

UTAH STATE SENATE

320 STATE CAPITOL - P.O. BOX 1451115
SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH 84114
801-538-1035 - SENATE.UTAH.GOV

The Utah Senate
invites applications for the position of:

GENERAL SESSION CULINARY SPECIALIST

PHYSICAL ADDRESS: Utah State Capitol, 350 N State Street, Suite 320, Salt Lake City, UT 84114

CLOSING DATE: Open until filled

JOB DESCRIPTION: The Utah Senate is seeking to fill a part-time flexible seasonal Culinary Specialist position. This is a nonpartisan position. This individual will serve during the Legislature's annual general session from January 21 to March 7. Hours will fluctuate depending on the Legislative schedule, but a typical day is approximately 7:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Business casual dress is required.

RESPONSIBILITIES: This position is a unique opportunity to participate in the legislative process behind the scenes by keeping Senators and Senate staff fueled up between meetings and floor sessions.

Some examples of daily responsibilities include:

- Keeping the kitchen areas clean, tidy, and well-stocked
- Assisting Senate event staff and caterers with set-up and clean-up of lunches
- Greeting Senators, Senate staff, and interns and keeping everyone well-fed
- Preparing quick snacks for busy people on the move (grab-and-go snacks and treats)
- Other duties as assigned

TYPICAL QUALIFICATIONS:

- A culinary background and food handlers permit are NOT required for this position
- Must be a clean, tidy, and organized individual that enjoys working with food and doing light cleaning
- Must be able to interact with individuals in a friendly, open, and professional way
- Punctuality, dependability, and nonpartisanship is a MUST for this position
- Must have a strong work ethic and integrity

SALARY: $20.00 (at least 4 hours of work each day is guaranteed)

BENEFITS: None

If interested, please email cover letter and resume to Phalin Flowers, Secretary of the Senate, pflowers@le.utah.gov.