

Family School Options

Options available to parents	How to Attend this School?	Cost to parents	District or School Graduation Diploma	Access to neighborhood school activities	Access to Special Needs help under IDEA and includes Section 504 accommodations	The child can access academic and mental health counseling, etc
Boundary School	All children living in the boundary can attend the school	Uses WPU, district and other state funding	Yes	Yes. Can access all activities	Yes for all special needs children	Yes. Access provided at the neighborhood school.
Any public school that is not overcrowded	All children can attend unless the school is overcrowded. (Family provides transportation)	Uses WPU, district and other state funding	Yes, from school attended	No. Can access all activities at the school the child is attending.	Yes. Can access at the school where the child is enrolled	Access provided at the school the child is enrolled in.
Charter School	Enrollment by lottery based on space available	Uses WPU, district and other state funding	Yes, from school attended	Can access all activities at the Charter School and co-curricular activities at boundary school as established in State code.	Yes. Can access at the school where the child is enrolled..	Access provided at the school the child is enrolled in.
State Online	Enrollment based on space available	Uses WPU and other state funding	Yes - SOEP generally registered through local schools	Maybe. Students accessing SOEP through their local school may have access.	Maybe. Students accessing SOEP through their local school may have access.	Students accessing SOEP through their local school may have access.
District Online	Attendance based on space available. Anyone in state can attend.	Uses WPU, district and other state funding	Yes, from school attended	District Online provides activities for the child. Some districts may utilize neighborhood school activities.	Yes. Can access at the school the child is enrolled.	Yes from District Online school.
Private Online	Enrollment based on application, acceptance and tuition	Family pays tuition.	Private School may award a diploma.	Possibly through a dual enrollment arrangement	Not at public boundary school	Online school could provide some services
Special Programs School (magnet, technical, fine arts, CTE, Special Needs, Academically talented, etc.	Enrollment based on space available and qualifications met	Uses WPU, district and other state funding	Yes, from boundary school or school enrolled	Can access all activities at the school the child is attending or neighborhood school.	Yes. Access provided at the school the child enrolled.	Yes. Access provided at the school the child enrolled in.
District Alternative High Schools	School helps students who prefer a non-traditional school experience. Criteria may vary by LEA	Uses WPU, district and other state funding	Yes, from school enrolled	No. Can access all activities at the school the child is attending.	Yes if qualifies for services. Can access at the school the child is enrolled in.	Yes. Access provided at the school the child enrolled in.
Home School	All families may participate	Family pays for curriculum and services	No	No, unless partially enrolled in boundary school	No, unless partially enrolled in boundary school.	No unless partially enrolled in boundary school.
Private School	Enrollment based on application, acceptance, tuition, and space available	Family pays tuition. State scholarships available primarily for special education programs.	Private School may award a diploma	No. Can access all activities at the private school the child is enrolled.	No. Student gives up federal and state help when using Carson Smith and Opportunity scholarships.	Private school could provide services.
Dual Enrollment	All children enrolled in private, public online or home school may enroll up to 5 times at their boundary school if space is available.	The WPU is allocated to the boundary school as a percentage by formula	District credit may be awarded but no diploma	Not unless it is associated with the class the child is attending.	Yes if qualifies for services. Can access at the school the child is enrolled.	Yes. Can access at the school the child is enrolled in.
Parent led school supported	All children can participate.	Uses WPU, district and other state funding. No funding directly to parents.	Yes, from supporting school.	Yes. Can access all activities	Yes if qualifies for services. Can access at the school the child is enrolled.	Yes. Access provided at the school where the child is enrolled.

Access to school extracurricular activities	Ability to play sports at neighborhood school	Participate in neighborhood school fine arts programs	Access to curriculum that meets state standards	Help for teaching curriculum at home	Tests to determine progress on state standards (not necessarily curriculum)
Yes. Access provided at the neighborhood school.	Yes, as governed by UHSAA	Yes	Yes	Online access to curriculum, resources and some homework helps.	Yes
Access provided at the school where the child is enrolled in.	Students play sports at the school the child is attending as governed by UHSAA	Students participate in fine arts programs at the school where they are enrolled.	Yes	Online access to curriculum, resources and some homework helps.	Yes
Access provided at the school the child is enrolled in or boundary school in co-curricular instances.	Students play sports provided by charter school as governed by UHSAA	Students participate in fine arts programs at the charter school or boundary school as governed by State Code.	Yes	Some homework helps	Yes
Students accessing SOEP through their local school may have access.	Some access provided as governed by UHSAA. Students accessing SOEP through their local school may have access.	Students accessing SOEP through their local school may have access.	Yes	Online access to curriculum, resources and some homework helps.	Yes
Online school hosts activities	Yes Access provided at the student's boundary school as governed by UHSAA	If online school does not offer the program students may access at the boundary school when space is available.	Yes	Online access to curriculum, resources and some homework helps.	Yes
No	Some access provided as governed by UHSAA	No	Private school curriculum may or may not meet state standards.	Some homework helps	Some tests may be required by school. Private schools not required to administer state tests.
Yes Access provided at the school where the child is enrolled.	Access provided at the boundary school or the school attending as governed by UHSAA	Access provided at the boundary school where the child is enrolled.	Yes	Online access to curriculum, resources and some homework helps.	Yes
Access provided at the school where the child is enrolled.	Access provided at the school the child is attending or as governed by UHSAA	Some programs may be provided by the school where the child is enrolled.	Yes	Online access to curriculum, resources and some homework helps.	Yes
No unless partially enrolled in boundary school.	Yes. With permission as governed by UHSAA	Yes with permission and tuition.	Curriculum which may or may not meet state standards.	Family finds private curriculum.	No. Some tests may be required by private curriculum.
The private school may provide some activities.	The private school may provide sports as governed by UHSAA	Students participate in fine arts provided by the private school.	Private school curriculum may or may not meet state standards.	Some homework helps	Some tests may be required by school. Private schools not required to administer state tests.
Access provided at the school the child is enrolled in or boundary school in co-curricular/dual enrollment instances.	Yes, with permission as governed by UHSAA.	Yes for the class or classes taken	Yes for the class or classes taken	Some homework helps for the classes taken	Yes for the class or classes taken
Yes. Access provided at the school where the child is enrolled.	Students play sports at the neighborhood school as governed by UHSAA.	Students participate in fine arts programs at the neighborhood school.	Yes, curriculum is provided that meets state standards. Parents can supplement if they want.	Some instructional support is available to parents.	Yes