

LOCAL ADMINISTRATIVE ADVISOR

The Local Administrative Advisor (LAA) program will provide administrative support to over 140 cities and towns in Utah with limited administrative staff.

Assistance is available statewide with resources and staff based centrally at ULCT and regionally at the Associations of Governments (AOGs).

LAA's have completed thousands of projects across the state since the program's inception, including:

- Facilitating compliance with state code
- Crafting ordinances and plans
- Preparing budgets
- Promoting leadership, training, and more

LOCAL ADMINISTRATIVE ADVISOR

ULCT is working collaboratively with:

- The Utah State Legislature
- Governor's Office of Planning and Budget (GOPB)
- The AOGs (BRAG, WFRC, MAG, Uintah Basin, SERDA, R6, and 5 County)
- Utah City/County Management Association (UCMA)
