Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this bill would have no impact on overall revenue from Local Option Sales and Use Taxes. However, it could impact distribution of the revenue as it would allow a portion of revenue collected that would have gone to a public transit district or an eligible political subdivision to be transmitted instead to a county, city, or town to fund public transit fixed guideway safety oversight.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable expenditures by Utah residents or businesses.

Performance Note

JR4-2-404

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
