Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation may increase business license revenue to local government by $2,100 annually statewide. Cost impacts will vary by local government and the degree to which they do not already regulate trampoline gyms.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation may cost trampoline gym operators $150 each annually in business license fees. Assuming 14 trampoline gyms, the total statewide cost per year would be about $2,100.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
