

The following is current list of schools that are receiving School-Based Behavioral Health (SBBH) services during the first quarter of Fiscal Year 2019 as reported by each Local Mental Health Authority (LMHA) providing the services. The schools listed are subject to change based on the needs of the schools and the capacity of each LMHA. The list has been separated into MHEI schools and schools with high rates of intergenerational poverty as identified through the Intergenerational Poverty Commission.

For Q1 SFY19, 329 schools are receiving school based behavioral health services. Of the 329 schools 75 schools have been identified as having high rates of intergenerational poverty. The schools are dispersed through 35 school districts including 19 charter schools.

The table below shows the distribution of SBBH across primary and secondary schools.
