

HB99

Sex Offender Restrictions Amendments

In 2015 he was accused of 27 felony counts of aggravated sexual abuse of a child, sexual battery and witness tampering after an exhaustive investigation concluded Bryant had sexually abused his adopted children when they were young.

In 2016 he pled Guilty to 3 first degree felonies of Attempted Aggravated Sexual Abuse of a Child

In 2019, he went to Freedom Elementary four times to visit his girlfriend. He was dressed as Prince Charming and brought his dog and handed out candy to children.

Prosecuted, but received no jail time and no fine. 6 months probation. Frustration expressed for repeat offenses.

HB99

70-72:

- (4) A sex offender who violates this section is guilty of
- (a) a class A misdemeanor; or
 - (b) if previously convicted of violating this section, a third degree felony.