THE TAX BURDEN OF THE BOB & BROOKE BEEHIVE FAMILY

A REPORT BY THE UTAH TAXPAYERS ASSOCIATION

How the Beehive Family's income is taxed is true of most families in Utah. Bob and Brooke both have jobs in order to comfortably support their family. Bob is an advertising agent at a local company and in 2020 earned $55,840. Brooke works part time as a real estate agent earning $25,800 after expenses in 2020. The Beehive Family's total income was $81,640. Also, the Beehive Family earned $1,800 that was paid into a 401 (k)-retirement program and is not included in the AGI and is not taxed until withdrawn during retirement. Based on these income figures, as well as national and local expenditure patterns as published in the Bureau of Labor Statistics' Consumer Expenditure Survey, the Beehive Family paid the following taxes:
