The cost of conducting certain investigations will increase for both State and local agencies. For example, cost for investigations in the Real Estate Division and Division of Securities will increase ($2,500 and $12,500 respectively). Additional cost will also be incurred by the Attorney General's Office in servicing the warrant requests from the State investigative agencies, but, the nature and extent of those costs cannot be estimated at this time. Similarly, the overall costs to courts and local jurisdictions cannot be estimated at this time.
