

Fiscal Note

H.B. 434

2016 General Session
Law Enforcement Officer Investigation
Amendments
by Ray, P.

General, Education, and Uniform School Funds

JR4-5-101

	Ongoing	One-time	Total
Net GF/EF/USF (rev.-exp.)	$(75,000)	$0	$(75,000)

State Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(b)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not materially impact state revenue.

Revenues	FY 2016	FY 2017	FY 2018
Total Revenues	$0	$0	$0

Enactment of this legislation could cost the Department of Public Safety $75,000 ongoing from the General Fund beginning in FY 2017 to pay for independent hearing officers for an average of 25 suspension or dismissal hearings annually.

Expenditures	FY 2016	FY 2017	FY 2018
General Fund	$0	$75,000	$75,000
Total Expenditures	$0	$75,000	$75,000

Net All Funds	$0	$(75,000)	$(75,000)
----------------------	------------	-------------------	-------------------

Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation could lead to costs for local law enforcement departments to pay for independent hearing officers in suspension or dismissal hearings.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable expenditures by Utah residents or businesses.

Performance Note

JR4-2-404

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.