

If the Legislature provides funding for "Case Management for Rural Medicaid Clients", then the intent language below is approved.

The Legislature intends that the Utah Department of Health provide a portion of the case management services in rural fee-for-service counties through certified community health workers. The Department of Health will evaluate the impact of this workforce in improving outcomes and decreasing inappropriate utilization and report this information in performance measure reports.