This legislation will allow the Office of Recovery Service (ORS) to collect attorney fees and other expenses related to the collection of arrearages. All payments received will first be applied to ongoing support obligations and arrears, then to collection costs. Based on the status of current arrears cases, this legislation will generate an estimated increase in receipts (deposited to the General Fund) of $16,000 in FY 1999 and $21,000 in FY 2000. This should increase in future years.
