

Funding Challenges

Addressing critical issues in program availability

Decreasing Charitable & Foundational Investments

Foundations and philanthropic organizations face increased scrutiny, higher demand, and increased costs.

Increasing Costs

Inflation, operational costs, and salary demands have put increased pressure on afterschool and summer programs.

$28,901,687 Funding Gap remaining after recent 21st CCLC, TANF, and CCDF grant competitions

Current funds are the lowest since 2018

Highly Competitive Funding

The past two years have seen dramatic increases in the number of programs applying for public funding, while available funds have remained the same or decreased.

PROGRAM AFFORDABILITY, ACCESSIBILITY, AND AVAILABILITY LIMIT PARTICIPATION.

Utah parents cite barriers to enrolling their children in afterschool programs:

54%

Programs are too expensive

47%

Inconvenient locations

41%

Programs are unavailable in my community

49%

Lack of a safe way to and from programs

Funding Impacts

SCHOOL YEAR ENROLLMENT
through the years

5 in 6
kids are missing out

 Afterschool Alliance  America After 3PM

View the full report.
→

Our Request

$10,000,000 ongoing investment

- 3,000 to 5,000 youth served through 40 additional afterschool programs
- Fewer unsupervised hours during peak juvenile crime times
- Greater workforce stability for working parents
- Stronger academic, social, and career-ready skills
- Lower long-term public costs through prevention

89% Of Utah Parents support public funding for afterschool and summer programs

79% of Parents agree that all young people deserve access to quality afterschool and summer programs

Support for public funding is high across the political spectrum:

96% Democrats

89% Independents

87% Republicans