State Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(b)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not materially impact state revenue.

Revenues	FY 2017	FY 2018	FY 2019
Total Revenues	$0	$0	$0

Enactment of this legislation could cost the Department of Administrative Services $8,000 one-time from the General Fund for eRules programming, and the Governor's Office of Management and Budget (GOMB) $150,000 ongoing from the General Fund beginning in FY 2018 for an additional economist. It is anticipated that GOMB will centrally conduct the research and analysis required by this legislation for all other rule-making executive branch agencies.

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
