RULES OF THE SENATE

ELEVENTH SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF UTAH.

1. A majority of the Senate shall constitute a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, or for less time than one day, and may compel the attendance of absent members.

2. The Senate shall keep a Journal of its proceedings, which shall be published at the close of the session. At the request of three members the ayes and nays shall be taken on any question and entered on the Journal.

3. The Senate may punish its members for disorderly behavior, and with the concurrence of two-thirds of all the members elected expel a member for cause; and the reason for such expulsion shall be entered upon the Journal, with the aye and nay vote of the members.

4. The Senate, during its session, may punish by imprisonment any person, not a member, who shall be guilty of disrespect to the same, by any disorderly or contemptuous behavior in its presence; but such imprisonment shall not at any time exceed twenty-four hours, unless the person shall persist in such disorderly or contemptuous behavior.

5. The sessions of the Senate, except those while it is sitting in executive session, shall be public; and it shall not without the consent of the House of Representatives adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which it may be holding session.

6. The enacting clause of every law shall be: "Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Utah," and no bill or joint resolution shall be passed, except with the consent of a majority of all the Senators elected. On the final passage of all bills the vote shall be by ayes and nays, upon each bill separately, and shall be entered upon the Journal; and no law shall be revised or amended by reference to its title only; but the act as revised, or section as amended, shall be re-enacted and published at length.

7. Except general appropriation bills, and bills for the codification and general revision of laws, no bill shall be passed containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title.

8. The President, in the presence of the Senate, shall sign all bills and joint resolutions passed by the Legislature, after their titles have been publicly read immediately before signing, and the fact of such signing shall be entered upon the Journal.

9. Every bill shall be read three times, but the first and second reading may be on the same day. On the final passage of a bill the President shall immediately put the question, "Shall the title of the bill be the title of the act?"

10. The President, or, in his absence, the President pro tempore, or, in the absence of both, any Senator called to the chair by the Senate, shall take the chair every day precisely at the hour to which the Senate shall have adjourned; shall immediately call the members to order, and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall cause the Journal of the preceding day to be read.

11. The presiding officer shall preserve decorum and order, and may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose, and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Senate by any member; on which appeal no member shall speak more than once, unless by leave of the Senate.

12. The presiding officer shall rise to put a question, but may state it sitting.

13. Questions shall be put in the following form, viz: "As many as are in favor of (as the case may be) say aye," and after the affirmative vote is expressed, "as many as are opposed say no." If the President doubt the result of a vote, or a division be called for, the Senate shall divide; those in the affirmative shall first rise from their seats, and afterwards those in the negative.

14. The President shall have the general direction of the Senate Chamber; shall have the right to name any member to perform the duties of the chair, and such substitute shall be vested with all the powers of the President during the time he shall act as such.

15. In case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct in the lobby or gallery, the President shall have the power to order the same to be cleared.

16. The President shall assign to the officers and employees of the Senate their respective duties, stations, and shall have general supervision over them.

16a. The Sergeant-at-Arms shall have supervision over the Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms, doorkeepers, messenger, watchman and janitor, and he shall preserve order in the lobby, guard the floor from intruders; and he shall report each day to the President the absence or late arrival of any employee of the Senate.

16b. The Secretary shall have supervision over all employees not under the supervision of the Sergeant-at-Arms, except the engrossing clerk or clerks. There shall be a record kept of the attendance of all employees, by an employee or employees designated by the President. Any employee absenting himself or herself without the consent of the President shall not be paid for the day or days of such absence; and there shall be a record kept of all leave of absence granted.

17. When any member is about to speak or deliver any matter to the Senate, he shall rise from his seat and address himself to "Mr. President," and shall confine himself to the question under debate and avoid personalities.

18. When any member, speaking (or otherwise), transgresses the rules of the Senate, the President shall, or any member may call him to order, in which case the member so called to order shall sit down, unless permitted to explain; and the Senate, if appealed to, shall decide on the case without debate. If the decision be in favor of the member called to order, he shall be at liberty to proceed; if otherwise, and the case requires it, he shall be liable to the censure of the Senate.

19. If two or more members rise at once, the President shall name the member who is first to speak.

19a. If any member be called to order for words spoken in debate, the person calling him to order shall repeat the words excepted to, and they shall be taken down by the Secretary; but no member shall be held to answer or be subject to the censure of the Senate for words spoken in debate, if any member has spoken in debate, or other business has intervened after the words spoken and before exception to them shall have been taken.

20. No member shall speak more than twice to the same question, nor more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken, without the consent of the Senate.

21. While the President is putting a question, or addressing the Senate, no member shall walk out of or across the room; nor in such case, or when a member is speaking shall pass between him and the chair.

22. Every member who shall be in the Senate when a question is put shall give his vote, unless the Senate shall excuse him.

23. No member shall be permitted to vote on any question, unless within the bar before the vote is announced.

24. When a motion is made and seconded it shall be stated by the President, or, being in writing, shall be handed to the Secretary, and read aloud before debate.

25. Every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the President or any member desires it.

26. When the ayes and nays shall be taken on any question, no member shall be permitted to vote or to change his vote after the decision is announced from the chair, unless by the two-thirds vote of Senators present and voting.

27. After a motion is stated by the President, or read by the Secretary, it shall be deemed in the possession of the Senate, but may be withdrawn at any time by the unanimous consent of the Senate, before decision.

28. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, but:

To fix the time to which to adjourn.
To adjourn.
To call the Senate.
To lay on the table.
To postpone indefinitely.
To postpone to a day certain.
To commit or to amend.

Which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they stand arranged.

29. A motion for adjournment shall always be in order, except when the roll is being called, and be decided, as well as the motion to lay on the table, without debate.

30. No motion to postpone to a day certain or indefinitely, or to commit, being decided in the negative, shall again be allowed on the same day.

31. A motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and if carried shall be deemed equivalent to the rejection of the bill.

32. When a blank is to be filled and different sums or times are proposed, the question shall first be put on the largest sum and the longest time.

33. No person shall be permitted to smoke in the Senate Chamber, or give any sign of approbation or disapprobation while the Senate is in session.

OFFICERS' DUTIES.

34. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a Journal, in which he shall seasonably record the motions, resolutions, rules and decisions of the Senate, and to do and perform all such other acts pertaining to his office as may be required of him by the Senate or its presiding officer.

35. It shall be the duty of the Sergeant-atArms to attend the Senate during its sittings, to execute the commands of the Senate from time to time, together with all such process, issued by order of the Senate, or any committee thereof, which shall be signed by the President.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

36. The following standing committees shall be appointed by the President:

Agriculture and Irrigation, seven members.
Appropriations and Claims, seven members.
Banks and Banking, seven members.
Contingent Expense and Printing, three members.
County and Municipal Corporations, seven members.
Education, seven members.
Engrossing and Enrolling Bills, three members.
Fish, Game and Forestry, seven members.
Highways and Public Lands, seven members.
Judiciary, seven members.
Live Stock, five members.
Manufacturers and Commerce, seven members.
Mines and Mining, five members.
Private Corporations and Insurance, five members.
Public Health and Labor, seven members.
Public Institutions, seven members.
Railroads, seven members.
Rules, three members.
State Affairs and Federal Relations, seven members.

37. The following named committee shall have leave to report any time on the matters stated, viz.: Business: Committee on Engrossed and Enrolled Bills.

38. It shall always be in order to call up for consideration the report of the Committee on Rules.

39. No committee except the Committee on Rules shall sit during the sitting of the Senate, without special leave.

PRACTICE.

40. All resolutions presented to the Senate shall lie one day on the table.

41. Seven typewritten copies of every bill, resolution or memorial shall be furnished to the Secretary by the member introducing the same. Preceding the title of the bill, resolution or memorial shall be the number and the name of the Senator whose bill, resolution or memorial it is, without other words or letters of identification or explanation. In all cases where an existing law is sought to be amended by any bill all new matter shall be underscored so as to be easily distinguishable from the old matter to remain in the statute.

42. If the question in debate contains several points, any member may have the same divided; but, on motion to strike out and insert, it shall not be in order to move for a division of the question; but the rejection of a motion to strike out and insert one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert a different proposition.

43. When a question has been once made and carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall be in order for a member of the majority to move for a reconsideration thereof; or give notice that he will make such motion within the time prescribed by the rules, for which time he shall control the motion. No motion for reconsideration shall be in order, unless made within the next day of actual session of the Senate; provided, that should the member giving notice of a motion to reconsider not make such a motion within the time prescribed by the rules, any other member voting with the majority may make such motion within the next succeeding legislative day. Such motion shall take precedence of all other questions except a motion to adjourn.

44. A bill may be referred to a committee without reading, but shall be read before being amended, and may be amended in every particular on second reading. A bill read once and referred shall be read a second time before being amended.

45. Amendments shall be in order at the third reading of a bill, resolution or motion requiring three readings, and it shall be at all times in order, before the final passage of such bill, resolution or motion, to move its commitment or recommitment.

46. Three hundred copies of every bill, joint resolution or memorial shall be printed when ordered by the committee to whom referred and all bills shall be printed before being read the second time. Provided, that such committee may, if it deems necessary, order additional copies of such bill, not exceeding one hundred and fifty in number.

47. When motions are made for reference of the same subject to a select committee, and to a standing committee, the question of reference to a standing committee shall be put first.

48. Any five Senators may make a call of the Senate and require absent Senators to be sent for, but a call of the Senate cannot be made after the voting has commenced; and a call of the Senate being ordered, the doors shall be closed and the absentees noted, and no Senator permitted to leave the room without the consent of the President, until the report of the Sergeant-at-Arms be received and acted upon, or further proceedings in the call be suspended, or the Senate adjourn. Previous to the reception of such report further proceedings in the call shall not be suspended, except by the vote of two-thirds of the Senators present.

49. No amendment, by way of rider, shall be received to any bill on its third reading.

50. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Roberts' Rules of Order shall govern the Senate in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not consistent with the standing rules and orders of the Senate.

51. A motion to commit, until it is decided, shall preclude all amendments and debate on the main question, and a motion to postpone indefinitely or to a day certain until it is decided shall preclude all amendments on the main question.

52. Upon a motion to reconsider the vote on the final passage of anv bill, a majority of all the members elected shall be required to reconsider the same.

53. If a bill shall fail to pass on account of not having received the constitutional majority any Senator having voted in the negative shall have a right to move a reconsideration.

54. No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

55. No rule of the Senate shall be altered, suspended or reconsidered without the vote of two-thirds of the members present.

56. No person, except members of the House of Representatives and their officers, members and ex-members of Congress, heads of Executive Departments of this State, Chaplains, Judges of the United States Courts and Supreme and District Judges of this State, former Governors and ex-members of the Legislature, members of the Constitutional Convention and the Mayor and City Commissioners of Salt Lake City and general field and staff officers of the National Guard of Utah, and officers of the United States Army, and reporters of the press, shall be admitted to the floor of the Senate unless by leave of the President, or on special invitation of a member.

57. The daily Order of Business shall be as follows:

1. Roll Call.
2. Prayer by the Chaplain.

3. Reading of the Journal.
4. Presentation of Petitions.
5. Reports of Standing Committees.
6. Reports of Select Committees.
7. Presentation of Resolutions.
8. Introduction of Bills.

After the daily order of business shall have passed the following general order of business shall be observed:

1. Reading bills of the Senate the third time.
2. Reading bills of the Senate the second time.
3. Reading bills of the Senate the first time.
4. Reading bills from the House of Representatives the third time.
5. Reading bills from the House of Representatives the second time.
6. Reading bills from the House of Representatives the first time.
7. Consideration of resolutions.
8. Miscellaneous business.

The item of unfinished business in which the Senate was engaged at the last preceding adjournment shall have preference in the general order of business, and when the Senate shall have passed from one order to another no action shall be had upon the orders passed except by leave of the Senate, and to give this leave two-thirds of the Senators present must concur.

Messages from the House of Representatives may be received at any time except when the President is putting the question, or the ayes and nays are being called, and upon motion may be considered at any time.

58. The previous question shall not be entertained or be a rule of practice in the Senate.

EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS AND NOMINATIONS.

59. Messages from the Governor and communications from State officers may be received at any time, except when the President is putting the question and the ayes and nays are being called, and upon motion may be considered at any time. The consideration of nominations or other executive business shall take place with closed doors.

60. Nominations may be referred to a standing or select committee. On considering nominations the President shall put the following question: "Does the Senate advise and consent to the nomination just made?" While any nomination remains with the Senate, it shall be in order to reconsider any vote taken thereon.

61. Action on all appointees made by the Governor for confirmation by the Senate shall be deferred one day from the time any designated appointment or appointments are received by the Senate.

HOURS OF MEETING.

62. Until otherwise ordered, the regular hour of meetings of the Senate shall be at 2 o'clock p. m. daily, Sundays excepted.

SENATE JOURNAL

ELEVENTH SESSION

FIRST DAY.

SENATE CHAMBER,
Joint City and County Building,
Salt Lake City, Utah, January 11, 1915.

Pursuant to constitutional requirements, the hold-over Senators and the Senators-elect of the Eleventh Regular Session of the Legislature of the State of Utah convened at 12 o'clock noon.

The Senate was called to order by Secretary of State David Mattson, who read the following Certificate of Election:

STATE OF UTAH,
Executive Department.
SECRETARY OF STATE'S OFFICE.

I, DAVID MATTSON, Secretary of State of the State of Utah, do hereby certify that on Tuesday, the Third day of November, A. D. One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fourteen, at the general election held within and for said State, the following named persons were duly elected from their respective Senatorial districts to the membership of the STATE SENATE for the term of four years:

James W. Funk of Cache County, Second District;
Joseph Chez of Weber County, Fourth District;
George H. Dern and Frank Evans, both of Salt Lake County, Sixth District;

H. T. Reynolds and John H. Wootton of Utah County, Seventh District;

Orlando Bradley of Sanpete County, Ninth District;

William Seegmiller of Kane County, Eleventh District;

Don B. Colton of Uintah County, Twelfth District; as appears from the returns of said election, which have been duly canvassed and certified and are of record in the office of the Secretary of State.

And I do further certify that the following named persons:

Willard S. Hansen of Box Elder County, First District;

John W. Thornley of Davis County, Third District;

Wm. Craig of Weber County, Fourth District;

L. B. Wight of Summit County, Fifth District;

Charles Cottrell, Jr., D. O. Rideout and W. Mont Ferry, all of Salt Lake County, Sixth District;

J. R. Edgheill of Juab County, Eighth District;

Joseph Eckersley of Wayne County, Tenth District; are "holdover" Senators by virtue of a previous election and are entitled to serve their unexpired term as members of the STATE SENATE from their respective Senatorial Districts.

WHEREFORE, by virtue of said elections and in the absence of any question of eligibility arising here or hereafter, each and all of the aforesaid persons are entitled to sit as the members of the STATE SENATE in the Eleventh Session of the Utah State Legislature.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of Utah this Eleventh day of January, A. D. One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifteen.

(Seal) DAVID MATTSON,
Secretary of State.

Prayer was offered by Senator Willard S. Hansen.

The roll call showed all the members of the Senate present.

The oath of office was then administered to the members by Chief Justice D. N. Straup of the Supreme Court.

Nominations for President being declared in order, Senator Eckersley nominated W. Mont. Ferry of Salt Lake County. Senator Dern nominated J. W. Funk of Cache County.

The roll call resulted as follows: For Ferry—Colton, Cottrell, Craig, Eckersley, Edgheill, Funk, Hansen, Rideout, Seegmiller, Thornley, Wight and Wootton; total, 12. For Funk—Bradley, Chez, Dern, Evans, Ferry, Reynolds; total, 6.

On motion of Senator Funk the election of Senator Ferry was made unanimous and Senators Funk and Eckersley were appointed to escort the President to the chair.

Chief Justice D. N. Straup then administered the oath.

Senator Cottrell moved the following order of business:

1. Nomination of officers of the Senate.
2. Nomination of a committee of three to notify the House that the Senate is organized and ready for business.
3. Nomination of a committee of three to act with a like committee from the House to wait upon the Governor and inform him that the Senate is organized.
4. That a committee of three be appointed on rules. The motion carried.

Senator Craig moved the appointment of the following officers:

Secretary—Alex Buchanan, Jr., of Salt Lake.
Minute Clerk—Henry Hughes of Summit.
Docket Clerk—N. C. Hicks of Utah.
Sergeant-at-Arms—Barlow Wilson of Weber.

Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms—B. T. Harris of Davis.

Watchmen—H. P. Myton of Salt Lake and Thomas Hunt of Sevier.
Doorkeepers—Henry Marshall of Tooele and Thomas Smith of Salt Lake.
Janitor—M. N. Lancaster of Salt Lake.

Senator Funk presented the following as a substitute motion:

Secretary—Douglas Swan, Salt Lake.
Minute Clerk—Miss Florence Hartley, Salt Lake.
Docket Clerk—Mrs. Della H. Barrell, Salt Lake.
Engrossing Clerk—Ross Reynolds, Salt Lake.
Chaplain—Elmer I. Goshen, Salt Lake.
Committee Clerks—J. E. Webb of Salt Lake, P. E. Houtz of Utah, Thomas Cunningham of Weber, C. M. Ramey of Weber.
Mailing Clerk—Miss Florence E. Hess, Cache.
Sergeant-at-Arms—W. H. Homer, Cache.
Messenger—Edgar Blascham, Sanpete.
Stenographer—Miss Ora Roylance, Utah.
Doorkeepers—Mr. Johnson of Sanpete, Mr. Vogel of Weber.

The vote on the substitute motion resulted as follows: Ayes—Bradley, Chez, Dern, Evans, Funk, Reynolds; total, 6. Nays—Colton, Cottrell, Craig, Eckersley, Edgheill, Hansen, Rideout, Seegmiller, Thornley, Wight, Wootton, Mr. President; total, 12. The motion was declared lost.

Senator Chez then moved the elimination of the following officers: Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms, two Watchmen, Janitor and Messenger. On being put to a vote the motion was declared lost, on the following vote: Ayes—Senators Bradley, Chez, Dern, Evans, Funk, Reynolds; total, 6. Nays—Colton, Cottrell, Craig, Eckersley, Edgheill, Hansen, Rideout, Seegmiller, Thornley, Wight, Wootton and Mr. President; total, 12.

The vote on the original motion resulted as follows: Ayes—Colton, Cottrell, Craig, Eckersley, Edgheill, Hansen, Rideout, Seegmiller, Thornley, Wight, Wootton, Mr. President; total, 12. Nays—Bradley, Chez, Dern, Evans, Funk, Reynolds; total, 6.

The motion was declared carried.

The oath was then administered to the officers elected by Chief Justice D. N. Straup.

On motion of Senator Colton, the following committee was appointed to notify the House that the Senate was organized and ready for business: Senators Colton, Dern and Hansen.

Senators Rideout, Edgheill and Funk were appointed to act with a like committee from the House to wait upon his excellency the Governor and inform him of the organization of the Senate.

On motion of Senator Wight, Senators Wight, Cottrell and Thornley were appointed as a temporary committee on rules.

On motion of Senator Seegmiller, the holdover members were given their choice of seats in the Senate chamber.

The Senate then took a recess until 2 p. m.

On resuming its session Mr. Wight presented the following report:

SENATE CHAMBER,
Joint City and County Building,
Salt Lake City, Utah, January 11, 1915.

Your temporary committee on rules begs leave to report as follows:

We recommend that until the permanent rules of the Senate are adopted we operate under the rules as adopted by the Senate of the Tenth Legislature on January 15, 1913, as copied into the Journal of that session on pages 66 to 77, inclusive, of which each member has a copy.

Respectfully submitted,
L. B. WIGHT,
Chairman.

The report was adopted.

At 3:45 p. m. the Senate adjourned until January 12, at 2 p. m.

SECOND DAY.

SENATE CHAMBER,
Joint City and County Building,
Salt Lake City, Utah, January 12, 1915.

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order at 2 p. m. President Ferry presiding.

Roll called; all members present.

Prayer by the Chaplain.

Minutes of the first day's session were read, corrected and approved.

On motion a recess was taken until 2:45 p. m.

On resuming its session, on motion of Senator Cottrell, the Senate adjourned until Wednesday at 2 p. m.

THIRD DAY.

SENATE CHAMBER,
Joint City and County Building,
Salt Lake City, Utah, January 13, 1915.

The Senate met at 2 p. m., pursuant to adjournment. President Ferry presiding.

Roll call; all present but Mr. Wight, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain.

Journal of previous day read and approved.

On motion of Mr. Chez the Senate adjourned.

FOURTH DAY.

SENATE CHAMBER,
Joint City and County Building,
Salt Lake City, Utah, January 14, 1915.

The Senate met at 2 p. m., pursuant to adjournment, President Ferry presiding.

Roll call; all present but Mr. Wight, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain.

On motion of Mr. Evans a recess was taken for thirty minutes.

On resuming business the Journal of the previous day was read and approved.

PRESENTATION OF RESOLUTIONS.

Senate Resolution No. 1, by Mr. Rideout:

"Whereas, Title 20, Chapter 1, Compiled Laws of Utah, 1907, known as the Drainage Act, has been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the State; and,

Whereas, The Legislature of 1913 enacted a Drainage Act, page 167 Session Laws of Utah, 1913; and,

Whereas, Inasmuch as there is some doubt as to the constitutionality of said law, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate hereby requests the Attorney General to render an opinion as to the constitutionality of the present Drainage Law.

Under the rules the resolution was laid on the table.

Senate Resolution No. 2, by Mr. Rideout:

Whereas, The Senate of the State of Utah has met and organized and is ready and waiting for the House to perfect an organization in order that the work of the Legislature may proceed; and

Whereas, While the constitution provides that "Each House shall be the judge of the election and qualification of its members," Article 6, Sec. 11 provides that

"A majority of the members of each House shall constitute a quorum to transact business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day," and

Whereas, Any business transacted or organization perfected, as the selection of a President or Speaker, or the naming of a Sergeant-at-Arms, Committee Clerks or the passing upon of the election or qualification of members without a majority vote of all the members elected (not a majority of those present) voting in favor thereof, is absolutely void under the provisions of the constituti on; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate of the State of Utah most respectfully and urgently requests that all members of the House, regardless of party affiliations or factions, unite in hastening a compromise agreement, in the interest of harmony and for the welfare of the great commonwealth which each represents, each having subscribed to the constitutional oath to "Discharge the duties of your office with fidelity." And be it further

Resolved, That the great majority of the people of Utah are not concerned as to who shall be the Speaker of the House or who shall serve as officers or Committee Clerks, but they are concerned in the passage of reform measures pledged in the platforms of the respective parties, preserving the fair name of Utah, and they are concerned in the maintenance of the dignity of the legislative body of this great commonwealth.

Under the rules the resolution was laid on the table.

At 2:35 p. m., on motion of Mr. Eckersley, the Senate adjourned until Friday at 2 p. m.

FIFTH DAY.

SENATE CHAMBER,

JOINT SESSION.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Joint City and County Building,
Salt Lake City, Utah, January 18, 1915.

The Eleventh Session of the Legislature of the State of Utah met in joint session at 2:30 p. m., President Ferry of the Senate presiding.

The Secretary of the Senate called the roll of the Senate; quorum present.

The Chief Clerk of the House called the roll of the House; quorum present.

Prayer by the Chaplain of the Senate.

The Chairman of the joint assembly appointed a committee of two to wait upon his excellency, the Governor, and advise him that the joint assembly is now ready to receive his message.

Senator Thornley and Representative Morris were appointed as such committee.

At 2:35 p. m. the arrival of the Governor was announced and he was introduced to the joint assembly by President Ferry and read his message as follows:

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
STATE OF UTAH.

Salt Lake City, Utah, January 18, 1915.

TO THE ELEVENTH SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE OF UTAH:

A generous providence has blessed Utah with natural features that make the State rich in resource possession and its future bright in promise. An industrious people have exercised in the building of our commonwealth unusual foresight and have held to their ideals with a tenacity of purpose that has brought to the State a harmonious development in social, intellectual and industrial affairs, with the result that Utah has standing and prestige in the nation.

Measured by the commonly accepted standards of civilization, Utah stands in the foreranks of the progressive states. By what name or by what means we may promote the common welfare and insure peace and domestic tranquillity is a concern of far less moment than the consideration that these fundamental objects of our Union should be sacredly safeguarded. Applying to our State and its institutions the crucial test of rigid and impartial investigation; taking measure of our present position from the record of actual results, it will be found that the people of Utah enjoy to the fullest the most coveted gift of enlightened communities—the opportunity for culture and refinement through education; that they pursue their daily affairs under the protection of sane, well administered laws; that they reap liberal reward for their honest toil and that they live in an atmosphere of contentment that is alone the product of peace and happiness.

The instrumentalities by which the people of Utah have attained their present position have been temporarily delegated to your hands, for the Constitution charges you with the duty of making and promulgating the law. Called from the various sections of the State and taken from your diversified vocations for a few brief days, the entire government is in your hands. During the progress of your deliberations you will be called upon to weigh and determine many measures involving slight as well as radical modifications of our statutes. Yours, therefore, is a grave responsibility. Bear in mind that experimental laws are always expensive and too often ineffective and confusing; that our sources of revenue are not such as to permit of trifling with fads and theories in legislation; that fundamentals are your first and paramount concern and that to every measure that comes before you should be applied, first, the test of absolute necessity, and, second, the test of experience of other states in similar circumstances with like legislation; and above all else let a due regard for the welfare of all the people in the State you represent govern your actions.

The Constitution provides that the Governor shall communicate by message the condition of the State to the Legislature and recommend such measures as he may deem expedient. It is in the discharge of that duty that I present this document.

SOURCES OF REVENUE.

Utah embraces an area of 85,000 square miles. While the State and its subdivisions must govern and police this vast area, 22.8 per cent only of our lands are now vested in private or corporate ownership and subject to taxation. This trifle over one-fifth of the State, containing virtually all classes of taxable property, bears the entire burden of the tax revenue, and was assessed in 1913 at $214,187,722, and in 1914 at $221,611,412, against which assessments the State levied for all purposes a tax of 7½ mills in 1913 and 8 mills in 1914. In these levies during both years, the district school fund participated to the extent of 3 mills and the high school fund to the extent of ½ mill, while the University of Utah and the Agricultural College and its branch enjoyed 28 per cent of the balance remaining as permanent maintenance funds.

Including the amount yet to be collected from the 1914 taxes the State will have received as tax revenue for the years 1913-1914, $3,232,014.10. Of this amount the district schools will receive under their apportionment $1,250,352.95; the high schools, $208,392.16, and the two higher educational institutions, $496,515.32, leaving a net balance for general State purposes of $1,276,753.67. Aside from its income through taxation the State relies wholly upon the following sources for its revenue:

Interest on investments of the various institutional land grant funds, the application of which to specific objects is fixed by the terms of the enabling act and Constitution;

Interest on the investment of the proceeds of the sale of school lands, an increment that goes to the school fund and which cannot be diverted;

Inheritance taxes—a fluctuating revenue, that, fortunately, has been exceptionally large during the past four years;

Fees of state officers, approximating $225,000.00 per annum;

Fines and forfeitures, approximating $5,000.00 per annum;

Interest on State funds, an income dependent, of course, on the balances on hand, and estimated by the auditor for the coming two years at $30,000.00;

All other sources, $5,000.00 per annum.

While the report of the Auditor shows a ledger account of general receipts by the State during 1913 and 1914 of approximately five and one-half million dollars and expenditures during the same period of approximately five million dollars, it must not be assumed that in estimating our available funds and fixing our appropriations any such amount as was handled during the past biennial period is available for appropriation. Many of the receipts shown by the Auditor are mere book accounts and at least two million dollars of receipts and a like amount of expenditures during the biennial period are represented by such items as the proceeds of the nine hundred and fifty thousand dollar capital bond issue, three hundred and forty thousand dollars in temporary loans, fifteen thousand dollars in refunds, approximately five hundred thousand dollars in county road funds handled in trust by the State, one hundred and five thousand dollars Agricultural College endowment fund, and approximately seventy-five thousand dollars in the forest reserve fund for roads and schools.

In addition to this you must not lose sight of the fact that his report covers the handling of trust funds under land grants that are not available for appropriation purposes. In other words I desire to impress upon you the fact that it is the total of the items only that go to make up the general fund of the State that constitutes the available cash for appropriation purposes.

To the very excellent and comprehensive report of the State Auditor I commend your first and most serious consideration. It is an indispensable document in your legislative activities and one whose careful study will place you in possession of information that will enable you to intelligently handle the appropriation work of the session.

The State Auditor's estimate of the income to the general fund during 1915-1916 from all sources is $2,186,445.84.

BONDED DEBT.

The total bonded debt of the State is $2,410,000.00, covered by the following bond issues:

July 2, 1896—$200,000.00, 4 per cent, maturing July 2, 1916.

September 1, 1898—$150,000.00, 3½ per cent, maturing September 1, 1918.

July 1, 1900—$300,000.00, 3¼ per cent, maturing July 1, 1920.

July 1, 1911—$260,000.00, 4 per cent, maturing July 1, 1931.

July 1, 1911—$300,000.00, 4 per cent, maturing July 1, 1931.

January 1, 1914—$200,000.00, 5 per cent, maturing January 1, 1934.

January 1, 1914—$250,000.00, 4 per cent, maturing January 1, 1934.

January 1, 1914—$750,000.00, 4 per cent, maturing January 1, 1934.

This bonded indebtedness necessitates the annual setting aside of $93,400.00 for interest and $90,000.00 for the respective redemption funds. There has already been set aside to redeem the outstanding bonded debt $370,000.00 so that our net outstanding debt is $2,040,000.00.

LAND GRANTS AND LAND GRANT FUNDS.

Under the terms of the enabling act there were granted to the State for common school purposes Sections 2, 16, 32 and 36 in each township. When surveys are finally completed the school fund will ultimately enjoy the benefits derived from the handling of approximately 5,500,000 acres either as school sections in place or as indemnity sections for loss of school sections. From sales of school lands now made there is a fund of about $2,400,000.00, practically all of which is invested and which will bring to the schools during the present fiscal year over $119,000.

Other land grants for institutional purposes, including the old University grant, embraced 1,569,836 acres, of which there remains to be selected 26,673.87 acres. From the selected grant lands sold, funds have been created as below and are now invested so as to bring to the respective institutions during the present fiscal year the revenues enumerated:

		Interest.
Agricultural College	$193,451.87	$10,251.25
Deaf and Dumb Asylum	128,359.12	7,000.00
Institution for the Blind	101,699.41	5,116.30
Insane Asylum	130,459.47	7,600.00
Miners' Hospital	130,380.48	5,150.00
Reservoir	196,278.07	9,621.20
Reform School	131,451.81	6,590.00
University	305,220.81	15,211.40

Normal School	113,553.91	6,000.00
School of Mines	122,746.78	6,100.00

The securities of the public buildings fund, the only land grant fund whose principal and interest both were to be expended on the object of the grant, have been converted and the proceeds expended on the State Capitol.

It will be seen, therefore, that from the proceeds of all grants thus far selected and sold a fund approaching the $4,000,000.00 mark has been created and the several institutions benefitted by the grants will enjoy the coming year an interest earning of approximately $200,000.00.

Of the total of all grants to the State (7,069,836 acres) 2,884,127 acres have been sold and are in force in certificates and patents; 1,241,583 acres of selected State lands are unsold and 746,178 acres of selected State lands have not been offered, and the State has yet to select and handle under its total land grants approximately 2,197,-947 acres.

In connection with the investment of land grant funds, I recommend an amendment to the present law permitting investment in State warrants; which will yield a 5 per cent income. Under the amendment authorizing investment of these funds in first mortgage farm loans $1,505,466.53 has been placed and the uniform rate of 6 per cent for farm loans has brought the average interest on all investments to about 5 per cent.

FIXED AND MISCELLANEOUS EXPENDITURES.

In addition to the bond and bond interest expenses heretofore mentioned, the State must meet the cost of general administration and make provision for the maintenance of the following institutions, which during the past biennial period involved the expenditure of $849,-007.14 as follows:

State prison and convict camps	$157,616.76
State Mental Hospital	145,833.04
State Industrial School	165,942.17
National Guard	96,133.17
State Fair	91,623.70
Juvenile Court	51,318.28

One of the heavy items of expenditure is the road work undertaken by the State. For general road work, the Midland Trail, equipment, and the convict camps the Tenth Legislature appropriated $324,400 for the years 1913-1914.

The report of the State Auditor furnishes in detail the estimated requirements for all State purposes to be met from the general fund, which total $3,239,246.03. The income is estimated at $2,186,445.84 and you are therefore confronted with a mathematical problem that has puzzled other legislators before you, and one that must be solved not by increasing the taxes but by curtailing expenditures where such action will work least hardship and least hamper the growth and development of the State. It is an undertaking involving painstaking investigation, study and good judgment. To the extent of my time and abilities I will gladly co-operate with the appropriation committees of the two branches in this feature of the work of the session. And to the end that this subject may have the mature and thoughtful consideration which its importance merits I recommend the immediate organization into a working force of these committees of the senate and house

STATE'S RIGHT TO SCHOOL LANDS.

No matter has given the State administration more serious concern during the past two years than the question of the State's rights to the school sections in place granted to it by the Congress of the United States under the terms of the enabling act. A marked tendency on the part of the national government to deprive the State of all school sections that have a value other than agricultural and grazing, coupled with the national policy of land withdrawal for forest reserves, national parks, national monuments, etc., has grown to those who are charged with the safe-guarding of your interests little short of alarming. State officials, recognizing the ultimate hardship which these policies will work upon the people, have been active in protesting against their continuance; and the power site leasing bill now pending in Congress has been vigorously opposed as tending to deprive the State of a valuable source of revenue in taxation that rightfully belongs to it and stifle development, just as the proposed mineral leasing system would curtail our revenue and cause a stagnation in our mining industry.

Your Attorney General has been actively engaged in laying a foundation for legal protection of the State's undoubted right under the terms of the enabling act to school sections containing hydro-carbon deposits. While I recognize the inability of the legislative assembly to adopt any measures to relieve this situation, still I am constrained to call the matter to your attention as involving the most serious problem that confronts the State, since it strikes at the very foundation of our revenue system, threatens retardation of development and jeopardizes beyond calculation the school fund of the State which is to be derived from the disposal of our school sections. Your investigation of this subject, I am sure, will lead you to memorialize Congress on the matter praying for a continuation of the liberal land policies that have prevailed in the past and bespeaking in the operation of the national policy a strict compliance with the terms of our enabling act.

ASSESSMENT AT CASH VALUE AND LIMITATION OF LEVIES.

The experiences of each passing year add convincing argument for a change in our taxation system. On three previous similar occasions I have pointed out to legislative assemblies the necessity for modifications in our taxing laws to insure greater equality in the administration of our system. The framers of our Constitution clearly intended that the property of the State should be assessed at its full cash value and safeguarded the people by prescribing that as the total valuation increased the general State levy should automatically decrease.

Since statehood there has been absolutely no pretense that property of any class has been assessed at its true value and session by session, in order to meet the growing expense the legislators have extended the limit of levies for various purposes with the result that a general movement for strict compliance with the law requiring cash value assessments would place the taxpayer at the mercy of the various levying authorities with maximum levies far in excess of what they should be under such method of assessment.

During the years 1912-1913, the State Board of Equalization after consulting with the Board of Examiners reduced the State levy ½ mill and the fund for general State purposes suffered the entire loss by reason of the reduction, the district schools and the high schools receiving their maximum levies as theretofore; and while the people of this State by reason of that reduction should have been saved $200.000.00 in taxes they were really saved nothing since other levying powers seized the opportunity to exercise their prerogatives under an elastic levying power and added for other purposes not only the ½ mill reduction made by the State but sufficient to make a general increase. Four years ago by authority of the Legislature a taxation committee was appointed and made a thorough study of our own and other taxation systems submitting a report with recommendations in bill form to the session of 1913. The subject, however, was too broad to permit of that mature consideration during the session which it merited and the bills fell by the wayside. I am thoroughly convinced, however, that the constitutional provision for assessing property at full cash value should be enforced. While it is absolutely true that the State Board of Equalization has the authority to enforce full cash value assessments no reasonable person will criticise them for their failure to do so as long as county, city, town, school district and other levying powers are not curtailed in their maximum levies.

I earnestly recommend a revision of the levying powers downward to the end that valuations will increase and there may be established once and for all a basic standard of assessment that will insure to every individual of the State as near an equality in the burden of taxation as human agencies can afford. This revision should be effected after a careful investigation as to the ability of certain counties not favored with an income from the tax on public utilities to meet their expenses on a materially reduced levy and it may be found necessary to classify counties of the State for purposes of maximum levy.

TERMS OF COUNTY ASSESSORS AND TREASURERS.

As a prime requisite to insuring greater efficiency in the administration of our taxing laws, I again urge an amendment to the law through which the terms of office of County Assessors and County Treasurers will be extended from two to four years, and further suggest that their terms of service expire in the alternate biennial periods so that there will be at all times in each county of the State at least one person familiar with the detail of the taxation system within the same.

In the interest of effecting uniformity in taxing methods and promoting equality in assessments, I urge a centralization of taxing powers and believe that the appointment of assessors by the State Board of Equalization—a nonpartisan board—will work to this end.

STATE ROADS.

Highway improvement under State supervision has been vigorously prosecuted during the past two years, and it is doubtful if any public moneys have ever been expended in Utah that have brought more widespread beneficial results to the taxpayers than the funds devoted to the State road work. Employment of convict labor on the public highways has passed the experimental stage and is established as one of the most satisfactory and economical steps of our recent advanced legislation. The roads of the State are rapidly becoming permanent structures and each year as the funds permit we are reaching after more substantial and enduring road material. There is a growing tendency among the counties to co-operate in road up-keep, a feature whose neglect has in the past made our road construction highly expensive when measured by the life of the road. Much agitation has been had regarding transcontinental highways and two years ago the Legislature was induced to appropriate $50,000.00 for the construction of a trail to accommodate an immense tourist travel that was champing at the bits on the boundary line of the State waiting for an opportunity to dash through and scatter a vast amount of easy money that was literally falling from the bulging pockets of the tourists. A road was rushed through to take care of these tourists and when the major portion of the trail was made passable it was for the accommodation of a few sales agents and demonstrators for certain makes of automobiles. For the expenditure of $35,000.00 of the appropriation we have what is left of a hastily constructed road and some valuable experience along the line of extravagance in providing trails for tourist travel.

Demands will doubtless be made upon you for special appropriations for links in transcontinental highways, but first of all let us provide roads for the people of Utah. A system of highways that will take care of the demands of the people of our own state, will not only provide a roadway through the State from east to west and one from north to south but will furnish a choice of routes for the tourist who desires to pass through our State. Representations to the contrary notwithstanding, transcontinental automobile travel must come through Utah. Our State is on the natural line of travel, and we want all of it that we can secure, but it should be provided with good highway accommodations only as our own citizens are directly benefited by expenditures for such roadways.

STATE INSTITUTIONS.

The institutions maintained by the State are all in excellent condition. Opportunity will be afforded you during the session for personal examination of the physical condition of these institutions and you will be provided with complete reports covering all facts with relation to their operation during the past two years, and itemization of their respective requirements for the ensuing biennium. Economy and efficiency have characterized the management of the four State maintained institutions and I am but expressing a growing sentiment when I say that our State Prison, our State Mental Hospital, our State School for the Deaf and the Blind and our State Industrial School rank high with other institutions of similar character in the United States and are models in many respects.

The criminal element, the unfortunate and the defective are charges upon the State whose care and support we are compelled to meet and all that can be asked of those in charge of these several institutions is that with a due regard for efficiency in the institutions, they conduct them with economy. That these two fundamental requirements have been met you will readily find upon investigation.

CAPITOL BUILDING.

Most important among the State's accomplishments during the past two years is the progress on the State Capitol building. By many odds the greatest single piece of construction work ever undertaken by the people of Utah this magnificient structure has been pushed during the past two years to a point which makes it practically ready for occupancy, establishing a construction record for buildings of its kind. It has been a cherished hope of the Capitol Commission and the State administration that the Eleventh Legislature will convene in the new Capitol. While the house and senate chambers and the necessary committee rooms are in condition for occupancy and the furniture is ready for installation, difficulties and differences between the building crafts over a trifling matter prevented the hanging of the metal doors through the various suites. We are yet hopeful that before your session is over the Legislature may be transferred to the building where the ample accommodations for committee work will enable you to transact the business of the session in comfort and with expedition, a thing which you will find very difficult of accomplishment in your present cramped quarters and lack of proper committee rooms.

The capitol building speaks for itself and the detailed report of the Capitol Commission which is at your disposal furnishes complete information as to expenditures and future plans. When completed the building will house all State departments and will afford ample accommodations for the transaction of the State's business for many years to come. That it is the design of a Utah artist, the work largely of Utah artisans and the product of Utah material to the very limit of the availability of all three, is a fact that I am exceedingly glad to report to you. Practically all expenditures in the construction of the building have been made through Utah channels and its erection has provided labor for Utah people and profit for Utah concerns, while its construction has been largely instrumental in establishing important industries in the State.

The acts authorizing the construction of the State Capitol were passed in 1909 and were covered in four bills, one providing for the appointment of the commission, and the use of the Public Buildings Land fund; another providing for the refunding of a territorial bond issue of $250,000.00 maturing in 1912; the third provided for a bond issue of $200,000.00 for Capitol construction and the fourth provided for the submission to the people of a proposition to levy a tax of 1 mill on each dollar of assessed valuation to meet the expense. This latter proposal failed when submitted to the voters but in 1911 the receipt by the State of a large inheritance tax caused the Legislature to appropriate for the construction of the building $750,000.00, and in addition a bond issue of $1,000,000 was authorized and preliminary steps immediately taken for the selection of a design and an architect. This being accomplished a contract was let and building operations undertaken. While work was progressing the territorial bond issue of $250,000.00 fell due and there being no immediate necessity for funds in building construction the State Board of Loan Commissioners retired this bond issue, saving to the State a considerable sum in interest on such bonds had they been refunded under authority of the statute. The commission has expended the cash appropriation of $750,000, the proceeds of the public buildings fund securities, amounting to $77,842.75 and is now expending the last of the funds derived from the $1,200,000 bond issues authorized by the Legislature.

From the report of the commission you will find that the total cost of the completed building will be $2,377,970.68. The commission has received $2,027,970.68, of which amount there has been used for the purchase of additional grounds $127,567.10, as authorized by the Legislature, leaving a net available fund of $1,900,403.78 for building purposes.

To complete the building there will be required	$477,566.90
For furniture, steel office and vault equipment	98,218.28
For purchase of additional grounds	75,000.00
For terrace, if original plan is carried out	100,000.00
For grading	100,000.00
Total	$850,785.18

From this estimate you will observe that building, furniture, steel office and vaults equipment, grading, purchase of over $200,000 of additional ground and a $100,000 terrace can be provided for a total cost to the State of $2,750,000. In other words your commission which was authorized to construct a $2,500,000 building will not only complete the structure within the figure, but can add proposed terrace, costing $100,000.00 and still be $22,000.00 within the building cost as fixed by the Legislature.

During the recent campaign I publicly advocated as a means of affording temporary employment to heads of families and others who by reason of the stringent times and general construction curtailment were out of work, the grading of the capitol grounds, and at this time I invite your attention to the fact that Salt Lake City, along with other centers of population in the United States, has an exceptional number of men who are absolutely unable to find employment. While under ordinary circumstances it would be regarded as extravagance to undertake this work by hand, I believe that an immediate appropriation by the legislature to the capitol commission for grading purposes will be the means of saving many from actual want.

REPORTS.

Under the law some fifty-five State officers, State institutions, State departments, bureaus, commissions and boards are required to file with the Governor their biennial reports. Most of these reports are in print and those not yet printed are available for your use in typewritten form. The machinery of State government covers a wide range of supervision and in the various departments a vast amount of work is handled. With the remarkable growth in the volume of business transacted by the State and its wide distribution under separate departments, it is unwise in a document of this nature to undertake specific reference to the accomplishments of each, as it would prove burdensome to attempt an enumeration of the requirements of the many departments. These reports are indispensable to a broad and comprehensive insight into State affairs, and I commend them to your perusal and to your most careful study as providing what I regard as a complete index to the really important matters that should engage your attention. You will find that heads of departments have been free to express their views, not only with relation to needed changes to promote efficiency in their immediate departments, but have in many instances incorporated their observations and suggestions on matters of general State interest, all of which will prove of great value to you in handling legislation. It is my desire that various reporting officials and boards personally present to you during the session their recommendations and suggestions.

For information regarding the revenues and expenditures of the State I commend to your attention the reports of the State Auditor, the State Treasurer and the State Board of Equalization. In the report of the Secretary of State you will find details regarding the executive department with certain recommendations which if adopted will work for more expeditious transaction of the State's business. What your legal department has accomplished during the past two years is fully set forth in the report of your Attorney General. His recommendations regarding the inheritance tax law, the annual corporation license tax, the juvenile court law, the law governing the State Board of Sheep Commissioners, the act providing for collection of interest on public moneys, the Constitutional provision for taxation of mines and mining properties, and the school laws of the State are important. I join him in urging the appointment of a commission to thoroughly investigate the laws governing the creation, control and maintenance of our public schools and report to the next Legislative session. Utah has been gradually working toward the consolidated school district plan and like the Attorney General, the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and all others who are familiar with the operation of the laws governing the common school system I am in hearty accord with the consolidation plan. The beneficial results following consolidation in the counties of the State where it has been effected are so manifest that I do not hesitate to recommend an amendment to the law requiring consolidation and removing the barrier against it in counties with a small school population. When you take into consideration the fact that the creation of numerous school boards over numerous school districts involved a salary expenditure of $10,000.00 in excess of what the City and County School Superintendents received last year, you will recognize that we are paying either too much to board members or far too little to school experts.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

Provision should be made for submission of amendments to Section 17 of Article 7 of the Constitution so as to bring the funds of the State safely within the provisions of a law governing their deposit at interest; and to Section 4 of Article 13 of the Constitution, relating to taxation of mines and mining property. This provision as it now operates in requiring assessment of coal lands at the price paid the government therefor is absolutely unjust because the government price of coal lands has steadily increased since the adoption of the Constitution and lands purchased now, which are worth no more than lands acquired twenty years ago, are paying taxes on assessments many fold higher than the land of like value acquired at an earlier date, and at a very much lower price.

EDUCATIONAL.

Educational matters are fully covered in the report of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, submitted by Hon. A. C. Matheson whom I appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late highly esteemed Superintendent A. C. Nelson. Taking up the great work of his able predecessor Mr. Matheson has maintained the high standard of supervision established in Utah, and his detail recommendations, based on years of experience in the department of public instruction and intimate acquaintance with the needs of the State in matters educational, are worthy your very serious consideration.

The report is a most remarkable showing of interest in educational affairs in the State. Read in connection with the reports of the accounting officers of the State the report is a striking evidence of a most advanced and liberal public attitude towards the school system.

In connection with your consideration of laws relating to the handling of our schools, I recommend that provision be made whereby a proportion of the expense to which the general fund of the State is annually put in the collection of taxes be charged against the district school, the high school and the higher educational institution funds. The cost of levy and collection of all State taxes by county officials is now met by direct appropriation from the general fund—a fund already inadequate to the growing demands of the State—and it is only fair and just that the burden of the expense of State tax levy and collection be pro rated among the various beneficiary funds.

I again invite attention to the fact that under our system of school fund apportionment, certain school districts of the State cannot or will not expend during the school year for which funds are available their entire allotments, and in other sections the general fund, contrary to law, is being drawn upon to enable certain less favored districts to maintain schools during the school term. According to the report of the Superintendent, at the beginning of the school year 1913-1914 there was on hand in various school districts unexpended balances totaling $536.294.81. This unusual balance, when the people of the State are straining every resource to meet the enormous demands for educational purposes argues for a readjustment in apportionment or a reduction in the school tax.

HIGHER EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

The work of the higher educational institutions is fully covered in the reports of the University and the Agricultural College. Both institutions report two years of satisfactory educational endeavor. You will find in the estimated requirements of both institutions requests for additional maintenance appropriations. Four years ago when these institutions at the request of their respective boards were given a fixed percentage of the total tax income to the general fund it was upon the representations of officials thereof that while each might during the first two years operation of the law suffer a decrease in maintenance revenue, still the establishment of a definite income would enable them to plan and keep within their revenues. Notwithstanding the general fund income was reduced by one-half mill in 1912—both institutions enjoyed an increase in maintenance income over the fund provided for the previous biennial period, provided by direct appropriations of the Legislature; but both University and College asked and secured liberal appropriations to make up deficits incurred contrary to law.

In 1913, while the tax levy was the same as in 1912, a very substantial increase in assessed valuation brought a corresponding increase in maintenance funds; and in 1914, notwithstanding one-half mill was added to the levy and there was a seven and one-half million dollar increase in assessed valuation resulting in a corresponding increase in maintenance revenue, both institutions are asking additional maintenance appropriations. The very purposes of the law, to provide a fixed revenue and to limit expenditures, are thwarted and if the institutions are to come in each year and in the face of substantial increases ask and secure direct general fund appropriations to meet deficits incurred contrary to the law, then the law giving them a fixed percentage of State income should be repealed so that the general fund from which all general expenses of the State are met, may be as dependable a fund as it was prior to the enactment of the law to which

I refer. I am opposed, therefore, to the appropriation of additional funds to the University and the Agricultural College, account of additional maintenance, as above explained.

You will find that our higher institutions of learning have reached a very high degree of efficiency, and that through their extension departments they are keeping abreast the most advanced methods of the day in taking the schools into the homes of the people.

MONTHLY DEPOSIT OF FEES AND EARNINGS.

On previous occasions I have urged a law requiring all State officers, State boards and State institutions collecting fees or earnings from any source whatsoever to cover the same into the treasury at the end of each month and a further provision that all such fees and earnings (except those accruing to the fish and game fund) should go to the credit of the general fund, subject only to expenditure after appropriation by the Legislature. It is poor business management to permit the accumulation of earnings over a period of ninety days to be withheld from deposit with the State Treasurer when frequently the turning in of such fees would enable the State Board of Examiners to meet current expenses without borrowing money. Aside from that, the proposed system of turning fees into the general fund in all instances will simplify our methods of accounting and stop the practice of applying them to various objects without express direction of the Legislature. There are at present some boards which under the law are permitted to collect examination fees and expend them without even the approval of the State Board of Examiners. This practice should be stopped.

BREAKING OF HATCHTOWN DAM.

Reference has heretofore been made to the public lands, which are under the control of the State Board of Land Commissioners. The detailed report of the operation of this department will be placed before you. In it, you will find reference to the breaking of the Hatchtown dam, a State reservoir project in the southern part of the State. For details regarding the loss I refer you to the report of the State Engineer. Following this disaster the land board conducted a thorough examination into the property loss occasioned by the break and claims covering damage have been passed upon and will be presented for your consideration and action.

BUILDING APPROPRIATIONS.

Two years ago the Legislature passed to the Governor an appropriation bill covering items which aggregated an amount several hundred thousand dollars in excess of the estimated revenue. The bill carried a provision that all appropriations for new buildings, improvement of old buildings and equipment, purchase of land and water, construction of sewerage systems, building of roads and bridges, etc., might be withheld by the Governor pending such time as the condition of the Treasury would warrant expenditures for such purposes. Owing to the condition of the Treasury, I have been compelled to withhold appropriations for practically all buildings authorized at the last session. In view of the requirements for the completion of the capitol, I do not see how it will be possible to provide for additional buildings at any of the institutions during the coming two years, except that the appropriations provided for buildings two years ago should be renewed and construction to that extent undertaken.

From the construction of our State Capitol building —itself the big building undertaking in the entire life of a State—down through the various institutions and into the school districts, Utah has, during the past six years drawn heavily on its income for building purposes and I earnestly recommend that before venturing further building operations, due consideration be taken of the needs of the State in this particular, that thought be had of the liberal provision which has already been made, and that careful consideration be given to the condition of the Treasury. There can be no question that curtailment in building operations is an imperative necessity if we would maintain a fund sufficient to meet our legitimate expenses of the State.

It is absolutely wrong and an unfair shifting of responsibility for the Legislature to pass to the Governor, as it has in the past, appropriation bills that not only exhaust every cent of expected income but are hundreds of thousands of dollars in excess of our estimated revenue, and the present executive, after the experience of the past two years, has no desire to shoulder again the responsibility of determining when and when not the condition of the treasury is such as to permit of the release of legislative appropriations.

As a part of this message I ask you to consider the very excellent and comprehensive reports submitted by various State officials, State institutions, department heads and boards. Without particularization I commend them to you feeling assured that their examination will disclose a condition in the management of State affairs that will prove entirely satisfactory to you.

EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY AND WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION ACT.

Many of the states of the union have adopted employers' liability and workmen's compensation acts. The experience of the states which have adopted such measures entirely justifies my strong recommendation that legislation covering this important matter be written into our statutes. The beneficial results of such acts wherever adopted have been most pronounced and in the interests of both employer and employee, I urge that such measures as will be fair to all be enacted so to place Utah in line with other states of the Union in this advanced legislation.

CONCLUSION.

In the work of the session, permit me to assure you of my friendliest co-operation in promoting every measure that will up-build Utah. The welfare of a very precious heritage of land and resource possession has been placed in your keeping; the peace and prosperity and the well being of a contented people are in your hands, while, above all you have the power to build up or tear down a state wide respect for our institutions of government, that have been established through the impartial enforcement of sane legislation. Justice has found expression through our courts, culture has been advanced through our schools, kindness and tenderness have been exhibited in our provision for the unfortunates; charity has been manifest; broad, genial, kindly views have testified of our liberality; and our State has grown in power and prestige because the helping hand has been extended to the weaker by the stronger sections of the State. Keep these things in mind and be not carried from the path of your real duty in the pursuit of theories in legislation. Remember that a measure may be perfect in theory but useless in fact.

William Spry

Senator Eckersley moved that a vote of thanks be extended Governor Spry for his excellent message, that the same be spread upon the records of the joint session and that one thousand copies thereof be printed in pamphlet form for distribution. Carried.

At 3:45 p. m. the joint session dissolved.

The Senate reconvened at 4 p. m.

S. C. R. No. 1, by Mr. Chez, was read first time. Under the rules it was laid on the table.

Mr. Evans asked leave to waive Rule 41 and submit a bill with but three copies. Granted.

Similar permission was granted Mr. Chez.

COMMUNICATION.

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE, UNIVERSITY OF UTAH,
Salt Lake City, Utah, January 13, 1915.

To the President and Senate of the State of Utah:

Gentlemen: In behalf of the Regents, I take great pleasure in extending to you an invitation to visit and inspect the University and to examine the estimates and needs of the institution as presented to the Governor and to the Legislature. In order that you may carefully and satisfactorily examine the estimates and needs as presented by the Regents, it is suggested that you come in two separate groups; that half of your honorable body come one forenoon and the other half another forenoon; that the President and Senators Rideout, Funk, Colton, Seegmiller, Eckersley, Bradley, Edgheill and Wootton come Thursday morning, January 14th, or on some other date at their earliest convenience and that Senators Thornley, Cottrell, Dern, Hansen, Chez, Wight, Craig, Reynolds and Evans come Friday morning, January 15th, or on some other date at their earliest convenience.

I shall be pleased to meet the Senators at the County Building with two autos promptly at 10 a. m., and take them to the University.

Very respectfully,
J. T. KINGSBURY,
President.

Communication filed and invitation accepted.

On motion, the Senate adjourned until 2 p. m. tomorrow.

NINTH DAY.

SENATE CHAMBER,
Joint City and County Building,
Salt Lake City, Utah, January 19, 1915.

The Senate met at 2 p. m., pursuant to adjournment, President Ferry presiding.

Roll call; quorum present.

Prayer by the Chaplain.

Minutes of the eighth day's session were referred to committee appointed on previous day.

President Ferry called the attention of the Senators to the communication from President Kingsbury of the University of Utah.

Mr. Eckersley moved that the invitation to visit the University be carried out as per arrangement. Carried.

PRESENTATION OF PETITIONS.

S. P. No. 1, by Mr. Reynolds: "Petition of Andrew Leslie et al., relating to the pay of Indian War Veterans," was read first time and referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

PRESENTATION OF RESOLUTIONS.

S. R. No. 3, by Mr. Reynolds: Expressing the thanks of the Senate to "The Ogden Examiner" for its generosity in furnishing free copies of its paper to members.

Under the rules the resolution was laid on the table.

S. R. No. 4, by Mr. Hansen:

WHEREAS, Experience has shown that during the session of the Legislature many bills are introduced by request; and

WHEREAS, In most cases members introducing such bills do so purely out of courtesy to their constituents and without any degree of familiarity with the contents of said bills; and

WHEREAS, The printing of such bills is a great expense to the State and their consideration by those unfamiliar with their contents a needless waste of valuable time, often necessitating an extension far beyond the sixty-day limit, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That during this session, in the interest of economy and business expediency, the members of the State Senate introduce no bills by request unless they have first familiarized themselves with the contents thereof and are in hearty sympathy with their provisions.

Under the rules the resolution was laid on the table.

SENATE COMMITTEE ROOM,
Salt Lake City, Utah, January 28, 1915.

Mr. President:

Your Committee on Rules, to whom the same were recommitted for further action, begs leave to make the following report:

We recommend that the Rules of the Senate of the Tenth Legislature of the State of Utah be adopted and made the rules of this body, with the following amendments, to-wit:

1. That Section 41 of said rules be amended to read as follows:

41. Seven typewritten copies of every bill, resolution or memorial shall be furnished to the Secretary by the member introducing the same. Preceding the title of the bill, resolution or memorial shall be the number and the name of the Senator whose bill, resolution or memorial it is, without other words or letters of identification or explanation. In all cases where an existing law is sought to be amended by any bill all new matter shall be underscored so as to be easily distinguishable from the old matter to remain in the statute.

2. That Section 46 be amended to read as follows:

46. Two hundred and fifty copies of every bill, joint resolution or memorial shall be printed when ordered by the committee to whom referred and all bills shall be printed before being read the second time. Provided, that such committee may, if it deems necessary, order additional copies of such bill, not exceeding one hundred and fifty in number.

Respectfully submitted,
L. B. WIGHT,
Chairman.

Mr. Funk moved to amend the committee's report by increasing the number of printed copies to three hundred. Carried.

The report as amended was then adopted.

RULES OF THE SENATE

ELEVENTH SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF UTAH.

1. A majority of the Senate shall constitute a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, or for less time than one day, and may compel the attendance of absent members.

2. The Senate shall keep a Journal of its proceedings, which shall be published at the close of the session. At the request of three members the ayes and nays shall be taken on any question and entered on the Journal.

3. The Senate may punish its members for disorderly behavior, and with the concurrence of two-thirds of all the members elected expel a member for cause; and the reason for such expulsion shall be entered upon the Journal, with the aye and nay vote of the members.

4. The Senate, during its session, may punish by imprisonment any person, not a member, who shall be guilty of disrespect to the same, by any disorderly or contemptuous behavior in its presence; but such imprisonment shall not at any time exceed twenty-four hours, unless the person shall persist in such disorderly or contemptuous behavior.

5. The sessions of the Senate, except those while it is sitting in executive session, shall be public; and it shall not without the consent of the House of Representatives adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which it may be holding session.

6. The enacting clause of every law shall be: "Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Utah," and no bill or joint resolution shall be passed, except with the consent of a majority of all the Senators elected. On the final passage of all bills the vote shall be by ayes and nays, upon each bill separately, and shall be entered upon the Journal; and no law shall be revised or amended by reference to its title only; but the act as revised, or section as amended, shall be re-enacted and published at length.

7. Except general appropriation bills, and bills for the codification and general revision of laws, no bill shall be passed containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title.

8. The President, in the presence of the Senate, shall sign all bills and joint resolutions passed by the Legislature, after their titles have been publicly read immediately before signing, and the fact of such signing shall be entered upon the Journal.

9. Every bill shall be read three times, but the first and second reading may be on the same day. On the final passage of a bill the President shall immediately put the question, "Shall the title of the bill be the title of the act?"

10. The President, or, in his absence, the President pro tempore, or, in the absence of both, any Senator called to the chair by the Senate, shall take the chair every day precisely at the hour to which the Senate shall have adjourned; shall immediately call the members to order, and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall cause the Journal of the preceding day to be read.

11. The presiding officer shall preserve decorum and order, and may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose, and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Senate by any member; on which appeal no member shall speak more than once, unless by leave of the Senate.

12. The presiding officer shall rise to put a question, but may state it sitting.

13. Questions shall be put in the following form, viz: "As many as are in favor of (as the case may be) say aye," and after the affirmative vote is expressed, "as many as are opposed say no." If the President doubt the result of a vote, or a division be called for, the Senate shall divide; those in the affirmative shall first rise from their seats, and afterwards those in the negative.

14. The President shall have the general direction of the Senate Chamber; shall have the right to name any member to perform the duties of the chair, and such substitute shall be vested with all the powers of the President during the time he shall act as such.

15. In case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct in the lobby or gallery, the President shall have the power to order the same to be cleared.

16. The President shall assign to the officers and employees of the Senate their respective duties, stations, and shall have general supervision over them.

16a. The Sergeant-at-Arms shall have supervision over the Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms, doorkeepers, messenger, watchman and janitor, and he shall preserve order in the lobby, guard the floor from intruders; and he shall report each day to the President the absence or late arrival of any employee of the Senate.

16b. The Secretary shall have supervision over all employees not under the supervision of the Sergeant-at-Arms, except the engrossing clerk or clerks. There shall be a record kept of the attendance of all employees, by an employee or employees designated by the President. Any employee absenting himself or herself without the consent of the President shall not be paid for the day or days of such absence; and there shall be a record kept of all leave of absence granted.

17. When any member is about to speak or deliver any matter to the Senate, he shall rise from his seat and address himself to "Mr. President," and shall confine himself to the question under debate and avoid personalities.

18. When any member, speaking (or otherwise), transgresses the rules of the Senate, the President shall, or any member may call him to order, in which case the member so called to order shall sit down, unless permitted to explain; and the Senate, if appealed to, shall decide on the case without debate. If the decision be in favor of the member called to order, he shall be at liberty to proceed; if otherwise, and the case requires it, he shall be liable to the censure of the Senate.

19. If two or more members rise at once, the President shall name the member who is first to speak.

19a. If any member be called to order for words spoken in debate, the person calling him to order shall repeat the words excepted to, and they shall be taken down by the Secretary; but no member shall be held to answer or be subject to the censure of the Senate for words spoken in debate, if any member has spoken in debate, or other business has intervened after the words spoken and before exception to them shall have been taken.

20. No member shall speak more than twice to the same question, nor more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken, without the consent of the Senate.

21. While the President is putting a question, or addressing the Senate, no member shall walk out of or across the room; nor in such case, or when a member is speaking shall pass between him and the chair.

22. Every member who shall be in the Senate when a question is put shall give his vote, unless the Senate shall excuse him.

23. No member shall be permitted to vote on any question, unless within the bar before the vote is announced.

24. When a motion is made and seconded it shall be stated by the President, or, being in writing, shall be handed to the Secretary, and read aloud before debate.

25. Every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the President or any member desires it.

26. When the ayes and nays shall be taken on any question, no member shall be permitted to vote or to change his vote after the decision is announced from the chair, unless by the two-thirds vote of Senators present and voting.

27. After a motion is stated by the President, or read by the Secretary, it shall be deemed in the possession of the Senate, but may be withdrawn at any time by the unanimous consent of the Senate, before decision.

28. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, but:

To fix the time to which to adjourn.
To adjourn.
To call the Senate.
To lay on the table.
To postpone indefinitely.
To postpone to a day certain.
To commit or to amend.

Which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they stand arranged.

29. A motion for adjournment shall always be in order, except when the roll is being called, and be decided, as well as the motion to lay on the table, without debate.

30. No motion to postpone to a day certain or indefinitely, or to commit, being decided in the negative, shall again be allowed on the same day.

31. A motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and if carried shall be deemed equivalent to the rejection of the bill.

32. When a blank is to be filled and different sums or times are proposed, the question shall first be put on the largest sum and the longest time.

33. No person shall be permitted to smoke in the Senate Chamber, or give any sign of approbation or disapprobation while the Senate is in session.

OFFICERS' DUTIES.

34. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a Journal, in which he shall seasonably record the motions, resolutions, rules and decisions of the Senate, and to do and perform all such other acts pertaining to his office as may be required of him by the Senate or its presiding officer.

35. It shall be the duty of the Sergeant-atArms to attend the Senate during its sittings, to execute the commands of the Senate from time to time, together with all such process, issued by order of the Senate, or any committee thereof, which shall be signed by the President.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

36. The following standing committees shall be appointed by the President:

Agriculture and Irrigation, seven members.
Appropriations and Claims, seven members.
Banks and Banking, seven members.
Contingent Expense and Printing, three members.
County and Municipal Corporations, seven members.
Education, seven members.
Engrossing and Enrolling Bills, three members.
Fish, Game and Forestry, seven members.
Highways and Public Lands, seven members.
Judiciary, seven members.
Live Stock, five members.
Manufacturers and Commerce, seven members.
Mines and Mining, five members.
Private Corporations and Insurance, five members.
Public Health and Labor, seven members.
Public Institutions, seven members.
Railroads, seven members.
Rules, three members.
State Affairs and Federal Relations, seven members.

37. The following named committee shall have leave to report any time on the matters stated, viz.: Business: Committee on Engrossed and Enrolled Bills.

38. It shall always be in order to call up for consideration the report of the Committee on Rules.

39. No committee except the Committee on Rules shall sit during the sitting of the Senate, without special leave.

PRACTICE.

40. All resolutions presented to the Senate shall lie one day on the table.

41. Seven typewritten copies of every bill, resolution or memorial shall be furnished to the Secretary by the member introducing the same. Preceding the title of the bill, resolution or memorial shall be the number and the name of the Senator whose bill, resolution or memorial it is, without other words or letters of identification or explanation. In all cases where an existing law is sought to be amended by any bill all new matter shall be underscored so as to be easily distinguishable from the old matter to remain in the statute.

42. If the question in debate contains several points, any member may have the same divided; but, on motion to strike out and insert, it shall not be in order to move for a division of the question; but the rejection of a motion to strike out and insert one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert a different proposition.

43. When a question has been once made and carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall be in order for a member of the majority to move for a reconsideration thereof; or give notice that he will make such motion within the time prescribed by the rules, for which time he shall control the motion. No motion for reconsideration shall be in order, unless made within the next day of actual session of the Senate; provided, that should the member giving notice of a motion to reconsider not make such a motion within the time prescribed by the rules, any other member voting with the majority may make such motion within the next succeeding legislative day. Such motion shall take precedence of all other questions except a motion to adjourn.

44. A bill may be referred to a committee without reading, but shall be read before being amended, and may be amended in every particular on second reading. A bill read once and referred shall be read a second time before being amended.

45. Amendments shall be in order at the third reading of a bill, resolution or motion requiring three readings, and it shall be at all times in order, before the final passage of such bill, resolution or motion, to move its commitment or recommitment.

46. Three hundred copies of every bill, joint resolution or memorial shall be printed when ordered by the committee to whom referred and all bills shall be printed before being read the second time. Provided, that such committee may, if it deems necessary, order additional copies of such bill, not exceeding one hundred and fifty in number.

47. When motions are made for reference of the same subject to a select committee, and to a standing committee, the question of reference to a standing committee shall be put first.

48. Any five Senators may make a call of the Senate and require absent Senators to be sent for, but a call of the Senate cannot be made after the voting has commenced; and a call of the Senate being ordered, the doors shall be closed and the absentees noted, and no Senator permitted to leave the room without the consent of the President, until the report of the Sergeant-at-Arms be received and acted upon, or further proceedings in the call be suspended, or the Senate adjourn. Previous to the reception of such report further proceedings in the call shall not be suspended, except by the vote of two-thirds of the Senators present.

49. No amendment, by way of rider, shall be received to any bill on its third reading.

50. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Roberts' Rules of Order shall govern the Senate in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not consistent with the standing rules and orders of the Senate.

51. A motion to commit, until it is decided, shall preclude all amendments and debate on the main question, and a motion to postpone indefinitely or to a day certain until it is decided shall preclude all amendments on the main question.

52. Upon a motion to reconsider the vote on the final passage of anv bill, a majority of all the members elected shall be required to reconsider the same.

53. If a bill shall fail to pass on account of not having received the constitutional majority any Senator having voted in the negative shall have a right to move a reconsideration.

54. No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

55. No rule of the Senate shall be altered, suspended or reconsidered without the vote of two-thirds of the members present.

56. No person, except members of the House of Representatives and their officers, members and ex-members of Congress, heads of Executive Departments of this State, Chaplains, Judges of the United States Courts and Supreme and District Judges of this State, former Governors and ex-members of the Legislature, members of the Constitutional Convention and the Mayor and City Commissioners of Salt Lake City and general field and staff officers of the National Guard of Utah, and officers of the United States Army, and reporters of the press, shall be admitted to the floor of the Senate unless by leave of the President, or on special invitation of a member.

57. The daily Order of Business shall be as follows:

1. Roll Call.
2. Prayer by the Chaplain.

3. Reading of the Journal.
4. Presentation of Petitions.
5. Reports of Standing Committees.
6. Reports of Select Committees.
7. Presentation of Resolutions.
8. Introduction of Bills.

After the daily order of business shall have passed the following general order of business shall be observed:

1. Reading bills of the Senate the third time.
2. Reading bills of the Senate the second time.
3. Reading bills of the Senate the first time.
4. Reading bills from the House of Representatives the third time.
5. Reading bills from the House of Representatives the second time.
6. Reading bills from the House of Representatives the first time.
7. Consideration of resolutions.
8. Miscellaneous business.

The item of unfinished business in which the Senate was engaged at the last preceding adjournment shall have preference in the general order of business, and when the Senate shall have passed from one order to another no action shall be had upon the orders passed except by leave of the Senate, and to give this leave two-thirds of the Senators present must concur.

Messages from the House of Representatives may be received at any time except when the President is putting the question, or the ayes and nays are being called, and upon motion may be considered at any time.

58. The previous question shall not be entertained or be a rule of practice in the Senate.

EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS AND NOMINATIONS.

59. Messages from the Governor and communications from State officers may be received at any time, except when the President is putting the question and the ayes and nays are being called, and upon motion may be considered at any time. The consideration of nominations or other executive business shall take place with closed doors.

60. Nominations may be referred to a standing or select committee. On considering nominations the President shall put the following question: "Does the Senate advise and consent to the nomination just made?" While any nomination remains with the Senate, it shall be in order to reconsider any vote taken thereon.

61. Action on all appointees made by the Governor for confirmation by the Senate shall be deferred one day from the time any designated appointment or appointments are received by the Senate.

HOURS OF MEETING.

62. Until otherwise ordered, the regular hour of meetings of the Senate shall be at 2 o'clock p. m. daily, Sundays excepted.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE.

SENATE COMMITTEE ROOM,
Salt Lake City, Utah, February 10, 1915.

Mr. President:

Your Committee on Engrossing and Enrolling Bills, to whom was referred S. J. R. No. 9, by Mr. Rideout, relating to the removal of the Legislature to the State Capitol, beg leave to report that they have had the same carefully engrossed and enrolled and submit the same herewith for your signature.

Yours respectfully,
ORLANDO BRADLEY,
Chairman.

Report filed and S. J. R. No. 9 was read by title, signed by the President, in open, session, in the presence of the Senate, and transmitted to the House for the signature of the Speaker.

At 3:45 p. m., on motion of Mr. Cottrell, the Senate adjourned to meet in the state capitol on Thursday at 2 p. m.

THIRTY-SECOND DAY.

SENATE CHAMBER,
Capitol Building,
Salt Lake City, Utah, February 11, 1915.

The Senate met at 2 p. m., pursuant to adjournment, President Ferry presiding.

Roll call; quorum present.

Prayer by the Chaplain.

Minutes of the thirty-first day's session were referred to committee previously appointed, and corrected and approved.

Mr. Cottrell moved that the Senate take a recess until after the reception to General Palmer, Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R., and meet in joint assembly in the House Chamber. Carried.

At 2:15 p. m. the Senate took a recess to meet in joint session.

JOINT SESSION.

The Legislature met in joint session in the House Chamber at 2:30 p. m., President Ferry of the State Senate presiding.

Upon being introduced to the joint assembly in the Legislative Hall by President W. Mont Ferry of the State Senate, Commander David J. Palmer spoke as follows:

GENERAL DAVID J. PALMER.

My Fellow Countrymen: I take pleasure at this the first opportunity to extend to you greetings from the great agricultural State of Iowa. I am sure I am delighted with what I have seen in this city since my arrival yesterday. A President of the United States could not have been treated any better than you have treated me. I am glad to look into your face as the law makers of Utah, and I can assure you that from your looks, you will endeavor to make the right kind of laws,—laws that will tend to the upbuilding of our younger people, our younger countrymen, and which will give to them an idea of what patriotism means, what loyalty means, what loyalty to home, city, state and nation means. I can assure you this is the object of the Grand Army of the Republic,—to instill into everybody that we can genuine loyalty to their country and to their home. War should not be necessary to build up patriotism, for it is sacred and stands next to the writings of the Living God. It can not be ignored and ought not to be forgotten.

You are just as much interested in this country as members of the Grand Army can be, and from the ages I see here, you expect to live much longer than we will or longer than we will want to live, and we know you will be interested in the advancement of every good cause within the nation.

Inasmuch as we are neutral, we would not dare to say anything about the war that is going on across the country. We are like a group of fellows who were together discussing war, and each fellow expressed his opinion excepting the Irishman, who had not said a word. "What do you think?" was asked the Irishman, and he said, "I am neutral; I don't care who whips the Dutch." (Laughter.) We don't dare say that much; but I am living in hopes that this country,—the great United States of America,—shall, by and by, be the means of bringing about absolute peace throughout the world. (Applause.) I know this is the feeling of every loyal man in this country. My old comrades have had enough of such wars. They don't want any more. Still they are filled with enthusiasm for our country. I was at a meeting down in Franklin, Tennessee, at the reunion of the blue and the gray on the battle field just fifty years ago last November,—November 30, 1864,—where a very severe battle was fought in that little town.

At that meeting there were about 400 to 500 ex-Confederates and 150 of the Union soldiers. We fraternized, shook hands, chatted, had a grand, good re-union and were fed to the full at a grand banquet with our daughters of the Union and Confederacy; and to my mind it was the beginning,—a new beginning of 1913. They had a similar reunion on the battlefield of Gettysburg. There they greeted each other as one brother, showed their patriotism and were emphatic in saying, "We are glad that it turned out as it did." I found them in Franklin, Tennessee, of the same opinion, men there from 68 to 90 years of age, all reunited, shaking hands in regular pump-handle fashion, like the wagging of a dog's tail, for happiness and joy. (Laughter.)

I am glad to bring greetings to you. I left Boston about ten days ago on my way to the Northwest, and back to the Southwest, winding up in Florida about the first of March. I am glad to stop here; for I remember with great pleasure my stop here in 1909, when we were treated so nobly and loyally by the entire citizenship of Salt Lake City and the community surrounding. (Applause.) So I am glad to meet you again today, and am perfectly willing to turn over to you the making of laws and whatever may happen in this State relative to our nation. There is no nation like ours under the sun. There is no flag like ours. There was an endeavor made fifty years ago to disrupt this country and to tear this country apart, but it did not succeed. I am glad and you are glad and the South is glad, that it did not succeed. (Applause.)

We hope to see the flag flung in every portion of this country, as it is now here, and we would ask that every man, woman and child endeavor to keep this country what it has been and what it is now, the land of the free and the home of the brave. (Applause.)

President Ferry: It seems to me fitting, gentlemen of the legislature, as we gather here for the first time, that we have a few words from the Governor of our State, the Honorable Wm. Spry.

GOVERNOR WILLIAM SPRY.

Governor William Spry: It is particularly fitting, ladies and gentlemen, that to your first session in this new Capitol building you should have with you the Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. It is certainly very courteous on the part of General Palmer to be willing to be present at the christening. I am particularly pleased to see the loyal hearted welcome with which he is greeted by your distinguished body.

It is also a pleasure on the part of the Capitol Commission to be able to have pushed this work along as they have done in the past year and ten months, so as to enable you to convene here, as many of you now present did so much toward making it possible. It is now less than two years since ground was broken for this building. It has been the desire of the Capitol Commission to so conduct its work that it would be possible for you gentlemen to convene in this session and occupy this place.

I want to extend congratulations to you and to commend the work you did at your previous session toward making this building possible, because of the fact that throughout the entire State the people have been so liberal in the contribution of their means and have desired in their hearts to furnish you a home that you have required for so many years past; and so I can not help congratulating you and commending you and the people of the State for your kindness.

I think it would not be proper were I to pass over this matter without mentioning the very able work that has been done by such men as President Lund, John Dern, M. S. Browning and Col. Ed. Loose, whom I was pleased to call to my assistance, and in getting their advice and the benefit of their experience in the construction of this building. These gentlemen, with the late John Henry Smith, were appointed as citizen members of the Capitol Commission and personally, as Chairman of that Commission, I feel that I would not be doing these gentlemen justice were I not to say to you today that we are largely under obligations to each and every member for the splendid co-operation and assistance and counsel and advice and the contribution of their splendid business ability and judgment during the time we have convened as a Capitol Commission. It is largely due to their perseverance, fidelity and loyalty, General Palmer, that they have been willing to contribute of their time and talents, and also the contributions of their means,—that we are able to extend to you in this building our hearty welcome. I fell under obligations for this co-operation and splendid help.

I feel also so far as the State officers are concerned, thankful for the co-operation and assistance rendered to the Commission, for they have been generous and alive to the responsibilities which have been placed upon them. The former Secretary of State, Mr. Tingey, the present Secretary of State Mr. Mattson, the Attorney General Mr. Barnes, they have worked in season and out of season to make it possible for you to meet here and enjoy the fruits of their labors, and we take great pleasure in turning it over to you, and say it is yours for the good of the State, and I hope you will enjoy it the remainder of your session. (Applause.)

President Ferry: Gentlemen, it will be a pleasure and privilege for us, I am sure, to have President Anthon H. Lund speak to us for a few moments, he being a member of the Capitol Commission, and I take great pleasure in introducing him.

PREST. ANTHON H. LUND.

President Anthon H. Lund: Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen: I feel proud to have been a member of the Capitol Commission and in having had a share in the counsels, considerations and plans as to what kind of a building we should build here. We hope you will be pleased with it. The magnitude of it is something of which I am very proud. When you come into it, you do not feel that you are crowded. We have plenty of room for you members of the legislature and ample committee rooms for all needs, so you will not be crowded or cramped. I am glad to have been associated with the members of the Commission. The Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State, and all have been workers in the great labors performed.

It is nearly thirty years since I first had the pleasure of being a law maker in the Utah legislature. We were not then so blest as you are. But the laws we passed were very beneficial laws. This room is beautiful and the Senate Chamber is almost a dream. They are so chaste and beautiful that when you gentlemen meet here you will, I am sure, feel the importance and sacredness of your work.

I am pleased that we have here the Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, one who has done so much for his country. We honor him and them for what they have done in the past for the salvation of the country.

You gentlemen of the legislature are blessed to have so important a work intrusted to your care. It will endure after you and I are gone. I am sure you will give serious attention to your work, that you may be wise, conservative, fearless and successful in your labors. I am pleased to see this Capitol building turned over to you; we are sorry we did not get it completed sooner, but we have had many difficulties to overcome. Hence the House is not as far along as we should have liked it. I hope that the means at your disposal will be generously appropriated in sufficient amount to make the surroundings of this beautiful building harmonious and suitable.

President Ferry: Gentlemen, before adjournment, I think I express to General Palmer the feelings of every legislator here when I say we feel honored in having him meet with us for a few brief moments, not only so distinguished a man himself, but also a man who represents so much as he represents. The joint session now stands adjourned. (Applause.)

(Note.—The foregoing stenographic report was kindly furnished by Mr. John M. Whitaker of Salt Lake City.)

ing upon public questions and affecting generally the interest of the people; to supply such information to individuals, associations and public officials and departments of the State, by such means as may be found necessary and advisable; and making appropriations to defray the expenses of such extension work," beg leave to report that they have considered the same and recommend the following amendments:

Page 3, line 13, strike out the figures "$2000.00" and insert the figures "$1000.00."

Page 3, line 14, after the figures "1916" strike out balance of line, all lines 15 and 16.

With these amendments we recommend that the bill be passed.

Respectfully,
JOSEPH ECKERSLEY,
Chairman.

Report adopted and S. B. No. 147, as amended, was read the second time and placed on the calendar for third reading.

SENATE COMMITTEE ROOM,
Salt Lake City, Utah, February 16, 1915.

Mr. President:

Your Committee on Education, to whom was referred S. B. No. 145, by Mr. Eckersley, entitled "An Act creating an Educational Code Commission, defining its duties and providing for its necessary expenses," beg leave to report that they have considered the same and recommend its passage.

Respectfully,
JOSEPH ECKERSLEY,
Chairman.

Report adopted and S. B. No. 145 was read second time and placed on the calendar for third reading.

SENATE COMMITTEE ROOM,
Salt Lake City, Utah, February 15, 1915.

Mr. President:

Your Committee on Private Corporations and Insurance, to whom was referred S. B. No. 72, by Mr. Hansen, entitled "An Act providing for the organization and regulation of county and district insurance companies to insure against loss by fire and lightning," beg leave to report that we have considered the same, and recommend that the same do not pass.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLARD S. HANSEN,
Chairman.

Report adopted.

SENATE COMMITTEE ROOM,
Salt Lake City, Utah, February 16, 1915.

Mr. President:

Your Committee on County and Municipal Corporations, to whom was referred S. B. No. 9, by Mr. Ferry, entitled "An Act amending Section 313x1 of the Compiled Laws of Utah, 1907, relating to contract to the lowest bidder," beg leave to report that they have considered the same and recommend the following amendment:

"Providing, however, that when any public or special improvements are proposed to be made by any city or town, to pay for which abutting property may be taxed or assessed, and the same involves an expenditure of less than $2000.00 as estimated by the engineer of the city or town, publication of notice calling for bids may, by resolution or order, be dispensed with, and the time for the presentation of bids reduced from twenty days to not less than five days, in which case notice calling for the presentation of bids shall be posted in three conspicuous places in such city or town for at least five days before the date set in the notice for opening bids. Provided, further, that the Board of Commission, City Council, or Board of Trustees, shall have the right to reject any or all bids and all notices calling for bids, shall so state."

With this amendment we recommend that the bill be passed.

Respectfully,
D. O. RIDEOUT,
Chairman.

Report adopted and S. B. No. 9 was read second time and placed on the calendar for third reading.

JOINT COMMITTEE ROOM,
Salt Lake City, Utah, February 16, 1915.

To the Honorable President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives:

Your Joint Committee on Appropriations and Claims, to whom was referred H. B. No. 71, by Mr. Lund, entitled "An Act to provide for the grading, leveling and beautifying the grounds of the State Capitol and making an appropriation of One Hundred Thousand Dollars," beg leave to report that they have considered the same and recommend that the bill be not passed for the following reasons:

That at the present time it is impracticable to do the work or any portion of the same. The grounds proposed to be improved are occupied with the railroad tracks and materials of the contractors. And for the further reason that neither the building nor the grounds up to the present time have been turned over to the Capitol Commission.

Respectfully submitted,
C. COTTRELL JR.,
Chairman Joint Committee.
WILFORD DAY,
Vice Chairman Joint Committee.

On motion of Mr. Dern the consideration of the report was laid over until tomorrow.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
Salt Lake City, Utah, February 17, 1915.

To the Senate:

I return herewith, without my approval, S. B. No. 2, by Mr. Eckersley, entitled "An Act to amend Section 1870x, Compiled Laws of Utah, 1907, as amended by Chapter 8, Laws of Utah, 1909; Chapter 5, Laws of Utah, 1911, and Chapter 11, Laws of Utah, 1913, relating to state aid for public schools where the revenues are insufficient."

In my recent message to the Legislature I called attention to the practice of drawing upon the general fund, contrary to the provisions of the Constitution, to enable certain school districts to maintain schools during a school year of twenty-eight weeks.

While I do not desire to see any school district lose its apportionment by reason of its inability to raise, by local taxation, an amount sufficient to maintain schools during the twenty-week period required by law, I see no reason why the general fund should be called upon to make up an amount sufficient to maintain such schools for a period of twenty-eight weeks.

This biennial provision for state aid to certain school districts began in 1905, when $6000.00 was appropriated from the general fund to make the amount available for the payment of school teachers aggregate $300.00 for the school year, or $42.85 per month. The bill under discussion carries an appropriation of $15,000.00 for the purpose of making available an amount sufficient to make the pay of teachers aggregate $525.00 per school year, or $75.00 per month. From best information I can obtain, female teachers in the Salt Lake City public schools for their third year of service receive $60.00 per month only. It will be readily seen that each legislative session is making heavier inroads on the general fund to meet a strictly school expense, and, in the interest of protecting this fund, I feel that it should not be called upon to meet this appropriation.

Aside from this, the appropriation seems to be clearly in violation of the provisions of Section 3 of Article 10 of the Constitution, which, after describing the school fund, specifies that "the interest of which only together with such other means as the Legislature may provide, shall be distributed among the several school districts according to the school population residing therein."

Provision should be made by the Legislature to supply the necessary funds for these school districts from the school fund of the state.

Yours respectfully,
WILLIAM SPRY,
Governor.

Communication filed and action thereon deferred until tomorrow.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

SECRETARY OF STATE'S OFFICE,
Salt Lake City, Utah, February 17, 1915.

To the President of the Senate:

I am pleased to inform your honorable body that a branch office of the Secretary of State has been established in Room No. 216 of the Capitol building. A reference library containing full sets of the Session and Compiled Laws since statehood, the legislative journals, the Supreme Court reports, the public documents and the departmental reports for the recent biennium, has been established in this office and is at the disposal of the legislators.

Mr. M. E. Kartchner, Jr., will have charge of the office and library, and Mr. J. L. May, Jr., a competent stenographer and experienced in legislative affairs, will be in attendance, and at the service of the Legislature. I trust that your members will feel free to call upon these gentlemen at any time, whether in search of reference matters or in need of stenographic service for either official or private use.

Very kindly yours,
DAVID MATTSON,
Secretary of State.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States:

Your memorialists, the Governor and Legislature of the State of Utah, respectfully represent that

WHEREAS, In the western states, known as the public land states, the losses of livestock and poultry due to the attacks of coyotes, wolves, wild cats, cougars and bears amount to not less than $15,000,000.00 annually; and,

WHEREAS, In these western public land states the state, county and stockmen do now and have for years paid large bounties and used other means to bring about the eradication of these carnivorous wild animals; and,

WHEREAS, In these western public land states, there is now withdrawn from settlement in some form or other approximately 225,000,000 acres of federal land, which land constitutes the principal breeding ground and refuge of these carnivorous wild animals and enables them to increase their numbers in spite of the efforts made by state, county and stockmen to exterminate them;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Legislature of the State of Utah does hereby most respectfully urge and request that Congress immediately appropriate the sum of $300,000.00 to be used by the United States Department of Agriculture for the destruction of coyotes, wolves, wild cats, cougars and bears in these western public land states in order that the meat supply of the nation may be increased and the proper development of the west encouraged.

Page four, line eight, strike out "and in" and insert "in."

Strike out all of lines 11 to 18, inclusive, on page four.

"2932. In all other cases the action must be tried in the county in which the defendants or some of them reside at the commencement of the action; or if none of the defendants reside in the State, the same may be tried in any county which the plaintiff may designate in his complaint; and if the defendant is about to depart from the State, such action may be tried in any county where either of the parties reside or service is had, subject, however, to the power of the court to change the place of trial as provided by law.

"2933. If the county in which the action is commenced is not the proper county for the trial thereof, the action may, notwithstanding, be tried therein unless the defendant, at the time he appears and answers or demurs, files an affidavit of merits and demands, in writing, that the trial be had in the proper county."

With these amendments we recommend that the bill be passed.

Respectfully yours,

L. B. WIGHT,
Chairman.

Report adopted and S. B. No. 23, as amended, was read second time and placed on the calendar for third reading.

PRESENTATION OF RESOLUTIONS.

S. J. R. No. 11, by Committee on Livestock:

"A resolution authorizing and empowering the Governor to appoint two persons, one to go to Denver, Colorado, and one to Carson City, Nevada, to work with the Legislatures of the above mentioned states, in an effort to secure a uniform law in relation to the assessment of transient stock.

"BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF UTAH:

"WHEREAS, the laws of Utah, Colorado and Nevada, relative to the assessment of transient stock grazing part of the year in one of the above mentioned states and part of the year in another, are not uniform and are inequitable; and

WHEREAS, it is desirable that a uniform law be enacted in all of the states mentioned relative to the assessment of transient stock, therefore be it

"RESOLVED, by the Senate, the House concurring, that the Governor is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint two persons, one of whom shall attend at the present session of the Legislature of the State of Colorado at Denver, and the other shall attend at the present session of the Legislature of the State of Nevada at Carson City, in an effort to secure the passage of uniform laws relative to the assessment of transient stock in Utah, Colorado and Nevada; and be it further

"RESOLVED, That the necessary expenses incurred by the persons who shall be appointed in making the trip to Denver and to Carson City shall be paid from any moneys in the general fund of the State not otherwise appropriated."

On motion of Mr. Thornley, the rules were suspended and S. J. R. No. 11 was read first, second and third times and placed on its final passage.

Mr. Craig moved to amend by having the persons so appointed bear the expense. The motion carried and the resolution was so amended.

PRESENTATION OF MEMORIAL.

S. J. M. No. 6, by Committee on State Affairs and Federal Relations:

"To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States:

"Your memorialists, the Governor and the Legislature of the State of Utah, respectfully submit for your consideration the following memorial:

"WHEREAS, There exists, and for many years has existed, in the County of Uintah, State of Utah, a military reservation known as Fort Duchesne, within and in connection with which the government owns valuable property consisting of houses, lands and water rights, and which reservation has been occupied and used as a military post for federal troops; and,

"WHEREAS, Your memorialiists are informed that the Government has or is about to abandon said military reservation and will no longer use or occupy the same for military purposes; and,

"WHEREAS, the said reservation is so situated as to be peculiarly adapted to the location of certain institutional schools which the State of Utah desires to establish:

,"NOW, THEREFORE, Be it Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Utah, the Governor concurring, that the Congress of the United States be and is hereby memorialized to enact legislation to the end that said Fort Duchesne Military Reservation, together with all its lands, buildings and water rights, and all property and rights of property connecting therewith, may be transferred and conveyed to the State of Utah, to be used by the State for the location and establishment of an intermediate penal institution to be known as the State Reformatory, or a State Institution for the Feeble Minded, or for both such institutions.

"And your memorialists will ever pray."

PRESENTATION OF RESOLUTION.

S. R. No. 6, by Mr. Dern:

"Whereas, four members of the faculty of the University of Utah have recently been given notice that they will be dismissed from the institution at the close of the present school year, and one other has been given notice that he will be demoted from his position as the head of the Department of English; and

"Whereas, no reasons for this action have been made known to the public, except that it was "for the good of the institution"; and

"Whereas, it is openly charged that these changes in the faculty were not due to lack of ability on the part of the professors discharged, and that the effect of their dismissal will be to stifle freedom of thought and freedom of speech in the University, and that its standing, good name and influence will consequently be injured; and

"Whereas, this is a matter of grave concern to all the people of the State of Utah, who are entitled to know whether the current rumors and assertions regarding the conduct of their University are true or false; therefore

"Be it resolved, that the president be and he is hereby authorized and instructed to appoint a committee of five members of the Senate, who shall have power to call and examine witnesses, and whose duty it shall be to investigate the reasons for the aforesaid

dismissals and demotion, the circumstances leading up to the same, and any other conditions in the University of Utah that in their opinion should be called to the attention of the Senate; said committee to proceed with its investigation forthwith, and to report to the Senate before the close of the present session.

Under the rules consideration of S R No 6 was deferred until tomorrow.

Mr. Rideout asked that consideration of S. J. R. No. 8 go over until Friday morning. Granted.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

Mr. Rideout asked for and was granted unanimous consent to introduce S. B. No. 245, as a substitute for S. B. No. 40, which was withdrawn.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

SENATE COMMITTEE ROOM,
Salt Lake City, Utah, March 4, 1915.

Mr. President:

Your Committee on Enrolling and Engrossing Bills, to whom was referred Senate Bill No. 50, by Mr. Wootton, entitled "An Act pertaining to the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, in the State of Utah," beg leave to report that they have had the same carefully enrolled and engrossed and transmit the same herewith for your signature.

Respectfully submitted,
ORLANDO BRADLEY,
Chairman.

JOHN W. THORNLEY.

Salt Lake City, Utah, March 5, 1915.

Mr. President:

The undersigned, as a member of your Committee on Engrossing and Enrolling Bills respectfully submits the following report relative to Senate Bill No. 50, that

Whereas your Engrossing Committee is entrusted with the duty of engrossing bills, and

Whereas this body, to the end that its bills may be properly engrossed, has employed and appointed an

Engrossing Clerk who is, under rule 16 of this body responsible to the President of the Senate for the proper engrossing and enrolling of bills, and

Whereas the undersigned has been reliably informed that Senate Bill No. 50 has been taken out of the custody of the Senate and its archives and has been placed in the hands of a person who is neither a member of this Senate or an employee thereof, nor an engrossing clerk of the Senate, and that by such person a copy of the bill has been prepared, which said copy is not an engrossed copy nor a copy made by authority of the rules of this body nor by any of its employees, but by some other person, although it does not appear that there is or has been any reason for any of the things hereinbefore recited;

Now therefore, the undersigned makes this report to the Senate of the State of Utah and recommends that an investigation be instituted for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the copy of Senate Bill No. 50 now presented to the Senate of the State of Utah is a true copy of said bill, as amended by the Senate and the House of Representatives of the State of Utah, and that it be ascertained what, if any, reason there be for entrusting the making of this copy of said bill for the signature of the President of the Senate to a person other than the Engrossing Clerk of the Senate and that it be ascertained from the Attorney General of the State of Utah whether or not the signature of the President of the Senate on such copy not engrossed in accordance with the rules and customs of the Senate will or will not invalidate Senate Bill No. 50 in case the same becomes a law.

WM. CRAIG,

Mr. Wootton moved the adoption of the report signed by Messrs. Bradley and Thornley. Carried.

Mr. Wight gave notice that he would move for a reconsideration of the action taken by the Senate in adopting the report on S. B. No. 50.

At 3:15 p. m., on motion of Mr. Colton, the Senate took a recess for 20 minutes.

On reconvening at 3:35 p. m a further recess was taken until 5 p. m.

In reconvening at 5 p. m. Mr. Colton moved a reconsideration of the vote by which H. B. No. 24 passed the Senate. The motion carried and H. B. No. 24 was restored to the calendar, to come up as a special order on Monday next at 2 p. m.

REPORTS OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

JOINT COMMITTEE ROOM,
Capitol Building,
Salt Lake City, March 10, 1915.

Mr. President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives:

A majority of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred the matters in dispute between the Senate and House in Senate Bills Nos. 176, 181 and 182, begs leave to report that a meeting was held between Representatives Goodwin and Shields of the House, and Senators Funk, Rideout and Hansen of the Senate, Committeeman Mabey of the House being absent.

After due consideration, Messrs. Rideout, Goodwin and Shields decided to retain in Senate Bill No. 176 the words "or for sale of products of any of the departments," which words had been stricken out by the Senate.

In Senate Bill No. 181, the majority of your Committee, to-wit, Senator Rideout and Representatives Goodwin and Shields, favor leaving in Senate Bill No. 181 the words "fees and" after the word "all" in line 5 of said bill, and to insert after the word "received" in said line the words inserted by the House, to-wit, "for sale of products and live stock."

In Senate Bill No. 182, your Committee unanimously favors the insertion on line 13, after the words "non-residents" the following, which had been inserted by the Senate, to-wit: "No partisan, political, or sectarian religious doctrine shall be taught or inculcated in the University, nor any political or religious test shall be required as a qualification of any student, professor, instructor, officer, or employee of the University of Utah."

The majority of your Committee, to-wit, Senator Rideout and Representatives Goodwin and Shields, favor retaining the words inserted by the House in line 15, after the words "fees," to-wit, "or other moneys received from any source whatsoever."

Respectfully,
GEO. F. GOODWIN.
DAN B. SHIELDS.
D. O. RIDEOUT.

JOINT COMMITTEE ROOM,
Capitol Building,
Salt Lake City, Utah, March 10, 1915.

Mr. President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives:

A minority of your Joint Committee appointed to confer on Senate Bills 176, 181 and 182, begs leave to report that after conferring together on Senate Bill No. 176, your minority report recommends that the words "or for sale of products of any of the departments," in lines 12 and 13, be stricken out.

In Senate Bill No. 181, the minority of your Committee recommends that the words "fees and," inserted by the House in line 5, after the word "all," and the words "for sale of products and live stock," after the word "received," inserted by the House, be stricken out.

In Senate Bill No. 182, the minority of your Committee recommends that the following words, inserted by the House, to-wit, " or other moneys received from any source whatsoever," be stricken out.

Respectfully,
JAMES W. FUNK.
W. S. HANSEN.

Mr. Funk moved that the minority report be substituted for the majority report on S. B. No. 176. Carried, and the minority report on S. B. No. 176 was adopted.

Rising to a question of personal privilege Mr. Cottrell spoke as follows:

Mr. President:

The time has now arrived when we must bring our labors to a close, and return to our respective homes, but before doing so I desire, on behalf of my fellow Senators, to express our love and appreciation of you as the President of this body. Your friends, and they are they who surround you here, cannot permit you to retire without a direct expression of their esteem and admiration. Under your able leadership our deliberations pertaining to the public weal have been satisfactory and pleasant. We desire to compliment you upon the ability displayed as President of this Senate, and to say that we regard your attitude toward all of us as fair and just, and your rulings have been made without fear or favor.

It is not in mortal to command success, but what is better they should endeavor to deserve it. You, Mr. President, have been successful because you have deserved it. We feel that you have conscientiously and worthily filled the requirements of your position, and while we congratulate you we also have occasion to congratulate ourselves in having chosen so clear minded and able a person to discharge the many difficult and onerous duties imposed upon you.

Mr. President, it is now my privilege and pleasure in behalf of the Senators of the Eleventh Session of the Legislature of the State of Utah to present to you this loving cup as a very slight token of their love and appreciation of so admirable an officer, so good a citizen and so perfect a gentleman.

And now, fellow Senators, permit me to say a word in appreciation of you. I am glad to have been privileged to associate with you, and appreciate the ties of friendship which have been formed. May we in returning to our homes, not forget the duties we owe to ourselves, to our beloved State and to a kind and beneficent Providence.

MR. FERRY:

I am almost overwhelmed at this evidence of appreciation and good fellowship. I can extend to you my sincerest appreciation, not so much for the beautiful gift as for the spirit that animates the givers.

We have been through some trying moments, some nerve racking times, when all of our sensibilities were raw. But I don't think that those moments have left any permanent impression on our personalities except perhaps to make us appreciate each other's sincerity and determination. I do not believe that there have been left any scars. I feel confident of it by reason of the very beautiful and whole-hearted manner in which this session is being brought to a close.

I cannot find words in which to express to you my feelings. When we part to-night or tomorrow, whenever it may be, we will never meet in these chambers again—all of us. I feel I have formed associations here which I hope I may continue throughout my life. I hope after the legislative session and we cease to meet as legislators, that we may meet as men and citizens of this State anxious all of us for the best interest of our community.

If the Wootton bill had not passed, there is no telling what I might do with this, but inasmuch as it has passed I will thank you again sincerely.

MR. FUNK:

I also have a pleasant duty to perform, Mr. Secretary. On behalf of the members I desire to express their appreciation of your valuable services as secretary of the Senate which is now nearing a close. During the sixty days we have associated together we have, because of your capacity, devotion to duty, and your uniform courtesy, all learned to love and respect you.

As a token of our esteem we desire you to accept the memento which we present to you in the form of this small cane, and in accepting it we want you to be sure that with it go our sincere wishes for your future welfare and happiness.

MR. BUCHANAN:

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Senate: I sincerely thank you for this token of appreciation and the sentiments that have been expressed.

SENATE COMMITTEE ROOM,
