State Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(b)

Assuming that eight birthing centers decide to obtain a license due to enactment of this legislation then the General Fund may receive ongoing revenue of $1,600 beginning in FY 2017 and one-time revenue of $4,200 in FY 2016.

Revenues	FY 2016	FY 2017	FY 2018
General Fund	$0	$1,600	$1,600
General Fund, One-Time	$4,200	$0	$0
Total Revenues	$4,200	$1,600	$1,600

This bill may result in about eight birthing centers opting to seek a license from the State for a one-time General Fund cost of $6,800 in FY 2016 and ongoing costs from the General Fund beginning in FY 2017 of $2,900 for personnel time to perform licensing inspections.

Expenditures	FY 2016	FY 2017	FY 2018

Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation may result in about eight birthing centers paying $520 each in FY 2016 to become licensed and then about three birthing centers annually beginning in FY 2017 paying $520 every two years to maintain their licenses. Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable expenditures by Utah residents.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
