county of the second class, the county clerk shall provide notice of the filing of the petition to:

(A) each owner of real property owning more than 1% of the assessed value of all real property within the proposed planning advisory area; and

(B) each owner of real property owning more than 850 acres of real property within the proposed planning advisory area.

(ii) A property owner may exclude all or part of the property owner's property from a proposed planning advisory area in a county of the second class:

(A) if:

(I) (Aa) (Ii) the property owner owns more than 1% of the assessed value of all property within the proposed planning advisory area;

(IIii) the property is nonurban; and

(IIIiii) the property does not or will not require municipal provision of municipal-type services; or

(Bb) the property owner owns more than 850 acres of real property within the proposed planning advisory area; and

(II) exclusion of the property will not leave within the planning advisory area an island of property that is not part of the planning advisory area; and

(B) by filing a notice of exclusion within 10 days after receiving the clerk's notice under Subsection (1)(f)(i).

(iii) (A) The county legislative body shall exclude from the proposed planning advisory area the property identified in a notice of exclusion timely filed under Subsection (1)(f)(ii)(B) if the property meets the applicable requirements of Subsection (1)(f)(ii)(A).

(B) If the county legislative body excludes property from a proposed planning advisory area under Subsection (1)(f)(iii), the county legislative body shall, within five days after the exclusion, send written notice of its action to the contact sponsor.

(g) (i) Within 45 days after the filing of a petition under Subsection (1)(c), the county clerk shall:

(A) with the assistance of other county officers from whom the clerk requests assistance, determine whether the petition complies with the requirements of Subsection (1)(d); and

(B) (I) if the clerk determines that the petition complies with the requirements of Subsection (1)(d):

(Aa) certify the petition and deliver the certified petition to the county legislative body; and

(Bb) mail or deliver written notification of the certification to the contact sponsor; or

(II) if the clerk determines that the petition fails to comply with any of the requirements of Subsection (1)(d), reject the petition and notify the contact sponsor in writing of the rejection and the reasons for the rejection.

(ii) If the county clerk rejects a petition under Subsection (1)(g)(i)(B)(II), the petition may be amended to correct the deficiencies for which it was rejected and then refiled with the county clerk.

(h) (i) Within 90 days after a petition to establish a planning advisory area is certified, the county legislative body shall hold a public hearing on the proposal to establish a planning advisory area.

(ii) A public hearing under Subsection (1)(h)(i) shall be:

(A) within the boundary of the proposed planning advisory area; or

(B) if holding a public hearing in that area is not practicable, as close to that area as practicable.

(iii) At least one week before holding a public hearing under Subsection (1)(h)(i), the county legislative body shall publish notice of the petition and the time, date, and place of the public hearing for the county, as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least one week.

(i) Following the public hearing under Subsection (1)(h)(i), the county legislative body shall arrange for the proposal to establish a planning advisory area to be submitted to voters residing within the proposed planning advisory area at the next regular general election that is more than 90 days after the public hearing.

(j) A planning advisory area is established at the time of the canvass of the results of an election under Subsection (1)(i) if the canvass indicates that a majority of voters voting on the proposal to establish a planning advisory area voted in favor of the proposal.

(k) An area that is an established township before May 12, 2015:

(i) is, as of May 12, 2015, a planning advisory area; and

(ii) (A) shall change its name, if applicable, to no longer include the word "township"; and

(B) may use the word "planning advisory area" in its name.

(2) The county legislative body may:

(a) assign to the countywide planning commission the duties established in this part that would have been assumed by a planning advisory area planning commission designated under Subsection (2)(b); or

(b) designate and appoint a planning commission for the planning advisory area.

(3) (a) An area within the boundary of a planning advisory area may be withdrawn from the planning advisory area as provided in this Subsection (3) or in accordance with Subsection (5)(a).

(b) The process to withdraw an area from a planning advisory area is initiated by the filing of a petition with the clerk of the county in which the planning advisory area is located.

(c) A petition under Subsection (3)(b) shall:

(i) be signed by the owners of private real property that:

(A) is located within the area proposed to be withdrawn from the planning advisory area;

(B) covers at least 50% of the total private land area within the area proposed to be withdrawn from the planning advisory area; and

(C) is equal in value to at least 33% of the value of all private real property within the area proposed to be withdrawn from the planning advisory area;

(ii) state the reason or reasons for the proposed withdrawal;

(iii) be accompanied by an accurate plat or map showing the boundary of the contiguous area proposed to be withdrawn from the planning advisory area;

(iv) indicate the typed or printed name and current residence address of each owner signing the petition;

(v) designate up to five signers of the petition as petition sponsors, one of whom shall be designated as the contact sponsor, with the mailing address and telephone number of each petition sponsor;

(vi) authorize the petition sponsor or sponsors to act on behalf of all owners signing the petition for purposes of the petition; and

(vii) request the county legislative body to withdraw the area from the planning advisory area.

(d) Subsection 10-2a-102(3) applies to a petition to withdraw an area from a planning advisory area to the same extent as if it were an incorporation petition under Title 10, Chapter 2a, Municipal Incorporation.

(e) (i) Within 45 days after the filing of a petition under Subsection (3)(b), the county clerk shall:

(A) with the assistance of other county officers from whom the clerk requests assistance, determine whether the petition complies with the requirements of Subsection (3)(c); and

(B) (I) if the clerk determines that the petition complies with the requirements of Subsection (3)(c):

(Aa) certify the petition and deliver the certified petition to the county legislative body; and

(Bb) mail or deliver written notification of the certification to the contact sponsor; or

(II) if the clerk determines that the petition fails to comply with any of the requirements of Subsection (3)(c), reject the petition and notify the contact sponsor in writing of the rejection and the reasons for the rejection.

(ii) If the county clerk rejects a petition under Subsection (3)(e)(i)(B)(II), the petition may be amended to correct the deficiencies for which it was rejected and then refiled with the county clerk.

(f) (i) Within 60 days after a petition to withdraw an area from a planning advisory area is certified, the county legislative body shall hold a public hearing on the proposal to withdraw the area from the planning advisory area.

(ii) A public hearing under Subsection (3)(f)(i) shall be held:

(A) within the area proposed to be withdrawn from the planning advisory area; or

(B) if holding a public hearing in that area is not practicable, as close to that area as practicable.

(iii) Before holding a public hearing under Subsection (3)(f)(i), the county legislative body shall publish notice of the petition and the time, date, and place of the public hearing for the area proposed to be withdrawn, as a class B notice under Section 63G-30-102, for at least three weeks before the date of the hearing.

(g) (i) Within 45 days after the public hearing under Subsection (3)(f)(i), the county legislative body shall make a written decision on the proposal to withdraw the area from the planning advisory area.

(ii) In making its decision as to whether to withdraw the area from the planning advisory area, the county legislative body shall consider:

(A) whether the withdrawal would leave the remaining planning advisory area in a situation where the future incorporation of an area within the planning advisory area or the annexation of an area within the planning advisory area to an adjoining municipality would be economically or practically not feasible;

(B) if the withdrawal is a precursor to the incorporation or annexation of the withdrawn area:

(I) whether the proposed subsequent incorporation or withdrawal:

(Aa) will leave or create an unincorporated island or peninsula; or

(Bb) will leave the county with an area within its unincorporated area for which the cost, requirements, or other burdens of providing municipal services would materially increase over previous years; and

(II) whether the municipality to be created or the municipality into which the withdrawn area is expected to annex would be or is capable, in a cost effective manner, of providing service to the withdrawn area that the county will no longer provide due to the incorporation or annexation;

(C) the effects of a withdrawal on adjoining property owners, existing or projected county streets or other public improvements, law enforcement, and zoning and other municipal services provided by the county; and

(D) whether justice and equity favor the withdrawal.

(h) Upon the written decision of the county legislative body approving the withdrawal of an area from a planning advisory area, the area is withdrawn from the planning advisory area and the planning advisory area continues as a planning advisory area with a boundary that excludes the withdrawn area.

(4) (a) A planning advisory area may be dissolved as provided in this Subsection (4).

(b) The process to dissolve a planning advisory area is initiated by the filing of a petition with the clerk of the county in which the planning advisory area is located.

(c) A petition under Subsection (4)(b) shall:

(i) be signed by registered voters within the planning advisory area equal in number to at least 25% of all votes cast by voters within the planning advisory area at the last congressional election;

(ii) state the reason or reasons for the proposed dissolution;

(iii) indicate the typed or printed name and current residence address of each person signing the petition;

(iv) designate up to five signers of the petition as petition sponsors, one of whom shall be designated as the contact sponsor, with the mailing address and telephone number of each petition sponsor;

(v) authorize the petition sponsors to act on behalf of all persons signing the petition for purposes of the petition; and

(vi) request the county legislative body to provide notice of the petition and of a public hearing, hold a public hearing, and conduct an election on the proposal to dissolve the planning advisory area.

(d) (i) Within 45 days after the filing of a petition under Subsection (4)(b), the county clerk shall:

(A) with the assistance of other county officers from whom the clerk requests assistance, determine whether the petition complies with the requirements of Subsection (4)(c); and

(B) (I) if the clerk determines that the petition complies with the requirements of Subsection (4)(c):

(Aa) certify the petition and deliver the certified petition to the county legislative body; and

(Bb) mail or deliver written notification of the certification to the contact sponsor; or

(II) if the clerk determines that the petition fails to comply with any of the requirements of Subsection (4)(c), reject the petition and notify the contact sponsor in writing of the rejection and the reasons for the rejection.

(ii) If the county clerk rejects a petition under Subsection (4)(d)(i)(B)(II), the petition may be amended to correct the deficiencies for which it was rejected and then refiled with the county clerk.

(e) (i) Within 60 days after a petition to dissolve the planning advisory area is certified, the county legislative body shall hold a public hearing on the proposal to dissolve the planning advisory area.

(ii) A public hearing under Subsection (4)(e)(i) shall be held:

(A) within the boundary of the planning advisory area; or

(B) if holding a public hearing in that area is not practicable, as close to that area as practicable.

(iii) Before holding a public hearing under Subsection (4)(e)(i), the county legislative body shall publish notice of the petition and the time, date, and place of the public hearing for the county, as a class A notice under Section 63G-30-102, for three consecutive weeks immediately before the public hearing.

(f) Following the public hearing under Subsection (4)(e)(i), the county legislative body shall arrange for the proposal to dissolve the planning advisory area to be submitted to voters residing within the planning advisory area at the next regular general election that is more than 90 days after the public hearing.

(g) A planning advisory area is dissolved at the time of the canvass of the results of an election under Subsection (4)(f) if the canvass indicates that a majority of voters voting on the proposal to dissolve the planning advisory area voted in favor of the proposal.

(5) (a) If a portion of an area located within a planning advisory area is annexed by a municipality or incorporates, that portion is withdrawn from the planning advisory area.

(b) If a planning advisory area in whole is annexed by a municipality or incorporates, the planning advisory area is dissolved.

Section 176. Section 17-79-304, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-303 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-27a-303~~]17-79-304 (Effective 11/06/25). Entrance upon land.

A county may enter upon any land at reasonable times to make examinations and surveys pertinent to the:

(1) preparation of its general plan; or

(2) preparation or enforcement of its land use ordinances.

Section 177. Section 17-79-305, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-305 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-27a-305~~]17-79-305 (Effective 11/06/25). Other entities required to conform to county's land use ordinances -- Exceptions -- School districts, charter schools, home-based microschools, and micro-education entities -- Submission of development plan and schedule.

(1) (a) Each county, municipality, school district, charter school, special district, special service district, and political subdivision of the state shall conform to any applicable land use ordinance of any county when installing, constructing, operating, or otherwise using any area, land, or building situated within a mountainous planning district or the unincorporated portion of the county, as applicable.

(b) In addition to any other remedies provided by law, when a county's land use ordinance is violated or about to be violated by another political subdivision, that county may institute an injunction, mandamus, abatement, or other appropriate action or proceeding to prevent, enjoin, abate, or remove the improper installation, improvement, or use.

(2) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (3), a school district or charter school is subject to a county's land use ordinances.

(b) (i) Notwithstanding Subsection (3), a county may:

(A) subject a charter school to standards within each zone pertaining to setback, height, bulk and massing regulations, off-site parking, curb cut, traffic circulation, and construction staging; and

(B) impose regulations upon the location of a project that are necessary to avoid unreasonable risks to health or safety, as provided in Subsection (3)(f).

(ii) The standards to which a county may subject a charter school under Subsection (2)(b)(i) shall be objective standards only and may not be subjective.

(iii) Except as provided in Subsection (7)(d), the only basis upon which a county may deny or withhold approval of a charter school's land use application is the charter school's failure to comply with a standard imposed under Subsection (2)(b)(i).

(iv) Nothing in Subsection (2)(b)(iii) may be construed to relieve a charter school of an obligation to comply with a requirement of an applicable building or safety code to which it is otherwise obligated to comply.

(3) A county may not:

(a) impose requirements for landscaping, fencing, aesthetic considerations, construction methods or materials, additional building inspections, county building codes, building use for educational purposes, or the placement or use of temporary classroom facilities on school property;

(b) except as otherwise provided in this section, require a school district or charter school to participate in the cost of any roadway or sidewalk, or a study on the impact of a school on a roadway or sidewalk, that is not reasonably necessary for the safety of school children and not located on or contiguous to school property, unless the roadway or sidewalk is required to connect an otherwise isolated school site to an existing roadway;

(c) require a district or charter school to pay fees not authorized by this section;

(d) provide for inspection of school construction or assess a fee or other charges for inspection, unless the school district or charter school is unable to provide for inspection by an inspector, other than the project architect or contractor, who is qualified under criteria established by the state superintendent;

(e) require a school district or charter school to pay any impact fee for an improvement project unless the impact fee is imposed as provided in Title 11, Chapter 36a, Impact Fees Act;

(f) impose regulations upon the location of an educational facility except as necessary to avoid unreasonable risks to health or safety; or

(g) for a land use or a structure owned or operated by a school district or charter school that is not an educational facility but is used in support of providing instruction to pupils, impose a regulation that:

(i) is not imposed on a similar land use or structure in the zone in which the land use or structure is approved; or

(ii) uses the tax exempt status of the school district or charter school as criteria for prohibiting or regulating the land use or location of the structure.

(4) Subject to Section 53E-3-710, a school district or charter school shall coordinate the siting of a new school with the county in which the school is to be located, to:

(a) avoid or mitigate existing and potential traffic hazards, including consideration of the impacts between the new school and future highways; and

(b) maximize school, student, and site safety.

(5) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(d), a county may, at its discretion:

(a) provide a walk-through of school construction at no cost and at a time convenient to the district or charter school; and

(b) provide recommendations based upon the walk-through.

(6) (a) Notwithstanding Subsection (3)(d), a school district or charter school shall use:

(i) a county building inspector;

(ii) (A) for a school district, a school district building inspector from that school district; or

(B) for a charter school, a school district building inspector from the school district in which the charter school is located; or

(iii) an independent, certified building inspector who is not an employee of the contractor, licensed to perform the inspection that the inspector is requested to perform, and approved by a county building inspector or:

(A) for a school district, a school district building inspector from that school district; or

(B) for a charter school, a school district building inspector from the school district in which the charter school is located.

(b) The approval under Subsection (6)(a)(iii) may not be unreasonably withheld.

(c) If a school district or charter school uses a school district or independent building inspector under Subsection (6)(a)(ii) or (iii), the school district or charter school shall submit to the state superintendent of public instruction and county building official, on a monthly basis during construction of the school building, a copy of each inspection certificate regarding the school building.

(7) (a) A charter school, home-based microschool, or micro-education entity shall be considered a permitted use in all zoning districts within a county.

(b) Each land use application for any approval required for a charter school, home-based microschool, or micro-education entity, including an application for a building permit, shall be processed on a first priority basis.

(c) Parking requirements for a charter school or micro-education entity may not exceed the minimum parking requirements for schools or other institutional public uses throughout the county.

(d) If a county has designated zones for a sexually oriented business, or a business which sells alcohol, a charter school or micro-education entity may be prohibited from a location which would otherwise defeat the purpose for the zone unless the charter school or micro-education entity provides a waiver.

(e) (i) A school district , charter school, or micro-education entity may seek a certificate authorizing permanent occupancy of a school building from:

(A) the state superintendent of public instruction, as provided in Subsection 53E-3-706(3), if the school district, charter school, or micro-education entity used an independent building inspector for inspection of the school building; or

(B) a county official with authority to issue the certificate, if the school district, charter school, or micro-education entity used a county building inspector for inspection of the school building.

(ii) A school district may issue its own certificate authorizing permanent occupancy of a school building if it used its own building inspector for inspection of the school building, subject to the notification requirement of Subsection [~~53E-3-706(3)(a)(ii)~~]53E-3-706(3)(d)(ii).

(iii) A charter school or micro-education entity may seek a certificate authorizing permanent occupancy of a school building from a school district official with authority to issue the certificate, if the charter school or micro-education entity used a school district building inspector for inspection of the school building.

(iv) A certificate authorizing permanent occupancy issued by the state superintendent of public instruction under Subsection 53E-3-706(3) or a school district official with authority to issue the certificate shall be considered to satisfy any county requirement for an inspection or a certificate of occupancy.

(f) (i) A micro-education entity may operate a facility that meets Group E Occupancy requirements as defined by the International Building Code, as incorporated by Subsection 15A-2-103(1)(a).

(ii) A micro-education entity operating in a facility described in Subsection (7)(f)(i)may have up to 100 students in the facility.

(g) A micro-education entity may operate a facility that is subject to and complies with the same occupancy requirements as a Class A-1, A-3, B, or M Occupancy as defined by the International Building Code, as incorporated by Subsection 15A-2-103(1)(a), if:

(i) the facility has a code compliant fire alarm system and carbon monoxide detection system;

(ii) (A) each classroom in the facility has an exit directly to the outside at the level of exit discharge; or

(B) the structure has a code compliant fire sprinkler system; and

(iii) the facility has an automatic fire sprinkler system in fire areas of the facility that are greater than 12,000 square feet.

(h) (i) A home-based microschool is not subject to additional occupancy requirements beyond occupancy requirements that apply to a primary dwelling.

(ii) If a floor that is below grade in a home-based microschool is used for home-based microschool purposes, the below grade floor of the home-based microschool shall have at least one emergency escape or rescue window that complies with the requirements for emergency escape and rescue windows as defined by the International Residential Code, as incorporated in Section 15A-1-210.

(8) (a) A specified public agency intending to develop its land shall submit to the land use authority a development plan and schedule:

(i) as early as practicable in the development process, but no later than the commencement of construction; and

(ii) with sufficient detail to enable the land use authority to assess:

(A) the specified public agency's compliance with applicable land use ordinances;

(B) the demand for public facilities listed in Subsections 11-36a-102(17)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), and (g) caused by the development;

(C) the amount of any applicable fee described in Section [~~17-27a-509~~]17-79-804;

(D) any credit against an impact fee; and

(E) the potential for waiving an impact fee.

(b) The land use authority shall respond to a specified public agency's submission under Subsection (8)(a) with reasonable promptness in order to allow the specified public agency to consider information the municipality provides under Subsection (8)(a)(ii)in the process of preparing the budget for the development.

(9) Nothing in this section may be construed to:

(a) modify or supersede Section [~~17-27a-304~~]17-79-306; or

(b) authorize a county to enforce an ordinance in a way, or enact an ordinance, that fails to comply with Title 57, Chapter 21, Utah Fair Housing Act, the federal Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 3601 et seq., the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. 12102, or any other provision of federal law.

(10) Nothing in Subsection (7) prevents a political subdivision from:

(a) requiring a home-based microschool or micro-education entity to comply with local zoning and land use regulations that do not conflict with this section, including:

(i) parking;

(ii) traffic; and

(iii) hours of operation;

(b) requiring a home-based microschool or micro-education entity to obtain a business license;

(c) enacting county ordinances and regulations consistent with this section;

(d) subjecting a micro-education entity to standards within each zone pertaining to setback, height, bulk and massing regulations, off-site parking, curb cut, traffic circulation, and construction staging; and

(e) imposing regulations on the location of a project that are necessary to avoid risks to health or safety.

(11) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the proximity restrictions that apply to community locations do not apply to a micro-education entity.

Section 178. Section 17-79-306, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-304 is renumbered and amended to read:

[~~17-27a-304~~]17-79-306 (Effective 11/06/25). State and federal property.

Unless otherwise provided by law, nothing contained in this chapter or Chapter 80, Counties and Housing Supply, may be construed as giving a county jurisdiction over property owned by the state or the United States.

Section 179. Section 17-79-401, which is renumbered from Section 17-27a-401 is renumbered and amended to read:

PART 4. General Plan

[~~17-27a-401~~]17-79-401 (Effective 11/06/25). General plan required -- Content -- Resource management plan -- Provisions related to radioactive waste facility.

(1) To accomplish the purposes of this chapter, a county shall prepare and adopt a comprehensive, long-range general plan:

(a) for present and future needs of the county;

(b) (i) for growth and development of all or any part of the land within the unincorporated portions of the county; or

(ii) if a county has designated a mountainous planning district, for growth and development of all or any part of the land within the mountainous planning district; and

(c) as a basis for communicating and coordinating with the federal government on land and resource management issues.

(2) To promote health, safety, and welfare, the general plan may provide for:

(a) health, general welfare, safety, energy conservation, transportation, prosperity, civic activities, aesthetics, and recreational, educational, and cultural opportunities;

(b) the reduction of the waste of physical, financial, or human resources that result from either excessive congestion or excessive scattering of population;

(c) the efficient and economical use, conservation, and production of the supply of:

(i) food and water; and

(ii) drainage, sanitary, and other facilities and resources;

(d) the use of energy conservation and solar and clean energy resources;

(e) the protection of urban development;

(f) the protection and promotion of air quality;

(g) historic preservation;

(h) identifying future uses of land that are likely to require an expansion or significant modification of services or facilities provided by an affected entity; and

(i) an official map.

[~~(3) (a) (i) The general plan of a specified county, as defined in Section 17-27a-408, shall include a moderate income housing element that meets the requirements of Subsection 17-27a-403(2)(a)(iii).~~]

[~~(ii) (A) This Subsection (3)(a)(ii) applies to a county that does not qualify as a specified county as of January 1, 2023.~~]

[~~(B) As of January 1, if a county described in Subsection (3)(a)(ii)(A) changes from one class to another or grows in population to qualify as a specified county as defined in Section 17-27a-408, the county shall amend the county's general plan to comply with Subsection (3)(a)(i) on or before August 1 of the first calendar year beginning on January 1 in which the county qualifies as a specified county.~~]

[~~(iii) A county described in Subsection (3)(a)(ii)(B) shall send a copy of the county's amended general plan to the association of governments, established pursuant to an interlocal agreement under Title 11, Chapter 13, Interlocal Cooperation Act, of which the county is a member.~~]

[~~(b) The general plan shall contain a resource management plan for the public lands, as defined in Section 63L-6-102, within the county.~~]

[~~(c) The resource management plan described in Subsection (3)(b) shall address:~~]

[~~(i) mining;~~]

[~~(ii) land use;~~]

[~~(iii) livestock and grazing;~~]

[~~(iv) irrigation;~~]

[~~(v) agriculture;~~]
