State Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(b)

Enactment of this legislation could increase revenues to the new Children with Cancer Support Restricted Account in the amount of $12,500 annually beginning in October of FY16, from a $25 annual fee for special group license plates from approximately 500 Utah residents. If license plate production start-up costs are covered by an appropriation or private donation, dedicated credits and corresponding expenditures for the Tax Commission could be $7,400.

Revenues	FY 2015	FY 2016	FY 2017
Restricted Funds	$0	$9,400	$12,500
Total Revenues	$0	$9,400	$12,500

Enactment of this legislation could cost the Department of Health $12,500 annually beginning in October of FY16 from the Children with Cancer Support Restricted Account, in the form of pass-throughs to non-profit hospitals that apply and are awarded grants. Expenditures from this account are contingent on the amount of revenue collected into the account. If license plate production start-up costs are covered by an appropriation or private donation, dedicated credits and corresponding expenditures for the Tax Commission could be $7,400.

Expenditures	FY 2015	FY 2016	FY 2017

Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation could support the availability of additional funds for certain non-profit hospitals. Approximately 500 individuals choosing to purchase these special group license plates would spend $25 annually at the time of registration, in addition to applicable license plate fees, for a total of $12,500 per year.

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
