Assuming about 600 shelter and other removal hearings cases will now be contested and an additional 2,100 cases will be heard in a newly created review process, enactment of this bill could create total ongoing costs of about $2.75 million from the General Fund for the following agencies beginning in FY 2016: 1. Courts - $915,000 - for processing hearings and judge time; 2. Attorney General - $1,516,400 - for attorney representation and research; and 3. Guardian ad Litem (GAL) - $315,000 - for attorney representation.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
