Subject: 2007 Study Items for the Government Operations Interim Committee

Dear President Valentine and Speaker Curtis:

On behalf of the Government Operations Committee, we have completed an initial study item prioritization for the 2007 interim. The committee will plan to study the following general study items:

- Election law;
- Legal notices and hearings;
- Personnel, including remedies for sexual harassment;
- Protection of voter birth date information;
- Uniformity of financial disclosure reports;
- Authority to administer oaths by election officials;
- Notary public stamp information; and
- Government agency services and duties.

As time permits and the need arises additional items may be added as part of the committee's general oversight responsibilities to "investigate and study possibilities for improvement in government services within its subject area" (See IR2-1-101(3)).
