
Fiscal NoteIndividual Income Tax Amendments15-Jan-04Bill Number HB002711:20 AM*

State Impact

Fiscal impact will depend on the level and complexity of the changes imposed by the federal government in any given year. In years where there are multiple changes administrative costs could be significant. However, when there are few changes to the federal tax code administrative costs would be negligible.

Individual and Business Impact

No significant fiscal impact.
