Tooele County grew by 2,857 residents last year, enough to make it the 7th fastest growing county in the nation, according to the U.S. Census Bureau.

The county grew from a population of 64,599 in 2016 to 67,456 in 2017, according to data released by the Census Bureau on Thursday.

The 4.4 percent growth for 2016-17 put Tooele County in 7th place for growth by percent on the Census Bureau's list of the top 10 growing counties.

Wasatch County placed third on the top-10 list with 5-percent growth. Morgan County placed eighth with 4.4 percent growth. The fastest growing county in the U.S. was Falls Church, Virginia, with 5.2-percent growth.

"What we are seeing is the expansion of the urban area of the Wasatch Front into a larger geographic region with the growth of the ring counties," said Pam Perlich, director of

- Welding Partnership with Norco, Miller, and Hypertherm
- Industry Visits
- 34 Industry Presentations
- Career and Manufacturing Fairs

Our Strategies Are Working – A few Examples

Unannounced Visit

- First UTECH college to receive an unannounced visit
- Noteworthy accomplishment of zero findings from COE peer review team

Student Surveys

- 95% of students are likely/very likely to recommend Tooele Tech
- 99% of students would recommend their instructor

Challenges

- Need to Expand Programs for Industry (Carpentry, CDL, and Welding)
- Workforce Gap – 2.3% Unemployment
- Market Competitive Salaries
- OE/OE Beneficial, yet Difficult
- Filling the Pipeline
- Helping Cash Poor Students
- Growing a Scholarship Endowment
- Security (personal, structural, cyber)
