

There may be additional costs at the local school district level to require local school boards to accept credited teaching experience (as delineated in this bill) in negotiating contracts of employment to teach in the State's public schools. In addition, districts may have to reprioritize spending allocations and amounts to accommodate the higher salary/compensation package requirements. These costs, which would be borne by the local school districts, are not possible to estimate. There is no direct impact to the State.

Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst