Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this bill requires county clerks to evaluate candidates' financial statements for any personal use expenditures from campaign funds. Annually, this may cost all counties approximately $3,000 total, the actual amount may vary based on the number of candidates and the time to review each financial statement. Additionally, the bill allows county clerks to issue an order requiring a candidate to remit a payment to the county if a personal use expenditure is identified, in an amount equality to 50 percent of the personal use expenditure. To the extent that a penalty is issued, a county's General Fund revenue may increase.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable expenditures by Utah residents or businesses.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
