

LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH &
GENERAL COUNSEL

Legislative History of Utah's Criminal and Juvenile Justice Database

SARAH FLANIGAN

POLICY ANALYST

AUGUST 9, 2023

Legislative Timeline

General
Session 2015

- Legislature passes H.B. 348, Criminal Justice Programs and Amendments, which establishes the Justice Reinvestment Initiative (JRI)

October
2020

- Office of the Legislative Auditor General releases performance audits of JRI (Number 2020-08) and information sharing in the criminal justice system (Number 2020-09)

General
Session 2021

- Legislature passes S.B. 159, Law Enforcement Data Management Requirements

General
Session 2022

- Legislature passes H.B. 403, Justice Reinvestment Initiative Modifications and S.B. 179, Criminal Justice Amendments

Utah Code 63M-7-218, State Grant Requirements

“Beginning July 1, 2023, the commission may not award any grant of state funds to any entity subject to, and not in compliance with, the reporting requirements in Subsections 63A-16-1002(5)(a) through (r).”

Utah Code 63A-16-1002, Criminal and Juvenile Justice Database (part 1 of 2)

(5) The database shall be the repository for the statutorily required data described in:

- (a) Section 13-53-111, recidivism reporting requirements;
- (b) Section 17-22-32, county jail reporting requirements;
- (c) Section 17-55-201, Criminal Justice Coordinating Councils reporting;
- (d) Section 41-6a-511, courts to collect and maintain data;
- (e) Section 53-23-101, reporting requirements for reverse-location warrants;
- (f) Section 53-24-102, sexual assault offense reporting requirements for law enforcement agencies;
- (g) Section 63M-7-214, law enforcement agency grant reporting;
- (h) Section 63M-7-216, prosecutorial data collection;
- (i) Section 64-13-21, supervision of sentenced offenders placed in community;

Utah Code 63A-16-1002, Criminal and Juvenile Justice Database (continued)

- (j) Section 64-13-25, standards for programs;
- (k) Section 64-13-45, department reporting requirements;
- (l) Section 64-13e-104, housing of state probationary inmates or state parole inmates;
- (m) Section 77-7-8.5, use of tactical groups;
- (n) Section 77-11b-404, forfeiture reporting requirements;
- (o) Section 77-20-103, release data requirements;
- (p) Section 77-22-2.5, court orders for criminal investigations;
- (q) Section 78A-2-109.5, court demographics reporting;
- (r) Section 80-6-104, data collection on offenses committed by minors; and
- (s) any other statutes which require the collection of specific data and the reporting of that data to the commission.

