
Fiscal Note
Bill Number HB0088

08-Feb-99

7:58 AM

Enacting provisions of this bill is not expected to have a direct fiscal impact on agencies of the State. However, provisions of the bill are against regulations of the Federal Highway Administration and may jepordize Federal Highway Funds that the State recieves. If sanctions are applied against those funds as much as $130 million of Federal Highway Funds could be threatened.

Individual and Business Impact

Individuals and businesses income from signs could be affected if public entities use public facilities rather than renting from sign companies. It is unknown at this time how many such incidents would occur.
