

No fiscal impact.

Individual and Business Impact

Passage of this bill modifies the provisions relating to the protection of a family home against the demands of creditors. As such it would only mainly affect those individuals who have declared bankruptcy and those businesses who have claims against the individuals assets.

Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst