

Hispanic and Religious People Find Medical Aid in Dying “Morally Acceptable”

When a person is facing a PAINFUL TERMINAL DISEASE, it is MORALLY ACCEPTABLE to ask for a physician’s aid in taking his or her own life.

Most religious group members who participated in the survey also agreed, including:

