Legislator Name: Shallenberger, David

Created Date: January 30th 2025

Submitted Date: January 30th 2025

Section 1: Requester Details

Description:

The Salt Lake Climbers Alliance (SLCA), in partnership with the State of Utah and the Department of Heritage and Arts, is creating *Alpenbock*, a short documentary on the history of rock climbing in the Wasatch Front. The film highlights the early climbers of Big and Little Cottonwood Canyons, including pioneers like former SLC Mayor Ted Wilson and George Lowe. Through interviews and historical footage, it preserves Utah’s climbing legacy and promotes conservation efforts. The intended beneficiaries from this project benefits Utah residents, climbers, and outdoor enthusiasts by celebrating the state’s rich climbing history and raising awareness about preserving these iconic landscapes. 1.7 million outdoor enthusiasts live in Utah plus the online community this will shared with across the globe.
