Bill Number HB0046

19-Jan-99

2:21 PM

This bill requires that youth under the age of 16 attend a premarital education course prior to gaining permission to marry. Additional judge or court commissioner hearings required under this bill will cost approximately $4,500 in General Funds each year.

Individual and Business Impact

There currently are not existing State programs for premarital education. Assuming such a program would become available because of this statute, the approximately 80 individuals each year would be responsible for any cost associated with taking such a course.
