Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

To the extent that local law enforcement agencies currently keep proceeds from the sale of certain firearms, enactment of this bill could result in a loss of revenue for them, however the amount is unknown.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Under this bill, the selected contractor and public interests defined in the bill could benefit from sale proceeds of certain firearms from those who purchase them.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
