

H.B. 192

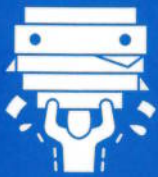

Traffic Violation Amendments

Objectives and Background

Expands upon H.B. 139 (2022)

Aims to reduce burden on prosecutors and judges by reducing backlog, enabling them to dedicate increased attention to more nuanced and complex cases

Results and Changes

1

Extends the deferred prosecution program to some who don't currently qualify if they also complete traffic school

2

Increases awareness of the program by requiring citations to have a link stating that recipients may be eligible to participate

- Traffic course must be approved by Department of Public Safety
- Includes those who 1) have received a previous moving violation in the last 24 months, 2) committed multiple violations, 3) caused an accident, and 4) speeding between 20-30mph.
- Excludes individuals who are cited with reckless driving or those who caused accidents involving serious injury or death
