Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Assuming 75 percent of voters reside in vote-by-mail only counties by the next election cycle, and four percent of returned absentee ballot signatures are deemed questionable, counties could collectively spend $18,400 per election cycle, or $9,200 annually, to notify those voters and provide the requisite affidavits to resolve the issue.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable expenditures by Utah residents or businesses.

Performance Note

JR4-2-404

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
