

Fiscal Note S.B. 62 2016 General Session JROTC Instructor Amendments by Dayton, M.

General, Education, and Uniform School Funds

JR4-5-101

	Ongoing	One-time	Total
Net GF/EF/USF (revexp.)	$0	$0	$0

State Government UCA 36-12-13(2)(b)

Enactment of this bill requires JROTC instructors to submit to background checks. The Department of Public Safety may see an increase in Dedicated Credits Revenue in FY 2017 of $2,000. The additional revenue will decrease in subsequent years based on the turnover rate of JROTC instructors. Assuming a ten percent turnover rate, the ongoing revenue generated would be $200. This revenue is passed-through to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Revenues	FY 2016	FY 2017	FY 2018
Dedicated Credits	$0	$2,000	$200
Total Revenues	$0	$2,000	$200

Enactment of this bill may result in a $2,000 increase in Dedicated Credits Revenue to the Department of Public Safety to process background checks on JROTC instructors. Assuming a turnover rate of ten percent, approximately $200 in Dedicated Credits Revenue will continue ongoing. The Department will pass-through this money to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Expenditures	FY 2016	FY 2017	FY 2018
Dedicated Credits	$0	$2,000	$200
Total Expenditures	$0	$2,000	$200
Net All Funds	$0	$0	$0

Local Government UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
