State Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(b)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not materially impact state revenue.

Revenues	FY 2016	FY 2017	FY 2018
Total Revenues	$0	$0	$0

Enactment of this legislation could cost the Legislature $15,700 from the General Fund approximately once every ten years beginning in FY 2021, for per diem and expense reimbursement to the nine members of the Advisory Redistricting Commission, assuming they hold ten public meetings around the State and meet ten other times. Additional staff costs are possible if the commission is authorized to hire staff beyond the technical support to be provided by the Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
