
An In-Depth Budget Review of The Department Environmental Quality: Aboveground Storage Tanks

Utah Legislative Auditor General
October 20, 2020

Underground Storage Tanks (USTs) are Subject to Numerous Requirements

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Chapter III pages 26-28

Underground Storage Tank Requirements

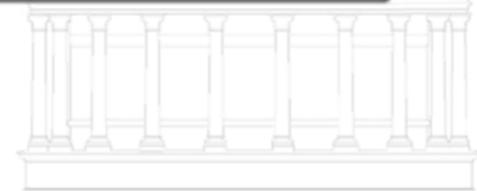

- ▶ DERR Compliance Inspections
- ▶ Registration
- ▶ Annual Certification Fee
- ▶ Financial Assurance
- ▶ Closure Plan
- ▶ Closure Site Inspection

Aboveground Storage Tanks (ASTs) Are Not Regulated

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Chapter III page 27

Notable AST Releases Throughout the Years

Facility	Year	Gallons Spilled	Investigation Cost	Responsible Party IDed?	Fully Remediated?
A	2020	3,000	Unknown	Yes	Yes
B	2010	13,000	Unknown	Yes (closed)	Unknown
C	2011	2,200	Unknown	Yes	Yes
D	2011	Unknown	$53,267	Yes (closed)	No - ongoing
E	2014	Unknown	$36,420	Yes, Multiple	No - ongoing
F	1987	Unknown	Approximately $440,000	No	No
G	2010	900	Approximately $45,000	Yes	No - ongoing
H	2016	Unknown	$39,173	Yes	No - ongoing

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Chapter III page 28

ASTs Subject to Regulation in Neighboring States

- ▶ Colorado
- ▶ New Mexico
- ▶ Wyoming
- ▶ Montana

FOR MORE INFORMATION
Chapter III page 29

Recommendation

We recommend that the Department of Environmental Quality work with the Legislature to review and consider some degree of regulation for aboveground storage tanks.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Chapter 3 page 34

An In-Depth Budget Review of The Department Environmental Quality: Aboveground Storage Tanks

Utah Legislative Auditor General
October 20, 2020

