

Click

Introduction To Redistricting

2011 Redistricting Committee

Utah Redistricting

Overview of Presentation

- « Constitutional Mandate
- « Population Changes
 - ¢ One person, One vote
- « 2011 Redistricting Principles
- « Timeline
- « www.RedistrictUtah.com
- « Citizen online redistricting tool demo

Utah Redistricting Constitutional Mandate

“...the Legislature shall divide the state into congressional, legislative, and other districts...”

Utah Constitution – Article IX, Section 1

Utah Redistricting

Constitutional Mandate/District Type

- ¢ Congressional
- ¢ Utah House of Representatives
- ¢ Utah Senate
- ¢ State Board of Education

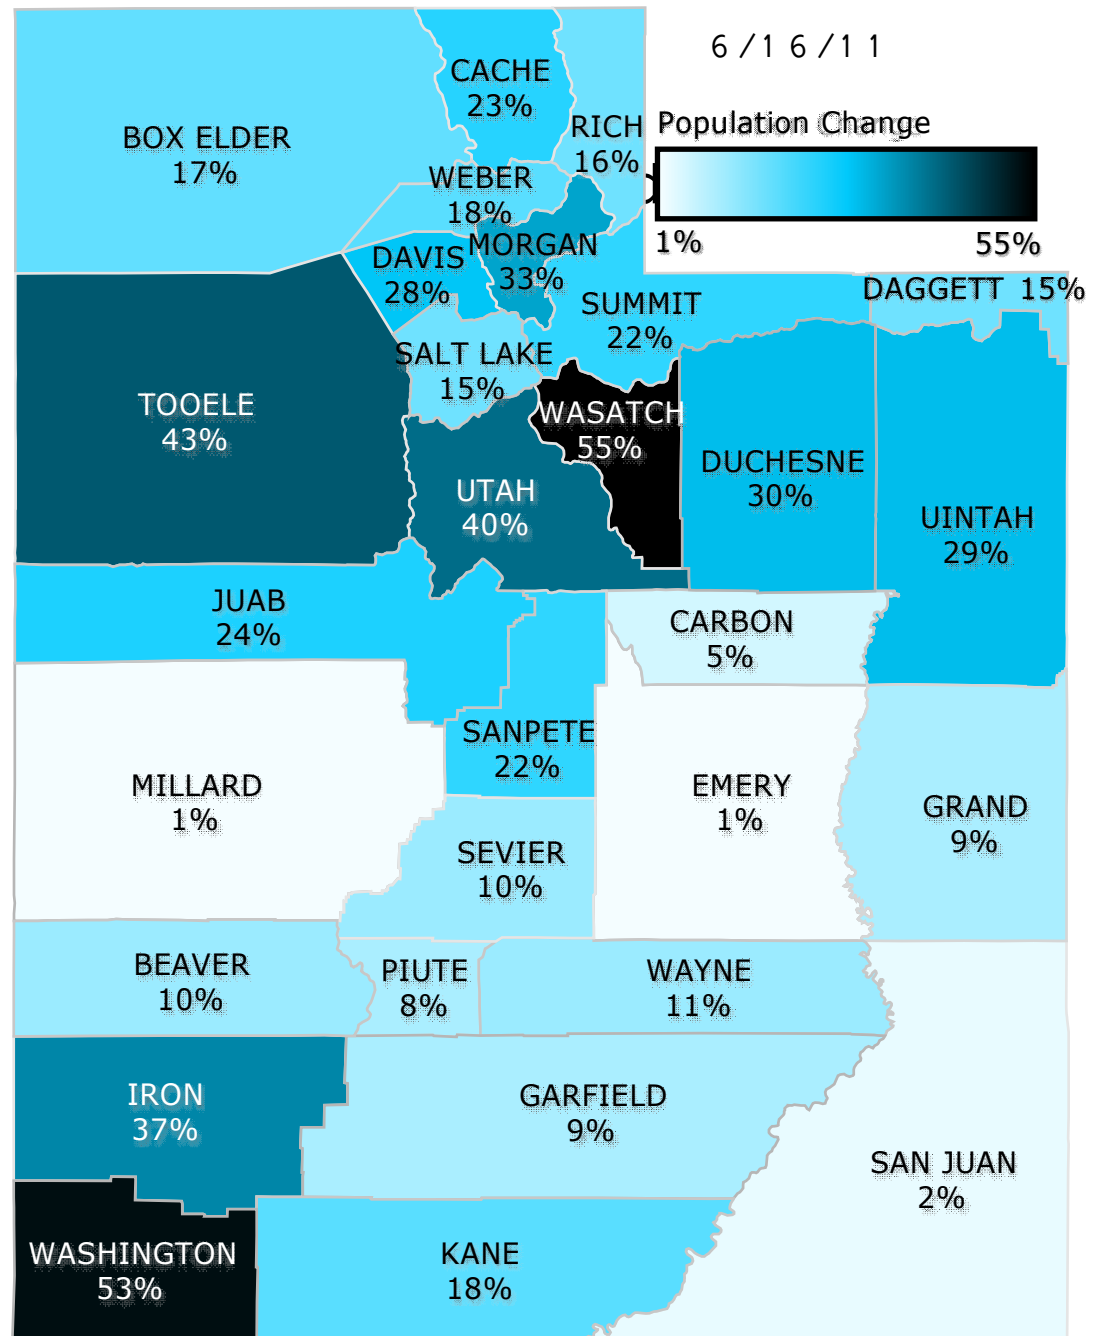

Utah Redistricting Constitutional Mandate

Utah redistricting

Population Changes

Population Changes

- Utah's overall population growth rate was 23.8%
- County growth rates ranged from 1% to 55%

Counties with biggest increase or decrease in representation

Population Increase Over or Under the State Average Growth Rate of 23.8% (2000 to 2010)

municipalities with biggest increase or decrease in representation

10 Highest
Cities
10 Lowest
Cities

Population Increase Over or Under the State Average Growth Rate of 23.8% (2000 to 2010)

Source: United States Census Bureau

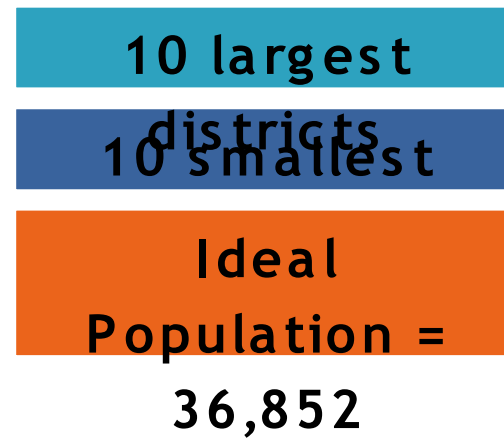

Population

2010 Census Population for Senate Districts

Population

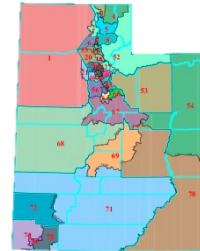

2010 Census Population for House Districts

2011 Redistricting Principles

2011 Redistricting Principles

Utah Redistricting Projected Schedule

Redistricting information online

« <http://www.RedistrictUtah.com/>
(Redistricting Home Page)