State Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(b)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not materially impact state revenue.

Revenues	FY 2016	FY 2017	FY 2018
Total Revenues	$0	$0	$0

Enactment of this legislation could cost the Lieutenant Governor's Office approximately $8,000 in each election cycle beginning in FY 2017, or $4,000 annualized, for four staff members to keep the office open until midnight rather than 5:00 PM on five filing deadlines. The office could also experience costs of $3,200 in FY 2016 for the same staffing requirements for the two filing deadlines that remain before the close of the fiscal year.

Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Counties could realize revenue of $100 for each candidate that fails to timely file a financial statement, which could amount to a few individuals total per election cycle.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

County office and local school board office candidates who do not timely file a financial statement before a filing deadline could face a fine of $100. This could affect a few individuals per election cycle. Certain state election office employees could earn additional pay for work between 5:00 PM and midnight on financial statement filing deadlines.

Performance Note

JR4-2-404

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
