

AMENDED NOTE

There may be some minimal agency savings as the result of not having to print material in a foreign language. For example, the Department of Human Services estimated annual expenditures of $7,500 although they do not have a specific budget appropriated for the expenditure. However, in other agencies this generally has been occurring only upon demand, therefore quantification of those savings is not possible at this time.

Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst