State Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(b)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not materially impact state revenue. To the extent offenses occur as described in the bill, each instance may generate about $500 in General Fund revenue and an additional $500 to various restricted accounts.

| Revenues       | FY 2017 | FY 2018 | FY 2019 |
|----------------|---------|---------|---------|
| Total Revenues | $0     | $0     | $0     |

Enactment of this legislation likely will not materially impact state expenditures. To the extent there are instances of offense described in the bill, this could cost the Courts about $400 from the General Fund/case to process.

| Expenditures       | FY 2017 | FY 2018 | FY 2019 |
|--------------------|---------|---------|---------|
| Total Expenditures | $0     | $0     | $0     |

Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments. To the extent that offenders stay in county jails as a result of the bill, this could cost about $65/day for each offender for incarceration costs.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable expenditures by Utah residents or businesses. Offenders would pay about $1,000 on average for each case.

Performance Note

JR4-2-404

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
