Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation could increase the options for how local governments provide election notice information to voters. Depending on current practice and costs, some local governments could realize cost savings.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation could cause a decrease in revenue to newspapers in each election cycle, from local governments that are no longer required to provide election notice information through local newspapers.

Performance Note

JR4-2-404

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
