JR4-5-101

	Ongoing	One-time	Total
Net GF/EF/USF (revexp.)	$0	$0	$0

State Government UCA 36-12-13(2)(b)

Enactment of this bill allows the Division of Aeronautics to impose a fine of 10 percent of the registration fee for the first month and 5 percent of the registration fee for each subsequent month for an aircraft that is not properly registered in the State of Utah until the aircraft is properly registered. The amount of increased revenue will vary based on the number of violations, the length of each violation, and the year, make, and model of the aircraft. It is anticipated that new penalties assessed will amount to at least $80,000 annually.

Revenues	FY 2016	FY 2017	FY 2018
Restricted Funds	$0	$80,000	$80,000
Total Revenues	$0	$80,000	$80,000

Enactment of this bill requires the Division of Aeronautics to conduct compliance audits and inspections to enforce proper registration of aircrafts. The estimated cost for this new position is approximately $80,000 per year for a full-time, benefited employee, which would be paid from the Aeronautics Restricted Account.

Expenditures	FY 2016	FY 2017	FY 2018
Restricted Funds	$0	$80,000	$80,000
Total Expenditures	$0	$80,000	$80,000
Net All Funds	$0	$0	$0

Local Government UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Businesses or individuals that fail to register an aircraft in the State of Utah may pay a penalty of 10 percent of the registration fee for the first month and 5 percent of the registration fee for each subsequent month until the aircraft is properly registered. It is anticipated that new penalties assessed will amount to at least $80,000 annually. The amount will vary based on the year, make, and model of the aircraft and the amount of time it is out of compliance.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
