Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation may increase business license revenue to local government by $2,100 annually statewide. Cost impacts will vary by local government and the degree to which they do not already regulate trampoline parks.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation may cost trampoline park operators $150 each annually in business license fees. Assuming 14 trampoline parks, the total statewide cost per year would be about $2,100. This bill may also increase costs for trampoline park operators to comply with minimum insurance requirements identified in the bill to the extent they are not already in compliance.

Performance Note

JR4-2-404

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
